Asiatics Now Hold 27,000 Acres of Best B. C. Farm Lands

Menace of Oriental Competition to White Agriculturists In British Columbia Is Shown by Investigation of Hon. E. D. Barrow.

Chinese and Japanese now control 26,918 acres of British Columbia land in their invasion of the agricultural industry and are steadily increasing their holdings, according to an investigation of the Oriental menace to white agriculturists in B. C. conducted by the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture. Results of this investigation were made public to-day by the Minister.

The figures compiled by the Department are to be used in fighting before the Imperial Conference at London in June the case of white farmers here for protection against Oriental competition.

There are 1,080 Asiatics controlling 26,918 acres in this Province, of which 367 acres are orchard lands, 2,341 acres of small fruits, 10,659 acres of truck farms, 515 acres of dairy farms and 3,677 acres of land used for mixed farming, Hon. Mr. Barrow's investigation shows.

There are 492 Japanese and 116 Chinese owning land to the extent of 14,067 acres.

In orchard lands the Japanese own 176 acres, while the Chinese only own 14 acres. In small fruits the Japanese own 2,096 acres and the Chinese 25 acres.

In truck farming and mixed farming the Chinese own 1,832 acres of truck farms, having 1,832 acres of truck farms, as against 281 acres owned by Japanese, and, in mixed farming, 1,228 acres as compared with 631 acres owned by the Japanese.

Chinese Big Truck Farmers.
In leased lands 103 Japanese control 1,731 acres while 269 Chinese control 11,878 acres, making a total acreage of 12,568.

In orchard lands the Japanese have under lease 129 acres, and the Chinese 27 acres. In small fruits the Japanese hold under lease 155 acres and the Chinese 64 acres.

In truck farming the amount of land under lease to the Japanese is 590 acres, while the Chinese rent 8,184 acres. In dairy farming the Japanese are shown as holding under lease 482 acres, while the returns do not indicate the Chinese as carrying on that class of agriculture.

In mixed farming also the Japanese also fall far behind the Chinese in the amount of land held by lease. Under this heading the Japanese control only 236 acres, whilst the Chinese control 1,581 acres.

No Chinese Dairyman.
In the dairy phase of agriculture the Chinese are not reported as holding any land either as owners or tenants. On the other hand the Japanese are shown as being the owners of 89 acres used for dairy purposes.

A detailed report covering each district of the Province is being forwarded to Hon. S. E. Tolmie, Federal Minister of Agriculture, and member for Victoria, for the use of the Canadian representatives at the Imperial Conference in London next month.

NO NEW BILLS
IN THE COMMONS
Ottawa, May 27.—(Canadian Press)—There will be no further legislation brought down by the Government at the present session of Parliament. This statement was made by the Prime Minister in the House of Commons this afternoon in reply to an inquiry by the Leader of the Opposition.

RAILWAY STRIKERS IN EGYPT DEALT WITH SHARPLY

Cairo, Egypt, May 27.—Twenty-five hundred strikers who quit work in railroad shops here have been summarily dismissed, and even if reinstated, will lose their seniority rights. The general strike which has been threatened has not materialized as yet.

Liquor Board Purchased Warehouse to Save Money, Farris Says

Full details of the purchase by the Government of the Campbell warehouse in Vancouver for the Liquor Board, were made public to-day in a statement issued by the Hon. J. W. de B. Farris, Attorney-General and Acting Premier.

The Attorney-General's statement is in reply to an attack made on the Government by The Vancouver Sun and an open letter to Premier Oliver asking for an explanation, published by that newspaper yesterday.

Hon. Mr. Farris explains that part of the warehouse of Charles E. Campbell had been under lease for some time to the Government under the Prohibition Act. When more storage space was required as large quantities of liquor arrived for sale under Government Control, more floor space was taken in the building. The rent paid for this space was fixed on valuation made by Vancouver brokers. It was actually $500 a month less than the fair rental value given by one firm consulted as an expert.

When the Liquor Board took office, it found that the whole building could be bought for a price which would enable it to save $7,900 a year—the difference between the rent being paid and the interest on the price of the building.

When the Government realized that it was paying a big rent every year for which it would have nothing to show at the end of the lease, it decided to accept the advice of the Liquor Board and buy the warehouse building outright, as in five years it would pay out in rent more than half the value of the building and then have nothing to show for it.

Heid Lease Under Prohibition Act.
The Sun's article is simply another attempt of that newspaper to vent its spite against the Government, says Hon. Mr. Farris in his statement. (Concluded on page 12)

PRISONER ESCAPED IN MONTREAL

Montreal, May 27.—Ernest Robert, one of three youths charged with the murder of a woman, escaped from a Montreal prison yesterday by squeezing between two iron bars on one of the windows after picking the lock of the cell door and getting his two friends to lower him to the ground with a rope made from a mattress cut into strips. He has not been recaptured.

HEAVIER TAXES IN NEWFOUNDLAND

Government Proposes to Reduce Expenditures
St. Johns, Nfld., May 27.—Increased taxes and reductions in Government expenditures for the next fiscal year were recommended to the Legislature yesterday by Premier Squires in presenting the annual budget.

The Premier reported a deficit of $3,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30 next, which, he said, was covered by surpluses from the previous year.

The increased taxes, the Premier indicated, should include a surtax of 25 per cent. on existing customs duties and a special sales tax. The revenue and expenditures for the fiscal year beginning July 1 were estimated at $3,300,000 each.

REPORT UNFOUNDED.
Regina, May 27.—Contradiction was made here of a rumor to the effect that Hon. William M. Martin, Premier of Saskatchewan, would resign from the Government to accept a position with the Canadian Pacific railway. The report was said to be without any foundation.

EXPLAIN SOLDIERS' INSURANCE PLAN

Committee Suggests Educational Campaign
Bonus on Pensions to Be Continued

Ottawa, May 27.—(Canadian Press)—The report of the special committee of the Commons which inquired into pensions, insurance and civil re-establishment, tabled in the House last night, and which recommends that the fifty per cent. bonus on pensions be continued for another year, is divided into three parts: pensions, insurance and re-establishment. The report dealing with insurance, the opinion is expressed that but a comparatively small number of returned soldiers have as yet taken advantage of the Act. This is thought to be due to misunderstanding of its provisions or lack of appreciation of the benefits to be obtained, and a suggestion is made that during the next twelve months a corps of returned men should be organized to explain the provisions of the Act to former soldiers throughout the country.

Other Suggestions.
Provisions also are suggested allowing life insurance to designate alternate beneficiaries in the event of their death unmarried and without children, permitting payment to the wife of insured who is not pensionable and allowing pensioners to assign a portion of their pensions in payment of premiums.

The report discusses the present cost of living, and expresses the hope that the shaffer fall in wholesale prices hereafter will still further decrease in the cost of living, but until that time a bonus of fifty per cent. on the additional bonus of fifty per cent. granted last year should be continued.

Exemptions.
It has been strongly urged both in and outside of Parliament that widowed mothers should be put upon exactly the same basis as widows so that every mother of a deceased soldier as soon as her husband dies shall be entitled to the same pension as that paid to the widow of the man who died in the war.

The committee declines to make this recommendation, but suggests that the contributions or earnings of a soldier's family should be taken into consideration. (Concluded on page 2)

CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

Montreal, May 27.—For the death of Lily Manning, the eight-year-old child who fell through an open manhole in the city streets, a young man and whose body was recovered in the river only a few days ago, a coroner's jury to-day held Dennis O'Sullivan, 30, of the city, guilty of manslaughter. O'Sullivan, a section man under O'Sullivan, and Thomas Ling, an employee of the roads department, criminally responsible.

The bill will appear before a criminal court to answer to the charge of manslaughter preferred against them. The manhole through which the child fell was in the middle of the street. There was no top on it and there was no one guarding it.

WOULD REPLACE GORGE BRIDGE SOON

Saanich Council Favors Concrete Span
There are signs on the Gorge Bridge prohibiting transportation of loads exceeding two and a half tons, and there is something wrong when the child fell from the bridge at one time, as was seen on Carnival Day, said Councillor Simpson last night, when calling to the attention of the Saanich Council an estimate that at times there had been over 25 tons of humanity on the bridge.

Councillor Simpson feared a catastrophe and appealed for action. "If the bridge is a natural advantage we must do something," he said.

A Drastic Remedy.
Reeve Watson reminded the Council that when the bridge was repaired last year the view over the water had been obstructed, with the result that drifting on the bridge had lost its charms for sightseers. The Council agreed with Councillor Simpson that such a course was to be deprecated. The bridge being a natural advantage, whereupon Reeve Watson remarked, "In my opinion the only way out is a new bridge."

Reformed Superintendent Girling presents the councilors that the present bridge would form an excellent core around which to build a reinforced concrete structure, with sidewalks carried on brackets, estimating the cost of such work at $4,000.

Leaders of Empire Work for Peace and Disarmament Plan

British Admiralty Head Commends Japanese Minister's Statement; Smuts Desires Fair Opportunity For League; Massey States Views.

Manchester, Eng., May 26.—(Associated Press)—Speaking at a dinner here in honor of Crown Prince Hirohito of Japan, Lord Lee, First Lord of the Admiralty, referred to the statement in April of the Japanese Minister of Marine, declaring Japan's willingness to join in restricting armaments. That was a momentous utterance, he said, which emphasized the need of all nations for a conference at which this grave question could be discussed.

Although he rejoiced at the adoption by the United States Senate of Senator Borah's amendment to the naval appropriation bill calling for a naval conference, Lord Lee said Japan had shown by the statement he had quoted that although great in war, she was greater still in the appreciation of the need for world peace. He was convinced, he said, that Japan never would make the mistake which occurred in all military powers in inexorably to ruin, of forgetting that peace is the world's greatest interest.

General Smuts.
Cape Town, May 27.—In a speech in the Assembly General Jan Christiaan Smuts, Prime Minister of the Union of South Africa, expressed the hope that the forthcoming conference of Empire Prime Ministers would be successful in reaching an agreement on the matters affecting the Empire, as such success would make for the success of the League of Nations and for the future government of the world.

He warmly defended the League of Nations, making a earnest appeal that the League be given a chance to show what it could do. (Concluded on page 12)

PREMIER HONORED IN OWEN SOUND

Mr. Oliver Guest at Banquet in Ontario
Owen Sound, Ont., May 27.—Hon. John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, was the guest of honor at a banquet given here last evening. During his address the Premier touched on national affairs, regretting that so few people in Canada actually understood conditions. They were looking for some sort of legislative panacea that would lift the burden of paying the heavy cost of the late war, he said, but he pointed out that this obligation would have to be met and the burden should be fairly placed. Repudiation was not to be considered, he said, for this would lead to worse conditions.

He believed that such a financial burden was a good thing for Canada, it would put spirit and strength of purpose into Canadians. "If you want big men, they must come from among those who face and overcome difficulties," he said.

SOME OF BRITISH M.P.'S OPPOSED TO HIGHER PAY

London, May 27.—(Canadian Associated Press)—At a meeting yesterday of sixty members of Parliament a resolution was passed opposing a proposed increase in the salary of the Speaker of the House of Commons. The resolution was passed by a vote of 118 to 100.

