

INDEX TO VOL. 3.

A

- Abbadie, 221
- Abbots, presbyter, of early Irish church, 258
- Abbreviations used in ancient writings, 200, 201
- Abernethy, round tower of, 24
- Abercorn, earl of, 73 n
- Aboyle, abbey of, 40
- Achill, parish, 305; sound, 305
- Aclair, Sir Robert, 130 n
- Aedh, son of Ruadhri Ua Cananain, 5
- Ængus, the Culdee, 110 n, 112
- Æthicus, Cosmography of, 80
- Affane, battle at, 50
- Aglish (Ecclesia), 23
- Aidan, 112
- Aileach, 2 n
- Ailleán, 112
- Airghialla, hostages of, 5
- Algerine pirates, 164
- Allix, 223
- Almanzor, battle of, 64
- Alpha, 78, 84, 323
- Alphabet, the Irish, names of its letters correspond with those of trees, 151; had originally only sixteen letters, 152; ancient order of the letters in, 152
- Alphabetic writing may have been used in Ireland although neighbouring countries did not possess it, 151; if not practised in Ireland three thousand years ago the Irish Annals must be fabrications, 150
- Altars, 253
- Anchorites in Round Towers, 23
- Andover, 61
- Animals, mode of butchering, 119 n
- Answers to Queries, 255
- Antiquarian Notes and Queries, 76, 163, 253, 322
- Antiquities, Irish 117; various, found near Belfast on the land of Mr. Lewson, 127
- Andros, pillar-tower in island of, 29
- Anglo-Normans, 6
- Annagh, castle of, 8
- Annaly, captain of, 41
- Antrim, 5 n, 6 n; county, 73 n, 127, 131; curious district in, described, 79
- Antrim, round tower of, 15 16, n; pinnacle-st one of, 15; section of 15
- Antwerp, early trade of Ireland with, 186
- Apis of the Egyptians, 11
- Archbishops of Armagh, not heard of for 600 years after death of St. Patrick, 258; were really Abbots of Armagh, 258
- Archers, Irish, compared with English and Scottish, 357
- Ardmore, round tower of, 24, 28
- Ard-righ, 47, 48
- Ards, the, 38, 45, 92, 96, 134, 301; why so called, 46; granted to Sir James Hamilton, 74 n; pacified, 130 n; grant of, 133
- Argyle, Countess of, taken prisoner by O'Neill, 48
- Arlington earl of, 61, 62, 63, 65
- Armagh, county 1, 5, 76; church of, 106; archbishop of, 70 n, 96; church of, freed from the exactions of the O'Neills, 93; early history of the Primacy of, 237
- Armour used by the Irish, 344
- Armoy, ancient name of, 161 n
- Arrow, the Irish and Scottish, how differing, 357
- Arrow-heads, flint, 20, 127, 128
- Ashbeg (Episcopus) 23
- Assuroo (Eas Ruadh), 39
- Astronomer, the, one of the household of an Irish chief, 124
- Astronomy, 124
- Ath, meaning of the word, 304
- Athlone, 40, 44; poursuivant, 51; bridge of, 41
- Attainder of Shane O'Neill, 135 n
- Aughrim, 64, 66
- Avonmore, Lord, lands reclaimed by him from Belfast Bay, 303; purchases Ballymacarrett, 310; his opinion regarding Belfast ford, 311
- Aylward, Piers, 99
- Ayrshire, settlers from, 68 n

B

Bachall Mura, 49.

Badajoz, 64.

Badges, distinctive, not used by Irish clans, 206

Baedan, 3 n

Bagenal, Sir Nicholas, 45; his lordships, 38; his lands, 105; excepted from O'Neill's claims, 92; owned Newry, &c. 46

Bagenal, Marshal, his description of Ulster, 46

Bainbrigge, General, his map of Belfast, 313, 314

Baking not practised in old Irish households, 123

Ballemanelisbery, 111

Balli-betagh, 121

Ballyaly castle, 82, 124

Ballyboley mountain, 79

Ballycorr parish, 79

Ballyculcallagy, 308

Ballyeaston, 79

Ballylesson church, 113

Ballymacarrett, no ancient roads in, 302; covered formerly with wood, 302; church, 315

Ballynahinch, picture of the battle of, 81

Ballynehatty, 360 n

Ballysadare, 305

Ballyshannon, 39

Bangor, 301

Banks, Lady, 81

Bann, river, 4, 6 n, 7, 75, 95; fisheries of the, in 1260, 162

Banner-men, hereditary, 206

Ban-tierna, 121, 122

Barbour's "Bruce," 282; gives an account of the siege of Carrickfergus, 282

Bards, 124, 125

Bard or Senachie's field, 118

Baron, Jacob, 71 n

Baronage, 59

Baronet, title of, as originally used, 58

Baronies, 121, 122

Barons, Irish, 57

Barons' wars, 123

Barrow river, 62, 65; forests near, 66

Barry, Gerald, 25; viscount, 42

Battle-axe, unique stone, description of, 234; or Sparthe, 47; Danish, 47

Battery Bridge, 79, 80

- Baucher, 220
 Bayeux tapestry, form of helmets in, 53
 Beacons, 205
 Beal-feirste (see Belfast)
 Bec Boriche, 112; his twelve sons, 112
 Beckley church, Oxon. round tower at, 28 n
 Bedford, earl of, 72 n
 Beer, price of, in the time of Edward I. 183
 Beer's Bridge, 315
 Bees, Keeper of the, formerly an officer in an Irish household, 125
 Bel, or Beal, examples of the word as a prefix to Atha, 305
 Beladrite (mouth of the ford of the bridge), 63
 Belfarsad (Belfast) in the County Mayo, 305
 Belfast, Meeting of British Association at, 53; introduction of printing in, 76; Cromwell's siege of, 83; old castles surrounding, 83; old chapelries, burying-grounds, and abbeys near, 84; great feast given in the castle of, by O'Neill, 90; garrison at, 93; English defeated at, 104; affray of Conn O'Neill's people near, 134; reminiscences of, 260; its old castle, 260; ramparts, 260; gates, 261; market-house, 262; church, 262; quays, 263; custom-house, 264; a bare site in 1575, 341; in 1603, 121
 Belfast, the Ford of, its site investigated, 246 n; its true position, 300; first reference to the locality, 301; known as "The Fords," 301; battle at, 301; streets leading to a ford, 302; the long bridge of, 302, 303; various maps and surveys of, 302, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 312, 313; derivation of the name, 304; maps in the State Paper Office having the words Farsat fluvius, 304, 305; old Long Bridge, 304; map published in Rapin's history and its alterations traced, 305, 306; repairs of the castle, 307, 308; Dr. Reeves, his notices of the Ford, 308; old ford, when removed, 309; its construction, 309; general statements respecting, 314
 Belfast, some antiquities found near, 127
 Belfast, Lord, viceroy of Ireland, 87; his speech relative to Sidney, 87
 Belfries, 26
 Bel Grient, 223
 Bell, H. 81
 Bell of St. Patrick's Will, 7 n
 Bells, ancient, 24; of monastery in Holy Land, 25
 Bellaquair, 220
 Belleek Castle, 40
 Benburb, 122
 Benn, Mr. 303, 304
 Bennet, a courtier of Charles II. 61; created earl of Arlington, 61; obtains grant of Portarlington, &c. 61
 Berkeley, earl of, 64
 Berwick, Mr. on the Ford of Belfast, 311, 312, 313
 Beta, 80, 83
 Bethencourt, 220
 Bible, printed at Belfast, 76
 Bibles furnished to certain churches, 130 n
 Billionard, 223
 Black rent, 38, 46
 Blackstaff river, 303, 304, 305, 314; changes in its course, 303, 304, 313; bridge over, 307
 Blackwater, 91
 Blanket manufacture, 192
 Blaris, the four towns of, 111; parish, 112
 Blarney manor, 52; castle, 52
 Blathewyk, 158
 Bleau's Chart of Belfast, 312
 Blosgaidh, 6 n
 Blow, James, printer in Belfast, 76
 Blunt, Sir Christopher, 72 n
 Boats used by the Irish, diversity in the form of, 323
 Body-guard, of Shane O'Neill, 126; of Tyrone, 126
 Bog of Allen, 65
 Bogs, formation of, 11, 12
 Boleyn, Mary, 49
 Bonaght, custom of, abolished, 87
 Bonneval, 220
 Book of Armagh, 7 n, 110 n, 112
 Book of Lecan, 9
 Book of Ballymote, 9
 Book of Leinster, 9, 12
 Borrowes, Sir Erasmus, D, 56, 213
 Bourkes, family of, 36; revolt of, 36
 Boyd, Mr. 303; Colonel David, 134
 Boyer, 223
 Boyne, river, 10, 11, 66; battle of the, 64
 Brabant, 500 families brought to Ireland from, 191
 Bradwardine, baron, 45
 Braidstane, laird of, 73 n, 74 n, 130, 132
 Brannockstown, 63
 Braose, William, lord of Brecknock and lord Dumas, 58
 Brassard, 223
 Bratach (a banner), 49
 Brazen spears, 20
 Breas, son of Elatan, 9
 Breasagh, townland of, 53
 Brehon laws, 1, 52; respecting Round Towers, 15 n
 Brehon rental-roll, 121
 Breny O'Reilly (district), 94
 Brewing not practised in old Irish households, 123
 Brian-tang, the name of a waterfall, 323
 Bridges in Ireland, earliest notice of, 254
 British Association, 31, 53
 Broussard, 222
 Browne, Sir Nicholas, his Discourse concerning Munster, 52
 Bruce, Robert, 77; Edward, in Carrickfergus, 279
 Buddha worship, 21
 Bunn-gall (a tribute), 51
 Burgh, Sir William, 356
 Burghley, lord, 72 n, 73 n
 Burgo, William de, post-mortem Inquisition on, 301
 Bull called the Donn Cualgne, supposed to have been a deity like the Apis of the Egyptians, 11
 Burial ceremonies, 117
 Burleigh, lord, 50, 52, 72 n
 Burnt-hill, legend of, 163
 Busthills, ancient name of, 161 n
 Butler, lord, 33; Sir Edmund, 97, 337, 338, 346, 354; revolt of, 36; indicted for taking Coigny and Livery, 87; Sir Theobald, 98
 Butlers and Geraldines unite in rebellion, 98, 109
 Butlers of Ireland, their loyalty, 49
 Butter, exportation of, prohibited, 191
 Buttevant, origin of the name, 355
 Buying, meaning of the term, 105
 Bysset, lord, 46

C

C. A. 322
 Cabal, the, 61
 Caillard, 220
 Cairbre Liffchair, 12, 13
 Cairn, 20; on Scraba mountain, opening of, 315; discovery of Danish coins within it, 315, 320
 Cairns, numerous in Ulster, 317; in Scotland, 317; in some parts of Scandinavia, 318; always contain relics of the dead, 318
 Cairnlochan, townland of, gold

