

STATUTES OF CALIFORNIA

PASSED AT THE

FORTY-SECOND SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE

CHAPTER 1.

An act making an appropriation to pay the expenses of electors of President and Vice President of the United States of America.

[Approved January 18, 1917. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of nine hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay the per diem and mileage of electors of President and Vice President of the United States of America for the year one thousand nine hundred seventeen.

Appropriation: expenses of presidential electors.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section one, of article four of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 2.

An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An act giving and granting to the board of park commissioners of the city of San Diego the right to use and the right to authorize the use of Balboa Park in said city for exposition purposes," approved March 24, 1911, extending the terms of said section to include the year 1917.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act giving and granting to the board of park commissioners of the city of San Diego the right to use and the right to authorize the use of Balboa Park in said city for exposition purposes," approved March 24, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1911, p. 478.

Section 1. The board of park commissioners of the city of San Diego, California, is hereby authorized and empowered to use, or authorize any exposition company to use, any part or portion of the lands set aside as a public park by resolution of the board of trustees of the city of San Diego and approved and ratified by an act of the legislature of the State of California, approved February 4, 1870, for the purpose of giving an exposition in the year 1917 to celebrate the completion of the Panama canal.

Emergency
measure.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure within the meaning of section one, article four, of the constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately.

The facts constituting such emergency are as follows: The directors of the Panama-California International Exposition and the members of the board of park commissioners of the city of San Diego are desirous of continuing the Panama-California International Exposition, situated in the city park of San Diego, for a further period of time, not to exceed one year. A large amount of money has been expended in the permanent improvement of the exposition site in the park, and many of the buildings contain exhibits that can not be removed for some time. Therefore, it is necessary for legislative action immediately, in order to authorize the maintenance of such an exposition for the further period of time—the authorization of the State of California for the maintenance of said exposition having expired on the first day of January, 1917.

[Approved March 21, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand five hundred ninety-nine of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1599. Each county superintendent of schools shall furnish uniform ballots for the election of school trustees in his county, and no other form of ballot shall be used. The expense of printing and distributing such ballots to the various districts shall be paid as other current expenses of his office. The form of said ballots shall be as follows:

Form of ballots for election of school trustees.

Official ballot provided by the office of the superintendent of schools to be used in the election of school trustees in ----- district, in the county of -----.

Immediately following the above there shall be at least twelve spaces for the insertion of the names of candidates, each space with a blank square for the expression of the will of the voter.

The name of the county shall be printed in as a part of the official ballot.

The school trustees must provide for printing, stamping or writing into this ballot the designation of the district and the name of each candidate for office who has officially announced himself five days prior to the date of the election by filing or having filed with the clerk of the board of trustees a written statement signed by him that he is a candidate for the office of trustee.

Manner of voting.

In casting his vote the elector must stamp or write a cross in the square space immediately following the name of the candidate for whom he desires to vote, or, should the elector desire to vote for a candidate whose name does not appear on the ballot, he shall himself write the name of said candidate in the space provided for that purpose on the ballot. Where the elector writes the name of a candidate on the ballot he may, but it shall not be necessary for him to, designate his vote by writing or stamping the cross after such name. After properly marking his ballot he shall hand it to the inspector who shall then, in his presence, deposit the same in the ballot box and the judges shall enter the elector's name on the poll list.

Secret ballot.

The board of school trustees may arrange for secret ballot by providing a booth or private room in which the voter may prepare his ballot, and in districts employing two or more teachers they must arrange for such secret ballot in the manner prescribed above.

No electioneering shall be carried on within one hundred feet of the polls.

CHAPTER 27.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of each county in this state to designate a proper person in the county, who shall in each instance be an honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine who shall have served in the army or navy of the United States, whose duty it shall be to cause to be decently interred the body of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine, who shall have served in the army or navy of the United States, or the widow of any such honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine, who may hereafter die without having sufficient means to defray funeral expenses. Such burial shall not be made in cemetery or burial grounds, or any portion of such cemetery or burial ground, used exclusively for the burial of the pauper dead. The expenses of each burial shall not exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars.

Soldiers,
sailors and marines may be buried at county expense.

CHAPTER 28.

An act conveying certain tidelands and lands lying under inland navigable waters, situate in the bay of San Diego to the city of National City, in furtherance of navigation and commerce and the fisheries, and providing for the government, management and control thereof.

[Approved March 21, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

WHEREAS, Since the admission of California into the Union, all tidelands along the navigable waters of this state and all lands lying beneath the navigable waters of the state have been and now are held in trust by the state for the benefit of all the inhabitants thereof for the purpose of navigation, commerce and fishing; and

WHEREAS, It is the duty of the state to govern, administer and control such lands and to improve and develop navigation, commerce and fishing thereon and thereover; and

WHEREAS, The state has not the general power of alienation of such lands, but may, when the interests of commerce, navigation and fishing require it, convey to municipalities limited and defined areas of such lands with the power to govern, control, improve and develop the same in the interests of all the inhabitants of the state; and

WHEREAS, The conveyance to the city of National City of the lands hereinafter described, together with the right to govern, control, improve and develop the same will result in great advantage and benefit to all the inhabitants of the state, it is provided:

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted and conveyed to the city of National City, in the county of San Diego, State of California, all of the lands situate on the city of National City side of said bay, lying and being between the line of mean high tide and the pier head line in said bay, as the same has been or may hereafter be established by the federal government, and between the prolongation into the bay of San Diego to the pier head line of the boundary line between the city of National City and the city of San Diego, and the prolongation into the bay of San Diego to the pier head line of the boundary line between the city of National City and the city of Chula Vista.

SEC. 2. The city of National City shall have and there is hereby granted to it the right to make upon said premises all improvements, betterments and structures of every kind and character, proper, needful and useful for the development of commerce, navigation and fishing, including the construction of all wharves, docks, piers, slips, and the construction and operation of a municipal belt line railroad in connection with said dock system.

Tidelands
granted to National City.

lands.

SEC. 3. No grant, conveyance or transfer of any character shall ever be made by the city of National City of the lands described in section one, or of any part thereof, but the said city shall continue to hold said lands and the whole thereof unless the same revert or be ceded to the State of California. The harbor of National City shall remain always a public harbor and the said city shall never charge or permit to be charged on any of the premises by this act conveyed any unreasonable rate or toll, nor make nor suffer to be made any unreasonable charge, burden or discrimination. In the event of a violation of any of the provisions of this act, the said lands and the whole thereof shall revert to the State of California.

No discrimination in rates.

SEC. 4. The city of National City may lease for a term not exceeding twenty-five years any wharves, docks or piers constructed by it, and all such leases so executed shall reserve to the board of trustees of the city of National City, the right and privilege, by ordinance, to annul, change or modify such leases as in its judgment may seem proper. The aggregate amount of all wharves, docks and piers so leased by said city shall never exceed seventy-five per cent of all the wharves, docks and piers actually constructed.

Maximum
term of lease.

SEC. 5. The city of National City, may lease not to exceed an aggregate of seventy-five per cent of the lands conveyed to it by this act, for a term not to exceed twenty-five years and upon which wharves, docks or piers have not been actually constructed, and, except by consent of the board of trustees of the city of National City under an ordinance of such board duly adopted, such leases shall not be assignable or transferable, nor shall any lessee have the right to sublet the leased premises or any part thereof, and all such leases so executed shall reserve to the board of trustees of the city of National City, the right and privilege, by ordinance to annul, change or modify such leases as in its judgment may seem proper; provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall operate as a limitation upon the right and authority of the harbor commission of the State of California, at any time prior to the city of National City issuing its bonds as required in section six hereof, of leasing any of the lands herein granted and conveyed to said National City, and the right and authority to enter into such leases at any time prior to issuing of such bonds, is hereby expressly conferred upon said harbor commission.

Conditions
of lease.

SEC. 6. The foregoing conveyance is made upon the condition that the city of National City shall, within five years from the approval of this act, exclusive of such time as said city may be restrained from so doing by injunction issued out of any court of this state or of the United States, and exclusive of such further delay as may be caused by unavoidable misfortune or great public or municipal calamity, issue its bonds for harbor improvement purposes in an amount of not less than one hundred thousand dollars, and shall, within five years after the approval of this act, exclusive of the time in this section hereinbefore mentioned, commence the work of such harbor improvement, and the said work and improvement shall be prosecuted with such diligence, that not less than one hundred thousand dollars shall be expended thereon within five years from the approval of this act. If said bonds be not issued or said work be not prosecuted and completed as and in the manner herein provided, then the lands by this act conveyed to the city of National City shall revert to the State of California.

State's right to use docks.

SEC. 7. The state hereby reserves unto itself at all times, the reasonable use of and access to all wharves, docks, piers, slips and quays hereafter constructed under the provisions of this act, for any vessel or water craft owned, leased, or operated by the state.

An act to amend section three of an act entitled "An act authorizing the construction of the unfinished portion of the library building of the University of California, and the construction of a building for general use as a recitation building, of a building for the use of the college of agriculture, and of a building for the use of the college of natural sciences as a chemistry building, upon the grounds of said University of California at Berkeley; providing for the issuance and sale of state bonds to meet the cost of the foregoing purposes; and providing the necessary moneys for the payment of the principal and interest to become due on said bonds," adopted as an initiative measure by vote of the people November 3, 1914.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of an act entitled "An act authorizing the construction of the unfinished portion of the library building of the University of California, and the construction of a building for general use as a recitation building, of a building for the use of the college of agriculture, and of a building for the use of the college of natural sciences as a chemistry building, upon the grounds of said University of California at Berkeley; providing for the issuance and sale of state bonds to meet the cost of the foregoing purposes; and providing the necessary moneys for the payment of the principal and interest to become due on said bonds," and adopted as an initiative measure by vote of the people November 3, 1914, is hereby amended to read as follows: .

p. 1024.

Sec. 3. When the bonds authorized by this act to be issued shall have been signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed, as in section one provided, the state treasurer shall, from time to time, sell such number thereof as the governor of the state may direct to the highest bidder for cash. The governor of the state shall, from time to time, issue to the state treasurer such direction immediately after being requested so to do through and by a resolution duly adopted and passed by a majority vote of the regents of the University of California. Such resolution shall specify the amount of money which, in the judgment of said the regents of the University of California, shall be required at such time, and the governor of the state shall direct the state treasurer to sell such number of bonds as will, at the par value thereof, equal said amount of money so required according to such resolution of the regents of the University of California. Said bonds shall be sold in consecutive numerical order, save and except that the state treasurer may sell two or more bonds at the same time in one lot, which lot, however, shall be made up of bonds consecutively numbered, the first of which in number shall be the first bond in number yet unsold. The state treasurer shall not accept any bid which is less than the par value of the bond or bonds bid for, and to the amount of the accepted bid there shall be added in each case, as a part of the purchase price to be paid by the bidder, the amount of interest which shall have accrued on the bonds bid for between the date of the payment for said bonds and the last preceding interest maturity date. Each bid shall be in writing and signed by the bidder and sealed, and shall be deposited with the state treasurer not later than the last business day preceding the date of sale. Each bid shall be accompanied by the deposit with the state treasurer, either in cash or by certified check on a reputable bank within the State of California, to the order of the State of California, of one-tenth of the amount of the par value of the bond or lot of bonds bid for. Such deposit of each unsuccessful bidder shall be returned to him immediately upon the nonacceptance of his bid, and such deposit of the successful bidder shall immediately upon the acceptance of his bid become and be the property of the State of California and be placed in the state treasury to the credit of the "University of California building fund" hereinafter mentioned, and shall be credited to the successful bidder upon the purchase price of the bonds bid for in case such price is paid in full by him within the time hereinafter prescribed. At the time of sale the state treasurer shall open said bids and accept the bid of the highest bidder for cash, save and except that no bid shall be accepted which is lower in amount than the par value of the bonds bid for, and that the state treasurer may, in his discretion, reject all bids. The purchase price of the bonds sold shall be payable within ten days after the acceptance of the bid therefor, and if not so paid the successful bidder shall have no right in or to said bonds or by reason of said bid, or to the recovery of said deposit accompanying said bid, or to any allowance or credit by reason of such deposit. In case the purchase price is not so paid, the bonds so sold but not paid for shall be resold by the state treasurer upon notice as hereinafter provided in case of original sale. Bonds sold shall be deliverable to the purchaser immediately upon, and not before, the payment of the purchase price therefor. Before delivering any of said bonds, the state treasurer shall detach therefrom all interest coupons which have matured before the date of the payment of the purchase price therefor. The state treasurer may, by public announcement at the time and place fixed by him for said sale, continue such sale to such time and place as he may at the time of said continuance designate. When a sale is so continued no notice thereof need be given, other than the public announcement of such continuance by the state treasurer as just hereinbefore provided. The state treasurer shall give notice of the time and place of sale by publication in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, in

In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expense and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised.

There is hereby created in and for the state treasury a fund to be known and designated as the "University of California building fund," and immediately after such sale of bonds the treasurer of the state shall pay into the state treasury and cause to be placed in said "University of California building fund" the total amount received from the sale of said bonds, except such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon. The amount that shall have been paid at such sale as accrued interest on the bonds sold shall be by the treasurer of the state, immediately after such sale, paid into the treasury of the state and placed in a fund to be known as the "interest and sinking fund of the University of California building bonds."

of California building fund"
created.

The moneys placed in the "University of California building fund," pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be used under the direction of the regents of the University of California exclusively for the completion of the construction of said library building and the construction of the other buildings hereinbefore mentioned, the furnishing and equipping of said buildings, the construction and equipment of a power plant, and tunnels and subways for steam and electric lines in connection with said buildings and neighboring buildings of the University of California, the doing of necessary landscaping immediately surrounding said buildings, and for meeting the expenses of the sale of said bonds.

moneys.

Moneys shall be drawn from said "University of California building fund" for the purposes of this act, upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state, upon claims made by the regents of the University of California and approved by the state board of control.

An act to amend section two thousand six hundred ninety-seven of the Political Code, relating to the abandonment of highways.

[Approved March 23, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand six hundred ninety-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Petition to abandon highways.

2697. Any ten freeholders, two of whom must be residents of the road district in which some part of the property affected is situated, and who are taxable therein for road purposes, may petition the board of supervisors in writing to vacate, discontinue, abandon and abolish any public highway, road, street, avenue, alley, lane or place, or any part of any such road, street, avenue, alley, lane or place.

CHAPTER 32.

An act to create a state council of defense to make investigations into the effect of the occurrence of war upon the civil and economical life of the people of the State of California; to recommend to the governor measures to provide for the public security, the better protection of public health, a fuller development of the economic resources of the state and the encouragement of military training; to impose upon public officers certain duties in connection herewith; and to make appropriation for the purposes of this act.

[Approved March 29, 1917. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

State council of defense
created

SECTION 1. There is hereby created a council, known as the state council of defense to consist of not more than thirty-three members who shall be appointed by the governor, to serve at his pleasure, from among those holding public office under the State of California, from among the personnel of the army and navy of the United States and other branches of the national administration with the consent of federal authority, from members of the staff of the University of California and from qualified citizens of the state and nation.

Duties

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the state council of defense at once to take under consideration the effects of the occurrence of war upon the people of the State of California; to consider measures for public defense and security, for the protection of routes of communication, for the betterment and protection of public health, for the public care and assistance of individuals and classes upon whom the hardships occasioned by war would fall most heavily, for the fuller development of the resources of the state, particularly those from which are derived the supplies of food and other commodities upon which the conduct of war makes especial drain; to encourage the military training of the citizens of the state; to examine into measures to increase the public revenue to meet war demands and to effect the elimination of waste and extravagance; and to consider measures to be taken to meet the exigencies of all situations occasioned by war.

SEC. 3. The governor shall be ex officio chairman of the state council of defense. He shall designate the vice chairman, and shall appoint an executive committee and such subcommittees as he shall deem advisable. He shall have power to employ such assistance and to make such expenditures as he may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. He may, when he deems it expedient, dissolve the state council of defense or cause its activities to be suspended or terminated. Officers.

SEC. 4. Members of the state council of defense shall serve without pay, but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder; provided, however, that the vice chairman shall devote his entire time to the work of the state council of defense and shall receive such compensation as the governor may determine. Compensation.

SEC. 5. The headquarters of said council shall be in the state capitol, but the governor may establish branch offices elsewhere and may call meetings to be held at such times and places as he may deem expedient. It shall be the duty of every public officer, board, or commission of the State of California to render to the governor and to the state council of defense, at the request of the governor, all possible assistance and to make such investigations and supply such data as the governor may at any time require. Headquarters.

SEC. 6. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to carry out the purposes of this act. The state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants in favor of the governor from time to time in such sums as the governor may designate, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same. This appropriation is hereby exempted from the operation of the provisions of section six hundred seventy-two of the Political Code; provided, however, that no liability in excess of one hundred dollars shall be incurred without the approval of the governor; and provided, further, that the state council of defense shall submit to the legislature, through the governor, a report including as full a statement of the Appropriation.

activities of the council as is consistent with the public interest, together with an account of the expenditures made by the council, or authorized by it, in as full detail as the public interest will permit.

Urgency
measure.

SEC. 7. Inasmuch as the President of the United States has called the congress to meet in special session to consider measures for the national defense and has summoned the national guard of the State of California, it is hereby declared that this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace and safety, and that under the provisions of section one of article four of the constitution an urgency exists, and this act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 33.

An act amending an act entitled, "An act to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory to municipal corporations, for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part thereof, and for the districting government and municipal control of such annexed territory," approved June 11, 1913, and amended April 29, 1915, by amending sections three, four, and five.

[Approved April 2, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1913,
p. 589

SECTION 1. Section three of an act entitled "An act to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory to municipal corporations, for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part thereof, and for the districting government and municipal control of such annexed territory," approved June 11, 1913, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Should majority in

favor.

Sec. 3. If it shall appear from the canvass of the returns of the election held in the territory proposed to be annexed to any municipal corporation, as provided in section two of this act, that a majority of all the votes cast in such outside territory on the question of such annexation are in favor of annexation, such legislative body may, by ordinance, approve such annexation, or, in case of failure to so approve, by ordinance, such annexation, shall then submit to the electors of such municipal corporation the question whether such territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in and made a part of such municipal corporation. Such question may be so submitted at the next general municipal election to be held in such municipal corporation, or it may be so submitted prior to such general election, either at a special election called therein for that purpose, or at any other special municipal election therein, except an election at which the submission of such question is prohibited by law. Whenever such question is submitted at any election in such municipal corporation, such question shall be stated in the notice of such election and on the ballots to be used at such election, and the electors shall vote thereon, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of the election in the territory proposed to be annexed. And whenever such question is submitted at any such municipal election, general or special, as above provided, it shall be submitted and voted upon as other questions are required by law to be submitted and voted upon at such elections, except in particulars otherwise in this act set forth; and the laws applicable to and governing the time and manner of giving notice, conducting, holding, canvassing the returns, and declaring the result of any such election shall apply to and govern the submission of such question to the electors of such municipal corporation at any such election.

SEC. 2. Section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913,
p. 590.

Sec. 4. Immediately upon the completion of the canvass of the returns of any election in any municipal corporation at which the question of annexation of new territory thereto was submitted, as in this act provided, the legislative body of such municipal corporation shall cause a record to be made, and entered upon its minutes, showing the total number of votes cast in such municipal corporation upon such question at such election, the number thereof cast in favor of annexation, and the number thereof cast against annexation. If it shall appear from the canvass of the returns of such election, that a majority of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation voting on the question of such annexation are in favor thereof, the clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk of the legislative body of such municipal corporation shall make and certify, under the seal thereof, and transmit to the secretary of state, a copy of the record of the canvass of the returns of the election in such new territory and of the election in such municipal corporation at which the question of the annexation of the said new territory was submitted and entered upon its minutes as aforesaid, together with a statement showing the dates of such elections in said new territory and in said municipal corporation, and the time and the result of the canvass of the returns of such elections, and containing a description of such territory. If such annexation has been approved by ordinance of such legislative body, as herein authorized, a certified copy of such ordinance, giving the date of its passage, shall be substituted in said document in place of the copy of the record of the canvass of the returns of the election in such municipal corporation provided for in case such annexation was not approved by ordinance. Said document, in either case, shall be filed by the secretary of state immediately upon the receipt thereof. From and after the date of the filing of said document in the office of the secretary of state, the annexation of such territory so proposed to be Record of annexed and described therein, shall be deemed to be and shall be complete, and thenceforth such annexed territory shall be, to all intents and purposes, a part of such municipal corporation, except only that no property within such annexed territory shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of such municipal corporation contracted prior to or existing at the time of such annexation, excepting as hereinafter provided. No territory which, at the time of the presentation of a petition to the legislative body of any municipal corporation for the annexation of such territory thereto forms any part of any municipal corporation, shall be annexed under the provisions of this act.

Territory of a city may not be annexed.

Stats. 1917, p. 306.

Sec. 3. Section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Question of taxing annexed territory to pay indebtedness of city.

Sec. 5. Whenever any municipal corporation to which it is proposed to annex territory under the provisions of this act shall have incurred, or authorized the incurring of, any bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement or improvements, the petition presented to the legislative body of such municipal corporation, as provided in section two of this act, may contain a request that the question to be submitted to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such municipal corporation, shall be, whether such new territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in, and made a part of, said municipal corporation, and the property therein be, after such annexation, subject to taxation, equally with the property within such municipal corporation, to pay any specified portion of such bonded indebtedness of such municipal corporation, outstanding at the date of the filing of such petition or theretofore authorized. If such request shall be made in said petition, proceedings shall be had thereon, and an election shall be called and held in the territory proposed to be annexed, the same in all respects as upon a petition presented under the provisions of section two of this act, excepting that the notice of election shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted to wit: that it is proposed to annex to, incorporate in, and make a part of, such municipal corporation, the territory sought to be annexed, specifically describing the boundaries thereof, and that the property therein, shall, after such annexation, be subject to taxation, equally with the property within such municipal corporation, to pay such specified bonded indebtedness of such municipal corporation, outstanding at the date of the said annexation, or indebtedness theretofore authorized and to be represented by bonds of such municipal corporation thereafter to be issued. The said notice shall, in general terms, specify the improvement or improvements for which such indebtedness was so incurred or authorized, and state the amount or amounts of such indebtedness already incurred, outstanding at the date of the first publication of such notice, and the amount or amounts of such indebtedness theretofore authorized, and to be represented by bonds thereafter to be issued, and the maximum rate of interest payable, or to be payable on such indebtedness; and upon the canvass of the returns of the votes cast in any territory proposed to be annexed at any election held therein under the provisions of this section, if it shall appear that a majority of all the votes cast in such outside territory are in favor of annexation, the legislative body of such municipal corporation may, by ordinance, approve such annexation; or, in case of failure to so approve, by ordinance, such annexation, shall submit to the electors thereof the question whether such territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in and made a part of such municipal corporation. Such question may be so submitted to the electors of such municipal corporation in the same manner as provided in section three of this act, and if it shall appear from the canvass of the returns of the election in such municipal corporation at which such question shall have been submitted, that a majority of the qualified electors thereof voting upon the question of such annexation are in favor thereof, like proceedings shall thereupon be taken, and with the same force and effect as provided in sections three and four of this act. The provisions of sections two, three and four of this act, so far as applicable, shall apply to annexation under the provisions of this section. From and after the date of the filing in the office of the secretary of state of the document containing a copy of the record of the proceedings for the annexation of such new territory to such municipal corporation, as provided in section four of this act, the annexation of such territory so proposed to be annexed, and described therein, shall be deemed, and shall be, complete, and thenceforth such annexed territory shall be, to all intents and purposes a part of such municipal corporation, and the property within such annexed territory shall be taxed to pay the bonded indebtedness or liability of such corporation, specified in said notice, equally with the property within such municipal corporation as it existed prior to the filing of such petition.

The property in any such new territory annexed to any municipal corporation, under the provisions of this act, after twelve o'clock meridian of the first Monday in March, and before the completion of the assessment roll of such municipal corporation, shall be subject to taxation for municipal purposes for the fiscal year following said first Monday in March.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the consolidation of municipal corporations," approved June 11, 1913, and amended April 29, 1915, by amending sections three, four and five.

[Approved April 2, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

p. 579

SECTION 1. Section three of an act entitled "An act to provide for the consolidation of municipal corporations," approved June 11, 1913, and amended April 29, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Should municipal

Sec. 3. If it shall appear from the canvass of the returns of the election mentioned in section two of this act, that a majority of all the votes cast in the municipal corporation in which such election was held, upon the question of consolidation submitted at such election, are in favor of such consolidation, the clerk of the legislative body of such municipal corporation, shall forthwith make, under the seal thereof, and deliver to the clerk of the legislative body of the other of the municipal corporations proposed to be so consolidated, to wit, the municipal corporation having the greater population, a copy in duplicate of the record of such canvass, together with a statement of the proposition submitted at such election. The clerk of the legislative body of such municipal corporation so having the greatest population shall present one such copy of said record and said statement to such legislative body without delay, and retain the other to be filed as hereinafter provided. Upon receiving the copy of such record so presented such legislative body may, by ordinance, approve such consolidation, or, in case of failure to so approve, by ordinance, such consolidation, shall then submit to the electors of such other of the municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated and having the greatest population, the question whether such consolidation shall be effected. Such question may be so submitted at the next general municipal election to be held in such municipal corporation, or it may be so submitted prior to such general election, either at a special election called therein for that purpose, or at any other special municipal election therein, except an election at which the submission of such question is prohibited by law. Whenever such question is submitted at any election in such municipal corporation, such question shall be stated in the notice of such election and on the ballots to be used at such election, and the electors shall vote thereon, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of the election mentioned in section two of this act. And whenever such question is submitted at any such municipal election, general or special, as provided in this section, it shall be submitted and voted upon as other questions are required by law to be submitted and voted upon at such elections, except in particulars otherwise in this act set forth; and the laws applicable to and governing the time and manner of giving notice, conducting, holding, canvassing the returns, and declaring the result of any such election shall apply to and govern the submission of such question to the electors of such municipal corporation at any such election.

SEC. 2. Section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913.
p. 580.

Sec. 4. Immediately upon the completion of the canvass of the returns of any election in the municipal corporation having the greater population of two municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated, at which the question of such consolidation was submitted, as provided in section three of this act, the legislative body of such municipal corporation having the greater population shall declare the result of such election, and shall cause a record to be made and entered upon its minutes, stating the proposition submitted, and showing the total number of votes cast in such municipal corporation upon the question of such consolidation at such election, the number thereof cast in favor of consolidation, and the number thereof cast against consolidation. Should
favor. If it shall appear from the canvass of the returns of such election, that a majority of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation, voting on the question of such consolidation, are in favor thereof, the clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk of the legislative body of such municipal corporation shall promptly make and certify, under the seal thereof, and transmit to the secretary of state, a copy of the record of the canvass of the returns of the election in such municipal corporation having the greater population, at which the question of such consolidation was submitted, and entered upon its minutes as aforesaid, and one copy theretofore delivered to him as aforesaid, of the record of the canvass of the returns of the election in the other of the municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated, together with a statement showing the date of each such election in each such municipal corporation, and the time and the result of the canvass of the returns of each such election. If such consolidation has been approved by ordinance of such legislative body, as herein authorized, a certified copy of such ordinance, giving the date of its passage, shall be substituted in said document in place of the copy of the record of the canvass of the returns of the election in such municipality provided for in case such consolidation was not approved by ordinance. Said document, in either case, shall be filed in his office by the secretary of state immediately upon receipt thereof. Consolidation complete. Upon the filing of said document in the office of secretary of state, such consolidation shall be deemed to be complete and such municipal corporations shall be deemed to be consolidated and the one of such municipal corporations not having the greatest population, shall be deemed to be, and shall be, annexed and joined to and merged into the one of said municipal corporations having the greatest population.

Stats. 1915,
p. 311.

SEC. 3. Section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Election of taxation to pay bonded indebtedness.

SEC. 5. Whenever any two municipal corporations are proposed to be consolidated, under the provisions of this act, and either or both of such municipal corporations shall have theretofore incurred, or authorized the incurring of, any bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement or improvements, the petition provided for in section two of this act may contain a request that the question to be submitted to the electors of the municipal corporation proposed to be consolidated shall be, whether such municipal corporation shall be consolidated, as hereinbefore in this act provided, and the property in such municipal corporations, shall after such consolidation, be subject to taxation at the same rate, to pay any of such bonded indebtedness specified in said petition; provided, however, that if such petition contains a request that the property in such municipal corporations be, after such consolidation, subject to taxation to pay all of the bonded indebtedness incurred or authorized of such municipal corporations, such bonded indebtedness and improvements for which such bonded indebtedness was incurred or authorized may be described in such petition and in all other proceedings hereunder as "the bonded indebtedness of ----- (insert the names of the municipal corporations)." without specifying the improvements. If such request be made in such petition, proceedings shall be had thereon and the question of such consolidation shall be submitted to the electors in such municipal corporation not having the greatest population, the same in all respects as upon a petition presented under the provisions of section two, excepting that the notice of election shall, in addition to the matters required by said section, distinctly state that it is proposed that the property in such municipal corporations shall be taxed at the same rate to pay such bonded indebtedness set forth in said petition. Except as hereinabove provided, the said notice shall, in addition, in general terms specify the improvement or improvements for which such indebtedness was so incurred or authorized, and state the amount or amounts of such indebtedness already incurred, outstanding at the date of the first publication of such notice, and the amount or amounts of such indebtedness theretofore authorized, and to be represented by bonds thereafter to be issued, and the maximum rate of interest payable, or to be payable on such indebtedness.

Notice to

provements

Canvass of returns.

The returns of such election held in pursuance of such notice shall be canvassed, as provided in section two of this act, by the legislative body of the municipal corporation in which such election was held, and immediately upon the completion of such canvass, such legislative body shall declare the result of such election and shall cause a record of such canvass to be made and entered upon its minutes, as provided in said section two,

and there shall be included in such record a statement of such bonded indebtedness incurred and outstanding, or authorized, as set forth in the notice of such election, for the payment of which the property in said municipal corporations shall be subject to taxation as set forth in the notice of such election. If it shall appear from such canvass that a majority of all votes cast at such election upon the question of such consolidation, are in favor thereof, the clerk of such legislative body in which such election was held shall forthwith deliver a copy in duplicate of such record and statement to the clerk of the legislative body of the other of the municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated, and having the greatest population. Thereupon the legislative body of such other municipal corporation having the greatest population may, by ordinance, approve such consolidation; or, in case of failure to so approve, by ordinance, such consolidation, shall submit the question of such consolidation to the electors of such other municipal corporation at an election therein in the same manner in all respects as provided in this section for submitting to the electors in such municipal corporation not having the greatest population, and, in other respects, in the same manner as provided in section three of this act. After the passage of said ordinance approving such consolidation, or, if such consolidation was not approved by ordinance if, upon the canvass of the returns of such election it shall appear therefrom, that a majority of the votes cast at such election in such other municipal corporation having the greatest population, upon the question of such consolidation, are in favor thereof, the same proceeding shall be had as provided in section four of this act, and such consolidation shall be deemed to be, and shall be, completed in the same manner, and with the same effect as in said section provided. After the completion of the consolidation of such municipal corporations, as hereinbefore provided, the property in said municipal corporations so consolidated shall thereafter be taxed at the same rate, to pay such bonded indebtedness set forth in said petition.

The property in any such municipal corporations consolidated, under the provisions of this act, after twelve o'clock meridian of the first Monday in March and before the completion of the assessment roll of such municipal corporation having the greater population, shall be subject to taxation for municipal purposes by said consolidated city for the fiscal year following said first Monday in March.

An act to amend section one hundred three of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to justices' courts and justices.

[Approved April 2, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one hundred three of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Justices' courts.

103. There shall be at least one justice's court in each of the townships of the state, for which one justice of the peace must be elected by the qualified electors of the township, at the general state election next preceding the expiration of the term of office of his predecessor. In any county where, in the opinion of the board of supervisors, the public convenience requires it, the said board may, by order, provide that two justices' courts may be established in any township, designating the same in such order; and in such case, one justice of the peace must be elected in the manner herein provided for each of said courts. In every city of the first and one-half class there must be five justices of the peace, and in every city of the second class there must be two justices of the peace, and in every city of the second and one-half class there must be one justice of the peace, and in every city of the third and fourth classes there must be one justice of the peace, to be elected in like manner by the electors of such cities or town, respectively; and such justices of the peace of cities shall have the same jurisdiction, civil and criminal, as justices of the peace of townships and township justice's courts. Said justices of the peace of cities and justice's courts of cities shall also have jurisdiction of all proceedings for the violation of any ordinance of any city in which courts are established, both civil and criminal, and of all actions for the collection of any license required by any ordinance of any such city, and generally exercise all powers, duties and jurisdiction, civil and criminal, of police judges, judges of police courts, recorder's court or mayor's courts, within such city. No person is eligible to the office of justice of the peace in any city of the first, first and one-half, second, second and one-half or third class, who has not been admitted to practice law in this state; and no justice of the peace shall be permitted to practice law before another justice of the peace in the city, town or county in which he resides, or to have a partner engaged in the practice of law in any justice's court in such city, town or county.

Salaries

Every city justice of the peace in any city of the first and one-half class shall receive a salary of four thousand two hundred dollars per annum, and every city justice of the peace in any city of the second class shall receive a salary of three thousand six hundred dollars per annum, and every city justice of the peace in any city of the second and one-half class shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars per annum, and every city justice of the peace in any city of the third class shall receive a salary of two thousand dollars per annum, and every city justice of the peace in any city of the fourth class shall receive a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum; and each justice of the peace shall be provided by the city authorities, or by the board of supervisors in counties where the salary of the city justice of the peace is paid by the county, with a suitable office in which to hold his court. The compensation of the justice of the peace of any city shall be paid by warrants drawn each month upon the salary fund, or if there be no salary fund, then upon the general fund of such city or county, as the case may be, such warrants to be audited and paid as salaries of any other city or county officials. All fees which are chargeable by law for services rendered by such city justice of the peace in cities aforesaid shall be by them respectively collected, and on the first Monday of each month every such city justice, or his clerk shall make a report, under oath, to the city or county treasurer, as the case may be of the amount of fees so by him collected and pay the amount so collected into the city or county treasury, as the case may be to the credit of the general fund thereof. Said salaries shall be the sole compensation of said city justices.

An act to amend section one hundred thirty-seven of the Civil Code, relating to temporary alimony and permanent support and maintenance of wife.

[Approved April 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one hundred thirty-seven of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

137. When an action for divorce is pending, the court may, in its discretion, require the husband to pay as alimony any money necessary to enable the wife to support herself and her children, or to prosecute or defend the action. When the husband wilfully deserts the wife or when the husband wilfully fails to provide for the wife or when the wife has any cause of action for divorce as provided in section ninety-two of this code, she may, without applying for divorce, maintain in the superior court an action against him for permanent support and maintenance of herself or of herself and children. During the pendency of such action the court may, in its discretion, require the husband to pay as alimony any money necessary for the prosecution of the action and for support and maintenance, and execution may issue therefor in the discretion of the court. The court, in granting the wife permanent support and maintenance of herself, or of herself and children, in any such action, shall make the same disposition of the community property and of the homestead, if any, as would have been made if the marriage had been dissolved by the decree of a court of competent jurisdiction. The final judgment in such action may be enforced by the court by such order or orders as in its discretion it may from time to time deem necessary, and such order or orders may be varied, altered, or revoked at the discretion of the court.

SECTION 1. There is hereby added to the act entitled “An act to promote the better education of nurses and the better care of the sick in the State of California, to provide for and regulate the examination and registration of graduate nurses, and to provide for the issuance of certificates of registration as registered nurses to qualified applicants by the state board of health, and to repeal an act approved March 20, 1905, entitled 'An act to promote the better education of the practice of nursing the sick in the State of California, to provide for the issuance of certificates of registration as a registered nurse, to qualified applicants of the board of regents of the University of California, and to provide penalties for violation thereof,' approved June 12, 1913, as amended May 19, 1915," a new section to be numbered four and one-half and to read as follows:

Sec. 4½. Any person who shall wilfully make any false representation or who shall impersonate any other person or permit or aid in any manner any person to impersonate him in connection with any examination or application for examination or registration or request to be examined or registered, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. False representation in nurse's examination.

SEC. 2. Section eleven of said act approved June 12, 1913, is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915, p. 604.

Sec. 11. Within ten days after the beginning of each month the secretary of the state board of health shall report to the controller the amount and source of all collections made under the provisions of this act, and at the same time all such amounts shall be paid into the state treasury and shall be placed to the credit of the special fund to be known as the fund for examination and registration of nurses; provided, that whenever and as often as there is in the state treasury to the credit of the fund for the examination and registration of nurses, funds in excess of ten thousand dollars the same may be invested by the state board of control in the same manner that the funds of the state school land fund are invested and the interest upon such investment when collected shall be placed to the credit of the fund for the examination and registration of nurses. All amounts paid into this fund shall be held subject to the order of the state board of health, to be used only for the purpose of meeting necessary expenses in the performance of the purposes of and the duties imposed by this act. Claims against the fund shall be audited by the state board of health and by the board of control and shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the state controller. Monthly report of receipts.

CHAPTER 52.

An act providing for the creation, organization and government of joint highway districts composed of two or more counties of the State of California.

[Approved April 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Joint highway district may be created.

SECTION 1. A joint highway district, to be composed of two or more counties may be created, organized and governed for the purpose of constructing public highways therein as in this act provided. The word "county" as used in this act shall include any "city and county," but such city and county is herein regarded solely as a political subdivision of the state, and not as a municipality.

Resolution initiating proceedings.

SEC. 2. The board of supervisors of any county may initiate proceedings for the creation of a joint highway district to be composed of two or more counties of the state by the adoption of a resolution reciting:

(a) That the public interest requires the construction of a public highway, stating generally the location and course thereof, and naming the counties in or through which such highway will pass.

(b) The names of the counties interested in and which will be benefited by such highway construction.

(c) That it is proposed to create a joint highway district composed of the counties so named.

When adopted, certified copies of the same shall be transmitted to the advisory board of the state engineering department of the State of California, and to the clerks of the boards of supervisors of the counties named in the resolution.

SEC. 3. Immediately upon receipt of a copy of the resolution adopted as aforesaid, the said advisory board, either at a regular or special meeting, shall fix a time and place in the county adopting the resolution at which the matter of the creation of a joint highway district will be heard and determined. Notice of such hearing shall be published five days in one daily newspaper published in each of the counties named in said resolution, or two times in a newspaper published less than six days a week or if no newspaper be published in any county then such notice shall be posted in three public places in such county for a period of ten days. The time fixed for such hearing shall be not less than thirty nor more than forty days from the date of meeting at which the said advisory board caused such notice to be given.

publication.

SEC. 4. Proof of the publication shall be made by the affidavit of the publisher, manager or principal clerk of the newspaper making such publication, or person posting the notice, and such notice, the publication, or posting thereof and proof thereof shall be sufficient to vest said advisory board of the state engineering department with jurisdiction and power to hear, determine and order the creation of the proposed joint highway district. A copy of such notice shall be mailed to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each of the counties named in the initiatory resolution.

SEC. 5. Upon the receipt of such notice it shall be the duty of each of the boards of supervisors to name and appoint either one of its members or some other suitable person and each of the persons so appointed shall constitute a member of the board of directors of the joint highway district when created. It shall be the duty of each of the persons so appointed to attend the hearing fixed by the said advisory board. The said directors so appointed, may meet from time to time in advance of the time fixed for said hearing and may make and enter into an agreement limiting the amount to be assessed upon each of the counties to comprise the district when formed, and such limitation so agreed upon shall not thereafter be changed except by the unanimous vote of all the directors.

Board of directors named

SEC. 6. At the time and place fixed for said hearing any person may appear and offer objections to the creation of the joint highway district, and the said advisory board shall hear such objections and may continue such hearing from time to time and all parties shall be deemed to have notice of any such continuance.

Objections to creating district.

SEC. 7. At the conclusion of such hearing the said advisory board shall determine all matters relating to the creation of such joint highway district and may sustain or overrule any objection offered. The objections offered need not be specifically set forth, but may be sustained or overruled in general terms. An objection made by any person appointed a member of the proposed board of directors shall prevent the creation of the district. If no objections are made or if all objections shall be overruled, then the said advisory board shall make and enter in its minutes an order creating such joint highway district. The order shall contain the names of the several counties composing the district and the names of the persons constituting its board of directors. Districts shall be numbered in the order of their creation. A certified copy of such order shall be filed with the secretary of state and transmitted to the clerks of the several boards of supervisors of the counties composing the district. Upon the filing of the said order with the secretary of state said joint highway district shall be deemed created and organized, and shall exercise all of the powers granted by this act, and shall be a public corporation under the designation of "joint highway district No. -- of the State of California."

Order creating district.

SEC. 8. The purpose for which the joint districts may be created is to provide the necessary authority and means to construct and maintain the highway described in the initiatory resolution in and through the several counties constituting the district; such highway to be continuous and afford adequate intercommunication for vehicular traffic. This act shall be so construed as to facilitate the accomplishment of this purpose.

Purpose of districts

Board of directors to manage district.

SEC. 9. Said joint highway districts shall be managed, and the powers herein conferred thereon, shall be exercised by a board of directors. Said directors shall be chosen and appointed as follows: One by the board of supervisors of each of the counties composing said district either from its members or other suitable person. Said directors shall serve during the pleasure of the appointing power. They shall receive no compensation for their services, but may be allowed actual expenses incurred by them in connection with the discharge of their duties under this act Place of business.

SEC. 10. Said board shall fix a place within the district for the transaction of its business, but may hold its meetings from time to time in any place in said district that will best serve the convenience of the public. A majority of the members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. It may make all rules necessary to the orderly transaction of such business. It shall appoint a secretary; may employ such additional clerical, or legal or engineering service as may be required from time to time and fix the compensation to be paid therefor. Said board shall organize within thirty days from the date of the creation of the district and the time and place of meeting for purposes of organization shall be fixed by the director chosen by the supervisors of the county adopting the initiatory resolution. It shall choose one of its members as president of the board, who shall preside at its meetings. A vice president shall be appointed who shall act in the absence or disability of the president. The president shall perform such duties as the board may designate.

Vice president.

Powers

SEC. 11. Said joint highway district through its board of directors shall have power—

Construct highways.

To lay out, construct and maintain a highway as specified in section three of this act.

Accept gifts, etc.

To accept in the name of the district all gifts, donations or contributions from any source whatsoever made to further the purpose of this act, and the counties composing the district may convey such public highways as may be utilized as a part of the highway herein authorized to be constructed.

Acquire lands.

To acquire necessary lands, or rights of way for purposes of such highway.

Eminent domain.

To exercise the right of eminent domain necessary to acquire lands or rights of way for highway purposes.

Personal property.

To acquire and use such personal property as may be necessary in the exercise of the powers herein granted.

Labor.

To employ such labor and service as may be necessary.

Keep funds.

To arrange for the safe keeping of all funds belonging to the district and to this end may appoint a treasurer or depository, and exact from him such bonds or other security as may be proper.

Sue.

To sue and be sued.

Seal.

To adopt a seal.

SEC. 12. For the purpose of providing a contingent fund for the district and to meet the incidental expenses thereof, the boards of supervisors of the several counties comprising the district are hereby authorized and directed to appropriate from any money received by such counties under the provisions of the "vehicle act," in effect January 1, 1916, or any act in continuance thereof or supplemental thereto, such percentage thereof as may be determined by the board of directors of the joint district by a resolution adopted by a vote of all of its members. Such sums so appropriated shall be paid by a warrant drawn in the name of the joint highway district, and shall be deposited with the treasurer or depository of the district.

SEC. 13. As soon as practicable after the organization of the board of directors of the district, said board shall cause to be surveyed and located the highway authorized by this act to be constructed or such portion thereof as may be deemed expedient, and for that purpose may employ an engineer and necessary assistants. Upon the completion of such survey the engineer shall file a report thereof with the board of directors together with all necessary maps, drawings and plans of construction, other than detailed drawings and specifications, also an estimate covering the cost of the completion of said highway, including rights of way therefor and interest to be paid during construction.

Survey of highway.

Report by engineer.

SEC. 14. Upon filing said report the board of directors shall fix a time and place for considering the same. The hearing thereon may be continued from time to time or from place to place in the different counties, if so desired.

Hearing on report.

Upon such hearing being had said board of directors shall make an assessment covering such estimated cost, upon the State of California, and the several counties comprising the district according to the benefits that may result from the construction of such highway to said state and counties and the people residing therein, or may assess not to exceed one-fourth of such estimated cost upon such land in private ownership as may be benefited thereby in the manner provided by this act.

Assessment covering estimated cost.

SEC. 15. Upon the conclusion of such hearing such board of directors shall make an order determining the amount of the benefits to accrue to the state and to each county comprising the district and to the people residing therein and shall make an assessment against the state and said counties in proportion to the benefits so to accrue, in a sum equal to said estimated cost, or as much thereof as may be necessary, but said estimated cost if deemed excessive may be reduced to such an amount as the board of directors shall seem proper. The amount of such assessment shall be certified to and transmitted to the state board of control and to the boards of supervisors of the counties constituting the district.

Order determining benefits.

SEC. 16. In case the state board of control or the board of supervisors deem that the assessment imposed upon the state or such county be excessive or that it has been inequitably treated, the state board of control or such board of supervisors, within forty days from the receipt of the certificate referred to in the preceding section, may appeal from the order of the board of directors of the district to the advisory board of the state engineering department. Such appeal shall be in writing and set forth the nature of the objection and a copy thereof shall be filed with the board of directors of the district, with the advisory board of the state engineering department and with the boards of supervisors of the counties constituting the district.

Hearing.

SEC. 17. Upon filing such appeal, the said advisory board shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the same. It may take testimony and hear all parties interested. It may change or modify any of the plans of the engineer, and may reduce the estimate of cost or change or modify any assessment or make a new assessment. Its judgment shall be final and conclusive, and a copy thereof shall be filed with the state board of control and with the boards of supervisors of the counties composing the district.

Judgment.

Assessment charge on State and counties.

SEC. 18. The amount of the assessment imposed by the board of directors of the district, or by the said advisory board, shall be a charge, respectively, upon the state and the counties composing the district to the amount determined as herein provided, and shall be payable in five annual installments; provided, that should any installment exceed a sum equal to that which could be raised by a tax of five cents upon each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation as the same appears upon the assessment roll of a county, then in the case of such county the number of annual installments may be increased to such a number that the amount of each installment will be less than that which would result from the levy of such tax. The first installment shall be payable on or before the first day of January following the filing of the assessment with the state board of control and boards of supervisors; provided, said assessment shall have been so filed prior to the first day of September preceding; otherwise it shall be payable on the first day of the second January succeeding such filing. The remaining installments shall be payable on the same day in each succeeding year.

Installments.

Time for payment of first installment.

Payment of installments

SEC. 19. On or before the time fixed by law for levying taxes for county purposes, the boards of supervisors of each county composing the district shall make provision for the payment of the amount of the installment of the assessment, either by the payment of the same from the moneys received from the state as herein stated or from a tax levied for that purpose, which tax shall be in addition to all taxes levied for county purposes. The amount assessed against the state in the discretion of the state board of control, may be paid in one installment and from any fund now available, or which may hereafter be made available for the purpose, or out of special appropriations for the purpose made by the legislature. Moneys shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state, upon demands made by the state engineering department and audited by the state board of control.

SEC. 20. All moneys received by the joint highway district, unless otherwise provided herein, shall be kept in a fund to be named "construction fund" and shall be paid out upon the order of the board of directors only for the construction of the highway herein provided. "Construction fund."

SEC. 21. At any time after the assessment, either against the state, the several counties or the land within an assessment district has been made, the board of directors of the district may anticipate the payment thereof and may issue "revenue bonds" against the fund into which shall be paid all sums paid on account of the assessments imposed. The maturity of any bonds issued shall be subsequent to the date upon which any installment of assessment is due and the amount to become due shall not exceed the amount of such installment of assessment available to pay the same. The intent of the foregoing provision is that there shall be available for the payment of the principal and interest of all bonds issued a sum sufficient to pay the same at the time such interest and principal become due, and it shall be the duty of the board of directors to make provision for the payment of all bonds issued and interest thereon prior to their sale and delivery. "Revenue bonds."
Maturity.

The bonds shall be issued at such times and in such amounts as may be required to meet the payment of the demands of the district, as may be determined by the board of directors. The form, denomination, rate of interest, time, place and manner of payment and all matters relating to such issuance shall be determined by the board of directors of the district; provided, that the rate of interest shall not exceed five per centum per annum. Board of directors determine form, etc.
Interest rate.

The bonds so issued shall be sold in such amounts as the board of directors may determine. The state board of control is hereby authorized to purchase such bonds and pay for them out of any surplus money in the state treasury which, in its judgment, shall not be required for governmental purposes prior to the maturity of such bonds. The boards of supervisors of the several counties shall likewise have authority to purchase such bonds with any surplus funds under their control. Purchase by state board of control.

SEC. 22. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the board of directors that any land under private ownership will be benefited by the construction of the highway herein provided for, said board of directors, after the receipt of the report and estimates of costs herein required to be made and filed, may adopt a resolution of intention substantially in the following form: Highway assessment district.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION.

WHEREAS, It appears to the satisfaction of the board of directors of joint highway district number ---- of the State Resolution of intention of California, that land under private ownership will be benefited by the construction of a highway provided for in an act entitled: "An act providing for the creation, organization and government of joint highway districts composed of two or more counties of the State of California," therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the intention of the board of directors of said joint highway district to create a highway assessment district to comprise all the land under private ownership within the following boundaries to wit: (Here set forth the boundaries of the proposed district).

Further resolved, That it is the intention to assess the sum of $-----, being a ----- part of the estimated cost of said highway construction as appears upon the report of the district engineer filed in the office of the board of directors of said district, upon the land within the boundaries of said proposed district as herein described in the manner provided in said act.

Further resolved, That ----- the ----- day of ----- 19__ at the hour of ----- at (meeting place of the board of directors) is hereby fixed as the time and place for hearing all objections that may be made to the creation of said district or the amount of benefits to be assessed as aforesaid; also to hear and determine all claims for damages that may result from the construction of the highway aforesaid.

Reference to the aforesaid report of the district engineer for further particulars is here made.

Adopted by the board of directors of joint highway district number ___ of the State of California, this ___ day of -----, 19-----.

Directors.

Attest:-----
Secretary.

Time for hearing.

The time of hearing shall be not less than thirty nor more than forty days from the date of the adoption of the above resolution.

Notice of resolution.

SEC. 23. The board of directors shall cause a notice of the passage of such resolution including a copy of the same to be published five times in a daily newspaper of general circulation published in each of the counties composing the district or two times in a newspaper published less than six days a week, or if no newspaper be published in any county then such notice shall be posted in three public places in such county for a period of ten days. The first publication in each of said counties shall be within five days after the adoption of said resolution of intention. Such notice shall be headed by the words "notice of intention to create highway assessment district." Proof of the publication of such notice shall be made by affidavit filed in the office of the secretary of the board of directors and such publication and proof shall be held sufficient to vest jurisdiction in the board of directors to hear and determine all matters authorized by this act to be so heard at the time and place of hearing fixed by the said resolution of intention.

The board of directors shall also cause to be conspicuously posted within fifty feet of all points where the highway proposed to be constructed shall intersect existing public highways two copies of the notice herein required to be published. Said notice shall be headed as herein specified and the words of said heading shall be in type at least two inches in height and the body of said notice shall be set in what is known as twelve-point or pica type. Said notices shall be posted within ten days from the date of the adoption of the resolution of intention.

SEC. 24. The district engineer shall be directed to prepare a map showing the exterior boundaries of the proposed district, the line of the proposed highway, intersecting highways, boundary lines of the counties, the separate parcels of land within the district and names of the owners thereof as nearly as the same may be ascertained from the records of the assessors' office in the several counties. Said map shall be completed before the date set for the hearing.

District engineer to prepare map.

SEC. 25. Any person who may be affected by the creation of the proposed assessment district may make objection thereto. Objections shall be in writing signed by the objector or his agent and filed prior to the day fixed for the hearing. Objections may be made to the boundaries of the district or to the amount of the assessment proposed to be imposed. Claims for damages to result from the construction of the highway or the grade thereof as delineated upon the map or profile drawings of the district made by district engineer shall also be presented prior to the day of hearing and a failure to present such claims shall be deemed to be an express waiver thereof.

Objections.

SEC. 26. At the time fixed in the resolution of intention for hearing objections, or at such time as such hearing may be continued, and all parties shall be deemed to have notice of such continuance, the board of directors shall hear and determine all objections that may be made and it shall be competent for said board to hear and determine any or all objections of every kind or nature even though such objections shall not be expressly authorized by this act, and also may pass upon, compromise or determine any claim for damages presented as herein provided.

Hearing of objections

SEC. 27. At the conclusion of the hearing the board of directors may change the boundaries of the proposed district, but may not include any territory outside thereof, may reduce the total amount of the assessment proposed to be imposed, change or modify any grades of a proposed highway and may sustain or overrule any other objections or generally overrule all objections that may have been made. It may also reject or approve in whole or in part any claim for damages. The total amount of all claims for damages that may be allowed shall be added to the estimate of the cost of the proposed highway and one-fourth of such amount of claims may be added to the amount of assessment proposed to be imposed unless such estimate shall already have provided for such damages.

Order by board of directors.

All matters pertaining to the hearing having been heard and determined, the board of directors shall cause an order to be entered in its minutes ordering the construction of the proposed highway, creating a highway assessment district for the purposes of this act and describing the boundaries of the highway assessment district in accordance with this determination, declare the amount of the assessment to be imposed and assessing the same upon the land within the district, which shall be deemed to be the benefits thereto accruing from such proposed highway construction, and the same to be distributed to and imposed upon the several parcels of land within the district and to be paid as in this act provided, and fix the number of annual installments in which such assessment may be paid. All objections not specifically set forth in said order shall be deemed to have been disallowed and overruled. The order shall also approve the map of the district made as herein provided.

Order sent to assessors
and recorders.

SEC. 28. Copies of said order and the map so approved shall be forthwith transmitted to the assessor and recorder of the several counties comprising the joint highway district. The recorder shall record said order and map as provided by law without charge therefor. The assessor shall preserve said map and in making any assessment roll shall cause all parcels of land within the assessment district to be separately valued so that the value of all the land therein shall be definitely ascertained.

Statement
of total
value.

SEC. 29. On or before the fifteenth day of August in each year the auditor of each of the counties composing the district shall certify and transmit to the secretary of the joint highway district a statement showing the total assessed value of the land within his county included in the assessment district created as herein provided.

Secretary to determine amount of installment.

SEC. 30. Immediately upon receipt of the statements required by the preceding section, the secretary of said joint highway district shall ascertain the amount of the installment of the assessment due and to be paid within the year thereafter. The sum so ascertained shall be the amount to be raised by taxation upon all the property within the assessment district. He shall apportion the said amount to the several counties composing the district according to the assessed value of the land therein as certified and shall transmit to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each of said counties a statement showing the total assessed value of the land within these counties included in the assessment district and the amount of money required to be raised by a tax imposed thereon.

special tax
in district

SEC. 31. At the time and in the manner provided by law for the levying of taxes by board of supervisors, the board of supervisors in each of the counties composing the joint highway district shall levy a special tax upon all the land within the highway assessment district and within the county, sufficient to raise the sum of money required by this act and as certified by the secretary of the joint highway district.

SEC. 32. The tax so levied shall be computed and collected in the time and manner required by law for the computation and collection of taxes for county purposes and the land subject to such tax shall be subject to the same penalties for delinquencies, and the same provisions of law relating to the sale and redemption of land for nonpayment of county taxes, shall apply to the tax herein authorized.

Collected at time of county tax.

SEC. 33. All money collected as the proceeds of a tax levied as herein provided shall be paid by the tax collector to the treasurer of the joint highway district and placed to the credit of the funds of the district as herein provided.

Money paid to treasurer.

SEC. 34. It is hereby expressly provided that the entire highway originally described need not be provided for in the report of the engineer made as provided in section thirteen of this act. Additional reports may be made from time to time as the same shall be deemed expedient and provide for the construction of other sections of such highway. The cost of such additional portions shall be provided for in the same manner as herein provided for in the case of the first report and additional assessments may be made in like manner. Additional assessments may be imposed in case the cost of construction exceeds the estimate made or in case any assessment shall be held invalid for any reason.

Additional reports.

SEC. 35. The work of construction shall be done by contract let to the lowest responsible bidder after advertisement for bids therefor shall have been made by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published within the district for a period of ten days prior to the receipt of such bids. Bonds for the faithful performance of the contract and for the payment of claims for labor and material shall be required of the successful bidder. However, if it should appear to the satisfaction of the board of directors that the bids were excessive or that collusion existed among bidders so as to prevent proper competition then the board of directors are authorized to purchase the necessary material, machinery and equipment and employ labor to perform the work of construction. The board of directors may acquire rock quarries or deposits of road material or if it is to the advantage of the district may purchase material and furnish the same to contractors. A maximum of eight hours shall constitute a day's labor and three dollars shall be the minimum charge paid for such day's labor performed upon the work of construction.

Contract let to lowest bidder

Construction by board of directors.

Eight-hour day.

SEC. 36. In case it shall be determined that any sum of money authorized to be expended from the state treasury shall be expended as required by section twenty-two of article four of the constitution, then the advisory board of the state engineering department shall have the exclusive management and control of such expenditure, but such advisory board may, in its discretion, delegate its powers to the board of directors of the joint highway district and said joint highway district is hereby declared to be a state institution within the meaning of said constitution. The board of directors of the district may vest in the state engineering department authority to supervise the work of construction.

repairs.

SEC. 37. Until the completion of said highway, all necessary repairs thereto shall be held to be a necessary part of the construction thereof and may be made either by contract or by the board of directors and the cost thereof paid from the construction fund.

Negotiations with United States.

SEC. 38. In case the governmental authorities of the United States should desire to include such highway in any scheme of national defense and use or assume the use of the same for military or other purposes, the board of directors of the joint highway district either directly or through the state engineering department may enter into negotiations respecting the same and enter into such agreements as may be mutually satisfactory.

Regulations
by board of directors.

SEC. 39. The board of directors may make such regulations respecting the use of such highway as shall not conflict with general laws and may exclude from such highway such class of the vehicular traffic as may be dangerous to public safety or which may result in a permanent injury to the roadway. All laws regulating state highways and inflicting penalties for a violation thereof shall apply to the highways constructed under the provisions of this act.

Certificate of completion.

SEC. 40. Upon the completion of the highway or any section thereof, the fact of such completion shall be certified to the advisory board of the state engineering department and such advisory board shall cause inspection to be made of such highway. If such advisory board shall find that the same has been properly constructed and is in good repair throughout, it shall issue a certificate of completion. Thereupon said advisory board shall, after due hearing, apportion said highway to the several counties constituting the district, or may accept the whole or any portion thereof as a state highway. The decree of distribution shall be transmitted to the board of directors of the joint highway district. Thereupon the said board of directors shall convey to the several counties composing the district, or to the state as the case may be, all interest and rights of way that the district may have in and to the highway so constructed and accepted in accordance with the terms of said decree of distribution. The highway or portions conveyed shall become a part of the system of county roads, or state highway as the case may be, and shall be maintained by said counties from the general or district road funds or by the state as provided by law.

Interest and rights of way conveyed.

Employees
discharged.

SEC. 41. Upon the receipt of the decree of distribution of the entire highway all employees of the board of directors shall be forthwith discharged excepting the secretary who shall continue to perform the duties required of him by this act.

SEC. 42. When all the bonds that may have been issued in pursuance with the provisions of this act shall have been paid, all property of the district shall be converted into money and all such moneys shall be distributed to the counties composing the district in proportion to the amount contributed by them under the provisions of this act. Thereupon, all books, documents, maps and other records shall be deposited with the state engineering department and thereupon said joint highway district shall be dissolved.

District

An act to amend section four thousand two hundred eighty-eight of the Political Code, relative to time of payment of salaries of county officers.

[Approved April 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four thousand two hundred eighty-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4288. The salaries of such officers named in this title as are entitled to salaries shall be paid monthly out of the county treasury; and it shall be the duty of the auditor, on the first day of each and every month, to draw his warrant upon the treasurer in favor of each of said officers for the amount of salary due him under the provisions of this title for the preceding month; except that, unless in this title otherwise provided, one-half of the annual salary of the assessor shall be paid to him in equal monthly installments for the months of March, April, May and June, and one-half in equal monthly installments for the remaining eight months of the year. The treasurer shall pay said warrants on presentation, out of the salary fund of the county treasury; provided, that in counties of the first class or in counties operating under a charter, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, fix a date or schedule of dates for the payment of salaries of the officers, deputies, clerks and other employees of the several departments and institutions of the county government.

Time of payment of salaries
of county officials.

CHAPTER 54.

An act to amend section six hundred twenty-six e of the Penal Code, relating to the protection of fish and game.

[Approved April 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred twenty-six e of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Hunting
female deer,

Relief of school land
purchasers.

Section 1. When application has been made to purchase lands from this state and payment of twenty per cent of the purchase price has been made to the treasurer of the proper county for the same and a certificate of purchase was issued on or after May 1, 1911, to the applicant therefor, and such applicant has failed to pay the interest on the unpaid balance of the purchase price of such land, said certificate shall be in full force and effect; provided, all interest due on the balance of the purchase price is paid to the proper county treasurer on or before December 31, 1917, together with a penalty of ten per centum of the amount of all interest on the unpaid portion of the purchase price of said lands for each year that the annual interest on the balance of the purchase price of said lands has not been paid since the date of the issuance of the certificate of purchase; and provided, further, that the lands described in said certificate of purchase are open to entry and sale under any law of this state at the time this act shall take effect.

CHAPTER 59.

An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An act granting certain tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California to the city of Oakland, and regulating the management, use and control thereof," approved May 1, 1911.

[Approved April 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of the act entitled "An act granting certain tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California to the city of Oakland, and regulating the management, use and control thereof," approved May 1, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1911,
p. 1258.

Section 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Oakland, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty in and to all tidelands and submerged lands whether filled or unfilled which are included within that portion of the city of Oakland that lies westerly of the western line of Pine street, as Pine street exists between Atlantic street and Goss street and as shown upon that certain map entitled "map of land on Oakland point (railroad ferry landing) city of Oakland, tract four hundred six," filed May 24, 1864, in book of maps five, page thirty-three, records of Alameda county, and said western line of Pine street produced northerly and southerly, excepting, however, from said tidelands and submerged lands such of said lands as lie northerly of the northern boundary line of the city of Oakland, and the western extension thereof, as said northern boundary line was established by an act of the legislature of the State of California entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to incorporate the city of Oakland,' passed March twenty-fifth, one thousand eight hundred fifty-four, and repealing certain other acts in relation to said city," approved April 24, 1862, to be forever held by said city and by its successors in trust for the use and purposes and upon the expressed conditions following, to wit:

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city and its successors, only for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon for limited periods, but in no event exceeding fifty years for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and Purposes
be used

may lease said lands or any part thereof for limited periods, but in no event exceeding fifty years, for the purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California, and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor.

Harbor improved without expense to state.

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the state, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California.

No discrimination in rates.

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures, or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or its successors.

Right to fish reserved to people.

(d) There is hereby reserved, however, in the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in all the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said land for said purpose.

CHAPTER 60.

An act to amend section three thousand five hundred thirteen of the Political Code, relating to the payment of the purchase price of lands sold by the state on and after the first day of May, A. D. one thousand nine hundred eleven.

[Approved April 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand five hundred thirteen of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Nonpayment of principal and interest on state lands.

3513. In case payment is not made within fifty days, the lands described in the survey or location revert to the state without suit, and the survey or location is void. All subsequent payments must be made to the county treasurer, in like manner, who must indorse the same upon the certificate of purchase. The treasurer must direct the purchaser to take the certificate of purchase so indorsed to the auditor, who must charge the treasurer with the amount received, and make his check upon the indorsed receipt. If any interest on the unpaid portion of the purchase price of said lands, be not paid on or before the thirtieth day of June following the first day of January upon which such interest becomes due, ten per centum of the amount thereof is hereby added as a penalty for such delinquency. If such delinquent interest, and penalty, be not paid on or before the thirty-first day of December of such year an additional penalty of ten per centum of the amount of such delinquent interest is hereby imposed upon the person or persons liable for the payment thereof. If such delinquent interest, and penalties, be not paid on or before the thirtieth day of June of the year following, the certificate of purchase shall ipso facto become null and void, and the lands described therein revert to the state without suit, and shall again become subject to entry and sale in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as apply to other state lands of like character. In the event of the happening of the contingency last mentioned, all moneys previously paid on account of the purchase price of such lands, whether for principal or interest, shall become, and are hereby determined and declared to be forfeited to the state, and neither such delinquent purchaser nor any one claiming under him shall be entitled to recover the same or any part thereof. The penalties and forfeitures herein provided for shall not apply to any land for which certificates of purchase were issued prior to May first, A. D. one thousand nine hundred eleven, nor to lands within any reclamation district, after certificate of the board of supervisors that works of reclamation have been commenced in such district has been filed in the register's office. Whenever any penalty, or penalties, hereby imposed has, or have, accrued, the treasurer must in all cases collect the full amount thereof before indorsing his receipt upon such certificate, and the auditor must ascertain such fact before appending his check thereto. Immediately following the thirtieth day of June, A. D. one thousand nine hundred eighteen, and annually thereafter, the register of the state land office shall note upon his records all forfeitures herein and hereby declared, and shall forward to the recorder of each county wherein any of said lands may be situate a notice of such forfeiture, stating therein the name and post-office address of the purchaser, and the name and post-office address of the assignee, grantee, or successor in interest of such purchaser in all cases wherein notice of any assignment of such certificate of purchase, or of any conveyance or other transfer of title to any part of the lands therein described shall have been filed in his office prior to the date of such forfeiture, such notice shall also show the number and date of the survey or location and of the certificate of purchase, and shall contain a description of the lands affected thereby. It shall be the duty of the recorder to receive and file such notice and to record the same in a book of deeds. Such notice is, from the time it is filed in the recorder's office, constructive notice of the contents thereof to subsequent purchasers and mortgagees, and to all other persons who may thereafter attempt to acquire any interest in, or lien upon, any of the lands in such notice described.

Certificate
of purchase void, when.

Land
excepted.

Notice of
forfeiture.

It shall be unlawful for any person, persons, firm, corporation, institution or municipality in any district, town, city, county, or city and county, to construct or to add to or modify, or to operate or to continue to operate any swimming pool, public bathhouse, bathing or swimming place, or any structure intended to be used for swimming or bathing purposes without an unrevoked permit so to do from the state board of health. This permit shall be obtained in the following manner: any person, persons, firm, corporation, institution or municipality desiring to construct, add to or modify, or to operate and maintain any swimming pool, public bathhouse, bathing or swimming places or structures intended to be used for swimming or bathing purposes within the State of California shall file application for permission so to do with the state board of health, which application shall be accompanied by detailed maps, drawings, specifications and description of the structure, its appurtenances and operation, description of the source or sources of water supply, amount and quality of water available and intended to be used, method and manner of water purification, treatment, disinfection, heating, regulating and cleaning; life-saving apparatus, and measures to insure safety of bathers; measures to insure personal cleanliness of bathers; method and manner of washing, disinfecting, drying and storing bathing apparel and towels, and all other information and statistics that may be required by the state board of health; whereupon, the state board of health shall cause an investigation to be made of the proposed or existing pool or public bathing places and if it shall determine as a fact that the same is or may reasonably be expected to become unclean or insanitary or may constitute a menace to public health, it shall deny the application for permit; if it shall determine as a fact that the same is or may reasonably be expected to be conducted continuously in a clean and sanitary manner and will not constitute a menace to public health, it shall grant the application for permit under such restrictions as it shall deem proper.

SEC. 3. For the purpose of this act the state board of health or its inspectors shall at any and all reasonable times have full power and authority to, and shall be permitted to enter upon any and all parts of the premises of such bathing and swimming places to make examination and investigation to determine the sanitary condition of such places and whether the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations of the state board of health pertaining thereto are being violated. The state board of health may from time to time at its discretion publish the reports of such inspections in its monthly bulletin.

to inspect

SEC. 4. Any permit granted by the state board of health as provided in this act shall be revocable or subject to suspension at any time by formal action of the state board of health if it shall determine as a fact that the swimming or bathing place or places are being conducted in a manner insanitary, unclean or dangerous to public health.

Revocation of permit.

SEC. 5. Any swimming pool, public swimming or bathing place or places, constructed, operated or maintained contrary to the provisions of this act are hereby declared to be public nuisances, dangerous to health. Such nuisances may be abated or enjoined in an action brought by the local or state board of health or they may be summarily abated in the manner provided by law for the summary abatement of public nuisances dangerous to health.

Swimming pools operated contrary

CHAPTER 64.

An act granting to any city of the state whose corporate limits include or bound upon any harbor, bay, estuary, or other navigable body of water, the power to improve the same and to establish, acquire, construct, improve and maintain in, upon and along the waters thereof works for use in connection therewith.

[Approved April 6, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Cities
authorized to maintain piers, etc.

SECTION 1. Any city of this state whose corporate limits include or bound upon any harbor, bay, estuary, or other navigable body of water, is hereby granted power to establish, acquire, construct, improve and maintain in, upon and along the waters of any such harbor, bay, estuary, or other navigable body of water, piers, docks, wharves, bulkheads, quays, and other necessary works for use in connection therewith, and power to construct, improve, dredge, deepen or straighten, channels, turning basins, canals, slips and waterways to, from and along any of the aforesaid works, and connecting with any other navigable water either within or without the limits of such city, and to do any and all other things necessary or convenient to the establishment, improvement, conduct and maintenance of a harbor, and in furtherance of commerce and navigation. Nothing herein, however, shall be deemed or construed to affect or limit the use and enjoyment by persons, firms or corporations of their property or property rights; nor shall anything in this act be construed or deemed to grant to any city the right to destroy, injure, impair or interfere with any private or quasi-public property or property rights, leasehold or otherwise, or to the use and enjoyment thereof.

affected

CHAPTER 65.

An act providing for the examination, certification and registration of plumbers, prescribing powers and duties of the state board of health in reference thereto, and penalties for a violation of the provisions hereof.

[Approved April 6, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Certain terms as used in this act shall be construed as follows:

(a) The term "master plumber" means one who has an established place of business and works by contract. "Master plumber" defined

(b) The term "journeyman plumber" means one who, as an employee, personally installs plumbing work, but does not mean a helper or an apprentice working under the direct personal supervision of a plumber who holds a temporary permit or a certificate of competency issued pursuant to the provisions of this act. "Journeyman plumber" defined.

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any journeyman plumber or master plumber in any city or town maintaining a public sewer system to personally install any plumbing or drainage system or portion thereof unless he shall first obtain a temporary permit or a certificate of competency issued pursuant to and as provided for in this act. Certificate of competency.

SEC. 3. In each county in which there is a city or town having a sewer system, the state board of health shall appoint an examining board of three members, one of whom must be a journeyman plumber who has had at least five years' practical experience as a plumber in this state, one a master plumber who has engaged in the plumbing business as a master plumber for at least five years in this state, and one a regularly licensed and practicing physician of this state. They shall serve for twelve, eighteen and twenty-four months respectively, or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified, and each member shall receive as compensation fifty cents for each applicant examined, such compensation to be paid out of the funds of the state board of health semiannually. Within ten days after their appointment the board shall meet and choose one of its members to act as secretary of the board. The state board of health shall provide each examining board with the necessary application forms, registration books, temporary permits, certification blanks, and all tools, materials and office or shop room in which to properly conduct the examinations. Applications for examination may be made in writing. The state board of health shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary and advisable to carry out the purposes of this act. Examining board.

SEC. 4. Application for certification shall be made to the secretary of the examining board. The fee for filing the application shall be two and one-half dollars and shall be paid to Application for certification.

the secretary of the examining board and by him to the state board of health to the credit of the contingent fund thereof. In no case shall the filing fee be returned to the applicant. The examining board shall issue to the applicant a temporary permit which shall be valid only until the examination is held and the certificate granted or denied. The examination shall consist of an oral or written examination and practical test and shall be of sufficient strictness to properly test the qualifications of the applicant as to his knowledge of plumbing, house draining and ventilation. If the applicant shows by a proper examination that he is qualified the board shall issue to him a certificate of competency which shall thereafter be renewed every twelve months without the necessity of an examination, upon the payment of an annual fee of two dollars. Any person possessing such a certificate of competency to work in a particular county shall be entitled to work at the plumbing business in any other county in this state upon registering with the examining board thereof. Such registration shall be without cost and without examination.

Examination.

Revocation of certificate.

SEC. 5. Said board may make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to effectively carry out the provisions of this act and may at any time revoke a certificate granted by it for the violation of any such rules or regulations or of a municipal building, plumbing or sanitary ordinance.

Provisions of city charters.

SEC. 6. Nothing in this act contained shall be deemed to repeal or in any manner supersede the authority conferred upon the board of health, department of public health, or health officer, by the charter of any incorporated city or city and county, or the power, under such charter, to enact ordinances providing for the conduct of any of the matters and things embraced within the terms of this act.

Penalty.

SEC. 7. Any person violating any provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor as defined in section nineteen of the Penal Code.

CHAPTER 66

An act to amend section four thousand two hundred eighty-five of the Political Code, relating to the salaries and fees of officers of counties of the fifty-sixth class.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered section one thousand four hundred fifty-five, relating to the collection by surviving heirs of balances due the estates of deceased annuitants from the public school teachers' retirement salary fund.

[Approved April 6, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure to be numbered one thousand four hundred fifty-five and to read as follows:

1455. The surviving husband or wife, or the guardian of the estate of any insane or incompetent husband or wife, of any deceased person who had been the recipient of an annuity from the public school teachers' retirement salary fund, or if no husband or wife is living, then the children or the guardian of the estates of any minor or insane or incompetent children of said deceased, or, if no children are living, then the father or mother or the guardian of the estate of any insane or incompetent father or mother of such decedent, and if neither the father nor mother is living, then the brothers and sisters or the guardian of the estates of any minor or insane or incompetent brothers and sisters of such decedent, may, without procuring letters of administration, collect from the public school teachers' retirement salary fund, in the state treasury, any balance of retirement salary accrued to the credit of said deceased annuitant remaining unpaid at the time of death. The public school teachers' retirement salary fund board, upon receiving an affidavit stating that said annuitant is dead, and that affiant is the surviving husband or wife or the guardian of the estate of an insane or incompetent husband or wife, as the case may be, of said decedent, or stating that decedent left no husband or wife, and that affiant is the child, or that affiants are the children, or the guardians of the estates of the minor, insane or incompetent children, as the case may be, or said decedent, or stating that decedent left neither husband, wife nor children, and that affiant is the father or mother, or the guardian of the estate of the insane or incompetent father or mother, as the case may be, of said decedent, or stating that the decedent left neither husband, wife, children, father nor mother, and that the affiants are the brothers and sisters, or the guardians of the estates of the minor, insane or incompetent brothers and sisters, as the case may be, of said decedent, shall, at the next quarterly meeting of said board, when claims for retirement salaries are certified, include and certify a claim in favor of said affiant or affiants for the balance due said decedent, and the controller shall draw his warrant in favor of the affiant or affiants in the same manner as warrants are drawn for the payment of retirement salaries, and the indorsement of such affiant or affiants upon such warrant is sufficient acquittance therefor.

Claim payable by salary fund board on receipt of affidavit.

CHAPTER 69.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction or completion thereof," which became a law under the constitutional provision without the governor's approval, February 25, 1901, as subsequently amended, by adding a new section thereto to be numbered section six and one-half, relating to the cancellation of unsold bonds.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction or completion thereof," which became a law under the constitutional provision without the governor's approval, February 25, 1901, as subsequently amended, is hereby amended by adding to said act a new section to be known as section six and one-half and to read as follows:

Stats. 1901.
p 27.

Sec. 6½. At any time after three years after the date of any election, heretofore or hereafter held, at which an issue of any of the bonds herein provided has or shall have been authorized, the legislative body of the municipality may, by ordinance duly adopted by a two-thirds vote of all of the members of such legislative body, determine that no part of such bond issue, or, if a portion of the bonds so authorized at such election shall have been sold, that no part of the remainder of such issue then remaining unsold, shall be thereafter issued or sold, and upon the taking effect of such ordinance the authority to issue the bonds authorized at such election and described in such ordinance shall cease, and the whole or that portion of the bonds issued pursuant thereto remaining unsold and described in such ordinance shall become void.

Cancellation
of unsold
bonds.

CHAPTER 70.

An act to amend sections one and nine of an act entitled "An act to provide for the establishment and quieting of title to real property in case of the loss or destruction of public records," approved June 16, 1906, and acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, by extending the application of said act to real property, when the records covering the period when said real property was in another county have been destroyed among the records of such other county, and to provide for notice of the pendency of actions brought under the provisions hereof.

[Approved April 6, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1906,
p. 78.

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the establishment and quieting of title to real property in case of the loss or destruction of public records"; approved June 16, 1906, and acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto is hereby amended to read as follows:

Title to real property
when public records are destroyed.

Section 1. Whenever the public records in the office of the county recorder of any county have been, or shall hereafter be, lost or destroyed, in whole or in any material part, by flood, fire or earthquake, any person who claims an estate of inheritance, or for life in, and who is by himself or his tenant, or other person, holding under him, in the actual and peaceable possession of any real property in such county, or of any real property now in another county but which was formerly in the county of which all or a material part of the records were lost or destroyed as aforesaid, in the event that the records so lost or destroyed included all or a material part of the public records in the office of said county recorder covering all or a material part of the time when said last mentioned real property was in the county whose records were so lost or destroyed, may bring and maintain an action in rem against all the world, in the superior court for the county in which such real property is situate, to establish his title to such property and to determine all adverse claims thereto. Any number of separate parcels of land claimed by the plaintiff may be included in the same action.

Stats. 1906,
p. 80.

SEC. 2. Section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Record of pendency
of action.

Sec. 9. The plaintiff must, at the time of filing the complaint, and every defendant claiming any affirmative relief must, at the time of filing his answer, record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the property is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action containing the object of the action or defense, and a particular description of the property affected thereby; and the recorder shall record the same in a book devoted exclusively to the recordation of such notices and, if the property is still situated in the same county in which the records were destroyed, shall enter, upon a map or plat of the parcels of land, to be kept by him for that purpose, on that part of the map or plat representing the parcel or parcels so described a reference to the date of the filing of such notice and, when recorded, to the book and page of the record thereof.

CHAPTER 71.

An act to amend section one thousand four hundred fifteen of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the duties of special administrators.

[Approved April 6, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand four hundred fifteen of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1415. The special administrator must collect and preserve for the executor or administrator, all the goods, chattels, debts, and effects of the decedent, all incomes, rents, issues and profits, claims, and demands of the estate; must take the charge and management of, enter upon, and preserve from damage, waste and injury, the real estate, and for any such and all necessary purposes may commence and maintain or defend suits and other legal proceedings as an administrator; he may sell such perishable property as the court may order to be sold, and exercise such other powers as are conferred upon him by his appointment, but in no case is he liable to an action by any creditor on a claim against the decedent. The special administrator may commence and maintain all proceedings, do all acts, and apply for and obtain all orders and decrees, authorized or provided for, in or by article five of chapter seven of title eleven of this code, in the same manner and with like effect as an executor or administrator.

special administrators

CHAPTER 72.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered one thousand four hundred eighteen, relating to payment of secured debts by special administrators.

[Approved April 6, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered one thousand four hundred eighteen and to read as follows:

Payment of secured debts by special administrators.

1418. If it shall appear by the verified petition of any special administrator, or other person interested in any estate in the charge of any special administrator, that any of the property of said estate is subject to any mortgage, lien or deed of trust, to secure the payment of money, and that any amount so secured, either principal or interest, is past due and unpaid; that the holder of the security threatens or is about to enforce or foreclose the same and that the said property exceeds in value the amount of the entire obligation thereon, and an order is asked directing or permitting said special administrator to pay all or any part of the amount so secured, the court or a judge thereof shall fix a time for the hearing of said petition and shall direct notice of not less than ten days to be given by posting in three public places and by personal service on all parties who have appeared or their attorneys. At the time so appointed, if the allegations of such petition shall be proven to the satisfaction of the court and it shall appear to be for the best interests of said estate, the court may order the special administrator to pay interest or other portions or the whole of the secured debt, and, in its discretion, may direct the special administrator to take proceedings under article five of chapter seven of title eleven of this code to secure funds for such purpose. Any such order for payment of interest may also direct that interest not yet accrued be paid as it becomes due and such order shall remain in effect and cover such future interest until and unless thereafter for good cause set aside or modified by the court upon similar petition and notice to that hereinabove provided.

CHAPTER 73.

An act to amend sections three and five of an act entitled "An act requiring employers who provide hospital service for their employes and who make a charge therefor, to keep books, records and accounts of all such charges, and to make an annual report thereof; requiring each such charge to be just and reasonable and to be devoted for no other purpose than such hospital service; and prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions thereof," approved June 8, 1915, by altering the respective jurisdictions of the railroad commission and the industrial accident commission with respect to hospital facilities of public utilities.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of an act entitled "An act requiring employers who provide hospital service for their employes and who make a charge therefor, to keep books, records and accounts of all such charges, and to make an annual report thereof; requiring each such charge to be just and reasonable and to be devoted for no other purpose than such hospital service; and prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions thereof," approved June 8, 1915, is amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 1311.

Sec. 3. Every such hospital charge demanded, collected or received by an employer shall be just and reasonable. The railroad commission is hereby given authority to decide what is an unreasonable charge in all cases where such charge is made by a hospital maintained by a common carrier by rail, and in all cases where the charge is made by a hospital maintained by other than a common carrier by rail, the industrial accident commission is hereby given authority to decide what is an unreasonable charge.

Hospital charges must be just.

SEC. 2. Section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 1311.

Sec. 5. Every common carrier by rail employer who is under a duty to render the report referred to in section two of this act shall be subject to the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the railroad commission in respect to auditing and inspection of all books, records and accounts and to enforce its orders in the same manner and to the same extent as said commission now possesses over any public utility that is subject to the provisions of the "public utilities acts" of this state, approved December 23, 1911, as amended June 11, 1913, and June 14, 1913, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto. Every employer coming under the provisions of this act shall be required to post a copy of this statement or report

Common carrier subject to railroad commission.

Other employers under industrial accident
commission.

upon all bulletin boards at terminals or in a conspicuous place where employes can read such statement or report. Every employer other than a common carrier by rail, who is under a duty to render the report referred to in section two of this act, shall be subject to the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the industrial accident commission in respect to the auditing and inspection of all books, records and accounts and the authority is hereby conferred upon said industrial accident commission to enforce by appropriate orders and processes the provisions of this act. The written report required by section two hereof when made by a common carrier by rail shall be filed with the railroad commission. All other written reports required by section two hereof shall be filed with the industrial accident commission.

An act to provide for the periodical inspection of elevators operated in places of employment in this state; to require a permit for such operation; to make it a misdemeanor to operate such elevator without such permit; and to provide for an injunction against such operation if dangerous to the life or safety of employes; to vest in the industrial accident commission the power to make such inspections and determine the competency of inspectors and require reports of inspections and to issue such permits and prescribe maximum fees therefor.

[Approved April 6, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Permit to operate
elevator.

SECTION 1. No power elevator or hand-power elevator, unless exempted in the following section, shall be operated in any place of employment in this state unless a permit, as hereinafter provided, for the operation thereof, shall have been issued by the industrial accident commission, and unless such permit shall remain in full force and effect. The operation of such elevator by any person owning or having the custody, management or operation of such elevator without such permit shall constitute a misdemeanor, and each day of operation of such elevator without such permit shall constitute a separate offense; provided, that no prosecution shall be maintained where the issuance or renewal of such permit shall have been requested and shall remain unacted upon. Whenever any elevator in any place of employment is being operated without the permit herein required, and is in such condition that its use is dangerous to the life or safety of any employee, the industrial accident commission, a commissioner or any safety inspector thereof, or any person affected thereby may apply to Injunction to restrain operation without permit.

the superior court of the county in which such elevator is located for an injunction restraining the operation of such elevator until such condition shall be corrected. Proof by certification of the said commission that such permit has not been issued, together with the affidavit of any safety inspector of the commission that the operation of such elevator is dangerous to the life or safety of any employee, shall be sufficient ground for the immediate granting of a temporary restraining order.

SEC. 2. Elevators under the jurisdiction of the United States government, and all elevators operated by employers not subject to the safety provisions of the workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act of 1917 and acts amendatory thereof, are exempted from the provisions of this act. Exemptions.

SEC. 3. The industrial accident commission shall cause power elevators to be inspected, not less frequently than twice each year and hand-power elevators not less frequently than once each year. If such elevators shall be found upon such inspection to be in a safe condition for operation, a permit shall be issued by said commission for their operation for not longer than six months for a power elevator or longer than one year for a hand-power elevator, which shall be the permit referred to in section one. If such inspection shall show such elevator to be in an unsafe condition, the commission, or a commissioner, may issue a preliminary order requiring such repairs or alterations to be made to such elevator as may be necessary to render it safe, and may order the use of such elevator discontinued until such repairs or alterations are made or such unsafe conditions are removed. Unless such preliminary order be complied with, a hearing before the commission, a commissioner or referee of such commission shall be allowed, upon request, at which the owner, operator or other person in charge of such elevator shall have opportunity to appear and show cause why he should not comply with said order. If it shall thereafter appear to the commission that such elevator is unsafe and that the requirements contained in said preliminary order should be complied with, or that other things should be done to make such elevator safe, the commission may order or confirm the withholding of the permit to operate such elevator and may make such requirements as it deems proper for its repair or alteration or for the correction of such unsafe condition. Such order may thereafter be reheard by the commission or reviewed by the courts in the manner specified by the workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act of 1917 for safety orders, and not otherwise. If the operation of such elevator during the making of repairs or alterations is not immediately dangerous to the safety of employees, the commission may, in its discretion, issue a temporary permit for the operation of such elevator for not to exceed thirty days during the making of such repairs or alterations. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed as a limitation upon Inspection of elevators.

Temporary permit to operate.

the authority of the commission to prescribe or enforce general or special safety orders.

Inspectors.

SEC. 4. The commission may, in its discretion, cause the inspection herein provided for to be made either by its safety inspectors or by any qualified elevator inspector employed by an insurance company, or may issue its permit, based upon a certificate of inspection issued by qualified elevator inspectors of any municipality, upon proof to its satisfaction that the safety requirements of such municipality are equal to the minimum safety requirements for elevators adopted by the commission; provided, that such persons making inspections shall first secure from the commission a certificate of competency to make such inspections. The commission is hereby vested with full power and authority to determine the competency of any applicant for such certificate, either by examination or by other satisfactory proof of qualifications. The commission may rescind at any time, upon good cause being shown therefor, any certificate of competency issued by it to an elevator inspector, or may at any time, upon good cause being shown therefor, and after notice and an opportunity to be heard, revoke any permit to operate such elevator. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to limit the authority of the commission to prescribe or enforce general or special safety orders.

Fees for inspection.

SEC. 5. The commission may fix and collect such fees for the inspection of elevators as it may deem necessary, not to exceed two dollars for each inspection or four dollars per year for each elevator. Such fees must be paid before the issuance of any permit to operate such elevator. No fee shall be charged by the commission where an inspection has been made by an inspector of any insurance company or municipality, if such inspector holds a certificate of competency from said commission. All fees collected by the commission under this act shall be paid into the accident prevention fund.

Report of inspections.

SEC. 6. Every inspector so certified shall forward to the commission, on the forms provided by it, within twenty-one days after such inspection is made, a report of such inspection, in default of which his certificate of competency may be canceled.

CHAPTER 75.

An act to amend the title and sections five and ten of an act entitled "An act to provide for the indicating of the net quantity of foodstuffs and stuffs intended to be used or prepared for use as food for human beings when sold, offered, or exposed for sale in containers, and providing penalties for the violation thereof," approved May 21, 1913, and amended June 7, 1915.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The title of an act entitled "An act to provide for the indicating of the net quantity of foodstuffs and stuffs intended to be used or prepared for use for human beings when sold or offered or exposed for sale in containers, and providing penalties for the violation thereof," approved May 24, 1913, and amended June 7, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1913,
p. 247,
1915,
p. 1263.

An act to provide for the indicating of the net quantity of foodstuffs and stuffs intended to be used or prepared for use as food for human beings, and medicine, when sold or offered or exposed for sale in containers, and providing for the indicating of quantity in the sale of commodities in respect to which there exists a definite trade custom, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

SEC. 2. Section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 1261.

Sec. 5. The designation of the quantity of the commodity required by section four of this act shall be in terms of weight, measure or numerical count, subject however to the following provisions:

Designation of quantity.

(a) The quantity of the contents so marked shall be the amount of food or stuff in the package.

(b) If the designation is by weight it shall be in terms of avoirdupois pounds and ounces; if designation is by liquid measure, it shall be in terms of the United States gallon of two hundred thirty-one cubic inches and its customary subdivisions, i. e., in gallons, quarts, pints, or fluid ounces; if designation is by dry measure, it shall be in terms of the United States standard bushel, and its customary subdivisions, i. e., in bushels, half-bushels, pecks, quarts, pints or half-pints; provided, that, by like method, such designations may be in terms of the metric system of weight or measure.

(c) The quantity of solids shall be designated in terms of weight, and of fluids in terms of measure, except in case of an article in respect to which there exists a definite trade custom. in such case the designation shall be in terms of weight, or measure, or numerical count, in accordance with such custom.

(d) The quantity of the contents shall be designated in terms of weight or measure, unless the container be marked by numerical count and such numerical count gives accurate information as to the quantity of the food in the package. When designation is by numerical count it shall be in English words or Arabic numerals.

(f) The quantity of viscous or semisolid foods, or of a mixture of solids and liquids, may be stated in terms of weight and measure; provided, that such solids and liquids constitute food products. When products are packed in brine or other preserving fluids, the weight or measure of such brine or fluids shall not be included in the weight or measure of the edible indicated on the container.

Stats. 1913,
p. 240.

"Container"
defined

SEC. 3. Section ten of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10. The term "container" used in this act is hereby defined to be any receptacle or carton into which a commodity is packed, or any wrappings with which any commodity is wrapped, or put for sale, or to be offered or exposed for sale.

CHAPTER 76.

An act authorizing any county to permit the construction and maintenance of a highway or boulevard over highways within its limits connecting with main public highways of an adjoining county by the board of supervisors or highway commissioners of such adjoining county, permitting boards of supervisors of such adjoining counties to construct and maintain such bridge or bridges on such highways or boulevards as they may deem necessary, permitting such boards of supervisors to macadamize or pave or gutter such highways or boulevards, providing the manner in which the cost and expense thereof shall be paid, and prescribing the procedure whereby the use, control, maintenance and jurisdiction of any highway or boulevard constructed under the provisions of this act may be retransferred to the county originally granting the use thereof.

[Approved April 6, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Counties
permitted to maintain
connecting with those of another county.

SECTION 1. Any county in this state is hereby authorized and empowered to permit, by and through an ordinance of its board of supervisors, the use of any of its public highways connecting with any main public highway of an adjoining county by the board of supervisors or highway commissioners of such adjoining county, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining thereon a highway or boulevard serving the needs of residents of both counties; and the board of supervisors of any such adjoining county, if it accepts the provisions of the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors of the county granting the use, shall have the power to construct and maintain any such highway or boulevard, or to construct or maintain such bridge or bridges on such highway or boulevard as it may deem necessary, or to macadamize, pave, curb or gutter such highway or boulevard in such manner as it may determine, and the cost or expense thereof shall be paid out of the general fund of the county treasury, or such other fund as the board of supervisors may designate, or which shall otherwise be provided, of the county to which the use is granted. The boards of supervisors of any counties proceeding under the provisions of this act may by mutual consent, expressed through ordinances of the respective boards, retransfer the use, control, maintenance and jurisdiction of any highway or boulevard constructed under the provisions hereof to the county originally granting the use.

An act granting to the city of Venice the tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California within the boundaries of the said city.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Venice, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all the tidelands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled; provided, that nothing contained herein shall in any way affect any property held or claimed under, through or from a Mexican grant or patent therefor within the present boundaries and jurisdiction of said city, and situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific ocean, or of any harbor, estuary, bay or inlet within said boundaries, to be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes, and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

Tidelands granted to Venice.

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city and by its successors, solely for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and

Purposes for which land may be used.

Term of franchises and leases.

navigation, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purpose whatsoever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon, for a period not exceeding twenty-five years, for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for a period not exceeding twenty-five years, for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor;

Harbor improved without expense to state.

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the state, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California;

No discrimination in rates.

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges, or in facilities, for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or by its successors;

Right to fish reserved to people.

Reserving, however, in the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose.

CHAPTER 78.

An act granting certain tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California to the city of Santa Monica upon certain trusts and conditions.

[Approved April 10, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Tideland granted to Santa Monica.

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Santa Monica, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all the tidelands and submerged lands, within the present boundaries of said city, and situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific ocean, to be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes, and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

(a) Said lands shall be used by said city and by its successors, solely for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor and for the establishment and construction of bulkheads or breakwaters for the protection of lands within its boundaries, or for the protection of its harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion or accommodation of commerce and navigation, and the protection of the lands within said city, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purpose whatsoever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon, for a period not exceeding twenty-five years, for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof for a period not exceeding twenty-five years, for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor;

Purposes for which land may be used.

Term of franchises and leases.

(b) Said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the state, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California, shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California;

Harbor improved without expense to state.

(c) In the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges, or in facilities, for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or by its successors. The absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose, is hereby reserved to the people of the State of California.

Right to fish reserved to people.

An act to amend the Penal Code by adding a new section, to be known as section five hundred sixty-three b, thereto, relating to offenses against or concerning banking institutions and prescribing penalties for violation of the provisions of the act.

[ Approved April 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered five hundred sixty-three b, and to read as follows:

Circulating false rumors regarding bank.

563b. Any person who wilfully and knowingly makes, circulates or transmits to another or others any statement or rumor, written, printed or by word of mouth, which is untrue in facts and is directly or by inference derogatory to the financial condition or affects the solvency or financial standing of any bank, doing business in this state, or who knowingly counsels, aids, procures or induces another to start, transmit or circulate any such statement or rumor, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

[ Approved April 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seven hundred ninety-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Notaries
public in counties of 2d class.

791. The governor may appoint and commission such number of notaries public for the several counties, and cities and counties of this state, as he shall deem necessary for the public conveniences, except that in counties of the second class the number shall not exceed one hundred thirty.

CHAPTER 81.

An act to amend sections two, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, twelve and one-half, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, seventeen, eighteen and twenty of an act entitled "An act to regulate the examination of applicants for license, and the practice of those licensed, to treat diseases, injuries, deformities, or other physical or mental conditions of human beings; to establish a board of medical examiners, to provide for their appointment and prescribe their powers and duties, and to repeal an act entitled 'An act for the regulation of the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy, and other systems or modes of treating the sick or afflicted, in the State of California, and for the appointment of a board of medical examiners in the matter of said regulation,' approved March 14, 1907, and acts amendatory thereof, and also to repeal all other acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved June 2, 1913, as amended by an act to amend an act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to regulate the examination of applicants for license, and the practice of those licensed, to treat diseases, injuries, deformities, or other physical or mental conditions of human beings; to establish a board of medical examiners, to provide for their appointment and prescribe their powers and duties, and to repeal an act entitled "An act for the regulation of the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy and other systems and modes of treating the sick or afflicted in the State of California, and for the appointment of a board of medical examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 14, 1907, and acts amendatory thereof, and also to repeal all other acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act,' approved June 2, 1913, by amending sections two, three, four, five, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, seventeen and eighteen, and adding a new section thereto to be numbered twelve and one-half relating to the practice of chiropody," approved April 24, 1915, and to add a new section thereto to be numbered twenty-four, relating to the practice of midwifery, providing the method of citing said act, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of "An act to regulate the examination of applicants for license, and the practice of those licensed, to treat diseases, injuries, deformities, or other physical or mental conditions of human beings; to establish a board of medical examiners, to provide for their appointment and prescribe their powers and duties, and to repeal an act entitled

p. 185.

'An act for the regulation of the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy and other systems or modes of treating the sick or afflicted, in the State of California, and for the appointment of a board of medical examiners in the matter of said regulation,' approved March 14, 1907, and acts amendatory thereof, and also to repeal all other acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved June 2, 1913, as amended by an act to amend an act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to regulate the examination of applicants for license, and the practice of those licensed, to treat diseases, injuries, deformities, or other physical or mental conditions of human beings; to establish a board of medical examiners, to provide for their appointment and prescribe their powers and duties, and to repeal an act entitled "An act for the regulation of the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy and other systems and modes of treating the sick or afflicted, in the State of California, and for the appointment of a board of medical examiners in the matter of said regulation," approved March 14, 1907, and acts amendatory thereof, and also to repeal all other acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act,' approved June 2, 1913, by amending sections two, three, four, five, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, seventeen, and eighteen, and adding a new section thereto to be numbered twelve and one-half relating to the practice of chiropody," approved April 24, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

medical examiners organized.

Meetings.

Notice of
meetings.