FLOOD OF SOVIET PAPER MONEY

1,168,000,000 Rubles Issued Since January 1
Riga, May 27.—A dispatch received here from Moscow says that since January 1 paper currency to the extent of 1,168,000,000 rubles has been issued, as against 225,000,000 rubles issued during the corresponding period of last year. Eighty-seven per cent. of the new budget is to be covered by the new issue.

At the normal value of Russian currency before the war and the revolution 1,168,000,000 rubles would have been equal to $584,000,000,000.

Los Angeles, May 27.—Mark Baker, believed to be the last survivor of the Battle of Balaklava in the Crimean War, died at Sawtelle, near here, yesterday, aged ninety-four years. He was survived by a son and a daughter. Funeral services will be conducted by the British Overseas Club.

WILL HEAD NEW ULSTER CABINET; SIR JAS. CRAIG

SIR JAMES CRAIG GOT LARGEST VOTE

High Record For Ulster of Almost 30,000

Belfast, May 27.—Sir James Craig, Premier-designate of Ulster, who polled almost 30,000 votes in the election for the Northern Irish Parliament, established a record for the highest vote in Ulster. His nearest competitor was Edmund de Valera, the Irish Republican leader, who received approximately 16,000 votes.

Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, was elected, it was announced here to-day. He was at the head of the poll in the joint Fermanagh and Tyrone division. Griffith was arrested last November and has since that time been in Mountjoy prison in Dublin. A daring attempt to release him was made by a party of Sinn Fein two weeks ago, but the attempt failed.

Expensive.
Belfast, May 27.—Considerable depletion of the treasuries of the Sinn Fein and the Nationalists as a result of the Irish elections was forecast here to-day, as it was pointed out that in each case of failure of a candidate for Parliament to take the seat to which he was elected a forfeit of £150 will have to be paid.

As the same rule will prevail throughout Southern Ireland as in the Ulster area, it was predicted that the elections would be likely to prove very expensive to the Sinn Fein.

RAILWAY SCHEME IN GREAT BRITAIN

London, May 27.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Sir Eric Geddes, Minister of Transport, moving the second reading of the bill providing for a system of grouping the principal railroads in Great Britain, declared that with certain economies in working the lines, a saving of £20,000,000 a year would result.

The Labor Party supported an amendment rejecting the bill. Sir Frederick Banbury, a well known financial authority, condemned the measure as a form of nationalization. The debate on the bill was adjourned.

CRIMEAN VETERAN DIED IN TOWN IN CALIFORNIA

Los Angeles, May 27.—Mark Baker, believed to be the last survivor of the Battle of Balaklava in the Crimean War, died at Sawtelle, near here, yesterday, aged ninety-four years. He was survived by a son and a daughter. Funeral services will be conducted by the British Overseas Club.

B. C. Gift Salmon Went To Troops, Not Germans

Charges recently cabled from London, by John MacCormac to a syndicate of newspapers on this continent that British Columbia "put one over" on England during the war when a gift of 25,000 cases of salmon was made which turned out to be so inferior that much of it had to be thrown away or fed to Germans, are being stoutly refuted by the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines and Commissioner of Fisheries.

STRONG AID TO WORLD STABILITY

British Empire—American Co- operation Given Support.

New York, May 27.—(Canadian Press)—The Herald to-day printed an editorial calling for Anglo-American unity—and particularly for co-operation between the United States and the Dominions of the British Empire.

Despite certain vociferous anti-English elements in this country, the paper says, "a close co-operation between the English-speaking peoples would go far toward insuring world peace. Although commercial rivalries continue and the Irish problem remains unsettled, there are enough links between the United States, Australia, Canada, New Zealand to make it possible to work together in the interests of mankind. Founded on self-interest and fortified by a common understanding of similar traditions and ideals, such an association would do much to stabilize a troubled world."

Four school expenditure by-law submitted to the ratepayers of Victoria yesterday were defeated by about three to one majorities. The vote on the by-laws was as follows:

By-law A, Spring Ridge, 276 Ayes, 943 Nays.
By-law C, Technical Education, 274 Ayes, 961 Nays.
By-law D, Domestic Science, 264 Ayes, 973 Nays.
By-law E, Playgrounds, 302 Ayes, 933 Nays.

The poll was one of the smallest on record, the largest vote being 1,255. In fact, about one-seventh of the 9,000 ratepayers entitled to vote exercised their franchise. The poll was about one-third the size of the generally recorded at annual civic elections.

The defeat of the by-laws was hailed with delight by members of the City Council. While School Trustees stated that they were not surprised at the result.

Acting Mayor George Sangster intimated this morning that he would attempt to have the Provincial Government amend the Municipal Act at the next session of the Legislature so as to vest control of the educational system in the hands of a committee of the City Council.

Dr. M. Raynor, chairman of the School Board, on the other hand, considered that the vote was the result of the indifference of the public toward educational matters, and he added that he would not run again for a position on the School Board when his term expired at the end of this year. (Concluded on page 12)

GREECE REPLIES TO NOTE FROM ALLIES

Athens, May 27.—Officers of the Allied Powers have been handed the Greek answer to the Allied note which announced Constantinople and the Straits Canal, the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles would be considered neutral territory during the hostilities between the Turks and Greeks. The note expressed confidence that a step taken by the Allies will stop the forwarding of supplies to the Turkish Nationalists in Asia Minor from Constantinople.

WORK TO SUPPRESS THE DRUG EVIL

Montreal, May 27.—Mayor Gale of Vancouver has submitted to Mayor Martin and the City Council of Montreal a series of recommendations for the suppression of the menacing drug traffic. Favorable action by the aldermen is suggested, with a view of sending their approval of proposed amendments of the Opium and Drug Act to the Minister of Justice, in order that legislation may be forthcoming before the close of the present session of Parliament.

Paris, May 27.—The French Cabinet to-day decided to authorize immediate unrestricted importation of wheat into France.

UNITED STATES AND SINN FEIN ARMS

Washington, May 27.—Great Britain has made no representations to the United States regarding the reported shipment of arms to Ireland and the raising of funds in the United States by the sale of the bonds of the "Irish Republic" officials, said to-day after their attention had been directed to press dispatches telling of interpellations made in the British Parliament on these subjects.

It was indicated that unless representations were made official cognizance of the alleged traffic in arms would not be taken.

2,000 FIRE LOSS IN ROYAL CITY

New Westminster, May 27.—Fire which broke out in Chinatown shortly before noon to-day, was soon under control. Two or three old buildings were damaged. The extent of the damage will not exceed $2,000, it is stated.

LIQUOR RAID IN WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, May 27.—One of the most important "smashings" made of the year was made late yesterday when W. H. Parker's residence, Lenore Street, was visited by city and Government authorities.

TARIFF CHANGES WERE APPROVED

Bill Given Third Reading by Commons

Ottawa, May 27.—The House last night gave final reading to the bill bringing into effect the tariff changes proposed in the budget. Committee discussion centred chiefly around the clause providing that, where possible, all goods imported into Canada shall be marked with the name of the country of origin.

A. R. McMaster, Brome, registered an emphatic protest against the clause, and declared that the Minister of Finance was "pushing pins" into consumers.

"You cannot," observed I. E. Pedlow, South Renfrew, "find enough fine words in Webster's dictionary to define what is to be done under this legislation."

Sir Henry Drayton stressed the point that compulsory marking of importations would make it more difficult to defraud the public. It would not, he thought, increase the cost to the consumer.

The Code.

After long discussion, a bill embodying numerous amendments to the Criminal Code went through committee. It was reported and given third reading. Offences covered in the bill vary between the docking of a dog's tail and the theft of automobiles.

Several clauses gave rise to considerable opposition.

One making it a criminal offence for an unmarried couple to register at a hotel as man and wife was struck from the bill.

Another imposing a penalty of one year's imprisonment without the option of a fine for stealing an automobile, carried, although some criticism of it came from both sides of the House.

A third, providing for the "spanking" of youths guilty of theft, was withdrawn.

"We might as well have the stocks again in public places," indignantly exclaimed Jacques Bureau. "We are getting back to the mediaeval ages."

But the Minister of Justice, while in view of the opposition, was willing to amend the clause, looking at the matter in a different light. Such a punishment, he thought, would take away the dignity of youthful crime-budding imitators of Jesse James who no longer be able to tell a glorious story of their punishment.

MENNONITES WISH TO SELL FOR CASH

Winnipeg, May 27.—The Mennonites are all prepared to go to Mexico, but there is a large question which is causing delay. They want cash for their land and chattels, according to three elders of the Hague, Saskatchewan district, J. P. Wall, Dan Jamn Goertzen and Peter Wiens, now in Winnipeg.

They insist upon a minimum payment of $45 an acre for the $9,000 acres that are situated in one block between Saskatoon and Prince Albert. They also want to dispose of —for cash—2,350 horses, 800 cows, 650 wagons and a long list of farm implements, including fourteen tractors.
The payment on the land alone would require immediate disbursement by the purchaser of $7,300,000.

A contract, it is stated, has been made with an American railroad for transportation of the Mennonites to Mexico.

HANNA SAYS C. N. R.
HAS GOOD FUTURE

Ottawa, May 27.—That the Canadian National Railway should be earning its operating expenses "and a little bit more" within two years, was a statement made yesterday afternoon to the parliamentary committee investigating national railways by D. R. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railway. Mr.
Hanna urged the committee "not to be downhearted," and said that while it was depressing to be continually living in an atmosphere of "red figures," there was no reason for pessimism.

Mr. Hanna gave indignant denial to statements that the National Railways was being "milked" in the purchase of supplies, and that the directors of the railway who were also directors of other companies, were influencing the purchase of railway supplies.
That statement was one of the most outrageous untruths ever uttered, Mr. Hanna said. It was not possible for such a condition to exist without his knowledge.

Replying to Hon. Chas. Murphy,
Mr. Hanna declared the Canadian National was not paying more for its locomotives or other equipment than the Canadian Pacific. There should not be one dollar's difference in the purchase price of similar kinds of equipment.

Hon. A. K. Maclean, Halifax, suggested that if freight rates were reduced more goods would be shipped, with a greater revenue for the railways.

Mr. Hanna did not think that a rate reduction would affect the situation in this regard.

EXPLAIN SOLDIERS' INSURANCE PLAN

The other children of a widowed mother which have heretofore been deducted from the amount of pension payable to her, shall be exempt in the same way as her independent income is, to the extent of $240 a year.

Oversight Corrected.

The report also seeks to correct an oversight in the provisions of the present scale the pensions payable on account of death or disability incurred in military service outside of the various wars in which Canada has been engaged.

The total yearly increase in the pension budget occasioned by the above recommendations on the above heads is estimated at about $700,000 a year.

Several minor changes in the Pension Act are recommended and explanations are given regarding some of the amendments to be before the committee which have been subject to complaint and inquiry.

In B. C.