- ornaments found there, 294; cromlech, 294
- Calais lost by Queen Mary, 85
- Campion, the Jesuit, 124
- Canon of Patrick, 7; supposed to be the "Book of Armagh," 7 n
- Canons Regular, 4
- Cantle, meaning of the word, 323
- Capel, the Huguenot smith, 66
- Carbery, 40, 50, 51, 94
- Carcase, division of the, among servants, 118, 119, 120
- Caregfergus (See Carrickfergus)
- Carew, Sir Peter, 336; takes forcible possession of Idrone, 90; sent to quell insurrection in Munster, 98; Sir George, 52; lords of, 52, 90; in Pembrokehire, 52; murder of lord, 52
- Carlingford, 30; lordship of, 92; lough, 5 n
- Carlow, county, 56, 90, 93; wasted by Butler, 97
- Carnmoney, 80
- Carrianiagh, rock of, 301
- Carrickfergus, 38, 93, 95, 130, 131, 301; water-mill and castle of, 38; injured by Essex, 96; questioning walling, 96; market in, 96; county formed, 96; its early trade with Scotland, 131; fortifying of, 277; its castle remarkable as the scene of several historic events, 280; its siege by Bruce, 282; plan of, tempore Elizabeth, 276; mentioned in Barbour's "Bruce," 282
- Carrick-na-Belfarsad, 305
- Carrigaline castle, 355
- Carruthers, Mr. 123, 249, 321, 323
- Carty, Charles, 52
- Carver, the, 125
- Casan Line, 294
- Cashel, King of, 3; rock of, 58
- Cassington, in Meath, 51
- Cassiterides, the, 178
- Castle, siege of a, 349; of Bundoyses, 40
- Castle Chichester, 83
- Castle Combe, 83
- Castlereagh, 83, 112, 113, 113 n, 130, 132, 315
- Castle Robin, 83
- Castles, built by the Irish, 8; of the O'Cañan's, 8; of O'Donnell, 8; of O'Neill, 8; of O'Dogherty, 8; examples of, defended by ladies, 81
- Castle Upton, 83
- Cattle, prices of, 95; prohibition of their exportation, 190; 30,000 head of, contributed by the Irish to relieve the sufferers after the fire of London, 190, 191
- Cavan, county, 76
- Cave-hill, the, near Belfast, its ancient name, 324
- Caves, artificial, described, 79
- Ceallagh, son of Bec, 112; clan of, 112
- Ceann-cinè, meaning of the term, 125
- Ceanfaeladh, chief of Ciannachta, 3 n
- Cecil, 51, 85
- Cell, in Round Tower at Trummery, 298; remains found in, 298; charred grain found in, 298
- Cess, 35
- Chamber, sepulchral, discovery of, 358; its probable epoch, 362, 363
- Chamber, subterranean, 127
- Chamber-door-keeper, or Groom, 126
- Chambers, the name, anglicised from De Camera, 156 n
- Champernoun, Sir Arthur, 38; John, 38
- Champlorier, 223
- Chapelized, linen trade established at, 191
- Charente, 66
- Charles I. 61, 62; his Commission to the Irish insurgents, 77
- Charles II. 61, 63, 64
- Charles III. of Spain, 64
- Cheapsyde, 72 n
- Cheese, exportation of, prohibited, 191
- Chester, Constable of, 57
- Chevenix, 223
- Chichester, Sir Arthur, 73 n; deputy, 311; family, 300
- Chief, in Irish, 2
- Chieftains, Irish, their warlike habits, 118
- Church of the Seven, 78
- Church-lands of Ulster, 106
- Cian, of the Cashel, 2; gives name to the Ciannachta, 3
- Ciannachta, 1, 1 n, 2, 3, 3 n; originally held by the O'Connors, 2; derivation of the name, 3; reference to, in Four Masters, 3 n; taniist of, 3 n; transferred from O'Conor to O'Cañan, 4; its boundaries, 4; its religious foundations, 4; wasted, 7
- Cillen, of Achadhcaill, 112
- Cinel-Binnigh, 6
- Cinel-Conaill, 5, 5 n
- Cinel-Eanda, defeat of, 6
- Cinel-Eoghain, 1, 2, 4, 5; invades Ulidia, 5, 6, 7
- Cinel-Moen (the O'Gormelys), 6
- Clambridge, 48
- Clancare, earl of, 50, 98
- Clan Carthy, 51
- Clan Ceallagh (Clan Kelly), of Drumbo, 112
- Clandeboy, 46, 92, 96, 130 n, 134, 301, 302, 303, 308; forfeited, 135; granted to Sir James Hamilton, 74 n; garrisoned by Sidney, 93; lord, 71, 89; viscount, 74, 75 n, 133 n; seneschal of, 91; lords of, subject to O'Neill, 38
- Clandermot, 111
- Clan-Hugh-Boy (Clandeboy), their pedigree, 45; captain of, receives tribute from Lecale, 46
- Clanmalier, lord of, 59, 60, 60 n
- Clan-Maolughra (see Clanmalier)
- Clan Maurice, 52
- Clanrickard, 36, 44, 126
- Clans, 61
- Clansmen constructed buildings for the chiefs, 126
- Clarke, George J. Esq. of Steeple, 32
- Clarendon, Lord Chancellor, 61
- Claraibh, meaning of, 122
- Cloch-ancoire, 24
- Cloch-grennan, 109
- Cloch-grynan, 98
- Clones Tower, old map showing, 29
- Cloneygown, 65
- Clonmacnoise, abbot of, 23
- Clonmel, 49, 99
- Clontarf, battle of, 23
- Cloyne, Tower of, 28
- Cluan Ferta (Clontarf), 84
- Cluain-I, church of, 7
- Cluny, 7
- Cobham, lord of, 71, 72, n
- Coffins, stone, 364
- Coigne and Livery, 97
- Coigny, 121; abolished, 87, 88
- Coin found in Drumbo round tower, 116
- Coins, hoard of, 163
- Coins, Danish, discovered in a cairn on Scraba mountain, 318, 320; English, found at Cave-hill and at Carrickfergus, 323
- Coirthe (a pillar-stone), 10, 11, 12
- Coirthe, townland, 11; its probable derivation, 11
- Coleraine, 75; anciently Coulrath, 161 n; barony of, 5; liberty of, 5; salmon-leap of, 7
- Collier, captain, 98
- Collinson, Peter, 24, 25
- Collum Bovis (Drumbo), 110 n
- Colum-kille, legend of, 79; chapel of, 7
- Comber, 112, 130 n
- Commerce, Irish, history of, 177
- Common Prayer, 130 n
- Conall Gulban, 5 n

Conang, son of Flann, 3 n
 Conchobhar Mac Nessa, 9, 12
 Concobar, son of Bec, 112
 Concord, singular mode of producing, 251
 Condon, 42
 Congal Claen, 292; his pillar-stone, 292, 293, 294
 Conghalach, 3 n
 Conical top of round towers, how formed, 15
 Connaught, 40, 41, 44, 48, 87, 91, 94, 98; Meidhbh, queen of, 11; chief bard of, 125
 Connilogh, 50
 Cou's Water (river), 302, 303
 Contractions used in ancient writings, 200, 201
 Conway, Sir Foulke, his flourishing estate in the North of Ireland, 215
 Coolkenaght, 5
 Cooltoodera, 62, 65
 Copeland Isles, their ancient name, 179; the old rendezvous of the Scandinavian traders, 179
 Cork, 42, 49, 51, 73 n, 99
 Cornwall, ancient sepulchres in, 114
 Courcy, baron, 42; lord, 124
 Cowle, lordship of, 92
 Cows, great booty of, 5, 6, 7; given in payment of fines, 156, 157, 158
 Craebh, lord of the, 3
 Cran dordain (a kind of chant), 11
 Cranmore, 78
 Cranocks of meal, 157, 160, 161, 162
 Craobh Tulca (Creeve Tully), 112
 Creeve, 4, 5, 6
 Cromlechs, 20, 253
 Crommelin, Mr. 197
 Cromwell, Oliver, 58; was he ever in Ulster? 251; his siege of Belfast, 83; his proceedings in Ulster, 322; banishes Ulstermen to West Indies, 83
 Cronan, 5 n
 Cross, on round tower of Antrim, 32; on a pillar-stone, 293 n
 Crosses on the top of round towers, 15
 Cruim-ghleann (see Crumlin)
 Cruithni (Picts), 3 n
 Crumlin, 111, 111 n
 Cuailgne, the cantred of, 11
 Cuaille-Ciannacht, 5
 Cuchulainn, 10, 11, 12
 Cuffe, Mrs. Elizabeth, 82
 Cuil-an-tuaisceirt, 5
 Cuil-rathen (see Coleraine)
 Culdee, 112
 Cumin, 110, n; abbot of Drumbo, 112
 Curiosus, 84

Curlews, mountains of the, 48
 Curlue mountains, 40, 48
 Cursing, Gaelic, 117
 Cusack, Sir Thomas, of Cassington, 51; Lord Chancellor, 46, 51
 Cusake, second baron of the Exchequer, 44
 Custom-houses, 63
 Custom house duties of the various Irish ports in 1669, 192
 Customs of the Gael, 117
 Cyclopean works, 20
 Cythnos, round tower in the Greek island of, 29

---

D

Dachna, son of Concobar, 112
 Dalaradia, 110, 111; plundered by De Courcy, 6
 Dalboyne, 110, 111
 Dal Fiatach, 112
 Dal m-Buinne (portion of Buinn), 111
 Dalrieda, its position, 6 n
 Dalvanic, (see Dalboyne)
 Dancing, Gaelic, 117
 Danes, caused a change in the habits of the Irish, 20; as Christians became connected with England, 30; their cruelty after taking Dunamase, 56
 Dangan, 65, n
 Daor-gradha, meaning of the word, 126
 Darassus, 120
 Darg river, 39
 D'Aunis, 220, 221
 Davells, Sir Henry, his assassination, 126
 Davies, Sir John, 50; his opinion of Sidney's government, 86; unpublished letter of, 167
 De Albin, Ph. 57
 Dealbh, son of Elatan, 9
 De Belcastel, 223
 De Bures, 220
 De Burgh, Walter, 288 n
 De Campo, 251
 Decapitation previous to burial, sometimes practised among the Irish, 360 n
 De Castelfrance, 223
 De Choisy, 220
 De Courcy, Sir John, 6, 46; seizes Downpatrick, &c., 6; defeated, 6; flies to Dublin, 6; colonizes Lendale, 46
 Decyphering of ancient writings, rules for, 200, 201

