ANTWERP BURNING IN FOUR PLACES

Canadian Contingent Welcomed in London

Magnificent Contribution to Imperial Army is Tribute of Ministerial Newspaper— British Columbia Horse Go to London at Own Expense.

London, Oct. 9.—Though the details of their embarkation were hidden from the public, the London press gives the Canadian contingent a warm welcome. The ministerial Westminster Gazette says: "This is indeed a magnificent contribution to the imperial army now at work in Europe. We, in the motherland, are deeply conscious of the splendid loyalty which Canadians, like all our kindred people overseas, has displayed at this critical time. A good many Canadian farmers are fidgeting about going to the front, but find it difficult to leave their farms. They may rest assured that if they stay in Canada and grow wheat for us in 1915 they will perform a very real service to the empire."

Tribute From the London Standard.

The Evening Standard says: "A fine body of men they are, and represent the best manhood of Canada. They are well-fitted to uphold the honor and dignity of the empire and are enthusiastic in their desire to participate in the great world fight for liberty and sanctity of treaties, determined to do whatever the British military authorities ask in a thorough and business-like way characteristic of them."

Are As Fit As Army's Seasoned Soldiers.

The London Star recalls that the Canadian troops have had no severe training, but will now get it and soon be equal to the hardships of actual warfare. Many of them are either athletes or have followed pursuits which harden the muscles and make them at the outset as fit as seasoned soldiers. They expect to be in the field. They would consider it hardly fair to be sent 3,000 miles just to do garrison duty.

The leading London clubs are making the Canadian officers honorary members, at the suggestion of Earl Kitchener.

German Canadians Cable Kitchener.

Sir Edward Ward, who has been described as the greatest transport officer since Moses, has charge of the war office arrangements for the reception of all overseas troops here, before their transfer to the continent.

No recent war incident has given more piquant pleasure in the highest circles here than the cablegram to Lord Kitchener from the German-Canadians at Berlin, Ont., announcing that $50,000 has been raised for the patriotic fund. The incident is heralded as a pretty reply to the Berlin declaration that the pro-German sympathies of the Canadian Germans are certain to prove most embarrassing to the Canadian and British governments.

British Columbia Horse in London.

The war office has requisitioned for transport duty two Canadian government exhibition touring cars.

Several Canadians seen on the London streets have the letters "B. C. H." on their shoulder straps. They are British Columbians who have come at their own expense and are now members of the Legion of Frontiersmen.

Captain F. C. Macdonald, formerly of Toronto, and now of the royal army medical corps has left London for the front. Major Edward Robert Barton, late of the second regiment, Canadian Artillery, Montreal, has been gazetted a major in the territorials.

FOES' KINSMAN ALLIED AGAINST THE ENEMY

Great-Grandnephew of Wellington and Descendant of Ney in Same Corps in France.

Paris, Oct. 9.—Arthur Meyer, editor of the Gaulois, in notes in that paper shows how alliances change with time. He says he was taking luncheon recently at Lurue's restaurant when he met Lord Wellesley, a great-grandnephew of the Duke of Wellington, who was going to Buc, whence he intended to fly to the British headquarters for work with the aviation corps.

When he arrives at the English headquarters he will find there, acting as interpreter, Charles Ney, the Duke of Elchingen, a descendant of the famous Marshal Ney, who is about his own age. "Thus," the Gaulois says, "the descendants of the two opponents at Waterloo will work in this campaign side by side."

U. S. TROOPER SHOT.

Naco, Ariz., Oct. 9.—Trooper Wilson, of the Tenth U. S. Cavalry, wounded by a Mexican bullet, fired across the line during an attack on Naco, Sonora, Sunday, died to-day at Fort Huachuca. Wilson was shot in the breast.

BRITISH TRADE DECLINE IS SURPRISINGLY SMALL

Rapid Recovery Being Made: Wheat Imports Increased; Sugar Supply Sufficient.

London, Oct. 9.—Fuller trade returns issued here show that the decline in trade, as a result of the war, has been surprisingly small. Trade to-day is in many ways better than it was in 1904. The cotton business is the only one which continues to suffer severely. According to official reports, British imports for September totalled $225,000,000 and exports $132,000,000. The Times concludes that trade is making a rapid recovery from the first shock of the war, without reckoning the immense exports of military and naval stores. Wheat imports increased 42 per cent. in September. Java and the West Indies are replacing Germany and Austria as the chief sources of Britain's sugar supply. A significant feature is a 50 per cent. increase in the coal imports of four of Germany's neutral neighbors, Holland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden.

PRZEMYSL IN FLAMES CAPITULATION CERTAIN

Rome, Oct. 9.—The Russian ambassador, while denying a report that the garrison of Przemyśl in Galicia had surrendered to the Russians, added: "However, the whole town is on fire and its capitulation is now inevitable."

TRAIL OF RUIN LEFT BEHIND BY GERMANS

Towns Erased, Fleeing Peasants Killed by Shells and Left in Roads

IMMENSE ARMY IS SENT FROM AIX LA CHAPPELLE

Two Hundred Thousand Men on German Side Used in Assault on Antwerp

Antwerp, Oct. 8, via London, Oct. 9.—The Germans on Saturday spent 16 hours in a terrific artillery duel in an effort to ford the Nethe. The Belgians held their ground magnificently and with great sacrifices prevented the Germans from crossing. The Germans were evidently unwilling to lose men in an assault and decided to widen the breach in the fortifications by bombarding the forts between the rivers Senne and Scheldt, which were unable to hold out against the steady down-pour of shells.

Thus the first line of Antwerp's defenses was destroyed. For the final attack, the Germans are hurrying 200,000 men to the scene of battle from Aix la Chapelle, via Brussels.

The Germans are boring a hole through the Belgian resistance like the boring of a tunnel through a mountain, in which progress no mercy is shown. Whatever interferes, villages, churches, schools and factories, are wiped out with steady precision.

The road from Brussels to Antwerp is one line of blackened ruins. Some of the towns, including Termonde, have been completely erased. The population fled before the Germans like settlers before a prairie fire. An endless procession of peasants and shopkeepers, young, old and invalids, with their chattels loaded in handcarts and antiquated wagons, and followed by countless children dumbly pursuing their parents driving belching cattle, are slowly moving in the direction of Antwerp's cathedral tower. They have difficulty in avoiding the numerous military trains of guns, wagons and automobiles rushing to the front, and occasionally they have to make way for ambulances hastening toward the city with men wounded in the fighting. The refugees, on arriving in Antwerp are cared for by the civil guards and boy scouts and taken to the public buildings and the German shops, which, contrary to the accepted version, were not destroyed, but were temporarily taken over by the government. The refugees are well fed and large numbers of the children have been taken in charge by nuns.

The German shells continually strike the roads leading to Antwerp, and the exploding shrapnel has in some cases played havoc among the peasants. The dead are left where they fall and the wounded are placed in wagons and taken along. In the city there are in charge of the local police, who have hoisted red and white bombardment flags on the churches and public buildings.

During the worst part of the battle on the Nethe many priests and monks were on the firing line, attending the wounded and giving the last rites to the dying.

London, Oct. 9.—In a dispatch from Ghent, dated Thursday, the correspondent of the Star transmits the following: "An officer whom I met states that the bombardment of the cathedral at Antwerp had begun at the hour he left the city, which was 10 o'clock on Thursday morning. Fire had broken out in many places. The Germans were using their 16-inch howitzers with terrible effect on the inner ring of forts, but guns of smaller calibre were being employed for the destruction of the city."

"The airship which dropped a bomb on the law courts was subjected to a terrific fire and must certainly have been hit."
"The burgomaster of Antwerp has declared his intention of resisting to the last."

GERMAN GUNS PLACED IN DARDANELLES FORTS

London, Oct. 9.—A dispatch to Reuter's from Athens says it is asserted that German officers have placed some forty-two centimetre guns in the forts on the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

RUSSIANS GET CANNON AND MANY PRISONERS

Paris, Oct. 9.—In the recent battles along the East Prussian frontier the Russians took 10,000 prisoners and 40 cannon, according to a dispatch from Petrograd to the Havas news agency.

CANADIANS READY TO LAND, ARE ALL IN GOOD HEALTH

London, Oct. 9.—Canada's vanguard of troops for the front is now in these waters. Escorted by warships the transports arrived off the Isle of Wight early this morning. Their disembarkation will probably take place after berthing.

Medical officers report that the Canadians are as fine a body of men as the British world can show, and that they are all in good health and eager to start upon that final period of training which is to fit them for getting to grips with the enemy. A Canadian officer who has been in England for some days past in connection with the reception of the Dominion troops says, "No body of men in the Empire realize more than we do the grim purpose of our coming. None are more eager to see it through."

AVIATORS OF ALLIED ARMIES DROP BOMBS ON GERMAN HANGARS

London, Oct. 9, 10.58 a.m.—According to a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam, another aerial raid has been made by the allies on Cologne and Dusseldorf, both important German Zeppelin airship bases. The telegram follows: "A dispatch from Cologne states that hostile aeroplanes threw bombs at the Zeppelin hangars at Cologne and Dusseldorf on Thursday afternoon. The former was uninjured, but damage was inflicted at Dusseldorf."
The previous aerial raid on Cologne and Dusseldorf was officially reported as successful. Lieutenant C. H. Collet dropped three bombs there on the Zeppelin shed, sweeping down to within 400 feet of his target. The attack on Cologne at that time, like the one reported in the foregoing dispatch, apparently failed so far as inflicting any damage is concerned.

FIRST CALL SENT OUT TO SECOND CONTINGENT

Section Nine Canadian Army Veterinary Corps Ordered to Be Recruited.

Sherbrooke, Que., Oct. 9.—Major A. W. Tract, officer commanding No. 9 section Canadian army veterinary corps, has received instruction from Ottawa to recruit to full strength for service at the front. This is the first call received by a local unit for the second contingent. Last evening a meeting was held of those interested in the formation of a home guard composed of men who are too old for active service, or who, for other reasons, would not be accepted. Over one hundred have signed the petition asking the minister of militia to provide rifles for the guards. On Tuesday evening next a meeting will be held for organization.

LIEUT.-COL. BURLAND, RED CROSS OFFICIAL, IS DEAD

Montreal, Oct. 9.—Lieut.-Col. Jeffrey Hale Burland, who left Montreal on September 25 to look after the work of the Red Cross society of Canada in London and at the front, died last night in London. The end came suddenly and unexpectedly. Col. Burland was nominated to look after the work of the Red Cross about two weeks ago. He arrived in London on Tuesday of this week, and the message of his death was the first direct word that has been received concerning him.
At the time of his appointment he was made a Knight of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem by the King.
Col. Burland was in his 53rd year. He was married in 1896 to Isabel May, a daughter of Henry Megarry of Lurgan, Ireland. It was through Col. Burland's efforts that the collection is being made to-day and to-morrow for the Red Cross society by the boys scouts and Loyal students.

JAPANESE MOUNT GUNS BEFORE GERMAN FORTS

Peking, Oct. 9.—The Japanese have mounted siege guns on Prince Henry mountain, which dominates all three of the Tsing Tau forts, according to advices reaching Peking to-day from Kiau Chau. These forts are named Bismarck, Moltke and Ilts and are between three and four miles from the mountain.

AUSTRALIA WILL GIVE $500,000 TO BELGIANS

Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 9.—At the opening of the federal parliament to-day the government announced that parliament would be invited to make Belgium a gift of half a million dollars in recognition of her sacrifices.

STORM CENTRE IS GOING NORTHWARD

Titanic Struggle in Europe May End in Encounter on Scheldt

BRITISH AVIATORS' RAID CONFIRMED BY BERLIN

New Russian Army Arrives on Frontier Near Posen; Another Near Thorn

London, Oct. 9.—The military fortunes of General von Kluck and his one-armed adversary commanding the allies' cavalry, are being rapidly made or marred within sight of the North sea, which sets a limit to the outflanking movement, the accomplishment of which for so long has been the supreme goal of the rival generals.

The storm centre gradually has extended northward. The battle of the Aisne already has been merged into the battle of the Somme and the battle of the Lys, and if the long left tentacle of the allies continues to stretch out in its present direction the final of the titanic struggle may be fought out on the banks of the Scheldt and may decide the fate of the beleaguered fortress of Antwerp, now a prey to German howitzers and air craft.

While some pictures of the bombardment of Antwerp may have been overdrawn, it is nevertheless fully confirmed that the damage done by the incendiary shells and bombs showering on the city from the German howitzers and air craft is extensive.

The aerial raid on Dusseldorf, presumably by British aviators, is confirmed by the German official communication, which admits that the cover of an airship in a hangar was demolished.

