SCHOOL NEEDS

REASONS FOR CALLING BOND ELECTION FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS SET FORTH

On June 23, 1919, a mass meeting was held at the Intermediate School by the action of which the Board of Trustees of the Glendale City Schools was instructed to call a bond election in the sum of $100,000 to purchase additional land adjacent to certain school buildings and to make certain building improvements. Following this meeting the Board and the committee there appointed formulated a definite plan and issued a statement to the public showing their intentions as to the use of the money if the bonds were voted, as follows:

To purchase land adjacent to the Broadway School.	$ 6,600
To purchase land adjacent to the Cerritos Ave. School	6,000
To build two kindergarten buildings	3,700
To build new school at the Broadway site	65,000
To build an addition to the Intermediate School	10,000
To buy furniture	3,700
To pay architect's fees	5,000
Total	$100,000

The interval between the calling and the holding of this election witnessed a marked rise in the wages of all skilled mechanics and even of unskilled laborers, and there have been several such rises since that

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Mothers' Club of the Acacia Avenue School held its regular monthly meeting on Friday. After refreshments and a short musical program, the election of officers for the coming year, was announced, the officers being:

President, Mrs. C. W. Esselman. Vice President, Mrs. J. A. Grant. Secretary, Mrs. Townsend Clark. Treasurer, Miss May Cornwell. Historian, Mrs. C. M. Sudlow. A floral offering was presented by the members to Mrs. Edward Strong, the retiring president, in appreciation of all she has done for the club the past two years.

BOY SCOUT SKIT

DEATH OF GRACE H. ELLISON

Funeral services were held June 1st at her grave in Forest Lawn Memorial Park over the remains of Mrs. Grace H. Ellison, who passed away May 29, 1920, at Santa Fe. She left two grown sons and is survived by her husband, Caleb Ellison, who is an uncle of E. E. Bond of Vine street, this city. Mr. Ellison is now a contractor in San Jose, but was a business man in Los Angeles for about twelve years.

FIRST UNIT BEGUN

A permit for the erection of the first unit of the Glendale Sanitarium's new hospital group of 8 buildings was taken out this morning and it calls for an expenditure of $40,000. This is to be the operating and clinic building, is to be U shaped, 160x146 feet, 1 story in height. Plans for a central heating plant are in preparation and also for a septic tank sewerage system. The other buildings of the group are to be erected as fast as possible. They are to comprise an administration and service building, hospital and dormitory, men's and women's hydro-therapy buildings, guest rooms, etc. It will probably take two years to complete the plant, which will be one of the finest on the coast, it is claimed, and represent an investment, in building and grounds, of more than half a million dollars.

GRAND VIEW DIST.

RESIDENTS EAGER TO FURTHER THE LAYING OUT OF MONTEREY ROAD

Residents of the Grand View district of Glendale are greatly rejoiced that work on putting in the street lights and connections for the house lighting begins tomorrow. They have waited long and patiently but realized that relief could not come sooner, owing to the inability of the city to negotiate the bond issue for so long and then to obtain some of the necessary material. This district is entering heartily into city life and lending enthusiastic aid to new projects, particularly the laying out of Monterey Road, the proposed new crosstown highway to connect Verdugo Road with Burbank, paralleling the south bank of the Wash as far west as Brand and the P. E. Burbank line the rest of the way. Land on both sides of the track has been deeded nearly the entire distance through Grand View district and the residents will give the project every aid in their power. Chas. Ellsperman, who has 10 acres between the car line, which is on Fourth street, later to be known as Monterey Road, and Sixth street, east of Winchester avenue, and E. H. Learned, with similar acreage, just north of this, are preparing to subdivide their holdings into two tiers of lots, each, and start a little town. The entire Grand View district lies on a gentle slope and gives a commanding view of the valley below, with the main portion of Glendale and its encircling hills and mountains just beyond. The residents up there waged a long fight to gain entrance to Glendale and now that they are in propose to give their aid to every project for its upbuilding.

LUNCHEON FOR MRS. RAMSAY

Mrs. H. D. Goss of East Harvard street was hostess at a pretty but quite informal luncheon complimenting Mrs. W. W. Ramsay who is leaving next week for the East. Covers were laid for six—Miss Helm, sister of Mrs. Ramsay, Mrs. Freeman Kelley, Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. H. F. Bertelsen of Hollywood, the guest of honor and hostess. A pink and white color scheme was carried out in floral decorations and table appointments, pink sweet peas centering the board. Each guest was provided with a correspondence card on which to write a brief letter to be read by Mrs. Ramsay during her journey. She plans to return to Glendale in the fall. Following the luncheon the ladies spent a pleasant social afternoon over their needlework.

