ANOTHER RACE FOR YACHT CUP NEEDED

Allied Bolshevik Peace Meeting in London Discussed

Soviet Accepts Proposal For Conference With Representatives of Powers Opposing Bolsheviks; Lloyd George and Millerand to Meet To-morrow.

London, July 26.—Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons to-day confirmed reports that the Russian Soviet Government had sent the British Government a note accepting Great Britain's proposal for a peace conference in London between the Soviet and the powers engaged in hostile action against the Soviet or supporting such action.

Mr. Lloyd George said the Soviet also had suggested that representatives of the leading powers attend the conference.

The Prime Minister added that Great Britain was conferring with her allies on the subject.

Mr. Lloyd George said: "I am very hopeful of peace and that is what the world wants."

He also stated that since the Russian Government had agreed to the Polish armistice, Great Britain had withdrawn her objections to the Soviet delegation proceeding to London.

At Boulogne. London, July 26.—(Associated Press)—Premier Lloyd George will meet Premier Millerand of France in Boulogne to-morrow (Tuesday) to discuss the Russian proposal that the Allies hold a conference with the Russian Soviet Government.

Mr. Lloyd George will return to London Tuesday night.

Want Wrangle. London, July 26.—The Russian Soviet Government has notified Great Britain that it is willing to meet the leading Allies for a peace conference in London, but as a preliminary to such a conference it demands the surrender of General Wrangle, the anti-Bolshevik commander, under a guarantee of personal safety, according to The Daily Mail.

In the note conveying this decision, says the newspaper, the Soviet informs Great Britain of its willingness to agree to an armistice in Poland, and expresses its astonishment at Great Britain's action in interrupting the discussion of trade relations with Russia.

France. Paris, July 26.—As viewed here the Soviet Government has seized the Allied demand for an armistice with Poland as a pretext for a return of the original Soviet campaign for official recognition of the Moscow Government, and political observers in Paris regard the manoeuvre as a skillful one which has placed some of the Allies, particularly France, in a delicate position.

France has not ceased to consider the Soviet Government as an irregular one, not supported by the free will of the people.

It is pointed out that Premier Lloyd George spoke for all the Allies, however, when he communicated with the Soviet authorities, demanding that they stop the forward movement on the Polish frontier.

Thus it is admitted for the first time in political circles here that France may be forced into a position where she will be brought to recognize the Soviet, but it is declared she will do so only after due guarantees are given that the Russian foreign debt will be paid.

United States. Washington, July 26.—(Associated Press)—Participation by the United States in any conference of representatives of Russia and the Allied Governments looking to a restoration of peace between Poland and the Soviet Government was regarded here to-day as improbable, but in the absence of the scantiest of official information, most officials declined to discuss the matter.

PRECEDENT FOR THE FIRE CHIEF

Toronto Reception Committee Chose Clergymen to Officiate at Convention

Toronto, July 26.—(Canadian Press)—That the opening invocation at the first session of the annual convention of the International Fire Chiefs' Association here to-day was pronounced by Rev. Canon Cody of the Anglican Church, assisted by Rev. Byron Sautter, Congregationalist, is a feature of more than usual significance, it marked the acceptance of a precedent for the future conferences of the fire fighters—a precedent that gives the right to the reception committee of the convention city to choose the president's spiritual adviser, so to speak, in spite of the fact that the president of the Association may desire another clergyman for the religious ceremonies.

Chief John Kenyon, of New York, some time ago arranged through the Roman Catholic Archbishop of New York that Archbishop McNeill, of Toronto, should make the invocation this morning. Chief William Russell, of Toronto, chairman of the Canadian reception committee, understood that this was his prerogative and chose the clergyman above mentioned.

British Cabinet Means Irish Bill Shall Pass

London, July 26.—The British Government has no intention of withdrawing the bill for home rule for Ireland, Premier Lloyd George stated in the House of Commons to-day. It would press the measure forward with all possible speed when the House re-assembled after the holiday recess, he added.

Reports that the Government was opening negotiations with representatives of the Sinn Fein for the purpose of reaching a compromise as to the future of Ireland were set at rest by the Prime Minister. He was asked by Lord Robert Cecil as to whether the Government was opening negotiations or pour parlers with any section of Ireland and answered in the negative.

LORD BYNG NOW MENTIONED AS NEW GOVERNOR-GENERAL

London, July 26.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Unofficially, but on good authority, the Canadian Associated Press learns that General Lord Byng's appointment as Governor-General of Canada, to succeed the Duke of Devonshire, is extremely likely.

Peace Conference Is to Start Same Day at Baranovitchi

London, July 26.—The Peace Conference between the Russians and Poles will begin at Baranovitchi, eighty-five miles southwest of Minsk, on July 30, and the armistice will start the same day, the Associated Press learned to-day.

Vienna, July 26.—It is reported in apparently reliable quarters here that the first stipulation the Bolsheviks will require of the Poles before entering into peace negotiations will be that the Poles disarm completely so that the negotiations may not be used to gain time or to wait the arrival of French or British reinforcements.

DROUGHT CAUSES LOSS OF MUCH WHEAT IN SASKATCHEWAN

Regina, July 26.—Despite the bountiful rains of last week, the farmers of this province have incurred very heavy losses in wheat as a result of the scorching heat and drought of the preceding ten days or couple of weeks, according to the Hon. George Langley, who estimates the decrease in yield from this cause as between 50,000,000 and 75,000,000 bushels.

Express Companies Want Their Rates Increased

Montreal, July 26.—A rate increase amounting to not less than forty per cent. of tolls at present in effect has been asked for in an application forwarded to the Board of Railway Commissioners by the Express Traffic Association on behalf of the American Express Company, the Central Canada Express Company and the Dominion Express Company.

It is claimed that the tolls as increased a year ago are insufficient to meet actual operating expenses.

ITALIAN DESTROYER SUNK IN BLACK SEA; NINETEEN PERISHED

Constantinople, July 24.—Via London, July 26.—(Associated Press)—Eighteen seamen and one officer, Dr. Barti, lost their lives with the destruction of the new Italian destroyer Alberto Carlo Racihi, which struck a mine to-day in the Black Sea near the entrance to the Bosphorus.

HIGHER PRICE FOR WHEAT NEXT WINTER IS PREDICTED NOW

Ottawa, July 26.—Official advice received here indicate that the wheat requirements of France this fall will approximate at least 35,000,000 bushels. The demand in other countries, apart from Great Britain, also will be considerable, and prices are expected to reach a higher level than last year, when the chief purchasers abroad were the Allied Governments.

DESPERADO FLEES UP ISLAND; BATTLES WITH REVOLVER

Saanich Police Make Find of Clothing of Stoddart's As-sailant in Bush

Convict Van Horst Suspected; Isolated Communities Are Alarmed

Nanaimo, July 26.—Following a midnight revolver battle between the police and a desperado, thought to be George Van Horst, the escaped convict from the New Westminster Penitentiary, the whole country-side from Nanaimo and Wellington North is fearing attacks similar to that perpetrated on S. A. Stoddart, the aged jeweler in his store in Victoria Friday afternoon.

The man escaped Northwards early this morning in the dark after his pistol battle with Constable Prowse, of the Nanaimo force. The whole police force of the Nanaimo and Wellington districts are out hunting for him. Farmers and settlers throughout the whole country have been warned, and are also out in bands with their rifles trying to hunt down the fugitive. Families in isolated farms and settlements are barricading their homes to-night preparing for an attack from this convict.

It is feared that unless he is captured before dark there will be another attack as he has become desperate and does not care what he does now that he knows that the police are close on his trail.

The desperado was wearing a blue coat, khaki pants and white shoes when last seen. This is the description of the clothing missing from Tolmie school, and apparently traced to Mr. Stoddart's assistant.

At Shawnigan Lake. It became known this afternoon that this man visited Shawnigan Lake district on Sunday. He bought a pair of shoes at the Point Ellice district is filled with campers, and families of women and children without protection.

At Shawnigan Lake. The man was seen on the Occidental Hotel near the station. He bought some soda water, and some biscuits, and went to his room.

Persons in the lobby of the hotel who had been joined by a few who had been around the station, thought that there was something strange about the man. The description of the man was identical with that of the elderly Victoria jeweler on Friday was recalled.

Down Fire Escape. The Nanaimo police were notified and an attack was planned on his room.

When they got to the room, however, and demanded entrance, the man escaped down the fire escape and disappeared in the dark up the railway line.

ADRIANOPIE IN HANDS OF GREEKS

Passed From Turkish Control Last Evening, Says Official Statement

Athens, Greece, July 25.—Via London, July 26.—(Associated Press)—AdrianoPie, a ten-year-old girl, with a fatal wound, Bloodhounds used in the evening according to an official statement issued to-night.

King Alexander intends to enter AdrianoPie Monday, the statement says. The Greek Rodosty forces, according to Saturday's official statement on the situation in Thrace, advanced and after dispossessing the enemy easily occupied Lule-Burgaz, thirty-five miles southeast of AdrianoPie and Cherepolsi.

Adana. Constantinople, July 26.—Associated Press.—Since July 4, Adana in the Southeast part of Asia Minor, has been in a state of siege. The French have brought tanks into play and hang many agitators publicly in an effort to restore order. Railway communication has now been restored between Adana and Mersina, about forty miles southeast of Adana.

There are rumors in Constantinople that the Turks are discussing a big movement against Adana.

Montreal, July 26.—The bodies of two unknown men were found in the bush near Temiskaming, Que., Saturday morning, riddled with revolver bullets. A deck of cards was found around the bodies, the clothes of which were badly torn, indicating that a violent fight had taken place over a game of cards.

Minister Sees Island From New Railway Line

The Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways, on his arrival from Ottawa yesterday made the first official inspection of the Canadian Northern Railway line up Vancouver Island.

The party went out on a special train shortly before noon Sunday and returned at 5 o'clock. They went up to mile 60, not quite to the end of the steel. They were thrilled at the enormously high trestle bridge over the Koksilah River. This trestle is built of wood and on a curve. It is 700 feet long and 140 feet high. The party learned that 700,000 feet of timber were used in its construction.

Paris, July 26.—(Havas)—The health of Premier Lloyd George is causing serious uneasiness, according to a London dispatch to-day. The British Prime Minister's physicians are said to have ordered an immediate absolute rest for him.

REID AND HANNA ARE PLEASUED WITH PLANS

Make No Statement When Terminals Will Be Commenced, However

Although the subject was discussed in its general sense with the Premier this morning, both the Federal Minister of Railways and the President of the Canadian National system were agreed that it would be imprudent to make any statement in connection with the construction of the railway terminals on the former Songhees Reserve, until an opportunity had been afforded them to discuss the numerous interdependent details with the various public bodies of the city.