The situation on the East Prussian frontier is becoming more like that in France after the German invasion and retreat. Being driven from Poland, the Germans are making a stubborn stand, and with reinforcements from Königsberg will doubtless give a battle which will determine whether the Germans will again invade Russia in this region. Roundabout dispatches reaching London from Petrograd say that a new Russian army has arrived at the frontier near Posen, while another is marching toward Thorn.

All reports of the surrender of Przemyśl appear to be premature, as were various reports about the beginning of a battle at Cracow.

VESSEL SUNK, CAPTAIN WAS ONLY ONE KILLED

Copenhagen, Oct. 9.—A German fishing vessel has been blown up by a German mine in the Langeland belt, north of the coast of Denmark. The captain was killed, but the rest of the crew were saved.

"K" Asks for Men

The Victoria Patriotic Aid Society asks for Money

It is not a favor that is asked but a privilege which is offered. It is the payment of a just debt, the debt we all owe to our brave fighters and their dear ones.

It is a matter of simple DUTY. The sailors and soldiers of the Empire are doing theirs. Am I doing mine?
For men who are giving their lives I cannot do less than the utmost. I can help during the war.

1. TO SUPPORT THE WIVES, CHILDREN AND DEPENDENTS OF THOSE ON ACTIVE SERVICE.
2. OF THOSE KILLED IN WAR.
3. TO ASSIST THE WIVES, CHILDREN AND DEPENDENTS OF THOSE PLUNGED INTO WANT BY THE WAR.

My offering can be devoted to the above purposes by making cheques and orders payable to THE VICTORIA PATRIOTIC AID SOCIETY

TWO FORTS SILENT BUT GERMANS ARE FORCED TO RETREAT

Belgians Successful in Fighting Outside Beleaguered City—Germans Destroy Convent Where Many Wounded Were Being Cared For

Hope Expressed That Defenders Can Hold Out Against Siege Guns Until Allied Armies Strike Decisive Blow in France

The Hague, Oct. 9.—The bombardment of Antwerp's inner forts and the outlying parts of the city started at 12.30 Thursday morning. At noon the city was burning in four places.

It is reported that inner forts numbers four and six have been silenced.

The exodus of the panic-stricken people continues.

London, Oct. 9.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Reuter Company at 12.46 p.m. cabled: "The uninterrupted thundering of guns was heard at Rosendaal, twenty miles from Antwerp, throughout the night. The firing slackened a little in the early morning, but it has since resumed."

"The sky last night was red with the flames of Antwerp."

Belgian Soldiers Rescue Wounded From Flames.

London, Oct. 9.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Rosendaal, Holland, dated Thursday evening, says: "Severe fighting is proceeding outside of Antwerp. I am informed that shrapnel struck the Erasmus hospital in Fontaine street, breaking many windows. In Turnhout and its vicinity many houses have been destroyed."

"It is reported here that the Germans have been compelled to retreat for a short distance.

A number of Ursuline nuns have arrived at Bereda, Holland, from Londerzeel, near Malines, where their convent was destroyed by the German fire, although they were nursing there hundreds of the wounded. The wounded were courageously rescued by Belgian soldiers who dashed through the flames to get them out."

Battle-Line Lengthens Almost to Coast.

So far as Britain knows this morning, Antwerp, the latest of the cities of Belgium to be beleaguered, is still holding out against the German onslaught. King Albert has withdrawn from the city toward Ostend, where the administration is now fully established, but practically the entire Belgian field army has remained to resist as long as possible the fire of the great German guns, the horrible effects of which were made plain at Liege.

The nations opposing Germany hope that the defenders can hold out till the allies deliver some decisive blow along the battle line in France, which has now almost reached the North Sea coast, and, taken in conjunction with the fighting which extends across the Belgian frontier to the northward of Lille, makes a gigantic front sprawling like a snake half across Belgium and across practically all of northeastern France.

Violent Fighting in France Continues.

The siege of Antwerp and the battle of the Aisne are thus becoming more closely related, and both Germans and the allies are making the most desperate efforts to smash through the ever-lengthening western wings.

It is contended that the Germans failed in their efforts to drive a wedge through this region and the latest Paris communication contends that the situation is stationary though most violent fighting continues.

Cavalry of Allies Operate on Left Wing.
Paris, Oct. 9.—The following official announcement was made in Paris this afternoon:
"The general situation has undergone no change.
"On our left wing the two opposing bodies of cavalry are still operating to the north of Lille and of Labasse, and the battle continues along the line marked by the regions of Lens, Arras, Bray sur Somme, Chaumes, Roye and Laassigny."
Artillery Contest Occupies Right Wing.
"On the centre of the Oise and on the Meuse, only actions of minor importance have been reported.
"On our right in the Woëvre district there has been an artillery contest along the entire front.
"In Lorraine, in the Vosges and in Alsace there has been no change.
"In Bosnia, Montenegrin troops have continued their advance in the direction of Sarajevo as far as the fortified line which protects the city at a distance from it of eight kilometres."

Shellbrooke, Sask., Oct. 8.—Last night at 9:30 o'clock a homesteader near here named N. Ploff, according to reports, shot August Kasner, severely wounding him in the groin, and then blew off the top of his own head with a shotgun.

London, Oct. 8.—The Central News quotes the Vienna Reichspost as stating that furious fighting has taken place between the Bulgarians and Servians and that the Bulgarians have besieged Islip, Servia.

If this dispatch is true it would indicate that Bulgaria has entered the war on the side of Germany and Austria. There is no official notice that such action, however, has been taken and it may be that Bulgarian irregulars have attacked the Servians on their own account.

SPLENDID EXPLOIT OF FRENCH AVIATORS

A Foretaste of What Will Happen If the Zeppelins Invade Great Britain

Bordeaux, Oct. 9.—Official dispatches received by the French war department to-day gave a graphic account of an aerial duel which was watched by thousands of soldiers of the French and German armies on Monday at Jonchery, in the region of Rheims.

A German aeroplane ascended with two men and, after circling over the French positions, was returning to its own lines when Sergeant Frantz, one of the most expert of French aviators, accompanied by his mechanic, Quinault, sprang to a machine and gave chase.

By a skilful manoeuvre, the French aeroplane took the German on the flank, wounded the pilot and put a bullet through the gasoline tank.

Sergeant Frantz came to earth in a series of magnificent spirals. Both Germans were found burned to death in the embers of their machine.

Frantz was decorated with the Legion of Honor and Quinault was awarded the military medal for the exploit.

SOLDIERS IN TRENCHES ALONG IMMENSE FRONT Enemy Has Made Vigorous Opposition Against Enveloping Movement of Allies.

London, Oct. 8.—The correspondent of the Times in Paris, commenting on the battle in the north of France, says: "After twenty-six days the formidable battle of the Aisne still continues without having given any definite result.

"The enemy has concentrated in Belgium all the forces not actually occupied in guarding the line of communication while he attempts to detain the Belgian army in the entrenched camp at Antwerp in order to prevent it from assisting the allies on the Lys and the upper Scheldt.

"He has made a vigorous opposition to the enveloping movement of the Anglo-French army in the region of Lille and has made the tactical error of attacking violently the French left wing before effecting the fall of Antwerp.

"The possible consequences of this dangerous proceeding is accentuated by the dispatch of the best army corps Germany possesses, against the allies. The German effort was tenacious and delivered with desperation, and the already tormented north of France was again the scene of sanguinary encounters, which by their vigor and vastness will live in history."

ATTEMPTED TO MURDER SOLDIER AT WINNIPEG Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 8.—An attempt to murder Private Harry Tebbutt, one of the guards of the 79th Cameron Highlanders, who was patrolling a lonely lane in the rear of the Maryland street armories, occurred at 1:45 this morning.

BRITISH EXPEDITION TO RELIEVE ANTWERP London, Oct. 8.—A big British expedition was reported to-day rushing to Antwerp's relief from west of Ghent. It was said to consist of a naval detachment and an artillery force, with the heaviest calibre guns, and was assumed to have been landed on the Belgian coast at or near Ostend.

SIX ZEPPELINS FLEW OVER CITY WITH BOMBS London, Oct. 8.—A dispatch to the Central news from Amsterdam says that during Wednesday night no fewer than six Zeppelins flew over Antwerp, dropping bombs in all directions.

London, Oct. 8.—A dispatch to the Central news from Amsterdam says that during Wednesday night no fewer than six Zeppelins flew over Antwerp, dropping bombs in all directions.

CHURCHES DESTROYED BY GERMAN MARKSMEN

Patient Courage of Belgian Soldiers is One of War's Wonders

London, Oct. 9.—The Antwerp correspondent of the Associated Press who managed to leave Antwerp after a week's survey of the battle, telegraphs from The Hague Monday afternoon as follows: "This is the sixth day of the siege of Antwerp and the Belgian army is fighting with reckless courage.

"The people generally are orderly, however, and are keeping up a cheerful demeanor. The siege of Antwerp began September 28, with a fierce bombardment of the town of Malines, where the ancient church was severely damaged.

"The next day the village of Duffel was bombarded, and here the tall factory chimneys offered an excellent target. The population fled to Antwerp, leaving behind several dead and wounded.

"Antwerp is defended by a circle of forts, of which the most important are situated between the rivers Nethe, Ruppel and the Scheldt. After taking Duffel the Germans attacked this semicircle of forts with their heavy artillery.

"The Germans spent Saturday trying to ford the river Nethe under cover of the terrific artillery fire.

"King Albert, the equal of any soldier in his devotion to duty, daily exposes himself to personal danger. The queen is devoting her time to hospitals.

"Antwerp's greatest fear is that the magnificent church tower of Our Lady will be the target of the bombardment, and it was proposed to house German prisoners inside as a protection for the ancient building.

Under Tuesday's date the Times correspondent at Antwerp says: "The exact strength of the German attacking force is unknown. The most authoritative estimate is that they number 125,000 and are provided with some heavy 26-centimetre guns and apparently one 42-centimetre gun.

"The Telegraph's correspondent in Belgium, under date of Sunday, says: "The Germans, who have been repulsed in every effort to cross the Scheldt, are concentrating all along an approach to Antwerp from the southeast. As this dispatch is sent they are massed in force in the circle between the rivers. In this occupancy they suffered enormous losses.

"Following the first repulse, the enemy brought up heavy guns and concentrated their fire upon the Belgian infantry, occupying the first defence line. In the face of this artillery attack the defenders found it impossible to hold out without losses inconmensurate with any advantage. Consequently they retired in good order.

"The Belgians now hold a front which the enemy so far has been unable to pierce. The flooding of the surrounding country is the hardest obstacle in the way of the Germans.

"The Germans made further attacks on Belgian lines Friday night and Saturday morning, pushing on large bodies of troops near the northeast. Both attacks were repulsed with heavy losses for the Germans. The German object evidently was the Nethe river.

"So far as can be learned the Germans are unable to empty any of their heaviest siege guns against Antwerp, the greatest calibre used by them being the 28-centimetre.

"Lierre also has been the object of a determined German attack, with a bombardment on three sides. The Belgian defeated this by a surprise sortie. The town was considerably damaged by the bombardment.

TWENTY-TWO THOUSAND IN SECOND CONTINGENT

British Columbia Will Contribute 500 Horsemen and About Thousand Infantry.

Ottawa, Oct. 9.—It is understood that the second Canadian contingent of 22,000 men, which is to be sent about the end of the year, will be composed of 2,000 troops to consist of the first reinforcement for its main body, 3,000 to form the line of communication, including the army service, medical and engineer branches and supernumeraries. The rest of the force will consist of 2,000 artillery, including one artillery squadron and a number of machine gun batteries, some of them mounted on motor cars. The cavalry will probably number 3,000, of whom 500 will be rough riders from British Columbia, whom James Macdonald has offered to raise; 1,000 from Alberta, 1,000 from Manitoba and Saskatchewan and 500 from Ontario. The infantry, about 12,000 strong, will have the 4,000 French-Canadian men now being recruited, 3,000 from Ontario, 2,000 from the Prairie Provinces, 1,000 from British Columbia, 1,000 from Nova Scotia and 1,000 from New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

LOST SUBMARINE IS DISCOVERED AT AJACCIO

Leghorn, Italy, Oct. 8.—The cruise of the Italian-built submarine, which disappeared from the Gulf of Spezia some days ago and later turned up at Ajaccio, Corsica, has come to an end. The French officers at Ajaccio, who took possession of the craft, asked Paris what disposition they should make of her. Paris communicated with Rome, and Italy sent a destroyer to get the submarine, and there is every reason to believe she is now on her way home.

