SWORN DEPOSITION (Translation)

Deponent: KAMEYAMA, Koichi

Having first duly sworn an oath as on attached sheet and in accordance with the procedure followed in my country I hereby depose as follows.

AFFIDAVIT OF KOICHI KAMEYAMA

1. I, Koichi Kameyama, am a graduate of the Law Department of the Tokyo Imperial University in 1924 and immediately entered the Home Ministry. Among other positions I held, Chief, Medical Affairs Section, Sanitation Bureau; Governor Fukushima Prefecture; Chief, Sanitation Bureau, Welfare Ministry; Chief, Labor Bureau, Welfare Ministry; Vice Welfare Minister; Secretary of the Opium Committee from September 21, 1932 down to October 15, 1937. I retired from Government service in 1946.

2. The Opium Committee was established by the Opium Committee Organization regulations, Imperial Ordinance No. 38, March 31,

1931. It was merely a consultant organ. That is the committee was under the supervision of the Home Minister, and later the Welfare Minister, and was authorized to investigate and consider important matter relating to opium and narcotics in response to the request of the ministries concerned. It would also make recommendations to ministries concerned about those matters. According to the organization regulations the Home Minister and later the Welfare Minister became the chairman of the Committee while its members, the total of which did not exceed 30, were appointed by the Cabinet on the recommendation of the Home Minister and later the Welfare Minister from among the high Civil Service Officials of the different Government offices concerned. It was the custom for the Vice Minister of the respective Ministries concerned to sit on the Committee. Accordingly, when Mr. KAYA was appointed Vice Minister of Finance on February 2, 1937, he was thereupon appointed to the Opium Committee on March 1, 1937.

3. The principal objective of including the Finance Ministry among the Government officials concerned and appointing the Vice Finance Minister to the Committee was to insure the cooperation of the Customs House, which was under the control of the Finance Ministry, in preventing smuggling trade in opium and narcotics.

Def. Doc. No. 2057

On June 4, 1937 when Mr. KAYA became the Finance Minister, Mr. Sataro Ishiwata became the new Vice Minister and there upon was appointed to the Opium Committee. And though no Government notice terminating Mr. KAYA's membership on the Committee was served upon him, it was understood as matter of course that leaving the position of Vice Minister his membership on the Committee automatically ended.

4. The Opium Committee held its 9th session at the Home Ministry on November 30, 1936 and its 10th session at the Home Ministry's official residence on June 15, 1937. Thus there was no session of the Committee during Mr. KAYA's term of office as a member of this Committee, and there was no recommendation made by the Committee to the Home Minister during this period of time.

On this 18 day of Aug., 1947,