While with the Premier this morning, however, the plans of the proposed yards and the general layout for the terminals buildings were examined in detail and both Dr. Reid and Mr. Hanna expressed themselves as quite satisfied with what they saw.

Definite assurance was given to the Premier by the visiting officials that the company would proceed with the survey of the balance of the land which will be required for terminal purposes south of the Point Ellice bridge. The transference of the property of the Province to the railway company also will be completed without delay in order that no outstanding detail will prevent a prompt commencement upon the construction of the terminals when a decision is reached on every cramping of the local branch of the national system to that extent.

The important features to be discussed by Dr. Reid and Mr. Hanna in connection with terminal facilities is that of the best means of connecting the proposed depot with the Outer Docks. And this question will be discussed from all angles at the conference between the railway party and the officials of the Board of Trade this afternoon.

Accompanying the Minister and the company's President to the Premier's office this morning were A. J. Mitchell, vice-president of the C. N. R.; T. H. White, D. O. Lewis and A. J. Proctor.

BLOODHOUNDS FAIL TO FIND FUGITIVE

Man Alleged to Have Killed Child on Island in Washington

Seattle, July 26.—All deputy sheriffs trailing James Sphyrdis, who is alleged to have killed Mary Jane Pappas, a ten-year-old girl, with a pitchfork on Mercer Island late Saturday afternoon, were withdrawn from the hunt to-day until a further clue to his whereabouts is received. No trace has been discovered since he is alleged to have thrown a pitchfork at the little girl, one time of which lodged in her neck, inflicting a fatal wound. Bloodhounds used in the pursuit were unable to pick up his trail, and have been returned to their kennels.

LIPTON PLANS TO CHALLENGE AGAIN IF CUP NOT LIFTED

Aboard Yacht Victoria off Sandy Hook, July 26.—(Wireless to the Associated Press)—Sir Thomas Lipton stated to-day that if he should fail this year to capture the America's Cup he would challenge again next year for 1922 with a new boat.

Shortly after noon, the Regatta Committee signalled the following course for the fifth and final cup race: a fifteen-mile run from the Ambrose Channel Lightship, south by west half west, with a fifteen-mile beat back to the Lightship.

Toronto, July 26.—A new method of treating cancer of the throat and tongue by means of radium emanations has been discovered by Dr. Regaud, director of the Radio-Therapeutic Department of the Pasteur Institute, says a special cable from Paris to The Mail and Empire.

Before the National Congress of Surgeons Dr. Regaud supplied a few of the details of the process, saying that systematic application of radium to the growths disappeared entirely, leaving the patient in normal health.

Treaty With Turkey Is To Be Signed at Sevres

Paris, July 26.—Sevres, four miles northeast of Versailles, was chosen for the signing of the Turkish peace treaty after a long search for a place which would give the treaty a sufficiently dignified and historical name, there being already treaties named Versailles, St. Germain, Paris, Grand Trianon and Fontainebleau.

London, July 26.—The Turkish delegates will not sign the peace treaty to-day owing to their inability to reach Paris in time. Under the Turkish constitution the Chamber of Deputies must ratify treaties. This is impossible under the present circumstances, as a majority of the Chamber is composed of Nationalists, many of whom are in Ankara.

Resolute Two Miles in Lead When Race for Cup Called Off

American Sloop Still Had Six Miles to Go to Turn Half-way Mark in Thirty-Mile Contest; She and Shamrock Must Race Again to Finish the Series.

Sandy Hook, N.J., July 26.—With the American sloop Resolute two miles in the lead, the fifth international yacht race was declared off at 5 o'clock to-day because a dying wind made it impossible for the Resolute and Sir Thomas Lipton's sloop Shamrock IV, to finish within the time limit.

Resolute was six miles from the outer mark on the first fifteen-mile leg of to-day's thirty-mile windward and leeward course, having covered only nine miles when the Regatta Committee called off the race that was to decide whether the America's Cup is to leave its home in the United States for one in the British Isles.

LIPTON PLANS TO CHALLENGE AGAIN IF CUP NOT LIFTED

Aboard Yacht Victoria off Sandy Hook, July 26.—(Wireless to the Associated Press)—Sir Thomas Lipton stated to-day that if he should fail this year to capture the America's Cup he would challenge again next year for 1922 with a new boat.

Shortly after noon, the Regatta Committee signalled the following course for the fifth and final cup race: a fifteen-mile run from the Ambrose Channel Lightship, south by west half west, with a fifteen-mile beat back to the Lightship.

Starting on the first fifteen-mile leg of her thirty-mile course, a run south by west half west, out to sea, Shamrock passed over the starting line at the Ambrose Channel Lightship at 12:30.20 p.m. official time and her rival followed at 12:31.25, after the starting signal had been sounded at 12:30.

It seemed a day just suited for Shamrock. Resolute, the Regatta Committee announced, would receive her usual time allowance of six minutes and forty seconds. Indications pointed to a long, slow race in light airs.

Just after 12:45 the American sloop broke out big reaching jibs and set their spinnaker booms to starboard. Shamrock hauled on her wind and headed to the westward in an effort to get by Resolute, which was to weather and killing the challenger's wind. Resolute, however, clung close to Shamrock, which lost ground by the manoeuvres.

The contest for positions continued and the skippers got off their course. They seemed to maintain about an even sailing speed. At 12:45 the sloops were moving very slowly with Shamrock still ahead. She had failed, however, to gain on Resolute since the start. The yachts were nearly two miles to the westward of the course. Neither skipper cared to give way and held on the course in shore.

Dogged Efforts. The yachts still held their course inshore at 1:10. Shamrock trying to get closer, and Resolute doggedly trying to hold her advantage. The two courses flapped at times in the puffy breeze, and unless the wind strengthened, it was hard to see how the racers could finish within the six-hour time limit, especially as the long lifting match left them virtually as far from the outer mark as when they crossed the line.

DAILY PAPER IN KOREA SUSPENDED

Tokyo, July 26.—As bearing on the freedom of the press in Korea promised by the Japanese Government in that country, a Seoul dispatch to The Asahi says that the To-a-Nippo (The Far Eastern Daily News) has been subject to suspensions because of the publication of "anti-nationalistic articles," that is to say, anti-Japanese. The Asahi says the Governor-General thinks that the general attitude of the newspaper toward the administration is too "reprehensible" to be allowed to continue. The journal adds that there is a tendency among the Korean newspapers to give publicity to articles which the authorities think fit to suppress.

The promise of the new Government was to permit freedom of the press so long as it did not endanger law and order.

HIS IMAGINATION LED TO CONFESSION

Opinion of Mental Disease Specialists About A. Love's Murder Story

Toronto, July 26.—Arnell Love's startling confession that it was he, and not his father, Henry Love, who killed Mrs. Henry Love in Grey County, and for which murder his father was hanged seven years ago, has been investigated by the Ontario Attorney-General's Department and as a result of the investigation it is thought nothing further will be done in the matter. Arnell, who was about fourteen years old at the time of the murder, is an epileptic and in the opinion of specialists in mental diseases, he has imagined himself the murderer, though the circumstances do not bear him out in his remarkable story.

Love was in Toronto on Saturday and stuck to his confession and Rev. G. N. Sharpe, the evangelist to whom he unburdened himself at a revival meeting, on Saturday stated that he believed the confession genuine.

WISH TO CONTROL BAGUAN ISLAND

Philippine Officials Negotiating With Governor of British North Borneo

Manila, P. I. July 24.—The Philippine Government has renewed negotiations for control of the little island of Baguan, only thirty miles north-east of British North Borneo in the Sulu Sea. Baguan, although part of the Philippine group ceded by Spain to the United States in the treaty of Paris, has remained under the control of the British North Borneo Government, because of its proximity to that island.

Baguan, also known as Turtle Island on account of the great number of turtles there, is inhabited by Moors, who Philippine officials assert should be placed under the control of the Government of the Sulu Archipelago, which is the southernmost part of the Philippine group.

Sir Aymer Pearson, Governor of British North Borneo, has been visiting at Baguan, the summer capital of the Philippines, and officials of the insular Government hoped to complete the preliminary negotiations with him for taking control of Baguan, so that the matter might be presented to Washington for final adjustment in a short time.

The island of Baguan is said to be the clearing house for a ring which smuggles large quantities of opium into the islands of the Sulu archipelago, as well as into the island of Mindanao. Officials believe this opium traffic can be broken up when Baguan is brought under control of the Philippine Government.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL ON INDIAN RESERVE

R. Moncrieff Contracts to Erect Structure South of Stuart Lake

Vancouver, July 26.—Robert Moncrieff, contractor of Vancouver and Victoria, has been awarded the contract for construction of a new Industrial School for Indian boys and girls on the Sec-As-Bunkit Indian Reserve, on the south side of Stuart Lake and on the main-line of the Grand Trunk Pacific. The contract price is $174,500.

In addition to the main building the contract calls for the erection of a fine chapel and a laundry building, which will be about the end of the year, all the native children attending the Fort Fraser Indian School will be moved there along with their teachers, as it is much more centrally situated for the entire northern district.

While quiet prevailed yesterday, few could be found who would proclaim the disturbances to be completely over.

Shipyards.
Another cause, and that was considered to be undoubtedly the direct one, was the forcible ejection of Southern workers from the shipyards. The explanation of the northern workers for this action was that the Sinn Feiners boasted that when "the day arrives"—meaning the establishment of a republic—the northerners would be dealt with in a manner not to their liking.

The more candid, however, admitted that the northerners in the shipyards were determined to be rid of the southerners before the prospective slack times arrive, thus assuring more work for the northerners. The argument of the latter was that while they were fighting in France the southerners took their places in the shipyards and now it was time for them to go.

Services were held in St. Matthew's Chapel in Belfast, one of the storm centres, yesterday morning, under unusual circumstances. The church was surrounded by barbed wire entanglements, soldiers forming a guard for the worshippers.

The Engineers' Shipbuilding Federation, at a meeting in Belfast yesterday, adopted a resolution repudiating the "disgraceful disturbances" of the last week and calling upon the trades unionists to use every means to bring about a settled state of affairs.

Order Restored.
At Bangor and Lisburne, both within a ten-mile radius of Belfast, where many workers of Belfast reside, saloons and pawn brokers were the chief sufferers. The crowds attacked such places, indiscriminately. After considerable difficulty the police and military restored order without the use of firearms.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

$3,000,000 in Dividends
Mr. Justice Atbury made an order recently in the English courts confirming resolutions passed by the Mysore Gold Mining Company, Ltd., to alter the memorandum of association so as to permit the company to acquire oil properties. It was stated in court that the company had already paid $3,000,000 in dividends.