De Dailion, 224
 Deer, red, plentiful in the woods of Ireland, 278
 De Labat, 223
 De Lacy, Hugo, 7
 De la Goupillere, 221
 De Largere, 223
 De La Salle, 223
 De Marisco, G. Judiciary of Ireland, 57
 De Massue, General, 63, 64
 Denham, Margaret, 69 n
 De Neville, King John's chamberlain, 57
 Denmark, 47
 D'Eppe, 220, 221
 De Quincey, Robert, 59, 61; constable, his death, 60; Earl of Winchester, 60 n; banner of, 61
 Derby, Margaret, countess of, 81
 Derg-bruach, church, 7
 Derinilla, 112
 Dermot, king, 58
 De Rouvigny, Marquis, 63; obtains a grant of Portarlinton, 63; his life, 64
 Derry, 1, 3 n, 7; abbey of, converted into a fort, 39, 48; fort of, 41, 91; bulding of its walls, &c., 87; its importance to the English, 101
 De Schelandre, 221
 Desies, baron, 356
 Desmond, 36, 42, 47, 94, 95, 97; revolt of, 36, 86; his arrest, 43; appointed seneschal, 43, 44; complaint against, by Ormond, 42; O'Neill's letter to, 45; Garret, earl of, 49; his feud with Ormond, 49; earl of, sent prisoner to London, 50, 95; his character, 50; his vast estates, 50; Sir John of, 51; fifteenth earl of, 51; Maurice of, 96; called Attotane, 96, 108; James of, 96; Sir John, different versions of his confinement given by Gaelic annalists, 108; earl Thomas, murder of, 108; his medical ollav, 124
 De St. Germain de Lus, 223
 Des Voceux, 220
 Des Vories, 220
 Devenish, round tower of, 16 n, 18, 26
 Devereux, W. B., 71 n
 De Vignoles, Colonel Charles, purchases Portarlinton, 63
 De Virazel, 223
 Dieuil, De Mensura Orbis, 80
 Digby, Lord George, 61
 Dillon, Sir Lucas, 348
 Dingle, 63

Dingle-i-couch, 63
 Dirgebroe, grange of, 7
 Distributor or butler, an office in an old Irish household, 125
 Doagh, 79
 Doctors, hereditary, of Gaelic clans, 124
 Documents, original, illustrative of Irish history, 165, 167
 Dog, variety of the, called Glen-wherry coley, 254
 Domestic, Gaelic, 117
 Donaghadee church, 130 n
 Donagh-an-Dodyn, a page, 126
 Donegall, county, 1, 5 n, 6 n, 73 n, 130; friars of, their praise of Sidney, 87; lord, 30; Arthur, earl of, changes the course of Blackstaff river, 304
 Donegore, 79
 Donnchadh Ua Conchobhair, 3 n
 Donnchadh Ua Goaiach, 3 n
 Donn Cualgne, an extraordinary bull so called, 10, 11
 Donnchuan, son of Conghalach, 3 n
 Donnell, King of Ireland, 292
 Doonough, 65
 Door-keeper of Irish chieftains, 125
 Door-way of round towers, 16 n, 26, 113, 250
 Down, county, 5 n, 53, 75 n, 112, 131, 301; Taylor's map of, 81; achedaconry of, 111, 112; diocese of, 112; see of, 111
 Downeagh (now Duneight), 111, 112
 Downpatrick, 5, 112; seized by De Courcy, 6
 Dress, national, of the Irish, 207
 Dreydath (Drogheda), 41
 Drogheda, 41; relieved by Lady Mary Sidney, 48
 Dromana, 50
 Druidism, 13; its supposed connection with Oghams, 13
 Druids, 21
 Druids' altars, 79
 Druiin-bo, see Drumbo
 Drumachose, parish, 7
 Drumbo, rectory and vicarage, 111; abbey, 112; if founded by St. Patrick, 112; abbot of, 110 n; meeting-house of, 113; churchyard of, now in possession of the Presbyterians, 113; battle of, 112
 Drumbo, round tower of, 110, 110 n, 111, 112, 113; notice of, by Harris, 113; by Dubourdieu, 113; its dimensions, 113; human remains found in, 114, 115; corn found in, 116; lime floor in, 116; door-way of, 113, 250; drawing of, by Mr. Murphy, 113; by Dr. Petrie, 113

Drumboe, see Drumbo
 Drum Bridge, near Belfast, 111
 Drumlane, round tower of, 18, 24, 24 n; peculiarity in its construction, 27
 Dubhrod, 3 n
 Dubh-Regles Columbkille, 4
 Dublin, 12, 35, 40, 73 n, 97, 301; ancient metes and bounds of, 57; colonized by Bristol merchants, 180; early shipping trade of, 181; castle, 93, 106; cathedral, abuses in, 241
 Dubourdieu, his maps of Belfast erroneous, 306, 307; his sketch of Trummery round tower, 294, 295; his notice of Drumbo tower, 113, 114
 Du Cambon, regiment of, 65
 Ducasse, 220
 Ducat of gold, double, 51
 Du Clos, 223
 Dudley, Lord Robert, 33
 Dufferin, lord, 112, 302
 Duffrey, 59
 Duffryn, the, 92
 Duibh-Regles, 8
 Duirtheach, meaning of, 30
 D'Uilly, 221, 226
 Dumas, lord, 58
 Dumboe, parish, 3 n
 Dun (or Downpatrick), 5
 Dunamase, rock of, 56, 58; taken by Danes, 56; castle, 58; King John's order to Pembroke for its surrender, 57; handed over to Walleran, the German, 58; subsequently held by the O'Mores, 58; destroyed, 58
 Dunboe, 6 n
 Dunboyne, 98
 Dun Ceithirn (now the Giant's Scence), 3 n
 Dundalk, 11, 45
 Dundesert, 111
 Dundrum, 45, 112, 112 n
 Dungal, son of Scannal, 3 n
 Dungannon, 41, 122; barony of, conferred on Mathew Kelly, 46; baron of, 92, 93, 94
 Dungeny parish, 3; priory, 4; church, 4; monument of O'Chahan in church of, 265
 Dungarvan, 42
 Dunhened, Nicholas de, seneschal of Ulster, 155
 Dunlop, in Cunningham (Scotland), 69
 Dun Mac Neachtain, 10, 11
 Dunmurry, 127
 Dunseverick castle, 8
 Dunsinane, 126

Dunskey castle, 130 n
 Dunum, of Ptolemy, 56
 Du Petit Boss, 220
 Durand, 223

E

Earth-works, described, 79; of old and new worlds similar, 20
 Eas-Craoibhe, 7
 Easterling merchants, 180; of Wexford, 180
 Ecclesiastical theory of round towers, 23, 25
 Echri Ua Maelmuire, 3 n
 Edirsgel (O'Driscol), clan of, 112
 Edmondstone, Archibald, of Braidenisland (County Antrim), 75 n
 Edward, VI., 33, 34, 90; prince, 33
 E. G., 77, 83, 164, 253
 Eirionnach, 323
 Elatan, his three sons, 9
 Elizabeth, queen, 8, 34, 47, 94; Ireland during reign of, 33; her neglect of Sidney, 37; how served by Sidney, 38; her slight hold of Ulster, 38; endeavours to pacify Ormond and Desmond, 50; her reception of Sidney and Irish chiefs, 83; sanctions Essex in his tyrannical proposals for colonizing Ulster, 89; her last illness, 74 n, 129
 Enagh, castle of, 8
 Enderwick (in Scotland), 76
 England, name of, hateful to the Irish, 45
 English, invasion, 5; soldiers, 35; government tries to detach sub-chiefs from their lords, 45; pale, 94, 96; the, of Meath and Leinster, 7; of the time of Chaucer, 118; betrayed by their Irish wives, 35; settlers at Portarlinton, 62; gentlemen in Clandeboy, 92
 Englishmen settling in Ireland, 38; in the service of Shane O'Neill, as cannoners, 47
 Ennagh, castle of, 8
 Ennishowen, see Inis-Eoghain
 Enniskillen, 122
 Enochory, 112
 Eochaidh, 3 n
 Eoghán, 1; ten sons of, 2; More, 52
 Episcopacy, diocesan, not introduced into Ireland till the 12th century, 257
 Erasmus, St., his chapel, 73 n
 Erigena, 77

Essex, 88, 89, 93; earl of, 90, 96; his disappointments in Ireland, 89; his rebellion, notice of by James Hamilton, 71 n; charge of attempt to murder, 71 n; proclaimed traitor, 72; banished to England by Sidney, 88; his proposal for colonizing the north of Ireland, 89; his truce with O'Neill, 126

Essex and Clanrickard, countess of, 33

Ethnology of the ancient Irish, 115

Eva, wife of Strongbow, 51

Evans, T. Waller Eyre, 252, 255, 323, 324

Evelyn, author of the Sylva, 64

Exchequer accounts of Ulster, ancient, 155

Exhibition of Irish Antiquities at Belfast, 31, 53, 128

Exports of Ireland, detailed list of, 168, 194

—

F

Fagel, General, 64

Falfeloagh, 301

Farney, captain of, 38, 45

Fastnesses described, 345

Fata Morgana, 254

Faughan-vale parish, 5, 7

Fearana Craeibhe (men of Creeve), 5

Ferceirtne, his grammar, 9

Fergus, 164, 250, 323

Fermanagh county, 5 n

Ferns, 59

Fersaid or Fersat, meaning of the word, 301, 304, 305, 314

Fersaid Fluvius, 304, 305

Fersat, see Fersaid

Feudalism, how it differed from Tanistry, 48

Feudal tenure, a claim made by an Irish chief under, 51

Fidh Neimhedh, improperly translated, 22

Fiery Cross, an ancient mode of rapidly communicating intelligence, 205

Finglas, Patrick, chief baron of the Exchequer, 50

Finn, 13, 13 n

Fire, marks of, on round tower of Drumbo, 113

Fire-temples, 21, 22

Fir-Li, 3, 6

Fish bartered for wine, 187

Fisheries, Spanish, on the north coast of Ireland, 186

Fitzgerald, 50, 62

Fitz-James, Thomas, 97

Fitzmaurice, baron of Lexnaw, 52; Gerald, 58; Patrick, 94, 107; James, 49, 96, 98, 108, 356; his rebellion, 95

Fitzpatrick, Sir Barnaby, 98, 339, 353

Fitzsimon, Jenkin, of Lecale, commander of Tyrone's body-guard, 126

Fitzwalter, lord, see earl of Sussex

Fitzwilliam, Lord Justice, 89; Sir William, 93

Flann, 3 n

Flemish trading settlements in Ireland, 182

Fleurus, 64

Florist's Club established in Dublin, by Huguenots, 67

Folkestone, 57

Fontaine, 227

Food of the Irish, 197

Ford of Belfast, its position investigated, 246 n; 300, 304; explanation of term, 304; when it commenced, 310; when removed, 309, 310; cost of removal, 309 n

