

LITTIG IS UGLY!

THE UGLY MAN caricature glowers down on Friday night's dramatic moment when Vi-Queen Lucia Anderson crowned Jim Littig Ugly Man on Campus of 1958. Ron Falbe, APO chairman of the event, stands behind Lucia with the trophies.

Johannesen and Bergendoff In State Oratory

(Picture on Page 2)

Liz Bergendoff and Dick Johannesen will represent Augustana at the State Oratory Contest, February 14 and 15 at Northern Illinois University, De Kalb.

State contest winners will vie for national honors at Michigan State University later in the spring. Tim Johnson, Augie senior, is the current men's national champ.

In Liz's oration, "Moonstruck," she questions modern man's penetration of space without first settling problems on earth.

Dick attacks subliminal advertising, analyzing the ethics of motivational research in his oration, entitled "M. R."

Augie's orators and debators will compete in an invitational forensics tournament at De Kalb, February 20.

Debate Team 2nd in NW'n Invitational

The University of Kansas debate team nosed out Augustana's Phil Hubbart and Norm Lefstein by a close 2-1 decision at the National Invitational Debate Tourney held at Northwestern University this weekend.

Phil was awarded a gold medal for his position as outstanding individual speaker in the entire tournament. Norm placed fourth in the field of 196 competitors.

FSTUN Moves Goal to $4,000 after Stu-U Gift

Jim Littig won out over a field of fifteen ugly competitors as Mr. Ugly Man On Campus last Friday night at the Operation: FSTUN kick-off party in the gym. Jim was crowned by Vi-Queen Lucia Anderson and received his trophy from Ron Falbe, chairman of the Alpha Phi Omega sponsored event. Bette Olson, president of Jim's sponsors, the PHI RHOs, received the large traveling trophy.

John Sutherland and Helen Hoyer, FSTUN co-chairmen, raised the drive's goal a thousand dollars to $4,000 after receipt of a $750 check from Mac Waughtal, Student Union treasurer, on behalf of the Student Union government.

The Stu-U donation, voted to FSTUN by the Representative Assembly, and the returns from the UMOG contest helped to push

Friday's total above the $1,000 mark

Campus social organizations have started their community service projects aimed at earning the remaining 75% of the goal.

In the other big event of the evening, the KE sorority's pledge class won the cup for the best skit in competition among sorority pledges, while the OZO's topped fraternity pledge class competition.

The fledgling KEYs presented an Oklahoma!-type extravaganza entitled "Augustana, O.K.!"

The OZO winner was a semi-pantomimed "Busman's Holiday" relating the vicissitudes of a bus driver's encounters with the traveling public.

Team to Face Carthage Before Wheaton Test Sat.

Breaking even in two games over the week-end, Augustana's basketball team takes time out from its busy College Conference of Illinois schedule tomorrow night, meeting Carthage College at 8 p. m. in the Augie gym.

The Vikings return to CCI action Saturday night when they host the nation's No. 1 ranked small college team, Wheaton.

Last Friday the Augie cagers moved into a tie for second place with a 71-64 win over Millikin in the latter's gym, then dropped back out of the tie when a hot Illinois Wesleyan club handed the Blue and Gold its worst defeat of the season, 78-61.

Results of last week-end left Augustana with a 6-4 record in the conference and an 8-7 mark for the season. Six games remain on the Augie schedule, three home games, one after this week. (Continued on page three)
