EVERY INCH A SAILOR.

Victoria is the yachting mecca. There are upwards of 1,000 yachtsmen in the capital city and all are delighted with the smiling manner of their reception by Weather Clerk Baynes Reid, whose factory has been working overtime to turn out beautiful sunny weather and, what is more appreciated by the yachtsman, a perfect yachting breeze.

The actual commencement of the carnival takes place this afternoon, when the yachts in five classes compete round the triangular course outlined off the outer wharf, to a point between Macaulay Point and Albert Head, with the second leg of the course running across to opposite Beacon Hill park and the third leg running along the shore to the starting point at the outer wharf, where the judge's barge is stationed.

There are six sailing in the class A, cruisers, the Minerva, Haidice, Gussieka, Uhlina, and Elsa May, all of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club and the Gwendolyn of the Victoria Yacht Club.

Six class B, cruisers start, as follows: Dorothy, Ailsa and Truant, of the Victoria club and Verona, Florida and Eileen, of the Vancouver club.

The Ariadne, from Bellingham, with the Britannia and Amoria from the R. V. Y. C. are the entries in the 20-foot class race which crossed the line at 2:40 this afternoon, and five minutes later the Gwendolyn (Bellingham), and Iola and Wideawake (R. V. Y. C.) went away in the 32-foot class.

The Alexandra is the only boat sailing in the 28-foot class, while the Dione and the Asthore of the R. V. Y. C. are entered in the 24-footers. There are four 18-footers sailing—these are the Tillicum and Vampire of Vancouver, the Onida of Victoria and the Myrtle of Everett. The Adana, which holds the McNeill cup, is the only entry in the 18-foot class.

The McNeill cup, a three-race competition, was set to take place over the three days of the regatta, but owing to the fact that there was no contender to compete with the present holder, the Adams, it will be retained by that boat. There were three entries originally received, but the other two were found on measurements to be above the rating and were disqualified from competition.

Throughout the proceedings there will be a band dispensing music at the starting point near the Dallas hotel and to-night there is the annual meeting of the P. I. P. B. A. at the Dallas hotel, after which a smoking concert will be held there. The artists for the concert are:

D. Black ..... Concertina Soloist
Percy Jenkins ..... Vocalist
Harry Glyn ..... Versatile Comedian
George Hodgert ..... Scotch Comedian
F. Lytton ..... Flute Soloist
P. H. Jenkins ..... Pianist

KAISER OPPOSED TO WOMAN SUFFRAGE

His Majesty, However, is in Favor of Opening Trades and Professions to Women

(Special to the Times)
Berlin, July 4.—According to the Post Emperor William is much interested in the feminist movement and has frequently discussed the subject with his intimates. He favors opening all professions to women, and is especially fitted them educationally by means means to earn their living and generally elevating them intellectually. He would gradually open all universities to them.

His Majesty's views on women sharing politics, however, are less advanced. He doubts that women are qualified to exercise the franchise and he views with special dislike "and suspicion the suffrage movement in Great Britain and the United States and the tactics adopted to promote it.

Although the official announcement had not been made this afternoon and the official time handicaps had not been worked out, it is generally understood that the long distance power boat race which ended in Victoria yesterday was won by the Half Moon, the big forty-footer, Capt. Knox Walkem, of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club, which arrived here at 9:36 a. m. yesterday morning about an hour behind the Salmonera, which was the first boat to pass the judge's barge off the outer wharf, and about half an hour behind the Limit, which was second to arrive.

The race of 231 miles from Tacoma on a three-leg course via Vancouver to Victoria was made, according to unofficial figures, in 23 hours 53 minutes, and this time establishes a new record. The former fastest time was 25 hours 10 minutes, made last year by the Soya, of Seattle.

The Half Moon arrived in harbor yesterday with her engine room flooded with lubricating oil. Her engines were new, and her engine room crew removed the base plates and threw in oil to cool her bearings.

The Salmonera, Capt. Freeman, Port Townsend, was the first boat to pass the judge's barge, arriving at 8:32 a. m. The Half Moon, however, had a time allowance of one and a half hours on the start and arrived at Victoria within an hour of the Salmonera, thus on time allowance beating the first boat by half an hour.

The Limit, second to arrive, owned by Marriott and Fellows, Capt. A. W. Le Page, was the scratch boat and had to give some of the boats as much as seven hours.

The Petrel, J. R. Vandyle, was the fourth boat to cross the line. The handicaps were all split allowances, the boats having gained by adverse or favorable tides.

The boats had a rough and a tempestuous trip across the Sound on Saturday night and Sunday morning on the last leg of the course. There was a stiff, northwest gale blowing, which threw up a heavy sea for the powerboats to make headway against. The condition of the water caused the engines to race and there was consequently a tendency to overheat the machinery, which had to be guarded against by the crews.

The Half Moon engine-room crew removed the base plates and by pouring in lubricating oil in large quantities were able to keep the machinery comparatively cool. On arrival here oil was splattered all over the engine room. Everything was covered in oil and the men were moving about in an inch of oil on the floor of the engine room.

Despite the heavy journey for the last leg of the course the boats all came through in good shape and arrived here in the following order and time:

Salmonera, E. A. Sims, Port Townsend—8:32 a. m.
Limit, A. W. Le Page, Vancouver—9:45 a. m.
Half Moon, Knox Walkem, Vancouver—9:36 a. m.
Petrel, J. R. Vandyle, Seattle—11:26 a. m.
Alei, E. C. Milligan, Seattle—11:31 a. m.

Summer, Geo. B. Summer, Everett—11:33 a. m.
Marana, B. F. Jacobs, Tacoma—1:55 p. m.
Konomic, E. Earhopte, No. Vancouver—2:45 p. m.
Wanda, B. Cameron, Tacoma—3 p. m.
Wanderer, E. A. Salisbury, South Coast Yacht Club, Los Angeles, arrived 3:52 p. m. after a series of adventures with the engine, anchors, and almost everything else aboard put her out of the running between Vancouver and this port.

Great disappointment is expressed at the fact that none of the three Victoria entries competed. The Jessie, owned by Shipson and Greenwood, was withdrawn. The Peter, which was especially ordered from the Tacoma company for the race by George Bulkie, is being up on a train somewhere between Chicago and Seattle. The Sokum was withdrawn by Admiral Lane because his attention was required on the local races.

Cockpit Topics.
At the eleventh hour the gratifying news comes that the Alexandra will have a competitor in the 20-foot class this afternoon. The fast Wilma, of

SUDDEN DEATH OF CHIEF JUSTICE

M. W. FULLER OF U. S. SUPREME COURT DEAD

Was Appointed to Highest Judicial Position by President Cleveland in 1888

(Times Leased Wire.)
Bar Harbor, Maine, July 4.—Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller, of the Supreme Court of the United States, died here to-day of heart failure.

The death of Fuller occurred at 6 o'clock this morning but the fact did not become known until nearly four hours afterwards.

The chief justice passed away in the arms of his daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Francis of Washington, at the cottage he has been occupying at Sorrento, where he has been for the last three weeks. There will be simple services at the little chapel in Sorrento on Wednesday afternoon, after which the remains will be taken to Chicago.

Justice Fuller was born in Augusta, Maine, February 11, 1833, and had served as chief justice since October 8th, 1888.

STEAMERS COLLIDE IN MID-OCEAN

One of Crew of Baltic Loses His Life When the Vessels Crash

(Times Leased Wire.)
New York, July 4.—When the liner Baltic reached quarantine to-day her pumps were going and her collision bulkheads were closed. They had been there away for three days, following a small crash in mid-ocean by the Baltic and the out tank steamer Standard, en route from Philadelphia to Copenhagen.

One man, a seaman of the Baltic's crew, was lost overboard. It is supposed that he was knocked from the deck by the impact and sank. The collision was due to the dense fog that prevailed on Thursday night when the Baltic was 1,800 miles east of the Ambrose channel light.

The liner came in under her own steam and will make no repairs until she returns to the English shipyards. The ship's officers paid high tribute to the nerve of the passengers, while the passengers were unstinted in their praise of the officers.

AUTO RACES.
Indianapolis, Ind., July 4.—The Cobe cup race, the "Western Vanderbilt," will be run to-day on the Indianapolis speedway, and the most thrilling race that has ever been witnessed on this speedway is expected. The race will be under the auspices of the Chicago Automobile Club.

The most famous automobile drivers in the United States are entered, including Louis Chevrolet, who won the event last year. The race is over a 200-mile course, and is open to stock cars of 600 inches piston displacement. Eighteen starters have been announced.

MUCH BUSINESS BEFORE BOARD THIS EVENING

Several Contentious Questions Which Are to Engage Attention of City Council

Some of the most important business dealt with this evening's meeting of the city council. There are several contentious questions to come up, among these being the relations between the city engineer and his assistant insofar as the former shall have complete jurisdiction over his subordinate official, and the bylaw increasing all liquor license fees.

J. H. McDiarmid, the new city solicitor, is expected to be present and assume his duties at the board for the first time. "Till he has got well into harness it is likely that J. P. Mann will continue to be present to assist him."

Angus Smith, city engineer, will, it is anticipated, be able to present his report as to the areoloid survey which he made on Thursday last of the territory between Sooke lake and Leech river, which investigation was made with the idea of assisting H. M. Burwell, C. E., to complete his report.

The bylaw recently before the council providing for increasing all liquor license fees to $50 per annum comes up for final reconsideration and passing. As has already been mentioned in the Times, there will be a determined effort on the part of a number of the aldermen to have a lesser increase. These take the position that if the intent of the amended measure is to reduce the number of licenses, it will fail of accomplishing that object, as the increase is not high enough. An increase to $100 would undoubtedly, it is claimed, have the effect of wiping out some of the small proprietors, but that would simply mean more business for the larger concerns. It is reported that a majority of the members of the board are in favor of fixing the fee at $50.