Petroleum Statistics for May
The United States Geological Survey reports statistics of crude petroleum production for May, stating that the daily average production of 1,189,000 barrels was slightly less in May than in April, but, as was explained last month, the large production credited to April was due to withdrawal from producers' stocks of a considerable amount of crude oil not heretofore credited to production. The daily average production for May exceeded the daily average for March by approximately 12,000 barrels. During May, Texas led in increased production, there being an advance in the daily average rate in the northern and central districts of more than 15,000 barrels. Increases were also recorded for Oklahoma and California. A slight increase in production in Kentucky and Tennessee and a decrease in the other Appalachian states advanced Kentucky and Tennessee over Pennsylvania and West Virginia. From January to May, inclusive, 1920, the United States produced 26,000,000 more barrels of petroleum than in the corresponding months of 1919.

Pipe line stocks continued to decrease, and, as in previous months, the main loss was recorded from California and the Gulf coast. The losses were in part counterbalanced, however, by a gain in stocks of mid-continent oil. There was also an increase of petroleum stocks in storage in the United States by importers.

Imports during May of 9,965,000 barrels are the largest on record for any one month, and from January to May, inclusive, amounted to more than 11,000,000 barrels excess of imports for the corresponding months of 1919.

The apparent consumption of crude petroleum during May amounted to 43,971,000 barrels, which was about 6,000,000 barrels more than for May, 1919.

Lake Iron Ore Shipments
The movement of Lake Superior iron ore by water in June and for the season up to July exceeded that of the corresponding period in 1919. June shipments from upper lake docks amounted to 9,233,566 gross tons, against 7,959,839 tons in June, 1919, an increase of 1,273,727 tons. The total for the month was 42,086 tons more than for July 1 last year. Duluth shipments this year have been considerably less than for July 1, 1919. On the other hand, Escanaba, Marquette, Ashland and Superior, particularly the last named, show gains. Bradstreet's Journal.

Crown Granted Claims.
Lists of Crown Granted Mineral Claims which have reverted to the Crown because of non-payment of taxes, and now are subject to lease under the terms of the "Patrol Act" have been forwarded to the gold commissioners and mining recorders throughout the Province. The Rossland Assessment District has provided something over 600 such certificates, all of which, as stated, may be leased after compliance with the statutory formalities, the particulars of which will be furnished on application to the assessor. The Slovan Assessment District, also, is well represented with about 300 such claims advertised for lease. Nelson has about 230, Fort Steele, about 90; Kettle River, 170 odd; and coming to Vancouver Island, it is found that Nanaimo has some 25 of these, presumably abandoned claims; Cowichan, 18; Comox, 33; and Alberni, 45.

Owen Sound, Ont.—"I suffered for ten years with female organic trouble, neuralgia and indigestion, and was weak and had such bad pains I could hardly walk or stand up at times. When I would sweep I would have to go and lie down. I could not sleep at night, and would wander around the house half the time. I tried everything but nothing did me any good, and the doctor I had told me he never expected me to be on my feet again or able to do a day's work. One day one of your little books was left at my door and my husband said I should try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I think there is no remedy like the Vegetable Compound for anyone who has my troubles, and have recommended it to my neighbors. Notes
Will Old Scouts please register with the Organizing Secretary, and state if they can help in any way, either now or in the near future in the Scout work? A work that they themselves have been helped by in so many ways lays upon all Old Scouts an obligation to pass on the good work to the growing generation, even if it means a great sacrifice of time. In this case all that is asked of them is to register and state what, if any, time they can give to the present Troops formed, and packs, and if they wish help in the formation of new Troops and Packs. There is room now for more Troops and Packs in the City if the right men will come forward, and volunteer their help.

TWO MEN WERE KILLED IN STORM

Thousands of Dollars' Damage Done to Niagara District Crops

St. Catharines, Ont., July 26.—The electric storm of Friday evening was the severest that has visited St. Catharines and vicinity since the tornado of 1902, and not until Saturday evening was there any telephone or telegraph service available in this city. The storm caused the deaths of two men—Edward Canavan, aged thirty-one, and Edward Wilkerson, aged sixty-nine, a lock-tender on the Welland Canal. Canavan was warning passably not to touch a dangling live electric wire, when he accidentally touched it himself and was electrocuted. Wilkerson was blown into the Welland Canal as he went to the edge to draw a pail of water. It is believed many thousands of dollars of damage has been done to the grain and vegetable crops in the Niagara district.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

Los Angeles, July 26.—A sharp earthquake shock woke Los Angeles at 4:13 this morning. Reports to the telephone and telegraph companies and to fire and police departments indicated it was felt chiefly in Los Angeles and a lesser degree at Inglewood and Redondo Beach, the former about twelve miles and the latter about twenty miles distant, both in a south-westerly direction. A few chimneys were knocked down, dishes broken and windows rattled.

LESS HOSIERY MADE IN JAPAN

Tokio, July 24.—The financial depression and the depreciation of cotton yarn have placed the hosiery manufacturers of Japan in a critical position. Production in nearly all centres has either ceased or been reduced owing to the market prices offered for the manufactured goods and the closing of the money market, which has cut the manufacturers off from their supply of funds. Scarcity of exchange funds and the sudden advance of exchange rates consequent upon the depreciation of silver quotations, have helped to kill the export trade. Where the fall of silver prices has seriously affected Asiatic countries, the export of hosiery from Japan has been very heavily interfered with, the buying power of the mercantile community coming to a standstill.

IN PILATE'S SEAT.

Jerusalem, July 26.—The office of Governor of Jerusalem, once occupied by Pontius Pilate, is now held by Colonel Ronald Storrs, a graduate of Cambridge University and son of the Dean of Rochester College, Eng. His task is one to test the administrative ability of any man. Jerusalem is a city of disunions, where, whatever may come of the future, for the moment Zionists and Arabs are passionately divided and to steer a just path between them and induce them to join him on that path is thankless work. It is to that task, however, that he chiefly devotes himself. Twice a week he has meetings of his favorite political society, where French, Italians, British, Americans, rabbis, Zionists leaders, commercial men of standing and others who are in any way prominent in the life of the city are brought together—and in the course of debate, led to see that they have in common a single citizenship. His motto as governor is "unity and friends." Colonel Storrs was one of the

THE FUEL PROBLEM.

If the railroad problem, with its obligation of more than a billion dollars, is Canada's first problem in magnitude, that of the fuel supply is a very close second. The difficulty connected with the fuel question of course is not one of fuel scarcity in its fundamental sense.

Canada consumes 34,800,000 tons of coal every year. Of this total 22,500,000 tons including 5,000,000 tons of anthracite coal, is imported from the United States.

The Hon. Frank Carvell and Mr. S. J. McLean, of the Dominion Railway Commission, recently returned from Washington, where they have been conferring with the Interstate Commerce Commission regarding the shipment of American coal to Canada for the approaching winter.

Efforts also are being made to utilize Canadian coal in Central Canada and the Governments of Ontario and Alberta have been in communication on the question. The Alberta authorities point out that any proposal for increased production in that Province to help supply the needs of the East will not be received with much enthusiasm if it is for temporary purposes only.

There is no doubt that the coal mines of Alberta and British Columbia could be made to play an important part in the solution of Central Canada's fuel problem, but whether they will do so or not is a matter largely for Central Canada to decide.

commences its duty it will have in its possession one of the most satisfactory and representative electoral rolls ever compiled in this Province. But it should be remembered that there are many eligibles who so far have failed to exercise their prerogative. They may do so only during the present week; after next Saturday it will be too late to qualify for the voting privilege when the prohibition plebiscite is submitted to the people during the late fall.

SOVIET PLAYS TRUMP CARD?

As a corollary to its consent to negotiate an armistice and peace with Poland the Russian Soviet Government has proposed a conference with the leading Allied powers to take place in London. But as a preliminary to such a conference the surrender of General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik commander in Southern Russia, under a guarantee of personal safety, is demanded by the Moscow authorities.

Considerable emphasis was laid upon the fact that a commercial undertaking between Great Britain and Soviet Russia would not involve political recognition in any particular. From France came a volume of hostile criticism of the Prime Minister's action in meeting the Bolshevik trade emissary under any guise. But Mr. Lloyd George was able to wear Premier Millerand from an altogether unwarranted arbitrary stand, with the result that French interests were represented at subsequent conversations between Gregory Krassin and the British Premier.

The Soviet Government has played its cards with consummate skill, and the Allies are now facing the consequences of their failure to dissuade Poland from her mad adventure in Russia.

ONCE BIT, TWICE SHY?

A London dispatch says officials at the Canadian High Commissioner's office object to the measure, now in the House of Commons, to extend the functions of the British Ministry of Food until 1922, on the ground that the bill would place the whole Canadian trade in food commodities under the Ministry.

There must be some good reason for the measure to which the Canadian officials have taken objection. Is it because the British authorities fear profligating by Canadian exporters if the control of the British Ministry of Food over the prices of Canadian food products imported into the United Kingdom were raised? Recalling what our bacon barons did to the British, as well as the home market, during the war, we can quite understand the phenomenon in which control was exercised over the prices of Canadian bacon while there was none over the prices of English and Irish bacon.

In the halcyon days when Great Britain was spending money with a lavish hand, little mercy was shown the British consumer by the overseas food exporters. Apparently, the British authorities are determined to take no chances on a revival of this experience. All things considered they cannot be blamed for putting the interests of their own people first.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Happily the British Government has succumbed to the wave of popular sentiment which frowned upon the suggestion that Captain Fryatt's ship, the Brussels, should be sold. It will remain the property of the nation in memory of her gallant master who was so foully done to death by the Germans.

Mr. Lloyd George said recently that to "write off" the punishment of the German war criminals would be a "gross dereliction of duty on the part of the Government." It's a high-sounding phrase; but does it mean anything?

In his reply to the congratulations of Free Churchmen on the attainment of his episcopal jubilee, the Bishop of Liverpool said he often dreamed of the day when all the churches of the Reformation would be made one. But if it came off would not some of the Bishops regard so beneficial a merger as something in the nature of a nightmare?

The two submarines which were purchased from Chili in 1914 and brought to this port are to be sold. Why not sell them back to Chili?

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

FAIR REPRESENTATION.

(Mantoba Free Press.) Election talk of sweeping the city was pretty much mere spouting. Under P. R. the sweeping is confined within certain limits.

BRITISH-BORN IN ARGENTINA.

(Daily Herald, London.) "Foreigners cannot in future be expelled from Argentina without trial, a bill having been passed to that effect." South America is evidently a long way behind western civilization.

