SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION,
BUREAU OF ETHNOLOGY,
December 7, 1884.

While engaged in the exploration of the Rocky Mountains I was urgently requested by the late Professor Henry, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, to study the Indian tribes of the region, and especially to collect vocabularies. In compliance with this request I cultivated an acquaintance with the various Indian tribes met in that region, and usually a number of Indians traveled with me. I eventually became deeply interested in the study of the Indian languages of the United States, which interest increased as comparative studies were subsequently made.

From these rude beginnings I was led to explore a much wider field, and at last formed the plan of completing the classification of these languages, and especially of extricating the subject from much bibliographic confusion. During this time Mr. Pilling assisted me in collecting the literature of the subject, and at my request he undertook to prepare a bibliography of the materials I was then using. But from year to year his work grew on his hands, until at last, at my earnest solicitation, he commenced the preparation of a bibliography of North American languages. To this task he has given the patient labor of years, and developed a genius for the work to which the present volume is a monument.

The compilation of the following matter was begun some years since as a card-catalogue for the use of the members of the Bureau of Ethnology, and as a basis for a projected work by the Director on the classification of North American tribes by language. Although prosecuted only during such times as could be spared from other and more pressing official duties, and at first with no thought of making it comprehensive, material accumulated in sufficient quantity to justify the belief that a somewhat complete monograph of the subject might be compiled. To accomplish this the co-operation of many persons interested in this branch of research is necessary; and that this co-operation may be given to the best advantage it is essential they should know what has already been done. Hence the following proof-sheets—a preliminary, tentative, and incomplete catalogue, embodying the information gathered by the compiler from printed and manuscript authorities, by personal visits to public and private libraries throughout the United States and Canada, and by an extensive correspondence. The amount of material already obtained through outside sources during the type-setting and proof-reading, and which partly appears in the appended "Additions and Corrections," strengthens the belief that, with the assistance of those in a position to furnish information, it will be possible to make the final issue a fairly complete record of the books, pamphlets, papers in serial journals, and manuscripts, in or relating to the Indian languages of North America.

It is desired that those into whose hands these sheets may fall will consider them in no sense as finished or complete; only a few copies are struck off, and these have been prepared especially for distribution to collaborators for the purpose of obtaining marginal corrections and insertions.

When finally issued the work will form Volume X of the series entitled "Contributions to North American Ethnology."

Nowhere else, perhaps, is there such opportunity for error as between the two covers of a catalogue, and no one can be more fully aware of the many defects and inconsistencies in this one than the compiler. Nor can they be excused except on the general plea that it was thought preferable to insert imperfect titles, and to insert them out of order, than not to have them appear at all. Bad titles may be the means of procuring good ones, and consistency of arrangement can be secured in the final sheets, or the defect partly atoned for by a cross-reference. The aim of the compiler has been to record everything pertaining to the subject which has come under his notice.

In the preparation of these sheets, I have placed myself under obligations in a greater or less degree to many persons, and it affords me pleasure to acknowledge these courtesies. Perhaps in the greatest measure I am indebted to the Director of the Bureau, to whose suggestion the work owes its origin, and who throughout its progress has encouraged me by his advice and aided me by his criticism. Every facility at his command, personal and official, has been given me, and his private library and the Bureau records have been placed freely at my disposal.

By Señor Don Joaquin Garcia Icazbalceta, of the City of Mexico, I have been treated with a generosity as complete as it is rare, and to this eminent bibliographer and his published works is due the credit for whatever of value is contained in these sheets concerning the literature of Mexican languages. Besides correcting with his own pen my copy of his "Apuntes para un Catalogo," he has permitted me to make extracts from the sheets, so far as printed, of his still unpublished "Bibliografia Mexicana del Siglo XVI," has furnished me with many new titles, has read and corrected my own proof-sheets, and has aided me in my work in every possible way. Such of his corrections as were received in time have been incorporated into the "Additions and Corrections"; the others will appear in the final sheets. It is a matter of regret that the whole of his last great work, the "Bibliografia," is not in type, that I might have availed myself still further of this admirable example of bibliographic art and research.

In equal degree am I under obligations to Mr. Wilberforce Eames, of New York City. Almost from the beginning of the type-setting the catalogue has had the benefit of his aid and advice. His thorough knowledge of the class of books treated, his interest in the subject itself, his fine library, rich in bibliographic authorities, his scrupulous care and accuracy with the minutiae which compose so large a part of a work like this, and his judgment in matters of arrangement, have all contributed to the improvement of these pages, and have combined to render his co-operation invaluable. The frequent mention of his name throughout shows but imperfectly the extent of my obligations to him.

It has been impossible in every instance to acknowledge the many important facts communicated to me by Drs. D. G. Brinton, J. G. Shea, and J. H. Trumbull. These gentlemen, each of whom is an authority on the linguistic literature of this continent, have not only given me access to their richly laden library shelves, but have promptly and cordially responded to my oft-repeated inquiries. I have appealed to them, on numerous occasions, with perfect freedom, and have invariably been treated with a cordiality calculated to awaken feelings of the profoundest gratitude; the final pages will show many changes suggested by them.

To the Hon. John R. Bartlett, of Providence, through whose kindness I have a number of times been permitted to avail myself of the facilities afforded by the Carter Brown library, perhaps the finest private collection of Americana on this continent, I am indebted for many and varied favors.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Erminnie A. Smith, of Jersey City, I have been able to add the titles of a number of manuscripts retained in the archives of the Canadian Catholic Missions which otherwise I would have obtained, if at all, with great difficulty.

My immediate assistants, Mr. P. C. Warman and Miss J. L. McCord, are so thoroughly identified with the work in its every stage that I can only extend to them, in a general way, my appreciation of the aid they have rendered me.

Among the owners of private libraries who have done much to assist me, I must mention the Rev. Isaac Barefoot, Point Edward, Canada; Messrs. W. W. Beach, Yonkers, N. Y.; John B. Dunbar, Bloomfield, N. J.; Lewis S. Hayden and J. Edmond Mallet, Washington, D. C.; Rev. Silas T. Rand, Hantsport, Nova Scotia; and the Abbé Verreau, Montreal, Canada.

Nor must I neglect to add my obligations to the following persons throughout the country, upon whose time I have frequently intruded: Rev. J. A. Anderson, Waterbury, Conn.; Mr. Marcus Baker, Washington, D. C.; Rev. Alonzo Barnard, Omena, Mich.; Rev. J. B. Z. Bolduc, Quebec, Canada; Mr. John Nicholas Brown, Providence, R. I.; Rev. N. V. Burtin, Caughnawaga, Canada; the late Professor Buschmann, Berlin, Germany; Mrs. Cyrus Byington, Belpre, Ohio; Rev. J. W. Cook, Santee Agency, Nebr.; Lieut. Heber M. Creel, U. S. A.; Rev. J. A. Cuoq, Montreal, Canada; W. H. Dall, C. C. Darwin, and Rev. J. Owen Dorsey, Washington, D. C.; Rev. Myron Eells, Skokomish, Wash.; Joseph Elkinton, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. Martin Ferrard, Sault au Recollet, Canada; Mr. Albert S. Gatschet, Washington, D. C.; Rev. J. A. Gilfillan, White Earth, Minn.; Rev. J. Giorda, St. Ignatius Mission, Mont.; Mr. Horatio Hale, Clinton, Ontario, Canada; Rev. S. D. Hinman, of the Dakota Missions; Dr. W. J. Hoffman, Washington, D. C.; Rt. Rev. Edward Jacker, Point Saint Ignace, Mich.; Rev. Francis Jacker, Houghton, Mich.; Rev. Leclair, Oka, Canada; A. J. Knowles, Boston, Mass.; Rev. R. M. Loughridge, of the Muscogee Mission; Rev. F. X. Marcoux, St. Regis, Canada; Prof. Otis T. Mason, Washington, D. C.; Chief H. L. Masta, of the Abnauquis, Pierreville, Quebec, Canada; Dr. Washington Matthews, U. S. A.; Rev. John Menaul, Laguna, N. Mex.; Paul Neuhaus, Washington, D. C.; M. Alph. Pinart, San Francisco, Cal.; J. W. Powell, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, Victoria, B. C.; Revs. A. L. and S. R. Riggs, of the Dakota Mission; Prof. Heinrich Rink, Copenhagen, Denmark; Mrs. A. E. W. Robertson and Rev. W. S. Robertson, of the Muscogee Missions, Tullahassee, Ind. T.; Prof. E. Uricoechea, Brussels, Belgium; Rev. L. Van Gorp, St. Ignatius Mission, Mont.; the late Rev. Eugene Vetromile, Oldtown, Me.; Mr. E. P. Vining, Omaha, Nebr.; Rev. J. P. Williamson, of the Dakota Mission; Rev. E. F. Wilson, Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Canada; Mrs. Ashur Wright, Versailles, N. Y.

I trust that the information contained in this Bibliography, when published, may prove, in some slight measure, a return for the many kindnesses and courtesies received at the hands of the officers of the following libraries, without whose aid, so generously extended, even the present preliminary catalogue would not have been possible: A. R. Spofford, Library of Congress; Justin Winsor, Harvard University; C. A. Cutter, Boston Athenæum; A. Van Name, Yale College; H. L. Oaks, Bancroft Library, San Francisco; F. Saunders, Astor Library, New York; Geo. H. Moore, Lenox Library, New York; Samuel A. Green, Massachusetts Historical Society, Boston; L. C. Draper and D. S. Durrie, of the Wisconsin Historical Society, Madison; J. Fletcher Williams, Minnesota Historical Society, St. Paul; Stephen Salisbury, jr., and E. M. Barton, of the American Antiquarian Society, Worcester, Mass.; the librarians of the Quebec Historical Society, New York Historical Society, Cincinnati Public Library, and McGill College, Montreal; the officers of the American Bible Society, New York and Boston, American Tract Society, New York and Boston, American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, Boston, American Congregational Association, Boston, and Jacques Cartier School, Montreal.

NOVEMBER 4, 1884.

INTRODUCTION.

The primary purpose sought to be carried out in the following pages is an alphabetic list of persons who have written in or upon the Indian languages of North America, with full and accurate titles of all editions of their writings, collations of the same, and a descriptive table of linguistic contents.

But few departures from the ordinary rules of cataloguing have been made, the principal one being that translators of matter into the Indian tongues have been treated as authors. Anonymous works, both printed and manuscript, have been entered under the full name of the author when known, with a cross-reference in the case of printed works from the first word of the title. When the author is unknown, printed works, and manuscripts with authentic titles, appear under the first word of the title; manuscripts without titles, or with factitious titles, under the name of the Indian language to which they pertain. Societies have been treated as authors of the journals, transactions, proceedings, etc., issued by them, the chartered name being given whenever possible. Titles of works containing linguistics by others than the author of the work appear in full under the name of the latter, followed by brief sub-entry of the linguistic authors; the full titles of the linguistic portions appearing in full under their respective authors, followed by brief sub-entry of the author of the work itself. In these sub-entries the name of the author, or other controlling word in the primary alphabetic arrangement, is printed in black-face type. This use of antique type as a cross-reference device is observed throughout the descriptive and commentative matter following the title.

While in general a uniform system of entering titles, collating books, and describing contents has been followed, a number of tentative departures have been made from time to time, as experience suggested, for guidance in the preparation of the final monograph. These changes are all slight, and it is thought none of them call for comment, except, perhaps, one—that of translating or not translating extracts from authors who have written in languages other than English. In the opinion of the compiler the advantages of translating these notes into English—the language of the future—more than outweigh those supposed to be gained from quoting the original verbatim; upon this point, however, he is open to conviction. These remarks do not apply, of course, to the transcription of titles, the spelling of Indian names, and the quotation of linguistic contents of a work, but only to descriptive extracts and biographies from catalogues and bibliographies.

Much of the advantage of knowing that a certain work exists consists in knowing where it may be found. For this reason the initials of the libraries in which the copy or copies described were seen are given at the end of primary titles. In no case have initials been given unless the compiler has seen at least one of the copies indicated; in most cases he has seen them all, and in every case those not handled by him have been seen either by one of his immediate assistants or by one of the gentlemen who have aided him in his work. These library initials will sometimes be found in the body of a note, accompanying mention of a work.

An asterisk is inserted opposite all titles, both primary and secondary, of works not seen by the compiler. This is true also in the case of all articles or editions mentioned in the notes, except in those cases where the source of the entry is distinctly given.

In order that due credit may be given, and responsibility fixed, the source of each borrowed title is indicated. By this means the reader may judge for himself of the reliance to be placed upon descriptions and collations.

In the index, which has been confined to languages and dialects, all the spellings of Indian tribal names occurring herein are given, the entries being made under what has been considered the most common spelling.

2 vols.: 41 p. ll., pp. 1-633; 1 p. l., pp. 1-690. folio. The second volume has no date. This is the original edition of the Bibliotheca Hispana Nova, which, although published first, is but a sequel of the Vetus. I have not seen a copy of the first edition of the latter, but have taken the following title from the Catalogue of Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates:

—— Bibliotheca Hispana Vetus; sive, Hispanorum, qui usquam, unquamve scripto aliquid consignaverunt, notitia. Complectens scriptores omnes, qui, ab Octaviani Augusti imperio, usque ad annum M. floruerunt. Tomus primus [. . . ab anno M. usque ad MD. . . . Romæ, 1696. *

2 vols. folio. According to Ludewig, the Cardinal de Aguirre entrusted the editorship of this to Emmanuel Mars, a learned Valentian. A second edition of this work, much superior to the first, was published as follows:

—— Bibliotheca | Hispana Nova | sive | Hispanorum Scriptorum | qui ab anno MD. ad MDCLXXXIV. florere | notitia. | Auctore | D. Nicolao Antonio Hispalensi I. C. | Ordinis S. Iacobi equite, patriæ Ecclesiæ canonico, Regionum negotiorum | in Vrbe & Romana curia procuratore generali, consiliario Regio. | Nunc primum prodit | recognita emendata aucta | ab ipso auctore. | Tomus Primus [-Secundus]. | Matri | Apud Joachimum de Ibarra Typographum regium | MDCLXXXIII [-MDCCLXXXVIII] [1783-1788]. | C. JCB.

2 vols.: 2 p. ll., pp. i-xxiii, 1-830; title 1 l., pp. 1-669. folio. The date 1783 on this first volume is said to be erroneous, the whole four volumes of the work having appeared in 1788.

"This excellent work, which was first published at Rome in four volumes, folio, 1672-1696, had become very scarce when this edition was printed. * * * Antonio, agreeable to the custom prevalent at that time, arranged the names of the authors according to the alphabetical order of their Christian names."—Bartlett.

3 vols. folio. The title-pages of vols. 2 and 3 of the copy in the Library of Congress are in manuscript, and are dated respectively 1819 and 1821. After the words "Metropolitana de Mexico," they have these words: "Y la publica D. José Rafael Enriquez Trespalacios Beristain sobrino del Autor." Their imprints are: "En Mexico. Oficina de Don Alejandro Valdez calle de Santo Domingo año de 1819 [-1821]."

"The Biblioteca of Beristain is the rarest and most valuable of all bibliographical works. The author died while the work was in progress, and it was then continued by his nephew, who limited the number issued to that of the persons who had already subscribed for copies. It is to be found in few public libraries, and the sum required for the last copy known to us was £60. The present copy [now in the Lenox Library] is much increased in value by the manuscript additions, which contain notices of upwards of 600 works relating to America, chiefly anonymous, and an Appendix of 'Certámenes publicos literarios que se han celebrado en la Nueva España.' The volumes also contain many corrections and additions in the hand of Mr. Ramirez."—Ramirez Bib. Mex., No. 102.

“The Catalogue of his Indian Historical Collection of MSS., Maps, and Dictionaries, and Grammars of the Mexican languages, occupies four leaves after p. 167 of the ‘Idea,’ and the succeeding pp. 1 to 96. Most of these valuable relics of the golden age of the American Aborigines disappeared during the one hundred and twenty-five years which have elapsed. This wonderful collection included historic material relating to each of the six great Mexican nations. Although so great a length of time has elapsed since its dispersal, M. Aubin, an amateur collector at Paris, has had the good fortune to recover many of them.

“This great museum of Mexican antiquities and MSS., copies of the equally wonderful histories of the Indian nations, written by learned Iodians, was seized by the jealous and vindictive authorities of Mexico; and although for many years preserved among the archives of the Viceroy, yet the learned and industrious antiquarian was most wantonly deprived of the results of his labors. Clavigero saw some of this precious store before 1770, in which year was printed a work in Mexico, containing copies of thirty-two of the paintings.

“The author resided eight years in Mexico, and not only studied and copied the ancient MSS. and paintings, preserved in monasteries, churches, and colleges, but he formed an intimate acquaintance with the customs and habits of the living Indians.”—Field.

“The Mexico-Guatemalan Library, the catalogue of which appears further on, contains the greater part of the documents of any importance which have been useful to me in the course of my historic and philologic researches during twenty-five years. It is insignificant as to number of volumes; it is of great value if their rarity be considered, especially as to that which concerns the linguistics of southern Mexico and Central America. In this respect I may say that it is unique. More than eighty manuscript volumes or treatises in languages of which the names are little known to bibliographers; more than sixty grammars, vocabularies, profane and religious treatises, in print, some of which have never been catalogued and of which I possess the only copies, others which are yet known only by vague indications—there, in few words, is what my library presents, concerning American philology.”—Preface.

3 parts. 8° Compiled by Dr. J. H. Trumbull. In the Preface to Part III, dated March 1, 1881, it is stated: “The general arrangement of the Fourth (and last) Part is completed, and a portion of the copy is already in the hands of the printers.” It has not been published at this writing (January, 1885).

“The Catalogue of the First Part of this collection is now submitted to the public. Few of those into whose hands it is likely to fall need be informed that, within the field it covers, it comprises a greater number of volumes remarkable for their rarity, value, and interest to special collectors and to book-lovers in general, than were ever before brought together in an American sale-room. The titles of the books and tracts, though rarely given without abbreviation, will be found sufficiently full to distinguish the edition or impression, and accuracy of description as regards binding and general condition has been aimed at throughout. * * *

“The general plan of the catalogue is indicated, as regards the first part, by the table of contents prefixed. The arrangement—it can hardly be called a classification—is substantially that which was adopted by Mr. Brinley himself for his bookshelves. A strictly alphabetical arrangement, by author’s names or titles, would perhaps have been more acceptable to bibliographers, but the extent of the library rendered such an arrangement impracticable, and it seemed inappropriate to the sale-catalogue of a library which is not less remarkable for the completeness of its collections in special departments than by the number of its titles.”—Preface.

"A general catalogue of works illustrative of the history, literature, and archæology of the aborigines of both Americas had been in progress of composition for several years, as a guide to the author's collection of that class of books. As it grew in proportions, by the slow accretions which duty and experience furnished, the author's vanity was easily flattered into the design of producing a work of more general utility. The material collected at length covered so wide a range that it embraced not only transcripts of the titles of such printed works as were personally examined, or were to be found in catalogues of public and private libraries, with a collation of their pages and synopses of their contents, but also the titles of articles upon the same subjects, printed in reviews, historical collections, magazines, and other ephemera. More than two thousand five hundred separate works and twelve hundred essays had been catalogued, with their topical range

exhibit some of its formidable proportions. It was plainly demonstrated that the projected task must be either abandoned or greatly abridged. That portion of the task which could be most readily detached and wrought into unity was the catalogue of works on the American aborigines, in the author's possession. To determine the selection of works which should be included in that category, they have been subjected to a few simple rules of classification.

"All works which purported in their titles to contain historic, narrative, or literary material relating to the American Indians.

"Books in which any distinct portion, chapter, or appendix claimed by its heading or table of contents to be devoted to that subject.

"Works containing engravings illustrative of the manner and peculiarities of the aborigines, when derived from actual observation.

"All treatises or essays upon their origin, or the pre-Columbian discovery of America, as affecting the source of its population.

"Those works of fiction or poetry founded on Indian life, to which were appended historical notes, incidents of personal experience, or traditions and legends of the Indians.

"All works containing grammatical analyses, or vocabularies of their language, as well as translations into or from them, would of course form a part of the collection."—Preface.

C. LSH.

Pp. i-viii, 1-376. 8°. Compiled by Joseph Sabin. "The collection of books described in the following pages is, beyond all question, the most extensive in its special department ever offered for sale. Its acquisition has been the unwearied occupation of Mr. Field for many years, and the result is an unusually complete series of books on a subject which is daily increasing in interest—the American Indians. It is scarcely necessary for me to say that it is simply impossible to study the history of this continent without referring to this topic. An entirely complete collection of books relative to the Indians includes a large proportion of the works which compose American history. * * *

"Mr. Field's 'Essay on Indian Bibliography' has formed the basis of the present catalogue. We have added to it the titles of such books as have been purchased since the publication of that work in 1873. To the works thus added the notes appended are sometimes by Mr. Field. Many works of importance, which were in his possession at the time of its publication, had accidentally dropped out of his list. * * *

"The titles in Mr. Field's essay have sometimes been abridged, sometimes given in full; his elaborate and elegant notes have in many instances been shorn of their chief features, but the reader can supply that want by procuring a copy of Mr. Field's essay.

"The reader of the essay will not fail to notice the strong humanitarian views which are held by Mr. Field. It would be difficult for any one to add to the energetic adjectives which distinguish some of his denunciations of the perpetrators of cruelties on the Indians."—Preface.

Icazbalceta (Joaquin García). Apuntes | para un | Catálogo de Escritores | en | Lenguas Indígenas de América. | Por | Joaquin García Icazbalceta. | [Design.]

México. | Se han impreso 60 ejemplares | en la Imprenta Particular del Autor. | 1866 | JCB. JCP.

Printed cover, 1 l.; half-title, 1 l.; title, 1 l.; advertencia, pp. v-xiii; pp. 1-157. 24°. My copy of this work, which is "Ejemplar No. 47," has been corrected in manuscript by the author, and a number of titles added.

Titles of works in the Cahita, Cora, Cumanagota, Chuchona, Heve, Huasteca, Mame, Matlalzinga, Maya, Mazahua, Mexicana, Mijè, Mision de San Antonio, Mixteca, Mutsun, Opata, Otomí, Pimà, Quiché, Quichua, Tarahumara, Tarasca, Tejas, Tepehuana, Timuquana ó Floridiana, Totonaca, Yunga, and Zapoteca.

"Some time since I was invited by the estimable littérateur, Dr. D. G. Berendt, to contribute some notes for a new edition of the work of Dr. Ludewig entitled The Literature of American Aboriginal Languages, and this has given origin to the present catalogue. * * *

"Desirous on the one hand of obliging Dr. Berendt, and on the other impelled by my own inclination to contribute something to the advancement of science, though it be ever so little, I have endeavored to increase as far as I was able the stock of knowledge concerning the writers in the indigenous tongues of Mexico. Ludewig, with few exceptions, limited himself to grammars and vocabularies, without including other works written in American languages, as catechisms, etc. Perhaps he did well considering the extent of his plan; but mine being less ambitious, I thought it necessary to include whatever might be found written in the Mexican languages, so that no author or book of importance might be omitted. Books composed in Mexican languages are almost all rare and little known; even those more recently printed are not easily found, either by reason of the small number of copies printed or because the demand for them has ceased.

"Some time ago I resolved to gather all the books of this description which I could get, and I deem myself lucky in securing more than eighty. These form the basis of my catalogue. The first addition to it was to be a list of works which I had seen elsewhere and of which I had taken notes. Here terminated that portion of my work on which reliance could be placed; this portion was certainly small enough, and a large field of uncertainty was left; this was filled with the large number of works quoted by other authors, which I have not seen. I encountered the problem which Ludewig attempted to solve, and I was loath to pass the confines of certainty to lose myself in a labyrinth of inquiries and conjectures with little probability of a safe issue.

"Unfortunately, owing to the incredible indifference which till recently prevailed in regard to these important studies, there is no hope of completing this catalogue by personal inspection of the works concerned. But all possible means must be resorted to for widening the limits of the known at the expense of what is doubtful. I have decided to print these Apuntes with no other object than to place them in the hands of inquiring persons who may be able to add to them. With every book that is examined and described with accuracy there disappears at least one probability of error. This decision was all the more necessary as the larger portion of these works have been taken from our country to enrich the libraries of Europe and the United States, whence we must at some time expect the favor of getting the description of some of them. Herein lies the reason for converting these notes into book form, though they were intended to figure only as a manuscript to be sent to a friend.

"Still they have preserved their original character. The 60 copies, which I have printed with my own hands, are nothing more than so many copies of the manuscript. Rough drafts should not be exposed for sale, and these will be distributed to those who can improve the work by adding to it.

"This catalogue is divided into two parts. The first comprises the books of my own collection, the second the books seen by me in various libraries, public and private, save three or four of which I have obtained descriptions which seem trustworthy. There is no good reason for making this division, and it will be an advantage to unite the two parts in one alphabetic list; but as the printing went on slowly, being done by myself at odd moments, I began with my own books, and thus gained time to augment the second part. * * *

"I have made it a rule to copy the whole of the title-pages. Though it seems at first unnecessary to give in their entirety the titles of honor and position of the authors and of those to whom the books were dedicated, I did not want to omit them, because they are usually the only data which we have for the biography of these persons. In the books of the 16th century I have also copied the colophon, which usually tells us more than the title. The merit of this sort of work lying especially in accuracy, I have preserved with extreme rigor the orthography of the originals, and even abbreviations not now in use; for this purpose I have had special types cast. * * *

"This catalogue, though so incomplete, will, I hope, be of some use in bringing into notice some books hitherto unknown, and in confirming or correcting the descriptions of others. Looking at its small compass we feel great regret in considering how small are the remains of the immense work done by the missionaries. Whatsoever may yet be discovered, it will be but a mite in comparison to what has been lost. There is hardly one language of America that did not have its grammar and its dictionary, and of some there were many dictionaries as well as a large number of primers, catechisms, explanations of christian doctrine, confession-books, collections of sermons, ascetic and moral treatises, and translations of scripture. I do not even speak of the historic accounts written by natives in their own languages, of which only a few sad fragments remain. What was written in Aztec would alone form a small library.

"I pursue my researches, and if I am not mistaken in my expectations of the help of lovers of science, I hope we shall one day possess a 'Library of writers in the vernacular tongues of Mexico,' the first contribution to which these Apuntes will have been."—Preface.

2 p. ll. Pp. 1–165. 8°. The following remarks are from the "Introduction":

"The extraordinary collection of books here offered to public competition well merits a passing notice. The catalogue of it made by Messrs. Puttick and Simpson, it will readily be perceived, is not a mere auction catalogue, but as far as the collection goes, a bibliography of this important department of literature—a book for future reference.

“The library was formed by the late Don José Fernando Ramirez, of the city of Durango, in Mexico, where he was born towards the end of the last century. ‘ * *

“From his early youth Señor Ramirez showed a decided predilection for the history and archæology of his native country, united to a strong love of books. When transferred from the supreme court of Durango to that of the National Government in 1850, he sold the greater portion of the library which he had formed there, which became the foundation of the present State library in that city. He reserved, however, from this sale the rarest works relating to the archæology, history, and philology of Mexico, which he brought with him to the Capital, where he commenced the formation of this his second library. The suppression of the monastic orders gave him extraordinary facilities for acquiring rare books and manuscripts, which he seized upon with avidity, and gained from many of the converts the most precious of their literary treasures. The high posts which Sr. Ramirez occupied during his long public life, and his eminent reputation as a collector, bibliographer, and scholar, enabled him to procure copies of unpublished documents inaccessible to others. After the death of Sr. Ramirez his heir allowed Don A. Chavero to select from his library all the works relating to Mexico. From that gentleman this collection passed into the hands of its present owner [Fernandez del Castillo].” * * *

New York: | Joseph Sabin, 84 Nassau Street. | 1868 [-1881]. |

13 vols. 8°. Four parts of vol. 14 also have been published, bringing the work down to "Pennsylvania." The work was published first in parts, of which No. 1 appeared in January, 1867. The following extracts are from the preliminary remarks:

"After nearly four years' labor in arranging and classifying the material which had accumulated on my hands in the course of some fifteen years of research, I am at last able to publish the following specimen of my projected 'Dictionary of Books relating to America.'

"Had the magnitude and extreme difficulty of the undertaking been presented to my mind in full proportions at the outset, I should never have attempted it; and, indeed, I may remark, that I have more than once almost determined upon its abandonment; but a deep sense of its importance, however imperfectly it may be executed, and a strong partiality for bibliographical pursuits, have stimulated me to continue my labor. * * *

"I conclude this preliminary notice with the remark, that, whenever possible, I have examined the books for myself, and have described them with all necessary minuteness."

Mr. Sabin died June 5, 1881, when the work had entered its fourteenth volume. This has caused a delay in the issue of the later parts, the preparation of which has been begun, and the editorial management of which has been placed in the hands of Mr. Wilberforce Eames.

Manuscript, 53 ll. 4°. This manuscript comprises 23 sermons in the Cakchiquel language, written by different authors at different times. No signature is affixed to any one of them, and it is from a paper included with one of them and placed at the end of the volume that I have concluded they were collected by Father Alarcon. Many of these sermons are very carefully written, and belong to the end of the XVIth Century.

The Cakchiquel language, which Flores calls the metropolitan language of Guatemala, was especially that of the capital city of this province, which, after the conquest by Alvarado, gave its name to the town. The capital of the Cakchiquels, called by them Iximche, was known in the Mexican language under the name of Tecpan-Quauhquemalan. * * * The natives speaking the Cakchiquel language occupy the surrounding country as far as the villages situated north and west of the great volcanos of Fuego and Agna, and from these localities north as far as the right bank of the Montagna, and northwest as far as the base of the volcano of Atitan. The Quiche and the Tzutuhil are the dialects of the Cakchiquel tongue.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Of some of these fragments there is only a translation into Spanish by the Lic: D. Faustino Galicia; and others have the Mexican text in the margin. 118 Angel (P. Fr.) Arte de lengua Cakchiquel, compuesto por el Padre fray Angel. *

Manuscript 94 ll. 4°. In writing which appears to belong to the end of the 18th century. This work bears no author's name. See the notice which accompanies the following.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

119 ——— Vocabulario de la lengua Cakchiquel, compuesto por el Padre fray Angel. *

Manuscript 225 ll., 4°, in the same hand as the preceding. This work, like the above, is without the author's name; only we find at the end this note: "El P. Fr. Angel suplica à los que lean este vocabulario borren aquellas palabras que puden Causar ruina espiritual y el uso las impime en la memoria."

Although this note is not in the same writing as the vocabulary, it is presumable the work is by him. It is important to observe in this connection that a large number of manuscripts composed by the monks of different orders in Mexico, or in Central America, are rarely written in their own hand: most of them dictated their works to young native disciples. This explains the strange mistakes we often find in their orthography.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

120 Angulo (Illumó. D. Fr. Pedro). Treatises in the Zacapula Language. *

In order that the neophytes should become fond of learning and imbued with Christian doctrine the following treatises were composed in the Zacapula language: De la creacion del Mundo.—De la caida de Adan.—Del destierro de los primeros Padres.—Del Decreto de la Redencion.—Vida, milagros y pasion de Jesucristo.—De la Resurreccion y Ascencion del Salvador.—Del Juicio final.—De la Gloria y del Infierno.—Beristain.

121 Anléo (Fr. Bartolomé). Arte de Lengua Quiché. *

"Manuscript; copy in Bib. Imp. of Paris; another in possession of the author of this Monograph." Title and note from Squier, who in his Monograph of Authors makes the following announcement:

"Arte de Lengua Quiché, ó Utlateca; Compuesto por N. M. R. P. Fray Bartolomé Anléo, Religioso Menor de N. S. Pe. San Francisco. Edited, With an Essay on the Quichés, By E. G. Squier, M. A., F. S. A., etc.

"This important grammar, composed about 1660, and copied in the year 1744 from the original in the possession of the Fray Antonio M. Betancur, by the Fray Antonio Ramirez Utrilla, has never been published. It is now in press, and will be issued to subscribers on the 1st of October next."

I have seen no notice of the publication of this work, and presume it has not been issued.

Pp. 1-16. 16^o. The only perfect copy of the above known is in the library of the late J. Carter Brown, Providence, R. I., where it was shown me by the Hon. John R. Bartlett. There is a copy, minus the title-page, in the library of the N. Y. Hist. Society. Mr. Trumbull, who copied the title from Mr. Bartlett's catalogue of the Brown library, speaks of the work as follows:

This book is named in the list of Cotton Mather's publications, which is appended to his Life by Samuel Mather. It contains "sentences in relation to God, Jesus Christ, and the Trinity, in the Iroquois, Latin, English and Dutch languages."

Why this, the first book in the language of the Five Nations, was printed at Boston instead of New York—or by whom the translation was made—Mather does not inform us. It may, with much probability, be conjectured that the copy was furnished by the Rev. Thorowgood Moor, who was sent out by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, in 1704, to labor for the conversion of the Mohawks. He remained nearly a year at Albany, and visited the Mohawks at their "Castle," but could not obtain their consent to his establishment of a mission among them. Before November, 1705, he returned to New York, and shortly afterwards went to Burlington, N. J., to supply the place of the Rev. John Talbot (another missionary of the Society). Here, Mr. Moor gave offence by refusing to admit the Lieutenant Governor (Ingoldsby) to the Lord's Supper, and was punished by imprisonment. Having contrived to escape, he fled to Boston, and in November, 1707, took passage for England, from Marblehead. The vessel, with all on board, was lost at sea (O'Callaghan's Note, in N. Y. Documents, iv. 1077). Mr. Talbot on his return from England had met Mr. Moor in Boston and tried to induce him to go back to New York, but "poor Thorowgood said he had rather be taken into France than into the Fort at New York."

While at Albany, Mr. Moor must have had opportunity to learn something of the Mohawk language, from Laurence Claesse, the provincial interpreter, who had been a prisoner among the Iroquois, "and understood their language sufficiently," and from the Rev. Bernardus Freeman, minister of the Dutch Reformed Church at Schenectady, who "had been employed by the Earl of Bellamont in the year 1700, to convert the Indians," and "had a good knowledge of the dialect of the Mohawks" (Humphrey's Hist. Account, 299, 302). When the Rev. William Andrews began his mission work among the Five Nations in 1710, Mr. Claesse served as his interpreter; and Mr. Freeman (who meanwhile had removed to Brooklyn) gave the Society copies of the translations he had made of the English liturgy and select portions of Scripture—from which a Mohawk prayer-book was printed at New York (Id., 299, 302). This "very worthy Calvinist minister" (as Humphreys characterizes him) may have previously given Mr. Moor a copy of—or assisted him to translate—this little manual. Mather would be glad to promote its publication, and not disinclined to receive whatever credit he was entitled to for the work. And as Moor, while in Boston in 1707, was a fugitive from Lord Cornbury's jurisdiction, there was reason enough—the relation of Massachusetts to New York, considered,—for omitting to mention the author's name on the title page or in connection with the work.

Title with wood-cut of S. Domingo; verso the arms of Alonso de Montufar, to whom the work is dedicated; dedication 2 pp. in round letters. Text, in Gothic characters, two columns, ll. 3-84. The verso of l. 83 is occupied by a wood-cut of the Virgin and child with six other figures. Below we read:

L. 84 contains the license to print the volume, signed by the President and four auditors of the Audiencia of New Spain (Doctor Caynos, Doctor Villalobos, Doctor Horozco, Doctor Vasco de Puga, Antonio de Turçios), and dated at Mexico, October 25th, 1564. The reverse of this page is occupied by a beautiful engraving, representing the arms of Castile, beneath which we read: "Philipus dei gr̄a Hyspaniarum et in- | diarum Rex."

This precious book, which is very rare, perhaps the only copy known, comes from the college of St. Gregory at Valladolid. It is perhaps the best preserved volume among the rare typographical productions of the New World. The four engravings on wood, which we have mentioned, are very remarkable for their artistic execution.

P. Domingo de la Anunciacion was born at Fuentevejuna in 1510, and came to Mexico in 1523; three years after he entered the convent of the order of brother preachers, devoted himself to the conversion of the Indians, became very learned in the Mexican language, and died in Mexico in 1591.

Quetif, Eckard, and Davila give to this work the date of 1545.—Leclerc.

Beristain also gives 1545 as the date.

Manuscript, 18 ll. 8°. Without author's name. The words are in a sort of small vocabulary and are not complete in Spanish.

The Quekchi, also called Cacchi, is the language of Coban in Verapaz, Guatemala, as well as of many neighboring localities.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

136 Ara (Fr. Domingo de). Bocabulario de lengua Tzeldal segun el orden de Copanabastla. *

Manuscript, 150 ll. 4°. Tzendal and Spanish. Opposite the title-page are these words: "De consensu superioris habet ad ejus usum fray Alonso de Guzman," and on the verso of l. 128, the last of the vocabulary, "Año de 1616 años se traslado este bocabulario." The 4 ll. which follow give the beginning of the Arte of P. Domingo de Ara under the title: "Ars Tzeldaica facta a R^o p. Fr. Dominico de Ara ordinis Prædicatorum," in perfectly barbarous Latin. 7 ll. additional follow, four having connection with the devotion to the Rosary, in Spanish.

Although written by different hands and loaded with names and additions, this work is still the original vocabulary of Fr. Domingo de Ara, called elsewhere de Hara and de Lara, who is referred to in Remesal. When the original was found to be worn, it was copied by direction and probably replaced the ancient copy in the library of the convent of Copanahuatzla, whence it passed, when this city was abandoned, to the Dominican monastery of Ciudad Real (San Cristobal). It was there presented to me, with many other precious manuscripts, by Paniagua, last provincial of the order, at the time of its suppression by Jnares in 1859.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

137 ——— Vocabulario en lengua Tzeldal juxta ussū oppidii De Copanabastla. *

Fray Alonso de Guzman—traslado este vocabulario el sobre dicho Pe el año de 1620. años en la provincia de Tzeldales en el pueblo de Taquin Vitz.” Below: “España, seis pesos.” L. 221, the last of the vocabulary, has on the verso: “Unus Deus una fides unuz baptisma,” and beneath: “Soli Deo honor et glória.”—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Beristain mentions one of these: Vocabulario de la Lengua de los Indios de Chiapa.

- 138 ——— Doctrina christiana y explicacion de los principales misterios de la fé catholica, espuestos en lengua Tzeldal por el Ilmo señor D. Fray Domingo de Ara, obispo electo de Chiapa, año de 1560; obra trasladada de su original por el padre Fray Jacinto del Castillo, año de 1621. *

Manuscript, 128 ll. fol. In very fine and clear writing, and the best preserved of the manuscripts by this author.

The work is written entirely in Tzeldal, and is divided into chapters or homilies without number or sequence. From the beginning to leaf 73, inclusive, they all commence with the same verse taken from the Gospel: “Qui crediderit et baptizatus fuerit, salvus erit.” From verso of l. 73 to verso of l. 106 the commands of God and of the church are treated of. Thence to the end, the works of mercy, of capital sins, the unity of the church, and the creation of man. On the reverse of l. 117 the author calls himself “hoon atatomi Fray Domingo de Ara.” I, your father, etc., words which decide the question of the orthography of his name. Further on in the same closing paragraph is given the date—September, 1560—that is to say, twelve years before his death.