The annual tax bylaw, fixing the rate for the year at 25.12 mills on the dollar, will be advanced, and the report of the special committee appointed to meet the executive of the Children's Aid society and discuss the question of the city taking over the home recently established and also establishing a juvenile delinquents court will be submitted.

Other important bylaws to come up for further consideration are the measure to provide a loan of $50,000 for sewerage extension, that for the improvement to Dallas road and the Spring Ridge site grant bill.

Many petitions for works of local improvement continue to pour into the city hall, but in a majority of instances these will have to stand over until next year, as the engineering department is glutted with work.

CANADIAN ART EXHIBIT.

(Special to the Times.)
London, July 4.—Anent the Canadian art exhibition at Liverpool the Morning Post says:

"If there is no actual sign of new thought or expression in the pictures and statuettes exhibited, they may well be the beginning of a movement that will produce great things in the future. There is a distinct evidence of two qualities which have created masterpieces in past, feeling and observation."

The Times says: "In any future history of modern art, the Canadian section must occupy a conspicuous place."

FRENCH AVIATOR FALLS TO DEATH

AEROPLANE DROPS 500 FEET DURING FLIGHT

Charles Wachter is Instantly Killed While Flying in Storm at Rheims

(Special to the Times.)
Rheims, France, July 4.—Charles Wachter, a French aviator, was killed by the fall of his aeroplane yesterday.

It was the opening day of aviation week here. The weather was stormy, rain driving across the exposed plain on which the course is located.

Nobody ventured out except Wachter. He was circling at a height of about 500 feet when the wings of his machine seemed suddenly to fail. They folded up above the body of the machine, which dropped straight to earth like a stone. Wachter's head was driven into the earth, his spine broken and he was otherwise mangled. Death was instantaneous.

His wife, mother and sister saw him fall.

SOCKEY SALMON IR AUSTRALIAN MARKET

Name Applies Only to Fish Caught in U. C. or Puget Sound Waters

(Special to the Times.)
Ottawa, July 4.—The trade and commerce department has been notified by Trade Commissioner Ross, at Melbourne, that the Commonwealth government has decided the term "Sockeye" shall be allowed only in reference to salmon imported from British Columbia or Puget Sound waters. This prevents Alaskan salmon competing under the same name in the Australian market.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED.

Charleston, Mo., July 4.—It is believed no arrests will be made to-day following the lynching of two negroes here late yesterday by a mob of infuriated farmers. The negroes were accused of murdering William Fox, a planter. All attempts of the sheriff and his deputies to protect the prisoners failed and the mob, after breaking down the doors of the jail, took the negroes into the court yard and hanged them.

ITALIAN ASTRONOMER DEAD.

Milan, July 4.—Prof. Schiaparelli, Italian astronomer, originator of the theory of artificial canals on Mars, died here to-day.

FIRE IN CZAR'S PALACE.

St. Petersburg, July 4.—A wing of the czar's summer palace at Peterhoff was destroyed by fire, believed to have been caused by incendiaries to-day. The loss is heavy.

SPECIAL EDITION 4.15 JOHNSON RETAINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Fight Won By Knock-out in Fifteenth Round—Jeffries Could Not Come Back—The Fight By Rounds

JOHNSON WINS IN FIFTEENTH ROUND KNOCKOUT.

(Times Leased Wire.)
Early Betting.
Reno, Nev., July 4.—At 1:30 p. m. Billy Jordan will enter Tex Rickard's new arena, roaring his starting signal. The huge ring will be cleaned at a signal from George Hartin, the veteran time-keeper, and the fight between Jeffries and Johnson will start.

From every state in the union, from Canada, Mexico, Alaska and the British Isles and Europe, even from far-off Australia, lovers of the fighting game have journeyed to Reno.
A purse of $101,000, or the winner's 75 per cent. of it, thousands of dollars in moving picture bonuses and the honor of heading the world's list of fighters, is the lure which will set these two pugilists at one another.

Even before dawn the sidewalks were congested with noisy parties, some doers of impossible cots packed into hotel corridors and store rooms, other patrons of the hundreds of games, which after a Sunday of idleness reopened at midnight and were kept going full blast throughout the day. But even at the gaming tables the talk was not of the red or the black, the turn of the card or the roll of the dice, it was of the fight.

In the cafes, restaurants, hotel corridors and dining rooms, on the street corners and at every spot where more than two persons met, the talk was fight, fight, fight.

Contrary to general expectations the showing of the odds this morning failed to materialize, and unless the Johnson money appears before noon there may be a lengthening. When Tom Corbett's pool room opened this morning the price was 10 to 6. Even money was offered that Jeffries does or does not win inside of 20 rounds. The latter proposition seemed to meet with more favor than the general betting, it being figured that Jeff's chance of winning would be minimized if the battle went beyond 20 rounds, but that up to that period he would be the most logical candidate for victory.

The day opened bright and cool, but the prospects are it will be a hot afternoon, and that the fighters and spectators seated below the level of the entrances will suffer considerably.

Every $10 seat in the arena had been sold at midnight last night, and a few of the $20 and $25 seats remained. The gate will probably net $250,000.

All through the night special trains arrived from the east and west.

The betting was given a new angle when Johnson's betters offered $25 to $100 that the negro would win inside of 19 rounds, but found few takers.

Gates Opened.
Before 10 o'clock the crowds began streaming the entrances to the arena and by 11:35, the hour at which the gates were thrown open, the crowd, composed mainly of the leaders of the $10 seats, the cheapest, numbered several thousand.

Even as the crowd came pouring through the narrow chutes leading to the octagonal arena, carpenters were busy at a score of places erecting protecting railings and reinforcing vital places in the structure. High above the tier of seats composing the arena proper were the eight boxes reserved for women. Three minutes after the opening of the gates there was a rush, and the entire section was packed.

Dr. Morrison and Dr. Ascher earlier in the day visited the camps of Jeffries and Johnson at Moana Springs and Ricks training quarters, respectively, and made the physical examinations required by the state law of Nevada. The physicians pronounced both fighters perfect specimens of physical manhood, trained to the hour and fit for the battle.

Although the majority of the women spectators took advantage of the boxes, many were scattered throughout the arena.

By noon lines of ticket holders—two blocks long were stretched out beyond the entrance.

As an evidence of Jeffries' confidence, it was announced shortly before he entered the arena that he had prepared a banquet for twenty of his intimate friends.

The difficulty over the canvas in the ring was adjusted to the satisfaction of the Jeffries crowd by stretching the red canvas on which Jeff had done most of his boxing during his training.

Picture Stand Removed.
The Ringside, Reno, July 4.—The first row developed when $10 and $20 seats ticket holders discovered that directly above and over their seats a moving picture stand had been erected. The stand cut off all view from at least 600 people, who became enraged when the management gave them no satisfaction and threatened to tear the structure down. To prevent violence, a special guard was placed around the stand.

It is a round stand and Rickard started in search of Gleason, who is reported to have given permission for the erection of the stand.
Later the moving picture platform was torn out by deputy sheriffs on account of the protest of patrons.
Shortly before 1 o'clock a band entered the ring.

All persons carrying suspicious packages were stopped and not allowed to enter until relieved of parcels.
At 1:15 the band left the ring to give the moving picture men an opportunity to photograph the crowd.
At 1:25 Manager Tom Flannagan and Billy Delaney entered the ring, the crowd showing signs of impatience. Governor Dickerson, of Nevada, is among the spectators.
At 1:32, two minutes past the time set for the beginning of the battle, there was no sign of either fighter.
The Purse.
Tex Rickard has just announced that the purse amounts to $121,000 instead of $101,000, each man having been given a $10,000 bonus. He also stated that the purse of $101,000 after each man has been paid his $10,000, would be split 60 per cent. to winner and 40 per cent. to the loser.
The original articles of agreement call for 75 per cent. and 25 per cent. but agreement was made to make it 60 and 40 per cent. Rickard said that both men were agreeable to the change but refused to say who suggested it.
At 1:35 Rickard sent word to the fighters' dressing rooms asking them to come to the ring at once. The house, it is said, amounts to $250,000.
The deputy sheriffs to preserve order are paying no attention to instructions, and scores of men and boys are climbing up the outside of the enclosure without hindrance. The aisles are virtually packed, and every entrance is jammed.
Rickard is thoroughly disgusted with the way the crowd has been handled, and when asked if he would "do it again," said: "Not for a million."
Billy Jordan, the veteran announcer, stepped into the ring at 1:43 and was given a cheer.
Tom Sharkey announces he will challenge the winner and post a certified cheque for $25,000.
The betting is 10 to 6 on Jeffries.
At 1:55 p. m. Billy Muldoon entered the ring and delivered a short address. He paid a tribute to Nevada, calling it "The one surviving free state of the Union."
He paid a glowing eulogy to Governor Dickerson, arousing a great deal of cheering. The audience gave three cheers for the governor of Nevada.
When the cheering had subsided Muldoon, who was unknown to the vast majority of the crowd, was introduced by Jordan.
The wife of Jack Johnson has taken a seat in front of the moving picture machine.
Tex Rickard, stakeholder Tim Sullivan, John L. Sullivan, Bob Fitzsimmons, Tom Sharkey and Frank Gotch were introduced amid cheers.
Joe Choyinski, the first of Jeffries' handlers to appear, entered the ring at 2:25. During another lull Abe Attell and Bat Nelson were introduced.
Fighters Enter Ring.
Johnson entered the ring at 2:30 p. m. The black champion was given a great cheer as he stepped into the ring. He was attired in a black and white striped bathrobe and his golden smile was in its usual place. Johnson was accompanied by Barney, Percy, Frank Sutton, Kid Cotton, Billy Delaney, Johnny Loftus, and Tom Flannagan.
Jeffries appeared at 2:32 p. m. As the white man walked down the aisle to the ring the crowd arose and gave him the greatest cheer given. As soon as he stepped into the ring he tested it and then gazed upon all friends. He was accompanied by Jim Corbett, Jack Jeffries, Joe Choyinski, Bob Armstrong, Sam Berger, Dewitt Vancourt, and Abe Attell.
Johnson's seconds included Al Kaufman, Harry Riley and Jack Leahy.
Jeffries stepped into the ring attired in a light gray business suit and wore a light golf cap.
When Johnson threw off his robe he displayed a pair of robin's-egg blue tights, an American flag circling his belt. While being introduced he smiled and waved his hand at his white wife. Johnson's hands were bandaged with tape and when this was done Attell examined the bandages on Jeff's hands.
When Jeffries took off his robe he revealed himself in purple trunks with an American flag in his belt. The champion appears unmovable and did not show the least sign of nervousness. He gazed for a moment into Johnson's cor-

NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERY CASE

FORMER SENATOR TURNER CLOSES ARGUMENT

Claims U. S. Fishermen Are Not Subject to Restrictive Regulations or Charges

The Hague, July 4.—In his argument before the fisheries tribunal on Saturday former Senator Turner, of the United States, continued the question as to whether the inhabitants of the United States could employ non-Americans as members of their crews. He urged that diplomatic correspondence on the subject had shown that the treaty of 1818 tacitly gave Americans all the rights which were indispensable in the exercise of the fishing trade. Therefore, the right to use crews for fishing was also conceded. Mr. Turner observed that the negotiations concerning the treaty of 1818 proved that it was not intended to subject American fishermen to restrictive regulations, charges or imports. As to whether Newfoundland could expect declarations in customs houses, harbor and lighthouse dues from American fishermen entering bays, ports or parts of her coast, not included in the treaty, for the purpose of taking refuge or of taking food and water, the United States could only consent to declaration by boats entering bays or harbors, but not to payment of taxes which were totally unnecessary for guaranteeing the observance of the treaty by the United States.

Concluding Mr. Turner said he had spoken quite frankly. Nothing had been further from his intention than to show himself wanting in respect towards Great Britain. He was himself three-quarters English and one-quarter Dutch. Great Britain and the United States were of the same blood, and they enjoyed common heritage in history, law and language. This close relationship perhaps was partly responsible for the disputes arising between the two nations, for when the British Lion roused itself, across the waters America's blood grew hot and America sent back an answering roar, but peace and quiet was soon arranged.

Sir James Winter will to-day continue the case for Great Britain.

SPAIN NOW FACES ANOTHER CRISIS

Premier Determined to Withdraw Privileges Enjoyed by Various Catholic Orders

Madrid, July 4.—The government has submitted a bill to parliament substituting promises for the customary oath taken over the scriptures in connection with all civil acts. The bill, which is supported by the king, applies to the installation of cabinet ministers as well as to all court proceedings. The reactionary and clerical interests are opposing the measure on the ground that it is designed as a provocation to the vatican. The Liberal press hail it as of vital importance to the secularization of the state and the modernization of Spain.

The government has forwarded to the vatican its reply to the note of June 15th which insisted upon the withdrawal of the decree of June 18th granting privileges to non-Catholic religious societies. The reply is a courteous but firm refusal to withdraw the decree, whose objects are again explained.

The attempt of the Canalejas government to curb the power of the Catholic church in Spain has apparently brought the country face to face with another of the great political crises in its history. The main object of the Canalejas policy is to check the number of religious establishments erected by the various Catholic orders, many of which have no legal right of existence here, and to reduce the amount of money now contributed to the church by the state. This the premier proposes to accomplish by first taking from the orders the many privileges they enjoy, and second by the suppression of unauthorized institutions.

His programme, recently inaugurated by the decree permitting Protestants and other churches to display the outward emblems of public worship, has aroused the organized hostility of the church authorities, and especially the peasantry, who are devoutly Catholic. Canalejas evidently understands fully the gravity of this undertaking, and although seemingly far from optimistic, evidently intends to try to put his programme through in spite of the powerful opposition arrayed against him. His purpose is to modernize Spain, and in a recent interview he insisted that he was supported not only by the great majority of the urban population but even had the sympathy of conservative leaders, including Maura, who recognize that the present situation could not continue. Moreover, he declared that his programme has the full approval of the king himself. Canalejas, declaring that he does not want a rupture with Rome, and that he hopes for an amicable settlement, freely admits that a rupture is inevitable if the vatican insists upon its protest against the royal decree regarding church obligations and other revisions of the concordat.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

Washington, D. C., July 2.—A surplus of $9,402,432 in the year's ordinary receipts and expenditure, and instead of the expected deficit is among the surprises contained in the report of the secretary of the treasury for the fiscal year ending June 30th. A decrease of $1,648,237 in the public debt is shown for the month of June, and a cut of $11,800,000 in the postal deficiency disbursements is also reported. Treasury officials were surprised and gratified as an added deficit was expected in these items.

DR. SUTHERLAND

"Dr. Sutherland is dead." To Methodist people all over Canada this news, flashed over the wires on Thursday last, brought sadness and sorrow. For so many years Dr. Sutherland has played such a large part in the history of Methodism that it seems hard to realize that no longer will he guide the church in her most aggressive missionary work and policy.

To British Columbians Dr. Sutherland was a familiar figure, as he, more than any other of the leaders of the church, has attended the annual sessions of the British Columbia Conference, and has had a large share in shaping the policy of the church in this province. Many were looking forward to seeing him at the approaching sessions of the General Conference to be held in this city, but it is not to be.

The Rev. Alexander Sutherland, D.D., was received as a candidate for the Methodist ministry in the year 1855, and thus spent over fifty years in the active service of the church. In the year 1874 he was elected missionary secretary and since that time he has been continuously at the head of the missionary affairs of the church. In this capacity he has visited nearly every country in the world and has been foremost in missionary conventions the world over. He has been recognized by every denomination as a leader of thought and activity among missionary lines and has been called upon to speak upon important topics at the united gatherings for the discussion of missionary problems.

As a constructive genius in shaping policy, Dr. Sutherland has had few equals and the church he loved so well will sadly miss his wise counsel. As an orator he ranked with that warm-hearted Irishman, the late Dr. Potts, and any Methodist gathering with these two speakers announced was sure of a large audience. Many times he has thrilled the British Columbia Conference with his smoothly-flowing words of wisdom and prophetic insight, and he never failed to leave a splendid impression upon the many conferences which he attended. At the recent meeting of the Conference in Nelson, last May, when it was learnt that Dr. Sutherland was so seriously ill, a message of loving greeting and sympathy was dispatched from the Conference.

The Methodist church in Canada has been led by three giants in intellect and spiritual power—Potts, Sutherland and Carman. The last named of the three is still left in vigorous old age to give his counsel and blessing to the church, and will be present at the meeting of the General Conference in this city next August, but there will be many expressions of sorrow that the other giants will no longer be present to cheer with their eloquence or guide with their wisdom.

SOUTH AFRICA AND TRADE WITH CANADA

London, July 4.—Commenting on the celebration of Dominion Day, the Cape Times says: "It is not enough that Canada's graceful recognition of the South African union should kindle reciprocity of warm mutual regard. It should be intensified and solidified in every possible way. Our producers and merchants should build up trade with Canada."

The South Africa News testified to the regard which South Africans entertain towards Canada, and expresses the belief that the former have much to gain by intercourse with Canadians, and to study Canadian institutions by fraternal relations.

A MEDDLESOME GOAT.

This is no time of the year for the discussion of controversial political matters, as Mr. Borden remarked to one of the slim audiences during his recent Ontario tour. But the Vancouver Saturday Sunset propounds a theory which is worthy of consideration at any season of the year. It is that Mr. Bowser is the "goat" of the McBride government and that the Premier is deliberately loading him up with many trespasses in anticipation of an early opportunity arriving for sending the champion butter forth into the wilderness. Our contemporary enumerates the many sins against the province and against the best interests of the government of which the Attorney-General has been guilty of late, and concludes that his chief must have in view the idea of turning him loose in the political woods with all the load upon his broad back. But while it may be an easy thing to call spirits "from the easty deep," experience, ancient and modern, proves that they seldom come when called for a seance; so it may be that when the Attorney-General receives his marching orders he may refuse to march. In such an event, will the Premier exercise his powers of compulsion? We doubt it, for the reason that there is a suspicion that Mr. Bowser carries a whip in his hand and that not he but some one else may be compelled to do the cringing when the time comes.

In the meantime the Attorney-General pursues his Napoleonic way, exacting homage from his own special following and levying as Finance Minister increased and increasing tribute upon all the people. In his Companies Act he has fashioned a Provincial Policy which may be described as next of kin to the National Policy of another great Tory chieftain—not as splendidly gifted as Mr. Bowser of course, but still a Great Canadian. Our big man does not believe in freedom of trade, not even freedom of trade between the different provinces of the Dominion. He thinks British Columbia is sufficient unto herself and consequently that for her benefit trade should be confined as far as possible within provincial boundaries. He would shut out all eastern competitors. He rejects with disdain the silly doctrine that business transactions must be profitable alike to buyer and seller. That is only a theory, and it is exploded. As for the consumers of the provinces who are already groaning under the high prices they are compelled to pay for everything they use, if they do not like the conditions which it is the will of the Attorney-General to impose, they can get out. The Companies Act will cut the unfortunates both ways. It will compel them not only to pay the taxes imposed in increased prices, but experience proves that restriction provides dealers with opportunities of adding to the increased prices necessitated by the taxes a trifle on their own account and for their own benefit. We wonder that Mr. Bowser does not take a shorter and more effective way of accomplishing the end desired. Instead of pledging the credit of the province for the construction of railways, which must be promoters of trade between British Columbia and other sections of Canada and other parts of the world, he ought to command his slaves to go forth early some morning and blow all the roads up with dynamite and sink all steamers to the bottom of the sea. That would be carrying his idea of trade isolation to its logical conclusion. His Companies Act indicates that he is a mere pottering amateur in statecraft.

