

New York Feb. 5 1853

R. P. Hunt Esq.

Dear Sir,

We write you a day or two since advising payments of bills of lading in New York (which were enclosed to you) and of a remittance to Harington & Waver of $1000 which they have acknowledged receipt of.

Since our last purchase of cotton the market greatly advanced say to 11/4¢ for our quality - and is now back again to 10 3/4 - We bought today 30 Bales at 10 7/8 but it was in connection with another party who took a lot and led us hard the 30 bales by which we saved 10 1/8.

Ten bales will go today and the other 20 the first fair weather via Harlem Road to Albany -

In the last few days we had made no sales, but our expectations are good - all the goods of which we had Juvic's say up to 89 and in store -

Are you able to get up to the quantity - We hope you will be able to turn as soon yards per month for the coming three months.

The money market is full & I with no present prospect of change - Exchange is getting up, Interest is dearer in England and a general activity which gives employment for money -

Yours truly

Henry Patterson & Co