Below follows separately the declaration of the transcriber, Fray Jacinto del Castillo, who appears to have finished this copy in the month of September, 1621. He signs himself with the title of “Visiteur” to the town of San Juan Cancuc.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

- 139 ——— Egregium opus Fratris Dominici de Hara. De comparationibus et similitudinibus. *

Manuscript. 140 ll. sm. 4^c In the Tzendal language. This is the work par excellence of this author whose writings have been almost as much of a mystery to bibliographers as the spelling of his name. The writing, which is very fine and slender, if not his own, is certainly that of his amanuensis or copyist, for it belongs to his epoch, and it is well known that the Spanish monks in America usually dictated the works of which they were the authors. The copyist also was ordinarily a young native disciple; hence the errors and the mistakes in spelling which we sometimes find in this class of works. The title-page bears a signature in a different handwriting, that of “Laureca de Ximena,” which we find at the end of the religious treatises which follow this work, as well as many others. These treatises, in the Tzendal language, are:

- 140 ——— In festo sanctissimi sacramenti. *
- 4 ll.
- 141 ——— Modus administrandi sacramentum matrimonii, en tzendal. *
- 5 ll.
- 142 ——— Sermo pro disponendis nubentibus, en tzendal. *
- 6 ll.
- 143 ——— Ztitzo ghibal hatezcau zpaz Confession zghoyoc zcan yeh Communion Ecuetae. *
- 15 ll. The volume terminates with the Tzendal Grammar of Domingo de Ara, entitled:
- 3 Bib.

- 144 ——— Incipit ars tzeldaiica J. R. P. F. Dominici de Hara, ad laudem Domini nostri inventa et illustrata. *

Complete work in 28 leaves, of which half the last is lost. A sort of index ends the volume, which is a genuine bibliographic gem.

Thus, as we have seen, the author's name is spelled alternately de or del Hara, and de Ara. Remesal writes de Ara, but in the Teatro eclesiastico de la primitiva Iglesia de las Indias Occidentales of Gil Gonzalez Davila, as well as in Pinelo and Beristain, we find de Lara.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

- 145 Arana Xahila (D. Francisco Ernantez). Manuscrit Cakchiquel. Manuscript. 68 ll. fol. Cakchiquel text and an attempted French translation opposite. Copy of the original made by me with the translation during my stay at Rabinal.

It is a document of the greatest interest. It comprises the primitive symbolic history analogons to that of Popal Vuh, but with numerous remarkable differences. Then comes the history proper of the Cakchiquel Kingdom established at Iximché whose ruins are found at about a league of the town of Tepan Guatemala.

The style of the work is varied and picturesque, and contains very animated passages.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Boturini, in his Catalogo del Museo Indio, places the Vocabulario under the date of 1583; but as it is not uncommon to antedate works printed without the year being named, I am inclined to believe the edition of 1611 to be the first.—Fields.

It will be noticed that in the titles, each without date, given by Fields and by Brasseur de Bourbourg, the imprints differ. I have seen two copies of still another without date, and with a different imprint from either of those given above: one of these is in the library of J. Carter Brown, the other in that of Harvard University; to the latter has been added in pencil the date of 1611. The title is as follows:

It differs especially from pure Mexican, in having the consonant l omitted after t in the middle and end of the words.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

The author was a Monk of the Franciscan Order and one of the earliest missionaries amongst the Indians, vide date of the present volume, which appears to be in the author's own handwriting. De Souza says that a volume of Sermons, in the Matlanzinga, was composed by Fr. Geronimo Bautista, Franciscan, in the year 1562, in the College of Tlateluco, in Mexico. He adds "This language is one of the most difficult of New Spain," and also states that the volume referred to (no doubt the present) exists in the Library of the College mentioned.—Fischer Sale Cat.

Title; reverse woodcut. 1 l. and 15 other p. ll. Text 112 ll. 12°. "This work," the Ramirez Sale Catalogue says, "has caused much diversity of opinion among Mexican Bibliographers as to whether there were more than one edition issued. The present copy contains two distinct lists of erratas, each occupying 2 ll., the heading of the one being printed in roman letters, that of the other in italics. Señor Ramirez has inserted a note in which he argues that both lists of errata pertain to the one edition, and asserts in consequence that this was the only edition published. Baptista, or Bautista, was a native Mexican. He became a Franciscan of the province of Santa Evangelio de Mejico. He taught philosophy and theology, and had for his pupil F. Torquemada, the author of 'Monarquía Indiana.' He was esteemed the most learned of his time in the Mexican language, which he spoke and wrote with purity and elegance."

Tross gives this the date of 1599-1600.

- 229 ——— Hvehvetlahtolli.

JCB.

Title wanting; incomplete copy. sm. 8°. The following description is taken from Bartlett's catalogue of the Brown library:

"Begins with signature A in the midst of the introduction signed by Fr. J. B. on verso of the eighth (unnumbered) leaf of the signature. Text, signatures B to N. The first and last leaves wanting; the remaining numbered 2 to 95 (the 3d, 5th, and 7th not numbered, and the 74th misnumbered 34). On the reverse of 95th leaf begins a table of errata.

"Bought at the sale of Puttick & Simpson, 1869, whose catalogue ascribes to the book the date, Mexico, 1599, which is also printed on the back. The title, "Hvehvetlahtolli" (which means "old words" or "ancient sayings") runs through the whole book on the top of each page, misprinted "Hvehvetlahtolli" on right of 38th, 48th, and 56th leaves. The work contains a number of those allocutions, in the Mexican or Nahuatl language, which Indian parents or civil authorities used to deliver at certain solemn occasions (cf. Sahagun, Book vi., Chapter 19). These are divided in paragraphs, numbered only in the first allocution, where a misprint gives to the 25th (on reverse of 12th leaf) the number 32. In continuation are given some doctrinal allocutions of Catholic priests to the Indians in the same language. They conclude on the reverse of the 76th leaf, and are followed by other Indian allocutions of fathers, mothers, etc.; translated from the Mexican into Spanish, by the Franciscan monk Fr. Andres de Olmos. They are said to be copied from the 223d chapter of the first part of Las Casas' "Apologetical History," where it is stated that Las Casas received them, being in Spain, from Father Olmos, in Mexico. They conclude on the right of the 95th leaf."

Ternaux mentions this as follows:

The only copy I have seen of this work, that in the library of John Carter Brown, was unaccompanied by the second part. Icazbalceta's Apuntes describes the latter as follows:

The same title, imprint and date; 16 p. ll.; ll. 13-143; ll. 1-104 with the Index Lucorum Communium hujus Secundæ Partis.

“Excudebat Ludonicus Ocharte Figueron Mexici, santi Jacobi de Tlatilulco. Anno Domini 1601.”

In a letter received from Sr. Icazbalceta, he says:

“These counsels contain much in the Mexican language. I have seen three different title pages of the second part. There are copies which contain the same title page as the first, even with the words Primera Parte; others have the same, but with the title Segunda Parte. I have seen moreover one loose one totally different from the others in regard to characters and escutcheons. The strangest part is that in the other title pages the license of the Viceroy commences on the verso of the title, and in the loose one the reverse side is blank, so that I do not know how it could belong to the copies. In the First Part the fold C consists of 9 leaves; one page was left out in the first impressions, and two were substituted for it; for this reason page 14 is duplicated.”

Only the first part of this collection of Sermons was published. In the preface is to be found some interesting notices principally concerning the early writers in the Mexican language.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes.

The author gives an interesting list of sixteen works which he had published, only two or three of which are now known to exist. He also refers to a second part of these sermons, of which he had already printed "gran pedaço," but which was probably never completed.—Ramirez Sale Cat.

“Written by some French missionary to the Abnakis. It is complete and well-preserved, though its pages bear traces of long and frequent use. It formerly belonged to Dr. John Pickering, to whom it was presented by Bishop (and Cardinal) Cheverus.
“It contains ‘Prière du Matin, en Marichit,’ ‘Cantique,’ ‘Prière du Soir, en Caniba,’ ‘Prière avant la Confession,’ ‘Interrogation pour la Confession,’ ‘Prières avant [et après] la Communion,’ ‘Catechisme,’ ‘Manière de Baptiser,’ etc.
“The mission for which this manual was compiled included Indians of at least two tribes, the Canibas, of whose principal dialect Rasles has given us a vocabulary, and the Etechemins and Mareschites, on and near the St. John’s River. ‘We read in the relations of the Jesuits, that the Canibas, the Etechemins, and other Indians of different tribes lived together in one village,’ under the instruction of the missionary Fathers (Manranlt, Hist. des Abenakis, 9); and it is not improbable that this manual contains translations made early in the 17th century, and preserved in manuscript copies by successive missionaries.”

Cherokee Phoenix. | Vol. 1. New Echota, Thursday, February 21,
1828. No. 1. | BA.

In No. 48, Vol. 1, Feb. 11, 1829, the heading was slightly changed, the eagle removed and to Cherokee Phoenix was added "and Indian Advocate."

Though claiming to be "weekly," it was issued irregularly, sometimes two weeks, and in one case nearly a month, intervening between issues.

The last I have seen was Aug. 11, 1832, Vol. 4, No. 52, but Professor Turner, in Ludewig, says it continued until May 31, 1834, Vol. 5, No. 52, when it was suspended for want of funds and perhaps not resumed.

See Worcester (S. A.) and Boudinot (Elias).

- 425 ——— and Worcester (S. A.) Cherokee Hymns | Compiled | from several authors | and revised. | By E. Boudinot & S. A. Worcester. | [Four lines Cherokee characters.] | Printed for the American Board of | Commissioners for Foreign Missions. |

Title, reverse blank, 1 l.; introduction, pp. iii-v; pp. 7-50; index, 1 l. 24°.

The first printing in the syllabic characters invented by Sequoyah (George Guess) was for the "Cherokee Phoenix," in February, 1828. The "Cherokee Hymns" was the first tract printed in those characters.

Vocabulary of the Eskelen, Nutka, and Rumsien, pp. 78, 79, 87.

Not seen; title and note from Mithridates. Ludewig gives the above title and says: Paris, 1789, 3 vols. 8°. He also gives other editions as follows: Second edition, 1792; third edition, Paris, 1803; German translation, Jena, 1789; and these dates have been copied by Sabin. I am under the impression that the Relation of Bourgoing is an extract from or review of Alcalá-Galiano's Relacion del Viage . . . Sutil y Mexicana en el año 1792, in which case an edition of 1789 would be impossible. As Bourgoing's best known work, Nouveaux Voyage en Espagne, was published in 3 vols., 8°, at Paris, 1789, 3d ed., 1803, Jena, 1789, it is probable Ludewig has mixed the two works.

This is the copy of the document marked at No. 13, § viii of the catalogue of Boturini, under the title of "Historia de los Reynos de Colhuacan y Mexico, etc."

This document, in which for the first time I have lifted the mysterious veil that covered the symbols of the religion and history of Mexico, is the most important of all those which remain to us of ancient Mexican annals. It embraces, chronologically arranged, the geological history of the world, by periods of 13 years, commencing more than 10,000 years before the Christian era, according to Mexican calculations.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Possibly this has been printed, as I find the following in a book catalogue, the date of which I do not know:

461 ——— Codex Chimalpopoca. Manuscrit en langue nahuatl de l'ancienne collection de Boturini sous le titre de Historia de los reynos de Colhuacan y Mexico. *

"In press. M. Brasseur de Bourbourg is making a duplicate translation of the first part of this work, which will soon appear. Under the fictions of mythologic story and under those of Quetzalcoatl and of the kings of Tollan, is veiled the history of that ancient cataclysm occasioned by the termination of the glacial epoch in America; it confines itself chiefly to the glaciers of the Amazon, described with minutest details, the volcanic eruptions which fixed the present continent, the age and epoch of sandstone which covers so great a part of these regions, and that of all the deposits which cover the Amazonian valleys. The whole of these revelations given by the Mexican geologists through ten thousand years agree in the closest possible manner even to the present time with the work of M. Agassiz. It explains fully what that savant so long sought, the origin and extent of the ancient Amazonian barriers, and reveals even to the smallest particulars those mysterious deposits of gold, silver, sapphire, emerald, and jade of whose discovery the Spaniards, in their search for the Eldorado, vainly dreamed."—Maisonneuve Book Cat.

Jean de Brebœuf was one of the first five Jesuit missionaries who came to Canada with Champlain in 1625. After having passed the winter following among the Montagnais, he was sent in 1626 among the Hurons, to whom he was the first Jesuit missionary. The conquest of the country by the English interrupted his mission, but Canada having been restored to France he in 1634 entered a second time into his work. In the spring of 1649, the Iroquois having taken St. Louis, where he worked with Pere Gabriel Lalemant, made prisoners of the two missionaries, and subjected them to the most cruel martyrdom.—Jesuit Relations.

"This work consists of two volumes; for the portions taken from it and published as separate treatises will have to be added to it as a second or supplementary volume, according to the author's explanation on pp. 119 and 120. Their separation from the main work has been owing to practical reasons; and they form, as shown by the continuous pagination, essential parts of the work. In fact, without their embodiment into the work, the use of the copious geographical index, which also refers to them, would be made nugatory. These treatises, or chapters, should be added to the second volume in the following order: I. Die Lautveränderung aztekischer Wörter in den sonorischen Sprachen. II. Die Pima Sprache. III. Der Athapaskische Sprachstamm. IV. Die Völker und Sprachen Neumexicos. V. Die Völker und Sprachen des britischen Ostlandes (contained in the October part of 1858 of "Monatsberichte der Berliner Akademie," pp. 465 to 486). VI. 560 ——— Chata Dictionary: Chata-English and English-Chata.

Manuscript, 5 vols. folio in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology.

This manuscript prepared by the late Rev. Cyrus Byington, for many years missionary to the Choctaws, contains about 16,000 words with English definitions. The material has been placed in the hands of Prof. O. T. Mason, of Columbian College, to be edited and prepared for publication as one of the series of "Contributions to North American Ethnology." He has compiled from it an English-Chata dictionary of 10,000 words to accompany the original work.

561 ——— Grammar of the Choctaw language.

Manuscript in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology.

This material also has been placed in the hands of Prof. O. T. Mason, of Columbian College, who is preparing it for publication by the bureau, as one of the series of Contributions to North American Ethnology.

As left by Mr. Byington it consists of several parts. The first is dated Stockbridge, Choctaw Nation, June 23d, 1865, and contains 85 pages of an old journal sewed together, in which a first attempt is made at systematizing the principles of the language. The remainder appears to be subsequent revisions of the chapters in the first edition. It is in the form of two or more foolscap sheets pinned or stitched together. Of some of the least understood portions of the language there are four or five copies, and it is not always possible to select the latest.

Dr. Daniel Brinton examined this manuscript and published an epitome which has been compared by Mr. Mason with the original with great care. It is a very careful piece of work considering the state of the manuscript.

The grammar evidently was designed to consist of nine chapters:

1. Introduction and alphabet.
2. Article-pronouns. [Post-positives, quantitatives, and determinatives.]
3. Pronouns.
4. Verbs.

5. Prepositions.
6. Nouns.
7. Adjectives.
8. Adverbs.
9. Conjunctions and interjections.

Mr. Mason has made copies of all these chapters in the various editions, and is now collating them.

Mr. Byington's material was left in an unfinished condition; it needs but a casual glance at his manuscript, however, to find that he looked forward to the wants even of our most advanced philology.

It is probable that Mr. Byington translated the Acts of the Apostles in Choctaw; see No. 16 of this catalogue.

Manuscript of the 17th century. 4°. [In the Mexican language.]

Although this manuscript has the title of "Camino del Cielo," after a most diligent comparison with the printed book of Father Leon which has that title, we have been unable to discover any relation between the one and the other. The contents of this volume can easily be recognized, and may be divided into two parts.

I. An extensive Confesionario occupies the first part, consisting of thirty leaves, including six blank leaves.

II. A collection of sermons and religious instructions on different subjects, occupying one hundred and ninety leaves, of which sixteen are blank leaves.

On one of the blank leaves we read "Al Pe. Oracio Carochi," which seems to intimate that the manuscript belonged to him.

The greater portion of it is written in an almost microscopic handwriting, although very clear and legible.—Ramírez Sale Cat.

The Chanabal language then is limited to a very small number of localities, around Comitan and in a radius of about twelve leagues in diameter, stretching especially toward the frontier of Guatemala on the south.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Coban Verapaz, sobre los misterios de la religion para uso de los Neofitos de la dicha provincia, compuestos por el Ven. Padre Fray Luis Cancer, de la orden de Santo Domingo. *

Manuscript, 33 ll. 4°.

This document comes from the ancient archives of the bishopric of Coban, in Verapaz. When I arrived at Rabinal it was in the possession of Ignacio Coloché, then secretary of the native municipality, and who presented me with it, together with many other documents of the same kind. He also assured me that it was attributed traditionally to the Venerable Luis Cancer, one of the first apostles of Verapaz. Fray Luis Cancer, born at Balbastro, in Arragon, was the companion of Las Casas and Angulo, and it is known with what holy ardor he defended the liberty of the natives, in the reunion of the bishops and theologians held at Mexico in 1546. He, with Las Casas, composed the first Christian hymns, which were destined to gain the natives of Verapaz, among whom they were introduced by some merchants, to the new faith. These hymns were written first in the Quiché idiom of Zacapulas, then in the Cacchi of Coban, etc. Having returned to Spain in the interest of the Indians, he was sent from there to Florida, where he was put to death by the savages, in 1549.

This manuscript is the only one of the sort at present extant. The airs to which the canticles were sung are found noted.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

591 Cantares Mexicanos. *

Manuscript, 179 ll. 4°.

Modern transcript from the original manuscript formerly existing in the library of the University of Mexico. On the first page is the following:

Esta copia se sacó de un volumen, 4 to. MS. que se conserva en la Biblioteca de la Universidad intitulada, por la parte de afuera, Cantares de los Mexicanos y otros opusculos, para mas asegriarmi de la fidelidad de la copia la encomiendé al Lic. D. Faustino Galicia. Este opusculo es el primero en la coleccion y los otros tienen los siguientes titulos.

2. Kalendario Mexicano. 3. Arte divinatorio de los Mexicanos. 4. Ejemplos de la SS. Eucharjstia en Mexicano. 5. Un sermon sobre aquello de “Estote sancti.” 6. Memoria de la Muerte. 7. Vida de San Bartolome. 8. Fabulas de Esopo. 9. Historia de la Pasion.

Todos ellos, con exepcion del 2º y 3º estan escritos por diversas personas, y algunas de sus formas pueden pertenecer al siglo XVI. Los demas parecen del siguiente. Mexico, Mayo, 12 de 1859. D. José F. Ramirez.

The entire volume of this precious collection is in the clear and distinct handwriting of Don Faustino Chimalpopoca, whose name is a sufficient guarantee for the faithfulness of the copy. The original manuscript having disappeared, according to Señor Icazbalceta (Cat. de Escritores, p. 146), this is, in all probability, the only complete copy existing of these remnants of ancient Mexican poesy.—Ramirez Sale Cat.

592 Cantos en Lengua Mexicana. *

Manuscript, 18 ll. sm. folio.

One original, the others translated from the Othomi. Copied by me at the library of the University of Mexico, in the month of February, 1865. It bore neither name nor date; from the writing it appears to belong to the XVIIth century, but the hymns contained in it date back for the most part to a time anterior to the conquest. At the head of each of these hymns is an indication of the air and the intonation to be given it, and also in some cases the instrument which should accompany it, according to musical measure of the Mexican rhythm.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

"The first edition of Cartier's Relations, printed at Paris in 1545, has proved hitherto to be of such extreme rarity that but a single copy has been known to exist for nearly three hundred years. The editor of the third, printed at Rouen in 1598, announces that he had translated it from a foreign language, which was, doubtless, the Italian of the second edition of Ramusio, a fact which proves that even at a date so early as only fifty years after its publication, the first edition was unknown. Cartier's Relations afford us the first positive information regarding the Indians of Canada, and contain the first vocabularies ever printed of the languages of any nation of American aborigines."—Field.

It existed, according to Dr. Nicolás Antonio, in the Libreria del Duque del Infantado; part of the original is also preserved in the Convent of Yucatan. It cost the author, says Cogolludo, twenty years of labor.—Beristain.

Celebrated for his learning, the Maya language found in Fr. Antonio de Ciudad-Real its greatest ornament. He dedicated himself to the study, cultivated literature in this language, and wrote a large Maya-Spanish or Spanish-Maya Dictionary, and the Calepino de la lengua Maya, in six volumes, more than a thousand two hundred folds in substance, in which laborious and delicate undertaking he spent many years of continuous toil and study. He wrote in the same language a Curso practico de oratoria sagrada de los santos y felividades de todo el año, and besides these works in the Yucatec idiom, he wrote in Spanish, while secretary to the fifteenth comissario-general of New Spain, a work entitled Tratado de las grandezas de la Nueva España.

The historian of Yucatan, Lopez Cogolludo, has immortalized, as it deserves, the name of Fr. Antonio de Ciudad-Real, by simply stating his learned labors in the Maya language. He says of him: "He knew the language of these Indians [of Yucatan] so thoroughly as to be the greatest master of it which this country has ever known. As such he preached, taught, and wrote, with great eloquence, sermons for the Saints' days and for the whole year. He not only made Vocabularios, one of which begins with Spanish and the other with the native language, but he composed a work, so remarkable for its extent, as to be designated Calepino de la lengua Maya. It is in six volumes, of two hundred folds of writing each, and by means of it many difficulties which present themselves in the native language are explained. It contains all that can be desired on the subject of the different modes of speech, which are almost innumerable, and it is so copious that not one word will be found wanting. It was an occupation that cost more than forty years of labor, and as the idiom, though peculiar to this province, is general in others, the work was, without doubt, one of the most celebrated given to the world in these realms."—Carillo.

The only copy I have seen, that in the library of the N. Y. Historical Society, is minus the English title, which I have supplied from Sabin's Dictionary, and also his note, as follows:

"This interesting volume is a fine specimen of Bradford's printing; and the impressions having been chiefly distributed among the Indians, and by them destroyed, it has become a book of almost matchless rarity. It is the earliest Book of Common Prayer in any tongue in this country. Mr. Claesse is said to be the translator, but the greater portion of it was prepared, some years previously, by a Mr. Freeman, a Calvinist minister at Schenectady, N. Y. In the 'Hist. Mag.,' i, 14, it is said to be without date or imprint, which is an error, the copy described being imperfect. Some interesting particulars concerning this work will be found in Humphrey's 'Historical Account of the Soc. for Prop. the Gospel,' c. xi; Hawkin's 'Notes'; O'Callaghan's 'List of Bibles,' &c."

Manuscript. 52 ll. 4°.

The estimable parish priest of Tizimin, D. Manuel Lucian Perez, has greatly surprised us by sending us an ancient original Maya manuscript, accompanied by a letter of the date of March 23rd of the present year (1870), in which he says among other things:

"I have the pleasure of sending with this a manuscript book which I have preserved for many years as a great treasure, since it treats of some important events with respect to the conquest of our country and especially of certain occurrences belonging to the history proper of the natives and various other mat ters. It has the great merit of antiquity and of being written throughout in pure Yucatec of the same epoch and undoubtedly by the hand of a native. The interesting literary periodical entitled Revista de Mérida, and its dissertation on the history of the Yucatec or Maya language, having just come under my observation, I have seen the deserved enthusiasm with which you speak of the Perez Codex, and the reading of it has convinced me that the book which I have the pleasure to remit to you, contains much of the first part of the said Codex and also many other things which the Codex does not contain."

This book, with which the kindness of the parish priest of Tizimin has enriched our cabinet is in pure Yucatec, and is another document agreeing with those which we have described, lacking only the delineation of ancient signs and characters. Not having the signature of the author we classify it under the name of Codice Anonimo.

The presbyter, D. Eusebio Barcelo, now curate ad interim of Oxkutzcab, has also certified to the existence, to within the last few months, of a Maya manuscript in the possession of a native family bearing the name of Xiu. This manuscript is of considerable size, with a variety of drawings. It would greatly gratify us if the person who now has this book or can give any notice of it, would communicate with us. In consequence of the said book having belonged to the family of Xiu at Oxkutzcab and the short distance of that place from Ticul, we insert the following note from a celebrated periodical of the year 1845, which says:

"Among the curious notices which are the result of our incessant investigations, one of the most interesting is on the existence of an ancient manuscript, the work of one of the most notable members of the family of Tutul Xiu, which became very illustrious after the arrival of the Spaniards. And as from the power of his family, its antiquity and traditions, he was perfectly informed in the history of his ancestors, he drew up a history which began with the first appearance of the native tribes and reached to the conquest. The book is in folio, covered with parchment; it has been transmitted in order of succession to the heirs of the family name.

"A few years ago this book was found at Ticul, and in consideration of a real, could be read by any one who desired to do so. If our illustrious fellow laborer, Fr. Estanislao Carillo, could have visited the town at that time and could have secured the book, it is certain that we would have at least a copy of that production, which in its way would be of great interest and would render clear certain matters which are now the subject of doubt and conjecture.

"Sr. D. Juan Pio Perez made great efforts to obtain it. He spoke with many persons who had read it, but when he endeavored to secure it, offering much more than others were accustomed to give, this precious manuscript disappeared.

"It is very desirable that the lovers of their country, her history and past glories, should devote themselves to discovering the hiding place of this book, which remains hidden doubtless because many persons have given it its due importance, which is unknown to its possessors, and these latter, fearful of losing it, or else being imbecile egotists, make a mystery of what is so worthy of being made known and published.

"We being very desirous to find a book so important from every point of view, charge all who are interested in their country to be active in the search for this book, which certainly exists, if not in Ticul, in some neighboring town. If it can be discovered, and if the work is such as it has been described to us by several persons who have seen it, the editor of this periodical will suitably reward the discoverer."

We will say in conclusion, that a manuscript work of the Chilán Balam order, which we had seen and handled in company with the Sr. Dr. Berendt, was on the way from the town of Hocabá to this city [Mexico] where it was destined for our cabinet. Through an error the person who had it in charge consigned it to the mercantile house of D. Pedro Leal, the result being the loss of the manuscript and great injury to the cause of historical research.—Carillo.

Codice—continued.

830 ——— Codice Chumayel in the Maya Language. *

Manuscript. 112 pp. 4°.

As Sr. D. Juan Pio Perez found the Libro Divino, or “Chilan Balam” of Mani, and other works in various places in the Peninsula, so we had the good fortune to find that of Chumayel, a town in the district of Tekax, or Sureste del Estado; hence the name Codice Chumayel. It is evident that in consequence of its antiquity and the neglect into which it has fallen there are some leaves missing at the beginning. It is subscribed on page 44 under date of January 20, 1780, by the noble Indian D. Juan Joti Hoil, who, to judge from the character of the writing, wrote the whole text, with the exception of some insignificant intercalations in another hand.—Carillo.

889 [Córdoba (Fr. Juan).] Vocabulario de la Lengua Zapoteca, ó Diccionario Hispano-Zapoteco. *

Mexico, Ocharte, 1571.

4°. The Dominicans, authors of the work, "Scriptores Ordinis Prædicatorum," agree that the author of this vocabulario was Fr. Pedro Feria, Provincial of St. Dominic of Mexico, confounding this book with the Confesonario Zapoteca, which was really written by Feria. And D. Nicholas Antonio was near falling into the same error, when speaking of the Confesonario of Father Feria, he called it Vocabulario.—Beristain.

Concerning this work, Sr. Icazbalceta writes me as follows:

I have not seen this book, nor do I know whether any copy exists. Of the authors who mention it, Beristain is the only one who gives the date of the edition and the name of the printer, Pedro Ocharte, 1571, in 4°. It appears that Beristain saw it; but, notwithstanding this, I believe the date to be an error, and that it should be 1578.

Father Burgoa (Geogr. Descrip., fol. 255) declares that Father Córdoba finished the Vocabulario after he was relieved of the office of Provincial. This is proved to have been on the 7th of October, 1570, and between this event and his retirement to the Convent of Hamechahnya, where he finished the work, there would not have been time for all that Father Córdoba accomplished, much less for the printing of the work.

In the license given by the bishop of Oajaca for the printing of the Arte, dated June 8th, 1578, it says of the Vocabulario, "That it is now printed in the said language." The license also speaks of a Confesionario breve which does not appear.

Beristain gives this title in brief, and adds:

Fr. Juan de S. Antonio, in his Biblioteca Franciscana, asserts that in the library of the College of S. Buenaventura of Seville, Letter M, number 165, there exists, in manuscript, a Doctrina Christiana in the language of Yucatan, by our Coronel, more diffuse than the printed copy.

Fray Juan Coronel, Franciscan, graduated at the University of Alcalá in Spain, went to Yucatan in the year 1590, where he learned and publicly taught the language of the Indians. He was one of the disciples of the Chronicler Cogolludo. He was guardian of the Recollect Convent of Mejorada, and died in one of the Convents of Merida, in the year 1651, aged 82 years.

Frontispiece engraved by Navarro; preface 9 ll. Viage de Hernan Cortes, xvi pp. Map of New Spain, drawn by J. A. de Alzate y Ramirez, Mexico, 1769; plan of the grand temple of Mexico; picture representing the ancient Mexican calendar. Text 400 pages, index 9 ll. folio. The map of California, which is found between pages 328 and 329, was drawn in Mexico, in 1541, by the pilot Domingo del Castillo.

“An extremely important work, containing valuable documents on the history of the conquest of Mexico. It suffices to say that the three celebrated letters (the second, third, and fourth) of Fernand Cortes are reproduced in this volume in order that one may judge of its historical value, which the notes of the learned Archbishop of Mexico further enhance. Between pages 176 and 177, under the title “Cordillera de los pueblos que antes de la conquista pagaban tributo à el Emperador Muctezuma, y en que especie y cantidad,” are 31 pp. (numbered 32) giving the fac-simile of a Mexican book in hieroglyphic characters, with the transcript in Latin letters, and Spanish translation.

Manuscript, 476 ll. folio, in the library of the American Philosophical Society, Philadelphia.

Title taken from Dr. D. G. Brinton's article in the American Journal Science and Arts, v. 7, pp. 222-230, where he describes it as follows:

This dictionary is a splendid testimonial to the zeal and scholarship of the Franciscan missionaries. The pages are large, with double columns, 37 lines to a page, written quite distinctly, though here and there the ink has faded so that it is difficult to read. The first 15 pages are handsomely written in imitation of printed letters. The characters of Parra are adopted for the five peculiar sounds. Unfortunately, the copy is incomplete, ending with the word vendible. As it is exclusively Spanish and Cakchiquel, it complements the Cakchiquel and Spanish Calepino of Varea.

It should be observed that the letter C is wrongly bound so that the latter part of it comes first, and several other letters do not seem to have been finished. This copy appears to date from early in the last century, and is unique so far as I know. Coto was a native of Guatemala and lived in the latter part of the 17th century. Mr. Squier gives under his name only one title "Thesaurus Verborum; ó Frases y Elegancias de la Lengua de Guatemala;" which, probably, is the same work as the above. It is peculiarly valuable, not only for the linguistic material it contains, but for the light it throws on numerous customs of the natives, on the botany and zoology of the country, and for its quotations of manuscript works in Cakchiquel. Coto's principal authorities are Father Francisco Maldonado's sermons in that tongue, those of Father Antonio Saz (de san Joachim, de la visitacion, de la asuncion, de la concepcion, manual en la lengua, and others, none of them mentioned by Mr. Squier or Pimentel), Father Domingo Vico, bishop of Chiapas, and the "calepino" of Varea.

- 909 Cotton (Josiah). Vocabulary of the Massachusetts (or Natick) Indian Language. By Josiah Cotton. [Edited by John Pickering.]

In Mass. Hist. Soc. Coll., third series, vol. 2, pp. 147-257. Cambridge, 1830. 8°.

"Advertisement" (which includes "Notice of the Manuscript; with remarks on the Author's Orthography and the Pronunciation of the Language", signed J. P.), pp. 147-149; Vocabulary, 155-243; Appendix, 244-257.

The words of the vocabulary are grouped or classified, having such headings as "Of Arts," "Of Beasts," "Of Rational Creatures," &c.; "Adjectives," "Verbs," "Imperative Mood," "Participles," "The Creed," "A talk between two," "Adverbs," "Pronouns," "Sentences," and "A Dialogue"; it also contains a letter, the Natick version being signed Jno. Nemumin.

The Appendix contains "Examples from the Indian Primer" (Eliot's), words of from one to fifteen syllables; two versions of the Lord's Prayer from Eliot's Bible, and two from the Indian Primer; the Ten Commandments, from the Primer; "A Sermon preached by Josiah Cotton to the Massachusetts Indians in

1710"; and "Extracts from a Sermon in English and Indian, the English part being in the hand-writing of Josiah Cotton, and the Indian in that of his father, John Cotton."

The above vocabulary though written, according to the statement of the editor, in 1707-'8, was printed here for the first time. It was issued also separately, with title-page as follows:

The copy of the above seen by me in the library of the Am. Ant. Soc., was not complete, judging from the description of the copy in the Brinley Library, described in the Catalogue of Books and Tracts, in: Am. Ant. Soc., Proc., No. 61, where the following translation and description is given:

Translation: Greatest Sinners called and encouraged to come to Christ, and that Now, quickly. Also, that it is very dangerous for people to delay their repentance, And a Discourse concerning the Judgment Day; and concerning some other Truths.

Manuscript. 35 ll. 4°. The Arte occupies the first 9 ll.; the 11 following contain the Doctrina Christiana; the remainder, various subjects; the salutation of the native alcaldes in transmitting to each other the baton of office, “Mundança de varas,” and other salutations imitated more or less from the speeches anciently made by the native lords on solemn occasions. The last important portion of this manuscript is a sermon for Good Friday, composed and preached by P. Damian Delgado, to the title of which the copyist has added these words: “Con este solo sermon sabias bien lengua.”—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

- 1017 ———. Sermones varios, predicados en lengua Quiche por el padre fray Damian Delgado, y trasladados, para el uso de los padres de la Santa Orden de n^{ro} padre Santo Domingo en Rabinal (por el padre fr. Domingo de Basseta), etc. *

Manuscript. 123 ll. 4°. The first 83 ll. comprise homilies and sermons on Sundays and feast days, by P. Damian Delgado, preceded by these words: “Quaderno de Evangelios en la lengua quiché, los quales saque de un librito viejo que no tenia principio,” and ending with these: “Fin de los Evangelios que estaban escriptos de letra de Fr. Damian Delgado.” Signed “Basseta.”

The two sermons following are also in the handwriting of father Domingo de Basseta, but do not appear to be by him: they were written or re-copied by him, in the last years of the 17th century; his vocabulary, which I have, is of the year 1698. The three following are subsequent, and according to the note which ends them, were preached in the villages of Zacualpa, San Antonio and Santa Cruz del Quiché, by father Joaquin Ramirez, of Aguilera, in 1712. These have no titles.

P. Fr. Damian Delgado wrote, besides these sermons, “Arte y Vocabulario” of the languages mentioned by Beristain.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

 Manuscript. 4°. This valuable manuscript is in the library of the late Hon. J. Carter Brown, Providence, R. I. Mr. Bartlett, in his catalogue of that library, thus speaks of it:
 "This dictionary bears internal evidence that the original copy was composed between the years 1590 and 1600, by a Franciscan priest long resident in Yucatan, and that the present copy is a transcript made during the following century. It is beautifully written, and from the large number of words and full definitions which it contains, could only have been compiled by one familiar with the language. In extent the dictionary is not surpassed by that of any aboriginal language of America, and, if printed, would probably make a volume as large as the well-known dictionary of the Mexican language by Molina.
 "The Maya language is spoken by the native tribes of Yucatan and parts of the adjacent provinces; and what adds to its interest is the belief that it is the language of the people who erected the remarkable monuments of Yucatan, made known to the world through the works of Waldeck, Stephens, Catherwood, and Norman. This dictionary has never been printed, and it is not known that any other manuscript copy exists."
 The late Dr. C. H. Berendt made a copy of the above which is now in the hands of Dr. D. G. Brinton, Philadelphia.

 Manuscript. 103 ll. 4°. It comprises 123 sermons in the Tzendale language. The name of the author is signed twice—first on the recto of l. 1, and, second, on the verso of the last leaf but one, following a sort of allocution to the alcaldes of the place where he wrote. This place seems to have been the pueblo of Tzibac-ha, otherwise called Ocotitan, from the words "Tzibac-ha vinic" man, or inhabitant of Tzibac-ha, which are found under the last signature, unless they indicate the place of his birth. These sermons were preached in various places as we see from the titles of some, which have the date of 1672 and 1675.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

 Manuscript of the 17th century. 4°. Thirteen leaves, in a small, but very neat, and legible handwriting. They are without a title, but we suppose them to be, more or less, the same as those published by Fr. Juan Bautista under the title of Huchuetlahtolli, but of which, unfortunately, only one or two fragments have been preserved.—Ramirez Sale Cat., No. 521.

1046 Doctrina. [Doctrina Christiana, Arte, etc., in Cakchiquel.] *
Manuscript. 109 ll. sm. 4°. In library of the Philosophical Society, Philadelphia.

Title taken from Dr. D. G. Brinton's article in the American Journal of Science and Arts, vol. xlvii, pp. 222-230, where he describes it as follows:

Unfortunately the first leaf, with the general title, is missing. The top of the second leaf commences in the midst of a sentence in a Doctrina Christiana in Cakchiquel. This covers ten leaves, and is followed by two leaves of "Preguntas de la Doctrina," all in Cakchiquel. Next comes a "Confessionario breve en lengua Cakchiquel." The Spanish translation of each question and answer is also given. After the Confessionario are three leaves, unnumbered and blank, except that on the recto of the second is a Latin prayer to the Virgin, difficult to decipher. On the recto of the next leaf is the following:

Arte | de la lengua cak | chiquel.

It is written in a clear, small hand, covers fifty-four pages, with 30 lines, on an average, to the page, sometimes with one column, sometimes with two, and closes with this colophon—

Martes ã 24 de Junio de 1692 años dia del Nacimiento de S. Juan Baptista se acavo el traslado de oraçiones y Arte en Kakchiquel.

From the close of this to the 96th leaf there is another series of doctrinal questions headed—

(I designate the peculiar modification of the consonants by italics.)

Another "Confessionario breve en lengua castellana y cakchiquel" then follows, twelve pages in length, differing considerably from the previous one. The rest of the volume is taken up with "Platicas," short discourses on religious subjects. One of them is an incident from the life of Saint Vincent Ferrer, related for the purpose of "terrifying the natives, and dispelling the shame they usually have about confessing." There is an index to the book, and on the verso of the last leaf this note in regard to the binding, "Este quaderno es de Fr. Alberto Miguez"; said "quaderno" being in dark calf, without boards, and with strings. The characters of Parra are employed in all the divisions of the work, and the writing is mostly quite legible.

There is no hint throughout where this work was written, nor by whom. The colophon above quoted seems to show that it is the original, at least of the Arte and the prayers. From the mention of Saint Vincent Ferrer, a Dominican, and from the known rivalry of the two orders at that time in Central America, I am inclined to attribute it to a Dominican rather than a Franciscan. None of the bibliographical authorities already quoted mention any writer of either order who prepared works of this kind in Cakchiquel at or very near 1692. The manuscript proceedings of the Philosophical Society for Sept., 1836, when the books were received throw no light on the matter.