Fords, ancient, how constructed, 305; Dr. O'Donovan on, 305

Forests, ancient, 61

Fortifications, near Newry, 343; those called "fastnesses," 345

Fort William, 253

Foster-brothers, Irish, their fidelity, 47

Fournier, 220

Foyle, river, 4, 7; lough, 39, 41

France, reformed church of, 64; aid of, to Irish insurgents, 85; trade of, to Carrickfergus, 96

Franklein, 118

Free-masonry, if known among the native Gael, 324

Freer's Stone, 83

French settlers in Ireland, 56, 213; chateau, 226, 251; trading settlements in Ireland, 182; privateer, reception of a, on the north coast of Ireland, 232

Friar's Bush, 84

Frieze, Irish woollen, 181, 192, 197

Fruits, cultivation of, by Huguenot settlers at Portarlington, 216

Fullerton, James, 71 n, 73 n, 133, 133 n; where buried, 73 n

Fynn, river, 39; castle, 93

—

G

Gabhra, battle of, 12

Gaelic, Domestic, 117; home-life, 122

Galloglach, derivation of the term, 47, 125

Galloglass, 41; engraved figures of, 47; their arms, 47; true origin of, 47; the three "grand captains" of, 47, 39

Galway, 44; lord, 64, 65; his regiment, 65; leases granted by, 66; his autograph, 67

Garmoyne, 254

Garonne, 66

Garran Bane, an outlaw, 40, 48

Garristown, 12

Garter, Order of the, 35

Gautier, the Huguenot carpenter, 66

Gautier, 222

Gavelkind, law of, 1, 51, 87

G. B., 175, 264

Geas (a solemn engagement), 10

Geashill, castle, 57, 58

George I., 130 n

Geraldines, 52 n; of Munster, 50; of Kildare, 52; a rebellious race, 49; and Butlers, union of, 98, 109

Gerard, lord chancellor, 50

Getty, Edmund, 300

G. H., 250

Ghost-stories of the seventeenth century, Down and Antrim, 325

Giants' Causeway, 8

Giant's Grave, 79; the name applied to a large cairn on Scraba mountain, 319

Giant's Ring, the, 84, 113, 359, 363; its epoch quite unknown, 363

Giant's Scence, the, 3 n

Gibson, James, his collection of Antiquities in the Belfast Museum, 53

Gilbert, Sir Humphrey, 356

Gilla-Aenghus, 5

Gilla-Easbuig Eoghán Ua h-Ain-niaraidh, 3 n

Gillet, 180

Gilly-cosh, 124

Giolla-gradha, meaning of, 126

Giraldus Cambrensis, on round towers, 14; his account of De Courcy's defeat, 6

Glanquill, 124

Glenarm, garrison in, 93

Glenavy, 110

Glenshane, 4

Glenwhirry, river, 79

Glinne-geimhin, 1, 1 n

Glynns, the, 46, 92, 95, 96; Scots of the, 46; garrisoned by Sidney, 93

Goach, son of Dubhrod, 3 n

Goban Saer, 20, 255, 256

Godwin, Mr., C. E., 292, 299
 Goghe, John, the Limerick Schoolmaster, 47; his map of Ireland, 47
 Gold, quantity of, in Ireland, 178, 179, 186; ornaments, 294
 Gospel of St. Martin, 6, 6 n
 Grace, Oliver, 49; Piers, 49
 Grammar of Ceanfaeladh, the Learned, 9
 Gransha, townland of, 7
 Grattan, Mr., of Belfast, 31, 292
 Graves, Captain Thomas, R. N., 20; on Greek Towers, 29, 30
 Great Britain, its coasts peopled from Denmark and Norway, 47
 Greatrakes, Valentine, the empiric, 326
 Greek round towers, resemble Irish, 29; were places of defence, 30
 Greencastle, 83, 92
 Greenwich, 46
 Gregg, Mr. Robert, 25
 Granville, Sir R., introduces an English colony into Cork county, 49
 Grey, lord Leonard, 46, 47; makes treaties with Irish chiefs, 46; excerpts O'Neill, 46; attempts to reduce O'Neill, 46
 Grey Abbey, 130 n, 136
 Gub, meaning of the word, 305
 Gub-na-farsada, 305
 Guerin, 223
 Guillon, 222
 Guiot, 220

H

Halsall, Sir Gilbert, 288
 Hamilton MSS. 68, 129, 236, 300, 306
 Hamilton, patent, 137, 301; maps, 302, 303; grants, 133, 134
 Hamilton, Hans, of Dunlop, 68; ducal family of, 69; Thomas, of Raploch, 69 n; John, 70, 76; William, 70, 76; Patrick, 70, 76; Archibald, 70, 75; Gawin, 70, 75; James, 70, 136; becomes a schoolmaster in Dublin, in the service of James I, 70, 71 n; stationed in London, 71; is messenger announcing queen's death, 71; letter of Deputy Chichester respecting, 311; at an advanced age raises the Scots in the North of Ireland, 71 n; knighted by James I, 73; obtains forfeited lands, 74 n, 133; copy of his will, 24; Sir Hugh, obtains further grants, 133
 Hamilton's Bawn, 76
 Hamon, 223
 Hand of O'Neill, an oath, 42
 Hare, Irish, distinct from the English, 185 n
 Harmer, Rev. Thomas, his notices of round towers, 25
 Harp, 124
 Harpers, 125
 Harrington, Sir Henry, 125; Sir John, his visit to Tyrone, 126
 Harris, on round towers, 24; his County of Down, 382
 Hearts of Oak, the, 84
 Hebrides, customs of the, 118; ancient Kings of, according to Solinus, 121
 Helmet, ancient, 53, 54; of sheet brass, 53; at Goodrich Court, 54; in the Tower, 54
 Helmet, temp. Henry III Edward I. Edward II. Edward III. Richard II. 54; temp. William I William Rufus, Richard I. Cromwell, 53; conical, on Bayeux tapestry, 53
 Henchman, 125
 Henry II. 14, 58 59
 Henry IV. 52
 Henry VIII. 33, 46, 48, 123
 Heron, Sir Nicholas, 41, 47
 Hertford, lord, 111, 295
 Hewsen, colonel, 58
 Hibernia, 9
 Hides, price of, 96; bartered for luxuries by the Irish, 123
 Highland chief, his retinue, 118
 Highlanders, customs of the, 118
 Hillsborough, 111
 Himilco's voyage, 178
 Hollow sword-blade Company purchases lands in Ireland, 218, 219
 Holywood (Co. Down), 75, 301, 302; monastery of, 254
 Homage, nature of, 48
 Horsemen the chief strength of the Irish army, 344
 Horse-shoe, badge of the, 57
 Horsey, Sir Edward, 38; capt. William, 93
 Hostages, when given, 47
 Hostings, 48
 Houses, castellated, 278
 Hovenden, Henry, 126
 H. P. 78, 81, 84, 163, 250, 253
 Huguenot, refugees, their sufferings, 227, 228, regiments in the service of William III. settled at Portarlinton, 65; officers, 56; colony at Portarlinton, 56, 63; its refinement, 66; houses, general character of, 66; tradesmen imitated the style of the French chateaux, 66; settlers, plants introduced by, 66, 67; token of recognition, 231

Human remains found in the round tower of Drumbo, 114
 Hume, A., 253
 Huntingdon earl of, 37
 Hut, old Irish, circular in form, 277
 Hy Faige, 60 n
 Hy Tuirtre, 6
 Hythe church, round tower of, 15

I

Iar Connaught, officers of its chiefs, 124
 Idh niadhachais, or ring of chivalry, 10
 Idrone, 90
 Inauguration, of O'Donnell, 106; tree, 112
 Inis-Eanaigh, 5
 Inis-Eoghain, 1, 3 n
 Inniscorthy fair, 97, 109
 Inquisition, post mortem, on William de Burgo, 301
 Inscriptions, copying of, 163
 Insheny, see Inis-Eanaigh
 Ireland, joint sovereigns of, 3 n; state of society in, before English invasion, 5; early use of letters in, 9; Elatan, king of, 9; worship of the Bull in, 11; Sir Henry Sidney's government of, 33, 85; secret history of Anglo-Irish in, 33; distracted and impoverished state of, 35; state of, on the arrival of Sidney, 36; its state compared with that of Wales, 36; ancient map of, 47; its coasts peopled from Denmark or Norway, 47; land of, did not belong to the chiefs, 48; governed by two leading factions, 49; Anglo-Norman poem on the conquest of, 58; French settlers in, 56; Marshals of, 56; Judiciary of, 57; vice-royalty of, 85; proposal to divide, into shire-ground, 86; early colonists of, proofs that they came from the South, 151
 Irish chiefs, their wars, 2, 5; linked to the crown by peerages, 46; surrender and take out English titles, 94; revenues of, 121; hospitality of, 123; halls of, 122; sometimes espoused English ladies, 123
 Irish, their hatred of England, 45; northern, aided by the Scots, 46; tributary claims, their effects, 45; lords, their great state in London, 47; incursions into Scotland, 24; desirous to have Sidney as governor, 95; constructed fastnesses in artificial islands, 54; soldiers of Shane O'Neill, 39

 Irish church, its state at the time of the Norman invasion, 31
 Irish Ethnology, 115
 Irish language spoken by the earls of Ormond and Thomond, 352; words, error respecting the meaning of, 22; and Sanscrit, affinities of, 22; names, pronunciation of, 1 n; terms of rank, 2
 Island-Sidney, in Lough Neagh, 92; garrisoned by the English, 93
 Isles, lords of the, 46
 Islemen, 47
 Ith, plain of, 6 n

J

James I., 8, 70, 73 n, 111, 129; proclaimed, 72, 74 n, 129; his emissaries in Dublin, 71 n; employs James Hamilton to write to the Irish in his favour, 70; settlement of Ulster in his reign, 127; creates a new chapter for see of Down, 112; money-rent unknown in his time in the Highlands of Scotland, and in Ireland, 120
 James II., 63
 Jaqueau, 220
 Javelins of the Irish, 357
 Jobson's map of Ireland, 112
 John, King, 14, 58; his grant of Leinster, 46; laconic mandate from, 57; his progress through Ireland, 301; his itinerary in the North, 280; at Carrickfergus, 280
 Jordan's-town, 163
 Jersey, colonists brought from, 191

K

Kaer (Cahir) lord of, 98
 Kadshaw, lord of, 69 n
 Kavanaghs, clan of the, 90; country of the, 98; injured by Butler, 97
 Keeper of the Bees, an office, 125
 Keeps, or places of strength, 26
 Kelly, 112
 Kenaght, wood of, 5
 Kernetty, custom of, abolished, 87
 Kerry, 35, 52, 63, 73; lord of the Liberty of, 50; palatine of, 50, 52; baron of, imprisoned and starved to death, 52
 Kerrycurrihy, barony of, 49