J. R. WHITE'S PLANS

REBUILDING PROJECT WAITS ON ADJUSTMENT OF LOSS ON HOME DESTROYED

Mr. and Mrs. John Robert White, who have been with their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans, since their house was destroyed by fire last Monday, are taking their little boys this afternoon to Hermosa Beach where they will take possession of a cottage they have leased for the summer. The children will be left there with a housekeeper while Mr. and Mrs. White return to Glendale to remain until after the insurance is adjusted.

The theory as to the origin of the fire which is now most generally accepted is that it was caused by crossed electric wires and started in the partition wall between the kitchen and laundry where most of the wire terminals were placed. It is believed that it smoldered there for some time and had been destroying the interior of the house long before it was discovered, not betraying its presence because the house had been carefully closed by Mr. and Mrs. White when they went to the memorial exercises. The breaking of the window when smoke was seen made a draft which caused the fire to burst out in flames.

The little boys have been staying with their uncle, Llewellyn White, in Eagle Rock, and Robert White, Jr., is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McCourt. Mr. and Mrs. White have a wide circle of acquaintances who have enjoyed their hospitality and who grieved with them when their home was destroyed. Invitations poured in upon them and one of the crumbs of comfort to be found in the sad affair is their realization of the many loyal friends they have in this city.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Friday. Probably cloudy in the morning.

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN

SENATE PASSES JOINT RESOLUTION AFTER PRESIDENT HAS EXPRESSED HIS APPROVAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Congress will adjourn finally next Saturday at 4 p. m. Action necessary to assure adjournment was taken today when the Senate passed a joint resolution previously passed by the House. The Senate vote was 44 to 24. It was taken after several proposed amendments to have Congress recess for a month or more instead of adjourning, was defeated. Shortly before the Senate voted Senator Underwood, Democratic Leader, announced that President Wilson had telephoned he would not object to an adjournment now and that he would not call Congress in extra session except in case of grave emergency.

FRANCISCO VILLA DEFEATED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Francisco Villa was defeated when he attacked the city of Parral, Chihuahua, yesterday, the State Department was advised today. Villa suffered some losses and is now being pursued by General Ignacio Enriquez, former governor of Chihuahua and the present military commander of the Chihuahua district.

HOUSE COMMITTEE VOTES ON MANDATE

RESOLUTION PASSED DECLARING AUTHORITY FOR THIS COUNTRY TO BECOME RESPONSIBLE FOR ARMENIA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The House Foreign Affairs Committee today voted to favorably report a joint resolution declining authority for this country to accept the mandate for Armenia requested by President Wilson.

CIVIL STRIFE IN IRELAND

DISORDERS INCREASE AND BATTLE SHIPS ARE SENT TO PLYMOUTH WITH REINFORCEMENTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, June 3.—Despite the recent dispatch of strong military reinforcements to Ireland, the movement of additional troops was imminent today. The battleships Valiant and Warspite have arrived at Plymouth where it was said 1200 marines and more than 1000 members of the Bezan Regiment would embark for Queens-town on Friday.

There is no abatement of Sinn Fein attacks on military barracks and other government posts in Ireland. Within the last thirty-six hours eight barracks in four counties were attacked.

The garrisons were successful in repelling the assailants. The most violent attacks yesterday and last night were against barracks in Blarney, County Cork, and Senit, County Kerry. At Blarney the raiders commandeered a hotel adjoining the barracks and placing explosives against the barracks wall blew up the building. Almost the same tactics were followed at Senit where the raiders occupied nearby houses from which they poured flaming petrol against the barracks. All roads leading from the town were blocked with barbed wire by the raiders who also damaged the harbor and railway works.

DELAYED "JOHNSON SPECIAL"

HELD BACK FIFTEEN HOURS BY BURNING SNOWSHEDS IS NOW EN ROUTE FOR CHICAGO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The "Johnson Special," carrying California delegates and Johnson boosters to the Chicago convention passed the burned snowsheds of the Southern Pacific in the Sierras at 8:30 a. m. today, 15 hours late.

Southern Pacific officials believed that the special could make up four or five hours on the trip to Chicago which would make the arriving time there about 9 p. m. Saturday. The scheduled time of arrival was 11 a. m. Saturday.