Sec. 2. The board shall be organized on or before the first Tuesday of September, 1913, by electing from its number a president, vice president, and a secretary who shall also be the treasurer, who shall hold their respective positions during the pleasure of the board. The board shall hold one meeting annually beginning on the third Monday in October in the city of Sacramento and at least two additional meetings annually, one of which shall be held in the city of Los Angeles, and the other in the city of San Francisco, with power of adjournment from time to time until its business is concluded; provided, however, that examinations of applications for certificates may, in the discretion of the board, be conducted in any part of the state designated by the board. Special meetings of the board may be held at such time and place as the board may designate. Notice of each regular or special meeting shall be given twice a week for two weeks next preceding each meeting in one daily paper published in the city of San Francisco, one published in the city of Sacramento, and one published in the city of Los Angeles, which notice shall also specify the time and place of holding the examination of applicants. The secretary of the board upon an authorization from the president of the board or the chairman of a committee, may call meetings of any duly appointed committee of the board at a specified time and place and it shall not be necessary to advertise such committee meetings. The board shall receive through its secretary applications for certificates provided to be issued under this act and shall, on or before the first day of January of each year, transmit to the governor a full report of all its proceedings together with a report of its receipts and disbursements. The board shall, on or before the first day of January of each year, compile and may thereafter publish and sell, a complete directory giving the addresses of all persons within the State of California who hold unrevoked licenses to practice under any medical practice act of the State of California, which license shall in any manner authorize the treatment of human beings for diseases, injuries, deformities, or any other physical or mental conditions. The board is hereby authorized to require said persons to furnish such information as it may deem necessary to enable it to compile the directory. The directory shall contain in addition to the names and addresses of said persons, the names and symbols indicating the title, name or names, school or schools, which such person has attended and from which graduated, the date of issuance of the license, the present residence of said person and a statement of the form of certificate held. The directory shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the person or persons named therein to practice. It shall be the duty of every person holding a license to practice under any medical act of this state, or who may hereafter be so licensed to practice, to report immediately each and every change of residence, giving both the old and the new address. To comply with the provisions of this section relating to the compilation, publication and sale of a directory in addition to the fee required for the filing of any application, or the issuance of any certificate hereinafter provided for, each licentiate granted a certificate under the provisions of this act, or any preceding medical practice act of the State of California, shall, on or before the first day of January of each year, pay to the secretary-treasurer of the board of medical examiners an annual tax and registration fee of two dollars ($2.00). Receipt or acknowledgment of payment by the secretary-treasurer shall be evidence that the holder and possessor of such certificate is entitled to practice the particular system for which he was granted such certificate for a period of one year from the first day of January; but notwithstanding the possession by any certificate holder of such receipt or acknowledgment of payment, the license or certificate issued to such licentiate to practice any system recognized by this or any preceding medical practice act of the State of California, may, at any time, be forfeited or revoked for a violation of the further provisions and requirements of this act. The failure, neglect and refusal of any person holding a license or certificate to practice a system under this or any preceding medical practice act of the State of California, to pay said annual tax of two dollars ($2.00) during the time his or her license remains in force, shall, after a period of sixty days from the first day of January of each year, ipso facto, work a forfeiture of his or her license or certificate, and it shall not be restored except upon the written application therefor, and the payment to the said board of a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) except that such licentiate who fails, refuses or neglects to pay such annual tax within a period of sixty days after the first day of January of each year shall not be required to submit to an examination for the reissuance of such certificate. It shall be the duty of the executive officer herein designated as the secretary-treasurer of said board of medical examiners to mail to the last known address of each licentiate who has paid said annual tax a copy of the said directory, and all new issues thereof and copies of all supplements thereto. The receipts of the said annual tax referred to herein shall be paid into the contingent fund of the board of medical examiners of California, and after the expenses of issuing said directories have been paid, in the event that there shall be a surplus of such funds, the board may from time to time, in its discretion, apply said surplus for any other expenses incurred by the board under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. Section eight of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Forms of certificates.

SEC. 8. Four forms of certificates shall be issued by said board under the seal thereof and signed by the president and secretary; first, a certificate authorizing the holder thereof to use drugs or what are known as medicinal preparations in or upon human beings and to sever or penetrate the tissues of human beings and to use any and all other methods in the treatment of diseases, injuries, deformities, or other physical or mental conditions, which certificate shall be designated "physician and surgeon certificate"; second, a certificate authorizing the holder thereof to treat diseases, injuries, deformities, or other physical or mental conditions without the use of drugs or what are known as medicinal preparations and without in any manner severing or penetrating any of the tissues of human beings except the severing of the umbilical cord, which certificate shall be designated "drugless practitioner's certificate"; third, a certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice chiropody; for the purpose of this act chiropody is defined to be the surgical treatment of abnormal nails and superficial excrescences occurring on the feet, such as corns, callosities, and the treatment of bunions; but it shall not confer the right to operate upon the feet for congenital or acquired deformities, or for conditions requiring the use of anesthetics other than local, or incisions involving structures below the level of the true skin; fourth, a certificate to practice midwifery which shall be in the form designated by the board and in conformity with this act. Such certificate shall entitle the holder thereof to attend cases of childbirth. As used in this act, the practice of midwifery means the furthering or undertaking by any person to assist a woman in normal childbirth, but it does not include at any childbirth the use of any instrument, except such instrument as is necessary in severing the umbilical cord, nor the assisting of childbirth by any artificial, forcible or mechanical means, nor the performance of any version, nor the removal of adherent placenta, nor the administering, prescribing, advising or employing in childbirth of any drug, other than a disinfectant or cathartic. The provisions hereof shall not authorize any midwife to practice medicine and surgery. A "reciprocity certificate" shall also be issued under the provisions hereinafter specified. Any of these certificates on being recorded in the office of the county clerk, as hereinafter provided, shall constitute the holder thereof a duly licensed practitioner in accordance with the provisions of his certificate.

Sec. 3. Section nine of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 187.

Sec. 9. Every applicant must file with the board, at least two weeks prior to the regular meeting thereof, satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and a diploma or diplomas issued by some legally chartered school or schools approved by the board, the requirements of which school or schools shall have been at the time of granting such diploma or diplomas in no degree less than those required under this act, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma or diplomas, and must file an affidavit stating that he is the person named in said diploma or diplomas, and that he is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination without fraud or misrepresentation; provided, that in addition thereto, each applicant for a "physician and surgeon certificate" must show that he has attended four courses of study, each such course to have been of not less than thirty-two weeks duration, but not necessarily pursued continuously, or consecutively, and that at least ten months shall have intervened between the beginning of any course and the beginning of the preceding course; provided, further, that an applicant for a "drugless practitioner certificate" must show that he has attended two courses of study, each such course to have been of not less than thirty-two weeks duration, but not necessarily pursued continuously or consecutively, and that at least ten months shall have intervened between the beginning of any course and the beginning of the preceding course; the course in chiropody is to consist of not less than thirty-nine weeks consisting of not less than six hundred sixty-four hours; provided, further, that an applicant for a certificate to practice midwifery must show that the applicant has attended a one-year course in a hospital recognized as reputable by the board, and that a course of instruction in anatomy, physiology, obstetrics and hygiene and sanitation as set forth in section ten hereof has been taken, covering a period of one year; provided, further, that in lieu thereof, an applicant who can submit satisfactory proof of the possession of a diploma from a recognized reputable hospital, and who in addition thereto has attended a course of instruction in the subjects enumerated in section ten hereof and satisfactory proof that such instruction has been taken covering a period of at least three months; and provided, further, that in lieu thereof an applicant may present proof satisfactory to the board that the applicant has taken a course of instruction with the minimum requirements as designated in section ten of any school or schools approved by the board as giving a course of instruction in said subjects for a certificate to practice medicine and surgery; provided, also, that before July 1, 1918, in lieu of the diploma or diplomas and preliminary requirements herein referred to where the applicant can show to the satisfaction of the board of medical examiners that he has taken courses hereinafter required in a school or schools approved by the board totaling for applicants for "drugless practitioner certificate" not less than sixty-four weeks consisting of not less than two thousand hours and for "physician and surgeon certificate" totaling not less than one hundred twenty-eight weeks consisting of not less than four thousand hours, it being required that all applicants shall have received passing grades in all such courses, that the applicant or applicants shall be admitted to examination for their respective form of certificates.

In lieu of diploma before July 1, 1918.

Application on blank furnished by board.

Preliminary education.

The said application shall be made upon a blank furnished by said board and it shall contain such information concerning the medical instruction and the preliminary education of the applicant as the board may by rule prescribe. In addition to the requirements hereinabove provided for, applicants for any form of certificate hereunder shall present to said board at the time of making such application a diploma from a California high school or other school in the State of California requiring and giving a full four years' course of same grade, or other schools elsewhere, requiring and giving a full four years' standard high school course, or its equivalent, approved by the board, together with satisfactory proof that he is the lawful holder of such diploma, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction. The passing of an examination before the entrance examining board for the entrance to the academic department of the University of California, or Stanford University or the University of Southern California, or the possession of documentary evidence of admission to the academic department of such institutions as a regular student or in full standing shall be sufficient basic or preliminary educational qualifications. In lieu of such diploma, the applicant may present: (1) a certificate from the college entrance examination board, or the college examining board of any state or territory showing that such applicant has successfully passed the examination of said board; or (2) if such applicant be thirty years or more of age he may show to the satisfaction of the board of medical examiners

SEC. 5. Section eleven of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Additional requirements for physicians and surgeons.

Sec. 11. In addition to above requirements, all applicants for "physician and surgeon certificate" must pass an examination to be given by the board in the following subjects:

1. Anatomy and histology.
2. Physiology.
3. Bacteriology and pathology.
4. Chemistry and toxicology.
5. Obstetrics and gynecology.
6. Materia medica and therapeutics, pharmacology, including prescription writing.
7. General medicine, including clinical microscopy.
8. Surgery.
9. Hygiene and sanitation.

For drugless practitioners.

All applicants for "drugless practitioner certificates" must pass an examination in the following subjects:

1. Anatomy and histology.
2. Physiology.
3. General diagnosis.
4. Pathology and elementary bacteriology.
5. Obstetrics and gynecology.
6. Toxicology and elementary chemistry.
7. Hygiene and sanitation.

Exceptions.

Provided, that a person who holds a "drugless practitioner certificate," issued upon satisfactory proof of the course of instruction and minimum requirements demanded in section ten hereof and who presents evidence of having successfully completed the additional courses required for the "physician and surgeon certificate" as hereinbefore provided, shall be permitted to take his examination in subjects required for a "physician and surgeon certificate" without being reexamined in "drugless practitioner" subjects.

The subjects for such examination shall be:

1. Advanced chemistry.
2. Advanced bacteriology.
3. Surgery.
4. Materia medica and therapeutics, pharmacology, including prescription writing.
5. General medicine, including clinical microscopy.

Examination
for chiropodists.

All applicants for a certificate to practice chiropody must pass an examination in the following subjects:

1. Anatomy and histology.
2. Physiology, chemistry and hygiene.
3. Pathology and bacteriology.
4. Dermatology and syphilis.
5. Orthopedics and surgery.
6. Chiropody and therapeutics.

All applicants for a certificate to practice midwifery must pass an examination in the following subjects: Examination for midwives.

1. Anatomy and physiology.
2. Obstetrics.
3. Hygiene and sanitation.

All examinations shall be practical in character and designed to ascertain the applicant's fitness to practice his profession, and shall be conducted in the English language, and at least a portion of the examination in each of the subjects shall be in writing. The board in its discretion upon the submission of satisfactory proof from the applicant that he is unable to meet the requirements of the examination in the English language, may allow the use of an interpreter either to be present in the examination room or to thereafter interpret and transcribe the answers of the applicant. The selection of such interpreter is to be left entirely to the board and the expenses thereof to be borne by the applicant, the payment therefor to be made before such examination is held. There shall be at least ten questions on each subject, the answers to which shall be marked on a scale of zero to one hundred. Each applicant must obtain no less than a general average of seventy-five per cent, and not less than sixty per cent in any two subjects; provided, that any applicant shall be granted a credit of one per cent upon the general average for each year of actual practice since graduation; provided, further, that any applicant for "physician and surgeon certificate" obtaining seventy-five per cent each in seven subjects and any applicant for "drugless practitioner certificate" obtaining seventy-five per cent each in five subjects and an applicant for a certificate to practice chiropody obtaining over seventy-five per cent in seven subjects, and an applicant for a certificate to practice midwifery obtaining seventy-five per cent in one subject, shall be subsequently reexamined in those subjects only in which he failed, and without additional fee. Any person who at any time prior to January 1, 1916, shall pay to the secretary of said board the fee of twenty-five dollars and submits satisfactory proof of good moral character and of a resident one-year course of not less than one thousand hours in a legally chartered school approved by the board and satisfactory proof of three years of actual practice of a drugless system of the healing art, such three years of actual practice to have been in the State of California, shall be admitted to the drugless practitioner examination; provided, however, that in the event of a license being granted to such applicant he will not be eligible thereafter for the physician's and surgeon's certificate without a full and complete compliance with the terms and provisions of sections nine and ten hereof. Any one who shall pay the fee of fifty dollars to the secretary of the board prior to January 1, 1916, and submits to the board satisfactory proof of good moral character and proof of six years' actual practice of a drugless system of the healing art, three years of which must have been in the State of California, and satisfactory proof of a resident Examination papers kept on file.

The examination papers shall form a part of the records of the board, and shall be kept on file by the secretary for a period of one year after each examination. In said examination the applicant shall be known and designated by number only, and the name attached to the number shall be kept secret until after the board has finally voted upon the application. The secretary of the board shall in no instance participate as an examiner in any examination held by the board. All questions on any subject in which examination is required under this act shall be provided by the board of medical examiners upon the morning of the day upon which examination is given in such subject, and when it shall be shown that the secretary or any member of the board has in any manner given information in advance of or during examination to any applicant it shall be the duty of the governor to remove such person from the board of medical examiners, or from the office of secretary.

Secretary not to be an examiner.

Form of certificates.

All certificates issued hereunder must state the extent and character of practice which is permitted thereunder and shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by the board.

clinical examination. The proof of the attendance and completion of the twenty-five cases of labor referred to herein shall be evidenced, if the board shall so require of any applicant, by the submission of the name of the mother, and a reference to the birth certificate required under the law. The board shall have the power to disregard the certificates of moral character referred to herein and may order that an investigation under the direction of the board be held upon the moral character of the applicant. If the said investigation should result in an adverse report to applicant, the applicant shall be entitled to a hearing before said board and after such hearing the board shall be the judges of the moral fitness of the applicant to receive a certificate to practice midwifery. In the event that a certificate to practice midwifery shall not be granted under the provisions of this section, the applicant will be entitled to a refund of ten dollars. Any person who files an application for a "physician and surgeon certificate" two weeks prior to a regular or special meeting, and who submits satisfactory proof to the board that the applicant has been licensed to practice osteopathy under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of California and to provide for the state board of osteopathic examiners, and to license osteopaths who practice in this state, and to punish persons violating the provisions of this act," which became a law under constitutional provision without the governor's approval March 9, 1901, or who submits satisfactory proof that the applicant has been licensed to practice osteopathy under an act entitled "An act to provide for the regulation of the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy and other systems or modes of treating the sick or afflicted in the State of California, and for the appointment of a board of medical examiners in the matter of said regulation, approved March 14, 1907, and who submits satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and a diploma or diplomas issued by some legally chartered school or schools approved by the board, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma or diplomas and that he is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination without fraud or misrepresentation, and that the applicant has complied with the provisions of sections nine, ten and eleven of this act, may be granted an oral, practical or clinical examination for the "physician and surgeon certificates"; provided, that the board must accept in lieu thereof the educational qualifications enumerated in this section or in sections nine, ten and eleven of this act satisfactory proof to the board of actual practice in the system of treatment known and designated as osteopathy for a period of four years, and upon the presentation of such proof the applicant will be entitled to an oral, practical or clinical examination for a "physician and surgeon certificate."

SEC. 8. Section thirteen of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 194.

Sec. 13. Said board must also issue a certificate to practice a system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted recognized by this act or any preceding practice act in the State of California to any applicant, without any examination, authorizing the holder thereof to practice a system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted in the State of California, upon payment of a registration fee of one hundred dollars, upon the following terms and conditions and upon satisfactory proof thereof, viz: The applicant shall produce a certificate entitling him to practice a system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, as provided in this act or any preceding practice act of the State of California, issued either by the medical examining board, or by any other board or officer authorized by the law to issue a certificate entitling such applicant to practice a system or mode for treating the sick or afflicted either in the District of Columbia or in any state or territory of the United States, or if such certificate shall have been lost, then a copy thereof, with proof satisfactory to the board of medical examiners of the State of California that the copy is a correct copy. Said certificate must not have been issued to such applicant prior to the first day of August, 1901, and the requirements from the college from which such applicant may have graduated, and the requirements of the board which was legally authorized to issue such certificate permitting such applicant to practice a system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted shall not have been at the time such certificate was issued, in any degree or particular less than those which were required for the issuance of a similar certificate to practice a system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted in the State of California at the date of the issuance of such certificate, or which may hereafter be required by law and which may be in force at the date of the issuance of any such certificate; and provided, further, that said applicant shall furnish from the board which issued said certificate, evidence satisfactory to the board of medical examiners of the State of California showing what the requirements were of the college and of the board, issuing such certificate at the date of such issuance. If, after an examination of such certificate, and the production on the part of the applicant of such further reasonable evidence of the said requirements as may be deemed necessary by the board of medical examiners of the State of California and any other or further examination or investigation which said board may see fit to make on its own part, it shall be found that the requirements of the board issuing such certificate were, when said certificate was issued, in any degree or particular less than the requirements provided by the law of the State of California at the date of the issuance of such certificate or that the applicant has not been a resident of the state from which the application is based for a period of one year subsequent to the issuance of such certificate he will not be entitled to practice within the State of California without an examination. An oral examination shall not be deemed to be of equal merit with a written examination and no certificate shall be issued in the case where a written examination was given in California and an applicant was given an oral examination in another state at the same time. The board is hereby authorized to enter into a contract or contracts of reciprocity with other states wherein the standard of such states is not in any degree or particular less than were the requirements in the State of California in the same year, for the issuance of a certificate to practice a system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, such certificate to be similar in scope of practice as the certificate issued in the other state; provided, however, that an application based upon a certificate to practice any system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted issued in the District of Columbia or in any state or territory prior to March 4, 1907, if refused or denied by reason of the insufficiency of the standard of such state or territory then such applicant may have the privilege of either a written or oral examination before the board at the option of the applicant. Any person may file an application with the said board to practice medicine and surgery within the State of California, in the event that such applicant has been duly licensed prior to August 1, 1901, and has practiced medicine and surgery in another state or territory, or the District of Columbia, for a period of time commencing prior to the first day of August, 1901. Such application shall be verified and shall contain a statement showing: (a) the full name of the applicant; (b) all institutions at which he has studied and the period of such study, and all institutions from which he has graduated; (c) a statement of whatever certificate or certificates to practice medicine and surgery may have been issued to him, together with the date of such certificate and a description of the same, and, if required by the board, the certificates themselves, or satisfactory proof of their issuance; (d) a statement of all places in which said applicant has practiced medicine and surgery; (e) such other general information as to his past practice, as may be required by the said board. The said board shall make such independent investigation of the character, ability and standing of the applicant as it may deem proper and necessary, and if it shall find after such investigation that said applicant has been a practicing physician and surgeon in any other state or territory or the District of Columbia, prior to August 1, 1901, and prior to said last named date has been duly licensed so to practice, and that his reputation as such physician and surgeon is good in the community in which he has so practiced medicine and surgery, and has been a resident of his last state of residence for a period of one year prior to date of filing his application in the State of California, they shall afford him an examination on a day suiting the convenience of the board not more than six months subsequent to the presentation of said application. Said examination shall be oral, practical, and clinical in nature, and full consideration shall be given to the duration and character of the applicant's practice. If after such last mentioned examination it is determined by a majority vote of the said medical examiners conducting said examination, that such applicant is so qualified to practice medicine and surgery within the State of California, and that his reputation and standing in the community in which he has previously practiced is good, the said applicant shall be entitled to receive a "physician and surgeon certificate." Each applicant on making such application shall pay to the secretary of the board, a fee of one hundred dollars, which shall be paid to the treasurer of the board, of which sum ninety dollars shall be returned to him should he not receive a certificate hereunder. All certificates issued pursuant to this section shall be marked across the face thereof "reciprocity certificate." Any person granted a "reciprocity certificate" to practice any system or mode for treating the sick or afflicted recognized by this or any preceding medical practice act in this state, such certificates not being of equal scope with the certificates known and designated as the "physician and surgeon certificate," will not be eligible for the "physician and surgeon certificate" as designated in this act without a full and complete compliance with the terms and provisions of sections nine, ten and eleven hereof.

Sec. 9. Section fourteen of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

p. 196.

Sec. 14. Said board must refuse a certificate to any applicant guilty of unprofessional conduct. On the filing with the secretary of a sworn complaint, charging the applicant with having been guilty of unprofessional conduct, the secretary must forthwith issue a citation, under the seal of the board, and make the same returnable at the next regular session of said board, occurring at least thirty days next after filing the complaint. Such citation shall notify the applicant when and where the charges of said unprofessional conduct will be heard, and that the applicant shall file his written answer, under oath, within twenty days next after the service on him of said citation or that default will be taken against him and his application for a certificate refused. The attendance of witnesses at such hearing may be compelled by subpoenas issued by the secretary of the board under its seal. Said citation and said subpoenas shall be served in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to the service of citation and subpoenas generally, and all the provisions of the statutes of this state then in force relating to subpoenas and to citations are hereby made applicable to the subpoenas and citations provided for herein. Upon the secretary's certifying to the fact of refusal of any person to obey a subpoena or citation to the superior court of the county in which the service was had, said court shall thereupon proceed to hear said matter in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to contempts for disobedience of process of the court, and should said court find that the subpoena or citation has been legally served, and that the party so served has wilfully disobeyed the same, it shall proceed to impose such penalty as provided in cases of contempt of court. In all cases of alleged unprofessional conduct, arising under this act, depositions of witnesses may be taken, the same as in civil cases and all the provisions of the statutes of this state then in force as to the taking of depositions are hereby made applicable to the taking of depositions under this act. If the applicant shall fail to file with the secretary of said board his answer, under oath, within twenty days after service on him of said citation, or within such further time as the board may allow, and the charges on their face shall be deemed sufficient by the board, default shall be entered against him, and his application refused. If the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, and issue be joined thereon by answer, the board shall proceed to determine the matter, and to that end shall hear such proper evidence as may be adduced before it; and if it appear to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant is guilty as charged, no certificate shall be issued to him. Whenever any holder of a certificate herein provided for is guilty of unprofessional conduct, as the same is defined in this act, and the said unprofessional conduct has been brought to the attention of the board granting said certificate, in the manner hereinafter provided or whenever a certificate has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation, or issued by mistake, or the person holding such certificate is found to be practicing contrary to the provisions thereof and of this act, it shall be the duty of said board either to suspend the right of the holder of said certificate to practice for a period not exceeding one year, or in its discretion to revoke his certificate. In the event of such suspension, the holder of such certificate shall not be entitled to practice thereunder during the term of suspension; but, upon the expiration of the term of said suspension, he shall be reinstated by the board and shall be entitled to resume his practice, unless it shall be established to the satisfaction of the board that said person so suspended from practice, has, during the term of such suspension, practiced in the State of California, in which event the board shall revoke the certificate of such person. No such suspension or revocation shall be made unless such holder is cited to appear and the same proceedings are had as is hereinbefore provided in this section in case of refusal to issue certificates. Said secretary in all cases of suspension or revocation shall enter on his register the fact of such suspension or revocation, as the case may be, and shall certify the fact of such suspension or revocation under the seal of the board, to the county clerk of the counties in which the certificates of the person whose certificate has been revoked is recorded; and said clerk must thereupon write upon the margin or across the face of his register of the certificate of such person, the following: "The holder of this certificate was on the _____ day of _____ suspended for _____," or, "This certificate was revoked on the _____ day of _____," as the case may be, giving the day, month and year of such revocation or length of suspension, as the case may be, in accordance with said certification to him by said secretary. The record of such suspension or revocation so made by said county clerk shall be prima facie evidence of the fact thereof, and of the regularity of all the proceedings of said board in the matter of said suspension or revocation. The words "unprofessional conduct" as used in this act, are hereby declared to mean:

First—The procuring or aiding or abetting or attempting or agreeing or offering to procure a criminal abortion. Unprofessional conduct
defined.

Second—The wilfully betraying of a professional secret.

Third—All advertising of medical business which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons, and so be harmful or injurious to public morals or safety.

Fourth—All advertising of any medicine or of any means whereby the monthly periods of women can be regulated or the menses re-established if suppressed.

Fifth—Conviction of any offense involving moral turpitude in which case the record of such conviction shall be conclusive evidence.

Sixth—Habitual intemperance or excessive use of cocaine, opium, morphine, codeine, heroin, alpha eucaine, beta eucaine, novocaine or chloral hydrate or any of the salts, derivatives or compounds of the foregoing substances or the prescribing, selling, furnishing, giving away or offering to prescribe, sell, furnish, or give away such substances to a habitue who is not under the direct personal and continuous treatment and care of the physician for the cure of the above mentioned drugs.

Seventh—The personation of another licensed practitioner or permitting or allowing another person to use his certificate in the practice of any system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted.

Eighth—The use, by the holder of any certificate, in any sign or advertisement in connection with his said practice or in any advertisement or announcement of his practice, of any fictitious name, or any name other than his own.

Ninth—The use, by the holder of a "drugless practitioner certificate" of drugs or what are known as medicinal preparations, in or upon any human being, or the severing or penetrating by the holder of said "drugless practitioner certificate" of the tissues of any human being in the treatment of any disease, injury, deformity, or other physical or mental condition of such human being, excepting the severing of the umbilical cord.

An act to provide for the payment into the county treasury of any moneys now held by county tax collectors which represent duplicate or excess payments of taxes on property in their respective counties, and to provide for the distribution and repayment of such moneys when so paid, and to provide for the payment, repayment and distribution of any duplicate or excess collections which may be made hereafter.

[Approved April 12, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

County tax collector to pay excess taxes to treasurer

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of every county tax collector, within thirty days after this act takes effect, to pay into the treasury of his county any moneys which said tax collector may have on hand, representing duplicate or excess payments of taxes on property within his county, including such as may have been collected during a previous term or terms, as well as during his present term of office. If the records of the tax collector show the fact, there shall be filed with the county auditor at the time of such payment a description of each piece of property for which such duplicate tax payments were collected and the amount of the tax collected for each such piece of property in excess of the tax regularly levied and collected on such property in any one year.

Recovery of excess payments.

SEC. 2. Within five years from the time of such payment into the county treasury by the tax collector, any person holding a tax receipt showing the payment to a county tax collector of taxes in any one year on any given property in the county in excess of the taxes which have been regularly levied and collected upon said property for said year, may recover the excess over and above the tax regularly levied and collected on such property for such year, by filing with the board of supervisors a claim therefor, and surrendering with such claim the tax receipt for such excess payment. If the duplicate payment of taxes in excess of the regularly levied taxes shall have been paid by different persons, the party first filing such claim and receipt for the excess payment, shall be entitled to the refund. If, upon examination by the board of supervisors, it is found that such claim has been filed within the five years and represents a payment in excess of the taxes regularly levied and collected for any given piece of property in the county for any given year and the amount thereof has been paid into the county treasury by the tax collector as aforesaid, the board of supervisors shall allow the said claim for the excess payment to the person entitled thereto.

Allowance of claim.

SEC. 3. All moneys paid to the county treasurer by the county tax collector as herein provided, shall be placed to the credit of the general fund of the county. Moneys credited to general fund.

SEC. 4. Whenever any duplicate or excess payment of taxes is made hereafter, it shall be the duty of the tax collector to retain same for thirty days and if not refunded as hereinafter provided to pay the same into the county treasury on the first Monday of each month thereafter, and at the same time file with the county auditor a description of the property upon which said taxes have been collected, the excess amount collected for each piece so described and the name of the person to whom the property is assessed at the time such excess payment is made. Such duplicate or excess payment of taxes shall be placed to the credit of the general fund of the county and within five years the party making the same, or in the event the payments are made by different parties, the party first filing his claim therefor in the manner and form hereinbefore provided, may secure a refund of such duplicate or excess payment: provided, however, that during such thirty day period, the tax collector may adjust any mistakes in the payment of taxes by returning to the party or parties, making such duplicate or excess payments the amount thereof. Duty of tax collector.

SEC. 5. If any tax collector shall refuse to comply with the provisions of this act, the district attorney of the county is hereby authorized to begin suit against the county tax collector to recover any sums in the possession of said county tax collector representing said duplicate or excess payment of taxes, and the statute of limitations shall not be a defense to the maintenance of any such action. Suit by district attorney.

An act to amend section one thousand seven hundred fourteen of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to new trials and appeals in proceedings in probate courts.

[Approved April 13, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand seven hundred fourteen of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1714. The provisions of part two of this code, relative to new trials and appeals, except in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this title, apply to the proceedings mentioned in this title; provided, that hereafter a motion for a new trial in probate proceedings can be made only in cases of contests of wills, either before or after probate, in proceedings under Motion for new trial in probate proceedings.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand eight hundred four b, relating to the payment of taxes on property assessed by two or more counties and to cancellation of erroneous assessments.

[Approved April 13, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand eight hundred four b, to read as follows:

Property
assessed by two or more counties.

3804*b*. Where real property shall hereafter be assessed by the assessors of two or more counties for the same year the owner thereof may file an action in the superior court of one of said counties against the conflicting claimants and discharge the obligation by paying the largest amount of taxes assessed and levied on said land by any of said counties into court and compel said counties to interplead and litigate their several claims among themselves in accordance with section three hundred eighty-six of the Code of Civil Procedure. Where real property has heretofore been assessed by the assessors of two or more counties for the same year and the owner thereof has paid all of the taxes on one of such assessments, upon proof of the payment of such taxes on one of such assessments for any year, by the production of a tax receipt or certificate of the auditor of the county in which such payment has been made, the board of supervisors of any other county claiming the right to assess and tax such real property, shall thereupon enter an order upon its minutes directing the auditor to cancel such double assessment of such property by an entry on the margin of the assessment book, as also upon the delinquent list, should such double assessment be carried therein. If the property assessed under such double assessment has been sold to the state and a certificate of sale or deed therefor has been issued to the state, the order of the board shall further direct the recorder to cancel such erroneous certificate and deed so issued except where the state has disposed of the property thereby conveyed.

SECTION 1. Section two thousand six hundred forty-six of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2646. Whenever any of the highways of a county have been constructed or improved under the provisions of an act entitled "An act providing for the laying out, constructing, straightening, improvement and repair of main public highways in any county, providing for the voting, issuing and selling of county bonds and the acceptance of donations to pay for such work and improvements, providing for a highway commission to have charge of such work and improvements, and authorizing cities and towns to improve the portions of such highways within their corporate limits and to issue and sell bonds therefor," approved March 19, 1907, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, the board of supervisors of said county shall have the charge of the maintenance and repair of said highways and may employ a superintendent or inspector to have charge of the repairing and maintenance of all of said roads under the orders and direction of said board, and may employ such workmen and purchase such materials, equipments, tools and appliances as may be necessary to maintain said roads and keep them in repair, the cost of such maintenance and repair to be paid out Highways

of the general fund of the county. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the board from having any such work of repair or maintenance done by contract under the provisions of section two thousand six hundred forty-three, if they deem it advisable. At the option of the board of supervisors, expressed by resolution, the provisions of this section shall apply to such highways of the county as may be specified in such resolution, constructed or improved under the provisions of subdivision ten of section two thousand six hundred forty-three of the Political Code, and paid for out of the general fund of said county.

CHAPTER 94.

An act to perpetuate marks, brands and counterbrands established in the several counties of the state under sections three thousand one hundred sixty-eight and three thousand one hundred sixty-nine of the Political Code, to provide methods of perpetuation and declaring all marks, brands and counterbrands not so perpetuated to be inoperative and void.

[Approved April 16, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Notice to perpetuate marks, brands, and counter-brands.

SECTION 1. The county recorder of each county in whose office there are recorded more than one hundred marks, brands and counterbrands under the provisions of section three thousand one hundred sixty-eight of the Political Code, shall, within thirty days after this law goes into effect, cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in such county, the following notice:

“Every person, who, under and by virtue of compliance with section three thousand one hundred sixty-eight of the Political Code, owns a mark, brand or counterbrand, must, within three months after final publication of this notice, notify the county recorder of his desire to continue and perpetuate such mark, brand and counterbrand. This notification must be in words of positive and reasonable intendment and must be either by registered letter or by personal application addressed to said county recorder. Any person failing to so continue and perpetuate such mark, brand and counterbrand, shall lose all right, title and interest therein.

First publication: (naming date).

Last publication: (naming date).

County recorder of ----- county.?”

Publication.

SEC. 2. The notice set forth in section one shall be published six times at intervals of four weeks, final publication to be not more than five months later than the original publication thereof.

SEC. 3. Every person desiring to continue and perpetuate any mark, brand and counterbrand must comply with the provisions set forth in the notice under section one, and the county recorder shall, upon such compliance, write or stamp opposite the record of such mark, brand or counterbrand the word "perpetuated."

Continuance of marks, etc.

SEC. 4. At the termination of three months after final publication of notice set forth in section one, the county recorders of the several counties shall transfer the records of all marks, brands and counterbrands perpetuated under section three to a new book set apart for the purpose described in section three thousand one hundred sixty-eight of the Political Code, and all marks, brands and counterbrands in the custody of the county recorders of the several counties not so continued and perpetuated shall be deemed to have been abandoned by the owner thereof and to be inoperative and void.

deemed abandoned.

SEC. 5. Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing sections three thousand one hundred sixty-eight and three thousand one hundred sixty-nine of the Political Code.

An act to appropriate money to pay the expenses incurred in the publication of bond acts presented to the people at the election of November 7, 1916.

[Approved April 16, 1917. In effect immediately.]

Appropriation: publishing highway bonds act.

SECTION 1. The sum of thirty-one thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses incurred in the publication of amendment to state highway act of 1909 and the publication of state highway act of 1915, which acts were published in accordance with section one of article sixteen of the constitution, and were voted upon by the people at the election held on November seventh, one thousand nine hundred sixteen.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section one of article four of the constitution of the State of California, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 97.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code, to be numbered six hundred thirty-two c, relating to the protection of trout.

[Approved April 17, 1917. In effect October 31, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered as six hundred thirty-two c, and to read as follows:

Sale of trout a misdemeanor.

632c. Every person who buys, sells, offers or exposes for sale, barter or trade, any species of trout, except domestically reared trout, in the State of California, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person violating any of the provisions of this section is punishable by a fine of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail of the county in which the conviction shall be had for not less than ten days, nor more than one hundred fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. All fines and forfeitures imposed and collected for violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund. The provisions of this section shall not take effect until the thirty-first day of October, one thousand nine hundred seventeen.

In effect when.

CHAPTER 98.

An act to amend section six hundred seventy-one of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to judgment liens.

[Approved April 19, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred seventy-one of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

671. Immediately after filing the judgment roll, the clerk <sup>Judgment</sup> <sup>lien</sup> must make the proper entries of the judgment under appropriate heads, in the docket kept by him, noting thereon the hour and minute of the day of such entry; and from the time the judgment is docketed it becomes a lien upon all the real property of the judgment debtor not exempt from execution in the county, owned by him at the time, or which he may afterwards acquire, until the lien ceases. The lien continues for five years <sup>continue</sup> <sup>five year</sup> unless the enforcement of the judgment be stayed on appeal by the execution of a sufficient undertaking as provided in this code, in which case the lien of the judgment and any lien by virtue of an attachment that has been issued and levied in the action ceases.

CHAPTER 99.

An act to legalize the organization of permanent road divisions and validate all proceedings for the issuance of bonds of said divisions where authority for issuance of said bonds has already been given by a vote of at least two-thirds of the electors of any permanent road division.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all cases where the board of supervisors of any county of this state, purporting to act under and by virtue of the provisions of the Political Code applicable thereto, has organized a permanent road division, all proceedings for the organization of any such road division and the organization thereof are hereby validated and declared legal and no proceedings to test the validity of any such road division shall be maintained unless instituted within ninety days from the effective date of this act. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county has ordered the issuance of bonds of any such road division, after an election of the qualified electors thereof has been held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred, at which election not less than two-thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election <sup>organization</sup> <sup>of permanent</sup> <sup>road divi-</sup> <sup>sions vali-</sup> <sup>dated.</sup>

CHAPTER 100.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure to be numbered six hundred seventy-one a, relating to the filing and recording of judgments and transcripts of judgments rendered in federal courts.

[Approved April 19, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure to be numbered six hundred seventy-one a and to read as follows:

Filing judgments of United
courts.

671a. Transcripts of judgments and copies of judgments rendered in the district or other courts of the United States within the State of California, when certified by the clerk of said courts under the seal thereof, may be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of any county in this state, and when so filed the clerk shall immediately enter the same in the judgment docket in the same manner as judgments rendered in the superior court are entered and such transcripts of judgments and copies of judgments, when so certified, may be filed for record in the office of any county recorder of this state and when so filed for record the county recorder shall record and index the same in the same manner as transcripts of judgments and copies of judgments of the courts of this state are recorded and indexed; and from such recording the judgment becomes a lien upon all the real property of the judgment debtor not exempt from execution in such county, owned by him at the time, or which he may afterward, and before the lien expires, acquire.

CHAPTER 101.

An act to legalize bonds heretofore issued and sold, or to be issued and sold, by municipalities where authority for such issuance has already been given by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the electors of such municipality voting upon the question of incurring such indebtedness.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all cases where the legislative branch of any municipality in the State of California has deemed it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purpose for which said indebtedness is to be incurred, and has called a special election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of such municipality the question whether the indebtedness specified in the resolution or ordinance calling such election shall be incurred, and where at such election not less than two-thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, and such legislative branch of such municipality shall have passed an ordinance or resolution providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness and of paying the same, and the mode of creating such indebtedness has been by the proposed issuance of the bonds of such municipality, the power of such municipality to issue such bonds and all the acts and proceedings of such municipality leading up to and including the issuance and sale or the proposed issuance and sale of such bonds are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared valid to all intents and purposes; and all such bonds, sold either before or after the passage of this act for not less than their par value are hereby legalized and declared to be legal and valid obligations of and against such municipality so issuing and selling the same, and the faith and credit of such municipality is hereby pledged for the prompt payment and redemption of the principal and interest of said bonds.

Municipal bonds authorized by vote of electors legalized.

SEC. 2. This act shall not operate to legalize any bonds of any municipality that have not, at the time of the passage of this act, been authorized by the vote of not less than two-thirds of the qualified electors of such municipality voting at any such election, or any bonds which have been sold for less than their par value.

Exception.

CHAPTER 102.

An act to repeal section three thousand sixty-two of the Political Code, relating to health officers.

[Approved April 19, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Section three thousand sixty-two of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 103.

An act to amend section two thousand seven hundred forty-five of the Political Code, relating to the formation of road divisions.

[Approved April 19, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand seven hundred forty-five of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Municipal corporation may be included in road division.

2745. Any portion of a county not contained in a permanent road division may be formed into a permanent road division under the provision of this act, and when so formed shall have the powers herein enumerated and such as may hereafter be conferred thereon by law; provided, that a municipal corporation for the purpose of this act shall not be considered a permanent road division and may be included therein.

CHAPTER 104.

An act to provide whole family protection for members of fraternal benefit societies.

[Approved April 20, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Fraternal benefit society may insure children.

SECTION 1. Any fraternal benefit society authorized to do business in this state and operating on the lodge plan, may provide in its constitution and by-laws, in addition to other benefits provided for therein, for the payment of death or annuity benefits upon the lives of children between the ages of two and eighteen years at next birthday, for whose support and maintenance a member of such society is responsible. Any such society may at its option, organize and operate branches for such children and membership in local lodges and initiation therein shall not be required of such children, nor shall they have any voice in the management of the society. The total benefits payable as above provided shall in no case exceed the following amounts at ages at next birthday at time of death, respectively, as follows: Two, thirty-four dollars; three, forty dollars; four, forty-eight dollars; five, fifty-eight dollars; six, one hundred forty dollars; seven, one hundred sixty-eight dollars; eight, two hundred dollars; nine, two hundred forty dollars; ten, three hundred dollars; eleven, three hundred eighty dollars; twelve, four hundred sixty dollars; thirteen to fifteen, five hundred twenty dollars; and sixteen to eighteen years, where not otherwise authorized by law, six hundred dollars.

Total benefits payable.

SEC. 2. No benefit certificate as to any child shall take effect until after medical examination or inspection by a licensed medical practitioner, in accordance with the laws of the society, nor shall any such benefit certificate be issued unless the society shall simultaneously put in force at least five hundred such certificates, on each of which at least one assessment has been paid, nor where the number of lives represented by such certificate falls below five hundred. The death benefit contributions to be made upon such certificate shall be based upon the "standard industrial mortality table" or the "English life table number six" and a rate of interest not greater than four per cent per annum, or upon a higher standard; provided, that contributions may be waived or returns may be made from any surplus held in excess of reserve and other liabilities, as provided in the by-laws; and provided, further, that extra contributions shall be made if the reserves hereafter provided for become impaired.

Conditions of benefit certificate.

SEC. 3. Any society entering into such insurance agreements shall maintain on all such contracts the reserve required by the standard of mortality and interest adopted by the society for computing contributions as provided in section two, and the funds representing the benefit contributions and all accretions thereon shall be kept as separate and distinct funds, independent of the other funds of the society, and shall not be liable for nor used for the payment of the debts and obligations of the society other than the benefits herein authorized; provided, that a society may provide that when a child reaches the minimum age for initiation into membership in such society, any benefit certificate issued hereunder may be surrendered for cancellation and exchanged for any other form of certificate issued by the society, provided that such surrender will not reduce the number of lives insured in the branch below five hundred, and upon the issuance of such new certificate any reserve upon the original certificate herein provided for shall be transferred to the credit of the new certificate. Neither the person who originally made application for benefits on account of such child, nor the beneficiary named in such original certificate, nor the person who paid the contributions, shall have any vested right in such new certificate, the free nomination of a beneficiary under the new certificate being left to the child so admitted to benefit membership.

Separate financial
statement.

SEC. 4. An entirely separate financial statement of the business transactions and of assets and liabilities arising therefrom shall be made in its annual report to the insurance commissioner by any society availing itself of the provisions hereof. The separation of assets, funds and liabilities required hereby shall not be terminated, rescinded or modified, nor shall the funds be diverted for any use other than as specified in section three, as long as any certificates issued hereunder remain in force, and this requirement shall be recognized and enforced in any liquidation, reinsurance, merger or other change in the condition of the status of the society.

payments

SEC. 5. Any society shall have the right to provide in its laws and the certificate issued hereunder for specified payments on account of the expense or general fund, which payments shall or shall not be mingled with the general fund of the society as its constitution and by-laws may provide.

Continuation
certificate.

SEC. 6. In the event of the termination of membership in the society by the person responsible for the support of any child, on whose account a certificate may have been issued, as provided herein, the certificate may be continued for the benefit of the estate of the child, provided the contributions are continued, or for the benefit of any other person responsible for the support and maintenance of such child, who shall assume the payment of the required contributions.

CHAPTER 105.

An act to amend section seven hundred four of the Penal Code, relating to proceedings before a magistrate on hearing of a charge of threatened offense.

[Approved April 20, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seven hundred four of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Testimony before magistrate
taken in shorthand.

704. When the person informed against is brought before the magistrate, if the charge be controverted, the magistrate must take testimony in relation thereto. The evidence must be reduced to writing and subscribed by the witnesses. The magistrate may, in his discretion, order the testimony and proceedings to be taken down in shorthand, and for that purpose he may appoint a shorthand reporter. The deposition or testimony of the witnesses must be authenticated in the form prescribed in section eight hundred sixty-nine of this code.

CHAPTER 106.

An act to amend section five hundred ninety-six of the Political Code, concerning certificate of authority to insurance companies; prohibiting the use of unauthorized companies except for surplus line insurance; providing for the licensing of surplus line brokers, their obligations and duties and providing penalty for violation thereof.

[Approved April 20, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five hundred ninety-six of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

596. No company shall transact any insurance business in this state without first complying with all the provisions of the laws of this state and thereafter procuring from the insurance commissioner a certificate of authority and continuing to comply with the laws of this state. Every such certificate of authority shall expire on the first day of July after its issuance unless sooner revoked. No certificate of authority shall be granted or renewed to any company in arrears to the state, or to any county, city and county, city or town in the state, for fees, licenses, taxes, assessments, fines, or penalties, accrued on business previously transacted in the state, nor while said company is otherwise in default for failure to comply with any of the laws of this state regarding the governmental control of such company by the state.

Transaction of insurance business in state.

Certificate not to be renewed if company is in arrears for taxes.

No person, firm or corporation shall in this state act as agent, in any transaction of insurance on property located in this state, for any insurance company not authorized to transact such insurance in this state.

No person, firm or corporation within this state shall solicit, negotiate or effect any insurance of the kinds described in section five hundred ninety-four, marine insurance and insurance on the property of steam railroads or of other common carriers engaged in interstate trade excepted, on any property located in this state with companies not authorized to transact such business in this state, except by and through a surplus line broker upon the terms and conditions hereinafter stated.

When and only when the total amount of insurance, of kinds hereinbefore prohibited from being placed with unauthorized companies, desired on any property located within the state can not be procured from a majority of companies authorized to transact such kinds of insurance within the state, such remaining part of the insurance as can not be procured from a majority of such authorized companies may be procured from unauthorized companies by a surplus line broker, and by no other person.

Surplus line broker.

License for surplus
line broker.

The insurance commissioner may issue a license authorizing any person, firm or corporation applying therefor, who is trustworthy and is competent to transact an insurance brokerage business in such manner as to safeguard the interest of the assured, to act as a surplus line broker from the date of such license until the first day of July succeeding, on the following conditions:

(a) Payment in advance to the insurance commissioner of a fee of twenty-five dollars.

(b) Delivery to the insurance commissioner of a bond to the State of California in the sum of five thousand dollars with sureties having the qualifications mentioned in section one thousand fifty-six and one thousand fifty-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure, conditioned that said licensee will fully and faithfully comply with the requirements of section five hundred ninety-six of the Political Code.

surplus
line broker.

1. To maintain in good faith an office in this state.

2. To keep in said office a complete book of record of the business transacted by him, under his license as a surplus line broker, with unauthorized companies showing: The dates of such insurance going into effect; the names of the insurers and of the insured; the gross premium payable therefor; the terms and character of insurance and location of the insured property. Such book of record shall also contain statements in the same detail of all such insurance cancelled, or on which premiums have been increased or reduced and the amounts of additional or of return premiums thereon. Such books are to be open at all times for the inspection of, and examination by, the insurance commissioner or any one appointed by him for said purpose.

Before any insurance as hereinbefore provided may be so procured or placed by a surplus line broker under authority of his license with unauthorized companies, such broker shall satisfy himself that the insurance to be placed by him with unauthorized companies is only such part of the insurance required as can not be procured from a majority of such authorized companies.

Whenever required so to do by the insurance commissioner, such surplus line broker shall furnish to said commissioner a list comprising a majority of the authorized companies from which the entire amount of insurance desired was not obtainable.

The surplus line broker shall within one week or as soon thereafter as practicable, after receipt by him of the complete information as to with what companies or other insurers and at what rate the insurance has been placed, file with the insurance commissioner a true report showing the names of the insured and of the insurers, the character of the insurance, location of the property, gross premium payable therefor and the date such insurance takes effect and the terms thereof.

As soon as practicable after any such insurance has been cancelled, or any premium thereon has been increased or reduced, such surplus line broker shall file with the insurance commissioner a report thereof in the same detail as required in the case of the report above referred to.

On or before the first day of March of each year the surplus line broker shall file with the insurance commissioner a sworn statement of all business transacted under his license during the last preceding calendar year ending December thirty-first. Such statement shall contain true accounts of the gross amount of insurance procured from and placed with unauthorized companies during the calendar year, the gross premium charged therefor, including additional insurance premiums, the gross amount of all insurance cancelled during said year, and the gross return premiums thereon. Such statement shall also include any additional premiums charged, and the gross premium returned during said calendar year on insurance previously effected. All such reports and statements shall be made on blanks to be furnished to the surplus line broker by the insurance commissioner on application therefor.

Every surplus line broker shall on or before the first day of April of each year pay to the insurance commissioner for the use of the State of California a tax of three per cent upon the amount of gross premiums upon all insurance placed under authority of such license, less three per cent of all return premiums on policies cancelled, or upon which premiums have been reduced during the year ending December thirty-first last preceding.

Any surplus line broker who wilfully fails or refuses to report to the insurance commissioner any insurance on property located within this state placed under his name with unauthorized companies, or who shall by wilful omission from the records required to be maintained by him for such purpose, attempt to evade the payment of taxes on any such insurance, shall upon conviction thereof in addition to being required to pay the tax thereon, be further penalized by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense and the insurance commissioner shall further forthwith revoke the license of any such surplus line broker.

The insurance commissioner shall also revoke the license of any surplus line broker who wilfully fails or refuses to perform any of the other duties hereinbefore specified as required of said broker.

If in the opinion of the insurance commissioner the solvency of any surety on a bond hereby required has become impaired or doubtful, he shall notify the surplus line broker in writing, and unless within ten days after receipt of such notice the solvency of such surety is proved to the satisfaction of the insurance commissioner, or a new bond is substituted therefor, said insurance commissioner shall revoke the license of the surplus line broker. The removal of the office of the surplus line broker from this state, or the removal therefrom of his accounts of his business as such, or the closing of his said office for a period of more than twenty consecutive days, shall constitute a termination of the authority of said surplus line broker, and shall be tantamount to an express revocation of his license, whether or not the insurance commissioner thereafter revokes the same. No new license shall be issued to any surplus line broker whose license has been revoked for any reason other than the insufficiency of his sureties, within the period of one year after such revocation, and until all indebtedness of said surplus line broker on former business has been paid to said insurance commissioner. Every insured for whom insurance has been effected with unauthorized companies shall produce for examination by the insurance commissioner, whenever requested by him, in writing so to do, all policies, contracts, and other documents evidencing such insurance and disclose to him the true amount of the gross premiums paid or agreed to be paid therefor, or upon refusal so to do, he shall forfeit to the State of California the sum of two hundred dollars for each refusal. Nothing in this section shall be construed to deprive any citizen of this state of the right to negotiate and effect insurance on his own property with any unauthorized company. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit any broker to solicit or place marine insurance or insurance on property of railroads or other common carriers engaged in interstate trade with nonadmitted insurers until three-quarters of the companies duly authorized to transact such class of insurance in this state shall have first been given a refusal of such insurance at equal rates and same conditions as may be bona fide obtainable from insurance companies admitted to do the same character of insurance under the laws of the state of New York.

Repealed.

Section four hundred thirty-nine of the Penal Code, in so far as it is inconsistent with the provisions hereof, is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 107.

An act amending section four hundred ninety-nine a of the Penal Code, relating to stealing of electric current and the injuring of electric wires or appliances, and providing a punishment therefor.

SECTION 1. Section two of the act entitled "An act relating to cold storage, the regulation of refrigerating warehouses, the disposition or sale of food kept or preserved therein, and defining the duties of the state board of health in relation thereto," approved June 13, 1913, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Application to operate cold storage
plant.

Sec. 2. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to operate a cold storage or refrigerating warehouse wherein shall be stored "articles of food" for a period exceeding thirty days, shall make application in writing to the state board of health for that purpose, stating the location of its plant or plants. On receipt of the application the state board of health shall cause an examination to be made into the sanitary condition of said plant or plants and if found to be in a sanitary condition and otherwise properly equipped for the business of cold storage, the state board of health shall cause a license to be issued authorizing the applicant to operate a cold storage or refrigerating warehouse for and during a period of one year. The license shall be issued upon payment by the applicant of a license fee to the state board of health for each and every warehouse or plant operated by applicant under the provisions of this act for all cold storage or refrigerating warehouses or plants having a capacity of ten thousand cubic feet, or less, a fee of fifteen dollars. For all cold storage or refrigerating warehouses or plants having a capacity of more than ten thousand cubic feet and less than fifty thousand cubic feet, a fee of thirty dollars. For all cold storage or refrigerating warehouses or plants having a capacity of more than fifty thousand cubic feet and less than one hundred thousand cubic feet, a fee of forty dollars. For all cold storage or refrigerating warehouses or plants having a capacity of one hundred thousand cubic feet or more, a fee of fifty dollars.

The secretary of the state board of health shall keep a full and correct account of all fees received under the provisions of this act, and shall, at least once each month, deposit all such fees collected with the state treasurer and make a detailed report covering same to the state controller, and such moneys shall be credited to the appropriation for the support of the pure food and drug laboratory; provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall apply to cold storage or cold storage or refrigerating plants or warehouses as herein defined which are maintained or operated by restaurants, hotels, or exclusively retail establishments not storing articles of food for other persons.

Restaurants, hotels, etc.,
exempted.

SEC. 2. Section seven of said act, approved June 13, 1913, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1913,
p. 771.

Sec. 7. All articles of food when deposited in cold storage shall be marked plainly on the containers in which they are packed or on the individual article with the date of receipt, in accordance with such rules and forms as may be prescribed by the state board of health, under the authority hereinafter conferred; and when removed from cold storage shall be marked in like manner with the date of withdrawal.

Dates of receipt and withdrawal marked on articles.

[Approved April 20, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That section six hundred twenty-eight e of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

628e. Every person who in fish and game district number nineteen at any time except with hook and line, takes, catches or kills any California whiting (Menticirrhus undulatus) also known as surf fish, or any yellow-fin or any spot-fin croaker; every person who, at any time within the period of three years, buys, sells, offers, or exposes for sale any California whiting (Menticirrhus undulatus), also known as surf fish, or any yellow-fin or any spot-fin croaker; every person who, at any time buys, sells, offers or exposes for sale any southern, bastard or chicken halibut (Paralichthys californicus) of less than four pounds in weight, or any barracuda less than three pounds in weight, or any albicore weighing less than six pounds, is guilty of a misdemeanor. And all fines collected for any violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the "fish commission fund."

Protection
of whiting.

Stats. 1913,
p. 327.

SECTION 1. Section ten of an act entitled "An act providing for the laying out, constructing, straightening, improvement and repair of main public highways in any county, providing for the voting, issuing, and selling of county bonds and the acceptance of donations to pay for such work and improvements, providing for a highway commission to have charge of such work and improvements, and authorizing cities and towns to improve the portions of such highways within their corporate limits and to issue and sell bonds therefor," approved March 19, 1907, as amended is hereby amended to read as follows:

Improvements must be durable.

Sec. 10. All improvements constructed under this act shall be of a durable and lasting character; provided, that said commission shall have the power to determine how said highways shall be improved and constructed, and the character of the materials to be used in the improvement and construction thereof. If said commission shall determine that said highways, or any of them, shall be macadamized or paved, then the macadamized or paved portion of the roadbed constructed or any highway portion thereof improved under this act, shall not exceed eighteen feet in width, unless donations are made to the highway commission for that purpose, in which case such donations may be used to defray the increased cost of constructing such macadamized or paved roadbed more than eighteen feet wide on any part of such highway specified by the donors; but no part of the proceeds of any bond issue shall be expended for such purpose. No railroad, electric road, or street railroad shall be constructed along or upon any highway, or any portion thereof, improved under the provision of this act, except for crossings duly authorized by the board of supervisors, nor shall any board of supervisors have power to grant any franchise for the construction of any railroad, electric road, or street railroad along or upon any such highway or

An act to amend section six hundred twenty-nine of the Penal Code of the State of California, relative to placing and maintaining of screens over the inlets of pipes, flumes, ditches, canals and mill races, taking water from any river, creek, stream or lake in which fish have been placed or may exist.

[Approved April 20, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred twenty-nine of the Penal Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

629. It shall be the duty of the state board of fish and game commissioners to examine from time to time all mill races, irrigating ditches, pipes, flumes and canals taking or receiving water from any river, creek, stream or lake in this state. Whenever in the opinion of the state fish and game commission it shall be necessary to screen any such mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal in order to prevent fish from passing through or into such mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal and away from any river, creek, stream or lake in which fish have been planted or may exist, the state fish and game commission shall order the person, company or corporation owning, leasing, controlling or having in charge any such mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal to install and maintain a screen on such mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal. Said order shall be in writing and shall specify the size, mesh, material and

over ditch inlets.

location of such screen and the time within which said screen must be installed.

Investigation as to necessity of screens.

After making an order to place and maintain such screen, the board of fish and game commissioners shall, when requested by said owners, lessees or operators, or the person in charge of such mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal, fix a time and place in the county in which the intake of such mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal is situated, for the taking of evidence upon the question of the necessity of placing and maintaining such screen and cause a notice in writing of the time and place of hearing to be served upon such owner, lessee or operator or person in charge of such mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal, at least ten days before the date of such hearing. At such time and place designated in said notice testimony, under oath, shall be taken on the part of the state board of fish and game commissioners, and the owners, lessees or operators or persons in charge of such mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal.

Time for making request for hearing.

If said request for a hearing upon the order herein specified is not made within ten days after the service upon said owners, lessees, or operators, or the person in charge, of said mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal, such order shall become final.

Order for installing screen.

If it appears from the evidence upon such hearing that fish exist or have been planted in the river, stream, creek or lake from which said mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal takes its waters, said board of fish and game commissioners shall make an order in writing, and cause the same to be served on such owner, lessee, operator or person in charge of said mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal; said order shall designate the point on said mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal at which said screen shall be located, and the size, mesh and materials of said screen and the time within which said screen must be installed. Said time shall be not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, from the date of service of said order upon said owner, lessee, operator or person in charge of said mill race, irrigating ditch, pipe, flume or canal.

Taking of evidence.

The evidence in any investigation, inquiry or hearing, provided by this section, may be taken by any of the members of the board of fish and game commissioners, or such deputy fish and game commissioner, or employee, as the board may designate to take such evidence, and each member of the board and any of its deputies or employees designated to take evidence at the hearing provided hereby shall have the power to administer oaths, take affidavits and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses at such hearings. Each witness, legally subpoenaed, attending at a hearing, shall receive for his attendance the same fees and mileage allowed by law to a witness in civil cases, which amount shall be paid by the party at whose request such witness is subpoenaed.

Witness fees.

The superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which any inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding may be held under authority of this section shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, the giving of testimony and the production of papers, as required by any subpoena issued under authority of this section. The commission, or representative of the commission, before whom the testimony is to be given or produced, in case of the refusal of any witness to attend or testify or produce any papers required by such subpoena, may report to the superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which the proceeding is pending, by petition, setting forth that due notice has been given of the time and place of attendance of said witness, or the production of said papers, and that the witness has been summoned in the manner prescribed in this act, and that the witness has failed and refused to attend or produce the papers required by the subpoena, before the commission or its representative, in the cause or proceeding named in the notice and subpoena, or has refused to answer questions propounded to him in the course of such proceeding, and ask an order of said court, compelling the witness to attend and testify or produce said papers before the commission or its representative. The court, upon the petition of the commission or its representative, shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court, at a time and place to be fixed by the court in such order, the time to be not more than ten days from the date of the order, and there show cause why he has not attended and testified or produced said papers before the commission or its representative. A copy of said order shall be served upon said witness. If it shall appear to the court that said subpoena was regularly issued by the commission or its representative, the court shall thereupon enter an order that said witness appear before the commission or its representative at the time and place fixed in said order, and testify or produce the required papers, and upon failure to obey said order, said witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court.

Attendance
of witnesses

The commission or its representative, or any party, may, in any investigation or hearing before the commission or its representative, cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior courts of this state and to that end may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and papers.

Deposition
of witnesses.

Any person, company or corporation, neglecting or refusing to put up or maintain the screen ordered by the state board of fish and game commissioners, after the order shall have become final, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail of the county in which the conviction shall be had of not less than ten days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. any fines collected

Penalty for refusing to maintain screen.

over and above the costs of the proceedings to be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund; and provided, that the continuance from day to day of the neglect or refusal to install and maintain such screen after the same is finally ordered shall constitute a separate offense for each day.

CHAPTER 114.

An act making bonds of municipal water districts legal investments for certain purposes.

[Approved April 20, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Municipal
water district bond legal invest-

SECTION 1. All bonds heretofore or hereafter issued by any municipal water district under and in pursuance of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and organization and management of municipal water districts, and to provide for the acquisition or construction by said districts of waterworks, and for the acquisition of all property necessary therefor, and also to provide for the distribution and sale of water by said districts," approved May 1, 1911, as subsequently amended, shall be legal investments for all trust funds, and for the funds of all insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, and trust companies, and for the state school funds, and whenever any moneys or funds may, by law now or hereafter enacted, be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or municipalities in the State of California, such moneys or funds may be invested in the said bonds of municipal water districts; provided, however, no bank shall invest or loan more than five per centum of its assets on any one such bond issue.

SEC. 2. This act is intended to be, and shall be considered, the latest enactment upon the matters herein contained, and is supplemental to any and all other acts regulating, relating to and declaring what shall be, legal investments.

An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An act granting to the city of Los Angeles the tidelands and submerged lands of the state within the boundaries of the said city," approved May 1, 1911.

[Approved April 20, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of the act entitled "An act granting to the city of Los Angeles the tidelands and submerged lands of the state within the boundaries of the said city," approved May 1, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

p. 1256i.

Section 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Los Angeles, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all tidelands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, within the present boundaries of said city, and situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific ocean, or of any harbor, estuary, bay or inlet within said boundaries, to be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes, and upon the express conditions, following, to wit:

Tidelands
granted to
Los Angeles.

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city, and by its successors, solely for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purpose whatsoever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon for limited periods, in any event not to exceed thirty years for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods, in any event not to exceed thirty years for any and all purposes which shall not interfere with commerce or navigation, and are not inconsistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California;

Purposes for which lands may be used.

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the state, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California;

Harbor

mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges, or in facilities, for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city, or by its successors;

Right to fish reserved to people

Reserving, however, in the people of the State of California, the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purposes.

CHAPTER 116.

An act to amend section four of an act entitled "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvements within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27, 1893.

[Approved April 24, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1913,
p. 847.

SECTION 1. Section four of an act entitled "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvements within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27, 1893, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Street superintendent to certify unpaid
assessments.

Sec. 4. After the full expiration of thirty days from the date of the warrant, or if an appeal be taken to the city council, or an extension of time be granted the contractor in which to make his return as provided in section ten of said street work act, then five days after the final decision of said city council, or the expiration of the extension, or after the full expiration of thirty days from the recording of a reassessment in the event that such be made, and after the street superintendent shall have recorded the return, and in the event that a reassessment is ordered, after all previous payments have been credited on the reassessment, the street superintendent shall make and certify to the city treasurer a complete list of all assessments unpaid, which amount to twenty-five dollars or over upon any assessment or diagram number; and said treasurer shall thereupon make out, sign and issue to the contractor, or his assigns, payee of the warrant and assessment, a separate bond, representing upon each lot or parcel of land upon said list the total amount of the assessments, or reassessments as the case may be, against the same as thereon shown. And if said lot or parcel of land is described upon said assessment and diagram by its number or block, or both, upon the official map of said municipality, or upon any map on file in the office of the county recorder of the county in which said municipality is situated, then it shall be in said bond a sufficient description of said lot or parcel of land to designate it by said number or block, or both, as it appears on said official or recorded map. Said bond shall be substantially in the following form:

Sufficient description of land.

STREET IMPROVEMENT BOND.

Series (designating it) in the city (or other form of municipality) of (naming it).

$_____ No._____

Form of bond.

Under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of the State of California (title of said act), I, out of the fund for the above designated street improvement bonds, series _____, will pay to _____, or order, the sum of _____ dollars, ($_____), with interest at the rate of ____ per cent per annum, all as hereinafter specified, and at the office of the treasurer of the _____ of _____, State of California.

This bond is issued to represent the cost of certain street work upon _____ in the _____ of _____, as the same is more fully described in assessment No. _____ issued by the street superintendent of said _____, after acceptance of said work, and recorded in his office (or if there has been a reassessment then the reference shall be to such reassessment). Its amount is the amount assessed in said assessment (or reassessment if such be made) against the lot or parcel of land numbered therein, and in the diagram attached thereto, as No. _____, and which now remains unpaid, but until paid, with accrued interest, is a first lien upon the property affected thereby, as the same is described herein, and in said recorded assessment with its diagram, to wit:

That certain lot or parcel of land in said _____ of _____ county of _____ and State of California, described as follows:

This bond is payable exclusively from said fund and neither the municipality nor any officer thereof is to be holden for payment otherwise for its principal or interest. The term of this bond is _____ years from the second day of January next succeeding its date, and at the expiration of said time the whole sum then unpaid shall be due and payable; but on the second day of January of each year after its date an even annual proportion of its whole amount is due and payable upon presentation of the coupon therefor until the whole is paid (or if said bonds are to extend over a period exceeding ten years from their date, insert in place of the last statement the following: But on the second day of January of each of the last ten years of the term of this bond an even one-tenth part of the whole amount of the principal of said bond shall be due and payable upon presentation of the coupon therefor,) with all accrued interest at the rate of ____ per centum per annum. The interest is payable semiannually, to wit: on the second days of January and July in each year hereafter, upon presentation of the coupons therefor, the first of which is for the interest from date to the next second day of -----, and thereafter the interest coupons are for semiannual interest. Should default be made in the annual payment upon the principal, or in any payment of interest, by the owner of said lot or parcel of land, or any one in his behalf, the holder of this bond is entitled to declare the whole unpaid amount to be due and payable and to have said lot or parcel of land advertised and sold forthwith, in the manner provided by law.

At said ----- of -----, this ----- day of ----- in the year one thousand nine hundred -----,

-----,
City treasurer of the ----- of -----.

Amount less than twenty-five dollars.

Proceedings to avoid listing by street superintendent.

Annual coupons.

Semi-annual interest coupons.

In case the amount of the unpaid assessment or reassessment upon any lot or parcel of land shall be less than twenty-five dollars, then the same shall be collected as is provided in said street work act. If any person, or his authorized agent, shall at any time before the issuance of the bond for said assessment or reassessment upon his lot or parcel of land present to the city treasurer his affidavit made before a competent officer, that he is the owner of a lot or parcel of land in said list, accompanied by the certificate of a searcher of records that he is such owner of record, and shall with such affidavit and certificate notify said treasurer in writing that he desires no bond to be issued for the assessment upon said lot or parcel of land, then no such bond shall be issued therefor and the payee of the warrant, or his assigns, shall retain his right for enforcing collection of said assessment or reassessment as if said lot or parcel of land had not been so listed by the street superintendent. The bonds so issued by said treasurer shall be payable to the party to whom they issue, or order, and shall be serial bonds, as is hereinbefore described, and shall bear interest at the rate specified in the resolution of intention to do said work. They shall have annual coupons attached thereto, payable in annual order on the second day of January in each year after the date of the bonds until all are paid, or if the term of said bonds be more than ten years, then said coupons shall be payable on the second day of January of each of the last ten years of the term of the bonds; and each coupon shall be for an even annual proportion of the principal of the bond. They shall have semiannual interest coupons thereto attached, the first of which shall be payable upon the second day of January or July, as the case may be, next after its date, and shall be for the interest accrued at that time, and the rest of which shall be for the semiannual interest accruing from the second day of January or July, as the case may be. The owner of, or any person interested in, any lot or parcel of land upon which a bond has been issued, under the terms of this act, may at any time pay off such bond and discharge his land from the lien of the assessment, by paying to the city treasurer for the holder of such bond the amount then unpaid on the principal sum thereof, and all interest thereon which has accrued and is unpaid, together with the semiannual installment of interest which will next become due thereafter, and in addition thereto, interest for six months at the rate specified in the bond upon the unpaid amount of the principal. The treasurer shall thereupon make an entry upon his bond register that such bond has been paid in full. When all the coupons of principal and interest are paid or the bond is surrendered or satisfied, the city treasurer shall report the fact to the street superintendent, who shall forthwith indorse the same on the margin of the record of the assessment to the credit of which the same is paid. The assessment upon which a bond is issued shall be a first lien upon the property affected thereby until the bond issued for the payment thereof and the accrued interest thereon shall be fully paid. Said bonds by their issuance shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all proceedings leading up thereto under said street work act and under this act. and of the validity of said lien.

treasurer to street superintendent.

An act to amend sections twelve and sixteen of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and management of county fire insurance companies," approved April 1, 1897, as amended March 23, 1907, April 15, 1909, and May 1, 1911.

[Approved April 24, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve of the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and management of county fire insurance companies," approved April 1, 1897, as amended March 23, 1907, April 15, 1909, and May 1, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1907,
p. 942.

Sec. 12. When the amount of any loss shall have been ascertained, which exceeds in amount the cash funds of the company, the president shall convene the directors of said company, who shall make an assessment upon all of the property to the amount for which each several piece of property is insured, taken in connection with the rate of premium under which it may be classified; except when the amount of such loss or losses does not exceed one-eighth of one per cent of the total amount of insurance in force in any county fire insurance company, then and in such event the directors of said company may, by resolution in writing, signed by two-thirds of said directors in meeting assembled, borrow in the name of said company and give said company's note or other evidence of indebtedness therefor, in an amount or amounts whose total shall not exceed one-eighth of one per cent of the total amount of insurance in force in said company. The term of said loan or loans shall not be for a greater period than twelve months nor shall the date of maturity be in excess of thirty days beyond the date of the annual meeting of said company; provided, further, that the board of directors may at their annual meeting levy an assessment not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars on first class insurance and a pro rata amount on other classes, and said sum so raised shall constitute a reserve fund to be used in emergency cases only and another assessment for this fund shall not be made while this reserve fund remains intact.

p. 442.

SEC. 2. Section sixteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Withdrawals.

SEC. 16. Any member of such company may withdraw therefrom by surrendering his policy for cancellation at any time while the organization continues the business for which it was organized, by giving notice in writing to the secretary thereof, and paying his share of all claims that may exist against such company; provided, that the company shall have power to cancel or terminate any policy by giving the insured five days' written notice to that effect, and returning to him any excess of premium he may have paid during the term of the policy over the cost of his insurance as measured by the rules or methods of standard fire insurance companies doing business in this state.

CHAPTER 118.

An act to amend section twenty-three a of an act entitled "An act for the regulation and control of fraternal benefit societies," approved May 1, 1911, and to add a new section thereto to be numbered twenty-three b.

[Approved April 24, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1911,
p. 1330.

SECTION 1. Section twenty-three a of the act entitled "An act for the regulation and control of fraternal benefit societies," approved May 1, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Provisions to insure future
security.

23a. If the valuation of the certificates, as hereinbefore provided, on December 31, 1917, shall show that the present value of future net contributions, together with the admitted assets, is less than the present value of the promised benefits and accrued liabilities, such society shall thereafter at least maintain said financial condition at each succeeding triennial valuation in respect of the degree of deficiency as shown in the valuation as of December 31, 1917. If at any succeeding triennial valuation such society does not show at least the same condition, the insurance commissioner shall direct that it thereafter comply with the requirements herein specified. If the next succeeding triennial valuation after the receipt of such notice shall show that the society has failed to maintain the condition required herein, the insurance commissioner may, in the absence of good cause shown for such failure, institute proceedings for the dissolution of such society, in accordance with the provision of section twenty-four of this act, or in the case of a foreign society, its license may be cancelled in the manner provided in this act.

Any such society, shown by any triennial valuation, subsequent to December 31, 1917, not to have maintained the condition herein required, shall, within two years thereafter, make such improvement as to show a percentage of deficiency not greater than as of December 31, 1917, or thereafter, as to all new members admitted, be subject, so far as stated rates of contributions are concerned, to the provisions of section twelve of this act, applicable in the organization of new societies: provided, that the net mortuary or beneficiary contributions and funds of such new members shall be kept separate and apart from the other funds of the society. If such required improvement is not shown by the succeeding triennial valuation, then the said new members may be placed in a separate class and their certificates valued as an independent society in respect of contributions and funds.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to said act, approved May 1, 1911, to be numbered twenty-three b and to read as follows:

23*b*. In lieu of the requirements of sections twenty-three and twenty-three a, any society accepting in its laws the provisions of this section may value its certificates on a basis, herein designated "accumulation basis," by crediting each member with the net amount contributed for each year and with interest at approximately the net rate earned and by charging him with his share of the losses for each year, herein designated "cost of insurance" and carrying the balance, if any, to his credit. The charge for the cost of insurance may be according to the actual experience of the society applied to a table of mortality recognized by the law of this state, and shall take into consideration the amount at risk during each year, which shall be the amount payable at death less the credit to the member. Except as specifically provided in its articles or laws or contracts no charge shall be carried forward from the first valuation hereunder against any member for any past share of losses exceeding the contributions and credit. If, after the first valuation, any member's share of losses for any year exceeds his credit including the contribution for the year, the contribution shall be increased to cover his share of the losses, and if the credit at the time any benefit becomes payable during the lifetime of the member, including any available funds does not equal such benefit, the contributions to be made by him or on his behalf shall be increased by the difference. Any such excess share of losses chargeable to any member may be paid out of a fund or contributions especially created or required for such purpose.

Any member may transfer to any plan adopted by the society with net rates on which tabular reserves are maintained and on such transfer shall be entitled to make such application of his credit as provided in the laws of the society.

Value of certificate on "tabular basis."

Certificates issued, rerated or readjusted on a basis providing for adequate rates with adequate reserves to mature such certificates upon assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this state shall be valued on such basis, herein designated the "tabular basis"; provided, that if on the first valuation under this section a deficiency in reserve shall be shown for any such certificate, the same shall be valued on the accumulation basis.

Whenever in any society having members upon the tabular basis and upon the accumulation basis, the total of all costs of insurance provided for any year shall be insufficient to meet the actual death and disability losses for the year, the deficiency shall be met for the year from the available funds after setting aside all credits in the reserve; or from increased contributions or by an increase in the number of assessments applied to the society as a whole or to classes of members as may be specified in its laws. Savings from a lower amount of death losses may be returned in like manner as may be specified in its laws.

If the laws of the society so provide, the assets representing the reserves of any separate class of members may be carried separately for such class as if in an independent society, and the required reserve accumulation of such class so set apart shall not thereafter be mingled with the assets of other classes of the society.

Table of rates and credits.

A table showing the rates being paid by and the credits to individual members at each age and year of entry, and showing opposite each credit the tabular rates and the tabular reserve required, or at the option of the society the required reserve on a level rate equivalent to that being paid, according to assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the laws of this state and adopted by the society, and, in either case, including any benefit payable at a specified age or on account of old age disability shall be filed by the society with each annual report and also be furnished to each member before July first of each year.

In lieu of the aforesaid statement there may be furnished to each member within the same time a statement giving the data aforesaid for such member. No table or statement need be made or furnished when the reserves are maintained on the tabular basis.

For this purpose, individual bookkeeping accounts for each member shall not be required and all calculations may be made by actuarial methods.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the maintenance of such surplus over and above the credits on the accumulation basis and the reserves on the tabular basis as the society may provide by or pursuant to its laws; nor be construed as giving to the individual member any right or claim to any such reserve or credit other than in manner as expressed in the contract and its laws; nor as making any such reserve or credits a liability in determining the legal solvency of the society.

An act to amend section nine hundred twenty-eight of the Penal Code, relating to the duty of grand juries relative to examination of books.

[Approved April 24, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section nine hundred twenty-eight of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

928. It shall be the duty of the grand jury annually to make a careful and complete examination of the books, records, and accounts of all the officers of the county, and especially those pertaining to the revenue, and report as to the facts they have found, with such recommendations as they may deem proper and fit; and if, in their judgment, the services of an expert are necessary, they shall have power to employ one, at an agreed compensation, not to exceed ten dollars a day, to be first approved by the court; and if, in their judgment, the services of assistants to such expert are required, they shall have power to employ such, at a compensation to be agreed upon and approved by the court, not to exceed, however, five dollars a day for each assistant, such compensation of expert and assistants to be payable as other county charges. It shall be the duty of every grand jury first empaneled in even-numbered years to investigate and report upon the needs of all county officers in its county, including increase or decrease in salaries, number of officers, deputies or employees, the abolition or creation of offices and the equipment for, or the method or system of performing the duties of the several offices, and it shall cause a copy of such report to be transmitted to each member of the legislature representing the county in which it has been empaneled before the commencement of the regular session of the legislature in odd-numbered years. The judge, on empanelling of the grand jury, shall charge them especially as to their duties under this section; provided, that if any grand

An act to amend section fifty of the "public utilities act," approved April 23, 1915.

[Approved April 24, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1917,
p. 148.

New construction only after commission's
certificate

SECTION 1. Section fifty of the "public utilities act," approved April 23, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 50. (a) No railroad corporation whose railroad is operated primarily by electric energy, street railroad corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telegraph corporation, telephone corporation or water corporation shall henceforth begin the construction of a street railroad, or of a line, plant, or system, or of any extension of such street railroad, or line, plant, or system, without having first obtained from the commission a certificate that the present or future public convenience and necessity require or will require such construction; provided, that this section shall not be construed to require any such corporation to secure such certificate for an extension within any city and county, or city or town within which it shall have theretofore lawfully commenced operations, or for an extension into territory either within or without a city and county, or city or town, contiguous to its street railroad, or line, plant, or system, and not theretofore served by a public utility of like character, or for an extension within or to territory already served by it, necessary in the ordinary course of its business; and provided, further, that if any public utility, in constructing or extending its line, plant, or system, shall interfere or be about to interfere with the operation of the line, plant, or system of any other public utility, already constructed, the commission, on complaint of the public utility claiming to be injuriously affected, may, after hearing, make such order and prescribe such terms and conditions for the location of the lines, plants, or systems affected as to it may seem just and reasonable.

(b) No public utility of a class specified in subsection (a) hereof shall henceforth exercise any right or privilege under any franchise or permit hereafter granted, or under any franchise or permit heretofore granted but not heretofore actually exercised, or the exercise of which has been suspended for more than one year, without first having obtained from the commission a certificate that public convenience and necessity require the exercise of such right or privilege; provided, that when the commission shall find, after hearing, that a public utility has heretofore begun actual construction work and is prosecuting such work, in good faith, uninterruptedly and with reasonable diligence in proportion to the magnitude of the undertaking, under any franchise or permit heretofore granted but not heretofore actually exercised, such public utility may proceed, under such rules and regulations as the commission may prescribe, to the completion of such work, and may, after such completion, exercise such right or privilege; and provided, further, that this section shall not be construed to validate any right or privilege now invalid or hereafter becoming invalid under any law of this state.

Exercise of rights under franchise only when necessity requires.

(c) Before any certificate may issue, under this section, a certified copy of its articles of incorporation or charter, if the applicant be a corporation, shall be filed in the office of the commission. Every applicant for a certificate shall file in the office of the commission such evidence as shall be required by the commission to show that such applicant has received the required consent, franchise or permit of the proper county, city and county, municipal or other public authority. When a complaint has been filed with the commission alleging that a public utility of the class specified in subsection (a) of this section is engaged or is about to engage in construction work without having secured from the commission a certificate of public convenience and necessity as required by the provisions of this section, the commission shall have power, with or without notice, to make its order requiring the public utility complained of to cease and desist from such construction until the commission makes and files its decision on said complaint or until the further order of the commission. The commission shall have power, after hearing, to issue said certificate, as prayed for, or to refuse to issue the same, or to issue it for the construction of a portion only of the contemplated street railroad, line, plant or system, or extension thereof, or for the partial exercise only of said right or privilege, and may attach to the exercise of the rights granted by said certificate such terms and conditions, including provisions for the acquisition by the public of such franchise or permit and all rights acquired thereunder and all works constructed or maintained by authority thereof, as in its judgment the public convenience and necessity may require. If a public utility desires to exercise a right or privilege under a franchise or permit which it contemplates securing, but which has not as yet been granted to it, such public utility may apply to the commission for an order preliminary to the issue of the certificate. The commission may thereupon make an order declaring that it will thereafter, upon application, under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, issue the desired certificate, upon such terms and conditions as it may designate, after the public utility has obtained the contemplated franchise or permit. Upon the presentation to the commission of evidence satisfactory to it that such franchise or permit has been secured by such public utility, the commission shall thereupon issue such certificate.

reserved power over utilities.

(d) The legislature hereby declares that the provisions of this section are being enacted under the state's reserved power over public utilities or corporations, or both, as the case may be, for the purpose of acting on the right of the grantee of a public utility franchise granted by a county, city and county or incorporated city or town, to exercise rights thereunder, and not for the purpose of acting on the right of any city and county or incorporated city or town to grant any such franchise. The legislature hereby declares that the provisions of this section shall be and remain in full force and effect concurrently with the right of any city and county or incorporated city or town to grant franchises for public utilities upon the terms and conditions and in the manner prescribed by law.

SECTION 1. Section sixty-three of the Penal Code is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 123.

An act to amend sections two thousand nine hundred seventy-nine a, two thousand nine hundred eighty-four, three thousand sixty-one and three thousand sixty-four of the Political Code, relating to health officers.

[Approved April 24, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand nine hundred seventy-nine a of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2979a. It is the duty of each coroner, and of every county, city and county, city or town health officer, knowing or having reason to believe, that any case of cholera, plague, yellow fever, malaria, leprosy, diphtheria, scarlet fever, smallpox, typhus fever, typhoid fever, paratyphoid fever, anthrax, glanders, epidemic cerebrospinal meningitis, tuberculosis, pneumonia, dysentery, erysipelas, uncinariasis or hookworm, trachoma, dengue, tetanus, measles, German measles, chickenpox, whooping cough, mumps, pellagra, beriberi, Rocky Mountain spotted (or tick) fever, syphilis, gonococcus infection, rabies, poliomyelitis, or any other contagious or infectious disease exists, or has recently existed, within the city, county, city and county, town, or township of which he is such officer, to take such measures as may be necessary to prevent the spread of such disease, and to report at once in writing such cases to the secretary of the state board of health at Sacramento.

Duties of coroner regarding contagious diseases.

It is also the duty of every attending or consulting physician, nurse, or other person having charge of or caring for any person afflicted with any of said contagious diseases, to report at once in writing to the local health officer the nature of the disease, the name of the person afflicted and the place of his or her confinement; provided, however, that syphilis and gonococcus infection shall be reported by office number only; provided, further, that official records of tuberculosis cases shall be for official use only and not open to private inspection.

Duties of physician.

The state board of health, or its secretary, upon being informed of any such contagious or infectious disease, may thereupon take such measures as may be necessary to ascertain the nature of such disease and prevent the spread of such contagion, and to that end, said state board of health, or its secretary, may, if deemed proper, take possession or control of the body of any living person, or the corpse of any deceased person, and may direct and take such means as may be deemed expedient to arrest or prevent the further spread of such disease.

Duties of state board of health.

SEC. 2. Section two thousand nine hundred eighty-four of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rules of state board of health duty of local officers

Reports to state board.

Registration of deaths, enforcement of act for.

2984. It shall be the duty of the health officer of each municipality and incorporated town within this state to enforce within such municipality and incorporated town all orders, rules, and regulations concerning health and quarantine, and the registration, certification, and reporting of births, marriages and deaths as prescribed or directed by the state board of health, and it shall be the duty of such health officer to report in writing to the state board of health at such times as said board shall require, all infectious, contagious and communicable diseases in man or beast which shall come to his knowledge, upon blanks furnished by the state board of health. Said health officer, in cases of local epidemic of disease shall report to the state board of health all facts concerning the disease and the measures taken to prevent or abate its spread, infection, or contagion. Every such health officer shall strictly observe and enforce within such municipality or incorporated town the provisions of "An act for the registration of deaths, the issuance and registration of burial and disinterment permits and the establishment of registration districts in counties, cities and counties, cities and incorporated towns, under the superintendence of the state bureau of vital statistics and prescribing the powers and duties of registrars, coroners, physicians, undertakers, sextons and other persons in relation to such registration and fixing penalties for the violation of this act," approved March 18, 1905, and also the provisions of chapter three of title seven of part three (sections three thousand seventy-four to three thousand eighty-four) of the Political Code of the State of California relating to the registration, certification and reporting of marriages, births, and deaths, and shall promptly report to the state board of health all violations of the state health laws and of the law relating to the registration, certification and reporting of marriages, births and deaths which shall come to his knowledge.

SEC. 3. Section three thousand sixty-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3061. The board of trustees, council or other legislative body, by whatever name known, of any incorporated city or town of this state, shall by ordinance adopt for the regulation of sanitary matters within the city or town, such rules and regulations relative thereto as are necessary and proper, and not contrary to law, and shall supervise all matters pertaining to the sanitary condition of the city or town; provided, that no part of this section shall be construed to prevent the appointment by the board or council or other legislative body of a board of health which shall be advisory to the health officer.

Health officer appointed.

Every such board or council or other legislative body shall appoint a health officer who shall receive for his services such compensation as may be determined by said appointing body and shall hold office at its pleasure. Immediately after the appointment of the health officer the board or council shall notify the secretary of the state board of health of the appointment and the name and address of the appointee.

Each health officer of an incorporated city or town must: Duties.

First—Enforce and observe—

(a) All orders and ordinances of the board of trustees or council of his city or town pertaining to health and sanitary matters.

(b) All orders, quarantine regulations and rules prescribed by the state board of health.

(c) All statutes relating to the public health and to vital statistics.

Second—Report to the secretary of the state board of health at Sacramento at such times as the state board may require:

(a) The sanitary condition of his locality.

(b) The number of deaths, with the cause of each, as near as can be ascertained, within his jurisdiction during the preceding month.

(c) The presence of epidemic or other dangerous, contagious, or infectious diseases and such other matters within his knowledge or jurisdiction as the state board may require.

SEC. 4. Section three thousand sixty-four of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3064. The board of supervisors must fix the salary or compensation of health officers, and provide for the expenses of enforcing the provisions of this article. If the board of supervisors or board of trustees, council, or other corresponding board of any incorporated town, neglects to provide a health officer by the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, the state board of health may direct the district attorney of the county to begin an action against such board of supervisors, or board of trustees, or corresponding board, to compel the performance of their duty, or may appoint a health officer for such town or city, and the expenses of such health officer shall be a charge against the incorporated city or town for which such appointment shall be made; and when the appointment is made for unincorporated towns, the expenses of the health officer are a charge against the county.

question of law or fact, and all proceedings subsequent thereto, including all affidavits, swearing witnesses and jury, and the entry of judgment and issuance of execution thereon, three dollars, to be paid when such trial is calendared for hearing. For all services in a criminal action or proceeding, whether on examination or trial, three dollars. For taking bail after commitment by another magistrate, fifty cents. For certificate and transmitting transcript and papers on appeal, one dollar. For copies of papers on docket, per folio, ten cents. For issuing a search warrant, to be paid by the party demanding the same, fifty cents. For taking an acknowledgment of any instrument, for the first name, fifty cents; for each additional name, twenty-five cents. For taking deposition, per folio, fifteen cents. For administering an oath, and certifying the same, twenty-five cents. For issuing a commission to take testimony, fifty cents. For all services connected with the posting of estrays, one dollar. In cases before a justice of the peace, when the venue shall be changed, the justice before whom the action shall be brought, for all services rendered, including the making up and transmission of the transcript and papers, shall receive one dollar; and the justice before whom the trial shall take place shall receive the same fees as if the action had been commenced before him. For receiving and filing an abstract of judgment rendered by a justice or judge of another jurisdiction, and for subsequent services based thereon, two dollars. For performing the duties of coroner, when the coroner fails to act, the same fees and mileage as are allowed the coroner in all cases. For issuing each process, writ, order or paper required by law to be issued not otherwise in this article provided for, twenty-five cents. For administering oath or affirmation not otherwise in this article provided for, ten cents. For each certificate or affidavit not otherwise in this article provided for, twenty-five cents. For taking and approving bond or undertaking, including the justification of sureties, fifty cents.

CHAPTER 125.

An act to repeal section two hundred fifty-nine of the Penal Code, requiring certain newspaper articles to be signed.

[Approved April 24, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Section two hundred fifty-nine of the Penal Code is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 126.

An act to carry into effect the provisions of subdivisions six and seven of section eight and one-half of article eleven of the constitution of the State of California; and also to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory located in the county of San Mateo to the city and county of San Francisco, for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part thereof, and for the government of such annexed territory as an integral part of such city and county of San Francisco.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be competent for the city and county of San Francisco a municipal corporation organized and incorporated under a freeholders' charter under and by virtue of the constitution and laws of the State of California, to annex territory contiguous to such consolidated city and county, unincorporated or otherwise, situate wholly in the county of San Mateo, State of California, said annexed territory to be an integral part of such city and county.

City and county of San Francisco may annex territory in San Mateo county.

SEC. 2. If additional territory, including more than one incorporated city or town, is proposed to be annexed to said city and county of San Francisco, the board of supervisors of said city and county will be empowered to give notice by a resolution of said board of supervisors, to the legislative bodies of any such incorporated cities or towns proposed to be so annexed of the said annexation proposal. Upon a petition requesting such notice to be so given, filed with said board of supervisors of said city and county and signed by not less than fifteen per centum of the qualified electors of said city and county, it shall be the duty of said board of supervisors of said city and county to thereupon by resolution of said board of supervisors, so give notice to the legislative bodies of such incorporated cities or towns proposed to be so annexed. Each of said last described legislative bodies of said incorporated cities or towns may, upon such notice, given by said board of supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco either by its own initiative or upon the initiative of such a petition so filed with said board of supervisors, and in any such incorporated city or town, upon a petition requesting such action filed with such a legislative body thereof and signed by not less than fifteen per centum of the qualified electors of such incorporated city or town, proposed to be so annexed, must, thereupon cause notice to be given of an election to be held in such incorporated city, or town, proposed to be so annexed, at which shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such city, or town, a proposal for the annexation thereof to said city and county of San Francisco. Said notice shall be given by publication for at least five successive publications in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in such incorporated city or town so proposed to be annexed, the last publication to be not less than twenty days prior to any such election. This notice shall include a particular description of any such incorporated cities or towns so proposed to be annexed by naming such incorporated cities or towns, together with a particular description of any debts to be assumed by the district as hereinafter set forth, unless such particular description is contained in the said election proposal so submitted. If there be no such newspaper so printed and published in any such incorporated city or town then such publication may be made in any newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the nearest incorporated city or town where such a newspaper may be so printed and published. The electors of said incorporated city or town shall be directed by such notice to vote upon such question in the manner hereinafter set forth. Such legislative body of said incorporated city or town proposed to be so annexed is hereby empowered and it shall be its duty to establish, and in such notice of election, to designate the voting precinct or precincts and the place or places at which the polls will be open for such election in such incorporated city or town so proposed to be annexed, which said place or places shall be that or those usually used as voting places within such incorporated city or town, if any such there be. The legislative body of said incorporated city or town, proposed to be so annexed, is hereby empowered to, and it shall appoint the officers of such election, who shall be, for each voting place in such incorporated city or town, two judges and one inspector, each of whom shall be a qualified elector of the voting precinct in which he is appointed to act as an officer of such election.

SEC. 3. Upon the ballots to be used at any such election there shall be printed the words "Shall (herein insert name of the city or town to be included in such annexed territory) be included in a district to be hereafter defined by the city and county of San Francisco which district shall, within two years from the date of this election, vote upon a proposal submitted as one indivisible question, that such district to be then described and set forth shall consolidate with the city and county of San Francisco in a consolidated city and county government, and that such district shall become subject to taxation, along with the entire territory of the proposed city and county in accordance with the assessable valuation of the property of said district for the following indebtedness of said city and county of San Francisco to wit: (herein insert in general terms, reference to any debt to be assumed and if none insert 'None'), 'Yes.' " and "Shall (herein insert name of the city or town, to be included in such annexed territory) be included in a district to be hereafter defined by the city and county of San Francisco, which district shall, within two years from the date of this election, vote upon a proposal submitted as one indivisible question, that such district to be then described and set forth shall consolidate with the city and county of San Francisco in a consolidated city and county government, and that such district shall become subject to taxation, along with the entire territory of the proposed city and county in accordance with the assessable valuation of the property of said district for the following indebtedness of said city and county of San Francisco to wit: (herein insert in general terms reference to any debt to be assumed, and if none insert 'None'), 'No.''' There shall be a voting square to the right of and opposite each such proposition. If an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "Yes" the vote of such elector shall be counted in favor of the said proposal, and if an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "No" the vote of such elector shall be counted against such proposal. The judges and inspector of such election for each polling place shall immediately, upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots, make up, certify and seal the ballots and tally-sheets of the ballots cast at their respective polling places, doing so as nearly as practicable, in the manner provided in the laws of this state relating to general elections, and they shall thereupon deliver the ballots, tally-sheets and returns to and deposit the same with the clerk of the legislative body of such incorporated city or town proposed to be so annexed.

ballots.

SEC. 4. Such legislative body of said incorporated city or town proposed to be so annexed shall, at the time provided for its regular meeting next after the expiration of five days from and after the date of said election meet and proceed to canvass said returns, and said canvass shall be completed at such meeting, if practicable, and in any event, as soon as practicable, avoiding adjournment or adjournments until said canvass is completed. Immediately upon the completion of such canvass such canvassing body shall cause a record thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes stating the proposal submitted and showing the whole number of votes cast on the proposal submitted to such incorporated city or town, the number of votes cast therein in favor of the said proposal, and the number of votes cast therein against the said proposal. The clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk of such canvassing body shall promptly, and within ten days of the completion of such canvass by said body make and certify under the seal thereof, and transmit to the board of supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco a copy of the records of the canvass of the returns of the election so canvassed by said canvassing body, together with a statement showing the date of such election, and the time and the result of the canvass of the returns of such election, and containing a description of such incorporated city or town, by naming the said incorporated city or town. And if it shall appear, from a canvass of the returns of the election held in the said incorporated city or town that a majority of the qualified electors voting on

SEC. 6. Any and all of the said incorporated cities or towns, to which the foregoing proposal shall have been submitted, and a majority of whose qualified electors voting thereon shall have voted in favor thereof together with such unincorporated territory as the board of supervisors of the said city and county of San Francisco may determine to have included, the whole to form an area contiguous to said city and county shall be by the board of supervisors of said city and county created into a district; provided, however, that with reference to any such district which may be first created following the adoption of this act, no such district shall in any event be created containing a population of less than nine thousand people or a total area of less than seventy-five square miles. The population as ascertained and established by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the congress of the United States, or the legislature of California, or of the board of supervisors of said county of San Mateo, or of any legislative body of any such incorporated city or town may be used as the basis for ascertaining such population. Also, if necessary, such population of the said district or any portion thereof, may be determined by the board of supervisors of said county of San Mateo; and as to any incorporated city or town in said district, such population may, if necessary, be determined by the legislative body of such incorporated city or town.

district.

SEC. 7. Subsequent to said elections in said incorporated cities or towns, and within the two years above described, there shall be submitted by the board of supervisors of the county of San Mateo a proposal to the voters of said entire district, as one indivisible question, substantially in the following form: "Shall the territory (herein designate in general terms the territory to be annexed) consolidate with the city and county of San Francisco in a consolidated city and county government, said consolidation to take effect (herein insert date when such consolidation shall take effect) and shall the said annexed territory become subject to taxation, as an integral part of the city and county so formed, in accordance with the assessable valuation of property of said territory for the following indebtedness of said city and county of San Francisco to wit: (herein insert in general terms, reference to any debts to be assumed, and if none, insert 'None'). 'Yes,' " and "Shall the territory (herein designate in general terms the territory to be annexed) consolidate with the city and county of San Francisco in a consolidated city and county government, said consolidation to take effect (herein insert date when such consolidation shall take effect) and shall the said annexed territory become subject to taxation, as an integral part of the city and county so formed, in accordance with the assessable valuation of property of said territory for the following indebtedness of said city and county of San Francisco (herein insert in general terms, reference to any debts to be assumed, and if none, insert 'None'), 'No.' " There shall be a voting square to the right of and opposite each such proposition. If an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "Yes" the vote of such elector shall be counted in favor of the said proposal and if an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "No" the vote of such elector shall be counted against such proposal.

SEC. 8. The manner to be followed by the board of supervisors of said county of San Mateo in the submission of said question and the holding of such election, their establishment of election precincts and their appointment of election officers, and the publication of the notice of such election, shall be substantially the same as that set forth in section two of this act for the submission of an annexation proposal to any incorporated city or town, and the notice thereof shall be published in the incorporated city or town included in said district containing the largest population as ascertained and established by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the congress of the United States, or of the legislature of California; provided, that if there be no newspaper printed and published in said incorporated city or town, as provided for herein, then in the nearest incorporated city or town where such a newspaper is so printed and published. This notice shall include a particular description of any such incorporated city or town so proposed to be annexed, by naming such incorporated city or town together with a particular description of any debts to be assumed by such district, as in this act set forth, unless such particular description is contained in the said election proposal so submitted. In addition to such description such territory as may be made up of unincorporated territory, shall also be designated in such notice by some appropriate name or other words of identification, by which such territory may be referred to and indicated upon the ballots to be used at any election at which the question of annexation or consolidation of additional territory is submitted as herein provided. Any such unincorporated territory must in said notice be specifically described by giving the boundaries thereof, unless such particular description is contained in the said election proposal so submitted.

Proposal for permitting territory to withdraw from San Mateo county.

SEC. 9. At the same election so held in said district there must also be held throughout the county of San Mateo, and also under the supervision of the board of supervisors of said county of San Mateo, an election at which a proposition must be submitted to the electors of such county for the consent of such county to such annexation of said district to the city and county of San Francisco. The board of supervisors of said county of San Mateo shall submit a proposal to the voters of said entire county, substantially in the following form: "Shall the territory (herein designate in general terms the territory to be annexed) be permitted to withdraw from the county of San Mateo and consolidate with the city and county of San Francisco in a consolidated city and county government, said consolidation to take effect (herein insert date when such consolidation shall take effect) 'Yes,' " and "Shall the territory (herein designate in general terms the territory to be annexed) be permitted to withdraw from the county of San Mateo and consolidate with the city and county of San Francisco in a consolidated city and county government, said consolidation to take effect (herein insert date when such consolidation shall take effect) 'No.' " There shall be a voting square to the right of and opposite each such proposition. If an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "Yes" the vote of such elector shall be counted in favor of the said proposal, and if an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "No" the vote of such elector shall be counted against such proposal.

Manner of submitting question

SEC. 10. The manner to be followed by the board of supervisors of the said county of San Mateo in the submission of said question and the holding of such election, their establishment of election precincts, and their appointment of election officers, and the publication of notice of such election shall be substantially the same as that set forth in sections two and eight of this act for the submission of an annexation proposal to any incorporated city or town, and to any district as provided for in this act, and the notice thereof shall be published in the incorporated city or town in said county containing the largest population as ascertained and established by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the congress of the United States or of the legislature of California. And if there be no such newspaper so published in said last described city, then in the nearest incorporated city or town where such a newspaper is so printed and published. This notice shall contain a description of the territory proposed to be annexed the same as provided for in section eight of this act for the notice to be given to the district referred to in said section eight. So far as possible, the notices to be published to the county of San Mateo and to the district proposed to be annexed to the city and county of San Francisco shall be consolidated in one notice. And further, so far as possible the election precincts and polling places and election officers for both the county and the district election shall be identical.

Description
of territory.

SEC. 11. The judges and inspectors of such elections in said county of San Mateo and in said district so proposed to be annexed, for each polling place, shall immediately, upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots, make up, certify and seal the ballots and tally-sheets of the ballots cast at their respective polling places, doing so as nearly as practicable in the manner provided in the laws of this state relating to general elections and they shall thereupon deliver the ballots, tally-sheets and returns to and deposit the same with the clerk of the said board of supervisors of the county of San Mateo.