Kilbride, 79
 Kilcurely, parish, 11
 Kildare, 35, 56, 60, 63, 73, 97; earls of, 45, 46, 92; lady, 124; house of, 123; prior of, put to death by Danes, 56; round tower of, 26
 Killfeacle, manor of, 49
 Kilkenny, county, 56, 73 n, 87, 88, 98; town, 98; castle, 98; abbey, 7
 Killala, 305
 Killeney, lough, helmet found in, 53
 Killeslin church, 26
 Killinchy, 122
 Killultagh, 96, 134, 301
 Killylane, 80
 Killyleagh castle, in 1625, 144; in 1855, 149
 Kilmakee, antiquities found at, 127
 Kilmallock, 42, 43, 50, 51, 95
 Kilmainham, 42
 Kilmore, 130 n
 Kilsanctan castle, 7
 Kilsantal, see Kilsanctan
 Kilshielan, manor of, 49
 Kilwarlin, 96
 Kincl-Owen, 1 n
 Kinelarty, 112
 Kineth, building of the round tower of, in 1015, 23
 King, title of, in Irish, 2
 King, Rev. Robert, 257
 King's bridge, in Ballymacarrett, 312
 King's County, 61
 Kinnegar, the, 254
 Kinsale, 124
 Kist-vaens, 253
 Knife-blade of stone, 127
 Knights Templars, 84, 159, 255; earliest settlement of, in Ulster, 255
 Knives of flint, 127, 128
 Knock, the, 302
 Knock-an-Garrane-bane, 48
 Knockfergus bay, 294, 301, 302
 Knolles, Sir William, 71 n
 Knollys, secretary, 88

L

Laborde, the Huguenot mason, 66
 La Brousse, 223
 La Cailllemotte, regiment of, 65
 Lacy, bishop of Limerick, 42
 Lagan, river, 111, 128, 294, 301, 302, 304, 305, 314; where it terminates, 301; its fords, 314
 La Grange, 223
 Lain-fear-gradha, meaning of the term, 126
 Lambeg, ford of, 314

Lambeth library, poem on the Conquest of Ireland in, 58
 La Melloniere, regiment of, 65, 66
 Lance of the Ulster horsemen peculiar, 357
 Lansdowne, marquis of, his ancestors, 52
 Lannabhaich, see Glenavy
 Lanyon, Charles, Esq., C. E., 32
 La Serre, 223
 Laval, 221, 226
 Law, English, effects of its introduction in Ireland, 1
 Law, Brehon, see Brehon
 Lawrence, colonel, superintends Linen manufacture, 129; his notions on political economy, 193
 Lea, see Leix
 Lea, castle of, 62; village of, 65
 Leacht, 13
 Leake, colonel, on Greek towers, 29
 Leases not granted by Irish chiefs, 87
 Le Blanc, 221
 Lecale, 38, 46, 112
 Leeds castle in Kent, 49
 Le Fèvre, 223
 Legends, old, 323
 Leicester, earl of, 33, 46, 89
 Leigh, Francis, 63
 Leinster, 5, 60, 61; Irish clans of, 35; King of, 9; his residence at Dunamase, 56; grant of, by King John, 56; constableness of, 59; standard and banner of, 59
 Leith Chuinn, 6
 Leith Mogha, 6 n
 Leix, Anglo-Norman fortress of, 56, 57, 58
 Le Maignan, 220
 Letters, Irish, by some supposed to be Roman, 159; ancient order of, 152; names of, 151
 Lexnawe, 42, 52, 94
 Lia, 13
 Liffey, see Lifford
 Lifford, 6 n, 45, 93
 Lighton, Sir Thomas, 38
 Lim-a-vady, castle of, described, 8
 Lime floor in round tower of Drumbo, 114, 115
 Limerick, 42, 43, 48, 51
 Linen, first notice of, 184, 185; different kinds of, 198, manufacture, 84, 197; encouraged by Duke of Ormond, 191; Acts for encouragement of, 198; Hinc's engravings of the processes of its manufacture, 81
 Lios (a habitation), 11, 12
 Lios-an-Dein, 11
 Lisbon, 64

Lisburn, castle of, 83; rural deanery of, 111
 Litton, Sir Edward, lord president of Connaught and Thomond, 98
 Lixnaw, see Leanaue
 Llewelyn, 92
 Loch Laogh, 294
 Lochlainn, son of Maelachlainn, 3 n
 Logia, 294
 Londonderry, county, 5, 6 n; instructions for distributing bounty after the siege of, 165
 Longford, county, 41; rent of land in, 41
 Lords of the Isles, 46
 Lough Foyle, 2 n, see also Foyle
 Lough Kirr, 49
 Lough Lean, 50
 Lough Neagh, proposal to have an armed vessel on, 48; an island in, called Sidney, a stronghold of the O'Neills, 92
 Lough Swilly, 2 n, 41
 Lough Strangford, 234
 Louis XIV. 64
 Louth, 5, 11, 38, 46
 Luchd-tighe, meaning of, 126
 Ludlow castle, 36
 Lughaidh, of Drumbo, 112
 Luighbe, 110 n
 Lusignan, signor, 25
 Luxembourg, marshal, 64
 Lymeryke, see Limerick
 Lynn family, 6 n

—

M

Mac, 84
 Mac Adam, Robert, 235, 299, 320
 Mac Auley, 98
 Mac Beag (Cuehullin), 10, 11
 Mac Beha, Rotheric, son of Melmura, a physician, 124
 Mac Beth, 47, 126
 Mac Cartan, 38, 46
 Mac Cartan's country, grant of, 4, 5
 Mac Carte, Sir Dermot, 51
 Mac Carthy More, 36, 47, 50, 125
 Mac Carthy, Sir Dermot Mac Teige of Muskery, 51; called the Mac-Carthy More, 51; knighted by Lord Sussex, 51; Sir Donogh, captain of Carbery, 50; the "brown," 50; Florence, 50; Cormac Oge, of Muskery, 51; desires to be made a baron, 51; claims under a feudal tenure and not by Gavelkind or Tanistry, 51; his large possessions, 52; Teige Mac Owen, 52
 Mac Carthy family, 50, 51, 52

Mac Carty Reaghe, 42, 50
 Mac Cart's fort, 234
 Mac Conald (Mac Donald), Donald gorm, 46
 Mac Conall, James, 34
 Mac Connell, Alexander Oge, 135
 Mac Clusky, 6 n
 Mac Dermott's country, 40
 Mac Donald, Sir Donald, 119
 Mac Donald's bard, 118
 Mac Donnell, 47, 131; Alastair Oge, 91, 93, 100
 Mac Donogh, 40, 98
 Mac Dowell, John, of Gartland, 134
 Mac Duff, 136
 Mac Duinnsleibhe, 5, 6
 Mac Firis, the genealogist, 1, 3 n
 Mac Gennys, see Magennis
 Mac Gilla-Epscoip (Mac Gillespie), 5
 Mac Gilla-Patrick, 46; Brian Oge, 33
 Mac Granylles, 40
 Mac Guire, 38, 39, 46, 93, see also Maguire
 Mac Gwillins, 95
 Mac Gwillin's country or the Route, 92, 105; called from the Welsh name Llewelyn, 92
 Mac Ivor, Fergus, 45
 Mac Kaig, 3, probable derivation of the name, 3, 4
 Mac Kan, 93
 Mac Lachlain, Domhnall, his incursion into Ulidia, 6; Ardgall, 7; the, 7
 Mac Lean, 48
 Mac Lochlainn, Niall, invades Ulidia, 5
 Mac Mahon, 38, 45
 Mac Maolcroly, 126
 Mac Maurice, 52
 Mac Murchaidh, Dearnuid, 9
 Mac Murrugh, King of Leinster, 9, 55, 56; representation of, with a conical helmet, 55
 Mac Namee, hereditary bard of the O'Neills, 8
 Mac Oglach, 125
 Mac Quillan, see Mac Gwillin and Mac Uidhlin
 Mac Roigh, Fergus, 111
 Mac Stephen, 81
 Mac Shane Oge's country, 301
 Mac Swyne, derivation of the name, 47; Mr., of Coll, 47
 Mac Swynes, of Fanat, 47; captains of Galloglass, 39; of Banogh, 39, 47; of ne Toch (na d-tuath), 39, 47
 Mac Swyny, see Mac Swynes
 Mac Teague, Sir Dermot, 42
 Mac Thaidhg, 4

Mac Uidhlin (Mac Quillan), feuds between this clan and the O'Kancs, 268
 Mac William, 46
 Mac William Bourke, clergy maintained by him, 123
 Machaire Chonaill, 11
 Madrid, 64
 Maelachlainn, 3 n
 Maelduin, 3 n
 Maelithrigh, 3 n
 Magaithe, Mahon, 8
 Magennis, 38, 46, 96
 Magh-comair, see Muckmore
 Maghera, 301
 Magheralin, 294
 Magheramesk, parish, 292 n
 Magh-Itha, 3 n
 Magh-Rath, see Moira
 Magic, 124
 Magnus, the Dane, his tomb, 84
 Magochigan, Ros, 94
 Maguire, banished by O'Neill, 47; his mensal lands, 121, 122
 Malbie, captain, 45, 93, 98; Sir Nicholas, 40
 Malone, 301
 Man, Isle of, 96
 Manuscripts, the Hamilton, 68, 129; the Montgomery, 68, 129
 Maor (a steward), 126
 Maor-mor of Lennox, 136
 Map of Belfast, Kennedy's, 307; Dubourdieu's, 306; Benn's, 307; Rapin's, 313; in the Water Commissioners' office, 313 n; General Bainbrige's, 313; in the office of Lord Donegall, 314, 314 n
 Map of the Fords of Belfast taken from the maps of the Hamilton estate, 314
 Maps, relating to Ireland, catalogue of, 272; Irish, scarcity of old, 302
 Marr, earl of, 71 n
 Marriage customs, 117
 Marsaglia, battle of, 65
 Marsh, primate, 64
 Marshall, 99, 125; office of, 57; Seal of, 57; William, 56, 58; Eva, 58; Isabel, daughter of Strongbow, 56
 Maryborough, 62
 Master of the feast, 125
 Maundeville, Henry de, 160
 Mawkie, the word, 255
 Mayo, county, 305
 May-poles, 84, 164
 Mc [For names beginning with Mc see Mac]
 Mead, 125
 Measures, Irish, why they differ from the English, 323
 Meath, 35, 45; bishop of, 70 n, 96

