BORDERS BROTHERS.

MARIGNY HOTEL.

Corner of Victory Street, and the Frenchmen Rail Rd.
The proprietors have respectfully invited the attention of the public to this establishment, which is situated in a new and splendid style, unequalled in this country.

No pains or expense have been spared, and the utmost care, with regard to the comfort of its patrons, is given, and the rooms are delightfully pleasant.

There is a nobly furnished saloon expressly for the accommodation of ladies on the rail road, connected with which are apartments where tea, Cream, Soda Water and Confectionery are served to Ladies and Gentlemen every evening.

This will be found very convenient for Ladies and Gentlemen that travel on the Rail Road, who are too late for the cars, a pleasant place to sit in, will be some compensation for the disappointment, and add to this some the luxury of this house will make the delay a pleasure, and for those who indulged an evening promenade, this will be a most delightful place.

Our splendid establishment has been fitted up with great care, the proprietor has only been induced to assume the responsibility, from the knowledge of the fact that the citizens of New Orleans are second to none in their further cordiality of rewarding laudable exertions.
