Greeting.

BROTHERS:

We present you herewith a Catalogue of our Fraternity, which has been prepared hurriedly to meet the demand that is felt for one. The material from which it was compiled came into our hands in a chaotic condition, and it has been no small task to bring any order out of the mass. The publication of it has been delayed from year to year, and the Brothers have so often been disappointed by its non-appearance at the promised periods, that we feel that, by promptness in the matter, we shall be enabled to do more good to the Order, than by its imperfections we shall cause harm. We do not send it forth as a complete and accurate Catalogue of our beloved Fraternity, but simply as the most accurate and complete that could be made from the mass of accumulated material and the still incomplete rolls. Many of the Chapters have not been heard from at all since the papers came into our hands; and not having sent in a previous roll, they show no increase since 1872, the date of publication of the last Catalogue. We trust that the Brothers throughout the country will advise us of all errors in the present edition, and that the chapters unheard from will complete their rolls, that we may revise and enlarge the present one, and give the Fraternity, in our next issue, an accurate roll of the Order. It will also aid us greatly, in our preparation of the next edition, to have each Chapter furnish us with any information as to its ante bellum history, and any items of interest to the Order at large concerning its own members.

We take pleasure in congratulating the Brothers upon the flattering prospects of the Order, and the interest in its welfare everywhere so warmly felt. Its circle of usefulness is rapidly enlarging, and, with the energetic support and hearty coöperation of the Chapters and individual Brothers, we hope to spread its noble principles where they have not before been felt.

The last Annual Convention at Richmond did good work, and it is the design of the present Grand Chapter to make the next Convention a brilliant success, and a pleasant and large reunion of the Brotherhood. Let the aid of every Brother be enlisted to this end.

ROB'T H. WILDBERGER,
BEN. T. FARMER,
Committee on Catalogue.

On page 27 the date, 1862, should appear between the names of C. C. Sanders and Luther Arnold, 3d line from top. On pages 19 and 20 the names credited to Λ for 1859-'60-'61 belong to Ω , on pages 35 and 36. Many errors will be found in the dates under "Year of Graduation," which are unavoidable, as, in many cases, we had to guess at the dates. Brothers will please advise us of all errors in dates and names.