NANAIMO IS WORKING FOR PATRIOTIC FUND

Canvass of District is to be Commenced Next Week for Relief Funds

Nanaimo, Oct. 9.—The committee which has charge of the organization of the patriotic fund campaign for Nanaimo and district has now almost completed its arrangements. It has mapped out the city and districts in a convenient number of sections, and a thorough canvass will be instituted next week. If the campaign is carried out according to schedule, which will largely depend upon the number of collectors available, it will be concluded in the week.

The district covered by the Nanaimo branch of the fund extends from the city north to Northfield, and south to South Wellington, and plans have been made to reach every resident in these limits. The form of the subscriptions will be left to the people. Everybody residing in the district will be given an opportunity to subscribe. Business and professional men, tradesmen, artisans, top hands and underground employees of the mines, farmers and industrial workers—every class in the community will be asked to subscribe according to their means. The object of the campaign is in short to get all classes to give in the same spirit and all according to their ability.

The fund in Nanaimo is a branch of the Canadian patriotic fund. It is not a relief fund. Its object is to provide relief for the families and dependent relatives of the men who have gone to the front. The money subscribed to the fund cannot be used for any other purposes. It is based on the principle that the men who have gone to the front are offering their lives in the service of us all, and that the duty therefore falls on us who are left to see that their families and dependents are maintained in comfort.

VIENNA AND BERLIN PUBLISH STATEMENTS

Information From Enemy's Headquarters Gives Only Few Details

London, Oct. 9.—The official communication of the German general staff, given out at Berlin on the evening of October 8, is contained in a dispatch to Reuters's Telegram company from Amsterdam. It says: "From the western scene of war no facts of decisive importance can be mentioned. Small progress has been made near St. Mihiel and in the Argonne."

"Before Antwerp, Fort Breendonk (to the south of Antwerp), has been taken and the attack on the inner fort line has begun. The bombardment of the quarter of the town lying behind was begun after the declaration of the commander of the stronghold that he took the responsibility."
"The airship hangar at Dusseldorf has been hit by a bomb thrown by a hostile aviator. The roof of the hangar was pierced and the cover of an airship was demolished."
"In the east the Russian column is marching from Lomza (Russian Poland), and has reached Lyck (in East Prussia, just beyond the frontier and almost directly west from Augustowo)."

Vienna, Oct. 9.—The following official announcement, signed by General Hofer, deputy chief of the general staff, was given out at Vienna to-day: "Our troops have made further advances, and yesterday repulsed the enemy on the road to Przemysl, near Barycz, west of Dynow. Rzeszow has been recaptured and guns have been taken."

"In the territory between the river Vistula and the river San we took many prisoners from the Russians. The renewed violent attacks on Przemysl have been splendidly repulsed, and the enemy's dead and wounded were counted by the thousands."
"We have had victorious battles at Szeged, in Marmaros County, Hungary, and in East Galicia. The landstrum and the Polish legions rivaled each other in gallantry."

Found a Friend in Dr. Chase

His Medicines Proven Effective, and Always Kept at Hand in This Home
Mrs. Chas. Lovell, Agassiz, B. C., writes: "I feel it my duty to tell you what a great friend Dr. Chase's medicines have been to myself and family. I cannot praise his medicines too highly, and Dr. Chase's name is a household word in our home. Well, quite a number of years ago I sent you for a sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment for protruding piles, and, having used the sample and found relief, I sent to a neighboring town for four boxes, and I am completely cured."
"I have also used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for constipation, and, after using them, I am completely cured of this dreadful disease. I am the mother of ten children, of whom nine are living, and when seven of my children were all very bad with whooping cough, caught in the middle of a severe winter, I used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and they were all cured before the winter was over, and now we are never without Dr. Chase's medicines in our home, and I recommend them to all."

ARMIES OF RUSSIA HURLED AT GERMANY

Fate of Enemy Hangs on Battles From Baltic to Cracow

(By Cable to the Chicago Tribune.)
London, Oct. 9.—The great struggle between the armies of Russia and Germany, the latter reinforced by the remnants of the Austrian forces, has begun. Upon the outcome of the series of battles now in progress all along the great front from the Baltic on the north to the Austrian stronghold of Cracow in the south, the fate of Germany hangs, according to the opinion of many military authorities.

Germany now faces the supreme test of checking the great Russian armies which threaten invasion. Unless the Russian armies can be decisively checked all along the line many will be forced to wage a retreating campaign in defence of Berlin.
Germany now faces the supreme test of checking the great Russian armies which threaten invasion. Unless the Russian armies can be decisively checked all along the line many will be forced to wage a retreating campaign in defence of Berlin.

For this decisive campaign an army of 800,000 Germans and Austrians has been assembled just inside the Russian Poland frontier from Cracow through Czenstochowa to Kalisz.
The first stage of the great battle seems to be in favor of the Russian forces. It is officially announced in Petrograd that Russian armies have won decisive victories over large German forces near the frontiers of Prussia and Silesia.

The general staff specifies Russian successes near Simmo, in the province of Suwalki, and at Andrejev, forty miles north of Cracow. The Germans have abandoned the bombardment of the fortress of Ossowitz and are suffering considerably in a hurried retreat.
The Russian embassy in Rome furnishes details of the disaster which has overtaken the German offensive in Suwalki and Lodz provinces. In the battles which brought about the collapse of their invasion of Russia the Germans lost 30,000 killed and 20,000 prisoners. They were so thoroughly beaten near Suwalki, Ostrovitz and other towns that they fled, leaving behind them wagon trains, batteries and baggage.

Creditable accounts of the operations along the whole German frontier from Konigsberg to Cracow indicate a German setback comparable to the failure of the invasion of France. Four large armies attempting to penetrate Russian territory have been hurled back, while the Russians maintain their advance against Cracow.

It is probable that the Russian army of Galicia is already in collision with an immense German-Austrian force assembled in northeast Galicia and southwest Poland to defend Silesia.
Gen. von Hindenburg, the Kaiser's commander-in-chief in the east, has arrived at Cracow and has taken command of the Austrians and Germans concentrated in that region. The railroads of Bohemia and Moravia are congested with troop trains hurrying German soldiers and supplies toward the Russian frontier.

Undoubtedly great events are pending. Critics here incline to the view that the German operations in Suwalki and in other Russian provinces to the north are merely feints to cover the main strength near Cracow.
All the news indicates that Russia is successfully following the plans of her general staff to paralyze German initiative along the Prussian-Poland frontier while hastening an advance in force against southeast Silesia, the key to Breslau and Berlin.

While the success of the Russian armies has been so marked in the north, the advance through Hungary is amazingly rapid. The correspondent at Rome learns that the Russian army now sweeping across the plains of Hungary may take Budapest without having to strike a blow.

GERMAN TRENCHES WON BY STRAIGHT SHOOTING

Letters Taken From Prisoners Show That Allies Did Deadly Work

London, Oct. 9.—The official information bureau has issued a brief account of some of the lighter incidents of the fighting in France, to which it appends certain letters taken from German prisoners. This recital, which is from an eyewitness, but which bears no date, is as follows:
"In the presentation of striking contrasts, this war is no exception to the rule. Within sight of the spot where these words are being written, the chauffeur of a motor car attached to the general staff is making his toilet in the open. After washing his face and hands in a saucupan, minus its handle, which he has balanced on an empty gasoline can, he carefully brushes his hair with an old nail brush, looking out of the window of the car in which he has slept as a looking glass."
"From the backward sweep he gives his somewhat long locks, and judging by his well made and clean shoes, it is clear that he had once been a dandy. In spite of his khaki service jacket and trousers. He is, in fact, a former public school boy, who has enlisted for the war to do 'his bit' for his country, and a right useful part he is playing."
"A letter from a German prisoner recites how the enemy interrupted their needed rest after the Germans had reached a certain village, and how, when the Germans attempted to advance on September 16, the enemy, firing from bushes and from houses, swept their trenches. This letter continues:
"On my right and left wounded comrades were complaining bitterly that the enemy were shooting from houses. They found too easy a mark in us. If

BERLIN PUBLIC WARNED NOT TO BE OPTIMISTIC

Garrison at Antwerp Expected by German Writer to Offer Strong Resistance.
Berlin, Oct. 9.—A writer in the Militaire Wochenblatt late last night warned the people against an excessive optimism regarding Antwerp, as the garrison of the fortress there is still able to continue a desperate resistance. The newspapers are reprinting President Wilson's reply of September 16 to Emperor William's communication, in which he reported the finding of dum-dum bullets at Longwy and protested against the way in which the war was being waged by German's opponents. President Wilson's reply in effect was that it was unwise to express a final judgment on the dum-dum protest, and expressed the opinion that an accounting would come with the war's conclusion, when the nations will assemble to make a settlement. The newspaper comment on this reply is most friendly, and is to the effect that any other answer could not be expected.
The Tages Zeitung, in this connection, says: "We have a clear conscience from the viewpoint of justice and humanity in this war, and can look the world unflinchingly in the face. We, however, do not need to regard the public opinion of the world. In the last instance, the German people, united with the emperor, are alone competent to decide the correctness of Germany's course."
Crop reports for October show that potatoes, sugar beets, clover and alfalfa are middling to good. Autumn planting is making good progress despite the earlier drought.

BELIEF IN LONDON THAT WAR SOON WILL END

London, Oct. 9.—A belief that the war will be far shorter than the present situation indicates is gradually gaining ground in diplomatic circles here. The secretary of the embassy of one of the involved powers has made a large wager that the war will be over within three months, and he is known as a careful bettor. This optimistic feeling seems to be reflected in the American embassy, though nobody there will make any predictions about the conflict's duration.
It is understood that this cheerful change from deepest pessimism is inspired by information from Petrograd and Vienna concerning the Russian programme in Austria-Hungary. Through diplomatic channels the word has reached London that the Russian invasion of Hungary means moving on Vienna from the south, and there is little indication that the resistance by the Hungarians will be very bitter, as already there are signs that the Hungarian leaders are seeking understandings about the future with Russia.

RUSSIAN INVESTMENT OF PRZEMYSL CONTINUING

Rome, via London, Oct. 9.—The Tribune says it has received information that the garrison of Przemysl has surrendered to the Russians. The Russian embassy, however, denies this report and declares that the investment of the fortress continues.

THE WAR.

Antwerp is suffering from the German bombardment, which is now in progress. A number of public buildings have been struck, several fires have broken out and some civilians have been killed. It is reported from Bordeaux that King Albert has marched out of the city at the head of a large part of his army, but whether for the purpose of making a desperate sally or to assist the forces holding the banks of the Scheldt to prevent the city from being invested, the report does not say. We may rest assured that if Antwerp falls neither the gallant Belgian king nor the major portion of his devoted army will be captured. Their avenues of escape have not been closed and we do not think they will be blocked.

Whether Antwerp stands or falls is being determined on the battle-ground of northern France. If the allies succeed in breaking through the German right wing the siege will be raised, for the Huns will need every man to hold the line of the Meuse to protect the retreat of their army from France. Not only military strategy, therefore, but the necessities of the Belgian stronghold require that what reinforcements the allies have available will be rushed to the line which extends from Lille to the Aisne. The French bulletin this afternoon reports that on this front the situation remains unchanged, but that heavy fighting continues.

Several interesting reports come from the eastern front. One is that a Russian army is entrenched a few miles from Thorn. This is a strongly fortified position in East Prussia, near where the Vistula crosses into Russian Poland. If this report is correct it would indicate that the German left wing in Russian Poland is being enveloped while the main army in East Prussia is trying to withstand the Russian army which drove it back from the Nieman. Russian strategists to date have out-maneuvred so completely the German army staff that it need surprise nobody if when the curtain is raised it is found that the combined German and Austrian armies have fallen into another trap. Support is given to this theory by the Vienna claims of Austrian successes against the Russians. As the campaign against the dual monarchy has shown, the Austrian forces that succeed in driving back the Russians are doomed. When a Russian army in any force retires before an Austrian army circumstantial evidence points to a cunning Muscovite trap. The amateur strategists at Vienna and Berlin are no match for the man who learned the game, not in manoeuvres in time of peace, but in a stern struggle with the subtle warriors of Japan.