The solution of the treatment of problem and handicap cases and of providing for their discharge from sanitariums is thought to lie in the establishment throughout the country of different forms of sheltered workshops or similar enterprises. The committee believes these should be financed by the Dominion Government such as the Canadian Red Cross. The Government is urged to investigate a tract of land near Kam-loops, B.C., where such an experimental enterprise might be established.

The committee was largely guided in this subject by a report made to the Director of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment by five of the leading experts on tuberculosis.

No Discrimination.

A series of regulations providing for the Government taking over liabilities under Workmen's Compensation Acts is included in the report.
This, it is suggested, should be means whereby disabled returned men may secure employment without being discriminated against on account of their injuries.

It is suggested, that the Government extend to public works and the purchase of supplies be regulated so as to counter-balance the periodical or seasonal lack of employment in the Dominion.

To Be Retained.

The suggestion also is made that when reductions are being made in staff of Canadian National Railways or Canadian Government Merchant Marine, ex-service men should be retained as far as possible.

The report deals further with certain funds. The sum of $2,000,000 from this source is now in the hands of the Receiver-General. The committee suggests conferences between the Government and the returned soldiers' organizations. It is felt that as the funds belong to the men, they should decide what is to be done with them.

CIVIL SERVICE CHANGES URGED

Committee of Commons Presents Its Report

Ottawa, May 27.—The report of the special parliamentary committee appointed to consider the Spinnery bill, amending the Civil Service Act, wipes the bill, as it originally stood, out of existence, but proposes the passage of a bill which, while leaving promotions in the hands of the Civil Service Commission, would give the Commission authority to make promotions by reports, tests, ratings and examinations, without examinations. Where the Civil Service Act originally gave the Commission authority to make promotion by examination, amendment of the Act suggested by the committee will give the Commission authority to make
promotions by reports, tests, ratings and examinations "as the Commission may by regulation prescribe."

Exemption.

Another suggested amendment provides that the Commission have power to exempt any position from the regular competitive class as it may consider to be in the public interests. The Spinnery bill proposed take certain classes out of the hands of the Commission.

With regard to the appointment of laborers and of postmasters in small offices, the Commission agreed that these were to all intents and purposes in the hands of the respective departments. While not objecting to the method of making professional appointments by deputy ministers recommending one applicant and practically securing his appointment, the committee takes the stand that it is scarcely fair to the innocent applicants, who are not aware of the procedure followed.

Air Flights to Austrian Capital Not Yet Permitted

Vienna, May 1.—(By Mail)—Although Vienna is no longer an unpleasant place for foreign visitors with their own money, it is not always an agreeable diversion to arrive there, because of the amazing and usually inexplicable difficulties at the frontier. The only trains approaching those of the good old times in comfort and reliability are the so-called Entente trains, international expresses with certain privileges. But their number is limited, and they may only be used by official authorization which, although not very difficult to get, still causes unnecessary trouble. Travelling by motor is usually deemed more advisable, although the roads and highways are not in a good state. International air connections with Vienna are as yet impossible, the inter-Allied military control mission having resolved to destroy all Austrian aeroplanes and not to allow travel by German planes. Three German passenger flying machines which came here from Munich and were to maintain a regular service, were seized by the mission and released only after long negotiations.

The peace treaty of St. Germain allows the opening of air routes six months after the ratification of the treaty. It is believed here that the difficulties will be removed by next summer at the latest so that then Vienna will be connected with the rest of Europe by regular flights.

Many complaints are made of the Czech-Slovakian frontiers, and the following experiences of a foreigner is only one of many of the same tenor. He came with the Oderberg-Vienna express and should have arrived in Vienna at 8 o'clock at night, after having passed the Czech-Austrian frontier at Lundenberg at 4.30 in the afternoon.

When the train arrived at Lundenberg, nearly on time, he was told to leave his compartment with his luggage, which he had to carry himself, as there were no porters. He and his fellow-travellers formed a long queue outside the depot. It was bitterly cold. The entrance to the station was closed. Nobody showed any interest in the waiting passengers, among whom were aged people and mothers carrying their babies.

After some time a protest was made without effect. The foreigner colored a man in uniform and asked what it all meant. The man did not understand. At last an official turned up and told them that the luggage would not be examined before the next morning, as the train would not continue its journey.

No explanation was given. The station master did not hold it worth while to explain. He merely shrugged his shoulders. The only information

FROZE HIMSELF AND FIRED PISTOL

Chicago Mexican Was Disappointed in Love

Chicago, May 27.—When Senofia Francesca Sapiero, who came from Mexico, a student of law, was made by Peter Lopez, a countryman of hers, Peter's heart was chilled, so he sought a cold death.

Being employed as a waiter in a hotel, he entered the hostelry's ice chest yesterday, and stretched himself on a giant cake of ice, flanked by two other cakes.

A butcher boy found the disappointed lover last night unconscious and blue from the cold. They rubbed him with ice shavings for two hours before he revived.

As he regained consciousness Peter pulled a revolver, pointed the muzzle at his brain, and pulled the trigger four times, but the cartridges failed to explode. He was successful in his fifth attempt, but the trembling hand, numb with cold, pointed the revolver upward and the bullet went through Peter's hair and into the ceiling.

The police afterwards cared for him and sent him to the psychopathic hospital for observation.

DUNCAN PEOPLE WANT REPORT ON FISHERY INQUIRY

Duncan, May 27.—The report on the fishery investigation held by Mr. Justice Eberts, sitting as a Commissioner, which has never been presented, was a subject of discussion at the monthly meeting of the Council of the Dundee Board of Trade. Strong expressions of feeling were made and it was decided to communicate with J. C. McIntosh, M. P., urging that no effort be omitted to secure submission of the report.

Letter from the Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries, dated March 26, 1921, in answer to one from the Prime Minister, was read to the meeting, as follows:

"Advancing to your memorandum of a few days ago, forwarding a letter to the Prime Minister from Mr. J. C. McIntosh, M. P., with regard to the failure of Mr. Justice Eberts to submit his report following an investigation into certain fishery matters carried on by him, I may explain that the facts are briefly as follows:

"Except endeavor has been made to obtain from Mr. Justice Eberts his report, but so far without success. He was written to time after time, and copies of resolutions, etc., that reached the Department complaining that the report was not made public were forwarded to him, with the object of making clear to him the position in which the failure to submit his report was placing the Department. Last Summer, when my Assistant Deputy of Fisheries was in British Columbia, he made an appointment with Mr. Justice Eberts, and after going into the matter with him, the Justice promised that his report would be in without fail by the end of August.

"As the report was not received in November last, the Department of Justice was requested to do what it could to have the report submitted. The Deputy Minister of Justice has written to Mr. Justice Eberts on more than one occasion, but so far apparently without success. Recently a resolution, which was unanimously adopted at the last convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of British Columbia requesting the Government to demand that the report be made at once, was forwarded to this Department, and a copy of it was sent not only to Mr. Justice Eberts, but to the Department of Justice, with the request that the Department should do anything more than it had done for the submission of the report if it should do so."

SEEK TO RECOVER NAPOLEON'S GOLD

Warsaw, May 10.—(By Mail)—Treasure-seekers are to begin work soon in an effort to recover a wealth of gold and silver reported to have been hidden by the enemy by French soldiers in a lake near Vilna during Napoleon's retreat from Russia in 1812. The task is to be undertaken by French and Polish engineers under supervision of the two governments.

A plan of the lake, marking the spot where the treasure was dropped into the water by the troops, has been recovered by the authorities. Estimates of the value of the gold and silver range from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 gold rubles ($22,500,000 to $30,000,000).

Many guns and flags, and even carriages and other articles belonging to the Emperor's army were shipped into the lake at the time, it is said, to prevent their falling into the hands of the pursuing Russians.

Initial plans to recover the treasure were interrupted by the beginning of the war in 1914.

In Delaware a child may be "let out" to work in the homes of people on farms and other remote places. The home child, according to the naive woman who kept him, has a thrilling life. She was questioned, according to the survey: "Does James get a chance to play? Well, he goes to church on Sunday morning and in the afternoon he rests and goes to church again." "But is that all?" Her face brightened at the question. "There is never a funeral notice comes to this house but James goes."

On the Old Farm in Springtime

"I was out driving a three-horse team on the disc harrow," writes Mr. Edward Crane, of Kinburn, Ont., "when part of the harness broke. While fixing it, one of the horses kicked out and knocked my arm against the sharp edge of the harrow. I was severely cut about the elbow and wrist.

"Not being able to leave work to get the wound dressed, dirt got into it, and my arm grew so stiff and painful that it looked as if it was in for a bad time. As soon as I could, I washed the wound and dressed it with Zam-Buk. Next day the arm was much less sore, and the stiffness less troublesome. I continued to use herbal Zam-Buk freely and in a few days it healed the injuries splendidly. Zam-Buk should be on every farm."

THE REFERENDUM.

The result of the referendum yesterday was generally expected. Although only one seventh of the ratepayers qualified to vote took the trouble to go to the polls, the outcome would have been the same if the others had done so.

It is difficult, however, to follow Ald. Sangster to the conclusion that the result is an expression of lack of confidence in the School Board which in consequence should be abolished.

On the other hand the Premier's observations leave a path for the application of force in concert with all the Allies in the event of a further display of obstinacy and evasion by Germany.

Two Federal by-elections will take place to-morrow—in Yamaska, Quebec, to fill the seat made vacant by the death of Mr. Gladu, and in Queens-Sunbury, New Brunswick, to elect a successor to the late Col. H. McLeod, Unionist.

The Government is supporting Mr. Mordou, although that candidate is savagely assailing everybody who had anything to do with conscription, and reiterates a charge made some time ago by him that Premier Meighen was the "executioner of Quebec."

AUSTRIA'S PLIGHT.

None of the Allies really expected that Austria would be able to comply with the financial provisions of the Treaty of St. Germain and it is small wonder that Great Britain and France are inclined to accept a delay of twenty years in exercising their liens upon the property of that unhappy country.

M. BRIAND'S TRIUMPH.

Yesterday's overwhelming vote of confidence in the policies of Premier Briand and his Government is an eminently satisfactory development in international politics. It is a complete acceptance of the British proposal for procedure in connection with the reparations account.

Not even M. Briand himself could have anticipated such a complete endorsement of his policy and it is somewhat surprising that M. Lefevre's motion to refer the whole question to a committee should have been rejected with so little ceremony.

On the other hand the Premier's observations leave a path for the application of force in concert with all the Allies in the event of a further display of obstinacy and evasion by Germany.

TO-MORROW'S BY-ELECTIONS.

Two Federal by-elections will take place to-morrow—in Yamaska, Quebec, to fill the seat made vacant by the death of Mr. Gladu, and in Queens-Sunbury, New Brunswick, to elect a successor to the late Col. H. McLeod, Unionist.

The Government is supporting Mr. Mordou, although that candidate is savagely assailing everybody who had anything to do with conscription, and reiterates a charge made some time ago by him that Premier Meighen was the "executioner of Quebec."

Notwithstanding the purple investives he is directing at the Government, however, Mr. Mordou says he will support the Meighen Ministry if he is elected, on account of its tariff policy, which means that, in his opinion, the voters of Yamaska like protection more than they dislike conscription or the "executioner of Quebec."