The fire which probably started from a locomotive spark, destroyed 1800 feet of snowsheds with a loss of $40,000, according to Southern Pacific officials. A large force of men worked throughout the night fighting the blaze and clearing the tracks for the "Johnson Special."

OKLAHOMA CONVENTION CONTESTS

SOUTHERN REPUBLICANS TOLD THEY MUST NOT CONVENTION IN PLACES FROM WHICH NEGROES ARE BARRED

CHICAGO, June 3.—The Republican National Committee voted today to serve notice on Southern Republicans that they must not hold district or state conventions in buildings from which negroes are barred. The vote was taken on the motion of Committeeman Warren of Michigan and followed a contest in the Second Oklahoma Congressional District in which the decision was made that the state delegates were legally entitled to seats.

GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. JOHN T. SCANTLING GUESTS OF HONOR AT BIG RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Scantling of 459 West Vine street, Glendale, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage yesterday.

Married in Lathrop, Missouri, half a century ago, this couple moved about a year ago to Glendale to spend their declining years and enjoy the sunshine and health giving qualities of our wonderful climate. From this marriage there is one child, Mrs. John H. English, of 1844 South St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles, formerly of this city, and at her home there was given a reception in honor of their golden wedding anniversary, yesterday afternoon.

A number of beautiful floral and material gifts were received and the couple presided at a course dinner in honor of the occasion. The decorations were in yellow and white, the color scheme being carried out in the decorations of the entire house.

Among the out-of-town guests to attend this jubilee celebration were Dr. Lydia Dow and Miss Emma Schleth of San Francisco; Mrs. M. F. English of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nash of Trinidad, Colorado.

Letters of congratulation were received from five of Mrs. Scantling's brothers and Mr. Scantling's three sisters, most of whom still live in Missouri.

They are both members of the Masonic orders, of the G. A. R. and Relief Corps and of the M. E. Church of Glendale.

MRS. NELSON BEREAVED

Rev. C. R. Norton, Mrs. Thomas Addison and a number of others who had been neighbors of Mrs. Nelson during her residence in this city on North Belmont, showed their sympathy for the bereaved woman by attending the services held last Tuesday at Rosedale Cemetery when her son and last surviving child, Arthur Nelson, was buried with military honors. He was a soldier in the late war and served overseas where he contracted lung trouble. After his return he was employed in the offices of the government in Washington until forced by ill health to resign his position and come west to the home of his mother in Los Angeles where he died. Mrs. Nelson came to California from Washington City and not long ago lost a son who was living in the Imperial Valley.

ANDERSON-SHELDON

MARRIAGE AT HOME OF REV. C. R. NORTON BRINGS NEW RESIDENTS TO GLENDALE

At the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Norton on East Wilson avenue, one of those delightful ceremonies which unite two loving hearts took place at high noon on Wednesday, June 2, 1920. Rev. Norton was the officiating clergyman and Mrs. Norton in preparation, had made her home a floral bower by the lavish use of pink and white carnations and very beautiful roses.

The contracting parties were Sanford A. Anderson, a retired farmer and prominent Odd Fellow of Keota, Iowa, and Mrs. Hannah M. Sheldon, of Colorado, who had been spending the winter in Hollywood. She has been a leader in Rebekah circles in her home city and she and the man she has married were drawn together by their common interest in these orders.

Mr. Anderson, who came to Glendale last fall, has been making his home with Rev. and Mrs. Norton and visiting places of interest in the Southland. On one of these pilgrimages he met the lady who has now become his bride and a friendship developed between them which ripened into love and marriage. The groom returned to Iowa in March, but found the attractions of Southern California too strong to resist and returned to claim his bride.

Their instrumentality in bringing about this romance has been a great pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Norton, who lived at one time in Keota, Iowa, and who met Mr. Anderson during their visit there last year. Mr. Norton does not resemble Cupid but he makes an excellent understudy when affairs of the heart demand attention.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Anderson went to the furnished home they have purchased on North Belmont where they will be at home to their friends.

CITY CHARTER

MEMBERS OF COMMITTEE WHO WORKED ON ORIGINAL INSTRUMENT FAVOR IT

A good many citizens of Glendale are watching with curiosity the movement looking toward the organization of the city under a charter. It is to be discussed this Thursday night prior to the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees at the City Hall. W. E. Hewitt, proprietor of the Glendale Laundry, when approached in regard to the matter, expressed himself as favorable to the movement. Said he: "We are getting to be a city of 15,000 population and are considerably hampered under our present government as a city of the sixth class operating under state laws governing cities of that class which are somewhat restrictive. A carefully worked out charter would be much more elastic and give us powers which would facilitate the kind of municipal development we would all like to see. I was on the committee chosen to draft the instrument submitted to voters some years ago. I am still in favor of a charter if it can be brought about."