The linguistic value of the Arte is considerable. Only two grammatical notices of the language seem to have been published, one about 1560 in Mexico, another in 1763, in Guatemala. Both of them are excessively rare, and indeed it is doubtful if any copy of the first is in existence. The Cakchiquel is peculiarly important in the comparative study of this group of languages, and with the rich materials here at hand to illustrate all its constructions, a publication of this short manuscript with notes would be most welcome to American linguists.

Of its existence I have no doubt, but I do not vouch for the accuracy of the description taken from No. 1950 of "Ensayo de una Biblioteca de Libros raros y curiosos, formado con los Aumentamientos de D. Bartholemé José Gallardo, coordinados y aumentados por Zareo del Valle y Rayon," and from the original annotation of Gallardo, which, strange to say, does not wholly conform to the printed title. This Doctrina was, according to Beristain, reprinted in 1689, and this statement is confirmed by a passage in the Noticia de la lengua huasteca, of Tapia Centeno."
I presume this is by Fr. Juan Cruz, though Sr. Icazbalceta does not put it under his name. See No. 934 of this catalogue.

Doctrina—continued.

Title from Sr. Icazbalceta's Life and Writings of Bishop Zumarraga, where it is described as follows: In 8° Gothic letter. An edition, unknown, communicated to me by Sr. D. José M. de Agreda. The text, wholly in Mexican, commences on the verso of the frontispiece without any other title than "Doctrina." The alphabet follows, and immediately thereafter "Nican ompehua in doctrina xp̄iana mexico tlatolli tiquitohua i nemaeh tiliz in xp̄ianome cēca monequi in-ixquich tlacatl," &c., which continues to fol. cij, wanting the remaining leaves, most likely one only, since there are 7 of the signature N. Neither the name of the author, nor the date of the edition is given, though it is without doubt a production of the presses of Cromberger or Juan Pablos, corresponding to the first years of our typography. The types and typographic ornaments are the same which were employed in the first impressions of this house. There is likewise, on the frontispiece, the Episcopal scutcheon of Sr. Zumarraga, which shows the edition to have been made at his expense and during his life. I judge it to be of the year 1547.

Concerning the author of this anonymous Doctrina there appears to me to be sufficient reason to attribute it to Fr. Pedro de Gante.

1053 ——— Doctrina Cristiana en lengua española y mexicana, hecha por los religiosos de la orden de Santo Domingo. *

Title from Sr. Icazbalceta's Life and writings of Bishop Zumarraga, where it is described as follows:

Signatures A-T of 8 ll., and V of 4 ll., 156 numbered ll. of 2 columns, Spanish and Mexican. 4° Gothic letter.

I have seen but one copy of this most rare work: it belonged to Sr. D. José F. Ramirez, passing afterwards into the possession of Sr. D. Alfredo Chavero, and since into that of Sr. D. Manuel Fernandez del Castillo, who bought it at a sale in London for £59. It is the same as that described in my Apuntes, No. 100. It is incomplete, wanting all of fold A, and the first leaf of B, or the first 9 ll., beginning with the tenth, numbered x. It lacks, also, the upper part of the last leaf on which was the colophon; but these faults have been supplied as to certain points by means of a manuscript copy made in 1775, which I have among my books. It bears a frontispiece which pretends to be a fac-simile, and it agrees with that of the edition of 1550, given below. Above it says: "Veritas domini manet in eternum," followed by a scutcheon of S. Domingo, and at the foot: Declaracion y exposicion de la Doctrina Christiana en Lengua Española & Mexicana: echa por los religiosos de la orden de Sancto Domingo. Año de 1548.

On the verso of the last leaf is the colophon, which, completed by means of the manuscript copy, reads thus:

Con Privilegio Imperial. A gloria y alabanza de nuestro Redemptor Jesu Christo y de su bendita Madre, aqui se acaba la declaracion de la Doctrina Christiana en Lengua española y Mexicana, y una columna corresponda á otra: sentencia por sentencia: de grande utilidad y provecho para la salud de las animas, y en especial para los naturales desta tierra/ | p̄ q̄ sean fundados y roborados en las cosas d̄ n̄ra setā fe catol- | lica: y animados pa la gnarda d̄ los mandamiētos diuinos: y pa | q̄ todos sepan los grādes dones y req̄zas que n̄o clemētis- simo | redemptor q̄so comunicar mediante sus sac̄tōs sacramentos con | el exercicio de las obras d̄ mia: assi corporales como sp̄iales: to | do lo q̄l se cōtiene ē los q̄rēta sermōcicos aq̄ contenidos. John Eliot, born 1604, died 1690, came to New England in 1631, commenced the study of the Indian language about 1646, and from that time on devoted himself to the teaching of the Indians. His translation of the Bible was completed in 1658, after a labor of eight years. Portions had already been printed—Genesis in 1655, Matthew, and a few Psalms in meter. The printing of the New Testament was commenced about 1659 and completed in 1661 in an edition of about 1500 copies, of which 200 were ordered by the commissioners to be bound in leather for the immediate use of the Indians. Twenty copies, with a dedication of the New Testament to Charles II., were sent to England for presentation. The Old Testament was finished in 1663 in an edition of about 1040 copies. Most of these were bound with the New Testament, Psalms, and one leaf Catechism, as occasion required. Those intended for the use of the Indians had both titles in Indian only. A dedication of the whole Bible to Charles II., and a general title in English in place of the Indian one, were prefixed to a few copies, twenty of which were sent to England. Two of these dedication copies, one of which is now in the Library of Brown University at Providence, contain the general title in both English and Indian. Another, formerly in the possession of the Rev. Thaddens M. Harris, contains both of the royal dedications.* In some of the dedication copies the New Testament title is without the printer's device of 32 stars. Some copies have the running title to Luke xxi and xxiv incorrectly numbered "10" and "15"; others have these errors corrected, but in so doing the last letter of the catch-word waabeh on L² has been pushed into the margin, thns: waabe h.

Fifteen years later, at the close of the Indian war of 1675-8, this edition had been exhausted. Many of the Bibles had been carried away or destroyed, and those in use were mostly imperfect. After a thorough revision by Mr. Eliot and the Rev. John Cotton, the printing of the new edition of the New Testament was commenced in 1680, but, although the title bears the date of this year, it was not completed until 1682. The edition was 2,500, of which 500 were bound for immediate use.† No copy of this separate edition is known to be extant. Late in 1685, or early in 1686, after six years' labor, the printing of the new edition of the Old Testament was completed in an edition of 2,000 copies, most of which were bound with the remaining New Testaments. The title, which bears date of 1685, may have been printed in both Indian and English,‡ but no copy has yet been found with the latter. A dedication to the Hon. Robert Boyle, dated October 23, 1685, and printed on the recto of a single leaf, was prefixed to a few copies, only three of which are now known.§

Notwithstanding the comparatively large number printed of both editions, but few copies have been preserved to the present time. Six copies of the New Testament of 1661 are known in this country. Three of these are in public libraries, one of which, now in the Lenox Library, was purchased at the Brinley sale in 1879 for $700. Of the first edition of the Bible, over thirty copies are known, and nearly as many of the second edition. Most of these are in public libraries. The rarity and importance of this remarkable work, the first Bible printed in America, has been fully recognized only within the last twenty-five years. Forty years ago the original edition was priced in a well-known London bookseller's catalogue at 12s., and an eminent American collector purchased a fine copy for 20s. A copy of the second edition was sold at the Furman sale in New York in 1846 for $11. But since the sale of Corwin's copy of the first edition in 1856 for $200 the price has rapidly advanced, and good copies of this edition have repeatedly been sold for upwards of $1,000.

- 1180 ——— [The Book of Genesis, and the Gospel of Matthew, translated by John Eliot. Cambridge, 1655]. *

Eliot wrote, Aug. 16, 1655: "Genesis is printed, and we are upon Matthew." (Thorowgood's Jewes in America, pt. ii, p. 53.) In December, 1658, he mentions "those pieces that were printed, viz., Genesis and Matthew," which he "had sent to such as he thought had best skill in the language, and entreated their animadversions, but heard not of any faults they found." (A further Account of the Progress, etc., pp. 2, 3).—Trumbull.

- 1181 ——— [Psalms in Metre. 1658?]. *

In a postscript to the "Epitomy of such Exhortations as these Indians . . . did deliver," etc., sent by Eliot to the Corporation, Dec. 28, 1658, he wrote: "They have none of the Scriptures printed in their own language, save Genesis and Matthew, and a few Psalmes in Meester." (A further Account etc.) The Treasurer's account presented Sept., 1659, includes a payment "To Mr. Green, in part for printing the Psalmes."—Trumbull.

- 1182 ——— [The Psalter. 1663]. *

The Commissioners, S. pt. 10, 1664, write that 500 Psalters have been printed (Rec. U. Col., ii, 316), and the same year there is an item in the Treasurer's account for "printing 9 sheets of the Psalter, at 20 shillings a sheet." This charge is too small to include composition, and it is probable that these 500 copies of the Psalms were worked from the forms used in printing the Old Testament and were bound up separately.—Trumbull.

1184 ——— [A Catechism, by John Eliot. 1653-54.] *

The Commissioners of the U. Colonies wrote, Sept. 24, 1653: "Mr. Eliot is preparing to print a Catechism in the Indian language," etc.; and they authorized the Commissioners for Massachusetts to order the printing of 500 or 1,000 copies. (Records of Comm'rs, II, 105, 106.) The next year, Sept. 25, they wrote: "One Catechism is already printed, and Mr. Peirson is preparing another," etc. (Id., 120.) Of this little book, which, so far as is known, appears to have been the first printed in New England in the Indian language, no copy has been found. A "new impression" was made in 1662.—Trumbull.

1185 ——— [A Catechism, by John Eliot. Second Impression. 1662.] *

This "new impression of a Catechism" is mentioned by the Commissioners in 1661, in their estimate of expenditure for the ensuing year. Mr. Usher was instructed "to take order for reprinting of 1,000 copies" (Rec. U. Cols., II, 260, 265). In his account, presented Sept., 1662, is an item for "printing 1,500 catechisms, £15.00.00" (ibid., 278). The cost of printing, at this period, was about £2.10 per sheet, for 1,000 copies (exclusive of paper, which was supplied by the Corporation), and this would not be increased more than twenty per cent. (to £3) by the press-work on 500 additional copies. At £3 per sheet, the Catechism must have required five sheets (80 pages, sm. 8°), to bring the cost of the edition to £15. This agrees nearly with the charge of paper for printing the first edition in 1654; when "for the two Catechisms," Eliot's and Peirson's, Green used 30 reams. Not more than 14½ reams was required for Peirson's (4½ sheets per copy, edition of 1,500), leaving at least 15½ for Eliot's, or sufficient for a small 8° of 70 to 75 pages.—Trumbull.

LONDON, May 4.—Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach paid £6,800 to-day for John Eliot's translation into the language of the Massachusetts Indians of Richard Baxter's "Call to the Unconverted," in the original boards, at Sotheby's sale of the famous Norfolk book collection.

FINDS OLD BOOK RARE PRIZE

Alton, Ill., Minister Hears Other Copy of Volume Brought $32,640

Alton, Ill., May 16 (AP).—Prized only because it was old and had been handed down through four generations, an ancient tome in possession of the Rev. N. J. Hilton of Alton has been revealed as a mate of Richard Baxter's "A Call to the Unconverted," for which, London dispatches said yesterday, an American book collector paid $32,640, believing it the only copy extant.

Origin of Dr. Hilton's copy is lost in antiquity, other than that it came to him from his grandfather, Elijah Norton.

"I have now finished what I shall do at present; and in a word or | two to satisfie the prudent enquirer how I found out these new wayes | of Grammar, which no other Learned Language (so farre as I know) useth; I thus inform him: God first put into my heart a compassion | over their poor souls, and a desire to teach them to know Christ, and to | bring them into his kingdom. Then presently I found out (by Gods | wise providence) a pregnant witted young man, who had been a ser- | vant in an English house, who pretty well understood our Language, | better that he could speak it, and well understood his own Language: | Him I made my interpreter * * * *"

- 1250 I. Examen critico de la Gramatica Otomi de Neve y Molina. *

Manuscript of the 18th century. 4°. 55 ll. in a very clear and neat handwriting.

II. Discursu critico de la Doctrina Otomi. *

15 ll. in the same condition.

Both works from the same anonymous writer, who tells us, however, that he is a native of Otomi, who by forty years of continental study and practice considers himself a perfect master of this, the most difficult and intricate of all American languages.

The first of the two treatises is one of the bitterest and severest critiques that has ever been written. After annihilating the grammatical rules which Neve intended to apply to the Otomi language, our author holds him up to ridicule and contempt; now lashing him in prose, and then in verse; sometimes in pure Spanish, at others calling to his aid his native Otomi. We suppose that the bitterness which characterizes the first tract prevented its publication, but both are worthy of that honour. They contain not only valuable information on the language of the inhabitants of the Mexican Valley before the immigration of the Toltecs and the rise of the Mexicaus—still largely in use among the natives—but also interesting historical notices.—Ramirez Sale Cat.

Attention is directed to the fact that at the same time two editions were made of the Doctrina of Fr. Benito Fernandez, the printing of one (see the preceding number) was completed on the 22d of November, 1567, and the other on the 24th of January, 1568. Taking the time into account there is no doubt that the printing of this last alone lasted two months, and consequently it began to be printed before the completion of the other. But the whole is explained by this single observation: that his two works were written in different dialects of the Mexican language. It is enough to compare the two volumes to prove it. According to Sr. Pimentel, the edition of 1567 is in the dialects of Tlachiaco and Chintla, and that of 1568, in that of Tepuzculula, which is the principal language. Father Hernandez (or Fernandez), being so well versed in the languages of those provinces and wishing, without doubt, to be useful to the missionaries, labored at the two Doctrinas in two of these principal dialects, and published them at about the same time. In the library of the Sociedad de Geografía y Estadística there is a manuscript of 220 ll., 4^o, which begins thus: "Aqui comienzan algunos modos de bien hablar en lengua Cluchona (another dialect of the Mixteco) de Cuextlahuaca." And near the end: "Index seu tabula oim contentor in hac salubri doctrina f. Benedicti ferdinandii bonæ mem^e viri apl'ici."

There is also another manuscript in 4^o, much mutilated, which contains, according to Sr. Pimentel, doctrine and orations and christian morals, in the Tepuzculula language. In one of the leaves there is a note in Mixteco, in which we can only read the name of "Fray Benito." Probably this manuscript is his also.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 107.

During the eighteenth century several efforts were made by Spaniards of high official position to extinguish the native languages of the Indians. Archbishop Lorenzana was persuaded to enter into this crusade, and to give a long "Informe" to the king of Spain, in which he indicates the ways and means to accomplish the proposed extinction.

Father Figueroa, an enlightened missionary and an untiring friend of the Indian, took up his pen, and, in rather indignant terms, undertook to show, not only the injustice, but also the impracticability of the project. Incidentally he goes into the question of the mental capacity of the Indians, and gives much information not to be found elsewhere.—Ramirez Sale Cat.

“William Fisher, esq., must have been a hold man, and he may not have been a bad man too. Whereas the compiler, or editor, or whatever he may have been, of the editions of 1809 [see Lewis (Capt. Meriwether), No. 2282] retired behind an anonym, William Fisher not only stole his production bodily, and gave it another name, but also formally announced himself as the author of the same; for the edition of 1812 is a literal reprint, as nearly as may be, of that of 1809—even to the snake story and Master Neddy. The edition of 1813 is nearly another reprint; the title reads substantially the same, though the typography of the title-page is entirely different. In this edition, Master Neddy is dropped. The edition is notable as the first of this series of apocrypha which was illustrated. The smiling faces of ‘Captains Lewis and Clarke, returned’ greet us; we have a tragic scene of an Indian ‘destined to death’ by the flames; a thrilling view of a man with a bear behind and a precipice in front, &c. William Fisher does not appear to have possessed the copyright of this production.”—Cowes.

The three titles above are from Carrillo, in Bol. Geog. Soc. Mex.; the first two have since been furnished me in extenso by that gentleman. The first two are in Brasseur de Bourbourg also, but are ascribed to Henderson (Alexander), and the collation of each given as 17 pp., 8°, adding to the first "in Spanish-Maya." The collation of the third, Sabin gives as 83 pp.

To reconcile these differences I wrote to Sr. Icazbalceta, of the city of Mexico, for an explanation; he kindly forwarded my letter to Sr. Carrillo who replied as follows:

"The Catecismo . . . and the Devocionario . . . are anonymous, and I do not know what reason any writer has had to attribute them to Mr. Henderson. I have attributed them to Mr. Fletcher because that gentleman, on the occasion of a visit which he paid me in the year 1871, told me that they were his works, our deceased friend, Sr. D. Carlos H. Berendt, being witness. (See the note which he appended to my dissertation on the History of the Maya language on page 191 of the Boletín de la Soc. Mex., vol. 4, 1872.) I have in my possession a copy of each of these little works and I forward copies of their respective title-pages which are in Maya and Spanish.

"As regards the 'Leti u Evanhelio Hezu Cristo hebix Huan,' I have no copy; but Mr. Fletcher, who told me he was its author, showed me a copy and regretted that he could not let me have it, for it was the only one he had. He then copied the title-page. As I had forgotten to count the pages I calculated afterwards that it must have about 100 pages, and this is why in the Boletín (p. 91) I say '100 págs. poco mas ó menos,' a phrase which I do not use about other books. I do not doubt that Sabin was right when he said 83 pages."

According to Beristain this edition is the second; but he does not indicate the date of the first. Ternaux comments on two editions: one in 1583, the other in 1593. I have seen only that of 1582, and I do not believe there is any other. The approvals and licenses are all from April to August, 1582.

P. Gaona died in 1560, and his work was published by P. Fr. Miguel de Zarate. The dedication of this to the viceroy, dated May 26, 1582, clearly indicates that it treats of a first edition.

The copy which I possess is intercalated, in alternate leaves, with a manuscript translation of the same work into another native language, which, up to the present time, I have not been able to identify, nor have I found any one who could tell me what it is. The lettering is of the sixteenth century, very clear and even, and with the titles in red ink.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 31.

See Coloquios, No. 844, of this catalogue.

1401 ——— Colloquios de la paz y tranquilidad christiana. *

Manuscript. 8°. Lettering of the xvi. century, red and black.

Anonymous translation. It begins in the same way as that mentioned in No. 31, and is the same lettering. It occupies 91 leaves. I believe that it is in Otomi, because there follows in the volume a treatise of 135 leaves which is declared to be in Otomi, and it appears to be the same language.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 110.

The above-mentioned manuscript belonged to Sr. Ramirez. In the sale catalogue of his books it is titled and described as follows:

I. Coloquios de la paz y tranquilidad christiana. Interlocutores: Un religioso y un colegial. Manuscript of 91 leaves. (A translation.) II. A course of religious instructions by an anonymous writer; ll. 138; in 1 vol. 8vo.

Both these works are in the Othomi language, written during the sixteenth century, in a small, clear, and beautiful handwriting, with titles and initials in red. This is one of the most precious gems of this collection.

In Tross' Bib. Mex., a manuscript with the same title is given under Gaona; the collation is 148 ll., 8°, and the date 1683; it is said to be a copy of the printed edition of 1582.

Title from Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 114.

1547 ——— Cartilla para los Niños en Lengua Tarasca. Imp. en Mé-gico 1559. y corregida se reimprimió en 1575. *

yamendo Christianoccha himbo undahaca hurenquareni.”—Beristain.

“I have not seen the edition of 1559. The reprint of 1575 must be that which is included in the Thesoro Espiritual de Pobres, printed in the same year. At least the Cartilla begins there with the same words quoted by Beristain.”—Icaz-balceta.

1548 ——— Evangelios en Tarasco. *

Manuscript. 224 ll. 8°.

A precious manuscript in the writing of the very learned P. Gilberti. It contains, up to leaf 17, a series of Scripture texts in Latin, with the version in Tarasco following each, appropriate to the title of each Thema. The first of these is entitled: Para que se oiga la voz del Señor. Beginning with the 2d, they all have the name of voices: Voz ad credulos et incredulos; Voz ad infructuosos; Voz ad charitativos et incharitativos, etc., and there are ten of these voices. On the reverse of page 17 begins a new series of texts in alphabetic order, which extends to the reverse of page 76, and these are preceded only by the word Thema. The five following leaves are blank. On the 81st is given the beginning of the Evangelios de los Santos, which is finished on the 118th leaf.
On the two succeeding leaves, and in a different writing, is the theme appropriate to the Feast of St. Francis, and from the 121st nearly to the end, which is not complete, are the Evangelios Dominicales de todo el año, preceded by a short Aviso to preachers, signed by the author. Excepting this Aviso and the Latin texts, the whole is in Tarasca, in very clear and beautiful lettering.

1600 Gravier (Rev. James). Dictionary of the Illinois Language. *

Manuscript. Mentioned by Dr. J. Hammond Trumbull, in his Forty Algonkin Versions of the Lord's Prayer, p. 99. In a note on the Illinois version of the prayer, printed by Bodouin, 1806, "ex MS.," Dr. Trumbull says: "A copy of this version, evidently from the same original, was communicated to Dr. John Pickering in 1823 as from a MS. grammar and dictionary of the Illinois language. The MS. may have been that of Father Boulanger, missionary to the Illinois in 1721. The version is more probably that of Father James Gravier, S. J., missionary from 1687 to 1706, who 'was the first to analyze the language thoroughly and compile its grammar, which subsequent missionaries brought to perfection.' I have recently had the good fortune to discover the long-lost dictionary of Gravier, with additions and corrections by his successors in the Illinois Mission, and by its aid I am enabled to correct some—though not all—of the errors of Bodouin's copy."

Dr. Shea (History of Catholic Missions, 1855, p. 415, note) had mentioned the fact that "a catechism and dictionary [by Gravier] were extant some years since, but seem to have perished."

Of the manuscript dictionary mentioned by Dr. Trumbull, he gives me the following description:

"It is a stout volume in quarto or small folio, the leaf measuring $11\frac{1}{4}$ by $8\frac{1}{4}$ inches. It has been bound, but is now, and probably for many years has been, without its covers. It has lost the first two or three leaves at the beginning, and perhaps as many at the end, and a few other leaves have been somewhat injured by mice. There remain 293 leaves (586 pages), which average about 38 lines to the page, indicating a total of about 22,000 words. The arrangement is Illinois-French (not French-Illinois). The dialect is that of the Peorias (Peouaria), readily distinguished from the Miami-Illinois by the use of r for Miami l. Occasionally, however, words and phrases are introduced which are marked as 'Miami.' The manuscript is very neat and legible. The handwriting and the orthography, in my opinion and in that of French scholars who have inspected it, show that it was written before or not many years after the beginning of the 18th century; certainly, I should say, not later than 1710. If so, it cannot have been the work of the Rev. Jos. l. Le Boulanger, whose connection with the Illinois Mission has not been traced before 1719. On nearly every page, however, there are additions, corrections, or explanations in at least two later and distinct hands; but these are not more frequent than two or three to the page on the average.

"Throughout the work references are made to another volume or volumes, which contained a grammar, lists of radicals, names of animals, plants, medicines, etc.

"I conclude that this dictionary was compiled by Gravier, though I cannot positively say that it is in his autograph, and that the additions and emendations were made by his successors in the mission, some of them, perhaps, by Le Boulanger.

"The French-Illinois dictionary, discovered by the late Hon. Henry Clay Murphy (see the Historical Magazine, vol. 3, pp. 227, 228; New York, 1859), which Dr. J. G. Shea proposed to edit, and which was unfortunately lost about 1865, may have been the French-Illinois counterpart of the Illinois-French dictionary of Gravier, or may have been a transcript of that counterpart revised and completed by Le Boulanger; but from the article above cited it appears that Mr. Murphy's manuscript was in the Miami-Illinois dialect, while the earlier work I have described is unquestionably in that of the Peouaria-Illinois, among whom Gravier labored. Mr. Murphy (to whom I showed the volume here described) believed it to be of earlier date than the counterpart (French-Illinois), which disappeared from his office-desk about 1865, after the first form of it had been printed by Dr. Shea. (See No. 2230.)" 1615 Guevara (Fr. Juan). Doctrina Cristiana en Lengua Huasteca. *

Printed in Mexico as is affirmed by P. Juan Cruz in his dedication to his Catecismo Hnasteco.

Concerning this work, Sr. Icazalceta writes me as follows: Beristain mentions this work, but omits the date of the edition which is given, at least approximately, in the dedication of the Doctrina in the same language, printed by P. Juan de la Cruz in 1571. I say approximately as the expression of P. Cruz is "se imprimió en la sede vacante del año de 1548," that is to say, in that of Sr. Zumarraga which began in that year and lasted to the year 1553.

The pagination of this little pamphlet is curiously mixed. I have seen but one copy of it, that in the library of Maj. J. W. Powell, and but infrequent references. It is bound with the first edition (q. v.), which ends with p. 8. The second edition, which has its own title-page, as above, is paged 12 on reverse of title, followed by 13 on recto of l. 2, the verso of which is paged 9, followed on recto of l. 3 by p. 7, verso not paged; the recto of l. 4 is paged 9, and the pagination runs consecutively to 24; the recto of l. 12 is numbered 17, but the verso 26 is correct, as is also p. 27, the reverse of which is blank. The recto of the 14th leaf is numbered 21, verso 30; the fifteenth, recto p. 31, verso p. 24.

No series of books has given me so much trouble as the publications in the Iowa language. Usually they have no title-page, nor any caption in English, so that without a knowledge of the language it is well nigh impossible to form an idea of the subject matter. They are sometimes bound with one work, sometimes with another, sometimes in whole, sometimes in part.

Sm. 4°. Title and note from Sabin's Dictionary and Rich, No. 140.

Ximenes, in his introduction, remarks that the work of Hernandez, abridged by the Neapolitan physician Nardo Antonio Recchio, by strange ways reached the Indies and fell into his hands; and that he was induced to publish this translation, adding such examples as fell into his way.

This is the work of Hernandez unabridged, but without engravings. It is entirely taken up with the Historia Plantarum Novae Hispaniae, containing the Mexican names of the plants, with the latin equivalents.—Eames.

This edition is not to be compared with the work of Dr. Ricci. This is more of Hernandez's without his editors, more correct, with many additions, but without any illustrations. Hernandez, the celebrated naturalist, was sent to New Spain by Philip the Second about 1595, where he spent seven years in active research into the natural history of the country, and returned to Europe with an herbarium, the very richness and magnitude of which overwhelmed the men of science. A part of the original collection was burnt with the library of the Escorial in 1671.—Stevens's Bib. Hist., 1870, pp. 76, 226.

The natural history of Dr. Hernandez gives evidence [of the copiousness of the Aztec language], in which are described twelve hundred different species of Mexican plants, two hundred or more species of birds, and a large number of quadrupeds, reptiles, insects, and metals, each of which is given its proper name in the Mexican language.—Bancroft's Native Races, vol. 3, p. 728.

1749 Hernandez (D. Vicente). Apuntamiento de Idioma Kiché. Junio de 1854. *

Manuscript. 16 ll. folio. At the foot of the title-page these words are added in the same hand: "Es del Padre Presb. Vincente Hernandez Spina, cura de Santa Catarina Ixtlanacan."

I received this document from my friend Dr. Padilla, deceased, who assured me it was the original of the Vocabulary, described by Dr. Karl Scherzer, of Vienna, since printed in volume 15 of the Sitzungsberichte der philosophisch-historischen Klasse der kaiserlichen Akademie der Wissenschaften. The only copy of the above work I have seen is in the Astor Library. Ludewig collates it as follows: Cesena, 1778-1781 [1787], xxi vols. 4°. Vol. xxii, Fungino, 1792, 4°, and names the later volumes as follows:

Vol. xvii (1784), Catalogo delle Lingue conosciute e notizia della loro affinità e diversità.

Of this volume an enlarged Spanish edition was published by the author: Madrid, 1800–1805. 6 vols. 4°. See below.

Vol. xviii (1785), Origine, Formazione, Mecanismo ed Armonia degli Idiomi.

Vol. xix (1786), Aritmetica delle Nazioni.

Vol. xx (1787), Vocabulario Poliglotta con Prolegomeni sopra più di CL Lingue.

Vol. xxi (1787), Saggio pratico delle Lingue con Prolegomeni ed una raccolta di orazioni dominicali in più di trecento lingue e dialetti.

It is probable the volumes were numbered consecutively to vol. 22, for I find vols. 17 and 18 each with two different title-pages, one with the volume number, one without: the Astor Library has no copy of the volumes above 18 with the number on the title-page—each of the others having an individual title. The titles of the volumes containing North American Linguistics are as follows:

The Tzotzil, Zotzil, or Tzotzlem language is the second in importance in the state of Chiapas. Its chief seat was formerly the strong city of Tzotzlem (dwelling of the bat), called by the Mexicans, who garrisoned it in the time of Mouté-zuma, Tzinacantlan, or Cinacantlan, whence the name Cinacauteca, given also to this language. The present most considerable place of the Tzotziles Indians is Alanchen, commonly called San Bartolomé de los Llanos.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Pp. 1-192. 8°. A sixteen-page, two-column paper issued irregularly, mainly devoted to religious and temperance topics; published by H. Upham, Cherokee, Baptist Mission Press. It was printed almost entirely in Cherokee characters, less than four columns of English appearing in the first number, and scarcely anything but the titles of articles in the last.

A series of articles on Cherokee grammar began in No. 1, on pronouns, continued in Nos. 2, 6, 7, and 9 on verbs.

The title given above is the caption of No. 1. It is probable each issue had outside cover with title-page; the only one I have seen, however, is that of November, 1845, which reads as follows: The Cherokee Messenger. | Edited by | Evan Jones. | [Two lines Cherokee characters.] November 1845. | Cherokee: | Baptist Mission Press. H. Upham, Publisher. | [Two lines Cherokee characters.] 1845. |

Perhaps these twelve numbers are all that was issued of this series. I have seen one later issue: Vol. 1, No. 2, Sept., 1858, J. Buttrick Jones, Editor. Baptist Mission, Cherokee Nation, Mark Tyger, Printer. 16 pp. 8°.

Thirty-nine engravings designed and engraved on wood by Eskimos of Greenland. It is probable the copies seen by me are imperfect, as Field, No. 810, says:
Title, 2 pp. text, 39 engravings and a folding colored plate.
These interesting engravings are the result of some experiments made between the years 1858-60, to determine whether among the Eskimos there existed taste or genius for this branch of the arts. They were all engraved, and, with the exception of Nos. 1-8, designed by five or six natives, without any other assistance than the furnishing of the wood and of the most necessary instruments.
The greater part of these engravings are the work of an Eskimo named Awn, who has received no more than the common education of his countrymen.—

The following note is from Mr. J. G. Shea's introduction to Le Clercq's First

As these hieroglyphics are still in use among the Micmacs, who write and read them, and a font of type for them has actually been cast at Vienna, in which a prayer-book has been printed in our day, through the exertions of Rev. Charles Kauder, a Redemptorist missionary, who spent some years at Tracadie, it will not be out of place to give [Father Christian] Le Clercq's own words:

"The easy method which I found for teaching our Gaspesians their prayers with certain characters which I have formed, effectually convinces me that the majority would soon become instructed; for, indeed, I should find no more difficulty in teaching them to read than to pray to God by my papers, in which each arbitrary letter signifies a particular word, and some even two together. They so readily grasp this kind of reading that they learn in a single day what they would never have been able to retain in a whole week without the aid of these cards, which they call Kignamotinoer or Kateguenne. They preserve these instructive papers so carefully and prize them so highly that they keep them very neatly in little bark cases adorned with wampum, beads, and porcupine quills. They hold them in their hands as we do our prayer-books during holy mass, after which they replace them in their cases. The main utility and advantage resulting from this new method is that the Indians teach one another, wherever they may happen to be. Thus the children teach the father, the wife her husband, and children the aged, their great age giving them no repugnance to learn from their little nephews, and even from girls, the principles of Christianity.

"It is, therefore, easy to judge hereby of the use of these characters to a missionary who wishes to produce a great deal of fruit in a short time throughout the whole extent of his district; for, poor as our Indians' memory may be, they can not only easily learn their prayers by these characters, but when they forget them it is easy to bring them to mind again by counting them one after another, in the manner shown them.

"Our Lord inspired me with this method the second year of my mission, when, being greatly embarrassed as to the mode in which I should teach the Indians to pray, I noticed some children making marks on birch bark with coal, and they pointed to them with their fingers at every word of the prayer which they pronounced. This made me think that by giving them some form which would aid their memory by fixed characters, I should advance much more rapidly than by teaching on the plan of making them repeat over and over what I said. I was charmed to know that I was not deceived, and that these characters which I had traced on paper produced all the effect I desired, so that in a few days they learned all their prayers without difficulty. I cannot describe to you the ardor with which these poor Indians competed with each other in praiseworthy emulation which should be the most learned and the ablest. It costs, indeed, much time and pains to make all that they require, and especially since I enlarged them so as to include all the prayers of the Church, with the sacred mysteries of the Trinity, Incarnation, Baptism, Penance, and the Eucharist. But, after all, what ought we not to do for God's sake?

"As I sought in this little formulary only the good of my Indians and the easiest and readiest method of instructing them, I always used them with greater pleasure since several persons of merit and virtue have been kind enough orally and in letters to exhort me to continue, even forcing me to send specimens to them in France, in order to show the curious a new method of learning to read, and how God avails Himself of the least things to manifest the glory of His holy name to these tribes of Gaspésie. The approbation of Monseigneur de Saint Valier, now Bishop of Quebec, has more than sufficiently authorized their use, and that worthy prelate has esteemed them so highly that after witnessing in person their advantage and utility in a very painful voyage which he made to Acadia, he asked some specimens from the Rev. Father Moreau, to whom I had imparted them some years before."

Mr. Shea, in the Historical Magazine, vol. 5, p. 259, says:

"A manuscript in this character is said to exist in one of the public libraries at Paris, and steps have been taken to have it copied in whole or in part. As described to me, it is of the seventeenth century; and it may possibly be one of those sent to France by Father Le Clercq himself, who states that he was requested to furnish specimens, and did so. From its age, it will be of great value for comparison.

"Of the last century I know one specimen in the British Museum, of which Mr. E. G. Squier has shown me a copy that he made."

The only copy I have seen of the 3-vol. edition of 1703 was in that the Carter Brown library. Sabin's Dictionary, No. 38636, says this is the original edition, and adds: "In enumerating the succeeding editions I do it with some diffidence, for there are some variations which are not very clear; for example, in the edition of 1742, the "Suite" reads as vol. 2, and the "Mémoires" as vol. 3. Some editions include the Dialogues, others do not. To be quite sure about these details, one ought to have them under the eye at the same time, and that has not been possible."

A la Haye, | Chez les Frères l'Honoré, Marchands Libraires. | M. DCC. III [1703]. | BA. JCB.

2 vols. 12°. Vol 1: Engraved frontispiece of an Indian, 11 p. ll., text pp. 1-279; one large and one small map. Vol. 2: 220 pp., table 9 ll., and one map.

Petit Dictionnaire de la Langue des Sauvages, vol. 2, pp. 195-218; Quelques mots Hurons, vol. 2, pp. 219-220.

Although this bears the same imprint as the work which precedes it [3-vol. ed., 1703], a comparison shows them to be different editions. The text of the latter is, page for page, like that of volumes 1 and 2 of the former. The type, however, is smaller, and all the capitals and ornaments at the head of the chapters are different in the two copies. The Epistle, Prologue, and table of contents differ in the two. The engravings in the latter are very inferior to the former, and were evidently got up expressly for this edition, which is probably a spurious one.—Bartlett.

The only copy of the 1708-09 edition of Stevens I have seen is that in the Library of Congress; it is minus the title-page to Lawson's Voyage, and this I have supplied from Field, No. 896. The collation is as follows: title-page (missing); Dedication, 1 l.; Preface, 1 l.; Introduction, pp. 1-5; Journal, pp. 1-60; A description of N. C., pp. 61-168; Account of Indians of N. C., pp. 169-238; Charters of N. C., p. 239; Advertisement, 1 l.; Vocabularies of the Tuskeruro, Pampticough, and Woccon, pp. 225-230.

Stevens' Nuggets, No. 1662, says this edition of Lawson "was originally published in numbers having the several titles to the April, May, June, and July numbers, 1709." For full titles to the work in numbers, see Stevens (J.)

Manuscript. Title from Beristain. Squier says Vasques, in his Chronicle, and Arochena, in his Catalogue, make mention of a work by Lazaro, entitled:

2230 [Le Boulanger (Rév. Joseph Ignatius)]. [French-Illinois Dictionary.] No title-page. Pp. 1-8. large 8°. JWP.

The above is the first signature, and the only one that was printed, of a work intended to form one of the series of Shea's American Linguistics. When this portion had been put in type, about 1865, the manuscript was sent by Dr. Shea to the owner and was never returned. The following description is taken from Dr. Shea's prospectus: "A manuscript dictionary exists of the Illinois language, which, in extent and in careful preparation, exceeds any work known on any of the Algonquin dialects. It is to all appearance the work of the Jesuit Father Le Boulanger, whose labors on the Illinois language are highly extolled in the Lettres Édifiantes. The Illinois have now disappeared, but for purposes of research and study their language is one of the most interesting of the various dialects of the widespread Algonquin * * * Their language, as shown in this dictionary, throws much light on Western names of tribes, rivers, lakes, &c., and by comparison with that of the kindred Lenni or Delawares, as preserved by the Moravians, furnished the amplest known material for the study of the Algonquin language. * * *

"The dictionary will form over five hundred pages, in fine type, double column, similar to that used in the French-Onondago Dictionary issued by me."

See Gravier (Rev. James), No. 1600.

Rev. J. I. Le Boulanger, S. J., was born in France, July 22, 1664; entered the order in 1700, came to America, and was on the Illinois Mission as early as 1719, and probably some years previous to that date, and is said to have died there in 1744.

The dictionary of the Huron language was first drafted by Father Joseph Le Caron in 1616. The little Huron whom he took with him when he returned to Quebec aided him greatly to extend it. He also added rules and principles during his second voyage to the Hurons. He next increased it by notes which Father Nicholas sent him, and at last perfected it by that which that holy religious had left when descending to Quebec, and which the French placed in his hands:
so that Father George, Procurator of the Mission in France, presented it to the king with the two preliminary dictionaries of the Algonquin and Montagnais languages in 1625.—Extract from Father Le Clercq's Establishment of the Faith.

Père Paul Le Jeune may be regarded as the father of the Jesuit Missions in this country, although he did not come to Canada until 1632, after the restoration of Quebec to the French. He had always cherished a desire to evangelize the savages of Canada, and after the treaty of St. Germain, came over with P. Anne de Nouë, arriving at Quebec in July, 1632. In a short time he acquired so thorough a knowledge of the Montagnais that he wrote a catechism for those Indians in that language.—Jesuit Relations.

