Over budgeted:

Under budgeted:

Attitude of Minsei-in officials: Kind

Frequency of visits: Once a month

Regularity of relief: Irregular before, but now all right

Discrepancy between need and relief: It cannot be estimated definitely as she has just begun to work.

Why of discrepancy:

Other comments:

Monthly Relief Allowance according to latest schedule: ¥ 711

Remarks and Evaluation:

They live in the Home for Mother and Child, and their meals are prepared by the Buddhist priests who are in charge of the institution, at the expenses of ¥ 550 for two persons, which is much cheaper than usual prices.

After Haruo's old mother died recently, she began to work and the Official will decide her relief amount after he checked her income next month.

Tatsuko's husband, Shichihei's second son, died in the battle.

4. Housing: The house belongs to them. It has three rooms: 6, 4, 3 matted wide.

5. Occupation: Farmer

They have two "tan" of rice field, but as Tatsuko is the only worker in the family, their yield is much below the average.

6. Income: No other cash income.

Relief money: 310 yen a month (full allowance for four persons)

7. Clothing and Bedding:

They have enough to keep themselves warm.

8. Food:

Shortage on their crop is supplied by receiving distributed rice rations.

9. Health: Shichihei is weak for age, though not in bed.

10. Recommendation:

It is recommended that one of their rooms should be rented to some repatriates or war-sufferers under the care of "Minsei-iin," and that he should investigate whether they can get on with relief money for three persons, 267 yen a month, as Shichihei's eldest son, a plasterer, who lives separately may give them some help.

Michie	"	(7)	Daughter

Miyako's husband was drafted to the battle six years ago, and has not been demobilized. His parents and grandfather died during his absence, and Miyako had to spend all their savings.
4. Housing: 6 and 4.5 matted rooms belonging to them.
5. Occupation: Farmer, cultivating 2 "tan" of rice field.
6. Income: Miyako can raise rice and vegetables for their own meals through a year.
Relief Money: 3 yen a day.
7. Clothing and Bedding: They can manage with what they have.
8. Health: Miyako suffered from a woman's disease last year, and her heart is rather weak.

9. Recommendation:

Though they do not want in staple food, they look much distressed, as they have little cash income. It is recommended that their relief money should be increased to 6 yen a day, and that a free medical card should be given them when they need it.

Tatsuko	" (30)	Son's wife
Masako	" (8)	Grand-daughter
Hidewo	" (6)	Grand-son

Tatsuko's husband, Shichihei's second son, died in the battle.
4. Housing: The house belongs to them. It has three rooms: 6, 4, 3 matted wide.
5. Occupation: Farmer

They have two "tan" of rice field, but as Tatsuko is the only workers in the family, their yield is much below the average.
6. Income: No other cash income.

Relief money: 310 yen a month (full allowance for four persons)
7. Clothing and Bedding:

They have enough to keep themselves warm.
8. Food:

Shortage on their crop is supplied by receiving distributed rice rations.
9. Health: Shichihei is weak for age, though not in bed.
10. Recommendation:

It is recommended that one of their rooms should be rented to some repatriates or war-sufferers under the care of "Minsei-iin," and that he should investigate whether they can get on with relief money for three persons, 267 yen a month, as Shichihei's eldest son, a plasterer, who lives separately may give them some help.
