

THE FIRESIDE

Betty Baxter's Gossip.

May winter months and summer months,
And all the months between,
Be just the nicest months this year
Of any year you've seen.

Among those home from college for the holiday vacation are: Charles Nevin and Bertha Redifer, from Pennsylvania State College; Horace Smedley and Leon Darlington, from Syracuse, and Stewart Thompson from Delaware State College.

Mr. and Mrs. James Donnelley and family, Woodside avenue, visited in Baltimore during the holiday period.

Mr. Frank Rainear, Essex avenue, one of the managers of the Y. M. C. A., is confined to his home with pneumonia.

Burgess George M. Henry, Chestnut avenue, spent Christmas with his father and other relatives in Virginia.

The young ladies of the Chi Pi Sorority gave a dance in Elm Hall, Monday evening.

Did you clean your sidewalk promptly after the last snow fall? If so, thanks!

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Horner, North Narberth avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horner, Christmas Day.

We note that Schuyler English and his brother Garfield English, are home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hampton spent Christmas at the home of their parents in Honey Brook, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Hershey, of Hanover, Pa., are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Ludovici, of Elmwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston L. Piggott and son Clayton, of North Chelmsford, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Arthur Cole and Miss Piggott, of Woodside avenue, over the holidays. Mrs. Piggott will continue her visit for a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Simpson, of Scranton, Pa., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Lindsay, of Woodside avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Perry, of Alexandria, Va., are visiting Mrs. Perry's mother, Mrs. Robert E. Pattison, Sr., of Merion avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldine K. Siler, of Wynnewood avenue, gave a dinner on Christmas to friends from New York, Philadelphia and Merchantville.

Mrs. Charles H. Churchill is entertaining relatives from New York over the Christmas holidays.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Surtus, of Mount Holly, N. J., will spend the New Year holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Robert E. Pattison, Jr., of Merion avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Harris and family are visiting Mrs. Harris' sister, Mrs. Leslie Hatfield, of Fanwood, N. J.

Miss Florence Lyon, from Springfield, Mass., sister of Mrs. Clement Booth, is here for an indefinite stay.

Miss Salome Downes, of Dover, Del., niece of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Downes, is spending the Christmas holidays with them. Several affairs will be given in her honor.

THE NARBERTH ATHLETIC CLUB.

We play at Ardmore New Year's Day, the game starting at 3 P. M. This is the only game scheduled this week and there will be no basket ball in the local cage until a week later. There will be a series of three games with the Ardmore boys, one at each town and the scene of action of the third game will be decided by the toss of a coin.

COMMUNITY CLUB.

The Tuesday "at homes" will be resumed, starting with January 4, when Mrs. Arthur Haight will be hostess, assisted by Miss Grace Haight.

Beginning with January 1, the club is starting on a new year, and we hope the members will kindly pay their dues (one dollar) to Mrs. David Stickney.

We are expecting quite an increase in the membership this year, several new members already having sent in their names and dollars.

Do not forget the "Gym" class every Wednesday morning. Turn over a new leaf and be on the job. By sending one dollar if you are a member, and two dollars if you are not a member of the club to Mrs. Walter Dothard, you will be entitled to all privileges of the gymnasium and club.

Do not forget Mrs. Cameron's talk on the Andaman Islands of January 14, at 8 P. M., on the Community Club Room. Come and bring your friends.

A WORD TO THE WISE.

Automobile owners and operators in Narberth will do well to heed the notices sent out from Harrisburg recently, urging them to apply early for their 1916 licenses. State Highway Commissioner Cunningham has explained that the numbers of automobiles bearing 1915 tags after December 31 will be taken and the owners will be notified to appear before a justice.

In previous years the congestion at the State Highway Department during the closing days of the year has been so great that it has been the custom to permit the use of old tags for a week or so in the new year. This year this congested state does not exist and the State Highway Department has announced that the law will be enforced.