RAILING AT CANADA.

If the so-called Imperialist party in Great Britain is really more concerned about the consolidation of the Empire than it is about gaining a petty political triumph at home, the men and the press which assume to speak in its name have made and are making some very stupid blunders. Their comments on the position of Canada in particular are worse than stupid—they display crass ignorance of the subjects with which they undertake to deal. Surely a periodical professing such abysmal depths of wisdom as the Fortnightly Review might be expected to inform itself as to the facts before undertaking to inform its readers that "six Wilfrid Laurier had already limited Canadian responsibility by the manner in which he had decided to deal with the naval problem. It was the less necessary to injure the political credit of the Empire as a whole and the whole idea of Imperial-unity by a declaration that, in a crisis threatening the whole existence of the King's dominions, Canada and the Mother Country may not be found together. It is hoped on both sides that they will be found together, despite the saving clause. We have none the less another warning that the Imperial tendency of ten years ago has been reversed." By whose action, may we ask, was the Imperial tendency of ten years ago initiated? Was it through any political agency on the other side of the water? Was it not the Government of which the contemned Prime Minister is the head that inaugurated a policy of Imperial preference? Did the action of the Laurier government receive any encouragement from the Imperialist parties, so-called, in either Great Britain or Canada? Did not the opposition in this country and the government of the day at home, the one actively and the other passively, convey the impression that the Canadian Imperial preference trade policy was impossible because most favored nations clauses in treaties stood in the way? But the Laurier government stood its ground, and the Imperial government, with every evidence of reluctance, was compelled to denounce the obstacle-creating treaties. The hand extended more than a dozen years ago is still open, and what inclination has Great Britain shown to grasp it? We are not disposed to cavil, nor do we believe the people of Canada generally are inclined to find fault either, with the reluctance of the people of Great Britain to meet us in this matter of preferential trade. We realize that there are enormous difficulties in the way. It is no light thing for any political party to recommend to the people that which would be practically an economic revolution. But we do believe that good taste predicated by a knowledge of the facts should keep closed the mouths of persons who feign to perceive that the trend of sentiment in Canada is toward separation from the Mother Country. The Canadian navy will be under the control of the Dominion Parliament just as the Australian navy will be under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth Parliament (although it will be partly built from funds drawn from the Imperial exchequer) and the British navy is subject to the will of the people as represented in the Imperial Parliament. There is no way of avoiding constitutional restraints which, while they doubtless have their inconveniences from the point of view of an autocracy, are yet the firm base upon which our popular form of government rests. Canadians have already demonstrated in a practical way that when the Empire is threatened they can be depended upon to do their duty. In the meantime we have made the first and only moves towards real Imperial solidarity. We have done more than talk. We have acted. What action has any of the other parties to the union taken?

The governing classes of China have promised the taxpaying elements a constitution and a parliament. But the mandarins refuse to be hurried. They have ruled the country for countless centuries, almost the fact that the nation has not fallen to pieces as several other nations have done during a similar period is counted as fairly good evidence that there must be some good points in their regime, and they are not going to be rushed into changes just because constitutions and parliaments are part of the frills of popular institutions in the twentieth century. Not at all. The mandarins, in response to a petition recently presented at Peking, have gravely intimated that the prayer of the petitioners will receive their most grave and mature consideration. But a definite answer must not be expected inside of nine years. If the decision is favorable, it will be followed by the nuclei of a constitution and a parliament. The petitioners, strange to say, are not satisfied with the prospect. They demand immediate action. They threaten a dire thing if immediate action be not taken. They say eight of them will commit suicide on the doorsteps of as many mandarins if something is not done inside of a stipulated time. These Orientals are indeed a peculiar people. Now the Russians, who are also partly Oriental, have an entirely different system of working out their political salvation. They do not turn their weapons against themselves. It is said the British people are the least logical, politically, of all Europeans; that their system is not based upon scientific principles, but is a mere hodge-podge of development or growth. The Chinese civilization is the most ancient upon earth; the British have been the leaders in the development of individual liberty and political freedom. There is no more fascinating study than that of the temperament and ideals of the different divisions of the human race.

No, the great gladiatorial contest at Reno will not be accepted as determining that "all men are born free and equal."

Uncle Sam is well advanced in years, but we wish him many returns of the day.

At her residence, 208 Ladysmith street, Mrs. Robinson was stricken with a paralytic stroke on Saturday while she was alone. She was discovered in her precarious condition in the evening, when a lady, who had arrived from Vancouver to see her, was unable to gain admittance to the house called on a neighbor, who forced an entrance and found the old lady, who is 85 years of age, lying in bed. Dr. Frank Hall was immediately summoned.

Angus Smith, city engineer, on Thursday last paid a visit of inspection to the big reservoir on Smiths Hill. He found seven feet of water in the basin and that the leakage is at the rate of 40,000 gallons per day. A neat railing has been erected around the top of the walls, and the contract for the caretaker's residence will shortly be let.

REPUTATION.

Reputation is the one large word that distinguishes the excellent from the good, the near good, the average, the mediocre, the bad and the unspeakably bad. Gloves must be classified in your mind under one of these headings. "Perrin" is a name of excellent reputation that in fifty years has become the standard in Kid Gloves, owing to a steady and unwavering policy of making only gloves of the very best quality—a fact which keen shoppers have not been slow to learn. There is buying wisdom in purchasing "Perrin Gloves."

ACCIDENT OCCURS TO

J. B. A. JUNIOR FOUR

Crew Upset and Shell Smashed—Will Not Row in N. P. A. A. O. Regatta

The James Bay Rowing Club junior four has met with an accident and will not go to Vancouver to-morrow night with the remaining crews for the annual North West Pacific Amateur Oarsmen's regatta.

The crew, consisting of Carrie, Sommers, Chungranes and Kerr, went out yesterday in the J. B. A. A. shell, and while taking a training spin up the Gorge water collided with a boom of logs and damaged the shell so badly that it will not be possible to effect the repairs within the time between now and the regatta.

The crew was thrown into the water and swam for the log boom, all making it at the expense of a ducking. The men were rescued and brought back to the club house, much disgusted with the accident, which prevents them representing Victoria in the biggest rowing event of the northwest on Friday and Saturday.

The Big Four, consisting of McCarter (stroke), Davidson (3), Finlayson (2) and Jesse (bow), will have to-morrow night for Vancouver to take the final preparation for the big race, there. The junior double, consisting of Hoopgood and Monk, and W. H. Kennedy, who rows for Victoria in the singles, will leave at the same time. The crews take their final row in Victoria waters to-morrow.

There are three crews in the senior fours: Vancouver, J. B. A. A. and Portland. The change in the date of the regatta suited Portland as well as Victoria, and while at first the Oregonians were not going to send a crew, they have been able to get the men away for the end of this week, and the race will be run on the same keel on account of having the third crew in.

VICTORIA BEAT RENTON 7 TO 5

SEVENTH IS AGAIN THE LUCKY INNINGS

McDiarmid Five Hits for Five Times at Bat and Scored Two Runs

Victoria 7 and Renton 5, was the result of the second game of the baseball double header played at the Royal Athletic park on Saturday afternoon, making two wins for the Victoria nine. The lucky seventh again favored Victoria Saturday and four runs came to the team. McQuade, McDiarmid, Whyte and Robertson crossing the home plate. Renton had a chance in the ninth to even the score. There were three on bases and none down. Renton wanted a home run hit to even up, but only scored Thomas and Bunston, finishing two runs short.

McDiarmid, for Victoria, played the best of many good games he has played this year. He went five times to bat and got five hits, making a perfect batting performance. There was an error against his third base work and outside that he played superlative ball. McDiarmid holds the highest batting average of the team.

Harris, first man at bat, opened the Renton score in the first innings by going the full journey, after having been assisted by a bunt and a hit. Victoria did not score and Renton failed in the second. In the second for Victoria, McDiarmid hit a two base hit and was afterwards brought in by Robertson. The latter, however, was stopped just before reaching the plate on a three base hit by Surphils.

Renton went one, two, three for the third and the pitcher walked Moulton. Murrath bunted to the pitcher who overthrew to first. Murrath thereby getting on the bag and advancing Moulton to third. The first baseman, however, died on a squeeze between third and home, on McQuade's bunt, after Moore had gone on a fly. McDiarmid brought Murrath in and Whyte struck out. Score 2-1 to Victoria.

Renton opened the fourth with Ladd getting first on Murrath's error. Whyte and Moulton made a swell double play on Ladd and Fuller after Cooper struck out.

For Victoria Robertson struck out. Surphils got his second hit, making two bags and went to third on Brown's sacrifice, while Moulton skied to left field.

In the Renton fifth, McDowd and Thomas struck out, while Buntline popped a fly to shortstop. Murrath opened the Victoria fifth dying at second. Moore made a two-base hit. McQuade bunted Moore to third. McDiarmid brought in Moore and Whyte, and Robertson skied.

Two runs and four hits went to Renton in the sixth. Mulver got to the initial bag. Rees hit a three-bagger, scoring Mulver. Harris brought Rees home and there were two runs and three hits down. Cooper struck out. Ladd hit; Fuller got to first on Murrath's error that should have been a double play, and the bases were full. McDowd skied to third. Murrath redeemed himself by stopping Fuller at second on Thomas' bunt. The innings ended two runs four hits, and the score was tied. There was no score to Victoria in the sixth, and Renton failed to score in the seventh although Harris got three inches off the plate.

