

Dear Caroline, Tuesday morning

I got yesterday a letter from Henry to Anne at the office, which I read & found O.K. Calling to see Aunt Margaret one way, she told me ~~that my sister Emma had written~~ & ~~was on the point~~ - on her way to Nahant & appeared, ~~the same~~. The doctor urged me strongly to go with him in the next boat, but of course I couldn't. Emma was to take tea on return at Aunt Margaret's where I promised to be, but could not fulfil on account of my ~~being in the West~~ in ~~the West~~ (The great Sheridan! was it!) But I enclose the letter to Emma, & suppose she has it at Brook Hill. Samana was in town yesterday, after help, what he got. Dinit is coming in town to live: she has done well by them but they're just as live. This morning found a letter from Dr. D. Webb. Saying he's sorry he wrote to Rogers the last time - thinks him so base & mean.

Miss Proby has just called. No news. Says she hates to go to Mr. Samette - says Sam Linnell is so quiet he gets no abuse from any body. Says she is going to do home the 1st of August. I went to Henry's room - he is out of town. I think your suggestion a good one, not to have a head, as we are such tyrants &c., but if we should think better of it I would as hard have yours as any one's. You're twice more for the cause than Lucretia Mott, & I dare say as many would be glad to see it. I should admire Mrs. Brooks' ^{part}.

Saw Wendell yesterday. He is to be at Leicester with Sam. Mary's celebration. Wm. Atkinson showed me the Unitarian circular to be sent to every minister for signature.

ANTI-SLAVERY PEACE PLEDGE.

WE, the undersigned, hereby solemnly pledge ourselves not to countenance or aid the United States Government in any war which may be occasioned by the annexation of Texas, or in any other war, foreign or domestic, designed to strengthen or perpetuate slavery.

Name.

Residence.

It is headed by Stetson, followed by Clarke, ^{AP.} Peabody, W. H. Channing, Briggs, Stearns, the Mays, & the professors also in short, of the Unitarian body. Stetson does not want any thing said till it is filled with signatures. It is good - excellent. If there had never been any stand made by the pro-slavery people with the bribe of Channingism, we could all sign it as perfect. But it is a good Unitarian testimony. It does not incriminate slaveholders - but then it is in part as far as professions go, & more distant in practice. There is an actual though not a formal cognizance taken of character in the U. Church. A thief is not countenanced in preaching - nor a drunkard - nor an abolitionist. Preacher in countenance ought a slaveholder to be. Then there is a suspension of the distinction between slaveholders, & slaveholders, - slave making & slaveholding, but it is capable of a good interpretation. But that is the defect of the whole Unitarian theology: - they treat all sins just in this way. I had a talk with Mr. Channing about it, & he says "It is one of

DISUNION PLEDGE.

WHEREAS, in the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States, the following criminal and dangerous concessions were made to the slaveholding power, namely; that the foreign slave trade should be safely prosecuted under the national flag, as a lawful branch of American commerce, for a period of not less than twenty years; that fugitive slaves should find no protection from their pursuers on any portion of the American soil; that slave insurrections should be suppressed by the combined military and naval power of the country, if needed in any emergency; and that a slaveholding oligarchy, created by allowing three-fifths of the whole slave population to be represented as property by their masters, should be allowed a place in Congress;—

Therefore, regarding that Constitution as a "covenant with death, and an agreement with hell," the mighty prop that sustains the entire slave system, we, the undersigned, to signify our abhorrence of injustice and oppression, and to clear our skirts from innocent blood, do hereby pledge ourselves not to elect, or in any way aid or countenance the election of a candidate for any office, the entrance upon which requires an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States; but in all suitable ways to strive for the peaceable dissolution of the Union, as the most consistent, feasible, and efficient means of abolishing Slavery.

Name.	Residence.
-------	------------

our Unitarian principles." They have shamed a power to do as well as they have. Altogether the circular is the best thing that has been done out of the U.S. Parks. I don't see the need to pick flaws in it. I don't believe they'll get any more signers than the disunion pledge will. However, well seen - & if the flaws are dwelt upon, appreciated so that it gets signed through their means, we can expose them, & make them feel no better after the medicine than before they took it. I send you the pen. Freeman. I can, I think by a judicious statement to Mr Whipple Hinder my help going to N.B. He told me that Chace had been to him & offered to aid in any way he could. He asked him to keep at Waltham. It stands so a page or two & then Chace came & told him if it was the same thing to him he should like to be at Fall River. Mr White wrote that he should rather not speak so near home & should prefer Fall River, if he could be taken in without conveying that he went with the Soc. as to its present views. In embarrassed as it was with dis-union, he took no more interest in it than he did in the Unitarian Church.

Liza has written a letter to Charles Sumner - practically a slap upon the back. R. D. Webb feels melancholy to see the looks of the cause - I must cheer him up. I think you will like the Standard Circular. Saw Drimbleton at the office.
Shall send him one. He is settled in Barre. Saw Sam Bullon. He told me that Stanton, & all that gang were to be at the Philadelphia meeting. (November) I urge him to go. Don't they do well up West? I am glad they can. When such a thing can be done, there's no need that one poor wretch should take the burden & the odium of controversy.

There is a petition circulating from Trayors School, for as long a vacation as

Ms. A. 9. 2. 4. 7