There is one sure way to avoid trouble: send in your application at once and do not operate your car in 1916 without the 1916 tags.

to all present. The hall was tastefully decorated with Christmas trees, growing plants, and artistically draped crepe paper in Christmas colors. Among the members and guests present were Miss Linda Kirk, Miss Marguerite Janssen, Miss Evelyn Harris, Miss Helen Wilson, Miss Isabelle Martin, Miss Adah Durbin, Miss Helen Wingate, Miss Mary Rowand, Miss Dorothy Graves, Miss Carolyn Irwin, Miss Louise Mills, Miss Marjorie Jefferies, Miss Katherine McDowell, Mr. Wayne Randall, Mr. Hugh Atkinson, Mr. Lester Jefferies, Mr. Gordon Wilson, Mr. Kendrick Martin, Mr. Louis Winne, Mr. Robert Durbin, Mr. Lewis Moore, Mr. William Durbin, Mr. William Jefferies, Mr. Arthur Littleton, Mr. Alan Kirk and Mr. Carroll Downes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Jacobs, of Elmwood and Wynnewood avenues, spent the week-end in Atlantic City.

CHRISTMAS IN NARBERTH

Unseasonable Weather—Many Guests—Much Sickness—The Carolers—The Candle Greeting

Christmas in Narberth was observed with unusual enthusiasm for a day so unseasonable in every way. With no snow and with the temperature not unlike that of an early spring day, the kiddies had to use their imagination as to how Santa got around with comfort in his unique fur-trimmed costume.

Many Guests.

Many homes were open to guests, as evidenced by the station platform during the late afternoon and evening, which was crowded with parting guests.

The dinner hour in many homes was not the usual happy feast, because of the epidemic of grippe, and fortunate was the household that was free from sickness of one kind or another.

The Carolers.

Early Christmas morning a barge filled with young people, with sweet-sounding voices, traveled the streets of the borough singing the traditional carols. This custom is always appreciated, and those who volunteered to do this service are to be congratulated. Next year, let's have four times as many in the festival chorus, and let's start the singing at an earlier hour.

The Candle Greeting.

Many Narberthites readily accepted the suggestion to use the candle greeting as an expression of neighborliness to the passerby. The windows of house after house were made bright with the cheery, flickering candle flames. Special mention should be made of the display of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Clark, and their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Clay, of Woodside avenue. They had four candles on the top of the lower sash of all the front and side windows on the lower floor of their homes. The grand prize for thoroughness must be handed, uncontestably, to Mr. H. C. Gara, corner South Narberth and Merion avenues. He obtained large plumber's candles and placed one in each of the windows of his house, from top to bottom, using twenty-four. He had the display from 8 to 11 o'clock and then relighted the candles when the carolers came at about 5.30 A. M. Christmas Day. This happy custom, so well inaugurated, should be continued from year to year and be more and more generally used until every window in every house blazes forth a candle greeting.

APPRECIATION OF UNUSUAL SERVICE AT POST OFFICE

To the Editor of Our Town:

Persons living in Narberth certainly got real service at the little post office on the corner during the holiday rush. For one, I thank the postmaster and his assistants. They did all they were expected to do by Uncle Sam, and then did every extra thing they could think of for the convenience of local patrons—much to their own inconvenience and at no small sacrifice of time and personal comfort.

Housed in crowded, stuffy quarters these earnest, willing workers stuck to their posts early and late that we all might have our Christmas mail and packages.

On Saturday, which should have been a holiday for them after nine o'clock, they kept the office open until eleven o'clock in the forenoon. After closing, the postmaster took his auto and personally delivered some of the larger packages. In the afternoon, he once more opened the office from two to six o'clock.

All of these things—not in the least compulsory—are examples of the true spirit of service and deserve much more than a word of thanks.

W. Arthur Cole.

JOIN THE 1916 CHRISTMAS CLUB.

Eighty-seven members joined the 1916 Christmas Club of the Merion Title and Trust Company on Monday (first day). The club is still open to receive members.