A copy of the above is in the possession of Rev. Isaac Barefoot, Point Edward, Canada. It is 16° in size, and contains pp. 5-108, p. 5 being A². It is minus the title-page and the last leaf is torn in such a way as to render it impossible to tell whether it is the end of the book or not. Pp. 5-6 contain the alphabet; pp. 7-8, words of one syllable, gradually increasing to words of eleven syllables (Lesson X, p. 17). These are followed by reading exercises (Lessons I-XI) to p. 42; Prayers for different occasions, pp. 43-64; Collects from the Prayer Book, pp. 65-102; Hymns, pp. 102-108.

Mr. Barefoot thinks it was published about 1820.

- 2301 Loaiza (Francisco de). Historia y Fundación de la Ciudad de Tlaxcala y sus quatro caveceras sacada por Francisco de Soria [Loaiza], de lengua castellana a esta mexicana. Año de N. S. Jxpo.
Manuscript. 48 ll. 4°. A modern copy in the possession of Señor Ramirez.
The original is in the Archivo General, in a volume without number, entitled Seccion de Historia.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 123.
The copy belonging to Sr. Ramirez was badly made, the name of Soria being given instead of that of Loaiza. The same mistake occurs in the Ramirez Sale Catalogue, No. 810. Sr. Icazbalceta has since examined the original in the Archivo General and "found the name of Loaiza very distinctly written at the top."
Trübner's Bibliotheca Hispano-Americana, London, 1870, gives the following notice:
- 2302 ——— Historia y fundacion de la Ciudad de Tlaxcala, y sus quatro caveceras. Sacada por Francisco de Loaiza de lengua Castellana à esta Mexicana. Año de 1718. Con una traduccion Castellana, publicado por S. Leon Reinisch.
In preparation, one volume in folio, with 25 photographic plates (fac-simile of the Aztec text).
Don J. G. Icazbalceta first drew attention to this interesting work. On the history of Tlaxcala very little more has hitherto been known than what is occasionally briefly mentioned in the larger historical works on Mexico by Clavijero, Lorenzana, Veytia, Solis, etc. The discovery of a manuscript representing the entire history of Tlaxcala in its principal outline is therefore all the more important. The author of this work, originally written in Spanish, is not known. All that can be gathered from the title of the manuscript is that in the year 1718 Don Francisco de Loaiza translated the work into the Mexican (Aztec) language, probably in order to make it accessible to native readers of the Aztec race. We need not take the loss of the original Spanish text to heart, as, instead of it, the Aztec translation has been preserved to us, which is all the more valuable, for, in addition to its being a great historical gain, it is a most interesting philological acquisition. This work is the first profane text in the Aztec language that has ever appeared in print, as all the Aztec texts hitherto published belong to the so-called edifying literature, such as catechisms, prayer-books, and biblical texts, and all, therefore, poor reading for investigators desirous of impressing themselves with the spirit of the Aztec language.

The original of the work, 48 pages, large folio, is contained in a large volume entitled "Seccion de la Historia. Documentos relativos á la Historia de Colima y California," in the archives of Mexico. The copying and literal translation of the original was done at the expense of the editor, by Don Francisco Rosales, sworn government interpreter of the Aztec language. In order to make the original accessible to scholars for the purpose of comparison, the editor has had the entire text photographed. It forms 25 plates, and will be issued with the work.

- 2412 Maldonado (Fr. Francisco). [Arte, Doctrina Christiana, &c. in the Cakchiquel language.] *

Manuscript. 77 unnumbered ll. folio. In the library of the American Philosophical Society, Philadelphia, described by Dr. Brinton in the American Journal of Science and Arts, vol. 47, pp. 222-230, as follows:

On the recto of the second leaf is the following title:

Arte pronunciacion y ortographia de la lengua en el mismo
ydioma | Cakchiquel. |

On the fourth line of the verso of the same leaf:

Ramilette, Manual para los Yndios sobre | la Doctrina Christiana | por fray francisco Maldonado minorita, | Sub Censura sante Romane ecclesie Dialogo primo.

This "nosegay," or anthology, consists of twelve dialogues on the confession, creed, sacraments, good works, &c., between a priest and his catechumen. After the twelfth dialogue there is an addition of nine leaves in Cákchiquel, with the title: [See Esta explicacion].

The Dialogos is a work hitherto unknown of Maldonado, one of the most learned of the Franciscan missionaries. He lived in the latter half of the 17th century. The only one of his productions given by Mr. Squier is "Sermones y Panegiricos en Lengua Cakchiquelche," which is that also chiefly referred to by Father Coto in his dictionary.

- 2413 ——— Ha nima Vuh vae Theologia Indorum ru binaam. *

Manuscript. 178 ll. folio. Preceded by 1 l. with these words: "Dios nima Akaun ti qohe auiquin at nu lokol ah tata," followed by these: "De la libreria de N. P. S. Fran^{co} de Guat^a." Signed A. de la Raya.

Following l. 178 are two others in Cakchiquel, but in a very different hand, and signed "Yn Fran^{co} Gonzalez."

Although the name of Maldonado does not appear, there is no doubt that he is the author, as only he and Father Domingo de Vico wrote a book of this sort in the Cakchiquel language. As to the latter, the manuscript bears his name, and it is entirely different from the first.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Manuscript. 2 unnumbered ll., 153 ll. folio.

He had an admirable knowledge of the three dialects of the principal language of this country, Quiché, Cakchiquel, and Tzutuhil, in which he wrote a great number of religious works and treatises, all of which remained in manuscript. Such was the estimation in which they were held that many were translated into Spanish for the use of missionaries and priests.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Beristain speaks of this author, as follows:

He united so admirably the most profound theological knowledge with the perfect understanding of the difficult Quiché, Cakchiquel, and Tutuchil idioms, that he formed a complete Teología Indiana, very useful to the teaching priests of those provinces and very advantageous to the neophytes.

He left at his death 13 volumes in manuscript, some of which are preserved in the library of the Franciscan Fathers of Guatemala, and others translated into Spanish are in possession of the missionaries and parish priests, according to P. Arochena, who thus enumerates the writings of this author:

- 2415 ——— Instruccion teológica de los Indios. *

While on a visit to the mission of the Lac des deux Montagnes, or, as it is now better known on the maps, the village of Oka, Canada, during the autumn of 1882, I had the pleasure of inspecting a number of manuscripts in the library of Father Leclair, the missionary at that place. The titles and descriptions of these will be found in their proper places in this catalogue. There is also a large number preserved in the Convent of the Sisters of the Congregation at the same place, of the existence of which I was not aware at the time. I have, however, been furnished with a list of them by Mrs. Erminnie A. Smith, an employé of the Bureau of Ethnology, who is engaged in the preparation of a grammar and dictionary of the various dialects of the Iroquois. A number of these manuscripts are anonymous, and I have grouped them under the above general title. In the descriptions, Mrs. Smith was aided by Father Leclair and the Sisters of the convent. They are as follows:

2442 ——— Dictionnaire Algonquin-Français de l'an 1661.

Manuscript. sm. 4°. Preserved in the archives of the convent at the mission of the Lac des deux Montagnes.

This work has passed through the hands of M. Mathevette, a former missionary at this place, as one clearly sees by an inspection of the cover, which is entirely covered with short notes in Algonquin written by this missionary; besides these he has made many additions throughout the dictionary.

Other additions and corrections have been made by the hand of another missionary, whose name is not known, but from whom we have a large number of Algonquin manuscripts. To this author belong the six pages which end the work.

These writers were evidently very capable men, and already far advanced in the knowledge of the language.

Another anonymous author has compiled a

2443 ——— Dictionnaire Français-Algonquin.

Which appears equally ancient. It is not complete, beginning with the letter B and ending with the letter T. The mice have partially destroyed it, but the remainder is in a readable state.

The hand of this same author is to be seen in a manuscript of 99 ll., containing, in abridged Latin and Algonquin, a discourse on Purgatory, and a part of Genesis in Algonquin.

The Algonquin-French dictionary of 1661 appears to be the work of a Jesuit priest; the incomplete French-Algonquin, that of a priest of the same order, and his contemporary.

The three works above named were all corrected and augmented by a Jesuit Father, who wrote in 1699, and who knew the language perfectly, for he wrote concerning the roots of the Algonquin, and also a 2444 ——— Dictionnaire Français-Algonquin.

This is in a very bad condition; leaves torn, &c. He also wrote 2445 ——— Instructions sur les symboles, &c.

A fifth Jesuit missionary, not less ancient than the preceding, wrote a large volume in 18°, well preserved, containing:

2446 ——— Grammaire, Petit Catéchisme, Prières et Cantiques.

Another priest of the same order and epoch has left a fragment of a 2447 ——— Dictionnaire Français-Algonquin.

And a large book of instructions, &c., and a seventh has left a catechism which is contained in a 12° volume, No. 4.

2448 ——— Catéchisme Algonquin.

140 pp. 4°. Used by the Sisters in teaching the children of their school. The one now in use is a copy made, they think, about fifty years ago. Besides the catechism it contains many psalms and hymns.

2449 Manuscrit. Manuscrit Mexicain Original. *

15 ll. 4°. Ancient title on maguey paper of the territory of Zenpualan and other places, painted and written in the first years following the conquest of Mexico. * * The inscriptions in Latin characters are all in the Nahuatl language.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

2464 ——— Grammaire Iroquoise | ou | La Langue Iroquoise | réduite | en Principes Fixes | Par Moi | Sault Saint Louis | 1828. |

Manuscript. Title-page, in the upper right hand corner of which is "Jos. Marcoux ptre"; reverse blank, 1 l.; 7 blank ll.; pp. 1-157; reverse of 157 blank; 5 blank ll. followed by Table des Matières, 3 pp.; oblong folio. In the archives of the Roman Catholic Church at the Indian village of Caughnawaga, Canada.

It is in the Mohawk dialect, although these people have been so isolated from the other tribes that they consider themselves only as the Iroquois. The manuscript has been well preserved and is nicely bound. The first page begins with the preface or introduction entitled: Grammaire Iroquoise. The six tribes of Iroquois are briefly referred to, and the page closes with the statement that "Cette grammaire sera divisée en trois parties, élémens, syntaxe, et idiotismes." Première partie, Élémens, p. 1. In this is given the number of letters used, and their different sounds. Règles de prononciation, p. 2. Five rules are given. On the middle of page 3 begins the chapter: Des Noms. Then follow three pages on the noun. At the end of p. 5 is the paragraph: Du Paradigme K-des Noms. Two pages are devoted to the conjugations of this paradigm. Then follow two pages of the conjugations in Paradigm A of the nouns. These tables are very elaborate. On p. 10 is the heading of a chapter: Des Genres et nombres. Page 11 begins another: Noms de Nombre. These are divided into cardinal, ordinal, distributive, and multiplicative. 1st Division, Nombres Cardinaux—the numerals 1-1,000,000. Page 14 begins a paragraph entitled: Observations, followed by: Nombres Ordinaux, Nombres Distributifs, p. 15; Nombres Multiplicatifs, p. 16. The next division is: Des Adjectifs, observations, followed by the divisions: comparatif et superlatif, p. 17. The eighteenth page begins with: Des Pronoms. This contains a very complete table of the personal pronouns. The following page has a table of: Pronoms Possessifs. Page 21 is devoted to Pronoms Indéterminés. Page 22 begins a new chapter: Du Verbe. "Le verbe est le mot par excellence de l'Iroquois, puisque dans cette langue tout est verbe, noms, pronoms, adjectifs." All of the pages to 108 are filled with the paradigms of the different conjugations, &c.

Then follows, p. 109: Seconde Partie, Syntaxe. This is divided into paragraphs headed: Syntaxe d'accord, p. 109; Tour Négatif, p. 110; Tour Interrogatif, p. 110; Tour Impératif, p. 111. The next division is: Syntaxe des Pronoms, p. 111, followed by the paragraphs: Que avec les verbes, p. 112; De—Pour avec les verbes, p. 113; Noms d'instrument, de cause, de matière, &c., p. 113; Régime d'un verbe sur un autre verbe, p. 114; Des pronoms en Y, p. 114; Adverbes de lieu, p. 115; Des Quantités, p. 115; Des Comparaisons, p. 118.

Then begins, p. 129: Troisième Partie, Idiotismes. Forty of these are given, each in numbered paragraphs, extending to p. 139. Pp. 140-150 are blank.

Page 151 begins a new section: Différences dans les Dialectes Iroquois entr'enx et avec la langue Huronne. On p. 153 begins an appendix: Remarques additionnelles et explications, which closes with p. 157. Reverse of p. 157 blank, followed by 6 blank ll. unpagged; then: Table des matières, 3 pp. unnumbered.

Manuscript. pp. 1-173. folio. In the archives of the Roman Catholic Church at the Indian village of Caughnawaga, Canada. It comprises extracts from the four evangelists.

Père Joseph Marcoux, born at Quebec, March 15, 1791, was a secular priest of the diocese of Montreal, having been ordained June 12, 1813. From 1813 to 1819 he was missionary to the Mohawks at St. Regis, and from 1819 until his death, May 29, 1855, to the Mohawks at Sault St. Louis (Caughnawaga).

In addition to the above manuscripts Father Marcoux left translations of the Church discipline and the pastoral letters of the bishops, on loose sheets of large size without titles, and a great number of his sermons written in Mohawk, which are still preserved in the church at Caughnawaga, where he so long officiated.

Manuscript, 65 ll., 4°, in old and very regular writing, which has become a little pale. I received it from the Belgian engineer Van de Gehuchte, who obtained it at Totonicapan; it had remained from time immemorial in the presbytery, whence it must have been removed at the epoch of the revolution. It bore the name of "Arte de Totonicapan," and it was in that town that Remesal says he saw it in the hands of the Franciscans who administered this parish. * * * It is, in effect, a grammar, composed with much care, and seems to have served as a model for the grammar of Ximenez, and for the Cakchiquel grammar of Father Idefonso Flores. The first 47 ll. contain the grammar proper; the following 11 give the analysis of a certain number of words, and the 6 last a catechism, abridged, of the Christian doctrine.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Between the title and imprint there is a singular engraving which I have not seen in any other book of this epoch, which represents the saviour placed in a which flow out below the press and are caught by two angels, in a chalice.

Çumarraga, obpo de la dha. çindad, el qual la hizo imprimir en el año de 1546 a 20 de Iunio.

It is known that Fr. Alonso de Molina wrote a Doctrina, major and minor, in the Mexican language; P. Mendieta expressly says so in his Historia Ecclesiastica Indiana, book iv, chap. 44, and this notice has been printed many times. P. Torquemada has incorporated it literally in chap. 33, book xix, of his Monarquía Indiana. Gonzaga says the same in his work De Origine Seraphicæ Religionis, p. 1242. In the colophon of the Doctrina castellana y mexicana, of 1548 (No. 13), there is mentioned, with sufficient clearness, the edition of the Doctrina breue, made in 1546, although without stating the name of the author. "In the congregation held by the bishops it was ordered that there should be made two doctrinas, one short and the other large, and the short one is that which was printed in the year 1546. The reverend señors commanded that the other, the great one, should be for the fuller explanation of the small one." This indication cannot refer to the Doctrina of 1546, spoken of here (No. 10), for that is in Castilian alone, and this speaks evidently of one in Castilian and Mexican, like that of 1548 (No. 13), of which it is a mate. [See No. 1053 of this catalogue.] Nevertheless, D. Nicolás Antonio, well versed in the books of America (Bibl. Hisp. Nova, vol. 1, p. 37), has spoken of this edition, since among the writings of P. Molina he places the following: "Cathecismo mayor y menor. Doubtless this is the same as the Doctrina Christiana in the Mexican tongue, edited in Mexico in 1546 [1564], again in 1606. 4°." Pinelo Barcia (column 726) mentions "two Doctrinas Christianas, greater and less, printed 1546, 1606"—a notice which I think is taken from Antonio. Finally P. Molina himself, in the dedication of his Arte, 1571, asserts that he has printed a Doctrina Christiana—a reference which cannot apply to that of 1578, for that was made afterwards. In spite of all this and of the mention by less noted authors of four editions of the Doctrina breue in Mexican (1675, 1718, 1732, 1735, in 8°), without counting one of 1571 (of which there are clear indications in the license of the Vocabulario of said year), nor that of 1606 mentioned by Antonio y Barcia, which I have not seen nor found cited anywhere else, Beristain does not put such a Doctrina menor among the writings of P. Molina, except only the Mexican one of 1578.

Molina (Fr. Alonso de)—continued.

I have never met an example of the edition of 1546. A certain knowledge of it, and also of its text in Castilian and Mexican, is found in the Codice franciscano which I have already spoken of (p. 247, note 2). This codex contains, among a multitude of important documents, a copy of the Doctrina, with the title which I have given above.—Icazbalceta's Life, &c., of Bishop Zumárraga, No. 9.

 First series, 3 vols. 4°. Vol. 1, 223 ll.; vol. 2, 272 ll., and vol. 3, 154 ll.
 Manuscripts, partly original and partly modern transcripts, some in Spanish and others in the native languages of Mexico, illustrated by several old engravings executed in Mexico, and representing Our Lady of Guadalupe.
 These three volumes, with the second series, comprise everything which the late indefatigable Mr. Ramirez was able to collect on both sides of the Atlantic, respecting this renowned Sanctuary, embracing a period of more than three hundred years.
 They not only comprise many originals which have reference to the renowned Apparition, but whenever Mr. Ramirez was unable to obtain the originals, he had copies made of them and incorporated them in this collection. The copies of documents in native languages are all made by the well-known scholar Lic. Galicia Chimalpopoca, who also gives their respective translations.
 A bibliographical notice not only furnishes information of all that has been written and printed on the subject in sermons and devotional books, but also lists of works which, in his judgment, ought to contain information on the subject, but do not. Among the pieces in the Mexican language are two "Coloquios," or theatrical representations in reference to the Apparition. Whenever copies occur, Mr Ramirez has always noted their sources.—Ramirez Sale Cat., No. 379.

Manuscript. 92 ll. sm. 4°. In the library of the American Philosophical Society, Philadelphia.

A work on the Cholti dialect of the Maya, by Francisco Moran. It is a small quarto of 92 leaves. The first three pages contain a narrative in Spanish, difficult to decipher, by Thomas Murillo, a layman, touching the missions in 1689-92. Then comes one leaf not numbered, with notes on the verso in Cholti, nearly illegible. On the recto of the fourth leaf:

Arte | en lengua cholti que qui | ere decir lengua de mil | peros.

Thirty-two pages in a clear hand, ornamented with scroll work and pen sketches of birds and grotesque animals. On page 35:

Libro de lengua cholti que quiere | decir lengua de milperos.

Twenty-four pages in a cramped but legible hand. At the end the colophon:

Fin del arte q^o trae no. M. R.^{do} P.^o Frai Fran^{co} moran en un libro de quartilla grande alto, que enquaderno i Recogio de nuestro Religiosos i barias cosas (añadió), el R.^{do} P.^o Frai Alonzo de Triana; Requiescant in pace todos. Amen Jesus, Maria Joseph.

A few notes on elegant phrases are added, "que mi dio el P. Angel."

This is a duplicate of the preceding Arte, differing from it, however, in several particulars, being more full and accurate. They both seem to be copies of the original of Moran, not the one of the other.

After the Libro follow eight leaves of questions and answers at the confessional &c., in Cholti. On p. 77 commences:

Confessionario en lengua | cholti, escrito en el pue | blo de san
lucar salac de | el chol, año de 1685:

Three leaves ending with a catchword, indicating that it is but a fragment.

The remaining leaves are occupied by a vocabulary, Spanish and Cholti, chiefly on the rectos only. At the commencement is the following marginal note:

Todo el Vocabulario grande de no. M. R. P.^o fr. fran^{co} moran esta tra Dusido en este libro, Por el ABesedario, i algunos bocablos mas.

The colophon is:

lores en 24 de Junio dia de S.^a Juan de 1695 años.

We have here therefore two copies of the grammar and one of the vocabulary of the Dominican missionary, Francisco Moran, referred to by Father Francisco Vasquez in his Cronica (1714) as written in the characters invented by the Franciscan friar, Francisco de la Parra (about 1550), to express the five peculiar consonants of the Maya group of languages. These are modifications of k, p, ch, t, and tz.¹ Both these copyists have, however, adopted Roman letters.

Neither the original nor any other copies are known to exist, nor any other work in the Cholti dialect, though a certain Father Córdoba also wrote a grammar of it.² It has even been uncertain whether the Cholti was an independent dialect. It is not mentioned at all in Ludewig's "Literature of American Aboriginal languages," and Mr. Squier gives the title of Moran's work from Vasquez thus: Arte de la Lengua Cholti (Chorti?).³ The Chorti, however, was spoken in Chiquimula and vicinity, while the Cholti, Chol, or Putum, was the dialect of the village of Belen in Vera Paz, of parts of Chiapas, and generally of the eastern Lacandones among the mountains between the former province and Guatemala. The name chol means cornfield, in Mexican Spanish milpa, and ahcholob or cholti owners or cultivators of cornfields, mitperos. From the short vocabulary of Chorti collected by Mr. Stevens at Zacapa it appears to be farther than the Cholti from p re Maya.

The grammar of Moran is succinct, clear, and comprehensive, and eminently deserves publication, together with selections from the vocabulary. I have made a careful copy of it for my own use and have found it of great service as illustrating certain points of growth in these idioms, for instance, with reference to the development of the personal pronouns, recently discussed in a scholarly essay by M. de Charencey;⁴ and affording some additional illustration of the "vowel echo," P'écho vocalique of the Maya dialects, to which the same writer has called attention as analogous to the law of the harmonic sequence of vowels common in Scythian languages.⁵—Brinton.

¹ I have also noticed the occasional use in these manuscripts of a peculiar vowel sound represented by an i with a diacritical mark beneath it.

“Lewis H. Morgan was born in Aurora, Cayuga County, New York, November 21, 1818. He was graduated by Union College, Schenectady, in the class of 1840. Returning from college to Aurora, Mr. Morgan joined a secret society composed of the young men of the village and known as the ‘Grand Order of the Iroquois.' This had a great influence upon his future career and studies. The 'Order' was instituted for sport and amusement, but its organization was modeled on the governmental system of the Six Nations; and chiefly under Mr. Morgan's direction and leadership the objects of the 'Order' were extended, if not entirely changed, and its purposes improved. To become better acquainted with the social polity of the Indians, young Morgan visited the aborigines remaining in New York—a mere remnant, but yet retaining, so far as they were able, their ancient laws and customs; and he went so far as to be adopted as a member by the Senecas. Before the 'Council of the Order,' in the years 1844, '45, and '46, he read a series of papers on the Iroquois, which, under the nom-de-plume of 'Skenandoah,' were published in 1847 in the American Quarterly Review, in the form of letters addressed to Albert Gallatin. From this source they were transferred the following year to the columns of Olden Time, a pioneer historical magazine published in Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. Morgan died in Rochester, N. Y., December 17, 1881."

“It may have been printed at the instance of the Rev. Dr. Eleazer Wheelock, or by the Boston Commissioners of the (Scotch) Society for Propagating Christian Knowledge, for the use of the missionaries and school-masters sent from New England to the Six Nations.

“Wm. Weyman was employed by Sir Wm. Johnson, in 1762, to print a new edition of the Mohawk Prayer-Book, and began the work early in 1763, under the supervision of the Rev. Dr. Barclay. Its progress was interrupted by the death of Dr. Barclay, in 1764, and less than half the book was printed when Weyman died, in July, 1768. In the meantime several missionaries had gone from New England to the Six Nations; Mr. Cornelius Bennett, a catechist of the Episcopal church, was teaching school among the Mohawks in 1764; Mr. C. J. Smith (accompanied by young Joseph Brant) and the Rev. Samuel Kirtland went, the same year, from Lebanon, as missionaries to the same field—sent by the Boston Commissioners, and several others were preparing themselves at Lebanon for this mission. This Prayer-Book and Catechism was probably printed for the use of these missionaries and their Indian scholars. It seems to be a reprint, so far as it goes, of the first edition (Wm. Bradford, 1715), omitting the ‘Several Chapters of the Old and New Testament’; and founded, like that edition on the translations made ‘by Mr. Freeman, a very worthy Calvinist minister.’”

There is a copy in the Bancroft Library, San Francisco. See Bancroft's Native Races, vol. 3, p. 746, note, for a reference to Moxó relating to the Tarasco language.

Rieh, vol. 2, p. 332, says: By the prologue to this work we learn that its author, a native of Cervera, died young, immediately after a revolution in South America in which this work came near being buried in "eternal oblivion"; that it was brought to Europe and printed, but so hastily that it could hardly be read for the many orthographic errors with which it was stained; in consequence of which it was thought proper to prepare the present edition, which is, indeed, handsomely, but not very correctly, printed. The "Entretamientos de un Prisionero," etc., by Baron de Juras Reales, a nephew of the author, is almost entirely made up from these letters, copied verbatim, without any other acknowledgment than that he had, for some of his dissertations, made use of a certain manuscript which his uncle, the late Archbishop of Charcas, D. Benito Maria de Moxo, had left him, relating to Mexico, which he should have published before, but he thought it better to wait until he could procure his uncle's "Cartas Peruanas" to join with them. Now, all the baron's dissertations are copies of the letters, with a few notes added, and the omission of the passages which shew that they were written in Mexico.

This work is dedicated, in Latin letter very chaste and very learned, to the Bishop of Tlaxcalla, D. Fr. Martin de Hojacastró, he being Comisario-General of New Spain. Torquemada recommends the work for learning this idiom, and for teaching it to others.

There is in the library of the Santa Iglesia of Toledo a manuscript of the Arte y Vocabulario Megicanos of P. Olmos, and the original was seen by Sr. Eguiara in the pueblo of Tlanepantla. Betancur asserts that the works in Huasteca are preserved in Ozolwama, a town in Tampico. I have seen the greater number of the works in Mexican in the library of the College of San Gregory in Mexico.—Beristain.

"The above work is printed from two manuscripts, one in the Bibliothèque Nationale, the other belonging to us. This last is now in the valuable collection of M. Pinart. See my former catalogue, No. 1097."—Leclerc, 1878, No. 2330.

From statements made by the author in the several manuscripts of the Arte made by him, it is doubtful whether it was printed in 1555 as stated by Beristain and his predecessors. There are four of these manuscripts known to exist: one in the possession of M. Aubin, of Paris; a second belonging to M. Alph. Pinart and described in the Leclerc Catalogue of 1878, No. 2330; a third in the Bibliothèque Nationale at Paris; and a fourth formerly belonging to the late Señor Ramirez, now in the Bancroft Library, San Francisco, where I have seen it. In the sale catalogue of his books the statement is made that Sr. Ramirez considered the copy belonging to M. Aubin as the oldest, the next in date that in the National Library, and the most modern his own. The latter two are very fully described by Sr. Icazbalceta (Apuntes, No. 88, and additions and corrections thereto) and their differences pointed out. From this description I take the following:

"That this Arte (or another by the same author) was printed in Mexico in the year 1555, I have always doubted, and now doubt the more, in that in this manuscript of 1563 nothing is said of its having been printed eight years before, although the author gives a history of the book. Certain it is that no one claims to have seen the edition of 1555, and the opinion favorable to its existence is supported, so far as I know, by but one passage, not very clear, in the additions to the Biblioteca Universa Franciscana of Fr. Juan de San Antonio.

"Still less do I believe in the existence of the Arte y Vocabulario de Las Lenguas Mexicana, Totonaca y Huasteca, which, it is asserted, was printed in Mexico, 1560, 2 vols. 4°." See No. 2819 of this catalogue.

Mexico, 1560, 2 vols. 4°. Neither Beristain, Brunet, Rich, nor Ternaux-Compans mentions this work. It probably never was printed.

Titles from Beristain, who says: In addition to these works, which are given by Torquemada and Betancur, and several of which I have seen in the libraries of Mexico, Leon Pinelò adds:

- 2826 ——— Tratado de las Antiquedades Megicanos. *
- On pp. v-vi of the Grammaire of 1875 the following list of his works is given:

En langue Nahuatl.

En langue Huastèque.

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| 1. Arte de la lengua Mexicana. | 9. Arte de la lengua guasteca. |
| 2. Vocabulario. | 10. Vocabulario. |

| 7. Tratado de los sacramentos. | 14. Arte de la lengua Totonaca. |
| 8. Tratado de los sacrilegios. | 15. Vocabulario. |

Sobron, p. 37, says the Gramática megicana, the Vocabulario megicano español, the Arte and Vocabulario totonaca, and the Arte and Vocabulario guasteca were printed in Mexico. In addition to the works given above by various authorities, Sobron gives the following: Doctrina cristiana in Totonaca, in Mexican, and in Tepehua; Vocabulario in Tepehua; and Confesonario in Mexican.

Father Andres de Olmos was born near Oña, in the district of Burgos, but having been brought up at Olmos, took the name of that place. He entered the Franciscan order at Valladolid, and went to Mexico in 1528 with Bishop Zumarraga. He soon was a complete master of the Mexican, Totonac, Tepeguan, and Huasteca languages. After a life of labor and holiness, he died at Tampicane, near Panuco, on the 8th October, 1571.—Shca.

The "Arte de la lengua Timuquana," was found by Charles Leclerc, and its discovery announced to the "Congrès des Américanistes" at the Madrid meeting in 1881. It was published by Juan Ruiz, Mexico, 1614. Pages 1-158 (probably leaves) are printed, and the remainder is in manuscript, and written by the author's own hand, as attested by a remark of Father Aix, pasted inside the book. There are many manuscript corrections on it, made by himself and others. A new edition is in press for Maisonneuve & Co., Paris, edited by Lucien Adam and Julien Vinson.—A. S. Gatschet.

Pp. 1-67. sm. 8^o. In Indian and English, interlinear throughout.

“Only two copies of this Catechism are known to the editor of the present reprint. One of these is in the library of Mr. James Lenox, of New York; the other is in the British Museum. The title-pages of the two differ in several particulars. That of Mr. Lenox’s copy, which is proved by its agreement with the English reprint of the first sheet to be the earlier, has a border of the acorn pattern. The other has no border; the lines are longer, and the page less compact. After the title proper, ending with the words ‘Eternal Salvation,’ the Museum copy has—

“‘By | Abraham Peirson | Pastor of the Church at Brandford [sic]. | — | Examined and approved by that | Experienced Gentleman (in the In- | dian Language) Captain | John Scot. | — | Cambridge: | Printed for Samuel Green, 1658.’

“Here no reference appears to the Commissioners of the United Colonies, and the imprint, it may be observed, is ‘for’ (not ‘by’) Samuel Green.

“The second title-page of the Catechism, on which he is named as an ‘experienced gentleman,’ may have been prefixed to part of the edition—to all the copies, perhaps, which were sent to England about the time of the Restoration, and subsequently—with the knowledge of Mr. Peirson and the Commissioners; or the substitution may have been Scot’s own device to give himself, in London, a certificate of position and character, and perhaps add weight to his statements in support of the title of the Narragansett proprietors and of his own claims to lands for which he had procured deeds from Indians on Long Island.”—Trumbull.

Mr. Trumbull, in his Catalogue of Books and Tracts, says: “The advice of the commissioners ‘to turn it into the Narragansett or Pequot language’ was not followed. The Catechism remains in the dialect of ‘the southwest parts’—i. e., the Quiripi (or Quinnipiac) spoken from New Haven westward, near Long Island Sound, and presents the only known specimen of that dialect.”

The following is a copy of Scot’s title-page taken from fac-simile in Mr. Trumbull’s reprint:

stituted for Green's, and ends in the middle of a sentence (p. 35), and has the catch-word of the following sheet, which was not yet received in England.—

I have copies of the notes left by both these diligent students, as also both editions of Beltran, and an accurate MS. copy of Buenaventura, from all of which I have derived assistance in completing the present study."

Carrillo gives, under Perez, the following title: Gramatica Maya de la lengua Maya, and speaks of it as follows: "It is evident that Sr. Perez left it written,

A four-page, twelve-column paper, issued monthly, printed partly in Dakota, partly in English, most articles being printed in both languages, though occasionally only in the one or the other. An illustrated heading was added to issue No. 7, vol. 1. Vol. 1 ended with the issue of October, 1851, vol. 2 beginning January, 1852, with the size of the sheet much enlarged. The publication was suspended with the issue of August of the same year, in which number the following editorial notice appears: "The Dakota Mission deems it undesirable, while the Indians are so unsettled, to continue the Friend. If the prospect is more encouraging it will be resumed hereafter."

There is much of interest to the philologist in this paper: lessons for learners, grammatic forms, vocabularies, &c.

The additions, in another hand, and the name of the alcaldes Juan Xol and Carlos Kal, January 18th, 1806, etc., prove that the work was by a former alcalde, and that it was transmitted each year by succeeding alcaldes, according to the custom of the natives of Verapaz.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

As a number of the manuscripts now in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology, titles of which are given in this catalogue, are recorded in copies of the above work, it seems proper to give a somewhat lengthy account of its contents and the causes which led to its preparation.

In 1863 the Smithsonian Institution published a paper by Mr. Geo. Gibbs, No. 1499 of this catalogue, designed for collectors. Under the head of Philology, Mr. Gibbs gave a brief account of some of the peculiarities of Indian languages, with general directions for the best method of collecting certain words; a simple and practical alphabet; and a vocabulary, in English, Spanish, French, and Latin, of 211 words. Speaking of the latter, he says:

"In view of the importance of a uniform system in collecting words of the various Indian languages of North America, adapted to the use of officers of the government, travellers, and others, the following is recommended as a STANDARD VOCABULARY. It is mainly the one prepared by the late Hon. Albert Gallatin, with a few changes made by Mr. Hale, the Ethnologist of the United States Exploring Expedition, and is adopted as that upon which nearly all the collections hitherto made for the purpose of comparison have been based. For the purpose of ascertaining the more obvious relations between the various members of existing families this number is deemed sufficient. The remote affinities must be sought in a wider research, demanding a degree of acquaintance with their languages beyond the reach of transient visitors."

The vocabulary given in this paper was separately printed on writing paper, 10 ll., 4°, and reprinted, 6 ll., folio, and was distributed widely among the missionaries, Indian agents, travelers, and local collectors in ethnology, and has served a valuable purpose, resulting in the collection by the Smithsonian Institution of a large number of vocabularies, comprising many of the languages and dialects of the Indian tribes of the United States, British America, and Mexico.

This material, as it was received, was placed in the hands of Mr. Gibbs for revision and classification—a work in which he was engaged at the time of his death, which occurred before any of it was published.

In 1876, Professor Henry turned this material over to Maj. J. W. Powell, then in charge of the United States Geographical and Geological Survey of the Rocky Mountain Region, now Director of the Bureau of Ethnology, to be consolidated and published in connection with like material collected by himself and his assistants while among the Indians of the western portion of the United States. A number of these vocabularies were accordingly published in the "Contributions to North American Ethnology," Vols. I and III, a quarto series issued by the Survey. The remaining ones are in the library of the Bureau.

Wishing to extend the work already begun by the Smithsonian Institution, Major Powell, in 1877, prepared the above paper. In his opening remarks, referring to the manuscripts derived from the distribution of Mr. Gibbs' paper, the author says: "It has, in fact, greatly stimulated investigation, giving wiser direction to inquiry, and the results have abundantly proved the value of the 'Instructions' and the wisdom of its publication; and it serves to mark an epoch in the history of ethnographic investigation in America. The material which has thus been accumulated is of great amount, and its study has led to such important conclusions that it is deemed wise to prepare a new system of instruction, more comprehensive in plan and more elaborate in detail. First, it is found necessary to enlarge the alphabet so as to include a greater number of sounds, which have been discovered in the North American languages, and to mark other letters with greater precision. Second, it is necessary to enlarge the vocabulary so as to modify it somewhat, as experience has dictated, in order that new words may be collected. Third, it is desirable that many simple phrases and sentences should be given—so chosen as to bring out the more important characteristics of grammatic structure."

The words, phrases, and sentences to be collected are arranged in schedules, each preceded by instructions, and followed by blanks for additions, as follows:

- I. Persons, 15 words.
- II. Parts of the body, 103 words.
- III. Relationships:

3057 ——— Smithsonian Institution—Bureau of Ethnology | J. W. Powell Director | Introduction | to the | Study of Indian Languages | with | Words Phrases and Sentences to be collected | By J. W. Powell | Second edition—with charts | Washington | Government Printing Office | 1880 | B. BA. WE. JHT.

Pp. i-xii, 1-228, and 8 unnumbered, ruled ll. 4°. Between pp. 74 and 75 two leaves are inserted, paged 74 a, 74 b, and 74 c; reverse of the latter, blank.

“The progress made by various students, and the studies made by the author, alike require that a new edition be prepared to meet the more advanced wants and to embody the results of wider studies. Under these circumstances the present edition is published. It does not purport to be a philosophic treatment of the subject of language; it is not a comparative grammar of Indian tongues; it is simply a series of explanations of certain characteristics almost universally found by students of Indian languages—the explanations being of such a character as experience has shown would best meet the wants of persons practically at work in the field on languages with which they are unfamiliar. The book is a body of directions for collectors.”—Extract from Preface.

Experience had demonstrated the propriety of some changes in the alphabet and a considerable enlargement of the scheme as given in the first edition of the work, and in the second Major Powell has made many modifications. The schedule of relationship being so large, graphic representation was considered necessary, and charts were prepared which it was thought both the student and the Indiau could follow with comparative ease.

As in the first edition, blank spaces are given after each schedule for such additions as may suggest themselves to the collector; and, further to facilitate the work, separate alphabet cards of convenient size accompany the volume.

for it, and it lay some three years on hand, excepting what were gratuitously distributed.' They 'were not reprinted (for the first edition [of the old Indian Chronicle]), as enough of them remained on hand in 1836 to complete the edition of some 250 copies.'

"These two tracts were reprinted, however, shortly afterwards, in order to complete the remainder of this edition of the Old Indian Chronicle, of which 500 copies had been printed in all. In the Astor Library there is a copy of this later impression of the Old Indian Chronicle, without any general title-page, which contains this second reprint of the first two tracts. Manuscript. 33 pp. 12°. Seen at the Brinley sale, from the catalogue of which, part 3, no. 5695, the following note is taken:

The writing resembles that of the preceding volume [Book of Prayers, No. 415 of this catalogue] and is probably by the same hand; but it shows that the writer has become more familiar both with the language and with the pen. The character used by the French missionaries for ou or English u (8) is employed, and the nasals are marked as in Rasles's Dictionary, by ü. In addition to the prayers contained in the earlier manual, it has the Litanies of the Virgin, and of the Holy Name of Jesus, the Psalms and Antiphons for Vespers, and the hymns "Lucis Creator" and "Veni Creator."

Page 20 begins with a prayer which is followed by the small catechism, which occupies twenty pages. Then Prières après le Catéchisme; then the Grand Catéchisme, Des Sacrements, followed by Du Baptême, the questions and answers of which fill ten pages, and by questions and answers upon Explication des Cérémonies du Baptême, which occupy three pages. Each volume has been printed several times. Tome I in 1550, 1554 (with the title: secunda edizione), 1563 (with the title: terza edizione), 1588, 1606, 1613. M. Crognara says the editions of 1588 and 1606 differ only in title. Tome II in 1559, 1564, 1574, 1583, 1606, 1613. The editions prior to 1583 are not complete; those of 1588 and 1606 appear to differ only in title. Tome III, 1556, and with change of title, 1565; other editions, 1606, 1613. The two last only are complete. There is no edition of the second volume known earlier than that of 1559, which is strange, from the fact that the first edition of the third volume is dated 1556. A new edition of this collection, edited by Louis Pezanna, was printed at Venice, 1835, 4^o, in two columns.—Brunet.