THE YALE BY-ELECTION.

A report which appeared recently in some of the coast papers has, naturally enough, occasioned considerable comment. This statement was to the effect that Mr. F. B. Cossitt, president of the Vernon Board of Trade, would be in the field as the Liberal candidate for the Yale seat rendered vacant by the resignation of Hon. Martin Burrell, while the name of J. A. Mackenzie, editor of this paper, was mentioned as the probable standard-bearer for the Government.

While there seems some reason to believe that, in view of the fact that a general election must be held within a couple of years at the outside, a supporter of the administration might be returned by acclamation, no assurance of this can, of course be given. It is possible that a soldier's candidate may be placed in the field, in the opinion of those who heard of a farmer's candidate. In any case, action can hardly be long deferred, and we hope that some decision regarding a nominating convention will be reached without delay.

No Peace-Maker.

London, July 26.—Sir Horace Plunkett, writing to The Times on the subject of Labor's Irish conference with Premier Lloyd George, says that the British people must be reminded of two reasons why the Sinn Fein peace-maker asked for by the Prime Minister is "not on the bridge between the two extremes."

The first reason, says the writer, is that until recently anyone putting himself in the position of peacemaker between the government and the Sinn Fein would have been summarily jailed without charge or trial, and secondly, "because the Irish people have lost all faith in the promises of the British Government."

Three Killed. London, July 26.—A Dublin dispatch said that two constabulary stations in the Bear Haven district were raided yesterday and three officers killed.

At Newport, Tipperary, on Saturday night, a gang of men sheared the hair from a girl because she was keeping company with a policeman. Exasperated at the outrage, soldiers and police turned out and burned the houses of all the principal Sinn Feiners, causing them to fly for their lives.

Alarming Situation.

London, July 25.—Sir Horace Plunkett, founder of the Irish Dominion League, and leader of the moderate Irish Nationalist opinion, told a Newcastle audience yesterday that the situation in Ireland was more gravely alarming than it had been within his knowledge of sixty years.

A similar view has been reflected by the newspapers of both England and Ireland of all shades of politics. It found expression in all the speeches of Thursday's discussion in the House of Commons, even Sir Edward Carson declaring he had never known anything like the state of anarchy prevailing, and that "in three-quarters of Ireland, the British Government has been entirely beaten."

Sir Horace Plunkett, Chief Secretary for Ireland, warned the country to brace itself against a bitter period in Irish history.

There are two extreme factions in Ireland now, the Orangemen of the north, who insist upon maintaining the Irish system as it is, and the Sinn Feiners, who demand independence. Between these policies lies the middle course of the Government, with Ulster excluded.

The Dublin correspondent of The London Times, who is the editor of the principal southern Unionist newspaper, The Irish Times, urges the Dominion form of government. He expresses the belief that a plan of Dominion rule for twenty-six counties would find favor with all moderate Irishmen and says the mass of southern Unionists is anxious for such an offer without delay.

London, July 26.—A dispatch from Dublin last night said Arthur Griffith, the Sinn Feiner, had described as false reports that attempts had been made to negotiate with the Sinn Feiners for a settlement.

railroad above Nanaimo. They were given instructions to take no chances if there were danger but to shoot.

Constable Prowse speeded by motor to Wellington about six miles above Nanaimo. He took up his station at the side of the railroad track.

At 1.30 o'clock the constable saw something coming along the railroad track. When it came close he recognized it as the man who had escaped from the hotel when the investigating party tried to find out who he was.

Constable Prowse ordered him to stop. He refused. He started to run. Both the constable and the desperado began to fire with their revolvers. Bullets from the revolver of the fleeing man tore through the station building at Wellington and lodged in one of the telephone poles near the constable.

The alarm was sent out to other searchers and the hunt up the railroad line continued as best the party could in the dark. Nothing more was seen of the man.

At 4 o'clock this morning a boat was stolen from Departure Bay. It is thought that this boat was taken by the desperado. A Mackenzie editor of this paper was mentioned as the probable standard-bearer for the Government.

Mr. Cossitt, when seen by The News, denied very emphatically that there was any truth in the report as far as he is concerned. He signed Mr. Burrell's nomination paper at the last election, and thought that in this by-election there was no reason for a Liberal candidate to enter the field.

As for Mr. Mackenzie, it is only necessary to state that the newspaper referred to found him in practically the same position as Mr. Cossitt. No intimation has reached him that such a nomination would be extended to the opinion that such a thing would be an impossibility at present for the reason that no association or convention has as yet been held to consider the matter.

Strong Suspicion. On Friday S. A. Stoddart was assaulted in his store here by an armed man. Now a fugitive has fought a running fight with Nanaimo police. There is strong presumption that the assailant of the elderly jeweler left Victoria by boarding a north-bound Esquimalt & Nanaimo train yesterday.

Suspicion, it is declared, points to George F. Van Horst, until two weeks ago a convict under life sentence at the New Westminster penitentiary, as the perpetrator of the assault on Mr. Stoddart. Van Horst escaped from the institution with an Italian, also serving a life sentence for murder, and both are still at large. Penitentiary officials expressed the opinion that they have crossed the international line near Blaine.

However, the assailant, from discoveries made by the Saanich police, lost no time in getting rid of the damaging clothes, robbed a scarecrow, and in that guise reached the Toimie School at nightfall Friday, where he effected an entrance and was fortunate to find some odd garments to replace his ragged disguise. From that time until an unknown man is said to have boarded a freight train for Nanaimo trace of the fugitive is lost.

The clothing missing is of such sizes as would fit a man of Van Horst's build and weight. Van Horst is a Victoria man and would be thoroughly familiar with local conditions. It is pointed out by the police.

After The Attack. Thanks to a careful following up of clues by the Saanich police sufficient is known of the movements of Mr. Stoddart's assailant after the attack on Friday in the Douglas Street store to leave little to conjecture.

The janitor at Toimie School, Mr. Wilson, on making his rounds Saturday morning, found that the premises had been entered by a rear window, and a man had spent the night, some clothing being missing. One article was a pair of khaki drill pants, another a blue serge coat, and another an old shirt. In the place was left some very old clothing which had evidently seen the stress of bad weather.

The Clue. In the pockets of the clothing was a note such as Chinamen carry round giving directions for finding places where they are to work. Mr. Wilson took the clothing to Police Commissioner Owens, who with Chief Brogan at once set out to trace the history of the circumstances under which the man had come to deposit very old clothing in the school, and take away articles from those premises.

They found that the clothing had, through tracing up the address on the note, belonged at one time to J. Grant, Gordon Head, and was placed on a scarecrow in a field at the rear of Glendenning Road, near Mount Douglas. The note was received by Mr. Grant from a Chinaman over a year ago.

When they visited the field a dog with the party began to sniff round the scarecrow, and eventually ran off in a trail to the bush. The police followed this clue, and soon came upon a bundle of clothing, including a grey suit, a Panama hat, and shirt with both sleeves cut short.

The clothes found are identical with those which Mr. Stoddart's assailant was wearing when he was seen by Miss McGregor on Thursday and Friday.

Assailant's Movements. There can be no doubt that the suspect, after escaping from the city Friday afternoon made for the open country, and reached Gordon Head early in the afternoon, where he must have exchanged the tell-tale clothing for that of the scarecrow in the field, because the Saanich police have definite knowledge that a man in dilapidated clothing was seen for some time in the vicinity of Swan Lake during Friday evening, before dusk.

From Swan Lake to Toimie School is about a mile and a half and there apparently he spent the night of Friday. The clothing found in the field at Gordon Head has been turned over to the City Detective Department.

FORESEES IRON MARKET IN ORIENT

Mr. Thompson Gives Estimate For Pacific Plant

Speaking of the iron and steel situation, at the International Mining Convention, Nichol Thompson, of Vancouver, said he was looking into the issue for a syndicate.

Local Markets Excellent
"I was commissioned to collect information regarding the local or domestic market west of the Rockies, and my investigation so far has been of the most satisfactory nature," Mr. Thompson stated.

"In the aggregate there is undoubtedly a market on the Pacific Coast for over 2,000,000 tons of steel per year. This, of course, would include pig iron, light rails, bar and structural steel; but in addition there is a large market for crucible steel and tin plate, the latter amounting to at least 200,000 tons per year.

"The mining industry produces a market for a very large tonnage of crucible steel, which is the product of ores such as we have in British Columbia, and if the shipbuilding industry is to continue in our midst we will have to produce the material for building from our own raw resources.

"Get the steel industry started and many other industries will follow. We have the ore and the coal to make coke, and falling coals we have the water power to generate electricity and the timber to make charcoal. All we require is capital and labor to co-operate in making this magnificent province the Greater Britain of the future.

"The market for the next fifty to a hundred years will be in the Orient, and the opportunity is at our doors. It will be our own fault if we let the opportunity slip from us."

TRUE REFORM OF CHILD LIFE

Sir George Newman, speaking at a meeting held by Mrs. Lloyd George at Downing Street, London, England, recently, on behalf of Dr. Barnardo's homes, said it was instructive to notice the complete absence of walls and atrays from the great cities. He attributed this to the efforts of that remarkable man, Dr. Barnardo, one of the great pioneers of the nineteenth century, who recognized that the true reform of child life was based on physical improvement.

The first thing to do was to make children healthy, the education of their minds would follow. It was essential that they should enjoy the benefit of home influence and the Barnardo homes had been organized with this in view. "I understand Lamb commands a good salary." "No, he only earns it." Mrs. L. commands it!—The Home Doctor (New York).

The five hundred drive and social dance which was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jacklin, 1534 Redfern Street, under the auspices of the Maccabees' Review No. 1, was a huge success, about eighty being present. MANAGER RECEIVES STAFF ADDRESS

Empress Hotel, Employees Voice Appreciation of Col. Humble's Management

Col. E. M. and Mrs. Humble were the recipients of a valedictory address from the staff of the Empress Hotel before they left Saturday evening en route to England. The address, which was tastefully executed, bore a picture of the hotel facade, with designs of the rose, thistle, shamrock and maple in each corner.

"To some of us it has been a pleasure of many years' standing to be associated with you in this hotel, and those who have come in later years have learned to share with us the sentiment of sincere appreciation. It was with the very greatest gratification we learned after your return from distinguished service overseas that you were to be appointed manager here.

"During the short period which has since elapsed you have endeared yourself to an ever widening circle of friends, while the hotel has been improved in many respects, and its patrons have come to look upon you with a feeling akin to esteem, while the staff, have found in you a wise counsellor and one with whom we were always assured of justice and confidence.