In Victoria's seventh, Moore was caught by second, McQuade got to first, on a hit to the right field. He made second on a passed pitch. McDiarmid hit and advanced McQuade to third, gaining first. Whyte bunted and brought in McQuade. Robertson got a two-base hit, bringing in McDiarmid. Whyte came home on a passed ball. Surphils skied to centre and Robertson beat the throw home. Both Brown and Moulton got hits but Moulton was stopped in trying to steal. For the eighth Renton went one, two, three, and Murrath and Moore for Victoria both were caught by the first baseman on flies. With two down Peter McQuade got to first base. McDiarmid, fifth time at bat, got his fifth hit, and Whyte made first base. With the bases full, Robertson died getting to first.

Renton passed two over the plate in the ninth innings and had just a chance of evening the score. With the third man down, however, the visiting team was two runs short and Victoria did not bat in the ninth. The score in detail is:

SPORT NOTES

Tomorrow is another day. Mr. Jeffrey and Mr. Johnson.

Victoria is in the middle of a yachting carnival. The yacht club headquarters and the inner harbor are presenting a bright and unusual sight.

The McNeil cup is retained by the Advance of the R. V. C. owing to the fact that there is no contender this year. Consequently the first race on the carnival programme did not take place this morning.

At the bowling green Saturday the following matches were played: (Think of the W. Walker, S. Shaw, W. Lorimer and J. A. Turner skip) 14 vs. W. Bricc, L. Lemon, B. John and R. W. Coleman (skip) 14. To decide the game—or rather in an effort to do so—an extra end was played, also resulting in an even break. (Six handed match) B. Stewart, D. Mowat and R. W. Coleman, 22 vs. G. Lowe, R. Dunn and J. A. Turner, 20. (Four handed game) J. A. Turner and R. Dunn, 17 vs. W. Olliphant and G. Mowat, 12.

The J. B. A. A. ball nine is taking a trip to Port Angeles to-day. The team went away this morning to play against the ball nine of the little American town across the water.

Have Dowler did not bring the Split over from Vancouver, and there is consequently no race for the Alexandra in local waters at this regatta. The Alexandra and her crew are, however, anchored at the yacht club moorings.

The Capitals will play the Regiment to-night at the North Ward park. The match commences at 6.30. To-morrow the U. C. T. plays the Beacon Hill nine at the hill diamond in the city league.

The Victoria police force will not be represented in the fifth annual field sports of the Vancouver police, which will be held on July 6th. Efforts are being made to induce Constable Blackstock, champion runner of B. C., in his weight, to compete in the fat man's race. None of the other local hobbies are in training.

The Capitals beat the Bankers in a ball game by 18 to 6. Winsby pitched for the losing side, pitched good class ball, but did not get the support.

The Maple Leaf nine beat the Knights of Columbus at the hill diamond by 11 to 10. The game was undecided until the last minutes. The winning battery was Jones and Thomas, and Keppock and O'Rourke was the battery on the Knights nine.

Secretary Blake and George Koenig, of the Shawanigan Lake Athletic Association, announce July 30th for the annual regatta. Full prize list will be issued in a few days. A dance will be held as usual after the sports.

There was a smart breeze yesterday for the visiting yachtsmen, and the boats went out both morning and afternoon, to meet the incoming motor boats in the 231-mile race from Tacoma. The Alexandra went over the official course yesterday morning.

THIRD MATCH IN C. M. R. LEAGUE SHOOT

Corporal Birch Top Score at the Three Ranges on Saturday

The third match in the Canadian military rifle league was held at Clover Point on Saturday afternoon. The attendance was not so good as it ought to have been, quite a number of first-class shots being prevented from attending through business or other reasons. Had there been a full attendance the total of the first team stood a good chance of being improved a few points. The next and final league match will take place on the 16th inst., when it is expected a winning score will be registered.

Corpl. Birch was again top man, winning the spoon in the first-class with a score of 96. Gunner de Carteret wins in the second-class with 90, and Gunner Harness in the third-class with 75. First team scores were as follows:

GOVERNMENT POLICY IN SOUTHERN DOMINION

Decision to Adopt Kitchener's Proposals in Regard to Defence of Country

(Special Mail Correspondence.)

Auckland, June 6.—The prime minister (Sir Joseph Ward), delivered an important speech at Winton in which he dealt with Dominion finance and the defence, and outlined some of the legislation proposed to be undertaken next session of parliament.

One of the most important features of the financial section of the premier's speech is the reference to the great rise in export values during the past year. The increase in exports over the previous year reached the large sum of four and a half millions sterling, and the total export values for 1909-10 are put down at no less than £21,500,000. Again the excess of exports over imports for the year after allowing for our annual remittances on account of interest, this is a remarkable tribute to the productive powers of the country. Another extremely satisfactory phase of the financial position is indicated by the rise in revenue receipts. Last year's total revenue amounted to £9,240,000, which beats our previous best on record revenue returns by about a quarter of a million. While the revenue for 1909-10 surpassed the return for 1908-9 by about £240,000, the expenditure had increased by nearly £100,000. The reductions in duties on the necessities of life and articles of common use totalled close on £480,000. Within the last 15 years the concessions granted in this way by the Liberal government have amounted to no less than four and a half millions sterling. Of special importance is the proposed legislation directed toward the promotion of settlement, the assistance of the small landholder, and the opening up of Maori lands. The special settlement finance act enables settlers who have no capital at all to secure land by the help of the state guarantee; and this innovation along with the allotment of £2,000,000 a year for advances to settlers and workers, should provide amply for the financial requirements of the great majority of "bona fide" settlers and workers who need such aid and are in a position to comply with the terms of the law. As to the native land question, so comprehensive and far-reaching can hardly be discussed as a side-issue just now. But we may in passing emphasize the facilities now afforded for the private purchase of native lands under effectual restrictions, the proposal to undertake the survey of all native lands on the part of the crown, and the very large area of native lands now practically ready for settlement as soon to be thrown open for selection.

Speaking on defence, at Hokitika, the prime minister explained that the government had accepted Lord Kitchener's recommendations in their entirety, with the exception of that referring to the salary of the higher officers, which they considered too high for this young country. The government had asked Lord Kitchener to recommend an officer of high standing and ability to take charge of the territorial force in New Zealand, and were expecting advice at any time now. The quota system would be adopted, whereby 11,000 territorials between the ages of 19 and 25 would be trained. New Zealand should be ready for all emergencies, for millions were still being spent on the armament, and they knew not when the dogs of war might become loosened. The cost of the scheme would be £400,000, which would be a real good insurance policy, not only on account of their property, which was at stake, but on account of their aims and aspirations as a self-governing Empire. It had, said the prime minister, been stated that the government had increased the rates of interest in the lending departments, but this was not so, and money was being lent out at as low a rate of interest as formerly. Under the new system of loans to local authorities £100,000 had been advanced at 3 1/2 per cent, the largest loan being £60,000 and the smallest £3.

Naturally enough, government, in dealing with military defence, has adopted Lord Kitchener's recommendations in regard to the leading principles and the more important details of the scheme; and one of the most important changes proposed is to increase the age limit for compulsory training in the general training section from 21 to 25 years. At first sight this seems a serious modification of the original system; but, as explained by the premier, it appears that this alteration will really make little difference to the citizen soldier who has done all that the law requires of him before the age of 21 years. The financial basis of these proposals undoubtedly demands serious consideration; for, even if out expenditure on national defence is kept carefully within the limit to which the premier believes it can be confined, £400,000 is a large sum to subtract annually from our national resources. This, however, is a matter which may be better judged when the full details of the scheme are available.

A scheme to relieve the unemployed and provide work for the workless, a scheme for prison reform, a scheme to spend large sums annually on the utilization of our splendid water supply to generate electric power, the encouragement of the beet sugar industry, and direct legislation to prevent any action by trusts or monopolies "in restraint of trade"—these are some of the more important items in Sir Joseph's list. Last year's land bill is not to be introduced again, the national anti-trust bill is to be passed, and in connection with land taxation, an exceedingly important suggestion is thrown out to provide for regular and systematic revaluation at fixed statutory periods. A proposal to strengthen our financial position by establishing sinking funds on a scale that would enable us to liquidate our public liabilities, if necessary, within 75 years, appears to us to be distinctly a step in the right direction.

Serious trouble is threatened in the shearing industry in Canterbury, where the Shearers' Union insists upon a rate of 20s. per hundred, while the employers ask for a reduction to 17s. 6d. When the case was called before the conciliation commission, the union representative stated that the union would not recede from the position it had taken up. The union, he added, was opposed to strikes, but was not going to make engagements. If the act went altogether they could not help it; they wanted a pound a hundred. After discussion it was decided to refer the whole matter to the arbitration court. The union representative starts a campaign throughout Otago and Southland on Monday. He states that shearers will go without work rather than take lower rates than those now demanded.

Some sensation was caused on May 26th when it was reported that the Auckland Trades and Labor Council had taken exception to the action of its president (Mr. Arthur Rosser) in sending a telegram to the prime minister, expressing on behalf of the Dominion Executive of the Trades and Labor Council, deep sympathy on the loss to the Empire by the death of King Edward, "As Prince," the telegram ran, "he took an active interest in the housing of the poor in London; as King he was essentially a peacemaker. May his successor follow in his footsteps." The president was severely criticised for sending the telegram without consulting the executive. There were three-four members present, and a motion was moved asking Mr. Rosser to resign his position as president of the Dominion executive. The voting was 17 each way. Mr. Rosser took the only course open to him by using his own casting vote to carry the motion, thus expediting the decision of the council to inflict punishment on him for a thoroughly commendable action. A temporary chairman having been appointed, a resolution censuring Mr. Rosser for his action in sending the telegram was moved and carried by a small majority. Since the meeting much indignation has been expressed in labor circles at the action taken, and the only defence made is that it was regarded rather as an attack upon Mr. Rosser personally than an expression of disloyalty.