Medaib, meaning of the word, 125
 Medicine, 124
 Medicines for Cromwell's troops, 163
 Meidhbh (Maeve), queen of Connaught, 11
 Melville, Andrew, 71 n
 Mercier, 223
 Micheau, 222
 Michel, 58
 Middlesex, 62
 Midoil, meaning of the word, 125
 Miffaut, 220
 Miles, a "knight" not a "soldier," 6
 Millen, William, 80
 Misset (Bisset), barons, 46, 92, 105
 Mochumna, of Drumbo, 112
 Moira, 5, 292; rath near, 294; battle of, 292, 293 n; ford of, 314
 Monaigh (Moira?), 5, 5 n
 Monaghan, 45
 Monasterevan, 59, 65
 Monellan, now Hamilton's Bawn, 76
 Money rent unknown in time of James I., in Ireland and parts of Scotland, 120
 Monmouth, original letter of, 322
 Monterlony mountains, 4
 Montgomery, MSS., 68, 74 n, 129; pedigree, 129 n; George, dean of Norwich, 73 n; Hugh, laird of Braidstane, 73 n, 74 n; grants to, 74 n; Sir Hugh, 132, 130, 137; nature of his services to Con O'Neill, 135; his purchase from Con O'Neill, 135; brings in colonists, 13; Thomas, 131; Sir Cuthbert, 137; Patrick, 132; viscount, 130 n
 Morris, Captain Edmund, 63
 Mortimer, lord Roger, 58
 Mounds, earthen, different species of, 254
 Mount Athos, 25
 Mountain, the Black, near Belfast, 324
 Mounteagle, lord, 72 n, 73 n
 Mountgarret, viscount, 98
 Mount Pottinger, 314, 315
 Mount Sandall, 7
 Mouth, the word, as a termination of the names of places, 304, 305
 Movilla, 136
 Moy-Itne, 6
 MSS., the Hamilton, 68, 129; the Montgomery, 68, 129
 Muckmore, 111
 Muirheartach, son of Niall, 3 n
 Murchadh Glunillar, 3 n
 Munster, 35, 42, 52, 87, 91, 94, 95, 98; king of, 3 n, 5 n; president of, 44, 49; Commissioners in, 44; origin of rebellion in, 97

Muran, of Fahan, 112
 Murne (Mourne), lordship of, 92
 Muskerry, 42, 51, 52
 Muskrige, see Muskerry
 Musteroun, meaning of, 126

N

Names, derivation of, 84
 Naxos, round tower in island of, 29
 Neat, the English word for a cow, its uncertain derivation, 11
 Necromancy, 124
 Neillans, the hereditary physicians of the O'Briens, 124
 Nerwinell, battle of, 64
 Newry, 45, 92, 301
 Newtownards, 130 n
 Niall, the great, 1, 5 n; of the Nine Hostages, 1; his ancestors monarchs of Ireland as early as the Christian era, 1
 Nicholas, Pope, 110
 Norden's map of Ireland, 112, 301
 Norman conquest, 17
 Northmen, their trading voyages to Ireland, 179; their battle-axes, 47
 Norway, 47
 Notes and Queries, antiquarian, 76, 322

O

Oat-meal, price of, in the time of Edward I., 182
 O'Boyle, subject to O'Donnell, 38
 O'Braislén, Raghall, 6
 O'Braoin, Donebad, 23
 O'Brien, 124; revolt of, 36; prince of Thomond, 123
 O'Bryn, 40
 O'Cahan, 1 n, 3 n, 4, 93; sept of, 1, 265; high origin of, 1; Raghall, 3, 6; Giolla-Criosd, 6; Eachmarcach, 6; Ferghall, 7; Donchadh, 6; Blosgaidh, 6; attacks Derry, 7; of Craeibh, his death, 5; of Ciannachta, invaded by De Courcy, 6; Magnus, 266; Cu moighe, or Coeey, 265; called Coeey na Gall, 265; his monument and effigy, 265
 O'Cahans, more than one family of, 8; subject to the O'Loughlins and O'Neills, 2; description of, in O'Dugan's poem, 2; family of, important till the confiscation of Ulster, 3; religious endowments

by the, 4; their burial-place, 4; their chieftain attainted, 269; their feuds with the McQuillans, 268
 O'Carroll, Elie, 94; Sir William, brought to court by Sidney, 85
 O'Cathain, see O'Cahan
 Occupations by the Irish population at the close of the seventeenth century, 196
 O'Chane, see O'Cahan
 O'Connor, 3 n, 4, 126; Sligo, 40, 94; of Offaly, 122; Dun, 40; Roe, 40; of Connaught, attacks English in Downpatrick, 8; Rory, 5; Sir Donald, 85
 O'Conor, Dr., his errors respecting round towers, 22
 O'Dachna, 112
 O'Daly, John, on Ogham inscriptions, 9
 O'Daly, archbishop, 50
 O'Dempsey, family, 58, 60; Dermot, 59, 60; Conbrogda, 59, 60 n, 61, 62
 O'Dogherty, 38, 130, 131
 O'Donnell, 45, 93; his castles, 38; chiefs subject to him, 38; Callogh, 39, 93; Hugh, 39, 40, 93; his rent-charge, 40; his country, 41; Calvagh, 48; his letter to Leicester, 46; Con, 88, 93
 O'Donnell, inauguration of, 106; entrapped by Sir John Perrot, 187
 O'Donnellys, 43; the foster-brothers of O'Neill, 47
 O'Donnsliebhe, 5, 5 n
 O'Donovan, Dr., 22, 23 n
 O'Dowde, 40
 O'Doyne, his revenue, 121
 O'Dugan, 4; historian of the O'Kellys, 1, 2
 O'Duvegan, 61
 O'Farrell, 41
 Offaly, 60; chieftainship of, 59, 60 n; governor of, 65 n
 O'Flaherty, his establishment, 125
 O'Flannigan, 40
 O'Flynn, 40; Cumigh, 6; defeats De Courcy, 6
 O'Gallochare, subject to O'Donnell, 38
 Ogham inscriptions, 10, 11, 13; antiquity of, 9; references to, in Book of Ballymote, 9; in the Tain Bo Cuaigne, 9; proofs of their antiquity, 12; of their existence previous to Christianity, 12; Ossianic poem quoted respecting, 12; on the stone of Cairbre Liffechair, 12
 Ogma, 9

O'Gormely, 6
 O'Hanlon, 38, 46
 O'Hara, 40; his admiration of the English, 40
 O'Henery, 3 n, 4
 O'h-Eochadha (O'Haughey) 5, 5 n
 Oireachta, meaning of the word, 265
 Oir-righ, 47
 O'Kane, see O'Canan
 O'Keefe, 98
 O'Kelly, 1, 40
 O'Laughlin, Donald, 6; Muircheartach, or Moriarty, 5, 6; Niall, 5
 O'Laughlins, their rank, 2
 Oldcastle, 355
 Olderfleet castle, notices of, 77
 Ollamh Fodhla, 84, 324
 Ollioll l'um, King of Cashel, 2
 O'Lynn, 6 n
 O'Maddyn, 40
 Omagh, river, 39
 Omath (O'meath), 92
 O'More, 61, 125; revolt of, 36; Laighseach, fortress erected by him, 56; Lysach, captain in Leix, 58; recovers Dunamase, &c., from the English, 58
 O'Neill, 2, 46, 91, 118, 131; the, a high title, 46, 92; his household, 122; had the dignity of king, 2; sworn by the "Bachall Mura," 49; hand of, an oath, 49; the whole sept of, attainted of treason, 135; his lands, 196; the Great, 85; cost of subduing, 86
 O'Neill, Con, 83, 130 n, 131; his territory, 74 n; anecdote of, 121; affray of his people near Belfast, 121, 130, 131; his imprisonment, 130; his escape, 131, 132; description of his reception by his people, 134; makes a grant to Hamilton, 134; pardoned, 134; obtains re-grant of Castlereagh, 137; his imperfect title, 135, 136; included in attainder of his sept, 135; his lands planted with English and Scotch, 137; conveys his lands to Sir Hugh Montgomery, 244 n
 O'Neill, Shane, 36, 38, 41, 42, 45, 85, 86, 91, 92, 94; his forces, 39, 45, 47; account of, given by an English pirate, 47; his body-guard, 126; his manner of life, 48; had spies amongst the English, 48; his plate and jewels secured on an island, 92; his castles, 45; his territory as extensive as Kent, 46; could not write his own name, 46; his rebellion, 135; proceedings of Lord Leonard against, 46; repairs to the English court to do homage, 46; resumes chieftaincy over the Uriaghs, 45; wishes to become earl of Ulster, 46; his letter to Desmond, 45; his death, and events connected with it, 102, 107; destroys his own castles, 47; his strongholds in lakes, 47; his cannon and ammunition, how obtained, 48

 O'Neill, Turlogh Lenogh, 47, 86, 89, 92, 95, 102, 353; complains of being watched, 48; chosen "the O'Neill," by the people, 92; his possessions limited by Sidney, 92; his wife an able counsellor, 353
 O'Neill, Sir Felim, 77; Mac Brien Ertagh, lord of Upper Clandeboy, 45; Brian Catha Duin, 156 n; Brien Fertagh, 135; Con Bacagh, 45, 46; Con More, 46; Conan More, 45; Henry, 46; Turlogh Brasylogh, obtains Clanbrassayl, 93; Ferdoragh, baron of Dunganon, sometimes called Matthew Kelly, elder brother of Shane, 103; French John, anecdote of, 164; Brian, 88, 89, 90, 342; expelled from the Ards, 45; Hugh, earl of Tyrone, submits to Deputy Chichester, 135; brought to court by Sidney, 85; Shane-an-Diomais, 85
 O'Quin, 93
 Orange, the term, 252; its origin, 252
 Orchards, scarce, 5
 O'Reilly, John, 94
 Oriol, 5
 Ormond, 47, 50, 90, 91, 93, 354; house of, 36, 98, 123; earl of, 33, 42, 49, 85, 87, 88; feuds of, with Desmond, 50; annoys Sidney, 94; duke of, 62; palatinate of, 35; lady, marries Desmond, 49; Maugeen, countess of, 122
 O'Rourke, 40
 O'Shaghnesse, 44; his luxurious entertainments, 123
 Ossianic Society, 10
 Ossory, lord, 62
 Ostmen, their battle-axes, 47
 O'Sullivan, 355; More, 98; Bere, 47, 98
 Outlaws, Irish, their haunts, 48; a band of, called "old evil children," 48
 Owen, see Eoghan
 Owen-O'Cork, river, 302
 Owen-varra (Blackstaff) river, 303, 304, 305, 308, 313, 314
 Oxford, 61