- Sebastian Rale was born in 1658, in Franche Comté, where his family occupied a respectable position. After teaching Greek in the College of Nismes, he came to America in 1689, arriving in Quebec on the 13th of October in that year. Sent first to the Abnaki mission of St. Francis, he was, about 1693, sent to Illinois, but in 1695, at least, was on the Kennebec. His life there we have briefly sketched.

His Abnaki Dictionary is still preserved as a treasure at Harvard College, and, to the great joy of all philologists, was published in the Memoirs of the American Academy in 1833. In the same year, Bishop Fenwick, of Boston, once a Father of the Society of Jesus, raised a monument to the memory of Father Rale on the spot where he was buried one hundred and nine years before.—Shea's Catholic Missions, pp. 151–152.

Manuscript. 30 ll. folio. It is numbered 49-98, which proves that it was originally bound with other documents of the same kind. The work is nevertheless complete. I received it from Sr. Don Domingo Robles, Dean of the Cathedral of Ciudad Real (San Cristobal), of Chiapas. The first 19 leaves comprise the Arte; the following leaf gives the name of the 18 months of the Tzotzlem solar year, with explanations. As to the months the author omits them, but we have them fortunately in Nuñez de la Vega, Boturini, etc. Then comes the treatise on accounts or nmeration in the Tzotzlem language, ll. 20-25. The last four leaves contain a sort of dictionary of conversation, Spanish and Tzotzlem, terminating with a third signature of the copyist, Fr. Dionycio Pereyra.—Brasseur de Bourbonnig.

- 3398 Ross (William P.), editor. Cherokee Advocate. | Volume I. Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, September 26, 1844. Number 1 [—Volume 9. Wednesday, September 28, 1853. Number 22]. | c.

Vols. 1-9. folio. A four-page, twenty-four column newspaper. "Published every Saturday morning, both in the English and Cherokee languages, by Wm. P. Ross, editor." The first few numbers, owing to the scarcity of Cherokee type, contained but little matter in those characters. When these were supplied, from four to six columns were given.

It is probable the issue of the date given above, September 28, 1853, was the last of this series, for in it the following notice appears: "Kind Readers: The foreman tells us 'I can't get out a full paper.' The consequence is you receive a half sheet. The cause, the Foreman says, is for the want of an apprentice; we don't say that is the cause. There is an old adage which says, 'That there are none so blind as he who can see and won't see.'

"We shall be compelled to suspend issue, unless we can get help sufficient, or the Council does something. We have all the hired help the law allows, and we cannot find a boy that wishes to learn to use the 'printer's stick.'"

The form and size of the paper remained the same throughout.

Mr. W. P. Ross having been "appointed in connection with others to proceed to Washington," in December, 1846, Mr. Daniel H. Ross assumed the editorship; W. P. Ross returning to the position May, 1847. D. H. Ross was again editor from February to July, 1848. From November 20, 1848, to April 30, 1849, Mr. James S. Vann was the editor, and again from October 20, 1850, to the end, with Mr. Wm. P. Boudinot at times temporarily in charge. Mr. David Carter edited the sheet from April 30, 1849, to October 22, 1850.

The translators at different times were J. D. Wofford and Joseph B. Bird.

The paper contained much linguistic material—origin of the alphabet, laws of the Cherokee Nation, &c.

The publication of the Advocate was resumed somewhere about May, 1870, I judge; the first number of the second series I have seen is dated October 26, 1872, vol. 3, No. 30, with W. P. Boudinot as editor, and "published by the Cherokee Nation." The sheet appears increased in size to 32 columns. Six columns of the third page are printed in Cherokee characters. The next issue I have seen, vol. 4, No. 52, May 9, 1874, John L. Adair, editor, has five columns on the third page and three on the fourth in Cherokee characters.

Another break in the publication must have occurred, and a third series begun, for I find the issue of November 9, 1878, marked vol. 3, No. 34. In this Geo. W. Johnson is named as editor. Nos. 34, 35, and 40 are all I have seen of vol. 4; in these but five columns each are given in Cherokee characters. These and the subsequent numbers mentioned are in the library of Maj. J. W. Powell.

Of vol. 4 I have seen Nos. 34-52, December 3, 1879-April 14, 1880. The editorial chair is now filled by E. C. Boudinot, jr., who devotes the same space, five columns, to the native language. Of vol. 5, April 21, 1880-April 27, 1881, Major Powell has all but a few numbers. Beginning with the issue of April 13, the whole of the third page is printed in Cherokee characters, and a Cherokee heading added thereto. Mr. Boudinot still continues as editor. The only change in vol. 6 (of which I have seen Nos. 1-30, May 4, 1881-November 25, 1881), is in the editorship, Mr. D. H. Ross assuming that position in the last-mentioned issue.

Possibly this is the same work as that given in No. 3415 of this catalogue.
P. Ruz, the most fluent of the writers in the Maya language that Yucatan has produced, was born in that peninsula about the end of the last century. Whilst still young he entered the Franciscan Convent of Merida, in which he assumed the habit, some years before the revolution devastated and broke up the religious orders of Yucatán. He knew the Maya language perfectly, and did not cease to preach in it to the end of his days. His discourses were well delivered, and his audience heard him with pleasure and advantage. He died in Merida, at an old age, not many years ago [1855].—Bibliografía Sanfrancescana.

4 p. ll., ll. 1-236. 4°. Bold Roman letter; many engravings. Title furnished by Sr. Icazbalceta from a copy belonging to P. Juarez, of Tezcoco. No other perfect copy is known, the title in Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 160, being taken from an imperfect copy belonging to the late Sr. Ramirez. In the sale catalogue of the latter gentleman's books, the following statement is made:
In the beginning of this volume is an interesting manuscript note of seven pages in the hand of Señor Ramirez, in which he shows, on the authority of a manuscript, 'Bibliotheca,' of Father Figueroa, who was librarian of the convent of S. Francisco de Mexico, that this is one of the rarest examples of early Mexican typography, in consequence of its being condemned by the Inquisition, and the copies rigorously destroyed. So far as is known no perfect copy exists, and it would appear that Señor Ramirez considered the present copy as unique. It is printed in bold Roman characters, and illustrated with wood-cuts coarsely executed. Beristain speaks of having seen a copy in the college of S. Gregory of Mexico, which was probably the present.

This work is based on a Mexican manuscript on maguey paper, written in 1532 "for the use of Father Dominic de Canizarez", and forming a folio of 250 pages, one leaf being lost; but it contained merely references for two feasts, as appears by an index of later date. It was found by Beltrami in 1826, in a library in Mexico, as he himself tells in his Mexique, vol. 2, p. 167. (See, also, Revue Encyclopédique, vol. 32, p. 611.)

As Father Bernardine de Sahagun, who came to Mexico in 1529, is said by Torquemada (vol. 3, p. 487) to have written "a very elegant Postil on the Epistles and Gospels for the Sundays" of the year, Beltrami concluded that this was the work, which was regarded by Torquemada as lost, Sahagun's manuscripts having been taken to Spain by a governor, who gave them to a historian. When Biondelli acquired the manuscript after Beltrami's death, in 1854, and began to prepare it for the press; he found, however, that it did not contain Postils—that is, homilies on the Epistles and Gospels—but a very faithful Mexican translation of the Epistles and Gospels themselves, without the slightest comment. The Gospels are selections from the Four Evangelists which are read in the mass, and the Epistles are selections from the rest of the New and from the Old Testament, read also in the mass before the Gospels. They differ for each Sunday and Holiday; and religious orders having special holidays have some additional ones, forming what is called a "Proper." This manuscript follows the Franciscan proper. The manuscript is, therefore, not the Postil of Sahagun; but as Father Canizarez was one of his disciples, it may be a translation made or revised by Sahagun. As priests are required on Sundays to read the Epistle and Gospel to the people in the vernacular and explain them, this translation may be older than the date of this copy. Sahagun in three years could scarcely be able to make so perfect a translation.

Biondelli gives the Mexican text with the Latin from the Missal, in parallel columns. His introduction contains, pp. xxi-xxxix, a short treatise on the Mexican language, De Lingua Azteca, p. xxi; Generales Linguae Aztecae Proprietates, including the conjugation of the verb, &c., p. xxiii; De Affinitatibus Linguae Nahuatl cum aliis, p. xxx; specimen of vocabulary, pp. xxxviii-xxxix; he gives a fac-simile of a page of the Mexican manuscript, following p. xlix; and adds a Glossarium Azteco Latinum, pp. 427-553.

4^c. Title from Beristain.

- 3445 ——— Sermones en mexicano. *

Original manuscript on thick maguey paper; large folio. It has the following title on the first leaf, the lower half of which is missing:

✕ Siguiense vnos sermones de dominicas y de sanctos en lengua mexicana: no traduzidos de sermonario alguno sino cōpuestos nuevamente a la medida de la capacidad de los indios: breves en materia y en lenguaje congruo venusto y llano facil de entender para todos los que le oyerē altos y baxos principales y macegales hombres y mugeres. Several successive leaves are missing, and two are loose. At the top of the following leaf is this note:

Siguense unos sermones breves en la lengua mexicana. el autor dellos los somete a la correptiō de la madre saucta yglesia cō todas las demas obras suyas. son para todo el año de dominicas y de sāctos: no estan corregidos. fray bñardio de sahagun.

There remains of the manuscript 95 ll., with wide margins, in which are many notes in the hand of P. Sahagun.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 158.

- 3446 ——— Doctrina cristiana en mexicano. *

Manuscript. 27 ll. folio. Faulty at end; it begins thus:

Nican vnpeoa yn neumachtiliz tlatolli oquichiuh fray Bernardino de Sahagun.

This note is followed by twenty-six additions, made by the author during the many years it was in the author's hands, before the book was published. It is the same as that which comes first under the title of: declaraciō breue de las tres virtudes theologales.

On the reverse is a preface in Spanish, which concludes as follows:

¶ Este mismo año de 1579 se puso por apendiz de esta Postilla, en lo vltimo vn tratado que contiene siete Collationes en lengua mexicana: en las cuales se contienen muchos secretos, de las costumbres destos naturales: y tambien muchos secretos y primores desta lengua mexicana: y pues que este volumen no a de andar sino entre los sacerdotes, y predicadores, no ay porque tener recelo de las antiguallas, que en el se contienen, antes daran mucha lumbre y contento a los predicadores del sancto Euangelio.

This treatise is not found in the manuscript; only twenty-four additions in 16 ll.; badly bound, the last seven leaves being out of place.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 159.

Böturini, § 25, ¶ 1, has the following: Doctrina Christiana en Figuras y Cifras. 11 ll. on European paper.

The handwriting is clear and legible, and the manuscript in perfect preservation.—Ramirez Sale Cat., No. 764.

This manuscript is given by Beristain under the title: Tratado de las virtudes Teologales, en megitano.

3448 ——— Vocabulary in Spanish, Latin, and Mexican. *

Manuscript. 155 ll. 4°. In a very small but clear handwriting of the 16th century, in double columns, the Mexican part being written in red ink. This is supposed to be either the original, or at least a copy, of the vocabulary composed by Father Sahagun.—Ramirez Sale Cat., No. 545.

“The fourth work of this learned franciscan was a trilingüe vocabulary, of which Torquemada says, in his Monarquia Indiana:

“Escribio tambien otro vocabulario que llamé Trilingüe, en lengua mexicana, castellana y latina, de grandisima erudicion, en este ejercicio de la lengua castellana.”

“Betancourt, in his Menologio, says that he saw this manuscript. It was afterwards thought to have been lost, and there are not lacking persons who deny its existence; yet it came into the possession of Sr. Chavero, and from his hands has passed into those of Sr. Castillo. The work in question is a thick volume in 4°, small Spanish, and on Genoese paper, written in beautiful characters, which has been attributed to Martin Jacobita, a pupil of Sahagún. Sahagún’s handwriting appears on only one of the pages of the book. The dictionary is arranged in two columns; on each line the first word is Spanish, then follows the Latin translation, and above the lines, in red ink, is the Mexican pronunciation, though lacking in some places.”—Llanos.

3449 ——— Manuscript in the Mexican language. *

Ten loose leaves from different Mexican manuscripts of the 16th century (some with beautiful, illuminated initials); four leaves signed Don Martin Enriquez, and dated Mexico, 16th of February, 1578, on the last leaf. 4°.

These leaves seem to be the remnants of an unknown work of the indefatigable Fr. B. de Sahagun, as the last contains the permission of the Viceroy given to him to print “el dicho Manuel del Christiano.” Whether it was ever printed we are unable to state, as the present is the only reference to the work mentioned which we know of.—Ramirez Sale Cat., No. 544.

3450 ——— Arte de la Lengua Megicana. *

Title from Beristain.

3451 ——— Explicacion de los Evangelios y Epistolas de la Misa. *

An excellent work, from which Betancur confesses that he learned many beautiful forms of speech in Mexican.—Beristain.

The first work of P. Sahagún, according to Sr. Chavero, was a manuscript in small quarto, in the handwriting of Sahagún, although without the name of the author. It was written in the Mexican language, and comprised the “Evangelios y Epistolas de las dominicas.” It contains 74 ll., and 1 l. index in a different handwriting and of a later epoch. It formed part of the rich library of Sr. Chavero, and to-day exists in possession of the Mexican collector, Don Manuel Fernandez del Castillo.—Llanos.

3452 ——— Vida de S. Bernardino de Sena en megitano. *

He wrote this at the request of the Indians of Xochimilco, who regarded him as their patron saint.—Beristain.

Sr. Adolfo Llanos gives, in the Museo Nacional de México, Anales, vol. 3, pt. 3, an account of: Sahagún y su Historia de Mexico, from which the above title is taken. He says: The Academia Española de la Historia intends to publish a manuscript of P. Sahagún, preserved in its library, written in the Mexican language, with a translation in Spanish, titled as above.

Bernardino Ribeira was born in the early part of the 16th century, in the town of Sahagún, in the kingdom of Leon. Whilst yet a child he commenced his studies in the University of Salamanca, and in the flower of youth he assumed the Franciscan habit in the Salamantine Convent, and soon embarked for New Spain, where he arrived in the year 1529. The principal object of the priests of this Order was to teach and convert the Indians, and to accomplish this it was necessary to learn the language of the natives, a task which Sahagún accepted with singular determination and beneficial results, for of him it was said by another illustrious friar, Mendieta, in the Historia Eclesiástica Indiana, that none other had ever equaled or approached him in discovering the secrets of the Mexican language or in writing so much in it.

Sahagún dedicated himself to the instruction of the Indians, entering in the College of Santa Cruz, in Santiago Tlatelolco, and purposely refused positions and preferments in his Order, so as to dedicate himself exclusively to study. From a teacher he became translator, and from translator historian, in which last phase of his life he reached immortality. He died the 5th of February, 1590.—Llanos.

"The mystery which surrounded the authorship, history, and origin of this very rare volume has been slowly dispelled by successive fragments of information. So few copies have survived the holocaust to which it was devoted, that its very existence was unknown to the most zealous collectors of Indian and Vermont history. Published anonymously, without preface, it was known to but few that the author was the Rev. Daniel Clark[e] Sanders, President of the University of Vermont. sonal enemy of the author, published an acrimonious critique upon the book, in the Liberal and Philosophical Repository. The animus of the critic was evidenced, not only by the bitterness of his language, but by his ignorance of the subject of Indian wars, being more profound than that of the author of the book he scored. Such was the effect of the article upon either Mr. Sanders, or the publishers, that the work was suppressed. But very few copies could have escaped the hands that were now as zealous to destroy, as they had lately been to create. In fact, so nearly complete was the destruction of the book that it was forgotten by those who professed to know most of its author, his biographers. Neither Thompson, Williams, or Hemmenway, who published memoirs of him, mention his authorship of the Indian wars."—Fields' Essay, No. 1351.

3556 Sergeant (Rev. John). Translation of the 19th Psalm into the Muhhe-con-nuk language, done at the Cornwall School, under the superintendence of Rev. John Sergeant, Missionary.

In Morse (J.) Report to the Secretary of War on Indian Affairs, pp. 359-360. Washington, 1827. 8°.

John Sergeant was born at Newark, N. J., in the year 1710. He was graduated at Yale College in 1729, and was tutor there from 1731 to 1735, when he left the College to undertake a mission among the wandering Mohegan Indians, whom his labors ultimately collected at Stockbridge into a tribe which still bears that name. He became well acquainted with their language and translated into it several prayers and Dr. Watts' first Catechism for the use of children. He also translated "those parts of the Old Testament which contain an account of the creation, of the fall of our first parents, of the calling of Abraham, of the dealings of God with the patriarchs and children of Israel, and those which relate to the coming of Christ, and the whole of the New Testament excepting the Revelation." He died in July, 1749, at the age of 39. His son, John Sergeant, also ministered to the Indian congregation at Stockbridge from 1775 to his death, in 1824.—Sprague's Annals of the Am. Pulpit, vol. 1, pp. 388-394.

3560 Sermones. ¶ In nomine domini incipiunt sermoēs | dominicales per totum anni circuitus | in lingua mexicana. | B.

Manuscript. ll. 1-611. 16°. In the Bancroft Library, San Francisco; bought at the Ramirez sale, London. It is entered in the catalogue of that sale under No. 543, and in Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 163.

No author's name; beautifully written, in several different handwritings of the 16th century—so neat and uniform as to resemble type. There are two, sometimes three, sermons for each Sunday in the year, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent. The titles and the frequent citations from Scriptures are in Latin, and these, as well as the many Spanish and Latin words introduced, are in red ink. At the commencement of each sermon is a large capital letter, such as are met with in printed books of the period. Throughout the manuscript the type used by the early Spanish printers is carefully imitated.

3561 ——— Sermones en Mexicano. *

Manuscript. 28 pp. 4°. Numbered from 229 to 256, and 21 ll. unnumbered.

I suspect that these sermons are by P. Sandoval, as one of the leaves is an old one written over, on which we read: Sr L^{do} Dⁿ Rafael Sandoval: viva m^a. a^a. Cathedratico de ydeoma en el Colegio de Tepozotlan.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 69.

3562 ——— Sermones en lengua Achi ó Tzutuhil, compuestos para el uso de los padres de la Orden de Santo Domingo de Guatemala, a principios del Siglo XVII, conforme al estilo del R. P. Fray Domingo de Vico. *

Manuscript. 174 ll. 4°. In a correct and beautiful handwriting, without the author's name, although one of the folios bears the date of 1635. It is composed of thirty-three sermons in Tzutuhile, having for their subject the principal feasts of the saints and of the year. From the note placed at the end of the Theologia Indorum, in Tzutuhil, by P. Domingo de Vico, these sermons, as well as this last work, must have been translated and transcribed with the aid of some instructed Indians, who made interpolations in their own manner, which are not quite orthodox, being more in harmony with their ancient, idolatrous rites than with Christianity, “adding,” says the annotator, “some foolish things.” Apparently for this same reason, the line at the commencement of the sermon on the Last Judgment is completely effaced.

The Tzutuhil, or Achi language, as it is called by the annotator of the Theologia Indorum, cited above, was and still is the language of the population gathered about Atitan in Guatemala, and on the south and west slopes of the mountain which commands this volcano. As to the name of Achi, which is here given it, it signifies courageous or hero, which would make the Tzutuhil dialect the heroic language of Guatemala; thus the annotator ranks it above its sister dialects, the Quiché and the Cakchiquel.

I will observe, in conclusion, that the folios of this manuscript are incorrectly numbered, having been transposed by an unskillful hand. To arrange them orderly I have been obliged to place at the end several pages which had been inscribed at the beginning of the volume after the Theologia Indorum, which I detached.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

3563 ——— Sermones en Lengua Mexicana. *

Manuscript of early date, probably the early part of the 15th century. It contains various sermons, homilies, and expositions of the various books of the Bible.—Fischer Sale Cat., No. 2008.

3564 ——— Sermones en Lengua Mexicana. *

A curious manuscript of the 17th century. 4°.—Fischer Sale Cat., No. 2009.

3565 ——— Sermones en Lengua Quiche de Rabinal. *

Manuscript. 98 ll. The first and last sermons are complete; some leaves are missing in the intermediate lessons. They appear to have been written toward the end of the last century.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

3566 ——— Sermones en Lengua Tarasca. *

Manuscript of the 16th century. 4°. Title from the Fischer Sale Catalogue, No. 2019.

3567 ——— Sermones en Lengua Totonaca. *

A very curious and interesting manuscript of the 16th century; not quite complete.—Fischer Sale Cat., No. 2023.

3568 Sermons. Sermons, Catechism and Vocabulary in the Matzahua Language. B.

Manuscript. 24 ll. 12°. In the Bancroft Library, San Francisco. It was bought at the Ramirez sale, London, and is No. 493 of the catalogue of that sale. Ll. 1-7 contain two sermons in the Matzahua language; reverse of last folio, a few Matzahua words with Spanish equivalents; writing of 17th century.—Catechism of the Roman Catholic Church, in Matzahua; writing of 17th century, ll. 8-14.—Vocabulary in Spanish and Matzahua; extends only to letter T; only about one-half of Spanish words have Matzahua equivalents, ll. 15-24.

3569 ——— An anonymous Collection of Sermons in the Mexican Language. *

Manuscript of the 16th century. 4°. Title from the Fischer Sale Catalogue, No. 1933.

3570 ——— Sermons in the Mexican Language. *

Manuscript. folio. Written during the last century on the backs of curious printed broadsides; also some proclamations made by the late Emperor Maximilian, translated and printed for distribution among the interior Mexicans, by order of His Majesty. A curious collection, particularly interesting to the Mexican student, as shewing the changes the language has undergone.—Fischer Sale Cat., No. 1937.

4°. Title from Beristain. Leclerc, 1878, No. 2436, also gives the above title, and adds: We give this title, from Ludewig, to a volume which we possess and which is much abused. The title and many leaves are wanting, and the greater part of what remains is in very bad condition. From its contents and after examination we are confirmed in the opinion that the book is no other than the Manual of P. Angel Serra, in Latin, Spanish, and Tarasca. The volume is composed of about 136 leaves, plus the index.

Mrs. Erminnie A. Smith has been engaged for some years, under the auspices of the Bureau of Ethnology, in the study of the Iroquois stock of languages, visiting the different reservations for that purpose, and her work when finished will be published by the Bureau. In the collection of material she has used as a basis the second edition of Powell's Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages, but in many instances she has gone beyond the limits of that work. In the Tuscarora, Mohawk, Onondaga, and Seneca, for instance, she has added the Lord's Prayer, the conjugation of verbs, synopsis of the grammar, etc. She has also in preparation a dictionary of the Mohawk, which will probably exceed in extent that of the Tuscarora. In addition to the material collected by herself, it will include a translation of the French Mohawk dictionary prepared by Père J. Marcoux, and described in No. 2463 of this catalogue.

I have seen only the copy in the Library of Congress, in the title of which the last figure of the date, both in the body of the title and in the imprint, is a neat pen-made 6. A manuscript note accompanying the volume reads: "This is evidently the edition of 1627, with the date altered to 1626." It is not apparent why the figure 6 of the date in the body of the title should also be made with a pen, since that date stands 1626 in every edition except the original.

3702 Soriano (Fr. Juan Guadalupe). Arte y Vocabulario en Lengua Pame y Otomi &c. *

Original manuscript, 4°, in possession of Sr. Icazbalceta, who has furnished me with the following description:

Doctrina Christiana, para la facil enseñanza he [sic] inteligencia de los Misterios de Ntra. Sancta Fee en el Ydioma Pamee, que para bien de las Almas. Dispussola Fr. Juan Guadalupe Soriano, francisco Descalzo de la Sta. Provincia de Sⁿ. Diego de Mexico, Ministro actual de la Mission de Fuen-Clara y Presid^{te}. de ella. La dedica al Purissimo Corazon de Maria Santissima Nuestra Señora el dia 15 de Julio de 67 [1767].

Below this title, on the first page, and in another handwriting, are some words in the Chino idiom, with Spanish equivalents, and at the end this note: "Murió el P. Soriano el mes de de ." Unfortunately the annotator has left the date blank.

L. 2 prologue, verso blank.—L. 3 "Orthografia en Othomii, por Fray Juan Guadalupe," 5 ll.—"Libro primero de los principales rudimentos del idioma Othomi," 9 ll.—"Libro Segundo," 12 ll.—"Libro en que se da razon breve del genero de los nombres y de las cantidades de todos Vocablos; por vna clarissima Orthographia," 5 ll.

Arte del Ydioma Pame, dedicado a la Purissima Reyna, con el titulo de los Remedios, q^e. se venera en el Convento de Franciscos Descalzos del Religioso Convento de S^r. Sⁿ. Antonio de Queretaro hizolo Fr. Juan Guadalupe Soriano, Religioso del mismo orden Descalzo de N. P^e. Sⁿ. Fran^{co}. lo comenzo dia 2 de Junio de 1764 a^s. en la Mision de N. S. de Guadalupe de Zerro Prieto.

Immediately following is the "Dedicatoria," signed P. Soriano, which concludes the page. The title following is: Prologo Historial, which occupies 4 ll. On the next, the 5th, begins the Arte del Ydioma Pamée, por Fray Juan Guadalupe Soriano, 8 ll. This is followed by: Idioma Chino. The leaf following:

✕ Dificil tratado, del Arte, y vnion de los Ydiomas Othomii y Pamee, cuyos dos idiomas se aprenden por vnas mismas Reglas, para la facil y necessaria administracⁿ. de las Misiones de Sierra Gorda. Dedicada a N. S. la Virgen Maria en su Milagrossa Ymagen de los Remedios, q̄ se venera en el convento de Sr. S. Antonio de Religiosos descalzos de Queretaro, y a el Milagrosso y Divino Señor Crucificado con el Titulo de la Cantera. Trata tam bien de otras muchissimas Curiosidades, para la facil Predⁿ. de los Misioneros. Trabajola, el Mínimo entre los Menores, Fray Juan Guadalupe Soriano, Pred^r. Apostholico de Propaganda Fide, Ministro y Presidente de la Mission de Fuen-Clara, Religioso de la mas estrecha observancia de Religiosos Franciscos de la Sancta Provincia de Sⁿ. Diego de Mexico. Año de 1766. mens. 7 bris. Loco Xiliapam.

Reverse blank; 87 ll., with a "Dedicatoria" and a "Prologo Historial," very extensive and filled with curious notices. On the reverse of l. 20 is this title:

Arte de los dos Ydiomas Othomii y Pamee, q̄ en nombre de Dios y para gloria suya, à fuerza de gran trabajo, lo dispone, bajo el Patrocinio de Maria Purissima de los Remedios, y del Soberano Sr. Crucificado de la Cantera, Fr. Juan Guadalupe Soriano, Reliosso Francisco Descalzo de la Sancta Provincia de San Diego de Mexico. Predicador Apostholico y Ministro Misionero de la Mission de Sr. San Joseph de Fuen-Clara, ó Xiliapam. Trata tambien, auuque en extracto de los dos idiomas Mexicano y Jonaz. Que todo ceda en honra y gloria de Dios y de Maria Smã. y q̄. sea para provecho de muchas almas necesitadas. Amen. O. S. C. S. M. E.

Then follows, on the succeeding leaf:

Modo de pronunciar los dos Ydiomas Othomii y Pamee.

And on the reverse begins the Vocabularios de los Ydiomas Pamee y Othomii, Mexicano y Jonaz.

The words in this vocabulario number 1,352, placed in the following manner:

	El Sol.
Othom.	Pamee.	Mexicano.	Jonaz.
Nahiadii.	Nampae.	Tonalli.	Nane.

The four-fold character is not preserved throughout. Many have only three or two corresponding meanings of the Spanish word. The Jonaz is most frequently faulty, the Mexican more rarely; the Otomi and Pamee meaning is usually found. There is no alphabetic order, but the words are grouped more or less according to their analogy. The numerals extend to 20 and 30. There are corresponding words in Pamee for objects which certainly were unknown to the Indians, as iron, gold, fire-lock, spurs, etc., and even baptismal names, as Agustin, Pedro, Geronimo and Rosa. There are also found the names of towns. The Mexican words are generally incorrectly written.

Towards the end of the Vocabulary, and in'errupting it, is an "Explicacion de los más principales rudimentos de los dos Ydiomas Othomii y Pame, dedicados á el Purissimo Corazon de Jesus, dia 3 de Julio de 1768." The Explicacion occupies a little more than 7 pages, and then the Vocabulary is continued. At the conclusion of this there are 3 leaves of devotions and doctrine in Mexican.

This terminates that part of the manuscript relating to the native languages; 4 ll. in Spanish follow, which treat of "brujos, grados entre los indios prohibidos, y de volcanos."

"Promptuario necesario á los Confesores, del Derecho Civil y Canónico, y otras curiosidades, que dedica al Purissimo Corazon de Jesus, su minimo Devoto Fr. Juan Guadalupe Soriano, Religioso menor . . . &c., se comenzo el dia 25 de Junio dia memorable por la expulsion de los de la Compañia de Jesus, año de 1767. Ceda todo en honra y gloria de Dios, y de su Purisima Madre. Amen." 85 ll.

32 ll. 4°. This work, the title of which I have composed from the first page, is the only copy I know of a book in the Mexican vernacular of Guatemala. Although the author, whose name is not found, makes a distinction between this idiom and the "Pipil," I believe I can assert it to be the same language, that is to say, a Mexican dialect deprived of the sonorous consonants, and in particular of the letter l after the t, which is one of the beauties of the Mexican. It is the same dialect which Squier calls "Nahnal of the coast of the Balsamo, in Salvador."—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

title of Libro III. It is composed of four parts. The first occupies leaves 92 to 166; ll. 167 to 171 are blank. Here the writing recommences and proceeds from 172 to 205; l. 206 is blank and l. 207 missing. The writing recommences on l. 208 with the following title in Spanish: Declaracion de los Sacramentos, and concludes on l. 227; ll. 228, 229, and 231 (230 is missing) are in blank. The title on l. 232 is simply De misericordia, and the writing proceeds to l. 261, the reverse of which is blank.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 77.

The work is not divided into chapters, but is written continuously. It is beautifully written and well preserved. The following notice appears on the page at the beginning of the first volume:

“Avis de l'annotateur

“Le présent ouvrage a été composé par Mr. l'abbé François Auguste Magon de Terlaye, Missionnaire d'abord a Soekatsi 1754-1760 et ensuite au lac des deux Montagnes jusqu'a sa mort arriver le 17 Mai 1777.

“L'auteur a suivi en l'abregeant le P. Berruyer, et quoique, dans sa traduction, il est évité les defauts si justement reprochés au célèbre Jesuite, son ouvrage laisse toutefois beaucoup à désirer et aurait besoin d'être entièrement refondu, avant d'être mis en lumière.

“Certains traits, par exemple, l'admirable chasteté du Patriarche Joseph qui aurait pu et du être racontée sans tous les détails marqués dans la St^e Ecriture, se sont a peine indiqués, tandis que d'autres qui auraient dû être écartés entièrement, se trouvent rapportés dans leurs plus mêmes circonstances.—Il parait bien que le traduction a vu après coup.*

“M. Je C. Mathevet a été plus heureux dans la petite bible Algonquins. Il s'est attaché uniquement aux traits principaux de l'Histoire Sainte; les a racontés dans un style irréprochable et les a accompagnés des réflexions les plus judicieuses. Ainsi a-t-on cru d'avoir le faire imprimer. La 1^{re} partie contenant l'histoire de l'ancien testament a paru 1859 et la 2^{de} renfermant la concordance des Evangelistes avec un court précis des Actes des Apôtres, en 1881.

“En revenant à M. de Terlaye nous ajouterons qu'une copie de son ouvrage, tout entière de sa propre main a été donner dans le dernieres années a la Mission du Sault St Louis. Il manquait a celle-ci les 40 premières pages égarées depuis la mort de l'auteur, on ne s'est comment; nous les avons transcrites de la 1^{re} copie en les accompagnant de diverses notes qui nous espérons, pourront être de quelque utilité aux nouveaux missionnaires.”

"Chap. V. The third Conjecture," pp. 14-16, is an attempt to show analogies between the American languages and the language of the Jews.
"This is the first dissertation in English on that fertile subject of controversy and hypothesis, the origin of the American Indians. The Puritans of New England awoke to it with a zeal untempered by the knowledge that keener intellects and higher scholarship had been stimulated by its attractive mystery a century before. They seem to have been unaware that Las Casas, Torquemada, Garcia, and Herrera, Grotius, Horn, and De Laet had wrought the vein until all the metal was exhausted. But a new cycle of disputation now commenced, and in 1652 Thorowgood's treatise was answered by Hamon L'Estrange in a tract entitled Americans no Jews. London, 1652. Thorowgood made his replication in a second work: Iewes in America, or Probabilities that those Indians are Judaical. London, 1660."—Field.

3870 Titulo Real de Don Francisco Izquin, ultimo Ahpop Galel, ó Rey de Nehaib, en el Quiché, otorgado por los señores que le dieron la investidura de su real dignidad, firmada por el ultimo Rey del Quiché, con otros varios principes, en dia 22 de noviembre del año de 1558. *

11 ll. folio. Original manuscript in the Quiché language, containing beside the usual symbolic prefaces, the history of the conquest of the cities of Lower Verapaz and Quiché by the tribes of this name, and especially by the three royal houses, of which that of Nehaib was the lowest in rank. It bears the signatures of the last Quiché princes, who, like those of Mexico, eagerly adopted, early in the conquest, the characters of the Latin alphabet, in order, by means of them, to perpetuate their histories without danger of being suspected of idolatry or rebellion. I have translated this document into French at the request of Dr. Don Mariano Padilla; this translation exists at present among the archives of the library of the University of Guatemala.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

This little work, in the Cakchiquel language, is bound with other small works in Spanish, but the title-page having been lost I have reconstructed it, adding the name of the printer, and also that of the town where it was published, for it appears to have been printed at ancient Guatemala, and from the same types as the grammar of Father Flores. It is possible that he was the author of it, though I have discovered nothing which could enable me to speak positively on the subject. At any rate it is, up to this time, the only printed work, the grammar of Flores excepted, extant in the Cakchiquel language, and the only copy known. I owe it, with various other documents, to the kindness of Dr. Murguia, physician at Guatemala.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Manuscript. 1 p. l., ll. 1-227, 11 unnumbered ll. sm. 4^o. In the library of the American Philosophical Society, Philadelphia.

The title is on the recto of the second leaf. On the recto of the first leaf is the form of absolution in Latin and Cakchiquel; on the verso a note; dated 1732, to the effect that the owner, a priest, received this volume in payment for masses for the soul of its previous possessor, a certain Señor Achutegui.

The dictionary is Cakchiquel and Spanish, written closely but legibly, with 35 lines to a page and averaging about four lines of examples to each word. An abundance of phrases and forms are given, but the alphabetical order is not strictly preserved. The characters of Parra are used throughout.

No author by the name of Varea is mentioned by Mr. Squier. But Francisco Varela is said to have gone to Guatemala in 1596 and to have composed a "Calepino" in 400 pages folio. No doubt this is the same person, and unless the original still exists in the convent of San Francisco de Guatemala, this is probably the only monument of his labor extant.—Brinton.

On page 4 begins the Doctrina, arranged in this way: the odd numbered pages contain the Mexieau, in one column only; the even numbered pages are printed in two columns, on the left Spanish and on the right Otomi. The Spanish is in Roman and the other two are in gothic lettering.

3986 Vega (Nuñez de la). Constituciones Diocesanas del Obispado de Chiappas. Roma, 1702. *

This work is divided into a preamble and ten parts. The preamble is most curious and valuable for archaeological purposes, since it contains extracts from the ancient book of the Tzendales and other nations of the vast diocese of Chiapa. These ancient books appear to have been deposited by the bishop in the archives of the bishopric at Ciudad Real, for the use of the Curas of the diocese. The second part has also some interest, consisting of an exhortation directed to the ancient idolaters against the superstition of Nagualism, and contains a description of the rites attending its practice. La Vega had a complete acquaintance with the Tzendal language, the probable root of the Maya, Quiché, and the other affiliated dialects of Guatemala and Yucatan.—Squier.

Mérida de Yucatan. Impreso por Antonio Petra, 1848. *

1 folio. An appeal, in the Maya language, to the Maya Indians still in revolt in Yucatan against the descendants of the Spaniards.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

“On the pastoral visit made to his bishopric, subsequent to the insurrection of the natives, by the illustrious bishop Dr. D. José Maria Guerra, Sr. D. José Canuto Vela was confessor and preacher in the Maya language.

“We place his name among Maya writers, because the ‘Carta pastoral’ of the prelate we have mentioned, addressed to the natives of the country in February, 1848, was translated into the Yucatec idiom by Sr. Vela. It is printed, in 4^o, of 8 leaves only, in Spanish and Yucatec, under the following title: ‘Pastoral del Illmó Sr. obispo dirigida á los indígenas de esta diócesis.’ Merida de Yucatan. Impreso por Antonio Petra. 1848. 8 pp. 4^o.

“We have seen it asserted that another edition of this pastoral was made in the same year or a little later, but we are ignorant whether the copy in our collection belongs to the first or second edition, since it contains no notice relative to the date.

“The Maya style of the curate Vela is perfect, and as he was a great orator in this idiom, we are fortunate in having, at least as a specimen, the pastoral of 1848.”—Carrillo.

Possibly this is the same work catalogued by Brasseur de Bourbourg under Guerra (José Maria), and given in this catalogue as No. 1613; though Brasseur de Bourbourg gives both Vela and Guerra.

Vetancurt, Vetancur or Betancurt, as others write his name, was born in Mexico in 1620 of parents descended from Jean de Bethencourt, a French gentleman, who made conquest of the Canaries and became king of them. Our author was not considered an elegant writer, but he was profoundly versed in the Mexican language and could avail himself, in the composition of his Chronicle, of the numerous documents in existing that language.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Dr. Franc^o Viana was a native of Alava, a member of the Dominican order, to which he consecrated himself at Salamanca. He moved to the province of Chiapa and lived in the convent of Coban, which he not only directed but also rebuilt, as well as that of Zacapula. He was at various times Definidor of his province, and died in 1609, leaving the foregoing manuscripts.

Most of the above works were translated into the Kiche idiom of Guatemala by Fr. Dionysio de Zñüiga, Dominican of the same province of St. Vicente.—Beristain.

4025 ——— Arte de la lengua Qiche ó Utlatecat. Seguido del modo de bien vivir en la misma lengua, sacado de los escritos del Ven. Padre Fr. Domingo de Vico. *

Manuscript. 34 ll. 4^o. The first 18 leaves contain the grammar; the next leaf is missing; the others contain the second part.

This manuscript was given to me by a native chief of Rabinal, in 1855. He assured me that it was by Father Domingo de Vico, which would seem to be confirmed by the final t of the word Utlatecat, here found—an ancient form long since obsolete. Upon the word of this chief I have inscribed the name of Vico on this document.

Vico had an admirable knowledge of the principal languages of Guatemala, and wrote, among other works, six grammars of different languages. These works remained in manuscript and disappeared one after the other, with the exception of those which are mentioned here. The one which is most to be regretted is a Historia de los Indios, de sus fabulas, supersticiones, costumbres, etc., mentioned by Remesal.

