OBSERVE NEUTRALITY

CALIFORNIA DEVELOPMENT BOARD URGES RECOGNITION OF PRESIDENT WILSON'S MESSAGE

The California Development Board from its San Francisco offices have issued the following statement which should be of interest to all in the great commonwealth:

"To the Press and People of California:

The California Development Board wishes to emphasize the especial significance of the president's neutrality message in its application to this state.

"Not less than 21 per cent of California's population is foreign born, and nearly 28 per cent more is of foreign or mixed parentage. About half of our people, therefore, are related to other countries by blood ties.

"The nations now at war in Europe are represented in California by large numbers. According to the census of 1910, the aggregate is as follows:

Germans	76,208
Austrians	17,330
Hungarians	3,162
British	161,671
Italians	63,549
French	20,470
Russians	1,441
Belgians	1,441

"It is also important to remember that about half of the foreign-born population of California is widely distributed. Of the German population, 51 per cent is outside the three largest cities; of the Italians, 61 per cent; of the British, 56 per cent; of the French, 46 per cent; of the Austrians, 38 per cent.

"In view of these plain facts, the following words of President Wilson should not fall on dull ears in California:

"I am speaking, I feel sure, the earnest wish and purpose of every thoughtful American that this great country of ours, which is, of course, the first in our thoughts and in our hearts, should show itself in this time of peculiar trial a nation fit beyond others to exhibit the fine poise of undisturbed judgment, the dignity of self control, the efficiency of dispassionate action; a nation that neither sits in judgment on others nor is disturbed in her own counsels, and which keeps herself fit and free to do what is honest and disinterested and truly serviceable for the peace of the world."

DINNER AND CARDS

Yellow and pink predominated on the table presided over by Mrs. Lawrence Ellis Sunday evening, when she entertained a few friends informally at dinner in her home, 551 South Kenwood street.

Long gold edged cards adorned with tiny pink rosebuds to match the beautiful bouquet in the center were also introduced and marked covers for Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis.

Five Hundred followed and was the means of causing the evening to pass quickly and pleasantly.

BETTER PICTURES ATTRACT LARGE CROWDS

The crowds at the Glendale theater are increasing nightly, proving their appreciation of the class of pictures being shown. With the improved ventilation and other improvements formulated by the new management, it is a very enjoyable place to spend the evening. The first performance starts at 7 p. m. and the second at 8:30, giving hours meeting the requirements of everybody.

Tomorrow night's prize will be on exhibition to night in the ticket office. It will also be announced in tomorrow's edition of the Glendale News.

McLACHLAN FOR ROBERTS

Former Congressman.

I am for Frank C. Roberts for congress because I believe him to be honest, capable, a loyal Republican that always has, and ever will, stand true to the great principles of the Republican party without hitching.

When the fatuous wave of so-called Progressivism swept over our country like a miasma, condemning to death everything past and present, and sweeping thousands of unreflecting Republicans from their feet under the leadership of those who gleefully inhaled it for the sake of office and personal gain, Mr. Roberts held his nose, stood like the rock of Gibraltar, holding the Republican banner aloft, and could not be moved.

In many cases those leaders got the offices all right, and the emolument thereof; but, as a result, the Republican party was swept from power. The Democratic party assumed the reins of government, and in the gathering gloom that followed thousands of good Republicans realized how they had been duped. They are now only waiting for an opportunity to right that thoughtless error, and they know that a vote for Mr. Roberts, with his past unimpeachable record as a loyal Republican, is the best way to do that.

I thank God that sanity is asserting itself and that the day of the Lilliputian is past, and I believe that Mr. Roberts will be nominated and overwhelmingly elected next November.

WISHARD IS POPULAR

WISHARD RUNNING STRONG—CLEAN AND CONSTRUCTIVE—STANFORD AUTHORITY

Harry A. Wishard, "Popular Assembly Candidate Making Successful Campaign," is a part of the large headlines of the Highland Park Herald.

Mr. Wishard has already two thousand supporters in Glendale and Highland Park alone out of the four thousand registration for the whole district, says L. J. Rice of Highland Park. "This unusual 'popularity' is no doubt to a reaction from the methods of a few in the organization in packing precinct workers with Wilson men. But the suppression of other candidacies before the primary by an attempted monopoly of newspaper publicity and by depending on a stampede of voters by prominent downtown endorsements instead of those from within the district are other causes for this stand of the voters.