The other significant report is the official announcement from Petrograd that the Russians have occupied Biala. This is a point in Galicia thirty-five miles southwest of Cracow and on the railway line connecting Cracow with Vienna and Breslau. If the right wing of the German-Austrian forces rests upon Cracow it is evident that General Russky's army has turned it, cutting off communication with the Austrian capital. This, taken in conjunction with the report that the Russians are in the vicinity of Thorn on the north, shows that the invaders are endeavoring to envelop the enemy's both wings while they are retiring in the centre to draw the defenders on. We suspected something of the sort the other day when the Austrians reported with great gusto that they were driving the Russians back towards Ivanogorod on the Vistula. If the Germans and Austrians are capable of learning anything from their chapter of failures in the east to date they will stick to their own frontiers, but it is altogether likely that the doctrine of the everlasting offensive which has been drummed into their heads by theorists will induce them to endeavor to follow up "victories" against the Russian centre while their right and left flanks are being thoroughly and scientifically rounded. A cool, calculating intellect can generally work its will with stratagems, cocksure leaders such as those who led the Austrian armies to their ruin at Lemberg and Lublin and drew their victims to a death trap on the Nieman.

Vienna and Budapest are trying to avert a panic in Hungary by claims of successes against the Russians who have entered Hungary, but the refugees that reach both capitals from the towns bordering on the great Hungarian wheat fields have a different story to tell. According to Vienna bulletins the Russians are now established in Hungary at three places and they have too much of a picnic to forbear pressing their movements onward. Besides they are now acting in co-operation with the Servians, who will endeavor to push forward from the south. The other day we expressed the opinion that the political effect of the Russian and Servian invasion of Hungary would be far-reaching, having a tendency to detach the kingdom from the dual monarchy. We note in a dispatch that this view is entertained in London, where in some quarters it is believed that the dissolution of the empire acknowledging the rule of Francis Joseph is at hand. Hungary alone cannot withstand the hordes Russia can throw into her territory as well as an invasion from Serbia, nor can Austria, with all her effective fighting strength joined with the German troops in opposition to the Russian march towards the front doors of Vienna and Berlin, send her any help.

GROWING SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

The school attendance statistics, as published in our columns yesterday, are especially gratifying at this time. They show a larger enrolment than at any other period in the history of the place, the number exceeding five thousand.

This is a sure sign of steady growth. While the floating population may be less than it was two years ago, a condition which strikes all communities in periods of economic slackening, we are more than holding our own in regard to the number of people coming here to reside permanently and who are assets of inestimable value. In our opinion the steady growth of the school population is a much more favorable sign of the soundness and stability of a community than the presence of a throng of people who are drawn here during a boom and whose associations with the place are severed in twenty-four hours.

A RUSSIAN REFORM.

Russia, from whose barbarism "cultured" Germany claims to be defending the world, has adopted a reform alongside of which many of the triumphs of democratic legislation sink almost into insignificance. A short time ago the Minister of Finance at Petrograd received an order to the effect that the prohibition of the sale of vodka should be continued indefinitely after the end of the war. This order is based principally on the improved condition of the country since the Emperor issued the edict prohibiting traffic in the liquor.

When the struggle began one of the first steps taken by the Russian government was to stop vodka drinking while the war was in progress. It was realized at once that if the soldiers in the field and the people at home were to have a clear-minded appreciation of the tremendous issues involved the strictest sobriety was necessary. An iron hand was laid upon the liquor traffic and it was stopped immediately. There were very few, if any, who dared to open blind pigs. The Russian methods of dealing with those who violate the law do not commend themselves to the comfortable gentry who might desire to disobey the edict of the Czar in this respect.

The effect upon the general population has become very noticeable, although the prohibition has been in force only two months.

Visitors arriving from southern Russia say there is such a change in that region that the country is hardly recognizable. Peasants who before the war had fallen into hopeless indolence and depravity already have emerged into self-respecting citizens. The effect on character is already visible in neatly brushed clothes instead of the former ragged and slovenly attire. Huts which were formerly dilapidated and allowed to go without repairs are now kept in first class condition.

The towns have become more orderly and the peasants indulge in wholesome amusements. These people now save 35 per cent. of their earnings which formerly was spent for drink, and they have increased their earning capacity through sobriety. This extra money is now devoted to the necessities and comforts of life. The authorities are so profoundly impressed with the regeneration of the peasantry in consequence of their measure that they now have decided to keep it in force indefinitely, perhaps permanently.

If we compare the Slav and the German on the basis of the respective records of their countries in the last three months, the results easily are to the advantage of the former. Russia entered the war to prevent a big nation from strangling a small one; Germany intervened to the cry of "world-power or downfall!" While Russia vowed to give home rule to Poland, Germany set out deliberately to crush, and annex Belgium. Russia adopts a measure of sweeping reform to promote the welfare of her people; Germany feeds her population on lies and encourages them to celebrate the "triumphs" of Louvain, Aerschot, Rhelms, the atrocities of which have shocked all neutral nations, while the Kaiser bestows his Iron Cross upon the aviator who dropped a bomb upon a cripple and a little girl. The Cossack leader at Sziget in Hungary did not permit a stone to be touched or one civilian to be harmed, according to Vienna's own admissions, but the "cultured" German officers razed Belgian villages to the ground and executed scores of citizens before the eyes of their families.

THE PRUSSIAN WAY.

"Those who oppose me I will dash in pieces."—The Kaiser, 1890.
 "Quarter will not be given; whoever falls into your hands is forfeit to you, just as, 1,600 years ago the Huns under King Etzel (the German name for Attila) made a name for themselves which is still mighty in tradition and story."—The Kaiser's address to German troops sent to quell Boxer rising, July, 1900.
 "True strategy consists in hitting your enemy, and hitting him hard. Above all, you must inflict on the inhabitants of invaded towns the maximum of suffering, so that they may become sick of the struggle. In every case the principle which guided our Generals was that war must be made terrible to the civil population, so that it may sue for peace."—Bismarck.

If every Cossack kept the foregoing gentle admonitions pasted in his cap and carried them out to the letter in the present war, what a howl would arise from cultured Germany about Slav barbarism! If the Russians treated Prussia as the Germans have treated Belgium, the Kaiser would implore the intervention of the United States for the protection of civilization from the savagery of Slavdom. The Cossacks, however, while not distinguished for their humanity in war, are not sufficiently "cultured" to copy with any degree of faithfulness the German record in Belgium, but if they lay waste Breslau and Berlin, the world will turn its back upon the frenzied protests of the people who cheered deliriously when they learned how their "heroic troops" were punishing the wicked Belgians."

WHO SHALL STAND IN THE SUN?

Our dispatches to-day depict vividly what the heroic people of Belgium have been called upon to endure in what the Kaiser probably would describe as the providence of God because they had the temerity to stand in the way of the Germans hacking their way to a place in the sun. The "primitive virtues" inculcated in Teutonic children by the Fatherland's philosophic professors are being displayed in full strength and ripe fruition in the conduct of the Kaiser's armies in Belgium. But although atrocities almost beyond belief have been committed upon a people whose sole offense was a manly determination to maintain their national independence, and although Belgium may be reduced to a state of desolation and ruin and her population decimated ere the invading Huns are driven across the frontiers and cooped up within their own proper borders, later to be shorn of power to inflict harm upon their neighbors, game little Belgium has created a name for herself that will endure long after Prussianism is remembered merely as an obsession of the rulers of a deluded people. The role played by Belgium already has aroused the sympathy and enthusiasm of the entire world. Assistance is pouring in upon her from all quarters. The first government to announce its intention is that of our sister commonwealth of Australia, which will contribute the handsome sum of half a million dollars. The example thus set will be followed, assuredly, by the allies in the present war, and probably by all the leading nations. The moiety of the Teutonic tribes will be assessed and announced in due time. All that money can do will be done to restore Belgium to her "place in the sun," while ambitious Teutonia will have to content herself with a provoked and merited eclipse.

CHARACTERISTIC.

A prominent German newspaper, the Tages Zeitung, in commenting upon President Wilson's non-committal reply to the Kaiser's charges that the French and British soldiers used dum-dum bullets, says: "We have a clear conscience from the viewpoint of justice and humanity in this war and can look the world unflinchingly in the face. We, however, do not need to regard the public opinion of the world. In the last instance the German people, united with the Emperor, are alone competent to decide the correctness of Germany's course."

This is the characteristic German attitude. Their "conscience is clear," although their own chancellor declared in the Reichstag that in violating Belgium's neutrality they had committed a great wrong, but it was necessary in order that they could "hack their way" through to France. Their conscience will remain clear because they have been taught to believe that there can be no infamy in what the "chosen people of God" do. The key to that extraordinary conscience, however, is the sentiment expressed in the second part of the paragraph we have quoted: "We, however, do not need to regard the public opinion of the world. In the last instance the German people, united with the Emperor, are alone competent to decide the correctness of Germany's course." In other words, Germany can do what she likes—murder, destroy and profane—and it is none of the world's business. The scraps of civilized warfare are merely "scrap of paper."

Of course, it is unnecessary to point out that Germany's attitude is irreconcilable with human liberty and progress and that the world will make it its business "in the last instance" to decide the correctness of her conduct. The world, with the exception of Turkey and Austria, regards her with the same loathing that people feel for a poisonous reptile and will rejoice when the allies put their heel on her head.

TO-DAY'S SUMMARY.

German heavy artillery is pounding Antwerp, the last remaining stronghold of the Belgian army, while German armies to the west continue to struggle with the French and British allies.

Beyond this little is known of today's developments in Belgium and France. The situation at Antwerp is in doubt.

King Albert is variously reported as leading a part of the Belgian army out of the city with the intention probably of effecting a junction with the British and French, and as having arrived at Selszate, a village on the Dutch frontier. Refugees from Antwerp continue to pour into Holland. They report that the German guns already have done much damage to the city.

The bombardment of Antwerp's inner forts is said to have begun at 12:30 o'clock Thursday morning. Two of these forts are reported to have been silenced and fire is said to have been started in four places of the city.

The most recent statement by the German war office said the Germans had crossed the flooded area along the river Nethe and continued to make progress.

The general situation in the west has undergone no change, says a French official announcement this afternoon. The battle continues along the line of Lens, Arras, Bray sur Somme, Chaulnes, Roye and Lassigny. An artillery duel is occurring in the Woerwe district. Otherwise nothing of importance on the right or on the centre of the allies is reported by the French.

The Paris announcement says that Montenegrin troops continue their advance on Sarajevo, the capital of Bosnia.

The Austrian war office, in its most recent communication, reported successes against the Montenegrins and a decisive blow against the Servian invaders of Bosnia at Vishegrad.

The Austrian army headquarters also reported the recapture of Przewosow and the repulse of the Russians, who are marching on Przemysl, in Galicia.

DAVID SPENCER, LIMITED

1228 Gov't St. Oct. 5, 1914

Dear Sir:

It's a pity you can't stay at home with such a throat, but of course that is out of the question. The only thing to do is to supply yourself with a box of my antiseptic throat pastilles. They work wonders immediately. Only 25c a box.

Yours faithfully,

Cyrus H. Bowes

November Delineator Now on Sale

G. A. Richardson & Co

636 Yates Street. VICTORIA HOUSE

MUNICIPAL VOTERS' LIST FOR 1915

The Municipal Voters' List of the City of Victoria is composed of the names of three classes of voters, namely, those who vote as:

- 1. ASSESSED OWNERS OF PROPERTY OF NOT LESS THAN $100.00 VALUE OF NOT LESS THAN $100.00.
2. HOUSEHOLDERS.
3. LICENSEES.

(b) THOSE WHO ARE: Before the assessed owner of property held under agreement to purchase can have his name entered on the voters' list he is required to file with the Clerk, or Assessor, before the closing of the voters' list on the 30th day of November next, at 5 p. m., a STATUTORY DECLARATION proving that he, or she, is the holder of the LAST AGREEMENT TO PURCHASE LAND OR REAL PROPERTY, or is the LAST ASSIGNEE THEREOF, by the terms of which such holder, or assignee, is liable to pay the taxes, lawfully due for the current year's taxes, and is a British subject.

(c) AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVES OF CORPORATIONS. The duly authorized representatives of a corporation must be a resident of this Province and a British subject, and the Corporation must have its name on the voters' list and be the assessed owner of land or improvements, in the municipality of the assessed value of not less than $100.00.

2. 'HOUSEHOLDER' shall extend to and include any person of the full age of 21 years who occupies a dwelling, tenement, hotel or boarding house, who has been a resident in the municipality from the first day of January of the current year, and who is not exempted by the provisions of the proviso at the end of sub-section (6c) of Section 54 of the Municipal Act, which exempts certified efficient millitamen and persons over the age of 90 years from paying road tax, have paid directly to the municipality all rates, taxes or assessments which are not chargeable on land, which rates, taxes or assessments, so paid shall amount to not less than two dollars due to the municipality for the current year, other than water rates or taxes, or license fees for dogs.

3. 'LICENSEE.' This voter is one who relies on business in the municipality and is the holder of a trades license, the annual fee of which is not less than $5.00.