PETITION FOR SKATING POND.

In answer to pressing petitions from parents and the boys and girls attending the public schools in Lower Merion to turn the new $65,000 athletic field into a skating pond, the Board of Education is seriously considering the project.

The idea is to build a small dyke around the field and then flood it, leaving Jack Frost to do the remainder of the work.

The idea has met with general favor, particularly when it is known that by charging a small admission the cost of the work necessary to make the change will be met.

If the project is carried out Ardmore will have one of the finest skating ponds in the country.

Every boy and girl in Lower Merion is wishing that the "School Fathers" may grant their petition.

DR. AND MRS. CAMERON TO SPEAK.

At the open community night, on January 14, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Cameron will give a short talk on their personal impressions of the Andaman Islands. While there they were guests of the British Government.

On these islands the British maintain a penal settlement for murderers and political prisoners from India, Burma and Ceylon. The islands are also inhabited by the native Andamanese, the most primitive man alive today, and living now as they have from time immemorial. The Andamanese are presumed to be relics of the Negro race, that in very ancient times, some 7000 years ago, occupied the southeastern portion of the Asiatic continent. In this view they are of extreme interest, as preserving, owing to an indefinite number of centuries of complete isolation, in their persons and customs the last pure remnant of the oldest kind of man in existence. Their strange dress and hunting weapons will be shown, as also carvings made by the prisoners on the islands.

REGARDING OUR TRUST COMPANY

The Christmas Club of the Merion Title and Trust Company is still open to receive members. The advantage in their systematic plan of saving is, indeed, evident, and the opportunity offered by them should be seized at this time. Narberth is proud of its bank, and, being one of our enterprising industries of merit, it should have your support, for it offers you many advantages.

OUR TOWN will gladly print any news item about any subject that is of interest to Narberth folks, but in order to meet the printing schedule, all "copy" manuscripts—must reach the editor by 6 P. M. Monday each week.

MONTHLY MEETING AND ELECTION.

The monthly meeting of the Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Church was held on Tuesday evening, December 21, in the lecture room of the church. The newly elected president, E. C. Anderson, presided. The enthusiasm manifested at the meeting must certainly have been very encouraging to him, and was an indication that the members of the class will stand by him, and do what they can to promote the success of his administration.

At the close of the business meeting the members sat down to a substantial repast prepared by several of their number. The skill manifested by them in the preparation of this collation gave evidence of latent talent along that line, which, when properly developed, will produce results calculated to excite the jealousy of the chefs of our leading hostleries.

The class is in a flourishing condition, and has at the present time forty-four members on the roll. A cordial invitation is extended to all men of the community not affiliated with any other similar organization to join, and spend a profitable hour on Sunday mornings in Bible study and a pleasant social time at the monthly meetings.

WATCH NIGHT MEETING IN THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Next Friday evening promises to be a highly interesting, delightful and profitable evening in the Presbyterian Church. It is the occasion of the annual observance of the dying of the old year and the birth of the new year. The exercises will begin at 8 o'clock and continue until midnight. The following is the program:

8-9: Address by Prof. Calvin O. Althouse, of the Central High School, Philadelphia.

9-10: Musical and literary entertainment. Vocal and instrumental music; organ, piano and stringed instruments. Recitations by pupils from National School of Elocution and Oratory.

10-11:30: Reception given to the entire congregations under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. Fellowship and refreshments.

11:30-12: Devotional service, conducted by the pastor. At the stroke of twelve all will pass over the threshold into the New Year on the wings of prayer.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to join in this Watch Night meeting.

LADIES. TAKE NOTICE!

The Community Tea, which was to be held December 28, has been postponed until the following Tuesday, January 4, 1916.

COMMUNITY NIGHT.

Friday night, January 14th, 1915, the ladies of the Community Club will welcome Narberth and her friends to the Y. M. C. A. Building to enjoy a musical and literary evening.