Mr. Wishard states that in order to make this struggle hold of a clique in a party impossible, I earnestly urge the organization of a non-partisan assembly of citizens of our district, which shall require all candidates to be responsible first to the needs of the district. Then regardless of who is elected, the district's needs will be adequately advanced and the smaller places will be so organized to combine and enforce a square deal.

Among Mr. Wishard's endorsers is M. N. Alderman, economist, historian and publisher, of Stanford university. He says: "I have known Mr. Wishard for six years. He is clean and rational minded. He is conscientious and careful to say only what he can do. Possibly Mr. Benedict is the only other assembly candidate that is as constructive as Mr. Wishard, according to my observations. Heretofore I have refrained from recommending a candidate because I have not been fully satisfied. Those who want a sincere progressive representative who will stand by the fight on liquor and in favor of moral and human needs in a conservative manner can depend on Wishard."

The following are some of Mr. Wishard's supporters who live within his district: Mrs. Jane Beatty, Mrs. M. F. Gridley, Samuel E. Wishard, Rev. Byron H. Wilson, Albert D. Pearce, L. I. Rice, W. W. Robinson, Col. Franklin W. Hart, Berry McKelvey, S. C. Wing, George Moore, Charley Evans, S. Stoddard, Rev. W. B. Gantz, L. P. Mitchell, J. E. Randall, V. T. Watkins, L. L. Whitson, Dr. B. S. Frary, Dr. G. A. Laubersheimer, Orle Hill, Thos. Allen, Chas. Green, D. H. Laubersheimer, V. J. Van Vleet, H. Severan, E. D. Unger, W. Needham, W. E. Lanphier, Ed. Barnett, Oliver P. Clark, W. E. Bruce, H. M. Hubbell. Adv.

ST. MARGARET GIRLS ENJOY SOCIAL AFTERNOON

Members of the St. Margaret Girls enjoyed a social afternoon together Saturday, when as guests of the president, Miss Harriett M. Wells, they spent from 2:30 until five at needlework and music. Miss Gertrude Champlain rendered a number of beautiful solos.

Light refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess, who invited the following St. Margaret Girls to be with her on that day: Miss Dorothy Smith, Miss Lillian Mills, Miss Bessie Provolt, Miss Amy Bowerford, Miss Mattie Belle Provolt, Miss Cecelia Wilson, Miss Stella Scott, Miss Ethel Reed, Miss Irene Reed, Miss Gertrude Champlain, Miss Athena Purt, Miss Olga Purt, Miss Ethel Land, Miss Clara Provolt, Miss Elizabeth Lange, Miss Elizabeth Russel, Miss Eva Black, Mrs. Charles U. Wells and Miss Katherine Wells.

CENSOR WAR NEWS

DREADFUL BATTLES RAGING BEHIND CENSORSHIP CURTAIN

Censorship of news from the European war is the most rigid the modern world has known. But the fact is patent that mammoth bodies of troops are clashing along a battle line of some 250 miles on the Franco-German-Belgian frontier, while important operations may be in progress on the Russian-Austrian-German frontier in the east. It is to be "attrition" tactics, after all, it seems. Each side trying to wear the other out, or to find some favorable opportunity to deal a crushing blow. Because of the censorship it is impossible to judge the magnitude of the fighting thus far, or to form an intelligent opinion as to the general issue of the fighting. The history of this war, particularly in its early stages, will have to be compiled from official reports of the opposing commander. It may be that, as the struggle proceeds, the censorship may be modified. But each nation involved seems to regard it as vital to keep the movement and results concealed from the enemy. It is grim business before the field marshals—not a dress parade affair.

WAR DESCRIBED

We all know what war is because General Sherman told us years ago. He did not tell the full story, however. There were a few side lights left for the funny man of the Galveston News to add. Read his description and see if you can remember another which gives so full a bill of particulars in a few words:

"The merchant ships of belligerent nations seek neutral waters because war makes theft honorable on the high seas. Robbery disguised as glory is now searching the ocean for victims, and like the sinking footpad who hides in the alleys or lies in wait behind cover, it does not hesitate to kill while robbing if opposition is offered. War is a beast. War is a murderer. War is a thief and a home wrecker. We sometimes utter condemnation for policemen who can not break up a gang of petty burglars, yet we have only words of admiration for gold-laced diplomats and sceptered sovereigns who connive at the operations of cut throats clothed in uniforms and inspired by military music. Some time, in the far future, men of all lands will come to knowledge that war is only manslaughter and arson and anarchy and sin, whose fruits are miseries and whose wounds bleed through eternity."