ECZEMA MUST YIELD TO THE Wonderfully Soothing, Healing Influence of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

There is one thing you can depend on Dr. Chase's Ointment to do every time, and that is to cure eczema. There is no more severe test to which an ointment can be put, and because Dr. Chase's Ointment triumphed over eczema it has become the standard Ointment.

When another ointment is praised it is said to be as good as Dr. Chase's. And this illustrates the high position held by this preparation. Mrs. Oscar Vanocott, St. Antonio, Ark., writes: "I have found Dr. Chase's Ointment to be a permanent cure for eczema and other skin diseases. One son while nursing broke out with running, watery sores all over his head and around the ears. Many salves were prescribed to no effect. The child's head became a mass of scabs and he suffered agony untold. He became weak and frail, would not eat and we thought we would lose him. 'Providentially we heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment and it soon thoroughly cured him. He is seven years old now and strong and well. An older boy was also cured of eczema by this Ointment and we hope more people will learn about it so that their poor little ones may be saved from suffering.'"

Do not be satisfied with the experience of others, but put Dr. Chase's Ointment to the test when occasion arises. Try it for chafing and irritation of the skin for chapped and cracked hands, for chilblains and frost bites, for sores and burns. It is delightfully soothing and healing. 40c. a box, all dealers; or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

NORTH SAANICH NEVER WAS A MUNICIPLAITY

Decision of Chief Justice to That Effect Gives Residents Food for Speculation

According to a decision handed down by Chief Justice Hunter on Thursday afternoon the North Saanich Municipal Corporation never existed—that is, legally. His Lordship gave judgment in the quo warranto proceedings brought against A. McIntosh Esq., calling upon him to show cause why he should sit as a councillor in the municipality. In deciding that the respondent was not entitled to sit in the council because the municipality was non-existent, the Chief Justice suggested that the applicant waive his claim to costs, as the respondent had acted innocently. No claim will be made in consequence.

Letters patent were issued by the lieutenant-governor in March, 1906, incorporating the municipality. The area of the district, however, is about 11,000 acres and, as the Municipalities Incorporation Act states that a district municipality shall not exceed 2,000 acres where a township exists, the incorporation was illegal.

How the decision of the Chief Justice will affect the district is the cause of considerable speculation among the residents. If there never was a municipality the by-laws passed by the council will necessarily be dead and the district will be under the regulations provided by the statutes for unincorporated districts. The provincial police will have to police the district as the constable in company with the other so-called officials of the so-called municipality, is now out of his job.

WILL CONFER WITH PREMIER ON TUESDAY

Board of Trade to Point Out the Detrimental Effect of the Companies' Act.

To-morrow morning the local board of trade will meet with Premier McBride to discuss the Companies' Act, which came into force on Friday. The meeting was arranged on Saturday and the members of the board will assemble in their room at 10.30 a. m. preparatory to the conference.

Throughout the whole province business men are eagerly awaiting the outcome of the conference, as the deputations which met Attorney-General Bowser in Vancouver was, to quote one of its members, "turned down cold." Premier McBride will be asked to consider the suspension of the prosecutions under the act, which went into force Friday, until an effort can be made at the next meeting of the legislature to amend it.

The unanimous opinion in British Columbia business circles is that the enforcement of the measure will prove detrimental to the trade of the province. It has been claimed that the act was railroaded through the legislature and that it will largely benefit a number of the wealthiest business concerns while adversely affecting the interests of their weaker competitors.

ARION CLUB HOLDS ITS ANNUAL MEETING

Officers Elected for Nineteenth Season of Popular Musical Organization

The annual meeting of the Arion Club was held at the Masonic hall, Fisgard street, on Tuesday evening last; the president, W. T. Williams, being in the chair. After a brief address from the chairman the treasurer, B. C. Mess, read a most satisfactory report on the club's financial position.

The election of conductor for the ensuing year created considerable discussion. E. Howard Russell, B.A., having signified his intention to resign. The president, Mr. Mess, Mr. Kent, Mr. Wollaston, and others, strongly deprecated this change and on being pressed by an unanimous vote of the members present, Mr. Russell consented to retain his present position.

The other officers elected for the 19th session were: President, Percy Wollaston; treasurer, B. C. Mess; Secretary, E. J. Hearn; Librarian, D. D. Muir; Sub-conductor, Herbert Kent; Music committee, the conductor, sub-conductor and W. S. Goodwin; executive committee, all the above officers and T. Lewis.

At the close of the meeting the retiring president entertained the members at a sumptuous repast. After this a very pleasant time was spent in songs and music, during which George Jay, one of the original members of the club, made some appropriate remarks, forecasting a successful season next winter. Shortly after midnight the party adjourned after toasting the King, their host, the club, and the conductor.

The audited accounts, dated June 21st, show a surplus on this season's income and expenditure account of $29.91, as compared with $12.35 of the seventeenth season. The total net ordinary income was $792.23, and the expenditure for the three concerts, music of hall for rehearsals, etc., $762.32. In addition to the ordinary income and expenditure, there was the net returns of the Duncan concert, $59.20, which was handed to the Chemunus hospital, an invalid chair being therewith purchased bearing the name of the donors.

The balance sheet shows $247.81 cash in bank, $108.75 due from associate and active members, allowing $17 for possible bad debts, making $339.56, with no outstanding liabilities. The treasurer's report shows the number of associate members to be about the same as the seventeenth season, but a considerable falling off from the sixteenth season. It is hoped that those appreciating male-voice music will hand in their names for membership for the coming season and thus materially assist the club in carrying on its work, and enabling the committee to engage good outside talent to assist at the various concerts.

On Wednesday, the 15th, the money was paid and there came into the possession of the AMALGAMATED DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, thirty-four oil claims, together with over $100,000 worth of machinery, including drills, machine shops, commissary supplies, saw mill, steel tramways, pumps, tanks, pipe lines, a 200-ton schooner and

Six Producing Oil Wells

Four of which are situated upon Mineral Entry No. 68, a Patented Oil Mining Claim of 160 acres, all in the Katalla, Alaska, Mining District.

It took a lot of money to enable us to take advantage of the inability of others to carry this immense project to a successful issue, but we got it, and we will have a cargo of oil in Vancouver harbor in thirty days and just as soon as we can raise the means to build our pipe line to deep water we will be shipping and more, as fast as new wells can be drilled.

This immense project was too large for the International or Northern Oil Companies to handle so the promoters, who were instrumental in forming all three companies, in fairness to their old stockholders, have offered and will take up the stock in the last two named, and will issue the same amount of stock in the new company, with the ultimate object, in case all of the stockholders come in, to take over the properties of the two companies, thereby making still more extensive the holdings of the Amalgamated Development Company.

Shares for a limited time, $1.00 per share; to be had only by those holding International or Northern Oil stock, limited to the number of shares so held. All other stock $2.00 per share.

IROQUOIS ARRIVED LATE THIS MORNING

Slight Accident on Excursion Run Yesterday in Hood Canal

Steamer Iroquois was late arriving this morning and did not get away for Seattle until after 11. She carried a number of excursionists to Port Angeles on the way over, five hundred having been left at the little town across the straits.

Word was brought that yesterday some little hitch in the machinery caused considerable excitement when the steamer was out on an excursion run. She was going through the Hood canal when the engines stopped. She had nearly a thousand people aboard but they were a good humored crowd and did not mind waiting until the machinery was in operation again.

Steamer Whatcom made two trips from here to Port Angeles, taking nearly 800 people over to help celebrate the Fourth.

SCHOONER CRUSHED.

Joe Matthews Finched in Northern Ice Pack—Victoria Returns from Nome.

The last trip of the Alaska Steamship Company's liner Victoria is pronounced by Captain John A. O'Brien as the most severe experience the steamer has had in her long experience. Bringing twenty-nine passengers from Nome and St. Michael, the vessel arrived at Seattle Friday, in spite of an eighteen days' battle with heavy ice. She landed at the northern camp without being damaged, and ready to begin her return voyage.

Shortly after leaving Unimak Pass, the vessel cutter Bear, giving news of the wrecking of the gasoline schooner Joe Matthews. The Matthews was pinched in the ice and totally destroyed.

Reports of a severe winter about Nome and St. Michael are verified by Captain O'Brien. In the many years he has been engaged in this trade he has never before seen the ice pack so far south.

PRINCES FULFILLED EVERY EXPECTATION

E. L. Newman, Designer of Grand Trunk Steamer, Watches Child of His Brain Leave

The Grand Trunk steamer Prince Rupert left this morning for Stewart and way ports with a good number of passengers both from Seattle and this port. Among those coming from the Sound were Mrs. Guggenheim, sister and maid, who are on their way to Prince Rupert. A number of bookings have been made direct to Queen Charlotte Island ports, among them being W. B. Holden, of this city, who is going to Massett. Other passengers booked from here are:

To Prince Rupert—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McKewen, F. Jones and son, W. McLaughlin, Mrs. E. N. Horrel, Mrs. G. H. McDonald.

To Stewart—Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Snelling, Fred Snelling, Mrs. I. M. Henderson, C. S. Stanier, G. O. Day, T. A. Wood, C. H. Dickie, W. S. Gillette, J. H. McKay, W. J. Bradley, H. Anderson, F. V. Hobbs and Rev. Dr. Smith.

The Prince Rupert made some fast running going north and south on the last trip. She left Vancouver 13 hours late but made time at the way, arriving at Prince Rupert only 4 hours late. At times she made great speed, her log showing 19 knots as the fastest. Unfortunately she was stuck up in a thick fog for several hours or she would have been there earlier. When the steamer made Victoria on Saturday night she was only fifteen minutes behind her schedule time.