SEC. 12. Such board of supervisors of the county of San Mateo shall at the time provided for its regular meeting next after the expiration of ten days from and after the date of said elections meet and proceed to canvass said returns, and said canvass shall be completed at such meeting, if practicable, and in any event, as soon as practicable, avoiding adjournment or adjournments until said canvass is completed. The said board of supervisors shall so canvass the returns of any such election held in the county to determine whether the county will permit the withdrawal therefrom of any territory, and likewise the returns of any such election held in any such district. Immediately upon the completion of such canvass such canvassing body shall cause a record thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes stating the proposals submitted and showing: first, the whole number of votes cast on the proposal submitted to the county of San Mateo, the number of votes cast therein in favor of such proposal and the number of votes cast therein against such proposal; and second, the whole number of votes cast on the proposal submitted to the district proposed to be annexed, the number of votes cast therein in favor of such proposal and the number of votes cast therein against such proposal. The clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk of such canvassing body shall promptly, and within ten days of the completion of such canvass by said body, make and certify under the seal thereof, and transmit to the board of supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco a copy of the records of the canvass of the returns of the elections so canvassed by said canvassing body, together with a statement showing the date of such elections, and the time and the result of the canvass of the returns of such elections, and containing a description of such district so proposed to be annexed, by naming the incorporated cities or towns in said district and also the unincorporated territory in said district, as said incorporated cities or towns and unincorporated territory were described in the election notice as provided for in this act for the elections held in said district. And if it shall appear, from a canvass of the returns of the election held in the county of San Mateo or of the election held in the district so proposed to be annexed, that a majority of the qualified electors voting on such proposal voted in favor thereof, either in such county, or in such district proposed to be annexed, the said clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk of such body so canvassing such returns shall also, promptly, and within said ten days, make and certify, under the seal thereof, and transmit to the secretary of state of the State of California, a like copy of the record of the canvass of said returns, together with a like statement showing the date of such election, and the time and the result of the canvass of the returns of such election, and containing a like description of such district. Said document shall be filed by the secretary of state immediately upon receipt thereof.

Proposal
submitted in city and county of San Francisco.

SEC. 13. If it shall appear from a canvass of the returns of such elections that a majority of the qualified electors of such district, and also a majority of the qualified electors of such county of San Mateo voting on the question of such annexation are in favor of such annexation, the said proposal of annexation shall be, by the board of supervisors of said city and county of San Francisco submitted to the electors of said city and county. The said board of supervisors of the said city and county of San Francisco shall submit a proposal to the voters of the said city and county substantially in the following form: "Shall the territory (herein designate in general terms the territory to be annexed) consolidate with the city and county of San Francisco in a consolidated city the county government, said consolidation to take effect (herein insert date when such consolidation shall take effect) and shall the said annexed territory become subject to taxation, as an integral part of the city and county so formed, in accordance with the assessable valuation of the property of said territory for the following indebtedness of said city and county of San Francisco, to wit: (herein insert in general terms, reference to any debts to be assumed, and if none, insert 'None')—'Yes,'" and "Shall the territory (herein designate in general terms the territory to be annexed) consolidate with the city and county of San Francisco in a consolidated city and county government, said consolidation to take effect (herein insert date when such consolidation shall take effect) and shall the said annexed territory become subject to taxation, as an integral part of the city and county so formed, in accordance with the assessable valuation of the property of said territory for the following indebtedness of said city and county of San Francisco. (herein insert in general terms, reference to any debts to be assumed, and if none, insert 'None')—'No.'” There shall be a voting square to the right of and opposite each such proposition. If an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word “Yes” the vote of such elector shall be counted in favor of the said proposal, and if an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word “No” the vote of such elector shall be counted against such proposal.

SEC. 14. The manner to be followed by the board of supervisors of the said city and county of San Francisco in the submission of said question and the holding of said election, their establishment of election precincts, and their appointment of election officers, and the publication in said city and county of notice of such election shall be substantially the same as that set forth in sections two and eight of this act for the submission of an annexation proposal to any incorporated city or town and to any district as provided for in this act. The notice required to be published shall include a particular description of any district so proposed to be annexed, together with a particular description of any debts to be assumed by such district, the same as provided for in section eight of this act for the notice to be given to the district referred to in said section eight. Said election in said city and county of San Francisco may, in the discretion of the board of supervisors thereof, be held at the same time as the elections held in said district and in said county of San Mateo.

SEC. 15. The ballots used in any elections provided for in this act, the opening and closing of the polls, and the holding and conducting of such elections, shall be in conformity, as nearly as may be, with the laws of this state concerning general elections, except as herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 16. Upon the approval of any such annexation proposal by the electors of said city and county of San Francisco as shown by a canvass of the returns thereof, and the certification of said returns to the secretary of state, said certification being made in the same manner as provided in section twelve of this act, the secretary of state shall file the document certified to him by the clerk of the canvassing body of the city and county of San Francisco, in his office immediately upon the receipt thereof. The secretary of state having so filed said document in his office, then, from and after the date prescribed in the proposal so submitted at said elections, the annexation of such district so proposed to be annexed, as described therein, shall be deemed to be and shall be complete and thenceforth such annexed district shall be to all intents and purposes a part of such city and county of San Francisco. And from and after said date the indebtedness so referred to in said proposal shall be deemed to have been assumed and upon the said date stated in said annexation proposal such district and such city and county of San Francisco shall be and become one consolidated city and county to be governed by the charter

SEC. 17. In any such submission of any proposal to the electors of any incorporated city or town, or of any district proposed to be annexed to the city and county of San Francisco, or to the electors of said city and county of San Francisco, as provided for in this act, there may be included a condition that any such proposed annexation shall be effected only upon the ratification by the electors of said incorporated city or town, and of said district, and of said city and county of San Francisco, at the same election at which such annexation proposal is submitted to such electors of said incorporated city or town, or district, or city and county of San Francisco, of any proposed new charter for said city and county of San Francisco, or of any proposed amendment or amendments to an existing charter of said city and county of San Francisco, which new charter or amendment or amendments to an existing charter may include provisions for borough government for all or any portion or portions of any territory proposed to be annexed; and also that such proposed annexation shall be effected only upon the final approval by the legislature of such new charter or such amendment or amendments to an existing charter of the city and county of San Francisco.

Borough
government.

Separate
propositions.

In submitting any such proposed new charter or such amendment or amendments to an existing charter, at the elections in the incorporated cities or towns, for the ratification of the electors of any of such cities or towns, separate propositions, whether alternative or conflicting, or one included within the other, may be submitted at the same time to be voted on by the electors separately in any one or more of such cities or towns. As between those so related, if more than one receive a majority of the votes of any such city or town, the proposition receiving the larger number of votes shall control as to all matters in conflict.

SEC. 18. No property in any territory annexed to said city and county of San Francisco as provided for in this act, shall be taxed for the payment of any indebtedness of such city and county outstanding at the date of such annexation and for the payment of which the property in such territory was not, prior to such annexation, subject to such taxation, unless there shall have been submitted to the qualified electors of such territory the proposition regarding the assumption of indebtedness, as provided for in this act, and the same shall have been approved by a majority of such electors voting thereon, as provided for in this act.

debts.

SEC. 19. The particular description of any debts to be assumed by any such annexed territory and which particular description shall be published, as in this act provided for, shall distinctly state that the property of such annexed territory shall, after such annexation, be subject to taxation as an integral part of the city and county formed under this act, along with the entire territory of the proposed city and county, in accordance with the assessable valuation of the property of said annexed territory and equally with property within such annexing city and county, to pay any bonded indebtedness of any such annexing city and county outstanding at the date of said annexation or any indebtedness theretofore authorized and to be represented by bonds of such annexing city and county thereafter to be issued, or any other indebtedness of said annexing city and county, which indebtedness it is proposed shall be so borne by the said property so annexed. The said notice shall, in addition, distinctly specify the improvement or improvements, or other purpose for which the indebtedness was so incurred or authorized and state the amount or amounts of such indebtedness already incurred outstanding at the date of the first publication of said notice and the amount or amounts of such indebtedness theretofore authorized and to be represented by bonds thereafter to be issued and the maximum rate of interest payable or to be payable on such indebtedness.

SEC. 20. In the event of any election as in this act provided for at which there shall be submitted a proposal for the annexation of any territory to the city and county of San Francisco, which annexation will result in the leaving of a portion or portions of the county of San Mateo unannexed to said city and county of San Francisco, then any notice of election or election ballot as provided for in this act shall state that the said annexation and consolidation shall not take effect until the legislature of the state shall have, according to law, provided for the government of any such portion or portions of any such county of San Mateo so remaining and not annexed to said city and county of San Francisco. It shall be the mandatory duty of the legislature, at the first session following any such final election, in the event of the approval of such annexation proposal at such election, or if the legislature be then in session, then at such session, to so provide for the government of any such portion or portions of such county of San Mateo so remaining and not annexed to such city and county of San Francisco. Upon such provision being made by the legislature, and upon its finally becoming effective, and upon the said annexation otherwise becoming effective, then the said annexation to such city and county of San Francisco shall be deemed complete and in full force and effect.

SEC. 21. At the session of the legislature next after the final consummation of such annexation as herein provided for, or if the legislature is in session at the time of such final consummation then at such session of the legislature, the legislature shall determine the just proportion of the debts and liabilities of the county of San Mateo for which the city and county of San Francisco shall be liable, and the just proportion of the property and assets of such county of San Mateo to which such city and county of San Francisco shall be entitled, as existing at the time that any territory less than the whole of said San Mateo county is taken from such county of

The governor of the state shall appoint a commission of three persons; one, a qualified elector of the city and county of San Francisco; one, a qualified elector of the unannexed territory, and one, a qualified elector of some territory other than said annexing city and county and other than such unannexed territory, for the purpose of rendering a report to the legislature in order to advise the legislature; first, upon the proper provision for the government of any portion or portions of such unannexed territory; and, second, upon the proper determination of the just proportion of the debts and liabilities of the county of San Mateo for which such city and county shall be liable, and of the just proportion of the property and assets of such county of San Mateo to which such city and county shall be entitled, as so existing at the time that any territory is so taken from such county of San Mateo as a result of any such annexation as in this act provided. The actual necessary expenses of said commission, and compensation for their services at the rate of ten dollars per day for each day of actual service by each of said commissioners, shall upon a demand therefor being sworn to and presented to the legislative body of the city and county of San Francisco be a proper and legal charge against the treasury of said city and county. The final annexation and incorporation of said additional territory as a part of said consolidated city and county shall be deemed completed upon following of the procedure hereinabove in this act set forth, and it shall not be deemed necessary to await the said action of the legislature with reference to the adjustment of debts and liabilities and property and assets in this section provided for prior to said consolidation being final and complete.

SEC. 22. Upon the completion of the annexation of any such territory to the city and county of San Francisco as provided for under the provisions of this act, the county of San Mateo, if the whole of said county be annexed, and each and every incorporated city or town, or governmental agency of any character, so annexed, shall ipso facto be deemed to be and shall be dissolved and disincorporated, and any freeholders' charter thereof shall be deemed to be and shall be surrendered and annulled and such county of San Mateo and any such incorporated cities or towns or governmental agencies, shall be deemed to be and shall be merged in said city and county of San Francisco and shall be thereafter governed in the name of and under the freeholders' charter of and as a part of such city and county of San Francisco or under any amendment or amendments to such charter. Upon the final completion of any annexation as provided for in this act all persons then occupying or possessing the several offices of or under the government of such county of San Mateo or of such incorporated cities or towns, or such governmental agencies, or unincorporated territory so annexed, shall immediately quit and surrender the occupancy or possession of said offices, which shall thereupon cease and terminate and they shall severally forthwith deliver all moneys, funds, books, papers, archives and records in their custody and all other property of such county, incorporated city or town, governmental agency, or unincorporated territory in their hands or under their control, to the proper officers of the city and county of San Francisco; provided, however, that if any portion of said county of San Mateo shall be left unannexed to said city and county of San Francisco that the disposition of such moneys, funds, books, papers, archives and records so in the custody of such officers of said county of San Mateo, or of unincorporated territory so annexed, shall be determined by the legislature in its final action on the government of such unannexed territory as in this act provided for. Any regularly constituted superior court of this state existing at the time of such annexation, within such county of San Mateo or within such incorporated city or town, or unincorporated territory, so annexed, shall upon the consolidation of said territory as a part of said city and county of San Francisco under the terms of this act, become a regularly constituted superior court of the state in and for said city and county of San Francisco, and any person or persons so occupying the position of superior judge in any such annexed territory shall continue to occupy said position, as judge or judges of the superior court of the state in and for said city and county of San Francisco to the end of the term of office for which he or they may have been elected or appointed, with the same salary as theretofore attached to said position, and thereafter such position shall continue to be filled as provided by law, and at the same salary as fixed by law for the judges of the superior court in and for said city and county of San Francisco.

Upon completion of any annexation, as provided for in this act, of the county of San Mateo or of any incorporated city or town, or of any unincorporated territory, or governmental agency, the property, debts and liabilities of every description of said county, or incorporated city or town, or of any unincorporated territory, or governmental agency, shall be and become the property, debts and liabilities of such newly consolidated city and county of San Francisco.

Property,
debt and liabilities.

SEC. 23. Any annexation provided for under the provisions of this act shall not affect any debts, demands, liabilities or obligations of any kind existing in favor of or against such county of San Mateo or such incorporated cities or towns, or such governmental agencies, so annexed, at the time of such annexation, or any action or proceeding then pending in any court in which any such debt, demand, liability or obligation of any kind may be involved, or any action or proceeding brought by or against such county, incorporated cities or towns or such governmental agencies, prior to such annexation, but all of such actions and proceedings shall be continued and concluded to final judgment or otherwise in all respects the same as if such annexation had not been effected; provided, however, that any such debt, demand, liability or obligation, in favor of or against such county, incorporated cities or towns, or such governmental agencies, so annexed shall, upon such annexation, be and become such a debt, demand, liability or obligation in favor of or against such newly consolidated city and county of San Francisco. All ordinances or resolutions of such county of San Mateo or of any such incorporated cities or towns, or such governmental agencies, so annexed under the provisions of this act, shall immediately upon such annexation becoming effective, be deemed to be repealed and of no further force and effect; provided, however, that such repeal shall not operate to discharge any person from any liability, civil or criminal, then existing, nor affect any prosecution then pending for any violation of any such ordinances, or resolutions, and all cases then pending in any justice's court, police court or court of any recorder or other judicial municipal magistrate or officer of such county, incorporated cities or towns, or such governmental agencies, so annexed shall, upon such annexation becoming effective, ipso facto, be deemed to be and be transferred to the justices' court, police court or other judicial municipal magistrate or officer of such city and county of San Francisco which has jurisdiction of proceedings or misdemeanors or of other actions civil or criminal of the character so transferred; provided, further, that such repeal shall not apply to ordinances or resolutions, under which vested rights have accrued or to ordinances or resolutions relating to proceedings for street or other public improvements, or to proceedings for improving, opening, extending, widening or straightening of streets or other public places, or to proceedings for changing the grade thereof, all of which proceedings shall be continued and conducted by and under the authority of the newly consolidated city and county of San Francisco with the same force and effect as if continued and conducted by and under the authority of the county of San Mateo or of any incorporated city or town by which they were commenced, and all ordinances and resolutions of said city and county of San Francisco shall, upon the completion of such annexation, ipso facto, have full force and effect in and throughout the said annexed territory.

SEC. 24. In the event that a tax for county purposes has been levied by the board of supervisors of the county of San Mateo or has been so levied for the purposes of any political subdivision, either by such board of supervisors or by any legislative body of any incorporated city or town, or other governmental agency, against property situated in territory which, subsequent to such levy, is annexed to said city and county of San Francisco under the provisions of this act, but which at the time of such annexation has not been collected, then all such taxes so uncollected shall be and become the property of the city and county of San Francisco; provided, however, that any such taxes which have been levied against the property of any district, for the purposes of such district, must be expended for the benefit of any territory so annexed and included in such a district, in accordance with the purposes of the levy of said tax. This section shall also apply to all such taxes not paid into the county treasury or any treasury of any incorporated city or town, or other political subdivision or governmental agency, prior to the taking effect of this act.

SEC. 25. Nothing in this act shall alter or affect the boundaries of any senatorial or assembly district, or of any congressional district. Districts unchanged.

SEC. 26. All proper expenses of proceedings for annexation of territory to the city and county of San Francisco under this act shall, in the first instance, be paid by such city and county; provided, that if such annexation be not finally completed, then the expenses for such election incurred in any city or town or district which shall have voted in favor of said annexation, or in the county of San Mateo if said county shall have so voted, shall be returned to the said city and county of San Francisco by such city, town, or county holding such election. Expenses paid by city and county of San Francisco

SEC. 27. With reference to any duties prescribed in this act to be performed by the legislative body or any other board, officer or department of the county of San Mateo or any incorporated city or town so proposed to be annexed under the terms of this act, or of said city and county of San Francisco, if the charter of any such incorporated city or town or of said city and county of San Francisco, or any law, imposes such duties upon any other board, officer or department of said county of San Mateo or of said incorporated city or town or of said city and county of San Francisco, as, upon a board of election commissioners or registrar of voters of said county of San Mateo, or of such incorporated city or town, or of said city and county of San Francisco, then such duties shall be so performed by such other board, officer or department upon which such duties are so imposed. Duties performed by other than prescribed officials.

SEC. 28. Any election provided for in this act may be held at a special election or at any general election. Time for elections

SEC. 29. The term "governmental agency" as used in this act shall be construed to include school districts, lighting districts, sanitary districts, or any other districts organized or authorized by law, of a special or quasi-municipal character. "Governmental agency" defined.

SEC. 30. If any section of this act other than section thirty-one thereof, or if any subsection, sentence, clause or phrase other than in said section thirty-one contained, is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. If, however, said section thirty-one, or any subsection, sentence, clause or phrase in said section thirty-one contained, is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or inoperative, then in that event the validity of all of the remaining portions of this act shall be deemed affected and invalidated thereby. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase Constitutionality.

thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections other than said section thirty-one or any one or more subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases other than in said section thirty-one contained, are declared unconstitutional. Furthermore, this legislature declares that it would not have passed this act, either in whole or in part, unless said section thirty-one was included and incorporated therein and made a part thereof, and it hereby further declares said section thirty-one, and every subsection, sentence, clause and phrase in said section thirty-one contained, to be a substantial and integral part of said act.

Approval of constitutional amendment necessary.

SEC. 31. This act shall take effect upon, and only in event of, the ratification and approval by the people of the state of assembly constitutional amendment number two, being a resolution to propose to the people of the State of California to amend section eight and one-half of article eleven of the constitution of the state, relating to city charters and to provisions therein for municipal courts, submitted by the forty-second session of the legislature; and not otherwise.

CHAPTER 127.

An act to amend section eight hundred fifty of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to notice in justices' courts.

[Approved April 24, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eight hundred fifty of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Notice of hearing in justices' courts.

850. When all the parties served with process shall have appeared, or some of them have appeared, and the remaining defendants have made default, the justice must fix the day for the trial of said cause, whether the issue is one of law or fact, and give notice thereof to the parties to the action who have appeared, but in case any of the parties are represented by an attorney, then to such attorney; provided, however, that where a party has appeared in person, such party shall leave with the justice or justice's clerk, and the same shall be entered upon the register in the action, an address where service of the notice of hearing of such matter may be made; provided, further, that such notice shall be personally served on said person if he can be found at said address, but in case said person can not, after due diligence, be found at said address and such fact appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court or a judge thereof, then the service of such notice may be by registered mail and in the manner hereinafter provided for service of notice by mail. Such notice shall be in writing, signed by the justice, and substantially in the following form, filling blanks according to the facts:

In the justice court, ----- township (or city, or city <sup>Form.</sup> and county), county, or city and county of -----, State of California.

----- plaintiff, vs. ----- defendant.
To ----- plaintiff, or ----- attorney for plaintiff, and to defendant, or ----- attorney for defendant.

You and each of you will please take notice that the undersigned justice of the peace before whom the above-entitled cause is pending, has set for hearing the demurrer of -----, filed in said cause (or has set the said cause for trial, as the case may be), before me at my office in said township (or city, or city and county), at --- o'clock ----- m., on the ----- day of ----- 19-----.

Dated this ----- day of -----, 19-----.

(Signed) ----- Justice of the peace.

Said notice shall be served by mail or personally. When <sup>Service.</sup> served by mail the justice of the peace shall deposit copies thereof in a sealed envelope in the post office at least ten days before the trial or hearing addressed to each of the persons on whom it is to be served at their place of residence and the postage prepaid thereon; provided, that such notice shall be <sup>Service by mail.</sup> served by mail only when the person on whom service is to be made resides out of the county in which said justice's court is situated, or is absent therefrom or has appeared in person. When personally served said notice shall be served at least five days before the trial or hearing on the persons on whom it is to be served by any person competent and qualified to serve a summons in a justice's court, and when personally served it shall be served, returned and filed in like manner as a summons. When a party has appeared by attorney the notice may be served in the manner prescribed by subdivision one of section one thousand eleven of this code. The justice shall <sup>Docket entries.</sup> enter on his docket the date of trial or hearing; and when such notice shall have been served by mail the justice shall enter on his docket the date of mailing such notice of trial or hearing and such entry shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of such service. The parties are entitled to one hour in which to appear after the time fixed in said notice, but are not bound to remain longer than that time unless both parties have appeared and the justice being present is engaged in the trial of another cause.

CHAPTER 136.

An act to amend section two thousand six hundred forty-three of the Political Code, relating to the powers of boards of supervisors respecting roads.

[Approved April 25, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand six hundred forty-three of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2643. The boards of supervisors of the several counties of the state shall have general supervision over the roads within their respective counties. They must by proper order:

1. Cause to be surveyed, viewed, laid out, recorded, opened, and worked, such highways as are necessary to public convenience, as in this chapter provided.

2. Cause to be recorded as highways all highways which have become such by usage, dedication or abandonment to the supervisors

over roads.

Survey, etc.

Record
highways.

public, or by any other means provided by law, and to prepare and record proper deeds and titles thereto.

3. Abolish or abandon such as are not necessary.

Abandon.

4. Acquire the right of way over private property for the use of public highways, and for that purpose require the district attorney to institute proceedings, under title seven, part three, of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to pay therefor from the general road fund or the district road fund of the county.

Right of way.

5. Levy a property tax for road purposes.

Road tax.

6. Cause to be erected and maintained, at the intersections and crossings of highways, guideposts, properly inscribed.

Guideposts.

7. Cause the road tax collected each year to be apportioned to the several road districts entitled thereto, and kept by the county treasurer in separate funds.

Apportionment of road tax

8. Audit all claims on the funds set apart for highway purposes, and specify the fund, or funds, from which the whole or any part of any claim, or claims, must be paid.

Audit claims.

9. In their discretion, they may provide for the establishment of gates on the public highways, in certain cases, to avoid the necessity of building road fences, and prescribe rules and regulations for closing the same, and penalties for violating said rules; provided, that the expense for the erection and maintenance of such gates shall in all cases be borne by the party or parties for whose immediate benefit the same shall be ordered.

Gates.

10. For the purpose of sprinkling the roads in any part of the county with oil or water, the board of supervisors may erect and maintain waterworks and oil tanks and reservoirs, and for such purposes may purchase or lease real or personal property. The costs of such waterworks, oil tanks and reservoirs and the sprinkling of said roads with oil or water may be charged to the general county fund, the general road fund, or the district fund of the district or districts benefited.

Sprinkling.

Whenever it is determined by a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors of any county that the public convenience and necessity demand the acquisition, or construction of a new road in excess of three miles in length or the grading, regrading, paving or macadamizing of any existing road, in excess of three miles in length, and that the cost of such new road when acquired and constructed, or the cost of grading, regrading, paving or macadamizing such existing road, will be too great to pay out of any of the road funds of the county, the board of supervisors may, by resolution passed by a four-fifths vote of said board, determine to acquire or construct such new road, or grade, or regrade, pave, or macadamize such existing road, and if the cost of such new road when constructed, or the cost of grading, regrading, paving or macadamizing such existing road, when completed, shall exceed five thousand dollars, such cost may be charged to the general county fund, the general road fund or the district fund of the district or districts benefited.

Roads may be paid for out of general fund

Surveyor to submit estimates.

11. Whenever it shall be determined that any grading, graveling, macadamizing, ditching, sprinkling, or other work upon highways is necessary, and is to be done, and where the estimated cost of such work amounts to one thousand dollars. the board of supervisors must, by proper order, direct the county surveyor to make definite surveys of the proposed work, and to prepare profiles and cross-sections thereof, and to submit the same with the estimate of the amount or amounts of work to be done, and cost thereof, and with specifications thereof. Said report shall be prepared in duplicate, one copy to be filed in the surveyor's office, and the other to be filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors.

Advertising for bids.

The board upon receipt of such report must advertise for bids for the performance of the work specified. Such advertisement for bids must be published for two weeks in two newspapers, one published at the county seat and the other at a point nearest the proposed work.

Such advertisement must be in the following form :

Form of advertisement.

“Office of the clerk of the board of supervisors,

----- county. ----- 19---

Scaled bids will be received by the clerk of the board of supervisors of ----- county, at his office, until ----- o'clock -- m., -----, 191--, for -----, on -----, in ----- district, in ----- county.

Specifications for this work are on file in the office of the said board, to which bidders are hereby referred.

Clerk of the board of supervisors of the county of -----”

Posting of advertisement.

And such advertisement must also be posted, for at least two weeks prior to the opening of the bids for the proposed work, in three conspicuous places in the district or districts in which the proposed work lies, and one at the site of the proposed work. Bids must be inclosed in sealed envelope, addressed to the clerk of the board of supervisors, and must be indorsed. “Bids for -----,” and must be delivered to said clerk prior to the hour specified in the advertisement. The board shall publicly open and read such bids as may be submitted, and must award the contract for the work to the lowest bidder; unless it shall appear to the board that the bids are too high, and the work can be done more cheaply by day labor, in which case the bids must be rejected, and the work ordered done by the road commissioner, or commissioners, in whose district or districts the work may be situated. In case the work shall be let by contract, monthly or quarterly payments may be made thereon upon the receipt of a certified estimate by the county surveyor of the amount of work done during the preceding month or quarter, to the extent of seventy-five per cent of the value of said work, the remaining twenty-five per cent being due on the completion of the work.

The services of the surveyor in making such partial estimates must be paid for by the contractor. Upon the completion of the work, the county surveyor must examine the same, and if completed in accordance with the specifications thereof, he must submit to the board of supervisors a certificate over his signature and official seal to the effect that such work by the contractor therefor, has been completed in accordance with the specifications therefor, and recommending its acceptance. The board shall thereupon audit the same and direct its payment out of the proper fund or funds.

Contractor
to pay
surveyor.

Whenever the estimated cost of such grading, graveling, macadamizing, ditching, sprinkling, or other work exceeds five hundred dollars and is less than one thousand dollars, the board of supervisors must cause the same to be performed by contract awarded to the lowest bidder, in the same manner as where the estimated cost amounts to one thousand dollars, unless such board shall by resolution passed by a four-fifths vote, determine that it is to the public advantage and convenience not to do such work by contract; in which event, such work shall be done by day labor under the supervision of the county surveyor and the supervisors of the district wherein the work is done.

Work

12. In their discretion, they may set apart on any public road or highway a strip of land for a side path, and make an order designating the width of such path and cause the lines separating the path from the road to be located and marked by stakes or posts, placed at such distances apart as they shall deem proper. After said paths have been set apart, and the lines separating the same from the road have been located and marked, as aforesaid, the use of the same is hereby restricted to pedestrians and riders of bicycles and other vehicles propelled solely by the power of the rider.

Side paths.

Expense of erecting and maintaining such path may be charged to the general county fund, the general road fund, and the district fund of the district or districts benefited.

CHAPTER 137.

An act to amend section seventeen of the act known as the "public utilities act," approved April 23, 1915.

[Approved April 25, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seventeen of the act known as the "public utilities act," approved April 23, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 124.

Sec. 17. (a) 1. No common carrier subject to the provisions of this act shall engage or participate in the transportation of persons or property, between points within this state, until its schedules of rates, fares, charges and classifications shall have been filed and published in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Different rate not to be charged.

2. No common carrier shall charge, demand, collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation for the transportation of persons or property, or for any service in connection therewith, than the rates, fares and charges applicable to such transportation as specified in its schedules filed and in effect at the time; nor shall any such carrier refund or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates, fares or charges so specified, except upon order of the commission as hereinafter provided, nor extend to any corporation or person any privilege or facility in the transportation of passengers or property except such as are regularly and uniformly extended to all corporations and persons.

Passes not to be given except to own
officers, etc.

3. No common carrier subject to the provisions of this act shall, directly or indirectly, issue, give or tender any free ticket, free pass or free or reduced-rate transportation for passengers between points within this state, except to its officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians and surgeons, and members of their families; to ministers of religion, traveling secretaries of railroad men's religious associations, or executive officers, organizers or agents of railroad employees' mutual benefit associations giving the greater portion of their time to the work of any such association; inmates of hospitals or charitable or eleemosynary institutions, and persons exclusively engaged in charitable or eleemosynary work, and persons and property engaged or employed in educational work or scientific research or in patriotic work when permitted by the commission; to the executive officers of mercantile or promotion boards or bodies within this state when traveling in the performance of duties affecting the advancement of the business of such boards or bodies, or the development of trade or industry within or without this state, when authorized by the commission; to hotel employees of season resort hotels, when authorized by the commission; to indigent, destitute and homeless persons and to such persons when transported by charitable societies or hospitals, and the necessary agents employed in such transportation; to inmates of the national homes or state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and of soldiers' and sailors' homes, including those about to enter and those returning home after discharge; to necessary caretakers, going and returning, of live stock, poultry, milk, fruit and other freight, under uniform and nondiscriminatory regulations; to employees of sleeping car corporations, express corporations and telegraph and telephone corporations; to railway mail service employees, United States internal revenue officers, post-office inspectors, customs officers and inspectors and immigration inspectors when traveling in the course of their official duty; to newsboys on trains, baggage agents, witnesses attending any legal investigation in which the carrier is interested, persons injured in accidents or wrecks and physicians and nurses attending such persons; provided, that the term "employees," as used in this section, shall include furloughed, pensioned and superannuated employees, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of any such carrier, ex-employees traveling for the purpose of entering the service of any such carrier, and the remains of persons dying while in the employment of any such carrier; and the term "families," as used in this section, shall include the families of those persons heretofore named in this proviso, and the families of persons killed, and the widows during widowhood and minor children during minority of persons who died while in the service of any such carrier; and provided, further, that no free ticket, free pass or free or reduced-rate transportation shall be issued, given or tendered to any officer, agent or employee of a common carrier, who is at the same time a shipper or receiver of freight, or an officer, agent or employee of a shipper or receiver of freight, unless such officer, agent or employee devotes substantially his entire time to the service of such carrier; and provided, further, that the members of the railroad commission, their officers and employees, shall be entitled, when in the performance of their official duties, to free transportation over the lines of all common carriers within this state; and provided, further, that passenger transportation may issue to the proprietors and employees of newspapers and magazines and the members of their immediate families, in exchange for advertising space in such newspapers or magazines at full rates, subject however to such reasonable restriction as the commission may impose.

Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prohibit the issue by express corporations of free or reduced-rate transportation for express matter to their officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians and surgeons, and members of their families, or the interchange of free or reduced-rate transportation for passengers or express matter between common carriers, their officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians and surgeons, and members of their families, where such common carriers are subject in whole or in part to the jurisdiction of the commission or of the interstate commerce commission, or where such common carriers, though not in whole or in part subject to the jurisdiction of this commission or of the interstate commerce commission, but which are engaged in the business of transporting passengers and freight by water between the United States and foreign countries, and are permitted by the interstate commerce act to interchange such free transportation with common carriers which are subject to the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission or to the jurisdiction of this commission: provided, that such express matter be for the personal use of the person to or for whom such free or reduced-rate transportation is granted, or of his family; nor to prohibit the issue of reduced-rate transportation by a common carrier to children attending an institution of learning; nor to prohibit the issue of passes or franks by telegraph or telephone corporations to their officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians and surgeons, and members of their families, or the exchange of passes or franks between such telegraph and telephone corporations or between such corporations and such common carriers, for their officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians and surgeons, and members of their families; nor to prevent the carrying out of contracts for free or reduced-rate passenger transportation heretofore made, founded upon adequate consideration and lawful when made: nor to prevent a common carrier from transporting, storing or handling, free or at reduced rates, the household goods and personal effects of its employees, of persons entering or leaving its service, and of persons killed or dying while in its service.

United States, state, etc., property may be carried free in certain cases.

4. Every common carrier subject to the provisions of this act may transport, free or at reduced rates, persons or property for the United States, state, county or municipal governments, or for charitable purposes, or for patriotic purposes, or to provide relief in cases of general epidemic, pestilence or other calamitous visitation, and property to or from fairs or expositions for exhibit thereat; also contractors and their employees, material or supplies for use or engaged in carrying out their contracts with said carriers, for construction, operation or maintenance work or work incidental thereto on the line of the issuing carrier, to the extent only that such free or reduced-rate transportation is provided for in the specifications upon which the contract is based and in the contract itself. Common carriers may also enter into contracts with telegraph and telephone corporations for an exchange of service.

Rebates prohibited.

(b) Except as in this section otherwise provided, no public utility shall charge, demand, collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation for any product or commodity furnished or to be furnished, or for any service rendered or to be rendered, than the rates, tolls, rentals and charges applicable to such product or commodity or service as specified in its schedules on file and in effect at the time, nor shall any such public utility refund or remit, directly or indirectly, in any manner or by any device, any portion of the rates, tolls, rentals and charges so specified, nor extend to any corporation or person any form of contract or agreement or any rule or regulation or any facility or privilege except such as are regularly and uniformly extended to all corporations and persons; provided, that the commission may by rule or order establish such exceptions from the operation of this prohibition as it may consider just and reasonable as to each public utility.

An act to amend section five hundred seventy of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the disposition of unclaimed funds in the hands of a receiver.

[Approved April 25, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five hundred seventy of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

570. A receiver having any funds in his hands belonging to a person whose whereabouts are unknown to him, shall, before receiving his discharge as such receiver, publish a notice, in one or more newspapers published in the county, at least once a week for four consecutive weeks, setting forth the name of the owner of any unclaimed funds, the last known place of residence or post-office address of such owner and the amount of such unclaimed funds. Any funds remaining in his hands unclaimed for thirty days after the date of the last publication of such notice, shall be reported to the court, and upon order of the court, all such funds must be paid into the state treasury accompanied with a copy of the order, which must set forth the facts required in the notice herein provided. Such funds shall be paid out by the state treasurer to the owner thereof or his order in such manner and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

Notice of unclaimed funds in receiver's hands.

All cost and expense connected with such advertising shall be paid out of the funds the whereabouts of whose owners are unknown.

For the purpose of regulating the compensation of justices of the peace and constables, townships of this class of counties are hereby classified according to their population, as shown by the total number of registered voters, in each township, at the next preceding general election, prior to the fixing of the classification, the said population to be determined by the supervisors by multiplying the said total number of registered voters by three; townships having a population of not more than one hundred shall belong to and be known as townships of the first class; townships having a population of not more than three hundred and not less than one hundred one shall belong to and be known as townships of the second class; townships having a population of not more than seven hundred fifty and not less than three hundred one shall belong to and be known as townships of the third class; townships having a population of not more than one thousand five hundred and not less than seven hundred fifty-one shall belong to and be known as townships of the fourth class; townships having a population in excess of one thousand five hundred shall belong to and be known as townships of the fifth class; provided, that the board of supervisors may, prior to any general election, consolidate two or more such townships into one.

Justices of the peace
and constables.

14. Justices of the peace and constables each of townships of the first class shall receive an annual salary of one hundred dollars to be paid in monthly installments as county officers are paid; justices of the peace and constables of townships of the second class shall each receive an annual salary of one hundred fifty dollars to be paid in monthly installments as county officers are paid; justices of the peace and constables in townships of the third class shall each receive an annual salary of two hundred dollars to be paid in monthly installments as county officers are paid; justices of the peace and constables in townships of the fourth class shall each receive an annual salary of three hundred dollars to be paid in monthly installments as county officers are paid; justices of the peace and constables in townships of the fifth class shall each receive an annual salary of four hundred dollars to be paid in monthly installments as county officers are paid. The salaries so received by justices of the peace and constables aforesaid shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by them. These salaries shall also apply to incumbents.

15. Each member of the board of supervisors, six dollars per day during session, and thirty cents per mile one way to board meetings: three dollars per day (no mileage) as road commissioner when actually engaged in road business. Board of supervisors.

16. An act to amend sections four and twenty-four of an act entitled "An act to provide for the acquisition by municipalities of land for public park or playground purposes by condemnation, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expenses of acquiring such land." approved April 22, 1909, as amended.

[Approved April 26, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four of the act entitled "An act to provide for the acquisition by municipalities of land for public park or playground purposes by condemnation, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expenses of acquiring such land," approved April 22, 1909, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1909, p. 1067 said ordinance of intention, may file a written protest with the clerk of the city council, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice required by section three of this act. Every such protest must contain a description of the property in which each signer thereof is interested, sufficient to identify the same, and must set forth the nature of his interest therein, and must be accompanied by the affidavit of one of the signers thereof that each signature thereof is the genuine signature of the person whose name is thereto subscribed; and in case any signature is made by an agent, there must be attached to the protest the affidavit of the agent that he is duly authorized to sign such protest. Any protest not complying with the foregoing requirements, shall not be considered by the city council. In the case of property held by tenancy in common, if any cotenant sign such protest, only the proportionate share of the frontage thereof represented by his interest therein, shall be counted in determining the amount of frontage represented by such protest. The clerk shall endorse on every such protest the date of its reception by him, and at the next regular meeting of the city council, after the expiration of the time for filing protests, shall present to said city council all protests so filed with him. If such protests are against said improvement, and said city council at said meeting or at any other time to which the hearing of said protests may be adjourned, finds that the same are signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district, all further proceedings under said ordinance of intention shall be barred, and no new ordinance of intention for the same improvement shall be passed within six months after the presentation of such protests to the city council, unless the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district shall, in the meantime, petition therefor. If such protests are against the improvement and the council finds that they are not signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within the assessment district, or if such protests are only against the extent of the assessment district, the council shall hear said protests at said meeting, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive. If such protests are sustained, no further proceedings shall be had under said ordinance of intention, but a new ordinance of intention for the same improvement may be passed at any time. If such protests are denied, the proceedings shall continue as if such protests had not been made. At the expiration of the time within which protests may be filed, if none are filed, or if protests are filed, and after hearing are denied, as above provided, then upon such denial, the city council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order the improvement described in the ordinance of intention.

Sec. 2. Section twenty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1909, p. 1072.

Sec. 24. At any time after the expiration of twelve months from the date of sale, the street superintendent must execute to the purchaser, or his assignee on his application, if such purchaser or assignee has complied with the provisions of this section, a deed of the property sold, in which shall be recited substantially the matters contained in the certificate, also any assignment thereof, and the fact that no person has redeemed the property. The street superintendent shall receive from the applicant for a deed, one dollar for making such deed, unless the municipality is the purchaser, in which case no charge shall be made therefor, and at least thirty days before the deed is executed the street superintendent must serve upon the owner of the property, and upon the occupant of such property if the same is occupied, a written notice, setting forth a description of the property that said property has been sold for a delinquent assessment (specifying the improvement for which the same was made), the amount for which it was sold, the amount necessary to redeem at the time of giving notice and the time when the deed will be executed to the purchaser or assignee. If the said owner can not be found, after due diligence, said notice must be posted by the street superintendent in a conspicuous place upon said property, at least thirty days before the time stated therein, at which the deed will be executed. The street superintendent must file with the city clerk an affidavit or affidavits showing that notice of such application has been given, as herein required, and if the notice was not served on the owner of the property personally, that due diligence was used to find said owner. If redemption of the property is made after such affidavits are filed, and more than eleven months from the date of sale, the person making such redemption must pay, in addition to the other amounts required, three dollars for the service of notice and the making of such affidavits, which amount shall be paid over to the street superintendent and by him paid into the city treasury. No deed for any property sold for delinquent assessment shall be made until all the provisions of this section have been complied with. Deed to purchaser. Service of notice by street superintendent.

An act prohibiting employers of labor from coercing employees in the purchase of things of value, and prescribing a penalty for the violation of the provisions hereof.

[Approved April 26, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any employer of labor, or any officer, agent or employee of any employer of labor to make, adopt or enforce any rule or regulation compelling or Unlawful to force employee to patronize employer.

coercing any employee to patronize said employer, or any other person, firm or corporation, in the purchase of any thing of value; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be interpreted as prohibiting any employer of labor from prescribing the weight, color, quality, texture, style, form and make of uniforms required to be worn by their employees.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. Any person, whether as an individual, or as an agent or employee of a firm, or as an officer, agent or employee of a corporation, who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

An act to amend section one thousand five hundred seventy-six of the Political Code, relating to separate school districts in cities except cities of the sixth class and additional territory.

[Approved April 26, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand five hundred seventy-six of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Each city
district.

1576. Every city or incorporated town, except cities and towns of the sixth class, unless subdivided by the legislative authority thereof, shall constitute a separate school district which shall be governed by the board of education or board of school trustees of such city or incorporated town; provided, however, that in no instance shall the territory within an incorporated city of the sixth class be in more than one school district; and provided, further, that whenever a city or town shall be incorporated, except a city or town of the sixth class, the board of supervisors of the county may annex thereto, for school purposes only, the remainder, or any part of the remainder, of the district or districts from which such city or incorporated town was organized, whenever a majority of the heads of families residing therein, shall petition for such annexation; and provided, further, that the board of supervisors may include more territory than the remainder of the district or districts from which the city or incorporated town was organized, whenever a petition for such purpose is presented to them, signed by a majority of the heads of families residing in such additional territory. When said remainder or part thereof, or said additional outside territory, has been annexed to said city or incorporated town, it shall be deemed a part of said city or incorporated town for the purpose of holding the general municipal election, and shall form one or more election precincts, as may be determined by the legislative authority of said city or incorporated town, the qualified electors of which shall vote only for the board of education, or the board of school trustees; and such outside territory shall be deemed to be a part of said city or incorporated town for all matters connected with the school department thereof, for the annual levying and collecting of the property tax for the school fund of said city or incorporated town; and for all purposes specified in sections one thousand eight hundred eighty to one thousand eight hundred eighty-eight of this code, inclusive: provided, however, that the last assessment roll made by the county assessor shall be the only basis of taxation for such school district on the property outside the corporate limits so annexed for school purposes.

CHAPTER 143.

An act to amend sections three, four, five, six, seven and twelve of an act entitled "An act to provide for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent and be secured by certain assessments made for the cost of certain work and improvements made in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, to provide for the collection of such assessments, the sale of the property affected thereby and for the payment of the bonds so issued," approved June 11, 1915.

[Approved May 4, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of an act entitled "An act to provide for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent and be secured by certain assessments made for the cost of certain work and improvements made in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, to provide for the collection of such assessments, the sale of the property affected thereby and for the payment of the bonds so issued." approved June 11, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. Said bonds shall be issued in series and an even annual proportion of the aggregate principal sum thereof shall be payable on the second day of July every year succeeding the first nine months after their date, until the whole is paid, and the said bonds shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed eight per cent per annum from the date of filing with the clerk of the street superintendent's list of unpaid assessments, on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal sum and interest are paid, which interest shall be payable semiannually by coupon, on the second days of January and July, respectively of each year; provided, that the first payment of interest shall not come due till six months before the maturity of the first series of bonds. The final series or installment of said bonds shall mature and be payable on a date which shall not exceed fourteen years from the second day of July next succeeding nine months from their date. Said bonds and interest shall be paid at the office of the city treasurer of said municipality who shall keep a redemption fund designated by the name of said bonds, into which he shall place all sums received by him from the collection of the assessments made for the payment of the cost of the work or improvements upon which the said bonds are issued, and of the interest and penalties thereon and from which fund he shall disburse and pay the said bonds and the interest due thereon upon presentation of the proper bonds and coupons; and under no circumstances shall said bonds or the interest thereon be paid out of any other fund. Said city treasurer shall keep a register in his office which shall show the series, number, date, amount, rate of interest, and last known holder of each bond, and the number and amount of each coupon of interest paid by him, and shall cancel and file each bond and coupon so paid.

Stats. 1915,
p. 1443.      SEC. 2. Section four of the act, the title of which is set forth in section one hereof, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Resolution of intention      Sec. 4. When said city council shall determine that serial bonds shall be issued hereunder to represent the expense of any proposed work or improvement under said street work act it shall so declare in the resolution of intention to do said work and shall specify the rate of interest which they shall bear. The like description of said bonds shall be inserted in the resolution ordering the work, in the resolution of award and in all notices of said proceedings required by said act to be either posted or published, and also a like notice shall be entered in any warrant issued by the superintendent of streets to the contractor. Said bond declaration may be substantially in the following form: "Notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments, and bear interest at the rate of _____ per cent per annum, will be issued hereunder in the manner provided by the improvement bond act of 1915, the last installment of which bonds shall mature _____ years from the second day of July next succeeding nine months from their date."

Stats. 1915,
p. 1443.      SEC. 3. Section five of the act, the title of which is set forth in section one hereof, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. After the full expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of the warrant, or if an appeal be taken to the city council as provided in said street work act, then five (5) days after the final decision of said council, and after the street superintendent shall have recorded the return, the street superintendent shall make and file with the clerk of the city council a complete list of all assessments unpaid, upon any assessment or diagram number. Said clerk shall then give notice of the filing of said list and of a time, to be therein fixed by said clerk, when interested persons may appear before the city council and show cause why bonds should not be issued upon the security of the unpaid assessments shown on said list, which time shall be that of some regular meeting of said council. Such notice shall be posted for not less than five days on or near the council chamber door and be published twice in a newspaper published in such city, if there be any, the first of which publications shall be not less than five days before the time fixed for such hearing. Reference shall therein be made to the resolution of intention and the date of its passage for a description of the work therein mentioned and no other description thereof shall be necessary. The council shall hear any objection presented and shall pass upon the same and shall thereupon determine the assessments which are unpaid and the aggregate amount of same. It may adjourn the hearing from time to time. Its decision shall be final. The city council shall then prescribe the denominations of such bonds, which shall be in convenient amounts not necessarily equal, and shall provide for issuance of same in annual series. Said bonds must be sold at a time to be fixed by the council, and to the highest bidder therefor, but for not less than par and accrued interest, and the proceeds of the sale shall be deposited in the city treasury. Before selling said bonds, or any part thereof, the city council must advertise for bids therefor, by publication once a week for at least two weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the city, or if there is no such newspaper published in the city then by notice of sale, posted for at least two weeks on or near the council chamber door of said city. If satisfactory bids are received the bonds offered for sale must be awarded to the highest bidder. If no such bids are received or the council determines that the bids received are not satisfactory as to price or responsibility of the bidders the council may reject all bids received, if any, and either readvertise or deliver said bonds to the contractor in satisfaction of the sum due him upon his assessment and warrant. From the proceeds of any sale of said bonds, there shall be paid to such contractor the balance due him upon his assessment and warrant including interest upon the principal amount thereof at the rate specified in said bond declaration computed from the date of filing of said unpaid assessment list, and the surplus of such proceeds shall be credited to the redemption fund for

Sec. 4. Section six of the act, the title of which is set forth in section one hereof, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. Said bonds shall each be substantially in the following form:

IMPROVEMENT BOND.

Form of bond.

City (or other form of municipality) of (naming it).

$----- No.-----

Under and by virtue of the act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled (title of this act) the ----- of ----- (a municipal corporation) will on the second day of July, 19--, out of the redemption fund for the payment of the bonds issued upon the assessments made for the work upon and improvements on certain streets (or on ----- street, or in improvement district No. -----, or on certain rights of way owned by, or by other suitable description), more fully described in the certain resolution of intention passed by the city council (or other board) of said municipality on the ----- day of ----- 19--, pay to bearer, the sum of ----- dollars ($-----) with interest thereon from the ----- day of ----- 19-- at the rate of ----- per cent per annum, all as is hereinafter specified, and at the office of the treasurer of said municipality.

This bond is one of several annual series of bonds of like date, tenor and effect, but differing in amounts and maturities, issued by said municipality under said act for the purpose of providing means for paying for the work and improvements described in said resolution of intention, and is secured by the moneys in said redemption fund and by the unpaid assessments made for the payment of said work, and, including principal and interest, is payable exclusively out of said fund.

The interest is payable semiannually, to wit: On the second days of January and July in each year hereafter, upon presentation of the proper coupons therefor; provided, that the first of said coupons is for the interest to the second day of January, 19--, and thereafter the interest coupons are for the semiannual interest.

This bond will continue to bear interest after maturity at the rate above stated; provided, it is presented at maturity and payment thereof is refused upon the sole ground that there is not sufficient moneys in said redemption fund with which to pay same. If it is not presented at maturity interest thereon will run until maturity.

This bond may be redeemed and paid in advance of maturity upon the second day of any year by giving the notice provided in said act.

In witness whereof, said _____ of _____ has caused this bond to be signed by the treasurer of said _____ and by its clerk and has caused its clerk to affix thereto its corporate seal all on the _____ day of _____, 19_____.

SEC. 5. Section seven of the act, the title of which is set forth in section one hereof, is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915, p. 1145.

Sec. 7. The coupons affixed to said bonds shall be signed by the treasurer, and the city council may by order provide in its discretion for the use upon said coupons of an engraved, printed or lithographed signature of the treasurer in place of a signature by hand. The bonds shall have semiannual coupons attached thereto, the first of which shall be payable upon the second day of January next before the maturity of the first series of bonds coming due, and shall be for the interest accrued at that time. Coupons.

SEC. 6. Section twelve of the act, the title of which is set forth in section one hereof, is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915, p. 1447.

Sec. 12. Such unpaid assessments shall be payable in annual series, corresponding in number to the number of series of bonds issued and an even annual proportion of each assessment shall be payable in each year preceding the date of maturity of each of the several series of bonds so issued. Such annual proportion of each assessment coming due in any year, together with the annual interest on such assessment, shall in turn be payable in annual or semiannual installments according as the general municipal taxes of such city on real property are payable in annual or semiannual installments, and such installments and said annual interest shall be payable and become delinquent at the same times and in the same proportionate amounts and bear the same proportionate penalties and interest after delinquency as do the general municipal taxes on real property of said city. Upon default in payment, the lands securing such installments and assessments shall be sold in the same manner in which real property in such city is sold, for the nonpayment of general municipal taxes, and be subject to redemption in the same manner as such real property is redeemed from such delinquent sale, and upon failure of redemption shall in like manner pass to the purchaser. The city may be the purchaser at any delinquent sale in like manner in which it becomes or may become the purchaser of property sold for nonpayment of the general municipal property tax, and in the event of its so becoming the purchaser shall pay and transfer into said redemption fund the amount of the delinquent assessment and of the delinquent interest thereon upon Assessment payable in installments
Sale of land on default of payment.
Purchase by city.

State to purchase,
when.

which said sale is made. In cases where the municipal property tax is collected by county or city and county officials and sales for nonpayment of such taxes are made to the state, the state shall be the purchaser at any such sale hereunder, but shall hold the title acquired at such sale upon behalf of the city and shall account to the city for any moneys received upon redemption or from the sale of such property, the city for the purposes of this act being deemed the real purchaser. In other cases where under the law, the city is not always the purchaser at sales for delinquent municipal taxes, the city shall become such purchaser at any delinquent sale hereunder where there is no other purchaser. In the event of there being no available funds in the treasury with which to make such payment, the tax collector shall delay the entry of the certificate of sale until such funds are available, making demand in the meantime upon the city council that a suitable amount be included in the next tax levy for the purpose of providing funds with which to make such payment; provided, however, that the period of redemption from such tax sale shall not be extended thereby nor the rights or privileges of the property owner be thereby in any wise affected. In the event of such purchase being made by the city and of any succeeding installment of such assessment or of such interest not being paid in any future year, the property shall not be sold unless there has previously been a redemption from such sale or unless under the law it is being then sold for delinquent taxes. The city shall nevertheless from time to time when due pay and transfer into said redemption fund the amount of any such future delinquent assessment and interest pending redemption, and no redemption shall be made until any such subsequent payments, with interest and penalties, shall also be paid.

An act to amend sections one, two, three, four, sixteen, seventeen and twenty-seven of an act entitled "An act to provide for the formation, organization and government of storm water districts, for the purpose of protecting the land therein from damage from storm water and from the waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash, for the construction of the necessary works of protection by said district, and for the levying of taxes and assessments to pay for the cost of constructing, repairing and maintaining such improvements," approved March 13, 1909, as amended, and to add five new sections thereto, to be numbered twenty-six a, twenty-six b, twenty-six c, twenty-six d and twenty-six e.

[Approved May 4, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1913,
p. 504.

SECTION 1. Section one of the act entitled "An act to provide for the formation, organization and government of storm water districts, for the purpose of protecting the land therein from damage from storm water and from the waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash, for the construction of the necessary works of protection by said district, and for the levying of taxes and assessments to pay for the cost of constructing, repairing and maintaining such improvements," approved March 13, 1909, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Storm water districts may be formed under the provisions of this act for the purpose of protecting the lands in such district from damage by storm water, dams, ditches, dikes and other structures, and by spreading, conserving, storing, retaining or causing to percolate into the soil any or all waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash. When twenty-five per cent or more owners of land whose names appear as such upon the last assessment roll in any district of land which lies in one body and is liable to damage from storm water or from the waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash, shall present a petition to the board of supervisors of the county in which said land lies, or if the same lies in more than one county, then to the board of supervisors of the county in which the greater area of such land lies, setting forth the exterior boundaries of said district and asking that the district so described be formed into a storm water district under the provisions of this act. The said board of supervisors shall pass a resolution declaring their intention to form or organize said portion of said county or counties into a storm water district for the purpose of protecting the land therein from damage from storm water and from the waters of any innavigable stream, canyon or wash, and describing the exterior boundaries of the district. Said resolution shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the matter not less than thirty days after the passage thereof, and direct the clerk of said board to publish the notice of the intention of the board of supervisors to form such storm water district and of the time and place fixed for the hearing, and shall designate some newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in said proposed storm water district, or if there is no newspaper so published and circulated, then some newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in each county in which any part of said proposed district is situated in which said notice is to be published.

SEC. 2. Section two of said act, approved March 13, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Thereupon said clerk shall cause to be published in the newspaper or newspapers so designated, for a period of twenty days before the date fixed for the hearing, a notice, which shall be headed "Notice of intention of the board of supervisors to form a storm water district." Said notice shall set forth the fact of the passage of such resolution with the date thereof, the boundaries of the proposed district, and the time and place for the hearing, and shall state that it is proposed to assess all property embraced in said proposed storm water district, for the purpose of paying the damages, costs and expenses of constructing and repairing such dikes, levees, ditches, canals, reservoirs, shafts and other improvements as may be necessary to protect the land in said district from damage from storm water and from waters of any innavigable stream, canyon or wash, or to spread, conserve, store, retain or cause to percolate into the soil within such district any or all of such waters, and the necessary expense of maintaining said district, and shall refer to the resolution for further particulars. The assessor shall certify to the clerk the name of each owner of land in the proposed district whose name appears as such on the last assessment roll of the county or counties in which said proposed district lies, and said clerk shall forthwith send a copy of said notice by registered mail, postage prepaid, to each owner so certified, addressed to such owner at his address given on said assessment roll or, if no address is given, then at his last known address, or if it be not known, then at the county seat of the county in which his land lies. Said clerk shall make and file in his office an affidavit of such mailing, showing the names and addresses of the persons to whom such notices were sent, which shall be prima facie evidence that such notices were mailed as herein required.

Notice to owners.

Stats. 1909, p. 340.

SEC. 3. Section three of said act, approved March 13, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Objections.

SEC. 3. Any person interested objecting to the formation of such proposed district, or to the extent thereof, may, at or before the time fixed for the hearing of the matter, file a written objection thereto, with the clerk of said board of supervisors, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him, and shall at the time fixed for the hearing, place all such objections filed with him before said board of supervisors.

Stats. 1909, p. 340.

SEC. 4. Section four of said act, approved March 13, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Hearing.

SEC. 4. At the time fixed for the hearing, or to which the hearing may be adjourned, the board of supervisors shall hear the objections filed, if any, and pass upon the same. Said board may, in its discretion, sustain any or all of the objections filed, and may change or alter the boundaries of such proposed district to conform to the needs of the district, except that they shall not include therein any territory not included in the boundaries mentioned in the petition, and may, in their discretion, declare such storm water district formed with the boundaries designated by them, and shall designate such district by name as the _____ storm-water district of _____ county (or counties); provided, that no such district shall be formed wherein a majority of the owners of property in said district, according to the last previous assessment roll, object.

Declaration of supervisors.

SEC. 5. Section sixteen of said act, approved March 13, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1909, p. 346.

SEC. 16. After said report has been adopted, the board of trustees, if they consider the total sum to be raised for the payment of the cost of such improvements too great to be properly expended in one year, or too great to be raised in one year by assessment against the property in such storm-water district, may by order entered upon their minutes, provide that the total sum assessed shall be raised in any number of equal annual installments, not exceeding ten. When the board has adopted the report and determined the number of equal annual installments in which such assessment shall be raised, they shall cause their clerk to forward to the tax collector of the county in which such district is situated, who shall file the same in his office, a certified copy of the report, assessment and plat as adopted and confirmed by said board of trustees, together with a certified copy of the order of said board, fixing the number of equal annual installments in which such assessment is to be raised, and the county tax collector shall enter said assessments upon the county assessment roll in the same manner as county taxes. From and after such entry upon the county assessment roll, the first year's installment of the amount assessed thereon against each parcel of land shall become due and payable immediately, and the total amount assessed against each parcel of land shall constitute a lien thereon; and thereafter installments of the assessment for the succeeding years shall become due and payable on the first Monday of October of each year; provided, that any or all subsequent installments of the assessment on any parcel of land may, at the option of any person desiring to pay the same, be paid at any time after the first installment becomes due and payable. If the district is situated in two or more counties, a certified copy of said report, assessment, plat and order of the board of trustees shall be filed with the tax collector of each county in which any part of said district is situated, and thereafter each tax collector shall enter the assessments upon the assessment roll of his county and proceed as to the property in said district within his own county in the manner hereinafter directed, and the assessment on the property in said county shall be collected in the manner hereinafter directed. Installment assessments. Duty of tax collector. Payment of assessments.

SEC. 6. Section seventeen of said act, approved March 13, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1909, p 346.

SEC. 17. Within one month after the filing of such certified copy of said report, assessment, plat and order with the tax collector, and the entry of the same upon the county assessment roll, said tax collector shall give notice by ten days' publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in said district, or if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation published in his county, that the assessment roll of ----- storm water district of ----- Notice by tax collector that assessments are due.

county, has been filed in his office, and entered upon the county assessment roll, with the date of such entry; that the amounts entered thereon are due and payable; that if not paid on or before the first Monday in January next ensuing, the same will become delinquent and will be collected in the same manner as delinquent taxes. If the first Monday in January next ensuing is less than three months from the date of filing the assessment roll with the tax collector, the date, to be stated in the notice, shall be three months after such entry upon the county assessment roll. The tax collector shall note on the county assessment roll all assessments paid, with the dates of payment, giving receipts as in the case of payments of taxes, and shall pay all money collected into the county treasury at the same time and in the same manner as money collected for taxes paid into such treasury. All collections of subsequent installments of the assessment shall be made in the same manner as above set forth, and the tax collector shall annually (after the first year), immediately after the first Monday of October give notice as above directed that the (giving the number) annual installment of the assessments of said district is now due and payable, and that if not paid on or before the first Monday of January next ensuing, the same will become delinquent and will be collected in the same manner as delinquent taxes; and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as upon the collection of the first assessment. If said district is situated in two or more different counties, all moneys collected on account of such assessment shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which said district was organized.

Annual
notice.

SEC. 7. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered twenty-six a and to read as follows:

Sec. 26*a*. Whenever the board of trustees deem it necessary for the district to incur a bonded indebtedness, it shall, by resolution, so declare and state the proposition to be submitted to the electors, the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred, the amount of debt to be incurred, the maximum term the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not exceed twenty years, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed six per cent per annum, payable semiannually. The board of trustees shall fix a date upon which an election shall be held, for the purpose of authorizing said bonded indebtedness to be incurred. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees to provide for holding such special elections on the day so fixed and in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same shall be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Such board of trustees shall give notice of the holding of such election, which notice shall contain the resolution adopted by the board of trustees of the district, boundaries of precincts, the location of polling places, and the names of the officers selected to conduct the election, who shall consist of one judge, one inspector and one clerk in each precinct. Such notice shall be published for two weeks in at least one newspaper, and not more than two newspapers published in such district, which newspaper or newspapers shall be designated by the board of trustees; and if there is no newspaper printed in such district, then by publication for two weeks in one newspaper published in the county in which such district is situated, or by posting such notice in three public places therein, at least two weeks before the date of such election. All the expenses of holding such election shall be borne by the district. The returns of such election shall be made, the votes canvassed by said board of trustees on the first Monday following said election, and the results thereof ascertained and declared in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as they may be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. The secretary of the board of trustees, as soon as the result is declared, shall enter in the records of such board a statement of such results. No irregularities or informalities in conducting such election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have otherwise been fairly conducted. In all respects not otherwise provided for herein, said election shall be called, managed and directed as is by law provided for general elections in this state applicable thereto.

SEC. 8. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered twenty-six b and to read as follows:

Sec. 26*b*. If from such returns it appears that more than two-thirds of the votes cast at such election were in favor of and assented to the incurring of such indebtedness, then the board of trustees may, by resolution, at such time or times as it deems proper, provide for the form, denomination and execution of such bonds and for the issuance of any part thereof, and may sell or dispose of the bonds so issued at such time or times and in such manner, either in cash in lawful money of the United States, or its equivalent, as it may deem to be to the public interest, but for not less than the par value thereof; said bonds shall be signed by the president and clerk of said district and the seal of the district shall be affixed.

Tax levy.

SEC. 26*e*. The board of trustees of each storm water district shall annually during the month of August estimate the amount of money which will be needed to pay the interest and such portion of any bond issue maturing prior to the preceding August, and certify such amount to the board of supervisors of the county or counties in which said district lies. Such board or boards of supervisors shall, at the time of making the levy of taxes, for county purposes for that year, levy a tax upon the real property in their county in said district, sufficient in amount to raise the sum estimated by the board of trustees to be necessary. When the district is in two or more counties, the amount to be raised upon the part of the district in each county shall be in proportion to the assessed valuation of the several portions of the districts in the respective counties. Said tax, when levied, shall be entered upon the assessment roll and collected in the same manner as the state and county taxes. When the same is collected, it shall be placed in the treasury of the county in which said district is organized, to the credit of the bond fund of said district, and shall be used only for the purpose for which it is raised.

SEC. 12. Section twenty-seven of said act, approved March 13, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Proceedings
for disincor-

SEC. 27. Any storm water district may be disincorporated at any time before the adoption of the first commissioner's report by proceedings had in the following manner: Whenever a petition praying for such disincorporation shall be presented to the trustees of said district signed by a majority of the landowners therein, they shall call an election in the same manner as elections for members of the board of trustees are called, and submit to the electors of said district the question of disincorporation. Said election shall be held in all respects in the same manner as regular elections of trustees of the district. If it appears that a majority of the electors voting at said election have voted in favor of disincorporation, the trustees shall cause such fact to be entered upon their minutes, and shall forward a copy of such entry to the board of supervisors by whom the district was organized, who shall file the same with their clerk, and from the date of such filing, said district shall be deemed disincorporated; provided, that if at the time of the dissolution, or disincorporation of said district, there be any outstanding bonded or other indebtedness of such district, then taxes for the payment of such bonded or other indebtedness shall be levied and collected, the same as if such district had not been dissolved and disincorporated, but for all other purposes, such district shall be deemed dissolved and disincorporated from the time of the forwarding of said copy of such entry to said board of supervisors.

CHAPTER 145.

An act relating to and regulating the carrying, possession, sale or other disposition of firearms capable of being concealed upon the person; prohibiting the possession, carrying, manufacturing and sale of certain other dangerous weapons and the giving, transferring and disposition thereof to other persons within this state; providing for the registering of the sales of firearms; prohibiting the carrying or possession of concealed weapons in municipal corporations; providing for the destruction of certain dangerous weapons as nuisances and making it a felony to use or attempt to use certain dangerous weapons against another.

[Approved May 4, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person who manufactures or causes to be manufactured, or leases, or keeps for sale, or offers, or gives, or otherwise disposes of any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, bludgeon, or metal knuckles, a dirk or dagger, to any person within this state is guilty of a misdemeanor, and if he has been previously convicted of a crime made punishable by this section, he is guilty of a felony.

Manufacture, etc., of certain dangerous weapons
misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Every person who possesses any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, bludgeon, metal knuckles, bomb or bombshells, or who carries a dirk or a dagger, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and if he has been convicted previously of any felony or of a crime made punishable by this act, he is guilty of a felony.

Possession of certain dangerous weapons
misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. Every person who carries in any city, city and county, town or municipal corporation of this state any pistol, revolver, or other firearm concealed upon his person, without having a license to carry such firearm as hereinafter provided in section six of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and if he has been convicted previously of any felony, or of any crime made punishable by this act, he is guilty of a felony.

Carrying firearms without license

SEC. 4. The unlawful possessing or carrying of any of the instruments, weapons or firearms enumerated in section one to section three inclusive of this act, by any person other than those authorized and empowered to carry or possess the same as hereinafter provided, is a nuisance, and such instruments, weapons or firearms are hereby declared to be nuisances, and when any of said articles shall be taken from the possession of any person the same shall be surrendered to the magistrate before whom said person shall be taken, except that in any city, city and county, town or other municipal corporation the same shall be surrendered to the head of the

SEC. 5. Any person who attempts to use, or who with intent to use the same unlawfully against another, carries or possesses a dagger, dirk, dangerous knife, razor, stiletto, or any loaded pistol, revolver or other firearm, or any instrument or weapon commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, metal knuckles, bomb, or bombshell or any other dangerous or deadly instrument or weapon, is guilty of a felony. The carrying or possession of any of the weapons specified in this section, by any person while committing, or attempting or threatening to commit a felony, or breach of the peace, or any act of violence against the person or property of another, shall be presumptive evidence of carrying or possessing such weapon with intent to use the same in violation of this section.

License to carry concealed firearm

SEC. 6. It shall be lawful for the board of police commissioners, chief of police, city marshal, town marshal, or other head of the police department of any city, city and county, town, or other municipal corporation of this state, upon proof before said board, chief, marshal or head, that the person applying therefor is of good moral character, and that good cause exists for the issuance thereof, to issue to such person a license to carry concealed a pistol, revolver or other firearm; provided, however, that the application to carry concealed such firearm shall be filed in writing and shall state the name and residence of the applicant, the nature of applicant's occupation, the business address of applicant, the nature of the weapon sought to be carried and the reason for the filing of the application to carry the same.

Register of sales of firearms.

SEC. 7. Every person in the business of selling, leasing or otherwise transferring a pistol, revolver or other firearm, of a size capable of being concealed upon the person, whether such seller, leasor or transferrer is a retail dealer, pawnbroker or otherwise, except as hereinafter provided, shall keep a register in which shall be entered the time of sale, the date of sale, the name of the salesman making the sale, the place where sold, the make, model, manufacturer's number, caliber or other marks of identification on such pistol, revolver or other firearm. Such register shall be prepared by and obtained from the state printer and shall be furnished by the state printer to said dealers on application at a cost of three dollars per one hundred leaves in duplicate and shall be in the form hereinafter provided. The purchaser of any firearm, capable of being concealed upon the person shall sign, and the dealer shall require him to sign his name and affix his address to said register in duplicate and the salesman shall affix his signature in duplicate as a witness to the signatures of the purchaser. Any person signing a fictitious name or address is guilty of a misdemeanor. The duplicate sheet of such register shall on the evening of the day of sale, be placed in the mail, postage prepaid and properly addressed to the board of police commissioners, chief of police, city marshal, town marshal or other head of the police department of the city, city and county, town or other municipal corporation wherein the sale was made; provided, that where the sale is made in a district where there is no municipal police department, said duplicate sheet shall be mailed to the county clerk of the county wherein the sale is made. A violation of any of the provisions of this section by any person engaged in the business of selling, leasing or otherwise transferring such firearms is a misdemeanor. This section shall not apply to wholesale dealers in their business intercourse with retail dealers, nor to wholesale or retail dealers in the regular or ordinary transportation of unloaded firearms as merchandise by mail, express or other mode of shipment, to points outside of the city, city and county, town or municipal corporation wherein they are situated. The register provided for in this act shall be substantially in the following form:

Exceptions.

SEC. 8. Nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to sheriffs, constables, marshals, policemen or other duly appointed peace officers, nor to any person summoned by any such officers to assist in making arrest or preserving the peace while said person so summoned is actually engaged in assisting such officer; nor to duly authorized military or civil organizations while parading nor to the members thereof when going to and from the places of meeting of their respective organizations; nor to the possession or transportation by any merchant of unloaded firearms as merchandise; nor to bona fide members of any club or organization now existing or hereinafter organized, for the purpose of practicing shooting at targets upon established target ranges, whether public or private, while such members are using any of the firearms referred to in this act upon or in such target ranges, or while going to and from such ranges.

Constitutionality.

SEC. 9. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

CHAPTER 146.

An act amending an act entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and organization and management of county water districts and to provide for the acquisition of water rights or the construction thereby of water works, and for the acquisition of all property necessary therefor, and also to provide for the distribution and sale of water by said districts." approved June 10, 1913, by adding thereto a new section to be numbered twenty-eight, providing for the exclusion from any county water district formed under said act of territory not served by such county water district.

[Approved May 4, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act approved June 10, 1913, and entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and organization and management of county water districts and to provide for the acquisition of water rights or the construction thereby of water works, and for the acquisition of all property necessary therefor, and also to provide for the distribution and sale of water by said districts," is hereby amended by adding to said act a section numbered twenty-eight, reading as follows: Stats. 1913,
p. 1049.

Sec. 28. Any territory, included within any county water district formed under the provisions of this act, and not benefited in any manner by such district, or its continued inclusion therein, may be excluded therefrom by order of the board of directors of such district upon the verified petition of the owner or owners in fee of lands whose assessed value, with improvements, is in excess of one-half of the assessed value of all the lands, with improvements, held in private ownership in such territory. Said petition shall describe the territory sought to be excluded and shall set forth that such territory is not benefited in any manner by said county water district or its continued inclusion therein, and shall pray that such territory may be excluded and taken from said district. Such petition shall be filed with the secretary of the water district and shall be accompanied by a deposit with such secretary of the sum of one hundred dollars, to meet the expenses of advertising and other costs incident to the proceedings for the Exclusion of exclusion of such territory, including the cost of recording a certified copy of the order hereinafter provided for, any unconsumed balance to be returned to the petitioner. Upon the filing of such petition with the secretary of the water district he shall call a meeting of the board of directors of the district at a time not less than twenty-five days nor more than fifty days after the filing of the petition and cause a notice of the filing of such petition to be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper of general circulation within said district, if there be one, and if not, in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the district is situated. Such notice shall also state the date of the filing of such petition and that the same will come on for hearing before the board of directors of the district and shall state the time of the hearing and the place thereof, which shall be the regular meeting place of the board of directors of the district; provided, that the board may adjourn the hearing to a more convenient meeting place within the district. Any landowner or taxpayer within the district shall have the right to appear at said hearing, either in behalf of or in opposition to the granting of said petition. Said petition shall come on for hearing before the board of directors of the district at the time and place specified in the notice of hearing. If upon such hearing the board of directors determines that it is for the best interests of the district that the lands mentioned in the petition, or some portion thereof, be excluded from the district, or if it appears that such lands, or some portion thereof, will not be benefited by their continued inclusion in the district, then the board of directors shall make an order that such lands, or such portion thereof, be excluded from the district, such order to describe specifically the lands so excluded. From the time of the making of such order the lands so excluded shall be deemed to be no longer included in the district; but such order of exclusion shall not be taken to invalidate in any manner any taxes or assessments theretofore levied or assessed against the lands so excluded. A copy of such order of exclusion, certified to by the secretary of the district, shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the district is situated and the record of such certified copy shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the exclusion from the district of the lands purporting to be excluded thereby.

Directors
may institute proceedings for exclusion.

The board of directors of any county water district formed under the provisions of this act may itself initiate the proceedings for the exclusion from the district of any land or lands which it may not be for the best interests of the district to be included, or which may not be benefited in any manner by their continued inclusion therein. Such proceedings shall be initiated by the board of directors by the passage of a resolution requiring all persons interested to appear and show cause before the board of directors, at a time and place specified, why such lands, describing them, should not be excluded from the district and fixing a time and place for such hearing and directing the secretary of the district to give notice of the passage of such resolution and of such hearing. Upon the passage of such resolution the secretary of the district shall give notice thereof and of the time and place of such hearing in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for notice of hearing upon petition by a landowner or landowners, and thereafter all proceedings shall be had in the manner and with the effect herein provided for proceedings upon a petition by a landowner or landowners. The time of hearing fixed by the board of directors by its resolution hereinbefore mentioned shall be not less than twenty-five days nor more than fifty days after the passage of such resolution and the place of hearing so fixed shall be a convenient place within the district; provided, that the final action of the board of directors under this section shall be subject to the referendum by the electors of the water district according to section twenty-four of this act.

CHAPTER 152.

An act to appropriate money for the payment of compensation benefits accruing by reason of personal injury resulting from accident to state officers and employes while performing services accruing out of and incidental to their employment.

[Approved May 4, 1917. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Appropriation:
compensation benefits to state
officers.

SECTION 1. The sum of twenty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be used during the sixty-eighth, sixty-ninth and seventieth fiscal years, for the payment of compensation benefits accruing by reason of personal injury resulting from accident to state officers and employes while performing services accruing out of and incidental to their employment, where the services have been paid for out of the general fund in the state treasury.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section one of article four of the constitution of the State of California, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 153.

An act to amend sections twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five and thirty-six of the water commission act, approved June 16, 1913, and to add thereto six new sections, to be numbered thirty-six a, thirty-six b, thirty-six c, thirty-six d, thirty-six e, and thirty-six f, relating to the ascertainment and adjudication of water rights.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twenty-four of an act known as the "water commission act," approved June 16, 1913, is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913,
p. 1027.

Sec. 24. In case suit is brought in the superior court for determination of rights to water or the use of water, the case may, in the discretion of the court, be transferred to the state water commission for investigation, as referee. Water commission
may act as referee.

SEC. 2. Section twenty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913,
p. 1028

Sec. 25. Upon its own initiative or upon petition signed by one or more claimants to water or the use of water upon any stream, stream system, lake, or other body of water, all of which sources of supply are hereinafter referred to as "stream system," requesting the determination of rights, based upon prior appropriation, of the various claimants to the water of that stream system, it shall be the duty of the state water commission, if, upon investigation, it finds the facts and conditions are such as to justify, to enter an order granting said petition and to make proper arrangements to proceed with such determination. Determination of water rights by commission.

Sec. 3. Section twenty-six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913,
p. 1028.

Sec. 26. As soon as practicable after the state water commission shall make and enter the order granting the said petition or selecting the stream system upon which the determination of water rights by appropriation is to begin, it shall prepare a notice setting forth the fact of the entry of said order and of the pendency of the said proceedings, the date when the state water commission shall begin said examination, and that all claimants to rights by appropriation of the waters of said stream system are required, as in this act provided, to make proof of their claims. The notice shall be published for a period of four consecutive weeks in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in each county in which any part of said stream system is situated. Notice of order.

Publication.

Sec. 4. Section twenty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913,
p. 1029.

Investigation of flow of stream system, etc.

Sec. 27. At the time set in said notice, the state water commission shall begin an investigation of the flow of the stream system and of the conduits diverting water, and of the lands irrigated or irrigable therefrom, and shall gather such other data and information as may be essential to the proper determination of the water rights by appropriation. It shall reduce its observations, data, information and measurements to writing. It shall execute surveys and shall prepare maps from the observations of such surveys in accordance with such uniform rules and regulations as it may adopt; which surveys and maps shall show with substantial accuracy the course of the stream or streams; the location of each conduit diverting water therefrom, land irrigated and capable of being irrigated by each conduit, and the kind of culture upon the irrigated land. The maps shall be prepared as the surveys and observations progress, and, when completed, it shall be filed and made of record in the office of the state water commission.

Surveys and maps.

Stats. 1913,
p. 1029.

Sec. 5. Section twenty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Notice of
time for filing proofs.

Sec. 28. Upon the completion of such measurements and maps, and the filing of said observations, data, information and measurements, the state water commission shall prepare a notice setting forth the date, prior to which the proofs, to be furnished by claimants upon forms supplied by the state water commission and more specifically referred to in the next section hereof, as to the rights by appropriation of the waters of said stream system, shall be filed; provided, however, that the date set, prior to which said proofs must be filed, shall not be less than sixty days from the date of the last publication of said notice as hereinafter provided. The notice shall be deemed to be an order of the state water commission as to its contents, and it shall be published by the state water commission for a period of four consecutive weeks in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in each county in which any part of said stream system is situated. At or near the time of the first publication of said notice it shall be the duty of the state water commission to send by registered mail to each claimant to rights by appropriation of the waters of said stream system, in so far as such claimant can be reasonably ascertained at his last known place of address, a notice equivalent in terms to the said published notice.

Publication.

Stats. 1913,
p. 1029.

Sec. 6. Section twenty-nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Forms to be sent claimant.

Sec. 29. The state water commission shall, in addition, enclose with the notice to be mailed as aforesaid, blank forms, proofs of appropriation, upon which said claimant shall present in writing all particulars necessary for the determination of his right by appropriation of the waters of said stream system, the said statement to include the following:

(a) The name and post-office address of the claimant.

(b) The nature of the right or use on which the claim for appropriation is based.

(c) The date of the initiation of such right and a description of works of diversion and distribution.

(d) The date of beginning of construction.

(e) The date when completed.

(f) The dates of beginning and completion of enlargements.

(g) The dimensions of the ditch as originally constructed and enlarged.

(h) The date when water was first used for irrigation or other beneficial purposes, and if used for irrigation, the amount of land irrigated the first year, the amount in subsequent years, with the dates of irrigation and the area and the location of the lands which are intended to be irrigated.

(i) The character of the soil and the kind of crops cultivated, and such other facts as will show the extent and nature of the right and a compliance with the law in acquiring the same, as may be required by the state water commission. Each claimant shall be required to certify to his statements, under oath.

SEC. 7. Section thirty of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913.
p. 1029.

Sec. 30. After the date fixed for the filing of proofs, no proofs shall be received or filed with the state water commission; provided, however, that the state water commission may, for cause shown, in its discretion, extend the time in which proofs may be filed. Upon neglect or refusal of any person to make proof of his claim to rights by appropriation of the waters of such stream system, as required by this act, prior to the expiration of the period fixed by the state water commission, during which proofs may be filed, the state water commission shall determine the right by appropriation of such person on such evidence as it may obtain or may have on file in its office in the way of maps, plats, surveys and transcripts; and exceptions to such determination may be filed in court as hereinafter provided. Determination of right on failure to make proof

SEC. 8. Section thirty-one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913.
p. 1029.

Sec. 31. Any claimant of a right by appropriation of the water of any stream system upon whom no service of notice shall have been had of the pendency of proceedings for the determination of the rights by appropriation of the waters of said stream system, and who shall have had no actual knowledge or notice of the pendency of said proceedings, may at any time prior to the expiration of three months after the entry of the determination of the state water commission, as provided in section thirteen of this act, file a petition to intervene in said proceedings. Such petition shall be under oath and shall contain, among other things, all matters required by this act of claimants who have been duly served with notice of said proceedings, and also a statement that the intervener had no actual knowledge or notice of the pendency of said proceedings. Petition to intervene in proceedings.

Upon the filing of said petition in intervention, the petitioner shall be allowed to intervene and thereafter shall have all the rights and be subject to all the duties of the claimants who have been duly served.

Stats. 1913,
p. 1030,

SEC. 9. Section thirty-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Fees collected from claimants.

SEC. 32. At the time of submission of proof of appropriation, the state water commission shall collect from such claimants, on the basis of the statements in the proofs, a fee of fifteen cents for each acre of irrigated or irrigable lands up to and including one hundred acres, ten cents for each acre in excess of one hundred acres and up to and including one thousand acres, and five cents per acre for each acre in excess of one thousand acres; also twenty-five cents for each theoretical horsepower up to and including one hundred horsepower, fifteen cents for each theoretical horsepower in excess of one hundred horsepower and up to and including one thousand horsepower, and five cents for each theoretical horsepower in excess of one thousand horsepower; also five (5) dollars for each cubic foot per second, or fraction thereof, claimed for any purpose other than irrigation or power; the minimum fee, however, for any claimant to be five (5) dollars. All fees charged and collected under this section shall be paid, at least once each month, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the treasury of the state.

Stats. 1913,
p. 1031.

SEC. 10. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Printed
abstract of proofs.

SEC. 33. As soon as practicable after the expiration of the period fixed in which proofs may be filed, the state water commission shall assemble all proofs which have been filed, and prepare and certify an abstract of all of the said proofs, which shall be printed in the state printing office. As soon as practicable the state water commission shall prepare a notice fixing and setting a time and place, reasonably convenient to the claimants, when and where the evidence taken by or filed with it shall be open to the inspection of all interested persons, said period of inspection to be not less than ten (10) days, which notice shall be deemed to be an order of the state water commission as to the matters contained therein. A copy of said notice, together with a printed copy of the said abstract of proofs, shall be sent by registered mail, at least fifteen (15) days prior to the first day of such period of inspection, to each claimant who has appeared and filed proof as herein provided. A representative of the state water commission shall be present at the time and place designated in said notice, and allow, during said period, any person interested to inspect such evidence and proofs as have been filed in accordance with this act.

Inspection.

Stats. 1913,
p. 1031.

SEC. 11. Section thirty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Contest of statements and proofs of claims.

SEC. 34. Should any claimant desire to contest any of the statements and proofs of claims filed with the state water commission by any other claimant to the waters of the stream system, he shall, within fifteen (15) days after said evidence and proofs shall have been opened to public inspection, or within such further time as for good cause shown may be allowed by the state water commission upon application made prior to the expiration of said fifteen (15) days, in writing, notify the state water commission, stating with reasonable certainty the grounds of the proposed contest, which statement shall be verified by the affidavit of the contestant, his agent or attorney. The statements or proofs of the person whose rights are contested and the verified statement of the contestant shall be deemed sufficient to constitute a proper cause for such contest.

SEC. 12. Section thirty-five of said act is hereby amended Stats. 1913, p. 1031. to read as follows:

Sec. 35. Within ten (10) days after the receipt of the notice of contest the state water commission shall notify by registered mail the contestant and the claimant whose rights are contested to appear before it at a time and place specified in said notice, and that at said time and place said contest will be heard; provided, that said time shall not be less than fifteen (15) days nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of the mailing of the notice of the commission. The state water commission shall have power to adjourn hearings of contests from time to time upon reasonable notice to all parties in interest, and to issue subpoenas for and compel the attendance of witnesses to testify before it and to produce papers, books, maps, and other documents. The costs of taking testimony at a hearing Hearing of contest. shall be borne by the parties thereto as follows: each party shall pay for the direct examination of his own witness and the cross-examination of opponent's witness and shall share equally for that part of the examination directed by the representative of the commission. One copy of the transcript of testimony taken at the hearing shall be furnished to the commission and the cost thereof borne equally by the parties. Costs.

SEC. 13. Section thirty-six of said act is hereby amended Stats. 1913, p. 1031. to read as follows:

Sec. 36. As soon as practicable after the hearing of contests, it shall be the duty of the state water commission to make, and cause to be entered of record in its office, an order determining and establishing the several rights by appropriation of the waters of said stream; provided, however, that within sixty (60) days after the entry of an order establishing water rights, the state water commission may, for good cause shown, reopen the proceedings and grant a rehearing. Such order and determination shall be prepared, and after certification by the state water commission, printed in the state printing office. A copy of said order of determination shall be sent by registered mail to each person who has filed proof of claim, and to each person who has become interested through intervention or as a contestant under the provisions of section eight or section eleven of this act. Order of determination.

SEC. 14. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered thirty-six a, and to read as follows:

Filing of order, etc., with clerk of superior court.

Order setting time for
hearing.

Sec. 36a. As soon as practicable, after the entry of the order of determination, a certified copy thereof, together with the original evidence and transcript of testimony filed with, or taken before the state water commission, as aforesaid, duly certified by it, shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which said stream system, or any part thereof, is situated. Upon the filing of the certified copy of said order, evidence, and transcript with the clerk of the court in which the proceedings are to be had, the state water commission shall procure an order from said court setting a time for hearing. The clerk of such court shall immediately furnish the state water commission with a certified copy of said order. It shall be the duty of the state water commission immediately thereupon to mail a copy of such certified order of the court, by registered mail, addressed to each known party in interest at his last known place of residence, and to cause the same to be published at least once a week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in each county in which such stream system or any part thereof is located, and the state water commission shall file with the clerk of the court proof of such service by registered mail and by publication. Such service by registered mail and by publication shall be deemed full and sufficient notice to all parties in interest of the date and purpose of such hearing.

SEC. 15. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered thirty-six b, and to read as follows:

Filing of
notice of exceptions.

Sec. 36b. At least ten days prior to the day set for hearing, all parties in interest who are aggrieved or dissatisfied with the order of determination of the state water commission shall file with the clerk of said court notice of exceptions to the order of determination of the state water commission, which notice shall state briefly the exceptions taken, the reasons therefor, and the prayer for relief, and a copy thereof shall be transmitted by registered mail at least ten (10) days prior to such hearing, to the state water commission and to each claimant, who was an adverse party to any contest wherein such exceptor was a party in the proceedings. The order of determination by the state water commission and the statements or claims of claimants and exceptions made to the order of determination shall constitute the pleadings but the court may allow such additional or amended pleadings as may be necessary to a final determination of the proceeding. If no exceptions shall have been filed with the clerk of the court as aforesaid, then on the day set for the hearing, on motion of the state water commission, or its attorney, the court shall enter a decree affirming said order of determination. On the day set for hearing all parties in interest who have filed notices of exceptions as aforesaid shall appear in person, or by counsel, and it shall be the duty of the court to hear the same or set the time for hearing, until such exceptions are disposed of, and all proceedings thereunder shall be as nearly as may be in accordance with the rules governing civil actions. Whenever in the judgment of the court the state is a necessary party to the action, the court shall make an order to that effect and thereupon a copy of all pleadings and proceedings on file with the court in said matter shall be served upon the attorney general who shall represent the state therein.

When state a party.

SEC. 16. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered thirty-six c, and to read as follows:

Sec. 36c. For further information on any subject in controversy, the court may employ one or more qualified persons to investigate and report thereon under oath, subject to examination by any party in interest as to his competency to give expert testimony thereon. The court may take additional evidence on any issue and may, if necessary, refer the case for such further evidence to be taken by the state water commission as it may direct, and may require a further determination by it. After the hearing, the court shall enter a decree determining the right of all persons involved in such proceeding. Said decree shall in every case declare as to the water right by appropriation adjudged to each party, the extent, priority, amount, purpose of use, point of diversion, and place of use of said water; and as to water used for irrigation, such decree shall also declare the specific tracts of land to which it shall be appurtenant, together with such other conditions as may be necessary to define the right and its priority. Upon the hearing the court may assess and adjudge against any party such costs as it may deem just. Appeals from such decree may be taken to the supreme court by the state water commission or any party in interest, in the same manner and with the same effect as in civil cases.

Decree determining right of all persons involved.

Appeals.

SEC. 17. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered thirty-six d, and to read as follows:

Sec. 36d. A certified copy of the decree of the superior court shall be prepared by the clerk thereof, without charge, and filed for record in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any part of the stream system is situated and also in the office of the state water commission. It shall be the duty of the state water commission to issue to each claimant represented in such determination a certificate to be signed by the president of the state water commission, and attested under seal of the secretary of said commission, setting forth the name and post-office address of the owner of the right; the priority of the date, extent and purpose of such right; and, if such water be for irrigation purposes, a description of the legal subdivisions of land to which said water is appurtenant.

Decree filed with county recorder.

Certificate to claimant.

SEC. 18. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered thirty-six e, and to read as follows:

Sec. 36e. Whenever proceedings shall be instituted for the determination of rights by appropriation of water, it shall be the duty of all claimants interested therein and having notice thereof as in this act provided, to appear and submit proof of their respective claims at the time and in the manner required by law; and any such claimant who shall fail to appear in such proceedings and submit proof of his claim shall be barred and estopped from subsequently asserting any rights theretofore acquired upon the stream system, embraced in such proceedings, and shall be held to have forfeited all rights by appropriation to said water theretofore claimed by him on such stream system, unless entitled to relief under the laws of this state; provided, that such proceedings shall result in a determination by the state water commission and a decree by the superior court determining the rights on such stream. Such decree shall be conclusive as to the rights by appropriation of all existing claimants upon the stream system lawfully embraced in the determination.

SEC. 19. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered thirty-six f, and to read as follows:

Sec. 36*f*. The state water commission shall have authority and power in making a determination as to the rights by appropriation of the waters of any stream system, to fix a time limit for the completion of all appropriations of water from such stream, where such rights of appropriations were initiated prior to December 19, 1914, and since prosecuted with reasonable diligence, and such appropriators having been duly notified as provided in this act, must appear and submit their proofs of claim, in accordance with section twenty-eight of this act, or they shall be deemed and held to be in default, and to have abandoned or to have no right, title or interest in or to the waters of such stream. In determining rights of such appropriators, the state water commission shall prescribe such a reasonable time for the completion of such appropriations, and the application of the water appropriated to a beneficial use, as will enable such appropriators acting in good faith and with due diligence to complete the same. The findings of the state water commission shall provide for the submission of proof or evidence as to the completion of such appropriation and the amount of water actually applied to beneficial use upon the expiration of such time limit, and shall, in accordance with such proof, enter supplemental findings, establishing and determining such rights of appropriation, in so far as the same shall have been completed; and certificates of water right shall be issued in accordance with such supplemental findings and order of determination of said commission; but this section shall not be construed to confer any rights of appropriation upon parties who shall have abandoned their said appropriations or failed to use due diligence in the application of the water to a beneficial use and in the completion of their appropriations; and all such appropriators, who shall fail to complete their said appropriations within the limit of time fixed by the state water commission in said findings, or such further time granted upon application made prior to the expiration of such time limit, as the state water commission shall find equitable and just, shall be deemed to have abandoned their rights of appropriation, and rights acquired by virtue thereof waived, and such appropriators shall be deemed and held to have no right, title or interest in or to the waters of such stream by virtue of their said appropriations. The findings and determination of the state water commission made under the provisions of this section may be reviewed in the manner prescribed by section thirty-six b of this act. Review of findings.

CHAPTER 154.

An act to validate bonds of the Los Angeles county flood control district and all proceedings relating thereto, and making final and conclusive, except as therein provided, the official canvass of election returns of the election at which said bonds were voted.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Bonds in the amount of four million four hundred fifty thousand dollars of the Los Angeles county flood control district, and all the acts and proceedings of said district, leading up to and including the authorizing and issuance of said bonds, are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared valid to all intents and purposes, which district was created by the Los Angeles county flood control act, approved June 12, 1915, and which bonds were authorized by virtue of an election held in said district on February 20, 1917, at which a majority of the votes cast were in favor of incurring such bonded indebtedness, as found and determined by the board of supervisors of said district upon canvassing such election returns, and which finding and determination of the result of said election shall be and is hereby declared to be final and conclusive against all persons except the State of California upon suit commenced by the attorney general. Any such suit must be commenced within thirty days after this act takes effect and not otherwise. Los Angeles county flood control district bonds validated.

And all said bonds when issued and sold as in said act provided shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and valid obligations of said district, and the faith and credit of said Los Angeles county flood control district is hereby pledged for the prompt payment and redemption of the principal and interest of said bonds and said bonds by their issuance shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all proceedings leading up thereto, and that they were duly authorized at said election.

CHAPTER 155.

An act to amend section one thousand six hundred sixteen of the Penal Code, relating to the care of female prisoners in county jails.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand six hundred sixteen of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Care of female prisoners in county jails.

1616. Whenever any female prisoner or prisoners are confined in any county jail in the state, and no regular jail matron has been appointed, there shall be designated by the sheriff some suitable woman who shall have immediate care of such female prisoner or prisoners, and who shall be paid out of the general fund of the county upon claims to be presented and allowed by the board of supervisors as other claims against the county. Such female prisoners shall be so kept that they can not see or be seen by, or converse with, any male prisoners confined in said jail, and it shall be unlawful for any male officer or jailer to search the person of any female prisoner, or to enter into the room or cell occupied by any female prisoner, except in the company of such matron or woman having the care of such female prisoner.

CHAPTER 156.

An act to amend section six hundred sixty of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to time of hearing motion for new trial.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred sixty of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Time of hearing motion for new trial.

660. The motion for a new trial must be heard at the earliest practicable time after the filing of affidavits and counteraffidavits, in case the motion is made on affidavits, in other cases after the filing of the notice. On such hearing reference may be had in all cases to the pleadings and orders of the court on file, and when the motion is made on the minutes, reference may also be had to any depositions and documentary evidence offered at the trial and to the report of the proceedings on the trial taken by the phonographic reporter, or to any certified transcript of such report, or if there be no such report or certified transcript, to such proceedings occurring at the trial as are within the recollection of the judge; when the proceedings at the trial have been phonographically reported, but the reporter's notes have not been transcribed, the reporter must, upon request of the court, or either party, attend the hearing of the motion, and shall read his notes, or such parts thereof as the court, or either party, may require. The hearing and disposition of the motion for a new trial shall have precedence over all other matters except criminal cases, probate matters and cases actually on trial, and it shall be the duty of the court to determine the same at the earliest possible moment. The power of the court to pass on motion for new trial shall expire within three months after the verdict of the jury or service on the moving party of notice of the entry of the judgment. If such motion is not determined within said three months, the effect shall be a denial of the motion without further order of the court.

New trial hearing has precedence.

CHAPTER 157.

An act to amend section three thousand seven hundred eighty-seven of the Political Code, relative to deeds to property sold for delinquent taxes.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand seven hundred eighty-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3787. Such deed, duly acknowledged or proved, is (except as against actual fraud) conclusive evidence of the regularity of all other proceedings, from the assessment by the assessor, inclusive, up to the execution of the deed.

Tax deed conclusive evidence.

Such deed conveys to the state the absolute title to the property described therein, free of all encumbrances, except any lien of taxes levied for municipal or irrigation district purposes and except when the land is owned by the United States or this state; in which case it is the prima facie evidence of the right of possession, accrued as of the date of the deed to the state.

CHAPTER 158.

An act to increase the number of judges of the superior court of the county of Alameda, and for the appointment of such additional judges.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Judges increased in Alameda county.

SECTION 1. The number of judges of the superior court in the county of Alameda, State of California, is hereby increased from six to eight.

Appointment.

SEC. 2. Within thirty days after this act becomes a law the governor shall appoint two additional judges of the superior court in the county of Alameda, State of California, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, A. D. 1919. At the next general election, to be held in November, A. D. 1918, two additional judges of said superior court shall be elected in the said county, who shall be the successors to the judges appointed hereunder, to hold office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law.

Election.

Salary.

SEC. 3. The salary of such additional judges shall be the same in amount and be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the salaries of the other judges of the superior court of said county now authorized by law.

CHAPTER 159.

An act to amend section four hundred seventy-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the time within which pleadings may be filed or amended, before or after judgment.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four hundred seventy-three of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Pleading
may be amended.

473. The court may in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be proper, allow a party to amend any pleading or proceeding by adding or striking out the name of any party, or by correcting a mistake in the name of a party, or a mistake in any other respect; and may, upon like terms, enlarge the time for answer or demurrer. The court may likewise, in its discretion, after notice to the adverse party, allow, upon such terms as may be just, an amendment to any pleading or proceeding in other particulars; and may upon like terms allow an answer to be made after the time limited by this code; and may, also, upon such terms as may be just, relieve a party or his legal representative from a judgment, order, or other proceeding taken against him through his mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; provided, that application therefor be made within a reasonable time, but in no case exceeding six months after such judgment, order, or proceeding was taken; and provided, further, that said application must be accompanied with a copy of the answer, or other pleading proposed to be filed therein, otherwise said application shall not be granted. When from any cause the summons in an action has not been personally served on the defendant, the court may allow, on such terms as may be just, such defendant or his legal representative, at any time within one year after the rendition of any judgment in such action, to answer to the merits of the original action. When, in an action to recover the possession of personal property, the person making any affidavit did not truly state the value of the property, and the officer taking the property, or the sureties on any bond or undertaking is sued for taking the same, the officer or sureties may in their answer set up the true value of the property, and that the person in whose behalf said affidavit was made was entitled to the possession of the same when said affidavit was made, or that the value in the affidavit stated was inserted by mistake, the court shall disregard the value as stated in the affidavit, and give judgment according to the right of possession of said property at the time the affidavit was made.

Time for application.

Action to recover personal property.

CHAPTER 160.

An act to authorize irrigation districts to cooperate and contract with the United States under the provisions of the federal reclamation laws for a water supply, or the construction, operation or maintenance of works, including drainage works, or for the assumption by the district of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands; and to provide the manner and method of payments to the United States under such contract, and for the apportionment of assessments, and levy thereof, upon the lands of the district to secure revenue for such payments, and to provide for the judicial review and determination of the validity of the proceedings in connection with such contract.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In addition to the powers with which irrigation districts have been vested under the act approved March 31, 1897, and acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto and acts of or to which said act is amendatory or Irrigation districts may cooperate with the United States.

supplementary, irrigation districts heretofore or hereafter organized under said acts shall have the following powers: To cooperate and contract with the United States under the federal reclamation act of June 17, 1902, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, or any other act of congress heretofore or hereafter enacted authorizing or permitting such cooperation, for purposes of construction of works, whether for irrigation or drainage, or both, or for the acquisition, purchase, extension, operation or maintenance of constructed works, or for a water supply, or for the assumption as principal or guarantor of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands.

directors.

