

An Appeal to the People in Behalf of WHEATON COLLEGE, TO THE READERS OF THE "CYNOSURE."

I beg leave, in the interest of our cause, to present to you in this case of the above college on your part at length.

I began to speak, write, and print against this college, in the latter part of the century ago, and have kept quietly all, in the interim, ever since, in the face of the constant and increasing opposition.

Through the help of my friend, I have now the honor to be able to publish this appeal to you.

It is my duty to you to state that I have a personal acquaintance with the college, and that I have seen the grounds, and the buildings, and the students, and the faculty, and the management, and the results.

It is my duty to you to state that I have a personal acquaintance with the college, and that I have seen the grounds, and the buildings, and the students, and the faculty, and the management, and the results.

It is my duty to you to state that I have a personal acquaintance with the college, and that I have seen the grounds, and the buildings, and the students, and the faculty, and the management, and the results.