"In leaving now we extend the heartiest wishes to Mrs. Humble and yourself for a long and prosperous career, realizing that wherever you may be you will keep a warm spot for your staff at the Empress Hotel."

The address was signed by the following: R. A. Quayle, A. L. Clarke, V. G. Waram, C. H. Foxwell, T. Miller, M. B. Murray, D. Symes, F. Symes, A. Orr, I. Grant, A. M. Horne, A. M. Scott, F. F. ALLEGES SHERIFF WANTED TO FIGHT

W. D. Cartier Claims Sheriff Richards Started to Take Coat Off

W. D. Cartier, charged with obstructing the Sheriff in the lawful execution of his duty, was called today in the Police Court after being remanded from the previous week. The evidence occupied all morning at the Police Court, while Sheriff Richards and a witness for the defence will be called in the afternoon session. R. C. Lowe is appearing for the defendant with City Prosecutor Harrison conducting the case for the Crown.

Mr. Lowe entered a plea of not guilty for the accused, who elected summary trial.

The Forged Entry.

Robert Sangster, deputy sheriff, gave evidence to the effect that his bailiff had been removed from the residence of W. D. Cartier at 1058 Davis Street, by trickery, and that the accused had stated that he would not allow the bailiff to return. The windows and doors were locked, he stated, and he, accompanied by his man, had to force entry into the house by breaking windows in the front. Following this, Mr. Cartier had gone to the city police and laid information against the Sheriff, asking for his arrest on a charge of breaking and entering. Mr. Sangster testified to the fact that the two bailiffs, Walter Jeffrey and Charles de Macedo, had both been refused food and a bed while in possession of the goods and chattels of the accused, pursuant to written authority they held from the Sheriff.

The evidence showed that the house was occupied on Wednesday, July 7, and that on the morning of Thursday, July 8, the bailiff, Jeffrey, had been sent to his breakfast thinking that his "relief" was one of the men from the Sheriff's office.

The testimony of W. D. Cartier himself, taken later, stated that the supposed relief had been Harry Taylor, a mechanic in the employ of the accused, but Mr. Cartier claimed that Taylor had said nothing to lead the bailiff to suppose that he was the relief, or to get the latter out of the house.

Following on that incident Mr. Macedo had returned to the house, but owing to some conversation between the accused and Macedo, the latter had been unable to gain admittance, or was under the impression that admittance was to be refused.

Mr. Cartier, questioning at the point later by the City Prosecutor, stated that he had offered no obstruction, and that most of the evidence given by the bailiff's men was incorrect. He stated also that as a result of a conversation in the Sheriff's office that Sheriff Richards had begun to take his coat off and offer fight to the accused. Mr. Sangster had followed suit, accused declared.

CANNING DEMONSTRATION.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Colwood Women's Institute on Wednesday, July 21, in Colwood Hall, Mrs. Wallace, a member of the West Saanich Women's Institute, gave a practical demonstration on canning by steam pressure. The apparatus used was loaned by the Department of Agriculture, but a similar one has been purchased by the Colwood Women's Institute for the use of the members. The simplicity of the canning apparatus and the great saving that it gives in time and fuel were fully shown by Mrs. Wallace, who at the close of the demonstration, was given a hearty vote of thanks by the members present. The president and secretary of the West Saanich Women's Institute, Mrs. Gulise and Mrs. Murray were also present at the meeting.

The financial statement of the Better Babies Clinic and Flower Show held in Colwood Hall under the auspices of the Colwood Women's Institute on Wednesday, July 14, was read by the secretary, and showed gratifying results. A donation of $25 from the proceeds was granted for the District Nurse Fund, V. O. N.

MORE THAN 28,000 VOTERS HERE NOW

Figures Please Registrars Because of Large Alien Population

There will be more than 28,000 voters in the Greater Victoria district by the time registration for the new voters' list closes next Saturday night, according to figures given out today by registrars in charge of the work.

Registrations in Victoria up until today total 18,433: Esquimalt, 2,697; Saanich, which includes Oak Bay, 6,138; total, 27,268. Registrations on Saturday were few, only 59 coming in for the city and 8 for Esquimalt.

"The district seems to be pretty well cleaned up," says Sgt.-Major Pearce, D.C.M., in his announcement today. "Commissioners have covered every place, and the persons who have escaped signing up are very scarce."

"When you take into consideration the large number of aliens here, the big floating population, the whole of Chinatown and those persons who don't care about voting, I think Victoria is making a pretty good showing on the totals."

"I have had five absolutely trustworthy commissioners working under my observation, and I am satisfied that the district is almost pumped dry. These men to-day are working on a couple of blocks in the North of Ward Two about which I have had doubts."

BRITISH WOMEN IN AUSTRALIA

The delegates appointed to inquire as to openings in Australia for women from the United Kingdom have sent their report to the president of the Overseas Settlement Committee.

The commissioners feel very strongly that too much emphasis cannot be laid on the need for careful organization of the manner of settlement of British women in Australia, especially in the first stages. The present settlement is favorable for the introduction of new methods, as during the war period immigration has been discontinued. Hitherto families, or single women, for domestic work in the United Kingdom, and it is obvious that other arrangements for reception and settlement must be made if it becomes necessary to arrange the settlement of various kinds of women workers.—London Weekly Times.

HOW HE WORKED IT.

A good story concerning Henry Labouchere's grandfather is related by George Grenville in his "Memories of an Old Etonian."

When he was quite a young man, it appears he was a clerk in a bank at a salary of £80 a year. But he moved in good society, amongst other families he was on visiting terms with being that of Sir Francis Baring, the millionaire financier.

This gave him an idea. Presenting himself before the senior partner of the bank where he was employed, he inquired whether it would be possible for him to become a partner forthwith.

"Certainly not!" was the reply. "Why, you are only a junior clerk."

"But supposing," rejoined Labouchere, "that I had received the consent of Sir Francis Baring to marry his daughter?"

"Oh, that alters the matter entirely!" In that case we shall be only too pleased."

Labouchere next approached Sir Francis, and asked him for his daughter's hand, only to meet once more with a curt refusal.

"But supposing," said Labouchere, "that I am not a mere clerk, as you suppose, but a partner in the bank?"

The baronet's manner changed. "That being so," he said, "I will talk the matter over with my daughter."

The result was that Labouchere married Sir Francis Baring's daughter, and became, at the same time, a partner in the bank.—Tit-Bits.

Visitor: "Are you good at your work? I am very particular about the way my hair is cut."

Village Barber: "Well, I'm reckoned fairly decent; but, if you like, I'll do one side of your head first, so that you can see for yourself."—Answers.

PLACE OF PROSPECTOR DEFINED AT NELSON

Some interesting statements with regard to the position of the prospector were made to the International Mining Convention in Nelson last week.

A Man of High Ideals
Glenville A. Collins, of Seattle, said:

"The prospector is usually a man of high ideals, absolutely honest and right desire, and when I speak of prospectors that is the kind of character I think of."

"Prospectors are usually healthy, have great endurance, perhaps by many discomforts and hardships, and are most persistent in sticking to their idea of things. In other words, a prospector is a man of great faith born of right notions and backed by physical endurance. As soon as a man's faith in anything is gone, then he is through with it, so you can readily see that it is by faith that a prospector keeps at the game."

"While I do not intend to preach any sermons I might just touch on one point, and that is this: In the Old Book we are told that if a man had the faith of a grain of mustard seed he could move mountains."

"Therefore a prospector or anyone else with a knowledge of principles can apply his understanding to the problem in hand and thereby remove mountains of fear and ignorance."

"The big bugbear in prospecting is finance, so if a prospector can attain a knowledge of principles involved in raising money he can overcome the mountain between himself and realization of his legitimate profits."

"It is not expected that a prospector should become a banker or learn the financial business, because if he did this he need not be a prospector and there would not be any new mines or mineral wealth for the banker to exist on."

"The prospector must stick to his game the same as usual, but should add to his large store of knowledge by a better understanding of business and how to deal with business men."

"I believe the assertion would be true to say that if prospectors knew how to deal with business men along business lines there would be twice as many mines and as many more mining fortunes, owned by their discoverers."

A. G. Langley, mining engineer for District No. 5, said:

"To one who has travelled in the rugged mountain areas of the district, it is really amazing to see the places into which the pioneer prospector penetrated, without the aid of trails, and with his grub and blankets on his back. Now there are hundreds of miles of trails into the mountains and hence prospecting is made more easy. Still it is a man's work, and good hard work at that."

"In spite of the numerous hardships and risks taken by the prospector as a matter of course, there is a strange fascination about traveling in the wild mountain regions that cannot fail to appeal to the average man, which, added to the possibility of finding a mine, makes prospecting a very interesting occupation."

"Before starting on a trip, a man should obtain all the information possible regarding the country into which he is going, that may be a guide in his wanderings, and be the means of saving a great deal of time and unnecessary climbing."

"Information can generally be obtained locally about the existing trails, and the character of the ore, if any, that has been found in the area, while in many cases maps can be seen at the office of the mining records.—Geological data and general information may be given by the resident engineer."

"The time eventually arrives when the prospector finds that in order to work his property to advantage, capital is necessary for further development, plant, etc. Naturally after years of hard work he feels that he is entitled to a cash payment for the work that he has done. Unfortunately, unless that work has either proved ore or the continuity of the vein, it is not worth a great deal to the prospective purchaser. The prospector should be perfectly entitled to ask cash for an amount equivalent to the ore in sight, but for further payments he should allow the purchaser sufficient time to develop and prove the property."

"Should there be no ore of commercial importance in sight, then he should offer attractive terms. By so doing he would be furthering his own interests, in that he would more easily interest people, and at the same time could probably get a better price than he could by asking for a cash payment."

AGED FATHER OF VICTORIA MEN DEAD

Two Victoria residents, B. J. Smith, of 902 Cook Street, and Smaule Smith, of 1062 Meers Street, have been bereaved by the death of their father, Henry Smith, at the age of 84, at Eastbourne, England. He was a Criméan veteran and was one of the family of six that served in the army and navy. Mr. Smith went through the whole of the Criméan war, and was under fire at the engagements of the Alma and Balaclava and the sanguinary battle of Inkerman. He received a medal from Queen Victoria for his participation in that war and was then sent on to India for the Mutiny. He stayed in that country until 1863. Mr. Smith, who had a number of soldier sons in the late war, was buried with military honors in Oaklynge Cemetery.

PRINCE JOHN WILL TAKE STEWART RUN

Service Will Not Be Interrupted by Prince George Mishap

There will be no interruption in the weekly service to Stewart through the unfortunate mishap to the steamship Prince George in Seymour Narrows. It is announced by Captain C. H. Nicholson, manager of the G. T. P. coast steamship service, who reached here yesterday morning aboard the steamship Prince Rupert from the North. The steamship Prince John will temporarily be pressed into the service.