Among those down at the dock to watch the Prince Rupert off this morning was E. L. Newman, the man who drew the plans for the two fast steamers, watched their construction at the yards of Swan Hunter & Co., and also took them on their trial trips. To a Times representative he said that the steamers had fulfilled every expectation. He was more than satisfied with the work they had done. While watching the work of building the two Princes, he also had charge of the construction work on the Cartier, a sister steamer to the D. G. S. Lilfoote. The Cartier is now employed surveying in the neighborhood of Ramouski on the St. Lawrence.

Mr. Newman will make the trip to Prince Rupert next week in company with Captain Nicholson, superintendent of the line.

MARINE NOTES

Steamer Iran arrived to-day and was lying off the outer dock awaiting orders. She comes from Bedondo, where she has been engaged in the hardwood logs carrying.

Some large catches of fish have been made at the traps within the last few days. Between five and six thousand sockeyes were taken in Todd's traps and sent to the cannery at the Fraser River. The spring salmon in large quantities are being mild cured at the local salteries.

Steamer Onia is loading oil at the outer dock to-day and expects to get away for Puget Sound about midnight. She already has about two thousand tons of lumber in her hold, and on the Sound she will take 5,000 tons of U. S. government freight for Manila and one or two thousand tons of general. This means that she will be full to the hatches when she leaves in about a week.

Steamer Leebro has arrived back from Triangle Island and other west coast ports after delivering a large quantity of cement for the new light-house tower, and a gang of nearly 20 men to do the work. She also took a gang of men to work on the extension of the west coast trail, and called at some other points. It is understood that she will go north in a few days with the big lantern for the new tower.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

No man or woman is great enough to be slovenly.

I have known — and, of course, you have — many people who felt justified in developing their minds and ignoring their bodies because they thought the mental was so much more important than the physical.

I think that's a very wrong outlook. No mental power, however great, can compensate for slovenliness from the care of the person.

A brilliant, slovenly person may succeed in life, but only by using twice as much force as he need have expended. He will never get so far as the man or woman who takes care to add a prepossessing appearance to a prepossessing mind.

A few months ago I was much pleased to hear that a young minister, for whose brilliance I had much respect, had been honored by a call from a small town, where he was preaching, to one of Boston's most famous and beautiful churches.

Yesterday I was saddened by hearing that his resignation had been asked and granted, and that he had left the church and gone back to a small parish.

And the reason was simply this: He did not keep his linen clean.

A small thing you say?

I don't know. A very large one. I should think, if it had the power to come between his congregation and his message.

A woman in our town, whose slovenliness about her dress and her person has made her a town character, took the civil service examinations recently. She is as clever as she is slovenly and passed at the head of the list. She has never received an appointment. It is an open secret that her failure to do so is simply because the officials will not have a person of her disgraceful appearance in a public position.

In the college from which I graduated the commencement part is one of the prizes for which the best students strive.

In awarding it last year a girl of the highest scholarship was passed over for one who had received less excellent rank, because the first girl was nothing more or less than "sloppy." The college was not willing that a girl of untidy appearance — no matter how brilliant her mind, no matter how clever a speech she might have made — should represent it on its commencement platform.

A shopkeeper might have an excellent stock of articles, but if his window show were thick with dust and his doorway choked with litter the public would be pretty apt to pass by and go to the more attractive shop down the street, though the articles sold there were no better or even scarce as good.

Anyone who thinks the contents of his mind ought to make friends and win success for him, no matter how slovenly and unattractive his person, may be just such a shopkeeper.

The examples I have cited have been extreme cases, of course.

But on that account they are the better object lessons to remind any of us who may sometimes be careless in some slight particular, that it never pays.

RELIABLE RECIPES

Angel Parfait With Scandinavian Rosettes—Boil one cupful of sugar and one-third of a cupful of hot water to a thread. Beat the whites of two eggs light, and add the syrup in a fine stream, beating steadily until a meringue is formed. Let this cool. Fold in two cupfuls of cream beaten solid, then turn into mold previously wet with cold water. Cover carefully, pack in ice and salt for two, three or four hours. Serve on the rosettes garnished with strawberries.

Scandinavian Waters With Pineapple.—Use the same recipe for the waters as for the rosettes, but bake in a thin wafer iron as waffles are baked. Place one wafer on each plate and on each wafer place a slice of pineapple, garnish with fringed cream into which has been whipped the crushed or grated pineapple, and maraschino cherries or strawberries.

Batter for Rosettes—Sift one cupful of pastry flour into a bowl. Add one-half of a teaspoonful of salt. Mix well. Beat the yolks of two eggs light. Add to the flour, then add cold water gradually, beating all the while, until the batter is of the consistency of pancakes. Beat well, then add one tablespoonful of olive oil and the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff, dry froth. Beat well and stand aside two hours before using.

Strawberry Charlotte Russe—Cover one-fourth of a box of gelatine with one-fourth cupful of cold water and allow it to stand for one-half hour; dissolve over hot water. Scald one cupful of milk add one cupful of granulated sugar, stir until it is dissolved and the mixture looks blue and thin. Beat one egg light, and pour the hot milk upon it, stirring constantly. Return to the fire, cook for one minute, remove and add the dissolved gelatine. Flavor with one teaspoonful of vanilla extract and one tablespoonful of pineapple juice and put away to cool. Add one cupful of strawberries which have been crushed and standing covered with one-fourth cupful of sugar, then put through a fruit press. Carefully fold in one pint of cream whipped to a stiff, dry froth. Turn into a mold which has been lined with lady fingers put at intervals of one-half an inch. When ready to serve, turn out and garnish with whole strawberries and whipped cream.

Devil's Cake—Beat two-thirds of a cup of butter to a cream; beat in one cup of sugar; beat the yolks of four eggs very light; beat into them one cup of sugar, then beat the two mixtures together; add one cup of hot, mashed potato, two squares of melted chocolate and, alternately, half a cup of sweet milk and two cups of sifted flour, sifted again with three and one-half level teaspoonfuls of baking powder; a teaspoonful each of cinnamon and nutmeg, and half a teaspoonful of clove. Lastly add a cup of walnut meats, chopped fine, and the whites of four eggs, beaten dry. Bake in a loaf, a sheet, or in layers. Frost with chocolate, or plain white icing, as desired.

Semi-Steel Fire-Pot—Not Gray Iron

A FIRE-POT of a furnace should be able to endure tremendous heat and to repel the attacks of sulphur fumes.

The material commonly used for a fire-pot is gray iron. The Sunshine fire-pot is Semi-Steel.

Now, avoiding technical terms, gray iron has what may be called "open" pores. Through these "open" pores the destructive sulphur fumes attack the iron and hasten disintegration.

On the other hand, Semi-Steel is a close-grained material, with a smooth-as-glass surface which practically seals or "closes" up the pores. Semi-Steel easily repels the attacks of gas fumes and thus greatly prolongs the life of the fire-pot.

A Semi-Steel fire-pot weighs 20 per cent. heavier than the same size and pattern in gray iron. It is therefore better able to endure tremendous heat.

Semi-Steel is made by an exclusive McClary process. You can only get a Semi-Steel fire-pot with a McClary furnace. That is one strong reason why you should have the Sunshine installed in your home. Our agent in your locality will tell you many other reasons. Ask him.

Remember, the Sunshine is guaranteed, by the largest makers of furnaces in British Empire, to heat your home to your entire satisfaction.

ARMY COUNCIL AND BOY SCOUTS

Lieut.-General Sir Baden Powell Points How Youths May Be Made Better Citizens

In an interview with the London Standard a few days ago, Lieut.-Gen. Sir B. S. Baden-Powell said that he did not think that the reference to "civilian bodies" in the war office memorandum, attached to the army order on reservists and cadets, had anything to do with the Boy Scout movement.

The method of the movement is the education of the boys by means which really appeal to them, namely, scout-craft, or backwoodsmanhood, and its manly attributes. The administration is based on decentralization of authority and responsibility—each district conducting its own affairs.

There have a very good understanding with the army council, continued Lieut.-General Baden-Powell, "and they recognize that we aim at making the boys better citizens, and not soldiers. We have had talks about it. There are small parties of boys of a semi-military kind about the country, led by would-be patriotic men, but there is no continuity about them. The scouts do not go in for military drill, but are developed on lines of individuality. Military training of the scouts is more of the kind you would give a sailor. You want to put discipline into them and hardiness. Our purpose is to make them good citizens, capable of taking up handicrafts in their own country, or of going out and colonizing if they want to. The difficulty is in getting as officers young men of the right type, but they are just beginning to come in.

Longshoreman Killed After Exchange of Hot Words—His Assault is in Custody

Seattle, Wash., July 4.—John Ryan, a longshoreman, was shot and killed today by William Horn, ex-member of the union, following a quarrel on a street corner.

There had been bad blood between the men for three years following Horn's leaving the union. Ryan and a crowd of longshoremen met Horn on the street today. Hot words followed, then gun play. Horn was arrested. Three other longshoremen are held by the police as witnesses.

They rushed into a clinch. They separated without damage. Johnson jabbed nose. Jeff now on the ropes. Jeff got up in ring. Johnson wins with a knockout.

The beginning of the end came in the 14th round. Jeff could barely see and the first punch caused him to wobble. Seeing his antagonist almost helpless, Johnson dashed in and landed left and when they were clinched sent Jeff's head back with an uppercut. Jeff was all at sea. When he retired to his corner at the end of the 14th he was apparently all in. He wobbled against the ropes when he went to his corner and shook his head in a sorrowful manner.