To Father de Vico all the Guatemalan writers refer when a work written or about to be written in one of the native languages is in question. No one understood them equally well or could make use of them in a manner so complete and so remarkable.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Beristain, quoting from Remesal, gives the following list of works by P. Vico: Teologias para los Indios, en Lengua de Vera Paz. 4 tomos.—Libro de los Manuscript. 8°. Written on very heavy parchment. It is composed now of 103 leaves, in long lines, written in half-Gothic characters. Leaves 2-8, 25-28, 56-59, and 104 to the end are wanting.

This manuscript is one of those precious works undertaken by the missionaries for the conversion of the Indians. We are indebted to the kindness of M. Brasseur de Bourbourg for the translation of some words of the title which we give, and for the following observations:

"The volume announced above is a collection of prayers and meditations, written a few years after the conquest of Guatemala, in a dialect which resembles both the Quiché and the Kakchiquel, analagous to that which is yet spoken by the natives of Zipacapa, department of Huehuetenango. That it was the work of P. Domingo de Vico, dominican, the wisest man of that time among the companions of Las Casas and who was killed by the Lacandons in 1555, would not be surprising."

Though incomplete, the above manuscript deserves to be preserved, not only as an historic document but as a specimen of the language spoken by the natives at the time of the conquest. In point of curiosity and variety it is the finest article of our collection. It is so much the more important because we believe it unique in execution; it is written on parchment, and generally the first works written by the missionaries were on maguey paper.

P. Domingo de Vico, prior of the convents of Guatemala, Chiapa, and Coban, founded the City of San Andres. He was constituted bishop of Vera Paz.—Leclerc, 1867, No. 942.

- "The first Maya grammar was composed by Father Luis de Villalpando, the first Catholic priest that set foot upon the peninsula of Yucatan at Campeachy. This grammar was never published and was much improved by Father Landa. His treatise with the additions of the bishop remained in manuscript, but was the basis of the grammars of Fathers Juan Coronel and Gabriel de San Bonaventura, which in their turn were largely used by Father Pedro Beltran."—Norman's Rambles in Yucatan.
- "The first Maya dictionary printed was issued in the City of Mexico in 1571. It was published as that of Father Luis de Villalpando, but as he had then been dead nearly twenty years, it was probably merely based upon his vocabulary. It was in large 4to, of the same size as the second edition of Molina's Vocabulario de la Lengua Mexicana. At least one copy of it is known to be in existence. For more than three centuries no other dictionary was put to press, although for some unexplained reason that of Villalpando was unknown in Yucatan."—Brinton's Maya Chronicles, pp. 74-75.

Manuscript. 2 vols., 82 pp. folio. Seen at the sale of the library of the late Mr. Geo. Manuscript. 120 ll. 4°. The vocabulary occupies the first 110 ll., the grammar the last 10 ll. There is no clue to the author. The writing, although very pale, is modern, and appears to belong to the year 1813, which date is given at the top of the first leaf, with the name Ravinal. This name would indicate, perhaps, that the manuscript had been left in that place by one of my predecessors, transferred from some Cakchiquel parish to that of Rabinal. The vocabulary is, in respect to its compilation, a carefully prepared book, and by a good author. I received it from Ignacio Coloche, chief of one of the principal native families of Rabinal.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

In view of these dates it is natural to suppose that the reviser of the work was not the author. It is not probable that after the length of time necessary to compile such an extensive vocabulary that the author's life should have been prolonged fifty-nine years.—Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 167.

Manuscript. 360 ll. folio. Lettering of eighteenth century; unfinished. The manuscript lacks a title, and it has not been possible to assert definitely to what idiom it belongs. "Father White labored among the Piscataways, and these works were probably in their language. When Rev. Father William McSherry found White's Relatio Itineris in the Archives of the Professed House of the Jesuits at Rome about 1832, an Indian catechism accompanied that document. A copy of it was promised me, but in the troubles in Italy the valuable papers were boxed up and stored for safety."—J. G. Shea.

"Father White, the illustrious founder of the Maryland mission, was born in London, about 1579. Educated at Douay, he became a priest, and was banished from England in 1606. Entering the recently opened novitiate of the Society of Jesus at Louvain, in 1607, he was, after his probation, sent to England, and after being a missionary there, was professor of Hebrew, Theology, and Holy Scripture in Spain, at Louvain and at Liege. From Virginia he was sent to England—tried, and banished. After in vain endeavoring to reach Maryland he returned to England, and died December 27, 1656 (O. S.)."—Shea's Catholic Missions, p. 494.

5 vols. and atlas. 4°. Names of the mouths in the Flathead language, vol. 4, p. 478. Only a limited number of this edition, 75 copies, I think, were printed, and these were for presentation. Titles of several octavo editions are given below.

The quarto series was continued by the publication of the scientific results of the expedition to volume 24, of which, vols. 18, 19, 21, and 22 are yet unpublished. They bear a slightly changed title beginning: United States Exploring Expedition. The only one referring to linguistics is: Hale (Horatio). Philology, vol. 6. The Narrative was reprinted as follows:

This differs from the subscription edition in the substitution of wood-cuts in place of the 47 steel vignettes, and in having 11 only of the 14 maps bound in. It is printed on somewhat thinner paper; sometimes with and sometimes without the 64 plates.

“This translation is made by the noted Indian missionary, son of a chief of the Caughnawaga tribe, and a descendant of one of the daughters of the Rev. John Williams of Deerfield, who had been carried away into captivity with her father, and became the wife of an Indian who assumed her name. The missionary Williams became famous from a claim made for him by Mr. Hanson, that he was the son of the unfortunate Louis XVI, who was believed to have perished under the cruel treatment of Simon the Jacobin shoemaker. Many extraordinary coincidences were adduced in favor of this hypothesis by Mr. Hanson, and subsequently by the Rev. Dr. Vinton.”—Field's Essay, No. 1668.

The pagination of this little work is faulty in several instances, and the collation above does not give the true number of pages, which is 224. The first 16 pages are unnumbered. Up to p. 76 it is correctly paged; 77 is numbered 67, 80 is called 86, and 94 and 95 precede 92 and 93. None of these errors, however, affect the number. There is no 96 or 97. After 114 comes 105, and this loss of 10 pages in the numbering runs throughout. Allowing for pp. 96 and 97, it leaves a plus of 8 pages, making the number in the book 16, 205, 3 = 224.

This is the earliest printed book of Roger Williams. In the preface he says: "I drew the Materialls in a rude lumpe at Sea, as a private helpe to my owne memory, that I might not by my present absence lightly lose what I had so dearely bought in some few yeares hardship, and charges among the Barbarians; yet being reminded by some, what pitie it were to bury those Materialls in my Grave at land or Sea; and withall, remembering how oft I have been importun'd by worthy friends, of all sorts, to afford them some helps this way," etc.

Riggs (S. R.) Psalm Wowapi. The Book of Psalms. New York, 1874, pp. 1-133, and (Proverbs-Isaiah), pp. 135-265.

——— Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, qa, &c. New York, 1877, pp. 267-531.

Tongues; | By Thomas S. Williamson and Stephen R. Riggs, | Missionaries. |

New York: | American Bible Society, | Instituted in the year 1816. | 1880. | JWP.

Pp. 254, 3-57, 3-81, 391-755, 3-531, and New Testament, 1-408. 8°.

Though printed for the most part from the same plates as the edition of 1877, q. v., a change in the pagination will be noticed, i. e., pp. 391-478 in the former becomes 391-755 in this edition. This is caused by the following additions: First and Second Kings, pp. 479-569.—First and Second Chronicles, pp. 570-663.—Ezra, pp. 664-680.—Nehemiah, pp. 680-702.—Esther, pp. 703-715.—Job, pp. 715-755.

Unlike the 1874 edition, the different parts, with the exception of the New Testament, are not preceded by separate title-pages, and I am unable to give each translator credit for his part of the above.

These additions make the Dakota Bible complete—the first, so far as I know, except the Cree, in any Indian tongue since Eliot's Bible in the Massachusetts language.

I have also seen a copy, owned by Dr. Shea, Elizabeth, N. J., of an 1879 edition, with title otherwise as above, which does not contain these additional pages from 478 to 755; the New Testament being dated 1-78.

Pp. 1-172. 8°. I have seen of this little miscellany nineteen numbers, paged consecutively, each number containing eight pages, except Nos. 10 and 17, which contain sixteen, and No. 19, which contains twelve. Begun at the Buffalo Creek Reservation, New York, it was continued after the removal of these Indians to the Cattaraugus Reservation in the same State; the issue of November 17, 1846 (No. 17), being the first issued from the latter place. It is partly in English and partly in Seneca, and was, according to a note at foot of page 8, "the first effort of this sort in the Seneca language, and is designed exclusively for the spiritual and intellectual benefit of the Indians."

Besides biblical reading and pieces of moral instruction it contains matters relating to their government and business, obituary notices, statistics, &c. No. 19 contains the laws of the Seneca Nation in English and Seneca.

The copy in Major Powell's library is minus the first two numbers. He has a duplicate copy of Nos. 8-18, pp. 57-160, in which many marginal corrections have been made by some one evidently familiar with the Seneca tongue.

4256 ——— Deg. 1 [-7]. | Gai' wa yān' dah gōh | ABC. JWP. WWB.

No title-page. Pp. 1-64. 16°. Tracts in the Seneca language. Consists of seven parts (Deg. 1. to Deg. 7.), each with its own pagination, with a second and continuous pagination on the inner margins of the pages.

Deg. 1., pp. 1-4, contains: He' nā' o wa yeeh Na' wēn ni' yuh.

Deg. 2., pp. 1-4 (5-8), contains: He na' ya guŋ' ni góolr dǎ' ak Ha' yaŋ' da deŋ Na' wën ni' yuŋ.

Deg. 3., pp. 1-4 (9-12), contains: Ni o' i oŋ' dəs yuŋ' dǎŋ no twais' hi yu ne gaŋ' ni go ǎŋ' gēh [the work of the Holy Spirit].

Deg. 4., pp. 1-4 (13-16), contains: Gaǎ nah shoŋr [three hymns].

Deg. 5., pp. 1-16 (17-32), contains: Gai' wa neŋ' ak shǎŋ [sin].

Deg. 6., pp. 1-24 (33-56), contains: Gai' wi yus' dək gat hǎh' goh [sermon preached at the opening of the Convention of the Indian Churches, at Cattaraugus, Feb. 4, 1845].

A manuscript note states that "this Sermon was translated by the assistance of William Jones, deceased, and is almost the only relic of his style of speaking Seneca, which the old people regard as far more correct than that of any of our present interpreters, who Anglicize their Indian too much to suit the views of such as are not accustomed to English modes of thought."

Deg. 7., pp. 1-8 (57-64), contains: Neŋ' tho ya dŋŋ' ne John [the 3d chapter of the Gospel of John], pp. 1-6; Ga' ǎ nah [three hymns, one signed "J. P. Turkey," and two signed "J. Dudley"], pp. 6-8.

Mr. Wright also edited a translation of hymns into the Seneca language, which ran through several editions. See Gaǎ nah shoŋ, Nos. 1347-1350.

The manuscript does not contain the Lord's Prayer, etc., which are appended to the printed edition of 1776, but, in place of it, the following articles:

"1. A Short History of the Bible, evidently original, in Delaware and English, in parallel columns.

He "traversed Massachusetts and Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, entered Michigan and Canada, preaching to many nations in many tongues. He brought the Gospel to the Mohicans and Wampanoags, to the Nanticokes and Shawanese, to the Chippewas, Ottawas, and Wyandots, to the Unamis, Unalachtgos, and Monseys of the Delaware race, to the Onondagas, Cayugas, and Senecas of the Six Nations. Speaking the Delaware language fluently, as well as the Mohawk and Onondaga dialects of the Iroquois; familiar with the Cayuga and other tongues; an adopted sachem of the Six Nations; naturalized among the Monseys by a formal act of the tribe; swaying for a number of years the Grand Council of the Delawares; at one time the keeper of the archives of the Iroquois Confederacy; versed in the customs of the aborigines; adapting himself to their mode of thought, and, by long habit, a native in many of his own ways; no Protestant missionary, and but few men of any other calling, ever exercised more real influence and was more sincerely honored among the Indians."—De Schweinitz's Life and Times of David Zeisberger.

Manuscript 47 ll. folio; in the Bancroft Library, San Francisco, Cal. It is the original of No. VIII of Shea's Library of American Linguistics (No. 163 of this catalogue). According to a note on the inside of the parchment cover of the manuscript, signed by A. S. Taylor, from whom it was purchased by Mr. Bancroft, it appears that the book was sent 5th January, 1857, to the Smithsonian Institution, where a copy was made. The manuscript was returned to Monterey 10th May, 1857. From an inscription on the outside of the cover it appears that the manuscript had belonged to the Bishop of Monterey—Dr. Garcia Diego, Bishop of the Californias, being meant.

The work is preceded by what Father Arroyo terms a prognostic, or warning, and by a second preface, both written in Monkish Latin and in the quaint style characteristic of the author.

The body of the work consists of a vocabulary containing a rather extensive collection of phrases in common use in Mutsun and Spanish. At the end of the vocabulary are some of the usual prayers of the church, some music, the formulæ in use for the confessional and for the publication of the banns of matrimony, the announcement of festivals, and the like—all in the Mutsun tongue, with the necessary explanations in Spanish. Then follow the music of various dances and the refrains sung by the dancers.

Manuscript. 26 ll. folio. In the Bancroft Library, San Francisco, Cal. It is a copy of the original manuscript existing in the archives of the ex-mission of Santa Barbara, California. Mr. Alphonse Pinart also possesses a copy.

The contents of the whole manuscript are thrown together, without arrangement, in what seems to have been merely a note-book of Father Arroyo.

Chamelco. Algunas de estas copias llevan fecha de los años 1740 y 1741. Por la irregular numeracion de algunas piezas se conoce que han sido reunidos de varios quadernos con foliacion separada. Las fojas 95-128 (numeradas 56-88) contienen el presente Arte, sin nombre de su autor. Parece que ha sido copiado repetidas veces, pues es lleno de inesactitudes de copiantes, segun lo advierte el mismo Morales en nuestro página 81.

Las palabras y frases de esta obra se califican por los conocedores de la lengua como "idioma antiguo" preservado con mas pureza en los pueblos de Chameleo, Languin y Cahabon.

Eu la presente copia he seguido fielmente el texto de Morales, corrigiendo solamente lo que fué fuera de toda duda y poniendo correcciones probables pero no del todo seguras, escritas con lápiz encima de la linea. Examinando el texto palabra por palabra con ayuda de un mestizo Cobanero, Pedro Torres, de alguna inteligencia é instruccion he añadido con tinta encarnada al margen las formas de palabras y diciones como se usan hoy en esta ciudad y tambien anotaciones mias. En estas adiciones he usado de los signos fonéticos de mi "Alfabeto Analitico," publicado en N. York en 1869, por la Sociedad Etnologica. Coban, Novembre 12 de 1875. C. Hermann Berendt.

Utica: 1832.] *

"Rev. Frederic Ayer was born in Old Stockbridge, Mass., in 1803. His father, Rev. Oliver Ayer, removed to Central New York when the subject of this sketch was three years old. At an early age Mr. Ayer commenced to study for the ministry, but ill health compelled him to abandon the idea, and he engaged in business in Utica, and other places. While there, in 1829, he was sent by the A. B. C. F. M. as a teacher in a mission school at Mackinac. Next summer (1830) he went to lake Snperior, and spent some time in the family of Lyman Warren, teaching, and studying the Ojibwa language. The following year he spent at Sandy Lake with the late Wm. A. Aitkin, where he opened a school, said to be the first in Minnesota. In 1832 he returned to La Pointe, where he wrote a spelling book for Ojibwa children, which he went to Utica that winter to publish."—*Minn. Hist. Title, reverse wood-cut, 1 l.; 15 other p. ll.; text, ll. 1-112; errata 2 ll. Roman heading. 12°. Improved title of No. 226. "This work," the Ramirez Sale Catalogue says, "has caused much diversity of opinion among Mexican Bibliographers as to whether there were more than one edition issued. The present copy contains two distinct lists of errata, each occupying 2 ll., the heading of the one being printed in Roman letters, that of the other in italics. Señor Ramirez has inserted a note in which he argues that both lists of errata pertain to the one edition, and asserts in consequence that this was the only edition published. Baptista, or Bautista, was a native Mexican. He became a Franciscan of the province of Santo Evangelio de Mejico. He taught philosophy and theology, and had for his pupil F. Torquemada, the author of 'Monarquia Indiana.' He was esteemed the most learned of his time in the Mexican language, which he spoke and wrote with purity and elegance."

Tross gives this the date of 1599-1600, which is a mistake. The date perhaps refers to the Advertencias, No. 231.

16°. Title furnished by Mr. W. Eames, from a copy seen at the sale of books belonging to Hon. H. C. Murphy, which copy now belongs to Dr. Brinton. This copy lacks the beginning. It contains signature A in eight unnumbered leaves, commencing in the middle of a sentence of the prefatory matter in Spanish, which ends on the verso of the eighth leaf with "De ste Conuento, de Sanctiago Tlatilulco. Fray Ioan Baptista." The Mexican text begins on leaf 1, with signature B, the first leaf of which is lacking, and ends on the verso of leaf 76. It consists of various "Platicas," each with a heading in Spanish. The running top-heading is the Mexican word "Hvehvetlahtolli." On the recto of l. 77 is the following:

¶ A quel gran defensor y vnico ampa | ro de la gente Indiana, | y Apostolico va- | ron Don Fran Bartholome de las Casas, o | Casaus, Obispo de Chiapa de la Ordē de | Predicadores en la I. p. de la Apologica | Historia de las Indias, e el Cap. 223. refiere | a ner rescebido estado en España las plati | cas infra scriptas, de mano del Religiosissi | mo P. y Sãcto varō F. Improved title of No. 245. The only copy of this work seen by me is that in the Bancroft Library, San Francisco, Cal., which was bought at the Ramirez sale, in the catalogue of which it is numbered 837. The title-page of this copy is a reprint, and the book is otherwise defective, wanting the end. Sr. Icazbalceta, who has furnished me the above complete title and description, says the book is very rare, and that he has seen no more complete copy than his own, formed of two incomplete copies obtained in the course of fourteen years.

It lacks the title (that which we give being taken from the Fischer catalogue), but is very well preserved. The date 1714 seems faulty; the printing of the volume seems to have been executed about 50 years ago. It is doubtless the edition of 1805 cited by Sabin.”

George Antoine Belcourt was born on the Bay of Fevre or St. Antoine, district of Three Rivers, Lower Canada, in 1803. His father, a mechanic, placed his son at the college of Nicolet, where he passed through his classes with success and afterwards embraced the ecclesiastical state. He was made a priest in 1827, and in 1830 was selected by the Bishop of Provencher to go into the north country and labor solely in christianizing the savage. Arriving at Red River, June 19, 1831, he applied himself with ardor to the study of the Saulteur language. He discovered the principles of the language, which he arranged and caused to be printed in 1839 [see No. 333 of this catalogue]; also a book of piety in this tongue [see No. 334]. He composed a dictionary which would form a large quarto, but which, for want of encouragement, has never been printed. This dictionary, French and Saulteur, gives the etymology of each word, and the composite particles, which throws much light upon the knowledge of this language, and enables one to seize the genius of it—a thing so essential to him who desires to understand the people in general. He traveled, formed missions, built chapels, etc., in many places over a space from east to west of 1,000 miles, and passed each winter at his mission of Saint Paul on the Assiniboine River. In 1833, by his personal influence he quelled a disturbance among the half-breeds which threatened to become serious, in gratitude for which Governor Simpson added 50 pounds sterling to a like sum which the Hudson Bay Company gave every year to the Catholic clergy, which they still receive yearly. About 1849, owing to some trouble with the Hudson Bay Company's officers, he left the mission at Red River and accepted one at Pembina.—Annals Minn. Hist. Soc.

——— The Güegüience, edited by Daniel G. Brinton. No. III.

Hale (Horatio). The Iroquois Book of Rites, edited by Horatio Hale. No. II.

In a circular issued September, 1882, and previous to the appearance of No. II, the following announcement was made concerning the subsequent volumes of the series:

No. II. Central American Calendars.

A number of native calendars and "wheels," used by the Mayas, Kiches, Cakchiquels, and neighboring tribes, in reckoning time and forecasting the future, will be published for the first time, with explanations.

From lack of sufficient material, this important point in American archæology has remained extremely obscure. The collection which it is intended to embrace in this volume is unquestionably unique of its kind.

No. III. The Annales of Quauhtitlan.

The original Aztec text, with a new translation. This is also known as the Codex Chimalpopoca. It is one of the most curious and valuable documents in Mexican archæology.

No. IV. The National Legend of the Creeks.—Edited by Albert S. Gatschet.

Mr. Gatschet will present (1.) The original German account, written in 1735, by which this legend has been transmitted; (2.) Its English translation; (3.) Its retranslation into the Creek language, in which it was originally delivered, by an educated native; (4.) Its translation into the Hitchiti, a dialect cognate to the Creek; (5.) Glossaries and ethnographic notes.

No. V. The Chronicles of the Cakchiquels.

These chronicles are the celebrated Memorial de Tecpan Atitlan so often quoted by the late Abbé Brasseur de Bourbourg. They are invaluable for the ancient history and mythology of Guatemalan nations, and are of undoubted authenticity and antiquity.

Other works of equal interest will be added, if the series proves acceptable to scholars. The above order of issue is uncertain.

Each of these works will be printed in the original tongue, with an English translation and notes. Every work admitted to the series will be the production of a native, and each will have some intrinsic importance, either historical or ethnological, in addition to its value as a linguistic monument. Most of them will be from unpublished manuscripts, and every effort will be made to secure purity of text and competent editorship.

The works contemplated in the series are such as will be indispensable to the future student of American archæology, ethnology, or linguistics.

As there were yet no types in existence for printing that language, Brown's version, entire or in parts, was circulated in manuscript. It was read and copied in all parts of the nation.  Manuscript. Title, verso blank, 1 l; Advertencia pp. i-xi; 1 l. containing the Calendar; pp. 1-50. 4°. In the Advertencia Dr. Berendt thus speaks of the original:

"El original de este calendario en lengua Kiché, erroneamente llamado Calendario Kachiquel en Catálogo de la biblioteca de la seccion etnología del Museo Nacional (Guatemala 1875) pag. 8, No. 1, forma un cuaderno de 24 fojas útiles en 4^{to} menor. Se halla al principio de un volumen en folio, intitulado 'Larras, Opúsculos.'

"La segunda parte commonzanda en la pagina 37 de la presente copia, esta escrita por otra mano con ortografía diferente, trayendo al margen (pagina 38 de esta copia) la fecha de 13 de Marzo de 1770 años.

"Parece que es el mismo calendario del cual habla el Arzobispo D. Pedro Cortes y Larraz en su 'Describeion Geografico—Moral de la Diócesis de Gnatemala,' hecho en le visita que hijo de ella en los años de 1768, 1769, y 1770," foja 142 vuelta."

Following the above manuscript in the same volume is:

565 b ——— Calendario | de los Indios de | Guatemala | 1685. | Cakchiquel. | Copiado en la Ciudad de Guatemala | Marzo 1878. | DGB.

Manuscript. Title, verso blank, 1 l., Advertencia pp. 3-8, text pp. 9-27. In the Advertencia Dr. Berendt speaks of the original as follows:

"Este calendario se encuentra en la 'cheronica de la S. Provincia del Santissimo Nombre de Jesus de Guatemala,' conocida bajo el nombre de cronica Franciscana, MS. que fué del convento de Franciscanos en esta ciudad."

In his manuscript catalogue of the Berendt collection, Dr. Brinton thus describes these two manuscripts:

"Two precious pieces beautifully copied in fac-simile by Dr. Berendt from ancient manuscripts he discovered in Guatemala. They present a detailed explanation of the calendars of the two nations, and may perhaps be the means of solving the strange problems presented by the chronology of the Mexican and Central American nations. The same artificial and intricate system of measuring time prevailed throughout these regions, and its character seems to point more distinctly to Asiatic influences than any other trait in American civilization."

705 Cepeda (Fr. Francisco de). Artes de los idiomas Chiapaneco, Zoque, Tzendal y Chinanteco, por Fr. Francisco de Cepeda. *

4°. "I am not aware that a copy of this book is now extant, nor that any one has described it de visu. The first notice of it is due to Remesal (lib. x, cap. 16), and its title has been variously given by bibliographers. Remesal says that P. Zepeda had printed Artes de las lenguas de Chiapa, Zoques, Celdales y Cinacantecas, but does not give the date. Antonio de Leon Pinelo entitles it Arte de las lenguas Chiapa, Zoque, Celdales y Cinacanteca, and gives it the date of 1560. D. Nicolás Antonio mentions it with this title: Arte de las lenguas Chiapa, Toque, Celdales y Cinacanteca, 1560. The Dominicans Quetif and Echard copy the title from Remesal, omitting the preposition de from before the names of the languages, and give the date doubtfully: 'Mexici, circa 1566.' Barcia, in his reprint of Leon Pinelo, copies in one place (col. 729) the article as given above; and gives in another place (col. 721) the following: 'Fr. Antonio [sic] de Cepeda, dominico, Artes de las Lenguas de Chiapa, Loques, Celdales y Chinantecas, imp. México, 1530.' This notice is certainly erroneous, as it antedates, by several years, the introduction of printing into Mexico. But if Barcia did so poorly, Beristain was hardly more correct, for he gives the work this title: Arte de las idiomas Chiapense, Zoquense, Caldulense y Cinacontlano, Mexico, 1560. Ternaux-Compan copies D. Nicolás Antonio. Brunet follows Pinelo, and refers to Mr. Marsden's Catalogue of Dictionaries. Squier makes a special title, thus: Artes de los idiomas Chiapense, Zoquense, Celdal y Cinacanteca, Mexico, 1560. Ludwig follows Antonio. And last, in the catalogue annexed to La Imprenta en America, we meet the work of Cepeda with the title of Arte de la lengua Chiapa, Zoque, Celdales y Cinacanteca, as if they were different names for one tongue. In the midst of such confusion, I have preferred the title given by Sr. Pimentel in his Cuadro Descriptivo y Comparativo de las Lenguas Indigenas de Mexico, first edition, vol. 2, p. 232.

"Fr. Francisco de Zepeda, or Cepeda, was a native of Mancha, and took the habit of S. Domingo in the convent of Ocaña. From thence he went to the province of S. Vicente de Chiapa, where he was of much assistance in the conversion of the Indians, for he learned several of their languages. He was prior of several convents, and at last was elected provincial in 1593. He also held the office of Comisario of the Inquisition in Guatemala, and died in 1602, at the age of seventy years. The missionaries had suffered great inconveniences in learning the languages of this province, for each one was obliged to use whatever manuscript grammar he could obtain; and as a remedy, it was decreed that Fr. Francisco should go to Mexico commissioned to have printed there Artes of those dialects most used; which he accomplished, carrying with him, on his return, the edition, of which, as I have already said, no copy is known to be extant. Probably these Artes which P. Cepeda had printed were not his own, or at least not all. From this work the friars received great assistance, and the Indians great pleasure, 'when they saw his own words in print, and that they were communicated not alone in Latin and Spanish.'"—Icazbalceta, Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo XVI, pp. 121-122.

Rev. Peter Joseph Mary Chaumonot, son of a vine-dresser near Chatillon-sur-Seine, in France, ran away while at school, and then to make amends set out as a pilgrim for Rome. After many adventures he was at last admitted to a Jesuit college at Terni as a pupil, and so zealously did he renew his studies that he was soon made a tutor. In time he applied for admission to the order. By this time he was completely Italianized, but a volume of the Jesuit Relations of Canada made him apply to be sent on that mission. He was ordained and sailed from Dieppe in May, 1639, on the same vessel with V. Mother Mary of the Incarnation and the Hospital nuns. He was employed on the Huron missions, and visited with Brebeuf the Neuter nation on the Niagara. On the overthrow of the Huron nation Father Chaumonot led a band of survivors to Quebec, and their descendants are now at the Mission of Lorette, which he founded. In 1655 he was employed at Onondaga, but soon returned to his Hurons, and died at Quebec, February 21, 1693. He wrote a Grammar of the Huron Language in Latin, a translation of which has been printed in the Transactions of the Literary and Historical Society of Quebec, vol. 2, pp. 94-198, and an autobiography, also printed, New York, 1858; Poitiers, 1869. The fullest account of him in English is that by J. G. Shea, in the Catholic World, vol. 15, p. 675.

"This manuscript, the Codice Perez [No. 785 b], and the Diccionario de Motul [No. 1030 a] are the gems of Dr. Berendt's collection. "I give this name to an old manuscript in folio, composed of valuable documents written by the members of this order. It begins with a reply which they gave to a royal letter in 1570, in which they asked advice in certain matters. Then follow various unpublished letters of Fr. Gerónimo de Mendieta, of great importance, and other documents. The original, from which I took my copy, belonged to Sr. D. José F. Ramirez, and was sold in London, with the other books of that magnificent library."—Icazbalceta's Zumárraga, p. 247, note.

It is described in the Ramirez catalogue (No. 729), under the title of the first of the series of documents in the volume, as follows: "Relacion particular y descripción de toda la provincia del Sancto Evangelio que es de la Orden de Sant Francisco en la Nueva Espana. MS. of the 16th century in fol. 150 leaves. Unfortunately some leaves are wanting."

The reply to his majesty in 1570 contains the entire text, in both Mexican and Spanish, of the long lost "Doctrina Christiana breve" of the Reverend Padre Alonso de Molina, from the original edition printed at Mexico in 1546. See Molina (Fr. Alonso de), No. 2608.

830 b Codice Indiano del Sr. Sanchez Solis. *

Manuscript, of Mixteca-Zapoteca origin, formerly belonging to Sr. Sanchez Solis, passing thence through several hands into those of the Baron de Waecker-Gotter, Minister Resident of Germany to Mexico. Three copies were made, one of which, made in 1869, is supposed to be still in Mexico; a second, more recent, the whereabouts of which is unknown; and a third, made in 1882, in the Museo Nacional de México.

The original manuscript is on a long strip of skin in several folds. The copy in the Mexican Museum contains 29 plates, which correspond with the 15 or 16 folds of the original. A full description of the Museum copy is given in the Museo Anales, vol. 3, pp. 121-123, by Francisco del Paso y Troncoso, where it is stated that the drawings in the original are accompanied by reading matter written probably in one of the tongues spoken in the State of Oaxaca, the characters being very ancient. This matter is lacking in the Museum copy.

1030 a Diccionario. Half-title: Diccionario de Motul. I [-III]. |

Title: Diccionario | de la Lengua | Maya de Yucatan [Tomo I] Maya-Espanol | [Tomo II Espanol-Maya, Tomo III Adiciones y correcciones] | Providence R. I. | 1864. | DGB.

Manuscript. 3 vols.: 1 l., pp. i-viii, 1-1595; 3 ll., pp. 1-308; 206 unnumbered ll. 4°. In possession of Dr. D. G. Brinton, Media, Pa., from whose manuscript catalogue of the Berendt collection I take the following note:

"This vast work is by far the most complete dictionary of the Maya tongue known to be in existence. Its history is as follows: While in the city of Mexico in 185-, the Abbé Brasseur picked up at a bookstall, for three dollars, a manuscript dictionary in two volumes, small quarto, written in a very small and not very legible hand. Subsequently he sold this to the late Mr. John Carter Brown, of Providence, in whose library it now is [see No. 1030 of this catalogue]. In 1864 Dr. Berendt obtained permission to make a copy of it, to which task he devoted about one year, and in all his later studies of the language, added to and amended the vocabulary, but always using a different colored ink, so that the exact text of the original should not be interfered with. Such is the work as it now is.

"Its peculiar importance rests on the fact that it gives us the Maya tongue as it was in the century of the Conquest; for remarks by the author show him to have been a Franciscan friar, living in the convent of Motul in or about 1577, as he speaks of having seen the comet of that year. If the Maya hieroglyphics are ever deciphered, it must be through the language as presented in this dictionary.

"The copy in the Brown library was written probably at the close of the sixteenth century, and by a scribe not well versed in Maya and a careless copyist. Hence very many errors are in that copy which have been corrected in the present one, with infinite pains, by Dr. Berendt. The Spanish-Maya portion is by a different hand, and is probably of later date."

Vol. 3, additions and corrections, is by Dr. Berendt.

Manuscript. 2 ll., pp. 1-241. Both in possession of Dr. Brinton, from whose manuscript catalogue of the Berendt collection I copy the following note:

"In 1836 the cura of Ticul, Don Estanislao Carrillo, found among the baptismal archives of his parish a manuscript of 154 leaves, with the title: Vocabulario de la lengua Maya que comienza en romance, compuesto de varios autores de esta lengua. It bore as the date of completion Jan. 26, 1690. He presented it to his friend, Don Juan Pio Perez, the distinguished Yucatecan linguist. The latter copied it, after which the original, not being cared for, was lost. In 1847 he made another copy, and either gave away or otherwise disposed of that of 1836. From that of 1847, the present one was made by Dr. Berendt in Merida, 1870, with the utmost care."

"According to the most skillful Maya scholars, this dictionary was composed in the 17th century, and is older than that of Ticul. When, in 1820, the Franciscan convent of Merida was closed, the original manuscript was presented to a citizen of Merida, and passed through various hands until it reached those of Don Juan Pio Perez. He made a faithful copy of it, from which the present one was taken in 1870 by Dr. Berendt. The original could nowhere be found at that date, nor is there any intimation who the author was, or the exact date of his labors."

This work is justly celebrated, and is now very rare, for the government of Napoleon III. made strenuous efforts to recall the copies which had been sent to learned societies and persons, as well as to libraries, throughout the world, and those which had been sold.

In a lengthy preliminary notice the learned editor gives an account of various other American MSS., and of the circumstances attending the origin and discovery of what he is pleased to entitle the Livre des sauvages. He comes to the conclusion that it was the work of some sachem of the Indians of Canada, versed in the secret institutions of his tribe, and that it must be assigned to the seventeenth century. It was found in an old wooden box which was deposited in the Bibliothèque de l'Arsenal of Paris, nearly a century before its fortunate discovery. While modestly disclaiming the ability to reveal all the recondite mysteries of the manuscript, the learned churchman and ethnologist gives an interpretation of the signs and hieroglyphs, which occupies sixty-two octavo pages.

Then follow two hundred and twenty-eight pages, each containing a facsimile of one of those of the mysterious book—even those in blank. The size and shape of these pages are preserved, and even the rents and dog's ears are carefully delineated. The figures, done in charcoal, or with a coarse crayon, are exactly reproduced, those portions which in the original had been colored with red chalk or crayon being so indicated.

After publication it was determined that the editor had been the victim of a cruel hoax, and that the precious manuscript was the work of some idle boy, judging from sundry written words probably a German, of impure mind and little artistic ability. No end of ridicule has been heaped upon the unfortunate abbé because of his discovery in such rubbish of the totems and signatures of sheet. This seems to be a later edition, as it contains several slight changes and a few additional words and Scripture references.

"The upper half of the page contains nine articles of belief, with Scripture proofs. Below (separated by a single rule across the page) are, in five articles, a confession of faith in Christ, and a form of Covenant, prepared for the use of Indian converts: 'Wee that dwell in this Towne called [a blank space] are gladly willing to bind ourselves to God, to Remember the Sabbath day,' etc., and 'give ourselves and our children to Jesus Christ, to walk with Him in Church Order, so long as we live.'

"The first Indian Church was gathered in 1660, at Natick; but Mr. Eliot had proposed the admission of the Indian converts to church estate, eight or nine years before this. Some peculiarities of orthography in the Indian version of this 'covenanting confession' seem to indicate that it was printed before the Bible. It is alluded to by Cotton Mather (Magnalia, iii, 3, p. 178): 'Unto the general engagements of a covenant with God which it was his desire to bring the Indians into, he added a particular article, wherein they bind themselves . . . to remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy, as long as we live.'"—Trumbull.

This copy, which is in the Congregational Library, Boston, is slightly imperfect in the lower right-hand corner. A heliotype facsimile of this broadside was made a few years ago, a copy of which is in my possession.

1199 a ——— and Rawson (Grindal). [Indian Primer.] L.

32°. In Indian and English, on opposite pages, with numbers doubled; wanting beginning and end, and 16 other leaves. It contains pp. recto 18, 19-26 doubled, verso 27, recto 30, 31-44 doubled, verso 45, recto 47, 48-50 doubled, verso 51, recto 53, 54-60 doubled, verso 61, recto 67, 68-74 doubled, verso 75, recto 77, verso 78, recto 79, verso 80. Two of the leaves (pp. 26 and 27, 30 and 31) are imperfect.

"This seems to be the edition from which that of 1720 was reprinted. The two agree, page for page, and line for line nearly, but there is a difference in the type. As this contains Rawson's translation of Cotton's 'Milk for Babes,' it was probably printed after or not long before 1691. It may be of the edition of 1687, mentioned in Isaiah Thomas's list of books printed by Samuel Green (Hist. of Printing, i, 263). It is, so far as is known, unique."—Brinley Catalogue, No. 794.

1277 Feria (Fr. Pedro de). Confesonario en la misma Lengua [Zapoteca].

Printed, according to Remesal.—Beristain. *

Fr. Pedro de Feria, so called from the place of his birth in Extremadura (for his true name was González), was born in 1524. He studied in the University of Salamanca, and in 1545 joined the order of the dominicans. In 1551 he came to New Spain, and for some time was prior of Tetiepac, in which convent he composed the Doctrina Zapoteca. In 1558 he was definidor, and was stationed in Yanhuitlan. He was also prior of the convent of Mexico, and accompanied Tristán de Arellano's expedition to Florida in 1559. In 1565 he was elected provincial of the province of Santiago de Predicadores de la Nueva España, and in 1570 was sent as procurator to Spain and to Rome. On being made bishop of Chiapa in 1575, he returned to Mexico, where he died in 1588.

Dávila Padilla says that "he wrote a Doctrina en lengua Zapoteca, which was printed in Mexico"; but in his catalogue of the writers of the province, he does not attribute the Doctrina to him, but only a Confesonario in the same language. Burgoa speaks only of a Doctrina printed "with the title of Cartilla, which this modest author gave to it." Remesal states that he made an Arte and Vocabulario of the same tongue, "the best and fullest that we have." González Dávila and D. Nicolás Antonio mention the Vocabulario only. Quetif and Echard doubt whether the Doctrina and Confesonario are the same work. Pinelo-Barcia enumerates: "1. Confesonario en lengua Zacapula or Zapoteca, which was printed, according to Remesal (if this author does say so, I have been unable to find the passage). 2. Vocabulario más copioso de la misma lengua, in manuscript. 3. Doctrina cristiana en ella, printed in Mexico according to Dávila in the Historia de Mexico, fol. 672." This last reference is incorrect; the passage is on p. 594 of the edition of 1596, and on p. 479 of the edition of 1625. Beristain, besides the Doctrina, which he says plainly that he had seen in the library of the Colegio de S. Gregorio (but which I have not found there), attributes to P. Feria the "Confesionario, printed, according to Remesal" (a notice which seems to be taken from Pinelo-Barcia), and the Vocabulario (without saying whether it was printed or in manuscript).

