HOW TO SEE NEW YORK CITY AND SURROUNDINGS.

To Strangers visiting the city their first thought is, to what Hotel shall we go. (See Hotel List):

Next what shall we see first. Now if we have plenty of time (say a week), we can spend a day in Central Park, one day in the lower part of the city, visiting Public Buildings and the large Retail Stores. The same length of time to High Bridge, Coney Island, Rockaway Beach, Fort Lee, Staten Island, Prospect Park, Brooklyn, and Brooklyn itself.

To see the city properly we must have a starting point, say City Hall; there we can take Horse Car or Elevated Railroad to any part of the city. We take the Elevated Railroad, East Side, 3rd Avenue, (fare 10 cents). We pass through the great east side thoroughfare, known as the Bowery to East Fourteenth Street; here we find Tammany Hall, Academy of Music, Union Square Theatre.

East Twenty-third Street, Academy of Design.

East Thirty-fourth Street Ferry to Long Island Railroad for Brighton Beach, (Coney Island) and Rockaway.

East Forty-second Street, Grand Central Depot and Grand Union Hotel.

East Fifty-ninth Street, now we get out and visit

CENTRAL PARK.

If in a hurry or only an hour to spare we can take one of the Park Coaches that stand at the gate. (East Fifty-ninth and Fifth Avenue, also West Fifty-ninth and Eighth Avenue) through the Park passing all points of interest. The driver naming them as we pass. (Fare 25 cents; time nearly one hour).

On speaking to the collector when engaging coach, he will give a stop over check, so on our return we will stop at the Museum and Menagerie (generally called the Arsenal; worth while attending;) free to public.

After spending an hour or so there we will take the Elevated Railroad once more for Harlem Bridge. We walk to the other end and we find pretty little steamers for

HIGH BRIDGE.

(The fare 10 cents). Now we have a pleasant sail up the Harlem River passing amateur and professional boat houses. And as we turn the bend we have the best view of High Bridge. We are landed at Kyle's Pier and pass through Kyle's Park to stairs leading to the bridge. Refreshments can be had at any hotel at reasonable rates.

This bridge was built and is used as an aqueduct through which passes all the water used in this great city. On Sunday this place is crowded with visitors.

We will now return to foot of the bridge; on opposite side to that which we went up, we find the Sixth Avenue Elevated Railroad Station, (or N. Y. City & Northern Railroad). This road will take us down the west side of the city.

We change cars at 155th St. (From High Bridge to 155th St., fare 5 cents.)

Then on down town. From 125th St., the grade commences to rise inpreceptibly until at 110th St. The heighth from street to top of the rail 90 feet. From this point one of the finest views can be had; unsurpassed in the country.

On the right can be seen Hudson River and New Jersey Shore, on the left Harlem River, Long Island Sound and part of Long Island.

At W. Eighty-first St. Museum of Natural History.

At West Fifty-ninth Street, Roosevelt Hospital, and Entrance to Central Park.

West Forty-second Street, Grand Central Depot.

West Twenty-third Street, Madison Square, Madison Square Garden, Madison Square Theatre, (No. 4 W. Twenty-fourth Street.) Hoffman, St. James Albermarle, Brunswick and Fifth Avenue Hotels.

West Fourteenth Street, R. H. Macy's Retail Store, Union Square Hotel and Theatre.

At Rector Street, the road ends, so we take the Horse Car, directly under this Station to the Battery, (Fare 3 cents.) The Large Round Building that stands close to the waters edge, is called Castle Garden, here all emigrants are landed and taken care of until their friends or other parties call for them. By asking the Police or Gate-keeper, he will grant the privilege of going inside, (no charge.) Now if we have started early we have time to go to and return before dark. We are near the Iron Steamboat landing and Bay Ridge Line. (Fare—Round-Trip 50 cents.) We take either line, the sail down the bay is delightful, then we land at Bay Ridge, the train is already to take us to Oriental and Manhattan Beach Hotels, directly in front of the Hotel is the Music Stand, (concert every afternoon.) The Bathing Pavilion here is one of the best, with all improvements necessary to the care of valuables and comfort of its patrons.