AUSTRIA'S PLIGHT.

None of the Allies really expected that Austria would be able to comply with the financial provisions of the Treaty of St. Germain and it is small wonder that Great Britain and France are inclined to accept a delay of twenty years in exercising their liens upon the property of that unhappy country.

while it should be possible to consolidate some of the more important financial provisions of the Treaty of Germain with the obligations which Germany has been compelled to assume.

NEW NEGOTIATIONS.

British owners and representatives of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain are again in consultation with Mr. Lloyd George for the purpose of discussing proposals for reaching a settlement of the miners' strike.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Twelve up and eleven to play is a victory that the new British amateur golf champion may never see beaten or even equalled in a match of such outstanding importance.

Sooner or later the fanatics who fired the historic customs house at Dublin will have to pay for the erection of another building.

General Ludendorff has informed a correspondent of one of the leading Belgian news papers that "it is madness to think of war against France," and that Germany "must submit and execute the peace treaty."

To look into the scheme of establishing a sanitarium in the Resthaven property, a committee of the Western Canadian Corporation of the Seventh Day Adventists is in the city, headed by A. C. Gilbert of Calgary.

There are several of the sanitariums in Australia and New Zealand, a number in the British Isles, others in Africa, India, South America, Japan and other parts of the Orient.

INSPECTOR MURRAY PASSES AWAY TO-DAY

Inspector Murray was promoted to sergeant, a position that then corresponded to that of inspector to-day, being second in command under the late Superintendent Hussey.

LeClair at Hazelton in 1906. Inspector Murray took charge of the case in 1907, and made the pursuit so hot for Gun-a-noot that the Indian did not venture into civilization until 1919, when he came down to Vancouver and gave himself up.

It was perhaps in the Haney case that the late inspector made the greatest name for himself. William Haney was wanted for the murder of Special Constable Isaac Decker at Ashcroft in 1909.

Van Horst Case.

While with the city detective department, Inspector Murray was sent on the pursuit of George Van Horst, who had got rid of a Japanese boat in a launch crossing the Gulf of Georgia.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

THREE GREEN LEAVES Part I.
Once in a forest there lived an old witch who had built by her magic power a castle for herself which looked like a huge tree.

The top of this tree castle was a tower from which each night the witch started off on her nightly ride on her broomstick steed.

One night as she was flying along she saw very bright lights in the palace of the king of that country. He was giving a feast and ball to celebrate the marriage of his daughter, the Princess, to Prince Carl.

The old witch thought she would like to go to the ball and down from the sky she dropped and left her broomstick behind the hedge in the garden.

Now the old witch did not know she was ugly; she thought herself quite good looking. So without changing her form, she went into the banquet hall of the palace, expecting to be received with open arms by the King and his guests.

When the Princess saw her she covered her eyes with her hands and cried out in alarm: "Send her away! Send her away!"

The King, too, and all the guests were far from glad to see such an ugly-looking creature, for the witch had a long hooked nose and little black eyes and a long pointed chin which turned up at the end and almost met her nose.

"O, my fine lady, so you do not want me at your feasting table!" cried the old witch, showing as she spoke, two long teeth which were all she had.

"Well, as you do not wish to remain, I will go, but I will take you with me."

As she spoke she waved her crooked cane and the Princess was gone from the sight of her astonished guests, and across the floor ran a big black cat which followed the witch out of the hall.

The King and Prince Carl ran after them but when they reached the garden they had disappeared.

For months every place was searched for black cats and hundreds became very friendly with them when the old witch was not about.

The poor little Princess in her new form was made to help the old witch in her magic-boiling, which she did every night before the tree castle in a kettle hung on three sticks, with three sticks of wood under it, which never seemed to burn away.

Three times would the old witch dance around the boiling pot and chant, "One for luck, two for power, three to bring the magic hour," and as she said this she dropped into the pot one at a time three green leaves.

"When you can get the magic leaves my black puss," the old witch said one night, "you can be free, and not to succeed, you shall live with me until you think I am beautiful."

Poor black puss looked in vain for the leaves for though she gathered many none had the magic power. At last her head her own form came.

"To-morrow I will tell you who helped the Princess to find the three magic leaves." (Continued To-morrow)

MUNICIPAL CHAPTER HAD BUSY SESSION

Mrs. Schofield Appeals For Order's Co-operation in Public Health Work

Much business of importance to the Order was transacted at the regular meeting of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., held yesterday afternoon at the headquarters with the regent, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, in the chair.

Mrs. C. de V. Schofield attended by request and gave an enlightening part of the progress made along child welfare and public health lines at the meeting of the Vancouver Island Child Welfare Council on May 6.

After outlining the aims of this organization, Mrs. Schofield appealed to the members of the Order for their sympathetic support in this vital matter.

In this connection Mrs. Sampson made a personal appeal to the members to attend the meeting to be addressed by Mrs. Pankhurst this evening on the subject of venereal diseases.

Correspondence included a letter from Mrs. Fleming of the Red Cross asking for the assistance of the Order in a whitening campaign for membership in the Red Cross to be held on June 6.

Sir George Foster also sent a copy of his recent speech on the subject of the League of Nations for the consideration of the Order, of these matters will be commended to the attention of the Primary Chapters.

The Chapter decided to accept an invitation to participate in the Memorial service and parade in honor of fallen heroes to be held on June 5 in connection with the King's birthday celebration.

Mrs. Gordon Smith requested that the standard bearers of the Primary Chapters furnish her with their names and telephone numbers as early as possible.

Reporting on the progress made with the soldiers' graves, Mrs. Mortimer Appleby made an earnest appeal for more funds to complete the raising of a number of graves.

She expressed her appreciation of the offer of the Daisy Chain Chapter to undertake the care of the graves of soldiers outside the I. O. D. E. plot in the cemetery.

Mrs. A. F. Griffiths was appointed convener of Alexandra Rose Day to be held on June 23, the proceeds of which will be divided equally among the Jubilee Hospital, Social Service Committee, Protestant Orphans' Home, Roman Catholic Charities, W. C. T. U. Home, Victorian Order of Nurses, and the Children's Aid.

The disposition of the proceeds of the I. O. D. E. tag day to be held on September 15 will be left with the Primary Chapters, with recommendation that the War Memorial Fund receive first consideration.

A report of the Maternity Bage Committee was given by Mrs. Brook Young and several letters of grateful appreciation from recipients of layettes were read.

Mrs. Young also brought to the attention of members a tea-room which has recently been opened at the Willows Beach by a returned veteran, Mrs. Charles F. Gardiner's resignation from the Boy Scouts committee was received with regret and Mrs. L. B. Kent was appointed to represent the Municipal Chapter in her stead.

Miss Cooke, educational secretary, gave an account of the meeting held at the High School in connection with educational week.

A GAMBLE IN BEAUTY

BY MARGUERITE MALE
ONE LOVE STORY YOU NEVER CAN FORGET.

The Romance of Two Sisters, Both Beautiful, One Demure, the Other Vampish—With Thrills in Every Chapter and an Unexpected Denouement.

CHAPTER VII.

"I'll have another cup of coffee," John Amory said at breakfast one morning.

As she poured the second cup, added the cream and sugar and passed it with a steady hand, Varia looked at the man she had married.

Was it only fancy—or was he truly worn-looking, older than he had seemed a few sat weeks ago?

"Perhaps, John, you're working too hard?" Varia asked. "I wanted to tell you, that—I can't get along on less, very much less, I went to cooking school two years ago, and—"

He smiled across at her a little grimly.

"After having four maids at home and a big house, this must get a little cramped now, then?"

"Oh, no, truly!" she said earnestly. "I may not be home until late to-night, so don't wait dinner for me."

"Very well," she answered, crumpling a piece of toast.

But when she heard the door close after him, she sat there still moving. It was always so; they went just so far; his consideration and her sweetness prevented any break between them.

Yet the unnaturalness of the life she was leading sometimes came to Varia like a blow. She would never have stayed on her feet if it had not been for two things. She could not hurt her father by letting him see the terrible mistake of her marriage. Then, too, she had always had the hope that would not be drowned out, that some time John might fall in love with her.

John did not know, but Varia still had an allowance from her father; this she used for all the things that she needed for herself. His money she used for the household.

If she faced the truth, she was his unpaid housekeeper.

But now, as she sat folding and unfolding her mail, she knew she was very near the end of hope. How kind he was to her, how courteous! But it was that way that he would treat a stranger, a friend perhaps, a mere acquaintance.

In ways unnumbered she had tried to touch him. How carefully she planned his dinners, anything she thought he would like and ordered them again. How often she came in early in the afternoon to make the beds, so that he would see her without noticing.

How charming she appeared, so sunny and fresh and spoiled! She never failed to bring flowers, with her own money, flowers for the table, a rose for the silver vase on his desk, a bowl of violets there on the bookshelves. She had even mended his silk socks with dainty tiny stitches, precise and even, and in a moment of desperation she had bought a great book on architecture, a mighty tome, and stumbled through a dozen pages or so before she had given up in despair. She wanted to be intelligent, to be interested in the things he cared for.

But John never talked about his plans, nor explained his mystery. She never failed to bring flowers, with her own money, flowers for the table, a rose for the silver vase on his desk, a bowl of violets there on the bookshelves. She had even mended his silk socks with dainty tiny stitches, precise and even, and in a moment of desperation she had bought a great book on architecture, a mighty tome, and stumbled through a dozen pages or so before she had given up in despair. She wanted to be intelligent, to be interested in the things he cared for.

hurt, untouched by the fire that can leave so deep a scar.

The red book slipped from her lap as Varia sprang up. Suddenly she saw her whole plan unwind before her eyes; there was some one who would help her, who had always helped her from the time they had ventured on roller skates together in the park.

A tune was running through her head as she put on her street clothes; she hummed softly, and Sally Lou, passing the door, said kindly, "It suddenly do sound nice to hear you singing, Miss Amory!"

Varia could have hugged the big black but that was Sally.

When Varia found herself in the great office building on Broadway she was amazed that this idea had never come up before.

Adam Phillips had always been their friend, for as long as she could remember. In the stress of the last weeks, in the emotional turmoil of her marriage, he had been completely obliterated from her mind. But in her trouble she turned to him; just as she had when she was in a scrape at school.

As she got out on the twelfth floor and stared about her doubtfully, at the doors with their intricate gold signs. She was suddenly a little frightened.

"Suppose Adam should think—she shook off her doubts and advanced along the marble corridor until she came to a door where she read the sign.

PHILLIPS & PORET. COUNSELORS AT LAW.

A little smile curled her lips; that was just what she wanted—counsel. She took a deep breath and knocked at the door. No one answered it. She knocked again this time more loudly, and at last a boy with a broad grin pulled it open.

Several stenographers clattering away on their machines, a man with a pencil behind his ear—all turned to look at her.

Varia blushed vividly. The girl peering up at her with envious eyes, wondered what she could want here. For excitement always lent vividness to Varia; her eyes were the color of the blue hat she was wearing; the seal-skin coat her father had given her for a wedding present was strikingly becoming to her fair skin and delicate features. She had crushed some violets in her coat, and the fragrance drifted out in the close air.