Ezra Parker, who was also a member of the charter committee

DEATH OF MRS. RAY DUNNIGAN

Mrs. Ray Dunnigan died this morning at 2 o'clock in the French Hospital from the effects of an operation. She gave birth to a child a few weeks ago and, after a few days of very serious illness was brought out to the home of her mother, Mrs. K. C. Sipple, where she seemed to improve at first but finally an operation was found to be necessary and this she did not rally from. The baby died soon after its birth. Deceased was married only about a year ago and she and her husband lived near San Bernardino.

DEATH OF MRS. K. HEDGES

Mrs. Kesiah Hedges died at the home of her daughter and only near relative, Mrs. Cora Hedges Mann, at 1013 South Mariposa street, May 29th, 1920. Deceased was 73 years of age and was a native of Illinois. Cerebral hemorrhage was the cause of death. She and her daughter came to this city from Evanston, Ind., about twenty days ago in the hope that the climate would benefit the health of the elder woman.

Funeral services were held in the Scovern Parlors June 1st at 11 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. O. P. Rider, interment taking place in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Mrs. Mann will continue to make her home here.

C. K. SLONNEGER

Christian K. Slonneger, who came to Glendale about seven years ago from the middle west, and who acquired a large acquaintance through the grocery business he conducted until a few months ago at 714 East Broadway, died at his home on North Belmont street May 29, 1920, at the age of 81 years. He leaves a wife and one daughter and quite a circle of friends by whom he will be missed. Funeral services were held at the Scovern Parlors June 1st which were conducted by Rev. C. R. Norton, the Odd Fellows' Lodge of which he was a member taking charge at the grave in Grand View Cemetery.

FLORAL TREASURE

BLOSSOMS OF RARE TREE IN J. W. USILTON'S YARD ATTRACT ATTENTION

Many Glendaleans have expressed curiosity about the very beautiful blossoming tree, "Bauhinia," in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Usilton. It is the only one of the kind in this city which has blossoms of rosy lilac though there are said to be a few which bear white blooms and Mrs. Usilton reports having seen one with red blossoms in Pasadena. They have reason to be proud of their tree which is noticeable for its beautiful foliage at all times, the leaves consisting of two lobes joined together near their base to form a heart shape.

This tree is a sort of floral foundation which Mr. and Mrs. Usilton hospitably received into their yard. It came from the nursery of a man in East Los Angeles, whom they had patronized and was part of a consignment ordered by another Glendalean, who refused to accept it when delivered, declaring it was in such poor condition it would not live. This man, knowing Mrs. Usilton's (Continued on Page 4)

THE GREATEST BOOK

Even those who do not accept the Bible as the word of God cannot fail to be impressed by the enormous demand for it from all parts of the world that is disclosed by the statement of the secretary of the American Bible Society to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church that 30,000,000 copies of the Good Book were produced last year. One would imagine that by this time nearly every person who wanted a Bible would have been supplied with one, and that the new copies issued would be called for principally to replace others which had been worn out or lost. It is inferred, however, from the Bible Society official's remarks that a large number of the new Bibles go to people lacking previous acquaintance with the book.

It is announced, for example, that the translation of Holy Writ into the Mandarin language of China—a work which has been under way for 25 years—has just been completed. This opens a new market—or a new field, if one prefers not to look upon it as a commercial undertaking—for the distribution of many millions of Bibles. Viewed simply as a business, however, the publication of Bibles is impressive. Sales in 1918, the last year for which fairly accurate figures are available, passed the $16,000,000 mark.

A society of traveling salesmen known as the Gideons has placed half a million Bibles in hotel rooms and intends to put the book into 1,500,000 other hotel rooms that are not as yet supplied. One million Bibles were distributed among the soldiers of the American expeditionary forces. With the Scriptures issued in such quantities as these, it is no wonder that Prof. William Lyon Phelps of Yale University finds that the young men with whom he comes in contact are much better acquainted with the book than were the youth of a quarter of a century ago.

That the world should be familiar with the Bible is desirable for reasons apart from religious considerations. Treated simply as a code of ethics, Christianity promotes the advance of civilization, while the Bible as literature is worthy the study of all. Its wide and increasing circulation is gratifying.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Kepler of 200 West Garfield were the week-end guests of relatives at San Diego.

