PREFACE.

In issuing Volume Ten in the series of Brookline Blue Books, we have every reason to believe they have filled an important place as a necessary book of reference in the many families that annually take it.

We reiterate what we announced a year ago—that we are glad to add to it any matter that will enhance its usefulness to our subscribers. In this number we have published lists of Clergymen and Physicians, in some cases giving the office hours of Physicians where their names appear in the street list.

Our map is enlarged this year to include all of Brighton district.

We return thanks to all who have aided us in the compilation of the book, as well as to our advertisers and subscribers for their orders.

Hoping to issue it promptly next season, and to keep pace with the steady growth of this, the ideal residential suburb of Boston, we remain

Respectfully

EDWARD A. JONES.

Dictionary of United States History.

United States History, less of a mystery
Now to the masses than ever before,
We have a great want supplied, all facts we've simplified,
And to all knowledge we've opened the door.

So simple the chronicle, gaze through a monocle,
But one eye's needed to gather the fact.
Our volume a peer is, and all that we hear is,
The sounds of applause for our genius and tact.

All facts alphabetical, 'tis less enigmatical,
We acknowledge it came with the cleverest thought.
The best book of reference, we say it with deference,
No other book like it has ever been bought.

The man who compiled it, who wrote out, and styled it
In Historic Research has reached the extreme;
A professor of colleges, you'll agree that his knowledge is
By the great masses considered supreme.

We want men to sell it; no one can repel it;
At homes, schools, and colleges sales can be made.
Just write for instructions, our small introductions,
There's more money in it than ever you have made.

AGENTS can make more sales with less talk and less walking with this book than with anything else they ever sold. It appeals to everybody. It is handsome, entertaining, and useful. It is good for every member of the family—useful alike to schoolboy and grandpa. Write for circulars and terms to

The use of the hand stamp for personal communications, as the stamping of a receipt or credit on a bill of account, price list with prices added in writing, matter produced by the type-writer, constitutes the matter first class.

Letters and postal cards can be forwarded from one post office to another without additional prepayment of postage. All other matter can be forwarded at the request of the party addressed, when the postage will be collected on delivery.

2D CLASS.—All newspaper and other periodical publications which are issued at stated intervals, and as frequently as four times a year, from a known office of publication and with a paid list of subscribers. Rate 1 cent per pound, and is for the benefit of publishers and news agents and of dealers only. Publications of this character can be mailed by the public at the rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction; full prepayment of postage compulsory.

3D CLASS.—Books (printed), circulars, labels, photographs, proof sheets, and corrected proof sheets and MS. copy accompanying the same, blank checks, drafts, insurance policies and other legal papers, hand-bills, posters, and all matter of the same general character. Rate, 1 cent for each two ounces or fraction; full prepayment of postage compulsory. Seeds, cuttings, roots, bulbs, etc., may be forwarded in the mails for the United States, with postage prepaid at 3d class rate, but matter of this nature for Canada must be prepaid at 4th class rates. The date of issue, name of the addressed, the name of the sender, may be written on a circular, or the correction of a typographical error, without subjecting it to letter rate. Reproductions from Hectograph, Papyrograph, and Electric Pen may be sent through mails as 3d class matter. The limit of weight of packages of this class is 4 pounds, except in the case of single volumes of a book, to which there is no limit of weight.