ANDY AT COMMUNITY SING

Shaw, him as sells folk bits o' rock, an' stumps, about Victoria, gie me a cry the ither night, Andy, pit on your coat an' come down wi' me tae the Communeety Sing." Shaw's muscled, ye ken, he's got a voice wud take the roof off any kirk, an' tho' I'm that way inclin' ma'sel, its maist unfortunit, bit a guid tune gangs richt intae me an' whirls round inside ma head, an' when I try tae pit it bot, it comes out anither tune a' the gether. There air sum maleicious folk, wda dinna ken any better, tae me ma voice wud gie shame tae a crackit tap-pot.

It was just whitt they ca' out here "a beach o' a nicht," so I pit o' ma coat an' we staired doon. I hadna seen the Queen's Statue before, an' I wusna impressed. Its o'er lanky tae be bonnie, I was jist stairin tae tele Shaw whitt I thought about N when he sees, "Whist, mon, their singin'." My here was bonnie warbin', canaries an' bunnets, are no in it wi' sum other Veetoria singers. I got intae the swing o' the thing fine. Shaw wandered aff a bit an' I had it a' tae ma sel the ither folk weina see blythe tae join in. They staired "Onward Chrestian Soldiers" an' I got a move on me an' found Shaw. He was tryin' haurd tae lift the roof aff the sky an' he sure had the bellows goin'. I wus that awed I didna join in ma'sel. My the groons were lookin' fine an' what a gran crowd had turned out! Museec cheers one up an' I wunner we dinna hae ma' o' it. I gud Shaw ma congratulation o' his renderin' o' the "Chrestian Soldiers" an' he was mighty pleased. "Ma throat's no in the best o' order," ses he, "Naw," ses I, "bit yer wind's a' richt." He was coogetatin' out that when they staired up a sang I didna ken veery weel an' I jist got the hang o' it when they stappit. "Ye'r no muscled, Andy," ses Shaw. "I tell him ma wind wus out o' order, but ma throat was a' richt, an' I stairin in tae show him wi' the next number." "Whisperin'," ses he, "Why for," ses I, "I'm no whisperin', I'm singin'." "Ye galute," ses he, "It's whisperin' their singin'." "No! Whitt a bit Wus Mary?" I kent fine I'd show him somethin' when I got proper workit up; an' I got ma chance wi' "God Our Help." Twas yin o' the tunes that comes out a' richt frae ma head, an' "Auld Black Joe's" anther. Shaw did his best, I wull say that for him, but I got the lead an' I kep it, an' I came weel out o' the front o' everybody a' the time an' that's goin' sum I can tell ye. Shaw wusna veery bouceous arter that kind o' ma'ned, I thought. I can sympathize wi' him—I'm a poor looser m'ysel. "Rule Britannia," is a sang I ken an' I let ma'sel go agin, an' I cleeseed, Shaw a' the gether, for he stappit sudden like, "Andy!" he yowled. "Andy," I thought he was jealous like an' wus goin' on "Andy," he grabbit ma arm an' spoilt yin o' ma best notes. Andy, yer singin' "God Save The King," an' its "Rule Britannia" they're singin', I kent fine then that ma exertions had set one o' the whirligigs ma head goin'. I didna sing agin though the folk roon about would ha liket mair for they were a' smiling a' me, an' it does na matter whitt ye sing if ye dae it weel.

BRIEF LOCALS

To Install Danger Sign.—The British Columbia Electric Railway Company Ltd. last night notified the Saanich Council that immediate attention would be given to the need of installing a danger sign where North Road crosses the interurban tracks, which the Council had urged upon the company.

Withhold Approval.—The Saanich Council last night refused endorsement asked by the Vancouver Kiwanis Club, of a demand upon the Provincial Government for the expenditure of $1,250,000 on the enlargement of the British Columbia University. The plan submitted provided for monthly allotments of $100,000, to be used partly for temporary buildings and partly for permanent structure.

Auto Park at Gorge.—The Saanich Council last night received from the Victoria City Council information that Alderman Dewar, as Chairman of the Parks Committee, had been given power to act should he decide in favor of creation of an automobile parking space on the Gorge Park at the Ollivia Street turn-off, as the Saanich Council had recommended.

Curtain Paving Plans.—Because of drastic reductions in permanent paving schemes, the Saanich Council last night in Works Committee ordered cancellation of one-half the asphalt order let earlier in the year. The original plans called for the resurfacing of 200 tons, but with a desire for caution the Council only ordered 100 tons, of which but 50 tons will now be accepted.

Not Joining Union.—The Saanich Council last night decided against membership in the Union of Canadian Municipalities. Councillor Kingwell voicing the general opinion that the inclusion of individual municipalities was too cumbersome and expensive. He claimed better results would accrue at less expense if a system of delegates from each Provincial Union were substituted in the Dominion organization plan.

Market Price Unsettled.—Speaking of strawberry marketing conditions, Councillor G. A. Vantraight, of Gordon Head, yesterday stated that in spite of the imminent placing of Saanich grown fruit upon the market, there is as yet no indication of what the prices realized by the growers will be. A remarkable contrast was previously noted, when every pound was contracted for at high prices weeks before the fruit was ready.

Have Price Rights.—The Saanich Council last night decided to allow property owners permission to cut grasses growing on street allowances faced by their lands. The proposal was made by Councillor Horner and supported by Councillor Brooks, whose suggestion that no one else be allowed to cut or pasture such grasses was considered as implied in the resolution. Councillor Vantraight was strongly against the motion, preferring close pasturing by cattle to the growth of curable hay grasses.

Rebuild Hagan Bridge.—The Saanich Council in Works Committee last night decided immediately to rebuild Hagan bridge on the West Saanich Road. Councillor Brooks had reported that a personal examination had shown the bridge to be extremely dangerous, the timbers being badly decayed. Plans for a new concrete structure, together with tenders for construction, will be called for at once. The Provincial Public Works Department is expected to defray a portion of the cost under the provisions of the new Highways Act.

Ask Grazing Privileges.—Two petitions, bearing 76 Ward One and 70 Ward Three signatures respectively, were last night presented to the Saanich Council in support of a request that cows be permitted to graze on highways between 6 and 9 o'clock in the mornings, and 7 and 9 o'clock in the evenings, provided they be tethered or herded in such a way as to prevent interference with vehicles or pedestrians. The petition referred to the Council by Councillors Vantraight and Brooks for report, the former being an advocate of grazing, while Councillor Brooks supports restriction of cattle grazing on highways.

Winter Unemployment Feared.—The Saanich Council last night decided that early preparation for much unemployment this winter would be advisable, and as a measure of precaution instructed Assessor Sewell to make a report on municipally owned lands bearing timber suitable for firewood. Councillor Simpson introduced the question, pointing out that if such lands are difficult of access, it would be good policy to make needed roadways during the next few months. Suggestions were also advanced for location of strategic rock quarries, after Reeve Watson had expressed the fear that little hope of work would be to be found in Saanich appear pessimistic, but I fear next winter will prove more severe than the last from the unemployment point of view, remarked the Reeve.

CENSUS TAKING TO EMPLOY MANY MEN

Work Will Commence Next Wednesday Morning; Big Ottawa Staff

The 1921 Census of Canada, the taking of which will begin next Wednesday morning, will employ 247 enumerators and probably 13,000 enumerators, says a statement of the Bureau of Statistics. The commissioners are appointed by the Minister, and instructed by an officer of the Bureau; the enumerators are appointed and instructed by the commissioners, who must also check and vouch for all the enumerators' returns before the latter are forwarded to Ottawa.

For a census that covers half a continent, embracing the most varied conditions of nature and settlement, uniformity of plan is impossible. For the remote and seldom penetrated regions of Ungava, Northern Ontario and the West, the organization of the trading companies and of the various church missions have been engaged. In other similar regions the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will take the census, while the agents of the Indian Department will perform a like service for the Indian population on reserves and elsewhere. An officer of the Department of the Interior will descend the Mackenzie River for purposes of the census. Even in districts that are closer, there remain a large number of cases where pack trains must be organized, steamers chartered and similar special means employed to ensure that no section of the country escapes enumeration.

For the compilation of the census an extra staff of 250 to 400 clerks will be engaged at Ottawa.

It is expected that from two to five weeks from June 1 will suffice in normal localities for the completion of the field work. After the third or fourth month it should be possible to give out the first results for many cities, towns, counties and forth as to when the final count by provinces for the entire Dominion will be available, so many unforeseeable contingencies are possible that prospect is dangerous, but it is expected that five or six months should enable a close approximation to be made.

BUSINESS MEN TO START NORTH SOON

Secretary Payne, of the Vancouver Board of Trade, informs the Chamber here that the necessary minimum required for the charter of the vessel has been passed and there will be between 300 and 400 taking in the excursion, for which a few choice reservations left at this time will be disposed of on the principle of first come, first served.

The S.S. Prince George will carry members of the Chamber of Commerce and neighboring Boards of Trade and their families. She will leave Vancouver on June 7 for a full week's voyage north. The ship will call at Ocean Falls, Swanson Bay, Powell River, Surf Inlet, Prince Rupert, Anxox and Stewart.

The Prince Rupert Board of Trade will entertain the visitors at a supper and dance, while the Granby Company at Anxox will afford facilities for the guests to make an inspection of its great plant. Similar preparations are being undertaken by the people of the various communities to be visited. The party will arrive back in Vancouver on June 14.

Looking For New Blood For Victoria Ball Team

Blankenship Is After Outfielder Bourg and Infielder Berry, of Portland Coast League Team—Game This Evening

New blood is being scouted for by the officials of the Victoria ball club in order to strengthen the tail-enders, who ran into a bad losing streak last week and dropped six games out of the seven played.

Manager Blankenship has been in communication with Judge McCreadie, of the Portland Coast League Club, and is trying to secure Outfielder Bourg and Infielder Berry, two good hitters, who are not holding down regular berths with the Beavers.

Berry is reported to be a very neat infielder, and a reliable hitter. Manager Blankenship is dickering in other quarters for players, and it is quite likely that by the time the team returns from its next trip on the road several new faces will be seen.

Owing to the heavy showers last evening the scheduled game had to be postponed. Arrangements were made to play a double-header to-day, the first game being staged at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon while the second will be played at 6:15 o'clock this evening.

The Tacoma team arrived here yesterday for a three-game series. The third game is being staged at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The teams will catch the Seattle boat, Victoria proceeding to Yakima to play on Sunday, while Tacoma will entertain Vancouver in Tigerville.

Victoria will play all next week in Yakima, and will return here on June 6 to meet Vancouver. This will be the first visit of the Beavers to the Capital this season. The fans are anxious to look over Bob Brown's proteges.

While the Capitals are on the road next week alterations will be made at the Stadium. The grandstand accommodation is to be cut down, and the bleacher seats at third base extended.

INCOS-FIVE C'S IN FEATURE GAME

League Leaders Will Find Stiff Opposition From Edwards's Team; Other Matches

By Rex.