Mrs. W. H. Cameron, who has spent many years in India, will tell of the habits, life and civilization of that wonderfully interesting country. Mrs. Thomas Bell, of Merion, will be one of the soloists. You will be the guests of the ladies of the Community Club. A good, wholesome, entertaining event is in store for you.

The ladies' of the Community Club will entertain you and your friends Friday night, January 14th, 1916, Y. M. C. A. Building. Don't make any other engagement for this date. A delightful evening. All are welcome.

An opportunity to rub elbows and enjoy a profitable, interesting evening, Friday night, January 14, 1916, Y. M. C. A. Building. You will be the guests of the Community Club.

Delightful evening in store for Narberth and her friends. Community Club, Y. M. C. A. Building, Friday night, January 14, 1916.

JOIN THE 1916 CHRISTMAS CLUB.

Eighty-seven members joined the 1916 Christmas Club of the Merion Title and Trust Company on Monday (first day). The club is still open to receive members.

EDITORIALS.

Christmas is over.

Now comes New Year's Day.

Over 1700 copies of Our Town's last two issues were printed, and every copy distributed.

Thanks for the many kind words of appreciation regarding Our Town's two special issues. We were proud of them, too.

All but a few of our merchants gave their support to Our Town in the way of a generous advertisement in both of our special issues, and now they tell us that they were well rewarded; that they had a larger Christmas business than ever before. Of course, we do not claim that Our Town had all to do with this condition, yet we know that our advertisements are read, for, in one instance, one of our good residents said that he did all of his holiday grocery shopping in Narberth, where, heretofore, he always patronized the city stores. And he said that Our Town's advertisements of last week (and particularly one advertisement) appealed to him sufficiently to prompt him to make the change and buy at his home store.

One or two of our merchants who depend on our borough for a living, and who solicit the support of our residents, told us that our paper, as an advertising medium, did not appeal to him, that he hadn't any money to spend for advertising his wares in our paper. He would not even spend one cent to help along the cause of this paper—your paper. He wants our community to help him, but he is not willing to help the community in its cause. Patronize the advertisers of Our Town, for they are helping to support your paper.

Once we had a store that handles one class of merchandise, and had much trade in our locality. This store believed it would not pay to bother a great deal about the appearance or up-to-dateness of his place of business. A competitor came along and opened up a better looking place near by and took some of the other fellow's trade. Our original merchant woke up and spent several hundred dollars to make his place better appearing than his new competitor. Now he claims that he does more than ever before, and his competitor is making money, too. This is one instance, but we know of two similar ones right here in Narberth. The moral is evident.

CAN SUCH CONDITIONS EXIST ANY LONGER?

To the Editor of Our Town:

It does not require the holiday rush to show the woefully inadequate facilities for accommodating the citizens at the Narberth post office, but never in its history have its shortcomings been more exemplified than during the present Christmas season. In its disgracefully condensed space for the public, approximately 4 by 9 by 22 facing the street, and 4 by 13 feet on the side, and from 50 to 200 people seeking their mail around train time during rush hours, it takes an athlete to avoid being hit by opening and closing doors, or being upset by hurrying citizens. Just imagine 200 people struggling to get into a space not more than 225 square feet at one time, each eager to be waited on as quickly as possible! It will not take a tactician to figure out that dire confusion will ensue. How long! oh, how long! must Narberth stand for such conditions?

Is it any wonder that Narberth has the champion football club on the Main Line? Why should it not have? Do not the boys get plenty of practice dodging the crowd in going in and out of its post office? They, no doubt, acquire their rapid evolutions in the post office looking for mail, thereby eliminating to a great extent, actual training.

There have been sundry complaints regarding the limited space at the post office, but as yet they have brought no relief or response. Why not have a dozen of the leading citizens of the borough assemble, draw up a petition praying for relief from these congested conditions, have it passed around to every citizen of the borough for signature, and then forward it to the Post Office Department at Washington? Surely, the entire population of Narberth will welcome such a movement, and unanimously sign to relieve the borough of this ramshackle, unhealthy and insanitary building called a post office (?) which is a standing disgrace to a wide-awake and progressive borough like Narberth, and a menace to health.