Captain Nicholson was in wireless communication with the Prince George on the southbound trip of the Prince Rupert but was informed that the Prince George was not seriously damaged and was proceeding.

Under the present arrangements the Prince John will sail from Vancouver at 10 o'clock Thursday morning for the North. Passengers from Seattle and Victoria will board the steamship at Vancouver.

LAUNCH SUBJECT TO ENGINE DELIVERY

Plan to Install Machinery on Canadian Traveller Before She Is Launched

Official trials of the steamship Canadian Winner, first of the Government ships to be completed by the Harbor Marine Company, Ltd., will be held about the middle of next month.

With the main engines and auxiliary machinery installed all that remains to be done is the fitting of the boilers which are being riveted at the Victoria Machinery Depot. The management expects to be in a position to make a definite announcement regarding the trials within the next few days.

The launching of the Canadian Traveller, second 5,100-tonner to be built at the Harbor Marine plant, depends upon the delivery of the engines which are being assembled at the Toronto works of the John Inglis Company. Superintendent James Clark stated this morning that he hopes to be able to install the engines on the Canadian Traveller before she is sent into the water.

Construction is well advanced, and with the machinery here, the vessel could be sent afloat within a few weeks.

The Canadian Traveller will be the first of the Government fleet to be operated in the British Columbia-Oriental-Indian service.

ALL BOAT RECORDS BROKEN BY SEASLED

Boeing Marine Speeder Negotiated Run to Seattle in 1 Hour 55 Minutes

Smashing all boat records, the Boeing water speeder which demonstrated here during the week-end arrived back in Seattle yesterday afternoon, completing an eight hundred mile test which proved the practicability of the sealed under all conditions.

The sealed left Cadboro Bay at noon yesterday on her return trip to Seattle and made the run in one hour and fifty-five minutes, easily passing the Grand Trunk Pacific steamship Prince Rupert, which had cleared an hour before. The time made by the regular passenger steamships averages four and a half hours.

Leaving Seattle at noon, the sealed made Port Townsend in one hour and fifty-five minutes, and from the pass to Vancouver in one hour and ten minutes, making the total time for the run from Seattle to Vancouver four hours. The sled remained at Vancouver for nearly a week, giving speed demonstrations in the open waters of the straits where rough water was encountered practically all of the time.

The Boeing officials state that not one case of engine trouble developed on the test trip and are enthusiastic over the showing of the two Hall-Scott Liberty marine engines, each developing 200 horsepower. This week demonstrations will be made in Elliott Bay under similar conditions.

Members of the brigade volunteering for service afloat, with the consent of their parents, will be assigned to Government ships as cadets and will serve for a period of years until they are qualified to sit for examination as officers.

BLACK CAT BELIEFS.

Why have black cats nearly always been accounted lucky? Ireland is by no means the only place where superstitions about black cats are or were rife. In Egypt cats were regarded with great reverence. Archeologists have found them in tombs of kings and princes. Australians have a curious legend about cats. Mityaro, the moon, they say, was a native cat, who fell in love with someone else's wife, and was driven away to wander ever since. To them a cat, black, grey, or white, prophesies only bad luck. In Japan and China a black cat is regarded as a dangerous demon, often possessing as many as two or three forked tails, and having the power to change itself into an old woman. The Chinese believe if a cat leaps on or walks over a corpse it will cause the corpse to rise up at once. Any person passing through the room would be in danger of being seized by the corpse when in that state, and would be killed immediately. In Egypt, according to ancient writings of Herodotus, if a cat died in a private house by a natural death, all the inmates of the house were obliged to shave their eyebrows.—Tit-Bits.

START DOCK BEFORE HOUSE MEETS, SAYS HON. J. D. REID

Ships, Port Facilities to Be Built on Pacific As Needed

BUT RAILWAYS MUST GET HIGHER RATES

In prosecuting a vigorous policy of steamship development in the Pacific the Canadian Government intends to start work on the Esquimalt dock before Parliament meets again, and plans, moreover, to build as many vessels and port facilities as are required for Canada, a big share of future trade with the Orient.

Such were the emphatic statements of Hon. J. D. Reid, Federal Minister of Railways and Canals, who addressed a large meeting of the Canadian Club at luncheon to-day on the "Transportation Problems of Canada." While outlining a big expansion of Canada's Government-owned railways, Dr. Reid declared, however, that if their operations, and the operations of the privately-owned Canadian Pacific Railway, were to be continued on a profitable basis, a possible basis, they must be allowed to charge increased freight and passenger rates. Not only should increased rates be allowed, he asserted, but every encouragement should be given both trans-continental systems in order that they, in friendly competition, might render the people and industries of Canada the most efficient service obtainable.

Smoker Proves Success.

The weekly smoking concert, held by the G. W. V. A. Rooms on Saturday night, was a tremendous success, with over 250 guests present to enjoy the excellent entertainment provided. Among the many lively numbers on a well selected programme were "Tom O'Brien's" characterizations, Mr. Ramsay, comedian, and Mr. Sampson, the latter singing in a fine mellow tenor voice. Messrs. Hope, Sheret, and Vernon added attractive numbers to the musical and vocal selections already detailed. The orchestra, led by Mr. Fidler, was much appreciated. The programme went with a swing from the start, and the audience joined royally in the choruses to make the affair a complete success.

All arrangements will be made for the comfort and care of all their friends and members. The committee desire to thank all those who so kindly and generously contributed to their prize list: Victoria Furniture Co., Macey, Weiler Bros., Woolworths, J. Rose, E. A. Morris, New England Meat Market, Green's Jewellery Store, Victoria Hardware Co., Wilson & Jelliman, Fletcher Bros., Carter Electric Co., W. Duncan, Scott & Peden, Rogers Candy Co., Victoria Book & Stationery Co., R. A. Brown, Wilkerson, the Jeweler; Veteran Cigar Stand, Hawkins & Hayward, and C. J. Carey.

A Great Business.

"The Government of Canada," the Minister pointed out, "owns 22,500 miles of railway—the people own it, not because it was their policy to go into Government ownership, but because there was no other way of operating these essential railways. The railways the people own now operate successfully during the war years and the Government had to take a hold of them."

Proceeding to outline the financial conditions of Canadian railways, Dr. Reid said: "The Canadian National Railways lost $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 last year, while the Grand Trunk lost $47,000. The C. P. R. was only able to pay its dividend with a surplus. Had it not been that money had been laid aside before, the C. P. R. would have faced the country with a deficit or been unable to pay dividends. In this condition, you will agree, is not good for the people of the country, and it would be very serious if this condition continued in the future."

Dr. Reid also referred to the experience of American railways which even now, operated by their private owners, were he said, losing proportionately more money than Canadian lines.

Wages Bill.

"In 1914," he went on, "the total wages paid to railway employees in Canada was $109,000,000 and the surplus on all lines combined was a total of $178,000,000. In 1919, for practically same mileage wages were added to the Bermudas at a profit and without subsidies.

Going After Trade.

"Several of our vessels built on the West Coast are being operated from B.C. to the Orient. If there is trade in the Orient we are going after it. If we haven't enough ships I believe the Government whatever party it represents will build them. I believe that B.C. will get a large part of that traffic from the Orient as you are so near to the prairies."

"In view of the advance made in the last few years in the matter of tonnage surely the people of Canada must say we are doing well, all we care under the circumstances," the Minister continued.

"We must have terminal facilities in our development," he went on, "in the East we have satisfactory facilities."

"At the beginning of this year, we thought we had reached the peak of wages and we felt we could make up the losses of last year. What happened?—As a result of findings of a commission considering wages for railway employees, during the next year, $1,000,000 must be added to the payrolls of Canadian roads. This increase dates back to May 1, so that we have to pay those wages for four months during which we shall get nothing from increased freight rates. It means the Government must provide $30,000,000 to operate its two big systems this year."

"Can operation under these conditions be continued unless we get increases in the rates?" Dr. Reid demanded. "The C.P.R. is in the same position. In my opinion, unless freight rates are increased the good work which the C.P.R. has done in the past cannot be continued, and I think the company will not be able to pay dividends under such conditions. Would it be a good thing for Canada if this company, so famous all over the world, could not pay its dividends on account of the fact that it could not get increased rates? And would it be well for the Government-owned system to be in the same position."

Efficient Services Wanted.

Efficient transportation facilities are absolutely necessary for the development of our resources," the Minister asserted. "For the future of Canada let us have the best inter-provincial transportation facilities from the Pacific to the Atlantic—the two systems of people of Canada, if all lines were put under one management."

The people should do nothing to prevent the C. P. R. continuing its good work and, of course, natural lines must be developed. If you have the resources of the people of Canada will get the best service possible. Why? Because both systems will get the best service to get the traffic they are carrying. Both will try to carry on their operations in the most economical way. I believe the people of Canada should do their utmost to see that the two systems operate as at present.

Steamship Service.

"Unless you have steamship services on both oceans the railways will not do the greatest amount of good for the development of the country," Dr. Reid declared. "It is necessary for me to speak of the C. P. R. fleets. As for the Canadian National, when we took it over it had very little marine equipment. Since I was here last the Dominion Government has spent some $50,000,000 in equipping its railway systems. We went further. Realizing we had a great system, the Dominion Government has ordered and built some 63 vessels, a tonnage of over 350,000 tons, almost completed, against the C.P.R.'s 250,000 tons. We are looking ahead. We are equipping our system so that our transportation facilities will link up with the markets of the world. When our plans are complete a Canadian will be able to travel around the world on the Canadian people's own railways. Am I wrong when I say that the future development of Canada is in brighter prospect than ever in the past?"

"As an instance of how the National lines are developing trade, for years the Government has put $50,000 per annum as the subsidy of two or three steamships to take products to the West Indies. Now eleven of our sixty-five vessels, since being launched, are operating from Can-

SEAMAN HAD ONLY ONE CHANCE IN TEN

Had Rheumatism So Bad He Was Told There Was Practically No Hope; Now Well and Strong He Gives Tanlac Credit For Recovery

"The rheumatism got such a hold on me I was told there was scarcely one chance in ten I would ever be entirely rid of it again, but thanks to Tanlac it has entirely disappeared and all my other troubles along with known seaman, R. Holovatsky, a well known seaman of 132 Higgins Street, Vancouver, while in Winnipeg recently.