There promises to be one close and exciting match in the cricket field to-morrow. The Incos, who are now tied with Victoria for first place in the Victoria and District Cricket League, will meet the Five C's, last year's runners-up, at the Jubilee Grounds.

This match provides plenty of speculation. The Incos are favored to win, but they have a very well-balanced side, and there are quite a number of followers who believe that Five C's will survive if their bowlers are in top form.

The Victoria team is entertained by the Congos at the Heacon Hill pitch and on the season's showing of the two teams the former should not have any great difficulty in winning. The Congos have not yet shown their form of past years but many come along as the season advanced.

The teams for to-morrow will be as follows: Incos—Wenman, Taylor, Verrall, Goodday, Kitch, Allen, Liffon, Hewitt, Conroy, and C. E. Money.

Five C's—Edwards, Sutton, Wilkinson, Lawrence, Kragman, Eden, Quinton, Winslow, Sharpe, and D. Hudson.

Army and Navy—W. Sherman, C. Preston, P. C. Welch, P. Brooks, F. Chaney, W. G. E. Money, R. Oliver, F. Birch, A. Attwell, J. Hillier, reserves, C. F. L. Money and G. Leeming.

GAME ASSOCIATION AFTER SUGGESTIONS

Meeting of Sportsmen to Be Held Here July 5; Big Meeting in Vancouver

At a meeting of the directors' committee of the Victoria and District Fish and Game Association, held yesterday, the members learned that July 14 was the date fixed by the Government Game Conservation Board for the holding of the usual public meeting, at which recommendations and suggestions will be received from representatives of sportsmen's associations relative to the fixing of the opening dates for this year's hunting season for deer and game birds.

In order to be prepared with recommendations representative of the sportsmen of Victoria and district, a general meeting of the association will be held here on Tuesday, July 5, when it is hoped local sportsmen will turn out in force.

PLAN TO BE LAUNCHED TO CLEAN UP SPORT

Los Angeles, May 27.—Ted Thye, claimant of the middleweight wrestling championship and Walter Miller, aspirant for the title, will meet in a bout at the Los Angeles Athletic Club to-night. Conditions of the match call for a decision by judges at the end of three hours of wrestling if a fall should not be scored within that time. The men recently wrestled to a draw.

Hendon, England, May 26.—Randolph Lycett, of the British Davis Cup tennis team, yesterday defeated Count de Gomer, of the Spanish team, in three straight sets in the Davis Cup singles.

Hunter's victory caused a great surprise. It was one of the most one-sided in the history of the amateur championship.

Fighters Adopt Various Stunts To Get In Shape

Carpenter to Start Shooting to Get His Eye in Trim—Dempsey Now Trains Behind Great Barricades—Both Men Loosening Up

Atlantic City, N. J., May 27.—Jack Dempsey boxed for the first time in his open-air arena yesterday. The champion, after his enforced idleness of twenty-four hours, increased his boxing to eight rounds, the most work he has done with the gloves since he started training. The crowd of one thousand spectators included between 300 and 400 women.

After shadow boxing five minutes Dempsey boxed two rounds each with Jack Renault, Larry Williams, Alex Trambitas and Joe Benjamin, the Pacific coast lightweight, who joined the champion's training staff yesterday, winding up his workout with some bending exercises.

A chilling wind gave Dempsey some difficulty in getting loosened up. He lacked his usual speed in his first two rounds with Renault, but when he faced Williams he was hitting viciously.

Just before the first round with Williams ended the champion caught him with a rasping left hook, opening a cut over the right eye. Dempsey allowed up for the second round, giving Williams a chance to whittle away at top speed.

The four rounds with Trambitas and Benjamin were tame as Dempsey did not attempt any solid hard hitting. Benjamin missed the champion so frequently that he was exhausted at the finish.

Lots of Sparring Partners.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 27.—Replacements for Jack Dempsey's staff of sparring partners are arriving in such numbers that the heavyweight champion to-day was in a position to continue his training in the open air without interruption.

FOOTBALLERS WILL PLAY FOR PLACES

Two All-Star Teams to Perform at Royal Athletic Park To-morrow Afternoon

Arrangements have been made for the soccer game between the Reds and Blues, the pick of the local amateurs, to be played at the Royal Athletic Park to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This match is expected to draw a big crowd as the spectators will be able to gain some idea of the football ability of Victoria, which will be able to throw at the Scottish professionals on their visit here on June 22.

The Victoria and District Football Association has picked two teams from the wealth of material in this city, and will turn the players loose at the Royal Athletic Park to-morrow afternoon to see which ones are capable of landing places on the all-star team.

Will Get Together.

It is possible that other games will be played between the All Stars and another team, so that the squad which carries the Capitals' colors will be in the best of condition, and develop a system of play which will enable them to give the Scotics a fair game.

The Teams.

The teams for to-morrow's game will be as follows: Blues—Srimpton, Taylor and Copas; Wade, Brynjolsson and James Allan; Jim Cummings, Plump, Muir, John Cummings and Clarkson; reserves, Phillips and Munro.

Reds—Leeming, Whyte and Rickman, Miller, Wright and Tupman; Caskie, Firewater, Petticrew, G. Allan and Totty; reserves, Bridges, Breadner, Sid Sherratt and Harwood.

Dog Show Opens To-day New Types Are On Show

Several hundred spectators attended the opening of the annual Spring show of the Victoria City Kennel Club at the Willows this afternoon at 1 o'clock. The judging, which commenced this morning, was temporarily suspended while the opening ceremonies were performed.

The show this year is one of the best held in the history of the club, from point of quantity and quality it rivals those of pre-war days while several new species of canines are being shown here for the first time.

Many Outside Dogs.

Local dogs are finding considerable competition, as dogs have been brought here from points as far East as Winnipeg, while many splendid types came from across the border. Two Seattle dogs which were successful in winning honors in the Vancouver show last week are entered.

Scottish Soccer Players Expect Big Time On Trip

Glasgow, May 27.—Regarding the trip of the Scottish footballers to Canada, the following to say: From coast to coast, across Canada from Halifax to Victoria, in the advent of football, the program outlined for the Scottish team that will tour Dominion under the aegis of the Third Lanark Football Club.

THE MAN RESPONSIBLE

The inspiration of the tour was R. Morrison Connell (Bedouin), the able football critic of The Evening News, who is widely known wherever football is played, and who had the vision many years ago to found the Scottish Junior F. A. and other flourishing local associations that nourish the dry bones of the greatest of all sport.

GOING TO SEE A LOT

The players, who are assured of a welcome in every city of the West, "beyond their wildest dreams" (to quote the official correspondence that has passed), will have holiday outings to the world-famous Niagara Falls, where Indians and white, French and British, Americans and Canadians, once contended for the supremacy of the lake regions, and where every foot of soil is sacred ground.

THE MAN RESPONSIBLE

The officials who are taking part in this patriotic football mission include Colonel J. B. Wilson, V. D., the chairman of the Third Lanark F. C. that has "fathered" the tour. When a Canadian football team first appeared in this country in the season of 1896-97, their opening match was played on Cathkin Park against Third Lanark.

LETTERS

Letters addressed to the Editor and published in this column should be legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chance of insertion. All communications must bear the name and address of the writer, but not for publication unless the writer wishes. A master copy of the original of the article is not returned. No responsibility is assumed by the paper for MSS. submitted to the Editor.

AN IMPORTANT PROVISION.

To the Editor.—May I be allowed, through the medium of your columns, to call the attention of all who are guardians of children drawing pensions from the Canadian Government to a very important provision contained in the Pension Act?

Section 23, clause 1 of that Act, after declaring that no pension shall be paid to a boy after he is 16 years old, nor to a girl after she is 17, makes two exceptions to this general rule in the following words:

(a) "Except when such child and those responsible for its maintenance are without resources and the child is unable, owing to physical or mental infirmity, to provide for its own maintenance."

(b) "Or where such child is following a course of instruction approved by the Commission, in which cases the pension may be continued until such child has attained the age of twenty-one years."

As these provisions seem to be generally unknown by the people most concerned, and as they are of great importance to the children who may come within the scope of these two exceptions, I think that they should be widely published.

I feel sure, sir, that in order to place this information before those who may be interested in it, you will publish this letter, and I wish to thank you for doing so.

MISS EVA HART'S BENEFIT.

To the Editor.—During this week the press notices and advertisements are giving publicity to the forthcoming benefit performance of "Erminie" at the Theatre Royal on Monday next, the 30th inst.

This performance is being given by the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society as a slight token of the esteem which the members feel for that very talented and popular artist, Miss Eva Hart, and that it would not be amiss if I, as president of the Dramatic Society, set forth a few details emphasizing how much local charitable organizations, in addition to our own society, have in the past been beholden to the gratuitous services of this charming lady.

It may not be generally known that for some years past Miss Hart has lived at Sidney, and after the day's work at her studio has been completed, it is no slight matter that she often remains in town for rehearsals and performances many nights weekly, and then makes her tedious journey home after so long and tiring a day. This routine has been frequent with her ever since the war days when Reginald Hincks so successfully produced plays at the Princess Theatre and was enabled, by the assistance of voluntary talent, to swell the coffers of the Red Cross Society so considerably. Since the formation of the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society, the same spirit of sacrifice and sportsmanship has animated Miss Hart, and it would not be difficult to name dozens of concerts and cabarets, etc., given for charitable purposes, which she has graced with her presence and her voice.

I would like to make it clear that, despite innuendoes which have been heard to the contrary, Miss Eva Hart has never, either in the plays for the Red Cross or in those for the Dramatic Society, received any payment whatever for her services—not even to the extent of traveling expenses—advice as a matter of fact, she has, on many occasions, supplied her costumes at her own expense. When one realizes that in all performances given by the Dramatic Society union wages are paid to all other professionals employed, such as stage hands, orchestra, etc. (omitting only our conductor, Herbert Kent), it would seem that to give a benefit performance for one who has done so much for charity is but a slight token of appreciation, and I hope that all those who have at any time in the past enjoyed the delectable voice and witty conversation of Miss Eva Hart in such plays as "The Yeoman of the Guard," "Jane," "Tantalizing Tommie," "Mandarin," etc., etc., or at any of the innumerable concerts in which she has participated, will show their appreciation of her by attending the benefit performance of "Erminie," in which she takes the title role with such artistic ability that some have pronounced it to be her masterpiece.

If you, sir, would be so good as to insert this letter in your correspondence columns, the courtesy would be greatly appreciated by

JAS. HUNTER,

NORMAL SCHOOL BANQUET

Enjoyable Evening Spent on Occasion of Term Closing.

One hundred and eighteen guests sat down to the annual banquet of the Provincial Normal School, Mount Tommie, last night, on the occasion of the term closing. The dinner began at 8 o'clock, and was followed by a musical programme and dancing.

D. L. MacLaurin, principal, presiding, the tables having been arranged by Miss Macfarlane, head of the Domestic Science Department. Toasts were drunk and everyone had a merry time, the students contributing to the programme with glee-songs between the addresses.