P

Pagan origin of Irish round towers, 15
 Palatinate, of Ormond, 35, of Tipperary, 50, 337; of Kerry, 50, 53
 Pale, the English, 33, 41, 45, 91, 98
 Palls, the word, 279
 Palls, 253
 Paros, round tower in island of, 29
 Parr, Dr. 71 n
 Patent Rolls of Ireland, 73 n
 Paul's, St. 72 n
 Peghs, 79
 Pelissier, 224
 Pembroke, earl of, 56; grants to him from King John, 56; corporations erected by, 56; monastic establishments founded by, 56; order to him from King John for the delivery of Dunamase castle, 57; his exploits in France, 57; his death and tomb, 57
 Penmanship of ancient writings, 199; more beautiful and durable than that of the present day, 199
 Perrot, Sir John, 63, 352, 356; deputy, his agreement with the Scots, 46
 Persian language, 22
 Petrie, Dr. on Round Towers, 14, 15, 15 n, 16, 16 n, 17, 18, 21, 22, 23 n, 26, 29, 30; his refutation of Dr. O'Conor, 22
 Peyton, defeated, 7; plunders Derry &c. 7
 Phenicians, 177, 178
 Phallic emblems, 21
 Phettilplace, Thomas, an English pirate taken by O'Neill, 47, 48; his account of Shane O'Neill, 47, 48
 Philip V. of Spain, 64
 Philipstown, 65
 Physician of an Irish Chief, 125
 Pictet, 22
 Picts, 301
 Piedmont, 64, 65
 Piers, captain, 91, 93; sends O'Neill's head to Sidney, pickled in a pickin, 91
 Pillar-stone, 20; of Congal Claen, 292, 293
 Pinkerton, William, 177, 306 n, 325
 Pirates, Algerine, 164
 Piton, Rotsel, see Peyton
 Plants introduced by Huguenots, list of, 67
 Ploughing by the horse's tail, 254
 Ponsset, 220
 Poore, Anthony, 99
 Portarlinton, 57, 58, 62; grant of

by Charles II., 61; by King William, 63; Huguenot colony at, 56, 213; its difficulties, 217; its petition to Government, 218; Register of, 219; French ministers of, 220; early history of the district, 56; Baron, 64

Port Kille, in Innishowen, 79

Port Montgomery (Port Patrick), 130 n

Portmahinche, 62; the original name of Portarlinton, 62; barony of, 62

Portpatrick, 130 n

Portrush, ancient name of, 161 n

Postal communication, early, between Scotland and Ireland, 254

Pottinger, family, 310; their estate and its limits, 310; disputes respecting, 310

Powder-horn, ancient, 175

Power, lord of Curraghmore, 49

Printing, when introduced into Belfast, 76

Probus, 110

Proisy, 221

Pronunciation of Irish names, 1 n

Provisions, prices of, 95

Ptolemy, 294; Dunum of, 56; his description of Ireland, 178

Purse-bearer of an Irish chief, 126

Purt Laghaois (the "fort of Leix"), 62

Pyrghi, or round towers, in some of the Grecian islands, 29

—

Q

Queen's county, 56, 61, 63, 73 n, 97

Queries, 76, 83, 253, 323

—

R

Racraidhe, meaning of, 124

Ragged staff, the cognizance of the Sidneys, 42, 49, 354

Raleigh, Sir Walter, 71 n, 72

Ramharry, 254

Randalstown, 6 n

Randle, colonel, 39, 41

Rapin, map of Belfast said to be given in his History, 305, 306; editions of, enumerated which do not contain a map of Belfast, 306

Raphoe, barony, 6 n

Raploch, 69

Rashee, parish, 79

Rathangan, 122, 123

Rath-Imayn, 122

Rathmesge, see Rathmesk

Rathmesk, parish, 292, 292 n

Rebellion of 1641, 239

Red hand, the, 211, 211 n

Red-shanks in the service of O'Neill, 48

Reeves, Dr. on the Ford of Belfast, 308

Reformation, the, in Ireland, 112, 130 n

Regan, Maurice, 58, 59; his history, 59

Rent, of land rose on the abolition of Coigny and Livery, 88; money, unknown in time of James I. in Ireland, and parts of Scotland, 120

Report of Voluntary Works of Undertakers, 308

Revenues of Irish chiefs, 121

Review of Archæological publication, 257

Reynolds, colonel, 58

Richard I. 61

Richard II. could not reduce certain Irish chiefs, 46; submission of several Irish chiefs to, 120; their retinues, &c. 120

Righ, office of, 125; in Irish, 2

Ringan's point, derivation of the name, 323

Rinrone, 124

Ritch, lord, 72 n

R. M. 84

Robillet, 220

Roche, viscount, 42

Roe, river, 8

Rogan, Mr. 292, 294, 295, 296, 297

Rome, aid of, to Irish insurgents, 85; influence of, extended to Irish church, 31

Roscommon, county, 40, 73 n

Roscrea, round tower of, 28

Rossglass, abbey of, 59,

Round Tower, of Roscrea, 28; of Hythe, in Kent, 15, 27; of Brechin, 17; Devenish, 18; of Ardmore, 24, 28; of Drumlane, 24, 27; of Abernethy, 24; of Timahoe, 26; of Torry, 27; of Cloyne, 28; of Clones, 29; in several Greek islands, 29, 30; of Drumbo, 31, 110; of Antrim, 31; of Trummery, 292

Round Tower, of Ulster, 14 to 32; Irish records referring to, 14; investigation of, how commenced, 14; in Scotland, 14, 17; pagan and Christian theories of, 15, 19, 23; mode of construction of, 15; number of, in Ireland, 17; in Italy, 17; masonry of, 18; windows of, 18; door-ways of, 16 n, 19, 26, 113,

250; eastern origin of, 19, 27; not Pictish or Danish, 24; the Phœnician origin of, 21; in Greek islands, 29, 30; referred to in the Brehon Laws, 30

Route, district called the, 6 n, 46, 92, 95; lords of the, subject to O'Neill, 38; or McQuillan's country, 105

Rouvigny, colonel Caillemotte, 64

Rowan, Archibald Hamilton, of Killyleagh castle, 68

Rundale tenure of land, 254

Russell family, 92

Rutland, earl of, 72 n, 73 n

—

S

Sabbatier, 223, 225

Sacrum Boscum (Holywood), 301

Sailly, 220

Saint Breacan, 4; miracle of, 7

Saint Brendan, miracle of, 6

Saint Caindeeh, 4, 7

Saint Canice, see St. Caindeeh.

Saint Columbkille, 4; miracle of, 7; church of, at Derry, 48

Saint Domangart, 110 n, 112

Saintfield, 53

Saint Kieran, his first church, 84

Saint Leger, Sir Warham, 41, 42, 49, 50, 94; a military adventurer in Ireland, 49; his relation to Queen Elizabeth, 49; introduces an English colony, 49; his lady rescued, 99; Sir Anthony, 46

Saint Malachi of Crumlin, chapel of, 111; cemetery of, 111

Saint Mark's at Venice, campanile of, 17

Saint Martin, Gospel of, 6, 6 n

Saint Mochumma, 110 n, 112

Saint Patrick, 4; miracle of, 6; nephew of St. Martin, 6 n; seven nephews of, 78; did not found Drumbo, 112

Saint Patrick's hand, shrine of, 251

Saints of Ireland, their mothers, 112

Saint Sabba, 25

Saint Symeon Stylites, 23

Salisbury, earl of, 57

Salmon fishery on the Erne river, 187

Salt, ancient references to, 81

Sands, lord, 72 n

Sarsfield, Sir William, mayor of Dublin, 48

Savage, lord, 46, 92; Sir Robert, 46; opposed to building castles, 46; tributary to O'Neill, 46; Sir Rowland, paid "black rent," 46

Savage's castle, 46
 Savoy, duke of, 64
 Scannel, 3 n
 Schomberg, duke of, 64, 65
 Scot, derivation of the name, 357
 Scoti, 9
 Scotici, 47
 Scotland, round towers in, 14, 26;
 Irish incursions into, 24; household officers in, 126; aid of, to Irish rebels, 85
 Scots, 41; of the Glynus, 38, 46;
 Ulster, 34; in Ireland, 91, 92; in the service of Shane O'Neill, 39
 Scraba mountain, opening of a cairn on, 315; discovery of ancient Danish coins there, 315
 Scythians sworn by the chief's hand, 49
 Seal, of Walter Marshal, 57; attached to the commission of Charles I. to Irish rebels, 77
 Second Sight, superstition of the, if known in Ireland, 323
 Senachie, 125
 Seneschal, derivation of the word, 155 n
 Senex, 83, 84, 163, 164, 251, 254, 256, 323
 Sepulchral, chamber, discovery of, 358; its probable epoch, 362, 363; theory of Round Towers, 28
 Serge or Saye, Irish, 181, 182 n
 Seriphos, round tower in the island of, 29, 30
 Service, meaning of the term, 105
 Shane O'Pounty, the purse-bearer of Tyrone, 126
 Shankill church, 80
 Shannon river, 40, 48
 Shiane, now Ballintine, 111
 Shipping of Ireland at the end of seventeenth century, 196
 Shirley, Ev. Ph., 272
 Shirts, linen, 211
 Shoe, superstition of throwing a, for good luck, 254
 Showers, wonderful, 250; of honey, 250
 Shrines, the Three, 7; what supposed to be, 7 n
 Shute, captain, 99
 Sidney, Sir Henry, his Memoir of his government in Ireland, 37, 91, 346; introductory remarks to Memoir, 33, 85, 336; historical notes illustrative of Memoir, 45, 100, 354; personal history of, 33, 34; vice-treasurer of Irish revenue, 34, 35; president of Wales, 34; appointed Lord-Deputy, 34, 35; his high character as a governor, 35; his warm reception in Dublin, 35; state in which he found Ireland, 36; respected by the Irish, 36; his love of learning, 36; his "Miscellanies on the Affairs of Ireland," 36; impoverished by his public services, 37; three times sent as Deputy to Ireland, 38; his losses thereby, 38; his losses by shipwreck, 38; his campaign against Shane O'Neill, 39; his forces, 39; his body-guard, 43; attempts to take O'Neill's fortified islands, 47; takes Irish chiefs to visit Queen Elizabeth, 85; induces Irish chiefs to abandon Tanistry and adopt English tenures, 85; charge of partiality against him, 90; his progress to the North, 91; thwarted in his measure of reform, 94; his proceedings against the insurgents in Munster and Connaught, 98, 99, 346; cause of the animosity between him and Ormond, 336; Lady Frances, 33; Lady Mary, relieves Drogheda, 48; Sir Philip, 33

 Silk dresses much worn in 1682, 193
 Siiken Thomas, 123
 Simon Stylites, 17
 Singing, Gaelic, 117
 Siphnos, round tower in island of, 29, 30
 Six-mile-water, river, 79
 Skeletons found in round towers, 28, 114, 297
 Skulls found in sepulchral chamber, 360, 361; in round towers, 31, 114, 297
 Slane, barons of, 52
 Slaves regularly purchased by the Irish from the Anglo-Saxons, 179, 180
 Slíav Luachra, 50
 Slieve Bloom, 67
 Slieve Croob, 244
 Sligo, county, 5 n, 40, 73 n, 305
 Sliochd (a clan or family), 51
 Slogan, derivation of the word, 204
 Slut (Sliochd) Kellies of Comber and Tullynakill, 112
 Smith, Mr. George, C.E., removed Belfast Ford, 309
 Smith, sheriff of London, 72 n
 Smoking-pipe, found in a cairn, 317, 319
 Smyth, Sir Thomas, grant of lands to, 38; slain by O'Neill of Clandeboboy, 45; his proposal to colonize Ireland, 45
 Soihenelach, meaning of the word, 122