Now we will take a stroll down the Beach; first we see the Marine R. R., half mile in length, (Fare 5 cents). Next the Brighton Beach Bathing Pavilion and Resturant, further on the Brighton Beach Hotel back of which stand the Fair Grounds. From here we can take a carriage or stage down the concourse (Fare 5 cents, passing Hotels, Resturants, Aquarium, Admission 10 cents.) Observatory, (Admission 15 cents.) To the Great Iron Piers, West Brighton Beach, here we find Theatres and Catch Penny affairs of every description, Railway Depots and Hotels: Vanderveers, Bauers, Thompson, Grand Union, Cables, Sea Beach Palace. Regular Dinners, ($1.00 upwards, including Wine,) can be had at any of the above places.

IRON PIERS.

These vast Structures are used as landings, for Steamboats from New York City and other places. Music and Refreshments day and evening (a small admission is charged)

Further on we find Halls for Dancing, Photograph Galleries, Bathing, Shows of every kind, and Fire Works; in fact an endless round of pleasure day and evening.

NORTON'S POINT

is at the west-end of the Island, here are Hotels, Bath Houses and Pic-nic Grounds, etc., Steamboats direct from New York City, (Fare, Round Trip 25 cents). See daily papers for Time and Pier.

ROCKAWAY BEACH.

To reach this we can take either the Iron Steamboat Line, Pier 1 North River, or all rail from Hunter's Point. Long Island Ferry to Hunter's Point, foot East Thirty-fourth Street, and James Slip, Pier 31 East River. Rockaway Beach is a very fine place; the Surf runs very high; the largest Hotel in the world is here. Entertainment, Music, Dancings, Mechanical Museum, and Side Shows of every description. Fare 50 cents, Round-trip.

FORT LEE.

This is a summer resort opened only a few years, but growing into favor every year. Here close to the landing stands the Fort Lee Park Hotel and buildings open to all. Music, Dancing, Refreshments is the order of the day. Up there on the bluff is a fine view of the Hudson River. There it is always cool, and there we will find those that come for a good time; it is a little Coney Island all to itself. Music, Dancing, Shooting Galleries, Swings and Refreshments at reasonable rates open to public. Take Steamboat at Pier 42 North River. Fare 25 cents round trip.

STATEN ISLAND.

Take Ferry from Battery to New Brighton, Sailors Snug Harbor, (Sailors Home,) Castleton. Port Richmond and Elm Park. This is a delightful ride of twelve miles. Fare, Round-Trip 20 cents.

BROOKLYN.

Take Fulton Ferry for Brooklyn, pay no attention to runners or their noise, they are harmless. If we wish to go to the Navy Yard, (open to public,) Horse Cars stand in front of Ferry House. For Prospect Park, cars on the right. For Tabernacle, (Rev. T. Witt Talmage, Pastor,) cars on the right. For Plymouth Church, (Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Pastor,) cars on the right.

THE ATLANTIC DOCK.

The warehouse business of the city of Brooklyn is a most important interest, and well worthy of examination by the curious. The most important structure connected with this trade is the Atlantic Dock in South Brooklyn, about a mile from South Ferry, on the water front opposite Governor's Island, where twenty acres of stone warehouses inclose a basin of forty-two-and-one-half acres of water, of sufficient depth to allow the largest ships to discharge cargo at their very doors.

BLACKWELL'S ISLAND

Is situated in the East River. Here we find the city Penitentiary, Work House, Poor House, etc. Can be reached by steamer from foot of Grand St.

WARD'S AND RANDALL'S ISLANDS,

Near by, are occupied by the Public Charitable Institutions. The elegant and massive structures which cover these Islands make a striking feature in the landscape.

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND.

To reach which, take the little steamer that starts from South Ferry. Fort Columbus occupies the centre of the Island, and Castle William is at the extreme end.

FORT HAMILTON.

Take South Ferry for Hamilton Ave., Brooklyn. Horse-cars on the other side. It is situated about seven miles down the Bay, on the Long Island shore. Close by, Fort La Fayette, not occupied. On the opposite, or Staten Island side, we find Forts Tompkins and Richmond. These are fine summer resorts, and are good for fishing and bathing.

