

FIRST AMONG STATES

MINERAL PRODUCTION IN CALIFORNIA VALUED AT OVER 100 MILLION DOLLARS

California, first among the states west of the Mississippi river and fifth among all the states in the value of its mineral production, according to figures of the United States Geological Survey, has for the last ten years rested its claim to prominence as a mineral producer on its output of petroleum, in which it now leads all the other states, as Pennsylvania does in the production of coal. In the quantity of petroleum produced in 1913 California was credited with 39.35 per cent of the total output of petroleum in the United States, and in 1912 per cent in the value. Pennsylvania in 1913 contributed 46 per cent to the total quantity of coal produced and 51 per cent of the total value of the output. Prior to 1913 when petroleum took first place among the mineral products of the state, value considered, gold was the chief mineral product of the state, and although gold has fallen from first place in the mineral products of the state, California continues to lead all of the other states in the output of the yellow metal. Moreover, California was one of the few states in which gold production is an important factor that did not show decreased production in 1913.

The production of petroleum in 1913 was a little more than 45 per cent of the total mineral output of the state. The record for 1913 shows an increase in the quantity of crude oil produced of over 10,500,000 barrels—from 87,268,536 barrels in 1912 to 97,788,525 barrels in 1913. The value increased somewhat more in proportion from $39,616,387 to $45,709,400.

The production of gold increased from 953,639 fine ounces, valued at $19,713,478 in 1912 to 987,187 fine ounces, valued at $20,406,958 in 1913. Of the total gold production of the state about 55 per cent is derived from deep mines and about 45 per cent from placers. Of the output of mine gold about 94 per cent is obtained from siliceous ores and the other 6 per cent is derived from copper and lead ores.

Third in importance among California's mineral industries is the manufacture of Portland cement, in which California now ranks third in importance among the states. The production in 1913 was 6,018,162 barrels, a decrease of 75,528 barrels from 6,093,790 barrels in 1912. The value increased, however, from $8,215,894 to $8,896,734.

Fourth in importance among the state's mineral industries and second among the metals is the mining and smelting of copper, of which the principal producing counties are Shasta and Calaveras, the former contributing about 80 per cent of the total and the latter between 15 and 20 per cent. The production increased from 33,451,672 pounds in 1912 to 34,575,007 pounds in 1913, with a decrease in value from $5,519,526 in 1912 to $5,359,126 in 1913.

Copper was closely followed by clay products in the value of output in 1913, and was exceeded by them in 1912. The brick yards and other clay-working establishments contributed products in 1912 valued at $5,912,450 and in 1913, $5,344,958. Clay suitable for the manufacture of common brick occurs in practically every county in the state.

The quarry products, which consist chiefly of trap rock, granite and limestone, in the order named, were valued at $4,118,935 in 1913, against $3,902,313 in 1912. Of the total production trap rock, used chiefly for road making and railroad ballast, contributed something over 50 per cent.

California is the only producer of borax, magnesite, and chromite and is the leading state in the production of asphalt, flourspar and quicksilver, but the combined values of these products in 1913 amounts to a little over $4,000,000, and of these asphalt and borax amount to nearly $3,200,000. The production of natural gas showed an increase from $1,134,456 in 1912 to $1,883,450 and was the only other mineral product which had a value in excess of $1,000,000 in 1913. The other mineral products of commercial importance in California are coal, feldspar, fuller's earth, gems and gem materials, graphite, gypsum, infusorial earth, iron ore, lead, lime, manganese ore, mineral paints, mineral waters, pumice, pyrite, salt, sand and gravel, sand-lime brick, quartz (silicea), sulphuric acid, talc, tungsten ore, and zinc. The total value of the mineral products of California increased from $93,219,149 in 1912 to $100,791,369 in 1913.

KIRK WRITES AGAIN

OBSERVATIONS OF A TRAVELER IN THE MIDDLE WEST STATES

Denver, Colo., Sept. 19, 1914.
Dear News: If a young man of energy and resourcefulness were looking up a location for the making of his fortune, he might go further and do worse than come to Wyoming. Although very little developed as yet, Wyoming has the making of a fine state. The section of Wyoming crossed by the U. P. R. R. would indicate to the transcontinental traveler that the state was a barren desert, because the U. P. passes through the very poorest part of it. Its coal mined at Rock Springs, Sheridan and other points is of very superior quality, and its outcropping as well as of oil on the Lander line and, in fact, over the entire central part of the state, indicate that it will be one of the greatest fuel-producing states. Its valleys are rich in agriculture wherever water is developed and it is one of the largest wool producing states of the union.

Like California, Wyoming has a great variety of country and climate and, although yesterday was quite warm in Cheyenne, I notice that a pleasure party was lost in a blizzard on Mt. Casper. The Hot Springs of Thermopolis are famous for their cures of rheumatism, and the reader must not forget that Yellowstone park is in Wyoming, which travelers say is superior in wonders and beauty to our own famous Yosemite.