SEC. 2. The board of directors shall generally perform all such acts as shall be necessary to carry out the enlarged powers in this act enumerated. Said board may enter into any obligation or contract with the United States for the aforesaid purposes, and may provide therein for the delivery and distribution of water for the lands of such district under the aforesaid acts of congress and the rules and regulations established thereunder. The contract may provide for the conveyance to the United States as partial consideration for the privileges obtained by the district under said contract. of water rights or other property of the district; and in case contract has been or may hereafter be made with the United States as herein provided, bonds of the district may be transferred to, or deposited with the United States, if so provided by said contract and authorized as hereinafter set forth, at not less than ninety-five per cent of their par value, to the amount to be paid by the district to United States or any part thereof; the interest, or principal, or both, on said bonds to be raised by assessment and levy as hereinafter prescribed, and to be regularly paid to the United States and applied as provided in said contract. Bonds transferred to or deposited with the United States may call for the payment of such interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, may be of such denomination, and may call for the repayment of the principal at such times as may be agreed upon between the board and the secretary of the interior. The contract with the United States may likewise call for the payment of the amount or amounts to be paid by the district to the United States or any part thereof at such times and in such installments and with such interest charges not exceeding the aforesaid rate as may be agreed upon, and for assessment and levy therefor as hereinafter provided. Moreover the board may accept on behalf of the district, appointment of the district as fiscal agent of the United States, or authorization of the district by the United States to make collection of moneys for or on behalf of the United States in connection with any federal reclamation project, whereupon the district shall be authorized so to act and to assume the duties and liabilities incident to such action, and the said board shall have full power to do any and all things required by the federal statutes now or hereafter enacted in connection of bonds.

ment as fiscal agent.

therewith, and all things required by the rules and regulations now or that may hereafter be established by any department of the federal government in regard thereto. Districts cooperating with the United States may rent or lease water to private lands, entrymen, or municipalities in the neighborhood of the district, in pursuance of contract with the United States.

SEC. 3. Any proposal to enter into a contract with the United States for the repayment of construction moneys, the cost of a water supply or the acquisition of property, and to issue bonds, if any be proposed, shall be voted upon at an election wherein proceedings shall be had in so far as applicable in the manner provided in the case of the ordinary issuance of district bonds. Said proposal, with such plans and estimates of cost as have been made in connection therewith, shall be submitted to the state engineer for his examination and report, and the proceedings in that regard shall be in accord with section thirty of the act approved March 31, 1897, as amended, in so far as the same may be applicable. Notice of the election herein provided for shall contain in addition to the information required in the case of ordinary bond election a statement of the maximum amount of money to be payable to the United States for construction purposes, cost of water supply and acquisition of property, exclusive of penalties and interest, together with a general statement of the property, if any, to be conveyed by the district as hereinabove provided. The ballots at such election shall contain a brief statement of the general purpose of said contract and the amount of the obligation to be assumed, as aforesaid, with the words "Contract—Yes" and "Contract—No," or "Contract and bonds—Yes" and "Contracts and Bonds—No," as the case may be. The board of directors may submit any such contract or proposed contract and bond issue if any, to the superior court of the county wherein is located the office of said board to determine the validity thereof and the authority of the board to enter into such contract, and the authority for and validity of the issuance and deposit or transfer of said bonds; whereupon the same proceedings shall be had as in the ordinary case of the judicial determination of the validity of bonds and with like effect.

SEC. 4. All water, the right to the use of which is acquired by the district under any contract with the United States shall be distributed and apportioned by the district in accordance with the acts of congress applicable thereto, the rules and regulations of the secretary of the interior thereunder, and the provisions of said contract, and provision may be made in the contract between the district and the United States for the refusal of water service to any or all lands which may become delinquent in the payment of any assessment levied for the purpose of carrying out any contract between the district and the United States.

Election on proposal to enter contract.

Notice.

Ballots.

Distribution of water.

Rights of way
conveyed.

SEC. 5. Any rights of way or other property owned or acquired by the district may be conveyed by the board to the United States in so far as the same may be needed for the construction, operation and maintenance of works by the United States for the benefit of the district under any contract that may be entered into with the United States pursuant to this act.

Payments
by annual assessments.

SEC. 6. All payments due or to become due to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States, including such payments of interest and principal on bonds as may be required in connection with a deposit or transfer thereof to the United States, shall be paid, unless otherwise provided by contract, by revenue derived from annual assessments, apportioned as hereinafter prescribed, and levies thereof, upon such real property within the district as may be assessable for district purposes under the laws of the state, and such real property shall be and remain liable to be assessed and levied upon for such payments as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the board of directors annually to levy an assessment sufficient to raise the money necessary to meet all payments when due as provided in the contract. All money collected in pursuance of such contract by assessments and levies, or otherwise, shall be paid into the district treasury and held in a fund to be known as the "United States contract fund," to be used for payments due to the United States under any such contract. Public lands of the United States within any district shall be subject to assessment for all purposes of this act to the extent provided for by the act of congress approved August 11, 1916, entitled "An act to promote reclamation of arid lands," or any other law which may hereafter be enacted by congress in the same relation, upon full compliance therewith by the district. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to relieve the district from obligation to pay as a district in case of default of any land, unless so provided by the said contract between the district and the United States.

Apportion-
asses-ment.

SEC. 7. The assessment required in any year to meet the payment due to the United States for all purposes under the contract as in this act provided may be apportioned in accordance with the benefits, and in the ascertainment of such benefits there shall be taken into account the provisions of the contract between the United States and the district, the federal laws applicable thereto, and the notices and regulations issued in pursuance of said laws, and in case such contract is for the assumption by the district as principal or guarantor of indebtedness to the United States theretofore existing on account of district lands, there shall be further taken into account the provisions of existing contracts carrying such indebtedness and the amounts of such liens as may be released in pursuance of the contract between the United States and the district.

Change in boundaries.

SEC. 8. Where contract shall have been entered into between the United States and any irrigation district the district shall not be dissolved, nor shall the boundaries be changed, except upon written consent of the secretary of the interior filed with the official records of the district. If such consent be given and lands be excluded, the areas excluded shall be free from all liens and charges for payments to become due to the United States.

SEC. 9. The provisions of the general irrigation district act, approved March 31, 1897, and acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, shall be and remain in force as regards irrigation districts in this act referred to except in so far as herein modified expressly or by necessary implication; and nothing in this act shall be so construed as to affect irrigation district operations not related to cooperation with the United States. However, the provisions of section fifty-three of said act, approved March 31, 1897, shall not apply in case of any contract between an irrigation district and the United States. Acts in force.

CHAPTER 161.

An act to amend section sixty-seven a of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the number of superior court judges and providing for the appointment of two additional superior court judges in counties of the first class and providing for their compensation.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section sixty-seven a of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

67a. In counties of the first class there shall be twenty judges of the superior court, any one or more of whom may hold court, and there may be as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are judges thereof. The said judges shall choose from their own number a presiding judge, who may at any time be removed as presiding judge and another judge chosen in his place by a vote of any twelve of them. The presiding judge shall distribute the business of the court among the judges thereof, and prescribe the order of business and perform such other duties as the judges of the said court may by rule provide. The judgments, orders and proceedings of any session of the superior court held by any one or more of the judges of said court shall be equally as effective as if all the said judges of said court presided at such session. Within thirty days after this act goes into effect, the governor shall appoint two additional judges of the superior court in counties of the first class in addition to the eighteen superior court judges already provided by law in and for the said counties of the first class who shall hold office until the first Monday Judges in counties of first class.
Appoint-ment of two additional judges.

Election. after the first day of January, 1919. At the next general election to be held in November, A. D. 1918, two additional judges of the superior court shall be elected in counties of the first class, who shall be successors of the judges appointed hereunder, to hold office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law. The salaries of said additional judges shall be the same in amount and be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the salaries of the other judges of the said counties of the first class now authorized by law.

An act to amend section three hundred twenty-one a of the Civil Code, relating to the change of the principal place of business by a corporation.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred twenty-one a of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Change of principal place of business:
procedure.

321a. Every corporation that has been or may be created under the general laws of this state may change its principal place of business from one place to another in the same county, or from one city or county to another city or county within this state. Before such change is made, the consent in writing, of the holders of two-thirds of the capital stock of the corporation must be obtained and filed in its office; or if the corporation has no capital stock, then the consent in writing of two-thirds of the members thereof, must be obtained and filed in its office. When such consent is obtained and filed, notice of the intended removal or change must be published, at least once a week, for three successive weeks, in some newspaper published in the county, wherein said principal place of business is situated, if there is one published therein; if not, in a newspaper of an adjoining county, giving the name of the county or city where it is situated and that to which it is intended to remove it. Whenever any such change is made, a copy of the resolution or action of the board of directors authorizing the same together with a copy of an affidavit of the publication above required, all duly certified by the president and secretary of the corporation with the corporate seal affixed shall be filed in each office where the original articles of incorporation are, or any copy thereof is required to be filed. This section shall not be construed to require such consent, notice or publication in the case of any such removal from one location to another in the same city, town or village.

CHAPTER 168.

An act to amend section two hundred seventy of the Penal Code, providing punishment for failing to support a minor child, and conferring jurisdiction upon the juvenile court.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two hundred seventy of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Penalty for not furnishing child with food,
etc.

270. A parent of either a legitimate or illegitimate minor child who wilfully omits, without lawful excuse, to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance for his child, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail, not exceeding two years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both. The superior court, sitting as a juvenile court, may exercise original jurisdiction over all such offenses.

CHAPTER 169.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred sixty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure and to add a new section to said code to be numbered one thousand two hundred seventy-two a, both relating to escheat and unclaimed estates and property and to proceedings relating thereto.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand two hundred sixty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1269. At any time after two years after the death of any decedent, leaving property to which the state is entitled by reason of its having escheated to the state, the attorney general shall commence a proceeding on behalf of the state in the superior court for Sacramento county to have it adjudged that the state is so entitled. Such action shall be commenced by filing a petition, which shall be treated as the information elsewhere referred to in this title. There shall be set forth in such petition a description of the property, the name of the person last possessed thereof, the name of the person, if any, claiming such property, or any portion thereof, and the facts and circumstances by virtue of which it is claimed the property has escheated. Upon the filing of such petition, the court must make an order requiring all persons interested in the estate to appear and show cause, if any they have, within sixty days from the date of the order, why such estate should not vest in the state. Such order must be published at least once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper published in said county of Sacramento, the last publication to be at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing. Upon the completion of the publication of such order the court shall have full and complete jurisdiction over the state, the property, and the person of everyone having or claiming any interest in the said property, and shall have full and complete jurisdiction to hear and determine the issues therein, and render the appropriate judgment thereon. If proceedings for the administration of such estate have been instituted, a copy of such order must be filed with the papers in such estate in the office of the county clerk where such proceedings were had.

Action on behalf of state.

Description of property.

Order to appear.

If proceedings for administration have been instituted.

If proceedings for the administration of any estate of any such decedent have been instituted and none of the persons entitled to succeed thereto have appeared and made claim to such property, or any portion thereof, before the decree of final distribution therein is made, or before the commencement of such proceeding by the attorney general, or if the court shall find that such persons as have appeared are not entitled to the property of such estate, or of any portion thereof, the court shall, upon final settlement of the proceedings for the administration of such estate, after the payment of all debts and expenses of administration, distribute all moneys and other property remaining to the State of California. The property so distributed shall be held by the state treasurer for a period of five years from the date of the decree making such distribution within which time the same may be claimed in the manner in this title hereafter provided, but a non-resident foreigner claiming succession in any case must appear and claim within five years from the death of the decedent, and any person who does not appear and claim as herein required shall be forever barred, and such property, or so much thereof as is not so claimed, shall vest absolutely in the state. In any proceeding brought by the attorney general under this title any two or more parties and any two or more causes of action may be joined in the same proceeding and in the same petition without being separately stated, and it shall be sufficient to allege in the petition that the decedent left no heirs to take the estate and the failure of heirs to appear and set up their claims in any such proceeding, or in any proceedings for the administration of such estate, shall be sufficient proof upon which to base the judgment in any such proceeding or such decree of distribution. Where proceedings for the administration of any estate have not been commenced within six months from the death of any decedent the attorney general may direct the public administrator to commence the same forthwith.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered one thousand two hundred seventy-two a, and to read as follows:

1272*a*. When the estate, or any portion thereof, of any decedent has been deposited with the state treasurer under the provisions of this code, any person entitled to succeed and not a party or privy to any proceeding had under any of the foregoing sections of this title, and who has not appeared in the proceedings for the administration of such estate, may, within five years after the date of the decree of final distribution, unless otherwise barred, file a petition in the superior court for Sacramento county against the State of California showing his claim or right to the property, or the proceeds thereof, or to any portion thereof. Said petition shall be verified, and, among other things, must state the facts required to be stated in a petition filed under section one thousand two hundred and seventy-two of this code, and upon the filing

claim to estate deposited with state treasurer.

thereof the same proceedings shall be had as are therein required. Whenever the amount claimed by any such person is less than three hundred dollars any such claimant may, in lieu of filing such petition, present his claim to the state board of control, showing the same facts required to be stated in such petition and said board may, upon recommendation of the attorney general, allow and order paid such claim, provided that no such claim shall be so allowed or paid until at least five years after the death of the decedent and then, only, in the event that no other claim is made to such property. When payment has been made under this title to any claimant no suit shall thereafter be maintained by any other claimant against the state, or any officer thereof, for or on account of such property.

Claim for less than $300.00.

CHAPTER 170.

An act to amend section one thousand four hundred five of the Civil Code, relating to escheat property.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand four hundred five of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1405. Whenever any person dies leaving any property in this state not disposed of by will, and there are no persons entitled to succeed thereto under the laws of this state, the same shall escheat to the state as of the date of the death of the decedent. The property or proceeds of any estate deposited in the state treasury after final decree of distribution or judgment of the superior court by reason of the failure of heirs to make claim thereto may be recovered upon judgment of the superior court or order of the state board of control as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure.

Escheat
property.

Recovery.

An act to amend sections four thousand one hundred fifteen and four thousand one hundred forty-six of the Political Code and to add a new section to said code, to be numbered four thousand one hundred forty-six a, all relating to the duties of coroners and treasurers with reference to the disposition of property belonging to certain deceased persons.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four thousand one hundred fifteen of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4115. The treasurer upon receiving from the coroner or justice of the peace acting as coroner money found on a dead body must place it to the credit of the county. All said moneys must be kept in a separate fund. Money found on dead body.

SEC. 2. Section four thousand one hundred forty-six of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4146. The coroner must within thirty days after an inquest upon a dead body deliver to the legal representatives of the deceased any money or other property found upon the body. If within the said thirty days no such legal representative makes a demand upon the coroner for the said money or property found upon the body of the decedent, then, upon the expiration of the said thirty days, the coroner must deliver to the treasurer any money found upon the body of the deceased, together with the proceeds of the sale of the property found upon the body of the decedent, which sale shall be held in Duties of coroner as to property of deceased persons.

accordance with the provisions of section four thousand one hundred forty-six a of this code, and at the same time an affidavit with the treasurer showing:

1. The amount of money belonging to the estate of the deceased person which has come into his possession since his last statement.

2. The disposition made of such property.

If the coroner or any justice of the peace acting as coroner fails to deliver to the treasurer within forty days after any inquest upon a dead body all money, or proceeds from the sale of property found upon such body, unless claimed in the meantime by the public administrator or other legal representative of the decedent as required by this section, the district attorney must proceed against the coroner or justice of the peace acting as coroner to recover the same by civil action in the name of the county.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered four thousand one hundred forty-six a, and to read as follows:

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization of the railroad commission, to define its powers and duties and the rights, remedies, powers and duties of public utilities and their officers, and the rights and remedies of patrons of public utilities, and to provide penalties for offenses by public utilities, their officers, agents and employes and by other persons and corporations, creating the 'railroad commission fund' and appropriating the moneys therein to carry out the provisions of this act, and repealing title fifteen of part four of division first of the Civil Code and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act," approved April 23, 1915, by amending sections forty-seven and seventy thereof.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section forty-seven of an act entitled, "An act <sup>Stats. 1915, p. 139.</sup> to provide for the organization of the railroad commission, to define its powers and duties and the rights, remedies, powers and duties of public utilities and their officers, and the rights and remedies of patrons of public utilities, and to provide penalties for offenses by public utilities, their officers, agents and employes and by other persons and corporations, creating the 'railroad commission fund' and appropriating the moneys therein to carry out the provisions of this act, and repealing title fifteen of part four of division first of the Civil Code and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act," approved April 23, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 47. (a) The commission shall have power to ascertain for each purpose specified in this act, the value of the property of every public utility in this state and every fact and element of value which in its judgment may or does have any bearing <sup>Valuation of public utility property.</sup> on such value. The commission shall have power to make revaluations from time to time and to ascertain the value of all additions, betterments, extensions and new construction to the property of every public utility.

Petition setting forth intention to acquire public utility.

(h) 1. Any county, city and county, incorporated city or town, municipal water district, county water district, irrigation district, public utility district or any other public corporation, each of which is hereinafter in this section at times referred to as the political subdivision, may, at any time, file with the commission either a petition, hereinafter in this section at times referred to as a petition of the first class, setting forth the intention of the political subdivision to acquire under eminent domain proceedings, or otherwise, the lands, property and rights of any character whatsoever of any public utility, or any part or portion thereof, or a petition, hereinafter in this section at times referred to as a petition of the second class, setting forth the intention of the political subdivision to initiate such proceedings as may be required under the law governing the political subdivision for the purpose of submitting to the voters of the political subdivision a proposition to acquire under eminent domain proceedings, or otherwise, the lands, property and rights of any character whatsoever of any public utility, or any part or portion thereof.

Contents of petition.

2. Each such petition shall contain the name of the political subdivision appearing as petitioner therein, a description of the lands, property and rights, or of the part or portion thereof, which the political subdivision intends to acquire, and the names and addresses of all owners and claimants thereof, including each trustee and mortgagee under each deed of trust and mortgage, if known, or a statement that they are unknown. The petition shall pray that the commission fix the just compensation which shall be paid by the political subdivision, under the law, for said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof. The petition shall be signed in the name of the political subdivision and verified by the chairman or other presiding officer or by the secretary or clerk of the legislative or other governing body of the political subdivision. At the time the petition is filed, the petitioner shall also file with the commission additional copies thereof equivalent in number to three more than the number of owners and claimants named in the petition.

Commission asked to fix just compensation.

3. Upon the filing of the petition, the commission shall make its order, specifying the nature of the proceeding, containing a general description of the lands, property and rights, or the part or portion thereof which petitioner desires to acquire by condemnation, or otherwise, and directing the owners and claimants named in the petition, who shall also be named in said order, to appear before the commission at a time and place specified in the order, to show cause, if any they have, why the commission should not proceed to hear the petition and to fix the just compensation to be paid for said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof. The order shall direct the secretary of the commission to serve or cause to be served upon each said owner and claimant a copy of said order, certified under the seal of the commission, to which shall be attached a true and correct copy of the petition. Service shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California; provided, that service may also be made by depositing a copy of said order to show cause, certified under the seal of the commission, with a true and correct copy of the petition attached thereto, in the United States mail, enclosed in a sealed envelope, registered, with postage prepaid, addressed to any owner or claimant at the address specified in the petition.- If any owner or claimant named in the petition resides out of the state, or has departed from the state, or can not, after due diligence, be found within the state, or conceals himself to avoid service, or is a corporation having no managing or business agent, cashier or secretary or other officer upon whom summons may be served, who, after due diligence, can not be found within the state, and the fact appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the commission, and it also appears by such affidavit or by the petition that a cause of action exists against the owner or claimant on whom the service is to be made or that he is a necessary or proper party to the proceeding, the commission shall make its order that the service be made on such owner or claimant by publication of the commission's said order to show cause. Said order of the commission shall direct that the publication be made in a newspaper to be designated by the commission as likely to give notice to the person to be served, and for such time as the commission may find to be reasonable, at least once a week; but publication against an owner or claimant residing out of the state, or absent therefrom shall be not less than two months. If the address of any owner or claimant, as stated in the petition, is out of the state, the secretary of the commission shall, within fifteen days after the making and filing of said order to show cause, deposit or cause to be deposited a copy of said order to show cause, certified under the seal of the commission, with a true and correct copy of the petition attached thereto, in the United States mail, enclosed in a sealed envelope, registered, with postage prepaid, addressed to such owner or claimant at the address specified in the petition. When publication is ordered, personal service of a copy of the order to show cause and of the petition out of the state is equivalent to publication and deposit in the United States mail. Within ten days prior to the time set for the first hearing on the petition, which time shall be not less than thirty days after the filing of the petition, the secretary of the commission shall serve or cause to be served upon the petitioner a written notice of such hearing, specifying the time and place at which such hearing will be held. In all respects not in this paragraph otherwise specified, service and the proof of service shall be made as provided by the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California. Upon the completion of service upon the petitioner or upon any owner or claimant named in the petition, the commission shall have full and complete jurisdiction over such petitioner, owner or claimant, with full and complete jurisdiction, in so far as such petitioner, owner or claimant, is concerned, to make each finding hereinafter referred to. The failure to make service upon any person alleging that he is an owner or claimant but not named in the petition shall in no way affect the jurisdiction of the commission over owners and claimants on whom service has been made as in this paragraph provided.

4. At the time and place specified in said order to show cause, or at such other time and place as, for good cause, may be otherwise ordered by the commission, the commission shall proceed to a hearing on the petition. At such times and in such amounts as may be directed by the commission, the political subdivision must pay to the commission all extra costs as determined by the commission, which extra costs the commission may incur to comply with the requirements of section forty-seven (b) of this act, and if such amounts are not paid by the political subdivision as directed by the commission, the commission may suspend further proceedings on the petition. Evidence may be presented by the political subdivision, by each owner or claimant named in the petition, and by the commission. The commission shall have power, at any time subsequent to the filing of the petition, and prior to making and filing its finding as to just compensation, to authorize the amendment of the petition by altering or modifying the description of said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, or by adding to or deducting from said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, and in each other respect including each jurisdictional allegation. When the proceeding has been submitted, the commission shall make and file its written finding fixing, in a single sum, the just compensation to be paid by the political subdivision for said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof; provided, that if the commission finds that severance damages should be paid, the just compensation for such damages shall be found and stated separately. Said just compensation shall be fixed by the commission as of the day on which the petition was filed with the commission.

5. Within twenty days after the commission has made and filed its finding, the owner of said lands, property and rights, or of said part or portion thereof, may file with the legislative or other governing body of the political subdivision a written stipulation consenting and agreeing to accept the just compensation fixed by the commission. Upon the filing of such written stipulation, the political subdivision must proceed with all due diligence to provide the necessary funds under the law governing the providing of such funds, for paying the just compensation fixed by the commission. Whenever the just compensation has been tendered by the political subdivision, a deed of grant, bargain and sale conveying the owner's right, title and interest in and to said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, to the political subdivision, shall be executed and delivered by the owner, and the other claimants who have any right, title or interest in the property shall execute appropriate instruments of conveyance or release, conveying or releasing to the political subdivision their respective rights, titles and interests therein. If said deed or said instruments of conveyance or release are not executed and delivered within sixty days after said tender has been made, the political subdivision may commence an action in a court of competent jurisdiction or proceed otherwise in the manner and for the purpose or purposes specified in the next paragraph of this section.

Action on failure to execute deed.

6. In the case of a petition of the first class, if the owner does not file said stipulation within said twenty days, the political subdivision, within sixty days after the commission has made and filed its said finding, must commence an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in a manner in accordance with the provisions of law, to take under eminent domain proceedings said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof. In the case of a petition of the second class, if the owner does not file said stipulation within said twenty days, the political subdivision, within sixty days after the commission has made and filed its said finding, must initiate proceedings for the purpose of submitting to its voters a proposition to acquire under eminent domain proceedings said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof. The political subdivision shall not be required, in either case, to delay for more than twenty days after the commission has made and filed its finding, before commencing said further proceedings. In the case of a petition of the second class, if the voters of the political subdivision shall thereafter, as provided by the law governing said political subdivision, vote in favor of any proposition to acquire under eminent domain proceedings, or otherwise, said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, the political subdivision shall, within sixty days after its voters have so voted in favor of such acquisition, commence an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in a manner in accordance with the provisions of law, to take under eminent domain proceedings said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, unless the owner shall have filed with the political subdivision a written stipulation consenting and agreeing to accept the just compensation fixed by the commission.

Proceedings to submit proposition to voters.

Action commenced if voters approve.

7. If the political subdivision, in a petition of the first class, fails to file said action in a court of competent jurisdiction within said period of sixty days after the commission has made and filed its said finding, or if the political subdivision, in a petition of the second class, fails to proceed diligently to submit said proposition to its voters or fails, if its voters have voted in favor of the acquisition of said lands, property and rights, or of said part or portion thereof, to file said action in a court of competent jurisdiction within sixty days after the voters have voted in favor of said acquisition, the owner of such lands, property and rights, or of said part or portion thereof, may file with the commission a verified petition in writing setting forth said fact, which petition may also set forth in detail the expenditures which the owner has necessarily incurred in the proceeding before the commission. The commission shall thereupon cause written notice of not less than ten days, with a true and correct copy of the owner's said petition attached thereto, to be served upon the political subdivision, to appear before the commission at a time and place specified in the notice, to show cause why an order should not be made by the commission (1) finding that the political subdivision has failed to pursue diligently its rights herein conferred, (2) determining that said finding as to just compensation shall no longer be of any force or effect, and (3) determining the reasonable expenditures necessarily incurred by the owner which, in the opinion of the commission, should be assessed against the political subdivision. If the commission shall determine that the political subdivision, in case of a petition of the first class, has failed to commence said action in a court of competent jurisdiction within said period of sixty days after the commission has made and filed its said finding of just compensation, or that the political subdivision, in case of a petition of the second class, has failed to proceed diligently to submit said proposition to its voters or has failed, after its voters have voted in favor of the acquisition of said lands, property or rights, or said part or portion thereof, to file said action in a court of competent jurisdiction within said sixty days after the voters have voted in favor of said acquisition, the commission shall make and file its order declaring that said finding shall no longer be of any force or effect, and make its finding as to the reasonable expenditures necessarily incurred by the owner in the proceeding before the commission, which the commission may find should be assessed against the political subdivision. The political subdivision shall thereupon be liable to the owner in the amount thus found by the commission and the owner may thereupon maintain an action against the political subdivision for said amount in any court of competent jurisdiction.

8. The finding of the commission fixing the just compensation to be paid by the political subdivision for said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, shall be final and shall not be subject to modification, alteration, reversal or review by any court of this state. The court in which the political subdivision shall have commenced its action, subsequent to the making and filing by the commission of its finding as to just compensation, as hereinbefore specified, if said court shall first decide that the political subdivision has the right and power under the law to take said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, shall enter a judgment in favor of the complainant in said action, as provided by law, fixing as the just compensation which shall be paid for the taking of said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, the just compensation fixed by the commission. The judgment may include therein the allowance of such costs between the parties as is provided for in the law of eminent domain of this state. The judgment of said court in so far as it refers to the just compensation to be paid for said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, shall be final and shall not be subject to modification, alteration, reversal or review by any court except as hereinafter in section forty-seven (b) of this act specified. The judgment of said court shall include a provision, in substance, that said judgment is subject to modification by reason of such increase or decrease in the just compensation to be paid as may thereafter be certified to said court by the commission, as hereinafter in section forty-seven (b) of this act provided.

Judgment
final.

9. At any time within thirty days subsequent to the entry of said judgment of said court, the owner of said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, may file with the commission a verified petition in writing, alleging that by reason of expenditures made by the owner subsequent to the date of the filing of the original petition with the commission, for the purpose of preserving or improving said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, or by reason of other acts and occurrences subsequent to said date, the just compensation theretofore fixed by the commission should be increased and praying that the commission make its finding increasing said just compensation. At any time within thirty days subsequent to the entry of said judgment of said court, the political subdivision may file with the commission a verified petition in writing, alleging that by reason of loss or destruction of said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, or a part thereof, or by reason of depreciation or deterioration thereof or by reason of other acts and occurrences, subsequent to the date of the filing of the original petition with the commission, the just compensation theretofore fixed by the commission should be decreased and praying that the commission make its finding decreasing said just compensation. The commission shall, in each instance, cause a copy of said petition or petitions to be served upon each party, other than the petitioner, who was named as the political subdivision, owner or claimant in the original proceeding before the commission, together with a written notice specifying the time and place of hearing on said petition or petitions, which time shall be within forty-five days after the entry of said judgment by said court, and shall cause written notice of the time and place of said hearing to be served upon each petitioner in said petition or petitions. If both such petitions are filed, the commission shall have the power to consolidate said petitions for hearing and decision. After a hearing, the commission shall make and file its finding fixing, as of the date on which such finding is made and filed, the extent to which the just compensation theretofore fixed should be increased or decreased by reason of the matters alleged in said petition or petitions. If the claim is made that the just compensation theretofore fixed by the commission should be increased by reason of expenditures made by the owner subsequent to the date of the filing of the original petition with the commission for the purpose of preserving or improving said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, the commission may increase said just compensation, by reason of such expenditures, only to the extent to which the commission shall determine that such expenditures were beneficial to said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, and reasonably and prudently made. The finding of the commission fixing the extent to which the just compensation theretofore fixed should be thus increased or decreased shall be final and shall not be subject to modification, alteration, reversal or review by any court of this state. The commission shall thereupon transmit to said court its finding, certified under the seal of the commission, fixing the extent to which the just compensation theretofore fixed by the commission shall be increased or decreased. Said court shall thereupon modify its judgment so as to conform with said finding of the commission. The judgment of said court, as thus modified, in so far as it refers to the just compensation to be paid for said lands, property and rights, or said part or portion thereof, shall be final and shall not be subject to modification, alteration, reversal or review by any court. The filing of either or both the petitions in this paragraph specified shall not act as a stay of the judgment in condemnation, but upon the payment of the just compensation fixed in the original judgment of condemnation the plaintiff in the action in said court shall be entitled to immediate possession of said lands, property and rights, or of said part or portion thereof.

10. The provisions of this act with reference to rehearing and review shall be applicable to the findings of the commission made and filed under the provisions of section forty-seven (b) of this act. Petitions for rehearing must be filed within twenty days from the date of making and filing the finding as to which a rehearing is desired. If a finding of the commission made and filed under the provisions of section forty-seven (b) of this act is set aside by the supreme court of the State of California, the matter shall be referred back to the commission for further action in the proceeding before the commission, and the commission shall have the right, in taking further action, to consider the entire testimony theretofore taken in the proceeding before the commission as well as such further testimony, if any, as may be presented in connection with such further action. Should a writ of review be obtained from the supreme court of the State of California, the time within which the political subdivision must file an action in a court of competent jurisdiction or submit said proposition to its voters shall be extended to not more than sixty days beyond the final decision of the supreme court upon said writ of review.

11. The procedure provided in section forty-seven (b) of this act shall be considered as alternative and cumulative and not exclusive and the political subdivision shall continue to have the right to pursue any other procedure now or hereafter established providing for the acquisition under eminent domain proceedings of the lands, property and rights, or any part or portion thereof, of any public utility, and section forty-seven (b) of this act shall not be construed as repealing any law of this state providing for such eminent domain proceedings. Section forty-seven (b) of this act shall not affect pending actions or proceedings, but the same may be prosecuted and defended with the same effect as though section forty-seven (b) had not been amended.

exclusive.

Sec. 2. Section seventy of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization of the railroad commission, to define its powers and duties and the rights, remedies, powers and duties of public utilities and their officers, and the rights and remedies of patrons of public utilities, and to provide penalties for offenses by public utilities, their officers, agents and employes and by other persons and corporations, creating the 'railroad commission fund' and appropriating the moneys therein to carry out the provisions of this act, and repealing title fifteen of part four of division first of the Civil Code and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act," approved April 23, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 163.

Sec. 70. For the purpose of ascertaining the matters and things specified in section forty-seven (a) of this act concerning the value of the property of public utilities, the commission may cause a hearing or hearings to be held at such time or times and place or places as the commission may designate. Before any hearing is had, the commission shall give the public utility affected thereby at least thirty days' written notice, specifying the time and place of such hearing, and such notice shall be sufficient to authorize the commission to inquire into the matters designated in this section and in said section forty-seven (a) of this act, but this provision shall not prevent the commission from making any preliminary examination or investigation into the matters herein referred to. All public utilities affected shall be entitled to be heard and to introduce evidence at such hearing or hearings. The evidence introduced at such hearing shall be reduced to writing and certified under the seal of the commission. The commission may make and file its findings of fact in writing upon such matters concerning which evidence shall have been introduced before it as, in its judgment, have bearing on the value of the property of the public utility affected. Such findings shall be subject to review by the supreme court of this state in the same manner and within the same time as other orders and decisions of the commission. The findings of the commission so made and filed, when properly certified under the seal of the commission, shall be admissible in evidence in any action, proceeding or hearing before the commission or any court, in which the commission, the state or any officer, department or institution thereof, or any county, city and county, municipality or other body politic and the public utility affected may be interested whether arising under the provisions of this act or otherwise, and such findings, when so introduced, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as of the date therein stated under conditions then existing, and such facts can only be controverted by showing a subsequent change in conditions bearing upon the facts therein determined. The commission may, from time to time, cause further hearings and investigations to be had for the purpose of making revaluations or ascertaining the value of any additions, betterments, extensions and new construction made by any public utility subsequent to any prior hearing or investigation, and may examine into all matters which may change, modify or affect any finding of fact previously made, and may at such time make findings of fact supplementary to those theretofore made. Such hearings shall be had upon the same notice and be conducted in the same manner and the findings so made shall have the same force and effect as is provided herein for such original notice, hearing and findings; provided, that such findings made at such supplemental hearings or investigations shall be considered in connection with and as a part of the original findings, except in so far as such supplemental findings shall change or modify the findings made at the original hearing or investigation.

An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the registration of factories, workshops, mills and other manufacturing establishments," approved June 2, 1913.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1913,
p. 444.

SECTION 1. Section one of the act entitled "An act to provide for the registration of factories, workshops, mills and other manufacturing establishments," approved June 2, 1913, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Registration
of factories.

Section 1. The owner of any factory, workshop, mill or other manufacturing establishment, where five or more persons are employed, shall register such factory, workshop, mill or other manufacturing establishment with the bureau of labor statistics, giving the name of the owner, the name under which the business is carried on, the location of the plant, the address of the general offices or principal place of business and such other information as the commissioner of labor shall require. Such registration of existing factories, workshops, mills or other manufacturing establishments shall be made on or before January 1, 1914. All factories, workshops, mills or other manufacturing establishments hereafter established shall be so registered within thirty days after the commencement of business. Within thirty days after a change in the location of a factory, workshop, mill or other manufacturing establishment the owner thereof shall file with the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics the new address.

Whenever the commissioner of labor shall have been notified or otherwise becomes aware of the existence of a new factory, or factories, he shall forward a notification of said fact on or before the tenth day of each month to the state board of health and to the board of health or the health officer of the city and county wherein said factory or factories may be located.

Notice by
of labor.

An act to amend section two thousand one hundred forty-one of the Political Code, relating to the powers of the lunacy commission.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand one hundred forty-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Powers of Lunacy
commission.

2141. The commission has power:

1. To appoint a secretary whose term of office shall be four years from and after the date of his appointment and to fix his salary, which shall not be changed during his term of office, and which shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as are the salaries of other state officers, and to appoint such other employees as it may deem necessary and fix their compensations;

2. To appoint, by its order, a competent person to examine the books, papers, and accounts, and also into the general condition and management of any institution in this chapter mentioned, to the extent deemed necessary and specified in such order;

3. To fix the annual salaries of the resident officers and treasurers of the state hospitals, which must be uniform in all the state hospitals for the insane and as near uniform as possible in all state hospitals, and to classify the other officers and employees in grades, and determine the salaries and wages to be paid in each grade, which must be uniform in all hospitals for the insane, and as near uniform as possible in all state hospitals;

4. To determine the kind and character of all employees who shall be employed at any state hospital according to the needs and objects of the hospital;

5. To permit any religious or missionary corporation or society to erect a building on the grounds of any state hospital for the holding of religious services, said building when erected to become the property of the state and to be used exclusively for the benefit of the inmates and employees of such state hospital and subject to such regulations and conditions as may be determined or imposed by said commission;

6. To establish and supervise a training school for attendants and nurses in any state hospital, under rules and regulations of the commission.

CHAPTER 183.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code, to be numbered one hundred nine a, relating to escapes from state hospitals.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered one hundred nine a, and to read as follows:

Escapes from state hospitals.

CHAPTER 184.

An act to amend section two thousand one hundred eighty-seven of the Political Code, relating to the transfer of patients from one state hospital to another.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand one hundred eighty-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2187. (a) When the building of any state hospital becomes overcrowded with patients or inmates, or the number of buildings is reduced by fire, or other casualties, or for other sufficient cause, the commission may, in its discretion, cause the transfer of patients or inmates therefrom or direct that patients or inmates required to be sent thereto, be transferred to another state hospital, where they can be conveniently received, or make, in emergencies, temporary provision for their care, preference to be given in such transfer to a hospital in an adjoining rather than a remote district. The expense of such transfer is chargeable to the state, and the bills for the same, when approved by the commission, must be paid by the treasurer of state on the warrant of the controller, out of any moneys provided for the care or support of the insane.

Transfer of patients from one hospital to another.

(b) Patients may be transferred at the request of relatives or friends; provided, there is room in the hospital to which transfer is sought, but in case of transfers made as last provided the expense of such transfers shall be paid by such relatives or friends; provided, further, that transfers as last provided, shall not be made unless the consent of the commission and the medical superintendents of the hospitals from which and to which said transfer is to be made be obtained.

Transfer on request of relatives or friends.

Transfer from home for feeble-minded to state hospital.

(c) The commission, when it deems it necessary, may transfer any inmate of the home for feeble-minded for care and treatment to a state hospital for the insane for care and treatment therein and the counties, guardian, relatives or friends of such inmate shall be liable for his care, support and maintenance in said hospital for the insane in the same manner and to the same extent as if the said patient were still an inmate of said home. The commission, when it deems it necessary, may transfer any patient in any state hospital for the insane to the said home for care and treatment therein. The estate, relatives or friends of such patient, or the county from which such patient was originally committed, shall be liable for the care, support, and maintenance of such patient at the said home in the same manner and to the same extent as if the said patient had been originally committed to the said home at the date of such transfer.

CHAPTER 185.

An act to amend section one thousand three hundred eighty of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to giving special notices to heirs, devisees, and legatees during the administration of estates of decedents.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand three hundred eighty of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Request for special notice of proceedings.

1880. At any time after the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration upon the estate of any decedent, any person interested in said estate (including the state controller), whether as heir, devisee, or legatee, or the attorney for such heir, devisee, or legatee, may serve upon the executor or administrator (or upon the attorney for the executor or administrator) and file with the clerk of the court wherein administration of such estate is pending, a written request, stating that he desires special notice of any or all of the following mentioned matters, steps or proceedings in the administration of said estate, to wit:

(1) Filing of petitions for sales, leases or mortgages of any property of the estate.

(2) Filing of accounts.

(3) Filing of petitions for distribution.

(4) Filing of petitions for partition of any property of the estate.

Such request shall state the post-office address of such heir, devisee, or legatee, state controller, or his attorney, and thereafter a brief notice of the filing of any of such petitions or accounts, except petitions for sale of perishable property or other personal property, which will incur expense or loss by keeping, shall be addressed to such heir, devisee, or legatee, state controller, or his attorney, at his stated post-office address, and deposited in the United States post office with the postage thereon prepaid, within two days after the filing of such petition or account; or personal service of such notices may be made on such heir, devisee, or legatee, state controller, or his attorney, within said two days and such personal service shall be equivalent to such deposit in the post office, and proof of mailing or of personal service must be filed with the clerk before the hearing of such petition or account. If upon the hearing it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the said notice has been regularly given, the court shall so find in its order or judgment and such judgment shall be final and conclusive upon all persons.

An act to amend section two thousand twenty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to taking depositions out of the state.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand twenty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Deposition
of witnesses
out of state, how taken.

2024. The deposition of a witness out of this state may be taken upon a commission issued from the court under the seal of the court, upon an order of the court, or a judge or a justice thereof, on the application of either party, upon five days' previous notice to the other. If the court is a justices' court, the commission must have attached to it a certificate of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which such justices' court is held, under the seal of such superior court, to the effect that the person issuing the same was an acting justice of the peace at the date of the commission. If issued to any place within the United States, it may be directed to a person agreed upon by the parties, or if they do not agree, to any notary public, judge or justice of the peace or commissioner selected by the court or judge or justice issuing it. If issued to any country out of the United States, it may be directed to a minister, ambassador, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or judge of a court of record in such country, or to any person agreed upon by the parties.

CHAPTER 191.

An act defining a private irrigation plant and mutual water company and providing the conditions under which the owner of a private irrigation plant or a mutual water company may deliver water to others or others than its stockholders or members without becoming a public utility, and limiting such authority to the time the United States is a party to war or to a state of war; and declaring this act to be an urgency measure.

[Approved May 5, 1917. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The term "private irrigation plant," when used in this act, shall be construed to mean a water system which is not operated by a mutual water company as herein defined or by a public utility as defined in the public utilities act, approved December 23, 1911, and acts amendatory thereof, or in the act entitled "An act providing for the regulation of water companies, defining their powers and duties, defining the powers and duties of the railroad commission with reference thereto, and defining the conditions under which such water companies become subject to the provisions of the public utilities act and the railroad commission of the State of California," approved April 25, 1913.

(b) The term "mutual water company," when used in this act, means any private corporation or association organized for the purpose of delivering water solely to its stockholders or members at cost.

SEC. 2. For the sole purpose of increasing the output of agricultural products in this state during the time the United States is a party to war or to a state of war, the owner of any private irrigation plant or any mutual water company

"Private irrigation plant."

"Mutual water company."

"Water may be delivered to other than stockholders, when."

may at its option deliver water to others or others than its stockholders or members, with or without compensation, without becoming a public utility subject to the jurisdiction of the railroad commission of the State of California; provided, that no delivery of water to others than stockholders or members shall be authorized until the orders for water of all stockholders or members made in accordance with the constitution, by-laws, rules or regulations of such mutual water company have been filled; and provided, further, that the temporary service herein authorized shall not be construed as granting any right to render or receive such service more than six months after such war need has ceased; and provided, further, that after June first, one thousand nine hundred seventeen, no such temporary service of water shall be made unless a statement is first filed with the railroad commission stating the private irrigation plant or mutual water company rendering such service, the party receiving such service, the lands irrigated and the rate, if any, charged for such service.

class thereof, and may, in like manner, by similar order, postpone the opening of any or all such educational institutions, or any grade or class thereof, during the continuance of a state of war; provided, however, that the annual school term shall not be reduced to less than six school months under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that whenever any such educational institution is closed, or the opening thereof is delayed, under the provisions of this act, the salary of any teacher regularly employed shall be paid according to any written contract between the governing board of such educational institution and such teacher, or in case there is no written contract, according to any salary schedule adopted by such board. In case there is neither such contract nor salary schedule, the total salary paid for any school year in which such order is made shall not be less than the salary paid by the governing board of such institution for similar service during the preceding school year. It is further provided that nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect the amount of money apportioned to any school district during any school year.

Salary of teacher.

SEC. 2. Such an order issued under the provisions of section one hereof may be made applicable to such district, city, city and county, county or group of any thereof as the state board of education may determine and specify therein, and may be altered, amended or rescinded from time to time.

Application of order.

SEC. 3. Inasmuch as the United States is now involved in war, this act is hereby determined and declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace and safety, within the meaning of section one of article four of the constitution and shall take effect immediately.

Urgency measure.

CHAPTER 195.

An act to add a new section to the "water commission act," approved June 16, 1913, to be numbered fifteen a, relating to the right to use the waters of an interstate stream.

[Approved May 7, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1913,
p. 1012.

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered fifteen a is hereby added to the "water commission act," approved June 16, 1913, to read as follows:

Appropriation
of water for use in another
state.

Sec. 15a. The state water commission shall allow the appropriation of water in this state for beneficial use in another state only when, under the laws of the latter, water may be lawfully diverted therein for beneficial use in the State of California. Upon any stream flowing across the state boundary a right of appropriation having the point of diversion and the place of use in another state and recognized by the laws of that state, shall have the same force and effect as if the point of diversion and the place of use were in this state; provided, that the laws of that state give like force and effect to similar rights acquired in this state; provided, that nothing in this act be so construed as to apply to interstate lakes, or streams flowing in or out of such lakes.

CHAPTER 196.

An act to establish standards for the packing and marketing of apples, forbidding the sale of certain infected and diseased apples, providing for its enforcement, fixing penalties for its violation, and making an appropriation to carry into effect the provisions thereof, and repealing an act entitled "An act to establish a standard for the packing and marketing of apples, fixing penalties for the violation of its provisions, and providing for its enforcement and making an appropriation to carry into effect the provisions hereof," approved June 10, 1915.

[Approved May 7, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known, and for any and all purposes may be designated and referred to, as "The standard apple act of 1917." Title.

SEC. 2. The following standard grades are hereby established for apples, packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, in the State of California, when contained in closed packages: Standard grades established.

(a) The "California Fancy" grade shall consist of apples of well-grown, properly matured specimens of one variety, hand-picked, with stems retained therein, well colored for the variety, uniform in size, well packed, and shall be free from insect pests, diseases, visible rot, visible dry rot, visible Baldwin spot, insect bites, bruises and other defects, except such bruises and defects as are necessarily caused in the operation of packing, and virtually free from dirt; provided, however, that a variation from the said standard, as to insect pests, diseases, dry rot, Baldwin spot, insect bites, bruises and other defects, shall be allowed, not to exceed ten per cent total of such defects in any one package, nor to exceed three per cent of any one such defect; and provided, further, that a variation in size of the apples shall be allowed, not to exceed three-eighths of one inch, as the same may be measured by the smallest diameter thereof. "California Fancy."

(b) The "B grade" shall consist of apples of well-grown, properly matured specimens of one variety, hand-picked, uniform in size, well packed, free from insect pests, diseases, visible rot, visible dry rot, visible Baldwin spot, insect bites, sun scald and frost bite more than skin deep, and bruises resulting in the breaking of the skin and virtually free from dirt; provided, however, that insect bites which have healed in the process of maturity of the apple, and slightly misshapen apples shall be permitted in this grade; that a variation in size of the apples shall be allowed, not to exceed three-eighths of one inch, as the same may be measured by the smallest diameter thereof, and that a variation from "B grade."

the said standard, as to insect pests, diseases, dry rot, Baldwin spots, bruises and other defects, shall be allowed, not to exceed ten per cent total of such defects in any one package, nor to exceed three per cent of any one such defect.

"C grade."

(c) The "C grade" shall consist of apples of properly matured specimens of one variety, free from insect pests, visible rot, visible dry rot, visible Baldwin spots and diseases; provided, however, that a variation from said standard as to insect pests, dry rot, Baldwin spots and diseases, shall be allowed, not to exceed ten per cent total of such defects in any one package, nor to exceed three per cent of any one such defect.

Labeling of closed packages.

SEC. 3. Every closed package in which any apples are packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, in the State of California, shall bear upon the outside thereof, and on the labeled or branded end, in plain words or figures and in the English language, the following: The grade of the apples therein contained, as herein defined, the designation of grade, when the stamps hereinafter provided for are not used, being stated in letters not smaller than thirty-six point type, that is, not less than one-half inch in height; the number of apples contained in the package or the net weight of the apples contained therein; the variety of the apples contained in the package, unless the variety be unknown to the packer, in which case the variety shall be stated as unknown; the name and business address of the person, firm, company, organization or corporation, who first packed or caused the same to be packed, and, if repacked, the name and address of the person, firm, company, organization or corporation who repacked the same or caused them to be repacked; the date when such apples were first packed, or if repacked, the date of repacking; provided, however, that a variation of five apples, more or less, than the number stated, shall be allowed.

Labeled apples must conform to standard.

SEC. 4. No person, firm, company, organization or corporation, shall sell or offer for sale, within the State of California, any apples labeled, designated, invoiced or represented to be, of "California Fancy" or "B" or "C" grade, whether contained in closed packages or otherwise, unless the same shall conform to the standard for such grade herein established; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the grading of Gravenstein apples as "California Fancy," though the stems be not retained therein.

Importation of infected apples
forbidden.

SEC. 5. No person, firm, company, organization or corporation, shall import into this state, or sell, barter, offer for sale or have in his possession for sale, any apples infected with any insect pest or the pupæ or larvæ thereof or any disease; provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to prevent a grower of fruit so infected in the State of California from selling the same, as a part of his crop, in bulk, to a packer, or to prevent a grower or packer from manufacturing the same into an apple by-product, or from selling the same to the operator of a by-product factory for the purpose of such manufacture; and provided, further, that the provisions of this section shall be construed to be limited by the variations allowed by the terms of section two of this act.

SEC. 6. No statement, figure, design or device, appearing upon any container in which apples are sold, bartered, or offered for sale, or in which apples are packed for sale or shipment, or upon the brand or lining of any such container, or upon the wrapper of any apple therein contained, or upon any sign or placard used in connection therewith and having reference to the apples contained, shall be false or misleading, in any particular. The word "Fancy" shall not be used with reference to any apples the grade of which does not conform to the standard for "California Fancy" as in this act defined.

False
statements,
etc.

SEC. 7. The state commissioner of horticulture of California shall be charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act, and for that purpose shall have power:

Powers of
state commissioner of horticulture.

(a) To enter and to inspect every place within the State of California where apples are produced, packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, and to inspect such places and all apples and apple containers and equipment found in any such place.

(b) To design, and cause to be printed or lithographed, suitable uniform stamps to be used on packages containing apples of the various grades, standards for which are established by the terms of this act, to sell the same as hereinafter provided, and to prescribe the method of canceling the same.

(c) In accordance with the provisions of the civil service law of this state, to appoint, superintend, control and discharge such chief inspectors and subordinate inspectors as in his discretion may be deemed to be necessary, for the special purpose of enforcing the terms of this act, to prescribe their duties, and, in conjunction with the board of control, to fix their compensation, provided that no chief inspector shall be paid more than seven dollars per day and no subordinate inspector more than five dollars per day.

(d) Personally, or through any deputy or any such inspector, to seize and retain possession of, any apples or apple boxes packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, in violation of any of the provisions of this act.

(e) In the name of the people of the State of California to cause to be instituted and to prosecute, in the superior court of any county or city and county of the State of California, in which apples packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, in violation of any of the provisions of this act, may be found, an action or actions for the condemnation of apples as provided in section thirteen of this act.

SEC. 8. The stamps designed and provided by the state commissioner of horticulture of California, as provided by stamps.

section seven of this act, by him shall be placed on sale and sold to any person who may apply therefor, at the price of one-half cent each. All moneys received by him from the sale of such stamps shall be paid over to the treasurer of the State of California, who shall deposit the same to the credit of a fund to be used exclusively for the payment of the expenses of enforcing the provisions of this act, and to be paid out only upon claims approved by the state commissioner of horticulture of California and by the board of control.

Qualifications of inspectors.

SEC. 9. The inspectors appointed by the state commissioner of horticulture of California, as in section seven hereof provided, shall be citizens of the United States, and of the State of California, not less than twenty-one years of age, shall be skilled in the inspection of apples, and have a thorough knowledge of insect pests and diseases commonly preying upon such fruit; they shall have power to enter and to inspect every place within the State of California where apples are produced, packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, and to inspect all such places and apples and apple containers, found in any such place; and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the state commissioner of horticulture of California, or by law.

Powers.

Assignment of inspectors.

The said commissioner shall assign such inspectors to such territory, within the state, as he may see fit; provided, that when the stamps purchased for any year by packers in any town, city or district, shall yield a sum of money sufficient to pay the expense thereof, such commissioner shall assign one inspector or more for special duty in such town, city or district, during the packing season of that year, or for a longer period, if deemed to be necessary; and provided, further, that in the discretion of said horticultural commissioner, he may refuse to permit inspection of fruit at the place where same is being packed if packed by any person, firm, company, organization or corporation who shall not make use of the stamps hereinabove provided for upon the packages of "California Fancy," "B" and "C" grade apples packed by him or it.

Repacking.

SEC. 10. No container to or on which is attached any such stamp or on which shall appear the designation of grade as "California Fancy," "B" grade or "C" grade, shall be used as the container of any apples, other than those originally packed therein, until such stamp or grade designation has been removed; provided, that when apples are repacked, without the addition of new stock, other than stock of the same grade and from the same lot of which the package or packages repacked is or are a part, the same containers may be used without removing the stamps or grade designations.

Refusal to permit inspectors to enter.

SEC. 11. No person, firm, company, organization or corporation, shall refuse to permit the state commissioner of horticulture of California, or any of his duly appointed deputies, or any inspector duly appointed by said commissioner under the provisions of this act, to enter or to inspect any place within the State of California where apples are produced, packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, or to inspect such places, or any apples or apple containers or any equipment found there.

SEC. 12. Any person, firm, company, organization or corporation, who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Penalty.

SEC. 13. Any apples packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold, in violation of any of the provisions of this act, and the containers in which they may be, shall be deemed to be a public nuisance, may be seized by said commissioner of horticulture, or his deputy, or by any inspector appointed under the provisions of this act, or by any county horticultural commissioner or his deputy, and by order of the superior court of the county or city and county within which the same may be found, shall be condemned and destroyed or released upon such conditions as the court in its discretion may impose to insure that they will not be packed, shipped, delivered for shipment, offered for sale or sold in violation of any of the provisions of this act. Apples packed, shipped, etc., in violation of law, nuisance.

SEC. 14. No person, firm, company, organization or corporation, shall be convicted of a violation of any provision of this act, if he shall establish a guaranty, signed by the person, firm, company, organization, or corporation, residing or lawfully engaged in business in the State of California, by or for whom the apples in question were originally packed, or repacked, to the effect that the apples, container, brand and label in question comply in all respects with the provisions of this act, and in addition, shall establish that the same are in substantially the same condition, in every respect, as they were when they were delivered out of the possession of such packer, and that the accused was not aware that such apples, container, brand or label, were or was in any respect in violation of any provision of this act. The signature to such guaranty may be printed, when done by the authority of the signer. To afford protection, such guaranty, in form and substance, must be substantially as follows: Guaranty.

“The undersigned guarantees that (this box or other package of apples or the boxes or other packages of apples mentioned in this, or the attached invoice, or all boxes or other packages of apples packed or repacked by the undersigned), comply, in all respects with the standard apple act of 1917. (Signature of the packer, with statement as to whether packer is firm, company, organization or corporation and business address.)” Form of guaranty.

Where the guaranty is used on each separate box, it may consist of the legend, “guaranteed by the packer, under the standard apple act of 1917,” printed, stamped or written on the labeled or branded end of the package.

Duty of
attorney.

SEC. 15. It shall be the duty of the district attorney of the county, or city and county, in which any violation of this act may occur, to prosecute the person, firm, company, organization or corporation accused of such violation, and also, at the request of the state commissioner of horticulture, or any one of his deputies, to institute and prosecute such actions for condemnation as may be authorized under the provisions of this act.

Effect on foods and liquors act.

SEC. 16. No act which is made unlawful by any provision of an act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled, "An act for preventing the manufacture, sale or transportation of adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded foods and liquors and regulating the traffic therein, providing penalties, establishing a state laboratory for foods, liquors and drugs and making an appropriation therefor," approved March 11, 1907, or any amendment thereto, shall be deemed lawful by reason of any provision of this act; nor shall this act be construed in any respect to limit the powers of the state board of health.

Appropriation.

SEC. 17. The sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated for the payment of the cost of printing, lithographing, stationery, stamps, clerical assistance, traveling expenses and salaries of inspectors and office rentals, incurred by the state commissioner of horticulture in the enforcement of this act during the fiscal years commencing July 1, 1917, and July 1, 1918, respectively. The state controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrants for the sum herein appropriated in favor of said commissioner and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

Constitutionality.

SEC. 18. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

Stats. 1915,
p. 1386,
repealed.

SEC. 19. An act entitled "An act to establish a standard for the packing and marketing of apples, fixing penalties for the violation of its provisions, and providing for its enforcement and making an appropriation to carry into effect the provisions hereof," approved June 10, 1915, is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 197.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code, to be numbered five hundred thirty-seven d, relating to the defrauding of garage keepers, dealers in automobiles, and repairmen.

[Approved May 7, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered five hundred thirty-seven d, and to read as follows:

537d. Any person who surreptitiously or by false pretenses obtains or removes from any garage or repair shop any automobile or other personal property upon which the proprietor or manager thereof would be entitled to a lien, pursuant to the provisions of section three thousand fifty-one of the Civil Code, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

and duties thereof; and making an appropriation therefor," approved May 18, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Advisory pardon board created.

President pro tempore of senate serves
when.

Section 1. An advisory pardon board of and for the State of California is hereby created, which shall consist of the lieutenant governor, who shall be chairman of said board, the attorney general, and the wardens of the two state prisons. Should the lieutenant governor be absent or unable to perform the duties herein prescribed, the president pro tempore of the senate shall act in his place. The board shall have and exercise the powers and duties hereinafter set forth and specified.

CHAPTER 200.

An act to provide for the protection of beneficiaries of workmen's compensation insurance policies against the default or insolvency of insurance carriers issuing such policies by requiring such carriers to provide security for the payment of such compensation.

[Approved May 9, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Workmen's compensation insurance carrier to file
bond.

SECTION 1. Every insurance carrier, except the state compensation insurance fund, transacting the business of workmen's compensation insurance in this state, shall on the first day of October, A. D. 1917, file in the office of the insurance commissioner of this state a bond in favor of said insurance commissioner as trustee for the beneficiaries of awards of compensation rendered by the industrial accident commission, executed by said carrier and some surety company or companies approved by said insurance commissioner and authorized to transact the business of suretyship in this state. Said bond shall be in an amount not less than the reserve for outstanding losses of said insurance carrier on compensation insurance in this state on December 31, A. D. 1916, calculated as prescribed by the laws of this state, nor for more than double the amount of said reserve, but in no case for less than the sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

Bond to provide for payment of awards by surety.

SEC. 2. It shall be provided in said bond that, in the event said insurance carrier shall fail to pay any award or awards which shall be rendered against it by said industrial accident commission, within thirty days after the same become final, the said surety will forthwith pay, to the extent of its liability under said bond, said award or awards to said insurance commissioner as trustee for said beneficiaries. Said bond shall further provide that, if said insurance carrier shall suspend payment or become insolvent or a receiver shall be appointed therefor, the said surety will pay said awards, to the extent of its liability under said bond, upon the expiration of thirty days after the same become final, without regard to any proceedings for the liquidation or reinstatement of said insurance carrier. It shall be further provided in said bond, but as a cumulative remedy only, that, in the event said insurance carrier shall fail to pay any award which shall be rendered against it by said industrial accident commission within thirty days after the same becomes final, an award may be rendered by said commission against said surety and in favor of said insurance commissioner as trustee for the beneficiary of said award without notice to said surety for the amount of the unpaid portion of said award against said carrier. Said industrial accident commission is hereby vested with the same full power, authority and jurisdiction as to such awards against said sureties in such cases as it has over said insurance carrier, and it shall issue a certified copy thereof upon the application of any party affected thereby. Said party may file a certified copy of any such award in the office of the clerk of the superior court of any county or city and county of the State of California, and, upon the filing of the same, said clerk shall immediately enter a judgment thereon against said surety. Said certified copy of said award and said judgment shall constitute the judgment roll and shall conclusively establish the liability of said surety without any additional evidence in any and all proceedings to renew said judgment or to enforce the payment thereof. Said bond shall provide for the payment of all legal costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in all actions or proceedings taken to enforce payment of said bonds or payment of said awards or said judgments against said surety. No stay of execution of any such judgment shall be granted except upon the order of said industrial accident commission. Nothing herein contained shall operate to enlarge the liability of said surety beyond the penal sum of its bond. Payment of awards by said surety aggregating the amount of its bond shall constitute a full discharge of all liability under said bond.

SEC. 3. Every such insurance carrier shall on or prior to the first day of July of the year A. D. 1918, and of each succeeding year, file in the office of the insurance commissioner of this state a new bond conditioned as aforesaid in an amount not less than the amount of the reserve for outstanding losses of said insurance carrier on compensation insurance in this state on the thirty-first day of the month of December of the preceding year, as shown by its last report of said business filed in the office of said insurance commissioner, nor for more than double the amount of said reserve, but in no case for less than the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, except where said insurance carrier has ceased to do such business in this state, in which case said bond shall be fixed by said insurance commissioner at such amount as he may deem sufficient for the protection of the beneficiaries of the policies of such insurance carrier. Upon the filing of said

new bond
each year.

new bond, approved as herein required, and not until such filing and approval, all liability under the previous bond shall thereby terminate. Said new bond shall embrace the entire liability of said previous bond except in so far as the same may have been paid or discharged.

Financial ability of surety.

SEC. 4. Said insurance commissioner shall, before approving any such bond, satisfy himself of the financial ability of the surety to assume the obligations imposed thereby, and no company shall be accepted by him as surety which shall have assumed obligations in excess of the limits prescribed by standards of suretyship recognized as reasonable and proper and which it shall be the duty of said commissioner to promulgate for uniform application in such cases.

No authorization issued until bond filed.

SEC. 5. No authorization shall be issued or renewed to any insurance carrier to transact the business of workmen's compensation insurance in this state, until it has filed said bond with the insurance commissioner and the same has been approved by him. It shall be the duty of the insurance commissioner to notify the industrial accident commission of the approval and filing of every bond given pursuant to the provisions of this act.

Additional bond.

SEC. 6. The insurance commissioner shall have the right, and it shall be his duty, to require any such insurance carrier at any time to file an additional bond, conditioned as aforesaid, if the amount of the bond then on file is in his judgment insufficient to cover the liability of said insurance carrier for said compensation, or if the surety on said bond has become insufficient in the judgment of the said commissioner.

Liability of two or more sureties.

SEC. 7. Two or more surety companies may be accepted as sureties on said bond, or separate bonds may be executed by different sureties for amounts aggregating the sum specified by the said commissioner. In such cases each of said sureties shall be jointly and severally liable to the extent of the amount of the liability assumed by it.

Liability of sureties.

SEC. 8. The liability of the sureties under the bonds hereby required to be given shall be the entire liability of the principals named therein, not exceeding the amount of said bonds or the limit of the liability assumed by any such surety, for the payment of awards of compensation rendered or to be rendered against said principals by said industrial accident commission under the terms of the workmen's compensation insurance and safety act and acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, without regard to the time when the injury upon which an award was based may have occurred, but said bond shall not include any other liability of said carrier nor shall any payment made under any such bond by said surety be applied otherwise than in satisfaction of awards of compensation rendered by said industrial accident commission.

Insurance commissioner may act as trustee.

SEC. 9. Full power and authority is hereby conferred upon said insurance commissioner to act as trustee for all beneficiaries under awards rendered by said industrial accident commission, and he may take assignments in his own name as trustee and as such he shall have the authority to institute and maintain actions against said sureties, and, upon the collection by him by suit or otherwise of the amount of said awards, he shall pay the same to the parties entitled thereto. The payment of any such award or part thereof by said insurance commissioner shall constitute a satisfaction thereof to the extent of the payment made and, in the event any judgment shall have been entered on any such award, the said commissioner shall file a satisfaction thereof, to the extent of said payment, in the office of the clerk of the court wherein such judgment has been entered.

SEC. 10. Any such surety shall have the right to require the principal on its bond, on thirty days notice, to furnish a new bond, to be approved by the insurance commissioner as in other cases, and, in the event of a failure to do so, said principal shall forfeit the right to continue to issue compensation policies in this state.

Right of surety to require new bond of principal.

SEC. 11. Any compensation insurance carrier may, in lieu of said bond and subject to the same conditions, deposit with the state treasurer, through the insurance commissioner, from time to time as may be demanded by said commissioner, cash or approved interest-bearing securities readily convertible into cash, equal to the reserves for outstanding losses required by section six hundred two (a) of the Political Code at the time of said deposit, on the compensation business of said carrier in the State of California, calculated as hereinbefore provided, as security for the payment of its obligations on said business done in this state, and said deposit shall not be withdrawn except upon the written order of the insurance commissioner in payment of compensation claims, but shall be forthwith payable by the state treasurer to the insurance commissioner upon such order; provided, that any such deposit, or any remainder thereof, may be repaid to such carrier upon satisfactory showing to the insurance commissioner that every liability to pay compensation shall have been reinsured with a solvent carrier or fully paid and discharged. Said deposit shall be used only for the payment of compensation claims so long as there shall remain unpaid any such claim or any part thereof.

Deposit of security with state treasurer.

An act establishing and defining the jurisdiction of the industrial accident commission of the State of California and of the railroad commission of the State of California over the safety of employees of public utilities.

[Approved May 9, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Jurisdiction of industrial accident commission over safety of employees of public utilities.

SECTION 1. The industrial accident commission of the State of California is hereby vested with jurisdiction, as provided in the workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act of one thousand nine hundred seventeen, and acts amendatory thereof, subject to the provisions of section three hereof, over the safety of employees of steam railroads employed in shops devoted to the construction or repair of railroad equipment; the safety of employees of electric interurban or street railroads, employed in the generation, transmission or distribution of electric energy, or in shops devoted to the repair of railroad equipment, or in any nonpublic utility operation of such railroads; and the safety of employees of all other public utilities as such utilities are defined in the public utilities act.

Jurisdiction of railroad commission not affected.

SEC. 2. The jurisdiction vested in the industrial accident commission of the State of California by section one hereof shall in no instance, except those affecting exclusively the safety of employees, be construed to impair, diminish or in any way affect the jurisdiction of the railroad commission of the State of California over the construction, reconstruction, replacement, maintenance or operation of the properties of public utilities as defined in the public utilities act, or over any matter affecting the relationship between such public utilities and their customers or the general public.

Power of railroad commission.

SEC. 3. If the industrial accident commission, in the exercise of the authority and jurisdiction conferred by this act, makes or issues any order, decision, ruling or direction, which, in the judgment of the railroad commission, unduly and prejudicially interferes with the construction or operation of any public utility affected thereby, or with the public, or with a consumer or other patron of a public utility affected thereby, the railroad commission, of its own motion, or upon application of any utility or person so affected, may suspend, modify, alter, or annul such order, decision, ruling or direction of the industrial accident commission, and the action of the railroad commission in that regard shall supersede and control the order, decision, ruling or direction of the industrial accident commission previously made in the premises.

Act of April 23, 1911, unaffected.

SEC. 4. This act shall not be construed to repeal or modify the act entitled "An act regulating the placing, erection, use and maintenance of electric poles, wires, cables and appliances, and providing the punishment for the violation thereof," approved April 22, 1911, as amended.

CHAPTER 202.

An act to provide for the periodical inspection of steam boilers, with certain exceptions, operated in this state; requiring a permit, to be issued by the industrial accident commission, for the operation of such boilers; making it a misdemeanor to operate such boilers without such permit; and allowing an injunction against such operation without such permit where dangerous to the life or safety of employes; providing for a hearing before the industrial accident commission prior to refusal of a permit; providing for the determination of competency of inspectors making such inspections and requiring reports of inspections; and prescribing maximum fees for such inspections.

[Approved May 9, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No steam boiler, unless exempted in the following section, shall be operated in the State of California unless there shall have been issued for the operation of such boiler a permit, as hereinafter provided, and unless such permit shall remain in full force and effect. Such permit must be posted under glass in a conspicuous place on or near the boiler covered by it. The violation of this section by any person owning or having the custody, management or operation of such boiler without such permit shall be a misdemeanor and the operation of such boiler without such permit shall constitute a separate offense for each day that it shall be so operated; provided, that no prosecution shall be maintained where the issuance or renewal of such permit shall have been requested and shall remain unacted upon. If the operation of such boiler without such permit shall constitute a serious menace to the lives or safety of persons employed about it, the industrial accident commission, a commissioner or any safety inspector thereof, or any person affected thereby, may apply to the superior court of the county in which such boiler is situated for an injunction restraining the operation of said boiler until such condition shall be corrected or such permit secured. The certification of the industrial accident commission that no permit exists for the operation of such boiler, and the affidavit of any such inspector that its operation constitutes a menace to the life or safety of any person or persons employed about it, shall be sufficient proof to warrant the immediate granting of a temporary restraining order.

SEC. 2. The following boilers are exempt from the provisions of this act:

(1) Boilers under the jurisdiction or inspection of the United States government, and all other boilers operated by employers not subject to the workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act of 1917, and acts amendatory thereof.

Permit
required to operate
steam boiler.

Violation.

Injunction restraining operation.

Boilers
exempt.

(2) Boilers of twelve horsepower or less, on which the pressure does not exceed fifteen pounds per square inch.

(3) Automobile boilers and boilers on road motor vehicles.

Inspection
of steam boilers.

SEC. 3. The industrial accident commission shall cause to be inspected, internally and externally, not less frequently than once in each year, every steam boiler subject to the provisions of this act. If such boiler be found upon such inspection to be in a safe condition for operation, a permit shall be issued by the commission for its operation for not longer than one year, which shall be the permit referred to in section one of this act. If any such inspection shall show such boiler to be in an unsafe or dangerous condition, the commission, or a commissioner, may issue a preliminary order requiring such repairs or alterations to be made to such boiler as may be necessary to render it safe, and may order the use of such boiler discontinued until such repairs or alterations are made or such dangerous or unsafe conditions are remedied. Unless such preliminary order be complied with, a hearing before the commission, a commissioner or referee of such commission, shall be allowed, upon request, at which the owner, operator or other person in charge of said boiler shall have opportunity to appear and show cause why he should not comply with said order. If it shall thereafter appear to the commission that such boiler is unsafe and that the requirements contained in said preliminary order should be complied with, or that other things should be done to make said boiler safe, the commission may order or confirm the withholding of the permit to operate said boiler, and may make such requirements as it deems proper for the repair or alteration of said boiler, or the correction of such dangerous and unsafe conditions. Such order may thereafter be reheard by the commission, or reviewed by the courts, in the manner specified by the workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act of 1917 for safety orders, and not otherwise. It may also, in its discretion, issue and renew temporary permits for not to exceed thirty days each, pending the making of replacements or repairs. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to limit the authority of the commission to prescribe or enforce general or special safety orders.

Hearing.

Temporary permits.

Who may inspect.

SEC. 4. The commission may cause the inspection herein provided for to be made either by its safety inspectors or by any qualified boiler inspector employed by any county, city and county, city, or insurance company, or by any boiler inspector employed by any person or corporation for the purpose of testing his own boilers only; provided, that such persons making inspections other than such safety inspectors shall first secure from the said industrial accident commission a certificate of competency to make such inspections. The industrial accident commission is hereby vested with full power and authority to determine the competency of any applicants for such certificate, either by examination or by other satisfactory proof of qualifications. The commission

may rescind at any time, upon good cause being shown therefor, any certificate of competency issued by it to a boiler inspector, or may at any time, upon good cause being shown therefor, and after notice and an opportunity to be heard, revoke any permit to operate such steam boiler.

SEC. 5. The industrial accident commission shall fix and collect fees for the inspection of steam boilers covered by this act, not exceeding two dollars and fifty cents for each external inspection and seven dollars and fifty cents for each internal inspection per annum. Such fees must be paid before the issuance of any permit to operate the said boiler. No fee shall be charged by the industrial accident commission where an inspection, as herein provided, has been made by an inspector holding a certificate of competency from said commission and employed by any county, city and county, city, insurance company, or by any person or corporation for the purpose of testing his own boilers only. All fees collected by the commission under this act shall be paid into the accident prevention fund. <sup>Fees.</sup>

SEC. 6. Every inspector so certified shall forward to the commission on the forms provided by it, within twenty-one days after such inspection is made, a report of such inspection, in default of which the certificate of competency may be canceled. <sup>Report of inspection.</sup>

CHAPTER 203.

An act to amend sections three hundred thirty-seven and three hundred thirty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to limitation for the commencement of actions.

[Approved May 10, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred thirty-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

337. Within four years. 1. An action upon any contract, obligation or liability found upon an instrument in writing. <sup>Actions commenced within four years.</sup>

2. An action to recover (1) upon a book account whether consisting of one or more entries; (2) upon an account stated; (3) a balance due upon a mutual, open and current account; provided, however, that where an account stated is based upon an account of one item, the time shall begin to run from the date of said item, and where an account stated is based upon an account of more than one item, the time shall begin to run from the date of the last item.

SEC. 2. Section three hundred thirty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

339. Within two years. 1. An action upon a contract, obligation or liability not founded upon an instrument of writing, other than that mentioned in subdivision two of section <sup>Actions commenced within two years.</sup> three hundred thirty-seven of this code; or an action founded upon a contract, obligation or liability, evidenced by a certificate, or abstract or guaranty of title of real property, or by a policy of title insurance; provided, that the cause of action upon a contract, obligation or liability evidenced by a certificate, or abstract or guaranty of title of real property or policy of title insurance shall not be deemed to have accrued until the discovery of the loss or damage suffered by the aggrieved party thereunder.

2. An action against a sheriff, coroner, or constable upon a liability incurred by the doing of an act in his official capacity and in virtue of his office, or by the omission of an official duty including the nonpayment of money collected upon an execution. But this subdivision does not apply to an action for an escape.

An act to amend section two thousand nine hundred twenty-four of the Civil Code, relating to mortgages and deeds of trust.

[Approved May 10, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand nine hundred twenty-four of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2924. Every transfer of an interest in property, other than in trust, made only as a security for the performance of another act, is to be deemed a mortgage, except when in the case of personal property it is accompanied by actual change of possession, in which case it is to be deemed a pledge.

Where, by a mortgage hereafter created, of any estate in real property, other than an estate at will or for years, less than two, or in any transfer in trust hereafter made of a like estate to secure the performance of an obligation, a power of sale is conferred upon the mortgagee, trustee, or any other person, to be exercised after a breach of the obligation for which such mortgage or transfer is a security, such power shall not be exercised (except where such mortgage or transfer is made pursuant to an order, judgment, or decree of a court of record, or to secure the payment of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness authorized or permitted to be issued by the commissioner of corporations, or is made by a public utility subject to the provisions of the public utilities act), until, (a) the mortgagee or beneficiary shall first record, in the office of the recorder of the county wherein the mortgaged or trust property or some part thereof is situated, a notice of such breach and of his election to sell or cause to be of one officer who shall have power to administer oaths and to try the enlisted men of such place or command, for breaches of discipline, and violations of law governing such organizations.

SEC. 32. Section two thousand twenty of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

General
courts-
martial.

2020. 1. General courts-martial shall have the power to impose fines not exceeding two hundred dollars; to sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances; to a reprimand; to dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service; to reduction of noncommissioned officers to the ranks; or any two or more of such punishments may be combined in the sentences imposed by such courts.

Special
courts-
martial.

2. Special courts-martial shall have the power to try any person subject to military law, except a commissioned officer, for any crime or offense made punishable by the military laws of the United States, and such special courts-martial and have the same powers of punishment as the general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by such special courts-martial shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

Summary courts-
martial.

3. Summary courts-martial shall have the power to impose on enlisted men fines not exceeding twenty-five dollars for any single offense, and may sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances. The proceedings of such court shall be informal, and the minutes thereof shall be the same as prescribed for summary courts of the United States army.

Other
powers.

All courts-martial including summary courts, shall also have such powers as are conferred on them by the articles of war, and shall have cognizance of and jurisdiction over all violations of said articles; they shall also have power to sentence to confinement in lieu of fines authorized to be imposed by such courts, but such sentences of confinement shall not exceed one day for each dollar of fine authorized.

SEC. 33. Section two thousand twenty-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Review of
proceedings.

2021. The officer appointing a court-martial must review the proceedings and approve or disapprove the sentence of such court-martial, and must direct the execution of such sentence, or mitigate the punishment, or may remit the sentence of the person convicted; but no sentence of dismissal from the service or dishonorable discharge shall be executed until approved by the governor of this state; provided, that an officer or enlisted man so sentenced may within fifteen days after official publication of the action of the reviewing officer, appeal to the governor of this state to review the proceedings and to disapprove them or pardon the offense, in which case the officer approving the sentence will forward the proceedings in the case to the governor of this state, and the execution of the sentence must be suspended until the proceedings are returned with the decision thereon.

governor.

SEC. 34. Section two thousand twenty-two of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2022. When an officer or enlisted man is put in arrest for the purposes of trial, a copy of the charges and specifications upon which he is to be tried shall be delivered to him or left at his last known place of abode or business, within such time as is prescribed by the laws and regulations governing procedure in the United States army in similar circumstances, and a court shall be ordered for his trial within the time similarly prescribed by the rules and regulations of the United States army. If a copy of the charges and specifications be not served, or a court not ordered within the time herein limited, the arrest shall cease, but such charges and specifications may be served, a court ordered, and the officer or enlisted man be brought to trial after such release from arrest within the time prescribed by the rules and regulations of the United States army in similar circumstances. The appearance of the accused, without objection and pleading to the charges, shall be deemed a waiver of any defect or irregularity of such service of any of the papers mentioned in this section.

Copy of charges delivered to person under arrest.

SEC. 35. Section two thousand twenty-three of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2023. Each military court shall have the same power to compel by subpoena, by subpoena duces tecum, and by attachment, the attendance of witnesses, both civilian and military, and the production of books, papers, and documents, and to punish for contempt a witness duly subpoenaed for nonattendance, or refusal to be sworn or testify, or to produce books, papers and documents, as is possessed by any superior court of this state. Military courts shall also have power to take by commission the testimony of witnesses who can not reasonably be produced at the trial to the same extent as the superior court aforesaid. Commissions and subpoenas may be issued by the president or the judge advocate, if there be one, of the court, both before and after being sworn, for witnesses whose attendance or testimony before such court may be necessary in behalf of the prosecution, and upon application in behalf of any person to be tried by such court, either the president or the judge advocate may direct the commanding officer of any organization to cause such subpoena to be served on any member of his command. A witness not appearing in obedience to a subpoena when served personally with a copy of the same, and not having sufficient excuse, shall forfeit to the people of the state the sum of twenty-five dollars. The president of each court shall, from time to time, report to the judge advocate general, the names of all such delinquent witnesses, together with the names and places of residence of the persons serving such subpoena, and a judge advocate may sue for and recover such penalties in the name of the people.

Power of military court to compel attendance of witnesses, etc.

SEC. 36. Section two thousand twenty-four of the Political Code is hereby amended to read:

Power of military courts to issue process and mandates.

2024. Military courts are empowered to issue all process and mandates, including writs and warrants, necessary and proper to carry into full effect the powers vested in such courts, such process and mandates will be directed to the provost marshal, the sheriff of any county, and the constables and marshals of any town or city. It shall be the duty of all officers to whom such process or mandates may be so directed to execute the same and make return of their acts thereunder according to the requirements of the same. The keepers and wardens of all city, county and city and county jails shall receive the bodies of persons committed by the process or mandate of a military court and confine them in the manner prescribed by law. Except as otherwise specially provided in this chapter, no fees or charges of any nature shall be demanded or required to be paid by the state, or any military court or member thereof, or by the person executing its mandate or process, or to any public officer for receiving, executing, or returning any such process or mandate, or for any service in connection therewith, or for receiving or confining the person in jail or custody thereunder.

SEC. 37. Section two thousand twenty-six of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Collection
of fines
and penalties.

2026. For the purpose of collecting fines or penalties, imposed by a court-martial, the president of any such general or special court-martial and the summary court officer of any such summary court must make a list of all such fines and penalties, and of the persons against whom they have been imposed, and must thereafter issue a warrant under his hand, directed to any sheriff or constable of the county commanding him to levy and collect such fines, together with the costs, upon and out of the property of the person against whom the fine or penalty was imposed; and such warrant shall be executed and renewed in the same manner as executions from the justices' courts are executed and renewed. All fines collected shall be paid by the officer collecting the same to the commanding officer of the organization of which the person fined is or was a member, and accounted for by said commanding officer in the same manner as are other state funds.

SEC. 37½. Section two thousand seventy-nine of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Salaries:
officers.

2079. There must be audited and allowed by the adjutant general and paid out of the appropriation for military purposes, upon the warrant of the state controller, to the commanding officer of each infantry, coast artillery, engineer, field hospital, ambulance company, and the headquarters company of each regiment of infantry, and each division and marine company of the naval militia, except the engineer division of the naval militia, the sum of one hundred fifty dollars per month; to the commanding officer of each machine gun company, signal company, troop of cavalry, battery of field artillery, supply company, and the engineer divisions of the naval militia, the sum of two hundred dollars per month; to each supply company of separate battalions and squadrons the sum of seventy-five dollars per month; the sum so paid to be used for armory rent, care of arms, and proper incidental expenses of the company, troop, battery, field hospital, or division. There shall be audited, allowed, and paid out of the same appropriation to the commanding officer of each brigade the sum of two hundred dollars per month; to the commanding officer of the naval militia the sum of two hundred dollars per month; to the commanding officer of each regiment of infantry, and to the commanding officer of each unit of coast artillery corresponding to a regiment of infantry, two hundred dollars per month; to the commanding officer of each separate battalion of field artillery, naval militia, engineer troops and squadron of cavalry, the sum of fifty dollars per month, and to the commanding officer of each separate fort command, coast artillery, the sum of twenty-five dollars per month; the sums so paid to be used for rent of headquarters, clerical expenses, stationery, printing, postage and proper incidental expenses of the commanding officer of the organization for which said sums are audited, allowed and paid. There shall be audited, allowed and paid to the commanding officer of the naval militia, the adjutant of each regiment of infantry and coast artillery, which shall have attached to it a uniformed and organized band of not less than twenty-five men, the sum of seventy-five dollars per month for such band; to the chief surgeon the sum of fifty dollars per month for rent and proper incidental expenses; and to the adjutant general sum of fifteen thousand dollars per annum, to be expended by him in promoting target practice. There must be audited and allowed by the adjutant general, and paid out of the appropriation for military purposes, to the medical officer in charge of each detachment of the medical department on duty with each regiment of infantry, coast artillery, the naval militia, separate battalions and squadrons, the sum of fifty dollars per month for rent and proper incidental expenses of such detachments, and to the medical officer in charge of detachment of the medical corps attached to each separate fort command, coast artillery the sum of ten dollars per month for proper incidental expenses. No claim shall be allowed under the provisions of this section except upon demand made quarterly in duplicate, signed and sworn to by the officer claiming the same, before any officer of the national guard, or notary public, and forwarded through the headquarters of the regiment, coast artillery corps, separate battalion, or separate squadron, or naval militia, with the approval of each commanding officer through whose headquarters they are required to pass, direct to the adjutant general; provided, that the adjutant general may make expenditures at any time for the promotion of target practice, out of the appropriation for that purpose herein provided for.

Salaries:
officers.

SEC. 38. Section two thousand eighty-six of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Salaries:
adjutant general's department.

2086. There shall be allowed and paid out of the general fund in the state treasury to officers, clerks and other employes in the adjutant general's department, the following salaries payable monthly: To the brigadier general of the adjutant general's department (the adjutant general) a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars per annum to be fixed by the governor; to the lieutenant colonel of the adjutant general's department, three thousand dollars per annum; to the chief clerk, one thousand nine hundred dollars per annum; three clerks, one thousand seven hundred dollars per annum each; one stenographer and clerk, one thousand five hundred dollars per annum; one military storekeeper, one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; one assistant military storekeeper and porter, nine hundred dollars per annum.

SEC. 39. Section two thousand one hundred seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Armories
and arsenals.

2107. The adjutant general shall have control of all armories and arsenals built by the state, or that may come into possession of the state, or any building or buildings that may be erected, purchased, leased or provided by any town, city, county, or city and county, for armory or arsenal purposes pursuant to any legislative act. It shall be the duty of the adjutant general, under direction of the governor, to make and enforce regulations for the government and control of such armories, arsenals and buildings, and where appropriations have been made therefor, to advertise for and receive bids for the construction of armories, or arsenals, to enter into contract for the construction and completion thereof, to contract for and purchase the furnishings therefor, and to purchase and lease real estate for the purpose of erecting armories or arsenals thereon; provided, that it shall be the duty of the state engineer to furnish the plans, estimates and specifications for all armories and arsenals, and to superintend the erection and construction of such buildings.

SEC. 40. Section two thousand one hundred eleven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows: militia.

Naval

2111. The organized naval militia of California shall consist of such numbers of deck and engineer divisions and companies of marines as the commander-in-chief may, from time to time, prescribe, in conformity with the requirements of the navy department. The naval militia shall be located throughout the coast of the State of California at the discretion of the commander-in-chief. The words "division" and "company" as used in this chapter in connection with the naval militia shall have the same meaning and effect as "company" when used in connection with infantry as used in this chapter, and the word "battalion" as used in this chapter in connection with the naval militia shall have the same meaning and effect as "battalion" when used in connection with infantry as used in this chapter. The several divisions and companies of marines of the naval militia shall be organized into battalions at the discretion of the commander-in-chief.

SEC. 41. Section two thousand one hundred twelve of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2112. The numerical strength, rank, titles and insignia of rank of the divisions and companies of marines of the naval militia shall conform to the laws, rules and regulations of the United States navy, and such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the secretary of the navy for the naval militia. The naval militia shall be organized into one or more naval brigades, which shall consist of such administrative battalions as may be prescribed by the navy department for like number of divisions in the United States navy.

Application of laws, rules and regulations of U. S. navy.

The officers, chief warrant officers, warrant officers and enlisted men of the naval militia of California shall be of such number and grades as may be prescribed by the commander-in-chief and the same shall be of the same number and grades as are authorized or prescribed by the laws and regulations of the United States for similar organizations of the United States navy, or as authorized or prescribed by said laws and regulations of the navy department for the naval militia.

All officers now serving in the active naval militia of this state, or who may hereafter be commissioned therein, shall hold their positions until they shall have reached the age of sixty-four years, unless retired prior to that time by reason of resignation, disability, or for cause to be determined by a court-martial legally convened for that purpose.

In order to select a commanding officer for the naval militia the adjutant general shall nominate not to exceed three officers, not below the grade of lieutenant commander, and will cause such candidates to be examined. The candidate receiving the highest rating in such examination will be recommended by the adjutant general to the governor for commission.

Examination for commanding officer.

When vacancies occur in the commissioned personnel, the commanding officer of the naval militia will recommend not to exceed three candidates to the adjutant general, who will cause such candidates to be examined. The candidate receiving the highest rating in such examination will be recommended by the adjutant general to the governor for commission.

Vacancies.

Chief warrant officers may be appointed by the commander-in-chief upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the naval militia and shall receive from the commander-in-chief a commission in the same form as commissioned officers of the naval militia. Warrant officers may be appointed by the adjutant general upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the naval militia and warrants for warrant officers may be issued by the adjutant general upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the naval militia. Chief petty officers and petty officers shall be appointed by the commanding officer of the naval militia, who shall issue to such chief petty officers and petty officers a warrant in proper form.

Chief warrant officers.

Warrant officers.

Chief petty officers and petty officers.

Organization in conformity to U. S. laws.

Powers of commander-in-chief.

Command of vessels loaned by U. S. government.

When insufficient men available.

Repealed.

Urgency
measure.

The organization of the naval militia shall conform generally to the provisions of the laws of the United States. The system of discipline and exercise shall conform to that of the navy of the United States as it is now and as it may hereafter be prescribed by congress and that prescribed by the provisions of the Political Code, relating to the national guard of California, and that prescribed by the secretary of the navy for the guidance of the naval militia; the commander-in-chief shall have power to alter, divide, annex, consolidate and disband the naval militia or any portion thereof whenever in his judgment the efficiency of the state forces will thereby be increased, and he shall have power to make such rules and regulations as may be deemed proper for the use, government and instruction of the naval militia; but such rules and regulations shall conform to those governing the United States navy and those prescribed for the secretary of the navy for the conduct of the naval militia. The commander-in-chief is authorized to apply to the President of the United States for the detail of commissioned officers and petty officers of the navy to act as inspectors and instructors in the art of naval warfare. Summary courts-martial for the naval militia when necessary shall be ordered by the commanding officer of the naval militia and general courts-martial for the naval militia when necessary shall be ordered by the commander-in-chief and shall be organized and conducted within the laws, regulations and usages of the United States navy, and the provisions of the section relating to the military courts in this chapter. The proceedings shall be reviewed and sentence executed as provided in this chapter. Vessels loaned by the United States government to the State of California for the use of the naval militia shall be commanded by the ranking officer for line duty resident at the port to which said vessel is assigned, and in the absence of such ranking officer for line duty, by the next ranking officer for line duty.

In a locality where there are insufficient men available to form an engineer division and there already exists an organized deck division, men of the artificer branch may be additionally enrolled in such deck division with such ratings as they may be qualified to fill, until such time as there is a sufficient number of them to form a separate engineer division, and any men in such artificer branch may be rated in the various petty officers' ratings in the artificer branch of the naval service which they are qualified to fill. In a locality where there are insufficient men available to form a marine company and there is already existing in that locality a deck division of the naval militia, a marine section may be organized with one officer and not less than twenty enlisted marines.

SEC. 42. All laws or parts of laws in so far as they are not consistent with these amendments are hereby repealed.

SEC. 43. Inasmuch as the provisions of the existing law relating to the national guard are in conflict with the provisions of the national defense act, and the provisions herein contained are necessary to enable the national guard of this state to comply with the requirements of said national defense act, and in view of the unsettled condition of the relations of the United States with foreign powers, this act is declared to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace and safety and to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section one of article four of the constitution.

Stats. 1915,
p. 137.

SECTION 1. Section forty-three of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization of the railroad commission, to define its powers and duties and the rights, remedies, powers and duties of public utilities and their officers, and the rights and remedies of patrons of public utilities, and to provide penalties for offenses by public utilities, their officers, agents and employees and by other persons and corporations, creating the 'railroad commission fund' and appropriating the moneys therein to carry out the provisions of this act, and repealing title fifteen of part four of division first of the Civil Code and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act," approved April 23, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 43. (a) No public road, highway or street shall hereafter be constructed across the track of any railroad corporation at grade, nor shall the track of any railroad corporation be constructed across a public road, highway or street at grade, nor shall the track of any railroad corporation be constructed across the track of any other railroad or street railroad corporation at grade, nor shall the track of a street railroad corporation be constructed across the track of a railroad corporation at grade, without having first secured the permission of the commission; provided, that this subsection shall not apply to the replacement of lawfully existing tracks. The commission shall have the right to refuse its permission or to grant it upon such terms and conditions as it may prescribe.

No grade crossings without permission.

(b) The commission shall have the exclusive power to determine and prescribe the manner, including the particular point of crossing, and the terms of installation, operation, maintenance, use and protection of each crossing of one railroad by another railroad or street railroad, and of a street railroad by a railroad, and of each crossing of a public road or highway by a railroad or street railroad and of a street by a railroad or vice versa, subject to the provisions of section two thousand six hundred ninety-four of the Political Code so far as applicable, and to alter, relocate or abolish any such crossing, and to require, where in its judgment it would be practicable, a separation of grades at any such crossing heretofore or hereafter established and to prescribe the terms upon which such separation shall be made and the proportions in which the expense of the construction, alteration, relocation or abolition of such crossings or the separation of such grades shall be divided between the railroad or street railroad corporations affected or between such corporations and the state, county, municipality or other political subdivision affected. It shall be the duty of each corporation and political subdivision to which any of the expense is apportioned to pay from the funds available therefor in its treasury the amount apportioned to it at the time and to the parties specified by the order of the commission and if the same is not paid in accordance with the commission's order the corporation or political subdivision entitled thereto under the commission's order shall have the right to sue therefor in any court of competent jurisdiction. If no such funds are available as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the appropriate boards, officers and employees entrusted with the levy and collection of the taxes or assessments of such political subdivision to do all acts necessary to include in the next succeeding tax or assessment levy the amount due and to collect the same, whereupon the amount due shall be paid over to the corporation or corporations, the state, political subdivision, or political subdivisions entitled thereto under the commission's order. The commission shall have the power by order to designate the state, certain of said corporations, and political subdivisions, affected, to do all or specified portions of the acts required by any order of the commission made under the provisions of this subsection, and to prescribe the manner and the time within which the parties so designated shall be paid or reimbursed by the other corporations, the state and political subdivisions among which the expense of the work has been apportioned by the commission.

Power to fix just compensation.

(c) 1. The commission shall have power in accordance with the procedure provided in this subsection to fix the just compensation to be paid for property or any interest in or to property to be taken or damaged in the separation of grades at any crossing specified in subsection (b) hereof, or for property or any interest in or to property to be taken or damaged in the construction, alteration or relocation, under the order or with the approval of the commission, of elevated tracks or subways for any railroad or street railroad over or under any public road, street, highway or private right of way, or of any public road, street or highway over or under the tracks of any railroad corporation or street railroad corporation; and upon the payment of the just compensation so fixed to make a final order of condemnation as hereinafter provided.

commencing
proceedings.

2. Proceedings under subsection (c) hereof may be commenced by order on the commission's own motion or by a petition filed by the state, county, city and county, incorporated city or town, other political subdivision, railroad corporation, or street railroad corporation affected. Any proceeding commenced under this subsection may be made a part of any proceeding commenced under subsection (b) hereof. Said petition shall set forth the name and interest of the petitioner, and said order on the commission's own motion and said petition shall set forth a statement of the purpose of the proceedings and the use for which property or interest in or to property is sought to be taken, a description of each piece of land or other property or interest in or to property sought to be taken, and whether the same includes the whole or only a part of an entire parcel or tract or piece of property or interest in or to property and the names and addresses of all owners and claimants thereof, if known, or a statement that they are unknown, and a statement of each railroad corporation, the state and political subdivision which in the opinion of the commission or the petitioner has an interest in the proceeding. Said petition shall pray that the commission fix the just compensation to be paid for the acquisition of or damage to the property and interest in or to property specified in the petition, that the commission designate the party or parties to the proceeding who shall pay such compensation and the owners and claimants of the property and interest in or to property condemned to whom such compensation shall be paid and that the commission make its final order of condemnation; provided, that when the proceeding is commenced by order on the commission's own motion said matters shall be included in the statement of the purpose of the proceeding. Said petition shall be duly verified and at the time the same is filed with the commission the petitioner shall also file the additional copies thereof equal in number to three or more than the number of owners and claimants named in the petition.

3. Upon the filing of said petition with the commission or the making of said order on the commission's own motion, the commission shall make its order specifying the nature of the proceeding, containing a general description of the property and interest in or to property to be condemned, and directing the owners and claimants and the railroad corporations, street railroad corporations, and governmental authorities in interest named in said petition or order on the commission's own motion, who shall also be named in said order to show cause, to appear before the commission at a time and place specified in said order, to show cause, if any they have, why the commission should not proceed after hearing to fix the just compensation to be paid for the acquisition of or damage to the property and interest in or to property specified in said petition or order on the commission's own motion, to designate the party or parties to the proceeding who shall pay such compensation and the owners and claimants to whom such compensation shall be paid and to make its final order of condemnation. Said order to show cause shall direct the secretary of the commission to serve or cause to be served upon each said owner and claimant, railroad corporation, street railroad corporation and governmental authority in interest a copy of said order certified under the seal of the commission to which shall be attached a true and correct copy of the petition or order on the commission's own motion; provided, that when the proceeding is commenced by order on the commission's own motion said order to show cause may be incorporated in said order on the commission's own motion. Personal service shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California; provided, that service may also be made by depositing a copy of said order to show cause certified under seal of the commission with a true copy of the petition or order on the commission's own motion attached thereto or made a part thereof in the United States mail, enclosed in a sealed envelope, registered, with postage prepaid, addressed to each owner or claimant, railroad corporation, street railroad corporation and governmental authority in interest named in said petition or order on the commission's own motion. If any owner or claimant named in the petition or order on the commission's own motion resides out of the state or has departed from the state or can not after due diligence be found within the state, or conceals himself to avoid service, or is a corporation having no managing or business agent, cashier or secretary or other officer upon whom summons may be served, who, after due diligence, can not be found within the state, and the fact appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the commission, and it also appears by such affidavit or by the petition or order on the commission's own motion that a cause of action exists against such owner or claimant on whom service is to be made and that he is a necessary or proper party to the proceeding, the commission may make an order that the service be made on such owner or claimant by publication of the commission's said order to show cause. Said order of the commission shall direct that the publication be made in a newspaper to be designated by the commission as likely to give notice to the owner or claimant to be served, and for such time as the commission may find to be reasonable, at least once a week, but publication against an owner or claimant residing out of the state or absent therefrom shall not be less than two months. If the address of any owner or claimant as stated in the petition or order on the commission's own motion is out of the state, the secretary of the commission shall within fifteen days after the making and filing of said order to show cause, deposit or cause to be deposited a copy of said order to show cause certified under the seal of the commission, with a true and correct copy of the petition or order on the commission's own motion attached thereto or made a part thereof, in the United States mail, enclosed in a sealed envelope registered, with postage prepaid, addressed to such owner or claimant at the address specified in the petition or order on the commission's own motion. Personal service of a copy of the order to show cause and of the petition or order on the commission's own motion out of the state is equivalent to publication and deposit in the United States mail. Within ten days prior to the time set for the first hearing on the petition or order on the commission's own motion, which time shall be not less than thirty days after the filing of said petition or the making of said order on the commission's own motion, the secretary shall serve or cause to be served upon the petitioner a written notice of such hearing, specifying the time and place at which such hearing shall be had. In all respects not in this paragraph otherwise provided, service and the proof of service shall be made as provided by the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California. Upon the completion of service upon the petitioner or upon any owner or claimant, railroad corporation, street railroad corporation or governmental authority in interest named in the petition or order on the commission's own motion, the commission shall have full and complete jurisdiction in so far as such petitioner, owner or claimant, railroad corporation, street railroad corporation, or governmental authority in interest is concerned, to make each finding hereinafter referred to, to fix the just compensation to be paid for the acquisition of or damage to any property or interest in or to property specified in the petition or order on the commission's own motion, to designate the party or parties to the proceeding who shall pay such compensation and the owner or claimant to whom such compensation shall be paid and to make its final order of condemnation. The failure to make such service upon any person alleging that he is an owner or claimant or party in interest but not named in the petition or order on the commission's own motion or to acquire jurisdiction over such person shall in no way affect the jurisdiction of the commission over owners and claimants and parties in interest on whom service has been made as in this paragraph provided. The commission shall have power at any time subsequent to the filing of the petition, and prior to making and filing its finding of just compensation, to authorize the amendment of the petition, or in case the proceeding is by order on the commission's own motion to amend said order, by altering or modifying the description of said property, or interest in or to property, or by adding to or deducting from said property or interest in or to property, or by bringing in any additional party or parties and in each other respect including each jurisdictional allegation. Amendment

4. At the time and place specified in said order to show cause, or at such other time and place as, for good cause, may be otherwise ordered by the commission, the commission shall proceed to a hearing upon the petition or order on the commission's own motion. When the proceeding has been submitted the commission shall make and file its finding upon the question whether the use to which the property or interest in or to property is to be applied is a use authorized by law and whether the taking is necessary to such use, and shall make and file its written finding and fixing the just compensation to be paid for said property or interest in or to property; provided, that if the commission finds that severance damages should be paid, the just compensation for such damages shall be found and stated separately. Said just compensation shall be fixed by the commission as of the day on which the petition was filed or the order on the commission's own motion was made. The commission shall also make its order designating the party or parties to the proceeding who shall pay the just compensation so fixed, or any portion thereof, the amounts in which it shall be paid, the times at which it shall be paid, the property or interest in or to property for which it shall be paid, and the owners and claimants of such property or interest in or to property to whom it shall be paid. The commission may prescribe any other terms or conditions with reference to the payment of such compensation as to the commission may seem proper, including a provision that the money due be paid to the commission to be distributed to the parties entitled thereto. The party or parties whom the commission may designate to pay such compensation or any part thereof shall thereupon become liable therefor, and may be sued in any court of competent jurisdiction by the party or parties entitled to such compensation as provided in the commission's order; provided, that in cases in which the order of the commission authorizing Hearing.

any work to be done under the provisions of this section is permissive in character and not mandatory, the commission may prescribe the time within which the party receiving such permission must elect to proceed and notify the commission thereof, and only in the event such party elects to proceed and so notifies the commission shall any liability arise in such cases to pay the just compensation or any part thereof under the provisions of this subsection. When any political subdivision of the state is designated by the commission to pay such compensation or any portion thereof the same shall be collectible in the manner provided in subsection (b) hereof for the collection of expenses apportioned by the commission to political subdivisions of the state.

order of condemnation.