"For about six years, I suffered from a bad case of rheumatism, and although I tried practically everything in a drug store, nothing relieved me until I got Tanlac. My right leg simply became stiff, and the calves of my legs swelled so that I couldn't even wear any sock supporters. My arms ached and pained me so it was agony for me to put on my clothes, and at times I just had to have someone to help me. I had such chronic pains across my back that I was almost driven to distraction, and I don't believe it could have hurt worse had someone been jabbing me with a knife. I didn't enjoy a thing I ate, and my appetite dwindled away to almost nothing. I was continually losing strength and weight, and my friends were noticing my serious condition.

"I came from Vancouver to Winnipeg on a visit, and I'm just almost tickled to death that I did, for it was here that Tanlac was brought to my attention. I read about it in the papers, and as dozens of people told me to try it, I got a bottle and began taking the medicine, and the results were simply fine. Well, I just kept on taking it until the rheumatism left me entirely, and I never have a pain of any kind. Why, my appetite is so big I can hardly satisfy it, and I've gained ten pounds in weight. At night I sleep like a rock, and I feel every bit of ten years younger. Tanlac has certainly proved a remarkable medicine in my case, and I believe the best way in which I can show my gratitude is to make a statement for the benefit of others."

"Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

WHAT THEY REALLY SAID

While the faces on the film depicted every human emotion, one person in the audience sat and giggled.

You see, he was deaf, and so had learned to read from the lips. Thus he could "see" what the actors were saying. It was something like this: Hero—How is your husband, Maggie? Heroine—Oh, pretty fair, thanks! Come one! Show a little anxiety over this kiss, or you'll spoil the picture. Hero—I'm showing as little as possible. Heroine—Don't make me giggle. This is supposed to be serious—the last kiss before death us do part! Hero—That so? I haven't read the scenario yet. Heroine—That chap with the long hair who's been running round here lately wrote the story. They say it's a knockout. Hero—That's what they always say, isn't it? Silence for a few moments while the hero's lips cling lingeringly to those of the heroine. Hero—I wonder if the director is going to call this a day's work? Heroine—I hope so. I want to get home to the baby. Hero—And I've got an appointment with a dentist. Heroine—Thank heaven, that's all for to-day! Hero—Hurrah! Well, good-bye, Maggie, until the next kiss!

SAVAGE SUBSTITUTES.

There is a common idea that the diet and climate conditions of the Negroes are the cause of their having beautiful teeth, but some authorities dispute this.

Thus, in some parts of Africa, when an infant has gone through the "teething period," his mouth is rinsed out with an infusion of the leaves of a native tree possessing a constituent which causes the gums to shrink, so tightening the teeth.

The toothbrush, as used in this country, is, of course, unknown to the savages, but many of them have an effective substitute. They use a piece of wood from certain trees, which contain beneficial qualities. Further, this stick is free from the great objection to brushes. It can be renewed at frequent intervals, and is thus always fresh and wholesome—a great advantage over the toothbrush of civilized races.—Tit-Bits.

Giants Gave Capitals a Rare Surprise Last Week

For First Time This Season Seattle Broke Even on a Series With Locals; Victoria Figured on Easy Time, But It Turned Out To Be a Hard Row; Chief Davis Shows Fans Heaps of Action on Mound.

First Game—Seattle, 8; Victoria, 2. Second Game—Victoria, 4; Seattle, 0. When the series opened last Tuesday players and fans alike expected that by Saturday night the Capitals would be riding along in first place in the Pacific International League.

A new personage was ushered on to the diamond on Saturday afternoon and introduced to the fans. He was none other than the famous Indian, Chief Gus Davis, who is said to possess a baseball record as well as an American war service record.

Davis is a southpaw and dispenses with a wind-up. He is a fast baller and his delivery is exceptionally quick. In throwing his out-throw he almost does a somersault. It is impossible to tell just what Davis is capable of by his performance on Saturday.

Broke His Record. The Giants broke Harry Morton's string of victories on Saturday afternoon. Morton came to grief in the second inning when he hit Boelzle, gave a base on balls to Cuyler, made an error and allowed Sherritt a single and Shannon and Grant home runs.

Morton Comes Back. In the evening game Morton came back and blanked the Giants. He won in splendid form, and allowed Seattle only four singles, but was along smoothly for seven innings, but was touched up for five singles in the eighth and three runners crossed the plate.

Miss Leeming Lost Out in the Finals. Vancouver, July 25.—A crowd of over 1,000 witnessed a fine day of tennis at the Mainland today on Saturday, starting in the morning with a splendid singles match between Irving Weinstein and Beverley Rhodes.

Ladies' Singles—Mrs. Cushing, Portland, beat Miss Leeming, Victoria, 11-9, 6-4. Ladies' Doubles—Mrs. Graham and Miss Elliott, Vancouver, beat Miss Leeming and Miss Neame, Victoria, 6-4, 9-7.

Two Teams Now Tied for First Place in Cricket League; Congos Defeat Albions

(By Veritas). The Five C's quite failed to live up to their reputation on Saturday and the Congos therefore had a much easier victory than had been anticipated.

At Beacon Hill the Albions met defeat at the hands of the Congos. Collett played careful cricket for his 28 runs, going in first and being ninth wicket to fall.

Nearly Got Century. The outstanding feature of the game between Victoria and the Garrison at Work Point was the fine innings of Sholto Gillespie, who was only nine runs short of a hundred.

In a friendly game at Duncan the Army and Navy Veterans went under to the Cowichan team, but came away with pleasant memories of the hospitality of the Cowichan team.

So far this season "centuries" in the local cricket have been conspicuous by their absence. The only one recorded up to date, being H. Lock's 117 for the Congos on the opening day of the season.

THE "HOOTCH ROUTE."

New York, July 26.—The "hootch route" from Canada to the United States is attracting considerable attention in the New York newspapers of late.

"As a travelling salesman I become interested in watching the operations of the wet element in obviating the provisions of the 18th Amendment, and afterwards was appalled by the ease with which it was accomplished.

"The Canadian line is the north boundary of that village (a short mile from the post office). There is a roadhouse just over the line fully stocked with all the wet goods known to the trade.

"The better class of people in these border towns are incensed at these conditions, but no one is able to suggest a remedy. They would gladly return to the old system of a legalized and regulated traffic with stringent provisions for controlling the business."

The deficit on the working of the British Government controlled railways for the year 1919-20 is stated to be £41,249,530. The estimated net Government liability for the full year is given as £54,500,000.

"LOVE EXPERT" HERE FOR SIX DAY RUN

Constance Talmadge at the Royal in Screen Adaptation

Tired business men spending a few days' vacation at one of Palm Beach's zippiest hotels were treated to something better than a burlesque show when the pretty step-daughter of John Hardcastle demands that he marry the feeble old lady whom he has unwittingly compromised.

This is just one of the bright bits from the Constance Talmadge production, "The Love Expert," which will be seen for a six-day run at the Royal Victoria Theatre commencing to-night.

Love is a Card Index

Adapted from an original story upon which John Emerson and Anita Loos (now Mr. and Mrs. John Emerson) collaborated, "The Love Expert" is said to be by far the most original and novel picture released in the last eighteen months. Only one old reliable trait of the Emerson-Loos stamp is found in this picture—and this is the theme. But in selecting this dominating note that sings its way through the entire picture, the authors have hit on the idea of specialization in all lines as a characteristic of this age. Their story is of the girl who eschewed all known sciences to make herself an expert on the subject of romance and emotion.

FILM VERSION OF

"SEA WOLF" HERE

Dominion Will Present Story Based on Jack London's Famous Tale

The screen version of Jack London's famous novel, "The Sea Wolf," which will be on view for six days, commencing to-day, at the Dominion Theatre, is said to be replete with spectacular scenes. A ferry boat and a fishing schooner actually crash at sea; a ship founders in a fog; "Wolf" Larsen's vessel, "The Ghost," is beached on a desolate island. All these episodes are thrillingly recorded by the camera. However, the emphasis in the picture has been laid upon the striking story, which is at bottom a study in contrasts—the brutal sea captain who believes that "might makes right" and the aesthetic, peace-loving young idler whom he rescues after a catastrophe at sea.

Nonh-Beery, a man of great physical prowess, as well as a talented actor, is said to do the best work of his career as "Wolf." Tom Forman, Mabel Julienne Scott and Raymond Hatton are also in the cast. The picture, which is a Paramount Aircraft, was produced by George Melford.

NEW FEATURE HAS

BIG HEART APPEAL

"Smoldering Embers" Is Tender, Human Story on Pantages Screen

Frank Keenan, a screen star greatly admired by those interested in motion pictures, the ones particularly who prefer to get a bit of substance with their screen entertainment, essays a role entirely different from any he has been seen in in the past, in the presentation of "Smoldering Embers." This tender, human story began a short exhibition at the Pantages Theatre early this afternoon. It will be shown here for two days only, to-day and Tuesday.

In this play Keenan appears as a knight of the road; a vagabond; a man without home or friends; without aim or ambition or hope. It is a part full of difficulties because of its very simplicity. Frank Keenan gives it realism, dignity and a human touch that makes you love the heart qualities of the man in tatters. At the risk of being accused of using superlatives, it might be called perfect—every expression, gesture and mannerism rings true to life.

The story glorifies father love. Keenan is a tramp who learns that the son he has not seen since babyhood is about to be deprived of his heritage by his stepfather. When the vagabond enters the scene he does not do a thing but upset their little scheme. Particularly appealing are the scenes between the vagabond father and his son, splendidly enacted by Jay Belasco. Without disclosing his identity, the tramp becomes the boy's shadow. He learns his habits, meets the girl the boy loves and saves him from disgrace. His work done, the vagabond exits, happy in the knowledge that his son is happy and thinks of his father (whom he believes died helping a sick man through the Chilkoot Pass) as a "regular fellow."

Kate Corbaley wrote the story. Frank Keenan, assisted by Elliot Howe, directed it. The cast is a splendid one, including Van Buren, Hardie, Kirkland, Thomas Guise, Russ Powell, Graham-Pettie, Burwick Hamrich, Lucille Ward and Frances Raymond.

WHERE OLD UNIFORMS GO.

The denizens of African forests and Eastern deserts are clothing themselves in khaki, and longing for the days when the British army shall return to its more stylish scarlet. For it is to Africa and the East that the army's cast-off uniforms go to be sold, or to be bartered for rubber, and ivory, and other wealth.

Kilts are considered very good form for barbaric dances, but nothing is more admired than the waistcoat which has adorned a London day. A native will show his importance by the number of waistcoats he can acquire, and if he can wear twenty at a time he is very grand indeed.