An old sign on a saloon window in Cheyenne attracted my attention. It is in large letters and reads: "If your family needs your money we don't want your trade." This led me to wondering if in this sentiment were lived up to by all liquor dealers to what small proportions the saloon business would immediately shrink. If I were a betting man I would wager a large sum that this Cheyenne barkeeper would be out of business in 24 hours. Everybody knows that the saloon can only be maintained by habitual drunkards, and that nearly all of them are poor men. My, how many of our labor and social troubles will be settled instantly if the saloon is banished.

Denver has the reputation of being one of the most beautiful cities in the country. It seems to be so clean and well kept. The new Girth building, which is nearing completion, is very imposing. It is of light grey Colorado granite, of classic design and occupies an entire block. The side walls are one entire row of immense half columns, about four stories high, with detached, whole columns in front. It will cost about two millions. A great many of your readers have seen the capitol building and know what a magnificent building it is.

The weather has been too hot for comfort since I have been here, but Denver's climate is known to be fine. The only objection I would have to it is the altitude. A mile high is a little too "rare" for a thin or nervous person.

Not having been in Denver for five years, the greatest surprise to me is in its illumination. I hadn't heard about it, but they claim to have the most brilliant illuminating effects of any city west of New York and I am inclined to believe it. The finest feature in lighting is the building of the Denver Gas and Electric Light company itself. This is a beautiful structure of 8 or 10 stories, even in daylight, but at night it is a marvel of beauty. Instead of being straight lines of bulbs as ordinarily, the lights are stuccoed on the building in groups, the top two or three stories having panels of light and the coping a network of filigree or Valenciennes pattern. The moving picture theaters are a perfect blaze of lights, each seemingly trying to outdo the other in gorgeousness, and other business buildings have unique and splendid electric signs.

Soon after arriving here on Thursday night I went out to hear Billy Sunday, the evangelist, who is holding a great meeting here. The church people have erected a temporary building south of the capitol, which seats over 11,000 people. It was full when I arrived and I had to stand during the entire service. But it was worth it. I had heard such stories about Sunday that I confess I was a little skeptical about the fellow, but I was soon converted to the fact that he is all right. He is doing a great work. His baseball experience gives him some odd gestures, such as throwing his arm back like he was pitching a "curve," at the same time raising and throwing out his right leg, etc., but he is full of fire and magnetism and works his head at the same time. He has a message, he sticks close to his subject and presents the gospel in a most attractive way. He is a much

WHERE THE WEST BEGINS

By Arthur Chapman

Out where the hand clasps a little stronger,
Out where a smile dwells a little longer,
That's where the West begins;
Out where the sun is a little brighter,
Where the snows that fall are a trifle whiter,
Where the bonds of home are a wee bit tighter—
That's where the West begins;

Out where the skies are a trifle bluer,
Out where friendship's a little truer,
That's where the West begins;
Out where a fresher breeze is blowing,
Where there's laughter in every streamlet flowing,
Where there's more of reaping and less of sowing—
That's where the West begins;

Out where the world is in the making,
Where fewer hearts with despair are aching—
That's where the West begins;
Where there's more of singing and less of sighing,
Where there's more of giving and less of buying,
And a man makes friends without half trying—
That's where the West begins;

HIGH-CLASS PICTURES TO BE A FEATURE

STAR THEATER TO PRODUCE KALEM'S WONDERFUL MASTERPIECE, "SHANNON OF THE SIXTH"

For Friday and Saturday nights at the Star theater, Tropic, Manager C. H. Eudemiller has gone to considerable expense and trouble in order to give his patrons the best feature on the market. On these two nights Kalem's wonderful masterpiece, "Shannon of the Sixth," will be produced and the prices will remain the same, ten cents.

"Shannon of the Sixth" is a five-reel picture drama, with India settings and was produced at the Glendale Kalem camp at a cost of $40,000. Up to this time the picture has been shown in but one house and that one in Los Angeles, where the picture was much talked about.

George H. Melford, the efficient director of the Glendale branch of this beautiful British war drama by Edward E. Kidder, and it was through his efforts that the 400 to 500 people used in this production were handled with such success. It required some four months' work. Over 200 soldiers, members of the state militia, 200 Hindus, besides the speaking parts by regular stars were necessary. Douglas Gerrard enacted the part of Shannon, which such well known favorites as Marjorie Sais, Paul Hearst, Cleo Ridgeley and William Herman West helped to make "Shannon of the Sixth" a great drama.

In connection with this big, five-reel feature the Star will offer on Friday evening their regular feature, Mary Pickford, the third of the series in "Love Among the Roses." On Saturday night "Red Riding Hood of the Hills," a drama. On Sunday evening the program will be of equal value, "Nina of the Theater." This is a two-reel drama by the Kalem company and features Alice Joyce in the first of a series. This series will be shown every two weeks. Also "Darktown Wooley," a Kalem comedy, and a Selig, "Two Girls."