HARRY M. MILLER FOR JUSTICE OF PEACE

With six years' court experience as a peace officer, gifted in the handling of children, of mental poise, secure from the dictates of fear or favor, I possess the attainments for the fulfillment of the duties of the office to which I aspire. Owing to the duties of a police officer I have not had the opportunity to make an active personal campaign, but my friends have rallied to my support in such numbers that I feel confident of victory. I stand for clean living and absolute impartiality in the administration of justice. If elected to office I promise that nothing but the merits of the case shall ever be considered when rendering a decision.

My final word to the voters in the district are "You all know me. I want your vote only if you think me worthy of the office."

HARRY M. MILLER.

WAR TIME PRICES

J. A. Roper of 315 South Cedar hands us a copy of his home paper, the Horizon, Wis., Reporter, which contains an interesting item in regard to war time prices. Some interesting notes were taken from an old day book in use by F. B. Griswold in 1864-5. Some of the prices given are: Five lbs. of sugar, $1; one half gallon kerosene, 60 cents; 7 lbs. codfish, 96 cents; 2 lbs. coffee, $1.30; 3 lbs. lard, 90 cents. On Feb. 10, 1865, Frank Roper purchased one bushel potatoes, 75 cents; 4 lbs. sugar, $1; 3 lbs. white sugar, $1.

AT THE CHURCHES

PASTOR TROY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The services at the First Baptist church were unusually impressive and many expressed their appreciation of the feeling of love produced by the talk on "A Broken Heart" and the strong appeal to follow Christ in the evening sermon on "The mind of Christ."

In the absence of Mr. Martin the choir was under the leadership of Prof. Pierce. Miss Salisbury, who is considered one of the most brilliant pianists in the west, presided at the piano with her usual ability.

The B. Y. P. U. was led by Miss Alley. Plans were made for a Baptist Athletic club, and it is announced that the young people will enjoy an auto truck ride to Santa Monica next Friday evening. Fifty cents covers the entire expense, including refreshments at the beach. All who intend going will need to notify Mr. Fred Sanford.

There will be an announcement of special interest concerning the services of next Sunday. Watch the columns of the News.

WHITE RIBBONERS PICNIC

The White Ribboners held their annual picnic Friday, Aug. 21, at the foothill home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hartley, 104 Verdugo road. The spacious lawn and artistic arrangement of the flower garden was admired by the large number present.

A delicious picnic lunch was served under the large pepper tree. Many words of appreciation were given to Mr. and Mrs. Hartley for the pleasant day.

At 1:30 Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, the president, called the meeting to order. Dr. Jessie Russel gave a fair and just record of the candidates for the primaries, which will be useful to all present. Dr. Russel was given a rising vote of thanks for her instructions.

Mrs. Hattie Gaylord, state superintendent of fairs and open-air meetings, also gave voting instructions.

Harry Miller was present and was called upon to speak. He did justice to the time given him.

W. C. T. U. will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Louise Morton, 112 North Isabel street. Members are requested to bring dues as the treasurer wishes to send same to headquarters in September. Visitors will be welcome.

HAY RIDE AND PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Badgett of East Second St. gave a most enjoyable hay rack party to friends at Verdugo Park one evening last week, the occasion being another year to Mr. Badgett's credit, but this fact was withheld from the guests until a big birthday cake was placed upon the table, therefore the joy of giving rather than of receiving except love and respect were Mrs. Badgett's.

Songs, recitations and old fashioned games from "follow the leader" to "drop the handkerchief" made all hearts young and gay.

Guests present at this joyous affair were Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kerri, Mr. and Mrs. Noyse, Mr. and Mrs. Warmholz, Mr. and Mrs. Marek, Mr. and Mrs. Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Eifler, Mr. and Mrs. Stees, Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Knox and son, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Starkey and son Mr. and Mrs. Van Osdoll and daughter, Mrs. Fuller, Miss Hazel Cooper, Miss Thoms, Miss Pearl Alkin, Mr. Young, Mr. Hunter, Eric Barnett, Harry Badgett and Mr. and Mrs. Badgett.