5. When the just compensation has been paid in accordance with the commission's order made under the provisions of this subsection for property or interest in or to property, the commission shall make its final order of condemnation which must describe the property or interest in or to property condemned and the purpose of such condemnation. A copy of said order certified under the seal of the commission shall thereupon be filed in the office of the recorder of the county in which the property or interest in or to property therein described is situated, and thereupon the property or interest in or to property described therein shall vest in the parties and for the purposes specified in said order.

Finding
final.

6. The finding of the commission on the question of the necessity for the taking and the finding, fixing the just compensation to be paid for any property or interest in or to property under the provisions of this subsection shall be final and shall not be subject to modification, alteration, reversal or review by any court of this state. The provisions of this act with reference to rehearing and review shall be applicable to the findings of the commission made and filed under the provisions of this section. Petitions for rehearing must be filed within twenty days from the date of making and filing the finding as to which a rehearing is desired. If a finding of the commission made and filed under the provisions of this section is set aside by the supreme court of the State of California, the matter shall be referred back to the commission for further action in a proceeding before the commission, and the commission shall have the right, on taking further action, to consider the entire testimony theretofore taken in the proceeding before the commission as well as such further testimony, if any, as may be presented in connection with such further action.

for rehearing.

Procedure
not exclusive.

7. The procedure provided in this section shall be alternative and cumulative and not exclusive to the right to pursue any other procedure now or hereafter established providing for the acquisition under eminent domain proceedings of property or interest in or to property.

Germane to jurisdiction.

8. The legislature hereby declares that subsection (c) hereof is enacted as a germane and cognate part of and as an aid to the jurisdiction of the railroad commission in the supervision and regulation of railroad and street railroad corporations.

9. Nothing in this section shall be construed to entitle any owner or claimant of property and interest in or to property to receive damages when the right to receive such damages does not exist under the laws of this state apart from the provisions of this section. Right to receive damages.

An act to amend section three hundred sixty-one of the Civil Code, relating to changing the number of directors of corporations.

[Approved May 10, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred sixty-one of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

361. Any corporation or association may increase or diminish the number of its directors or trustees by the vote or written assent of stockholders representing a majority of its subscribed capital stock, or, if it has no capital stock, by the vote or written assent of a majority of the members. A certificate over the corporate seal, setting forth the action taken by the stockholders, or members, and stating the new number of directors, shall be signed by the president and secretary of such corporation or association, and filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where its original articles of incorporation were filed, and a copy of said certificate, certified by such county clerk, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, whereupon the number of directors or trustees shall be changed as stated in said certificate. This section shall apply to all corporations existing under the laws of the State of California, whether organized and incorporated prior to the enactment of this code, or subsequent thereto. Changing number of directors of corporations.

An act to amend section one thousand four hundred forty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to appraisers of estates of deceased persons.

[Approved May 10, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand four hundred forty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1444. To make the appraisement, the court, or a judge thereof, must appoint three disinterested persons, one of whom must be one of the inheritance tax appraisers provided for by law (any two of whom may act, provided that one of them be the inheritance tax appraiser); provided, that the court may, in its discretion, appoint said inheritance tax appraiser as sole appraiser to appraise said estate. Each of said appraisers is entitled to receive, from each estate he appraises, as compensation for his services, not to exceed five dollars per day (together with his actual and necessary expenses), to be allowed by the court or judge. The appraisers or appraiser must, with the inventory, file a verified account of their or his services and disbursements. If any part of the estate is in any other county than that in which letters issued, an appraiser or appraisers thereof may in the same manner as above provided, be appointed, either by the court or judge having the jurisdiction of the estate, or by the court or judge of such other county, on request of the court or judge having jurisdiction. No clerk or deputy, nor any person related by consanguinity or affinity to or connected by marriage with, or being a partner or employee of the judge of the court, shall be appointed or shall be competent to act as appraiser in any estate, or matter or proceeding pending before said judge or in said court.

An act providing for the supervision and regulation of the transportation of persons and property for compensation over any public highway by automobiles, jitney busses, auto trucks, stages and auto stages; providing for the issue by incorporated cities and towns, cities and counties, and counties of permits for the operation of such automobiles, jitney busses, auto trucks, stages and auto stages; empowering incorporated cities and towns, cities and counties, and counties to enact ordinances for the supervision and regulation of automobiles, jitney busses, auto trucks, stages and auto stages and providing penalties for the violation of such ordinances; defining transportation companies and providing for the supervision and regulation thereof by the railroad commission; providing for the enforcement of the provisions of this act and for the punishment of violations thereof; and repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

[Approved May 10, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Words and phrases
defined.

SECTION 1. (a) The term "corporation," when used in this act, means a corporation, a company, an association or a joint stock association.

(b) The term "person," when used in this act, means an individual, a firm or a copartnership.

(c) The term "transportation company," when used in this act, means every corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, operating or managing any automobile, jitney bus, auto truck, stage or auto stage used in the transportation of persons or property as a common carrier for compensation over any public highway in this state between fixed termini or over a regular route and not operating exclusively within the limits of an incorporated city or town or of a city and county; provided, that the term "transportation company," as used in this act, shall not include corporations or persons, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, in so far as they own, control, operate or manage taxicabs, hotel busses or sight-seeing busses, or any other carrier which does not come within the term "transportation company" as herein defined.

(d) The term "public highway," when used in this act, means every public street, road or highway in this state.

(e) The words "between fixed termini or over a regular route," when used in this act, mean the termini or route between or over which any corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, usually or ordinarily operate any automobile, jitney bus, auto truck, stage or auto stage, even though there may be departures from said termini or route, whether such departures be periodic or irregular. Whether or not any automobile, jitney bus, auto truck, stage or auto stage is operating "between fixed termini or over a regular route" within the meaning of this act shall be a question of fact and the finding of the railroad commission thereon shall be final and shall not be subject to review.

SEC. 2. No corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, shall operate any automobile, jitney bus, auto truck, stage or auto stage for the transportation of persons or property for compensation on any public highway in this state except in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Jitney bus, etc., must be operated according to law.

SEC. 3. (a) No corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, shall operate any automobile, jitney bus, auto truck, stage or auto stage for the transportation of persons or property as a common carrier for compensation on any public highway in this state between any fixed termini between which or over any route over which such corporation, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, are not actually operating in good faith on May 1, 1917, unless a permit has first been secured as herein provided.

Permit to operate.

(b) Application for such permit shall be made by such corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, to the legislative or other governing board or body of each incorporated city or town, city and county, and county within or through which applicant intends to operate. Such application shall be in writing, verified by applicant, and shall specify the following matters:

Application.

(1) The name and address of applicant and the names and addresses of its officers, if any.

(2) The public highway or highways over which and the fixed termini or the regular route, if any, between which or over which applicant intends to operate.

(3) The kind of transportation, whether passenger or freight or both, in which applicant intends to engage, together with a brief description of each vehicle which applicant intends to use, including the seating capacity thereof if for passenger traffic or the tonnage if for freight traffic.

(4) A proposed time schedule, if any.

(5) A schedule or tariff showing the passenger fares or freight rates to be charged between the several points or localities to be served.

(c) Upon the filing of said application, the legislative or other governing board or body with which the same has been filed may in its discretion fix a time and place for a hearing on said application, which time shall not be less than five days subsequent to the filing of said application. No application shall be granted without a hearing. When a time and place for a hearing have been fixed, the applicant shall, at least three days prior to said hearing, cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the incorporated city or town, city and county, or county within which applicant desires to exercise a permit, a notice reciting the fact of the filing of said application, together with a statement of the time and place of the hearing of said application.

(d) At the time specified in said notice or at such later time as may be fixed by said legislative or other governing board or body, a public hearing upon said application shall be held by or under the direction of said legislative or other governing board or body. After such hearing, said legislative or other governing board or body may issue the permit as prayed for or refuse to issue the same, or may issue the same with modifications and upon such terms and conditions as in its judgment the public convenience and necessity may require.

issued.

Matters in permit.

(e) Each permit issued under the provisions of this act shall contain the following matters:

(1) The name of the grantee.

(2) The public highway or highways over which, and the fixed termini, if any, between which the grantee is permitted to operate.

(3) The kind of transportation, whether passenger or freight, in which the grantee is permitted to engage, together with a statement of the number and of the maximum seating or tonnage capacity of the vehicles which the grantee is permitted to operate.

(4) The term for which the permit is granted, which term shall not exceed five years.

(5) Such additional matters as said legislative or other governing board or body may deem necessary or proper to be inserted in said permit.

No permit issued under the provisions of this act may be assigned or transferred without the consent of the granting authority.

Power of cities,
city and county, and counties to regulate.

(f) Each incorporated city or town, city and county, and county shall have the power, by ordinance, to supervise and regulate every corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, operating or managing any automobile, jitney bus, auto truck, stage or auto stage, used for the transportation of persons or property for compensation over any public highway within their respective territorial limits, and in the exercise of such power may provide for the licensing of all drivers, the filing of indemnity bonds, the enactment of traffic rules and regulations, the regulation of the rates, service and safety of all such corporations and persons, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, and all other matters affecting the relationship between such carriers and the traveling and shipping public, with power to prescribe penalties for the violation of such ordinances; provided, that the power in this act granted to incorporated cities and towns, cities and counties, and counties shall at all times be subject to and in no instance be construed to impair the jurisdiction of the railroad commission of the State of California as conferred by the constitution of this state or by this act.

(g) Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as in any way limiting or impairing the power of any incorporated city or town, city and county, or county, to prevent corporations and persons, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, engaged on May 1, 1917, in the transportation of persons or property for compensation over any public highway or highways in this state from thereafter using any public highway or highways within the territorial limits of such incorporated city or town, city and county, or county, unless they shall first have secured from such incorporated city or town, city and county, or county, a franchise or permit for the use of such public highway or highways in accordance with the organic law of such incorporated city or town, city and county, or county.

Power to prevent use of highways without permit.

SEC. 4. The railroad commission of the State of California is hereby vested with power and authority to supervise and regulate every transportation company in this state; to fix the rates, fares, charges, classifications, rules and regulations of each such transportation company; to regulate the accounts, service and safety of operations of each such transportation company; to require the filing of annual and other reports and of other data by such transportation companies; and to supervise and regulate transportation companies in all other matters affecting the relationship between such companies and the traveling and shipping public. The railroad commission shall have power and authority, by general order or otherwise, to prescribe rules and regulations applicable to any and all transportation companies. The railroad commission, in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred upon it by the constitution of this state and by this act, shall have power and authority to make orders and to prescribe rules and regulations affecting transportation companies, notwithstanding the provisions of any ordinance or permit of any incorporated city or town, city and county, or county, and in case of conflict between any such order, rule or regulation and any such ordinance or permit, the order, rule or regulation of the railroad commission shall in each instance prevail.

Power of railroad commission over transportation companies.

SEC. 5. No transportation company shall hereafter exercise any right or privilege under any franchise or permit hereafter granted by any incorporated city or town, city and county, or county, without having first obtained from the railroad commission a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require the exercise of such right or privilege, but no such certificate shall be required of any transportation company as to the fixed termini between which or the route over which it is actually operating in good faith on May 1, 1917. A transportation company may apply for a certificate of public convenience and necessity in advance of securing any franchise or permit for the use of the public highways constituting the proposed route. The railroad commission shall have power, with or without hearing, to issue said certificate as prayed for, or to refuse to issue the same, or to issue it for the partial exercise only of said privilege sought, and may attach to the exercise of the rights granted by said certificate such terms and conditions as, in its judgment, the public convenience and necessity may require.

The railroad commission may at any time for a good cause suspend and upon notice to the grantee of any certificate and opportunity to be heard revoke, alter or amend any certificate issued under the provisions of this section.

Order
authorizing issue of stock and
bonds.

SEC. 6. No transportation company may issue any stock or stock certificate, or any bond, or any note or other evidence of indebtedness payable at a period of more than twelve months after the date thereof in such an amount that the aggregate amount of notes or other evidences of indebtedness at any one time outstanding shall exceed the amount of two thousand five hundred dollars, unless such transportation company, in addition to the other requirements of law, shall first have secured from the railroad commission an order authorizing such issue and stating the amount thereof and the purpose or purposes to which the issue or the proceeds thereof are to be applied and that, in the opinion of the railroad commission, the money, property or labor to be procured or paid for by such issue is reasonably required for the purpose or purposes specified in the order and that, except as otherwise permitted in the order in the case of bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, such purpose or purposes are not, in whole or in part, reasonably chargeable to operating expenses or to income. Such order may be made, in the discretion of the railroad commission, either with or without a public hearing. Except as in this section otherwise provided, the provisions of section fifty-two of the public utilities act referring to the purposes for which stocks and stock certificates, bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, may be issued and the application of and the accounting for the proceeds thereof, the powers and duties of the railroad commission and the rights and duties of public utilities with reference thereto, the legal status of stocks and stock certificates and of bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, issued without an order of the railroad commission then in effect, and the relationship of the State of California to such stocks and stock certificates, and such bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, shall apply to and govern the issue of stocks and stock certificates, and of bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, of transportation companies with the same force and effect as though section fifty-two of the public utilities act were restated in this section with the substitution of the words "transportation company" for the words "public utility" and of the words "transportation companies" for the words "public utilities." The provisions of section fifty-seven of the public utilities act referring

SEC. 7. In all respects in which the railroad commission has power and authority under the constitution of this state or this act, applications and complaints may be made and filed with the railroad commission, process issued, hearings held, opinions, orders and decisions made and filed, petitions for rehearing filed and acted upon, and petitions for writs of review or mandate filed with the supreme court of this state, considered and disposed of by said court, in the manner, under the conditions and subject to the limitations and with the effect specified in the public utilities act. Application of public utilities act.

SEC. 8. Every officer, agent or employee of any corporation, and every other person who violates or fails to comply with, or who procures, aids or abets in the violation of any provision of this act, or who fails to obey, observe or comply with any order, decision, rule or regulation, direction, demand or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, of the railroad commission, or who procures, aids or abets any corporation or person in his failure to obey, observe or comply with any such order, decision, rule, direction, demand or regulation, or any part or provision thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Violation.

SEC. 9. Neither this act nor any provision thereof shall apply or be construed to apply to commerce with foreign nations or commerce among the several states of this union, except in so far as the same may be permitted under the provisions of the constitution of the United States and the acts of congress. Foreign or interstate commerce.

SEC. 10. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional. Constitutionality.

SEC. 11. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. The provisions of an act entitled "An act providing for the sale of street railroad and other franchises in counties and municipalities and providing conditions for the granting of such franchises by legislative or other governing bodies, and repealing conflicting acts (approved March 22, 1905, Stats. 1905, p. 777)," are declared not to apply to the use of highways for the kind of transportation herein regulated. Repealed. Stats. 1905, p. 777, not to apply.

CHAPTER 214.

An act to repeal sections three thousand six hundred sixty-four, three thousand six hundred sixty-five, three thousand six hundred sixty-six, three thousand six hundred sixty-seven, three thousand six hundred sixty-eight, three thousand six hundred sixty-nine, three thousand six hundred seventy and three thousand six hundred seventy-one of the Political Code, and to add thirty-six new sections to said code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-four, three thousand six hundred sixty-four a, three thousand six hundred sixty-four b, three thousand six hundred sixty-four c, three thousand six hundred sixty-four d, three thousand six hundred sixty-five, three thousand six hundred sixty-five a, three thousand six hundred sixty-five b, three thousand six hundred sixty-five c, three thousand six hundred sixty-six, three thousand six hundred sixty-six a, three thousand six hundred sixty-six b, three thousand six hundred sixty-six c, three thousand six hundred sixty-seven, three thousand six hundred sixty-seven a, three thousand six hundred sixty-seven b, three thousand six hundred sixty-seven c, three thousand six hundred sixty-eight, three thousand six hundred sixty-eight a, three thousand six hundred sixty-eight b, three thousand six hundred sixty-eight c, three thousand six hundred sixty-nine, three thousand six hundred sixty-nine a, three thousand six hundred sixty-nine b, three thousand six hundred sixty-nine c, three thousand six hundred sixty-nine d, three thousand six hundred sixty-nine e, three thousand six hundred seventy, three thousand six hundred seventy a, three thousand six hundred seventy b, three thousand six hundred seventy c, three thousand six hundred seventy-one, three thousand six hundred seventy-one a, three thousand six hundred seventy-one b, three thousand six hundred seventy-one c, and three thousand six hundred seventy-one d, all relating to taxation of public service and other corporations, banks and insurance companies for the benefit of the state.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Sections three thousand six hundred sixty-four, three thousand six hundred sixty-five, three thousand six hundred sixty-six, three thousand six hundred sixty-seven, three thousand six hundred sixty-eight, three thousand six hundred sixty-nine, three thousand six hundred seventy and three thousand six hundred seventy-one of the Political Code as they existed January 1, 1917, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-four, and to read as follows:

3664. Taxes levied, assessed and collected as hereinafter provided upon railroads, including street railways, whether operated in one or more counties; sleeping car, dining car, drawing-room car and palace car companies, refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loaning and other car companies operating upon railroads in this state; companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel, or stage line in this state; telegraph companies; telephone companies; companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity; insurance companies; banks, banking associations, savings and loan societies, and trust companies; and taxes upon all franchises of every kind and nature, shall be entirely and exclusively for state purposes, and shall be assessed and levied by the state board of equalization, and collected in the manner hereinafter provided. The word "company" and the word "companies" as used in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and in the sections of this code enacted to carry the same into effect shall include persons, partnerships, joint stock associations, companies, and corporations.

Taxes for state purposes.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-four a, and to read as follows:

3664*a*. 1. All railroad companies, including street railways, whether operated in one or more counties; all sleeping car, dining car, drawing-room car and palace car companies, all refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loaning, and other car companies, operating upon the railroads in this state; all companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel, or stage line in this state; all telegraph and telephone companies; and all companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity shall annually pay to the state a tax upon their franchises, roadways, roadbeds, rails, rolling stock, poles, wires, pipes, canals, conduits, rights of way, and other property, or any part thereof, used exclusively in the operation of their business in this state, computed as follows: Said tax shall be equal to the percentages hereinafter fixed upon the gross receipts from operation of such companies and each thereof within this state.

Public utilities to pay state tax.

2. When such companies are operating partly within and partly without this state, the gross receipts within this state shall be deemed to be all receipts on business beginning and ending within this state, and a proportion, based upon the proportion of the mileage within this state to the entire mileage over which such business is done, of receipts on all business passing through, into, or out of this state.

Percentage of gross receipts.

Companies partly within and without state.

3. The percentages above mentioned shall be as follows: On all railroad companies, including street railways, five and one-fourth per cent; on all sleeping car, dining car, drawing-room car, palace car companies, refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loaning, and other car companies, three and ninety-five hundredths per cent; on all companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel or stage line, nine-tenths of one per cent; on all telegraph and telephone companies, four and two-tenths per cent; on all companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity, five and six-tenths per cent.

In lieu of other taxes.

4. Such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon the property above enumerated of such companies except as otherwise provided in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state.

"Municipal" defined.

5. The word "municipal" as used in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and in the sections of this code enacted to carry the same into effect shall apply to incorporated towns and cities formed under article eleven of the constitution of this state and to none other.

SEC. 4. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-four b, and to read as follows:

Tax on gross premiums of insurance companies.

3664b. Every insurance company or association doing business in this state shall annually pay to the state a tax of two per cent upon the amount of the gross premiums received upon its business done in this state, less return premiums and reinsurance in companies or associations authorized to do business in this state; provided, that there shall be deducted from said two per cent upon the gross premiums the amount of any county and municipal taxes paid by such companies on real estate owned by them in this state. This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon the property of such companies, except county and municipal taxes on real estate, and except as otherwise provided in the constitution of this state; provided, that when by the laws of any other state or country, any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, are imposed on insurance companies of this state, doing business in such other state or country, or upon their agents therein, in excess of such taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, imposed upon insurance companies of such other state or country, so long as such laws continue in force, the same obligations and prohibitions of whatsoever kind must be imposed by the insurance commissioner upon insurance companies of such other state or country doing business in this state.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-four c, and to read as follows:

Tax on bank stock.

3664c. 1. The shares of capital stock of all banks, organized under the laws of this state, or of the United States, or of any other state and located in this state, shall be assessed and taxed to the owners or holders thereof by the state board of equalization, in the manner hereinafter provided, in the city or town where the bank is located and not elsewhere. There shall be levied and assessed upon such shares of capital stock an annual tax, payable to the state, of one and sixteen hundredths per centum upon the value thereof. The value of each share of stock in each bank, except such as are in liquidation, shall be taken to be the amount paid in thereon, together with its pro rata of the accumulated surplus and undivided profits. The value of each share of stock in each bank which is in liquidation shall be taken to be its pro rata of the actual assets of such bank.

2. This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon such shares of stock and upon the property of such bank, except county and municipal taxes on real estate and except as otherwise provided in the constitution of this state.

In lieu of other taxes.

3. In determining the value of the capital stock of any bank there shall be deducted from the value, as defined above, the value, as assessed for county taxes, of any real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, owned by such bank and taxed for county purposes.

Value of real estate deducted.

4. The banks shall be liable to the state for this tax and the same shall be paid to the state by them on behalf of the stockholders in the manner and at the time hereinafter provided, and they shall have a lien upon the shares of stock and upon any dividends declared thereon to secure the amount so paid.

Banks liable for tax.

5. The moneyed capital, reserve, surplus, undivided profits, and all other property belonging to unincorporated banks or bankers of this state, or held by any bank located in this state which has no shares of capital stock, or employed in this state by any branches, agencies, or other representatives of any banks doing business outside of the State of California, shall be likewise assessed and taxed to such banks or bankers by the said board of equalization, in the same manner as above provided for incorporated banks, and taxed at the same rate that is levied upon the shares of capital stock of incorporated banks, as provided in the first paragraph of this section.

Tax on unincorporated banks.

6. In the case of a branch, an agency, or other representative of any bank doing business outside of this state, the capital of said branch, agency, or representative used in this state shall be taken to be the average amount owed by the said branch, agency, or representative to the bank of which it is a branch, agency, or representative during the year ending the first Monday in March. The value of said property shall be determined by taking the entire property invested in such business, together with all reserve, surplus, and undivided profits, at their full cash value, and deducting therefrom the value as assessed for county taxes of any real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, owned by such bank or banker and taxed for county purposes. Such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county and municipal, upon the property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this section, except county and municipal taxes on real estate, and except as otherwise provided in the constitution of this state. All moneyed capital and property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this paragraph shall be assessed and taxed at the same rate as an incorporated bank, provided for in this section. In determining the value of the moneyed capital and property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this section, the said state board of equalization shall include and assess to such banks all property and everything of value owned or held by them which would go to make up the value of the capital stock of such banks and bankers, if the same were incorporated and had shares of capital stock.

Branch of bank doing business outside of state.

"Banks"
defined.

7. The word "banks" as used in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and in the sections of this code enacted to carry the same into effect shall include banking associations, unincorporated banks and bankers, branches, agencies or other representatives of any banks doing business outside of the State of California, savings and loan societies, and such trust companies, as conduct the business of receiving money on deposit, but shall not include building and loan associations.

SEC. 6. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-four d, and to read as follows:

Assessment
and tax of franchisees.

3664*d*. All franchises, other than those of the companies mentioned in sections three thousand six hundred sixty-four a, three thousand six hundred sixty-four b, and three thousand six hundred sixty-four c of this code, shall be assessed at their actual cash value, after making due deduction for good will, in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall be taxed at the rate of one and two tenths per centum each year, and the taxes collected thereon shall be exclusively for the benefit of the state. These franchises shall include the actual exercise of the right to be a corporation and to do business as a corporation under the laws of this state and the actual exercise of the right to do business as a corporation in this state when such right is exercised by a corporation incorporated under the laws of any other state or country, also the right, authority, privilege, or permission to maintain wharves, ferries, toll roads, and toll bridges, and to construct, maintain or operate, in, under, above, upon, through or along any streets, highways, public places, or waters, any mains, pipes, canals, ditches, tanks, conduits or other means for conducting water, oil, or other substances.

SEC. 7. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-five, and to read as follows:

Municipal
franchisees
and privileges.

3665. Nothing in any section of this code shall be construed to release any company from the payment of any amount agreed to be paid or required by law to be paid, now or hereafter, for any special privilege or franchise granted by any of the municipal authorities of this state.

SEC. 8. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-five a, and to read as follows:

3665*a*. 1. The term "gross receipts from operation" as used in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four a of this code is hereby defined to include all sums received from business done within this state, during the year ending the thirty-first day of December last preceding, including the company's proportion of gross receipts from any and all sources on account of business done by it within this state, in connection with other companies described in said section.

"Gross receipts from operation" defined.

Any company claiming that the levy of the percentage fixed by section three thousand six hundred sixty-four a of this code on the total gross receipts of such company results in double taxation of the property of such company, may make application to the state board of equalization for a hearing on such matter. Said board shall have power to take evidence and determine the facts with respect to such claim and in event said board finds the claim of such company to be true, said board may authorize such company to deduct from its reported gross receipts that amount of such receipts which, if included in such total gross receipts, would cause such double taxation.

Hearing on claim of double taxation.

2. In case of companies operating partly within and partly without this state, the gross receipts within this state shall be deemed to be all receipts on business beginning and ending within this state, and the proportion based upon the proportion of the mileage within this state to the entire mileage over which such business is done, of receipts on all business passing through, into or out of this state.

Companies partly within and without state.

3. No deduction shall be allowed from the gross receipts from operation for commissions, rebates, or other repayments, except only such refunds as arise from errors or overcharges; nor shall any deduction be allowed for payments from gross receipts to other companies for any purpose whatsoever, except such refunds as arise from errors or overcharges.

No deductions allowed.

4. Income derived from property not defined in this section and in sections three thousand six hundred sixty-four a, three thousand six hundred sixty-five b, and three thousand six hundred sixty-five c of this code as operative property shall not be included in the gross receipts for the purpose of determining the tax on the property and franchises provided for in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four a of this code.

Income from non-operative property not included.

SEC. 9. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-five b, and to read as follows:

3665*b*. 1. The term "operative property" as used in any section of this code shall include:

"Operative property."

(a) In the case of railroad companies, including street railways: The franchises, roadway, roadbed, rails, rolling stock, rights of way, sidings, spur tracks, switches, signal systems, cranes and structures used in loading and unloading cars, fences along the right of way, poles, wires, conduits, power lines, piers, used exclusively in the operation of the railroad business, depot grounds and buildings, ferryboats, tugs and car-floats used exclusively in the operation of the railroad business; machine shops, repair shops, round houses, car barns, power houses, substations, and other buildings, used in the operation of the railroad business and so much of the land on which said shops, houses, barns, and other buildings are situate as may be required for the convenient use and occupation of said buildings.

Car companies. (b) In the case of sleeping car, dining car, drawing-room car and palace car companies, refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loaning, and other car companies operating upon railroads in this state: The franchises, cars, and other rolling stock.

Express companies. (c) In the case of companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel, or stage line in this state: The franchises, cars, trucks, wagons, horses, harness, and safes.

Telegraph and telephone companies. (d) In the case of telegraph and telephone companies doing business in this state: The franchises, rights of way, poles, wires, pipes, conduits, cables, switchboards, telegraph and telephone instruments, batteries, generators, and other electrical appliances, and exchange and other buildings used in the telegraph and telephone business and so much of the land on which said buildings are situate as may be required for the convenient use and occupation of said buildings.

Gas and electric companies. (e) In the case of companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity: The franchises, towers, poles, wires, pipes, canals, tunnels, ditches, flumes, aqueducts, conduits, rights of way, dams, reservoirs, water and water rights used exclusively in the business of the transmission or sale of gas or electricity; transformers, substations, gas-holders, gas and electric generators, switches, switchboards, meters, electrical and gas appliances, oil tanks, power plants, power houses, and other buildings and structures used in the operation of the business of the transmission or sale of gas or electricity and so much of the land on which said buildings and structures are situate as may be required for the convenient use and operation of said buildings; provided, that the operative property of the companies enumerated in this section, shall also include any other property not above enumerated that may be reasonably necessary for use by said companies exclusively in the operation and conduct of the particular kinds of business enumerated in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four a of this code. The operative property mentioned in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), of this section shall not be subject to taxation for county, municipal, or district purposes except as otherwise provided for in the constitution and laws of this state; provided, however, that when any piece or parcel of property in this state owned by any of the companies mentioned in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four a of this code is used partially by such company for any use reasonably necessary to the operation of any of the lines of business enumerated in said section and such property is also partially rented to or used by others or is partially used by the company for some other lines of business not among those so enumerated, or for purposes not reasonably necessary to the operation of any of said enumerated lines of business, it shall be considered operative property in that proportion only which that part of the property mentioned in this proviso used by the company in the operation of any of said enumerated lines of business bears to the whole of the property mentioned in this proviso.

2. Any property of the classes mentioned in this section owned by a company constructing a new railroad, street railway, telegraph or telephone system, or plant or system for the transmission or sale of gas or electricity, no part of which new road, line, plant, or system is in operation, and the same classes of property when held by an operating company solely for the construction of a new railroad or railway line, a new telegraph or telephone system, or a new plant or system for the transmission or sale of gas or electricity, and not to be used for betterments or additions to roads, lines, plants, or systems already under operation, shall not be considered operative property and shall be subject to assessment and taxation for county, municipal, and district purposes. Any part of such property of any company mentioned in this section shall be classed and assessed as operative property when the state board of equalization shall determine that such property is rendering a substantial public service.

Construction property nonoperative.

3. The state board of equalization shall have power to make rules and issue instructions not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state for the guidance of assessors in determining what is operative property and what is non-operative property of companies named in this section.

Rules of state board of equalization.

SEC. 10. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-five c, and to read as follows:

3665c. Such person or officer, as the state board of equalization may designate, of each of the companies mentioned in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four a of this code, shall within ten days after the first Monday in March of each year, file with the said board a report signed and sworn to by one or more of said persons or officers, showing in detail for the year ending the thirty-first day of December last preceding, the various items as follows:

Annual report by companies

1. The name of the company, its nature, whether a person or persons, a partnership (with names of partners), an association, or corporation, and under the laws of what state, territory or country organized, the nature of its business, the location of its principal place of business, the names and post-office addresses of its president, secretary, auditor, treasurer, superintendent, and general manager, the location of its principal place of business in this state, the name and post-office address of its chief officer or managing agent in this state, and the names and addresses of all subsidiary companies whose property and business are operated by it and the names and addresses of any company of which it may be subsidiary.

Operative
property.

2. Each of the companies mentioned in said section shall report, in such detail as the state board of equalization shall prescribe, all of its property in this state which comes under the definition of operative property in section three thousand six hundred sixty-five b of this code. When any such company operates both within and without this state it shall report the mileage over which it operates both within and without this state. It shall also report the location of said property within this state by counties, cities and counties, municipalities, and districts, in such manner and in such detail as said board of equalization shall prescribe. It shall also, at the same time, furnish a duplicate of the report covering so much of said property as is located in any county, city and county, municipality, or district, to the assessor of the county, city and county, city, or district in which such property is located.

The state board of equalization may require the filing in its office of maps descriptive of all the operative property of any such companies, and may prescribe the form and size of such maps and the details to be shown therein, and may require that similar maps descriptive of the operative property within each county, city and county, municipality, or district, shall be filed in the assessor's office in each county, city and county, city, or district in which any of said property is located.

Capital stock.

3. The amount of capital stock issued, and the amount of money received therefor, showing separately the capital stock issued and the money received therefor of the operating company and of each subsidiary company in this state.

Dividends.

4. The dividends paid during the year ending the thirty-first day of December last preceding, the surplus fund, if any, on said thirty-first day of December, or between such periods as the state board of equalization may determine, those of the operating company and of each subsidiary company in this state to be shown separately.

Debts.

5. The funded and floating debts and the rate of interest thereon, showing separately the debts of the operating company and of each subsidiary company in this state, on the thirty-first day of December last preceding.

Value of stock.

6. The market value of the stock and of the outstanding bonds, or, when said stock or bonds have no market value, the actual value thereof, for such periods and for such dates as the state board of equalization shall prescribe.

Improvements.

7. The amounts expended for improvements during the year ending the thirty-first day of December last preceding, how expended and the character of the improvements.

Gross receipts.

8. The gross receipts from operation within this state for the year ending the thirty-first day of December last preceding, the gross receipts from such classes of business as the state board of equalization may designate, to be reported separately ;

also, where the property and business are partly within and partly without this state, the gross receipts for said period on all business beginning and ending entirely within this state, and that proportion of the gross receipts from all business passing through, into, or out of this state, which the mileage within this state bears to the total mileage over which such interstate business is done as further defined in section three thousand six hundred sixty-five a of this code.

9. The operating and other expenses.

Expenses.

10. The balances of profit and loss, between such periods as the state board of equalization may determine.

Profit and loss.

11. Such other matters as the state board of equalization may deem necessary in order to enable it to assess and levy the taxes provided for in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state.

Other matters.

Each such company shall include in its report the property and business of all subsidiary companies as that term is hereinafter defined in this section, whose property and business are operated by it, whether by virtue of a lease, an operating contract or agreement, or by virtue of control through the ownership of stock or otherwise, even though such subsidiary companies maintain an independent legal existence and separate accounts.

Subsidiary companies.

The term "subsidiary company" is hereby defined as applying to a company which is merged in the operating system of an operating company in any of the ways above stated, whose property and franchises would be taxable under section three thousand six hundred sixty-four a of this code if the same were operated independently. No separate report need be rendered by a subsidiary company whose property, franchises, and operations are fully and completely covered by the report of an operating company, unless the state board of equalization shall deem such a separate report necessary.

Defined.

Each such company operating the property and business of a subsidiary company in some line of business to which a different percentage of the gross receipts is applied by said section from that applied by said section to the gross receipts of the operating company, shall report such receipts of the subsidiary company separately.

3666. 1. If any assessor finds in the report of the operative property in his county, city and county, municipality, or district, furnished to him by any of the companies as required in section three thousand six hundred sixty-five c of this code, any piece or parcel of property which he regards as nonoperative property, or partially operative and partially nonoperative, he shall, within thirty days after receiving such report, notify the state board of equalization thereof by mail, which notice shall contain a general description of the property and the assessor's reasons for regarding the same as nonoperative property. He shall also mail a copy of the notice to the company whose property is involved. The said board shall investigate the nature of the property and its use, and, if an agreement between the said board, the assessor, and the company as to the proper classification of such property can not be reached, then the said board shall, under such rules of notice as it may deem reasonable, set a date for a hearing, at which the assessor and the company may be present or represented. At such hearing the board shall, from the evidence presented and from the best information it can obtain decide the matter in dispute, and determine whether such property is operative or nonoperative or in what proportion operative and in what proportion nonoperative. The said board shall enter its decision in its minutes, and shall send a copy thereof to the county assessor and the company, and also to the proper officer of any municipality affected thereby. Said decision shall be binding upon all parties, the state, the county, city and county, municipality, or district, and the company, unless set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, and each such assessor must note the decision on his assessment roll, and must assess such property accordingly.

board of equalization
of property regarded nonopera-
tive.

2. If the state board of equalization shall find in the report of operative property furnished to said board by any company under the provisions of section three thousand six hundred sixty-five c of this code, any piece or parcel of property which said board regards as nonoperative property, or partially operative and partially nonoperative, the board shall, within thirty days after receiving such report, notify said company thereof in writing, which notice shall contain a general description of the property and the reasons for regarding the same as nonoperative. It shall also mail a copy of the notice to any assessor in whose county, city and county, municipality, or district the property is located. If an agreement between the said board, the assessor, and the company as to the proper classification of such property can not be reached, then the said board shall, under such rules of notice as it may deem reasonable, set a date for a hearing, at which the assessor and the company may be present or represented. At such hearing the board shall, from the evidence presented and from the best information it can obtain, decide the matter in dispute, and determine whether such property is operative or nonoperative, or in what proportion operative and in what proportion nonoperative. The said board shall enter its decision in its minutes, and shall send a copy thereof to the county assessor and the company, and also to the proper officer of any municipality affected thereby. Said decision shall be binding upon all parties, the state, the county, city and county, municipality, or district, and the company, unless set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, and each such assessor must note the decision on his assessment roll and must assess the property accordingly.

Hearing.

SEC. 12. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-six a, and to read as follows:

3666*a*. The insurance commissioner of this state must on or before the last day of March in each year make and file with the state board of equalization a report showing:

Report by insurance commissioner.

1. All companies, domestic and foreign, and all firms, associations, or persons, engaged in the business of insurance in this state.

2. The total amount of the gross premiums received from its business in this state by each of said companies, firms, associations, and persons during the year ending the thirty-first day of December last preceding.

3. The amount of return premiums paid on business done in this state and the amount of reinsurance on business done in this state paid to other insurance companies or associations authorized to do business in this state, by said companies, firms, associations, and persons, during said year.

4. The amount of any county and municipal taxes paid during said year by such companies on real estate owned by them in this state, and where said real estate is located.

In making this report he shall list separately all those companies, firms, associations, or persons, which, under the second proviso in subdivision (b) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution and of section three thousand six hundred sixty-four b of this code, are subject to a tax at a rate higher than two per cent on their gross premiums, or to any additional tax or burden, and shall indicate in each case the amount and character of said tax or burden. Every company, firm, association, or person engaged in the business of insurance in this state shall file with the insurance commissioner on or before the first Monday in March in each year such statements in addition to, or in modification of, the statements required to be rendered under the provisions of article sixteen of chapter three of title one of part three of the Political Code as said insurance commissioner shall deem necessary to enable him to prepare the report required of him in this section and said statements shall be verified in the same manner as is provided for the verification of other statements by insurance companies in section six hundred ten of the Political Code, except that, those filed by foreign companies shall be verified by the oath of the manager thereof residing within this state.

List of companies subject to additional tax.

Statements by companies to insurance commissioner.

SEC. 13. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-six b, and to read as follows:

3666*b*. The president, secretary, treasurer, cashier, or such other officer as the state board of equalization may determine, of every bank referred to in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, shall on the first Monday in March or within ten days thereafter make and file with the state board of equalization a sworn statement showing the condition of said bank at the close of business on the first Monday in March, and showing the amount of its authorized capital stock, the number of shares issued and the par value thereof, the amount received for stock issued, the amount of its surplus and undivided profits, if any, a complete list of the names and residences of its stockholders and the number of shares held by each as of record on the books of the bank at the close of business on the first Monday in March; or, in the case of unincorporated banks and bankers, of banks having no capital stock and of branches, agencies, or other representatives of banks doing business outside of this state, the moneyed capital, reserve, surplus, undivided profits, and other taxable property, as further defined in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, used by them in the banking business in this state, also a description of the real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, and the value of each piece thereof as assessed for the purpose of county taxation for the then current fiscal year.

Branches, agencies, or other representatives of banks doing business outside of this state, shall report the average amount owed by said branches, agencies, or other representatives, to the banks of which they are branches, agencies, or representatives, during the year ending the first Monday in March, also a description of the real estate other than mortgage interests therein, and the value of each piece thereof as assessed for the purpose of county taxation for the then current fiscal year.

The state board of equalization shall prescribe the form of reports, the manner of their verification, and may require the submission of tax receipts, or copies thereof certified to be correct by any notary public, in order to verify the statements as to the assessed value of the real estate, and may require such further information or statements as said board may deem necessary.

SEC. 14. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-six c, and to read as follows:

3666c. The secretary of state shall daily report to the state board of equalization the name, corporate number, principal place of business, date of incorporation, term of existence, funded debt, if any, authorized capital stock, and post-office address of all corporations, whether formed under the laws of this state or of any other state or country, a copy of the articles of incorporation of which is filed in his office and corporations which are authorized to do business in this state. He shall also report at said time all certificates of increase or decrease of capital stock or funded debt, dissolution, or other termination of corporate existence, change of name, consolidation and mergers, change of principal place of business, and such other information regarding corporations as said state board may require to assist it in making the assessments and levying the taxes as provided in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state.

Report on corporations
by secretary of state.

SEC. 15. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-seven, and to read as follows:

3667. The owner or holder of every franchise subject to taxation as provided in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four d of this code, shall within ten days after the first Monday in March in each year make a written report to the state board of equalization, signed and sworn to by the holder or owner himself, if an individual, or by one of the copartners if such owner or holder is a copartnership, or by the president or vice president and the treasurer or secretary if the owner is a corporation, containing such a concise statement or description of every franchise possessed or enjoyed on said day by such owner or holder, as the state board of equalization may prescribe, a copy of the law, grant, ordinance, or contract under which the same is held, or if possessed or enjoyed under a general law, a reference to such law, a statement of any condition, obligation, or burden imposed upon such franchise, or under which the same is enjoyed, and containing also:

Report by holders of franchises.

1. The name of the company, its nature, whether a person or persons, a partnership (with names of partners), an association, or corporation, and under the laws of what state, territory, or country organized, the nature of its business, the location of its principal place of business, the names and post-office addresses of its president, secretary, auditor, treasurer, superintendent, and general manager, the location of its principal place of business in this state, the name and post-office address of its chief officer or managing agent in this state, and the names and addresses of all subsidiary companies whose property and business are operated by it.

Name, etc.

2. The amount of its authorized capital stock, the amount thereof issued and outstanding on the first Monday in March, and the amount paid in thereon or the value of the property received therefor.

Capital stock.

3. The funded and floating debts and the interest paid thereon showing separately the debts of the operating company and of any subsidiary companies in this state on the thirty-first day of December last preceding.

Debts.

4. The market value of the stock and of the outstanding bonds, or, when said stock or bonds have no market value, the actual value thereof, for such periods and for such dates as the state board of equalization shall prescribe.

Value of stock.

5. The assessed value of its property as shown by the last completed assessment roll in each county, city and county, and city in the state for the purposes of taxation, and if any property of such corporation be assessed and taxed outside of the State of California the place where assessed, the amount of such assessment and taxes there paid the current fiscal year.

Assessed value of property.

6. The market and actual value of all nonassessable real and personal property owned by such company.

Value of property.

7. The amount and actual value of all of said real and personal property referred to in the last two preceding subdivisions of this section that is owned and possessed by the company at the date of its report; also, the amount and actual value of any other and additional real or personal property owned by the company at the date of said report.

Dividends.

8. The dividends paid during the year ending the thirty-first day of December last preceding, the surplus fund, if any, on said thirty-first day of December, or between such periods as the state board of equalization may determine. Those of the operating company and of each subsidiary company in this state to be shown separately.

Gross receipts.

9. The gross receipts from all sources for the year ending the thirty-first day of December last preceding, from the entire property and business, the gross receipts from such classes of business as the state board may designate, to be reported separately; also, the total gross receipts from intrastate business and from interstate business so far as the same relate to this state, the same to be separately stated.

Expenses.

10. The operating and other expenses.

Profit and loss

11. The balances of profit and loss, between such periods as the state board of equalization may determine.

Other matters.

12. Such other matters as the state board of equalization may deem necessary in order to enable it to assess and levy the taxes provided for in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state. The state board of equalization shall ascertain and determine from the foregoing reports or from the best information it can obtain the actual cash value on the first Monday in March of each such franchise, and shall assess and levy the taxes thereon in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (d) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state.

SEC. 16. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-seven a, and to read as follows:

Report by assessor or auditor.

3667*a*. Every assessor or auditor shall, in the manner, at the times, and for the year required by the state board of equalization, report to said board upon such forms as may be prescribed by said board the valuation placed by him upon the property of any company subject to an assessment upon its franchise under the provisions of sections three thousand six hundred sixty-four d and three thousand six hundred sixty-seven of this code.

SEC. 17. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-seven b, and to read as follows:

Estimates by state board of equalization when no report furnished.

3667*b*. If any company mentioned in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four of this code shall fail or refuse to furnish to the state board of equalization within the time prescribed by law the verified report provided for by law, the state board of equalization must note such failure or refusal in the record of assessments for state taxes provided for in section three thousand six hundred sixty-eight a of this code, and must make an estimate of the amount of the gross receipts, gross premiums, value of the shares of capital stock, or value of the franchises, of such company and must assess the same at the amount thus estimated, which assessment shall be the assessment upon which the taxes upon the property or franchise of the company for such year shall be levied and collected. And if in the succeeding year any such company shall again fail or refuse to furnish the verified report required by law, the state board shall make an estimate of the amount of the gross receipts, gross premiums, value of the shares of capital stock, or value of the franchise of such company, which estimate shall not be less than twice the amount of the estimate made by said board in the previous year, and shall note such failure or refusal as above provided, and the said estimate so made shall be the assessment upon which the taxes upon the property or franchise of the company for such year shall be levied and collected. In case of each succeeding consecutive failure or refusal the said board shall follow the same procedure until a true statement shall be furnished.

Any company failing or refusing to make and furnish any report prescribed by law to be made to the state board of equalization, or rendering a false or fraudulent report shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than three hundred dollars and not exceeding five thousand dollars for each such offense. Penalty.

Any person required to make, render, sign, or verify any report, as aforesaid, who makes any false or fraudulent report, with intent to defeat or evade the assessment required by law to be made, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall for each such offense be fined not less than three hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding one year in the county jail of the county where said report was verified, or be subject to both said fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. Penalty.

SEC. 18. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-seven c, and to read as follows:

3667*c*. The state board of equalization may, for good cause shown, by order entered upon its minutes, extend for not exceeding thirty days, the time fixed for filing any report required by said board. Extension of time for report.

SEC. 19. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-eight, and to read as follows:

3668. The state board of equalization must meet at the state capitol on the first Monday in March of each year, and continue in open session from day to day, Sundays and holidays excepted, until the first Monday in July. Between the first Monday in March and the third Monday before the first Monday in July the board must assess and levy the taxes as and in the manner provided for in section fourteen of article Assessment and levy of taxes.

thirteen of the constitution of this state, and sections of this code enacted to carry the same into effect.

The assessments must be made to the company, person or association owning or operating the property subject to said tax, or, in the case of banks, banking associations, savings and loan societies and trust companies, to the stockholders therein; provided, however, that in the case of banks in liquidation the assessment shall be made to the receiver, trustee or officer in charge of such liquidation, as the case may be, as the representative of the stockholders thereof.

If the name of the owner is unknown to the board, such assessment must be made to unknown owners.

Clerical errors occurring or appearing in the name of any company, person, association, or stockholder whose property is correctly assessed, or in the making, or extension of any assessment upon the records of the state board of equalization, which do not affect the substantial rights of the taxpayer, shall not invalidate the assessment.

Request of bank to assess entire taxable value of shares of stock.

Provided, however, that if any bank shall by resolution of its board of directors, request the state board of equalization to assess to and in the name of such bank so requesting, the entire taxable value of all the shares of the capital stock of such bank, as determined by said state board, instead of assessing such shares to and in the name of the individual stockholders or shareholders owning the same, and if such bank shall promise that it will, upon being notified by said state board, of such assessment thereof to said bank, and of the amount of taxes to be paid upon such assessment, pay such taxes at the times when taxes assessed and levied under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and sections of this code enacted to carry the same into effect are due and payable, which request to assess said bank and promise to pay said tax shall be in substantially the following form:

Form.

The state board of equalization is hereby instructed to assess in the name of this bank and not to the individual stockholders or shareholders therein, the taxable value of all the shares of capital stock in this bank and such bank hereby promises to pay to the state treasurer the amount of the tax levied upon such assessment when such taxes are due and payable under the laws of this state.

By (here insert title of official signing.)

Then the state board may assess the capital stock to and in the name of such bank and said promise to pay the taxes shall be binding upon such bank and collection of such taxes from such bank may be enforced in the manner and by the same method as is provided for the collection of other taxes assessed and levied under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and sections of this code enacted to carry the same into effect.

On the third Monday before the first Monday in July the said board shall publish a notice in one daily newspaper of general circulation published at the state capital, in one daily newspaper of general circulation published in the city and county of San Francisco, and in one daily newspaper of general circulation published in the city of Los Angeles, that the assessment of property for state taxes has been completed, and that the record of assessments for state taxes will be delivered to the controller on the first Monday in July, and that if any company, person, or association is dissatisfied with the assessment made by the board, it may, at any time before the taxes thereon shall become due and payable, apply to the board to have the same corrected in any particular. The board shall have power at any time on or before the first Monday in July to correct the record of assessments for state taxes and may increase or decrease any assessment therein if in its judgment the evidence presented or obtained warrants such action.

of
assessments.

3668*a*. The state board of equalization must prepare each year a book, in one or more volumes, to be called the "record of assessments for state taxes," in which must be entered, either in writing or printing, or by both writing and printing, each assessment and levy made by said board upon the property and franchises mentioned in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four of this code, describing the property assessed, and such assessments shall be classified and entered, in such separate parts of said record as the board shall prescribe. On the first Monday in July the secretary of the state board of equalization must deliver to the controller of state the record of assessments for state taxes, certified to by the chairman and secretary of the board, which certificate shall be substantially as follows: "We, _____, chairman, and _____, secretary, of the state board of equalization of the State of California do hereby certify that between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in July, 19____, the state board of equalization made diligent inquiry and examination to ascertain all property and companies subject to assessment and taxation for state purposes, as required by the constitution of this state; that said board has faithfully complied with all the duties imposed upon it by the constitution and laws of the State of California; that said board has not imposed any unjust or double assessment through malice or ill-will, or otherwise; nor allowed any company or property to escape a just assessment through favor or reward, or otherwise."

Record of
assessments
for state taxes.

Certificate.

But the failure to subscribe such certificate to such record of assessments for state taxes, or any certificate, shall not in any manner affect the validity of any assessment. Such record of assessments shall constitute the warrant for the controller to collect the taxes assessed and levied upon the property and franchises mentioned in section three thousand six hundred sixty-four of this code.

SEC. 21. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-eight b, and to read as follows:

Taxes payable, when.

3668*b*. The taxes assessed and levied as provided in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, and in and by the provisions of this code enacted to carry the same into effect, shall be due and payable on the first Monday in July in each year, and one-half thereof shall be delinquent on the sixth Monday after said first Monday in July at six o'clock p.m., and unless paid prior thereto, fifteen per cent shall be added to the amount thereof, and unless paid prior to the first Monday in February next thereafter at six o'clock p.m., an additional five per cent shall be added to the amount thereof; and the unpaid portion, or the remaining one-half of said taxes shall become delinquent on the first Monday in February next succeeding the day upon which they became due and payable, at six o'clock p.m.; and if not paid prior thereto five per cent shall be added to the amount thereof; provided, that all taxes provided for or levied under said section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and the provisions of this code enacted to carry the same into effect which are not fully secured by real property are due and payable at the time the assessment is made. When in the opinion of the state board of equalization any of the taxes provided for in this section are not a lien upon real property sufficient to secure the payment of the taxes, said board may direct the controller, or his duly authorized representative, to collect the same at any time before the first Monday in August thereafter, and the controller may collect the taxes by seizure and sale of any property owned by the company against whom the tax is assessed.

Taxes not fully secured by personal property.

Sale of property at public auction.

The sale of any property so seized shall be made at public auction and of a sufficient amount of the property to pay the taxes, penalties and costs, and be made after one week's notice of the time and place of such sale given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the property seized is situate, or if there be no newspaper of general circulation published in such county, then by posting of such notice in three public places in such county.

Notice.

Said notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold together with a statement of the amount of the taxes, penalties and costs due thereon and the name of the owner of said property and a further statement that unless the taxes, penalties and costs are paid on or before the day fixed in said notice for such sale of said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said taxes, penalties and costs, said property will be sold in accordance with law and said notice.

Bill of sale.

On payment of the price bid for any property sold, the delivery thereof with bill of sale executed by the controller vests the title in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property so seized, may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the owner. All of the proceeds of any such sale in excess of the taxes, penalties, and costs, must be returned to the owner of the property sold, and until claimed must be deposited with the state treasurer, as trustee for such owner, and subject to the order of the owner thereof, his heirs, or assigns.

Within ten days after the receipt of the record of assessments for state taxes, the controller must begin the publication of a notice to appear daily for two weeks, in one daily newspaper of general circulation published at the state capital, in one daily newspaper of general circulation published in the city and county of San Francisco, and in one daily newspaper of general circulation published in the city of Los Angeles, specifying:

Notice by
state controller.

1. That he has received from the state board of equalization the record of assessments for state taxes.

2. That the taxes therein assessed are due and payable on the first Monday in July and that one-half thereof will be delinquent on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in July at six o'clock p.m., and that unless paid to the state treasurer at the capital prior thereto, fifteen per cent will be added to the amount thereof, and unless paid prior to the first Monday in February next thereafter at six o'clock p.m., an additional five per cent will be added to the amount thereof; and that the remaining one-half of said taxes will become delinquent on the first Monday in February next succeeding the day upon which they became due and payable, at six o'clock p.m.; and if not paid to the state treasurer at the capital prior thereto, five per cent will be added to the amount thereof.

SEC. 22. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-eight c, and to read as follows:

3668c. The taxes levied under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and sections of this code enacted to carry the same into effect shall constitute a lien upon all the property and franchises of every kind and nature belonging to the companies subject to taxation for state purposes, which lien shall attach on the first Monday in March of each year. Every tax herein provided for has the effect of a judgment against the company, and every lien created by the constitutional and statutory provisions aforesaid has the effect of an execution duly levied against all property of the delinquent; the judgment is not satisfied nor the lien removed until such taxes, penalties, and costs are paid, or the property sold for the payment thereof. No final discharge in bankruptcy or decree of dissolution shall be made and entered by any court, nor shall the county clerk of any county or the secretary of state file any such discharge or decree, or file any other document by which the term of existence of any corporation shall be reduced or terminated until all taxes, penalties, and costs due on assessments made under the constitutional and statutory provisions aforesaid shall have been paid and discharged.

lien on property
and franchises.

SEC. 23. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-nine, and to read as follows:

Taxes paid to state
treasurer.

3669. 1. All taxes assessed and levied under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and sections of this code enacted to carry the same into effect shall be paid to the state treasurer, upon the order of the controller, without deduction for any taxes assessed and levied to pay the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness mentioned in subdivision (e) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, and the amount due to the cities, cities and counties, counties, towns, townships, and districts on account of said taxes assessed and levied for such bonded indebtedness shall be paid to said cities, cities and counties, counties, towns, townships, or districts in the manner provided by law. The controller must mark the date of payment of any tax on the record of assessments for state taxes.

Controller's
receipt.

2. The controller must give a receipt to the person paying any tax, or any part of any tax, specifying the amount of the assessment and the tax, or part of tax, paid, and the amount remaining unpaid, if any, with a description of the property assessed; provided, that the receipt for the second half of the taxes may refer, by number or in any other intelligible manner, to the receipt given for the first half of said taxes, in lieu of a description of the property assessed.

Taxes in excess of what was legally due.

3. Whenever any taxes, penalties, or costs collected and paid to the state treasurer as heretofore provided, shall have been paid more than once, or shall have been erroneously or illegally collected, or when any taxes shall have been collected and paid pursuant to said provisions of law upon a computation erroneously made by reason of clerical mistake of the officers or employees of the state board of equalization, or shall have been computed in a manner contrary to law, the state board of equalization shall certify to the state board of control the amount of such taxes, penalties, or costs, collected in excess of what was legally due, from whom they were collected or by whom paid, and if approved by said board of control, the same shall be credited to the company or person to whom it rightfully belongs, at the time of the next payment of taxes. No claim for such credit shall be so audited, approved, allowed, or paid unless presented within one year after the payment sought to be refunded.

assessment.

4. In case the assessment of any property or any company is duplicated upon the record of assessments for state taxes, or there appears thereon the assessment of any company whose charter has been forfeited or right to do business in this state has been forfeited, or the assessment of any company which, for any reason, could not be legally assessed, the state board of equalization or the controller shall certify such fact to the state board of control and said board of control shall authorize the cancellation of such assessment.

SEC. 24. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-nine a, and to read as follows:

3669*a*. 1. Any company, person or association claiming and protesting as herein provided that the assessment made against him or it by the state board of equalization is void in whole or in part may bring an action against the state treasurer for the recovery of the whole or any part of such tax, penalties or costs paid on such assessment upon the grounds stated in such protest, but no such action may be brought later than the third Monday in February next following the day on which the taxes were due, nor unless such company, person or association shall have filed with the state controller at the time of payment of such taxes a written protest stating whether the whole assessment is claimed to be void, or if a part only, what part, and the grounds upon which such claim is founded; and when so paid under protest the payment shall in no case be regarded as voluntary.

Action for recovery of tax.

2. Whenever under the provisions of this section an action is commenced against the state treasurer, a copy of the complaint and of the summons must be served upon the treasurer, or his deputy. At the time the treasurer demurs or answers, he may demand that the action be tried in the superior court of the county of Sacramento, which demand must be granted. The attorney general must defend the action. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for. A failure to begin such action within the time herein specified shall be a bar against the recovery of such taxes. In any such action the court shall have power to render judgment for plaintiff for any part or portion of the tax, penalties or costs found to be void and so paid by plaintiff upon such assessment.

Procedure.

3. In no case shall any judgment be rendered in favor of plaintiff in any action brought against the state treasurer to recover any tax, when said action is brought by or in the name of an assignee of the person, company or corporation paying said tax, or by any person, company or corporation other than the person, company or corporation that has paid said tax.

No judgment for plaintiff, when.

SEC. 25. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-nine b, and to read as follows:

3669*b*. 1. Every assessment of property made after November 8, 1910, under the provisions of section fourteen, article thirteen of the constitution and under the provisions of any law enacted to carry into effect said section of the constitution which is, or may hereafter be adjudged to be invalid by reason of any illegality, invalidity, or irregularity, declared or existing, in the assessment of such property, or in the mode provided for the assessment thereof, shall be remade and the property reassessed and equalized for each year for which such assessment is invalid as aforesaid, and for the year for which the assessment of such property was invalid as aforesaid, and such reassessment and equalization shall be made by the same officers and boards, at the same time or times, as are prescribed by law for the assessment and equalization of property, of the same classes or kinds as the property which hereby is required to be reassessed. The assessment and equalized assessment of such property shall be entered on the several assessment rolls or books in the same manner that assessments of such property are or were required by law to be entered for the year or years for which such reassessments shall be made. And there is hereby levied for state purposes the same rates of taxation for each of such respective years as were levied upon such property for each of said years for said state purposes.

Manner of
ment.

2. All property herein and hereby authorized to be reassessed shall be reassessed and equalized by the proper officers and boards at the value to which and to the person or corporation to whom or to which such property ought, for each of such years, to have been assessed, under such rules of notice and at the times and in the modes as are prescribed for the assessment and equalization of like classes of property; and the assessment and equalization thereof, and the levy and collection of taxes thereunder, shall be made by the proper officers at the time, upon like notice and in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for making assessments and equalizing the same, and for the levy and collection of taxes on like classes of property; and if the taxes so relieved shall become delinquent, there shall be added thereto and the amount thereof the same percentage as a penalty for such delinquency as is added to other delinquent taxes on like classes of property; and such delinquent taxes and penalties added thereto shall be collected by the proper officers in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for the collection of delinquent taxes and penalties upon like classes of property, the collectors of such taxes to allow as credits thereon all payments theretofore made on the tax as first levied.

limitation on action
for collection
of taxes.

3. There shall be no limitation or limitations as to the time in which actions for the collections of taxes levied under this section may be commenced, and all the provisions of law now or hereafter provided in respect to assessments, equalization, levy, and collection of taxes shall, where applicable, apply to reassessments, equalization, and relieves and collections of taxes made under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 26. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-nine c, and to read as follows:

Suspension of corporate powers on failure to pay taxes.

3669c. 1. Within ten days after the first Monday in February, the controller shall send by mail to the last known address of any company whose taxes are delinquent a notice of the amount of said taxes, penalties, and costs, and that if the said taxes, penalties, and costs are not paid on or before the Saturday preceding the first Monday in March next thereafter at six o'clock p.m. of said day, the corporate powers, rights and privileges of such delinquent company, if it be a domestic corporation, will be at that time suspended and thereafter incapable of exercise, and that if the delinquent company be a foreign corporation it will thereupon forfeit its right to do intrastate business in this state. If the taxes, penalties, and costs are not paid within the time specified in said notice, the controller shall, on said Saturday preceding the first Monday in March at six o'clock p.m. of said day, mark on the record of assessments for state taxes opposite the assessment of the delinquent corporation the words "corporate powers suspended." if the delinquent corporation be a domestic corporation, and thereupon said corporate powers shall be suspended and incapable of exercise until restored as hereinafter provided; and if the delinquent corporation be a foreign corporation the controller shall mark on the record of assessments for state taxes opposite the assessment of such delinquent corporation the words "right to do intrastate business forfeited" and thereupon said right to do such business shall be so forfeited. He shall at once report to the secretary of state the name and number of charter of each corporation whose corporate powers have been suspended or right to do business has been forfeited for nonpayment of taxes.

On or before the first Monday in April of each year the controller shall make a list of all corporations subject to the tax imposed under sections three thousand six hundred sixty-four a, three thousand six hundred sixty-four b, three thousand six hundred sixty-four c, and three thousand six hundred sixty-four d of this code and which have failed to pay the same and transmit a certified copy thereof to each county clerk and county recorder in this state. Said county clerks and county recorders shall file such certified copies in their respective offices in such manner that the same shall be preserved in the form of a permanent record of such office and easily identified by and available to the public. Said copies so certified by the controller and filed as herein provided shall in the case of each corporation state whether such corporation is a domestic or foreign corporation and specify the penalty which each corporation has incurred for failure to pay the tax imposed by this act. Such certified copies so filed with either of said county officers, or any copy thereof certified by the controller shall be received in evidence in any court in lieu of the original record on file with the controller and shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all statements contained therein.

List sent to county clerk and county recorder

Corporate powers suspended, when.

2. After six o'clock p.m. of the Saturday preceding the first Monday in March in any year, the corporate rights, privileges and powers of every domestic corporation which has failed to pay said tax and money penalty shall, from and after said hour of said day, be suspended, and incapable of being exercised for any purpose or in any manner, except to defend any action brought in any court against such corporation, until said tax with all accrued penalties, and all taxes and charges due the state under the corporation license act are paid as hereinafter provided. The right and privilege of every foreign corporation to transact intrastate business in this state shall, for failure to pay said tax and money penalty, be forfeited at said hour of said day, and the controller shall make a record of such forfeiture. In the case of foreign corporations such forfeiture may be relieved and the corporation's privilege to transact intrastate business in this state restored in the manner hereinafter provided. After said hour of said day and until such taxes, penalties and charges are paid, every person who attempts or purports to exercise any of the rights, privileges or powers of any delinquent corporation, or, who transacts or attempts to transact any intrastate business in this state in behalf of any forfeited foreign corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than fifty days or more than five hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The jurisdiction of such offense shall be held to be in any county in which any part of such attempted exercise of such powers, or any part of such transaction of business was had or occurred. Every contract made in violation of this section is hereby declared to be void.

Penalty for exercising powers of delinquent corporation.

Procedure for restoration of powers.

3. All corporate powers, rights and privileges suspended, or forfeited may be revived and restored to full force and effect by the payment of all accrued taxes and penalties due to the state under sections three thousand six hundred sixty-four a, three thousand six hundred sixty-four b, three thousand six hundred sixty-four c, and three thousand six hundred sixty-four d of this code and the corporation license act. In case the application for such revivor and restoration is not made during the year in which such suspension or forfeiture occurred, such application shall not be granted nor a certificate of revivor issued to such corporation until there is paid to the controller in addition to said tax and money penalty due the state under said sections of this code for the year in which such suspension or forfeiture occurred, a sum of money equal to the tax, without penalty, imposed under the provisions of said sections of this code during the year in which such suspension or forfeiture occurred. for each year succeeding said year in which such suspension or forfeiture occurred. Upon payment of all such taxes and penalties, and upon payment of all other taxes due the state under the corporation license act of this state, the state controller shall issue a certificate under his seal evidencing such payment and restoration, which certificate, when recorded in the office of any county recorder shall constitute a release of all existing liens for such taxes upon the property of such corporation. Each county recorder shall keep an index of all such controller's certificates recorded by him. Upon presentation of such controller's certificate of revivor to any county clerk said officer shall make a record thereof in his office in a book kept for such purpose. The record so made by said county clerk shall be prima facie evidence of the restoration to such corporation of all previously suspended or forfeited rights, powers and privileges unless it appears from the records in the office of such county clerk or of the secretary of state that subsequent to the date of such certificate of revivor the powers of said corporation have been suspended or its right to do intrastate business forfeited.

Action by controller to collect delinquent taxes.

4. The controller may, on or before the thirtieth day of April next following said delinquency and suspension or forfeiture, bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California, to collect any delinquent taxes, together with any penalties, or costs, which have not been paid in accordance with the provisions of this code and appearing delinquent upon the record of assessments for state taxes hereinbefore mentioned.

The attorney general must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for. In such action a writ of attachment may be issued, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of said attachment is required.

Service of summons.

In the case of companies whose right to do business has been forfeited or corporate powers suspended, service of summons may be made upon the persons provided for by law to be served as agents or officers of any of such companies and such persons shall be deemed to be the agents of such companies for all purposes necessary in order to prosecute such action. In the case of corporations whose powers have been suspended, the persons constituting the board of directors thereof shall have the power and right to defend such action. Payment of the taxes and penalties, or amount of the judgment recovered in such action must be made to the state treasurer. In such actions the record of assessments for state taxes, or a copy of so much thereof as is applicable in said action, duly certified by the controller, or by the secretary of the state board of equalization, showing unpaid taxes against any company, person or association assessed by the state board of equalization, is prima facie evidence of the assessment upon the property and franchises, the delinquency, the amount of the taxes, penalties, and costs due and unpaid to the state, and that the company, person, or association is indebted to the people of the State of California in the amount of taxes and penalties therein appearing unpaid, and that all the forms of law in relation to the assessment and levy of such taxes have been complied with.

Evidence of unpaid taxes.

SEC. 27. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred sixty-nine d, and to be read as follows:

Procedure for relieving forfeiture.

3669*d*. 1. Any corporation which has heretofore failed to pay any tax and penalty imposed under the provisions of section fourteen, article thirteen, of the constitution, and chapter three hundred thirty-five, statutes 1911 and amendments thereof, and for such nonpayment suffered a forfeiture of the charter of such corporation or of its right to do business in this state, may be relieved of such forfeiture, or may be restored to its right to do business in this state, upon making application therefor in writing and paying the tax and penalties for nonpayment of which such forfeiture occurred. Application for restoration, under the provisions of this section, shall be made in writing, shall be signed by four-fifths of the surviving trustees or directors of said corporation, duly verified by said trustees or directors, and filed with the state controller. In case such application for revivor is made in any year other than the year in which such forfeiture occurred then upon payment of twice the amount of the tax and penalty due the state for the year in which such forfeiture occurred, together with the amount of the license fee due the state under the corporation license tax act for the year in which such forfeiture occurred and for the year in which such revivor is sought, the state controller shall issue a certificate of revivor to such corporation, and thereupon such corporation is revived and its powers restored to full force and effect.

The revivor of a corporation under the provisions of this section shall be without prejudice to any action or proceeding, defense or right, which has occurred by reason of the original forfeiture.

Reviving corporation under new name.

2. In case the name of any corporation which has suffered a forfeiture under the provisions of chapter three hundred thirty-five, statutes of 1911 or amendments thereof, has been adopted by any other corporation since the date of said forfeiture, or in case any corporation has adopted subsequent to such forfeiture any name so closely resembling the name of such reviving corporation as will tend to deceive, then such reviving corporation shall be entitled to a certificate of revivor pursuant to the terms of this section only upon the adopting by such corporation seeking revivor of a new name, and in such case nothing in this section contained shall be construed as permitting such reviving corporation to carry on any business under its former name. Such reviving corporation shall have the right to use its former name or take such new name only upon filing an application therefor with the secretary of state, and upon the issuing of a certificate to such corporation by the secretary of state, setting forth the right of such corporation to take such new name or use its former name as the case may be. The secretary of state shall not issue any certificate permitting any corporation to take or use the name of any corporation heretofore organized in this state and which has not suffered a forfeiture under either of the acts in this section first above mentioned, or to take or use a name so closely resembling the name of any corporation heretofore organized in this state as will tend to deceive.

The provisions of title nine, part three of the Code of Civil Procedure, in so far as they conflict with this section of this code are not applicable to corporations seeking revivor under this section.

3669e. In addition to the powers and duties prescribed elsewhere in this code, it is the duty of the state board of equalization, and the said board shall have power, for carrying into effect the provisions for assessments under section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state: Powers of state board of equalization.

1. To prescribe the forms upon which the reports required by sections three thousand six hundred sixty-five c, three thousand six hundred sixty-six b and three thousand six hundred sixty-seven of this code shall be made. Prescribe forms.

2. Whenever deemed necessary, to visit as a board, or by the individual members thereof, or to send its secretary or duly appointed representative to any portion of this state for the purpose of inspecting property and learning the value thereof, and of collecting information to enable it to justly assess and levy the taxes provided for as aforesaid. Inspect property.

3. To call before it, or any member thereof, or before its secretary or duly appointed representative on such visit, any public official, and to require him to produce any public record, papers or documents in his custody. Call public official.

4. To issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses or the production of books before the board, or any member thereof; which subpoenas must be signed by a member of the board and may be served by any person. Issue subpoenas.

5. To require any person having knowledge of the business of any of the companies mentioned in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, or having the custody of the books and accounts of such companies, to attend before the board or any member thereof, or before the secretary or the duly appointed representative of said board and bring with him for inspection any books, or papers, of such company in his possession or under his control, and to testify under oath touching any matter relating to the assessment to be made under the provisions of the constitution aforesaid. A member of the board, its secretary, or duly appointed representative is authorized to administer such oath. Require attendance.

6. Said board of equalization is hereby authorized and empowered to examine the books and accounts of all companies required by law to report to it and to employ an expert accountant or accountants to assist in the examination of the books and accounts of any such companies when in the judgment of said board the exigencies of the case may so require. Examine books and accounts.

7. It shall be unlawful for any member or ex-member of the state board of equalization, or for any agent employed by it, or for the controller, or ex-controller, or for any person employed by him or for any person who may at any time have obtained such knowledge from any of the foregoing officers or persons, to divulge or make known in any manner Unlawful to divulge information.

whatever not provided by law, any of the following items of information concerning the business affairs of companies reporting to the said board:

(a) Any information concerning the business affairs of any company which is gained during an examination of its books and accounts or in any other manner, and which information is not required to be reported to the state board of equalization in the reports or statements provided for in paragraphs numbered one to twelve of section three thousand six hundred sixty-five c and paragraphs numbered one to ten of section three thousand six hundred sixty-seven of this code.

(b) Any information, other than the assessment and the amount of taxes levied, obtained by the state board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of sections three thousand six hundred sixty-five c and three thousand six hundred sixty-seven of this code, from any company other than any of those enumerated in sections three thousand six hundred sixty-four a, three thousand six hundred sixty-four b and three thousand six hundred sixty-four c of this code.

(c) Any particular item or items of information relating to the disposition of its earnings contained in the report of a quasi-public corporation which any such corporation may, by written communication specifying the items and presented at the time when it files its report, request shall be treated as confidential.

Provided, however, that the governor may authorize examination of such reports by other state officers, in which event the information obtained by such officer shall not be made public, and he may also direct that any of the information herein referred to be made public, in which event it shall no longer be unlawful to divulge or make known the same.

Penalty.

Any violation of the provisions of subdivision seven of this section shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 29. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred seventy, and to read as follows:

Equalization
of assessments on real estate of
banks.

3670. On the second Monday in August of each year the auditor of each county must report to the state board of equalization, in addition to the items required to be so reported by him under section three thousand seven hundred twenty-eight of this code, the value of each piece of real estate other than mortgage interests therein belonging to each bank in his county as assessed and equalized for purposes of county taxation.

Whenever the state board of equalization is satisfied after investigation that any county assessor, or board of equalization, has assessed any real estate belonging to any bank above its full cash value and has thereby unjustly reduced the amount of taxes due the state from said bank, said state board shall, under such rules of notice to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county affected thereby as the said state board shall deem reasonable, equalize the assessed value of such real estate and shall upon completion of said equalization issue an order to said assessor or board of equalization and to the county auditor of the county in which said real estate is located, fixing the assessed value of said real estate.

The value so equalized and fixed, and no other, shall be deemed the value, as assessed for county taxes, of such real estate, and the sole basis of taxation upon such real estate for county taxes.

A copy of the order certified by the secretary of the state board of equalization shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings of the board resulting in the action which is the subject matter of the order.

3670a. The state board of equalization shall immediately after the county and city assessments have been completed, ascertain the value of any real estate belonging to any insurance company as assessed and equalized for purposes of county and of city taxation.

Equalization
of assessments
on real estate of
companies.

Whenever the state board of equalization is satisfied after investigation that any county, city and county, city, or district assessor, or board of equalization, has assessed any real estate belonging to any insurance company above its full cash value and has thereby unjustly reduced the amount of taxes due the state from said insurance company, said state board shall, under such rules of notice to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county or the proper officer of the city affected as the board shall deem reasonable, equalize the assessed value of such real estate and shall upon the completion of said equalization, issue an order to said assessor or board of equalization and to the county, city and county, city or district auditor or clerk of the county, city and county, city, or district in which said real estate is located, fixing the assessed value of said real estate.

The value so equalized and fixed, and no other, shall be deemed the value, as assessed for county, city and county, city, or district taxes, of such real estate, and the sole basis of taxation upon such real estate, for county, municipal and district taxes.

A copy of the order certified by the secretary of the state board of equalization shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings of the board resulting in the action which is the subject matter of the order.

SEC. 31. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred seventy b, and to read as follows:

Segregation
by assessor.

3670b. Each county, city and county, city, and district assessor must segregate on his assessment roll, as directed by the state board of equalization:

Assessments
by state
equalization.

1. The assessments made by the state board of equalization, and apportioned to the county, city and county, city, town, township, or district, upon the franchises, roadway, roadbed, rails and rolling stock of all railroads operated in more than one county in this state under the provisions of the Political Code as the same existed and were in force on the seventh day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten; and

by assessors.

2. The assessments made by said assessors of any other property enumerated in subdivisions (a), (b), and (d) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, which is located in the county, or city and county, or any city, town, township, or district in which it is subject to taxation for paying the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any city, city and county, county, town, township, or district prior to the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten, as provided in subdivision (e) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state.

Immediately upon completion of the assessment and equalization of property for the purposes of taxation in each year the auditor or clerk of each county, city and county, city, town, or district must transmit to the state board of equalization a duplicate of that part of the assessment roll containing the assessments and apportionments referred to in paragraphs one and two of this section.

assessments.

Whenever the state board of equalization is satisfied after investigation that any county, city, or other assessor, or board of equalization, has assessed for taxation to pay the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any county, city and county, city, town, township, or district prior to the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten, as provided in subdivision (e) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, any of the property taxed exclusively for state purposes as provided in subdivisions (a), (b) and (d) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, or has assessed for purposes of county, city and county, city, or district taxation the property other than the franchise of any company taxable for a franchise under subdivision (d) of said section and article of the constitution, above its full cash value and has thereby unjustly reduced the amount of taxes due the state on such property, said state board shall, under such rules of notice to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county, or city and county, or to the city clerk of the city, affected thereby as the board shall deem reasonable, equalize the assessed value of such property, and shall issue an order to said assessor or board of equalization and to the county or city auditor or clerk of the county, city and county, or city in which the property is located, fixing the assessed value of such property.

The value so equalized and assessed, and no other, shall be deemed the value of said property, and its assessment for taxes levied to pay the principal and interest of any such outstanding bonded indebtedness, and in the case of companies taxable for a franchise under said subdivision (d) of said section and article of the constitution shall be deemed the value of the said property, and its assessment for taxes for county, city and county, municipal and district purposes.

When making the tax levy and fixing the rates of taxation for county, city and county, city, town, township, or district purposes, the board of supervisors of any county, or city and county, and the corresponding authority in any city, having bonded indebtedness issued and outstanding on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten, shall fix the tax rate for such bonded indebtedness separate and apart from all other tax rates, whether for subsequent bonded indebtedness or for other purposes.

Separate tax rate for bonded indebtedness.

The county, city and county, or city auditor or clerk shall extend on the assessment roll against the assessments segregated as herein provided, the taxes necessary to pay the principal and interest of said bonded indebtedness at the same rate as said taxes for payment of principal and interest of said outstanding bonded indebtedness shall be levied upon the other classes of property within the same county, city and county, city, town, township, or district, and the amount of each such taxes shall be certified by said auditor or clerk to the controller and the amount so certified shall then be credited by the controller to the county, city and county, city, town, township, or district to which it is due; and said amount shall be paid by said controller to the treasurer of such county, or city and county as provided in section three thousand six hundred seventy c of this code, and upon such payment said treasurer shall forthwith certify such fact to the tax collector who shall thereupon mark upon the assessment roll the date of payment and the words "paid by the state treasurer." The city clerk or auditor shall in the certificate mentioned in this paragraph also state the date when taxes in such city shall become delinquent

Payment by controller to county treasurer.

SEC. 32. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred seventy c, and to read as follows:

3670c. 1. The controller shall out of the taxes collected by him under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and the provisions of the sections of this code applicable thereto, credit to the fund created by an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature entitled: "An act appropriating money for the purpose of payment of that part of the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any city, city and county, county, town, township or district on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten, which is provided for in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, and as provided in an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature entitled 'An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation,' or any act or acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, the money due to each county, city and county, city, town, township, or district on account of taxes to pay the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any city, city and county, county, town, township or district, on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten.

Money credited to what fund.

Time for settlements with county treasurer.

2. The controller shall in the months of October and March in each year settle with the treasurer of each county and city and county for the money collected by said controller under this section, for the moneys due said county or city and county and the townships and districts within such county or city and county, in the same manner as settlements are made between the county or city and county treasurers and the controller as provided for in section three thousand eight hundred sixty-six of this code.

Settlement with city and town treasurers.

3. The controller shall at the same times, settle with each city and town for the moneys due such city or town for the purposes mentioned in this section, and when ready for such settlement shall notify the city or town treasurer of the amount of money due the city or town for said purposes, and that upon receipt of proper authority so to do, he will forward to said city or town treasurer a warrant for the amount thereof; provided, however, that upon receipt of notice from any such city or town treasurer that any bond issue matures for principal or interest before the date of such settlement, which notice shall state the amount thereof due from the state and the date of maturity, and that said amount due from the state is required in order to pay the same, the said controller must, before said date of maturity, forward his warrant to such city or town treasurer in the manner above provided for the amount ascertained by him to be due. The treasurer of the county or city and county shall forthwith, upon receipt by him of the moneys so hereinbefore directed to be paid by said controller, credit the amount so received by him to the county, city and county, township or district, respectively entitled thereto, and pay the same in the manner provided by law.

Repayment of excess.

4. Any excess paid by the controller to a county, city and county, city, town, or to a county or city and county or any township or district, over and above the state's share of the amount actually expended by such county, city and county, city, town, township or district, to pay the interest and principal of said bonded indebtedness in any year, shall be repaid to the state in such manner as the controller shall direct.

SEC. 33. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred seventy-one, and to read as follows:

3671. Until the year one thousand nine hundred eighteen the state shall reimburse any and all counties which sustain loss of revenue by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation for the net loss in county revenue occasioned by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation in the manner, at the times, and in the amounts specified in an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature entitled "An act to provide for the reimbursement of counties in this state which sustain net loss of revenue by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation, under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state," or any act or acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto.

Reimbursement of counties until 1918.

SEC. 34. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred seventy-one a, and to read as follows:

3671*a*. The provisions of section three thousand eight hundred seventy-six of the Political Code shall not apply to the settlements made with the state treasurer under sections three thousand six hundred seventy c and three thousand six hundred seventy-one of this code, but the county board of supervisors may if it deem necessary allow the county treasurer the actual expenses incurred in collecting the money due the county from the state.

Expenses of county treasurer.

SEC. 35. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred seventy-one b, and to read as follows:

3671*b*. The board of supervisors of each county shall in the month of September of each year determine the amount of loss to each district in the county where loss is occasioned in such district by the withdrawal from local taxation of property taxed for state purposes only, and in the month of December next thereafter shall reimburse such district from the general funds of the county for one-half of such loss, and in the month of May next thereafter shall reimburse such district from the general fund of the county for the remaining one-half of such loss.

Reimbursement of districts.

SEC. 36. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred seventy-one c, and to read as follows:

3671*c*. Any tax required to be levied for state purposes as provided in subdivision (e) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution as amended the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten, to meet any deficiency in the state revenue shall be assessed, levied and collected on all property in the state, not exempt from taxation including the classes of property enumerated in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, under the provisions of the Political Code relating to the assessment, levy and collection of state and county taxes as said provisions were in force on the seventh day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten.

Tax to meet deficiency in state revenue.

SEC. 37. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand six hundred seventy-one d, and to read as follows:

Laws in effect.

3671*d*. All laws in force prior to the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten, relating to taxation, in so far as said laws may be necessary for the assessment, levy, and collection of state, county, city and county, municipal or district taxes, or in so far as said laws may be necessary for the assessment, levy and collection of the taxes for state purposes, on all the property in the state, not exempt from taxation, to meet a deficiency in the revenues for the support of the state government, or to pay the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any city, city and county, county, town, township, or district, both as provided in subdivision (e) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution as amended on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten shall be and remain, for such purposes, in full force and effect.

Substitute act.

SEC. 38. This act is a revision of and substitute for the act entitled "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations, banks and insurance companies for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation," approved April 1, 1911, and amendments thereof; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall affect any tax heretofore levied or assessed in accordance with the provisions of said act and amendments thereof; and provided, further, that all laws in force prior to the taking effect of this act and providing for the levy and collection of such taxes shall, for the purpose of the collection of such taxes, remain in full force and effect.

In effect.

SEC. 39. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy, shall, under the provisions of section one of article four of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 215.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act prescribing terms and conditions upon which corporations may transact business in this state and providing penalties and forfeitures for noncompliance," approved May 10, 1915, relating to the terms and conditions upon which corporations may transact business in this state.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act prescribing the terms and conditions upon which corporations may transact business in this state and providing penalties for forfeitures for non-compliance," approved May 10, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 423.

Section 1. Every corporation organized under the laws of another state, territory, or of a foreign country, which is now doing interstate or intrastate business in this state or maintaining an office herein, and which has not filed with the secretary of state prior to the day on which this act takes effect the document or documents required by this section, or which shall hereafter do such business in this state or maintain an office herein, or which shall enter this state for the purpose of doing such business herein, must file in the office of the secretary of state of the State of California a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or of its charter, or of the statute or statutes, or legislative, or executive, or governmental act or acts creating it, in cases where it has been created by charter, or statute, or legislative, or executive, or governmental act, duly certified by the secretary of state or other officer authorized by the law of the jurisdiction under which such corporation is formed to certify such copy, and must also file a certified copy thereof, duly certified by the secretary of state of this state in the office of the county clerk of the county where its principal place of business in this state is located, and also where such corporation owns any real property. With such certified copy of its articles of incorporation, charter, or legislative, executive or governmental act creating it, such corporation shall also file with the secretary of state an affidavit sworn to by the president or secretary of such corporation, which shall state the amount of such corporation's authorized capital stock at or within fifteen days prior to such filing. Every such corporation shall pay to the secretary of state for filing in his office such certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or of its charter, or of the statute or statutes, or legislative, or executive, or governmental act or acts creating it, a fee of seventy-five dollars; provided, that foreign corporations organized for educational, religious, scientific or charitable purposes and having no capital stock, and foreign nonprofit corporations shall pay a fee of five dollars for filing the document or documents hereinabove required.

Foreign corporations must file amendment, etc.

Affidavit showing capital stock.

Foreign corporations shall also file any amendment of or change in any of the provisions of its original articles of incorporation, or charter, or of the statute or legislative, executive or governmental act or acts creating it. Every foreign corporation subject to the tax hereinafter provided shall file with the secretary of state, at the time it tenders payment of said tax and any penalty which has accrued, an affidavit sworn to by its president or secretary, showing the amount of its authorized capital stock on the first day of January of the year in which said payment is made, and in the event that such authorized capital stock, as shown by such affidavit, differs from the amount of such capital stock as appears from the records of the secretary of state, then the tax hereinafter provided shall be measured by the amount of the capital stock shown in such affidavit. The license hereinafter required shall not be issued nor shall the amount so tendered be accepted until copies of any documents relating to such change in authorized capital stock, certified as required by this section, shall have been filed with the secretary of state.

Representative of foreign corporation.

Every foreign corporation shall file with the secretary of state a designation of some person residing within this state upon whom process issued by authority of law may be served as the representative, for such purpose, of such corporation. A copy of such designation certified by the secretary of state is sufficient evidence of the appointment of such representative. Such process may be served on the person so designated, or, in the event that no such representative is designated, then on the secretary of state, and such service shall be a valid and binding service on such corporation.

Benefit of law.

Every corporation which complies with the provisions of this section is thereafter entitled to the benefit of the laws of this state limiting the time for the commencement of civil actions, but any corporation created by or under the laws of any foreign state or country and that has not complied with this section is not entitled to the benefit thereof, nor can any such foreign corporation maintain or defend any action or proceeding concerning its property in this state or any intrastate business or transaction, in any court of this state or acquire or convey any legal title to any real property within this state. In any action or proceeding instituted against any body styled as a corporation, but not created by nor under the laws of this state, evidence that such body has acted as a corporation, or employed methods usually employed by corporations, must be received by the court for the purpose of proving the existence of such corporation, the sufficiency of such evidence to be determined by the court with like effect as in other cases. Every corporation which has complied with the law requiring it to make and file a designation of the person upon whom process against it may be served, need not make or file any further designation. Any designation made may be revoked by the filing by the corporation with the secretary of state of a writing stating such revocation. Within forty days after the death or removal from the state of any person designated by the corporation, or after the revocation of the designation, the corporation must make a new designation, or be subject to the provisions and penalties of this section; provided, however, that any foreign corporation which, prior to the eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred one, shall have complied with the provisions of the act entitled, "An act to amend 'An act in relation to foreign corporations,' approved April first, one thousand eight hundred seventy-two," approved March seventeenth, one thousand eight hundred ninety-nine, shall, in lieu of the provisions of this section above set forth, file the affidavit and designation of representative herein required and the license tax due from such corporation shall be measured by the authorized capital stock, as shown thereby.

Sec. 2. Upon filing in the office of the secretary of state <sup>Fees.</sup> the certified copy of articles of incorporation of corporations organized under the laws of this state, there shall be paid to the secretary of state the fees prescribed therefor by section four hundred nine of the Political Code.

Sec. 3. Except those corporations hereinafter specified, <sup>Annual license.</sup> every corporation incorporated under the laws of this state, and every corporation incorporated under the laws of any other state, territory, or foreign country now doing intrastate business within this state, or which shall hereafter engage in intrastate business in this state, shall procure annually from the secretary of state a license authorizing the transaction of such <sup>Tax.</sup> business in this state, and pay therefor the license tax prescribed herein.

For the purpose of measuring said tax the secretary of state shall examine all articles of incorporation and all documents on file in his office relating to an increase or decrease in the authorized capital stock of corporations which are subject to said tax, and determine the amount due from each corporation by the following rule:

When the authorized capital stock of the corporation does <sup>Determination of tax.</sup> not exceed ten thousand dollars, the tax shall be ten dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds ten thousand dollars, but does not exceed twenty thousand dollars, the tax shall be fifteen dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds twenty thousand dollars but does not exceed fifty thousand dollars, the tax shall be twenty dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds fifty thousand dollars but does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, the tax shall be twenty-five dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds one hundred thousand dollars but does not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the tax shall be fifty dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars but does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars, the tax shall be seventy-five dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds five hundred thousand dollars but does not exceed one million dollars, the tax shall be one hundred dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds one million dollars but does not exceed three million dollars, the tax shall be two hundred dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds three million dollars but does not exceed five million dollars, the tax shall be three hundred fifty dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds five million dollars but does not exceed seven million five hundred thousand dollars, the tax shall be five hundred fifty dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds seven million five hundred thousand dollars but does not exceed ten million dollars, the tax shall be eight hundred dollars; when the authorized capital stock exceeds ten million dollars, the tax shall be one thousand dollars; when the capital stock of any corporation has no par value the tax shall be one hundred dollars; when part of the capital stock of any corporation has a par value and a part of such stock has no par value, the tax shall be computed upon such par value stock in accordance with the admeasurement schedule herein established, to which sum shall be added the sum of fifty dollars. Building and loan companies and associations shall pay an annual license tax of ten dollars.

Tax on corporations having no capital stock.

All corporations having no capital stock, but organized for profit, shall pay an annual tax of ten dollars. Said license tax shall be due and payable to the secretary of state on the first day of January of each and every year. Such license tax shall be paid on or before the hour of six o'clock p.m. of the first Monday of February of each year and if not so paid shall at said hour become delinquent and there shall thereupon be added thereto as a penalty for such delinquency the sum of ten dollars.

Tax authorizes transaction of business.

Sec. 4. The license hereby provided authorizes the domestic corporations holding the same to transact business in this state, and authorizes foreign corporations to transact intrastate business in this state, during the year or any fractional part of such year for which such license is issued. "Year" within the meaning of this act, means from and including the first day of January to and including the thirty-first day of December next thereafter.

License tax for part of year.

Sec. 5. At the time any corporation subject to the license tax provided herein shall file certified copy of articles of incorporation, or charter, or statute or statutes, or legislative, or executive or governmental act or acts creating a corporation, when filed between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of December, inclusive, in any year, there shall be paid to the secretary of state, in addition to all other fees required by law, that proportion of the license tax specified in section three of this act which the unexpired number of months of such year bears to the entire year including the month in which such filing occurs, and thereupon the secretary of state shall issue a license for such fractional part of the then current year.

Sec. 6. Corporations organized and conducted solely and exclusively for educational, religious, scientific or charitable purposes, corporations which are not organized or conducted for profit, corporations organized under the laws of any other state, territory or foreign country doing solely and exclusively an interstate or foreign business, and those corporations taxed under subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution, are exempt from payment of the tax provided by section three of this act.

exempt.

Sec. 7. The secretary of state, state controller and members of the state board of control shall be and are hereby constituted the "corporation license tax exemption board." Except in cases where articles of incorporation are filed in the month of December, every corporation claiming exemption from the payment of the annual license tax prescribed by this statute must file with said board, at least thirty days before such license tax becomes due and payable, a written protest in which shall be set forth all facts and reasons upon which such exemption claim is made. Such protest shall contain a concise statement of the nature, character and manner of doing business by such corporation, together with any other data illustrating the method of doing such business and the places in which such business is transacted within this state. Such corporation shall furnish to said board such other or additional information as may be required by said board. Such application shall be sworn to by the president, secretary or general manager, or authorized agent of such corporation. Failure to protest in the manner and within the time herein prescribed shall constitute a waiver of all rights of exemption from said tax; provided, however, that the corporation license tax exemption board shall have the power, irrespective of such protests to grant such exemption in the case of corporations mentioned in section six of this act.

Contents.

The provisions of this section with respect to filing written claim of exemption, shall not apply to educational, religious, scientific or charitable corporations, specified in section six of this act nor to corporations taxed under subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of section fourteen, article thirteen of the constitution of this state.

Corporations
excepted.

Sec. 8. Before filing a certified copy of the articles of incorporation of any domestic corporation in the office of the secretary of state, and before any foreign corporation files with the secretary of state the document or documents required by section one of this act, said articles of incorporation or said documents shall be submitted to said corporation license tax exemption board, which board shall determine the question of whether such corporation is exempt, under any of the provisions of this act, from the license tax imposed hereby.

Tax exemption determined before filing articles of incorporation.

All claims or applications for exemption, under this and the preceding section together with all evidence and proofs submitted therewith, shall be considered by such license tax exemption board, which shall determine the question of such exemption. The determination of such corporation license tax exemption board upon all questions of fact, with respect to such claims of exemption, shall be final and conclusive.

Notice of time when tax payable.

Notice of delinquency.

Notice of suspension or forfeiture.

Sec. 9. On or before the first day of December of each year the secretary of state shall mail a notice to every corporation subject to the tax imposed by this act, notifying such corporations of the time when such tax shall be due and payable, when delinquent, and of the penalties for delinquency and non-payment. Immediately after the first Monday in February of each year the secretary of state shall mail a notice to every corporation subject to the tax imposed by this act and which has failed to pay the same, notifying such corporation of its delinquency and the penalties therefor. Within ten days after the Saturday preceding the first Monday in March of each year the secretary of state shall, by registered mail, notify every corporation subject to the tax imposed by this act and which has failed to pay the same, that such corporation has been recorded by him as a "suspended" or "forfeited" corporation in accordance with the provisions of this act, and that such suspension or forfeiture may be removed by complying with the provisions of this act. Mailing by the secretary of state to any corporation of any of the notices required by this section shall not be a jurisdictional prerequisite to the accrual of any forfeiture provided by this act, or to the suspension of the corporate powers of any delinquent corporation and the officers thereof hereinafter provided, nor be held to be an essential prerequisite to the imposition of such or any other penalties for delinquency and nonpayment.

tax lien.

Sec. 10. The license tax due from any corporation subject to the provisions of this act is a lien upon the real property of such corporation from and after the first day of January of each year and until paid or until the property is sold for the payment thereof. On or before the first Monday in April of each year the secretary of state shall make a list of all corporations subject to the tax imposed by or that should have been paid under this act and which have failed to pay the same, and transmit a certified copy thereof to each county clerk and county recorder in this state. Said county clerks and county recorders shall file such certified copies in their respective offices in such manner that the same shall be preserved in the form of a permanent record of such office and easily identified by and available to the public. Said copies so certified by the secretary of state and filed as herein provided shall, in the case of each corporation, state whether such corporation is a domestic or foreign corporation and specify the tax and penalties which each corporation has incurred for failure to pay the tax imposed by this act. Such certified copies so filed with either of said county officers, or any copy thereof certified by the secretary of state, shall be received in evidence in any court in lieu of the original record on file with the secretary of state and shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all statements contained therein.

Sec. 11. After six o'clock p.m. of the Saturday preceding the first Monday in March in any year, the corporate rights, privileges and powers of every domestic corporation which has failed to pay the tax and money penalty for nonpayment thereof imposed by this act shall, from and after said hour of said day, be suspended, and incapable of being exercised for any purpose or in any manner, except to execute and deliver deeds to real property in pursuance of contracts therefor made prior to such time, and to defend in court any action brought against such corporation, until said tax with all accrued penalties, taxes and charges due to the state under this act and subdivision (d) of section fourteen, article thirteen of the constitution are paid as hereinafter provided. The right and privilege of every foreign corporation, subject to the provisions of this act, to transact intrastate business in this state shall, for failure to pay the tax and money penalty for nonpayment thereof imposed by this act, be forfeited at said hour of said day, and the secretary of state shall make a record of such forfeiture. In the case of foreign corporations such forfeiture may be relieved and the corporation's privilege to transact intrastate business in this state restored in the manner hereinafter provided. After said hour of said day and until such taxes, penalties and charges are paid, every person who attempts or purports to exercise any of the rights, privileges or powers of any delinquent domestic corporation except as permitted by this act, or, who transacts or attempts to transact any intrastate business in this state in behalf of any forfeited foreign corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than fifty days or more than five hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The jurisdiction of such offense shall be held to be in any county in which any part of such attempted exercise of such powers, or any part of such transaction of business was had or occurred. Every contract made in violation of this section is hereby declared to be void.

Rights of domestic corporations suspended.

Right of foreign corporations forfeited.

Forfeiture relieved.

Sec. 12. All corporate powers, rights and privileges, suspended or forfeited under the provisions of this act may be revived and restored to full force and effect upon application therefor by any stockholder or creditor thereof and upon payment of all accrued taxes and penalties due to the state under this act and subdivision (d) of section fourteen, article thirteen of the constitution. In case the application for such revivor and restoration is not made during the year in which such suspension or forfeiture occurred, such application shall not be granted nor a certificate of revivor issued to such corporation until there is paid to the secretary of state in addition to the tax and money penalty due or that should have been paid the state under this act and subdivision (d) of section fourteen, article thirteen of the constitution for the year in which such suspension or forfeiture occurred, a sum of Application by stockholder or creditor to restore rights.

Payment of additional amount.

money, equal to the tax, without penalty, imposed or that should have been paid under this act during the year in which such suspension or forfeiture occurred, for each year succeeding said year in which such suspension or forfeiture occurred.

Controller's
certificate.

Upon payment of all such taxes and penalties, and upon payment of all other taxes due the state under subdivision (d) of section fourteen, article thirteen of the constitution, the state controller shall issue a certificate under his seal evidencing such payment and restoration, which certificate, when recorded in the office of any county recorder shall constitute a release of all existing liens for such taxes upon the property of such corporation. Each county recorder shall keep an index of all such controller's certificates recorded by him. Upon presentation of such controller's certificate of revivor to any county clerk said officer shall make a record thereof in his office in a book kept for such purpose. The record so made by said county clerk shall be prima facie evidence of the restoration to such corporation of all previously suspended or forfeited rights, powers and privileges unless it appears from the records in the office of such county clerk or of the controller or secretary of state that subsequent to the date of such certificate of revivor the powers of said corporation have been again suspended or its right to do intrastate business again forfeited.

dissolution until tax paid.

Sec. 13. No court shall have jurisdiction to make or enter any decree of dissolution of any domestic corporation until all taxes and penalties due under this act shall have been paid.

Restoration of right under acts
of 1905
and 1915.