Among those who were present at the banquet were the following: S. J. Willis, Superintendent of Education, and Mrs. Willis; Mr. Gillis, assistant Superintendent of Education, and Mrs. Gillis; and the following members of the faculty: D. L. MacLaurin, principal; V. L. Denton, H. Dunsell, D. S. Freeman, Miss Macfarlane, Miss Scapion, principal, and Miss Barron. Teachers from the North Ward School and the Bank Street School were also present, these being the "training ground" of the Normal School students. The whole affair was vastly enjoyed by everyone, and made a happy climax to a year's hard work.

VARIETY

Scenes of gaiety along the gayest of New York's gay along the well-known Gay White Way; the merriment in the famous cabarets and cafes, and life in the most squalid quarters of New York's East Side have been woven in a masterly manner in the big Fox production, "While New York Sleeps," which is at the Variety Theatre. It is difficult to lay a finger definitely on the element in this truly remarkable picture which makes the greatest bid for interest, but it is safe to say that no other picture has ever maintained a greater degree of gripping suspense. At times the suspense approaches perilously near that point where the nervous tension must snap. One can feel the eyes straining in an attempt to see beyond the pictured action.

PRINCESS

There has never been a better nor bigger comedy drama presented at the Princess than "Broadway and Buttermilk" which is now being played by the Mildred Page Players. The central figure is a smart milliner, one Madame Naine, direct from "little old New York" and the clever line of Broadway chatter she introduces into the rural atmosphere is too good to miss. The newest slang, the breeziest ways, and the latest dances are all a part of Naine's clever character. Miss Page as Naine is doing a clever bit of work and again proving herself equal to whatever the play calls for and then some. Also her gowns are charming. There is not a dull moment in the play which has had careful preparation in spite of the fact that there has been much extra

ROYAL VICTORIA

"Jim the Penman," starring Lionel Barrymore, will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-night. The production is the fourth of the series in which the noted actor has appeared for distribution by Associated First National Pictures Inc. of film adaptations of noted novels and stage plays. "Jim the Penman" is entirely different from any production in which Mr. Barrymore has appeared. It is frankly a melodrama and admirers of the star are due for a pleasant surprise in the versatility which he shows in handling the role of a bank cashier who turns forger.
Dorothy Farnum, who wrote the scenario for "Jim the Penman," starring Lionel Barrymore, has had a most unusually rapid rise in the film world as a scenario writer, until now she is one of the best known in the country.

In collaboration with Ouida Bergere, her work showed such promise that Joseph Schenck, manager of both Norma and Constance Talmadge, put her under contract merely to hold her services so that the Talmadge sisters would both be supplied with satisfactory scenario writers.

Whitman Bennett, producer of "Jim the Penman," procured her services through an arrangement with Mr. Schenck, and since the release of this production Miss Farnum has been flooded with offers from other producers. She intends, however, to remain with Mr. Bennett, and is now working on the scenario for "Salvation Nell," which will be the next Whitman Bennett release through Associated First National Pictures, Inc.

DOMINION

There is one "actor" appearing in "The Ghost in the Garret," but not in the cast, who deserves special mention. His name is "Mike" and though his name is not listed among the players, he surely wins fame for himself as a genuine comedian. He is as necessary to the action of the picture as a spark plug is to an automobile and he's just as full of life and pep and fire as a spark plug is supposed to be.

"Mike" is as ugly as proverbial sin, but he is as game as a noted pugilist in facial appearance. This is shown in a graphic manner when he is lowered from a five-story window in a pair of bed-sheets which are torn and knotted end to end by Dorothy Gish in a sensational episode of the picture.

"Mike" contributes largely to the dramatic action and to the laughable situations in "The Ghost in the Garret," which is now showing at Dominion.

PANTAGES

"Not Yet Marie" is the title of a sparkling and tuneful musical comedy which has been creating an unusually strong impression upon Pantages audiences this week. "Not Yet Marie" is the producer of this piece, with William Edmunds taking the lead as "Bambino." One of the most brilliant musical presentations to appear on the circuit this year, "Not Yet Marie" has come direct from the Great White Way and has a particularly notable cast, with a chorus of winsome maidens sent to advantage as models in an Italian artist's studio. The fun is fast, and there are many songs of the catchy, whistly variety, interspersed with a number of stronger-than-usual appeal. Will H. Armstrong and Grace Hayes and Company come as special attractions. "The Haggarden," which serves as the vehicle for Mr. Armstrong and Miss Maudie Smith, appears as a continuous riot of laughter. Miss Hayes is well-known as a colorful soprano and she appears in a repertoire of classical and popular numbers. This week's bill is full of bright features and in addition to the three big numbers mentioned there are Leonard and Wilton in the comedy success, "Seldom Inn," Anna Vivian, girl sharpshooter, and Charles and Mayme Butters in unique bits of novelty, gymnastics and feats on the wire. And, of course, there are also pictures.

COLUMBIA

Local theatregoers cannot recall a Frank Mayo picture of recent months in which this popular Universal star appeared to surmount his usual advantage as he does in "Colorado," which is now being shown at the Columbia Theatre. In the role Frank Austin, alias Lieutenant Hayden, he does some of the finest work of his career, while Reeves Eason is to be credited for splendid direction.

ROMANO

Handsome Wallace Reid lying in bed, a towel around his head and a pretty nurse and two doctors in attendance. This is the sight that would have met your eye had you visited the Lasky studios recently. And you might have wondered if Wallace had paid the price at last for the reckless daring that he displays in those automobile races and picture of his. But you would quickly have learned a different story. Mr. Reid was just making scenes for his new picture, "Sick Abed," which will be at the Romano Theatre again to-day and to-morrow. Not that the picture is one of those depressing dramas, with half the cast dying off before the third reel.

COMING TO VARIETY

Have you ever met William Farnum? He is one of the most lovable of men, not only in pictures, but in private life. He delights in telling stories of the "good old days," and is always helping some fellow climb up the ladder of success. Mr. Farnum will appear here next week in "If I Were King," from the stage success and novel by Justin Huntly McCarthy. It's a fine rollicking party Mr. Farnum has. You will enjoy seeing him.

ORIGINAL STORIES FOR FILMS REQUIRE LITERARY ABILITY

Donn Byrne, the author of "The Woman God Changed," the latest Cosmopolitan production for release by Paramount, believes that the art of writing original stories for motion picture production is equal to that of short story writing. Mr. Byrne is well known throughout the country for his short stories and "The Woman God Changed" appeared in Hearst's Magazine before it was adapted for the screen by Doty Hobart. Robert G. Vignola directed the picture, in which Seena Owen and E. K. Lincoln play the leading parts. "The short story is not declining in popularity," said Mr. Byrne, "but the rise of motion pictures to their present high position offers another and distinct field for literary ingenuity. I write both short stories for magazines and original stories for motion picture production, and I find that the same amount of ingenuity and skill is required in each type of production. The popularity of the motion picture creates a tremendous demand, and this demand must be satisfied by stories which by their action and character are fitted for photograph reproduction."
"Because a story reads well is no reason why it will screen well, and therefore, writers of fiction should turn their attention to writing directly for the screen as well as for magazines. Both branches of literature are important, but they are as different as novel writing and play-writing."

"ERMINIE"

The Slumber Song by Eva Hart and chorus in "Erminie" is one of the gems of the opera. The harmony is so sweet and the picture so beautiful as the number is sung under lowered lights that the audience is completely carried away with the serene enjoyment of it all.
The opera will be given at the Royal Victoria on Monday night, commencing at 8:15 o'clock, and this will positively be the last performance of this comic number by the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society. It is being repeated because there was such a great demand from those who were disappointed at not getting tickets during the little week run of the opera at the Little Theatre, Oak Bay. To avoid missing this musical treat reservations should be made at the Box Office, Royal Victoria Theatre, without delay.

GERMANS SHIP WAR SALT TO U. S.

Product Mined by Forced Labor During War to Make Poison Gas

New York, May 27.—German rock salt, believed by American rock salt producers to have been mined during the war by conscript labor, is now coming into this country at seaboard points at a price about equal to the cost of transporting rock salt from New York State mines to Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk. The American rock salt mining companies are trying to establish proof that the salt was mined in Germany during the war for the purpose of making chlorine gas for chemical warfare, and that the present "dumping" is a result of huge surpluses piled up in Germany during the conflict. To this end an agent of one of the leading American salt firms is now in Europe conducting an investigation.

Importers of German salt scoff at the surplus idea, and assert that importations of German salt amount to about one per cent of the salt produced here. Selling agents for one leading American salt company say that two thousand tons of the German salt were landed at Philadelphia last month, and that they have been approached by at least thirty-five brokers offering unlimited quantities of German salt.

The American salt manufacturers say that one importing firm offered the German salt under the name of Danish salt in this market. An inquiry made to the Danish Ambassador met with the reply that no Danish salt was being sent here. The firm in question asserted that one of its salesmen had facetiously referred to the salt as of Danish origin.

The first German salt came here about a year ago when the railroad tie-up created a shortage of salt in this district. At that time the German price was around $17 a ton, it is said, but it is now being offered at about $5 to $6 a ton, a price about equal to American prices at Belfast and Halifax, N. S., where mines are located. To the mine price is added freight charges of $6.18 a ton to Boston, $5.15 a ton to New York, $5.15 to Baltimore, and $3.21 to Norfolk. German tons contained 2,204 pounds, against the American tons of 2,000 pounds.

The salt importers declare that German salt prices are advancing in sympathy with exchange, German prices being based on the pound sterling. The advance, they say, has been fully 10 per cent in the last month. The importers also assert that they cannot enter into competition with American producers in the salt market, and that they are now being offered salt that can be sold only to firms which have warehouses at the docks as labor charges for transferring the salt to cars or trucks bring its price above that of the American salt.

BRITISH TROOPS FOR POLICE DUTY

Probably Will Guard Points in Silesia

Berlin, May 27.—British troops which are on their way to Silesia will, it is believed, proceed to points in the industrial section of the district for police duty. A special dispatch from Oppeln states that German authorities there have been requested to supply rolling stock for 1,500 British soldiers.

Reports of serious clashes between German volunteer organizations and Poles continue.

The town of Myalowitz, in Southern Silesia, is said to be in the hands of the Poles, having been evacuated by the French troops.

French Attitude.

Paris, May 27.—Policies followed by Premier Briand in dealing with German reparations, the problem of vital importance have been given the stamp of approval by the Chamber of Deputies.

This action, which had been debated these questions for several days, upheld the Government last night on every point involved and declared its confidence in Premier Briand by a vote of 419 to 171.

Solidified Support.

The spirited exchanges between Premier Briand and Premier Lloyd George over the Polish insurrection in Silesia resulted in solidifying the support of Mr. Briand, it was declared.

Berlin advises say the German Government will on Saturday send to the Allied Reparations Commission German Treasury bills for the equivalent of $200,000,000. These bills will be endorsed by large German banks and the money will be divided between Paris, London and New York, the first two receiving $60,000,000 and New York $80,000,000. It is understood that the long expected conference between Mr. Briand and Mr. Lloyd George may take place late next week.

Statement by Wirth.