It appears from all this, that Dávila Padilla gave the names of Doctrina and Confesionario to the same work, which is not strange, as they were generally included in one volume; and that there is no reason to doubt the existence of the Arte and Vocabulario, based on the authority of Remesal. At all events, no other writings of P. Feria in this tongue now remain, except the very rare Doctrina Zapoteca, of which no copy is known in Mexico.—Icazbalceta, Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo XVI, pp. 141-144.

1280 Fernandez (Fr. Benito). [Doctrina en lengua Mixteca. Mexico, 1568].

Fr. Benito Fernandez was sent to the Misteco mission about the year 1548, where he had charge of the pueblos of Tlaxiaco and Achintla. He acquired their language perfectly in a short time, and remained among them until his death, the year of which is unknown.

The two editions of the Doctrina, printed in 1567 and 1568, are now in the library of the Sociedad de Geografía y Estadística at Mexico, and are supposed to be unique. Two earlier editions, dated 1550 and 1564, have been mentioned by bibliographers, but no copy of either has been found, and it is very doubtful whether the latter, which rests solely on the authority of Barcia, was ever printed. It is also worthy of note that neither of the two known editions contains any reference to a previous one, although it was the custom, in such cases, to add the words agora nuevamente impresa, or something to that effect. The earliest writer who speaks of this Doctrina is Dávila Padilla, who says that it "was printed in Mexico in 1550." Another dominican, Fr. Alonzo Fernandez, gives the same date. P. Burgoa, who was well acquainted with the Mistecos and their language, writing in 1670, speaks of it as having been printed for 120 years. Antonio de Leon (Pinelo) has only this brief notice: "Fr. Benito Fernandez, dominican. Doctrina, Epistolas y Evangelios en lengua misteca, printed." He gives no date, but in these few lines we meet with the first and only original notice of the Epistolas and Evangelios. Barcia, in his reprint of Pinelo, adds the dates: "printed 1550, 4^o; 1564, 4^o; 1568, 4^o." Nicolas Antonio mentions only the edition of 1568. Quetif and Echart, quoting from Dávila Padilla and Pinelo, give the Doctrina of 1550; and the "Epistolamm et Evangeliorum - - - versio," to which they add the date of 1568. Eguiera gives the date as follows: "Mexici, ex typographia Petri de Ocharte, 1568, in quarto," and briefly refers to the editions of 1550 and 1564, which he says that he had never seen. Alcedo cites an edition of 1586, which is probably an error for 1568. Beristain says that it was "printed in Mexico, by Pedro Ocharte, 1568, and previously in 1550, and 1564, in 4^o." Ternaux mentions the editions of 1550 and 1568. The dominican Fr. Antonio de los Reyes, in his Arte en Lengua Misteca, says that P. Fernandez had printed his Doctrina in two different dialects: "Nevertheless, after the printing of the Doctrina of P. Fr. Benito Hernandez, which was in the language of Tlachiaco and Achiutla, afterwards, in that which was translated into the language of Tepuzculula, were introduced certain words not used formerly," etc. From this passage it would appear that there was an earlier edition than that of 1567; for it is evident from the dates given in the colophons and from the size of the volumes, that the editions of 1567 and 1568 must have been going through the press at the same time. The edition of 1567, which is not mentioned by any of the early writers and bibliographers, was first described by Sr. Pimentel in his Cuadro Descriptivo, in 1862.—Icazbalceta, Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo XVI, pp. 148-154.

1398 Gante (Fr. Pedro de). Doctrina cristiana en lengua mexicana. Amberes 1528. *

Mendieta says that it was printed, without saying where or when (lib. iv, cap. 44; lib. v, pte. i, cap. 18). Torquemada copies this (lib. xix, cap. 33; lib. xx, cap. 19). Betancurt adds that in two years the author had printed it at Antwerp (Menologio, 29 de Junio. Varones ilustres, número 5). It is not known whether these two years should be counted from the arrival of Fr. Pedro or from the composition of the book. Beristain gives it the date of 1523 (tom. ii, p. 17). No copy of this edition of Antwerp has been found, but there is no reason to doubt its existence: it is known that Fr. Toribio de Motolinia also printed a Doctrina, which has not yet been discovered. It is not at all improbable that with the desire of spreading the Christian doctrine, Fr. Pedro composed this book as quickly as possible, and as there was no printing press in Mexico, sent it to be printed in Flanders, where he had business relations and where much printing was done. In the brief acts which Grijalva gives of the first chapter held by the Agustínians on Corpus Christi day in 1534, it was decreed that the Indians should be taught the catechism "conformed to the Doctrinal of Fr. Pedro de Gante" (Edad I, cap. 10). It appears that if it was thus adopted, it must have been already printed abroad, as no printing was done here. The edition, distributed among the children, disappeared in their destructive hands. If, as I believe, the Doctrina of 1547 [No. 1052] is the work of P. Gante, we shall consider it to be the first Mexican edition; and the fact of knowing but a single very imperfect copy, gives greater probability to the real existence and disappearance of that of Antwerp. Neither is the edition of 1553 more fortunate in this respect: only two copies are known, both of which lack the title-page. We have, therefore, one edition of the Doctrina, perfectly authenticated, and two which are somewhat doubtful.—Icazbalceta, Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo XVI, pp. 43-44.

✓ 1411 Gastelu (D. Antonio Vasquez). Arte de Lengua Mexicana.
Puebla, D. F. de Leon, 1716. *

The above edition of Gastelu's Arte has been mentioned by several authorities, but it is probable there was no such edition. So far as I know, the only full title of an edition with this date is given in Icazbalceta's Apuntes, No. 33. In my copy of that work, corrected for me in manuscript by the author, he has changed the date from 1716 to 1726, and in a note expresses the opinion that other authors were, like himself, deceived by the imperfect 2 of the date. I have seen six copies of the 1726 edition—one in the Library of Congress, one in the John Carter Brown, one in the Lenox, one in the library of Dr. D. G. Brinton, and two in the Bancroft Library; in all, the figure 2 is imperfect, and could easily be mistaken for a 1, and possibly for a 5.

In support of the existence of an edition of 1716 the following authorities are given: Sabin's Dictionary, No. 24312, gives under Figuecoa, both editions; and again in No. 26747, the 1726 being given in title No. 26748. Squier's Sale Catalogue, No. 408, gives title of the 1716 edition, as does Ludewig also, p. 114. Bancroft's Native Races, vol. 3, p. 736, note, mentions the 1716 edition, but in the list of authorities in vol. 1 the date is given as 1726. Finally, the Ramirez Sale Catalogue, No. 351, gives a title with the date 1716 and says: "Third edition; so rare, that Leclerc (Bib. Amer. 1878, p. 604) charges Ludewig with an error in mentioning this edition, although there was a copy in the Fischer Catalogue which produced £4.4s."

Brasseur de Bourbourg is the only author I am aware of who gives the title of an edition of 1756. See No. 1413 of this catalogue.

1542 Gilberti (Fr. Maturino). [Arte en lengua de Michoacan. 1558.] *

The Arte of P. Gilberti is the earliest known work in the Tarasca language, but there is reason to suppose that it was not the first. On the title-page of the Doctrina Mexicana of 1547 [No. 1052], appears a small engraving representing a friar addressing some children. The legend that proceeds from the mouth of the friar says: I chuca Dioseueri bandaqua, which words are in the Tarasca language and signify "this is the word of God." This remarkable fact proves that the cut was engraved in Mexico, and not brought from Spain, with the other implements of printing; and it is also very probable that it was made originally for some work in the Tarasca language, which is now lost. The same engraving appears on the verso of the 13th leaf of the Devocionario or Thesoro of Gilberti of 1558 [No. 1543], and is also used for an ornament on leaves 3 and 27 of the Doctrina en castellano, mexicano y otomí of Fr. Melchor de Vargas, printed in 1576 [No. 3981].—Icazbalceta, Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo XVI, pp. 24, 89.

8°. Roman letters. Improved title of No. 1543, from facsimile in Icazbalceta's Bibliografía del Siglo XVI, advance sheets of which, so far as printed, have been sent me by the author. The following description is taken from pp. 88-89 of the same work:

This title is under the episcopal shield of Sr. Montufar with the motto: Pro Xpo Legatione Fvngimvr.

raphico padre sant Francisco, Año de. 1558

Ll, 2^a and 3^a, a dedication in Latin to Sr. Montúfar. Mexico, August 18, 1558. Leaf 4^a, the license given by Sr. Montúfar in Mexico, August 10, 1558, to print au Arte y Vocabulario, y Devocionario, written in Tarasca "de Michuacán." He says that as he does not know the language, and there being no one in his archbishopric who does know it, he confides in the letters, rectitude, zeal and Christianity of the censors, who have examined the work, having been commissioned to do so by Sr. Quiroga, Bishop of Michoacán, the same being the fathers Alonso de la Vera Cruz, of the order of S. Agustín, and Fr. Jacobo Daciano, of the order of S. Francisco; Diego Pérez Gordillo, priest of Michoacán, and Francisco de la Cerda, priest of Sirosto.

L. 5^a, license of the vice-roy D. Luis de Velasco to Juan Pablos to print the Arte, Vocabulario, y Devocionario contained in the license of the "other part . . . provided that said printer shall treat and concert with said Fr. Maturino Gilberti . . . during the time that it shall be printed, and as to the price for which it shall be sold." Dated Mexico, August 12, 1558.

License from the guardian of San Francisco, Fr. Francisco de Toral, to print these works of P. Gilberti, because they are shown to be "catholic, necessary and excellent, principally the Diálogo, Vocabulario y Arte, with the Devocionario which is now composed," according to fathers Fr. Alonso de la Vera Cruz, and Fr. Jacobo Daciano, guardian of Tzintzuntzan; of P. Diego Perez Gordillo, priest of Pázcuaru, and of Fr. Miguel de Alvarado, priest of Tiripitío. Dated Tacuba, August 10, 1558.

Approbation of P. Daciano (in Latin), and of the priest Perez Gordillo, l. 6 recto. The calendario, ll. 6 verso to 13 recto. The text, in pure Tarasco, begins on verso of l. 13, with "Doctrina Christiana | En lengua de Mechuacan," on the heading of the pages. Up to l. 40 there is no numeration; it commences on the 41st.

The Doctrina concludes on the verso of the 48th leaf, and the 49th bears this title: ¶ Examinatorio Mayor | ð la cōsciēcia, ē q̄ cada vno por si mesmo pue | de examinar su cōsciēcia quando se q̄e | ra a confessar, es cosa muy vtil pa- | ra los naturales y para los nuc | nos discipulos en la lēgua, | otro mas breue se po | ne al cabo deste | mayor. | Continues to the 116th leaf. The 62d leaf is duplicated, and there is no l. 104. From l. 117 to l. 124 is the Examē peq̄ño de la cons., and it concludes: Finis. Laus Deo.

The 125th leaf begins without folio or title; on the reverse is: ¶ Declaracion de los Mis | terios de la missa y de los prouechos de oyr la con | devocion. | The 126th is not, and the 127th is, numbered. Then follow 20 unnumbered leaves with which the book concludes.

On the reverse of the last leaf is a long colophon in Tarasco, of which there can only be read these words: "Iesu Christo . . . sancta Maria . . . Devocionario . . . Fr. Maturio Gilberti sant Francisco . . . Iuan Pablos . . . 20 . . . Octubre . . . 1558." In conclusion there are five lines in Tarasco.

Of this Tesoro Espiritual, antedating the Tesoro Espiritual de Pobres [No. 1544] by 17 years, and altogether different from it, I do not know that any mention has been made; I have seen but the one copy described, which belongs to Sr. D. José M^a de Agreda, and that was in very bad condition.

The Tarascan title of this work is as follows:

¶ Yyetsi siranda y qvi A- | ringahaca Dialogo aringani, ychuca hi- | bo chnpengabaqui Christianoengani, | yngui vca tata chē casireq̄ Fray | Maturino Gilberti sant Frā- | cisco tata. Teparimento am |

1563 Gonzalez (P. Diego Pablo). Manual * * del idioma Cabita. *

This work is catalogued in Icazbalceta's Apuntes under "Manual"; as stated in the note to No. 1563, it was put under Gonzalez on the authority of Brasseur de Bourbourg. Sr. Icazbalceta has since written me as follows: Gonzalez is not mentioned as the author. The license of the Order is given him "para que poder imprimir un Manual * * * comun en las Misiones de la Provincia de Zynaloo," from which it is seen that P. Gonzalez obtained the necessary authorization to print the book which, in manuscript, was in the hands of the missionaries.

The vocabulary is Spanish and Tzoqui, and the work, so far as this language is concerned, is the most complete of my collection—that is to say, the most complete which exists.—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

1606 b ——— [Moravian Hymn Book in the Delaware Tongue.

Bethlehem: J. Brandmiller. 1763.] *

Titles from Hildeburn's List of the Issues of the Press in Pennsylvania. Although no copies of either are known to exist, the local records of the Moravian Society supply evidence that both works were actually printed.

"During Brandmiller's incumbency at Friedensthal, there was printed and published between 1760 and 1763 the manual used by the Moravian Church during the Holy Passion week, entitled 'A Harmony of the Gospels,' containing the events in the history of the last days of the Son of Man, and also a hymn-book, both translated by the Rev. Bernhard Adam Grubé from the German into the Delaware tongue. Mr. Grubé at this date was the missionary in charge of the Moravian Indian Mission, called Wechquetank, situated on Head's Creek in Polk Township, Monroe County, and for many years served in the Indian missions of his church. In the diary of that mission the following facts are recorded by him:

1761, Jan'y 18. Anton (the Delaware assistant) and I worked at the Delaware translation of the Harmony of the Gospel.

1762, March 17. To-day I sent the first sheet of the Harmony to Bro. Brandmiller, at Friedenthal, to print.

April 13. Bro. Brandmiller sent me proof to-day to read.

August 1. Translated at the Harmony.

1763, Feb'y 13. Anton and I have translated fifty-six chapters for the Harmony.

April 1 (Good Friday). Bro. Brandmiller forwarded me the first proof of Essay of a Delaware Hymn Book, &c.

The types and press on which these works were printed were forwarded from London to Bethlehem in the autumn of 1761, and then sent to Friedensthal."—Penn. Mag., vol. 6, pp. 249-250.

At first this difficulty was hard to surmount. If I had a desire to know what to run was, in their tongue, I was forced to increase my speed and actually run from one end of the lodge to the other, until they understood what I meant and had told me the word, which I presently set down in my Dictionary.'"—Minn. Caesii Lyncei . . . Pars I., pp. 901-952. Vocum quorundam Americanarum explicatio, on the recto of the 12th leaf of the Index. The Historiae Animalium et Mineralium also contains the Mexican and Latin names.

"There is a great deal of confusion in regard to the bibliographical as well as to the literary history of this work. Acosta, in his history printed in 1590, speaks of Dr. Hernandez' history, and of Nardo Antonio's abridgment of it; and to 'these books (probably meaning MSS.) and works refers those who wish for more particular information concerning the plants of the Indies, and their medicinal uses.' Leon Pinelo, in his Biblioteca, printed in 1629, says that it was already printed in Germany, and that Pedro de la Seyne, in his Homeri Nepenthes, also quoted it as printed. At page 460, there is an address to the reader, dated in Rome, 1625, which appears to have been placed instead of an address to Cardinal Barberini, with the same date, and in nearly the same words (both of which are in my copy). Which shows that part of the work was probably printed before 1644, when Innocent X. was made Pope, and expelled the Barberini, by whose means he had been elected, from Rome. A dedication to the same Cardinal, at page 903 (also in mine) without date, is supplied in most copies by another to the Duke del Infantado, dated Rome, 1651. In some copies, even the figure of the Dragon, at p. 816, dedicated also to Cardinal Barberini, is torn out. Some copies have a plant engraved on copper, at p. 213, and another at p. 301, but which are generally wanting: many copies have only the engraved title page; in some dated 1651, in others 1649. It appears probable that the body of the work was printed in 1625; when a few copies got abroad, and that it was completed and some changes made, in 1649-51.

"Hernandez was Physician to Philip II., by whom he was sent to Mexico to examine and describe its natural productions and ascertain their medicinal properties. He wrote a copious history in Latin, which was given to Nardo Antonio Recco, a Neapolitan physician, for examination, who reduced it to a moderate compass. The original of this abridgment, with the censorship and approbation of Dr. Valle, by some singular chance, fell into the hands of the Dominican Friar, Francisco Ximenez, in Mexico, by whom it was translated into Spanish, and printed in that city in 4to in 1615. This work corresponds almost exactly to the X books published in Rome, in 1648-51, but both differ materially from the Plant. Nov. Hisp., &c., published by Ortega, from Hernandez' manuscripts in 1790. Most of the original MSS. of Hernandez were destroyed by the fire at the Escorial in 1671. There is extant a MS. translation of Pliny by Hernandez. Very little is known respecting his life, although much more worthy of a niche in the temple of Fame than many of his cotemporaries. Like his early friend and companion Ambrosio de Morales, he probably flourished during the greater part of the 16th century. His native place was Toledo."—Rich, pp. 73-74.

"During the winter, Bishop Horden, of Moosonee, was busily engaged upon Ojibbeway translations, particularly the Acts of the Apostles. He was assisted by the Rev. J. Sanders, who is an Ojibbeway Indian, and who has already himself translated the 'Peep of Day' into his mother tongue. At the same time, Archdeacon Vincent was preparing a Cree version of the 'Pilgrim's Progress.' Mr. Sanders writes that he has now four books in Ojibbeway, viz, St. Matthew's Gospel, a catechism of Bible history, the Prayer Book nearly complete, and a hymn book with 100 hymns."

1938 a Indian Journal.

Muscogee, Indian Territory. Vol. I. No. 1. [May-] 1876 [-Vol. X. No. 18, Jan. 3, 1884]. *

Folio. Weekly. Established by M. P. Roberts. Col. Wm. P. Ross and M. P. Roberts were its first editors. The office, press, and types were destroyed by fire Dec. 24, 1876, after the issue of No. 35. In the spring of 1877, its publication was resumed at Eufaula, a joint stock company having been formed to establish it, "each stockholder being an Indian;" Wm. P. Ross, president; Samuel Grayson, treasurer; and M. P. Roberts, editor,—Colonel Ross retiring from the editorship after the removal to Eufaula. From no. 38, vol. 1, the Journal was conducted by Mr. Roberts until his death, Dec. 4, 1881 (vol. 6, no. 13).

The paper was at first a folio of 24 columns. It was changed to quarto (double folio) form, 48 columns, in December, 1877 (vol. 2, no. 16). After the death of Mr. M. P. Roberts, it was edited by W. L. Squier (R. M. Roberts, local editor and publisher, and L. H. Roberts, business manager) till January, 1883. Since then Mr. R. M. Roberts has been sole editor; L. H. and R. M. Roberts, proprietors.

In October, 1878, the office was again removed to Muscogee, where it has since remained.

The Indian Journal has been an official organ of the Creek Nation, though the announcement that it was "Chartered by the Creek Council," placed at the head of its columns in February, 1878, was dropped in November, 1879. The early volumes (2-5) contain many contributions, notices, advertisements, etc., in the Muskoki (Creek) language, including several hymns and other translations by A. E. W. R. [Mrs. Robertson].

Title and contents furnished by Dr. J. H. Trumbull from copy in his possession.

These are followed by 14 leaves, all of which are blank, excepting the verso of the 14th, which contains "Passion de Jesus C.," filling one-third of the page. Brief grammatical forms, in single, quadruple, and quintuple columns, fill both sides of the next leaf and the recto of the following one, on the verso of which the dictionary begins with folio 1. This is written in a single column, on the outer margin or half page of the verso of every leaf, the inner half and recto being left blank. A column contains on an average about 18 French words, each of which is followed by a number of Illinois equivalents and phrases, making in all about 80 lines. The total number of French words in the dictionary is nearly 3,000. The apparent imperfections after leaves 11 and 44 are merely errors in numeration. Ll. 82-84 are wrongly numbered 72-74.

A manuscript note on the fly leaf says: "This manuscript was purchased for me by Messrs. Hector Bossange & Son at the sale of the books and manuscripts of M. Marcel, formerly the Director of the Imperial Printing Office and Member of the Commission of the Institute of Egypt &c., on the 9th of May 1859, at Paris: Hen: C. Murphy." At the sale of Mr. Murphy's library, at New York, in March, 1884, it was purchased for the John Carter Brown library, Providence, R. I.

"This volume is the production of some of the early French Missionaries among the Illinois. * * * The manuscript is closely written, but very plain. It is not the dictionary of that language which is mentioned by Mr. Duponceau and Mr. Gallatin, in the possession of the former, and which, it is inferred, is a short vocabulary; for the words which Mr. Gallatin could not find in the latter are contained in this, and there are many variations, showing the particular tribal origin to be different. Some of the words are identical with what Mr. Gallatin calls the Old Algonkin, for which he gives Lahontan as authority. The paper on which the work is written resembles that in use 150 or 200 years ago.

"A note on the fly-leaf says: 'This precious volume is an example of the superhuman efforts with which the love of the salvation of human souls inspired the Catholic missionaries.' In fine, it is, no doubt, the most complete repertory of the Western Lenape in existence, and from the care and fullness with which it has been written, has been the work of a life-time. * * * The only clue to the authorship that approaches to probability is furnished by Father Gabriel Marest, in his letter dated Kaskaskia, 9th November, 1712, and published in the Lettres Édifiantes. Speaking of Father Gravier, the founder of the mission to the Illinois, he says: 'He first investigated the principles of their language, and reduced them to grammatical rules, so that we have since only been obliged to bring to perfection what he began with so great success.' (Kip's Translation, p. 206.) From this it may be inferred that the volume * * * is the compilation of many fathers, a conclusion to which we more readily come, since it accords with that already expressed by Mr. Shea, in his History of the Catholic Missions among the Indian Tribes of the United States.—Hist. Mag., vol. 3, pp. 227-228.

In the prospectus of the French Illinois Dictionary (No. 2230), which Mr. Shea was printing from this manuscript when it disappeared about 1865, he ascribes it to Father Le Boulanger, it being, in his opinion, the work of one who had got far beyond the rudimentary stages of the study, and evidently of a single author who had mastered his subject, a reputation enjoyed only by Le Boulanger.

See Gravier (Rev. James), No. 1600, for a description by Dr. J. Hammond Trumbull of a manuscript Illinois-French Dictionary, of which he conjectured the above might be the counterpart. Examination proves, however, that this is not true. In his judgment, the manuscript above described is not in the Miami dialect; it is in a handwriting different from that of No. 1600, and apparently of a later date; and it is not in the same local dialect.

“Bibliographers give 1717 as the date of the first edition of vol. 1 of the Lettres Edifiantes. This is wrong. I have an English translation of vol. 1 printed in 1707. The Astor library has vol. 7, 1707; vol. 8, 1708; vols. 3 and 4, 1713. Charlevoix says vol. 10 was first issued in 1712. Vol. 11, apparently not a first edition, appeared in 1715. The royal approbation to print vol. 1 is dated Aug. 23, 1702, and the first volume must have been issued in 1702 or 1703. Vol. 23, containing Rasles's Letter, was apparently issued first in 1738.”—Shea.

"This manuscript is, in characters, identical with the Manuscript Troano and the Dresden Codex. It is the most perfect of the three in regard to the beauty and delicacy of the writing; but it is also the one that had suffered most. But 50 copies were published."—Brasseur de Bourbourg.

Dr. Brinton, in his Introduction to the "Study of the Manuscript Troano," says: "This fragment—for it is unfortunately nothing more—was discovered in 1859 by Prof. Leon de Rosny among a mass of old papers in the National Library. It consists of eleven leaves, twenty-two pages, each 9 inches long and 5½ inches wide. It unquestionably belongs to the Maya manuscripts. Its origin is unknown."

This manuscript is commonly known as the "Codex Peresianus," from the name "Perez" found on the wrapper. See Rosny (Leon de), No. 3380 d.

Manuscript. 9 ll. 4°. No title. In the Baneroft Library, San Francisco; bought at the sale of the Ramirez collection, London, in the catalogue of which it is entered under No. 530. On the first page, at the beginning of the sermon, is the usual I. H. S., rudely ornamented in ink. While the main portion of the sermon is in Mexican, many Spanish words are introduced. The discourse is divided into paragraphs, each commencing with the word Yzcatque, written also Izcatqui.

Colophon: Tehoristoraragon Joseph Hebert | Wisonke. 1823. |

11 pp. 18°. A fragment, consisting of pp. 9-11, of what is evidently the concluding portion of a Roman Catholic catechism in the Mohawk language. The heading on p. 9, "Iontatkentsiokhas," means "Confirmation," literally "anointing the forehead." The first sentence, "Toni karihoten iontatkentsiokhas?" reads in English "What is the meaning of Confirmation?"

Wisonke, "At the Plums," is the Iroquois name of the village of St. Philippe, near Caughnawaga, opposite Montreal. These few pages are all I have seen of this work; nor have I seen any reference to an edition of this date. They contain, apparently, the same matter, in a modified form, as do pp. 37-38 of the edition of 1844 (No. 2455), the w's and g's in the earlier edition being changed to s's and k's in the later.

Concerning this work the Abbé Cuoq writes as follows: "I return the leaves of the Iroquois Catechism. They prove evidently that Mr. Joseph Marcoux, missionary of Sault St. Louis, had his catechism printed in 1823 at St. Philippe, a parish not far from Caughnawa, where the curé had set up a printing press. Before receiving the three pages that you have sent me, I did not even suspect its existence. I had never heard that the edition of 1842 (or '43?) had been preceded by another. I had always regarded it as the first, and I am very sure that no traces remain in our missions of this precious relic of 1823." The Abbé I think refers to the edition of 1844, the approval of which is "Donné à Montréal, le douze Septembre Mille-huit-cent-quarante-trois." See No. 2455.

2478 Marroquin (D. Francisco). Arte para aprender las Principales Idiomas de Guatemala. *

"Besides the Arte and Doctrina, Marroquin seems to have compiled a Kachiquel dictionary. At any rate his name appears at the end of a Kachiquel dictionary in my possession, as also at the end of another in the Imperial Library of Paris. Both of these, however, are copies of a single original."—Squier.

"Sr. D. Francisco Marroquin, a native of the province of Santander in Spain, came to Mexico about the year 1530, and was consecrated as first bishop of Guatemala in 1537. Under his administration the missions flourished greatly. He also established one among the nation of the Mames, which resulted in their language being reduced to writing; and afterwards there were printed in Mexico

Artes of this tongue, by the fathers Fr. Gerónimo Larios in 1607, and Fr. Diego de Reinoso in 1643. In 1545 he made a pastoral visit to the province of Tuzulutlan, and in 1549 he founded the royal hospital of Santiago. After performing many other useful acts, he died April 9, 1563.

“From the time that he first arrived in Guatemala he applied himself to the study of the principal language of the natives, which was the Quiché or Utlateca, and acquired it to perfection. When the first Dominicans arrived in 1535, the zealous bishop undertook to instruct them in this tongue, and it appears that he composed an Arte or Grammar of it, which was never printed. He was also the first who wrote a Doctrina in the same language, which he had printed at his own expense at Mexico, as there was no press in Guatemala. In speaking of it, Remesal uses these words: ‘Although it says on the title that he prepared it with the assistance of the interpreters of the Dominican and Franciscan orders, Fr. Juan de Torres and Fr. Pedro de Santos [Betanzos?], it was as much on account of the bishop’s humility (for he was well able to do it without their aid), as for the reason that it was understood that the language and terms were employed by persons of both orders and approved by them; for they are accustomed to differ in the translation of certain words.’ And he adds in another place: ‘these differences were the cause of much dispute.’ They rested principally on the question whether, in speaking to the Indians, the Spanish word Dios should be used, or its equivalent Cavobil. The Franciscans were in favor of the former, and the Dominicans of the latter. The dispute did not cease ‘until time put an end to it and caused all to be forgotten.’ Remesal also says that in 1612 the bishop D. Fr. Juan Cabezas, equally well conversant with this tongue, seeing that there were great differences in opinion among the missionaries on the manner of explaining to the Indians the holy communion, called together an assembly of learned men, in which it was declared that the interpretation of Sr. Marroquin was the most proper and correct which could be given; and for this reason the bishop commanded that the Christian doctrine should be taught from that book and from no other.

“Notwithstanding the authority of Remesal, it is still doubtful whether Sr. Marroquin wrote his Doctrina in Quiché or in Cachiuel. As no one has seen the first edition, it is impossible to know what was its true title; the second edition, which is evidently a reimpression, is in Cachiuel. Besides this fact, Squier states that he owned a copy of a vocabulario in Cachiuel, with the signature of Sr. Marroquin. At all events, if he was the first who wrote a Doctrina in one of these languages, he was not the first to have one printed. Prior to 1553, the Franciscan fathers had caused to be printed in Mexico a Catecismo ó Doctrina Cristiana en la lengua de Guatemala, probably compiled by Fr. Pedro de Betanzos (Remesal, lib. x, cap. 3); and it was this Doctrina which gave rise to the disputes concerning the words Dios and Cavobil, and of which no copy is known to be extant.”—Icazbalceta, Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo XVI, pp. 69–74.

The following list of anonymous manuscripts is taken from Boturini's Idea de una nueva Historia General de la America Septentrional, Madrid, 1746 (c.):

§ I. 1. Some painted and manuscript annals, in the Nahuatl, of 50 leaves, on European paper, adorned with various figures which represent the acts, peregrinations, battles, and chiefs of this nation, with the signs of the years and the symbols of the days upon which said things occurred. They treat of the arrival of the Tultecos at the famous city of Tula, which was afterwards the capital of their empire, and continue to 26 years after the Conquest by the Spaniards. At the beginning of the Annals is found a map painted on European paper and mounted on Indian. The author of this Historia is an anonymous Indian.

Mexican—continued.

§ V. 1. Another manuscript on European paper, which treats of the numerous children of the Emperor Netzahualpizintli. It is in Nāhuatl, and has at the beginning three figures of kings, and one at the end of an Infante, and 20 leaves anonymous.

§ V. 5. Five sheets and a quarter of fragments, on European paper and in the Nahuatl language, by unknown authors.

§ VII. 13. Another map in book form. It seems to treat of some things relating to the city of Ytztapalāpan, of its suburbs and neighboring towns, of the first churches founded by the ancients. It has at the beginning a page written in Nahuatl, and two whole ones at the end, and several lines on almost all the painted pages. It is on Indian paper, bound, and is somewhat burnt on one side.

§ VII. 17. Another map on European paper, of 19 leaves, of the lands acquired in war which were divided by King Yzcohuatl among the conquering Indians. On it are painted the kings of Mexico and of Tlatilulco, with the subsequent Christian chiefs, and an account, in Nahuatl, of the war which occurred between Axayāca, king of Mexico, and Moquihuix, king of Tlatilulco, who died a sacrifice, as is seen on leaf 15; and on the following leaf is added the map of Xochimilco, following which to the conclusion are some ciphers of measurement and the division of the lands.

§ VIII. 3. Nine sheets of historical fragments of the same nation [Mexican] and language [Nahuatl], on European paper. The author is unknown.

§ VIII. 5. Other notes of the same Historia in Nahuatl, on European paper, by an unknown author; they begin in the year 1367 and are concluded in 1569.

§ VIII. 7. A Memoria, same language [Nahuatl] and paper [European], of the coming of the Mexicans, and the things which happened afterwards; the author unknown. It begins in the year 1066 and ends in 1316.

§ VIII. 8. Nine sheets of Fragmentos Historicos by various authors, in said language [Nahuatl] and paper [European].

§ VIII. 9. A Chronologia Historica of the ancient kings of Culhuācan, whom the Mexican kings succeeded, written by the chiefs of Culhuācan in Nahuatl, on European paper.

§ VIII. 10. Some Annales Historicos de la Nacion Mexicana on Indian paper of extra size and thickness, in Nahuatl; bound with Yxtle cords woven of threads from the Maguey; in 16 leaves. It begins in heathen time (Gentilidad), and proceeds, touching somewhat on the Conquest, at which time the author must have died. It is an ancient piece, and much esteemed.

§ VIII. 13. An Historia de los Reynos de Culhuācan y Mexico, in Nahuatl, on European paper, by an anonymous author; to which is added a Breve Relacion de los Dioses, y Ritos de la Gentilidad, in Spanish, written by Don Pedro Ponce, B. A., an Indian Caziq, Ex-Curate of the District of Tzumpahuācan. It is all copied in the handwriting of Don Fernando de Alba, and the first leaf is missing.

§ VIII. 14. Another Historia de la Nacion Mexicana, partly in figures and characters, and partly in prose in Nahuatl, written by an anonymous author in the year 1576, and continued in the same way by other Indian authors to the year 1603. At the beginning it has painted the four Triadecateridas of the Indian Calendar, and at the end some figures of the Mexican kings and other Christian governors, with the signs of the years when they governed.

§ IX. 1. Another Historia on European paper of the same nation [Mexican], in Nahuatl, of 28 leaves. It commences with the founding of the city of Mexico and continues to June 13, 1596.

§ IX. 2. Another Historia, same language and paper, upon which are drawn the characters of the years and the signs of various places. It represents the arrival of the Mexicans at the city of Tollan in the year 1196, and continues to 1406.

Mexican—continued.

§ IX. 3. Another, same language and paper, of 41 leaves, well written. It begins with the arrival of the Mexicans at Chapultèpec, and continues to the year 1590. The end is lacking.

§ IX. 4. Eight leaves of historical fragments, same language and paper, with the corresponding years of both Calendars, Indian and European.

§ IX. 5. Seven leaves of other fragments, same language and paper. The author enumerates the kings of Mexico, the Conquest, and many things that occurred in the Mexican nation from its arrival at the continent of New Spain to the year 1586; although there is lacking to the thread of the history leaves 6 and 7.

§ IX. 6. An Historia, same language and paper, of 13 leaves, with the Indian and European years. It begins with the arrival of the Mexicans and ends in the year 1596. It is to be noticed that two leaves are missing and the corresponding entries from 1310 to 1361.

§ IX. 7. Some historical notes, same language and paper, 9 leaves. They begin at the year 1507 and end in the year 1670.

§ IX. 8. Another Historia, same language and paper, of 12 leaves. It begins with the arrival of the Spaniards at the Indies and continues to the year 1697. It seems to have been commenced by one author and continued by another.

§ IX. 9. Some historical notes, same language and paper, 4 leaves, running from the year 1519 to 1667.

§ IX. 10. One leaf of historical notes, in the same language and on similar paper, relating to the years 1519–1531.

§ IX. 11. Other notes, same language and paper, 13 leaves. They commence in the year 1534 and continue to 1608. The beginning is lacking, although the end seems to be complete.

§ IX. 12. Other similar notes, same language and paper, 5 large leaves. They begin with the year 1519 and continue to 1649.

§ IX. 13. Other similar notes, same language and paper, 20 leaves; some rough pictures added. They pertain to the years 1519–1645. A few of the intermediate and final leaves are missing.

§ IX. 14. Other historical fragments, in the same language and on the same paper, beginning with the year 1223 and ending in 1546, although the continuity is interrupted. Thus also have I various manuscripts by more modern authors, who having desired to imitate their predecessors and add the characters of the Indian Calendar, were mistaken in the signs of the years, and perhaps in the narration of facts.

§ XII. 1. A history in Nahuatl of the most memorable events of the Mexican nation, and still more of the Tlatilùlca; 23 leaves, European paper.

§ XII. 2. An historical memorandum, noting the time when the Casas Reales de Justicia were built in Tlatilùlco, and the things which happened at that time; 5 leaves, in Nahuatl and on European paper.

§ XII. 3. Some historical fragments of things relating to Tlatilùlco; 6 leaves, same language and paper.

§ XVII. 4. A map, on European paper, upon which is painted P. Fr. Martin de Valencia, a Franciscan, and the Judge of Tlaxcallan, Don Hernando de Saavedra, with many gentlemen and nobles of the Republic. It contains a colloquy in Nahuatl, in which the said P. Fr. Martin gave the chiefs to understand that it was necessary to give an adequate recompense to the Spanish Writers or Notaries, as was given to the Painter Writers of the heathen age.

§ XVIII. 1. A large book on European paper. It describes all the towns, noble and plebian houses, of the four Districts of Tlaxcallan. It is in Nahuatl, without either beginning or end.

§ XVIII. 2. Memorandums of the notable events and of the government of the city of Tlaxcàllan, in Nahuatl, on European paper. They begin in 1547 and continue to 1577.

§ XIX. 6. A catalogue of ancient families and nobles of the four districts of Tlaxcàllan; 43 leaves, European paper, in Nahuatl.

§ XIX. 7. A pamphlet, on European paper, recording the things which happened in the city of Puebla from the year 1585 to 1677; 33 leaves, in Nahuatl. This manuscript is put under the head of Historia de Tlaxcàllan for two reasons: first, because said city was founded in its territory, and the Bishops were at first called de Tlaxcàllan; second, because the author may have been one of those Tlaxcàllan Caziques who went to settle in the suburbs of Puebla.

§ XIX. 8. Some historical notes in Nahuatl; 13 leaves, European paper. They begin in the year 1519 and end in 1697.

§ XIX. 9. Other notes in the same language; 28 leaves, European paper. At the beginning are two circles (Ruedas), and a series of the kings of Mexico. They commence in the year 1519 and end in 1739.

§ XIX. 10. Other notes in the same language; 25 leaves, European paper. They begin in the year 1454 and end in 1737.

§ XXIII. 1. A large book, on Indian paper, in Nahuatl. It consists of 65 leaves, upon which the Officers of the Church, out of curiosity, entered the names of all who were baptized in the principal town of Vitzila, and from the context of which good historical information may be taken.

§ XXIII. 2. Another similar book, of 94 leaves, on the same paper and in the same language, wherein is described the principal town of Tepùztla, and the others adjacent, to wit: Tlacatècpa, Tlalnepàntla, Teycàpa, Calìtec, Tepetìtla, Tlacòuhea, Acxòtla, Amàtla, Tepetlàpa, with the number of houses in each town, of married Indians, and of boys, with every distinction. It may be that the Indians had this count in order to discriminate in the Tax Lists.

§ XXIII. 3. Another similar book of 119 leaves, on the same paper and in the same language, with a complete description of the towns: Molòtlan, Atèpan, Tenàuc, Alacàtlan, Tlacatècpan, Texihuàca, Tezcacohùac, Conquechuàcan, Tòtla, Tepetèncic, Dedèpan [sic], Tlacòlpa, Zacàncò, Tepeyahuàlco, Panchimàlco, Tonallàpan, following the style of the preceding.

§ XXIV. 17. A book in Nahuatl, on European paper. It treats of various subjects and moral explanations. The beginning is missing.

§ XXIV. 18. Discourses on the Gospel, on the same paper and in the same language. The beginning is lacking.

§ XXIV. 19. Various sermons, on the same paper and in the same language. The beginning and end are missing.

§ XXIV. 20. Examples and lives of Saints, on the same paper and in the same language. The beginning is missing.

§ XXIV. 21. A book on the same paper and in the same language. It explains some moral examples.