Soldiers, English and Irish, contrasted, 344
 Southampton, earl of, 72 n, 73 n
 Southwark, 49
 Sow, a military engine, described, 82
 Spain, aid of to the Irish, 82
 Spanish, fisheries on the north coast of Ireland, 186; well, in an island of Strangford Lough, 186
 Sparthe (a battle-axe), 47
 Spear-head, remarkable specimen of, 77, 78
 Spencer, Edmund, 88; his account of marvellous usages of the Gael, 117
 Spencer's Bridge, at Moira, 111
 Spencer's Chapel, at Trummery, 296, 297, 299
 Spies among the English, 48
 Staff, the Ragged, the cognizance of the Dudleys, 354
 Stanagomar, 254
 Standard-bearer to the Crown, the hereditary, is the Duke of Wellington, 206
 Staple, Act called the, 184; its provisions, 184
 Star-chamber, 347
 Staves, exports largely from Ireland, 189
 Steinkirk, battle of, 64
 Steward of the Jewels, an office in an Irish chieftain's household, 125
 Stone implements, 234; vast numbers of, found in Ulster, 234
 Stone Period, the so-called, 234
 Stone weapons, 234
 Strabane, 6 n, 122; viscount, 69 n
 Strand-town, 302, 303
 Straumillis castle, 83
 Strongbow, Richard, earl of, 5, 59, 60; possesses Dunamase fortress, 56
 Stuart, royal family of, 125
 Stukely, Thomas, 357
 Suir river, 99
 Suibhne, 3 n
 Sunday, strict observance of, 250
 Superintendent of Banquets, 125
 Surgery, 124
 Surnames, almost unknown in time of Edward I., 183
 Sussex, earl of, 34, 51, 85, 94; his party in Ireland, 49; his journey round Ireland, 123
 Swearing by the chief's hand a Gaelic custom, 49; a Scythian custom, 49

T

T, 81
 Tailor, household, 124

Tain Bo Cuailgne, an ancient Irish composition, 10, 12
 Taisigheacht-allaidh, meaning of, 126
 Tale-teller, Irish, 124
 Tanistry, 46, 51, 52, 87, 123, 135; injurious effects of, 87; not Feudalism, 48; elections by, 108; adopted by the Geraldines, 108; law of, renders it difficult to trace Irish pedigrees, 1; re-distribution of lands under, 1
 Taoiseach (a chief), 2
 Tara, hill of, 48
 Taylor, Jeremy, 329; his residence, 81
 Teige, race of, 2, 3, 4
 Telford, Mr., C.E., 302; on Round Towers, 16
 Temple, meaning of, 23
 Templemore, lord, 300
 Tenants-at-will, 340
 Tenure of land, in Ireland, 341; the kind called Rundale, 254; Scotch and Irish, altered in time of Elizabeth and James, 121
 Thomond, 44, 91, 96; president and council of, 44; earl of, 44, 98, 357
 Thompion, William, late president of the Belfast Natural History and Philosophical Society, 13, 113, 113 n, 114, 116, 185 n
 Tierna (Tighearna) 2, 52, 121
 Tigh-coitchionn, meaning of, 125
 Timahoe, round tower of, 26
 Tin, voyages of the Phœnicians to procure, 178
 Tipperary, county, 35, 73 n, 87, 98, 99; palatinate of, 50, 337
 Tirawley, barony of, 305
 Tirconnell, 93; lord of, 38, 39
 Tirdaglas, abbot of, 56
 Tir-Eoghain, see Tyrone
 Tireragh, 505
 Tir-Keerin, barony of, 3 n, 4
 Tir-muin, meaning of, 124
 Tir-Owen, see Tyrone
 Tobacco, great consumption of, in Ireland, in 1682, 193, 197
 Todd, bishop, 111
 Toiseach-teaghaigh, meaning of, 122
 Tokens, local, issued in Ulster, 172
 Tomaltach, 3 n
 Tombstone of Con O'Neill, 253
 Toome, 6, 6 n
 Torry, island of, 78; round tower of, 16 n; its peculiar construction, 27
 Towers, round, see Round Towers
 Townlands, Irish names of, 251
 Trade, of the North of Ireland, with Dublin, 75; of Coleraine with Glasgow, 75; of Ireland, encouraged by James I., 133

Tralee, 126
 Trant, Sir Patrick, his appointments, 63; his trial, 63; his death, 65; Sir John, asks to be restored to Portarlinton estates, 65; Thomas, 63; James, 63
 Travest, Sir Gh., 72 n
 Tredath, 351
 Tree, inauguration, 112
 Trees give name to letters of Irish alphabet, 151; or rather have been named from Irish letters, 151
 Tremayne, 99
 Tribute, such as rent, service, or other "buying," not to be paid to Turlugh O'Neill, 105
 Trinitarian Brothers of the Redemption, 324
 Trinity College, Dublin, opened, 71 n; Fullerton and Hamilton, the two first Fellows of, 71 n
 Triochas, 2; meaning of the word, 2 n
 Truage, meaning of the term, 108; a right claimed by O'Neill, 95
 Trummery, round tower of, 292; peculiarity in its form, 292, 296, 297; human remains found in, 297, 298; causes of its destruction, 294
 Tuaisceart, lord of, 3 n, see also Twescard
 Tulchan na d-Tailgenn, 293 n
 Tullagh-oge, 6, 7; inauguration-stone at, 6
 Tullamore, 65
 Tullough-na-Dalgen, 293
 Tully-ard, vitrified fort at, 113, 114
 Tullynakill, 112
 Tullyrusk, 110
 Turrus, meaning of the word, in Irish and Latin, 23
 Tuscarr, see Tuaisceart
 Twescard, Exchequer accounts of, in 1260, 160, 160 n
 Twickenham, 64
 Tyrone, 1, 5, 38, 47, 92, 95; earl of, 46, 50, 93, 126; his demesnes, 122; his purse-bearer, 126; his body-guard, 126; earldom of, conferred on O'Neill, 46; forfeited, 135; Tanist of, 92
 Tyrconnell, lords of, 47

U

Ua Cathain, see O' Cahan
 Ua Cein, 3 n
 Ua Conchobhair, see O'Connor
 Ua h-Ainniaraidh (O'Henery), 3 n
 Ua Lachlainn, see O'Laughlin

Ua Maoldoraidh, 7
 Uí Eoghain of the Valley, 3
 Uí Mic Carthinn, 3 n
 Uladh, 5, 5 n
 Uíidia, 112; invasion of, 5, 6; by De Courcy, 6; the English of, 7; king of, 293; his death at Moira, 293
 Uíidians, engagement of, with the Picts, 301
 Ulster, 35, 46, 63, 91, 94; King of, 9, 12, 111; potentate of, 92; Bagnal's description of, 46; state of in time of Con O'Neill, 46; war in, 85; Knight Templars in, 84; May-poles in, 84; church-lands in, 106; invaded by Essex, 88; earl of, 301; ancient helmets found in, 53; when helmets last worn in, 84; Round Towers of, 14 to 32
 Ulster King-at-Arms, 51
 Ulstermen banished to West Indies, 83
 Ulster Visitation, 110, 113
 Ultonians, 11; their disloyalty, 36; indignant at grants to Sir Thomas Smith, 45
 Ultoniensis, 83
 Uraicépt na n-Eigeas (Grammar of the Learned), 9
 Uriaghs (Oir-riagh), 38, 45, 92, 95; of Ulster, their names, 38
 Urns, found in sepulchral chamber, 359; cinerary, found near Belfast, 127; collection of, exhibited in Belfast Museum, 128
 Uryell, county of, 46
 Ussher, Dr. James, 70, 70 n, 71 n; lord primate of Ireland, 70

V

Van Helmont, 326
 Vallancey, General, 21, 22, 84; defence of, 22; his conjectural etymologies, 22; question of his proficiency in Oriental languages, 84
 Varnish for iron Antiques, 83
 Vaughan, Thomas, 92; James, 93
 Vaux, Mr., 29
 Veerhuys (ferry-house) marked on Blaeu's map of Belfast Lough, 311, 312
 Véron, 220
 Victuals used by the Irish, names of, 121
 Vignoles, 220
 Vitrified fort, 113, 114
 Vivefoy, 220
 Voice calling to worship, 24; a Dutch custom, 24; a Welsh custom, 24

W

Wages of Irish Sailors in the time of Edward I., 183
 Wales, its state compared with Ireland, 36 ; president of, 35, 85
 Walleran, the German, 58
 Walsingham, Sir Francis, 33, 37, 89
 War in Ireland, expense of, 342 ; tactics of, 345, 346
 War-cries of Irish septs, 203 ; many of the, now become family-mottos, 212
 Warde, captain, 99
 Warwick, lord of, 99
 Waterford, 42, 48, 73 n, 97, 98 ; manufacture of rugs in, 187 ; mayor of, 99 ; Smith's history of, 23
 Water-mills, 83
 Way, Albert, 176
 Weapons, gavename to different nations, 357 ; of the different Irish provinces, 357
 Weir-man or purveyor of fish, 125 ; his perquisites, 125
 Welsh, Alex. Colville, 292, 293 n, 294
 Welshi, laird of, 69 n
 Westmeath, county, 73 n
 Wexford, county, 56 ; seneschal of, 51
 White, family, 92 ; James, of Waterford, 51 ; Sir Nicholas, master of the Rolls, 51 ; his character, 51
 Whitehouse, castle at, 83
 White Knight, the, 348, 349
 Wilde, Dr., 29 ; his remarks on skull found in Drumbotower, 115 ; reply to, 115
 Wilkinson, Mr., 25 ; his views regarding Irish round towers, 25, 26
 William III., 63, 64, 65 ; his march to the Boyne, 78 ; his grant of Portarlinton, 63
 William the Conqueror, 57
 Winchester, earl of, 60 n ; marquis of, 64 ; bishop of, 67
 Wine, 38 ; prices of, 108, 183 ; imported, 96 ; Spanish and French

used by ancient Irish, 123
 Wolf, curious tale concerning, 48
 Wolster (Ulster) King-at-Arms, 51
 Wolves, 215
 Woollen, cloth, early manufacture of, in Ireland, 180, 181 ; exported to England, 181 ; and elsewhere, 182 ; rugs made in Waterford, 187 ; trade, prohibition of, 198
 Worcester, earl of, 97 ; claims barony of Inchiquin, 109
 Wyse, John, 99

Y

Yarn, Irish, exported largely to Manchester at an early date, 193
 Yelverton, baron, see Acornmore
 York, James, duke of, 61
 Yorkshire colonists, 216
 Youghal, 42, 124