Freiburg Baden, May 27.—Chancellor Joseph Wirth declared here yesterday that the Poles, through their recent insurrection, had forfeited their "moral right" to the plebiscite area of Upper Silesia. He disputed a recent assertion by Premier Briand of France that Silesia had been "violently annexed" by the Germans six centuries ago.

"The Poles have no historic claim to Upper Silesia," the Chancellor declared. "Nor can the German plebiscite majority of almost 225,000 be disregarded."

An untimely blizzard frost effectually completed the mischief done earlier by the insect enemies of Mr. Barden's potatoes. The tops of the plants, which had served as pasture for the pests, were entirely destroyed, and with them Mr. Barden's hopes of a crop. He was not selfish, however, and could think of others in the hour of adversity. Going to town in the afternoon, he was accosted at the post office by James Hyslop, an intimate acquaintance, Hello, Giller, how's everything up to the conners?" "Trouble enough, Jim, trouble enough," was the gloomy response. "A million later bugs and nothing for 'em to eat!"

Woodstock, Ont., May 27.—The police at Georgetown this afternoon arrested a man whom they think is Norman Garfield. He gave the name of Thomas Robertson, and he refused to talk.

WANTS LABOR PLANS DEBATED

Barnes Urges British House to Give Attention

London, May 27.—The attention of the House of Commons was called today to the fact that the British Government has not submitted to Parliament certain conventions adopted by the International Labor Conference at Washington in 1919.

This action was taken by Rt. Hon. George Nicoll Barnes, of Glasgow, who moved that "in the opinion of this House the conventions adopted in 1919 by the International Labor Conference of the League of Nations should be submitted to Parliament as a competent authority."

Mr. Barnes added that the Government had failed to give effect to the labor chapter of the Paris peace treaty, which had been hailed as an effort whereby, through co-operation and goodwill, labor problems throughout the world might be dealt with.

Government's Attitude.

Thomas J. McNamara, Minister of Labor, on behalf of the Government, moved an amendment that "it is not expedient in the existing circumstances to proceed with legislation to give effect to the Washington convention on hours of labor." He said it had not been found practicable to arrive at an agreement regarding hours of labor, and that it was not possible for any Government to frame regulations.

Mr. McNamara claimed that the convention relating to the employment of women, young persons and children had been covered by the act passed last year, and would be ratified.

INQUIRIES ABOUT GRAIN COMMISSION

Ottawa, May 27.—(Canadian Press)—Salaries paid in connection with the Royal Grain Commission, now sitting at prairie points, were the subject of inquiry by Hon. A. K. Maclean in the House this afternoon. He asked for the salaries paid to the Commission members and for the names of the secretary, reporters and staff, with the salaries being paid to them.

Sir George Foster promised to reply to-morrow.

ONTARIO ARREST

Woodstock, Ont., May 27.—The police at Georgetown this afternoon arrested a man whom they think is Norman Garfield. He gave the name of Thomas Robertson, and he refused to talk.

LITTLE CHANGE IN NEW YORK STOCKS

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)

New York, May 27.—The stock market showed some action especially in the motor issues, where there was further liquidation during the early session, but final figures showed little change in the opening figures. It seemed to be more or less an evening up affair and sales were not large. New York markets will be closed to-morrow and also Monday, being "Decoration" Day.

"Is there anything in the world," once equipped an enthusiastic drawing teacher, "that has not come from a drawing?" "That," promptly replied a boy, pointing to a geranium blooming at the schoolroom window. "Yes; anything else?" asked the teacher. After a moment's meditation a modest little girl ventured: "Me!"

ALDERMEN AND COUNCILLORS TO DEBATE ELK LAKE

Conference Arranged by Acting Mayor Sangster for Thursday Evening

Elk Lake watershed, its present use and possible disposal plans will be aired freely and fully on Thursday, June 2, when representatives of the Victoria City Council will meet the Saanich Council at Royal Oak at 8 o'clock.

Acting Mayor Sangster last night wrote the Saanich Council announcing that such a meeting would take place, in the form of a "round-table conference," and the Council at once decided to put aside general business to accommodate the debate.

Long Standing Differences. For some weeks past Councillor Kingwell has persistently advocated an attempt to clear up differences with the city regarding Saanich lands vested in the city's water commissioner, which since the completion of the Saanich water system have been unused for water conservation purposes.

The Elk Lake basin has been a particular point of attack by Saanich councillors ever since a proposal to subdivide and sell a portion was made last year, the councillors maintaining that, while the city has legislative authority for holding waterworks free from taxation, the condition is an injustice to the municipality.

Saanich councillors have urged that the city should use the watershed for the purposes which give it exemption from taxation or alternatively either create a public park in perpetuity or pay taxes until the lands are disposed of.

In order to clear up these aspects of municipal differences, some weeks ago Saanich invited the city to reopen the whole question, and receiving no reply, last week repeated the proposal for conference, which has now been accepted.

VOTERS REJECT SCHOOL BY-LAWS

Result of Indifference. "I cannot think that this is the verdict of the intelligent people of this city," Dr. Raynor stated. "I think the defeat of the by-laws is simply a reflection of absolute indifference on the part of the people. In fact, the small vote polled shows this indifference. It would seem that the vote was that of the people who are opposed to progress of any sort, not that of the intelligent electorate. A lot of people appear to have the dollar vision so badly that they cannot see any use in progress for the future."

"I have no intention of running again after my term of office expires at the end of the year. It is not worth it. When the people are so absolutely indifferent it is not worth one's while attempting to give the city a really efficient school system. One gets no support at all in one's efforts to help the boys and girls, and after this year I shall spend the time—and it has not been small—that I have given to school duties on my family."

Only Temporary Set-back. "I consider this only a temporary set-back. If the statement in the morning paper credited to Acting Mayor Sangster, that there is wastage and lack of responsibility in the School Board is true, I would defy him to show us where he could cut down and still give the people efficient schools. We have tried to pare down every cent and we have records to prove the financial situation quite as well as the Council or anyone else. The Council does not take into consideration the increase in school population and generally increased costs. One would think, by the ideas of some people, that we were asking the people to do us a personal favor in passing these by-laws. As a matter of fact, it is neither here nor there to the Trustees personally. If the people don't want these expenditures, all they have got to do is say so."

Acting Mayor's Ideas. "The School Board should have had more sense than to have submitted these by-laws in the face of public sentiment," Acting Mayor George Sangster declared. "As a result of the fate of the by-laws, two things are made very clear. First, the necessity of curtailing expenditures and secondly the necessity of the Provincial Government giving more money for the maintenance of the schools."

Acting Mayor Sangster said that he considered the vote on the by-laws as an expression of criticism of the present system of school management and not as a protest against the merit of the individual by-laws. The by-laws themselves, he admitted, did not offer much matter for criticism. The action asserted the control of education through a committee of the City Council would be much more effective than the present system because the School Trustees now regarded their duties purely from the standpoint of education. They saw only one side of the ledger, he said.

"My complaint of extravagance against the School Board is not general because I am satisfied that there are two or three trustees who are not spenders," the Alderman added. "But the majority appear to be educational specialists who wish to try out their theories at the expense of the electors."

Says Action Justified. "I still feel that the Trustees were justified in asking for the passage of the by-laws," Trustee Mrs. Spofford declared when asked for an expression of opinion on the defeat of the by-laws this morning. "No other course was left open to them. The Trustees believed that the expenditures were necessary in the interest of the educational system. That being the case, as the representatives of the people looking after their educational interests, the only thing to do was to ask for the passage of the by-laws in the matter. If the city doesn't want these expenditures it is quite immaterial to the School Board. There is no personal advantage in them to the members of the Board. Nor do I know of any pet hobbies that any of the Trustees are riding in connection with school expenditures. There is no disposition of that kind."

Money Necessary. "There is no doubt that all the expenditures provided for in the by-laws are necessary. The expenditures for grounds at Spring Ridge and Victoria West are absolutely essential. As far as technical educational work is concerned, there appears to be an entire lack of knowledge on the part of the public with regard to it—what technical education even of the kind which is being talked about. I am sure that the rumors that she would resign should the by-laws be defeated, Mrs. Spofford said that she has no such intention at all. She has as much to do as she can to collect only that I said one evening at the School Board office, when we were about to submit extraordinary estimates to the Council, that if they were not granted the only thing for the trustees to do was to resign. But when the issue was brought before the voters, well, hard as I tried, I am sure that the trustees hoped that the by-laws would carry."

No Personal Concern.

"But, as I said, the matter does not concern us personally. We have simply our duty to perform. I don't think that the Council talk one would think that we simply played with school expenditures. As a matter of fact, however, the School Board considers its financial affairs as carefully as does the Council—and there is not even a year in it for the trustees. "With the regard to the criticism of extravagance on the part of the Board, people who make this criticism lose sight of the fact that during our years of the war practically no money was spent in the upkeep of school property and now a comparatively large amount must be spent in the maintenance of that property. Again, interests of the school cases have school supplies, in some cases have more than doubled. There has been also a large increase in teachers' salaries. This is not a world-wide movement. The increase in salaries for teachers is a world-wide movement. Nor do people who think the School Board is extravagant take into consideration the necessity created by the fact that no money was spent for this purpose during four years of the war."

"I don't believe that the people fully understood the significance of these by-laws," Trustee Mrs. Coady-Johnson stated today. "For instance, the by-law for the purchase of a lot at Spring Ridge really was an effort for economy. At the present time one of the Spring Ridge classes is housed over the Baptist church and the other in a rooming house. The cost is $720 a year. Now we asked for $1,500 to purchase a nearby lot on which a house stands, with the idea of turning the house into a classroom. If this had been done we would have got additional playgrounds for the Spring Ridge children and the classroom as well. In two years, however, we are paying for the present classroom would have paid for the new lot and house. It was very poor economy for the Council, therefore, to turn down that plan. It cost $1,000 to submit the by-laws. If the Council had given us that money it would have almost paid for the new lot and house."

"The proposed expenditures on technical education and domestic science were very necessary. We are not making professional men and women out of our boys and girls and we want to train them for their work in life. Technical education is essential on that account, and domestic science, training girls to manage homes, is equally vital."

Children Play in Swamp.

"We asked money to fix up the Victoria West School grounds and there is no doubt that this work should be done. We didn't buy those grounds, but now that we have them we must keep them in such shape that the children can play on them. We have a duty to the ratepayers and the teachers, but our first duty is to the children. Those grounds are very low and at times water lies on them to the depth of a foot. Unless they are properly drained the children will have to play in a swamp, which is hardly conducive to their health."

Will Not Act As Spoiled Child.

"No, I don't intend to resign. I am not in the School Board to act as a spoiled child simply because the people don't see eye to eye with me. I will carry on the work until my term of office expires, because I stood for election simply so that I might do something for the children. Counting of ballots was finished at a quarter of eight last night, three-quarters of an hour after the polls closed. City Assessor William Snow acted as returning officer, assisted by F. C. Berridge. The deputy returning officers were Capt. J. W. Gidley, G. A. Okell, George Brown and W. W. Joseph. As the election expenses amounted to more than $1,000 every vote cast cost the city about $1, it is estimated."

Marian's mother was putting her summer garments away. "Mother," said the child, "what did mother live on before people wore clothes?"