§ XXIV. 22. Another similar book. It contains some sermons in honor of the Saints.

§ XXIV. 23. Unos Fragmentos de la Passion de Nuestro Señor, on the same paper and in the same tongue.

§ XXIV. 24. A book on Indian paper and in the Nahuatl language. It treats of various things and contains songs in praise of the Saints. It has neither beginning nor end.

§ XXIV. 25. Another book on the same paper and in the same language. It contains different orations and things of our Holy Faith, and has neither beginning nor end.

§ XXV. 3. Some principles of said [Christian] doctrine, on 4 leaves of European paper, not continued. Besides the pictures and ciphers, there are a few lines in the Otomi language.

§ XXXV. 2. A manuscript in Nahuatl. It treats of many things pertaining to the Mexican Empire, and in a few lines, in concise style (like the rest of it), refers to the Apparition of the Holy Lady in the Cerro (mount) de Tepeyècac. The author did not put correctly the Arabic numbers of the year in which the apparition occurred, but the history is old and authentic, and I will prove it in [my] said Prologo.

A curious fragment, in a handwriting of the middle of the 17th century. Titles of dialogues and speeches are in Spanish.

Contents: Salutation of one who, going to the market place, passes the house of a kinsman, and reply; congratulations to a newly married couple, and replies; what the cihuatlanques say to the parents of a maiden demanded in marriage by the king of Tezcoco, and replies; salute of the king to his bride; salutations of a lord to the queen and to the king; salutation to the queen on the birth of a child; congratulations to the king on this event; taking leave of a dead king; condolence of a noble with others on the king's death; advice on good breeding given by an old man to children; salutation of a noble youth to a religious; conversation of two noble youths with their grandmother, mother, tutor, a nobleman and an old noblewoman; how children were reared by the Mexicans when they were heathens.

Title from the Códice franciscano [830 a].

It was known that Fr. Alonso de Molina had written a large and a small Doctrina in the Mexican language, for P. Mendieta says so plainly in his Historia Eclesiástica Indiana, lib. iv, cap. 44; and this notice was printed long ago, being incorporated literally by P. Torquemada in cap. 33, lib. xix, of his Monarquía Indiana. The same fact is stated in the work of the illustrious Gonzaga, De Origine Seraphicæ Religionis, page 1242. In the colophon of the Spanish and Mexican Doctrina of 1548, there is mentioned, with sufficient clearness, the edition of the Doctrina breue made in 1546, although the name of the author is not stated:

"And because at the assembly held by the bishops, it was decreed that there should be made two Doctrinas, one brief and the other full: and the brief one is that which was printed in the year 1546; his reverend lordship [Zumárraga] commands that this may be the large one, for explanation of the other small one." This notice cannot refer to the well known Doctrina of 1546, because that is entirely in Spanish, and here it refers evidently to one in Spanish and Mexican, like that of 1548, which it was to accompany. Even D. Nicolás Antonio, little acquainted with American books (Bibl. Hisp. Nova, tom. 1, p. 37), knew of the edition, for among the writings of P. Molina he places the following: "Catecismo mayor y menor. Probably this is the same as the Doctrina Christiana in the Mexican language, first printed at Mexico in 1546, again in 1606. 4°." Finally, P. Molina himself, in the dedication of his Arte, 1571, asserts that he had printed a Doctrina cristiana; a reference that cannot be applied to the edition of 1578, as that was published afterwards.

Notwithstanding all this, and that there are, at the least, four later editions of the Doctrina breue (without counting that of 1606, mentioned by Antonio, which I have not seen, nor found referred to elsewhere), Beristain does not put such a Doctrina menor among the writings of P. Molina, excepting only the Mexican one of 1578, which will be spoken of in its place. The certain knowledge of the edition of 1546, and also of its text, is due to the discovery of an ancient manuscript, an account of which will be given in a few words.

On the 23d of January, 1569, the king gave notice to the archbishop of Mexico, D. Fr. Alonso de Montúfar, that on account of the official visit which the Lic. Juan de Ovando was making to the Council of the Indies, certain investigations were necessary, and charged him to perform them, sending at the same time a list of the subjects to be included. One of these was that there should be sent

“a copy of the Doctrina Cristiana which is taught.” The archbishop hastened to comply with the king’s demand, beginning by requesting from the religious orders the respective notices concerning the towns of which they had charge. But they excused themselves from doing this, saying that they had royal letters in which they were directly questioned concerning these matters, and therefore the archbishop had to confine himself to reporting on what he had under his own charge. Concerning the copy of the catechism, he merely said that it was sent, without stating whether it was printed or in manuscript, or who was the author. Many years ago I obtained the original reply of Sr. Montúfar, a manuscript of 201 leaves in folio; but of the answers of the friars, only those of several Augustan priors came into my hands at that time.

In April, 1875, Sr. D. Alfredo Chavero brought to my notice a valuable old manuscript [Códice franciscano, No. 830 a] which had belonged to Sr. D. J. F. Ramirez, and I had hardly opened it when I met with what purported to be the reply of the franciscans to that royal letter: a document full of interesting notices, as this order was the oldest and most extensive of all. Fortunately the fathers were not content, like the archbishop, with saying that the copy of the catechism was sent, for they even incorporated it into their relation, prefixing to it the following preface:

“Copy and relation of the Catechism of Christian doctrine which is taught to the Indians of this New Spain, and the method that the priests of this province use in teaching them.

“It is known that several kinds of Doctrinas have already been composed in this country in the languages of the natives, mostly in the Mexican tongue, which is in general use, such as small or brief Doctrinas, with which they teach the children, as well as other larger ones from which older and more intelligent persons may learn at length the mysteries of our faith. Of the smaller ones, which are called ‘Doctrinas Cristianas,’ and of which a copy is now requested, four or five kinds were printed, all of which contain the same in substance and opinion, although they differ in the manner of arrangement and diction, and some of them are fuller than others; and there should be properly but one Doctrina for this people, because wherever this conformity may be carried out, no persons would be excused when questioned in other parts where the Doctrina is different, by saying that they did not teach thus in their village. The best of these Doctrinas, and the most correct in language and other particulars, I understand, is one which P. Fr. Alonzo de Molina composed, and which is now to be printed the second time in the Mexican language, and translated into the corresponding Spanish in the opposite column. I say that it will be the best, without prejudice to any one, because this father is the best Mexican interpreter we have among the Spaniards in New Spain, and he has been of great service in composing treatises and other useful works in this language. And as a copy of the Doctrina Cristiana is requested, it has been placed here in the language of the Indians, with its Spanish translation, as follows.”

He then adds the text of the work in both languages. In a note at the end it is said that it is being printed for the second time, and it was probably finished in 1571, as both the license and the privilege of the Vocabulario of the same year include una Doctrina cristiana breve.

This document gives us, therefore, certain information respecting two editions in the sixteenth century, which have entirely disappeared, with so many others.

The following preface in the two languages precedes the work:

“Here begins a work of instruction called Doctrina Cristiana, which it is required that all the children and young persons of the natives of this New Spain should learn; in which are discussed the most necessary things to learn, know and practice for the salvation of Christians, and that they may know how to reply when they are questioned in any place concerning Christianity; and in order that this Doctrina may reach to all parts and be known by all, it is necessary that it should be translated into other languages proper to know, in the language of Mechoacan, and in that of the Otomics, etc. And the Lord Bishop D. Fr. Juan de Zumárraga orders those that teach in all parts, and instruct in reading and writing, that they should first teach this Doctrina, so that all may know it by heart, before they undertake to learn anything else. This Doctrina has been newly (nuevamente) printed here in Mexico, by command of the same Lord Bishop D. Fr. Juan do Zumárraga.' The word nuevamente may suggest that there was an earlier edition, but it is not so. The reverend author of the document says plainly that in 1570 it was being printed for the second time. Nuevamente ought to be taken here for últimamente, recientemente, poco há (nuper); and that is the proper signification of the adverb.

The chapters which the work comprises are: the Per signum Crucis; the Credo; the Pater noster; the Ave Maria; the Salve Regina; another preface without title; the fourteen articles of the faith; the commandments of God; those of the Church; the sacraments; declaration of the venial sin; declaration of the mortal sin; the mortal sins; the theological and cardinal virtues; the works of mercy; the gifts of the Holy Spirit; the bodily senses; the faculties of the soul; the enemies of the soul; the eight beatitudes; the blessings of the glorified body; the obligations of sponsors; the questions to be asked of adults at baptism; short advice to those who have just been baptized; the blessing of the table; the giving of thanks after eating.

The four reimpressions mentioned above were printed in 1675, 1718, 1732, and 1735. They contain only the Mexican text. But in comparing the 1735 edition (the only one which I now have before me) with the Mexican part of that of 1546, there will be noticed great differences in the compilation and in the order of the chapters, as well as the omission of some things and the addition of others. At the same time it is evident that the original of 1546 was not used for this edition of 1735. What was, then, this original to which it is said that the editions of 1732 and 1735 were faithfully conformed? Can it be the Mexican part of that of 1571, in which the author had made revisions? It is impossible to tell without finding a copy of that edition; but I doubt this very much, and am inclined to believe that the alterations are the work of later hands, because in the four editions it is said that they were newly (nuevamente) revised and corrected; and in that of 1718 the name of the corrector also appears. The original to which the last two editions refer, is probably the text corrected by P. Perez, who, perhaps with the pious intention of making it the more useful to the Indians of his own time, transformed the pure language of P. Molina into the corrupt dialect which was generally used about two centuries afterwards.

"P. Alonso de Molina, alias Escalona, a franciscan friar, born in 1496 (according to Antonio), was one of the most learned missionaries of Mexico. He was also one of the best informed in the Mexican language, in which he composed vocabularies, a grammar, a catechism, some sermons, a confessional, &c. - ✓ 2949 Perez (D. Juan Pio). Diccionario de la Lengua Maya. Merida de Yucatan, 1866-1877.

A. C. W. WE.

Full title and collation given in No. 2949. In a manuscript catalogue of the Berendt collection, Dr. Brinton speaks of this work as follows:

This monument of life-long labor did not appear until some years after the author's death (March 6, 1859). The printing was begun in 1866, interrupted in 1867 by the civil war, during which the manuscript "copy" came near destruction, and finally completed in 1877. Although Pio Perez was considered a thorough Maya scholar, errors are not infrequent in his dictionary, owing to faulty orthography or typography. Dr. Berendt points out eche for ecbe, bich for abich, etc.; but on the whole his corrections are few. Perez left his manuscript incomplete, ceasing at the word ulchahal. The remainder was prepared by Don Crescencio Carrillo down to xen, and from that word to the end by Dr. Berendt. In fullness Perez's dictionary is much inferior to the Diccionario de Motul [No. 1030*a*]. Thus, under the letter A, Perez gives 586 words, and the Motul 2059, and about this proportion is maintained throughout.

This manuscript, written in two columns, in a fine, clear hand by the celebrated Yucatecan linguist, was presented by his niece to Dr. Berendt, and is that referred to in the latter's essay, "Los Trabajos Lingüísticos de Don Juan Pio Perez," p. 5. The prologo is signed in full by Perez, but no date is given. It probably was written about 1845, and contains several hundred words not found in the printed work.

Jno. Christopher Pyrlæus, the Mohawk scholar, was born at Pausa, Voigtland, in 1713. Studied for the ministry at the University of Leipsic between 1733 and 1738. Here he became attached to the Brethren, visited Herrnhut, and accepted an appointment as missionary. Sailed from London in company with Büttner and Zander, and reached Bethlehem October 19, 1740. Commenced the study of the Mohawk at Tulpehoeken, in January, 1743, under Weiser's direction. The Brethren having failed to procure a Mohawk Indian from Freehold to instruct in that language such of their number as were set apart for the mission, Pyrlæus undertook this, and on the 4th of February, 1744, opened his Indian school. In September of 1745 his first translations of hymns into Mohican appeared. This was the beginning of a collection for the use of the mission. In November of 1751 he sailed for England, where he labored until 1770. He next went to Germany, where he died May 28, 1785.—Reichel's Memorials of the Moravian Church, vol. 1, pp. 138-140.

3185 a ——— [Micmac-English Dictionary.] *
Manuscript. 4 vols. 4°. In possession of the author, who describes it as follows:
“General plan of the work: 1. To record all the words in the language so far as they can be discovered. 2. To give their equivalents in English as correctly as possible, both their primary and secondary significations. 3. To give the principal parts of the verbs—an l most of the words in the language are verbs, while all, almost without exception, can assume a verbal turn—so that the verb can be conjugated through person and number, mood and tense, and voice. 4. To write the word phonetically, so that the true pronunciation—the real word—may be distinctly seen and heard. 5. To give the compounds to some extent, the most usual ones, and the derivatives, for these are an essential part of the language.

“I have, in the course of about thirty-five years, collected and arranged alphabetically some thousands of words. I am this winter [1883-4] making it my chief business to complete the correcting and the copying out into a fair hand of the fourth volume of this work. I have already copied and bound up three volumes, quarto, each of about five hundred leaves, many of the pages on both sides being pretty well filled, so much so, in fact, that I am continually under the necessity of pasting in additional pages, in order to place in proper order new words as they turn up. Of the twenty letters of the Roman alphabet used in printing Micmac, I have in my Dictionary, in the three volumes referred to, arrived at S. The last word entered in Vol. 3 is Silmoodāwā. Volume IV commences with Sinkūmīsūm: ūmūn: īmajūl. After S there are but four letters of the alphabet left, viz: T, U, W, Y, but my collection of words, under these four letters, occupies about 450 pages of manuscript, many of them crowded to vexation, though some are not filled. * *

“You ask the names of my assistants. I have had a great many. I had at the commencement hardly anything printed or written that could assist me. The meagre outlines of a Micmac Grammar, published some years previous in the Royal Gazette of Charlottetown, P. E. Island, by a Mr. Irving [see Nos. 1949*a*-1949*b*], who had obtained the manuscripts of a French priest, who had resided in Nova Scotia, L'Abbe Segogue, then dead, gave me some—I may say a good deal—of help. Irving died before I could see him, and I could not obtain any of his manuscripts.

“* * * The first man I found who could really help me was a Frenchman named Joseph Brooks, who had resided among the Indians many years and lived as one of themselves. But he spoke good English, and was also fluent in French and Micmac. He could read but could not write, but his assistance was invaluable. I could not depend upon his pronunciation, as I soon discovered, for he learned the language after he was grown up, and spoke it with a foreign accent. But his wife spoke it pure, and I could depend on him for the meaning of a word and on her for the pronunciation. * * * One of the sons, Tom Brooks, became finally one of my most efficient teachers, though he never learned either to read or write. The greater part of my translations and compilations was done with the assistance of Tom Brooks. I had one other clever assistant for several years who could both read and write. His name was Benjamin Christmas, of Cape Breton.”

Of the above manuscript I have seen only vol. 3, which, with many other of his manuscripts given below, were kindly sent me by the author that I might describe them.

3185 b ——— Micmac Ollendorff. *

Manuscript. In the possession of a Mr. Hubbard, of Bonn, Germany, to whom it was sent by the author. “The Micmac Ollendorff comprises, as near as I can remember, about 400 pages, and consists of a series of questions and answers, facing each other, and numbered off into lessons, à la mode Ollendorff. It is intended as a simple aid to the learning of the language.”—Rand.

Manuscript. pp. 1-63. 16°. No title-page; heading as above. Paged reverse of usual—even numbers on rectos, odd on versos. Alternate pages Micmac and English, in some cases the former occupying the rectos, in others the latter. The manuscript includes not only sentences, but short stories and portions of the Scriptures, and on pp. 9-10 is a partial conjugation of the verb to see. Exodus 20, pp. 11-14.—Genesis 1, "translated March, 1847, by the aid of Joseph Brooks," pp. 33-42.—John 4, "Being the first whole chapter translated by me (us) into Mic Mac," pp. 42-52.—Gen. 2, pp. 53-58.—Gen. 3, pp. 58-63, and continued on p. 1.

3185 f ——— List of Micmac | words resembling | Greek, Hebrew, La- | tin, &c. | STR.

Manuscript. 34 ll. 16°. In a blank book, leather cover. Concerning this work the author writes me as follows: This is a collection of about 300 words, in which I saw, or fancied I saw when I composed it, a resemblance between many Micmac words and those of other languages, chiefly the Greek. I am under the impression that a comparison conducted on proper etymological principles would swell the list to many hundreds.

3185 g ——— Legends of the | Micmac Indians | and | Extracts from the | Micmac Prayer Book | with Interlinear Translations | into | English by | Silas T. Rand. | *

Manuscript. 1 vol. sm. 4°. In possession of the author. Title, 1 l.; Introduction, 2 ll.; Legends, Micmac and English, 96 ll.; Extracts from the hieroglyphic prayer book, dictated by a daughter of Dennis Michael, chief of the Indians in Cape Breton, September, 1849, and written phonetically by Mr. Rand in Micmac and translated into English; 95 unnumbered ll., Micmac and English interlinear. "This Micmac Prayer Book, by the way, is a curiosity. It is the invention of the Roman Priests about two hundred years ago, aided by the natives, who suggested the mode of writing. It is written not with letters, but with sign-marks, one mark standing for a word, after the manner of the Chinese. It was never printed until about five and twenty years ago, when it was prepared and printed by a Roman priest, a German named Kauder, living at Pomket, Nova Scotia."—Rand. See Kauder (Rev. Christian), Nos. 2057-2059.

Maj. J. W. Powell has received from Mr. Rand a blank book containing about 70 ll., folio, of these hieroglyphs "as transcribed with the pen by an Indian; the only way in which the work was multiplied for nearly 200 years."

3185 h ——— Notes Explanatory | on the Micmac Trans- | lation of the Psalms. | Referring principally | to the cases in which the Mic- | mac Version differs from | the English. | Written about the | year 1855. | By Silas T. Rand | Hantsport | Nova Scotia | STR.

Manuscript; copy. 94 unnumbered ll. 4°. Mr. Rand writes of it as follows: "In hunting among my papers, I have discovered a manuscript that I cannot well pass over if you wish a full descriptive catalogue of such unpublished manuscripts as are in my possession referring to our Indians and their language. I send you the copy which I retained.

"This was its origin. When we sent the manuscript of the Book of Psalms, translated into Micmac, to the British and Foreign Bible Society, it occurred to them to enquire whether it had been translated from the Hebrew or from the English. I replied that I had translated directly from the Hebrew, and that while I had made use of the common English version and others, I had not servilely followed it or any of them, but that my version varied from the English in a good many places, I did not know how many. Whereupon I was directed to state all the cases in which the Micmac differed from the English, and to state briefly my reasons. I did so. Then we had a committee of our learned divines of Halifax appointed to examine my paper, over which they spent a good many days. Suggestions were made and amendments proposed, and the dissertation was gone over again carefully and revised, then copied and sent to London. The publishing committee of the British and Foreign Bible Society expressed themselves well satisfied, and I was sufficiently complimented for the literary aspect of the work, and the book was immediately published."

3185 i ——— [Manuscripts relating to the Micmac language.] *

1 manuscript volume, 4^o, bound. In the possession of a Mr. Hubbard, of Bonn, Germany, to whom it was sent by the author, who thus describes it: "It contains: 1. Materials for a Micmac grammar.—2. A Lecture on the Micmac language, delivered before a Literary Society in Halifax.—3. A paper on Micmac grammar, copied from the Royal Gazette of Charlottetown, which was published by a Mr. Irving about fifty years ago.—4. A lot of papers on the same subject. The whole was gathered up and bound together for the use of a Roman Priest, then of Pictou, N. S., now Bishop Ronald McDonald, of Newfoundland, who wished to learn the language. He assured me it was of great service to him."

3185 p ——— A Vocabulary of | Maliseet Words. | STR.

Manuscript, about 500 unnumbered ll., 4°, bound. This book is, perhaps, not more than half filled, but it contains a large number of Maliseet words, arranged to some extent alphabetically by the Maliseet, the English equivalent following. Concerning this vocabulary Mr. Rand says:

“Some twenty-five years ago, finding a clever Indian of the Maliseet tribe who spoke English and Miemac fluently—besides his own tongue—I obtained his services to assist me in translating my Miemac Tract entitled ‘The History of the Word of God’ [No. 3179*b*] into Maliseet. While doing this I was careful to note every word as it came up, and to make declension and conjugation, etc., keeping a book at hand for that purpose; so that when my tract was finished I was in possession of quite a full vocabulary, because I not only caught and secured all the words that came up in the course of translation, but all I could catch in any other way, and as I worked in ‘Gabriel’s’ hut, and was continually keeping mouth and ears open, I caught a good many more words than I met with in the work which was ‘on the anvil.’” answers facing them with corresponding numbers. About 50 pages are filled with lists of Maliseet words and grammatic inflections explained in English. It contains, also, the last two chapters of Luke in Maliseet, "some extracts from the Catholic prayer book in Penobscot," two hymns in Maliseet, and the Second Commandment written by an Indian in peculiar characters.

3185 s ——— [Manuscripts treating principally of the Maliseet language.] STR.

About 400 pp., 4^o, bound. The first portion contains the first draft of the tract in Maliseet described above, No. 3181*f*, with an accompanying list, on the pages opposite, of words and grammatic forms collected while translating the tract. The verbs are generally conjugated fully through the Present of the Indicative. Mr. Rand says:

"The translating was done for me by a very intelligent Maliseet Indian, residing at St. Mary's, opposite Fredericton, N. B., named Gabriel Thomas. The tract was translated from the Micmac, which Gabriel spoke fluently, as he did also the English and his own tongue. But he could neither read nor write. It was my first lesson in Maliseet, and I carefully collected a vocabulary and made a grammar as I went along."

Besides the tract, vocabulary, and grammar, this book contains a translation of the 34th Psalm, a hymn in Penobscot, and another in Maliseet, "both from the Catholic Prayer Book," and a vocabulary of the Maliseet language, consisting of 90 pages closely written.

3185 t ——— [Manuscripts in the Maliseet and other languages.] STR.

S., named McIntosh, who had spent many years in the Hudson Bay Territory," p. 1.—Bible history in the dialect of the Maliseet Indians of New Brunswick (this is another copy of the Maliseet tract No. 3181*f*), pp. 1-141.—Sketches of a grammar of the Maliseet language, pp. 142-224.—The numerals in the dialect of the Penobscot Indians, p. 225.—"The numerals of the St. Francis Indians (Abequaqui) or 'Ojibways,' as given me by an Indian at Fredericton named Thomas Legosh," p. 231.—"A hymn in the Seneca, and tune composed by Edward Pierce, leader of the Seneca brass band, at the Alleghany Reservation, N. Y.," pp. 239-240.—Names of relationship in Maliseet, pp. 241-253.—A translation of the Latin Mediæval hymn "Dies Iræ" into Micmac, Roman characters, as given in their hieroglyphic prayer book, pp. 254-256.—Penobscot words, p. 261.—Hymn "Abide with me," in Maliseet, pp. 262-263.—Another hymn in Maliseet, p. 272.

3185 u ——— Mohawk Vocabulary—By | Silas T. Rand | STR.

Manuscript, about 200 pp., folio, bound. English and Mohawk, alphabetically arranged according to the English. The Mohawk equivalent is lacking in many instances. Concerning this work, and others mentioned below, Mr. Rand writes me as follows:

"I spent two months in the year '70, I think it was, in Tuscarora, Ont., among the Mohawk Indians, and made the acquisition of a knowledge of their language a special object. I had secured, to assist me, a Mohawk grammar written in French by a retired French priest of Montreal. I soon learned the pronunciation so well that I could read to them quite fluently (for I took care to write the words phonetically), and I wrote out from the mouths of several Indians, some of them educated and some uneducated, long lists of words and grammatical inflections.

"The following winter I devoted a good deal of time to Mohawk. I filled out my big book from the English dictionary in alphabetical order, all the words that I surmised I would be able to find. Then I entered all those I had already learned the meaning of. Then, with the English and Mohawk books before me, I hunted. I wrote out a number of chapters in columns, placing the Mohawk equivalent opposite the English, so that in looking over the pile I noticed the other day that I had, besides my big book, two or three little ones, carefully bound, and a pile of these unbound papers."

- 3185 v ——— List of Indian Names | of Places in P. E. Island, | obtained Nov., 1880, by the aid | of Peter Jim | STR.

Manuscript. Begins at p. 207 of the large folio book mentioned in preceding title, and occupies four pages. The Indian name is followed by the English equivalent.

- 3185 w ——— No. 2. | Mohawk | Vocabulary | By | Silas T. Rand | STR.

Manuscript, about 175 pp., 4°, bound. This is one of the books mentioned by Mr. Rand in the above note. It bears the date "Tuscarora, Aug. 8, 1876," and in arrangement and contents is similar to the large folio. The Mohawk vocabulary extends alphabetically from A to S, and is continued in the following:

- 3185 x ——— [List of Mohawk Words, and a translation of the 9th and 11th chapters of Luke and of the 9th chapter of Mark, Mohawk and English in parallel columns, with a few sentences in Mohawk and English.] STR.

Manuscript, about 125 pp., 4°, bound. The early portion of this book contains the Lord's Prayer in Mohawk, with interlinear English translation of the first few words, and a list of adverbs. Then the Mohawk vocabulary is taken up at the letter T and continued through the remaining letters. The remainder of the book is occupied with the Gospel translations, except a few pages at the end, which contain "Short Sentences in the Mohawk Tongue."

- 3185 y ——— The Gospel of | Mark. | Capt. Brant's Mohawk Translation | STR.

Manuscript, 48 pp., 4°, unbound. A discontinuous interlinear English translation runs throughout it. It extends only to the 14th verse of the third chapter. The interlinear translation is mostly by Mr. Rand, with emendations thereof and fillings in by Joab Martin, a Mohawk Indian.

- 3185 aa ——— [Mohawk, Seneca, and Tuscarora words.] STR.

Manuscript, 4°, unbound. The Mohawk portion of this manuscript consists of upwards of 50 pages, Mohawk and English, and contains conjugation of the verb to see. There are only a few Seneca words. These are followed by a list of 61 Tuscarora words, with English signification, taken down by Mr. Rand from the mouth of an Indian named Johnson, in Tuscarora. Some remarks on the "Difficulties in Translating into Mohawk," &c., follow.

Contains chapters 5, 11, 15, and 23 of the Gospel of Luke in the Maya language, taken almost bodily from the 1865 edition, the principal changes being in dropping the accents, changing the reverse c to s, and the initial y to i. On one of the copies in the library of Dr. Brinton there is the following note by Dr. Berendt: Printed from a corrected text of the Reverend Ruz's translation, corrected by the Rev. Alexander Henderson, Baptist Translation Society, London, 1878.

On a copy of the 1865 edition, in the same library, Dr. Berendt has made this note: A copy of this translation was made by Ruz for the Rev. John Kingdon when passing through Yucatan, who had it printed in London.

“Father Joaquin Ruz was born in Merida, 1772, and died in 1855. Accustomed from childhood to the Maya tongue, he became the most fertile author who has yet appeared in it. His style has, however, been severely criticised by almost all competent scholars as impressing on the native language grammatical forms, turns of expression, and compounds, foreign to its history and character. Ruz was well aware that he was making these innovations, but claimed they were called for in order to elevate and develop the powers of the Maya. Dr. Berendt succeeded in obtaining a complete set of his works, the only one, I believe, which can now be found. For a full discussion of his labors, see Carrillo, Hist. de la Leng. Maya, § XVII.”—Brinton.

Preceding the title-page is a leaf with the Episcopal seal and the title: Manval | de los Santos | Sacramentos. | There is another edition in 4°, with the licences dated 1691. The copy seen is minus beginning and end. Improved title of No. 3430 furnished by Sr. Icazbalceta from copy in his possession.

The author was a native of the Canary Isles. He went to Mexico in 1636, became canon of the Cathedral of Michoacan, and afterwards of Puebla de los Angeles, where he died.—Ramirez Sale Catalogue, No. 658.

3449 Sahagun (Fr. Bernardino de). [Manuscript in the Mexican language.] *

In the note to the above title, from the Ramirez Sale Catalogue, mention is made of four leaves signed Don Martin Enriquez, etc. These sheets, formerly belonging to Sr. Ramirez, passed into the hands of Sr. Alfredo Chavero, who describes them as follows in his work on Sahagun, pp. 98-101, a copy of which has come into my possession since the main catalogue was put in type: “Among the fragments of the manuscripts in Mexican which, more by way of curiosity than for any other reason, I preserve, there exist four leaves in octavo in the handwriting of Sahagun, or at least the same as that of the Evangelios, Doctrina, apostillas del Sermonario and first folio of the Trilingüe. It has as a heading the following title: ‘Izcalquj ynjunemjliz yntenjutica omonamjtique’—‘Injece Cap.º vncaa mjtoa etc.’ The chapter extends over two leaves, and at the end of the second another commences with this rubric: ‘Inje. 6 Cap.º etc.’ On the next leaf at the end is ‘Inje 7 Cap.º etc.’ Finally the last leaf has the following paragraph without a caption, which is important to our question: ‘Para que libremente pueda hazer ymprimjr el dho Manual del Christiano, aqualqujera ympresor aqujen enseñalara y fuere su voluntad lo haga por tpo de diez años primeros sigujentes ymprimjendolo todo en vn cuerpo, conforme al original Quearecebido, o por partes y tratados como el dño autor qujsiere y dentro de dño tpo otro njnguno ympresor nj persona particular lo ymprima, nj haga ymprimir sin permjssion de dño Fray Bernardiño de Sahagun, sopena de qujientos pesos de oro, para la camara y fisco de su majestad y de perder los moldes yaparejos dela enprenta y perdidos los libros que se hallaren auer ymprimjdo sin la dicha licencia y cumpliendo esto mando que en ello por njngunas Justicias y otras personas no se le poga Embargo nj ympedimento alguno: fecho en Mex.º a dezisejs de Hebrero. de mjll y qujientos y setenta y ocho años.—Don Martin Enriquez.'

"There is no doubt that this was a rough draft intended for the press; and we have here not only a third book of Sahagun printed, but one totally unknown and, until now, unmentioned—the Manual del christiano. This Manual cannot be the Psalmodia, because not only have I seen by comparison that they are different, but the latter was printed in 1583, the former in 1578. Nor is this Manual the Doctrina christiana before named [No. 3446 of this catalogue], because, comparing the chapters of that with those which have the same number in this, it is seen that not only are the rubrics different, but the texts also.

"The result of this disquisition, therefore, is that there are three books of Sahagun which we know to have been printed in his lifetime: first, the Postilla [No. 3446], which must have been printed before the year 1579; second, the Manual del christiano in 1578; and, third, the Psalmodia christiana [No. 3441] in 1583."

Chavero's work concludes with a letter from Sr. Icazbalceta, in which he speaks of the Manual as follows: "Let me call your attention to the fact that Beristain speaks of another published work by Sahagun: Catecismo de la Doctrina Cristiana en Lengua Mexicana. Imp. por Ocharte, 1583. 4º [No. 3444 of this catalogue].

"Although not entitled to perfect confidence, I think in this instance Beristain may be believed. As the titles of all the works were incomplete, it is not impossible that this Catecismo may be the Manual del Cristiano of which you speak, which printing, agreed upon in 1578, was retarded until 1583—something which occurred with other works of that epoch."

Notice from the Missionary Magazine of the London Church Missionary Society, the date of which I do not know, as follows:

"During the winter, Bishop Horden, of Moosonee, was busily engaged upon Ojibbeway translations, particularly the Acts of the Apostles. He was assisted by the Rev. J. Sanders, who is an Ojibbeway Indian, and who has already himself translated the 'Peep of Day' into his mother tongue. At the same time, Archdeacon Vincent was preparing a Cree version of the Pilgrim's Progress. Mr. Sanders writes that he has now four books in Ojibbeway, viz, St. Matthew's Gospel, a catechism of Bible history, the Prayer Book nearly complete, and a hymn book with 100 hymns."

3524 a ——— The Ante-Columbian History of America. [Review of: Antiquitates Americanæ, sive Scriptores Septentrionales Rerum Ante-Columbianarum in America.] C. WE.

In Am. Biblical Repository, second series, vol. 1, pp. 430-449. New York, 1839. 8°. Contains remarks on the aboriginal language of New England, a translation of a letter from Mr. Magnussen, Vice President of the Royal Society at Copenhagen, concerning the inscription and figures on the "Assonet Rock," and a letter from Mr. Albert Gallatin respecting the use of the letters v and l in the Esquimaux language.

Henry Rowe Schoolcraft was born in Watervliet, N. Y., March 29, 1793. His first American ancestor settled in Albany County, in the reign of George II, and taught school. The change of his name, which was originally Calcraft, is, no doubt, attributable to this latter fact. He entered Union College in 1807, made his first expedition to the Mississippi River in 1817, and several others afterwards. In 1822 he was appointed agent for Indian affairs on the northwestern frontier, where he married a granddaughter of Wabojeg, an Indian war chief, and resided in that country until 1841. About 1830, while a member of the territorial legislature of Michigan, he introduced the system, which was, to some extent, adopted, of forming local names from the Indian language. In 1847 Congress directed him to procure statistics and other information respecting the history, condition, and prospects of the Indian tribes of the U. S.

He resided many years among the Indians and zealously improved his opportunities for studying their habits, customs, and languages.

Mr. Schoolcraft was a member of numerous scientific and historical societies, and in 1846 received the degree of LL.D. from Geneva College. He died in Washington, D. C., Dec. 10, 1864, aged 71 years.

T. JWP.

Of this periodical Dr. Trumbull of Hartford has three numbers not mentioned in the note to the above title, Nos. 8-11 of Vol. 4, March 31—April 14, 1877. Concerning the history of the paper he writes me as follows: "Published weekly (folio, 28 columns) by G. McPherson & Co.; G. McPherson, editor; one or two columns in Choctaw, in each number ("Chakta Anumpa." E. W. Folsom, editor).

"The Vindicator, devoted to the interests of the Choctaws and Chickasaws, a weekly paper, established by Dr. J. H. Moore, of New Boggy, Choctaw Nation, in 1872, was united with the Oklahoma Star, started by G. McPherson, at McAlester, about 1847, under the name of The Star-Vindicator, which was published till some time in 1878, as I am informed by a correspondent in the Indian Territory. Of The Vindicator I have seen only two or three numbers. Vol. 2, No. 14 (whole number 66), was printed at New Boggy, Choctaw Nation, I. T., Oct. 18, 1873; T. B. Heiston, editor. For full title see No. 3842 of the main catalogue.

"Thevet's version of the Lord's Prayer "en langue des Sauvages," which he professed to have made with the help of a Christian slave, was copied by Megiser (1593) and by Duret (1613) as Mexican; and from Megiser it passed, as a Mexican version, to Mauer (1621), Andreas Müller (1680), Motte (1700) and the Augsburg reprint (1710), Chamberlayne (1715), Fry (1799), and other collections, and found place in the splendid volumes printed by Marcel (Paris, 1805), Bodoui (Parma, 1806), and Auer (1844-1847). It was assigned its proper place by Adelung in Mithridates, Th. 3, Abth. 2, pp. 446, 450, as "Brasilianisch oder Guaranisch (unter dem falschen Nahmen Mexikanisch)." Thevet is not responsible for this mistake. He had been in Brazil and—though J. de Lery (Navig. in Brasiliam, ed. 1586, prof.) shows the absurdity of his pretension to a knowledge of the language of the natives, acquired in a two months' visit—had, at least, heard the Tupi-Guarani spoken, and had picked up enough of the dialect to make a show of in his Cosmographie."—Trumbull.

"From some Fragmentos Historicos which I copied from the originals of the celebrated Don Carlos de Sigüenza y Gongora, I am satisfied that Don Antonio Valeriano, native of Atzacaputzalco, an Indian cazique and Master of Rhetoric in the Imperial College of Tlatilulco, wrote the Historia de las Apariciones de Guadalupe in Nahuatl. Sigüenza says, under oath, that he had it in his possession in the handwriting of Don Antonio, which, perhaps, is the one printed by Bachiller Lasso de la Vega [No. 3985]."—Boturini, § xxxv, 5.

A four-page, small 4° paper, published monthly at Greenwood, Dakota Territory; first issued May, 1871, with Rev. J. P. Williamson as editor. The first volume, ending June, 1872, is entirely in the Dakota language. With the beginning of the second volume, January, 1873, the title was changed to: Iapi Oaye. | The Word Carrier. |, the size of the sheet increased, the first page illustrated, and the fourth page printed partly in English. At this time, also, the Rev. Stephen R. Riggs was made principal editor, Mr. Williamson remaining as associate. At the beginning of the sixth volume, January, 1877, Rev. Alfred L. Riggs took the place of Mr. Williamson as associate editor, and the place of publication was changed to the Santee Agency, Nebr. With No. 1 of Vol 9, January, 1880, the paper was enlarged to an eight-page monthly, the editorial management remaining unchanged. The death of the Rev. S. R. Riggs, on August 24, 1883, left the Rev. A. L. Riggs sole editor, his name alone appearing on the issue for October, 1883, Vol. 12, No. 10. The issue for December, 1883, contains a notice of certain changes to be made in the next issue—that for January, 1884, Vol. 13, No. 1. At this date the Dakota and English sections were separated, making two distinct papers—the “Iapi Oaye,” in Dakota, and “The Word Carrier,” in English. Rev. John P. Williamson was appointed editor of the former and Rev. Alfred L. Riggs of the latter. The title of the Iapi Oaye was changed back to substantially its original form, the size of the paper reduced and the number of pages decreased to four, and the place of publication changed to Greenwood, Dakota Territory. I have seen the first three numbers of The Word Carrier—for March, 1884, April, 1884, and April 15, 1884, the second of which states: “We skipped over two months by the almanac, but we shall furnish twelve numbers during the year.” Reprint of title No. 4156, with extended note.

4197 a Wood (Rev. Thomas). [Grammar of the Micmac language.] *

“Rev. T. Wood, before going to Nova Scotia, was, for some years, the Society’s Missionary in New Jersey. In 1762 he attended, during an illness of several weeks, the Vicar-General of Quebec, M. Maillard. After residing some time at Halifax, he took up his residence, in 1763, at Annapolis (formerly Port Royal), where he remained during the rest of his life, dividing his labours between

Annapolis and Granville. He immediately applied himself to the study of the Micmac (Indian) language, with no other assistance than he could derive from the papers of M. Maillard, and fully determined to persevere until he should be able to publish a Grammar, a Dictionary, and a translation of the Bible. In 1766 he sent home the first volume of his Grammar, with a translation of the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, &c., and was now able to minister to the Indians in their own language. After a successful ministry of about thirty years he died at Annapolis, on the 14th of December, 1778.—Sprague's Annals of the American Pulpit, vol. 5, p. 328, note.

Mr. J. T. Bulmer, Librarian of the University of Dalhousie, Halifax, Nova Scotia, writes me: "In the Report for 1767 the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts acknowledges the receipt of several translations into Micmac and the first part of his French and English Micmac Grammar. I am of the opinion that, while Mr. Wood could translate and preach in Micmac, M. Maillard's grammar was really the basis of his work. Several circumstances lend probability to this opinion. How did he come to make a French part to his Micmac grammar, when the probabilities are against his knowledge of that language? So far as I have been able to ascertain none of his works were printed, and I have made frequent applications to the Society in London for his manuscripts, but in vain."