2 and 3. In the case of a holder of a trades license, and in the case of a householder, he, or she, shall during the month of October in each year, make and cause to be delivered to the Clerk of the Municipality, a statutory declaration made and subscribed before a Supreme or County Court Judge, Stipendiary or Police Magistrate, Commissioner for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court, Justice of the Peace, or Notary Public, or Municipal Clerk, in form, and to the effect of Form 1 in the Schedule of the said Act in the case of the holder of a trades license, and of Form 2 in said schedule in the case of a householder.

4. No declaration to qualify as a householder, or license holder, can be accepted by the Clerk unless it is delivered within 48 hours after it is made.

5. No person shall, under any circumstances, be entitled to more than one vote for Mayor or Aldermen at the same election except a voter who also acts as the duly authorized agent of a corporation as above mentioned.

6. No Chinese, Japanese or other Asiatic or Indian, are entitled to vote at any municipal election for the election of Mayor or Aldermen.

7. No application to the Police Magistrate, or a Judge, for an order to add to the voters' list the name of any person alleged to have been improperly omitted therefrom, shall be heard, or order made, after the 31st day of December next.

FORMS OF DECLARATION MAY BE OBTAINED, AND THE NECESSARY DECLARATIONS MADE AT THE OFFICE OF THE CITY ASSESSOR, SECOND FLOOR, CITY HALL, DOUGLAS STREET.

The Coming Winter.—Will it be a case of roaming the streets looking for a job, while you spend your few dollars renting a room and eating at restaurants? Or will you join the number who are already in the country carving out a home for themselves, where every day's work improving their land is a cash deposit in the safety of banks? That they did not take advantage of any of the exceptional facilities we offer the landless man is the one regret our settlers have. The Brentwood Hotel is preparing to entertain a large number of people during the week-end and the following Monday, which is Thanksgiving. Home grown turkeys and chickens in abundance with plenty of home-made jellies, preserves, branched peaches, etc. will help to make the days enjoyable and the meals appetizing. Following dinner, Thanksgiving Day, Mr. Heaton will provide music for a dance. Reservations should be telephoned to the hotel or to 2470.

The Esquimalt Waterworks Co. wishes to notify the public that shooting and trespassing on the watersheds at Goldstream is absolutely prohibited. The company will take action against person doing so.

Dance, Cloverdale Hall, Monday, Oct. 12. Gentlemen, 25c; Ladies, free.

Colquitz Methodist Concert.—The Methodist Church choir at Colquitz gave a very excellent concert on Wednesday evening, the audience being delighted with the long and varied programme. At the conclusion of the entertainment delicious refreshments were served by the choir ladies. The entertainment was the second of the kind given this season.

Sons Are Missing.—The absence of his two sons, aged 16 and 14 years respectively, from home since Saturday, has resulted in Mr. Tidbury, of 974 Fisguard street, appealing to the police for assistance in tracing the lads. The father is of the opinion that his sons, who both sold newspapers, are in Vancouver, and he has asked the police to communicate with the Vancouver authorities.

Interesting Programme.—A number of high class photoplays are on the programme at the Romano theatre for to-day and to-morrow. "The Rock of Hope" is a two-part Victor drama played by Rosemary Theby and Harry Meyers. It is said to be an exceptionally good production. "At 3 o'clock" is a comedy featuring Lord Sterling. J. Hayward renders appropriate music on the piano and organ.

Pictures Please Patrons.—Crowded houses were the rule at the popular Variety theatre during the first part of the present week. Since the management decided to exhibit only feature films, instead of photoplays and vaudeville, there has been a decided improvement in the attendance. For the last half of this week an excellent programme is billed. "Lord Chumley," a four-part Klaw & Erlanger drama, tells a very interesting story of a man's true love for his soldier chum. "The Hearst-Selig News Pictorial" shows scenes in various parts of the world, among them being a very good picture of Lord Roberts inspecting Lord Kitchener's latest addition to the British army. Arthur Grahame sings illustrated patriotic songs.

Women's Alliance.—The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Graves, 1915 Stanley avenue. Mrs. George Barton in the chair. Letters and reports collected by the president, Mrs. A. Lovelink, during her visit in the east, were read. It was announced that Mrs. Lovelink would be absent in the south for the winter, and Mrs. George Barton, the vice-president, was elected president in her absence, with Mrs. Speight during the afternoon handed in a list of unemployed, and it was decided that the winter's work should take the form of practical help rather than the course of lectures formerly planned. Arrangements for the purchase of material for sewing are in the hands of Mrs. Frank Gibbs, chairman of the sewing committee. Before adjournment, delicious afternoon tea was served.

This Xmas photographs will be particularly appropriate for presents. For the month of October, the Sikene Lows Studio will reduce the price of Corona portraits in embossed folders from $7.00 to $5.25 per dozen. Next month the price will again be $7.00. Corner Douglas and Yates Street.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, October 9, 1889.

The first church in British Columbia to have a set of chimes will be Christ Church Cathedral in this city. A splendid set of tube chimes has been sent for and is expected to arrive in about six weeks. They will be similar chimes to those used in St. Ann's church, Toronto. They can be swung by one man, cause no vibration in ringing, and are very sweet.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the schooner Black Diamond anchored in James Bay. H. Helgesen showed the reporter a curious specimen of sponge which was hauled up by the lines from 250 fathoms depth. It is in the shape of a helmet, about two feet across.

The mishap to the H. M. S. Icarus has not been attended, it is thought, with any serious consequences. She struck a flat rock at high tide and remained from 7 p. m. on Sunday to noon on Monday, when at low tide the stern's weight led her to slip off in deep water.

Building Permit.—A building permit has been issued to G. Bishop for alterations at 1624 Government street.

Failed to Get Permit.—T. L. Boyden was fined $15 in the police court this morning for doing some wiring in a house on Vining street without having obtained a permit from the wiring inspector. The defendant's contention was that the matter had slipped his memory in the press of business. He thought a letter from the department would have answered the purpose better than a prosecution.

Ivy Leaf Social Club.—The Ivy Leaf Social club held its weekly whist drive on Thursday night in the Knights of Pythias hall. There was a good attendance and it was decided to have a dance in the large hall on Thursday, Nov. 5. At the finish of a splendid drive Mrs. Atkinson presented the prizes to Miss Pollock, first lady; Miss Lee, second lady, and Mrs. Veitch, ladies' consolation; S. T. Hallett, first gentleman; C. Ridgard, second gentleman, and W. Clare, gentlemen's consolation. P. James acted as master of ceremonies. Next week's drive will be held in the Knights of Pythias hall on Thursday.

School Board.—At the meeting of the city school board on Wednesday it is expected that a report will be received upon the night schools, which are to be commenced soon. At the meeting on Sept. 30, the matter of a smaller programme was left with the municipal inspector, who asked to determine what classes of the list submitted shall be started this winter. Major Riddell has given notice of his intention to move at the next meeting for the immediate construction of the South Park manual training and domestic science department in order to give children of the southern districts the opportunity of the necessity of making the long walk to the Central schools.

Gathering Specimens.—E. W. Nelson, of Washington, D. C., assistant chief of the bureau of biological survey of the United States department of agriculture, has arrived in Vancouver. He will meet a party of surveyors who have been collecting specimens in the Stikine country. This work is under the special protection of the Dominion government, which has by order-in-council permitted the United States men access to some of the national game reserves in the mountains for the capture of specimens which ordinarily may not be killed. The whole of the continent is being secured by the United States for specimens and authentic information regarding the various species of birds and animals.

MAKING SURVEY.

Saanich Council Looking Into Matter of Making Connections With Northeast Sewer.

Connections with the Northeast sewer, which runs through the city and Oak Bay, will have to be made at those points which were provided during the time of construction of the sewer. When Saanich makes a connection with the sewer, the suburban municipality will have to pay for it and the city is anxious now for some agreement that the storm and surface water, which forms a serious problem around Cedar Hill and Oaklands, will not pass into the trunk sewer. Like most of Victoria sewers, it was built on the separate system and therefore cannot accommodate anything but sewage.

The Saanich council is having surveys made to determine how many houses can be connected with the sewer. The Shelbourne street position of the sewer is expected to serve a large area.

The Saanich council will strongly oppose paying the Oak Bay council for permission to pass its sewerage through the area of that municipality, nothing having been known at the time of negotiations that any such claim might be made when Saanich was ready to connect with the trunk sewer.

SHOT BOY OF FIVE

Cruel Incident in Germany Described in Letter to Victoria's Police Officer; Were Sailor Cap.

One of the cruellest incidents in the whole world is related in a letter to a Victoria police officer received this morning. She was in Germany when the war broke out and immediately made an effort to get out of the country. The trains, however, were not running, and, being close to the border, she made an attempt to walk, first leading and then carrying the little boy.

They had almost reached safe territory when, being tired, the woman sat down by the roadside to rest, taking the boy upon her knee. The little chap was wearing a sailor cap marked on the band in gold letters with "H. M. S. Arethusa." He fell asleep on his mother's lap.

Suddenly a battalion of German soldiers swung around the corner. They were passing by when the officer espied the poor little fellow's cap. He gave a curt order, and a moment later the British boy was dead in his mother's arms, shot through the body by a German bullet.

Almost crazy with grief, his mother managed to make her way to the frontier where she was received into a friendly home, later making her way to London. Her terrible story has elicited intense sympathy throughout the district where she lives.

Charged With Assault.—Wong Sing is accused of assaulting Chiu Bo, a customing grievous bodily harm. The case was remanded in the police court this morning to give the prosecution an opportunity to call witnesses.

WHAT CAUSES COLDS?

This question and "How to Prevent Colds" is asked a thousand times every day. A cold is really a fever, not always caused by the weather but due to a disordered condition of the blood or lack of important food-elements. In changing seasons fat-fuels are essential because they distribute heat by enriching the blood and so render the body better able to withstand the varying elements. This is the underlying reason why the medicinal fats in Scott's Emulsion quickly overcome colds and build strength to prevent more serious sickness. It contains nature's medicinal fats, so skillfully prepared that the blood profits from every drop, and it is totally free from harmful drugs.

FULL THEATRE AGAIN

Trained Chorus Leads Singing of National Anthems at Patriotic Concert; Enthusiastic Audience.

The Royal Victoria theatre was packed to capacity again last evening for the second performance of the patriotic concert, which was given almost without change in the programme and met with an even greater measure of enthusiasm than the previous evening owing to the singing by a specially trained chorus of the British, Belgian, Russian, and French national anthems. This little alteration from the previous evening added greatly to the enthusiasm with which these numbers were received, and Mr. Turner's violin solos were greatly enhanced through being played on the stage rather than from his seat in the orchestra, and were given a splendid reception.

The public is greatly indebted to the Ladies' Musical club for the very excellent and patriotic character of the music and other features of the entertainment. The highest congratulations are being accorded the organizers.

PITHY PARAGRAPHS

"The graspiest man I ever knowed," said Uncle Jerry Peebles, "was an old chap named Snoppins. Somebody told him once that when he breathed he took in oxygen and gave out carbon. He spent a whole day tryin' to find out which of them two gases cost the most if you had to buy 'em. He wanted to know whether he was makin' or losin' money when he breathed."

Townley (visiting suburban friend)—"Who was that man to whom you just took off your hat?" "Subbubs—" "Him?" "He's the engineer of our village waterworks, you know. He has a great idea of himself, and if we don't act with proper humility in his presence he shuts off the pressure, and we can't wash, much less sprinkle, our lawns."

A general service wagon was rolling along an Aldersho' street, drawn by two commandeered horses, obviously paired for the first time, and wearing painfully new harness. Suddenly, as the vehicle was turning into High street, one horse stopped dead and refused to budge, pulling up outside the Cannon hotel. Whip and persuasion alike failed to move him, and the young soldier driver was L. despair, when a passerby shouted: "Go and slam the pub door, old chap. That horse used to belong to old — (mentioning a well-known local tradesman) and he always stops at the Cannon." The advice was effective.

The pompous man drove up to the station, sprang down from the seat of his vehicle, and looked around inquiringly. It was evident that he wanted somebody to watch his horse. Then he spotted a simple-minded lad and said: "Boy, watch my horse till I come back." "Sure," said the boy, taking the reins. Just then the locomotive whistled and the horse, rearing suddenly, started at full speed up the road. The boy stared after the fleeing animal, and, as the owner appeared, exclaimed with relief—"It's a good thing you came now, sir, for I couldn't have watched him much longer. He's most out of sight now."

Small Boy: "Father, what is an equinox?" Fond Parent: "What in the world do you go to school for? Don't you study mythology? An equinox is a mythical animal, half horse, half ox. The name is derived from the Latin 'equino' horse and 'ox.' Dear me, they teach you absolutely nothing that is useful nowadays."