WE WANT PEACE

It is so easy for some one to stir up contention. Why not have peace when it is possible to have peace. If you do not believe just as a neighbor believes talk him into believing your way, and do not make an attack upon his way of believing through the public press. The Glendale Evening News is an advocate of peace—sweet peace. Put yourself in the other fellow's position and it will be easy for you to come to a satisfactory agreement on questions of difference.

Your duty as a citizen requires that you study your ballot carefully so that you may be able to vote intelligently tomorrow.

Miss Kathleen Dodge of 100 South Central Ave., is home again from San Bernardino where she enjoyed a ten day visit with friends.

EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

PRETTY PINK AND WHITE PARTY FOR LITTLE DOROTHY POTTER'S BIRTHDAY

The eighth birthday of little Dorothy Potter proved a happy event in that little lady's life for in celebration of the occasion her mother, Mrs. Pierre V. Potter, entertained with a pretty girls' party in the family home, 1541 Pioneer drive, Saturday afternoon, August 22d.

Pink and white proved a very dainty and effective combination for decorative purposes, asters of unusual beauty having been combined with fern and used throughout the home.

An added feature in the dining room was a ribbon and floral canopy that hung over the table at which a delicious tea party was served.

The table boasted of a beautiful snow-white cake studded with rosebuds of confection and eight lighted tapers; cunning little kewpie handkerchiefs as favors for each guest; individual baskets filled with silver bonbons and place cards adorned with real pink blossoms, the latter having been the means of the little girls finding their places inasmuch as each was presented with a posy and told to find the corresponding one on the table.

The ices, candies and cakes furthered the chosen motif and were served to Catherine Guthrie, Viola Johnson, Helen Musgraves, Bernardine Boyd, Marion Grey, Alexandria Hoff, Virginia Dove and the little honoree, Dorothy Potter, all of whom enjoyed the afternoon in games and merry frolic.

Mrs. R. D. Vinton assisted the hostess and if the truth be known both Mrs. Vinton and Mrs. Potter enjoyed the day equally as much as Dorothy and her guests.

CARD PARTY FOR VISITOR

Since her arrival from Seattle, Washington, two weeks ago, Miss Veta Franklin, who is visiting in the home of her brother, Mr. Blake Franklin, 1498 West Third street, has been the complimented guest at a number of very enjoyable social affairs, the most recent of which was the card party given last evening by Mrs. Raymond P. Foss in her home, 1460 Salem street.

A generous combination of asters, roses and ferns were supplied for the occasion from choice summer gardens and attractively clustered in the rooms wherein the card tables were arranged.

Five Hundred was the evening's pastime, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dutton proving successful by winning highest scores and handsome prizes.

Delicious refreshments bountifully served were an added feature and replaced the cards at a late hour. Mrs. E. M. White and the gracious hostess having overlooked none of the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dale, Mr. and Mrs. W. Vandeburg, Mrs. Mable Ocker, Mr. G. W. Calkins, Miss Coral Griffith, Miss Frances Jackson and the honored guest.

Mrs. Fred L. Thompson of 1314 West Fifth St. has received word from her mother, Mrs. Caroline Weisenheimer, who left recently for Indianapolis, Ind., that she reached her destination safely and is enjoying her trip immensely.

MOTOR TO FRISCO

MR. AND MRS. CLEM MOORE RETURN FROM DELIGHTFUL TRIP IN NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Moore returned Friday from a delightful motor trip to San Francisco which, although a business trip, proved one of pleasure also. Mr. Moore went north in the interest of the Toledo Gas Floor Furnace company, establishing agencies in the larger cities. They visited Teahachepe, Bakersfield, Fresno, Stockton, Sacramento and Oakland on their journey north via the valley route. They found the roads very good and passed through some very beautiful and productive country. Quantities of fine fruit, especially peaches, was in evidence through the valley.

At San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Moore took in all the points of interest. They visited the fair grounds and found that much work has been done in preparing for next year. The buildings already completed are of extremely beautiful architecture. Work on some of the buildings has not yet been commenced.

The return trip was made via the coast road. The weather was cool and pleasant compared to the northward journey through the valley. They found the coast road poor south of San Luis Obispo. Mr. Moore thinks it will take hard work to put our highways in proper condition in time for our visitors next year.

Mr. Moore found business good in the larger cities which he visited, although there is not much stir in the smaller towns along the coast. They left Glendale August 9 and returned August 24 after a most enjoyable trip.