On account of the big five-reel feature, the Star theater show will start at 7 o'clock promptly and at 9. The Star theater, under the supervision of Mr. Eudemiller, is becoming very popular and nothing is spared to give the attendants a show worth the admission price many times over.

QUEEN ESTHER RECEPTION

The reception that the Queen Esthers of the West Glendale Methodist church were to give in honor of the Queen Esthers of the First M. E. church and the Casa Verdugo church, has been postponed one week, making the date October 10 instead of October 3, on account of conference week coming at that time. Mrs. Miller, who is to speak at the reception, found she could not be present on October 3 on account of the conference.

All Queen Esthers of the three Methodist churches are urged to be present at this affair, which will be held at the home of the West Glendale Queen Esther superintendent, Miss Clara Midcaif, of 118 Brand boulevard.

keener, brighter man than I expected; in fact, he is a great preacher, there's no doubt about it. The slang phrases he uses are not half so many or so bad as you expect, and coming from him seem not at all out of place. To see a packed audience of 11,000 people is "some sight." He is having hundreds of conversions and expects to stay here six weeks. Later, I heard him again on Friday evening.

Hastily yours,
W. B. KIRK.

G. U. H. S. ENROLLMENT

TOTAL ENROLLMENT REACHES 374—THE STYLUS STAFF IS ELECTED—OTHER NOTES

School days have again nicely begun for what is heralded to be a most auspicious year in the annals of Glendale Union high school. School work has started with exceptional vigor and the new buildings, too, are being pushed to completion.

The enrollment this year is one of the features which seems to tell the growth of Glendale high school better than anything else. By classes it is as follows:
Senior (XII), 74.
Junior (XI), 80.
Freshmen (A IX), 23.
Freshmen (B IX), 108.

Included in the senior roll are a number of post-graduate students. The A IX class is the class which entered the school at the beginning of the mid-winter term last year. The total enrollment of all the classes is 374, which number completely fills the auditorium during assemblies.

There will be a meeting of the Southwestern Debating League at Lincoln high school, corner North Broadway and Pritchard street, Los Angeles, Saturday morning, Sept. 26, at 10 o'clock. Prof. W. D. Root and Carol Willisford will represent Glendale high at this meeting.

Much interest in the European war has been created in Miss Darsie's medieval and modern history class by the acquisition of a war map. The day's progress along the battle front is marked with representative pins and keen interest is displayed over the movements of the armies.

The sophomore class appeared at the high school the middle of the week bedecked in stunning caps and sweaters. Black and gold are their colors.

Prof. Root's debating class has as its subject of debate Friday "Resolved, that the eight-hour law as proposed in the initiative to be voted on Nov. 3 should be adopted."

Interclass basketball will start a week from next Tuesday, Oct. 6. The freshmen and sophomore squads will be the opposing sides. No kind of football will be played this year on account of the building material being strewn all over the athletic field.

COMMITTEE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. H. H. Martin, chairman of the hospitality committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, is entertaining members of her committee in her home, 329 Orange street, this afternoon, in order to perfect plans for her booth, in which sandwiches, tomatoes and coffee will be served at the fiesta to be given by the club on Oct. 3.

Mrs. Martin, whose home is brightened by bouquets of fresh cut flowers, has prepared a dainty collation for her co-workers, who are Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. V. Price Brown, Mrs. J. Walter Elliott, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. Walter Stamps, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Harry Goodwin, Mrs. W. W. McElroy, Mrs. E. L. Parke, Mrs. T. C. Thornton, Mrs. Alfred Pierce, Mrs. Fred W. Pigg, Mrs. John Robert White and Mrs. J. F. Hearnshaw.

KENWOOD ORNAMENTAL LIGHTS

A petition for ornamental lights on Kenwood street, between Doran and Broadway, has just secured sufficient signers under the energetic work of Mr. Thomas Ogg. The petition is to be placed before the board of trustees and we hope that in due time Kenwood street will be one of the beauty spots of Glendale.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of the late Mrs. A. B. Kelly will be held on Saturday, the 26th inst., at 2 p. m., from the undertaking parlors of Turner, Stephens & Turner in Alhambra, with interment at Forest Lawn cemetery, Tropic, at 3 p. m.