LUSTIG SMASHES MACHINE WHEN AUTO SKIDS AT WILLOWS TRACK

Additional Entries for Thanksgiving Day Auto Meet; Portland Driver Clips All Existing Track Records

Motor racing in all its glory and excitement will be shown at the Willows on Thanksgiving Day, when the Inter-City motor meet is pulled off with representatives from Vancouver, Portland, Winnipeg, Seattle and Victoria battling for the speed titles of British Columbia. The management have made all preparations for a big day's sport and the entry list has exceeded all expectations. The out-of-town drivers will arrive to-day, in fact, some of them, including E. Noel, of Portland, and C. O. Raynor, of South Willington, are already at the track, tuning up their machines and bikes for the holiday meet.

Red Lustig was spilled out of his car during last night's practice turns, one of the hind wheels snapping off as his Hudson car skidded round a turn. The accident may put Lustig out of the running for the big prizes, but he has been working on his car since the accident and hopes to have the broken axle replaced in time to allow him entering the open events. Lustig was one of the big winners at the last motor meet and is a favorite because of his daring driving. A spill nearly resulted when H. Donegan followed closely upon Lustig's car, but clever manipulating by Donegan enabled him to clear the wrecked auto.

The ladies' auto race is arousing the greatest of interest amongst the fair sex and half a dozen starters will compete in this event. The speed title of the capital will go to the fair winner, in addition to a handsome cup which the promoters have offered. The lady driver who finishes in front, Speed and lots of it will be witnessed when the motorcycle cracks compete, and all that is hoped for is fair weather. A band will again be in attendance and the wives and children of the soldiers at the Willows will be admitted free. A special car service will be provided to the Willows track and the programme will start at 2 o'clock sharp.

MACKMEN PICKED TO WIN SERIES

Immense Crowd Witnesses Opening Game of World's Series at Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Baseball had the centre of the stage in Philadelphia to-day when the Philadelphia Athletics, present world's champions and winners of this year's American league pennant, met the Boston Braves, who finished first in the National league race, in the first game to decide the 1914 championship of the world at Shibe park. The telephone battle between Connie Mack and George Stallings, the Boston manager, over the use of Shibe park for practice and other warlike incidents which intensified the interest of the baseball world yesterday, apparently were forgotten in the enthusiasm that held the followers of the game as the hour for staging the contest approached.

Both teams had their final practice yesterday and all the players were said to be in the best of condition. Charley Deal, who will play third base for Boston in place of Smith, who has a broken ankle, was put through a long drill in batting and fielding bunts. McInnes, who had been nursing a bruised hand for more than a week, was out with his team-mates, and Manager Mack said that he would be in the game to-day.

There was no lack of confidence on either side as to the ultimate result of the series. Baseball enthusiasts from various sections of the country and from other lands where the national game is played, were in the city eager to see the opening contest, while business of every character was practically at a standstill. Among the visitors were men of great wealth and prominence in many walks of life. Other fans beat their way here on freight cars or loaded many miles on foot.

The heart-burnings of the thousands who were disappointed in not securing the coveted tickets of admission were forgotten in the excitement preceding details of actual play. Many of the disappointed ones joined the throng at the ground, hoping to buy tickets at the last moment at reasonable prices. Some secured standing room admissions in the grandstand, some were in the bleachers, some were on neighboring house-tops, and many thousands contented themselves with watching the play of electric scoreboards in other parts of the city.

There was little betting, which was accounted for by the long odds asked for those willing to take the Boston end. The Athletics were favorites at 2 to 1 and 8 to 5. The largest bet heard of so far was one of $500 placed at the larger odds.

John Coombs and Ira Thomas served the Athletics batters during batting practice. "Home-run" Baker tried out the range at right field well, one of his blows almost clearing the enclosure. The Boston batters hit wickedly in practice. Tom Hughes served up the balls and the royal rooters from Boston sent up a loud shout when Gowdy drove the ball into the stands.

The Boston Braves were first on the diamond for field practice. Their work was clean and brilliant. Maranville was all over the middle field section, scooping grounders to his right and left and making throws from every possible position. The crowd applauded him frequently. The Athletics went out for field practice at 1.45 and Connie Mack's $100,000 infield was soon in action. McInnes had recovered from the injury to his right hand and was back on first base.

Rudolph and Whaling and Tyler and Gowdy were worked in front of the Boston bench.

VANCOUVER TO SEND THREE STAR BOXERS

Davies and Ross Will Provide Feature of Patriotic Tourney; Kid Lewis After Bout

Manager Russ Leighton, of the Commercial Athletic club, Vancouver, yesterday notified Billy Davies that he can send three boxers over to Victoria's patriotic boxing concert on October 19 at the drill hall. Among the trio will be George Ross, the crack mainland bantam, who will be matched against Al. Davies in the feature event. Two other boxers at 108 and 145 pounds will also be sent over, and Manager Davies looks for an All-Star card. Al. Gerard will meet the featherweight, while W. James, of the Sir John Jackson club, will be matched with the welterweight Vancouver star. In addition to the above bouts the very best talent in the capital will be seen in action, and all wrestlers and boxers who are desirous of competing may do so by leaving their names with A. Davies, Empire Realty Co.

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—The prospective Cross-White match for Milwaukee is so much in the air that Cross has signed to go twelve rounds in Boston against Gilbert Gallant on October 13. The weight is to be 135 pounds at 10 o'clock on the afternoon of the bout. Cross hardly figures a formidable opponent for White, and it is possible the Milwaukee promoters are lukewarm over the card.

Los Angeles, Oct. 9.—Sam Langford, of Boston, and Harry Wills, of New Orleans, were matched yesterday for a 20-round fight at Vernon arena the night of October 27 before the Pacific Athletic club. They are negro heavyweights.

New York, Oct. 9.—Kid Lewis, holder of the English featherweight title, has been matched with Jack Britton for a ten-round bout on October 26.

PAPER CHASE.

A paper chase for Thanksgiving Day morning is being arranged by the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A. The course will be from Duchess street in the direction of Mt. Toimie, returning by way of the Willows. The chase will start at 10 a. m.

WESTS AND THISTLES MEET AT BALL PARK

Many Soccer Features for Tomorrow and on Thanksgiving Day

Victoria Wests' march towards the Victoria Football association championship is threatened to-morrow afternoon at the Royal Athletic park when the league leaders clash with the strengthened Thistle eleven. This match promises to be one of the most crucial of the season and if the Wests can win from the Thistles they will have established a fairly safe lead upon which to work. The Wests will have Plump at outside right in place of McDiarmid, who injured his right foot last week. Plump is very fast and should add speed to the West attack, while he will also make a good partner for Cyril Baker on the other wing. The Thistles will have Ingles on the forward line, and judging from their easy win over the Bays a week ago, they will put up a mighty struggle. Archie Muir calls his club to win by two goals and a big crowd is sure to witness this match.

Sir John Jackson should win from the Bays at the Oak Bays grounds, Mr. Okewell having been selected to referee this game. The Albert Head eleven will have to win this contest to stay up with the league leaders, while on the other hand the Bays are anxious to break into the win column. To-morrow's complete schedule is as follows:

James Bays vs. Jacksons, Oak Bay grounds. Referee, Mr. Okewell.

Thistles vs. Wests, Royal Athletic park. Referee, Mr. Goward.

Empires vs. C. P. R., Beacon Hill. Oak Bays vs. Wests, Beacon Hill grounds (lower). Referee, Mr. Allen.

Oak Bays vs. Wests, Beacon Hill grounds (upper). Referee, Mr. Locke.

The Old Country team for the exhibition match at Beacon Hill on Thanksgiving Day was announced yesterday as follows: Goal, Lomas (Bays); backs, Sheriff (Jacksons) and Thompson (Thistles); half-backs, Pilkington (Bays), Blendall (Jacksons) and Okell (Wests); forwards, Sheratt (Wests), Nichol (Jacksons), Hine (Bays), Muir (Thistles) and Attwell (Bays); reserve forward, Caskie (Thistles); reserve half, Niven (Jacksons); reserve back, Gregg (Bays).

At a meeting of the Centennial Boys' club last night it was decided to enter a football team in the junior city series. A practice game has been arranged with the Y. M. C. A. junior team for Monday morning, Thanksgiving Day, to commence at 9.30. The club will meet again on Monday.

The Victoria West senior team for the match with the Thistles is as follows: Robertson; Whyte and Bolton; Stewart, Petticrew and Okell; Plump, Prevost, Youson, Sheratt and Baker.

The Thistles' team: Rodger; Thomson and Taylor; Allan, Newlands and Brown; Caskie, Muir, Pickering, Stott and McDougall; reserves, W. Muir, Howlen and McKinnon.

The James Bay line-up is: Lomas; Gregg and Broadner; Pilkington, Adam and Menzies; Attwell, Petch, Hine, Cummings and Nell.

The Victoria West intermediate: Davies, H. Ord (capt.), McKenzie, Mesher, Youson, Bishop, Grimes, Petticrew, Mirfield, James and Carmichael; reserves, Jones, Manning and Jessup.

The Oak Bays—A. Webb; G. Daniels and J. Oliver; G. Austin, J. Davies and F. Poole; A. Hayward, J. Fields, B. Maycock, S. Webb and J. Hayward; reserves, L. Daniels and W. Winterburne.

The Empires' team—T. Bridges; Elliott and Castle; J. Baker, Nash and Smith; Woods, Pike, Lane, J. Cummings and McLeod.

Native Sons—Robertson (Wests), Bolton (Wests), Taylor (Thistles), F. Brown (Thistles), J. Petticrew (Wests), B. Stewart (Wests), G. Broadner (Bays), Heyland (Bays), Bob Whyte (Wests), W. Prevost (Wests), C. Baker (Wests).

Reserves—E. Cotly (Bays), P. Carroll (C. P. R.).

Fairfields.—At Heywood avenue tomorrow at 3 Fairfield F. C. will be represented by: Leeming; Church, Day; J. Lea, Gibson, G. Clegg; A. Lea, Creighton, S. Richards, R. Lea, Erickson. Reserve, P. C. Payne. Players are requested to be on the ground at least fifteen minutes before the advertised time of kick-off.

AMATEUR UNION WILL MEET HERE TO-NIGHT

Besides the consideration of Joe Lally's action in taking the Mann cup away from the Vancouver Athletic club, the delegates at to-night's gathering of the Amateur Athletic union will look into the disposition of the Mc-Bride shield. As the Wards were the winners, due to the disqualification of the Coquitlam club, the Victoria Football association will likely be asked to take care of this trophy until the annual series is played next spring.

Vancouver, Oct. 9.—N. H. Crowe, secretary of the Amateur Athletic union of Canada, has telegraphed to Dr. J. G. Davidson, British Columbia representative of the union, that Joe Lally did not have the authority of the union in declaring Kendall, the V. A. C. lacrosse player, a professional, and that he had ignored the board in declaring the Mann cup forfeited. Mr. Crowe says that the union will investigate the case immediately. The union has received no official report from the trustees regarding the matter.

ANOTHER LINE MAY

RUN TO AUSTRALIA

Lumber for New Federal Buildings at Canberra to Go From This Coast

Seattle, Oct. 9.—What may mean direct steamship service between Australia and Puget Sound is seen in the announcement yesterday of H. E. Dakin, special representative of the Australian government, that Australia is considering the chartering of special steamers for transporting many millions of feet of lumber from the Northwest to the Antipodes for government use there.

Mr. Dakin, an architect, is taking bids on a shipment of 3,500,000 feet of fir to be sent from the Northwest direct to Sydney, N. S. W. These bids will be closed October 13, after which others will be called for on shipments of Northwest lumber.

The first shipment as well as those to come is being bought by the Australian government through the office of Commissioner of Trades and Labour at San Francisco, instead of through agencies as formerly. In Mr. Dakin's opinion the new system will lead to the establishment of regular shipping offices of the Australian government in the Northwest.

The transportation of the lumber also will be a problem in itself. Mr. Dakin said it was probable the government would charter its own vessels unless special tonnage could be obtained elsewhere at better rates. Should a steamship line be established in the trade, it is thought the service would become permanent.

NEW LINER IS LAUNCHED FOR NIPPON YUSEN LINE

Another new liner has been launched in Japan for the European service of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha. The Toyokashi Maru took her maiden plunge on September 22, according to news brought by the steamer Yokohama Maru, which arrived from the Orient on Wednesday. The description of the new vessel is as follows: Gross tonnage, 7,500; horse-power, 6,000; speed, 14 knots; length, 445 feet; width, 58 feet, and depth, 34 feet. The keel was laid on January 19, 1914, and the vessel is to be completed by March 20, 1915.

