THIS hand-list does not profess to be more than a foundation on which, it is to be hoped, some future bibliographer will work to produce a complete catalogue, comparable to that compiled by Mr G. Chawner for the Library of King's College: for the Library of Corpus Christi College well deserves such careful treatment, not only owing to the intrinsic interest of the early books it contains, but from the source (Archbishop Parker) of the great part of the collection.

The references are in all cases made as short as is consistent with intelligibility: for example, when a book is in both Hain and Proctor, only the number in the latter is given, as the Hain number may always be found through the Proctor reference.

Since the re-arrangement of the Library the early printed books have been placed together and many have been removed for this purpose from the Parker Cupboard. As the numbers have not been altered however, the phrase "Parker Cupboard" has been retained to explain an otherwise mysterious enumeration.

Much remains to be done, especially in the identification of fragments used in bindings. The following books will repay further investigation in this respect: B-4-24, 25, 26, 27: D-4-25: L-8-55: P-3-1, 2: P. Cupboard 8, 29, 45, 46, 47, 50, 61, 70, 83, 93, 134, 163, 195, 186, 202, 203, 209, 211, 220, 226, 246, 247, 257, 265, 298, 395, 430. The subject of bindings is scarcely touched: a note, such as "Stamped leather binding" will shew when a further investigation might well produce satisfactory results.

12 May, 1911.

Since the above note was written, the College Librarian, Sir Geoffrey Butler, K.B.E., has subjected this hand-list to a searching revision; I can only consent to its appearance with my single name on the title-page if readers will understand that very many of the identifications of former owners and of bindings are due to him, while bibliographical short-comings are mine alone.