ATTRACTIVE ROMANCE WILL DELIGHT MANY

Variety Presents "My Lady's Garter," Story of Famous Crook

An exciting chase after a notorious international crook and the adventures and romance that follow in its train forms the theme of the latest Maurice Tourneur production, "My Lady's Garter," the photoplay attraction that opens a six-day run at the Variety Theatre to-day. Jacques Futrelle wrote the original story.

The criminal is known as "The Hawk," and his identity is a mystery. Following his theft of the famous jewelled garter of the Countess of Salisbury, he transfers his field of activities to the estate of an American railroad magnate. A young man who calls himself Bruce Calhoun and lives on a yacht near Hamilton Manor is trailed by the detectives and thought to be "The Hawk." His love affair with Helen Hamilton, whom he meets by chance, is rendered rocky by the fact that he will not disclose the reasons for his mysterious comings and goings. However, a spectacular robbery in a Boston bank and a near train wreck assist in clearing up matters, and the ending is startling as it is satisfactory. Wyndham Standing, Sylvia Bremer and Holmes E. Herbert are included in the capable cast. The picture is a typical Tourneur production and is a Paramount Artcraft release.

STIRRING INCIDENTS IN WESTERN FILM

The strenuous methods of the late Colonel Roosevelt in achieving reforms are recalled in "Hell Roarin' Reform," a William Fox screen production, having Tom Mix as its star, which is to be presented at the Columbia Theatre this week. The play deals with the evil spirits of Tarantula, a bandit-ridden town, whose outlaw residents oust the preacher—and it is Mix's task to shoot religion and righteousness into the place. The Fox cowboy star is said to do this with his customary dash, tackling the job with the same degree of directness that Roosevelt used in tackling trusts, malefactors, mollycoddlers and undesirables.

Numberless new thrills are promised in "Hell Roarin' Reform," which is declared to be the liveliest Western drama in which Mix has appeared. Among other things, Mix leaps on horseback from the upper balcony of one building to the roof of another, plunging through the roof with his horse; he rides down a steep mountain trail at a headlong gallop, routs a band of stage coach robbers by firing three guns at one time and shoots a pipe out of a man's mouth.

STARTS LONG TOUR

W. J. Bowser, K.C., Will Cover Peace River and Northern B.C. in Whole Month.

W. J. Bowser, K.C., leader of the Conservative party in British Columbia, will leave to-night on his speaking tour of the Peace River Country. With Mr. Bowser as his guide will go H. M. They will go to Edmonton and then into the Peace River crossing by the Edmonton, Dunvegan & British Columbia Railway. There they will board the steamer D. A. Thomas and travel 700 miles to Hudson's Hope, the head of navigation. The first meeting will be held there. Other meetings will be held Half-Way River, Fort St. John, Taylor's Flats, Ralls, Pouce Coupe, Swan Lake, Grande Prairie, Alberta. On the way home he will speak at Lacarrie, Prince George, Vanderhoof, Smithers, Francois Lake, Prince Rupert. Mr. Bowser is to meet United Farmers of B.C. at Pouce Coupe.

Mr. Bowser and Mr. Grahame will be back in Victoria on August 20.

"THE SEA WOLF"

By JACK LONDON

Jack London's mighty story crashes against the emotions like the raging sea.

It is a moving panorama of life, with scene upon scene of primitive emotions and the clash of fighting forces. And around it all the clamor and might of the sea.

The Wolf, the Coward and the Girl come to life before you. And their vital drama will live long in your memory.

The greatest story of the greatest modern writer of adventure. Every stirring episode of love and struggle vividly pictured on the sea.

I take what I want—such was the Sea Wolf's creed, and in his brutal hands were this young girl and the rich young idler who loved her. Stormy passions, at war on stormy seas. Over the Wolf, in the end, the triumph of young love.

William Fox of the bureau of publicity and exhibits of the Trade and Commerce Department has arrived on the Coast from Ottawa for the purpose of taking a number of scenes and industries. Among plants which he will visit will be the B.C. Sugar Refinery and one or more of the larger mills in the vicinity of Vancouver.

After completing his work in Vancouver, Mr. Fox will come to Victoria and later proceed to Prince Rupert and probably return East by way of Yellowstone Pass. He will stop over at various centres through the prairies.

The policy of the department is to give as much publicity as possible to the natural resources and tourist attractions of each section of the Dominion, with the idea of showing the people of Alberta, for instance, what is produced in the neighborhood province of British Columbia. It is felt that large amounts of money are spent outside Canada which might well be expended within the borders of the Dominion. Through the films it is hoped that each province may be brought closer to the others.

United States Government Plans $5,000,000 Plant in Texas.

Fort Worth, Tex., July 26.—It is authoritatively stated that the Government will proceed with its original plans for the construction here of a helium production plant to cost approximately $5,000,000.

Several months ago a Congressional committee made an adverse report on the construction of the proposed plant here on the ground that the cost of extracting helium was too heavy to make it feasible enterprise.

The contract has just been awarded to the Reagan Construction Company of Baltimore, Md., which has been awarded the contract for a gas storage house to be built of sheet steel, a water settling basin and a water supply system.

The natural gas pipe line from Petrolia to Fort Worth, which was constructed last year, is practically finished.

The contract has just been awarded for the pipe line. It is expected that the big plant here will be finished and placed in full operation about October 1.

The helium gas will be for the use of the army and navy. Lieut. Commander R. G. Walling, U. S. N., has been detailed in charge of the plant.

RELIC OF AZTEC DAYS

Brownsville, Tex., July 26.—After lying undisturbed for hundreds and perhaps thousands of years, the grave of some old Indian chief was rudely disturbed by city workmen employed in digging a sanitary sewer line.

SEWER DIGGING DISTURBS INDIAN CHIEF'S GRAVE AFTER MANY YEARS.

The bones were preserved in almost their natural shape through petrification and their size indicated that before his death, perhaps long before the white man ever heard of Rio Grande, the warrior had been an enormously big man. That his wife was an active one was demonstrated by the fact that one of his arms had been fractured and the arm failed to knit smoothly. The most perfectly preserved portions of the body were the teeth, which are worn smooth and indicate that the man was not young. They bore the signs of decay or break.

SUGAR CORNER BROKEN

Cubans Fall to Fix Price of 34 Cents and Market Breaks to 16 1/2 Cents Pound.

Seattle, July 26.—The Cuban sugar corner has been smashed, the attempt to fix a price of 34 cents for the remainder of the island crop having failed completely, says the Seattle Times.

OCEAN FARES UP

Travel in Steerage Across Atlantic Now Costs $7 to $13.50 More.

New York, July 26.—Following up its recent advance of $15 on first and second class passage rates, the North Atlantic Passenger Conference, composed of large steamship companies, has announced increases of from $7 to $13.50 on steerage rates.

The rate is not expected to deter bookings, for the reason that thousands of applicants are listed who cannot get passage for months ahead and are willing to pay high prices. The high cost of labor and fuel is the reason advanced for the new rates.

The steamer rates from New York to Havre will be $45; to Hamburg, $120, and to Danzig, $125. On June 23 steamer rates to British ports were set ahead $5. To-day these rates will advance. The largest liners will charge $75 to Liverpool, and vessels of lesser "class" will exact $75.50. The rates to Cherbourg will range from $85 to $95; to Hamburg, from $110 to $120, and to Danzig, from $125 to $135, depending upon the vessel.

TO RE-ORGANIZE FAMOUS BATTALION

Colonel Peck, M. P., is in the City For That Purpose

The long deferred organization of the Sixteenth Battalion, Canadian Scottish, is about to take place, it was stated to The Times yesterday by Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., M.P., who has just reached this city, after completing his Parliamentary work for the year. To Col. Peck has been given the task of straightening out the remnants of the original membership, and reforming the famous Kiltie Battalion that held a name second to none after the second battle of St. Julien, where they, with the 10th and other battalions of the First Canadian Division charged and re-charged the Germans, after the cowardly gas attack in April, 1915.

Its Great Record. From that time the "16th" had become a name to conjure with, and the reinforcements that filled up the ranks, time after time, as the old battalion was decimated, lived up to the honor won on the field by the original men. There was quickly followed by heavy fighting at Festubert, where again the Canadian Scottish distinguished themselves in a manner that put the First Canadian Division second to one in the Allied armies of that time. Major-General E. G. Edwards Leckie, with his brother Col. Jack Leckie, were both associated with the battalion as commanders. Col. Peck was given command of the field, and led his battalion in the field for the whole of the last years of the war, winning further distinction for the Canadian forces, honor for the battalion, and gaining the V.C. for exceptional bravery in the face of the enemy.

The 16th Canadian Scottish, as it left Valcartier Camp in the fall of 1914, included detachments of the 50th Gordons of Victoria and 2nd Seaforth's of Vancouver. After the declaration following the extended fighting at St. Julien and Wijtze, detachments of the 30th Battalion, recruited at the Willows here, joined the 16th, 15th and part of the 13th Battalions, all of the old Third Brigade, First Division and continued to add to the battalion's laurels. Two hundred and eighty decorations were won by men of the battalion.

Col. Peck, V.C., brings with him full authority to re-organize the unit. Although no records are available to go upon, it is estimated that there will be a considerable number of the original men of the 50th Gordons in Victoria, and that numbers of the 30th Battalion will also be found, both forming the nucleus of one of the most famous and illustrious units of fighting men who served in the late war.

Col. Peck is staying at the Empress Hotel, where he registered yesterday, and will commence on the work of re-organization immediately.

ARCHBISHOP ON MORALS AND DRESS

London, July 26.—"War having slain so many men there are numbers of women who must look forward to unmarried lives and the Archbishop of Melbourne (Dr. Lowther Clarke) addressing a meeting of the Mothers' Union at Church House, Westminster, England, recently, he has been asked if the Church would look upon children born outside married life. My reply has been 'No.' We must not believe that good may come of it. Recognizing the limitations of this generation, we cannot establish, in the name of the Church at all events, a new rule, and we cannot approximate a human generation to the morals of the farmyard. At the same time, I do consider it the duty of all women of marriageable age to marry and bear children."

He knew too well reasons against motherhood, the difficulty of obtaining help in the home, the increasing cost of living, and the perils of childbirth. But we were not in this world to live soft and pleasant lives. At the same time a woman ought not to be made a domestic drudge to the indolent husband. He knew a man in Australia who got up a 5 o'clock every morning to turn the mangle, because he thought the work too hard for the laundry maid. True happiness was not to be found in cinema shows or in theatres, or in always-changing scenes, but it was to be found in home.

The Archbishop said he hoped that they would set their faces against the scanty dress which so many women were wearing now. Shorter dresses offered facilities for walking and kept the skirt clean. Something similar in the way of scanty dress had been seen after the Waterloo campaign, and Byron had ridiculed it with good effect.