NAVAL AUTHORITIES

LOOKING FOR JEBSEN

San Francisco Shipping-Man Thought to Have Violated Neutrality Laws

From stories which are reaching here it is learned that the United States naval authorities at San Francisco are on the trail of Capt. Frederick Jebesen, a German shipping man, located at the California port, who seems to have violated the neutrality laws by his dealings with the German cruiser Leipzig.

It will be remembered that the troubled started when the Jebesen steamer Mazatlan attempted to leave San Francisco with coal. She was detained by J. O. Davis, collector of customs, until assurance had been given that the coal not intended for a German warship.

Another vessel suspected by the American authorities is the Alexandria, which is also detained at San Francisco. She was a Kosmos liner, but was sold to a new company of San Francisco men who appear to be Germans.

RECORD GOLD SHIPMENT BROUGHT IN BY SENATOR

Seattle, Oct. 9.—Five patrolmen under a police sergeant and government guards from the United States assay office were on the dock to greet the steamship Senator when she arrived at midnight last night with $1,250,000 worth of gold in her strong room and 350 storm-wear passengers.

The Senator was nine and one-half days making the trip from Nome to Seattle. Capt. T. H. Cannon says it was one of the stormiest voyages he has ever had at this time of the year.

The gold was immediately loaded on express wagons and taken to the United States assay office. Among the 250 passengers were two sternboat inspectors assigned to the Alaska district and nine professional gamblers, who, Capt. Cannon says, were driven out of Nome by the city authorities.

TWO ROYAL MAIL LINERS STEAMING FOR VICTORIA

Two Royal Mail liners are now heading across the Pacific. Cablegrams report the Merionethshire leaving Yokohama on Sunday last and the Den of Airle cleared Kutchinotzu two days later. Both ships should call here about the same time, the Airle being faster than the Merionethshire. They are looked for on October 20.

HUMBOLDT HAS RICH CARGO.

Seattle, Oct. 9.—Bringing a shipment of approximately $500,000 in gold bullion, the last of the summer clean-up of the Dawson mining district, a big cargo of canned salmon, fresh halibut and salt herring, and 150 passengers, the steamer Humboldt, known throughout Pacific coast waters as the gold ship of the north, reached port yesterday afternoon from southeastern Alaska ports.

SCHOONER VICTORIA

IS FULL OF WATER

Stern Bearing of Vessel Carried Away; Catch of Fish to Go Overboard

Through the carrying away of the stern bearing the fishing schooner Victoria, Capt. Pike, became disabled off Cape Lazo, and nearly sank when the water flooded the cabin and engine room. It was expected that the Victoria would have reached here in tow of the tug Red Fir last evening, but the owners were informed yesterday over the long distance telephone that temporary repairs would have to be carried out before she could be brought south.

The Victoria was on her way home from the fishing banks and had 20,000 pounds of fish in her hold. The owners expect that the catch will have to be thrown overboard, as the action of the salt water in the hold would turn the fish in one day.

Capt. Pike stated over the long distance telephone yesterday that he would try and beach the schooner which was very deep in the water, and patch up the damaged stern. As soon as this is done the Red Fir will make fast a hawser and bring the disabled craft to Victoria, where she will be hauled out and repaired. The owners do not know when the schooner will arrive here. The accident is a very costly one, owing to the sacrifice of the catch of fish, which at this season of the year would have brought a high price.

SEATTLE FEARS LOSS OF FISHING INDUSTRY

U. S. Commissioner Points Out Prince Rupert as Coming Centre for Coast

Seattle is beginning to recognize with some anxiety the possibility of Prince Rupert replacing her as the centre of the fishing industry on the Pacific coast. At frequent intervals some member of the chamber of commerce of the Sound city rises up and points out the rapid development now going on at the Grand Trunk Pacific terminal and offers suggestions as to what Seattle will have to do if she wishes to remain the fishing centre.

The latest voice to be heard is that of Dr. E. Lester Jones, deputy commissioner of the U. S. fisheries bureau. At Seattle on Wednesday he addressed the commercial club and the following is an extract from his speech:

"The only boats owned by the fisheries bureau in Alaska, are unseaworthy tubs, and many thousands of dollars are spent every year chartering special boats, yet congress refuses to appropriate money in any way adequate for the bureau to look after fishing interests on this coast."

"Prince Rupert, on account of its geographical situation and the fact that the Grand Trunk Pacific is practically completed, is about to secure the fishing industry and become the great fishing centre of the Pacific coast. If something is not done now you will lose the fishing industry."

"I mean by this that the American boats, your fishermen, the base of supplies, the shipping point for your fish, will be in foreign waters instead of right here. When you lose the fisheries of Alaska, or the bulk of them, and become merely a distributing point, you will realize what they mean to you before."

Developing Rapidly. Prince Rupert is rapidly forging ahead and the opening of the G. T. P. transcontinental rail means a great deal to the development of that port as the fishing centre. The fish can now be sent direct from Rupert to the eastern markets, and the freight trains are taking many carloads of lead and glazed halibut and salmon. The northern town through Seattle. It is close to the famous Heate Strait banks. The Seattle boats have two and a half days steaming to do before they are on the grounds, whereas the Rupert schooners can have their skates set about eight hours after leaving port.

PRESIDENT GOES SOUTH

At 11 o'clock to-night the Pacific Coast steamer Governor, Capt. Thomas, will leave port for San Francisco, San Pedro and San Diego. Among the passengers who will embark here are the following: Mrs. C. C. Backhus, Mr. and Mrs. C. Holland, Miss Mary Trevlin, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hazellette, Dr. and Mrs. Irwin, C. S. Cowan, T. Shepherd, E. Hooley, Miss M. Kirby, T. W. Bacon, Mrs. Ada Sedger, Mrs. Laura E. Shaw, Miss Louise Shaw and Edward Shaw.

SAYS MIXED FARMING IS HOPE OF WEST

F. W. Fox, Successor to George Ham With C. P. R., Makes First Tour of Dominion

On his first Canadian tour since succeeding George Ham as head of the C. P. R. Fox is passing a visit to Victoria, having arrived in the city yesterday. He is accompanied by Mrs. Fox and is staying at the home of his brother, Mr. Fox, of the Newcastle Lumber mills.

The depression which he found was prevalent everywhere throughout Canada and was traceable to the financial depression followed by the war. That the condition was purely an artificial one was gathered from his many optimistic remarks concerning the wonderful improvement in the farming methods throughout western Canada. On his way west he toured the best farming districts from Winnipeg to Edmonton and from Edmonton to Calgary. There had been an average of 18 bushels to the acre all through the prairies, but by far the best farming district he saw was that around Red Deer.

"Mixed farming is on the rapid increase," stated Mr. Fox, "and is regarded by the farmers as the real salvation of the country. For one wheat farmer now there are 20 mixed farmers all through the west. Around Saskatchewan especially has mixed farming developed. A man named Jansen recently hit upon the idea of sending his milk and other dairy produce to the nearest market, Edmonton and Winnipeg, hundreds of miles away. Others scoffed at him, but his financial success has encouraged them to the extent that many individual farmers are now making as much as $50 a month each from this line alone. The vegetable market is very good in the east at this time also, as nearly double the western price can be obtained. The farmers are thoroughly alert to this and another year will find them going after the eastern market in earnest."

At Glacier Mr. Fox inspected the construction work being carried on in connection with the great tunnel under the mountains. He saw the work in progress at both ends. A feature was the boring of what is known as a pioneer tunnel at a 50-foot incline below the line of the actual tunnel. From this drifts are drilled to the main tunnel and work is able to be carried on from four sources instead of from only two.

From the east the pioneer bore has entered the mountains 4,600 feet and the main heading has penetrated 1,960 feet, of which 1,100 feet has already been timbered. Concrete will later be substituted for the timber.

On his way back Mr. Fox will make extensive tours through the Arrow Lakes, Okanagan Valley and Kootenay country, and will visit the Strathmore farm and Bassano dam in southern Alberta. He spent three days at Banff on the way out and heard of the slaying of a big game hunter by a grizzly bear. The man was an employee of the C. P. R.

Postmaster-general Burleson said at a banquet in Washington—"One of our post office stories concerns a post office census taken a number of years ago. A question of this census was, 'What are your marital relations?' The answers to this question were startling. One post-master answered—"Fair to middling." Another answered—"Fine." A third, poor fellow, made the tragic answer—"The worst."

A small crowd had gathered outside the store window where an automatic typewriter was on exhibition. Two women stopped and peered in, interestedly watching the keys bob up and down apparently of themselves. Presently one of the women turning to her companion remarked: "Jenny, that's the kind of a typewriter your husband should have in his office instead of that blonde-haired thing." Boston Transcript.

Diary of a Kaiser. Sunday.—To-day has witnessed another triumph for the high-souled German army. Ten Belgian villages have been burnt...

Monday.—It is stated that in East Prussia a village has been burnt by the Russians during a battle. This is monstrous, and must be stopped at once.

Tuesday.—Six Belgian mayors and five hundred selected Belgian villagers have been shot by my gallant troops. One of them had sneered at Lieutenant von Blutgerig as he sat at breakfast.

Wednesday.—Ordered three cathedrals to be razed to the ground. Forget how many ordinary churches have been destroyed. All Belgian and French universities are to be at once burnt and burnt for falling to recognize superiority of German intellect.

Thursday.—Our wonderful navy continues its magnificent deeds. Two Danish boats and an English trawler have been sent to the bottom by mines in the North Sea.

Friday.—Have arranged everything with Turen, who will shortly intervene with their army to help Germany to spread civilization and the Gospel. Hear that England is about to use German troops. This, being an attack on German culture, cannot be allowed.

Saturday.—Have ordered all remaining Belgian villages to be burnt. This will please my glorious troops. The Divine blessing is evidently on our cause.

HELP PATRIOTIC FUND Sum Continues to Increase; Branch of Society Formed at Cowichan

R. H. Swinerton, secretary of the Victoria Patriotic Aid society, announced this morning that the person who enclosed an advertisement headed S. O. S. should communicate with him direct, as the envelope of the communication was received in a damaged condition and open with nothing but the advertisement enclosed.

From now until December 1, the Mora cafe, Broad street, will give one per cent of its cash register takings to the Patriotic Aid Fund.

The trustees of the Patriotic Aid Fund are meeting in the course of the next few days to consider the advisability of publishing the list of subscribers.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Gertrude Good, whose death occurred at the Jubilee hospital, will take place tomorrow at 11 a. m. from the Sands Funeral parlors.

The funeral of the late Timothy Crowe, who died on Monday at the Royal Jubilee hospital, will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 from the Victoria Undertaking parlors.

HAVE AGREED UPON DATE FOR THE TRIAL

Court Will Be Asked to Set Nov. 16 for Big Water-works Suit

The supreme court will be asked to set down the trial of the suit of the Westholme Lumber company against the city of Victoria, the water commissioner, the consulting engineer, the mayor and certain aldermen of the council of 1912, for November 16.

W. W. B. Ritchie, K. C., and the city solicitor will appear for the defendants, while W. J. Taylor, K. C., will lead for the company. It is expected that Bodwell & Lawson will appear for the receiver of the company, A. S. Innes.

Although there was a large attendance of civic officials and owners of property on Denman street this morning at the second court of revision in connection with the assessment under the by-law, no progress could be made and the formally will be followed again.

A considerable difference of opinion developed last evening at the private meeting at which the aldermen considered the matter of civic service reform. Although the members eventually agreed to recommend that the reduction of salaries be based on a sliding scale, some of the aldermen protested that the city's reduction would be used as an example by private firms for the cutting of wages in war time.

There was a very light order paper for the meeting of the streets committee this afternoon. A deputation of owners of property on Gorge road from Carroll street to Harriet road against the paving work, but since the reputation applied for hearing work had been started upon the street by the engineering department.

A test of the second section of the steel pressure pipe for Sooke waterworks was made this morning, the portion on Burnside road west of Thillicum road being examined. The resident engineer and a representative of the Burrard Engineering company attended. The test had to be made before the city accepts the work from the contractors.

GUILTY OF ROBBERY

Dock and On' Hing Found Guilty by Jury; Sentence Deferred.

Dock and On Hing were both found guilty by the jury in the assizes yesterday on the charge of robbing with violence Brahm Singh, a resident of Nanaimo. Sentence will be pronounced at the conclusion of the assizes.

The question of identification was the chief issue raised by the defence, Frank Higgins contending that it was impossible for the two accused to have entered the house undressed and got into bed in the brief time which elapsed between the robbery and the entrance of the police into their house.