Johnson, seeing his advantage dashed in like a tiger and with a series of left and right smashes to the head he sent Jeff down for the count of 8. Jeff got up. Johnson handled himself carefully and landed terrific rights and lefts to the head. Jeff toppled through the ropes, his legs hanging over the platform.

The timekeeper tolled off the fatal ten but he did not hear him and when Jeff arose they sent him after Johnson. The negro also believing that his antagonist had arisen before the count of ten, again sailed in and toppled poor Jeff over. Rickard at this juncture caught Johnson and shoved him to his corner.

In the turmoil following the knock down several of Jeff's seconds jumped into the ring when Johnson was again coming.

BEFORE THE FIGHT. In Jeffries' Camp. Moana Springs Training Camp, Reno, Nev., July 4. (By Max Salathasar) An unusual calm prevailed over Jeffries' camp this morning.

Only members of his training squad were with Jeffries, Cornell, Armstrong and Burns remaining, the balance of the crew being in the city.

A little stir was created by an objection being entered by Jeffries to the canvass covering the ring, it being too slippery. Berger and Corbett were called up and instructed to see that a new covering was provided. It is probable that the canvass used at one or the other of the training camps will be substituted.

For some time it has been the opinion of those who have seen both men work and Jeffries himself has admitted as much to his close friends, that whatever the final result of the battle the white man is due to receive a lot of punishment in the early rounds.

MUCH GOLD IN THE PORCUPINE

CLAIMS ARE BEING STAKED IN NUMBERS

Director of Geological Survey Makes Report on the New District

R. W. Brock of the department of mines, Ottawa, has just returned from a visit to the Porcupine district in Northern Ontario. He reports that great interest is being taken in the Porcupine district. A continuous stream of travellers is passing in and out over the trail. At Hill's half-way house one hundred are fed each day. Probably 2,000 people are in the camps about Porcupine, and as news is received of the discovery of gold at one point after another throughout the district the "yellow fever" grows more intense. Already prices of claims are away above any determined value, and the buying and selling is on a speculative rather than a business basis.

—for there is nothing more alluring than the noble metal glistening from the quartz background. And the district furnishes remarkably tempting specimens. About 9,000 claims have been staked. The majority, of course, have no real present or prospective value as mines, but they are in Porcupine and they can be bought and sold. But there are some really good-looking prospects, quartz is remarkably widespread over the district, and visible gold is abundant in some showings, and has been found at numerous and widely separated points.

Most of the gold occurrences so far located are in the township of Tisdale, but some of the properties are in Whitney, others in Shaw and in the forest reserve. A new discovery has just been announced from Kamiskwia lake, west of the Matagami river. Then, of course, there are the older discoveries in Night-hawk lake. The prevailing rocks are greenstones (including old diabases), quartz porphyries and schist, presumably of Keewatin age, with some states, greywackes and conglomerates, probably Huronian. The quartz occurs in any of the rocks and in all manner of forms. There are some well defined veins, there are some large apparently isolated masses of it, the so-called "domes," and there are numerous irregular stringers, which may swell out in places to large masses that may or may not be extensive in three directions. The quartz holds many inclusions of more or less altered country rock. Pyrite is rather extensively developed in and along these inclusions. The gold, which is often coarse, is distributed in much the same way as the pyrite, with which it is usually rather closely associated, but some may be found in the pure quartz. A little arsenic, bismuth and chalcocite may also be present. A ferruginous carbonite, probably ankerite or siderite, is next to quartz, the most abundant gangue mineral. It weathers deeply to reddish yellow from oxide. Calcite, chlorite, talc, probably sericite, and feldspar were also noticed.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE YAKOON RIVER

Work Commenced by Dominion Government—Investigating Graham Island Timber

(Special Correspondence.)
Masset, Q. C. L., July 3.—The initial trip of the steamship Prince Albert to Masset was the occasion of rejoicing on the part of the residents. An address of welcome, signed by the people of Masset, was presented to Captain Weymouth by a committee consisting of W. Martin, commissioner; C. Harrison, stipendiary magistrate; and Thos. Deasy, Indian agent. A weekly service has now been provided by the Dominion government and Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company, which will be greatly appreciated by the settlers at Skidegate and Masset.

A representative of the Dominion public works department visited Masset recently and made arrangements for the building of a wharf and the clearing of the Yakooun river. Within two days after the arrival men were at work taking out piles for the wharf, and already a number of the latter are in the water.

The survey parties are in the neighborhood of Naden river and two more parties at Tow Hill. Representatives of a Nanaimo coal syndicate have arrived from Virago Sound and the representatives of a Chicago lumber syndicate are now out preparing a report on the timber limits on Graham Island. A Vancouver company is preparing to develop the platinum and gold fields near Cape Fife and an exciting race took place a few days ago—between parties desirous of staking oil fields in the vicinity of Frederick Island.

J. M. Wilson of Prince Rupert, secured a bond of 50 acres of land near New Masset, which will be surveyed in acre lots and sold.

Rev. Thomas Hogan, pastor of Masset, officiated at the funeral of the daughter of Alfred Adams, who died recently. The Masset brass band attended the funeral.

Two prospectors have installed a plant and are working the ground on a creek within a mile of Masset. A report is in circulation that they have very rich diggings.

It is reported a new syndicate purchased the townsite of New Masset and will immediately open streets and make a road to the wharf.

The Graham Island Settlers' Association will hold a meeting shortly to consider the various matters connected with advancing the Queen Charlotte group.

Poster of from six to twenty feet. Fine showings of gold occur, and its clean cut character an extensive horizontal dimensions, suggest that it may have an equally strong vertical extension. From the above it will be seen that there are some grounds for the hopefulness regarding the future of this baby camp. Of course, there are properties here which will furnish specimens but never anything more, and lots that will not do even this. There are some that will be "teasers" with just enough quartz with values to attract money for their development, but not enough in one place or not enough continuity to the bodies to be exploited profitably. But there are some really promising prospects which even if they should not prove altogether satisfactory with depth, yet will on their present showings, have quite a tidy output of gold.

Chances of Future.
The development during the next few months, which will furnish some clue as to the deeper conditions will be followed with much interest. The industry of gold mining in Ontario has not been highly encouraging, but it is to be remembered that gold mining in Ontario is to-day in exactly the same position as was silver mining seven years ago, and the chances of finding a notable gold camp are to-day quite as good as were the chances of locating a cobalt at that time.

Porcupine is as yet in the prospect stage. But it has some of the essential qualities of a gold camp, sufficient to have induced experienced mining men to take up options at high figures, and to undertake large expenditures to determine if it possesses all the essential factors.

Access to the district for travellers is now comparatively easy. Most go in via Kelso, at mile post 222, on the T. & N. O. railway. From the railway a stage line runs twelve miles to the inlet of Frederickhouse lake. From here gasoline launches run fourteen miles up the river to Nighthawk lake, across the end of the latter and for some miles up the Porcupine river to Hill's. From this point it is eight miles by trail to Porcupine, including two miles that may be covered by canoe ferry. The trip from Kelso to Porcupine takes eight or nine hours. From Hill's there is also a canoe route up the river with a gasoline service, but the distance is

AMATEUR BREAKS RECORD.

C. B. Harmon Remains in Air in Curtiss Biplane for 2 Hours 3 Minutes.

New York, July 4.—Although an amateur, Clifford B. Harmon broke all American records for length of time in the air in a continuous aeroplane flight at Mineola, Long Island, Saturday evening. He remained aloft in Curtiss biplane for two hours and three minutes, and only descended when his gasoline became exhausted. The best previous record for duration of flight was one hour and fifty-six minutes, made by Louis Paulhan at Los Angeles, last January. During the flight Harmon made 273 laps over the course. In the 4th he flew over the grand stand, made a figure eight and reversed his course. When he alighted the spectators crowded around the aviator and attempted to shake his hand, but he retreated, explaining that his right arm was almost paralyzed from continuous handling of the machine. Harmon is wealthy, and has recently made aviation his hobby. He carries a canoe with him when he goes aloft.

New Britain, Conn., July 4.—Charles K. Hamilton made three successful flights in his biplane here Saturday.

ANOTHER AUTO FATALITY.

Atkinson, of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Cora Fox and Miss Margaret Hoffman, of River Edge, N. J., were riding, dashed into a telephone pole. Mr. Atkinson was thrown over the front of the machine and fell on the ground. The two women were thrown into the road. They lay there for some time before they were found by a resident of Arcola, Mrs. Fox, whose skull was fractured, died a few hours later.

SHIPMENTS EXCEED MILLION TONS

Half Year's Output of Kootenay Mines—Over 400 Men at Work in Sheep Creek Camp

Nelson, B. C., July 4.—The feature of the past week in mining circles is the growth attained by the Sheep Creek camp, near Salmon on the line of the Great Northern, a few miles south of Hudson. At the present time over four hundred men are at work on the various properties. New strikes of free milling ore are reported daily, and during the next two months sensational developments may reasonably be expected.

The West Kootenay Power & Light Company, of Bonington Falls, will put a force of men at work today to cut the way for a direct line from Bonington to Sheep Creek. When the line is installed, electric power will be supplied to all the mines and mills, and progress will consequently be very rapid.
In the lower level of the well-known Nugget a ledge of 11 feet in width has been discovered, and traced clear into the adjoining Clyde Belt, owned by the Britannia N. & S. Co. The paystreak is 3 feet wide and averages 1500, while the 14 feet will average 1850, free milling ore. Another good strike is reported on the Mother Lode in No. 4 tunnel, which is now in 850 feet. Many mining men and prospectors have gone into the camp of late, and beyond question Sheep Creek and the surrounding country will be a scene of great activity for the rest of the summer.

The ore shipments for the first half of the year from Kootenay show a good increase over the same period last year. The figures are: 1910, 1,194,322 tons; 1909, 505,029 tons. The smelter receipts for the same period show a relatively the same satisfactory increases.