PRAYER FOR PEACE

President Wilson's call for concerted prayer for peace October 4th meets with such hearty approval that it may be properly called unanimous. Certain is it that the suggestion reaches responsive hearts, for the people are already praying as never before, led there by a clearer understanding of the terrible horrors of war and the utter folly and uselessness of this one. If the prayer gauge is to cut any figure in the length and character of the combat, it will speedily end and battleships will be turned into hospitals and the able-bodied soldiers throw down their arms and get busy with the disabled and wounded. Whether these immediate good results follow quickly or not is no reflection on the efficiency of prayer. The exercise is important, useful and helpful to the petitioners, even though the cannon's roar continues and the earth trembles beneath the march of hostile armies. Prayer quiets the mind, softens the heart, awakens kindly impulses, promotes charity, awakens sympathy, destroys selfishness and puts the soul in frame for good all around purposes, making it easier to enthroned the golden rule as a basis of control of all actions between human beings. Let no one discount the power of prayer. "Prayer moves the arm that moves the world." The fact that it is invoked in emergencies is proof of its universality. Do you think there was any one on the Titanic that did not pray? If so important in emergencies it should not lose its potentiality when seas are smooth. Like many articles on the farm or in the house, it is easily kept bright by frequent use. S. P.

MRS. FRANK H. SNYDER

Mrs. Disa Fleming Snyder, beloved wife of Frank H. Snyder, a prominent lawyer lately from Portland, Ind., passed to her home beyond at her residence, 815 Lincoln place in North Glendale, Wednesday afternoon. The cause of her death was paralysis, having been sick but five days. She was born near Logansport, Indiana, July 30, 1864, and was one of a large family of prominent men and women of that state, they having sprung from Revolutionary stock on both sides of her family. Her strong inheritance was widened in her motherhood, her home-making and her devotion as a wife. She was a kind neighbor and a true friend.

Coming to sunny Southern California with her husband and family about a year and a half ago, her naturally frail constitution seemed to take on new vigor. The glad sunshine made her naturally sunny disposition more sunny, and she was planning for many years with her dear ones in our beautiful land.

She leaves, besides one sister and three brothers, her husband, Mr. Frank H. Snyder; her son Paul, just entering manhood; her daughter Leota, an honor graduate with the Glendale high school of 1914; her daughter Jane, who has just begun her high school course, and her little boy, her youngest child, Edgar.

Mrs. Snyder has greatly endeared herself to her new friends in her new home, all feeling that a dear, beautiful character has gone from their daily lives.

Funeral services will be held from the residence, 815 Lincoln place, North Glendale, at 3 p. m. Friday, Sept. 25th. The body will then be taken to Rosedale cemetery, Los Angeles, and cremated.

NOTICE!

The social for the Loyal Women's class of the Christian church, which was to have been given in the home of Mrs. Fred W. Pigg, 912 Randolph street, will be given at the Christian church on the same date, Friday, Sept. 25.

CONGRESSMAN BELL

HAS AN ADMIRABLE RECORD IN WASHINGTON—SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED

It has not been pleasant for us to notice in some of our exchanges some ill-timed and in some cases ill-natured comments reflecting on Mr. Bell's congressional career, to be expected from a Democratic paper, but out of order in any other. It should be remembered that Mr. Bell is a new member, which is always a heavy handicap, even when all other conditions are favorable, but on top of this the further hindrance of being a minority man, the president, senate and house being greatly Democratic, and the surprise should be, not that he has done so little, but that he could do anything at all under such circumstances.

Congressman Mann, the well-trained, skillful leader of the minority in the house, has not been able to pile up a many-story bunch of achievements, his work being largely protests and objections to the Democratic steam roller process of putting measures through by sheer force, and often he was backed up by the new coast member, and no one can say but that Mr. Bell was active and alert in all matters relating to California coast interests, as the records will show.

Possibly a little spleen is to be observed because Mr. Bell did not come home and "whoop er up" for re-nomination, as was the manner of some, but that he stood by his job and served his people at the capital all the long, trying, monotonous session is greatly to his credit.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Tuesday evening a happy company of relatives, friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Keim, 1430 West Second street, to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of their marriage. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage. A large bouquet of carnations and ferns was a feature especially attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. Keim were married in Salinas, Monterey Co., Cal., on Sept. 22, 1874. Most of the years have been spent in Southern California at Tustin, Chino, Los Angeles and Glendale, having moved here from Los Angeles some two years ago.

The evening was very pleasantly spent in conversation, games, music and reminiscences of their early married life, one especially interesting trip being given in detail. A unique souvenir of the wedding day was exhibited, a Rhode Island greening apple from the family orchard stuck full of cloves, being preserved in perfect shape, nothing but the heads of the cloves being visible. Among the many tokens of love and good will left as memories of the occasion was a dollar for each of the forty years. Delicious refreshments were served, after which the company departed, wishing them many added years of happiness. The affair was a happy surprise to the bride and groom.

MISS ENGLE OPENS HOME TO THE Y. P. B.

Miss Vivian Engle of 340 West Fifth street entertained the members of the Y. P. B. of the W. C. T. U. in her home Monday evening. A number of business items were gone over, after which the meeting adjourned and games were played. Miss Engle was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. Logan Fairchild.

The Y. P. B. is a live bunch of young people that are going to help make California "dry." They meet the first and third Thursdays of each month. The next meeting of the Y. P. B. will be held Thursday, Oct. 1st, with Mr. Frank Butterfield. All young people that are interested in California "dry" are invited to become members of the Y. P. B.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson requests that all children who are taking part in the chorus singing at the high school auditorium this evening be present at 7:30 p. m. to rehearse before the meeting opens.