Dr. Marvin, of the University of California, Southern Branch, and a graduate of Harvard, was a visitor at Glendale Union High School Monday.

Adrienne Lawrence, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lawrence of 732 East Harvard St., has been critically ill of pneumonia but is better.

W. J. Clendenin, a former resident of this city who is now living at 1228 West Fifth street, Los Angeles, has been very ill and was threatened with pneumonia but is reported decidedly better.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Goodwin who recently sold their home at 212 West Garfield and are now living at Hollywood, were guests at the wedding of Dorothy Hobbs and Wayne Smith Tuesday afternoon.

The month of June started out very well in the way of building permits. The total this morning was $51,050. The building department expects this to be the record month in value of permits.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tiffany of West Los Feliz Road, accompanied by Mrs. Della Hapgood, motored to Porterville the last of the week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tiffany. They will be gone about a week.

Mrs. C. I. Sherwood, who sold her residence property at 329 West Acacia several weeks ago, has moved in with her daughter, Mrs. H. Reid, of 216 Milford, to stay until she can purchase a suitable home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy King and family of North Belmont street have returned from an outing of several days at Santa Monica. While there they ran across several Glendalians including Ruth Waters and J. A. Newton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, who have been living in rented property at 220 North Belmont have moved to Los Angeles, where they are taking care of property for friends who have gone East. On their return the Wilsons will buy a home.

Wednesday afternoon the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Central Avenue Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Tisdale, 249 West Acacia. A native girl from Hindustan was present. Mrs. Tuttle had charge of the mystery box.

Eddie Brown of 313 West Harvard, who has been working in Shasta county on a ranch, has written that he expects to be at home the last of this week, being tired of wandering around. He has been in the northern part of the state for several weeks, doing ranch work and cement finishing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lemon have purchased the Mansfield place at 213 North Belmont street. They have been living at 1119 East Broadway, but have sold that property to Ed Hopkins, County Assessor. They will make the change to Belmont as soon as possible as Mr. Hopkins is anxious to get possession of his property.

Mrs. Wm. Van Osdoll, her son Ervin, and daughter, Mrs. Merrill Burke, will go to Exeter the last of this week to attend the marriage of Burt Van Osdoll, who is engaged in business up there. Burt was one of the overseas boys and made a fine record in France, suffering two wounds.

Chas. L. Walker has purchased the J. L. Wright property at 332 E. Dryden. He is a brother-in-law of J. Walter Elliott of Dryden and Central avenue and is visiting there for the present. He will occupy the new residence with his wife and mother as soon as possession can be secured. The sale was made by the Glendale Realty Company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. M. Burton are still at Murietta Hot Springs where Mr. Burton is taking the baths for the rheumatic trouble which followed his severe attack of influenza. They have sold the place they recently purchased on Vine street and have bought another in Casa Verdugo, of which they expect to have possession about June 6th. They will not occupy it until they have made certain desired improvements.

Mrs. H. O. Melone entertained members of the J. O. C. class of the First Methodist Church Tuesday evening at her home, 137 North Orange street. She was assisted by Mrs. C. N. Erling and Mrs. C. R. Lusby. About twenty-five young women were present and a business session was followed by a pleasant social evening of music and games.

Mark Francy arrived at home yesterday from Camp Lewis on a 29 days' leave of absence and proceeded to get acquainted with home folk again after his long absence. He is now working as a steam fitter at Camp Lewis as a civil service employe and has a steady job. Mark and his brother Harry were sent to Camp Lewis early in the war and to their great disappointment never got any further.

Mrs. Louise Purnell is having Contractor J. J. Burke build an addition to her residence at 353 Ivy.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Van Osdoll and their niece, Miss Clara Montgomery, spent the week-end at Catalina.

A. R. McGrath is having erected at 420 Salem a 4-room garage for a temporary residence, to cost $1150.

Mrs. Kate Bell of 414 Vine street suffered a paralytic stroke, the third, yesterday, and for a time her life was despaired of. She is still very weak.

Mrs. Oscar Stees, who formerly lived at 117 South Adams, has taken out a permit for the erection of a garage for a temporary residence at 240 South Glendale avenue.

Mrs. Lou Ellison and two daughters, Mildred and Evelyn, came down Monday to visit A. L. Baird and wife. Mrs. Ellison returned home yesterday but the daughters remain until tomorrow.

Between 25 and 30 members of the C. W. B. M. auxiliary of Central Christian Church went down to Echo Park yesterday and held their regular meeting. A picnic dinner was enjoyed under the shade of the trees.