The writer cheerfully offers his service three hours a day to obtain signatures if a committee of prominent citizens could be induced to start the petition.

With increased receipts, due to parcel post and growing population, the time is propitious for a new post office building, or better and more commodious quarters for the accommodation of the public. Will it come? It must!

Frank Caniel.

To the Editor "Our Town."

In answer to your request for some statement regarding my attempt to handle the Parcels Post matter during the Christmas holidays with automobile service, would say that I naturally expected a heavy business and planned to give the people of our town a practical demonstration of the kind of service they should have at all times. In this way it served a double purpose—that of relieving the congestion in the small post office building and bringing to the doors a great many of the parcels which they would otherwise have had to carry from the office. I had my auto truck in service on Thursday at 9 A. M., Friday and Christmas Day, almost continuously. During this time they delivered between 500 and 600 packages.

Owing to the unfortunate illness of Miss Small the office force was crippled, but I was fortunate in securing sufficient help to enable me to clean up everything each night before turning off the lights, although it was rather late sometimes.

I would like to express my gratification through the columns of "Our Town" for the many expressions of sympathy and offers of aid from both men and women of our town who felt that I needed help and they offered willingly to step in and give me any assistance they might be able to render.

Respectfully,
Edward S. Haws.

SOME SIMPLE RULES FOR READING POETRY

Editor of Our Town:

In view of the fact that one of your readers, living "somewhere in Narberth"—that was as near as I could get to the identity of the inquirer, who was evidently too shy, or something, to give a name—called me on the telephone Christmas night to tell me that "they thought that last line in the poem you printed in Our Town was very sacrilegious," it has occurred to me that possibly there may be one or two more people in our borough who also feel offended by that same line. "Why you're most as foolish, Henry, as that Dreamer, Jesus Christ." And as an offense of any kind was farthest from my mind, while actual "peace on earth, good will toward men," was nearest to my heart, perhaps a few paragraphs of explanation will not be amiss.

Suppose we start like this: Once upon a time there was a man named John F. Genung, who was professor of rhetoric in Amherst College, and had a Ph. D. from Leipsic, which city, I am told by well-informed folks, is the home of a celebrated university. This man Genung, Ph. D., wrote a book called "The Practical Elements of Rhetoric." At the beginning of Chapter Three the careful reader will find these words, "Figures of Speech," and at the beginning of the first paragraph this sentence: "DEFINITION—A figure of speech is an INTENTIONAL deviation from the plain and ordinary mode of speaking, for the sake of greater effect." And, lo and behold! a little further on in the same chapter comes this REVOLUTIONARY, not to say startling, paragraph: "IRONY—This figure expresses the contrary of what is meant, there being something in the tone or manner to show the speaker's (?) real drift. The strength of the figure consists in its being so unanswerable that no doubt can exist of the falsity of what it assumes as true."

(We presume Mr. Genung extends the same courtesy to writers.)

Now then, it is but a step or two from Mr. Genung's handy little book to the editorial page of the October 16 issue of the Saturday Evening Post. The first editorial is entitled "Sermon and Comment," and after it points to the fact that "at the birth of Christ the standing armies of the Roman Empire numbered about three hundred thousand men," and that that army was big enough to control practically the whole civilized world of that time; and then traces, briefly, the history of the development of world's armed forces, it concludes with these words: " * * * And Europe's standing armies had risen to more than two and a half million men—to go on augmenting steadily up to the grand Christian climax of this year of grace, in which we see something like thirty million men in arms.

"That is our comment on the Sermon on the Mount. Augustus is not credited with a sense of humor; but we suppose his shade grins now and then."