SUCCESSFUL MASS MEETING

A large and intensely interested audience greeted Thomas Lee Woolwine, candidate for district attorney, when he spoke on "Equal Enforcement of the Law" Saturday evening at the high school.

The speaker held the closest attention of the assembly, being frequently interrupted by hearty applause. Judging by the welcome accorded Mr. Woolwine and the general sentiment of local citizens for a clean county administration free from all machine politics, this gentleman will undoubtedly receive a large majority of votes here.

Dr. Jessie A. Russel gave a short talk on the importance of the office of district attorney, touching, as it does, all branches of the county government. Dr. Russel especially emphasized the necessity of voting at the primary on Tuesday, as neglect to do so may leave you little choice of candidates at the November election.

A few musical numbers were introduced. Little Allene Grist, accompanied on the piano by Miss Katherine Hobbs, sang an original campaign song which received generous applause. Miss Hobbs also contributed piano solos which met with the same hearty appreciation always accorded this talented musician.

Owing to the inability of the soloist, the original song by Jasper N. McGinnis was necessarily omitted. Col. Thomas C. Thornton presided during the program.

Mrs. F. S. Hurlburt of Los Angeles enjoyed three days last week in Glendale being a guest during her visit of Mrs. J. J. Schremp of 1442 East Roadway.

TROPICO

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Phillips, who have but recently moved from Tropic to Glendale, entertained with a dinner party at their home on East Fifth street Sunday complimentary to the anniversary of their son, Thomas Phillips. Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Miss Marjorie Imler, Miss Elizabeth Phillips, Miss Catherine Phillips, Eugene H. Imler and the honoree, Thomas Phillips.

Much interest is being manifested in the candidacy of Mrs. Ella F. Meeker of Glendale for assembly woman of the 61st assembly among the citizens of Tropic. Mrs. Meeker is the most logical candidate presented by the Republican party. Having lived in Glendale for the past eight years, she has a legion of friends and admirers who are endeavoring to secure her election at tomorrow's primary. Mrs. Meeker stands for every thing that is high and noble; is a prominent club woman and works for the improvement and progress of all movements that tend for the uplift of mankind. Mrs. Meeker is of charming personality and carries conviction with her forcible arguments. Among the many speakers at Hooker gardens Saturday, when Candidate's Day, was observed, Mrs. Meeker made one of the best speeches and received one of the largest ovations of all the candidates.

Complimentary to their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bahrenberg of Redlands, who with their daughter Rea are their house guests for a fortnight, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Bahrenberg entertained with a charmingly appointed dinner party at their home, "Twin Pines," on West Park avenue Sunday evening.

NORTH GLENDALE

Last Friday afternoon Master Theodore Haig of 1005 San Rafael street celebrated his eighth birthday and in honor of the occasion his mother, Mrs. Carl B. Haig, entertained with a delightful children's party. Invitations were issued to twelve of Master Theodore's boy friends and with one exception all were present to enjoy the happy time. The delicious luncheon was served out of doors. A long table beautifully decorated with choice pink roses and ferns was arranged on the spacious lawn and after a merry time playing games, all were seated at the table and certainly justice was done the good things before them. The birthday cake, of course, must be mentioned for it was the most important feature of the occasion, with its eight pink candles which were in due time lighted, at which time Master Theodore received hearty congratulations and the best wishes of all present and who also was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

WOOLWINE CAMPAIGN, HEAD-QUARTERS

Many local citizens interested in the candidacy of Thomas Lee Woolwine for district attorney have volunteered their assistance during the election hours, tomorrow, with machines and personal work. Headquarters will be located at Mr. H. A. Wilson's real state office, 912 West Broadway. Phones, Sunset 242W and Home 1182.

Phones for precincts are: Precinct 1, 143J; precinct 2, 246; precinct 3, 530W; precinct 4, 526W. Information regarding registration, machines, etc., will be cheerfully given.

WHY JOHN C. CLINE SHOULD BE SHERIFF

He has lived in Los Angeles 45 years and everybody is familiar with his clean public record.

In 1894 as sheriff he handled the great American Railway Union strike without the aid of the militia, by appointing special deputies from the ranks of labor, to prevent disorder and the destruction of property. Thus in his wisdom demonstrating that men in any walk of life, put upon their honor, will observe their trust.

VOTERS, ATTENTION.

To the voters of Burbank township:

As Justice of the Peace of Burbank township I am a candidate for reelection to that office.

