

Rochester Feb 10th 1827

Respected Friend. — I recd. yours of the 7th it was mailed the 9th and I recd it the same Evening — Went out to day and on enquiry find Bolting Cloth kept only by one man Mr. Thomas Kempshall — he has two numbers only —

No. 7 marked $\frac{3}{4}$ — but measuring only $\frac{9}{8}$
Arms of Haarlem.

Buy L. Gaas.

32 Ellen — 24 yards

No. 8 Marked $\frac{5}{4}$ but measuring only $\frac{15}{16}$
Arms of Haarlem.

Buy L. Gaas.

32 Ellen. — 24 yards

This last is the finest — I am not a judge of the Article, but the Gaas appear very fair — he calls them the best Quality at these numbers — Mr. Kempshall said, for a piece unbooken he wants take $$5.50$ per yard if he cuts the piece his price is $$6.00$ — he has several pieces —

Most Respectfully Yours —

Mr. R. P. Hunt