GOING BACK TO LAND

W. B. Lanigan, Assistant Freight Manager for C. P. R., Looks for Good Times.

That the war is turning the people back to the land is the assertion of W. B. Lanigan, assistant freight traffic manager of the C. P. R., who arrived in the city this morning in company with Mr. R. Macdonald, manager of the company's freight traffic department, on an inspection trip.

NO LOSS OF TIME IN GETTING TROOPS OFF

All Machinery Ready for Dispatch of Victoria Section When Order Comes

At various camps to-day there is a continuance of the activity which has characterized the soldiers since it was announced that there would be a second contingent, and the men are looking anxiously for the news as to the composition of the corps and the number of men who will be required from this city.

There is not one but will answer the call, and if it should be that the whole number now under arms here is not needed at this time, there will be keen rivalry for places on the next force. The men are consoling themselves with the hope that if they are not all taken this time there will be further contingents sent from the Dominion, so that all will have a chance to fight for their empire before the war is over.

The drilling of the troops goes on with an appreciable intermission, and it is the general opinion of the officers of the several units that the men now awaiting the order to proceed to the front are equal to any of the line regiments in the Imperial army. Their shooting is certainly better, as much of the time of waiting since the dispatch of the first contingent has been spent at the ranges with splendid results.

At militia district headquarters everything is in readiness to carry out the orders which may be received from Ottawa just as soon as they are forwarded to Colonel Roy, D. O. C., and no time will be lost at this end in getting the Victoria section off.

There was a fine turnout of the Victoria Volunteer Guard last night at the drill hall, practically every member being on parade to be inspected by the commanding officer, Major W. S. Weeks. The guard presented a fine appearance, and performed the various evolutions with smartness and precision.

Those who are contributing for the soldiers' and sailors' Thanksgiving dinner should specify when sending in their gifts to the Willows camp or to 1185 Fort street for which regiment the articles are designed, as without full directions the committee will use its own discretion as to the destination of the supplies.

Vancouver is waking up to the value of the naval reserve, in the formation of which Victoria has set such a fine lead, and this evening a mass meeting is being held in Dominion hall, in that city, at the call of Mayor Baxter, for the purpose of discussing the matter. The mayors and Reeves of the adjoining municipalities have been invited to join in the movement.

WONG GETS FIVE MONTHS

Point Raised That "Having Stolen Goods" is Not a Criminal Offence.

Wong was sentenced to five months in prison by Judge Lampman this morning on the second count of the charge laid against him in connection with the theft from a house in Courtney street, owned by Dr. E. C. Hart, of a quantity of lead pipe, plumbing fittings, doorknobs and brass plate.

The charge of theft was dismissed, but his honor found the accused guilty of having the goods in his possession knowing them to have been stolen.

Met C. P. R. Officials.—The freight committee of the board of trade, headed by Hon. E. G. Prior, the president, this morning held a meeting with several of the C.

PORTLAND BIDDING IS LESS CONSISTENT

More Generous Offerings Give Minor Setback to Canal Stock

Fluctuating movements were hindered this morning by lack of any aggressive outside inquiry. Bidding for Portland Canal continued a feature, but was less consistent in view of more generous offerings. It is a market in these particular shares that draws support on each minor setback. Glacier Creek manifested much the same condition.

The downward movement in the oil list was checked to an extent, natural buying inquiry having been stimulated at the auction in demand, the bid advancing to 60c, which price, however, makes poor comparison with quotations of a week or so ago.

EXPORTERS AND MILLERS BUY WINNIPEG WHEAT

Winnipeg, Oct. 9.—There was a slight reaction in values due mainly to lack of outside speculative trading. Wheat opened unchanged to 1c lower. The cash demand was fair for all grades, and both exporters and millers were busy. Export is again hampered by an increase in New York rate of exchange.

Inspections Thursday numbered 728 cars as against 1,560 last year.
Wheat closed 1c lower than Thursday, oats 1c lower to 1c higher, and flax 5c to 1c lower.

THIN PEOPLE CAN INCREASE WEIGHT

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of flesh should try Sargol. It is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—only one tablet with every meal for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say or think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And, best of all, the new flesh stays put. Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Dr. Campbell's Prescription Store and other leading druggists in Victoria and vicinity sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

BLACK HAND LETTER FOLLOWS UPON FIRE

Winnipeg, Oct. 9.—"See what you got," is a message received by J. A. Banfield, whose furniture warehouse was destroyed yesterday under suspicious circumstances, with a loss of about $40,000. The message came by mail and is being investigated by the police, who suspect, apparently, that the fire was an incendiary one and had its origin in an attempt at revenge by confederates of Alexander Stewart, who an hour before the fire started was sentenced to five years imprisonment for sending Mr. Banfield threatening letters.

To the educated ad reader QUALITY OF GOODS is of first importance—price-concessions secondary.

EDGE OFF WHEAT FROM PRESSURE OF SELLERS

Chicago Pit Prices Receded To-day; Statistics Point to Increased Demand

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.) Chicago, Oct. 9.—The lower cable and heavy selling by large interests took the edge off wheat at the opening. Through the session there was but little feature to the trade. The bullish tendency that gripped the market yesterday towards foreign demand shows signs of abatement. Closing prices are 1 and 1/2 below yesterday. Indications are that the movement of grain is to be lighter hereon; also the foreign demand shows signs of abatement. North America has a total wheat crop of 1,862,000,000 bushels this year, or only 7,000,000 more than last year. Allowance for the carry-over in both countries the excess is reduced to only 23,000,000 bushels. In view of the increased export call and the shortage abroad it seems as though North America will have little difficulty in disposing of all the wheat she may have to spare.

BUREAU TO WELCOME NEWSLESS ACCOUNTS

Correspondent in London Gives Sample of What He is Allowed to Send

London, Oct. 9.—The official press bureau has informed the newspapers that descriptive stories of the arrival of the Canadian troops will be welcomed. The press bureau indicate a number of matters in connection with the arrival, concerning which no correspondent may make any record, but except on these points, it would seem at fish blush that the press bureau is ready to fling open wide the field of news gathering. But the newspaper man in Great Britain at the present time would be in a rude awakening if he complacently set to work to cable to Canada a long story full of incidents. So in an endeavor to prove to the censor how innocent are the intentions of the writer this cable is started in this manner: All the writer will attempt to say is that if the present weather continues the lads from Canada will be on landing, find the country drenched in one of her most entrancing dresses and showing all the graciousness of early autumn. How stern the mission upon which the Canadians are bent is will be shown in the manner of their arrival here. No public welcome, no bands, no cheers from enthusiastic crowds. Just the leaving of the transport, then the entraining, the march inland and then steady preparation for still sterner work. Sleepy old towns and remote villages in England have heard the tramp of armed hoists during the last two months with no demonstrations. The Canadians will march through such places, in like manner.

In due course, when we are all through with the business, there will be open and clamorous recognition here of how Canada has helped, and of the men she has sent to this side, but for the present both the men of Canada's force and the men of the reflection that though the Canadians' movements are shrouded and the self-sacrifice for the time being put, so to speak, into the common melting pot, the fruits of their patriotism will in consequence be all the more sure.

ZEPPELIN AIRCRAFT IS BROUGHT TO EARTH

London, Oct. 9.—The Evening Star's Antwerp correspondent, telegraphing by way of Amsterdam, says that eyewitnesses of the Zeppelin flight over Antwerp insist that they saw one such craft hit by shells from the forts and fall to earth.

During the bombardment of Antwerp Thursday night it is estimated that shells fell at the rate of 20 a minute. Many civilians were killed.

In addition to the law courts and the museum which were damaged by shells, fire broke out at many points in the city.

PHILADELPHIA BEATEN BY TERRIFIC HITTING

Bender Knocked Out of Box by Boston in Sixth—Airtight Infield Ball by Braves Wins First Game 7 to 1

Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 9.—The Boston National league pennant winners easily ran away with the Philadelphia Athletics to-day, defeating them by a score of 7 to 1. The Boston team drove Bender, the Athletics' star right-hander, from the box by terrific hitting, which the Braves pieced together when hits meant runs. Gowdy was the hitting star of the Boston, getting three safe blows in three times at bat. One of Gowdy's hits was a double and another a triple, his third hit being a single. Rudolph pitched a game of the first water for his club, when he held the Athletics spellbound by slow balls, which came to the plate as big as a toy balloon. The Athletics' heaviest hitters could do nothing with his delivery. The Boston rooters paraded out of the grounds after the game, led by a brass band.

Summary: Stolen bases—Moran, Schmidt, Gowdy. Two-base hits—Gowdy, Wyckoff, Baker. Three-base hits—Gowdy, Whitted. Sacrifice hits—Oldring. Six runs, 8 hits off Bender in 5 1/3 innings. Struck out by Wyckoff, 3; by Rudolph, 2; by Gowdy, 2; by Whitted, 2; by Oldring, 1; by Lapp, 1; by Barry, 1; by Schang, 1; by Collins, 1. Total bases—Boston, 34; Philadelphia, 30. Errors—Boston, 3; Philadelphia, 6.

FIRST INNING
BOSTON—Bender's first offering was an outcurve which cut the plate for a strike. Moran went out on a high fly to Collins and was caught by the catcher. Connolly took a strike and then fouled off the next one. Connolly fanned, missing a slow one around the neck. No runs, no errors, no hits.

SECOND INNING
BOSTON—Bender pitched three balls and then put over two strikes on Whitted. Whitted walked, Schmidt fouled out to Oldring. Whitted scored on Gowdy's two-base hit to the left field stand. Boston rooters cheered to the echo. Gowdy scored on Maranville's single over second. The Boston hits were sharp and clean. A double play followed, Barry taking Deal's grounder, and tossing to Collins, forced Maranville, Collins then throwing out Deal. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING
BOSTON—Bender threw out Rudolph at first. Moran couldn't see Bender's speed and struck out. Oldring took care of Evers' fly. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING
BOSTON—Connolly sent a liner over Collins' head for a single after having two strikes called on him. A double play followed, Bender taking Whitted's smash and throwing to Barry, forcing Connolly. Barry then tossed out Whitted. Barry's throw to Melanes was wide hit Melnes made a beautiful stop. Collins tossed out Schmidt at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FIFTH INNING
BOSTON—Gowdy drove the ball to the centre field stand for a triple. It was the first pitched ball. The umpire cautioned the Boston bench for coaching. Gowdy scored on Maranville's single over Melnes' head. A double play followed. Bender took Deal's bunt fly and then picked off Maranville at first. Deal had attempted to sacrifice. Rudolph struck out. One run, two hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING
PHILADELPHIA—Maranville took Barry's Texas Leaguer away out in left field. It was a sparkling catch and was loudly applauded. Schang struck out. It was Rudolph's sixth strikeout. Bender fled out to Whitted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING
BOSTON—Lapp went in to catch for Philadelphia. Rudolph got an inning single which Collins was barely able to knock down. Baker took Moran's intended sacrifice and threw to Barry forcing Rudolph. Evers struck out and Moran stole second. Melnes gathered in Connolly's grounder and then threw to Wyckoff who covered the bag. No runs, one hit, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING
BOSTON—Whitted sent up a high fly to Baker. Schmidt got a Texas leaguer to left. Gowdy singled to left and Schmidt went to third. Maranville struck out and when Gowdy ran to second Schmidt stole home. Gowdy tried to go to third but was thrown out by Lapp. One run, two hits, no errors.

NINTH INNING
BOSTON—The crowd began to leave the stands when the inning opened and it was realized that Boston had all but won the game. Baker threw out Deal at first. Barry threw out Rudolph. It was announced that the official attendance was 20,562. Baker tossed out Moran. No runs, no hits, no errors.

ation, and it is expected that Seattle, Portland, Everett, Spokane and Tacoma will be represented in addition to Victoria and Vancouver.

The following players have been selected to represent the Victoria club: A. V. Macan, H. Combe, E. Wilson, J. H. Horrocks, J. A. Rithet, A. T. Goward, and P. Griddle. The eighth man is yet to be named.

On Wednesday, Oct. 21, in addition to the ladies' foursomes, an all day putting competition in which both ladies and gentlemen may compete, will be held. All entry fees will be donated to the patriotic fund.

The United Service club links at Macaulay plains will be opened for the 1914-15 season to-morrow.

In the ladies' singles competition at the Oak Bay links on Wednesday, Mrs. Mellin won from a field of fourteen players. Her score was 108, less a handicap of 24, or 79. Mrs. A. T. Goward was second with 81 (111, less 30), and Miss Violet Podley third, with 85 (83, plus 2). The match was over 18 holes. The proceeds were contributed to the Belgian relief fund.