So you see, friends, there might even have been some excuse for the writer of those verses about "Dreamers," refusing to take advantage of Mr. Genung's well-known "Figures of Speech," and referring to the "Dream" of the Golden Rule, in all sincerity, as plain, downright foolishness. Surely the great bulk of the news of to-day is not calculated to strengthen any one's belief in "Thy Kingdom come, on earth as it is in Heaven." It takes a Dreamer in the truest sense of the word to see beyond to-day and many to-morrows to the Dawn of a Newer and Better To-morrow.

But the writer of the verses in question—his name is Rex Lampman, and his address is the Oregon Daily Journal, Portland, Oregon, if you care to write him personally—is one of those rare Dreamers himself, and looking ahead to that Better Day, and at the same time taking advantage of Mr. Genung's IRONY, he wrote that line, "Why you're most as foolish, Henry, as that Dreamer, Jesus Christ." And he hoped, no doubt, that here and there he might find a reader who would not regard him as sacrilegious, and even go so far as to say "Yes, I, too, have faith in the final success of the Dreamers of the Brotherhood of Man."

And now let us close with one verse from Brother Berton Braley's "The Pioneers":

"They're the 'utterly foolish dreamers,'

Who dream of a better day;
They're not the plotters and schemers

News of the Churches

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. John Van Ness, Minister.

Next Sunday:

10 A. M., Bible School.

11 A. M., Public Worship. Sermon by the pastor on the New Year text. Christmas music repeated by the quartette.

7 P. M., Young People's Meeting. Leader, Miss Rose Hamer.

8 P. M., Gospel Meeting. Christmas music repeated.

On Sunday, January 9th, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed, following the public reception of new members. The preparatory service will be held next Wednesday evening, January 5th, when the sermon will be delivered by Rev. David S. Kennedy, D. D., editor of "The Presbyterian."

Do not forget the Watch Meeting on New Year's eve, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The plan of having the pulpit decorated with memorial flowers, which was inaugurated last fall, has proven very successful. So far some one has furnished flowers each Sunday; in several cases they were furnished by two persons, and last Sunday there were three who remembered their loved ones in this beautiful way.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

"The Little Church on the Hill."

Chalfont, "The Coming Union of the Seven Million of Methodists in the United States." Refreshments served by the ladies after the service. A cordial invitation to all.

EVANGEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Emerson L. Swift, Pastor.

Sunday, January 2:

9.45 A. M.—Bible School. The Adult Bible classes will begin the study of Acts.

11.00 A. M.—Morning worship. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed.

7.00 P. M.—Young People's service. The captain of Group one will be in charge.

7.45 P. M.—Evening worship. Subject of the sermon in the series on Kingship, "The Practice of Royalty."

A Christmas social will be held at the church for the Bible School, Thursday evening at 7.30. Every member of the school is invited to be present.

A New Year's morning prayer service will be held Saturday morning at eight o'clock for one hour. The pastor will announce the motto of the church for the year. It is hoped the room will be filled. Come and bring your friends.

Dr. Daniel G. Stevens will be present and speak Sunday evening, January 9, in the interest of Evangelism, the first of the five topics in the Five Year Program. Let us give him a hearty welcome and a prayerful hearing.

Gospel Team No. 1, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Department of the Y. M. C. A., will have charge of the service Sunday evening, January 23. It consists of nine cornetists and speakers. Those who have heard them speak highly of the service. Please advertise this service.

Continuation of the study in Revelation next week, Wednesday evening. Subject, "The Church in Philadelphia," Rev. 3:7-13.

ALL SAINTS' P. E. CHURCH.

Rev. Andrew S. Burke, Rector.

The services at All Saints' P. E. Church, Montgomery and Wynnewood avenue, for next Sunday are as follows:

8.00 A. M.—Holy Communion.

9.45 A. M.—Sunday School.

11.00 A. M.—Holy Communion and sermon

4.00 P. M.—Evening prayer.

Elaborate music marked the Christmas day services at All Saints' Church and was under the direction of J. Phillips Rowland, organist and choir-master.