LONG BRANCH

Is situated on the eastern coast of New Jersey, 32 miles from New York city, is reached by steamboats from pier 1 North River, and by New Jersey Southern R. R. This is one of the most elegant and fashionable of all American watering places, and also affords fine bathing and fishing.

HUDSON RIVER.

A voyage up this river, either by rail or by one of the floating palaces, ought not to be omitted.

If we take the boat, we leave the city at 8 A. M. We sail along past Hoboken, Palisades, Spuyten, Duyvil, to Yonkers, (17 miles.) situated on our right. Next we come to Hastings, (21 miles,) a pleasant little village of fashionable residences. Next, Dobbs Ferry, (22 miles,) an ancient village. Tarrytown, (23 miles.) This place has many attractions, both historical and social, elegant residences and fine drives. Here Major Andre was arrested while returning from a visit to General Arnold's.

Directly opposite lies Nyack, reached by ferry. Sing Sing, (35 miles.) Here is the famous prison of that name, which no stranger should fail to visit. The town is a thriving business place. At this point the river is the widest, being nearly four miles across. Haverstraw, (41 miles on the left,) is a pleasant little village. Verplanck's Point, (44 miles on the right,) is a very romantic and picturesque place. Peekskill, (46 miles,) is situated in Haverstraw Bay, is exceedingly picturesque. Fine views may be found everywhere. On the opposite side of the river stands the Dunderburg Mountain. A pleasant ride from Peekskill is to Lake Mahopac, a fashionable summer resort for New Yorkers. Passing around the Point of Dunderburg, we enter Race Horse Channel. On our right is Anthony's Nose, 1,128 feet above the river. On our left, Highland Falls may be seen descending over an inclined ledge a distance of 100 feet. West Point, (53 miles on the left.) Here the famous Military Academy is situated, 190 feet above the river. If this place is visited in the months of July and August, the pleasure of the place will be considerably increased by the scene of the Annual Encampment of the Cadets. Cold Spring, (54 miles,) is one of those little mountain villages, busy, thriving and romantic. Opposite are the mountains Crow Nest and Storm King. Cornwall, (56 miles,) summer resort. Newburg, (60 miles,) is a flourishing and delightful place, handsome residences and fine drives. Fiskill Landing, directly opposite, reached by ferry. Poughkeepsie, (75 miles on the left.) This is the largest city between New York and Albany. Vassar College is the only special interest to strangers. Kingston and Roundout, (90 miles,) Roundout, the termini of the Delaware and Hudson Canal, through which large quantities of coal are brought to market, also immense quarries of cement stone. Catskill, (115 miles on the left,) is chiefly interesting as a summer resort, and also has fine hotels, splendid scenery. Stages for the Catskill Mountains leave on the arrival of the boat. The distance to the Mountain House is 12 miles, and the fare varies from one to two dollars. The hotel stands near the brink of a bold, rocky ledge, affording a grand view for miles up the river. An exceedingly delightful excursion of an hour or two, with Guide, can be had to North Mountain. Another excursion, of about the same time, may be indulged in by visiting South Mountain, and then for a little fishing in the two lakes. High Falls are about two miles back of the hotel, a pleasant ride for 25 cts. At the foot of the first fall we may walk behind the descending sheet. On our return, we will find stages to carry us back to the landings. Hudson, (120 miles on the right.) This is a fine and prosperous city. A drive to Columbia Springs, 5 miles distant, is most enjoyable. Albany, (145 miles,) the capitol of New York State, is the termini of the great Erie Canal, Boston and Albany. New York Central and Hudson River Rail Roads. The State House is one of the finest buildings in the country. One of the finest excursions of an evening is a trip from Albany to Troy, (6 miles,) the darker the night the better. On each side, the blazing fires from foundries and electric lights give everything a wierd appearance. Troy is a large and beautiful city. What more can we say? Who has not heard of the Troy laundries? collars and cuffs, 2 cts. each

BALLSTON SPA.

Though not so popular as Saratoga, it is celebrated for its Mineral Springs. The San Souci Hotel is the most desirable place, as there is a fine spring on the grounds belonging to the hotel. Terms moderate.