Miss Clara Montgomery left for her home in Chicago this week after spending 7½ months with her uncle, S. B. Van Osdoll, and family, 316 Howard street. She had a very pleasant visit and says she is going home to boost for Southern California.

JOHN A. POPE ACQUITTED ON BATTERY CHARGE

John A. Pope was tried yesterday afternoon before Judge Lowe on a charge of assault and battery preferred against him by Lewis Eichhorst, a cook who had been in the employ of Yager & Pope. The members of the jury were C. J. Puerrung, S. Berman, L. A. Perkins, M. A. Johnstone, K. M. Barton and E. Palster. Deputy District Attorney Dennison prosecuted the case and Albert Pearce defended. The jury was out about three minutes and brought in a verdict of not guilty.

CITY STATISTICS

There have been 19 fire alarms turned in during the month of May, 15 of them for grass fires. There were 86 calls to police headquarters and 114 arrests, 109 of them for violations of the traffic ordinance.

"SUGARING OFF"

The Vermont Society "Sugaring Off" will take place in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles, Saturday, June 5, 1920. Former residents of Vermont are cordially invited.

BICYCLE RACES

More than ever this season Glendale, Pasadena and surrounding cities will have bicycling added to their outdoor sports for not only speed but novelty and trick riding admits of variations to programs that appeal to all ages.

William Pfeifer, committeeman, in charge of the Glendale territory, reports that the high school bodies and the young men's organizations are backing the movement and that fairly good quarter-mile tracks are available in Los Angeles and in the suburbs. The Los Angeles Bicycle Racing Association has scheduled fortnightly meets, worth-while prizes being donated through the Allied Cycle trades of America as well as local dealers. Silver trophies, watches, medals, tires and accessories are being offered.

Returned soldiers and sailors noting the sweep of bike sports in Europe are encouraging the high school students to get busy with hoes and scrapers, wheelbarrows and rakes, evening the surfaces of their tracks. Incidentally all riders are tuning up their mounts and hardening their muscles. Neighborhood riding clubs will doubtless grow out of the reawakened enthusiasm.

CITY CHARTER

(Continued from Page 1) mentioned, told of the hard work put in by his fellow members to draft the instrument that was rejected by the voters, chiefly, he says, because it contained a provision for a city manager. "Nevertheless it has since been demonstrated thru the employment of a manager, that the business of the city is of such magnitude and importance that some responsible head official in the way of manager is imperatively necessary," he declares. He hopes, therefore, that a charter proposition now would be received with more intelligence and grace than before, but he is not very optimistic. In his opinion the citizenship of Glendale as a whole is conservative and reactionary. Said he: "Something has to be done in Glendale and done very quickly. The average citizen knows very little about Glendale. He sleeps here, thinks it is a nice place to live and lets a very few men run the city. Our school districts, our revenue from all sources in taxes and the method of raising it is practically unknown by most people."

CANADIANS, GUESTS

GEO. McLEOD AND WIFE COME TO VISIT, DECIDE TO LOCATE IN GLENDALE

Geo. McLeod and wife, who came to Glendale last November from New Brunswick province of Canada, to visit a brother, W. D. McLeod, of 1345 East Colorado, are so delighted with Glendale that they have decided to remain as residents. When they came they were firmly resolved to start back in April, but the temptation to remain was too strong. Mr. McLeod owns a farm and other property back there and says he supposes he will have to go back to dispose of it some time this year.

The brother whom he and his wife are living with came out to Glendale last October from Kansas City, Mo., in his machine, accompanied by his nephew, D. K. McLeod, son of George, and soon after his arrival bought the property at 1345 East Colorado. The uncle and nephew are now enjoying a trip to Honolulu. The latter is a civil engineer and has done considerable bridge building and road work throughout the country.

SCHOOL NEEDS

(Continued from Page 1) time. In addition to this there has been a steady increase in the cost of building materials of all kinds. As a result of these conditions, the Board of Trustees has been unable to carry out in full the contemplated program. The proceeds of the bonds have been used or contracted for as follows:
To purchase land adjacent to the Broadway School $ 6,150
To purchase land adjacent to the Cerritos Ave. School. 4,800
To build two kindergarten buildings 5,650
To build a new school at the Broadway site 78,630
To architect's fees 4,718

Total $99,948

The lowest bid obtained on the Intermediate School addition was $17,500 and the plans on which this bid was submitted left the building in an unfinished condition. Also the lowest price so far quoted by the Pacific Electric Railway Co. on the triangular piece of land at the front of the Cerritos Ave. School was $2400. The Board was therefore forced to abandon these two projects and moreover there are now no funds available with which to buy furniture.