WAR

We give our children drums to beat Before they stand upon their feet; We give them swords and soldiers gay And at the game of war they play.

Early we learn that might is right, That life itself is one long fight; This world's a battlefield, we teach; Business is war—a common speech: We bash our brother on the nose, Yet weep if nations come to blows.

Our poems and pictures, books and plays, The doughty deeds of warriors praise. Our mode of speech, our mode of life Are echoes of the ancient strife. The women dress au militaire, Yet—"war's a horrible affair."

SUBSTITUTE FOR WOOL

There is a new substitute for wool on the market. It is the product of a foreign concern and is made from a vegetable marine growth. The exact nature of this growth has not been divulged. The first deliveries of this product have been made to woolen mills which will try it out.

THE PARSON'S DIFFICULT JOB

If the church attempts to keep up with the demand, it is mocked. If it sticks to the old lines, it is ridiculed. If it takes a hand in the industrial problems, it is meddling. If it does not, it is negligent.

GLORY ENOUGH FOR ONE DAY

It is glory enough for one day To have dreamed the bright dream of the reign of right; To have fastened your faith like a flag to that immaterial staff.

HAVE A SMILE

Humor is the only test of gravity, and gravity of humor, for a subject which will not bear railleury, is suspicious, and a jest which will not bear a serious examination is certainly false wit.

There will be universal peace when the common people of all nations refuse to fight in unnecessary wars.

It remains for the peace sentiment of the world to suppress war as the great international game.

PEANUT TAFFY

Put two cupfuls of sugar in a granite saucepan over the fire and heat it until it turns brown and it melts. It must not burn, but must brown through. Then add a little lemon juice and pour it over shelled and skinned peanuts arranged in buttered pans. Let it harden, when it should be brittle. 3413

ANIMALS SENSE WATER

The French possess a curious institution in the form of an institute of zoological psychology, established on a farm near Paris. This station comprises meadows and barnyards, a stretch of forest and a large pond stocked with fish. Then, too, there are spacious buildings, including modern stables, a riding school, stalls for isolating animals under special observation, an aquarium, and a laboratory. A dove cote is placed upon the roof of the main building.

It is reported by a scientist that an important conclusion reached by the students is that some animals possess a special sense whereby they can detect the presence of water even though they cannot see it. The experiments were undertaken at the suggestion of an Australian, who addressed the institution with reference to his experience with sheep and cattle when being driven across country.

In a place where the presence of water was wholly unexpected, the Australian noted some curious facts. The leading animals suddenly would lift their heads and draw long breaths. Then they would abandon the beaten tracks and start running through the brush. Sometimes they would run for a mile and a half to two miles, and could not be stopped by the drivers, their course invariably leading to a pond or springs hitherto unknown.

TOO HEARTY A DIET

A young Englishman came to Washington and devoted his days and nights to an earnest endeavor to drink all the Scotch whisky there was. He couldn't do it, and presently he went to a doctor, complaining of a disordered stomach.

"Quit drinking!" ordered the doctor. "But, my dear sir, I can't. I get so thirsty."

"Well," said the doctor, "when-ever you are thirsty, eat an apple instead of taking a drink."

GETTING IT ALL

The doctor told him he needed carbo-hydrates, proteids and, above all, something nitrogenous. The doctor mentioned a long list of foods for him to eat. He staggered out and wobbled into a Penn avenue restaurant.

"How about beefsteak?" he asked the waiter. "Is that nitrogenous?" The waiter didn't know.

"Are fried potatoes rich in carbo-hydrates or not?" The waiter couldn't say.

"Well, I'll fix it," declared the poor man in despair. "Bring me a large plate of hash."—Pittsburg Post.

A COMPLIMENTARY NOTICE

Dumas one day dined at the house of Dr. Gistal, a celebrity of Marseilles. After dinner the good doctor brought his distinguished guest an autograph album and asked him to add his name to it.

"Certainly," said Dumas, and he wrote: "Since the famous Dr. Gistal began to practice here they have demoralized the hospital!" "Flattery!" cried the delighted doctor.

BROADWAY, OPPOSITE SANITARIUM

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM

"ACROSS THE ATLANTIC"—three-reel feature taken in Europe and featuring King Baggot, Claude Graham-White and Gustav Hammell, the famous aviators, who participate in spectacular flights. Not a tiresome three-reeler, but so interesting that it seems only too short.

FRIDAY'S PROGRAM

"LUCILLE LOVE"—seventh series of the "Girl of Mystery." Interesting as ever.

"TEMPER vs. TEMPER"—the kind of a comedy we all enjoy.

"THE FATAL STEP"—an intense drama.