I have been your justice for nine years. Through all this time I have striven to earn my reputation as judge and not as a politician. Reputable attorneys who have had business in my court, "of which there are many," are the men of whom you should inquire as to my fitness in administering justice. After having satisfied yourself that I deserve to be continued in my judicial life, I would be greatly pleased to have your active support at the primary election.
Sincerely yours,
GEORGE C. MELROSE.

WHY CONSERVATIVE BUSINESS MEN ARE INVESTING HERE

MR. A. MOODY,
Retired Farmer, Capitalist of Osage, Iowa.
"My property at Harbor Industrial City is not for sale. I consider that I have made one of the best investments of my life because Harbor Industrial City adjoins the only harbor in this locality, has good soil, and receives the benefit of every dollar the United States government has spent and will invest."

A. T. GOLDSMITH,
Business Man of Boston, Massachusetts.
"For the past twenty years I have watched the development of the Harbor at Boston and have seen the wonderful increase in real estate values for miles around the water front. I consider Harbor Industrial City better than similarly located property around Massachusetts Bay, because of the fact that the Panama Canal will direct its traffic to this point. It is the best investment that I have found on the Pacific Coast."

E. LAMBERT,
Manufacturing Wholesale Druggist, Minneapolis, Minnesota.
"I consider Harbor Industrial City a good investment because there is every possibility for an increase in value of every foot of land, and at the present prices it is far below other Harbor property not so well located."

FATHER J. A. JUDNIC,
Pastor St. Anthony's Catholic Church.
"When I bought at Harbor Industrial City I considered it a good investment. I am still of the same opinion and am more enthusiastic each day. It is the sure and certain future of L. A. harbor that makes Harbor Industrial City a safe, conservative investment. I have watched and studied the harbor carefully and can conscientiously advise anyone to place their investment at this point."

These are but a few of the reasons given by a few of the level-headed, conservative men who are buying at Harbor Industrial City. They have all realized a profit on their investment—WITHIN THE PAST FEW MONTHS. What they have done you can do. Look farther ahead than today and consider seriously what Los Angeles Harbor and the Panama Canal mean to Harbor Industrial City.

Today you can buy a half-acre tract in the Industrial and Home Site addition to Harbor Industrial City for $550 to $900 on terms of 10% down and $10 per month. These prices, including improvements, are less than in any other section of the harbor. The coming of big factories will develop all of Harbor Industrial City into industrial property. There is an opportunity to make large profits now before prices are advanced. Our Glendale offices will be open tonight and tomorrow night until 8 p. m. Come in any time and make arrangement to go on Wednesday's excursion. We will also be glad to explain to you Harbor Industrial City in detail.

STOPS ABUSE OF TEAMS

South Pasadena Record—A decisive step towards putting a stop to abuse of animals and the hauling of heavy loads was taken by Marshal Johnson this afternoon, when he took into tow a driver for the Simons Brick company of Los Angeles at Magnolia street and Fair Oaks avenue.

The marshal's attention was called to the case when the driver was whipping his team of five skinny mules, hitched to a heavy wagon loaded with brick. Marshal Johnson put a stop to the whipping and called Humane Officer Charles H. Kelly, who took the case in hand.

It was found that the wagon was loaded with 308 bricks, each weighing 2 1/2 pounds, making a total weight of 8,162 pounds of brick besides the wagon, which weighed at least a ton. As the load was going north up the Fair Oaks avenue grade it was more than the mules could pull.

Officer Kelly compelled the driver to unhitch the mules, then he notified the Simons Brick company that another team must be sent out and warned company officials against sending out heavy loads.

The company is said to be in the habit of loading wagons to the limit and compelling teams to pull them. Much complaint has been made and local officials say that every time this abuse is noted in the future there will be prosecutions. It is well known that the drivers are not always to blame. The fault appears to lie with the company that compels their loaders to heap too many bricks on the wagons.

TO STAY INSECT RAVAGE

In furtherance of the campaign of Commissioner of Horticulture Wood to stay the ravages of harmful insects on the tree and plant growth of the county, the following bulletin has been sent out to inspectors:

All trees and plants received at any point in this county, coming from any other point within or without the county, must have attached thereto a tag or label showing point of the shipment, name and address of the shipper, also name and address of the consignee; locality where the stock was grown and kind and amount of it. It must also be inspected by a horticultural inspector of this county as to its freedom from harmful insect infestation and disease before delivery to the consignee.