Sec. 14. Any corporation which has heretofore failed to pay any license tax and penalty imposed under the provisions of chapter three hundred eighty-six, statutes 1905, and amendments thereof, or under chapter one hundred ninety, statutes 1915, and for such nonpayment suffered a forfeiture of the charter of such corporation or of the right to do business in this state, may be relieved of such forfeiture, or may be restored to its right to do business in this state, upon making application therefor in writing and paying the license tax and penalties prescribed by said act, for nonpayment of which such forfeiture occurred. Application for restoration under the provisions of this section shall be made in writing, shall be signed by four-fifths of the surviving trustees or directors of said corporation, duly verified by said trustees or directors and filed with the state controller. Upon payment of the moneys due this state under the provisions of said act for the one year in which such forfeiture occurred, together with any tax levied in such year under subdivision (d) of section fourteen, article thirteen of the constitution by the state board of equalization, and the license tax due under the provisions of this act, the state controller shall issue a certificate of revivor to such corporation, and thereupon such corporation is revived and its powers restored to full force and effect.

defense or right, which has occurred by reason of the original forfeiture.

In case the name of any corporation which has suffered the forfeiture prescribed by either of said acts first in this section above mentioned, has been adopted by any other corporation since the date of said forfeiture, or in case any corporation has adopted subsequent to such forfeiture any name so closely resembling the name of such reviving corporation as will tend to deceive, then such reviving corporation shall be entitled to a certificate of revivor pursuant to the terms of this section only upon the adoption by such corporation seeking revivor of a new name, and in such case nothing in this section contained shall be construed as permitting such reviving corporation to carry on any business under its former name. Such reviving corporation shall have the right to use its former name or take such new name only upon filing an application therefor with the secretary of state, and upon the issuing of a certificate to such corporation by the secretary of state, setting forth the right of such corporation to take such new name or use its former name as the case may be. The secretary of state shall not issue any certificate permitting any corporation to take or use the name of any corporation heretofore organized in this state and which has not suffered a forfeiture under either of the acts in this section first above mentioned, or to take or use a name so closely resembling the name of any corporation heretofore organized in this state as will tend to deceive.

new name.

The provisions of title nine, part three of the Code of Civil Procedure, in so far as they conflict with this section of this act are not applicable to corporations seeking revivor under this act.

Sec. 15. Any foreign corporation may surrender its right to engage in intrastate business in this state by filing with the corporation license tax exemption board an affidavit, sworn to by the president of such corporation, which shall contain a concise statement of the nature, character and manner of doing any business of any kind that such corporation may thereafter intend to transact in this state. Said corporation shall furnish such other or additional information as may be required by said board. Said board shall consider such application and the order of such board approving the same shall terminate the right of such corporation to transact intrastate business in this state. Any person transacting any intrastate business in this state in behalf of such corporation after approval of such application to surrender such privilege shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable as provided in section eleven of this act.

Surrender of right to engage in intrastate business.

Sec. 16. Any false statement contained in any of the affidavits herein required shall constitute perjury, and shall be punishable as such.

False
statement.

Sec. 17. All moneys herein required to be paid shall, upon collection, be immediately paid into the state treasury.

Moneys paid.

Statutes unaffected.

Sec. 18. Nothing in this act shall be construed as affecting or repealing any statute of this state respecting the assessment of franchises and levying of taxes thereon, as required by section fourteen, article thirteen of the constitution and chapter three hundred thirty-five of statutes of one thousand nine hundred eleven of this state and amendments thereof.

Title.

Sec. 19. This act shall be known as the "corporation license act."

In effect.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy, shall, under the provisions of section one of article four of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 216.

An act to amend section four hundred of the Civil Code, and to repeal sections four hundred five, four hundred six, four hundred eight, four hundred nine, and four hundred ten of said code, relating to corporations.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four hundred of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Directors of corporation
are trustees of creditors.

400. Unless other persons are appointed by the court, the directors or managers of the affairs of a corporation at the time of its dissolution are trustees of the creditors and stockholders or members of the corporation dissolved, and have full powers to settle the affairs of the corporation, collect and pay outstanding debts, sell the assets thereof in such manner as the court shall direct, and distribute the proceeds of such sales and all other assets to the stockholders. Such trustees shall have authority to sue for and recover the debts and property of the corporation, and shall be jointly and severally personally liable to its creditors and stockholders or members, to the extent of its property and effects that shall come into their hands. Death, resignation or failure or inability to act shall constitute a vacancy in the position of trustee, which vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the superior court upon petition of any person or creditor interested in the property of such corporation. Such trustees may be sued in any court in this state by any person having a claim against such corporation or its property. Trustees of corporations heretofore dissolved or whose charters have heretofore been forfeited by law shall have and discharge in the same manner and under the same obligations, all the powers and duties herein prescribed. Vacancies in the office of trustees of such corporations shall be filled as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 2. Sections four hundred five, four hundred six, four hundred eight, four hundred nine, and four hundred ten of the Civil Code are hereby expressly repealed. Repealed.

CHAPTER 217.

An act to amend section three hundred forty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to time for commencement of actions.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred forty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

341. Within six months:

An action against an officer, or officer de facto:

1. To recover any goods, wares, merchandise, or other property, seized by any such officer in his official capacity as tax collector, or to recover the price or value of any goods, wares, merchandise, or other personal property so seized, or for damages for the seizure, detention, sale of, or injury to any goods, wares, merchandise, or other personal property seized, or for damages done to any person or property in making any such seizure.

2. To recover stock sold for a delinquent assessment, as provided in section three hundred forty-seven of the Civil Code.

3. To set aside or invalidate any action taken or performed by a majority of the trustees of any corporation heretofore or hereafter dissolved by operation of law, including the revivor of any such corporation.

Time for commencement of action against officer.

CHAPTER 218.

An act to amend the vehicle act, approved May 10, 1915, by repealing sections ten, eighteen, twenty-three, thirty-three, and forty-two thereof, and by amending sections one, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, eleven, thirteen, fifteen, seventeen, twenty, twenty-two, twenty-four, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, thirty-two, thirty-four, thirty-five and thirty-seven thereof, said amendments to provide for the regulation of the use and occupation of the public highways by vehicles and otherwise, for the registration and identification of motor and other vehicles, and for the payment of registration fees therefor; to provide for the licensing of persons operating motor vehicles, and for the payment of license fees therefor; to prohibit the operation of any motor vehicle without the consent of the owner thereof; to limit the power of local authorities to enact or enforce ordinances, rules or regulations in regard to matters embraced within the provisions of this act; to provide for the organization and conduct of the motor vehicle department created by said act, and to provide for the disposition of registration and license fees, fines and forfeitures collected under the provisions of said act; to provide for carrying out the objects of said act and of said amendments thereto, and to make appropriation therefor; to provide for the printing and distribution of said act as amended, and to provide for the time that said amendments shall go into effect.

[Approved May 10, 1917. In effect—see section 29.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 397.

SECTION 1. Section one of the vehicle act, approved May 10, 1915, is hereby amended as follows:

Words and phrases
defined.

Section 1. The words and phrases used in this act shall for the purposes of this act, unless the same be contrary to or inconsistent with the context, be construed as follows: (1) "motor vehicle" shall include all vehicles propelled otherwise than by muscular power, except trailers and such vehicles as run upon stationary rails or tracks; (2) "automobile" shall include all motor vehicles excepting motorcycles; (3) "motor-cycle" shall include all motor vehicles designed to travel on not more than three wheels in contact with the ground, and of not exceeding ten horsepower, and of not exceeding the weight of five hundred pounds unladen; provided, however, that any motor vehicle which shall be operated on the public highway drawing a trailer shall be deemed to be an automobile for all the purposes of this act; and provided further that any vehicle which is at any time drawn upon the public highway by a motor vehicle, excepting any implements of husbandry temporarily drawn, propelled or moved upon such highway; (4) "highway" shall include any public highway, county road, state highway or state road, public street, avenue, alley, park, parkway, driveway, square or place, bridge, viaduct, trestle, or any other territory or structure, whether public or private, designed, intended or used by or for the general public for the passage of vehicles, in any county, or incorporated city and county, city or town within the State of California; (5) "business district" shall mean the territory of any county or incorporated city and county, city or town, contiguous to a public highway, which is on the line of said highway mainly built up with structures devoted to business; provided, that the local authorities having charge of such highway shall have placed conspicuously thereon at the boundary lines of such business district, signs of sufficient size to be easily readable by a person using the highway, bearing the words "Business district—slow down to fifteen miles an hour," and also an arrow pointing in the direction of said business district; (6) "closely built up" shall mean the territory of any county or incorporated city and county, city or town, contiguous to a public highway, which is on the line of said highway not mainly devoted to business, where for not less than a quarter of a mile the dwelling houses and business structures on such highway average less than one hundred feet apart; provided, that the local authorities having charge of such highway shall have placed conspicuously thereon at the boundary lines of such district, signs of sufficient size to be easily readable by a person using the highway, bearing the words "speed limit twenty miles an hour," and also an arrow pointing in the direction of said closely built up district; (7) "local authorities" shall include all boards of supervisors, trustees or councils, commissions, committees, and other public officials of counties, incorporated cities and counties, cities or towns, or municipal or quasi-municipal corporations when such officials possess or exercise legislative or police powers; (8) "chauffeur" shall mean any person who operates an automobile in the transportation of persons and who receives any compensation for such service in wages, commission or otherwise, paid directly or indirectly, or who as owner or employee operates in automobile carrying passengers for hire; provided, however, that this definition shall not include manufacturers' agents, proprietors of garages and dealers, salesmen, mechanics, or demonstrators of automobiles in the ordinary course of their business; (9) the term "state" as used in this act, except where otherwise expressly provided, shall also include the territories, federal districts and insular possessions of the United States; (10) "nonresidents" shall mean residents of states or countries other than the State of California whose sojourn in this state, or whose occupation of their regular place of abode or business in this state, if any, covers a total period

Sec. 7. Section eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Number plates
furnished.

Sec. 8. The department shall furnish to every person whose motor vehicle or trailer or trailers shall be registered as aforesaid, on original registration, one number plate for motorcycles and trailers; and two number plates for automobiles, the same to have displayed upon them the registration number assigned to such vehicle, together with the abbreviation "Cal.," and to have space provided thereon to which may be attached each year the registration seal to be furnished by the department as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that number plates furnished for trailers and for such motor vehicles as are exempted by section two of this act from the payment of the fees in this act prescribed shall contain suitable distinguishing marks or symbols, and the numbers assigned in such cases shall run in different numerical series from the numbers assigned to other vehicles registered under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, anything to the contrary in this act notwithstanding, that it shall not be necessary to apply for registration of implements of husbandry temporarily drawn, moved or otherwise propelled upon the public highway, nor shall it be necessary for the department to assign any distinguishing numbers to such implements of husbandry or to furnish number plates for display thereon. Said department shall furnish with each number plate, and on each annual renewal of registration, a registration seal together with screws or other means of attachment to the number plate, the form and character of which seal shall be uniform for any one calendar year, such seal to be changed by the department as to design or color or both, from year to year. Said seal shall bear the identical number shown on the number plate to which it is to be attached and also the calendar year for which it is issued and it shall be valid only for such year. The department shall also furnish with each number plate for motorcycles and with each pair of number plates for automobiles, and on each annual renewal of registration, a certificate of registration which shall contain upon the face thereof the following data: The name of the registered owner of the motor vehicle, his post-office address, the make of the vehicle, the year model denoted by the manufacturer, the model or letter denoted by the manufacturer, if any, the engine or motor number, the registered horsepower, the registration number and the amount of annual registration fee, together with the date of issue of the certificate. In case of motorcycles, the manufacturer's serial number shall be stated in lieu of the engine number. Such certificate shall contain a blank space for the signature of the registered owner. The reverse side of said certificate shall contain forms (a) for notice to the department by the registered owner, in case of transfer of ownership, as hereinafter required, and (b) for application to the department by the transferee, in case of transfer of said motor vehicle, for registration thereof in his name, said application to be in the form of a joint statement to be signed by both transferor and transferee and to contain, in addition to such other particulars as may be required by said department, a statement of the post-office address of the transferee so applying for registration. Said certificate shall contain the identical registration number denoted on the number plate or plates and seal in connection with which such certificate is issued, and it shall be valid only for the calendar year in which it is issued. Said certificate shall be enclosed in a suitable container, to be furnished by the department, such container to have a frame of aluminum or other metal and to have a cover of isinglass or other transparent material, through which such certificate can be easily inspected, and with such container said department shall furnish screws or other suitable means of attachment to the motor vehicle. Said number plates, seals, certificates and containers shall be furnished by the department without further charge than the fees specified in section seven of this act, with transportation prepaid, and shall be of substantial character and suitable form and design, to be determined by the department.

Transfer of ownership.

Upon the transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle its registration shall expire and the person in whose name such vehicle is registered shall forthwith (a) file with the department a notice, upon the form furnished by the department and attached to the certificate of registration, containing the date of such transfer of ownership and the name and post-office address of the transferee, and, (b) subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, return the registration number plate or plates and seal, transportation prepaid, to the department. In the case of such transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle or in case of loss of possession thereof, the registered owner, provided that he applies to the department within ten days after such transfer or loss of possession, may have assigned to another motor vehicle the registration number of the motor vehicle so transferred or lost; provided, further, that in such case of transfer and application for reassignment to another motor vehicle, the number plate or plates and seals may be retained for a period of ten days after such transfer, and if application for such reassignment shall have been made within said period they may be further retained until the department has either duly reassigned said number in accordance with said application or has refused said application for reassignment and has canceled said number and demanded surrender of said plate or plates and seals.

Joint
statement.

Upon the transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle, the person in whose name such vehicle is registered and the person to whom ownership of such vehicle is to be transferred shall forthwith join in a statement of said transfer indorsed upon the reverse side of the certificate of registration of said motor vehicle in the space provided for said purpose, which statement shall be signed by the transferor in the manner and form of his signature contained on the face of said certificate and which statement shall likewise be signed by the transferee, who shall also set forth below his signature his post-office address. Said statement shall include an application by the transferee for registration of said vehicle in his name. Said certificate so indorsed and bearing upon the reverse side thereof the signatures of the transferor and transferee, shall be forwarded by the transferee to the department together with the proper fee for registration required by section seven of this act. The department shall file said certificate so jointly indorsed by transferor and transferee and upon receipt of the proper fee as above provided the department, if satisfied of the genuineness and regularity of said transfer, shall register said motor vehicle in the name of said transferee and may cancel the former registration number or assign the same to the same or another motor vehicle, at the option of the department, subject to the other provisions of this act. Upon such registration the department shall issue and forward to the applicant without further charge than as provided in section seven of this act, a new registration certificate in the manner and form as hereinabove provided for original registration. Until said transferee has received said certificate of registration and has written his name upon the face thereof in the blank space provided for said purpose by the department, delivery of said motor vehicle shall be deemed not to have been made and title thereto shall be deemed not to have passed and said intended transfer shall be deemed to be incomplete and not to be valid or effective for any purpose; provided, that where such transfer is made to a manufacturer or dealer to whom has been assigned a general distinguishing number and who intends to resell or otherwise retransfer said vehicle a certificate of registration shall be furnished without charge to him; it shall be in a distinctive form and shall bear such manufacturer's or dealer's general distinguishing number, whereupon such manufacturer or dealer shall be entitled to display upon such vehicle number plates assigned to him by the department-bearing said general distinguishing number; but upon sale or transfer of said vehicle by such manufacturer or dealer, each and every provision herein contained relative to the return of such certificate to the department with the joint statement of transferor and transferee endorsed thereon, as well as other provisions applicable upon transfer of motor vehicles, shall be complied with. In case of a transfer of a motor vehicle to such manufacturer or dealer without the removal therefrom by the transferee of the number plates and seals, the manufacturer or dealer shall forthwith deliver to the department, transportation prepaid, said number plates and seals. In case of transfer of ownership of a motor vehicle, registered under the provisions of this act, by operation of law, as upon inheritance, devise or bequest, order in bankruptcy or insolvency, execution sale, repossession upon default in performance of the terms of a lease or executory sales contract, or otherwise than by the voluntary act of the registered owner, the notice of transfer as well as the joint statement hereinabove provided for shall be signed by the executor, administrator, receiver, trustee, sheriff, or other representative or successor in interest of the registered owner in lieu of such owner, and the transferee's application for registration shall be accompanied by a statement of the special facts in the premises; provided, that the department may in its discretion require from the transferee, before registering such motor vehicle, such additional information respecting such involuntary loss of ownership by the former registered owner as may be satisfactory to the department.

Anything to the contrary hereinabove notwithstanding, upon the transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle to a person not intending either to operate the same or to cause or permit the same to be operated upon the public highways and not intending to transfer such motor vehicle to another person, a statement by said transferee of such fact or intent shall accompany the application for registration, in which case no fee for registration need be paid by the applicant, but the registration number plates and seals, if not retained by the transferor, shall be forthwith forwarded, without demand, to the department, whereupon the department, if satisfied of the genuineness and regularity of said transfer and if satisfied of the facts stated in said application for registration, shall register, without any charge whatever, such motor vehicle in the name of said transferee and shall issue and forward to him a new registration certificate, in a distinctive form to be determined by the department; provided, that until said transferee has received said registration certificate delivery of said motor vehicle shall be deemed not to have been made, and title thereto shall be deemed not to have passed and said intended transfer shall be deemed to be incomplete and not to be valid or effective for any purpose; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to permit such motor vehicle to be operated upon the public highway under such distinctive certificate of registration last hereinabove provided for.

Rebate.

A person who transfers the ownership or loses possession of a motor vehicle registered in his name or removes such motor vehicle from the state, shall be entitled to a rebate bearing the same proportion to that portion of the fee theretofore paid by him, as the remaining quarters of the calendar year bear to that portion of the year for which said fee was paid; provided, that any such rebate shall not be paid excepting upon a certificate filed by the department with the state board of control, setting forth the facts; and provided, further, that such rebates shall be paid out of the motor vehicle fund.

Unsafe motor vehicle or trailer

If the department shall determine, at any time, that for any reason a motor vehicle or trailer is unsafe or is improperly equipped or is otherwise unfit to be operated, or that the applicant for registration thereof is not entitled as owner thereof to such registration, the department may refuse to register such vehicle and may, for a like reason, revoke any registration already acquired.

SEC. 8. Section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Dealers' distinguishing number or symbol.

SEC. 9. Every manufacturer of, or dealer in, motor vehicles may make application to the department, by mail or otherwise, upon a blank provided by the department, for a general distinguishing number or symbol, instead of registering each motor vehicle owned by him, and with such application he shall deposit the proper registration fee as provided in section seven of this act; and the department shall grant the application if satisfied of the facts stated in the application and shall issue to the applicant a certificate of registration containing the name and business address of the applicant and the general distinguishing number or symbol assigned to him, and made in such form and containing such further information as the department may determine; and every motor vehicle owned or controlled by such manufacturer or dealer shall be regarded as registered under such general distinguishing number or symbol until sold, or until let for hire, or until loaned for a period of more than ten successive days; provided, that whenever a manufacturer or dealer shall maintain a branch or subagency he shall apply for a separate registration for such branch or subagency and shall pay therefor the fee provided in section seven of this act for the registration of motor vehicles owned by or under the control of a manufacturer or dealer, and the determination of the department upon the question whether any establishment constitutes a branch or subagency within the intent of this act, shall be conclusive. The department shall furnish, without other charge than the fee specified in section seven of this act, with transportation charges prepaid, to every manufacturer of or dealer in automobiles or motorcycles applying therefor whose vehicles are registered in accordance with the provisions of this section, five pairs of automobile number plates or five single motorcycle number plates, of suitable design, together with the accompanying seals, the plates to have displayed upon them the registration number which is assigned to the motor vehicles of such manufacturer or dealer, with a different symbol on each pair of automobile number plates and on each single motorcycle plate. If the department shall determine at any time for due cause that any such manufacturer or dealer to whom the certificate of registration provided for in this section has been issued and to whom such general distinguishing number or symbol has been assigned has failed to comply with the requirements of this section hereinafter contained with reference to notices or reports of transfer or motor vehicles, or has caused or suffered, or is causing or suffering, the unlawful use of such certificate or number, the department may revoke said certificate of registration and recall and cancel said general distinguishing number or symbol, in which event said manufacturer or dealer, after notice of such action on part of the department, shall, without further demand, return to the department any and all number plates and seals that may have been furnished him by the department under said certificate so revoked; provided, that no manufacturer or dealer or any employee of such manufacturer or dealer, shall cause or permit the display, or other use, of any number plate, seal or certificate of registration which may have been furnished to such manufacturer or dealer under the general distinguishing number or symbol hereinbefore provided for, excepting upon motor vehicles owned by such manufacturer or dealer within the meaning and intent of this act; provided, further, that no person shall display, or otherwise use or have in his possession any number plate, seal or certificate of registration furnished by the department under a general manufacturer's or dealer's distinguishing number or symbol, except such manufacturer or dealer or his employes; and provided, further, that if the department, upon receiving from any manufacturer or dealer an application for the issuance for the ensuing calendar year of the certificate of registration and general distinguishing number or symbol provided for in this section, shall determine upon due cause that such manufacturer or dealer during the previous calendar year has failed to comply with the requirements of this section hereinafter contained respecting the filing of notices or reports of transfer of motor vehicles, or has caused or suffered, or is causing or suffering, the unlawful use of such certificate or number, the department may refuse such application.

Written permit to operate without registration.

When it shall become necessary for a manufacturer of, or dealer in, or consignee of, motor vehicles to move any vehicles owned by or consigned to him, not being registered under any of the provisions of this act, from any vessel, railroad depot, or warehouse, to the salesrooms or other place of business of such manufacturer or dealer, or to a warehouse or other place of storage, over the public highways, he may operate such vehicle, either under its own power or otherwise, over such public highways as are necessary for said purpose, without first registering said motor vehicle or affixing thereto any number plates issued to him under the general distinguishing number or symbol hereinabove specified; provided, however, that in such event he shall first obtain from the police authorities or marshal of the city or town in which said vessel, railroad depot or warehouse is situated, a written permit authorizing such operation; and there is hereby conferred upon police authorities, including town marshals, within the State of California, authority to issue such permits in proper cases as hereinbefore provided.

Notice of transfer of motor vehicle.

Upon the transfer of any motor vehicle by a manufacturer or dealer, whether by sale, lease or otherwise, such motor vehicle not being registered under the provisions of section three hereof, such manufacturer or dealer shall, within three days after such transfer, file with the department, upon a blank to be furnished by the department, a notice or report containing the date of such transfer, a description of such motor vehicle and the name and post office of the purchaser, lessee or other transferee.

Notice of transfer of engine or motor.

Upon the transfer of any automobile engine or motor, except a new engine or motor transferred with intent that the same be installed in a new automobile, and whether such transfer be made by a manufacturer or dealer or otherwise, and whether by sale, lease or otherwise, the transferor shall within three days after such transfer file with the department, upon a blank to be furnished by the department, a notice or report containing the date of such transfer and a description, together with the maker's number, of said engine or motor, the name and post-office address of the purchaser, lessee or other transferee.

SEC. 10. Section eleven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 404.

SEC. 11. Except as in this act otherwise provided, no person shall operate or drive, or cause to be operated or driven, a motor vehicle, or cause a trailer to be drawn by a motor vehicle, on the public highways unless such vehicle shall at all times have displayed the number plate or plates furnished for it as hereinbefore provided, together with registration seal or seals furnished by the department; in case of automobiles, each such vehicle shall display one number plate on the front and the other on the back thereof and said registration seals shall be securely attached to the number plates in the space provided thereon for that purpose; in case of motorcycles and trailers, but one number plate with registration seal so attached thereto, shall be required to be displayed and such number plate upon motorcycles and trailers shall be at the rear thereof; in all cases such number plates shall be securely fastened to the motor vehicle or trailer so as to prevent said plates from swinging, and at a minimum distance of sixteen inches from the ground. Nothing in this act shall be construed to require the display of any number plate on other than the rear trailer, when more than one trailer is drawn by a motor vehicle. No person shall attach to, or display on, such motor or other vehicle, any number plate, or registration seal or certificate other than as assigned to it for the current year, or a fictitious, or altered number plate, seal or registration certificate, or a number plate, seal or registration certificate that shall have been canceled by the department. All letters, numbers, seals, printing, writing and other identification marks upon said plates, seals and certificates, shall be kept clear and distinct and free from grease, dust or other blurring matter, so that they shall be plainly visible at all times during daylight and under artificial light in the nighttime; provided, that in case any such plate, seal or certificate of registration, operator's license or chauffeur's license or badge shall be lost, mutilated or shall have become illegible, the person to whom such plate, seal, certificate, license or badge shall have been furnished shall immediately apply to the department for a duplicate thereof, accompanying his application with the fee specified in section seven of this act.

must be displayed.

No person shall operate or drive a motor vehicle on the public highway unless such vehicle shall at all times carry in or upon it, subject to inspection by any peace officer, or employee of the department, the registration certificate furnished for it as hereinabove provided, which in case of an automobile shall be affixed, in the container furnished by the department, in plain sight in the driver's compartment of the automobile and which, in case of a motorcycle, shall be carried either in plain

When fee becomes delinquent.

The registration fee required under this act to be paid upon a motor vehicle or trailer shall become delinquent in the case of any such vehicle forthwith upon the operation of the vehicle on the public highways without the registration fee required by this act first having been paid to the department, accompanied by the application for registration provided herein. It is hereby provided, in addition to any and all other penalties provided by this act, that if, at the expiration of thirty days after any registration fee becomes delinquent, such fee has not been paid and registration applied for, a penalty shall be added to the amount of such fee in an amount equal to twenty-five per cent of the fee required by section seven of this act, and that such fee, together with the amount of said penalty, shall be a lien upon the motor vehicle or trailer in regard to which said registration fee is delinquent, and the department shall have power and it is hereby made its duty to collect the said registration fee, together with the penalty, by seizure of such motor vehicle or trailer from the person in possession thereof, if any, and by the sale thereof. The seizure and sale herein authorized shall be conducted and carried out by the department in the same manner as is provided by law for the seizure and sale of personal property by the county tax collector for the collection of taxes due on said personal property; provided, however, that in case of annual renewal of registration, where the applicants have in all things complied with the requirements of this act and have duly applied for such annual renewal of registration before the commencement of the ensuing calendar year, accompanying their applications with the proper fees for such registration, they shall be entitled to operate said vehicles during the months of January and February without displaying the registration seals or certificates of the current year, on condition that they have at all times displayed upon said vehicles the number plates assigned to said vehicles respectively together with the registration seals and certificates assigned thereto for the previous calendar year.

Sec. 13. (a) Where there is not sufficient light within the lateral boundaries of the public highway to reveal all persons, vehicles, or other substantial objects within said boundaries for a distance of at least one hundred fifty feet, and at all times during the period from a half hour after sunset to a half hour before sunrise, every automobile while on the public highway shall carry at the front at least two lighted lamps showing white or yellow lights visible under normal atmospheric conditions at least five hundred feet in the direction toward which said automobile is faced and every such automobile and every trailer, at the times and under the conditions in this section hereinbefore specified, shall carry at the rear a lighted lamp exhibiting a red light plainly visible, under normal atmospheric conditions, for a distance of five hundred feet toward the rear and so constructed and placed that the number plate carried on the rear of such automobile or trailer shall be illuminated by a white light in such manner that the number thereon can be plainly distinguished under normal atmospheric conditions at a distance of not less than fifty feet toward the rear; provided, however, that where more than one trailer is attached to a motor vehicle, only the rear trailer shall be required to exhibit said light. At the times and under the conditions in this section hereinbefore specified all other vehicles, except motorcycles, bicycles, and such vehicles as may be propelled by a pedestrian, shall carry one or more lighted lamps or lanterns so arranged that said vehicle shall be visible from every direction for a distance of not less than two hundred feet.

(b) At the times and under the conditions in this section hereinbefore specified, every motorcycle or bicycle while on the public highway shall carry a lighted lamp showing a white or yellow light visible under normal atmospheric conditions at least three hundred feet in the direction toward which such motorcycle or bicycle is faced, and shall also carry at the rear of such motorcycle or bicycle a lighted lamp exhibiting a red light plainly visible under normal atmospheric conditions for a distance of at least two hundred feet toward the rear.

and bicycles.

(c) In any case where a motor or other vehicle shall be loaded with any material in such manner that any portion of such load extends toward the rear four feet or more beyond the rear of the bed or body of such vehicle, there shall be displayed at the extreme end of such load, at the times and under the conditions in this section hereinbefore specified, in addition to the ordinary rear or tail light hereinbefore required to be displayed on such vehicle a red light plainly visible under normal atmospheric conditions at least two hundred feet from the rear; provided, further, that at other times while such vehicle is upon the highway a red flag or cloth shall be displayed at the extreme rear end of said load, of suitable size to be plainly visible as a warning signal to persons operating vehicles approaching from the rear.

extends beyond bed of vehicle.

(d) At the times and under the conditions in this section hereinbefore specified the headlights of all motor vehicles upon the highway shall give sufficient light to reveal any person, vehicle or substantial object on the road directly ahead of such motor vehicle for a distance of at least one hundred fifty feet, and shall also give sufficient side illumination to reveal any person, vehicle or substantial object ten feet to the side of said motor vehicle at a point ten feet ahead of the lamps; provided, however, that such headlights shall be so constructed or arranged that no portion of the beam of reflected light when measured seventy-five feet or more ahead of said lamps shall rise or shall be capable of being raised from the driver's seat to more than forty-two inches above the level surface on which the vehicle stands ahead of such vehicle; provided, further, that the term "headlight" as used herein, shall denote any light, irrespective of its location upon the motor vehicle, the rays of which are projected forward, except sidelights of not to exceed four candlepower, and that the term "beam of reflected light," as used herein, shall denote the approximately parallel focalized rays gathered and projected by a reflector, lens or other device; and provided, further, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, that where there is sufficient light within the lateral boundaries of the public highway within any incorporated city, town or city and county, to reveal all persons, vehicles or substantial objects within said boundaries for a distance of one hundred fifty feet, no lights shall be required to be displayed on any vehicle while the same is not in operation, providing that the wheels of such standing vehicle nearest the sidewalk are located within six inches of such sidewalk.

SEC. 12. Section fifteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

No blocks,
etc., on tires.

SEC. 15. (a) Other than on vehicles actually engaged at the time in construction or repair work on public highways, no tire on any motor or other vehicle operated on or over any public highway or bridge shall have on its periphery any block, stud, flange, cleat, ridge, bead or any other protuberance of metal or wood which projects beyond the tread or traction surface of the tire; but this section shall not be so construed as to prohibit the use of tire chains of reasonable proportions on motor vehicles when required for safety because of snow, ice or other conditions tending to cause such motor vehicle to slide or skid; provided, however, that traction engines or tractors the propulsive power of which is exerted not through wheels resting upon the ground but by means of a flexible band or chain, known as a movable track, may be operated upon the public highways with transverse corrugations upon the periphery of said movable tracks, on condition that a permit shall first have been obtained as hereinafter in this section provided.

Tractors.

Limit on weight of loads.

(b) No motor or other vehicle shall be operated on or over any public highway or bridge, nor shall any object be moved over or upon any public highway or bridge on wheels, rollers, or otherwise, except when transported in or upon vehicles running exclusively on stationary rails or tracks, in excess of a total weight, including load, of thirty thousand pounds, when said motor or other vehicle or contrivance is equipped with four wheels running on the highway, or in excess of a total weight, including load, of forty thousand pounds when said motor or other vehicle or contrivance shall be equipped with six wheels running on the highway and with three axles not less than ninety-six inches apart, without first obtaining a permit as hereinafter in this section provided.

Permit
required,
when.

(c) No motor or other vehicle or other object, or contrivance for moving loads, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, shall be operated or moved upon or over any public highway or bridge, the weight of which resting upon the surface of said highway or bridge exceeds eight hundred pounds upon any inch of width of tire, when said vehicle is equipped with tires made of other material than metal; and no motor or other vehicle, object, or contrivance for moving loads shall be operated or moved upon or over any public highway or bridge the weight of which resting upon the surface of said highway or bridge exceeds six hundred pounds upon any inch of width of tire. roller, wheel or other object supported on the surface thereof when such tires or the rolling surface of such rollers, wheels or other objects are made in whole or in part of metal, without first obtaining a permit as hereinafter in this section provided; provided, however, that traction engines or tractors the propulsive power of which is exerted not through wheels resting upon the ground but by means of a flexible band or chain, known as a movable track, shall not be subject to the foregoing limitations upon permissible weights per inch of width of tire if the portions of the movable tracks in contact with the surface of the highway present plane surfaces; and provided, further, that cities heretofore or hereafter organized under freeholders' charters may permit or prohibit the increase, beyond the maximum weight per inch of width of tire hereinabove prescribed, of the weight of loads carried within the limits of such cities in or upon metal-tired vehicles drawn by muscular power, but where any such city has not by proper and suitable ordinance or other regulation permitted or prohibited such increase of maximum weight of loads, the regulations and limitations prescribed by this act shall not apply.

Regulations in cities organized under freeholders' charters.

(d) No motor vehicle shall be operated or driven over any public highway or bridge drawing or having attached thereto more than two trailers; provided, that all four-wheeled trailers excepting light camping trailers shall be equipped with suitable brakes.

Brakes.

(e) Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, upon application in writing to the state department of engineering, said department of engineering in its discretion may issue a special permit to the owner or operator of any vehicle allowing heavier or wider loads than hereinabove in this section or elsewhere in this act permitted to be moved or carried over and on the public highways and bridges, or allowing more than two trailers to be drawn by a motor vehicle; and may also issue such special permit to increase the permissible weights per inch of width of tire and may also permit the use of corrugations on the periphery of the movable tracks of traction engines or tractors propelled not by wheels resting upon the ground but by flexible bands or chains. Such permits shall be in writing and they may limit the time of use and operation over the particular highways and bridges which may be traversed and may contain such special conditions and provisions and require such undertaking or other security as the said department of engineering shall deem to be necessary to protect the public highways and bridges from injury, or provide indemnity for any injury resulting from such operation. All such special permits shall be carried in the vehicles to which they refer and shall upon demand be open to the inspection of any peace officer, any authorized agent of the department of engineering or of the motor vehicle department, or any officer or employee charged with the care or protection of the public highways. It shall be unlawful for any person to violate, or to cause or permit to be violated, the limitations or conditions of such special permits and any such violation shall be deemed for all purposes to be a violation of the provisions of this act.

Limit on load below legal maximum.

(f) Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the state department of engineering may in its discretion limit the maximum load to be carried over or on any public bridge, causeway, viaduct, trestle or dam, below the maximum established by law; provided, however, that in such event said department of engineering shall cause suitable signs to be erected and maintained, specifying such limitation of load, such signs to be placed at a distance of not less than one hundred feet nor more than one hundred fifty feet from the approaches to such bridge, causeway, viaduct, trestle or dam.

Owner of vehicle responsible for damages.

(g) Anything to the contrary in this act notwithstanding, the owner and the operator, driver or mover of any vehicle, object or contrivance over a public highway or bridge, shall be jointly and severally responsible for all damages which said highway or bridge may sustain as the result of so operating or driving or moving such vehicle and the amount of such damages may be recovered in an action at law by the authorities in control of such highway or bridge.

SEC. 13. Section seventeen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Intoxicated persons.

SEC. 17. No person who is to such extent under the influence of intoxicating liquor that he can not properly operate or drive a motor or other vehicle shall operate or drive a motor or other vehicle upon any public highway within this state.

Repealed.

SEC. 14. Section eighteen of said act is hereby repealed.

Stats. 1915, p. 406.

SEC. 15. Section twenty of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rules of road.

SEC. 20. (a) The driver or operator of any vehicle in or upon any public highway shall drive or operate such vehicle in a careful manner with due regard for the safety and convenience of pedestrians and of all other vehicles or traffic upon such highway, and wherever practicable shall travel on the right-hand side of such highway. Two vehicles which are passing each other in opposite directions shall have the right of way, and no other vehicle to the rear of either of such two vehicles shall pass or attempt to pass such two vehicles. On all occasions the driver or operator of any vehicle in or upon any public highway shall travel upon the right half of such highway unless the road ahead on the left-hand side is clear and unobstructed for at least one hundred yards ahead and in all cases while crossing an intersecting highway. For the purposes of this section and its subdivisions, an animal or animals attached to any conveyance shall, with such conveyance, be deemed to constitute one vehicle. Rules of road.

(b) Vehicles proceeding in opposite directions shall pass each other to the right, each giving to the other one-half the road as nearly as possible.

(c) Vehicles overtaking other vehicles proceeding in the same direction shall pass to the left thereof and shall not again drive to the right until reasonably clear of such overtaken vehicle.

(d) It shall be the duty of the driver, rider or operator of a vehicle about to be overtaken and passed to give way to the right in favor of the overtaking vehicle, on suitable and audible signal being given by or on behalf of the operator, driver or other person in charge and control of such overtaking vehicle if such overtaking vehicle be a motor vehicle.

(e) Excepting where controlled by such traffic ordinances or regulations enacted by local authorities as are permitted under this act the operator of a vehicle approaching an intersection of the public highway shall yield the right of way to a vehicle approaching such intersection from the right of such first named vehicle.

(f) It shall be the duty of the person operating or in charge of an overtaking vehicle to sound audible and suitable signal before passing a vehicle proceeding in the same direction.

(g) All vehicles approaching an intersection of a public highway, with the intention of turning thereat shall in turning to the right keep to the right of the center of such intersection, and in turning to the left shall run beyond the center of such intersection, passing to the right thereof, before turning such vehicle toward the left. For the purposes of this subdivision the "center of such intersection" shall be held to mean the meeting point of the medial lines of the two highways traversed by the vehicle making the turn.

(h) In all passing and overtaking such assistance shall be given by the occupants of each vehicle respectively to the other as the circumstances shall reasonably demand in order to obtain clearance and avoid accidents; every person having control or charge of any motor vehicle or other vehicle upon any public highway and approaching any vehicle drawn by a horse or horses, or any horse upon which any person is riding, shall operate, manage and control such motor vehicle or other vehicle in such manner as to exercise every reasonable precaution to prevent the frightening of any such horse or horses and to insure the safety and protection of any person riding or driving the same; and if such horse or horses appear frightened the person in control of such motor vehicle or other vehicle shall reduce its speed, and if requested by signal or otherwise by the driver or rider of such horse or horses shall not proceed further Frightening of horses.

toward such animal or animals unless such movement be necessary to avoid accident or injury, until such animal or animals be under the control of the driver or rider thereof.

Keeping to right hand of highway.

(i) The person in control of any vehicle moving slowly along and upon any public highway shall keep such vehicle as closely as practicable to the right-hand boundary of the highway, allowing more swiftly moving vehicles reasonably free passage to the left.

Stopping or changing course.

(j) The person in charge of any vehicle in or upon any public highway, before turning, stopping, or changing the course of such vehicle, and before turning such vehicle when starting the same, shall see first that there is sufficient space for such movement to be made in safety, and if the movement or operation of other vehicles may reasonably be affected by such turning, stopping or changing of course, shall give plainly visible or audible signal to the persons operating, driving or in charge of such vehicles of his intention so to turn, stop, or change his course.

Passing
street cars.

(k) In passing any railroad, interurban or street car while passengers are alighting from or boarding same, vehicles shall be operated or driven on the right-hand side of such street car and at a rate of speed not exceeding ten miles an hour and shall be so operated or driven that no portion thereof or of any load thereon shall be within six feet of the running-board or steps of such car, and shall at all times be operated with due care and caution so that the safety of such passengers shall be assured; provided, however, that where local authorities have plainly marked upon the surface of the highway safety zones for the protection of such passengers, vehicles shall not, at any time, be operated or driven within such zones: provided, further, that said safety zones shall only be marked at street corners or at other regularly established stations or stopping places of such railroad, or interurban, or street cars, and shall not extend beyond seven feet toward the boundary of the highway from the outer rail of such railroad, interurban or street car line.

Safety zones.

In mountain passes.

(l) Every motor vehicle when moving in defiles, canyons, or mountain passes where the curvature of the road or highway prevents a clear view for a distance of one hundred yards shall be held under control and not permitted to coast and the operator thereof in approaching curves shall give a warning of his gong or other adequate signaling device.

Police and fire patrols.

(m) Police patrol wagons, police ambulances, fire patrols, fire engines and fire apparatus in all cases while being operated as such, shall have right of way with due regard to the safety of the public; but this provision shall not protect the driver or operator of any such vehicle or his employer or principal from the consequence of the arbitrary exercise of this right or for injuries wilfully inflicted.

Stopping near fire hydrant.

(n) No person shall hitch or leave standing, or cause or permit to be hitched or left standing, any animal, or leave standing or cause or permit to be left standing, any vehicle, or stop or cause or permit to be stopped any animal or vehicle at any time upon the public highway within fifteen feet of any public fire hydrant located upon the public highway or sidewalk, unless such animal is under the charge of some person capable of driving the same or unless such vehicle is in the charge of some person capable of operating or driving the same.

(o) No motor or other vehicle as defined in this act shall be operated or driven on or over any public highway or bridge if the outside width of tread exceeds one hundred twelve inches or if the total outside width of the bed of said vehicle and any load thereon shall exceed one hundred two inches, nor shall any pleasure type automobile be operated on or over any public highway or bridge if any luggage, package, trunk, crate, box or other load carried thereon extends to the side more than eight inches beyond the running board of such automobile; provided, however, that any city now or hereafter organized under freeholders' charter may permit or prohibit an increase beyond the maximum hereinbefore prescribed of the total outside width of the beds of vehicles and any loads thereon, where such vehicles are operated or driven and said loads are carried wholly within the limits of said city, but where any such city shall not by proper and suitable ordinance or other regulation permit or prohibit such increased width, the regulations and limitations prescribed by this act shall not apply; and provided, that the regulations and limitations prescribed by this act relative to the maximum widths of vehicles and their loads shall not apply to implements of husbandry temporarily drawn, propelled or moved upon the highway; and provided, further, that loads not exceeding ten feet in width of loosely-piled material not crated, baled, boxed, sacked or carried otherwise than loosely in bulk, may be carried upon vehicles on the highway; provided, that the extreme width of such vehicles, including any loading racks thereon, shall not exceed one hundred twenty inches, as hereinbefore prescribed.

(p) No person shall leave standing, or cause or permit to be left standing upon the main traveled portion, or any part thereof, of any public highway, a vehicle undergoing repair, or which has been stopped for the purpose of having repairs made thereon, or for the purpose of camping; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to a vehicle which shall be disabled, while on such main traveled portion of the highway, in such manner and to such extent that it shall be impossible to avoid stopping such vehicle on said main traveled portion of the highway, and impracticable to remove the same therefrom until repairs shall have been made.

(q) The provisions of subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), (i), (j), (k) of this section shall be applicable to the rider of every horse, mule or other riding animal ridden upon the public highway, to the end and effect that the same duties, rules and regulations imposed thereon upon the drivers or operators of vehicles upon the public highway, including the care to be exercised in driving or operating vehicles, the portion of the highway upon which they shall travel, the right of way as between vehicles passing or overtaking each other, or upon approaching intersections, the duty of giving way in favor of overtaking vehicles, the manner of turning at intersections and at other places upon the highway and of stopping or changing the course of the vehicles and the duties imposed upon operators or drivers of vehicles in passing railroad, inter-urban or street cars, shall be imposed, and they are hereby imposed, upon the riders of animals upon the public highways.

Live stock on highway.

(r) No person owning, or controlling the possession of, any horse, cow, mule, ass, sheep, goat, hog or other live stock, shall voluntarily or negligently permit such animal to stray upon or remain unaccompanied upon the public highway, or shall permit the tether or any portion thereof to which such animal may be attached, to lie across or upon any public highway, and no person shall feed, pasture or camp any such live stock upon any public highway between the hours of sunset and sunrise.

Stats. 1915,
p. 409.

SEC. 16. Section twenty-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rate of speed.

Sec. 22. (a) Any person operating or driving a motor or other vehicle on the public highways shall operate or drive the same in a careful and prudent manner and at a rate of speed not greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and use of the highway, and no person shall operate or drive a motor vehicle or other vehicle on a public highway at such rate of speed as to endanger the life or limb of any person or the safety of any property; provided, that it shall be unlawful to operate or drive at a rate of speed in excess of thirty miles an hour; and provided, further, that in any event no person shall operate or drive a motor vehicle or other vehicle on any public highway where the territory contiguous thereto is closely built up, at a greater rate of speed than twenty miles an hour, or in the business district of any incorporated city and county, city or town, at a greater rate of speed than fifteen miles an hour; provided, further, that no person shall operate or drive a motor vehicle or other vehicle on any public highway at a greater rate of speed than fifteen miles an hour in approaching any steam, electric or other railway crossing at grade, or in approaching or traversing an intersecting highway, or crossing or intersection of highways, or in approaching or going around corners or curves in the highway, when in any of the foregoing cases the operator's or chauffeur's view of the road or railway traffic is obstructed, but anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, no person shall operate or drive a motor vehicle or other vehicle on any public highway at a greater rate of speed than fifteen miles an hour in traversing any steam, electric or other railway crossing at grade; provided, further, that the board of supervisors of any county and city and county within this state, and the board of trustees, city council or other governing body of every municipality within this state, within six months after the passage of this act, shall place and thereafter maintain warning signs on every public highway approaching a crossing at grade of such highway and the tracks of any railway, at a reasonable distance, not less than three hundred feet, from such crossing, and on either side thereof. Such sign shall consist of a metal disc twenty-four inches in diameter, the field enameled white, with an enameled black border line one inch wide, and with an enameled black vertical and horizontal cross-line two and a half inches wide; the reverse side of such disc to be colored black. In each of the upper quarters shall appear in black enamel the letter "R," five inches high, three and three-quarters inches wide, lines one inch stroke. Anyone defacing, injuring, knocking down or removing any such sign shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, further, that the maximum rate of speed over any bridge, dam, trestle, culvert, causeway or viaduct as well as the maximum rate of speed over any state highway or portion of state highway may be established by the state highway commission at less than the rate established by law, when in the judgment of said commission the safety of persons using the highway or the protection of the highway shall be promoted thereby, but whenever any such different rate of speed is so established by said commission, the commission shall cause to be erected suitable signs to mark the location and limits of the highway to which said different rate of speed shall apply, and such signs shall be placed at a distance of not less than one hundred feet or at a greater distance than one hundred fifty feet from the highway or portion of highway or from the approaches of any bridge, dam, trestle, culvert, causeway or viaduct with respect to which such different rate of speed may be so established. In the case of a bridge, dam, trestle, culvert, causeway or viaduct, such maximum rate of speed so established by said commission shall not be less than ten miles an hour, and in the case of any other highway or portion of highway, such maximum rate of speed so established shall not be less than fifteen miles an hour.

Warning signs at grade crossings.

State highway commission may establish less than legal rate.

(b) No motor or other vehicle carrying a weight in excess of nine thousand pounds, including the vehicle, shall be operated, driven, drawn or otherwise moved on any public highway or bridge at a rate of speed greater than twenty-five miles an hour; no motor or other vehicle carrying a weight in excess of twelve thousand pounds, including the vehicle, shall be operated, driven, drawn or otherwise moved on any public highway or bridge at a rate of speed greater than fifteen miles an hour; no motor or other vehicle carrying a weight in excess of twenty-four thousand pounds, including the vehicle, shall be operated, driven, drawn or otherwise moved on any public highway or bridge at a rate of speed greater than ten miles an hour; provided, however, that no motor vehicle or trailer equipped with tires made wholly or partly of metal shall be operated, driven, drawn or otherwise moved on any public highway or bridge at a rate of speed greater than six miles an hour; provided, further, that any such motor vehicle or trailer, with tires made wholly or partly of metal, may be operated, driven, drawn or otherwise moved, subject to the other provisions of this act, up to ten miles an hour, if it be equipped with springs and if the rear wheels be not less than forty-six inches in diameter, with a bearing surface of not less than eighteen inches; and provided further, however, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, that no motor or other vehicle constructed or otherwise adapted for carrying loads weighing four tons or more, exclusive of such vehicle, shall be operated, driven, drawn or otherwise moved upon the public highway, whether laden or unladen, at a rate of speed exceeding fifteen miles an hour; and provided, further, that nothing contained in this subdivision shall apply to motor vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires.

Arrest.

(c) In case of any person arrested for violation of the provisions of this section, unless such person shall demand that he be taken forthwith before the most accessible magistrate, the arresting officer shall take the name and address of such person and the number of his motor vehicle and notify him in writing to appear before a designated magistrate at a time and place to be specified in such writing at least five days subsequent to the date of such notice and upon the promise in writing of such person to appear at such time and place, such officer shall forthwith release him from custody. Any person wilfully violating such promise shall be guilty of a misdemeanor regardless of the disposition of the charge upon which he was originally arrested.

Regulations
by local authorities.

(d) Limitations as to the rate of speed herein fixed shall be exclusive of all other limitations fixed by any law of this state of any political subdivision thereof. Local authorities shall have no power to enact, enforce or maintain any ordinance, rule or regulation in any way in conflict with, contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, or of any section or other subdivision thereof, and no such ordinance, rule or regulation of said local authorities heretofore or hereafter enacted shall have any force or effect, excepting, however, that (1) such powers as are now or may hereafter be vested in local authorities to enact ordinances and regulations, applicable equally and generally to all vehicles and other users of the highways, and providing for traffic or crossing officers or semaphores, to bring about the orderly passage of vehicles and other users of the public highways on certain portions thereof, where the traffic is heavy and continuous, as well as (2) the powers now or hereafter vested in local authorities to license and to regulate the operation of vehicles offered to the public for hire, and to regulate the use of the highways for processions or assemblages, shall remain in full force and effect, and all ordinances, rules and regulations which may have been or which may be hereafter enacted in pursuance of such powers, shall remain in full force and effect; and provided, further, that local authorities may by general rule, ordinance or regulation, exclude vehicles from any cemetery or ground used for the burial of the dead, or exclude vehicles used solely or principally for commercial purposes from any park or part of a park system where such general rule, ordinance, or regulation is applicable equally and generally to all other vehicles used for the same purpose; provided, that at the entrance, or at each entrance if there be more than one, to such cemetery or park from which vehicles are so excluded, there shall have been posted a sign plainly legible from the middle of the public highway on which such cemetery or park opens, plainly indicating such exclusion and prohibition; and provided, further, that the local authorities of any city, town, or city and county may impose additional restrictions to those herein contained applicable to vehicles exclusively used in the carrying of merchandise or articles of freight and of a capacity in excess of one ton in weight and may designate certain streets whereon heavy laden vehicles may be excluded or declared to be "one way" streets, may further, restrict, or prohibit, the use of trailers.

SEC. 17. Section twenty-three of said act is hereby repealed. Repealed.

SEC. 18. Section twenty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915, p. 411.

Sec. 24. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate or drive a motor vehicle upon the public highway unless licensed by the department as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that the requirements of this section shall not apply to the operators or drivers of any implements of husbandry temporarily drawn, propelled or moved on the public highway. Before operating a motor vehicle upon the public highway, application for a license to operate such vehicle shall be made by mail or otherwise to the department upon a blank to be prepared and furnished on request by said department. To each person shall be assigned some distinguishing number or mark and the department shall issue to the licensee a certificate in such form as the department shall determine; it shall contain the distinguishing number or mark assigned to the licensee, his name, age, place of residence, business address if any, and a brief description of the licensee for the purpose of identification, and such other information as the said department shall deem necessary. Every person licensed to operate motor vehicles as aforesaid, whether as a chauffeur or operator, shall indorse his usual signature in the space on the license certificate provided for the purpose, immediately upon the receipt of said certificate and his license shall not be valid until the certificate is so indorsed. Licenses, whether to chauffeurs or operators, shall be valid during the calendar year only in which issued. The department shall furnish to every chauffeur licensed a suitable metal badge with the distinguishing number assigned to him stamped thereon, without extra charge therefor, such badge to have stamped Operator's license. Application. Valid one year. Badge.

Badge.

thereon the words "Registered Chauffeur No. _____, Cal." with the said license number and year of issue inserted therein. This badge shall thereafter be worn by such chauffeur, affixed to his clothing in a conspicuous place, at all times when he is operating or driving a motor vehicle upon the public highway, and the license certificate issued to each chauffeur or operator, under the provisions of this section, shall be carried by the licensee at all times when he is operating or driving a motor vehicle upon the public highway and shall be produced by him for inspection upon request by any peace officer. In case of the loss of such badge or certificate a duplicate will be issued by the department on the filing of an affidavit showing the fact of loss, and on payment of a fee of one dollar to the department in the case of a badge and fifty cents in case of a certificate. Duplicate license certificates shall be issued by the department to operators other than chauffeurs upon application therefor, whether in case of loss or otherwise, upon payment of a fee of twenty-five cents to the department. Applications for the annual renewal of licenses by chauffeurs shall be accompanied by the fee required by section seven of this act, but in case of operators no fee shall be required upon such renewal of license. No chauffeur's license or badge shall be issued to any applicant under the age of eighteen years; provided, that it shall be unlawful for any person to cause or knowingly to permit his or her child, ward or employee to operate or drive a motor vehicle upon the public highway, whether as a chauffeur or operator, without first having obtained such license as is hereinbefore specified; provided, that the application to the department of a minor to operate or drive a motor vehicle, whether as chauffeur or operator, shall not be granted by the department unless the parent or parents having the custody of such applicant or the guardian of such applicant shall have joined in said application by signing the same; and provided, further, that any negligence of a minor, so licensed, in operating or driving a motor vehicle upon the public highway, whether as chauffeur or operator, shall be imputed to the person or persons who shall have signed the application of such minor for said license, which person or persons shall be jointly and severally liable with such minor for any damages caused by such negligence.

Application of minor.

Stats. 1915, p. 412.

Use of fictitious name, etc.

SEC. 19. Section twenty-six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 26. (a) No person shall use a fictitious name in applying for such chauffeur's or operator's license, nor shall any chauffeur or operator licensed as herein provided voluntarily permit any other person to possess or use his license certificate or badge; nor shall any person while operating or driving a motor vehicle use or possess any license certificate or badge belonging to another person.

(b) No person shall display or cause or permit to be displayed, or have in his possession, any canceled, revoked, suspended, altered or fictitious registration number plate, registration seal, registration certificate, operator's license certificate, chauffeur's license certificate or chauffeur's badge, as the same are respectively provided for in this act.

(c) No person shall knowingly buy, sell, receive, dispose of, conceal or have in his possession any motor vehicle from which the manufacturer's serial number or motor number or any other distinguishing number or identification mark has been removed, defaced, covered, altered or destroyed for the purpose of concealment or misrepresenting the identity of said motor vehicle.

Upon receipt of said application, the department, if satisfied of the facts stated therein, shall, without charge to the applicant, register said motor vehicle or trailer and shall furnish to the applicant a registration certificate or device, of a distinctive form to be determined by the department, indicating that the holder thereof has complied with the requirements of this act and containing such other matter as may be deemed suitable by the department, which certificate or device shall be valid not to exceed three months from the date of its issuance, at the end of which period it shall be returned by said owner, transportation prepaid, to the department. In case of a motor vehicle, said certificate or device shall be carried, at all times while said motor vehicle is being operated or driven upon the public highways, in plain sight in or upon said motor vehicle, in the manner required of resident owners with respect to registration certificates, and in case of a trailer, such certificate or device shall be displayed in such manner as the department shall determine. The department shall file said applications for registration by nonresident owners, and shall suitably index said applications and registrations, which files and index shall be open to inspection by the public during reasonable business hours.

SEC. 21. Section twenty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Using without owner's consent.

SEC. 28. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive or operate, or cause to be driven or operated, upon the public highway any motor vehicle not his own, whether with or without intent to steal the same, in the absence of the owner thereof and without such owner's consent; provided, such consent shall not be implied in any instance because of the fact that upon a previous occasion such owner had consented to the use of the same or another motor vehicle by such person. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than one year or in state prison for not less than one year nor more than ten years.

Stats. 1915,
p. 413.

SEC. 22. Section thirty-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 32. (a) Excepting as in this act otherwise provided, or where a different penalty is expressly fixed by this act, any person violating any of its provisions, or knowingly making a false statement or knowingly concealing a material fact or otherwise committing a fraud in an application for the registration of a vehicle, or in an application for an operator's or chauffeur's license, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, unless in this act otherwise provided, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) Immediately upon receipt by the department of information concerning the conviction of any person for the violation of section seventeen of this act, or concerning the third conviction within any calendar year of any person for the violation of section twenty-two of this act, the department shall transmit said information to the state highway commission, whereupon said highway commission, or any member thereof, shall fix a time and place for a hearing, and the person so convicted shall be served with a written notice, at least ten days prior to the date of said hearing, to appear and show cause, at such hearing, why his license to operate a motor vehicle upon the public highways should not be suspended or revoked. If upon such hearing it is determined that there is good and sufficient reason therefor, findings and an order shall be made by the commission or by the person or persons holding such hearing on behalf of the commission, to the effect that such license shall be revoked, or shall be suspended for a limited time to be determined by the commission, which findings and order shall be transmitted to the department, and the department shall thereupon forthwith revoke said license, or suspend the same, in accordance with said findings and order; provided, that in like manner said commission may, upon its own initiative or upon the sworn information of any person, in its discretion order the suspension or revocation of any operator's or chauffeur's license (1) if satisfied, upon such hearing as hereinbefore provided for, that such operator or chauffeur is a reckless driver or that he is an incompetent or unfit person to operate a motor vehicle because of a mental or physical infirmity or disability, or (2) when said operator or chauffeur shall have been directly concerned in an accident upon the public highway resulting in the death of any person.

state highway commission to suspend or revoke
license.

If in any case the respondent shall fail to appear at the time and place fixed for any such hearing as is provided in this section, he shall be in default, and if in the opinion of the commission, or of the person or persons holding such hearing on behalf of the commission, there is sufficient reason therefor, the license of the respondent may be ordered revoked or suspended, whereupon the department shall upon notice of such order, revoke or suspend, as the case may be, such license.

Upon the suspension or revocation of any chauffeur's or operator's license, the department shall demand the surrender of the license certificate, and any duplicates thereof that may have been issued, and also the license badge, if any, and it shall be unlawful for any person whose license has been suspended or revoked as herein provided to fail or neglect forthwith to surrender to the department any such certificates or badge in his possession or under his control.

Said commission, or any member thereof, or any person authorized to hold the hearings hereinbefore provided for, may summon witnesses in behalf of the state and may administer oaths and take testimony, may cause depositions to be taken,

Witnesses,
etc.

and may order the production of books, papers, agreements and documents.

Fees. The fees for the attendance and travel of witnesses shall be the same as for witnesses before the superior court, and shall be paid by the state upon demand by the commission filed with the controller.

Enforcement. The supreme court, any district court of appeal or any superior court shall have jurisdiction, upon the application of the commission, or of the motor vehicle department, to enforce all lawful orders of the commission under this section.

Suspension of operator's license. (c) In addition to any or all other punishments provided in this act and imposed by the court upon any person for violation of any of the provisions of this act, the court may, in its discretion, suspend an operator's or chauffeur's license for a period of not to exceed thirty days, in which case the court shall take up the license certificate of such person together with, in case of a chauffeur, the license badge, and shall forward them to the department.

Return of license. (d) Upon the expiration of the period of suspension of any license as hereinbefore in this section provided for, the department shall return to the licensee his license certificate, or in its discretion may issue to him a new certificate, and such license shall be valid for the remainder of the current calendar year, subject to the other provisions of this act; and in like manner the department shall return to any chauffeur whose license badge may have been forwarded to the department upon suspension of his license, such license badge or issue to such licensee a new badge.

Repealed. SEC. 23. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby repealed.

Stats. 1915, p. 414. SEC. 24. Section thirty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Motor vehicle fund created. Sec. 34. There is hereby created in the state treasury a fund which shall be known as the "motor vehicle fund." All moneys received by the department under any of the provisions of this act must be paid into the state treasury within twenty-four hours after the receipt thereof and shall be deposited to the credit of the motor vehicle fund, but if at any time such payment can not be made because of the intervention of a Sunday or a holiday, then such money shall be paid into the state treasury before twelve o'clock noon of the first business day following such Sunday or holiday; provided, however,

Operators' license fund. that there is also hereby created in the state treasury a fund which shall be known as the "operators' license fund," and the moneys received by the department for operators' or chauffeurs' licenses shall not be credited to the motor vehicle fund but to the credit of said operators' license fund. One-half of the net receipts under this act except those credited to the operators' license fund shall be paid from the motor vehicle fund to the counties from which the moneys were received, as determined by the places of residence of the persons to whom the registration certificates are issued, and all such amounts so returned shall be paid into the road funds of the several counties receiving the same, and shall be expended by such counties exclusively in the construction and maintenance of roads, bridges and culverts in said counties respectively. In the event that any county has not established a road fund, its proportion of said net receipts shall be retained by the state until provision for such road fund has been made, and it shall then be paid over. In the months of January and July of each year the department shall make to the controller a report setting forth the gross and net receipts for the preceding six months, and thereafter the controller shall draw his warrants upon the motor vehicle fund in favor of the county treasurer of each county for the amount to which such county is entitled; provided, nevertheless, that the controller shall not draw such warrant in favor of any county which theretofore shall not have established a road fund or which shall be delinquent in its annual report to the state department of engineering as hereinafter required. Of the moneys in said motor vehicle fund, when such action has been authorized by the board of control, the department may draw, without at the time furnishing vouchers and itemized statements, sums not to exceed in the aggregate ten thousand dollars, said sums so drawn to be used as a revolving fund where cash advances are necessary. At the close of each fiscal year, or at any other time upon demand of the board of control, the moneys so drawn must be accounted for and substantiated by vouchers and itemized statements submitted to and audited by the board of control and by the controller. All moneys remaining in the motor vehicle fund after the expenditures herein authorized, in addition to all sums that have been heretofore or that may be appropriated hereafter by the legislature for the same purpose, shall be expended under the direction of the state department of engineering for the maintenance and improvement of the state roads and highways under the jurisdiction of said department of engineering, and for the maintenance and improvement of roads and highways in state parks subject to the approval of the official or officials charged by law with the management and control of such parks, such moneys to be so drawn from said motor vehicle fund for the purpose of such maintenance and improvement upon warrants executed by the state controller upon demand made by the state department of engineering, and allowed and audited by the board of control. So much of the motor vehicle fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to be expended by the department in carrying out the provisions of this act; provided, however, that there shall not be so expended out of the motor vehicle fund in any one year more than ten per cent of said fund; and provided, further, that the board of supervisors of each county in the state shall make an annual report to the state department of engineering not later than the first day of March in each year, upon forms to be provided by the state department of engineering, showing the amount of moneys received out

SEC. 25. Section thirty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Disposition
of fines.

SEC. 35. (a) All fines or forfeitures collected in cases of conviction for violation of any of the provisions of this act following arrests by any officer employed by an incorporated municipality, except a city and county, shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which such municipality is situated and such moneys shall belong to the several counties, to be used by them, when authorized and permitted by law, in the discretion of the respective boards of supervisors in the construction, maintenance and improvement of roads, streets, bridges and culverts within the limits of the incorporated municipalities of said counties, and for no other purpose; provided, however, that when not so authorized or permitted by law to use such moneys for said purposes, said counties shall receive said moneys for the benefit of, and said moneys shall belong to, the several incorporated municipalities in said counties respectively, excepting as herein otherwise provided, and at quarterly intervals the supervisors shall apportion and pay over said moneys to said municipalities according to their population ascertained in the manner provided by law, which moneys shall be expended by such municipalities solely in the construction, maintenance and improvement of streets, bridges and culverts within the city limits along routes directly connecting interurban public highways entering such cities respectively; provided, however, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, that no (1) incorporated city and county, (2) city of more than twenty-five thousand population, or (3) city operating under a freeholders charter and enforcing or seeking to enforce any ordinance, rule, or regulation in conflict with or covering the same or any part of the ground covered by this act, except as expressly permitted therein, shall be entitled to share in said moneys.

(b) Any and all other fines or forfeitures collected by or in any court for violation of any of the provisions of this act, whether by a justice of the peace, police court, city recorder's court, city justice of the peace, or otherwise, shall be paid to the treasurer of the county or incorporated city and county in which the court is held, and said moneys shall be used by the several counties and incorporated cities and counties solely in the construction, maintenance and improvement of roads, streets, bridges and culverts within their respective limits, and for no other purpose.

SEC. 26. Section thirty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915,
p. 416.

SEC. 37. There is hereby created a department to be known as the motor vehicle department of California. The chief officer shall be known as the superintendent, who shall be a civil executive officer and shall be appointed by the governor and shall hold office at the pleasure of the governor. He shall within fifteen days from the time of notice of his appointment take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state and execute to the people of the state a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars. He shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars to be paid monthly upon a warrant of the controller. He shall have the power to appoint one chief clerk, who, shall be a civil executive officer, at an annual salary of two thousand one hundred dollars; one cashier, at an annual salary of two thousand one hundred dollars; and, with the approval of the board of control, such additional employees as the proper and economical conduct of the business of the department may demand, and shall fix and prescribe their duties, compensation and term of employment; provided, that such employees shall include field deputies or inspectors, upon whom are hereby conferred, for the purposes of the enforcement of this act, the powers now or hereafter vested by law in peace officers, and who may exercise said powers in any portion of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, but solely in the enforcement of the provisions of this act. The cashier shall execute to the people of the state a bond in the penal sum of five thousand dollars. The salaries herein provided for shall be payable monthly, and the expenditures authorized by this act, shall be made upon the certificate of the superintendent of the department, allowed and audited by the board of control, and the warrant of the state controller. ## CHAPTER 219.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred thirty-nine of the Political Code, relating to the method of determining the place of residence of an elector.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand two hundred thirty-nine of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rules for determining place of residence.

1239. The board of election, in determining the place of residence of any person, must be governed by the following rules, as far as they are applicable:

1. That place must be considered and held to be the residence of a person in which his habitation is fixed, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning;

2. A person must not be held to have gained or lost residence by reason of his presence or absence from a place while employed in the service of the United States, or of this state, nor while engaged in navigation, nor while a student of any institution of learning, nor while kept in an almshouse, asylum, or prison;

3. A person must not be considered to have lost his residence who leaves his home to go into another state, or precinct in this state, for temporary purposes merely, with the intention of returning;

4. A person must not be considered to have gained a residence in any precinct into which he comes for temporary purposes merely, without the intention of making such precinct his home;

5. If a person remove to another state with the intention of making it his residence, he loses his residence in this state;

6. If a person remove to another state with the intention of remaining there for an indefinite time, and as a place of present residence, he loses his residence in this state, notwithstanding he entertains an intention of returning at some future period;

7. The place where a man's family resides must be held to be his residence; but if it be a place for temporary establishment for his family, or for transient objects, it is otherwise;

8. If a man have a family fixed in one place, and he does business in another, the former must be considered his place of residence; provided, that any man having a family, and who has taken up his abode with the intention of remaining, and whose family does not so reside with him, must be regarded as a resident where he has so taken up his abode;

9. The residence of the husband is the residence of the wife except in the case mentioned in the proviso in subdivision eight hereof;

10. The mere intention to acquire a new residence, without the fact of removal, avails nothing, neither does the fact of removal, without the intention.

said court presiding in the department thereof in which the said clerk is to act, and one additional clerk who shall be appointed by the presiding judge of said court. Each of said clerks shall hold office for the term of four years from the date of his appointment. Each such clerk shall be ex officio a clerk of the city justices of the peace. Each of said clerks shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two surties, to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Each of said clerks shall receive an annual salary of two thousand one hundred dollars, payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be full compensation for all services rendered by him. Each of said clerks shall keep a record of the proceedings of said court and issue all processes ordered by the city justices or either of them, or by said police court or a judge thereof, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines imposed and collected by said court, and all forfeitures of cash deposited in lieu of bail in said court, and all other moneys which may come into his hands belonging to or payable to said city. They shall also render each month to the city council an exact and detailed account under oath of all fines imposed and collected and of all fines imposed and uncollected since their last reports. They shall prepare and approve bonds and may, in the absence of a judge of said court, fix the amount of bail to be required of any defendant charged in such court with any offense of which such court has jurisdiction. Such clerk may also justify bail, and may administer and certify oaths. Said clerks shall remain at the court rooms of said court during business hours and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for a proper performance of their duties. Before receiving any monthly payment of salary, each of said clerks shall make and file with the city auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come into his hands belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor. Said clerks shall keep, compile and be the custodians of the dockets, files and records of said court. Said dockets shall, in civil cases, be kept in conformity to the provisions of sections nine hundred eleven, nine hundred twelve, nine hundred thirteen and nine hundred fourteen of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California. In criminal cases the docket shall contain in each case:

1. The title of the case;
2. The demurrer, if any;
3. The motion to dismiss, if any, based upon any defect of the complaint in substance or form;
4. The ruling of the court upon any demurrer or motion to dismiss;
5. The defendant's plea;
6. Any order of the court setting the time for hearing of any demurrer or motion, or setting case for trial;

Bond.

Salary.

Duties.

Monthly account.

Business hours.

Violation.

Dockets.

Docket in criminal cases.

7. The names of the witnesses sworn and examined at the trial;

8. The verdict;

9. The time set for rendering judgment, if judgment is not passed immediately after verdict or plea of guilty; and the waiver of time for sentence, if there be such waiver;..

10. The judgment;

11. A minute of all motions, rulings and orders made after verdict of judgment;

12. The dates of the various actions or things required to be recorded.

Each of said clerks shall perform such other duties as the court by a majority vote of the judges thereof may determine in regulating and conducting the business of said court, and said judges may select one of the said clerks to supervise and audit the books, records and accounts of the several departments of said court in cooperation with the city auditor of said city, and to perform such other duties as said judges may require. An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory to incorporated towns and cities, and for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part of such municipalities, and for the districting, government and municipal control of annexed territory," approved March 19, 1889, as amended.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory to incorporated towns and cities, and for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part of such municipalities, and for the districting, government and municipal control of annexed territory," approved March 19, 1889, as amended is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1911.
p. 857.

Section 1. The boundaries of any incorporated town or city, whether heretofore or hereafter formed, incorporated, reincorporated, organized, or reorganized, may be altered and new territory annexed thereto, incorporated and included therein, and made a part thereof, upon proceedings being had and taken as in this act provided. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of any such municipal corporation, upon receiving a written petition therefor containing a description of the new territory asked to be annexed to such Procedure for annexing new territory
to cities.

corporation, and signed by not less than one-fifth in number of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation, computed upon the number of votes cast at the last general municipal election held therein, must, without delay, submit to the electors of such municipal corporation and to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such corporation, the question whether such new territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in, and made a part of said municipal corporation. Such question may be so submitted at the next general municipal election to be held in such municipal incorporation, or it may be so submitted prior to such general election either at a special election called therein for that purpose, or at any other municipal election therein, except an election at which the submission of such question is prohibited by law; and such legislative body is hereby empowered to and it shall be its duty to cause notice to be given of such election by the publication of a notice thereof in a newspaper printed and published in such municipal corporation, and also in a newspaper, if any such there be, printed and published outside of such corporation, but in the county in which the territory so proposed to be annexed is situated, in each case at least once a week for a period of four successive weeks next preceding the date of such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted, i. e., that it is proposed to annex to, incorporate in, and make a part of such municipal corporation the territory sought to be annexed, specifically describing the boundaries thereof; and in said notice the qualified electors of said municipal corporation, and the qualified electors residing in said territory so proposed to be annexed, shall be invited to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For annexation" or "Against annexation," or words equivalent thereto. Such legislative body is hereby empowered, and it shall be its duty, to establish, and in such notice of election designate the voting precinct or precincts, and the place or places at which the polls will be opened in such territory so proposed to be annexed, and also in such municipal corporation. And such place or places shall be that or those commonly used as voting places within such municipal corporation, and also that or those commonly used within such new territory, if any such there be. Such legislative body is empowered to, and it shall, appoint the officers of such election, who shall be, for each voting place in such municipal corporation, and for each voting place in said new territory, two judges and one inspector, each of whom shall be a qualified elector of the voting precinct in which he is appointed to act as an officer of such election. The ballots used at such election, the opening and closing of the polls, and the holding and conducting of such election, shall be in conformity, as far as may be, with the general laws of this state concerning elections; and the judges and inspectors of such election shall immediately on the closing of the polls, count the ballots, make up and certify the tally sheets of the ballots cast at their respective polling places, seal, and then immediately return the same as below provided, doing so, as nearly as practicable, in the manner provided in the election laws of this state; but the ballots, tally sheets, and returns shall be so returned to and deposited with the clerk of such legislative body. Such legislative body shall, at the time provided for its regular meeting next after the expiration of three days from and after the date of said election, meet and proceed to canvass said returns; and such canvass shall be completed at such meeting, if practicable, and in any event, as soon as practicable, avoiding adjournment or adjournments, if possible, until said canvass is completed. Said canvass by such legislative body shall be conducted and completed as follows: The returns of the votes cast in said outside territory, so proposed to be annexed shall be canvassed separately; and the returns of the votes cast inside of said municipal corporation shall be canvassed separately. Immediately upon the completion of such canvass, said legislative body shall cause a record thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes, showing the whole number of votes cast in such outside territory, the whole number of votes cast in such municipal corporation, the number thereof cast in each in favor of annexation, and the number thereof cast in each against annexation; and if it shall appear from such canvass that a majority of all the votes cast in such outside territory, and a majority of all the votes cast inside of said municipal corporation, are in favor of annexation, the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, of such legislative body, shall promptly make and certify, under the seal of said municipal corporation, and transmit to the secretary of state, a copy of said record, so entered upon said minutes, together with a statement showing the date of said election and the time and result of said canvass, which document shall be filed by the secretary of state immediately upon the receipt thereof. From and after the date of the filing of said document in the office of the secretary of state, the annexation of such territory so proposed to be annexed shall be deemed and shall be complete, and thenceforth such annexed territory shall be, to all intents and purposes, a part of such municipal corporation, except only that no property within such annexed territory shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of such municipal corporation contracted prior to or existing at the time of such annexation, excepting as provided in section one a of this act. No territory which, at the time such petition for such proposed annexation is presented to such legislative body, forms any part of any incorporated town or city, shall be annexed under the provisions of this act.

An act to provide for the care of the graves of soldiers, sailors and marines of the United States of America whose remains are buried in certain cemeteries.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Care of graves of soldiers, sailors and marines.

SECTION 1. Wherever in any place of burial of human remains, which is now or which may hereafter be established or organized by or under the authority of the board of supervisors of a county, or city and county, of this state, or by or under the authority of the board of trustees, city council or other governing body of a municipality in this state, as a cemetery or place of burial of human remains, there is or shall be any known grave of a former soldier, sailor or marine of the United States of America (who was not dishonorably discharged from the service of said United States), it is hereby made the duty of the trustees or other officers who are or may be hereafter vested by law with the power to manage such cemetery or place of burial, to keep such grave properly marked and identified, and free from weeds and rubbish, and to keep in decent order and repair and free from defacement, injury and unlawful markings any tomb, monument, gravestone, wall or other appurtenance appertaining to such grave.

Tax levy.

SEC. 2. It is hereby made the duty of such officers who are charged or who may hereafter be charged by law with the official power to raise money by taxation for maintaining any such cemetery or place of burial, to include in the tax levy for such purposes sufficient to raise the amount necessary to comply with the requirements of this act.

CHAPTER 223.

An act authorizing the board of trustees of the Whittier State School to maintain a department for the clinical diagnosis of inmates of the school and other state institutions, and to inquire into the causes and consequences of delinquency and mental deficiency, and related problems.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Department
of clinical diagnosis at Whittier
State School.

SECTION 1. The board of trustees of the Whittier State School is hereby authorized and empowered to maintain on the property of the school, a department for the clinical diagnosis of the inmates of the school, and of such other state institutions as may, from time to time, request assistance from said department, such request to be approved by the state board of control. This department shall also carry on research into the causes and consequences of delinquency and mental deficiency, and shall inquire into social, educational and psychological problems relating thereto, and for that purpose may make such investigations and inquiries in the said institutions, when so requested, and elsewhere as may be deemed advantageous. The state board of control may apportion the expenses of the said department, among the different institutions receiving the benefit of the work of the department, in such manner as it may deem proper.

SEC. 2. The said department shall be under the direction of a clinical psychologist, subject to the control of the superintendent of the said school. The said psychologist shall be given a sufficient staff of trained assistants that the intelligence level of each inmate may be established through the standardized psychological tests, supplemented by personal and family history and data from such other lines of investigation as may seem advisable, and that such other work may be done as may be undertaken by the department. The said psychologist and assistants shall be employed by the said superintendent, with the approval of the said board of trustees and at compensation satisfactory to it.

psychologist
and assistants.

CHAPTER 224.

An act providing for the inspection of animals slaughtered for human food, providing for the inspection of the meat and meat food products of such animals, providing for the collection of fees to defray the expenses incurred by maintaining such inspection, providing for the appointment and duties of officials to carry into effect the provisions of this act, providing for the marking of carcasses and parts thereof, and providing a penalty for violation thereof.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any person, firm or corporation in the State of California, engaged in the slaughtering of cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, desiring to have the healthfulness of the meat and meat food products of such animals certified to, may make application for the inauguration of an inspection service in such establishment. Said application shall be in writing addressed to the state veterinarian of California, and shall be made on blanks which will be furnished by said state veterinarian. In such application such applicant for inspection shall agree to comply with the provisions of this act and

Inspection of slaughtering establishments by
state veterinarian.

to maintain said establishment in a clean and sanitary manner. Upon receipt of said application the state veterinarian shall make an inspection of said establishment and if found clean and sanitary, and properly equipped to conduct its business in a clean and sanitary manner, he shall inaugurate an inspection service therein, and shall give to such establishment an official number, and this number shall be used to mark the meat and meat food products of the establishment as hereinafter provided. Such an establishment shall thereafter be known as "Official Establishment No. _____."

Fees.

SEC. 2. The cost of such inspection service shall be borne by the establishment where it is maintained and shall be paid for in the following manner: When, in the opinion of the state veterinarian, the volume of business is sufficient to occupy the continuous services of one inspector, such establishment shall pay a fee of one hundred fifty dollars per month. When, in the opinion of the state veterinarian, the services of more than one inspector are required to properly carry on the work, the fee in such cases shall be one hundred fifty dollars per month for the first inspector, and one hundred twenty-five dollars per month for each additional inspector. When, in the opinion of the state veterinarian, the inspection work in two or more neighboring establishments can be properly supervised by one inspector, said state veterinarian may, in such cases, prorate the fees among such establishments, but in no instance where only one inspector is employed to supervise the work in more than one establishment shall the aggregate fees be less than one hundred fifty dollars per month, and in no such instance shall the individual fees be less than fifty dollars per month. All such fees shall be paid during the first week of January, April, July and October of each year and they shall be paid in advance for the ensuing three months. Such fees shall be paid to the state veterinarian, who shall at least as often as once each month and oftener if required to do so, report to the state controller the total amount of fees collected, and at the same time he shall pay into the state treasury the entire amount of said receipts. All such receipts shall be credited to the meat hygiene fund, which fund is hereby created, out of which shall be paid the salaries of inspectors who are appointed in accordance with the provisions of this act, as well as other expenses that may be incurred incidental thereto. In no instance, however, shall any of the fees collected as provided herein be refunded. The state veterinarian is hereby authorized to appoint such inspectors as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

Hours for slaughtering.

SEC. 3. All slaughtering in each official establishment shall be conducted between the hours of seven o'clock a.m. and seven o'clock p.m. of any one week day, unless a special permit in writing or by telegram, authorizing slaughtering at any other time, is granted by the state veterinarian. The manager or other person in charge of such establishment shall inform the inspector when work has been concluded for the day, and of the day and hour when work will be resumed. Where one inspector is detailed to conduct the work at two or more establishments where few animals are slaughtered, the inspector may designate the hours for work.

SEC. 4. In each official establishment an ante mortem examination shall be made of all cattle, sheep, swine and goats about to be slaughtered, and satisfactory facilities shall be provided for conducting such examinations, and for separating and holding apart from passed animals those that are unfit for immediate slaughter. Ante mortem examination.

SEC. 5. In each official establishment a careful inspection shall be made of all animals at the time of slaughter. The head and tongue, tail, thymus gland, and all viscera, and all parts and blood used in the preparation of meat food and medicinal products shall be retained in such a manner as to preserve their identity until after the post-mortem examination has been completed. Carcasses and parts thereof found to be sound, healthful, wholesome and fit for human food shall be passed and marked in the following manner: Upon all passed carcasses and parts thereof slaughtered in an official establishment the inspector shall place a mark bearing the words "Cal. Inspected and Passed." This mark shall also contain the official number of the establishment. The number of such marks that shall be affixed and their location on the carcasses and parts thereof shall be determined by the state veterinarian. Each carcass or part thereof, which is found on post-mortem inspection to be unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome or otherwise unfit for human food shall be marked conspicuously by the inspector at the time of inspection with the words "Cal. Inspected and Condemned," and such carcass or part thereof shall, under the supervision of the inspector, be rendered unfit for human consumption in some manner approved by the state veterinarian. Parts inspected.

SEC. 6. The state veterinarian shall, from time to time, make such rules and regulations as are necessary for the efficient execution of the provisions of this act, and all inspections and examinations made under this act shall be such and made in such manner as described in the rules and regulations prescribed by said state veterinarian not inconsistent with the provisions of this act; provided, however, that in making such rules and regulations said state veterinarian shall be guided by the regulations governing meat inspection of the United States department of agriculture. Rules and regulations.

SEC. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation except the inspector as herein provided, to have in possession, keep or use any mark, stamp or brand provided or used for marking, stamping or branding any article herein required to be marked, stamped or branded. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to have in Violation.

possession, keep, make or use any mark, stamp or brand having thereon a device or words similar in character or import to the marks, stamps or brands provided or used for marking, stamping or branding such articles, and any violation hereof shall be deemed a misdemeanor.

An act to amend section seventeen of an act known as "the building and loan commission act," approved April 5, 1911, and amended by acts approved December 18, 1911, and May 29, 1915, relating to the powers and duties of the building and loan commissioner.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1911,
p. 615.

SECTION 1. Section seventeen of an act known as "the building and loan commission act," approved April 5, 1911, and amended by acts approved December 18, 1911, and May 29, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Suit to collect
assessments.

Sec. 17. The collection of all moneys assessed, as herein provided, for the payment of salaries and annual expenses, or forfeitable as fines for failure to make payments of assessments, procure licenses, or make and file reports as herein specified, and due from any such association, corporation or society coming within the provisions of this act, or imposed as a penalty for violation of any order or summons, may be enforced by the commissioner by action instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction; and all moneys collected or received by the commissioner under this act, shall be deposited with the state treasurer, to be credited to a fund to be known and designated as the "building and loan inspection fund"; which said fund shall only be used in defraying the salaries and expenses provided for by this act; provided, however, that the commissioner may retain in his possession and under his control a sum not exceeding three hundred dollars to be used for the benefit of his office, as a revolving fund, for making advance payment of office rent and office expenses prior to the presentation and allowance of the periodical claims therefor.

CHAPTER 226.

An act to amend sections three thousand six hundred seven, three thousand six hundred eight, three thousand six hundred twenty-seven, three thousand six hundred twenty-eight, three thousand six hundred twenty-nine, three thousand six hundred forty-three, three thousand six hundred sixty-three, three thousand six hundred seventy-eight, three thousand seven hundred one, three thousand seven hundred twenty-eight, three thousand seven hundred thirty-four and three thousand seven hundred fifty-three of the Political Code, and to repeal sections three thousand six hundred nine, three thousand six hundred ten, three thousand six hundred forty-one, three thousand six hundred seventy-nine, three thousand seven hundred nineteen, three thousand seven hundred fifty-seven, three thousand seven hundred sixty-nine a, three thousand eight hundred thirty-nine, three thousand eight hundred forty, three thousand eight hundred forty-one, three thousand eight hundred forty-two, three thousand eight hundred forty-three, three thousand eight hundred forty-four, three thousand eight hundred forty-five, three thousand eight hundred forty-six, three thousand eight hundred forty-seven, three thousand eight hundred forty-eight, three thousand eight hundred forty-nine, three thousand eight hundred fifty, three thousand eight hundred fifty-one, three thousand eight hundred fifty-two, three thousand eight hundred fifty-three, three thousand eight hundred fifty-four, three thousand eight hundred fifty-five, three thousand eight hundred fifty-six, three thousand eight hundred fifty-seven, three thousand eight hundred fifty-eight, three thousand eight hundred fifty-nine, three thousand eight hundred sixty, three thousand eight hundred sixty-one, and three thousand eight hundred sixty-two, of said code, and to add to said code a new section to be numbered three thousand seven hundred fourteen a, all relating to revenue and taxation.

[Approved May 11, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand six hundred seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3607. All property in this state, except as otherwise provided in the constitution of this state, is subject to taxation. Nothing in this code shall be construed to require or permit double taxation.

Property
subject to taxation.

SEC. 2. Section three thousand six hundred eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3608. Shares of stock in corporations possess no intrinsic value over and above the actual value of the property of the corporation which they stand for and represent. The assessment and taxation of such shares, and also of all corporate property would be double taxation. All property belonging to corporations shall be assessed and taxed, in the manner provided by law; but no assessment shall be made of shares of stock in any corporation except as prescribed in the constitution of this state and the laws enacted pursuant to such provisions of the constitution.

Shares of stock in corporations.

Repealed.

SEC. 3. Section three thousand six hundred nine of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 4. Section three thousand six hundred ten of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

SEC. 5. Section three thousand six hundred twenty-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Assessed at full cash value.

3627. All taxable property must be assessed at its full cash value. Land and improvements thereon shall be separately assessed. Cultivated and uncultivated land, of the same quality, and similarly situated, shall be assessed at the same value.

SEC. 6. Section three thousand six hundred twenty-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Assessment of taxable property.

3628. Except as otherwise provided in the constitution of this state, all taxable property shall be assessed in the county, city, city and county, town, township, or district in which it is situated. Land shall be assessed in parcels, or subdivisions, not exceeding six hundred forty acres each; and tracts of land containing more than six hundred forty acres, which have been sectionized by the United States government, shall be assessed by sections or fractions of sections. Land sold by the state for which no patent has been issued, shall be assessed the same as other land, but the owner shall be entitled to a deduction from such assessed valuation in the amount due the state as principal upon the purchase price. The assessor must, between the first Mondays in March and July of each year, ascertain the names of all taxable inhabitants, and all the property in his county subject to taxation, except such as is required to be assessed by the state board of equalization and must assess such property to the persons by whom it was owned or claimed, or in whose possession or control it was, at twelve o'clock meridian of the first Monday in March next preceding; but no mistake in the name of the owner or supposed owner of real property shall render the assessment thereof invalid. In assessing solvent credits, not secured by mortgage or trust deed on real estate, a deduction therefrom shall be made of debts due to bona fide residents of this state.

SEC. 7. Section three thousand six hundred twenty-nine of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Statement of property owned.

3629. The assessor must exact from each person a statement, under oath, setting forth specifically all the real and personal property owned by such person, or in his possession, or under his control, at twelve o'clock m. on the first Monday in March. Such statement shall be in writing, showing separately:

Statement
owned.

1. All property belonging to, claimed by, or in the possession or under the control or management of such person.

2. All property belonging to, claimed by, or in the possession or under the control or management of any firm of which such person is a member.

3. All property belonging to, claimed by, or in the possession or under the control or management of any corporation of which such person is president, secretary, cashier, or managing agent.

4. The county in which such property is situated, or in which it is liable to taxation, and, if liable to taxation in the county in which the statement is made, also the city, town, township, school district, road district, or other revenue districts in which it is situated.

5. An exact description of all lands, in parcels or subdivisions, not exceeding six hundred forty acres each, and the sections and fractional sections of all tracts of land containing more than six hundred forty acres, which have been sectionized by the United States government, improvements and personal property, including all vessels, steamers, and other watercraft; and all taxable state, county, city, or other municipal or public bonds, and the taxable bonds of any person, firm, or corporation, and deposits of money, gold dust, or other valuables, and the names of the persons with whom such deposits are made, and the places in which they may be found.

6. All solvent credits, unsecured by deed of trust, mortgage, or other lien on real or personal property, due or owing to such person, or any firm of which he is a member, or due or owing to any corporation of which he is president, secretary, cashier, or managing agent, deducting from the sum total of such credits such debts only, unsecured by trust deed, mortgage, or other lien on real or personal property, as may be owing by such person, firm, or corporation to bona fide residents of this state. No debts shall be so deducted unless the statement shows the amount of such debt as stated under oath in aggregate. Whenever one member of a firm, or one of the proper officers of a corporation, has made a statement showing the property of the firm or corporation, another member of the firm, or another officer, need not include such property in the statement made by him; but his statement must show the name of the person or officer who made the statement in which such property is included.

SEC. 8. Section three thousand six hundred forty-one of the Political Code is hereby repealed. Repealed.

SEC. 9. Section three thousand six hundred forty-three of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3643. A ferry boat is a vessel traversing across any of the waters of the state, between two constant points, regularly employed for the transfer of passengers and freight, authorized by law so to do. Where ferries connect more than one Ferries.

county, the wharves, storehouses, and all stationary property belonging to or connected with such ferries, must be assessed, and the taxes paid, in the county where located. The value of all watercraft, and of all toll bridges connecting more than one county, must be assessed in equal proportions in the counties connected by such ferries or toll bridges.

SEC. 10. Section three thousand six hundred sixty-three of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Water
ditches.

3663. Water ditches constructed for mining, manufacturing, or irrigation purposes, and wagon and turnpike toll roads, must be assessed the same as real estate by the assessor of the county, at a rate per mile for that portion of such property as lies within his county.

SEC. 11. Section three thousand six hundred seventy-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Statement
by auditor.

3678. To assist the assessor in the performance of his duties, the auditor must annually transmit to the assessor, within ten days after the first Monday in March of each year, a complete and true statement of all property which has been redeemed under or by virtue of any sale made to the state for delinquent taxes, together with a complete and true statement of all property sold to the state and remaining unredeemed.

Repealed.

SEC. 12. Section three thousand six hundred seventy-nine of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

SEC. 13. Section three thousand seven hundred one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duties of
secretary.

3701. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the board in a book specially provided for such purpose. When required by the board or the chairman he shall visit the several counties and collect data and information relative to the assessment of property therein, or the railway property therein, and consult and advise with all officers charged with enforcement of the revenue laws, and report such data and information to the board. To prepare, biennially, the report of the board to the governor, and when printed, to distribute such report, as required by law and as directed by the board. To do and perform all other acts and things enjoined by law or required by the board. The secretary is a civil executive officer and is authorized to administer and certify oaths in any county in the state.

SEC. 14. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, numbered three thousand seven hundred fourteen a, to read as follows:

Statement of tax rate sent to controller.

3714a. When the board of supervisors of each county, and city and county shall have fixed the rate of county, or city and county taxation, the clerk of the board of supervisors must, within three days after such rate has been fixed, transmit by mail, postage paid, to the controller, in such form as the controller shall direct, a statement of the rate of taxation levied by the board of supervisors for county, or city and county taxation. If the clerk fails to transmit such statement in the time herein provided for, he shall forfeit to the state one thousand dollars, to be recovered in an action brought by the attorney general, in the name of the controller.

SEC. 15. Section three thousand seven hundred ~~nineteen~~ <sup>Repealed.</sup> of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

SEC. 16. Section three thousand seven hundred twenty-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3728. The auditor must, on or before the second Monday in August in each year, prepare from the "assessment book" of such year, as corrected by the board of supervisors, duplicate statements, showing in separate columns—

Statements from "assessment book."

1. The number of acres of land.
2. The total value of all property.
3. The value of real estate.
4. The value of improvements thereon.
5. The value of personal property, exclusive of money.
6. The amount of money.
7. Such other information as the state board of equalization may require.

SEC. 17. Section three thousand seven hundred thirty-four of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3734. On delivering the assessment book to the tax collector, the auditor must charge the tax collector with the full amount of the taxes levied, and forthwith transmit by mail to the controller of state, in such form as the controller may prescribe, a statement of the amount so charged. Any auditor failing to forward such statement to the controller within ten days after the roll has been delivered to the tax collector, forfeits to the state one thousand dollars, to be recovered in an action brought by the attorney general, in the name of the controller.

Statement of amount charged sent to controller.

SEC. 18. Section three thousand seven hundred fifty-three of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3753. On the first Monday in each month the tax collector must settle with the auditor for all moneys collected for the state or county, and pay the same to the county treasurer, and on the same day must deliver to and file in the office of the auditor a statement under oath, showing:

Statement by tax collector.

1. An itemized account of all his transactions and receipts since his last settlement, which account must show the amount collected for each fund or district extended on the assessment book.
2. That all money collected by him as tax collector has been so paid to the county treasurer.

SEC. 19. Section three thousand seven hundred fifty-seven of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 20. Section three thousand seven hundred sixty-nine of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 316.

An act to provide for the assessment, levy and collection of taxes for the support of the state government for the sixty-ninth and sevenlieth fiscal years.

[Approved May 14, 1917. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Assessment and tax levy for support of state government.

SECTION 1. The state board of equalization shall, between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in July in the year one thousand nine hundred seventeen, for the support of the state government assess and levy taxes upon the property in the manner and upon the rates of taxation as provided for in the subdivisions a, b, c, and d, of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California, or if any rate of taxation shall have been changed by the legislature pursuant to subdivision f of said section and article, then upon such rate of taxation as so changed and fixed, for the purpose of raising the sum of twenty million four hundred sixty thousand dollars for annual expenditure for the support of the state government for the sixty-ninth fiscal year, and in the event that the taxes so assessed and levied, together with all available revenues other than those revenues required by law to be used for special uses, shall not raise said sum of twenty million four hundred sixty thousand dollars, then said above named revenues shall be deemed insufficient to meet the annual expenditures of the state for the sixty-ninth fiscal year, which deficiency is hereby declared to be the difference between the amount of taxes assessed and levied upon the property and in the manner and upon the rates of taxation hereinbefore specified, together with all other state revenues, other than those revenues required by law to be used for special uses, and said sum of twenty million four hundred sixty thousand dollars, then said state board of equalization, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision e of said section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California, at the time provided in section three thousand six hundred ninety-six of the Political Code, shall fix such an ad valorem rate of taxation for the said sixty-ninth fiscal year upon each one hundred dollars in value of taxable property, upon all the property in the State of California not exempt from taxation under the law and subject to taxation for state purposes on the seventh day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten, as, after allowing five per cent for delinquencies, will raise for said sixty-ninth fiscal year the amount of said deficiency.

Sum to be raised for 69th fiscal year.

Ad valorem rate to meet deficiency.

Sec. 2. The state board of equalization shall, between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in July in the year one thousand nine hundred eighteen, for the support of the state government, assess and levy taxes upon the property in the manner and upon the rates of taxation as provided for in subdivisions a, b, c, and d of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California, or if any rate of taxation shall have been changed by the legislature pursuant to subdivision f of said section and article, then upon such rate of taxation as so changed and fixed by the laws now in force, for the purpose of raising the sum of twenty-one million one hundred forty thousand dollars for annual expenditure for the support of the state government for the seventieth fiscal year; and in the event that the taxes so assessed and levied, together with all available revenues other than those revenues required by law to be used for special uses, shall not raise said sum of twenty-one million one hundred forty thousand dollars, then said above named revenues shall be deemed insufficient to meet the annual expenditures of the state for the seventieth fiscal year, which deficiency is hereby declared to be the difference between the amount of taxes assessed and levied upon the property and in the manner and upon the rates of taxation as hereinbefore specified, together with all other state revenues, other than those revenues required by law to be used for special uses, and said sum of twenty-one million one hundred forty thousand dollars, then said state board of equalization, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision e of said section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California, at the time provided in section three thousand six hundred ninety-six of the Political Code, shall fix such an ad valorem rate of taxation for said seventieth fiscal year upon each one hundred dollars in value of taxable property, upon all the property of the State of California not exempt from taxation under the law and subject to taxation for state purposes on the seventh day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten, as, after allowing five per cent for delinquencies, will raise for said seventieth fiscal year, the amount of said deficiency.

Ad valorem rate to meet deficiency.

Tax to meet deficiency levied on what property.

SEC. 3. Any tax so levied and collected to meet a deficiency in state revenues for either of said fiscal years shall be assessed, levied and collected on all property in the state, not exempt from taxation, including the classes of property enumerated in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, under the provisions of the Political Code relating to the assessment, levy and collection of state and county taxes as said provisions were in force on the seventh day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred ten.

In effect
immediately.

SEC. 4. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the state shall, under the provisions of section one of article four of the constitution of the State of California, take effect immediately.

[Approved May 15, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections two thousand two hundred eighty-three, two thousand two hundred eighty-five, two thousand two hundred eighty-six and two thousand two hundred eighty-nine of the Political Code are hereby amended to read as follows:

Appropriation:
dollars:
orphan aid.

Orphan, one hundred dollars;
half orphan,
seventy-five dollars.

2283. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to each and every institution in this state conducted for the support and maintenance of needy minor orphans, half orphans, or abandoned children, and to each and every county, city and county, city, or town maintaining such orphans, half orphans, or abandoned children, or any or all of such classes of persons, aid as follows: For each whole orphan and abandoned child supported and maintained in any institution, not in excess of one hundred dollars per annum; and for each half orphan, not in excess of seventy-five dollars per annum; but each abandoned child must have been an inmate thereof for one year prior to receiving any support as provided in this chapter; provided, that in addition to the amount paid by the state for each half orphan maintained at home by its mother, the county, city and county, city or town may pay for the support of such half orphan an amount equal to the sum paid by the state; and provided, further, that in any case where any such half orphan is denied aid by the county, upon a petition setting forth the facts in full as to the necessity of aid, verified by five reputable citizens of the county, city and county, city, or town, the mother of such child shall have the right of appeal direct to the state board of control for aid for her child, and should her appeal be sustained by said board payment must be made for the child as above provided.

2285. Every institution, county, city and county, city, or town entitled to aid under this chapter must keep the following records, which at all times must be open to the state board of control or to any person appointed by them to examine the same, or to any committee of the legislature, or to any clerk or officer thereof duly authorized to make such examination:

Books to be kept.

1. A record on which must be entered the date of admission, name, age, sex, and place of birth of each and every orphan, half orphan, and abandoned child, who is or may hereafter be received or admitted into such institution, or to county aid, and the date of discharge of any such child, when such discharge is made, the parentage, if known; the estate, if any, to which the child is heir, and the insurance, if any, on the father's or mother's life; so far as can be ascertained, the place where either parent or both died, the nativity of the parents, where married, the marriage certificate, where recorded, when they came to California, place of residence in California, and habits of sobriety.

Date of admission, etc.

2. A book entitled "monthly accounts." In it must be entered on the debtor side, all the moneys received from any and all sources segregated under the proper heads; on the credit side must be entered all disbursements made, specifying for what purposes made, and the amount entered in detail so disbursed, segregated under their proper heads.

Monthly accounts.

3. A pay roll of the employees, and the amounts disbursed to each.

Pay roll.