Performances 7 and 8:30 p. m. Matinee Saturday 2:30

The many friends of Mr. Kenton Robertshaw will be very sorry to learn he is seriously ill at his home, 628 South Adams street, being confined to his bed and under the care of a physician and nurse.

Mr. J. E. McKeever of 421 Brand boulevard and Mr. Jared Wenger, also of Glendale, are home again from Independence, Cal., where they enjoyed a successful hunting expedition. This trip was made by auto and without any trouble.

Complimentary to the Rev. O. H. Holmes, who since has left for his home in the East, Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Naudain entertained most delightfully at dinner in their home, 903 Lomita avenue. Dabbias of darkest red were used throughout the home and upon the table at which the delicious repast was spread.

TROPICO

There will be an all-day meeting of N. P. Banks Post and Corps tomorrow at G. A. R. hall, which will also include a reception for Mrs. Della Haggood, elected department chaplain of California and Nevada. Mrs. Mayme G. Pollock, Corps president, also appointed department aid; Rev. C. R. Norton, elected chaplain of the Southern California association, and William Goss, who received the appointment of department council of the Pacific division of the Sons of Veterans Camp, and Mrs. Flora Pixley, past president and appointed department aide to serve with Mrs. Pollock.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Linton and son, accompanied by Mr. Chas. Linton of Walnut, Kans., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Singleton at Azusa, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chadwick of South Glendale avenue the past week, having motored from Azusa with Mr. Singleton.

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Custer of Los Angeles have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock of West Park avenue the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Ashton, who have been residing at 120 West Park avenue since coming to Tropic, have moved to 326 North Central avenue, the bungalow recently occupied by the late H. G. Pettit and Mrs. Pettit.

A "hard-time" party will be given in the social hall of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city on Friday evening. Prizes will be awarded to the most unique and comical costumed guest.

After a delightful three months' vacation enjoyed at Catalina, San Diego and Coronado, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bowman and young daughter have returned to their home on West Tropic avenue.

DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. J. E. Moore, Mrs. C. W. Vorhies, Mrs. Blanche Martin of Los Angeles, together with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews of Topeka, Kansas, were entertained at a 1 o'clock dinner Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McIntyre, 321 Cedar street. An old-fashioned nosegay of pink and white verbenias proved very effective in the center of the table at which the delicious meal was served.

ODELL HERE TONIGHT

Mr. S. W. Odell, state president of the Dry Federation, will address the people of Glendale at the Union high school auditorium tonight on important questions before the people at the coming election on Nov. 3. Being a well-informed man and coming to us as he does from the center of activity along this line, we are looking forward with high expectation of hearing a fine address loaded with facts and good reports of work done and prospective results.

Attorney Frederick W. Baker will also address the audience on what the results will be if amendment No. 47 is passed, the important technicalities of this amendment.

Mr. Baker is a lawyer with keen foresight, a strong love of justice, fair play and special privileges to none, and we feel sure he will deal most fairly with this subject.

You should at least give him an unbiased hearing. If you have any doubt about this or any other amendment, come out tonight and hear a fair discussion of the most important points.

Come to the high school tonight at 8 o'clock. Tell your neighbors and friends. The Federation grand chorus will sing. Other fine musical numbers—Come!

AID WAR SUFFERERS

Glendale will share in the offering to Europe's suffering soldiers, which is to be shipped on the Pennsylvania next Tuesday. This movement is in charge of the Red Cross Garment of Love and Peace organization in Los Angeles in memory of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

All surrounding towns are in line. Cash is most welcome. Underwear for men is especially needed. Clothing for widows and orphans is urgent. Send garments in good condition—clean and not too greatly worn. All must be in not later than Sunday evening. Women will be in charge to receive all contributions in the Parker & Sternberg building on Brand boulevard. Also in the vacant room on Broadway next the Glendale Pharmacy in East Glendale.

KING BAGGOT IN "ACROSS THE ATLANTIC"

The management of the Glendale theater has secured one of the well-known King Baggot photo-plays for tonight. "Across the Atlantic" is one of the series of photo-plays produced by the Imp company on its tour of Europe a short time ago, with the popular star, King Baggot, in the lead role. It was staged in England and shows marked signs of enterprise on the director's and company's part, as they were the first to take scenes in London of the principal streets and important places, such as Buckingham Palace, Westminster Abbey, The Strand, St. Paul's Cathedral and Fleet street. The company also went to great expense to secure the world-famed aviators, Claude Graham White and Gustave Hammel to appear in roles and use their own machines. This picture is a treat, one that is but rarely seen. There is a gripping dramatic story, there are the splendid educational virtues from a travelog standpoint, and the "punch" is there in the way of sensational developments and incidents. In fact, although a three-reel feature, this piece is not of the "draggy" kind, but seems only too short, and holds the tense attention of those viewing it.

"The Masked Rider," featuring Edna Maison, is an entertaining little story of how two young people object to parental interference in their love affairs. The program also includes a myriad of laughs in "The Bucket Shoppers."