On the following day, Sunday, the Christmas music was repeated, with the addition of a beautiful soprano solo during the taking of the offertory, by Master John Hanna, soprano soloist of Trinity Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Last Wednesday afternoon, December 29, the Sunday School held the Christmas festival, and notwithstanding several of the scholars were absent on account of sickness, there was a very good attendance. The address and presentation of gifts were made by Mr. William Waterall.

The next meeting of All Saints' Guild will be held at the residence of Miss Barbara Shand, Narberth and Price avenues, Narberth, on Monday afternoon, January 3, 1916, at three o'clock.

The church bus leaves Narberth station at 10.40 on Sunday mornings.

MERION MEETING HOUSE.

Montgomery Avenue and Meeting House Lane.

Merion Meeting House is opened for worship every First-day at 10.30 A. M. Visitors are cordially welcome.

A registry book is kept for visitors. All are asked to register their names.

TWO NOTABLE SPEAKERS COMING TO NARBERTH

Next Friday evening at the Watch Meeting in the Presbyterian Church the principal speaker will be Prof. Calvin O. Althouse, head of the Commercial Department of the Central High School, Philadelphia. Prof. Althouse has acquired a wide reputation as an eloquent and forceful speaker. He is president of the High School Department of the State Educational Association. It is a rare privilege for the people of Narberth to have the opportunity of hearing this gifted orator. The meeting begins at 8 o'clock next Friday evening.

Next Wednesday evening, January 5th, 1916, Dr. David S. Kennedy will preach in the Presbyterian Church, at the preparatory meeting. Dr. Kennedy is one of the most prominent preachers in the Presbyterian denomination. He is now editor of "The Presbyterian," one of the foremost periodicals of this church. He was formerly pastor of one of the large churches of Pittsburgh and was Moderator of the Synod of Pennsylvania. Dr. Kennedy is one of the most aggressive and forceful preachers in Philadelphia and we are very fortunate to secure him for this occasion.

About Digitalis

R There is a bit of talk about Digitalis, one of the most important drugs known to the medical science, for it is used in diseases of the heart—and the heart is where you live. None but the most skilled pharmacists should put up Digitalis prescriptions. There must be no errors; no guess-so. Infusion and tincture Digitalis acts primarily and with most force upon the circulation, producing a great rise in the arterial pressure. Upon the heart Digitalis acts as a powerful stimulant, and the work done by the heart under the influence of the drug is much beyond normal. Should the preparation be stronger than it should be, and the doctor prescribing the maximum dose, the apex of the heart will fail to dilate, and death follows. Should it be not strong enough in drug power, the patient derives no benefit and often harm follows. The Druco Druggist makes infusion Digitalis fresh when called for, and use only the best English Digitalis Leaves assayed. There are cheaper tinctures and infusions that are as dangerous as dynamite. Assayed means that the leaf has been analyzed and tested, and is PURE and contains the proper amount of the active drug.

Here, again, is an argument that should send you to an up-to-date druggist for prescriptions. You cannot afford to take chances. Every Druco Druggist is ready to serve you and guarantees both to use the proper drugs and proper methods of compounding.

Rose	133	154
Smedley	144	176

Protection From Contagion

Owing to its antiseptic properties, 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric cannot be too highly recommended for liberal use in the care of the person wherever and whenever exposed to any contagious disease. It may be applied as a powder or with water as a solution.

It may be used with absolute freedom and safety in all the natural cavities of the body; physicians almost always prescribe it as an eye water, mouth wash, etc., and wherever introduced the antiseptic action is certain, but there is no danger from its use as there is with some other disinfectants. Insist upon having the original package of 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric and then you know that you have the real article full strength. All leading druggists.

Bowling Special.

Our team in the Main Line Bowling League faces its crucial test on Wednesday night of this week, when we bowl Wayne, the leaders of the league, on our own alleys. If our boys take three games it will tie us for first place. All out and help Narberth get to the top.