4. A book in which must be entered in detail the amounts paid for the specific support of every orphan, half orphan, or abandoned child and the date of such payments.

Amounts paid for support.

5. A transcript of the books and pay roll, verified under oath by the manager or person in charge of such institution entitled to or claiming state aid under this chapter, must, when demanded by the state board of control, be made and forwarded to the said board at the time of presenting claim for state aid.

Transcript of books and pay roll.

6. A list of all the inmates other than employees or orphans supported wholly or in part by any institution presenting a claim for state aid under this chapter, must also be forwarded with such claim for aid.

List of inmates.

Board of control may inquire into institutions.

Children's agents.

Salaries.

2286. The state board of control is authorized, in behalf of the state, at any time to inquire, either in person or by authorized agent, into the management of any such institution; and any institution refusing, upon due demand, to permit such inquiry or to comply with regulations established by said board for the proper maintenance and care of children receiving state aid must not thereafter receive any aid under this chapter until it has complied with all requirements. To carry out the provisions of this act, the state board of control may appoint a chief children's agent and three children's agents who shall, under the rules of said board, visit the homes and the institutions in which are children to whom state aid is being given or for whom aid is being asked, to obtain such information as the board may need in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. Such chief agent shall receive necessary traveling expenses and a salary of two hundred twenty-five dollars per month. Such three other agents shall receive their necessary traveling expenses and a salary of one hundred seventy-five dollars per month, which salary shall be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the salaries of other state officers. All expenses incurred in visiting said asylums and homes, when there are not other available funds, may be audited and allowed by the state board of control out of the appropriation for support of orphans, half-orphans and abandoned children. In addition an advisory committee of three persons serving without pay or expense to the state may be appointed by the board of control, to act in any county in conjunction with the children's agents.

2289. In order that the provisions of this chapter shall not be abused, it is hereby declared:

Institution must have twenty inmates.

1. That no institution which has less than twenty inmates of either or all of the classes mentioned in section two thousand two hundred eighty-three, must be deemed an institution for the support and maintenance of minor orphans, half orphans, or abandoned children, within the intent and meaning of this chapter.

Age of minor.

2. That no child over the age of fifteen years shall be deemed a minor orphan, half orphan, or abandoned child, within the intent and meaning of this chapter.

Receiving ten dollars for child.

3. That no child for whose specific support there is paid to any such institution the sum of ten dollars or more per month shall be deemed a minor orphan, half orphan, or abandoned child within the intent and meaning of this chapter.

Home for child.

4. That no child maintained in an institution for whom a bona fide offer of a proper home has been made shall be considered eligible for further state aid; it is further provided, however, that no institution shall be required to surrender a child to any person of religious faith different from that of the child or the parents of the child.

Residence in state.

That a child who has not resided in this state for a period of at least two years prior to the application for aid shall not be eligible to receive state aid unless such child is born in this state.

An act to amend sections one thousand five hundred seventy-eight and one thousand five hundred seventy-nine of the Political Code, relating to the organization of elementary school districts.

[Approved May 14, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand five hundred seventy-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
1578. When a petition is presented under the foregoing section to the county superintendent of schools he shall examine the same and if he finds the same sufficient and signed as required by the section he shall set the same for hearing by the superintendent on receipt of

Duty of

board of supervisors of his county at a regular meeting thereof and forthwith file the same with said board accompanied by his recommendations and a notice containing a general statement of the purpose of the petition and of the boundaries of the proposed new district, or the change of boundaries, as the case may be, and the time and place when and where the petition will be heard. At least ten days prior to said date of hearing he shall send by registered mail a copy of such notice to each of the trustees of each school district which may be affected by the proposed change, if any, and shall post for the same period copies thereof in at least three public places in the territory proposed to be included in the new district and in at least three public places in each of the districts affected thereby, if any, one of which shall be posted at the door of a schoolhouse, if any, of each of such districts. He shall attach to said original notice and submit therewith to said board of supervisors his affidavit of mailing and posting of said copies. Upon the filing with it of such petition, recommendations, notice and affidavit as herein required, the board of supervisors shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine said petition.

SEC. 2. Section one thousand five hundred seventy-nine of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1579. The board of supervisors must, at the time and place fixed in the notice mentioned in the preceding section, hear all persons interested in the petition and may continue the hearing thereof from time to time but for not more than two weeks in all. If it approves the petition it must, by an order entered upon its minutes, establish the district and define its boundaries, or order the change of boundaries, as the case may be, but no territory not included in the petition shall be included in any district until a notice and hearing has been given as required by the preceding section. A copy of such order, certified by the clerk of such board, shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any such new district is situated, or in each county where the district whose boundaries are changed is situated, and such order shall, after the expiration of one year from the date of the recording thereof, be conclusive evidence that such district has been legally organized, or the boundaries legally changed, as the case may be. After the expiration of such time no suit shall be maintained which calls in question the validity of such organization or change of boundaries.

supervisors.

An act to amend section four of an act entitled "An act to create a commission for the purpose of making a survey of local historical material in the State of California; defining the power and duties of said commission; and making an appropriation therefor," approved June 12, 1915, extending the purpose, power and duties of said commission.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 1528.

SECTION 1. Section four of an act entitled "An act to create a commission for the purpose of making a survey of local historical material in the State of California; defining the power and duties of said commission; and making an appropriation therefor," approved June 12, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Purpose of
commission.

Sec. 4. The purpose of this commission shall be to make a survey of the material on local history within the State of California by investigating documents in local depositories and in the possession of private individuals and other sources of original information on the early history of the State of California and to compile, keep and publish a record of such sources of information; and to investigate and acquire information as to the physical characteristics of the several missions which were maintained in the State of California under the charge of the Franciscan fathers prior to the time of the secularization thereof, and to cause to be made a record thereof, and to be created models of the several mission buildings and outbuildings connected therewith, which shall be accurate representations of the mission buildings and outbuildings connected with the same as they were at the time when the Franciscan fathers were in charge, and the same shall be known respectively as the California model of each particular mission in question, and the said commission shall cause to be prepared plans and specifications sufficient in detail to enable any of said buildings and outbuildings to be restored, and the commission shall have authority to pass upon and determine the relative accuracy of information to be obtained and to establish for the state the models and plans and specifications thereof; provided, however, that no model shall thus be established as the correct model of any mission unless the said commission shall first have

Exposition preservation
fund.

SEC. 7. A fund in the state treasury is hereby created and shall be known as "The San Francisco State Normal School-Exposition preservation fund". After the conveyance of said site to the State of California the state controller and the state treasurer shall transfer and make the proper entries upon their records, transferring the money paid into the San Francisco State Normal School-Exposition preservation fund and into the general fund under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the disposition of any money or other property accruing to or to be received by the State of California as its proportionate share of the returns from the holding of the Panama-Pacific international exposition," approved January 11, 1916, to the general fund in the state treasury and placed to the credit of the appropriation herein made from the general fund of the state treasury. The money so transferred shall be used for the purposes of this act.

SEC. 4. A new section to be numbered eight is hereby added to said act approved January 11, 1916, to read as follows:

Appropriation.

SEC. 8. Out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of four hundred fifty thousand dollars, together with the sum of money herein ordered credited to this appropriation, is hereby appropriated to be expended in accordance with law for the purposes of this act;

Condition.

provided, that no part of the money appropriated herein from the general fund of the state treasury shall be used for the erection of buildings or the making of improvements until any existing structures on said site shall have been removed. Any moneys received from the sale of structures existing on said site at the time of its purchase shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury and placed to the credit of the appropriation herein made.

CHAPTER 492.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure to be numbered one thousand six hundred sixty-three, relating to partial distribution of estates of deceased persons.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered one thousand six hundred sixty-three, and to read as follows:

1663. Where the time for filing or presenting claims has expired, and all claims that have been allowed have been paid, or are secured by a mortgage upon real estate sufficient to pay them, and the estate is not in a condition to be finally closed and distributed, the executor or administrator, or coexecutor or coadministrator, may present his petition to the court for ratable payment of the legacies, or ratable distribution of the estate to all the heirs, legatees, devisees, or their assignees, grantees or successors in interest. Notice of such application must be given to all persons interested in the estate, in the same manner that notice is required to be given of the settlement of the account of an executor or administrator. Any person interested in the estate may appear at the time named and resist the application. If, at the hearing, it appears that the allegations in the petition of said executor, administrator, coexecutor, or coadministrator, are true, and the court is satisfied that no injury can result to the estate by granting the petition, the court must make an order directing the executor or executors, administrator or administrators, as the case may be, to deliver to the heirs, legatees, devisees, or to their assigns, grantees or successors in interest, the whole portion of the estate to which they may be entitled, or only a part thereof, designating it.

If, in the execution of the order, a partition is necessary between two or more of the parties interested, it must be made in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The costs of the proceedings under this section must be paid by the estate, excepting that in case a partition is necessary, the costs of such partition must be apportioned amongst the parties interested in such partition.

Partial distribution of estates of deceased persons.

Costs.

CHAPTER 493.

An act providing for the leasing of certain state lands and making an appropriation for the purposes of this act.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Application
to lease
land.

SECTION 1. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to lease any of the unsold portions of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections of school lands and the unsold portion of the listed lands selected from the public lands of the United States in lieu of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections and losses to the school grant must make application therefor to the surveyor general of the state, describing the lands sought to be leased by legal subdivisions. The application must be accompanied by the filing fee of five dollars. All applications to lease lands under this act shall be approved or rejected by the surveyor general within ninety days after the receipt thereof.

Fee.

Annual
rental.

SEC. 2. Upon receipt of an application to lease any of the lands under this act the surveyor general shall appraise such lands and fix the annual rental per acre therefor; such charge to be approved by the state board of control.

Lease
executed.

SEC. 3. Whenever any lease is delivered to the applicant by the surveyor general the lessee shall within fifteen days thereafter, execute and return such lease to the state surveyor general and make payment of the first annual rental. The surveyor general shall receive the money and give a receipt therefor. All subsequent annual payments of rental must be paid to the state surveyor general in like manner fifteen days after they become due. In case payments are not made as herein provided, the lease and all rights thereunder shall cease and terminate.

Term of
lease.

SEC. 4. No lease shall be for a period longer than ten years, and such lease shall terminate upon the sale of said lands, or any portion thereof, by the state and the lessee shall be notified by registered mail by the state surveyor general upon the sale of said land at public auction to the highest bidder as provided in that certain act entitled "An act providing for the sale of certain state lands," approved May 19, 1915. The date of the termination of the lease shall be on the date the certificate of purchase is issued to the purchaser of the land from the State of California by the register of the state land office, except when a lease embraces land suitable for cultivation and an application from an actual settler to purchase said land is received and filed by the surveyor general, then the lease shall terminate on the date said application is filed of record in the surveyor general's office and the lessee is to be notified by registered mail of the filing of said application to purchase said land, or any portion thereof, from the state and of the termination of the lease. Possession under any lease hereby authorized shall not be held, deemed or construed to be adverse to that of any person who becomes an actual settler upon any portion of land in such lease described, with intent to purchase the same in the manner provided by law.

SEC. 5. Any lease for sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections or any portion thereof which may now or may hereafter be included within the exterior boundaries of a national reservation or of a reserve, or within the exterior boundaries of lands withdrawn from public entry, shall terminate whenever the State of California shall designate said lands as bases for indemnity selections as provided by law. The lessee is to be notified by the surveyor general by registered mail whenever the State of California designates the land as bases for indemnity selection or selections.

Land designated as bases for indemnity selections.

SEC. 6. If a lease is terminated by reason of the filing of an application to purchase land suitable for cultivation, or by the sale of land at public auction, or by the designation of land as bases for indemnity selection or selections, the lessee shall surrender the lease to the surveyor general and receive in exchange therefor from the surveyor general a certificate showing the proportionate amount of the annual payment to be refunded to the lessee, for the tract or tracts of land that have been disposed of by the State of California, and the state controller, upon the surrender to him of the said surveyor general's certificate, with the approval of the board of control endorsed thereon, shall issue to the lessee a warrant for the said amount payable out of the state school land fund and the state treasurer shall pay the same. If all the tracts of land described in said surrendered lease have not been disposed of by the state, the lessee shall be entitled, without the payment of any additional fee, to a new lease for the remaining tracts of land for the balance of the unexpired term of the surrendered lease, at the same annual rental per acre.

Surrender of lease.

An act to amend the Penal Code by amending section five hundred sixty-one thereof and by adding new sections to be numbered five hundred sixty-one a, five hundred sixty-one b, five hundred sixty-one c, five hundred sixty-one d, and five hundred sixty-three a thereto, all relating to frauds in the management of banks and prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions of the act.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five hundred sixty-one of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

561. An officer, director, agent, teller, clerk or employee of any bank, who, either, Frauds by bank
officers, etc.

1. Knowingly overdraws his account with such bank and thereby obtains the money, notes or funds of any such bank; or

2. Asks for, receives, or consents or agrees to receive, any commission, emolument, gratuity or reward, or any promise of any commission, emolument, gratuity or reward, or any money, property or thing of value or of personal advantage for procuring or endeavoring to procure for any person, firm or corporation, any loan from, or the purchase or discount of any paper, note, draft, check or bill of exchange by any such bank, or for permitting any person, firm or corporation to withdraw any account with such bank, is guilty of a felony.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered five hundred sixty-one a, and to read as follows:

561a. Any officer, director, trustee, employee or agent of any bank in this state, who abstracts or wilfully misapplies any of the money, funds or property of such bank, or wilfully misapplies its credit, is guilty of a felony. Nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to repeal, amend or impair any existing provision of law prescribing a punishment for any such offense.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code to be numbered five hundred sixty-one b, and to read as follows:

561b. Every director of a bank in this state who-

1. In case of the fraudulent insolvency of such bank, shall have participated in such fraud; or Frauds by director of bank.

2. Wilfully does any act as such director which is expressly forbidden by law or wilfully omits to perform any duty imposed upon him as such director by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The insolvency of a bank is deemed fraudulent unless its affairs appear upon investigation to have been administered clearly, legally and with the same care and diligence that agents receiving a compensation for their services are bound, by law, to observe.

SEC. 4. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered five hundred sixty-one c, and to read as follows:

Guaranty in sum beyond legal amount.

561c. An officer or agent of any bank in this state, who makes or delivers any guaranty or endorsement on behalf of such bank, whereby it may become liable upon any of its discounted notes, bills or obligations, in a sum beyond the amount of loans and discounts which such bank may legally make, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered five hundred sixty-one d, and to read as follows:

Loan to director.

561d. A director of a bank, organized under the laws of this state, who concurs in any vote or act of the directors of such corporation, or any of them, by which it is intended to make a loan or discount to any director of such corporation, or upon paper upon which any such director is liable or responsible to an amount exceeding the amount allowed by the statutes; or

Deposit with corporation to make loan.

Any director, trustee, officer or employee of any such bank who makes or maintains, or attempts to make or maintain, a deposit of such bank's funds with any other corporation on condition, or with the understanding, express or implied, that the corporation receiving such deposit make a loan or advance, directly or indirectly, to any director, trustee, officer or employee of the corporation so making or maintaining or attempting to make or maintain such deposit; or Concealing accounts or loans.

Any officer or employee of any such bank who intentionally conceals from the directors or trustees of such bank any discounts or loans made by it between the regular meetings of its board of directors or trustees, or the purchase of any securities or the sale of its securities during the same period, or knowingly fails to report to the board of directors or trustees when required to do so by law, all discounts or loans made by it and all securities purchased or sold by it between the regular meetings of its board of directors or trustees, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Nothing in this section shall render any loan made by the directors of any bank, in violation thereof, invalid.

SEC. 6. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered section five hundred sixty-three a, and to read as follows:

False entry.

563a. Any officer, director, trustee, employee or agent of any bank organized under the laws of this state, who makes a false or untrue entry in any book or any report, tag or statement, of the business, affairs or condition, in whole or in part, of such corporation, with intent to deceive any officer, director or trustee thereof, or any agent or examiner, private or official, employed or lawfully appointed to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs, or any public officer, office or board to which such bank is required by law to report, or which has authority by law to examine into its affairs or into any of its affairs, or who, with like intent, wilfully omits to make a new entry of any matter particularly pertaining to the business, property, affairs, assets or accounts of such bank in any book, report, statement, or tag of such bank made, written or kept, or required to be made, written or kept by him or under his direction, is guilty of a felony.

CHAPTER 496.

An act relating to the liquidation of banks by the superintendent of banks; empowering him to levy assessments against the members and stockholders of any bank in process of liquidation by him to an amount which he may determine to be necessary to promptly pay the creditors of such bank in full; to enforce such assessments by suit and empowering the superior court to determine the equities of the members and stockholders of any such bank to any surplus which may remain after the payment of the creditors of such bank in full and to award and distribute the same accordingly.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the superintendent of banks shall hereafter take possession of the business and property of any bank doing business in this state for the purpose of liquidating its affairs, as provided by law, he may at any time during the process of such liquidation determine whether it shall be necessary to assess the members or stockholders of such bank in order to promptly pay the claims of the creditors of such bank in full and he shall make such assessments as he may determine to be necessary for that purpose.

stockholders
to pay
creditors.

SEC. 2. Such determination shall be evidenced by a complaint or petition against all of the members and stockholders of such bank filed by the superintendent of banks in the superior court of the county where the principal place of business of such bank is or was located at the time of the taking of such possession.

Complaint.

SEC. 3. If such assessment, first made, shall prove inadequate to pay all of the creditors of such bank in full the

Further
assessments.

superintendent of banks may make further assessment or assessments by filing supplemental complaints or petitions in the same proceeding.

Proceeds applied.

SEC. 4. In any such proceeding such assessment shall be enforced and collected and the proceeds thereof shall be added to the funds of such bank and applied by the superintendent of banks for the payment of just claims against the same.

Payment of surplus.

SEC. 5. If after the payment of all just claims against such bank and the cost of liquidation any surplus shall remain said court shall determine the equities of the respective members and stockholders of such bank thereto and direct the payment thereof by the superintendent of banks accordingly.

Action to collect assessments.

SEC. 6. The superintendent of banks shall have power to maintain an action in any other state or country to enforce and collect such assessments against any of such members or stockholders and the proceeds thereof shall become a part of the fund and be subject to the same disposition as if collected in the proceedings provided for in this act.

SEC. 7. This act shall not affect any action or proceeding instituted by the superintendent of banks prior to its enactment.

Constitutionality.

SEC. 8. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional or its operation or application is or may be limited or controlled by any constitutional provision.

powers.

CHAPTER 500.

An act to amend sections sixty-one, sixty-one a and sixty-seven of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, designated the "bank act," relating to the definition and regulation of the business of banking.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 1118.

SECTION 1. Section sixty-one of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Purchase of real or personal property by savings
banks.

Sec. 61. Any savings bank may purchase, hold and convey real or personal property as follows:

1. The lot and building in which the business of the bank is carried on; furniture and fixtures, vaults and safe deposit vaults and boxes necessary or proper to carry on its banking business; such lot and building, furniture and fixtures, vaults and safe deposit vaults and boxes shall not, in the aggregate, be carried on the books of such bank as an asset to an amount exceeding its paid up capital and surplus; and hereafter, the authority of a two-thirds vote of all of the directors shall be necessary to authorize the purchase of such lot and building, or the construction of such building.

2. Such as may have been mortgaged, pledged or conveyed to it in trust for its benefit in good faith, for money loaned in pursuance of the regular business of the corporation.

3. Such as may have been purchased at any sales under pledge, mortgage or deed of trust made for its benefit for money so loaned and such as may be conveyed to it by borrowers in satisfaction and discharge of loans made thereon.

Limitations on purchase of personal property.

No savings bank shall purchase, own, or sell personal property, except such as may be requisite for its immediate accommodation for the convenient transaction of its business; notes or bonds secured by trust deeds or mortgages on real estate, bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness, public or private, gold or silver bullion and United States mint certificates of ascertained value, and evidences of debt issued by the United States. No savings bank shall purchase, own, hold or convey bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness, public or private, except as follows:

Purchase of
bonds.

United States
bonds.

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest, or those issued under authority of the United States;

State of California
bonds.

(b) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of the State of California are pledged for the payment of principal and interest, or those of any county, city and county, city or school district of this state;

(c) Bonds of any state in the United States that has not, State bonds. within five years previous to making such investment by such bank, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest, or those of any county, city and county, city or town, in any state of the United States other than the State of California, issued under authority of any law of such state, which county, city and county, city or town, had, as shown by the federal or state census next preceding such investment, a population of more than twenty thousand inhabitants: provided, however, that the entire bonded indebtedness of such county, city and county, city or town, including such issue of bonds does not exceed fifteen per centum of the value of the taxable property therein as shown by its last equalized assessment roll: and provided, further, that such county, city and county, city or town, or the state in which it is located has not defaulted in payment of either principal or interest due upon any legally authorized bond issue within five years next preceding such investment;

(d) Bonds of any district organized under the laws of the State of California which are required to be and are investigated and approved by a commission now or hereafter authorized by a law of this state to conduct such investigation and give such approval and by authority of which approval said bonds are declared to be legal investments for savings banks; District bonds.

(e) Bonds of any district organized under the laws of the State of California not otherwise provided for in this section; or those of any mutual water company organized under the laws of this state and operating wholly within this state: provided, that all bonds specified in this paragraph shall first be certified by the superintendent of banks after an investigation in manner and form as is provided for by section sixty-one a of this act; and provided, further, that no bonds of any mutual water company shall be certified by the superintendent of banks unless the company issuing said bonds shall have been in continuous operation for a period of five years next preceding the application for said certificate and shall have served not less than seventy-five per centum of the lands entitled to service by said mutual water company for a period of not less than three years next preceding the application for said certificate;

(f) (1) Bonds of any railroad corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of California and operating exclusively therein; provided, said corporation has had net earnings for the period herein fixed amounting to at least one and one-fourth times the interest on all its outstanding mortgage indebtedness; or Bonds of railroad corporation.

(2) Bonds of any railroad corporation incorporated under the laws of any state in the United States, operating at least five hundred miles of standard gauge track exclusive of sidings; provided, said corporation has had net earnings for the period herein fixed amounting to at least one and one-half railroad corporation.

times the interest on all its outstanding mortgage indebtedness; or

(3) Bonds of any railroad corporation, the payment of which has been guaranteed, both as to principal and interest, by a railroad corporation meeting the requirements of either subdivision (1) or (2) of paragraph (f) of this section; provided, that such guaranteeing corporation has had for the period herein fixed net earnings amounting to at least one and one-half times the interest on all its outstanding mortgage indebtedness and, in addition thereto, sufficient, taken with the earnings of all corporations whose bonds it has guaranteed, to qualify as investments for savings banks, as in this section provided, all such guaranteed bonds; provided, that the excess of income of any corporation whose bonds have been so guaranteed, over the amount required by this section for such corporation, shall not apply to or be included in determining the income so required.

In determining the income of any corporation specified in paragraph (f) of subdivision (3) of this section, there shall be included the income of any corporation or corporations out of which it shall have been formed through consolidation or merger, and of any corporation or corporations, the entire business and income producing property of which the corporation issuing such bonds has wholly acquired.

Security.

All bonds authorized for investment by paragraph (f) of subdivision (3) of this section must be secured by a mortgage or deed of trust which is, at the time of making such investment, either

First
mortgage.

I. A closed first mortgage or deed of trust; or

II. A first mortgage or deed of trust containing provisions restricting the issuance of further bonds until such time as the income of said corporation shall have been at least sufficient, during the twelve months next preceding the issuance of any additional bonds, to meet the earning requirements specified in the respective subdivisions of this paragraph applicable to such corporation after including the additional bonds then proposed to be issued; or mortgage.

III. A refunding mortgage or deed of trust providing for the retirement of all prior lien mortgage debts of said corporation, and restricting the issuance of further bonds until such time as the income of said corporation shall have been at least sufficient, during the twelve months next preceding the issuance of any additional bonds, to meet the earning requirements specified in the respective subdivisions of this paragraph applicable to such corporation after including the additional bonds then proposed to be issued; or

Trust deed on operative
property.

IV. An underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust of property which forms a part of the operating system of the corporation then owning said property. In the case of bonds secured by an underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust, the net income required by this section shall be based exclusively upon the income, maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes, and mortgage indebtedness of or against the property covered by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust, or, if such income, maintenance charges or operating expenses can not be definitely ascertained, on the proper proportionate share of such property in the general income, maintenance charges, operating expenses, and taxes of the corporation then owning such property and on the mortgage indebtedness of or against the property covered by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust; provided, however, that if the payment of the bonds secured by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust shall be guaranteed or assumed by the corporation then owning the property securing the same, such bonds shall be legal investments for savings banks, if the net income of such corporation from all sources shall equal the amount herein required, notwithstanding any insufficiency of the income derived from the property covered by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust to meet the requirements of this section.

No savings bank shall purchase the bonds of any railroad corporation deriving less than twenty per centum of its gross receipts from passenger revenues.

The term "railroad corporation" when used in paragraph (f) of subdivision (3) of this section shall have the meaning defined in the "public utilities act."

(g) Bonds of any street railroad corporation; or of any gas; water; pipe line; light; power; light and power; gas, light and power; electrical; telephone; telegraph; or telephone and telegraph corporation or of any other "public utility" incorporated under the laws of the State of California; and

Public utility
bonds.

(1) Operating exclusively in the State of California, provided said corporation has had, for the period herein fixed, net earnings amounting to one and one-half times the interest on all its outstanding mortgage indebtedness; or

(2) Operating its property in part within the State of California, provided said corporation has had, for each of its two fiscal years next preceding such investment, net earnings amounting to one and one-half times the interest on all its outstanding mortgage indebtedness; or

(3) The payment of which is guaranteed, both as to principal and interest, by a public utility corporation meeting the requirements of either subdivision (1) or (2) of paragraph (g) of this section, provided that such guaranteeing corporation has had for the period required in the respective subdivisions of this paragraph relating thereto, net earnings amounting to at least one and one-half times the interest on all of said guaranteeing corporation's outstanding mortgage indebtedness, and, in addition thereto, sufficient, taken with the earnings of all corporations whose bonds it has guaranteed, to qualify as investments for savings banks, as in this section provided, all such guaranteed bonds; provided, that the excess of income of any corporation whose bonds have been so guaranteed, over the amount required by this section for such corporation, shall not apply to or be included in determining the income so required.

In determining the income of any corporation specified in paragraph (g) of subdivision (3) of this section, there shall be included the income of any corporation or corporations out of which it shall have been formed through consolidation or merger, and of any corporation the entire business and income producing property of which the corporation issuing such bonds has wholly acquired.

Security All bonds authorized for investment by paragraph (g) of subdivision (3) of this section must be secured by a mortgage or deed of trust which is at the time of making such investment; either

First mortgage. I. A closed first mortgage or deed of trust; or

II. A first mortgage or deed of trust containing provisions restricting the issuance of further bonds until such time as the income of said corporation shall have been at least sufficient, during the twelve months next preceding the issuance of any additional bonds, to meet the earning requirements specified in the respective subdivisions of this paragraph applicable to such corporation after including the additional bonds then proposed to be issued; or

Refunding mortgage. III. A refunding mortgage or deed of trust providing for the retirement of all prior lien mortgage debts of said corporation and restricting the issuance of further bonds until such time as the income of said corporation shall have been at least sufficient, during the twelve months next preceding the issuance of any additional bonds, to meet the earning requirements of such corporation after including the additional bonds then proposed to be issued; or

Trust deed on operative property. IV. An underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust of property which forms a part of the operating system of the corporation then owning said property. In the case of bonds secured by an underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust, the net income required by this section shall be based exclusively upon the income, maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and mortgage indebtedness of or against the property covered by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust or, if such income, maintenance charges or operating expenses can not be definitely ascertained, on the proper proportionate share of such property in the general income, maintenance charges, operating expenses and taxes of the corporation then owning such property and on the mortgage indebtedness of or against the property covered by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust; provided, however, that if the payment of the bonds secured by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust shall be guaranteed or assumed by the corporation then owning the property securing the same, such bonds shall be legal investments for savings banks, if the net income of such corporation from all sources shall equal the amount herein required, notwithstanding any insufficiency of the income derived from the property covered by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or deed of trust to meet the requirements of this section.

The terms, "street railroad corporation," "pipe line corporation," "gas corporation," "electrical corporation," "telephone corporation," "telegraph corporation," "water corporation," and "public utility," when used in paragraph (g) of subdivision (3) of this section, shall each have the meaning defined in the "public utilities act."

Definitions.

(h) Notes or bonds secured by first mortgage or deed of trust or other first lien upon real estate, improved or unimproved; provided, that the entire note or bond issue shall not exceed sixty per centum of the market value of such real estate, or such real estate with improvements, taken as security; and provided, further, in case the said note or bond issue is created for a building loan on real estate, that at no time shall the entire outstanding note or bond issue exceed sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate and the actual cost of the improvements thereon taken as security.

Notes secured by first mortgage.

In determining the market value of any real estate under the provisions of paragraph (h) subdivision (3) of this section where such real estate, improved or unimproved, consists of oil or other mineral or timber land, the value represented by such oil or other mineral or timber shall not be included in fixing such market value. Nothing herein contained shall prevent savings banks from making loans secured by mortgage or deed of trust upon lands wherein redwood timber is included in fixing the market value thereof.

Market value of oil and timber land.

(i) Collateral trust bonds or notes when secured by either: Collateral trust bonds.

(1) Deposit of bonds authorized for investment by this section of a market value at least fifteen per centum in excess of the par value of the collateral trust bonds or notes issued; or

(2) Deposit of bonds authorized for investment by this section and other securities of a combined market value at least twenty per centum in excess of the par value of the collateral trust bonds or notes issued; provided, that the par value of said collateral trust bonds or notes shall in no case exceed the market value of that portion of the security represented by bonds authorized for investment by this section.

(3) Deposit of any notes or bonds authorized for investment by this section and other securities of a combined market value of at least thirty per centum in excess of the par value of the collateral trust bonds or notes issued; provided, that the par value of such collateral trust bonds or notes issued shall in no case exceed the market value of that portion of the security represented by notes or bonds authorized for investment by this section; provided, further, that the collateral pledged consist of bonds authorized for investment by this section of the market value of at least seventy-five per centum of the par value of such collateral trust bonds or notes issued.

Legal investment in New York and Massachusetts.

(j) Bonds legal for investment by savings banks in the states of New York or Massachusetts; provided, however, that as to bonds of the character specified in paragraph (c) of subdivision (3) of this section, such bonds shall also conform to the requirements of such paragraph.

Guaranteed payment.

(k) Notes or bonds secured by mortgage or deed of trust, payment of which is guaranteed by a policy of mortgage insurance, and mortgage participation certificates, issued by a mortgage insurance company in accordance with the provisions of chapter VIII of title II of part IV of division first of the Civil Code.

"Net earnings."

"Net earnings" as used in this section shall be deemed to mean the amount remaining after deducting from the gross earnings all taxes, maintenance charges and operating expenses except depreciation charges, sinking fund charges and interest on indebtedness.

Unless herein otherwise expressly provided the period for which any corporation must have "net earnings" sufficient to qualify its bonds as an investment for savings banks under this section shall be either the fiscal year of such corporation next preceding the investment therein by any savings bank or twelve consecutive months in the fourteen months next preceding such investment.

Bonds, etc., certified by superintendent of banks.

No notes, bonds, or other securities shall be deemed to come within or conform to the requirements of either of paragraphs (f), (g), (h), or (i) of subdivision (3) of this section, unless such notes, bonds or other securities shall, in the manner provided in this act, have been certified by the superintendent of banks to come within and fully conform to the requirements of one or the other of said paragraphs; provided, however, that any bank may, without such certification by the superintendent of banks, purchase any note or bond or issue of notes or bonds provided for in said paragraph (h), whenever such purchase constitutes the entire amount of notes or bonds executed by the makers thereof and secured by the same real estate; and provided, further, that notes, bonds or other securities, the payment of which is secured by any mortgage or deed of trust executed on or before September 1, 1913, and now owned by any savings bank in this state, if otherwise in full conformity with the requirements of this section, need not be so certified by the superintendent of banks, in order to be legal as investments for savings banks.

Legality of previous investments not affected.

The legality of investments heretofore lawfully made pursuant to the provisions of this section, or of any law of this state as it existed on and subsequent to July 1, 1909, shall not be affected by any amendments to this section or this act; nor shall any such amendments require the changing of investments once lawfully made under this act.

Investment value of bonds.

Any bonds authorized by this section as a legal investment for savings banks may be carried on the books of said bank at their investment value, based on their market value at the time they were originally bought, unless the superintendent of banks shall require any or all of the bonds which may thereafter have a market value less than the original investment value to be written down to such new market value which shall be done gradually if practicable and in such manner as he may determine; or he may, by a plan of amortization to be determined by him, require such gradual extinction of premium as will bring such bonds to par at maturity.

No savings bank shall hereafter purchase or loan money upon any bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any "public utility," subject to the jurisdiction, regulation or control of the railroad commission of this state under the provisions of the "public utilities act," approved December 23, 1911, and acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, unless each such bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness was either:

Bonds of public utilities.

(a) Issued prior to the taking effect of the "public utilities act"; or

(b) Issued under authority of the railroad commission, in accordance with the provisions of said act; or

(c) A note issued for a period not exceeding twelve months, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b) of section fifty-two of said act.

No provision of this act, and no act or deed, done or performed under or in connection therewith, and no finding made or certificate issued under any provision thereof, shall be held or construed to obligate the State of California to pay, or be liable for the payment of, or to guarantee in any manner whatsoever, the regularity or the validity of the issuance of any stock or bond certificate, or bond, note, or other evidence of indebtedness certified under any provision of this act, by the superintendent of banks.

State does not guarantee validity of bonds.

It shall not be lawful for any individual, firm, association, bank, trust company, stock company, copartnership or corporation to advertise by newspaper or circular or in any other manner that any securities are legal investments for savings banks in this state or to use any advertisement which might lead the public to believe that any securities conform to the requirements of law relating to investments by savings banks unless such securities are such as are specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (j), or (k) of subdivision (3) of this section or shall, in the manner provided in this act, have been certified by the superintendent of banks to come within and fully conform to the requirements of one or the other of paragraphs (f), (g), (h), or (i) of subdivision (3) of this section or unless such advertisement shall have been approved in writing by the superintendent of banks prior to publishing, circulating or otherwise issuing the same. Any individual, firm, association, bank, trust company, stock company, copartnership or corporation who shall advertise any securities in violation of the provisions of this paragraph shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Stats. 1915,
p. 1121.

SEC. 2. Section sixty-one a of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Superintendent of banks may investigate bonds.

Sec. 61a. The superintendent of banks shall have power, when any issue of bonds or securities is presented to him for that purpose, to investigate and ascertain whether such bonds or securities come within and fully conform to all the requirements of paragraph (f), (g), (h), or (i) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act, or of either of said paragraphs. He may also investigate and ascertain for what period of time, and upon what conditions, any franchise granted to or held by any corporation issuing any such bonds or securities will remain in force, and any other facts or conditions bearing upon the value or sufficiency of such bonds. The superintendent of banks may accept and act upon the opinions and appraisements of any attorneys, engineers, or appraisers which may be presented by such person or corporation so applying, and the reports of any of the executive officers of the corporation issuing such bonds or securities, on any question of fact concerning or affecting such bonds or securities, the security thereof, the franchise conditions herein mentioned, or the financial condition of the corporation issuing the same. In lieu of or in addition to such opinions, appraisements and reports, the superintendent of banks may, if he deems proper, have any or all such matters passed upon and certified to him by attorneys, engineers, appraisers or accountants of his own selection at the expense of the applicant. If the superintendent of banks shall find from such investigation that the bonds or securities so presented come within and fully conform to all the requirements of any of said paragraphs of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act, and is satisfied from such investigation as to such franchise conditions, he shall so certify unless for any reason he shall be of the opinion that such bonds are not a safe or proper investment for savings banks, and in such event or if such bonds shall fail to meet the requirements of this act such certificate must be refused. The superintendent of banks also shall have power to investigate and ascertain the status and sufficiency as investments for savings banks of any bonds specified in paragraph (e) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act. If upon such investigation it shall be determined in the opinion of the superintendent of banks that any bonds specified in said paragraph (e) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act constitute a proper investment for savings banks he shall so certify.

Opinions of attorneys.

Certificates revoked.

Any certificate issued by the superintendent of banks under authority of the provisions of this section may be revoked at any time in his discretion. Any certificate issued in relation to notes or bonds specified in paragraphs (f), (g), or (i) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act shall expire not later than three months after the end of the then current fiscal year of the corporation issuing such notes or bonds.

The actual expense of investigating any issue of bonds or securities so presented shall be paid by the person, district or corporation presenting the same for investigation, and the superintendent of banks, before making such investigation, may require a cash deposit of such amount as he may deem necessary to cover such expense. The superintendent of banks shall keep an official list of all bonds and securities certified by him.

SEC. 3. Section sixty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915,
p. 1123.

Sec. 67. 1. No savings bank shall loan money except on adequate security of real or personal property, and no such loan shall be made for a period longer than ten years. No such loan shall be made on unsecured notes; provided, that a savings bank may discount or purchase bankers' acceptances of which the acceptor is a bank or trust company having a paid in capital of one million dollars. Said bankers' acceptances shall be bills of exchange of the kind and character defined and made eligible under the federal reserve act and the then current regulation of the federal reserve board for rediscount or for purchase in the open market by a federal reserve bank; provided, however, that no savings bank shall at any time acquire by discount or purchase an amount of such bankers' acceptances greater than five per centum of its deposits nor shall any savings bank acquire, directly or indirectly, by discount or purchase, any such bankers' acceptances from any one acceptor in an amount which shall exceed five per centum of the capital and surplus of such bank; and provided, that a savings bank may discount or purchase a bill which must comply with the following requirements: Limitation on loans.

(a) It must be a bill issued by a solvent individual or firm or corporation engaged in mercantile or manufacturing business in the United States that makes statements of its condition duly ascertained and certified to by a certified public accountant. Copy of such a certified statement shall be on file in the office of the savings bank discounting or purchasing such bill in a file maintained for such purpose. Said statement shall have been issued within the preceding twelve months and shall consist of a balance sheet showing quick assets, slow assets, permanent or fixed assets, current liabilities and accounts, short term loans, long term loans, capital and surplus. Accompanying said balance sheet shall be a copy of a statement from the borrower concerning the following: Requirements for bill of exchange.

(1) The nature of the business.

(2) All contingent liabilities such as endorsements or guarantees.

(3) Particulars respecting any mortgage debts and whether there is any lien on current assets.

Requirements for bill of exchange.

(4) The maximum and minimum liabilities of the individual, firm or corporation during the twelve months previous to the date of audit.

(b) It must be issued by an individual, firm or corporation whose net worth is not less than two and one-half times the amount of its outstanding liabilities, nor less than two hundred thousand dollars. The quick assets of said individual, firm or corporation, consisting of merchandise, finished, raw, and in the process of manufacture, accounts receivable, bills receivable and cash, shall not be less than two times its outstanding quick liabilities as shown by said statement.

(c) It must have a maturity of not more than six months.

(d) It must have arisen out of actual commercial transactions; that is, be a bill which has been issued or drawn for industrial or commercial purposes or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for such purpose.

Bills not eligible for discount or purchase.

No bill shall be eligible for discount or purchase by a savings bank, the proceeds of which have been used or are to be used for any of the following purposes:

(1) For permanent or fixed investments of any kind such as lands, buildings, machinery, including therein additions, alterations or other permanent improvements except such as are properly to be regarded as costs of operation.

(2) For investments of a merely speculative character whether made in goods or otherwise.

(3) Must not have been issued for carrying or trading in stocks, bonds or other investment securities.

(4) Must not be a bill of any individual, firm or corporation which has under pledge or hypothecation any of its personal assets, or which has any contingent liability arising from the rediscount of bills receivable, or from accommodation endorsements of such individual, firm or corporation.

The word "bill" when used in this section shall be construed to include notes, drafts or bills of exchange and the word "goods" shall be construed to include goods, wares or merchandise.

Credit
reports.

Any savings bank purchasing or discounting such paper shall have in a file maintained for the purpose, letters from banks and merchants or mercantile reports bearing upon the credit and standing of the person, firm, copartnership or corporation whose paper is under discount.

Limitation
on amount

No savings bank shall at any time acquire by discount or purchase an amount of such commercial paper greater than five per centum of its deposits nor shall any savings bank acquire, directly or indirectly, by discount or purchase, any such commercial paper of any one person, firm, copartnership or corporation in an amount which shall exceed five per centum of the capital and surplus of such bank.

Loans on
bonds.

2. No savings bank shall invest or loan an amount greater than fifty per centum of its actual paid-up capital and surplus on any one bond issue of the class specified in paragraph (h) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act, nor more than five per centum of its assets on any one bond issue of any other class, except bonds of the United States, of the State of California, bonds for which the faith and credit of the United States or of the State of California are pledged, or bonds of any county, city and county, city or school district in this state, or bonds of any irrigation district such as are legal for investment by savings banks. Loans on bonds.

3. No savings bank shall loan money:

(a) On bonds of the character specified in paragraph (a), (b), (c), and (d) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act, or on bonds of the character specified in paragraph (e) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act the principal and interest of which are to be paid in whole or in part by taxes levied upon the property in the district issuing such bonds, unless such bonds shall have a market value at least ten per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; or,

(b) On bonds of the character specified in paragraphs (f) and (g) or on bonds or notes of the character specified in paragraph (i) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act, or on bonds of the character specified in paragraph (e) of subdivision (3) of section sixty-one of this act other than those specified in the preceding paragraph of this section, unless such bonds or notes shall have a market value at least fifteen per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; or,

(c) On bonds legal for investment by savings banks in the states of New York or Massachusetts, unless such bonds shall have a market value at least fifteen per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; or,

(d) On personal property unless such personal property shall have a market value at least fifty per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; or,

(e) On other bonds, or on the capital stock of any corporation, unless such bonds or stock shall have a market value at least fifty per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; provided, however, that no loan shall be made upon the capital stock of any bank unless such bank has been in existence at least two years and has earned and paid a dividend on its capital stock.

4. No savings bank shall make any loan on the security of real estate, except it be a first lien, and in no event to exceed sixty per centum of the market value of any real estate taken as security except for the purpose of facilitating the sale of property owned by such savings bank; provided, that a second lien may be accepted to secure the repayment of a debt previously contracted in good faith; and provided, also, that any savings bank holding a first mortgage or deed of trust on real estate may take or purchase and hold or loan upon another and immediately subsequent mortgage or deed of trust thereon, but all such loans shall not exceed in the aggregate sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate securing the same; provided, further, that a savings bank may loan not to exceed Loans on real estate.

ninety per centum of the face value of a note or bond secured by a first mortgage or deed of trust on real estate. but in no event shall any such loan exceed ninety per centum of sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate covered by said mortgage or deed of trust.

Loans on capital stock of corporations.

5. No savings bank shall loan to any one borrower on the security of the capital stock of any corporation an amount exceeding ten per centum of the capital stock and surplus of such savings bank; provided, that all loans on the capital stock of any one corporation shall not exceed in the aggregate twenty-five per centum of the capital stock and surplus of such savings bank. No savings bank shall purchase, invest or loan its capital, surplus or the money of its depositors, or any part of either, in mining shares or stock.

No loans on mining stock.

Any president or managing officer who knowingly consents to a violation of any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony.

CHAPTER 501.

An act to amend sections seven, eight, nine, ten, twelve c, thirleen, twenty, twenty-eight, thirty-one a, thirty-five, forty-one, forty-three, forty-five, sixty-five, sixty-eight, eighty, eighty-three, ninety, ninety-eight, one hundred twenty-eight, one hundred thirty-nine, one hundred forty-two, and one hundred forty-five of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, designated the "bank act," all relating to the definition and regulation of the business of banking.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1913, p. 137.

SECTION 1. Section seven of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Foreign corporations.

Sec. 7. No foreign corporation shall transact a banking business in this state without first complying with all the requirements of the laws of this state relative to banks as defined in this act, and without having assigned to its business in this state the amount of paid-up capital and surplus required by this act for the transaction of such business within this state. No foreign banking corporation shall transact business in this state until such corporation has made the assignment of capital required by this section and has received a certificate from the superintendent of banks; provided, that a foreign banking corporation shall not be permitted to accept deposits of money in this state but may receive a certificate from the superintendent of banks to transact in this state only the business of buying or selling, paying or collecting bills of exchange, or of issuing letters of credit or of receiving money for transmission or transmitting the same by draft, check, cable or otherwise, or of making loans; and provided, further, that those foreign banking corporations that now have power to do a banking business in this state and which now receive deposits of money shall be permitted to continue to accept money on deposit. Any foreign banking corporation transacting business in this state shall become subject to the supervision of the state superintendent of banks. Every foreign banking corporation, including those which were on January second, nineteen hundred thirteen, transacting business in this state, which receives any deposits or transacts any other banking business or transacts its business in such a manner as might lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank shall conduct all its business in accordance with the statutes governing incorporated banking institutions organized under the laws of this state. The capital of any such foreign banking corporation assigned to its business in this state and all funds and deposits of money received by any such corporation in this state or for or in connection with its business in this state and all accounts and transactions of said business transacted by any such foreign corporation in this state shall be kept separate and apart from the general business, assets and accounts of such foreign corporation in the same manner as if the business of such foreign corporation conducted within this state was that of a separate and independent corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of doing a banking business and all of the provisions of this act affecting investments, loans of money, receiving deposits and conducting business in any respect shall be deemed to apply to such assigned capital, investments, loans, deposits, assets, funds and business in the same manner as if such assigned capital, investments, loans, deposits, assets, funds and business were that of such separate and independent corporation; provided, that loans may be made by any such foreign corporation based on its entire paid-up capital and surplus in case such foreign corporation shall have assigned to its business in this state a paid-up capital and surplus as above provided equal to twenty per centum of the deposit liability of such branch agency or office to residents of this state. Such funds and investments or loans thereof shall be appropriated solely to the security and payment of such deposits, and shall not be mingled with the investments of the capital stock or other money or property belonging to such corporation or be liable for the debts or obligations thereof. All income received from the investment of said funds over and above such funds as may be paid to depositors as interest or shall be carried to the surplus fund, as provided in section twenty-one of this act, shall accrue as profits to the corporation and may be transferred to its general such superintendent or his successor in office, its true and lawful attorney, upon whom all process issued by authority of or under any law of this state may be served, with the same effect as if such corporation was formed under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein. Such service upon such attorney shall be deemed personal service on such corporation. The superintendent of banks shall forthwith forward by mail, postage prepaid, a copy of every process served upon him under the provisions of this section, addressed to the manager or agent of such corporation, at its principal place of business in this state. For each copy of process, the superintendent of banks shall collect the sum of two dollars, which shall be paid by the plaintiff or moving party at the time of the service, to be recovered by him as a part of his taxable costs if he succeed in the suit or proceeding. No foreign corporation shall have or exercise in this state the power to receive deposits of trust moneys, securities or other personal property from any person or corporation or any of the powers specified in section six of this act, nor have or maintain an office in this state for the transaction of, or transact, directly or indirectly, any such or similar business, except that a trust company incorporated in another state may have or exercise in this state such powers as are permitted to foreign corporations by the provisions of section ninety of this act and may be appointed and may accept appointment and may act in this state as executor of or trustee under the last will and testament of any deceased person, upon giving the bond required in such cases of individuals unless waived by the last will and testament making such appointment and by taking and subscribing an oath for faithful performance of such trust by the president, vice-president, secretary, manager or trust officer of said corporation; provided, that such superintendent of banks, for the time being, shall be attorney of such foreign corporation qualifying or acting in this state as such executor or trustee, upon whom process against such foreign corporation may be served in any action or legal proceeding against such executor or trustee affecting or relating to the estate or property represented or held by such executor or trustee, or any act or default of such foreign corporation in reference to such estate or property, and it shall be the duty of any such foreign corporation so qualifying or acting to file in the office of said superintendent of banks a copy of its articles of incorporation, or of the statute chartering such corporation, certified by its secretary under its corporate seal, together with the post-office address of its home office, and a duly executed appointment of said superintendent of banks as its attorney to accept service of process as above provided, and said superintendent of banks, when any such process is served upon him, shall at once mail the papers so served to the home office of such corporation; act or having authority to act as executor of or trustee under the last will and testament of any deceased person shall establish or maintain, directly or indirectly, any branch office or agency in this state, or shall in any way solicit, directly or indirectly, any business as executor or trustee therein, and that for any violation of this proviso, the court having jurisdiction of such executor or trustee in said proceeding may in its discretion, revoke the right of such foreign corporation thereafter to act as executor or trustee therein; provided, that nothing in this act shall limit or affect the right of any foreign corporation doing a banking business in this state, to lend within this state, moneys of such corporation which do not form a part of the moneys, deposits or assets of such corporation assigned or belonging to its business in this state.

May lend money.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit foreign banking corporations, which do not maintain an office in this state for the transaction of business, from making loans in this state secured by mortgages on real property, nor from accepting assignments of mortgages covering real property situated in this state, nor from making loans through correspondents which are engaged in the business of banking in this state under the laws of this state.

SEC. 2. Section eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913.
p. 140.

Sec. 8. Every corporation, at the time it applies for a certificate of authority to do a banking business, must file with the superintendent of banks a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or of the statute chartering such corporation, a certified copy of its by-laws, and also a certified copy of all instruments amending or altering such articles of incorporation or charter or by-laws. Thereafter a certified copy of each amendment or certificate designed to increase or decrease the capital stock, to change the number of the directors, to amend the articles of incorporation, to change the principal place of business, or the name of such corporation, or to effect any other organic change shall likewise be so filed before such instrument takes effect. There must also be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks before he shall issue his certificate a certified copy of the affidavit required by section two hundred ninety a of the Civil Code. Each certification required by the provisions of this section other than that of by-laws must be by the secretary of state.

Copy of articles of incorporation.

Affidavit.

SEC. 3. Section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913.
p. 140.

Sec. 9. No bank in this state, or any officer or director thereof, shall hereafter open or keep an office other than its principal place of business, without first having obtained the written approval of the superintendent of banks to the opening of such branch office, which written approval may be given or withheld in his discretion, and shall not be given by him until he has ascertained to his satisfaction that the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the opening of such Approval for opening branch office.

Capital. branch office; provided, that no bank or any officer or director thereof, shall open or maintain any such branch office unless the capital of such bank, actually paid in, in cash, shall exceed the amount required by this act by the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars for each branch office opened and maintained in the place where its principal business is transacted; and provided, that for each branch office opened or maintained by any bank, other than a bank transacting only the business described in section six of this act, in any place in this state other than the place where the principal business of such bank is transacted, the capital of such bank, actually paid in, in cash, shall exceed the amount required by this act in the sum required by this act for every bank hereafter organized in the place where each branch office is to be opened or maintained, exclusive of the capital required for a trust department; and provided, also, that for each branch office opened or maintained by any corporation which has power to transact only such business as is described in section six of this act or in section four hundred fifty-three x of the Civil Code, in any place in this state other than the place where the principal business of such corporation is transacted, the capital of such corporation, actually paid in, in cash, shall exceed the amount required by this act in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars; and provided, further, that no branch office may be discontinued without the previous written approval of the superintendent of banks.

Discontinuance.

Certificate of authority.

Fee.

Savings banks in schools.

Every bank, before it opens a branch office, shall obtain the certificate of authority of the superintendent of banks for the opening of each of said branch offices. The applicant shall pay for such certificate a fee of fifty dollars; provided, however, that, in order to encourage saving among the children of the schools of this state, a bank may, with the written consent of and under regulations approved by the superintendent of banks and, in the case of public schools, by the board of education or board of school trustees of the city or district in which the school is situated, arrange for the collection of savings from the school children by the principal or teachers of such schools or by collectors. The principal teacher or person authorized by the bank to make collections from the school children shall be deemed to be the agent of the bank and the bank shall be liable to the pupil for all deposits made with such principal, teacher or other person, the same as if the deposits were made by the pupil directly with the bank. Every bank and every such officer or director violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the people of the state the sum of one hundred dollars for every day during which any branch office hereafter opened shall be maintained without such written approval.

Penalty.

p. 1138.

Qualifications for bank
director

SEC. 4. Section ten of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10. No person shall be eligible for election as director of a bank having a capital stock unless he is a stockholder of the bank, owning, in his own right, shares thereof of the par value of at least five hundred dollars; and every person elected to be director who, after such election, shall cease to be the owner in his own right of the amount of such stock aforesaid, or shall hypothecate or in any way pledge such stock as security for any loan or debt shall immediately notify the superintendent of banks in writing of such sale or hypothecation and such director may be removed from the office of director by the superintendent of banks; provided, however, that any executor or executrix, administrator or administratrix holding shares of a bank of the par value of five hundred dollars, in his or her representative capacity shall be eligible for election as a director thereof. If a bank be organized without capital stock, no person shall be eligible as a director thereof unless he is both a member and a depositor of such bank.

Total reserves of commercial banks.

SEC. 7. Section twenty of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 20. Every commercial bank shall maintain total reserves against its aggregate deposits, exclusive of state, county and municipal deposits for the re-payment of which bonds have been deposited as security, as follows:

1. Eighteen per centum of such deposits if such bank has its principal place of business in a city having a population of one hundred thousand or over.

2. Fifteen per centum of such deposits, if such bank is located in a city having a population of fifty thousand or over and less than one hundred thousand.

3. Twelve per centum of such deposits if such bank is located elsewhere in the state.

How maintained.

At least one-third of the total reserves shall be maintained as reserves on hand and shall consist of gold coin, gold bullion, United States gold certificates or United States notes; in addition thereto, at least one-sixth of the total reserves shall be maintained as reserves on hand and shall consist of gold coin, gold bullion, United States gold certificates, United States notes or any form of currency authorized by the laws of the United States, and the remainder of the total reserves required by the provisions of this section shall be maintained as reserves on deposit or as reserves on hand; such reserves on hand to consist of gold coin, gold bullion, United States gold certificates, United States notes or any form of currency authorized by the laws of the United States.

If member of federal reserve bank.

If any bank shall have become a member of a federal reserve bank, it may maintain as reserves on deposit with such federal reserve bank such portion of its total reserves as shall be required of members of such federal reserve bank.

Penalty for not maintaining reserves.

If any bank shall not maintain the total reserves required the superintendent of banks may impose a penalty upon it, based upon the length of time such encroachment upon its total reserves amounting to one per centum or more of its aggregate deposits shall continue, at the following rates:

1. At the rate of six per centum per annum upon any such encroachment not exceeding two per centum of such deposits.

2. At the rate of eight per centum per annum upon any additional encroachment in excess of two and not exceeding three per centum of such deposits.

3. At the rate of ten per centum per annum upon any additional encroachment in excess of three and not exceeding four per centum of such deposits.

4. At the rate of twelve per centum per annum upon any additional encroachment in excess of four per centum of such deposits.

The superintendent of banks shall, in his discretion, upon the nomination of any bank, designate a depository or depositories for the reserves on deposit of such bank provided for by this act. Except as otherwise provided in this section, such depository shall be a bank or national banking association located in this state. Every reserve depository, which has its principal place of business in a judicial township or in a city located in this state in which the population is less than fifty thousand, shall have at all times as its total reserves an amount equal to the total reserves required by the provisions of this section for every bank which has its principal place of business in a city having a population of fifty thousand or over and less than one hundred thousand. But no bank or national banking association shall hereafter be designated as a depository of any such reserves unless it shall have a combined capital and surplus of not less than the following amounts:

Reserve depositories.

Required capital and surplus of depository.

1. Two hundred fifty thousand dollars, if located in a city which has a population of three hundred thousand or over;

2. Two hundred thousand dollars, if located in a city which has a population of one hundred thousand or over and less than three hundred thousand;

3. One hundred fifty thousand dollars, if located in a city which has a population of fifty thousand or over and less than one hundred thousand;

4. One hundred thousand dollars, if located elsewhere in the state.

Such depository may also be a banking corporation with a capital and surplus of one million dollars or more, located in the cities of New York, Chicago, Boston, St. Louis, or Philadelphia.

Banks of New York, etc., may be depositories.

If the total reserves of any bank shall be less than the amount required by this section, such bank shall not increase its liabilities by making any new loans or discounts, otherwise than by discounting bills of exchange on sight, or by paying any dividends from profits until the full amount of its total reserves has been restored. The superintendent of banks may notify any bank whose total reserves shall be below the amount herein required, to restore such total reserves; and, if it shall fail for thirty days thereafter to restore such total reserves, such bank shall be deemed insolvent and may be proceeded against under the provisions of this act; provided, that all deposits of money herein permitted or required shall comply with the provisions of section forty-three of this act.

Restoration of reserves.

"Reserves on hand."

The term, "reserves on hand," when used in this act, means the reserves against deposits kept, pursuant to the provisions of this act, in the vault of any bank or in any safety deposit box in any other bank in this state, said box to be under the exclusive control of the depositing bank.

"Reserves on deposit."

The term, "reserves on deposit," when used in this act, means the reserves against deposits maintained by any bank pursuant to this act in reserve depositories, or in a federal reserve bank of which such bank is a member, and not in excess of the amount authorized by this act.

"Total reserves."

The term, "total reserves," when used in this act, means the aggregate of reserves on hand and reserves on deposit maintained pursuant to the provisions of this act.

"Reserve depository."

The term, "reserve depository," when used in this act, means a bank, trust company or banking corporation designated by the superintendent of banks on the nomination of the depositing bank as a depository for reserves on deposit.

Stats. 1915, p. 1110.

SEC. 8. Section twenty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Signs must show kind of bank.

Sec. 28. Every bank in this state must, on all its window signs and in advertising, and on letterheads and other stationery on which its business is transacted, use the word "savings" if it conducts a savings business, or the word "trust" if it conducts a trust business, and the word "commercial" if it conducts a commercial business. Every bank, which maintains a branch office, must on all window signs and in advertising, and on letterheads and other stationery on which the business of said branch office is transacted, use in letters and type, equal in prominence to that used in its corporate name, the word "branch" and the name of the place where its principal business is located.

SEC. 9. Section thirty-one a of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Consolidation of banks.

Sec. 31a. Any bank incorporated under the laws of this state may consolidate with one or more banks incorporated under the laws of this state, its capital stock, properties, trusts, claims, demands, contracts, agreements, obligations, debts, liabilities and assets of every kind and description, upon such terms and in such manner as may be agreed upon by their respective boards of directors, a copy of which agreement must be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks; provided, that such agreement shall be subject to the approval of the superintendent of banks and shall not be valid until such approval be obtained; provided, further, that no such consolidation shall take effect until such agreement shall have been ratified and confirmed in writing by the stockholders of the respective banks holding of record at least two-thirds of the issued capital stock of their respective banks, or such agreement may be submitted to the stockholders of each of such corporations at a meeting thereof to be called upon notice specifying the time, place and object thereof, addressed to each stockholder at his last known post-office address and deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, at least two weeks prior to the date fixed for said meeting, and published for at least two successive weeks, prior to the date of said meeting, in a newspaper in each of the counties of the state in which any of such banks shall have its principal place of business, and if such agreement shall be approved at each of such meetings of the respective stockholders separately by the vote or ballot of the stockholders owning at least two-thirds of the stock of each such bank, the same shall be the agreement of such banks. In case of such consolidation "articles of incorporation and consolidation" must be prepared, setting forth:

First—The name of the new corporation;

Second—The purpose for which it is formed;

Third—The place where its principal business is to be transacted;

Fourth—The term for which it is to exist, which shall not exceed fifty years;

Fifth—The number of its directors (which shall not be less than three) and the names and residences of the persons appointed to act as such until their successors are elected and qualified;

Sixth—The amount of its capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided;

Seventh—The amount of stock actually subscribed, and by whom;

Eighth—The names of the constituent corporations.

Said articles of incorporation and consolidation must be signed and countersigned by the president and secretary of each constituent corporation and sealed with their corporate seals. There must be annexed thereto the approval of the superintendent of banks and memoranda of the ratification and confirmation thereof by the stockholders of each constituent corporation, which must be respectively signed and acknowledged by stockholders representing at least two-thirds of the capital stock of their respective corporations. When completed as aforesaid said articles must be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which is located the principal place of business of the new corporation, and a copy of the articles of incorporation and consolidation certified by such county clerk must be filed in the office of the secretary of state, who must issue, over the great seal of the state, a certificate that a copy of the articles of incorporation and consolidation containing the required statement of facts has been filed in his office. The secretary of state must file in his office a duplicate of the certificate hereinbefore provided for and copies thereof, duly certified by the secretary of state, shall have the same force and effect in evidence as the original. A copy of the articles of incorporation and consolidation, certified by said secretary of state, must be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks, and also in the office of the county clerk of any county in which were filed the original articles of incorporation of either of the constituent corporations. superintendent of banks issues the certificate of authorization provided for by section one hundred twenty-eight of this act the new or consolidated corporation shall be a body politic and corporate by the name stated in the certificate, and for the term of fifty years, unless it is, in the articles of incorporation and consolidation, otherwise stated and thereupon each constituent corporation named in the articles of incorporation and consolidation must be deemed and held to have become extinct in all courts and places, and said new corporation must be deemed and held in all courts and places to have succeeded to all their several capital stocks, properties, trusts, claims, demands, contracts, agreements, assets, choses and rights in action of every kind and description, both at law and in equity, and to be entitled to possess, enjoy, and enforce the same and every thereof, as fully and completely as either and every of its constituents might have done had no consolidation taken place. Said consolidated or new corporation must also, in all courts and places, be deemed and held to have become subrogated to its several constituents and each thereof, in respect to all their contracts and agreements with other parties, and all their debts, obligations, and liabilities, of every kind and nature, to any persons, corporations, or bodies politic, whomsoever, or whatsoever, and said new corporation must sue and be sued in its own name in any and every case in which any or either of its constituents might have sued or might have been sued at law or in equity had no such consolidation been made. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to impair the obligation of any contract to which any of such constituents were parties at the date of such consolidation. All such contracts may be enforced by action or suit, as the case may be, against the consolidated corporation, and satisfaction obtained out of the property which, at the date of the consolidation, belonged to the constituent which was a party to the contract in action or suit, as well as out of any other property belonging to the consolidated corporation, and the stockholders of each constituent corporation so entering into such agreement shall continue subject to all the liabilities, claims and demands existing against them at or before such consolidation to the same extent as if the same had not been made. The right of said new corporation to increase or decrease its capital stock, to change the number of its directors, to amend its articles of incorporation, to change its principal place of business, or its name, or to effect any other organic change shall be governed by the general corporation laws of this state and by the bank act, and the procedure to effect any such change shall be that defined by the general corporation laws and the bank act.

The superintendent of banks shall transmit to the secretary of state a duplicate of the certificate of authorization hereinbefore referred to and the secretary of state shall file the same in his office. The superintendent of banks shall also file a duplicate of such certificate in his own office.

SEC. 10. Section thirty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913, p. 155.

Sec. 35. No bank shall purchase any contract arising from the sale of real estate or any note or bond in which contract, or note, or bond any director, officer, employee, or controlling stockholder of such bank is personally or financially interested, directly or indirectly, for his own account, for himself, or as the partner or agent of others, without the previous consent in writing of the superintendent of banks. Consent to purchase certain contracts.

SEC. 11. Section forty-one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913, p. 156.

Sec. 41. No officer, director, agent, or other employee of any bank shall directly or indirectly, for his own personal benefit, purchase, or be interested in the purchase of any of such bank's obligations or assets for a less sum than shall appear upon the face of any such obligations or assets to be the value thereof except with the previous consent of all the directors of said bank, such consent to be evidenced by a resolution adopted by said directors. A certified copy of said resolution shall immediately be transmitted to the superintendent of banks. Every person violating any provision of this section, shall for each offense forfeit to the people of the state, twice the face value of any such obligations or assets so purchased. Consent for officer to purchase assets at discount.

SEC. 12. Section forty-three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913, p. 156.

Sec. 43. No bank shall deposit any of its funds in any other bank unless such other bank has been nominated as a depository for its funds by the vote of a majority of the directors, or trustees of the bank making the deposit, and such other bank has been designated by the superintendent of banks as such depository. The superintendent of banks may in his discretion revoke such a designation. Deposit of funds in another bank.

SEC. 13. Section forty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1909, p. 97.

Sec. 45. Interest unpaid, although due or accrued, on debts owing to any bank, shall not be included in calculation of its profits previous to a dividend; nor shall any bank, except with the previous written consent of the superintendent of banks, enter or at any time carry on its books any of its assets at a valuation exceeding its actual cost to such bank. Interest unpaid.

SEC. 14. Section sixty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915, p. 1122.

Sec. 65. No loan shall be made, for himself or as agent or partner of another, directly or indirectly, to any director or officer of any savings bank by such bank, or on the indorsement, surety or guaranty of any such officer or director, except that loans may be made to any corporation in which any director or officer of such savings bank may own or hold a minority number of shares of stock, upon authorization of a majority of all the directors of such savings bank and the affirmative vote of all directors of such savings bank present. Sec. 15. Section sixty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915,
p. 1125.

Sec. 68. Every savings bank or savings department of a bank, shall at all times maintain total reserves equivalent to five per centum of the aggregate amount of its deposits exclusive of state, county and municipal deposits for the re-payment of which bonds have been deposited as security; at least two and one-half per centum of such deposits shall be maintained as reserves on hand, one-half of which shall consist of gold coin, gold bullion, United States gold certificates or United States notes and one-half of which shall consist of gold coin, gold bullion, United States gold certificates, United States notes or any other form of currency authorized by the laws of the United States and two and one-half per centum of such deposits may be maintained as reserves on hand and may consist of bonds of the United States or of gold coin, gold bullion, United States gold certificates, United States notes or any other form of currency authorized by the laws of the United States or may be maintained as reserves on deposit subject to call with any reserve depository provided for in section twenty of this act; provided, however, that no savings bank or savings department shall be required to maintain reserves on hand in excess of four hundred thousand dollars, and when such reserves on hand reach that amount, the balance of total reserves necessary to make up the five per centum may be kept as reserves on deposit subject to call with any reserve depository provided for in section twenty of this act. No new loan shall be made during any deficiency in the total reserves. Deposits with any commercial bank, or commercial department of a bank, on open account, as provided in this section, shall be permitted, and shall not be construed as loans. Not more than five per centum of the deposits of any savings bank shall be deposited with any one bank, except with the consent of the superintendent of banks. Not more than fifteen per centum of the deposits of any savings bank shall be deposited with all commercial banks, except with the consent of the superintendent of banks. No savings bank or savings department shall receive deposits of other banks other than savings deposits and such deposits shall not be treated or considered as a part of the reserves on deposit of such depositing bank; provided, the sum so deposited shall not exceed thirty per centum of the paid-in capital and surplus of the depositing bank nor more than fifteen per centum of the paid-in capital and surplus of the depository bank.

letters of credit, or by acceptance of drafts for, or the discount or purchase of the notes, bills of exchange or other obligations of, such person, firm, copartnership or corporation, shall exceed the following percentage of its capital and surplus.

Without
security.

1. Ten per centum without security, except where such capital stock and surplus is not more than twenty-five thousand dollars, in which event an amount not to exceed twenty per centum of such capital stock and surplus may be loaned without security, and where such capital stock and surplus is greater than twenty-five thousand dollars and does not exceed fifty thousand dollars, a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars may be loaned without security. Nothing herein shall prohibit any commercial bank from taking or receiving any kind, character or amount of security whatsoever, either real or personal, for the protection of any loan made under the provisions of this subdivision, but no such loan or any part thereof shall be considered or construed as a secured loan unless the whole thereof is loaned upon security worth at least fifteen per centum more than the amount of such loan; or.

With
security.

2. Fifteen per centum, in addition to the amount that may be loaned under the provisions of subdivision one of this section, upon security worth at least fifteen per centum more than the amount of such loan so secured; provided, the total amount which can be loaned under subdivisions one and two hereof can not exceed twenty-five per centum in all; provided, however, that a separate note or notes shall be taken for the unsecured loans and a separate note or notes shall be taken for the secured loans, and the secured and unsecured loans shall not be combined in any way within one note, or notes; or,

3. Twenty-five per centum upon security worth at least fifteen per centum more than the amount of its loans so secured: provided, however, that when secured loans to this amount or any amount in excess of fifteen per centum are made, then no unsecured loans shall be permitted in addition to such secured loans; or,

4. Forty per centum, provided such loans are upon commercial or business paper actually owned by the person negotiating the same to such bank, and are indorsed by such person without limitation; provided, however, that in addition to the amounts permitted to be loaned by subdivisions one, two or three of this section, an amount may be loaned on the securities fixed by subdivision four of this section, which taken with the amounts so permitted by said subdivisions one, two or three will not exceed forty per centum; provided, also, that the restrictions under this section shall not apply to bills of exchange or drafts, with bills of lading attached, drawn in good faith against actual existing values; provided, further, that any commercial bank, having first obtained in writing the consent of the superintendent of banks so to do and under such conditions and regulations as may be prescribed by him, may accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it running for a period not longer than six months, but no commercial bank shall accept such drafts or bills of exchange in an amount greater at any time in the outstanding aggregate than one-half of its capital and surplus; but such acceptance or acceptances must be drawn by a person, firm, copartnership or corporation engaged in agricultural, industrial or commercial business directly connected with the production, manufacture, purchase, sale or consignment of the goods involved in the transaction in which the acceptance originated; provided, however, that no such acceptance or acceptances to any one person, firm, copartnership or corporation shall exceed ten per centum of the capital and surplus of such bank.

Loans which are made upon security available for loans in a savings bank may be made in a commercial bank upon the same margin of security as is permitted to savings banks anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding, and all such loans shall be deemed to be secured loans within the meaning of this section.

In computing the total liabilities of any person to a commercial bank there shall be included all liabilities to the bank of any copartnership or unincorporated association of which he is a member, and any loans made for his benefit or for the benefit of such copartnership or unincorporated association; of any firm, copartnership or unincorporated association to a commercial bank there shall be included all liabilities of its individual members and all loans made for the benefit of such copartnership or unincorporated association or any member thereof; and of any corporation to a commercial bank there shall be included all loans made for the benefit of the corporation.

Computing liabilities to commercial bank.

Sec. 17. Section eighty-three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915, p. 1127.

Sec. 83. No loan shall be made for himself or as agent or partner of another, directly or indirectly, to any officer of any commercial bank by such bank or on the indorsement, surety, or guaranty of any such officer; provided, that a loan may be made to a corporation of which any officer of a commercial bank, proposing to make such loan, is a minority stockholder, director, officer, agent or employee. Loans to any director, agent or employee, other than an officer, or to any firm, copartnership or corporation of which any director, agent or employee other than an officer is a member, stockholder, director, officer, agent or other employee, or to any person, firm, copartnership or corporation on the indorsement, surety, or guaranty of any such director other than an officer, agent or other employee, can be made by any commercial bank; and provided, further, that a loan may be made or a line of credit may be given to any member of an advisory board or body of a commercial bank, not otherwise an officer of such bank, or a loan may be made to any firm, copartnership or corporation of which any member of such advisory board or body is a member, stockholder, director, officer, agent or other employee, or to any person, firm, copartnership, or corporation on the

indorsement, surety, or guaranty of any such member of such advisory board or body upon such conditions as are herein fixed for a loan, directly or indirectly, or a line of credit and the report thereof, to any director of such bank. Loans herein authorized can be made only on authorization of or confirmation within thirty days after making such loan, by a majority of all the directors of such bank and the affirmative vote of all directors of such bank present at the meeting authorizing or confirming such loan. Such interested director shall not vote or participate in any manner in the action of the board on such loan. The board of directors of any such bank may fix the total amount of credit that may at any one time during the twelve months next succeeding be given to any director, agent, or other employee, other than an officer, or to any firm, copartnership, or corporation in which any director, agent, or other employee other than an officer is a member, stockholder, director, officer, agent or other employee or to any corporation of which any officer of a commercial bank, proposing to fix such total amount of credit, is a minority stockholder, director, officer, agent or employee, and any or all loans made within or up to the total amount of such authorized credit may at any time during said twelve months, be renewed from time to time, in whole or in part, by the officers of the bank without any further vote or action on the part of the board of directors. Each such authorization shall be entered upon the records or minutes of said bank. No director shall vote or participate in any manner in such action of the board fixing the total amount of credit that may at any one time be given to himself or to any firm, copartnership or corporation in which he is a member, stockholder, director, officer, agent or other employee. The fact of making such loan, the names of the directors authorizing such loan, the name of the director, agent or employee, obtaining such loan, or the name of the firm, copartnership or corporation in which such director, agent or employee is interested or the name of the corporation, of which any officer of a commercial bank is a minority stockholder, director, officer, agent or employee, obtaining such loan, the amount of such loan, the rate of interest thereon, the time when the loan will become due, the amount, character and value of security given therefor, if any, and the fact of final payment when made shall forthwith be reported in writing by the cashier or secretary of such bank to the superintendent of banks. In case a loan is made to a corporation there shall be reported in the same manner the name of each director and officer of such bank who is a member, stockholder, director, officer or employee of such borrowing corporation and the amount of stock held by him in such borrowing corporation. All the provisions of this section relating to reports shall apply to the granting of credit and all loans made under any credit given and payments made thereon shall also be reported immediately after the same are made. In case of a loan made without the previous authorization of the directors, the fact of making such loan shall forthwith be reported and the action of the board of directors, in confirming or refusing to confirm such loan within thirty days thereafter, and the fact of final payment when made shall be reported in the same manner as herein required for loans made under previous authorization. Any officer, director, agent, or employee of a commercial bank, who knowingly procures a loan from such commercial bank contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a felony. In case of the neglect or failure of the secretary or cashier of any such bank, to report to the superintendent of banks, as herein provided, any of the facts so required to be reported, or in case of the neglect or failure of the secretary or cashier of any such bank, to report to the superintendent of banks any loan made contrary to the provisions of this section, the bank shall be liable therefor and shall forfeit to the people of the State of California twenty-five dollars per day for each day, or part thereof, during which such neglect or failure continues.

Penalty.

This section shall not apply to any loan made to a religious corporation, club, or other membership corporation of which one or more directors, officers, agents or employees of such commercial bank may be members or officers but in which they have no financial interest.

Not applicable to what corporation.

Sec. 18. Section ninety of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1913, p. 175.

Sec. 90. Any corporation which has been or shall be incorporated under the laws of this state, which is authorized by its articles of incorporation to act as executor, administrator, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee, under appointment of any court or by authority of any law of this state, or as trustee for any purpose permitted by law, which has its principal place of business in a city in which the population does not exceed one hundred thousand persons and which has a capital of not less than one hundred thousand dollars actually paid in, in cash, assigned to or available for the purpose of conducting business in any such capacity, or trust business of any character permitted by law, and which has made with the state treasurer the deposit of money or securities of the character and in the amount required by the terms of section ninety-six of this act, and which has received from the superintendent of banks the certificate of authority required by the terms of section one hundred twenty-seven of this act, to transact such business, and any corporation which has been or shall be incorporated under the laws of this state, which is authorized by its articles of incorporation to act as executor, administrator, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee, under appointment of any court or by authority of any law of this state, or as trustee for any purpose permitted by law, which has its principal place of business in a city in which the population exceeds one hundred thousand persons and which has a capital of at least two hundred thousand dollars actually paid in, in cash, assigned to or available for the purpose of conducting business in any such capacity, or trust business of any character permitted by law, and which has made with the state treasurer the deposit of money or securities of the character and in the amount required by the terms of section ninety-six of this act, and which has received from the superintendent of banks the certificate of authority required by the terms of section one hundred twenty-seven of this act, to transact such business, may act, or may be appointed by any court to act, in any such capacity in like manner as an individual and when so qualified shall be known as a trust company. Any such trust company may, as provided in this act, accept or receive any deposit of money or personal property authorized, directed or permitted to be made with any such corporation by any court or law of this state, and may accept and execute any trust provided for in this act, or permitted by any law of this state, to be taken, accepted or executed by an individual. Any such trust company, if located in a city the population of which does not exceed one hundred thousand persons must segregate that portion of its capital and surplus assigned to or available for its trust business and must apportion and set aside at least fifty thousand dollars of such paid-up capital as security for the faithful performance and execution of all private trusts accepted by it and must also apportion and set aside at least fifty thousand dollars of such paid-up capital as security for the faithful performance and execution of all court trusts accepted by it and whenever such trust company shall, under the provision of sections ninety-six and ninety-eight of this act, be required to make the first additional deposit of securities with the state treasurer, such trust company must also apportion and set aside an additional fifty thousand dollars of paid-up capital as security for the faithful performance and execution of all private trusts accepted by it and must also apportion and set aside an additional fifty thousand dollars of paid-up capital as security for the faithful performance and execution of all court trusts accepted by it, and any such trust company, if located in a city, the population of which exceeds one hundred thousand persons, must segregate that portion of its capital and surplus assigned to or available for its trust business and must apportion and set aside at least one hundred thousand dollars of such paid-up capital as security for the faithful performance and execution of all private trusts accepted by it and must also apportion and set aside at least one hundred thousand dollars of such paid-up capital as security for the faithful performance and execution of all court trusts accepted by it: provided, that no such trust company shall at any time be required to apportion and set aside any portion of its surplus as security for the faithful performance and execution of such private trusts, nor shall it be prohibited from so doing;

May receive deposits.

Segregation of capital and surplus in cities of less than 100,000.

In cities of more than 100,000.

and provided, further, that the respective amounts of capital or capital and surplus so apportioned and set aside shall be treated in all respects as the separate capital or capital and surplus of each respective kind or class of business, as though the same were conducted by separate and distinct corporations, and each shall be kept, held, used and disposed of wholly for the exclusive benefit, protection and security of the respective classes of trust business to which the same were respectively so apportioned and set aside. In all cases in which it is required that an executor, administrator, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee, shall qualify by taking and subscribing an oath, or in which an affidavit is required, it shall be a sufficient qualification by such corporation if such oath be taken and subscribed or such affidavit made by the president, vice president, secretary, manager, trust officer, assistant trust officer or regularly employed attorney thereof, and such officer or employee shall be liable for the failure of such trust company to perform any of the duties required by law to be performed by an individual acting in like capacity and subject to like penalties; provided, any such appointment as guardian shall apply to the estate only, and not to the person. A foreign corporation may be authorized to act in this state as trustee for the following purposes:

Separate kinds of capital.

Oath may be taken by officer.

Authority of foreign corporation as trustee.

- (1) To deliver bonds, and receive payment therefor.
- (2) To deliver permanent bonds in exchange for temporary bonds of the same issue.
- (3) To deliver refunding bonds in exchange for those of a prior issue or issues.
- (4) To register bonds, or to exchange registered bonds for coupon bonds, or coupon bonds for registered bonds.
- (5) To pay interest on such bonds, and to take up and cancel coupons representing such interest payments.
- (6) To redeem and cancel bonds when called for redemption, or to pay and cancel bonds when due.
- (7) The certification of registered bonds for the purpose of exchanging registered bonds for coupon bonds.
- (8) To act as trustee under any mortgage, deed or trust, or other instrument securing notes or bonds issued by any corporation.

SEC. 19. Section ninety-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915, p. 1130.

Sec. 98. Whenever any trust company, the principal place of business of which is located in a city the population of which does not exceed one hundred thousand persons, receives from court trusts accepted by it, trust funds, as herein defined, to the amount of five hundred thousand dollars, it shall forthwith notify in writing the superintendent of banks of such fact, and within thirty days thereafter shall deposit with the state treasurer additional money or securities of the character mentioned and defined in section ninety-six of this act, approved as therein provided, in the amount of fifty thousand dollars; and whenever any trust company receives from court trusts such funds to the amount of one million dollars it shall further notify in writing the superintendent of banks of such fact and within thirty days thereafter shall deposit with the state treasurer additional money or securities of the character mentioned and defined in section ninety-six of this act, approved as therein provided, in the amount of fifty thousand dollars; and for each additional five hundred thousand dollars of such trust funds thereafter received by any trust company from court trusts a similar notification in writing shall forthwith be given to the superintendent of banks, and a further deposit in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars of such money or securities, or of securities provided for in section ninety-seven of this act likewise approved, shall be made, within thirty days thereafter, by such trust company with said state treasurer, until five hundred thousand dollars of such securities have been so deposited. The treasurer shall give his receipt for any money or securities so deposited and each and all of such deposits of money or securities, shall be held by said state treasurer for the sole benefit of the beneficiaries of the class of business for the security and protection of which same were deposited. The state shall be responsible for the custody and safe return of any money or securities so deposited with said state treasurer. The term "trust funds" when used in this section shall be deemed to mean and shall mean personal property and cash, whether received with the original trust property or as rent, income or proceeds thereof, or otherwise, in connection with the trust, and shall not be deemed to include and shall not include real property. Any trust company failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the State of California one hundred dollars a day for each day during which such failure or default shall continue. Upon making a request in writing to the superintendent of banks, any such trust company shall be entitled to withdraw from the state treasurer, from time to time, a sufficient amount of such securities so that at all times the amount of such securities so deposited shall conform to the requirements of this act, and so that at no time shall such trust company be required to have on deposit with the state treasurer an amount of securities in excess of the requirements of this act. Upon receiving such request in writing, and satisfactory proof of the facts warranting such withdrawal, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of banks to forthwith deliver to the state treasurer a written order directing the withdrawal of said securities so as to conform with the provisions of this section, and it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to comply with such written order. The validity or legality of any act or proceeding done or taken by any such trust company, relating to or in connection with the administration of any such trusts, shall not be affected or impaired by the neglect or failure of such trust company, or of any officer or employee thereof, to comply with any of the provisions of this act, but all such acts and proceedings done or taken prior to the revocation of its certificate of authority to do such business by the superintendent of banks, under the provisions of this act, or the revocation by any court or judge thereof of the appointment, order or decree theretofore entered in such trust matter shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as if any such neglect or failure had not occurred.

SEC. 20. Section one hundred twenty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1913,
p. 187.

Sec. 128. When the certified copy of articles of incorporation of any bank shall have been filed with the secretary of state, and application made for the issuance of a certificate to do business as a bank, the superintendent of banks, provided he has not withheld granting his certificate for any of the reasons set forth in section one hundred twenty-seven hereof, shall ascertain, from the best sources of information at his command, whether the character and general fitness of the persons named as stockholders are such as to command the confidence of the community in which such bank is proposed to be located, and, if so satisfied, he shall, within sixty days after such application has been made to him, issue, under his hand and official seal, the certificate of authorization required by this act. The superintendent of banks shall file a duplicate of such certificate in his own office. Certificate of authorization
issued.

SEC. 21. Section one hundred thirty-nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1914,
p. 199.

Sec. 139. It shall be the duty of the board of directors of every bank to examine fully, or to cause a committee of at least three of its members, none of whom shall be an officer of the bank, to examine fully into the books, papers and affairs of the bank of which they are directors, and particularly into the loans and discounts thereof, with a special view to ascertaining the value and security thereof, and of the collateral security, if any given, in connection therewith, and into such other matters as the superintendent of banks may require: such examination to be made at least once a year, but no such subsequent yearly examinations shall be made within three months of the next preceding examination. Such directors shall have power to employ such assistance in making such examinations as they may deem necessary. Within thirty days after the completion of such examination, a report in writing thereof, sworn to by the directors making the same, shall be made by the board of directors of such bank, and placed on file with the records of said bank, and shall be subject to examination by the superintendent of banks. Duty of
board of directors.

Report

Such report shall particularly contain a statement of the assets and liabilities of the bank examined, as shown by its books, together with any deductions from the assets, or additions to liabilities, which such directors or committee, after such examination, may determine to make. It shall also contain a statement, in detail, of loans, if any, which in their Contents opinion are worthless or doubtful, together with their reasons for so regarding them; also a statement of loans made on collateral security, which in their opinion are insufficiently secured, giving in each case the amount of the loan, the name and market value of the collateral, if it has any market value, and, if not, a statement of that fact, and its actual value as nearly as possible. Such report shall also contain a statement of overdrafts, of the names and amounts of such as they consider worthless or doubtful, and a full statement of such other matters as affect the solvency and soundness of the bank.

When no examination made.

If the directors of such bank shall fail to make such examination or fail to cause it to be made, or shall fail to file such report of such examination in the manner and within the time specified, the superintendent of banks shall have authority to make or cause to be made an extra examination of such bank, at the expense of such bank.

Special examination by superintendent of banks.

Whenever the board of directors of any bank may determine by resolution, duly entered in its minutes, that a special examination shall be made or caused to be made by the superintendent of banks in lieu of the examination herein required to be made by the board of directors of such bank, a certified copy of such resolution shall be transmitted to the superintendent of banks, whereupon it shall be the duty of the superintendent of banks to make or cause to be made a special examination of the affairs of such bank in lieu of the examination of such bank by the board of directors thereof. Such special examination shall be made at such time as the superintendent of banks may determine but in any event such examination shall be made within sixty days after the receipt by the superintendent of banks of the resolution hereinbefore referred to. The cost of making such examination shall be a charge against the bank for which such examination is made.

Report.

Upon the completion of such examination the superintendent of banks shall cause a report thereof in writing to be prepared and delivered to the board of directors of such bank at such time as may be fixed by the superintendent of banks, but not later than thirty days after the completion of such examination.

SEC. 22. Section one hundred forty-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Official reports prima facie evidence.

Sec. 142. Every official report made by the superintendent of banks and every report duly verified of an examination made, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, for all purposes in any action or proceedings wherein the superintendent of banks is a party.

Stats. 1915, p. 1134.

SEC. 23. Section one hundred forty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Powers abridged, enlarged or modified.

Sec. 145. The powers, privileges, duties and restrictions conferred and imposed upon any corporation or individual existing and doing business under the laws of this state are hereby abridged, enlarged or modified as each particular case may require to conform to the provisions of this act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in their respective articles of incorporation or charters. All the provisions of this act shall apply with equal force and effect to all corporations which are now doing or which may hereafter do a banking business in this state, except where express exception or exemption may be made herein, and to such other persons, associations, copartnerships or corporations who shall, by violating any of its provisions, become subject to the penalties provided herein. The legality of investments heretofore made, or title to property heretofore acquired or conveyed through transactions heretofore had by any bank pursuant to any provision of law in force when such investments were made or transactions had, shall not be affected by the provisions of this act, except that any such investments made prior to July 1, 1909, when not complying with the provisions hereof, shall be changed to conform hereto; but such change shall be made gradually and in such manner as to prevent loss or embarrassment in the business of such bank, or unnecessary loss or injury to the borrowers on such security; provided, that the legality of any investments heretofore lawfully made, pursuant to the provisions of this act as it existed on and subsequent to July 1, 1909, shall not be affected by the provisions of this section.

Investments made prior to July 1, 1909.

An act to add a new section to the Civil Code, to be numbered three thousand three hundred twenty, providing for the damages recoverable from banks on the nonpayment of checks.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code, to be numbered three thousand three hundred twenty, and to read as follows:

Liability
for non-
check.

3320. No bank shall be liable to a depositor because of the nonpayment through mistake or error, and without malice, of a check which should have been paid unless the depositor shall allege and prove actual damage by reason of such nonpayment and in such event the liability shall not exceed the amount of damage so proved.

CHAPTER 504.

An act to amend section fifty-four of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, designated the "bank act," relating to the definition and regulation of banking.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1913,
p 158.

SECTION 1. Section fifty-four of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Real estate to be sold within five years.

Sec. 54. All real estate purchased by any bank at sales under pledges, mortgages or deeds of trust for its benefit for money loaned and such as may be conveyed to it by borrowers in satisfaction and discharge of loans made thereon and all other real estate owned or held by it, which is not necessary for carrying on its business, must be sold or exchanged for other real estate by such bank within five years after title thereto shall have vested in it by purchase or otherwise; provided, however, that no exchange of such real estate for other real estate shall be made unless and until written consent thereto shall first be given by the superintendent of banks; and provided, further, that any real estate so taken in exchange may be held for such period of time as the superintendent of banks may fix but not to exceed five years. Parcels of such real estate not sold or exchanged within said time may be purchased by any person wanting the same upon the conditions and proceedings following: The intending purchaser may file a petition in the superior court in and for the county wherein said real estate or any portion thereof is situated; upon the filing of such petition a citation shall be issued out of said court directed to the bank owning such real estate requiring such bank to show cause on a day certain which shall be not earlier than ten days after the service of such citation, why commissioners should not be appointed by said court for the purpose of appraising the value of the real estate described in the petition and of selling the same at public auction under the provisions of this section. If there shall be any liens or encumbrances of record against such real estate the person or persons holding such liens or encumbrances shall likewise be cited and the court shall in its final decree distribute the proceeds of such sale, if a sale thereof shall be made, according to the equities of the parties. If it shall appear at the hearing of such petition that the real estate therein sought to be purchased is held by such bank in violation of the provisions of this section or of the constitution of this state, the court shall appoint three commissioners to appraise the value thereof and sell the same at public auction at the county seat of the county wherein said real estate or any part thereof is located. Notice of which said sale shall be given to the bank owning said real estate and to any other persons interested therein as shown by the records of such county at least ten days before the date of such sale and shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county where such real estate or any part thereof may be located, or if no newspaper shall be published in such county then in a newspaper published in some neighboring county. Such notice shall state the time and place of such sale and shall describe the real estate to be sold with common certainty and state the value thereof as fixed by the appraisement of such commissioners and state that no bid less than such appraised value will be received therefor. No sale shall be made for an amount less than the appraised value of such real estate fixed by said commissioners, and in the event that no bid is received at such sale at least equal to said appraised value of said real estate no intending purchaser can institute the proceedings provided for in this section within one year thereafter. In case of any sale made under the provisions of this section and of the refusal of any bank owning such real estate or of any lienholder or encumbrancer to execute the conveyances or releases necessary or proper to vest the title of such bank, lienholder or encumbrancer in the purchaser thereof the court shall have power in such proceedings to direct said commissioners to execute such deeds, conveyances or releases upon the payment to them of the purchase price therefor. The fees of such commissioners and cost of sale shall be fixed by the court, upon making such appointment, but the entire expense thereof shall not exceed one hundred dollars. The cost of any such proceedings shall be borne by the intending purchaser if no sale shall be made, but if a sale shall be made the costs of such proceedings shall be borne by the purchaser of the property and the person who filed the petition and advanced the costs of such proceedings shall be reimbursed in case he shall not become such purchaser. All sales hereunder shall be returned to the court having jurisdiction of the matter in the same manner as in the case of sales, by commissioners, of real estate on foreclosure of mortgages. Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to affect the power of the superintendent of banks to require the writing down of the value of real estate held by any bank, at any time, when such writing down shall be proper.

An act to amend section nine hundred sixty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to cases in which an appeal may be taken.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section nine hundred sixty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Cases in which an appeal may be taken

963. An appeal may be taken from a superior court in the following cases:

1. From a final judgment entered in an action, or special proceeding, commenced in a superior court, or brought into a superior court from another court;
2. From an order granting a new trial in an action or proceeding tried by a jury where such trial by jury is a matter of right, or granting or dissolving an injunction, or refusing to grant or dissolve an injunction, or appointing a receiver, or dissolving or refusing to dissolve an attachment, or changing or refusing to change a place of trial, from any special order made after final judgment, from any interlocutory judgment, order, or decree, hereafter made or entered in actions to redeem real or personal property from a mortgage thereof, or lien thereon, determining such right to redeem and directing an accounting; and from such interlocutory judgment in actions for partition as determines the rights and interests of the respective parties and directs partition to be made, and interlocutory decrees of divorce.

3. From a judgment or order granting or refusing to grant, revoking or refusing to revoke, letters testamentary, or of administration, or of guardianship; or admitting or refusing to admit a will to probate, or against or in favor of the validity of a will, or revoking or refusing to revoke the probate thereof; or against or in favor of setting apart property, or making an allowance for a widow or child; or against or in favor of directing the partition, sale or conveyance of real property, or settling an account of an executor, administrator or guardian, or refusing, allowing or directing the distribution or partition of an estate, or any part thereof, or the payment of a debt, claim, or legacy, or distributive share; or confirming or refusing to confirm a report of an appraiser or appraisers setting apart a homestead; from an order, judgment or decree fixing inheritance tax or determining that no inheritance tax is due.

An act to accept from the United States government the cession of jurisdiction over a portion of the Presidio of the San Francisco military reservation.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Cession of jurisdiction
accepted

SECTION 1. The State of California hereby accepts from the United States government the cession of jurisdiction over that portion of the Presidio of the San Francisco military reservation designated by the secretary of war for the use of the Panama-Pacific international exposition company and its successors in interest, pursuant to the act of congress making appropriations for the support of the army for the fiscal year one thousand nine hundred seventeen, approved August 29, 1916, subject to the conditions, reservations and stipulations contained in said act.

CHAPTER 508.

An act to amend sections two thousand three hundred twenty-two, two thousand three hundred twenty-two a, two thousand three hundred twenty-two c and two thousand three hundred twenty-two d of the Political Code and to add new sections two thousand three hundred twenty-two f, two thousand three hundred twenty-two g, two thousand three hundred twenty-two h, two thousand three hundred twenty-two i, and two thousand three hundred twenty-two j to the Political Code, said sections relating to orchards, trees, vines or plants of any variety, infected or infested with diseases, scale or other insects of any kind injurious to fruit, fruit trees, vines or other plants or vegetables, or noxious weeds and to the extermination or the control of insects, ground squirrels, gopher or other animal pests and plant diseases or noxious weeds, and to the appointment and removal of a county horticultural commissioner in the several counties of the state; prescribing his duties and powers and fixing his compensation and term of office, also providing for a state board of horticultural examiners, prescribing the duties of said board, and providing for examination to be taken by persons desiring to qualify for position as county horticultural commissioner; providing for the dividing of the several counties of the state into districts by the respective county horticultural commissioners, and providing for the appointment of deputy commissioners, local inspectors, and quarantine guardians, prescribing their duties and powers and fixing their compensation.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand three hundred twenty-two of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2322. Whenever a petition is presented to the board of supervisors of any county or city and county, and signed by twenty-five or more persons each of whom is a resident freeholder and possessor of an orchard, or greenhouse or nursery, or rice fields, stating that certain or all orchards or nurseries

The said term of office of any and all county commissioners heretofore or hereinafter appointed shall commence on the date of appointment, and be for a period of four years and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified, at the end of which period the said term shall terminate, and said term shall run with and be attached to said office. In any case where such petition has already been presented or submitted, or is on file at the time of the passage of this act, as the basis for the appointment of a board of horticultural commissioners under this chapter as heretofore existing, such petition shall continue in full force and effect and the board of supervisors of any county, or city and county with which any such petition has been filed, or in which any board of horticultural commissioners has heretofore existed, must appoint a county horticultural commissioner. The person appointed to such position must be especially qualified for his duties and must be chosen and appointed by the board of supervisors from a list of eligible persons recommended and nominated to said board as hereinafter provided. Said appointment to be made within thirty days after receipt of said list by said board of supervisors; provided, this

The said board of supervisors shall provide a suitable office for the said county horticultural commissioner, and shall furnish and equip the said office with all necessary furniture and effects for the proper discharge of the commissioner's duties. The said board of supervisors may also provide the county horticultural commissioner with all necessary field equipment for the proper discharge of the duties of his office. All expense ordered by the board of supervisors for such office, furniture and equipment, and for stenographic and other office help and expense shall be a county charge and the board of supervisors shall allow and pay the same out of the general fund of the county. A state board of horticultural examiners is hereby created consisting of the dean of the agricultural college of the University of California, the state commissioner of horticulture and the superintendent of the state insectary, who are ex officio members of said board. They shall serve without pay and said board shall provide convenient means for the examination of candidates for appointment as horticultural commissioner. While in the performance of their duties as members of said board they shall be allowed all their necessary expenses for traveling, printing, postage and other incidental matters to be paid out of any appropriations made for the support of the office of the state commissioner of horticulture. At least thirty days before the date of the examination of candidates for the said appointment the state board of horticultural examiners shall post or cause to be posted in three public places in said county a notice of the time and place at which such examination will be held, setting forth the conditions and subjects of said examination. At the time and place stated in said notice such examination shall be held. Said examination shall be in writing and the board of horticultural examiners may appoint one of their own number, or some other reliable, competent person to conduct the holding of such examination in each county and forward the papers of each

If for any reason the board of supervisors refuse or neglect to appoint a county horticultural commissioner at the expiration of the thirty days, or if they refuse or neglect to appoint a county horticultural commissioner to fill an unexpired term as elsewhere provided in this act, then the state board of horticultural examiners shall select and appoint a county horticultural commissioner from the list of qualified persons certified to the board of supervisors of that county, whose term of office shall be for four years, and until his successor has qualified. Whenever the state board of horticultural examiners shall appoint a county horticultural commissioner as herein provided, then the county board of supervisors must provide for the payment of such appointee's compensation and expenses in the same manner as if such appointment had been made by the board of supervisors. As far as possible the board of horticultural examiners shall consult the resident horticulturists of the county in determining the responsibility and moral qualifications of candidates for appointment as commissioners and whose names they certify to the boards of supervisors of the several counties. If no person or persons present themselves for examination before said board of horticultural examiners or if after such examination no person is found qualified, the state board of horticultural examiners shall name five competent persons and certify them to the board of supervisors and from these names the board of supervisors shall, within thirty days after the receipt thereof, appoint a county horticultural commissioner, and in such event the commissioner so appointed shall hold office for the term of one year. In case of vacancy in the office of horticultural commissioner the vacancy shall be filled first from the list of eligibles certified to the board of supervisors under the provisions of this chapter, and if there be no person named on the said list of eligible persons as in this section first above provided, then said vacancy shall be filled from the list of competent persons named as in this section last above provided, and if said vacancy shall be filled from the said list of eligibles, the said person so appointed shall hold for the balance of the unexpired term, but if the said vacancy be filled from the said list of competent persons, the said person shall hold for the balance of the unexpired term. If the said unexpired term be not longer than one year, but if said unexpired term be longer than one year then such person shall not by virtue of such appointment hold longer than one year from the date of his appointment.

Vacancy

At the expiration of the term of office of the county horticultural commissioner, the state board of horticultural examiners shall submit to the board of supervisors of that county where such term shall have expired a new list of qualified persons who shall have qualified before said board of horticultural examiners by examination as provided in this section, such list to include without further examination any person who has previously qualified before the state board of horticultural examiners, and who has held office as county horticultural commissioner or deputy horticultural commissioner for a term of at least two years immediately preceding the expiration of the term of county horticultural commissioner and in the county where such term shall have expired.

New list of qualified persons.

Incumbent included.

Whenever elsewhere in the laws of this state reference is made to a county board of horticultural commissioners such reference must be understood to mean or relate to the county horticultural commissioner herein provided for and said county board of horticultural commissioners and the members thereof shall cease to exist; provided, that all county boards of horticultural commissioners existing at the time of the passage of this act shall continue in office, with full power as heretofore existing until the election or appointment to succeed them of a county horticultural commissioner under the provisions of this act.