Friday night is again "Lucille Love" night, when "the girl of mystery" appears in the seventh of the series. Another drama is "The Fatal Step," which will appeal to all, while the comedy is furnished by "Tempted Versus Tempter," and our old standby, Ford Sterling, in "When Schmaltz Loves."

FAILED TO INTERPRET LAW

Commenting on the recent decision handed down by the city council, rejecting the protest petition on the street improvement of Myrtle street, the parties to said petition feel that the city council has failed to interpret the law as intended by the legislature.

The Vrooman act under which these proceedings are instituted makes no mention whatsoever, from beginning to end, of houses or dwellings or buildings of any kind, but does refer at all times to owners of lots or lands or frontage.

In rendering its decision the city council, although convinced of the fact that owners of 1850 feet of frontage were opposed to the work, as against 1050 feet for it, ignored that fact and rendered its decision in favor of proceeding with the work because eight more actual residents on the street were in favor of it than were against it.

It is this, as provided by the Vrooman act, giving consideration to owners of lots or frontage. Is this justice, is this a fair and impartial decision based on merits?

Evidently the letter of the law, which gives consideration to owners of lots and lands or frontage, is not strictly adhered to by our city council of Glendale, but interpreted according to the occasion, else its decision would not have been as recorded.

However, the city council, by finding in favor of the minority, assumed the community in general would be benefited, disregarded the objections of the majority and ordered the work to proceed and we, having expressed our views as a majority and been defeated, must accept our defeat with impunity, acknowledging our city council has complete jurisdiction and its decision is final and conclusive.

STANLEY C. LOWEN.

NORTH GLENDALE

The Double Five Art Club of Mrs. Verdugo opened their new year with a most delightful picnic party at Echo park, Los Angeles, very recently. The full membership was in attendance and an afternoon filled with pleasure was enjoyed by all present. The next meeting will be held Friday, Sept. 25, at the home of Mrs. S. W. Corwin of 419 North Central avenue.

Word has been received from Miss Alpha Clement of 1321 North Pacific avenue that she is at present enjoying an outing at Springville, Cal., on the Tule river, for a week. Later Miss Clement, with her party, will return to Lindsay, Cal., where she is the house guest of her brother and family, Mr. E. F. Clement, of that place.

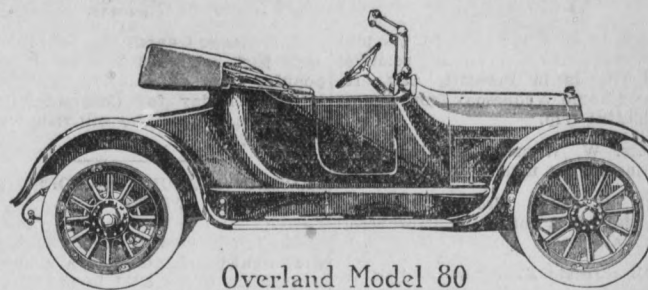

Mr. W. H. Riley of Los Angeles is with his family occupying his residence at 1098 San Rafael street, the property for the past several years having been leased to tenants.

Mr. John Barr of Valley View road is expected home next Friday morning from Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he has been for the past several weeks.

Mrs. Alvin Rosson and little son, Master William of Isabel street, were luncheon guests of Mrs. I. C. Rice of 1632 Ruth street Wednesday.

Mr. J. W. Cousins of 1501 Lorraine street is enjoying a few days with his family, having come in from his route Wednesday morning.

As is customary, a most beautiful and impressive ceremony was held over the body, which was laid to rest in Rosedale cemetery, Los Angeles.

TWELVE O'CLOCK LUNCHEON

With a basket full of dainty pink blossoms adorning the center of the cloth, the table at which Mrs. Jos. Kirkby entertained informally at luncheon in her home on North Verdugo road was complete when Mrs. Frank H. Vesper, Mrs. Phillip Englehorn, Mrs. J. W. Usilton and the charming hostess sat down to sup at 12 o'clock sharp. The afternoon was enjoyed in the canyon which overlooks the valley and Verdugo park.

The deceased, who was well known and had many friends in Glendale,

MOVING PICTURE ACTORS TO MEET

Moving picture actors throughout the country are planning a monster convention to be held in San Francisco during the Panama-Pacific exposition next year, according to an announcement today of D. B. Finley, who is acting as president of an organization started here.

"It has always been the desire of the leading photo players to arrange to meet in a body," said Finley, "so we have formed the nucleus of our organization here, with branches all over the United States. Our first convention will be held in San Francisco from March 1 to 14 next year."

Better for the United States to be altruistic in dealing with Mexico than to be pessimistic and inclined toward armed intervention.