Taking into account increased cost of labor and materials, the following are the sums estimated as necessary to complete the building program:
Intermediate School addition (complete) $23,500
Additional land at Cerritos Ave. School 2,400
To furnish Broadway School 3,700
To furnish Intermediate addition 2,400

Total $32,000

The actual cost of this to the taxpayer assuming that the bonds bear 6 per cent interest and that one bond is to be retired each year would be about as follows:

To cover the payment of $2800 due at the end of the first year:
Assessed valuation of district $8,403,590
Rate necessary to raise $2800 .034

$2,857.22

This rate of .034 is on the $100 of assessed valuation. A four thousand dollar bungalow (actual value) would be assessed at about two thousand dollars on which this increased tax would be sixty-eight cents.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH NIGHT

The church night supper at Central Christian last evening was well attended. Those present enjoyed a good meal and fine fellowship. The historical Bible study under the direction of Rev. C. A. Cole was on the books of Jeremiah and Obadiah. Prayer meeting followed, led by E. H. Learned, on the subject, "Conditions of Christian Fellowship." This church night, for the promotion of sociability and the transaction of church business, has become an established feature of the life of the congregation.

"NEIGHBORS' DAY"

Designation of certain days for special observance of one thing or another is being carried to the point where such days threaten to become cheap through their numerousness. Not content with single days, we also are giving whole weeks to the spread of propaganda, such as shipping by truck, to which a week recently was devoted.

The call for the observance of three special days has just been issued by the governor of Mississippi. The thrifty man saved paper and labor by putting all three into a single proclamation. A novelty is offered in "Neighbors' Day," which is set for Saturday, June 12. The governor states that in advocating the celebration of this day he is complying with resolutions adopted by the national conference on community organization, which met in Washington on March 20 last and was attended by several hundred delegates, representing 33 states.

Bearing in mind that "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," is a major commandment, one can find nothing amiss in devoting a special day to the promotion of good will and the community spirit among neighbors. On the contrary, much good can be made to come from such an observance.

But it is time to call a halt on special observances intended principally to serve selfish commercial interests. Caution should be exercised in multiplying all these special celebrations lest, because of their frequency, all should come to be ignored, and the good suffer along with those for which there is no need.

CORRECTING THE RECORD

In a carefully prepared and personally inspected interview now in circulation in places where it is hoped it will do the most good in the shortest time, Sir Douglas Haig, British field marshal, repudiates the slight upon the American armies, credited to him for several months but not denied until now. The British commander has had plenty of time to discover that, whatever Europe may have thought, the joke didn't "take" in the United States, the one country with which England desires to be on friendly terms.

If there were nothing but what was credited to the British field marshal to indicate the feeling of Europeans toward the United States armies, that might be laid to inaccuracy in reporting an erroneous interpretation. But the experiences of millions of American soldiers in Europe and the impressions they brought home are corroborative—not what Sir Douglas Haig now denies, but what he was credited with some months ago.

Sir Douglas explains that if he unintentionally forgot to mention the American soldiers in a couple of public speeches, it was because he supposed everyone took for granted, as he did, the services given by the men from this side of the Atlantic. It is doubtful if the latest interview will do the good expected. Perhaps it would have been better to allow the situation to stand without recalling the circumstances. The world knows what followed the entrance of the American soldiers into the war, whether their service is admitted or not.

THE FEVER SUBSIDING

Indications are that the American people are gradually getting over their period of "buy-at-any-price" madness. The fever appears to be subsiding and the patient finds himself weak but still able to take properly diluted nourishment.

The merchants wisely appear to recognize the symptoms and in many lines have decided to provide diet which the sufferer can digest. Hence the epidemic of lowering prices which it is generally believed will break the back of the profiteers who have been taking advantage of a public willingness to absorb anything offered at any price asked.

Low prices in the lines already quoted in many advertisements will bring low prices in others. Sugar is high and scarce, for example, but new crops are on the way and the rest of the world is beginning to produce its own supply. In due time we shall see a recession of prices in this line and other provisions will follow meat, which already has shown a falling off of 16 per cent this year to the consumer.

Don't make any mistake about it. Prices are coming down because the every-day citizen has come to his senses and is beginning to buy as carefully and as frugally as he used to do.

