We publish a note, from J. Macroady, esq. in which Coolines the candidateship for representing the sixth ward, and states the cause which has led to his withdrawa While we pay homege to his modesty; we almost feel sorry that be should have listened to its suggestious. The favorable standing of that gontleman, in our community, is the needon of his own exertions; he may well be said to be um fortune faber. He came to this city when a mere youth; and six years of manly bearing and useful persoverance, would certainly have entitled him, and justly too, to the suffrages of his fellow citizens, had he not thought proper to give the field to an old public servant F. Gaicanie!

Sin-When I consented first to have my name announ ed, in connexion with that of Mr. Freret, as a candidate for station of the sixth ward in the city council, a was under the express condition, that if in the mean time any person of more experience and more competent to promote the interests of the beard should offer, I would decline; that event having arrived, you will please discontinue my same as a candidate. A gentleman has offered himself to t'is stolics of the voters of the sixth ward, who represented it before, and who represented it abiy. Mr. Gaiennie will do honger to their choice, and with him and Mr. Freret watching over their interests, they may rest assured, that the upper faulurgs will not be retarded in their rapid progrees to prosperity.