LEMON DESSERT

This lemon dessert will be welcomed at any table, says the New Haven Journal-Courier. Put the peel of two lemons in with one and one half ounces of gelatine in water for 15 minutes; drain and put in a stewing pan with 10 ounces of powdered sugar, the beaten yolks of six eggs and the lemon milk. Place on the fire until the eggs begin to thicken, but do not allow it to boil. Strain into a stewpan and stir until it begins to cool and thicken, adding slowly a pint of whipped cream. Put this into a mold and freeze for two hours.

Shortage of dyes, it is said, may affect the printing of United States postage stamps. If true, this is interesting. No other shortage of any kind, we believe—not even a shortage of gum—has ever up to this time checked the postage stamp output.

The world little dreamed last New Year's that the crowning hard-luck year of modern times was dawning.

TRIED RECIPES

PORK AND NEW BEANS

Prepare two quarts of stringless string beans by washing carefully, then cutting them into inch lengths. Place beans in slightly salted boiling water and boil until tender. When done drain and put beans in dripping pan. Have ready two pounds of pork chops, lay the meat on top of the beans, season with salt and pepper. Bake in a hot oven 30 minutes or until meat is tender and browned. Serve very hot. Put roast pork chops on a platter, and garnish with parsley. Put beans in vegetable dish and pour gravy over. Make gravy of combined juices of meat and beans in bottom of baking pan.—Newark News.

OIL PICKLES

Slice 100 small cucumbers without peeling them. Leave them for three hours in a brine made of two thirds of a small bag of table salt and water to completely cover. Drain and rinse in cold water and add three pints of small white onions which have been sliced and stood in water to cover in which has been dissolved a piece of alum the size of a small nut.

Mix together three ounces of white mustard seed, one ounce of celery seed, two ounces of white, ground pepper and a pint of pure olive oil. Stir this through the sliced onions and cucumbers and add enough cold vinegar to just cover. Put in Mason jars for future use. This makes nearly two gallons.—St. Paul Dispatch.

GRAPE PIE

Remove the skins of the grapes, put the pulp in a stewpan and bring it to the boiling point; let it simmer for five minutes; force it through a strainer to remove the seeds and add the skins to the pulp. There should be one and one-half cupfuls. Mix two cupfuls of sugar, a few grains of salt and two tablespoonfuls of flour. When blended thoroughly add two eggs, well beaten, and one tablespoonful of melted butter. Put between crusts and bake.

GRAPE DUMPLINGS

Make a thick batter, using two cupfuls of flour, two eggs, two teaspoonfuls of butter, one tablespoonful of sugar, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder sifted with the flour, one cupful of water and one cupful of grapes, seeded. Drop the mixture by tablespoonfuls into boiling salted water. Put in only a few at a time, as the water must not stop boiling. Cover closely and cook 12 minutes without uncovering. Serve with a sauce made by creaming together one cupful of powdered sugar and one tablespoonful of butter, adding gradually one beaten egg and one half cupful of grape juice, beating constantly so that no lumps will form.—Country Gentleman.

POSTAL RELATIONS WITH SOUTH AMERICA

The proposal to reduce the letter rate of postage between the United States and South America from 5 to 2 cents, as a means of furthering social and commercial intercourse has the right ring. To bring this about will, of course, involve changes in a number of treaties, but there is reason to believe that the thing can be done without great delay, since the desire for closer connection between the three Americas is now apparently as strong in the south as it has been for a considerable time in the north. If Canada and Mexico can be induced to come into a general postal rearrangement, so that a flat rate may prevail throughout the two continents, that will be better still. At present the United States has postal agreements with Canada, Mexico, Cuba and Panama on this side, and with Great Britain and Ireland on the other, which makes the letter rate two cents an ounce or fraction thereof. An arrangement for two-cent postage exists with Germany also, but only for mail in direct German steamships.

It is not difficult to subscribe to the view that at a time when the United States is striving to extend its trade with the South American peoples it would only be an evidence of good faith and friendliness for its government to take any right step calculated to bring the continents into closer relationship. This proposed step seems to be logical and natural, and it should lead to others of even greater importance. That is, it should, we think, pave the way for a general exchange of mail matter and the building up of a parcel post service between the three Americas.

With the opening and constantly increasing employment of the Panama canal, the closing of existing gaps in the all-America railway system and the inevitable expansion of that system until it ramifies the southern continent, distances are going to be shortened and facilities of communication increased to an amazing degree in the next few years. Countries that are now little more than strangers, or at best distant acquaintances, will in the near future become intimate in their relations. This will not be the immediate result of the establishment of two-cent postage, but two-cent postage will help to open the way to it.

Latin America knows now that the United States is its sincere and consistent friend.

AMERICAN TOYS THIS YEAR

American toy manufacturers are straining every nerve to meet the enormous demand this year caused by the German war. Factories are running day and night. In addition to the $2,000,000 worth of toys that America has manufactured heretofore, $7,000,000 worth usually imported, chiefly from Europe, must be supplied in the remaining months before the holidays.

Three-fourths of the income of the United States for the past thirty years has been spent for warlike purposes.
