The musical score consists of two systems. The first system has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The second system also has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment, ending with a double bar line and the initials 'D. C.'.

3.

When the day was done and the setting sun
 Its rays they ceased to shine
 Homeward came the brawney miner
 To caress his Clementine
 None was nearer, none was dearer
 Since the days of forty-nine
 When in youth he had another
 Who was then his Clementine

4.

She led her ducks down to the river
 The weather it was fine
 Stubbed her toe against a sliver
 Fell into the raging brine
 He heard her calling calling father
 Her voice was like a chime
 But alas he was no swimmer
 So he lost his Clementine