SARATOGA

Is far ahead of any place as a summer resort, with prices according. The entertainment is music, dancing, driving and drinking the horrid water for our health. Excursions from here to Lake George and Glen Falls are worth the trouble

SIGHTS BY THE SEA SAINTS.

It was a happy company of sinners who took the early afternoon train for Coney Island, resolved to see the "sights" and learn the ways at that representative American summer resort. Your correspondent sought a comfortable reclining chair, and, with the balance of the vast crowd, proceeded to supply himself as best he could as the cars went whirling along into the country, fresh with the odor of the ocean's strong breezes. Pretty soon there seemed to be but one topic of conversation or interest, (pardon my sand-wiching it here,) and that was the vast array of painting which every one was compelled to observe. Every fence, barn-door and roof, every projection of smooth rock, every conceivable thing that offered from 1 foot to five hundred of available space, was bedecked and ornamented with gaudily painted scenes and signs, whose suggestiveness and title seemed to start the tongues of all upon the same topic, as already said. "Ze one grand desecration of ze beautiful, no can be permitted in la belle, France," said an excited little Frenchman, whose kid gloves and twirling rat-tail cane lent emphasis to his broken remarks uttered to his neighbor, a well-fed and contented English gentleman, doing the "States." Gathering full import of his words, the gentle son of "Britan's Isle" simply growled: "No sir, we'd 'ang 'im for such in Hingland." And so it went around; freedom of expression and opinion, such as known and tolerated to where else on the globe. Finally, the running comment on the pictures and signs aroused a plump, cherry-eyed little German woman, who proceeded to give her opinion of the matter in a way at once inimitable in language or delineation, endorsing everything that the signs bore upon them, and appealed to a prominent American gentleman who seemed to be interested. "Oh, certainly, madam, you are right; that article has done too much good not to have all possible publicity; our line of steamers may yet have a fine vessel named after the wonderful substance—we contemplate it as a compliment to the representative enterprise of the wide-awake firm who is thus publishing the virtues of its great specialty." But all the time we were flying along, and everywhere the eye turned, we saw "St. Jacob's Oil," for such was the subject of discussion. We saw it on fences, and on farm houses; painted on stores and stables, and even cars and carriages that we saw were named for it, so popular is the Great German Household Remedy. But here we are at the station, and greeted by a venerable porter with "St. Jacob" on his belt, who would take our luggage, while just as we are leaving to go to a hotel, comes our little German woman, and bowing politely, asks us to look over a paper she kindly gave us, a reference to which revealed the following opinions of some well known people. O'Donovan Rossa, 878 Bushwick

Ave., Brooklyn—"There is no better remedy in the world than this same St. Jacob's Oil. It cured Mrs. Rossa of a very severe attack of neuralgia." State Senator, Hon. Thomas F. Grady, representative 4th Senatorial District—"I believe St. Jacob's Oil to be the greatest medicine of the age. It cured me of rheumatism in the shoulder." Hon. John E. Brodsky, member Legislature from the 8th District of New York—"I consider St. Jacob's Oil an excellent remedy. It cured me of severe neuralgia." General Thomas Francis Burke—"I would not be without St. Jacob's Oil. It is an incomparable remedy for all body pains, and one that should find its way into every household." Mr. Hiram B. Ferguson, member of the Supreme Court Bar of the State of New York—"I believe St. Jacob's Oil to be an infallible remedy, and I would not be without it. It cured me of rheumatism." Mr. D. R. Locke, Petroleum V. Nasby, Editor Toledo, Ohio, Blade—"St. Jacob's Oil cured me of severe rheumatism in the hips, and I must always recommend it." Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, Mayor of Washington, N. J., the great organ and piano builder—"I have recommended St. Jacob's Oil to many persons, because I know of its great curative power." Rt. Rev. Bishop Gilmour, Cleveland, Ohio—"Excellent for rheumatism and kindred diseases. It has benefitted me greatly." Hon. Carter H. Harrison, Mayor of Chicago—"Has been used in my family and neighborhood, and I think it an excellent remedy."
