

GEORGE P. CASH,
BILL COLLECTOR,
2429 N. TENTH ST.

Philadelphia, May 4 1894

Supt of Mint
Phila Sir:

Enclosed you will find Statement of Judgment vs John N. McGees, an engineer in the Mint. The Ref. served the Dept. with milk and butter and neglected to pay for the same. The bill came in <sup>my</sup> hands for collection. Dept. disputed a part of bill, but promised payment, which promise he failed to fulfill. He promised me if I would get judgment against him he would pay. The judgment was rendered against him by default, he did not appear; it stands stands valid and unpaid.

It has been an unwritten law in the public departments that employees getting good salaries must pay the bills or quit the service. Will you please call his attention to this rule and request him to return the enclosed statement of judgment to you with my receipt attached?

Supt. of Mint
Phila.

Sir:

Enclosed you will find statements of judgement on John H.M. Glee, an engineer in the Mint. The Reff. send the deft. with milk and butter and neglected to pay for the same. The bill came in my hands for collection. Deft. disputed a part of bill, but promised payment, which promise he failed to fulfill. He promised me if I would get judgement against him he would pay. This judgment was rendered against him by default. He did not appeal; it stands valid and unpaid.

It has been an unwritten law in the public departments that employees getting good salaries must pay the bills or quit the service. Will you please call his attention to this rule and request him to return the enclosed statement of judgement to you with my receipt attached?