All trees and plants before shipment to points either within or without the county must be inspected by a horticultural inspector and have attached thereto his certificate showing such stock to be free from harmful insects and diseases; and in case of seed bed or other citrus stock it must be hand picked or scrubbed in whale oil soap to remove all adult black scale and dipped in resin wash of standard strength one week before an inspector's certificate is given.

In case of citrus stock going to Ventura county, whose requirement is that it be defoliated, hand picked or scrubbed and fumigated, the resin wash treatment is not required, but thorough fumigation must be given one week before an inspector's certificate is given.

The penalty for violation of these regulations of county and state law is imprisonment for not more than six months, or a fine of not more than $500, or both.

Occasionally papers announce, with big headlines, that the czar, or the kaiser, has left for the front to give the magic of his immediate presence to the men on the firing line. Probably neither the czar nor the kaiser ever did or will go to the firing line. That is not their business. They make this deadly line, but never visit it. In a game of chess which is the game of war in miniature the king always stays in some protected corner, while his subjects, the pawns, are pushed into the line where slaughter is.

It is quite proper that the president should caution the people to be prudent in speech regarding the war in Europe. In a sense we are kin to all the warring nations and races. If their blood is not literally mingled in our veins, their people are our neighbors with whom we come into daily contact. Ordinary courtesy, the spirit of fairness should prompt us to respect their feelings and regard their national sympathies. This is common politeness and courtesy carried into the realm of international politics.

Let's be absolutely neutral toward all the nations engaged in warfare, but let's be aggressively arrayed against war in general.

The spread of intelligence in this country has been remarkable. For example, everybody now knows when to do Christmas shopping.

ALLEN FOR SUPERIOR JUDGE

W. S. Allen, a candidate for judge of the Superior Court was born in Iowa in 1861. When eleven years of age he moved to Kansas. His early life was spent in hard work in construction of railroads and in coal mines. Arriving at maturity he determined to get an education and was graduated from the state university of Kansas in 1888. For five years he taught high school and edited a daily paper in Newton, Kansas. He began the practice of law in 1894 and was elected district attorney in 1897. He moved to California in 1901. For the past eight years he has been counsel for the Title Insurance & Trust company and has acquired great skill in handling many intricate problems relative to real property and title to real property. J. VINCENT HANNON ENDORSED FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

Ladies and Gentlemen: Honorable J. Vincent Hannon of the Los Angeles bar has announced himself as a candidate for the position of superior court judge of this county and his name will come before the electors of the county at the next primary election for one of the ten positions that will be vacant in that office. We, the undersigned members of the bar of this county, take great pleasure in endorsing Mr. Hannon's candidacy, and we sincerely trust that the electors of the county will see fit, in their wisdom, to select him for one of the ten judgeships in this county, to be filled at the coming election.

Some of us have known Mr. Hannon since his boyhood days. Others of us have known him since he first began his career as a member of this bar. Others have known him in the active practice as an attorney, but all of us take great pleasure in certifying to the fact that in Mr. Hannon we have always found not only a splendid gentleman, but an excellent, well-equipped, competent lawyer, and one whom we not only believe but know from education, mental qualification and practice will make a splendid judge, and we endorse him as being fully qualified in every respect for that position. It is our purpose, without disparaging the candidacy of any other aspirant to that office, to do what we can toward the election of Mr. Hannon for one of these places. There are ten judges for the superior bench to be elected in this county at the coming election and already the names of many men, fully qualified, have been suggested or announced, but with due respect to any and all of them, we believe that Mr. Hannon is as fully equipped and well qualified for that place as any man whose name has yet come before the people.

We take this means in making our position public in the hopes that those of our friends who have confidence in our knowledge of the fitness of men for the bench will do what they can to assist Mr. Hannon in this election. Very truly yours,
Edwin A. Meserve, John G. Mott, Joseph Scott, Oscar Lawler, Max Loewenthal, Isidore B. Dockweiler, Frank P. Flint, George J. Denis, Walter F. Haas, J. Wiseman Macdonald, Albert M. Stephens, R. F. Del Valle, A. D. Laughlin, Lucien Earle, M. J. McGarry, J. W. Swanwick, John W. Carrigan, W. F. McLaughlin, Richard Dillon, H. W. O'Melveny, W. H. Anderson, W. S. Wright, Joseph H. Call, John H. Foley. Adv.