COMING BACK

It is not surprising that thousands of men of foreign birth who turned their faces toward their old homes in Europe upon the defeat of Germany are returning to this country.

Many forces conspired to induce them to go back. Many believed that the war would end the old tyranny, that opportunities would be better there than here, and that a new era of liberty and fair dealing had dawned for the world. Thousands wanted to find missing loved ones or be reunited with friends they had not been in touch with for years. Not a few were drawn by curiosity to see what the war had wrought and all of them had more money than any of them ever before had dreamed of having in all their lives.

But little time was required to disillusion even the most hopeful. Europe offered no such opportunities for work or good living as were to be had for the seeking here in the United States. Work was uncertain, political conditions unsettled, prices high beyond belief and food and clothing scarce.

So they have turned again toward America, and they will be welcome. We need every immigrant who can prove his right to the privilege of American residence, and the immigration laws might well be liberalized to take care of worthy men and women from abroad who might be barred by unnecessarily strict regulations.

The New York centenarian who was rejected for service in the Civil war because of physical disability affords evidence that his disability did not affect his longevity.

Chicago expects 40,000 visitors to attend the Republican national convention. No doubt the average assessment to be levied is already figured out.

ton, called upon her with the shrub and suggested that she take it and plant it. "If it lives," he declared, "you will find it the handsomest thing in your yard, and I do not want to bother to carry it home for it does not seem likely to live." Under those circumstances Mrs. Usilton accepted and planted it, not expecting anything to come from so unpromising a specimen; but it disproved all predictions and became the handsome tree it is now, while the vigorous substitute furnished the original buyer gave up the ghost.

"Bauhinia" is the general name of a species of Caesalpine trees and shrubs widely diffused throughout the tropics, particularly in Brazil and India. It was named for Jean and Gaspard Bauhin, Swiss botanists of the sixteenth century and it belongs to the order of Leguminosae. From the bark of some of the climbing varieties a tough fibre is taken which is employed in making ropes so strong that they are used for suspension bridges. These climbers attain gigantic length and often strangle trees. One of the Indian varieties is called "Mountain Ebony." Another of the Indian varieties bears a pale yellow bloom splashed with red and gave rise to the superstitious idea that it was splashed with blood of St. Thomas. It therefore is known as the "St. Thomas Tree."

If the honor of the nation rests in Democratic hands, as the president says, the case seems hopeless.

President Wilson's grievance seems to lie against the hallucination held by congress that it has something to do with running the government.

It is an odd commentary on the states of the East that the honors as leaders in school systems go to the newer states of the West. Montana standing at the top.

Chicago and New York are engaged in a dispute as to which has the most loafers. However, it is not denied that both have an adequate supply.

REFORMING OUR NUMERALS

In this generation regret is expressed that in previous ages men did not know as much as we. As a result we are bound by customs and laws that could be greatly improved, were not great confusion involved in making the change. For long we have been told that English is improperly spelled and great efforts have been made to introduce reforms in that line. There are those, too, who decry our system of weights and measures and would substitute something more scientific.

Now comes a complaint about our system of numerals and regret is expressed that the Hindus, who are credited with originating our system, did not have six fingers on each hand for in that event we should have counted by twelves instead of by tens. The objection raised to reckoning by tens lies in that ten is divisible by two and five only while twelve offers far greater facilities in that line. The inability to express one-third definitely in our decimal system is held by the objectors to condemn it as unsatisfactory and that it could have been greatly improved. But the blame rests with nature in providing man with only ten fingers. He made use of the only tools he had for enumeration in primitive times.

Since Sir Isaac Newton's ideas of gravitation have been challenged, we need not be surprised at complaint about anything on which we have relied. Trying to comprehend the suggestion that a couple more numerals should have been slipped in between ten and eleven is likely to cause the brain to wobble like it does in the effort to grasp the Einstein theory. It might be possible greatly to simplify our spelling, it might be in the interest of science to change our system of weights and measures, and under necessity we might stand for both, but we should object, and we believe the concurrence would be well-nigh unanimous, to trying to substitute a system of numerals where twelve would stand substantially for what ten does now. The world has enough troubles without that.

A New York business institution which has prospered for decades without telephone service has at last instituted that convenience, at just about the time nearly everybody else is wildly threatening to throw it out.

The sugar refiner's fear of the department of justice is not so great that it can be noticed. One company has added another cent to the price.

The new president ad interim of Mexico may take comfort for himself in that ad interim presidents thus far have not held the job long enough to be killed.