County board of horticultural commissioners superseded.

Upon the petition of twenty-five resident freeholders each of whom is possessed of an orchard, greenhouse or nursery, the state board of horticultural examiners may disqualify a county horticultural commissioner for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office after a hearing of the petition. Such hearing must be held at the county seat of the county where such petition is filed, and notice in writing of the time and place of such hearing and a copy of the petition must be served on the accused horticultural commissioner at least ten days prior to the date of said hearing. At such hearing the state board of examiners shall hear such evidence as is offered and thereafter make an order, either sustaining or disqualifying the accused. In case of such disqualification the board of supervisors of the county where the county horticultural commissioner has been disqualified shall upon the request of the state board of horticultural examiners remove said commissioner of horticulture and shall immediately proceed to fill the said office for the unexpired term as in cases of vacancy as hereinbefore provided.

with infectious diseases, scale insects, or codlin moth, or other insect or animal pests injurious to fruits, plants, vegetables, trees or vines, or with their eggs or larvæ, or if there is found growing thereon the Russian thistle or saltwort, Johnson grass or other noxious weeds, or red rice, water-grasses or other weeds or grasses detrimental to rice culture, he shall in writing notify the owner or owners, or person or persons in charge, or in possession of the said places or orchards or nurseries, or trees or plants, vegetables, vines, or rice fields, or fields adjacent to rice fields, or canals or ditches used for the purpose of conveying water to rice fields for the irrigation thereof, or fruit, or article as aforesaid, that the same are infected or infested with said diseases, insects, animals or other pests, or any of them or their eggs or larvæ, or that the Russian thistle or saltwort, Johnson grass or other noxious weeds, or red rice, water-grasses or other weeds or grasses detrimental to rice culture, is growing thereon, and require such person or persons, to eradicate, or destroy or to control, to the satisfaction of the county horticultural commissioner the said insects, animals or other pests, or their eggs or larvæ, or Russian thistle or saltwort, Johnson grass or other noxious weeds or red rice, or water-grasses, or other weeds or grasses detrimental to rice culture, within a certain time to be therein specified. Said notices may be served upon the person or persons, or either of them, owning or having charge, or having possession of such infested place or orchard or nursery, or trees, plants, vegetables, vines, or fruit, or articles, as aforesaid, or premises where the Russian thistle or saltwort, Johnson grass or other noxious weeds or red rice, water-grasses, or other weeds or grasses detrimental to rice culture, shall be growing, or upon the agents of either, by any commissioner, or by any person deputed by the said commissioner for that purpose in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

In case infectious diseases, scale insects, codlin moth, or other insect or animal pests injurious to fruit, plants, vegetables, trees, or vines, or their eggs, or larvæ, are found to exist on trees or shrubs in public parks or along streets, highways, or other property subject to the control of a city or county government, or if there is found growing in any public park, street, highway or on other property subject to the control of a city or county government any Russian thistle, or saltwort, Johnson grass, or other noxious weeds, or red rice, water-grasses, or other weeds or grasses detrimental to rice culture, when said public park, street, highway, or other property subject to the control of the city or county government is adjacent to rice fields, or canals or ditches used for the purpose of conveying water to rice fields for the irrigation thereof, then said notice in writing shall be served on the chairman of the governing body of said city or county, and in case the work of eradication, or of control, or of destruction of the said pests, diseases, or noxious weeds in the said public parks, streets, highways, or other public property shall be performed by the county horticultural commissioner, then the cost thereof shall become a city or county charge, as the case may be, and shall be paid from the general fund of said city or county; provided, however, that if any such infected or infested articles, property or premises as hereinabove specified belong to any person who is not a resident of the county, and there is no person in control or possession thereof, and such nonresident person has no tenant, bailee, depository or agent upon whom service can be had; or if the owner or owners of any such articles, property or premises can not after due diligence be found, then such notice may be served by posting the same in some conspicuous place upon such article, property or premises, and by mailing a copy thereof to the owner thereof at his last known place of residence, if the same is known or can be ascertained; or if not known then to the county seat of the county wherein said property is situated. Any and all such places, or orchards, or nurseries, or rice fields or fields adjacent to rice fields, or canals or ditches used for the purpose of conveying water to rice fields for the irrigation thereof, or trees, plants, shrubs, vegetables, vines, fruit, or articles thus infested or infected, or premises where the Russian thistle or saltwort or Johnson grass or other noxious weeds, or red rice, water-grasses, or other weeds or grasses detrimental to rice culture, or where any squirrels, gophers or other predatory animals shall be found are hereby adjudged and declared to be a public nuisance; and whenever any such nuisance shall exist at any place within his county, and the proper notice thereof shall have been served as herein provided, and such nuisance shall not have been abated within the time specified in such notice, it shall be the duty of the county horticultural commissioner to cause said nuisance to be at once abated, by eradicating, or by controlling, or by destroying said diseases, insects, animals or other pests, or their eggs, or larvæ, or Russian thistle or saltwort, or Johnson grass or other noxious weeds, or red rice, water-grasses, or other weeds or grasses detrimental to rice culture. The expense thereof shall be a county charge, and the board of supervisors shall allow and pay the same out of the general fund of the county; any and all sum or sums so paid shall be and become a lien on the property and premises from which said nuisance has been removed or abated in pursuance of this chapter. A notice of such lien shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the said property and premises are situated within thirty days after the right to the said lien has accrued. An action to foreclose said lien shall be commenced within ninety days after the filing and recording of said notice of lien, which action shall be brought in the proper court by the district attorney of the county in the name and for the benefit of the county making such payment or payments, and when the property is sold, enough of the proceeds shall be paid into the county treasury of such county to satisfy notice filed.

Whenever a notice of eradication, or of control, or of destruction is served on any person or persons, the county horticultural commissioner may, at his option, cause a copy thereof to be filed for record in the office of the county recorder within which the said property is situated, and if the said property is encumbered with a mortgage, lien, contract, option, bond, or other encumbrance, the said county horticultural commissioner may, at his option, cause a copy thereof to be served on the person or persons holding such encumbrance.

Lien takes precedence.

Whenever a lien is filed on a piece of property for the purpose of collection of such sums as have been expended in the eradication, or in the control, or in the destruction of insects, diseases, weeds, or animals found upon such property and a copy of a notice of the eradication, or of the control, or of the destruction shall have been filed in the office of the county recorder of the county wherein such property is situated, and served on the person or persons holding any such encumbrance, as hereinabove provided, then such lien shall take precedence over and be paramount to all other liens upon the said land excepting only the lien of taxes.

Power to

The county horticultural commissioner is hereby vested with the power to cause any and all such nuisances to be at once abated in a summary manner.

Fumigators
and sprayers.

The county horticultural commissioner shall have power and authority to prescribe and enforce rules for the examination and qualification of fumigators or sprayers who desire to engage in such business for hire, and to issue certificates to all persons whom he shall find by examination or otherwise to be duly qualified for engaging in such work. Such certificate shall be revocable whenever the county horticultural commissioner shall deem such revocation necessary. No person shall be permitted to engage in the business of fumigating or spraying for hire within the State of California for the purpose of controlling or eradicating plant pests or diseases, who has not first secured a certificate in the manner herein provided.

SEC. 3. Section two thousand three hundred twenty-two c of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Record and report of commissioner.

2322c. It is the duty of the said county horticultural commissioner to keep a record of his official doings, and to make a report to the state commissioner of horticulture on or before the first day of October of each year of the condition of the horticultural interests in their several districts, what is being done to eradicate, or to control, or to destroy insect pests, also as to disinfecting, and as to quarantine against insect and other pests and diseases, and as to the carrying out of all laws relative to the greatest good of the horticultural interests, and to furnish from time to time to the state commissioner of horticulture such other information as he may require. Said state commissioner of horticulture may publish such reports in bulletin form or may incorporate so much of the same in his annual report as may be of general interest. It is also made the duty of the county horticultural commissioner to advise himself with reference to all infectious diseases, scale insects or codlin moth or other pests injurious to fruit, plants, vegetables, trees or vines, and with their eggs or larvæ and all noxious weeds or grasses or animal pests that may exist in his county or be likely to exist therein and for the purpose of so advising himself and of eradicating and preventing injury from such causes, and for the purpose of advising himself on the best and most efficacious methods of performing his duties and conducting his office he shall attend the annual meeting of the state association of county horticultural commissioners, and such other meetings as the state commissioner of horticulture shall require, and he shall be paid his per diem compensation and traveling expenses while so engaged, or while on any service that requires him to go outside the county when the performance of such service has been authorized by the board of supervisors, or the state commissioner of horticulture.

SEC. 4. Section two thousand three hundred twenty-two d of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2322*d*. The salary of inspectors working under the county horticultural commissioner is three dollars and fifty cents per day, and the necessary traveling expenses. The salary of the deputy shall be five dollars per day when in the actual performance of his duties, and the necessary traveling expenses. In the case of the commissioner himself his compensation shall be fixed by the board of supervisors, either at not less than one thousand eight hundred dollars per year, or at not less than six dollars per day when actually engaged in the performance of his duties. He shall also be allowed the necessary traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of his regular duties as prescribed in this chapter.

Salaries of inspectors, deputy and commissioner.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be numbered two thousand three hundred twenty-two f to read as follows:

2322*f*. Any person, persons, firm or corporation, who shall receive, bring, or cause to be brought into any county or locality of the State of California from another county or locality within said state any nursery stock, trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, or fruit pits, or fruit or vegetables, or seed, for the purpose of planting or propagating the same, or any or all such shipments of nursery stock, trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, or fruit pits, or fruit or vegetables, or seed or containers thereof or other orchard appliances, which the county horticultural commissioner or the state commissioner of horticulture may consider liable to be infested or infected with dangerous insect pests or plant diseases or noxious weed seeds and which if so infested or infected would constitute a dangerous menace to the orchards, farms and gardens of the county or state, shall immediately after the arrival thereof notify the county commissioner of horticulture, his deputy, or nearest inspector of the county in which such nursery stock, or fruit or vegetables, or seed, are received, of their arrival, and hold the same without unnecessarily moving or placing such articles where they may be harmful, for immediate inspection by such county commissioner of horticulture, his deputy, inspector, or deputy quarantine officer or guardian.

SEC. 6. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be numbered two thousand three hundred twenty-two g and to read as follows:

Marking of shipments.

2322*g*. Each carload, case, package, crate, bale, or bundle of trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, fruit pits, or fruit or vegetables, or seed, imported or brought into any county of the State of California from another county within said state for planting or propagation purposes, shall have plainly and legibly marked thereon in a conspicuous manner and place, the name and address of the shipper, owner or owners, or person forwarding or shipping same, and also the name of the person, firm or corporation to whom the same is forwarded or shipped, or his or its responsible agents. A manifest showing the contents of each shipment, also the name of the locality where the contents were grown and a statement of the contents therein shall be made to the county horticultural commissioner having jurisdiction at the point of destination when shipment is made.

CHAPTER 509.

An act to amend sections two thousand three hundred nineteen, two thousand three hundred nineteen a, two thousand three hundred nineteen b, two thousand three hundred nineteen c, two thousand three hundred nineteen d, two thousand three hundred nineteen e and two thousand three hundred nineteen j of the Political Code; to add sections two thousand three hundred nineteen k and two thousand three hundred nineteen l as new sections to the Political Code, relating to the state commissioner of horticulture and prescribing the powers, duties and compensation of said state commissioner of horticulture and the officers and employees appointed by said commissioner and providing methods, means and penalties for the enforcement of such powers and duties, and providing for the appointment of additional officers, fixing their compensation and prescribing their duties.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand three hundred nineteen of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

State
commissioner of horticulture.

2319. The state commissioner of horticulture of California shall be a citizen and resident of this state, and his term shall be for four years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. The governor may remove such commissioner from office at any time upon filing with the secretary of state a certificate of removal signed by the governor. In the case of vacancy in said office by death, resignation, removal from office, or other cause the governor shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. In appointing such commissioner and his successor or successors, it shall be the duty of the governor to disregard political affiliations, and to be guided in his selection entirely by the professional and moral qualifications of the person so selected for the performance of the duties of said office. Said commissioner shall be a civil executive officer. The salary of said commissioner shall be four thousand dollars per annum, and he shall be allowed his traveling and incidental expenses necessary in the discharge of his duties.

Salary.

For the direction and accomplishment of his work the said commissioner may and is hereby empowered to appoint certain deputies, secretary, quarantine officers, superintendents, assistants, and clerk as hereinafter provided, who shall hold office at the pleasure of said commissioner and perform any and all duties pertaining to their office or employment which the said commissioner may require of each of them, and may be removed from office or position at any time by said commissioner filing with the secretary of state a certificate signed by said commissioner so removing such deputy, secretary, quarantine officer, superintendent, assistant, or clerk. The traveling and other necessary expenses incurred by the officers and employees herein provided for in the performance of their duties shall be paid from the funds appropriated for the support of the office of the state commissioner of horticulture. Said commissioner may arrange his office into three divisions, to wit: executive office, quarantine division, insectary and pathological division.

Said commissioner shall appoint a deputy commissioner who shall be an expert entomologist and horticulturist, and who shall perform such duties as may be required of him by said commissioner, and shall be acting commissioner in the absence of the commissioner. Such deputy commissioner shall receive a salary of two thousand seven hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner shall appoint two field deputies, each of whom shall be versed in horticulture and have a practical knowledge of the methods of control of insect pests and plant diseases. Said field deputies shall receive a salary of two thousand dollars per annum each. Said commissioner shall appoint a secretary who shall be a civil executive officer. Said secretary shall perform all such duties as may be required of him by said commissioner. Such secretary shall receive a salary of two thousand seven hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner shall appoint a clerk whose salary shall be one thousand six hundred dollars per annum. The main office of such commissioner shall be at the city of Sacramento.

The secretary of state shall furnish and set aside at the capitol rooms suitable for offices for said commissioner, and if the secretary of state shall make and file an affidavit with the said commissioner stating that it is not possible for him, as such secretary of state, to provide and set aside an office for said commissioner in the capitol or in any state building under his control, because there is no such office or rooms available, then, and after the making and delivery of such affidavit to such commissioner, the said commissioner may rent rooms convenient and suitable for his offices at a rental not to exceed one thousand dollars per year. The office of said commissioner shall be kept open every day except holidays. Said commissioner may also keep and maintain an office in the city and county of San Francisco adequate to the purposes and requirements of the quarantine division, at a yearly rental not to exceed the sum of seven hundred fifty dollars. Said commissioner shall appoint a chief deputy quarantine officer, who shall be a skilled entomologist and particularly conversant with the nature of foreign insect pests and plant diseases and effective means of preventing their introduction, and shall have charge of the work of the quarantine division provided for in this section of this act. Such chief deputy quarantine officer shall receive a salary of two thousand seven hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner shall appoint two deputy quarantine officers who shall be competent entomologists for the purpose of quarantine work. Such deputy quarantine officers shall each receive a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner shall also properly maintain and operate the state insectary located on the state capitol grounds in Sacramento from funds provided by law for such purpose, and shall appoint for the work of the insectary division a superintendent of the insectary, who shall be an expert entomologist able to perform all the necessary duties with reference to the importation, rearing and distribution of beneficial insects. The salary of the superintendent of the state insectary shall be two thousand seven hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner shall appoint an assistant superintendent of the insectary, who shall be an economic entomologist, at a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner shall appoint a field deputy for the insectary division, who shall be a practical entomologist and whose salary shall be one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum. The salaries of all the officers above mentioned shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the salaries of other state officers. Said commissioner may also appoint such assistants from time to time as may be required and such assistants shall receive such reasonable compensation as may be fixed by said commissioner.

SEC. 2. Section two thousand three hundred nineteen a of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duties of commissioner of

2319*a*. It shall be the duty of the state commissioner of horticulture to promote and protect the plant industry of the state; to prevent the introduction and spread of injurious insect or animal pests, plant diseases and noxious weeds; to cause to be put into execution such horticultural laws of a regulatory nature as are written into the statutes, and to introduce and distribute such insects as are useful in reducing the cost of crop production. Such commissioner shall collect books, pamphlets and periodicals and other documents containing information relating to horticulture and shall preserve the same; collect statistics and other information showing the actual condition and progress of horticulture in this state and elsewhere; correspond with horticultural societies, colleges and schools, and with the county horticultural commissioners existing or that may exist in this state, and with all other persons necessary to secure the best results to horticulture in this state. He shall require reports from county horticultural commissioners in this state, and may print the same or any part thereof as he may select, either in the form of bulletins or in his annual reports or both, as he shall deem proper. He shall issue and cause to be printed and distributed to county horticultural commissioners in this state, and to such other persons as he may deem proper, bulletins or statements containing all the information best adapted to advance the interest, business and development of horticulture in this state. Such commissioner shall be deemed to be the state horticultural quarantine officer mentioned in that certain act entitled "An act for the protection of horticulture and to prevent the introduction into this state of insects, or diseases, or animals injurious to fruit or fruit trees, vines, bushes or vegetables, and to provide for a quarantine for the enforcement of this act," which became a law under constitutional provisions without the governor's approval on March 11, 1899, for the purposes of that act, and shall be empowered to perform the duties which under that act are to be performed by the state horticultural quarantine officer; provided, that in any case where it shall become necessary in the judgment of the state commissioner of horticulture to quarantine a county or district within the state against another or other county or counties or districts within the state, or to quarantine the state or a county or district of the state against another state or a foreign country or countries then it shall be necessary that said quarantine shall be made by and with the approval of the governor as provided in this chapter.

certificate of inspection signed by such commissioner or in his name by such deputy who has made such inspection. All approvals by the governor given or made pursuant to this act shall be in writing and signed by the governor in duplicate, and one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and the other in the office of said commissioner before such approval shall take effect.

SEC. 4. Section two thousand three hundred nineteen c of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Quarantine against plant diseases,
etc.

2319*c*. Upon information received by such commissioner of the existence of any infectious plant disease, insect, or animal or weed pest, dangerous to any article, or to the interests of horticulture within this state, or that there is a probability of the introduction of any such infectious plant diseases, insect or animal or weed or other pests, into this state or across the boundaries thereof, he shall proceed to thoroughly investigate the same and may establish, maintain and enforce quarantine as hereinbefore provided, with such regulations as may be necessary to circumscribe and exterminate, eradicate or control such infectious plant diseases, insects or weed or other pests, and prevent the extension thereof, and is hereby authorized to enter upon any ground or premises to inspect the same or to inspect any tree, shrub, plant, vine, cutting, graft, scion, bud, fruit-pit, fruit, seed, vegetable or other article of horticulture or implement thereof or box or package pertaining thereto, or connected therewith or that has been used in packing, shipping or handling the same, and to open any such package, and generally to do, with the least injury possible under the conditions to property or business, all acts and things necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter; and provided, further, that no quarantine shall be established, maintained or enforced for the protection of nurseries, trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, fruit-pits, fruit, seeds, vegetables or other articles of horticulture, against contagion or infection by injurious disease, insects or pests, except by such commissioner and in the manner in this section provided.

SEC. 5. Section two thousand three hundred nineteen d of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Pests to be reported to county horticultural commissioners.

2319*d*. Upon the discovery of any infectious plant disease, injurious insects or weed or other pests, such commissioner shall immediately report the same to such quarantine guardians or county horticultural commissioners of the counties wherein such discovery is made, together with a statement as to the best known means or method for circumscribing, exterminating, eradicating or controlling the same, and shall state therein specifically what treatment or method should be applied in each case, as the matter may require, with a detailed statement or prescription as to the method of making or procuring and of applying any preparation or treatment so recommended therefor, and the time and duration for such treatment, and if chemicals or articles be required other than those usually obtainable in any town, the place or places where they are most readily to be obtained; and upon the receipt of such statement by any quarantine guardian or county horticultural commissioner it shall be the duty of such quarantine guardian or county horticultural commissioner to distribute such statement in written or printed form to every person owning or having charge or possession of any orchard, nursery stock, tree, shrub, plant, fruits or other article of horticulture within their county, where there may be or is likely to be any danger to the interests of horticulture, and such a statement must be served with or be a part of the notice to be given to the owner or owners or person or persons, in possession of any orchard, nursery, tree, shrub, plant, fruits or other articles of horticulture, referred to, provided for, and required to be served in and by section two thousand three hundred twenty-two a of the Political Code of the State of California.

CHAPTER 510.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered one thousand seven hundred sixty-four a, providing a rule for the selection and designation of guardians of the person and estate, or person or estate, of insane or incompetent persons.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered one thousand seven hundred sixty-four a, and to read as follows:

Appointment as guardian.

1764*a*. In awarding letters of guardianship of the person and estate, or person or estate, of an insane or incompetent person, the court shall appoint as guardian such person as may have been designated pursuant to section two hundred forty-two of the Civil Code, in which cases such persons shall be appointed unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

CHAPTER 511.

An act to add a new section to the Civil Code, to be numbered two hundred forty-two, providing in certain cases for the appointment by will or deed of guardians for the person and estate, or person or estate, of insane or incompetent persons.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code, to be numbered two hundred forty-two, and to read as follows:

242. A guardian of the person or estate, or of both, of an insane or incompetent person may be appointed by will or deed, to take effect upon the death of the person appointing: Appointment by will or deed of guardian.

1. If the insane or incompetent person be unmarried, or be a person whose marriage has been annulled or dissolved by death or divorce, by the father, with the written consent of the mother, or by either parent if the other be dead or incapable of consent.

2. If the insane or incompetent person be married and a person whose marriage has not been annulled or dissolved by divorce, then by the spouse.

CHAPTER 512.

An act relating to the employment of janitors and employees of certain school districts.

[Approved May 17, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In any school district situated wholly within the boundaries of a city of the first class the janitors and other employees of such school district shall be employed in the same manner and under the same conditions as teachers are employed by such district and when so employed shall be removed only for cause and after charges have been filed and heard by the board of education. All such employees who have been in the service of any such school district continuously for a period of one year prior to the effective date of this act shall be deemed to have been so employed. The board of education shall have full power to make and enforce all necessary rules and regulations to carry out these provisions. Employment of janitors and employees.

CHAPTER 513.

An act to regulate the taking and harvesting of kelp and other aquatic plants of the State of California by recognizing and declaring their ownership in the State of California and providing for the control thereof by the fish and game commissioners, and providing for a license tax upon all persons, firms or corporations engaged in the industry of taking or harvesting kelp or other aquatic plants, and providing for the collection and disbursement of the revenues derived therefrom, and providing for a privilege tax upon all kelp taken in the waters of this state, and providing for the protection of kelp beds, and for the manner of taking kelp and other aquatic plants, and providing for hearings by the fish and game commissioners, and providing penalties for the violation of this act.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Kelp state property.

SECTION 1. All kelp and other aquatic plants in the waters of the state are hereby declared to be the property of the State of California.

Powers of board of fish and game commissioners.

SEC. 2. The board of fish and game commissioners of the State of California are hereby empowered to carry out the provisions of this act, and to make proper rules and regulations for the taking and harvesting of kelp, and the conservation of kelp and aquatic plants, and to see that the laws, rules and regulations with reference thereto are strictly enforced, and to issue all licenses herein provided for, and collect the fees therefor, and to collect all moneys due or to become due under this act.

License to harvest kelp.

SEC. 3. Every person, firm or corporation, desiring to engage in taking or harvesting kelp or other aquatic plants for profit in the waters of this state must first obtain a license before engaging in such occupation.

Term.

SEC. 4. Licenses granting the privilege to take or harvest kelp in this state shall be issued and delivered upon application by the state board of fish and game commissioners, who shall prepare suitable licenses, which shall license the holder of such license to take or harvest kelp or other aquatic plants in this state for the term of one year from the date of the issuance of such license. All licenses shall be numbered consecutively, and shall contain blanks for the name of the licensee, and place of business, which information shall be furnished by the applicant to the board of fish and game commissioners. The license herein provided for shall be issued to such applicant upon payment of ten dollars and before such license is delivered to the applicant said license must be countersigned by the president of the board of fish and game commissioners, and in addition to such license fee every person, firm or corporation taking or harvesting kelp shall pay a privilege tax of one and one-half cents per ton of wet kelp taken or harvested.

Fee.

Privilege
tax.

SEC. 5. Every person, firm or corporation engaged in taking or harvesting kelp in the waters of this state shall cause to be weighed, all wet kelp immediately after said kelp shall be delivered to the place of business designated in said license, and the weight thereof shall be entered in a book, or books, to be kept by said person, firm or corporation. said book or books to be open at all times to the inspection of the board of fish and game commissioners, or any of its deputies; every person, firm or corporation engaged in taking or harvesting kelp shall on or before the tenth day after the last day of each month during the term of said license, render a statement of the weight of all wet kelp cut or harvested during the preceding month, and pay to the board of fish and game commissioners, the privilege tax herein provided for.

harvested.

SEC. 6. If at any time the taking or harvesting of kelp will tend to destroy or impair any kelp bed or beds or parts thereof, or shall tend to impair or destroy the supply of any food for game fish, said fish and game commission shall cause to be served on every person, firm or corporation, licensed to take or harvest kelp in the waters of this state, a notice in writing that said kelp bed or beds or parts thereof shall be closed to the taking or harvesting of kelp for a period not to exceed one year. Within ten days after the service upon any person, firm or corporation licensed to take or harvest kelp under the provisions of this act, of a notice that any kelp bed or beds or parts thereof are closed to the taking or harvesting of kelp, said person, firm or corporation may demand a hearing upon the necessity for making such order, by serving on the board of fish and game commissioners a demand to be heard upon the necessity for closing said kelp bed or beds or parts thereof for the taking or harvesting of kelp, and upon such demand for a hearing, said board of fish and game commissioners shall fix a time and place for the taking of evidence upon the necessity of closing said bed or beds or parts thereof, which time shall be not less than ten days nor more than thirty days from the date of such demand for a hearing, and said fish and game commission shall cause notices in writing of said time and place to be served upon the party or parties making a demand for said hearing at least ten days before the day set for the hearing, and if no demand is made for a hearing within the time prescribed herein, said kelp bed or beds or parts thereof shall remain closed to the taking or harvesting of kelp for the time mentioned in said order.

Notice of closing kelp beds.

Hearing.

Complaint may be made by the commission or any of its deputies against any person, firm or corporation licensed to cut or harvest kelp in the waters of this state for any violation of the laws of this state, or any rules or regulations made by the board of fish and game commissioners for the taking or harvesting of kelp. Said complaints shall be made in writing, setting forth the particular offense charged to have been committed by said person, firm or corporation, a copy of which shall be filed with the board of fish and game commissioners and a copy of the same served upon the person, firm or corporation so charged. Said person, firm or corporation must appear or file an answer within five days from the date of service of a copy of said complaint, and if default be made, the board of fish and game commissioners shall issue an order revoking said license for the period hereinafter prescribed in this act, and said board of fish and game commissioners shall fix a time and place for the hearing of said charges, not less than ten days nor more than thirty days from the filing of said charges, and if the party accused appears and answers, a day may be fixed within the time prescribed in this act to take testimony. The evidence in any investigation, inquiry or hearing upon the necessity for closing any kelp bed or beds or parts thereof and the evidence in any hearing upon any charges made against any person, firm or corporation for violating any of the laws of the State of California for the preservation of kelp, or of the rules and regulations of the board of fish and game commissioners regulating the taking and harvesting and handling of kelp provided for in this section may be taken by any member of the board of fish and game commissioners, or such deputy fish and game commissioner or employee as the board may designate to take such evidence; and each member of the board and any of its deputies or employees designated to take evidence at the hearing provided hereby shall have the power to administer oaths, take affidavits and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses at such hearing. Each witness legally subpoenaed attending a hearing shall receive for his attendance the same fees and mileage allowed by law to a witness in civil cases, which amount shall be paid by the party at whose request such witness is subpoenaed. The superior court in and for the county or city and county in which any inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding may be held under authority of this section, shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, the giving of testimony and the production of papers, as required by any subpoena issued under authority of this section.

The commission or representative of the commission before whom the testimony is to be given or produced may in the case of refusal of any witness to attend, or testify or produce any papers required by such subpoena, report to the superior court in and for the county or city and county in which the proceeding is pending by petition setting forth that due notice has been given of the time and place of the attendance of said witness or the production of said papers and that the witness has been summoned in the manner prescribed in this act and that the witness has failed and refused to attend or produce the papers required by the subpoena before the commission or its representatives, in the case or proceeding named in the notice of time and place of hearing and subpoena, or has refused to answer questions propounded to him in the course of said proceeding, and ask an order of said court to compel the witness to attend and testify or produce said papers before the commission or its representatives.

The court upon the petition of the commission or its representatives, shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at any time and place to be fixed by the court in such order, the time to be not more than ten days from the date of the order, and then and there show cause why he has not attended and testified or produced said papers before the commission or its representative. A copy of said order shall be served upon said witness. If it shall appear to the court that said subpoena was regularly issued by the commission or its representative the court shall thereupon enter an order that said witness shall appear before the commission or its representatives at the time and place entered in said order, and testify or produce the required papers, and upon failure to obey said order said witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court.

Order of court.

The commission or its representatives, or any party designated by the fish and game commission may, in any investigation or hearing before the commission, or its representatives, cause the deposition of witnesses, residing within or without the state, to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior courts of this state, and to that end may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and papers.

Deposition of witnesses.

SEC. 7. If any person, firm or corporation, taking or harvesting kelp from any bed or beds or parts thereof, after service of a notice that said bed or beds or parts thereof are closed to the taking or harvesting of kelp, takes or harvests any kelp between the time of the service of said notice and the decision of the board of fish and game commissioners upon the hearing for the necessity for closing said kelp bed or beds or parts thereof, his license may be revoked for a period not to exceed one year.

Revocation of license.

SEC. 8. If any person, firm or corporation, licensed to take or harvest kelp in the waters of this state shall violate any of the laws of the State of California, regulating the taking and harvesting of kelp, or any rule or regulation of the board of fish and game commissioners regarding the taking or harvesting of kelp, said board of fish and game commissioners may, after a hearing, as provided herein, revoke said license and withhold the issuance of a new license to any such person, firm or corporation for a period not to exceed one year thereafter.

Revocation of license.

SEC. 9. Every person, firm or corporation, who takes or harvests kelp or other aquatic plants for profit in this state, without first obtaining a license therefor, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail, in the county in which conviction shall be had for not less than fifty days nor more than one hundred and fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Fines paid to "state university fund."

All fines and forfeitures collected for any violation of this act and all license fees and two-thirds of the moneys collected from the privilege tax under this act must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund and one-third of the moneys collected from the privilege tax under this act must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the "state university fund." The amount so paid to the "state university fund" in accordance with the direction of this section, is hereby appropriated to be expended annually in accordance with law by the Scripps Institute for Biological Research.

License not required, when.

SEC. 10. The fish and game commission of this state shall have the power, subject to such rules and regulations as it may deem proper, to grant permits to any department of the United States government or to any scientific or any educational institution to take or harvest kelp at any and all times for scientific or experimental purposes without the payment of the kelp license or privilege tax herein provided.

Repealed.

SEC. 11. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code, to be numbered six hundred twenty-six u, relating to the protection of game.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered six hundred twenty-six u, and to read as follows:

626u. Any person lawfully killing a deer during the open season may ship such entire deer to any part of the state during the open season for the killing of deer in the district in which the animal is killed, provided that an affidavit is made before a justice of the peace or notary public, in which affidavit is set Affidavit
shipping
deer.

forth the date and place of killing, the name and address, the number of hunting license of the party killing and shipping the deer, the name and address of the party to whom the deer is shipped. The original of this affidavit must immediately be filed with the fish and game commission in San Francisco, a copy attached to the carcass of the deer shipped and a copy left on file with the notary public or justice of the peace before whom the affidavit is made. After such deer is received in the district in which the season is closed, if it is desired to distribute it to two or more persons, the receiver must at once file with the fish and game commission a list of the persons receiving any part of the said deer.

Penalty.

Every person failing to comply with the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail, in the county in which the conviction shall be had, of not less than twenty-five days, nor more than one hundred and fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and all fines and forfeitures imposed or collected for any violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be paid into the state treasury, to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund.

CHAPTER 520.

An act to amend section six hundred thirty-seven a of the Penal Code, relating to the killing of birds other than game.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred thirty-seven a, of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Protection
of wild birds.

637a. Every person in the State of California who shall at any time kill or catch, or have in his possession, living or dead, any wild bird other than a game bird, or who shall purchase, offer or expose for sale, transport or ship within or out of the state, any such wild bird after it has been killed or caught, except as permitted by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. No part of the plumage, skin or body of any bird protected by this section shall be sold or had in possession for sale, irrespective of whether said bird was captured or killed within or without the state. For the purpose of this act the following only shall be considered game birds: The Anatidæ, commonly known as swans, geese, brant and river and sea ducks; the Rallidæ, commonly known as rails, coots and gallinules; the Limicolæ, commonly known as shore birds, plover surf birds, snipe, sandpipers, tattlers and curlews; the Gallinæ, commonly known as wild turkeys, grouse, prairie chicken, enumerated.

Game birds

pheasants, partridges, and quails; and the species of Columbidae, known as wild pigeons and doves. All other species of wild birds either resident or migratory shall be considered nongame birds; provided, that the English or European house sparrow, the great horned owl, sharp-shinned hawk, Cooper's hawk, duck hawk, butcher bird, bluejay, housefinch, commonly known as the California linnnet, are not included among the birds protected by this act; and provided, further, that in fish and game district one, in fish and game district two and fish and game district three the blackbird is not included among the birds protected by this act; provided, further, that nothing in this section shall prohibit the killing of a robin, or other wild bird by the owner or tenant of any premises where such bird is found destroying berries, fruit or crops growing on such premises, but the birds so killed shall not be shipped or sold; and nothing in this act shall prevent a citizen of California from taking or keeping any wild nongame bird as a domestic pet if such bird shall not be sold or offered for sale, or transported out of the state, a permit to keep the same having first been obtained from the state board of fish and game commissioners.

CHAPTER 521.

An act to amend section three hundred nine of the Civil Code, relating to dividends of corporations.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred nine of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

309. Unless they shall have been first permitted or authorized so to do by the commissioner of corporations, directors of corporations must not make dividends except from the surplus profits arising from the business thereof; nor must they create any debts beyond their subscribed capital stock; nor must they divide, withdraw, or pay to the stockholders, or any of them, any part of the capital stock, except as hereinafter provided, nor reduce or increase the capital stock, except as provided in section three hundred fifty-nine of this code. For a violation of the provisions of this section, the directors under whose administration the same may have happened (except those who may have caused their dissent therefrom to be entered at large on the minutes of the directors at the time, or were not present when the same did happen) are, in their individual or private capacity, jointly and severally liable to the corporation, and to the creditors thereof, to the full amount of the capital stock so divided, withdrawn, paid out, or reduced or debt contracted. Nothing herein prohibits a division and

Limitations
on directors of corporations.

Liability.

distribution of the capital stock of any corporation which remains after the payment of all its debts, upon its dissolution, or the expiration of its term of existence.

Pending rights not affected.

SEC. 2. No right, cause of action, or liability now existing or any action or proceeding now pending, shall be affected by this act and such right, cause of action or liability may be enforced and such action or proceeding may be prosecuted in the same manner and with the same effect as if this act had not been passed; excepting only the liability of a director of a corporation heretofore incurred shall not exist in any case where, all of the debts and liabilities of the corporation to creditors having been paid, the capital stock divided, withdrawn, or paid out constituted all of the capital stock of the corporation and the same was paid out, withdrawn, or divided with the consent of all of the stockholders to or among themselves.

CHAPTER 522.

An act defining industrial loan companies, providing for their incorporation, powers and supervision.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

"Industrial loan company."

SECTION 1. The term "industrial loan company" as used in this act means any corporation which in the regular course of its business loans money and issues its own choses in action under the provisions of this act.

Incorporation.

SEC. 2. Corporations may be incorporated under and by virtue of this act in the same manner as corporations under and by virtue of chapter one of title one of part four, division first of the Civil Code, except as otherwise herein provided.

Capital stock.

SEC. 3. The capital stock of any corporation incorporated under the provisions of this act shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars in any city having a population of twenty-five thousand inhabitants or more and less than fifty thousand; and shall not be less than fifty thousand dollars in any city having fifty thousand or more inhabitants, and less than one hundred thousand; and shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars in any city having one hundred thousand or more inhabitants, according to the last official census. The capital stock of any such corporation shall be divided into shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each. Before the articles of incorporation of any corporation, incorporated under the provisions of this act, are filed, there must be paid in cash for the benefit of the corporation to a treasurer, elected by the subscribers, not less than twenty-five per cent of the amount of the capital stock; the balance of the capital stock shall be paid in cash to the corporation at the rate of not less than ten per cent per month, following the initial payment. No corporation organized hereunder shall create more than one class of stock.

Shares.

Capital stock paid.

SEC. 4. Every corporation under the provisions of this act shall have power:

Powers of corporation.

First—To loan money on personal security, or otherwise, and to deduct interest therefor in advance at the rate of six per cent per annum, or less, and, in addition, to receive and to require uniform weekly or monthly installments on its certificates of investment, purchased by the borrower simultaneously with the said loan transaction, or otherwise, and pledged with the corporation as security for the said loan, with or without an allowance of interest on such installments.

Second—To sell or negotiate choses in action for the payment of money at any time, either fixed or uncertain, and to receive payments therefor in installments or otherwise, with or without an allowance of interest upon such installments. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize corporations hereunder to receive deposits or to issue certificates of deposit. The issuance of choses in action herein authorized shall be approved as to form by the commissioner of corporations and shall bear the endorsement on the face of the instrument "This is not a certificate of deposit."

Third—To charge for a loan, made pursuant to this section, one dollar for every fifty dollars, or fraction thereof loaned, for expenses, including any examination or investigation of the character and circumstances of the borrower, and the drawing and taking acknowledgment of any papers, or other expenses incurred in making the loan. No charge shall be collected unless a loan shall have been made, and in no case shall such charge exceed five dollars.

Fourth—To establish branch offices, or places of business, within the county in which its principal place of business is located, but not elsewhere.

In addition to the powers herein enumerated, every corporation, under the provisions of this act, shall have the general powers conferred upon corporations by chapter three, title one, part four, division first, of the Civil Code, except as herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 5. No corporation under the provisions of this act shall:

Limitations on corporations.

(a) Hold at any one time the obligation or obligations of any person, firm or corporation, for more than two per cent of the amount of the capital and surplus of such industrial loan company.

(b) Make any loan, under the provisions of this act, for a longer period than one year from the date thereof.

(c) Deposit any of its funds with any other moneyed corporation, unless such corporation has been designated as such depository by a vote of the majority of the directors or of the executive committee, exclusive of any director who is an officer, director or trustee of the depository so designated.

(d) Invest any of its funds, otherwise than as herein authorized, except in such investments as are by law legal investments for savings banks, or in the choses in action issued by any other corporation organized under this act.

(e) Have outstanding at any time its investment certificates in an aggregate sum in excess of ten times the aggregate amount of its paid up capital, exclusive of those hypothecated with the company issuing them.

Holding
real estate.

SEC. 6. Every corporation, under the provisions of this act, may purchase, hold and convey real estate for the following purposes, but for no other:

First—Such as shall be conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business.

Second—Such as it shall purchase at sale under judgments, decrees or mortgage foreclosures under securities held by it, but no such corporation shall bid at any such sale a larger amount than shall be necessary to satisfy its debt and costs.

Real estate shall be conveyed under the corporate seal of such corporation and the hand of its president or vice president and manager or treasurer. No real estate acquired in the cases contemplated above shall be held for a longer period than five years. Parcels of such real estate not sold within said time may be purchased by any person wanting the same, upon the conditions and proceedings provided in section fifty-four of "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909.

Dividends.

SEC. 7. The directors of every corporation, under the provisions of this act, may at certain times and in such manner as its by-laws prescribe, declare and pay dividends to the stockholders of such corporation, of so much of the net profits of the corporation as may be appropriated for that purpose under its by-laws, but before any such dividend is declared, not less than ten per cent of the net profits of such corporation for the preceding half year, or for such period as is covered by the dividend, shall be carried to its surplus until such surplus shall amount to twenty-five per cent of the paid up capital stock.

Certificates
of investment issued not creation of debt.

SEC. 8. Issuing certificates of investment and the like in the transaction of the business of corporations under the provisions of this act shall not be construed to be the creation of debt within the meaning of the phrase "create debt" in section three hundred nine of the Civil Code nor of "indebtedness" within the meaning of the phrase "the capital stock can not be diminished to an amount less than the indebtedness of the corporation" in section three hundred fifty-nine of the Civil Code, except that no company organized hereunder shall reduce its capital stock to an amount less than is required by this act to be maintained by such company or less than any indebtedness of such company other than such investment certificates.

SEC. 9. Corporations, under the provisions of this act, shall be taxed the same as other general corporations. Taxed.

SEC. 10. Corporations under the provisions of this act shall be subject to the provisions and regulations of "An act to define investment companies, investment brokers and agents; to provide for the regulation, supervision and licensing thereof; to provide penalties for the violation thereof; to create the office of commissioner of corporations and making an appropriation therefor," approved May twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred thirteen, and any additions or amendments thereto. Subject to investment companies act.

SEC. 11. If it shall appear to the commissioner of corporations that any company hereunder has violated or failed to comply with the provisions of its articles of incorporation, or any law of this state, or whenever it shall appear from the report of any company hereunder, or the commissioner shall have reason to conclude, that the capital of any company hereunder is impaired or reduced below the amount required by law, he may, by an order under his hand and official seal, addressed to such company, direct such company to discontinue such violation and to comply with the law, or to make good the deficiency or impairment of capital alleged by him to exist within sixty days after the date of such requisition; or Order to discontinue violation of law.

If it shall appear to the commissioner that such company is conducting business in an unsafe or injurious manner, he may, in like manner, direct the discontinuance of any such unsafe or injurious practices. Such orders shall require such company to show cause, before the commissioner, at a time and place to be fixed by him, why said order should not be observed. If upon such hearing it shall appear to the commissioner that such order should be made final he shall proceed to do so, and such company shall immediately comply with such order made by the commissioner of corporations. Order to discontinue unsafe practices.

Such company shall have ten days after any such order is made final in which suit may be commenced to restrain enforcement of such order and unless such action be so commenced and enforcement of such order be enjoined within ten days by the court in which such suit is brought, then such company shall comply with such order. Suit to restrain enforcement.

Upon failure of any company to comply with such order or if any such company shall refuse to submit its books, papers and concerns to the inspection or examination of the commissioner of corporations, or to any one authorized by him to make such examination, or if any officer of such company shall refuse to be examined upon oath touching the concerns of such company, or if any such company shall neglect or refuse to observe any order made by the commissioner of corporations pursuant to his supervision as authorized by this act, the commissioner of corporations may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such company and retain such possession until such company shall resume business or its affairs be finally liquidated. On taking possession Commissioner of corporations may take possession of property.

of the property and business of any such company, the commissioner of corporations may proceed to liquidate the same in the manner provided by the bank act.

Powers of commissioner of corporations not affected.

SEC. 12. Nothing in this act contained shall be deemed or construed as a limitation or restriction of or as in any way affecting the power or discretion of the commissioner of corporations, under the investment companies act or any other statute now or hereafter in effect, to issue a permit authorizing any corporation under the provisions of this act to issue and dispose of choses in action in such amounts and upon such terms and conditions as he may in such permit provide and to impose such conditions as he may deem necessary to the issue of such securities and to establish such rules and regulations as may be reasonable or necessary to insure the disposition of the proceeds of such securities in the manner and for the purposes provided in such permit and from time to time for cause to amend, alter or revoke any permit issued by him or to refuse to issue such permit or otherwise authorize the issue of such securities.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to regulate the issuance of licenses for resale to hunters and anglers," approved May 20, 1915, relating to the sale of hunting and fishing licenses, and providing for the execution of bonds by the persons selling the same and the payment of the premiums thereon.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to regulate the issuance of licenses for resale to hunters and anglers," approved May 20, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915,
p. 685.

Section 1. Licenses granting the privilege to take, catch, hunt or kill fishes, wild mammals or wild birds shall be issued and delivered, upon application in writing, by the county clerk of any of the counties of the state, or by the state board of fish and game commissioners, or by the persons duly appointed and authorized by any such county clerk or the board of fish and game commissioners.

Who may issue
hunting and fishing licenses.

Sec. 2. For each license sold, registered and accounted for by any person, except by a fish and game commissioner or a deputy or assistant fish and game commissioner paid a salary in full for his services to the state, he shall be allowed as compensation, for his own use, out of the fish and game preservation fund, ten per cent of the amount or amounts accounted for by him.

Compensation for sale of licenses.

Sec. 3. Every person authorized to issue and sell licenses under the provisions of this act shall, when required by said board of fish and game commissioners, execute to the fish and game commission a good and sufficient bond in a sum equal to the value of such licenses so delivered to such person to be sold as herein provided, to secure the faithful accounting and payment to the fish and game commission of the funds collected from the sale of such licenses and the faithful performance of the duties imposed upon him by this act, and said board of fish and game commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to pay the premium on such bond out of the fish and game preservation fund.

Bond.

CHAPTER 525.

An act to amend section six hundred twenty-eight b of the Penal Code, relating to the protection of fish.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred twenty-eight b of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Protection
of perch, sunfish,
etc.

628b. Every person who at any time, except with hook and line and in the manner commonly known as angling, takes, catches or kills any black bass, Sacramento perch, crappie, calico bass or any variety of sunfish, or has in his possession more than twenty-five black bass, Sacramento perch, crappie, calico bass or any variety of sunfish, during one calendar day, or who takes, catches, kills or has in his possession any black bass less than seven inches in length, or who buys, sells, offers or exposes for sale any black bass, Sacramento perch, crappie, calico bass or any variety of sunfish: every person who in any fish and game district, between the first day of December and the thirtieth day of April of the year following, both dates inclusive, takes, catches, kills or has in his possession any black bass, Sacramento perch, crappie, calico bass or any variety of sunfish, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Exception.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the taking of black bass at any time in any lake exceeding seventy-five square miles in area within the boundaries of fish and game district number two, or prohibit the possession within the boundaries of fish and game district number two, of black bass taken in such lake or lakes.

Protection
of catfish.

Every person who, at any time, has in his possession for sale, or sells, or offers for sale, any catfish, between the fifteenth day of May and the fourteenth day of August, inclusive, of any year, or who at any time has in his possession for sale, or sells, or offers for sale, any dressed catfish, which shall measure less than seven inches in length, exclusive of any part of the head, or who at any time has in his possession for sale, or sells, or offers for sale, any undressed catfish less than nine inches in length, or who retains any catfish in live cars or boats that do not measure nine inches in length, or who at any time, within a period of five years, kills or has in his possession any sturgeon, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Exception.

Nothing in this section, or elsewhere in this code, shall prohibit the state fish and game commission, or persons authorized by it, from taking at all times such fish as they may deem necessary for scientific purposes, or for purposes of propagation.

CHAPTER 526.

An act to amend section six hundred thirty-three of the Penal Code, relating to the protection of fish.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred thirty-three of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

633. Every person found guilty of any violation of any of the provisions of this section must be fined in a sum not less than twenty dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail, in the county in which the conviction shall be had, not less than ten days, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment, and all fines collected for any violation of any of the provisions of this section must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish commission fund. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the fish commission of this state from taking at all times such golden trout as they deem necessary for the purpose of propagation or for scientific purposes.

Protection
of golden trout.

CHAPTER 527.

An act to amend the Penal Code by adding thereto a new section, to be numbered one thousand one hundred sixty-eight, relating to indeterminate sentences of persons convicted of criminal offenses, and to provide for the determination of such sentences and the release of such persons from custody.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered section one thousand one hundred sixty-eight and to read as follows:

1168. (a) Every person convicted of a public offense, for which public offense punishment by imprisonment in any reformatory or the state prison is now prescribed by law, if

Term of imprisonment not fixed.

such convicted person shall not be placed on probation, a new trial granted, or imposing of sentence suspended, shall be sentenced to be confined in the state prison, but the court in imposing such sentence shall not fix the term or duration of the period of imprisonment.

Maximum
and minimum
term.

(b) It is hereby made the duty of the warden of the state prison to receive such person, who shall be confined until duly released as provided for in this act; provided, that the period of such confinement shall not exceed the maximum or be less than the minimum term of imprisonment provided by law for the public offense of which such person was convicted.

Information
furnished
state board of prison
directors.

(c) It shall be the duty of the judge before whom such convicted person was tried, and of the district attorney conducting the prosecution, to obtain and with the commitment furnish to the state board of prison directors in writing all information that can be given in regard to the career, habits, degree of education, age, nativity, nationality, parentage, and previous occupation, of such convicted person, together with a statement to the best of their knowledge as to whether such person was industrious or not, of good character or not, the nature of his associates and his disposition.

Length of term after expiration of minimum
term.

(d) The governing authority of the reformatory or prison in which such person may be confined, or any board or commission that may be hereafter given authority so to do, shall determine after the expiration of the minimum term of imprisonment has expired, what length of time, if any, such person shall be confined, unless the sentence be sooner terminated by commutation or pardon by the governor of the state: and if it be determined that such person so sentenced be released before the expiration of the maximum period for which he is sentenced, then such person shall be released at such time as the governing board, commission or other authority may determine.

Rules and regulations.

(e) The state board of prison directors shall make all necessary rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this act not inconsistent therewith, and may provide the forms of all documents necessary therefor.

Discharge on serving maximum punishment.

(f) Any convicted person undergoing sentence in either of the state prisons of this state, not sooner released under the provisions of this act shall, in accordance with the provisions of existing law, be discharged from custody on serving the maximum punishment provided by law for the offense of which such person was convicted.

CHAPTER 528.

An act to amend section one thousand six hundred sixty-two of the Political Code, relating to elementary schools and kindergartens, school age, kindergarten age, deaf children, exclusion of children, and special classes of the elementary school.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand six hundred sixty-two of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1662. First—The courses of study for the day elementary schools of California shall embrace eight years of instruction; and such courses must allot eight years for instruction in subjects required to be taught in such schools and may allot not more than two years for kindergarten instruction. Courses of study.

Second—The day elementary schools of each school district of California shall be open for the admission of all children between six and twenty-one years of age residing in the district, and may be open for the admission of adults if the governing body of the district deem such admission advisable; provided, that where kindergarten instruction is given in the schools of a district, such school shall admit children to the kindergarten classes at four years of age; and the reports for the kindergarten classes shall be kept and shall be made separate from other school reports; and provided, further, that wherever a school is established for the instruction of the deaf, such children may be admitted to such school at three years of age; provided, that the average daily attendance of deaf children who are six years of age or older shall be counted as part of the average daily attendance in the day elementary schools. Ages for admission.

Third—The governing body of the school district shall have power to exclude children of filthy or vicious habits, or children suffering from contagious or infectious diseases, and also to establish separate schools for Indian children and for children of Chinese or Mongolian descent. When such separate schools are established, Indian, Mongolian or Chinese children must not be admitted into any other school. Children excluded.

Fourth—The governing body of any elementary school district shall have power to establish and maintain, in connection with any school under its jurisdiction, special day and evening classes for the purpose of giving instruction in any of the branches of study mentioned in section one thousand six hundred sixty-five of this code. These classes may be convened at such hours and for such length of time during the school day or evening, and at such period and for such length of time during the school year as may be determined by such governing authority; and the enrollment of and attendance Separate schools for Indians, etc.
Special day and evening classes.

upon such classes shall be kept separately and the units of average daily attendance shall be determined as provided in section one thousand eight hundred fifty-eight of this code and shall be added to the attendance of the elementary school district.

Ages for admission.

Fifth—The evening elementary schools and the special day and evening classes of the elementary schools of any school district shall be open for the admission of all children over the age of fifteen years, residing in the district and for the admission of adults; provided, that children under fifteen years of age who have been given permits to work in accordance with the provisions of an act to enforce the educational rights of children may be admitted to the evening elementary schools.

CHAPTER 529.

An act to amend section six hundred twenty-eight a of the Penal Code, relating to the protection of fish and game.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred twenty-eight a of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Protection of bass.

Shad.

628a. Every person, who at any time, buys, sells, offers for sale or has in his possession any striped bass of less than three pounds in weight, or who, except with hook and line and in the manner commonly known as angling, takes, catches, kills or has in his possession any striped bass or shad between the twenty-fifth day of September and the fourteenth day of November inclusive of any year or between the sixth day of June and the thirty-first day of July, both dates inclusive, of any year, or who, between the twenty-fifth day of September and the fourteenth day of November, inclusive, or between the sixth day of June and the thirty-first day of July, inclusive, of any year, takes, catches, kills or has in his possession more than five striped bass or shad, or who between the twenty-fifth day of September and the fourteenth day of November, inclusive, or between the sixth day of June and the thirty-first day of July, inclusive, of any year, buys, sells, offers for sale, ships or offers for shipment or receives for shipment or transportation any striped bass, or who at any time, offers for shipment, ships or receives for shipment or transportation from the State of California to any place in any other state, territory or foreign country any striped bass is guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person who takes any striped bass or shad in a net, any of the meshes of which are, when drawn closely together and measured inside the knots, less than five and one-half inches in length, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person who shall cast, extend or draw, or assist in casting, extending or drawing any net or seine, for the purpose of taking or catching any shad or striped bass in any of the waters of this state at any time between sunrise of each Saturday and sunset of the following Sunday is guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit any person from having in his possession, in any one calendar day, not more than five striped bass of less than three pounds each in weight, caught with hook and line, but such fish shall not be bought, sold or offered for sale, or shipped or offered for shipment. Every person who violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 530.

An act to amend section six hundred twenty-eight f of the Penal Code of the State of California, relating to the protection of fish and game.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred twenty-eight f of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

628f. Every person who, between the first day of February and the last day of February of the same year, both dates inclusive, takes, catches, kills, or has in his possession any red abalone (Haliotis rufescens), or who, between the first day of February and the thirtieth day of April of the same year, both dates inclusive, takes, catches, kills or has in his possession any pink abalone (Haliotis corrugata), or any black abalone (Haliotis crackerodie), or any green abalone (Haliotis fulgens) is guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person who at any time, takes, catches, kills or has in his possession any red abalone (Haliotis rufescens) the shell of which is less than seven inches in greatest diameter, or any green abalone (Haliotis fulgens) the shell of which is less than six and one-half inches in greatest diameter, or any pink abalone (Haliotis corrugata) the shell of which is less than six inches in greatest diameter, or any black abalone (Haliotis crackerodie) the shell of which is less than five inches in greatest diameter, or who by any means whatsoever, takes, or catches any abalone (Haliotis) and does not bring the same naturally attached to the shell and alive, to the shore above high water mark, or who takes, catches or kills any abalone (Haliotis) for other than food purposes, or who, at any time, dries any abalones (Haliotis), or who offers for shipment, or ships, or receives for shipment or transportation from the State of California to any place in any other state, territory or foreign country any abalone meat or abalone shells, excepting articles manufactured from abalone shells; or who takes, catches, kills or has

in his possession any abalone (Haliotis) taken, caught or killed with a spear shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person who, in fish and game districts seventeen, nineteen and twenty of this state, uses or assists in using any diving apparatus of any character for the taking or catching of any abalone (Haliotis), or who, in fish and game districts four or nineteen, takes, catches or kills or has in possession during any one calendar day more than ten abalone (Haliotis); or who, in fish and game district seventeen takes, catches, kills or has in possession more than twenty abalone in any one calendar week shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

None of the provisions of this act shall apply to abalone caught or taken without the waters of this state and bearing after inspection such evidence of having been so caught or taken as may be hereinafter prescribed by the fish and game commission; and, be it provided, that the expense of such inspection shall be borne by the importer of such abalone (Haliotis).

Pismo
clams.

Every person who gathers or takes in any manner or has in his possession any clam known as the Pismo clam (Tivela stultorum) which shall measure less than four and three-quarters inches across its shell in the greatest breadth, or who, during any one calendar day, takes, gathers in any manner or has in his possession more than fifty of said clams, or who, between the first day of May and the thirty-first day of August, both dates inclusive, of any year, takes, catches or gathers any clams in fish and game district seventeen is guilty of a misdemeanor.

breadth; every person who takes, catches or gathers in any manner any razor clam (Siliqua patula), except during a period of forty-eight hours beginning at the first low tide after the first high tide (large water) of the full moon of each month and for a period of forty-eight hours beginning at the first mean low tide after the first high tide (large water) of the new moon of each month, or who takes, catches or gathers in any way more than fifty of said razor clams (Siliqua patula) during any one calendar day is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Every person who takes, catches or kills or has in possession any clam or clams taken from fish and game districts eight or nine, between the first day of May and the thirty-first day of August of any year, both dates inclusive; or who at any time ships or offers for shipment or receives for shipment or transportation, to any place outside the limits of fish and game district one, any clam or clams of any species taken in fish and game district seven, eight or nine, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Penalty.

Every person violating any of the provisions of this section upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail in the county in which the conviction shall be had not less than ten days nor more than six months or by both such fine and imprisonment; and all fines and forfeitures imposed or collected for any violation of the provisions of this section must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund.

CHAPTER 531.

An act to amend sections two and three of an act entitled "An act to prevent the introduction, and provide for the investigation and suppression of contagious or infectious diseases, and appropriating money to be used for such purpose," approved June 7, 1913.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of an act entitled "An act to prevent the introduction, and provide for the investigation and suppression of contagious or infectious diseases, and appropriating money to be used for such purpose," approved June 7, 1913, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1913.
p. 868.

Sec. 2. Whenever any land, place, building, structure, wharf, pier, dock, vessel or water craft, or other property is infested with rodents, insects, or other vermin which are liable to convey or spread contagious or infectious disease from an existing focus declared by the state board of health, it shall be the duty of said board to at once notify the person, firm, copartnership, corporation, city, city and county, county, or district, owning said land, place, building, structure, wharf, pier, dock, vessel or water craft, or other property of the existence of said rodents, insects, or other vermin, and said notice shall direct said owner to proceed immediately to exterminate and destroy said rodents, insects, or other vermin, and to continue in good faith such measures as may be necessary to prevent their return. Service of such notice upon a trustee, executor or administrator of the estate of the recorded owner of said property shall be deemed sufficient notice to the owner as provided herein and in the event the owner is absent from the state or can not with due diligence be found, said notice shall be mailed to such owner addressed to his address given on the last completed assessment roll of the county, or city and county in which said property is situate, or if no address be so given, then to his last known address and a copy of said notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place upon said property for a period of ten days. In the event that said owner fails, refuses or neglects to proceed and continue as above provided, within ten days from date of receipt of said notice, the state board of health may proceed to destroy Extermination of rodents, insects, vermin, etc., by property owners.

Extermination by state board of health.

said rodents, insects or other vermin, and take other appropriate measures to prevent their return, and the cost thereof shall be repaid to the state board of health by the owner of said land, place, building, structure, wharf, pier, dock, vessel, water craft or other property; provided, however, that said owner shall not be liable for expenditures in any one year, in excess of ten per cent of the assessed valuation of such property, and the appropriation provided in section one of this act shall be reimbursed by the amount so paid, and may be again expended in a similar manner.

Stats. 1913,
p. 369.

SEC. 2. Section three of an act entitled "An act to prevent the introduction, and provide for the investigation and suppression of contagious or infectious diseases, and appropriating money to be used for such purpose," approved June 7, 1913, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Lien on property for payment of expense of extermination.

SEC. 3. Any and all sums so expended by said state board of health shall be a lien upon the property on which such rodents, insects or other vermin shall have been destroyed, or other appropriate measures taken. The state board of health shall cause to be filed in the office of the county recorder of the county wherein said property is situated a notice setting forth the amount so expended by the state board of health and claiming a lien upon such property for the amount of such expenditures. Such claim of lien must be filed within six months after the first item of expenditure. An action to foreclose such lien shall be commenced within six months after the filing and recording of said notice of lien, which action shall be brought by the state board of health through its attorney and for its benefit; provided, however, that the lien provisions of this act shall not apply to the property of any county, city and county, municipality, district, or other public corporation, but it shall be the duty of the governing body of such county, city and county, municipality, district or other public corporation to repay the state board of health the amount expended by it upon such property under the provision of this act upon presentation by said state board of health of a verified claim or bill showing the amount of such expenditures.

Disposition
of proceeds.

When the property is sold, enough of the proceeds to satisfy such lien and the costs of foreclosure shall be paid into the state treasury for the benefit of the fund herein created and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid to the owner of the property if known, and if not known, shall be paid into the court for the use of such owner when ascertained.

Receiver.

When it appears from the complaint in such action that the property on which such lien is to be foreclosed is likely to be removed from the jurisdiction of the court, the court may appoint a receiver to take possession of the property and hold the same while the action may be pending or until the defendant shall execute and file a bond, with sufficient sureties, conditioned for the payment of any judgment that may be received against him in the action and all costs.

Bond.

CHAPTER 532.

An act providing for the regulation and supervision of companies, brokers, agents, and sales of securities as the same are therein defined, and to prevent fraud in the sale of securities; providing for the enforcement of said act and penalties for the violation thereof; and creating a state corporation department and the office of commissioner of corporations.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known as the "corporate securities act." Title.

SEC. 2. Words used in this act in the present tense include the future as well as the present; words used in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter, and in the neuter, the masculine and feminine; the singular number includes the plural, and the plural, the singular; "writing" includes "printing" and "typewriting"; "oath" includes "affirmation"; the word "county" includes "city and county"; and "territory" includes "district." The following words have in this act the signification attached to them in this section, unless otherwise apparent from the context: Words defined.

1. The word "department" means the "state corporation department" created by this act.

2. The word "commissioner" means the "commissioner of corporations."

3. The word "company" includes all domestic and foreign, private corporations, associations, joint stock companies, and partnerships, of every kind, and also trustees, as hereinafter defined; excepting therefrom: "Company"

(a) All national banking associations and other corporations organized and existing under and by virtue of the acts of the congress of the United States;

(b) All public utilities subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the railroad commission of this state and to the public utilities act;

(c) All corporations transacting a banking or insurance business within this state;

(d) All corporations, associations, or societies transacting business under the supervision, examination, and license of the bureau of building and loan supervision; and

(e) Every corporation organized under the laws of this state exclusively for the purposes provided in any of the following titles, to wit: XI<sup>a</sup>, XII, XII<sup>a</sup>, XIV, XXI, XXII, of Part IV, Division First, of the Civil Code, and in accordance with the provisions of such titles.

"Trust."

4. The word "trust" as used in this act includes all voluntary trusts, as the same are defined in the Civil Code, expressly created by or declared in an instrument in writing, other than a will or a judicial writ, order, decree, or judgment, to carry on any business or to secure the payment or repayment of money.

5. The word "trustee," except as hereinafter used in subdivision nine of this section, includes only persons or companies executing trusts as hereinbefore defined.

"Security."

6. The word "security" includes:

(a) All shares or other interests or rights into which the capital, capital stock, or property of companies or rights of stockholders or members thereof are divided, including all treasury shares and shares of their own capital stock purchased or otherwise acquired by companies upon delinquent assessment sales or in any other lawful manner, and all certificates and other instruments issued by them or their authority, evidencing or representing such shares, interests, or rights;

(b) All bonds, debentures, and evidences of indebtedness issued by any company; and

(c) Any instrument issued or offered to the public by any company, evidencing or representing any right to participate or share in the profits or earnings or the distribution of assets of any business carried on for profit; excepting therefrom the following:

1. Bills of exchange and promissory notes not offered to the public by the drawer, maker, or underwriter thereof, and all mortgages and deeds of trust of property situated in this state, executed to secure the payment thereof; and

2. Any security listed in any standard manual of information, as to which the commissioner shall first make and file his written finding to the effect that such security is fully and accurately described in such manual and that a sale thereof will not, in his opinion, work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof; provided, that if such finding shall thereafter be vacated or set aside, such security shall not thereafter be deemed to be included within this exception.

"Sale."

7. A "sale," within the meaning of this act, includes every contract by which, for a pecuniary consideration, called a price, one transfers to another an interest in property, and also an exchange, a pledge, a hypothecation, and any transfer in trust or otherwise as security for the performance of an obligation, and also any issue of any security by a company; and the word "sell," as used in this act, includes every act by which such sale is made.

"Agent."

8. The word "agent" as used in this act means and includes every person or company employed or appointed by a company or a broker who shall, within this state, either as an employee or otherwise, for a compensation, sell, offer for sale, negotiate for the sale of, or take subscriptions for any security of any company of its own issue offered for sale by it.

9. The word "broker" as used in this act includes every <sup>"Broker."</sup> person or company, other than an agent, who shall, in this state, engage, either wholly or in part, in the business of selling, offering for sale, negotiating for the sale of, or otherwise dealing in any security or securities issued by others, or of underwriting any issue of securities or of purchasing such securities with the purpose of reselling them or of offering them for sale to the public for a commission or at a profit; excepting therefrom the following:

(a) Any owner of any security who is not the issuer or an underwriter thereof, who sells or exchanges the same for his own account; provided, that such sale or exchange is not made in the course of repeated and successive transactions of like or similar character by him;

(b) Any trustee who, in such capacity, lawfully disposes of any property;

(c) Any company transacting a banking or insurance business in this state, selling a security for an owner thereof or a broker, other than an underwriter thereof, at a commission of not more than two per cent of the par or face value thereof; provided, such sale is not made in the course of repeated and successive transactions of like or similar character by such company;

(d) One, not the issuer, who disposes of securities to a broker or to a purchaser who, as a part of his regular business, purchases such securities;

(e) Any pledge holder selling, in good faith and not for the purpose of avoiding the provisions of this act, and in the ordinary course of business, a security pledged with him as security for a bona fide debt.

10. The words "actual fraud," as used in this act, are <sup>"Actual fraud."</sup> defined in section one thousand five hundred seventy-two of the Civil Code.

SEC. 3. No company shall sell, except upon a sale for a <sup>Permit to sell securities.</sup> delinquent assessment made in accordance with the provisions of Article II of Chapter II of Title I of Part IV of Division First of the Civil Code; or offer for sale, negotiate for the sale of, or take subscriptions for any security of its own issue until it shall have first applied for and secured from the commissioner a permit authorizing it so to do. Such application shall be in writing, shall be verified as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure for the verification of pleadings, and shall be filed in the office of the commissioner. <sup>Application.</sup> In such application the applicant shall set forth the names and addresses of its officers, the location of its office, an itemized account of its financial condition, the amount and character of its assets and liabilities, a detailed statement of the plan upon which it proposes to transact business, a copy of any security it proposes to issue, a copy of any contract it proposes to make concerning the same, a copy of any prospectus or advertisement, or other description of such securities, then prepared by or for it for distribution or publication, and such additional information concerning the company, its condition and affairs as the commissioner may require. If the applicant is a partnership or an unincorporated association or joint stock company, it shall file with its application a copy of its articles of partnership or association, and all other papers pertaining to its organization. If the applicant is a trustee, it shall file with its application a copy of all instruments by which the trust is created and in which it is accepted, acknowledged, or declared. If the applicant is a corporation, it shall file with its application a copy of all minutes of any proceedings of its directors or stockholders or members relating to or affecting the issue of such securities, and also a copy of its articles of incorporation and of its by-laws and of any amendments thereto. If the applicant is a corporation or association organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or government, it shall also file with its application a certificate, executed by the proper officer of such state, territory, or government not more than thirty days before the filing of such application, showing that such applicant is authorized to transact business in such state, territory, or government; and also, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, its written instrument, irrevocably appointing the commissioner and his successor in office its true and lawful attorney upon whom all process in any action or proceeding against it may be served, with the same effect as if said corporation or association were organized or created under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein.

Application

Commissioner appointed attorney.

Examination of application.

Permit issued.

SEC. 4. Upon the filing of such application, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to examine it and the other papers and documents filed therewith, and he may, if he deems it advisable, make or have made a detailed examination, audit, and investigation of the applicant and its affairs. If he finds that the proposed plan of business of the applicant is not unfair, unjust, or inequitable, that it intends to fairly and honestly transact its business, and that the securities that it proposes to issue and the methods to be used by it in issuing or disposing of them are not such as, in his opinion, will work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to issue and dispose of securities, as therein provided, in this state, in such amounts and for such considerations and upon such terms and conditions as the commissioner may in said permit provide. Otherwise, he shall deny the application and refuse such permit and notify the applicant in writing of his decision. Every permit shall recite in bold type that the issuance thereof is permissive only and does not constitute a recommendation or indorsement of the securities permitted to be issued. The commissioner may impose such conditions as he may deem necessary to the issue of such securities, and shall have the power to establish such rules and regulations as may be reasonable or necessary to insure the disposition of the proceeds of such securities in the manner and for the purposes provided in such permit, and may, from time to time for cause, amend, alter, or revoke any permit issued by him, or temporarily suspend the rights of the applicant under such permit.

SEC. 5. No person or company shall act as an agent or broker until such person or company shall have first applied for and secured from the commissioner a certificate, then in effect, authorizing such person or company so to do. Every such certificate shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next after its issuance, unless sooner revoked. To secure such certificate, the applicant shall make and file in the office of the commissioner an application therefor in writing, verified by or in behalf of the applicant. In such application, the applicant shall set forth, in addition to such other information as may be required by the commissioner:

Certificate
of agent or broker.

1. The name and address of the applicant, and, if it be a corporation, association, or joint stock company, the name and address of each of its managing officers and agents, and, if it be a partnership, the name and address of each of the partners;

2. A succinct statement of facts showing that the applicant, and its managing officers and agents, if it be a corporation, or members, if it be a partnership, have a good business reputation;

3. If the applicant is a broker, the general plan and character of the business of the applicant.

For filing such application, the applicant shall pay a fee as hereinafter provided. If the applicant is a corporation or association organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or government, it shall file with its application a copy of its articles of incorporation or association, together with a certificate executed by the proper officer of such state, territory, or government not more than thirty days before the filing of such application, showing that such applicant is authorized to transact business in such state, territory, or government, and also, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, its written instrument, irrevocably appointing the commissioner and his successor in office its true and lawful attorney upon whom all process in any action or proceeding against it, arising out of or founded upon the actual fraud of such applicant in the sale of securities within this state, may be served, with the same effect as if said corporation or association were organized or created under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein.

Fee.

SEC. 6. The commissioner shall examine such application, and shall make such further investigation of the applicant and its affairs as he shall deem advisable. If, from such examination, the commissioner shall be satisfied of the good business reputation of the applicant and of its officers or members, if any, he shall issue such certificate. Otherwise, he shall refuse the same and deny the application and notify the applicant of his decision. The commissioner may at any time

issued.

revoke any broker's or agent's certificate issued by him if he shall find that the holder thereof is of bad business repute, or has violated any provision of this act, or has engaged, or is about to engage in any fraudulent transaction.

Advertisements
submitted to commissioner.

SEC. 7. No person, partnership, association, or corporation, other than a broker holding a broker's certificate, then in effect, shall issue, circulate, or publish any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, or circular concerning any security, to be issued by any company, that such person, partnership, association, or corporation desires or proposes to sell, until the company proposing to issue such security shall have first secured from the commissioner a permit authorizing it to issue or sell such security; nor shall any company, broker, or agent, or any other person, issue, circulate, or publish any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, or circular concerning any security sold or offered for sale by it, unless the name of the company, broker, agent, or person issuing, circulating, or publishing the same shall be subscribed thereto, and a true copy thereof shall have been first filed in the office of the commissioner, or deposited in a United States post office, properly enclosed in a sealed envelope, addressed to the commissioner at Sacramento, California, with the postage duly prepaid thereon; nor shall any company, broker, or agent, or any other person, issue, circulate, or publish any such advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, or circular after notice in writing given to it by the commissioner that, in his opinion, the same contains any statement that is false or misleading or otherwise likely to deceive a reader thereof.

company on sale of securities.

SEC. 8. Every company authorized by the commissioner to sell securities shall thereafter, at such times as it may be required by the commissioner, make and file in the office of the commissioner a report, setting forth, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, the securities sold by it under the authority of any permit issued by him, the proceeds derived therefrom, the disposition of such proceeds, and such other information concerning its property, officers, or affairs, relating to or affecting the value of such securities, as the commissioner may require.

Statement
by broker
on sale of
securities.

SEC. 9. Every broker shall, at such times as it may be required by the commissioner, make and file in the office of the commissioner a true and correct statement concerning any security sold or offered for sale by such broker, showing the name and location of the principal office of the issuer of such security; the names of its managing officers, if it is a corporation, or of its members, if it is a partnership; its assets, liabilities, and issued capital stock, at the close of its fiscal year then last ended, or at a later date; its gross income, expenses, and fixed charges for the year next preceding such date, or for such time as such issuer of such security has transacted business, if for less than one year, and the approximate price at which such broker has sold or proposes to sell such security, together with such other information, of which the broker may have knowledge, as the commissioner may require.

SEC. 10. All papers, documents, reports, and other instruments in writing filed with the commissioner under this act shall be open to public inspection; provided, that if, in his judgment, the public welfare or the welfare of any company, broker, or agent demands that any portion of such information be not made public, he may, in his discretion, withhold such information from public inspection for such time as in his judgment is necessary. The commissioner may at any time give, issue, or make public any information concerning any company or any contracts, stocks, bonds, or other securities sold or offered for sale within this state, if in his judgment the giving, issuing, or publishing of the same will be of public interest or advantage or will tend to prevent the fraudulent sale of such securities.

Papers open to public inspection.

SEC. 11. Every order, decision, permit or other official act of the commissioner shall be subject to review, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter I of Title I of Part III of the Code of Civil Procedure; and any party aggrieved by any such order, decision, or permit of the commissioner may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county of Sacramento, by serving upon the commissioner a notice of such appeal, a demand in writing for a certified transcript of all the papers on file in his office affecting or relating to such decision, and the payment of the fee therefor, within sixty days after the making of any such order, permit, or decision. Thereupon, the commissioner shall, within ten days, make and certify such transcript, and the appellant shall, within five days thereafter, file the same and the notice of appeal with the clerk of said court. Upon the hearing of such appeal, the burden of proof shall lie upon the appellant, and the court shall receive and consider any pertinent evidence, whether oral or documentary, concerning the action of the commissioner from which the appeal is taken, but shall be limited to a consideration and determination of the question whether there has been an abuse of discretion on the part of the commissioner in making such order, decision, or permit.

Review of orders, etc.,
of commissioner.

SEC. 12. Every security issued by any company, without a permit of the commissioner authorizing the same then in effect, shall be void, and every security issued by any company, with the authorization of the commissioner but not conforming in its provisions to the provisions, if any, which it is required by the permit of the commissioner to contain, shall be void.

Securities
void.

SEC. 13. Every company which shall directly or indirectly issue or cause to be issued any security contrary to the provisions of this act, or of the constitution of this state, or in nonconformity with a permit of the commissioner authorizing the same, or which applies the proceeds from the sale thereof, or any part thereof, to any purpose other than the purpose or purposes, if any, specified in such permit, or to any purpose

Every officer, agent, or employce of any company, and every other person, who knowingly authorizes, directs, or aids in the issue or sale of, or issues or executes, or sells, or causes or assists in causing to be issued, executed, or sold, any security, in nonconformity with a permit of the commissioner then in effect authorizing such issue, or contrary to the provisions of this act, or of the constitution of this state, or who, in any application to the commissioner, or in any proceeding before him, or in any examination, audit, or investigation made by him or his authority, knowingly makes any false statement or representation, or who, with knowledge of its falsity, files or causes to be filed in the office of the commissioner any false statement or representation concerning such company or the property which it then holds or proposes to acquire, or concerning its officers or its financial condition or other affairs, or concerning its proposed plan of business, or who, with knowledge of the falsity of any such statement or representation, issues, executes, or sells, or causes to be issued, executed, or sold, any security, without first informing the commissioner of the falsity of such statement in writing, or who, directly or indirectly, knowingly applies, or causes or assists in causing to be applied, the proceeds, or any part thereof, from the sale of any security to any purpose contrary to the provisions of the permit authorizing the issue of such security, or to any purpose specified in such permit in excess of any amount limited in such permit to be used for such purpose, or who, with knowledge that any security has been issued or executed in violation of any of the provisions of this act, sells or offers the same for sale, or who, with knowledge that any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, or circular concerning any security contains any statement that is false or misleading, or otherwise likely to deceive a reader thereof, issues, circulates, or publishes the same, or shall cause the same to be issued, circulated, or published, or who, in any other respect, wilfully violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this act, or who, in any other respect, wilfully violates or fails, omits, or neglects to obey, observe, or comply with any order, permit, decision, demand, or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, of the commissioner under the provisions of this act, is guilty of a public offense and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding two years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

State corporation department created.

SEC. 15. There is hereby created a state corporation department. The chief officer of such department shall be the commissioner of corporations. He shall be appointed by the governor and hold office at the pleasure of the governor. He shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars, to be paid monthly out of the state treasury upon a warrant of the controller. He shall within fifteen days from the time of notice of his appointment take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state and execute to the people of the state a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars with corporate security or two or more sureties, to be approved by the governor of the state, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

SEC. 16. The commissioner shall employ such clerks and deputies as he may need to discharge in proper manner the duties imposed upon him by law. The attorney general shall render to the commissioner opinions upon all questions of law, relating to the construction or interpretation of this act or arising in the administration thereof, that may be submitted to him by the commissioner, and shall act as the attorney for the commissioner in all actions and proceedings brought by or against him under or pursuant to any of the provisions of this act. Neither the commissioner nor any of his clerks or deputies shall be interested in any company which shall have applied for or secured a permit to sell securities, or in any broker, or agent as a director, stockholder, officer, member, agent, or employee. Such clerks and deputies shall perform such duties as the commissioner shall assign to them. He shall fix the compensation of such clerks and deputies, which compensation shall be paid monthly, on the certificate of the commissioner and on the warrant of the controller, out of the state treasury. Each deputy shall, within fifteen days after his appointment, take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office, and file the same in the office of the secretary of state.

Clerks and deputies.

Duty of
general.

SEC. 17. The commissioner shall at all times have the power to administer oaths and to make an examination or investigation of the books, records, accounts, and other papers, and of the business of any company, broker, or agent permitted or authorized by him to sell securities, to make dividends, to create debts, to divide, withdraw, or pay to the stockholders, or any of them, any part of its capital stock, or to increase or reduce its capital stock. In any examination, audit, or investigation made or hearing conducted by him, he shall have the power to take the testimony of any witness and to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance upon such examination, audit, investigation, or hearing in any part of the state of witnesses and the production of books, documents, and other things under their control, and in any such case to take or cause to be taken the deposition of any witness residing within or without this state. All of the provisions of Chapter II of Title III of Part IV of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the means of production of evidence out of court, shall be applicable to any examination, investigation, or hearing under this act. No person shall be excused from testifying or from producing any book, document, or other thing under his control upon any such examination, audit, investigation, or hearing upon the ground that his testimony, or the book, document, or other thing required of him, may tend to incriminate him, or may have a tendency to subject him to punishment for a felony, or to a penalty or forfeiture; but no person shall be prosecuted, punished, or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any act, transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he shall have been so compelled to testify under oath, or to produce such documentary or other evidence; provided, that no person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution or punishment for perjury if committed by him in his testimony. The authority to make or conduct any such examination, audit, investigation, or hearing, including the authority to administer oaths, and to subpoena witnesses and take their testimony, may be delegated by the commissioner to any deputy or examiner appointed by him for that purpose. Such appointment shall be made by an instrument in writing, signed by the commissioner under his official seal, and upon such examination, audit, investigation, or hearing, the same shall be produced by such deputy or examiner at any time upon demand therefor.

process.

SEC. 18. In any action or proceeding commenced or prosecuted in this state against any corporation or association which shall have appointed the commissioner its attorney, as provided in section three of this act, and in any action or proceeding commenced or prosecuted in this state, arising out of or founded upon the actual fraud of any corporation or association which shall have appointed the commissioner its attorney, as provided in section five of this act, service of process may be made upon the commissioner. In any such case, the commissioner shall forthwith forward by mail, postage prepaid, to the person designated by such corporation or association by an instrument in writing duly executed by it and filed with the commissioner, at the address stated in such instrument, or, if no such designation has been made, to the secretary of such corporation or association at its last known post-office address, a copy of such process; whereupon, and upon the payment of the fee herein provided for, service of such process upon such company shall be deemed to be complete and to be personal service upon such corporation or association, with the same effect as if said corporation or association were organized or incorporated under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein. The certificate of the commissioner, under his official seal, of such service, shall be competent and sufficient proof thereof.

Offices.

SEC. 19. The commissioner shall have his principal office in the city of Sacramento, and may establish branch offices in the city and county of San Francisco and in the city of Los Angeles, and he shall from time to time obtain the necessary furniture, stationery, fuel, light, and other proper conveniences for the transaction of the business of the department; the expenses of which shall be paid out of the state treasury on the certificate of the commissioner and the warrant of the controller.

SEC. 20. The commissioner shall charge and collect the <sup>Fees.</sup> following fees:

1. For filing any application for a permit to issue securities, ten dollars, plus—

One twentieth of one per cent of the amount of any excess of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be issued over twenty thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars;

One twenty-fifth of one per cent of such amount in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars;

One fiftieth of one per cent of such amount in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; and

One one-hundredth of one per cent of such amount in excess of five hundred thousand dollars.

The value of such securities shall be deemed to be their par or face value, if they have a par or face value; otherwise, the price at which the company proposes to sell or issue the same, or the value, as alleged in the application, of the consideration (if other than money) to be received in exchange therefor.

2. For filing any application for a permit or other authority to make dividends, create debts, or to divide, withdraw, increase, reduce or pay to the stockholders, or any of them, the capital stock, or any part thereof, the same amount that would otherwise be chargeable or collectible if such application were for a permit to issue securities; provided, that in any such case the value shall be determined by the amount of dividends made, debts created, or capital stock divided, withdrawn, increased, reduced, or paid.

3. For filing any application for a broker's certificate, five dollars.

4. For filing any application for an agent's certificate, one dollar.

5. For any examination, audit, or investigation, ten dollars per day or fraction thereof, if made by the commissioner, or the actual amount of the salary or other compensation, not exceeding ten dollars per day, paid to any deputy or other employee of the commissioner, if made by a deputy or other employee, for each day or fraction thereof that such commissioner, deputy, or other employee shall necessarily be absent from his office for the purpose of making such examination, audit, or investigation, plus the actual amount of traveling expenses reasonably incurred in the performance of such work.

6. For copies of papers and records not required to be certified or otherwise authenticated by the commissioner, ten cents for each folio.

Fees.

7. For certified copies of official documents, orders, and other papers filed in his office; for making and mailing copies of process served upon him under the provisions of section eighteen of this act, and for transcripts on appeal, fifteen cents for each folio and one dollar for each certificate under seal affixed thereto.

8. For certificate of service and mailing of process served upon the commissioner under the provisions of section eighteen of this act, two dollars.

No fees shall be charged or collected for copies of papers, records, or official documents furnished to public officers for use in their official capacity or for the reports of the commissioner in the ordinary course of distribution; but the commissioner may fix a reasonable charge for publications issued under his authority.

“Corporation
fund.”

All fees charged and collected under this section shall be paid at least once each week, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the treasury of the state to the credit of a fund to be known as the “corporation commission fund,” which fund is hereby created.

Appropriated for use of
commissioner.

SEC. 21. All moneys which shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the “corporation commission fund” are hereby appropriated to be used by the commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this act; and the controller shall draw his warrant on said fund from time to time in favor of the commissioner for the amounts expended under his direction, and the treasurer shall pay the same. The commissioner may, with the consent of the board of control, withdraw from said fund a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, to be used as a revolving fund where cash advances are necessary. The commissioner must account for the sum withdrawn for said revolving fund at any time upon demand of the board of control.

Revolving fund.

Seal.

SEC. 22. The commissioner shall adopt a seal bearing the following inscription: “Commissioner of Corporations State of California.” The seal shall be affixed to all writs, orders, permits, and certificates issued by him, and to such other instruments as he shall direct. All courts shall take judicial notice of said seal.

Copies of orders, etc.

SEC. 23. The commissioner may execute in duplicate any order, finding, or permit issued by him, and each of such parts shall be deemed to be an original. An original of every such order, finding, or permit shall be retained and preserved by him in his office. Copies of all documents, orders, and permits made, executed, or issued by the commissioner, and of all papers filed in his office, when certified by the commissioner under his official seal, shall be received in evidence in all cases in like manner and with the same effect as the originals. Any order or permit issued by the commissioner, or a copy thereof certified by the commissioner under his official seal, to be a true copy of the original order or permit, may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which is located the principal place of business of the company affected thereby or in which is situated any property of such company, and such record shall impart notice of such order or permit, and of all its provisions, to all persons. A certificate under the seal of the commissioner that any such order or permit has not been amended, altered, revoked, or suspended may also be recorded in the same offices and with like effect.

SEC. 24. Every official report made by the commissioner, and every report, duly verified, made to him by any deputy, clerk, or other person employed by him, of any examination, audit, or investigation made by him or under his direction, and copies of such reports, certified by the commissioner, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated for all purposes in any action or proceeding wherein any company, broker, agent, or the commissioner is a party.

Official reports prima facie evidence.

SEC. 25. Neither this act nor any provision hereof shall be deemed to prohibit subscriptions for shares of a corporation made prior to the incorporation thereof and set forth in its articles of incorporation; but such subscriptions shall be deemed to have been made and accepted upon the condition that such corporation, when incorporated, shall with reasonable diligence apply for and secure from the commissioner a permit authorizing the issue of the shares so subscribed for, in accordance with such subscriptions. The directors or trustees named in the articles of incorporation may, prior to the issue of any shares, organize by the election of a president, who must be one of their number, a secretary and a treasurer; and such directors, or a majority of them, or such president and secretary may, in the name of and in behalf of the corporation, present an application to the commissioner as herein provided.

Subscription for shares prior to incorporation.

Election of officers prior to issuing shares.

SEC. 26. This act, in so far as it does not add to, take from, or alter an act entitled "An act to define investment companies, investment brokers, and agents; to provide for the regulation, supervision and licensing thereof; to provide penalties for the violation thereof; to create the office of commissioner of corporations, and making an appropriation therefor," approved May 28, 1913, as amended by an act entitled "An act to amend section three of an act entitled 'An act to define investment companies, investment brokers, and agents; to provide for the regulation, supervision and licensing thereof; to provide penalties for the violation thereof; to create the office of commissioner of corporations, and making an appropriation therefor,' approved May 28, 1913," approved June 3, 1915, shall be construed as a continuation thereof.

Acts continued.

All decisions, orders, rules, findings, certificates, or permits heretofore made or issued, and acts done by the commissioner, shall continue in force and have the same effect as if they had been lawfully made, issued, or done under the provisions of this act.

Decisions, etc., continued in force.

This act shall not affect any appeal pending from any decision of the commissioner, or any proceeding to which he, in his official capacity, is a party; but the same may be prosecuted or defended with the same effect as if this act had not been passed. Any examination, audit, or investigation undertaken, commenced, or prosecuted prior to the taking effect of this act may be conducted to a final determination in the same manner and with the same effect as if it had been undertaken, commenced, or prosecuted under the provisions of this act, and in the manner herein provided. No action or proceeding, either civil or criminal, or cause of action arising under any law of this state shall abate by reason of the passage of this act, but actions or proceedings may be commenced and prosecuted upon such causes in the same manner and with the same effect as if this act had not been passed.

Appeals not affected.

Examination, etc., continued to final determination.

Foreign and interstate commerce.

SEC. 27. Neither this act nor any provision hereof shall apply to or be construed as a regulation of commerce with foreign nations or among the several states, except in so far as the same may be permitted under the provisions of the constitution and the acts of the congress of the United States.

Constitutionality.

SEC. 28. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

Repealed.

SEC. 29. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 533

An act to amend "An act to regulate the vocation of fishing and to provide therefrom revenue for the propagation, restoration and conservation of fish in the waters of the State of California," approved March 13, 1909.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1909,
p. 302.

SECTION 1. "An act to regulate the vocation of fishing, and to provide therefrom revenue for the propagation, restoration and conservation of fish in the waters of the State of California," is hereby amended to read as follows:

License
required.

Section 1. Every person who uses or operates or assists in using or operating, any boat, net, trap, line or other appliance in the state for the purpose of catching or taking fish, mollusks or crustaceans for profit, and every person using or operating, or assisting in using or operating any boat, net, trap, line or other appliance for taking or catching fish, mollusks or crustaceans, or who brings or causes said fish, mollusks or crustaceans to be brought ashore at any point in the state for the purpose of selling the same as fresh fish, without first procuring a commercial fishing license, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. The controller of state shall prepare suitable licenses, of the classes designated by the fish and game commissioners, which shall license the holder of such license to catch or take fish, mollusks or crustaceans or to assist in catching or taking fish, mollusks or crustaceans, as provided in section one of this act, for the term of one year from the first day of April of one year to the first day of April of the year following. The licenses shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with number one, and contain blanks for the inscription of the name of the holder, his resident address, and his description, by age, height, nationality and color of eyes and hair, which description shall be furnished by the applicant to the board of fish and game commissioners. The controller shall sign all licenses and deliver the same to the fish and game commissioners, on demand, who shall be charged for the same by the controller. Each license, before delivery to the applicant for a license, must be countersigned by the president of the board of fish and game commissioners, and the president of the board of fish and game commissioners shall execute a bond to the people of the State of California, in the sum of two thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of the duties imposed upon him by this act.

Licenses prepared by controller.

Duty of president of commission.

Sec. 3. Licenses shall be issued and delivered upon application to the state board of fish and game commissioners, or their deputies. The license fee shall be ten dollars for each person. Not more than one license shall be issued to any one person for the same year, except upon affidavit by the applicant that the one issued has been lost or destroyed, and no license issued as herein provided shall be transferable or used by any other person than the one to whom it was issued. Every person having a license as provided herein, who refuses to exhibit such license upon demand of any officer authorized to enforce the fish and game laws of this state, or any peace officer of this state, or who transfers or disposes of the same to another person to be used as a fisherman's license, or who fails to have his license with him where it may be readily examined by any officer authorized to enforce the fish and game laws, at the time he is using or operating or assisting in using or operating any net, trap, line or other appliance, or who uses or assists in using any net, trap, line or other appliance by modes or methods in violation of any law, for the preservation of fish and game shall forfeit this license.

Fee.

Forfeiture of license.

Sec. 4. The said license fees must be paid to the fish and game commissioners, or to some one designated by them for that purpose.

Fees paid to whom.

Credited to preservation
fund.

Sec. 5. The money collected from such licenses shall be paid by the commissioners into the state treasury, to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund.

Penalty.

Sec. 6. The violation of any provisions of this act is hereby declared a misdemeanor, and every person violating any of its provisions, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than ten nor more than one hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and all fines collected for any violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be paid into the state treasury, to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund.

CHAPTER 534.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code to be numbered one thousand two hundred two a, relating to imprisonment in the state prison.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered one thousand two hundred two a, and to read as follows:

Imprisonment in state prison.

1202a. If the judgment is for imprisonment in the state prison it shall direct that the defendant be taken to the warden of the state prison at San Quentin. Thereafter, and until the termination of the sentence, the state board of prison directors may transfer the defendant from one state prison to the other as in the opinion of the board conditions may require.

CHAPTER 535.

An act to amend section one thousand six hundred nineteen of the Political Code, relating to the duties of boards of school trustees and city boards of education.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand six hundred nineteen of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Equal rights and privileges.

1619. First—Except where a school has been closed by order of a city or a county board of health or of the state board of health, on account of contagious disease, or where such school has been closed on account of fire, flood or other public disaster, boards of school trustees and city boards of education must maintain all of the elementary day schools established by them for an equal length of time during the year, and all of the day high schools established by them for an equal length of time during the year, and, as far as possible, with equal rights and privileges; provided, that boards of school trustees and city boards of education may establish and maintain vacation schools of kindergarten, elementary, or high school grade. No vacation school shall be established until a school of equal grade has been maintained for at least eight months. The duties of teachers, courses of study, length of school day, and all other matter relating to vacation schools, shall be determined by the boards of school trustees, or by the city board of education. Only teachers who are legally qualified to teach in the public schools of the state shall be eligible to teach in vacation schools of corresponding grade; provided, that the attendance of pupils upon such schools shall not be counted as a part of the average daily attendance of the regular elementary or secondary schools of the district, nor shall the state or county school funds be used to maintain such schools.

Vacation
schools.

Qualifications of teachers.

Second—When in any district it is necessary for the convenience of the residents of said district that the school therein should be maintained a part of the year in one portion of the district, and a part of the year in another portion of the district, the aggregate of the time the school has been maintained in the different portions of the district shall be considered in estimating the time for which a school has been maintained in the district during the school year.

When
school maintained in different portions of district.

CHAPTER 536.

An act to amend section one thousand six hundred seventy-three of the Political Code, relating to the length of the school day and the length of time that pupils may be required to attend during each day.

[Approved May 19, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand six hundred seventy-three of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1673. No pupil other than one pursuing a vocational course must be kept in school more than six hours per day; and no pupil under eight years of age must be kept in school more than four hours per day. Any violation of the provisions of this section must be treated in the same manner as a violation of the provisions of the preceding section.

Duration of daily sessions.

CHAPTER 537.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to create for the State of California a department of engineering, to provide for the appointment of the officers and employees thereof, defining its powers and prescribing the duties of said department, its officers and employees, to provide the compensation of such officers and employees, to make an appropriation for the salaries and other expenses for the remainder of the fifty-eighth fiscal year and making certain acts a felony and repealing an act entitled 'An act creating a commissioner of public works, defining his duties and powers and fixing his compensation,' approved February ninth, one thousand nine hundred, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled 'An act to create a department of highways for the State of California, to define its duties and powers, to provide for the appointment of officers and employees thereof, and to provide for the compensation of said officers and employees, and for the additional expenses of said department, and to make an appropriation therefor for the remainder of the forty-eighth fiscal year.' approved April first, one thousand eight hundred ninety-seven; also repealing an act entitled 'An act providing for the appointment of an auditing board to the commissioner of public works, authorizing him and them to perform certain duties relating to drainage, to purchase machinery, tools, dredges, and appliances therefor, to improve and rectify water channels, to erect works necessary and incident to said drainage, to condemn land and property for the purposes aforesaid, making certain acts a felony, and making an appropriation of money for the purposes of this act,' approved March seventeenth, one thousand eight hundred ninety-seven, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled 'An act to provide for the appointment, duties and compensation of a debris commissioner, and to make an appropriation to be expended under his directions in the discharge of his duties as such commissioner.' approved March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred ninety-three, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled 'An act to create the office of Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner, providing the term of office and compensation of such commissioner, defining his duties, and making an appropriation for the salary and expenditures provided for and authorized by this act,' approved April first, one thousand eight hundred ninety-seven, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof," approved March eleventh, one thousand nine hundred seven, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof, by amending sections one,

nine, ten, thirteen and sixteen thereof, relating to the officers and employees of the department of engineering, their powers, duties and salaries, and by repealing section one and one-half thereof.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to create for the State of California a department of engineering, to provide for the appointment of the officers and employees thereof, defining its powers and prescribing the duties of said departments, its officers and employees, to provide the compensation for the salaries and other expenses for the remainder of the fifty-eighth fiscal year and making certain acts a felony and repealing an act entitled 'An act creating a commissioner of public works, defining his duties and powers and fixing his compensation,' approved February 9, 1900, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled 'An act to create a department of highways for the State of California, to define its duties and powers, to provide for the appointment of officers and employees thereof, and to provide for the compensation of said officers and employees, and for the additional expenses of said department, and to make an appropriation therefor for the remainder of the forty-eighth fiscal year,' approved April 1, 1897; also repealing an act entitled 'An act providing for the appointment of an auditing board to the commissioner of public works, authorizing him and them to perform certain duties relating to drainage, to purchase machinery, tools, dredges, and appliances therefor, to improve and rectify water channels, to erect works necessary and incident to said drainage, to condemn land and property for the purposes aforesaid, making certain acts a felony, and making an appropriation of money for the purposes of this act,' approved March 17, 1897, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled 'An act to provide for the appointment, duties and compensation of a debris commissioner, and to make an appropriation to be expended under his direction in the discharge of his duties as such commissioner,' approved March 24, 1893, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof; also repealing an act entitled 'An act to create the office of Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner, providing the term of office and compensation of such commissioner, defining his duties, and making an appropriation for the salary and expenditures provided for and authorized by this act,' approved April 1, 1897, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof," approved March 11, 1907, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

p. 825.

Department
of engineering
created.

Section 1. A department of and for the State of California to be known as the department of engineering is hereby created, to consist of an advisory board composed of the governor as ex officio member and chairman of said board, the state engineer, who shall be the chief executive officer of the department, the general superintendent of state hospitals, the chairman of the state board of harbor commissioners of San Francisco, and three other members to be appointed by the governor, which said three appointive members shall hereafter in this act be designated as the appointed members of said advisory board. Said three appointed members shall compose a subdivision of said department of engineering designated as the California highway commission. The said department, its officers and employees, shall have and exercise the powers and duties hereinafter set forth and specified, and such as are or may be hereafter provided by law.

California
highway commission.

Repealed.

SEC. 2. Section one and one-half of said act is hereby repealed.

Stats. 1911,
p. 828.

SEC. 3. Section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Control of state
highways.

Sec. 9. The department of engineering shall take and have full possession and control of all roads and highways which have been declared and adopted state roads and state highways and all state roads and state highways which may hereafter be acquired and constructed. All expenditures by the state for highway purposes, except as otherwise hereafter provided by law, shall be under the full charge of the department of engineering, and all moneys appropriated for such purpose shall be made payable upon the proper demand of said department when approved and audited by the state board of control. The department of engineering, in the name of the people of the State of California, shall have the power to obtain or condemn necessary rights of way for any authorized state highway or for the change of any existing state highway or for any road placed under the department's charge by law unless otherwise provided. It shall have power to alter or change the route of a road and shall do all things necessary, and obtain all tools and implements required to properly care for and manage the roads under the charge of the department. Whenever, under any statutes of this state, the performance of any duty or obligation is imposed upon the department of highways, the same shall be assumed by, and the performance of the same shall devolve upon, the department of engineering. The said California highway commission shall forthwith assume and have and exercise all of the powers and duties of the state engineer relating to state roads and state highways and other roads and highways heretofore by law conferred or imposed upon said state engineer, and the said state engineer shall immediately relinquish and transfer to the said California highway commission all funds, papers, maps, records and other documents of the department of engineering relating to the roads and highways of the state and thereafter the state engincer shall have no further duty, power or responsibility with regard to roads and highways, save only such as shall devolve upon him as a member of the advisory board of the department of engineering. Said California highway commission shall have the supervision and direction of all state roads and state highways now existing and the improvement, maintenance, repair and protection thereof, and have charge of and perform all other duties relating to state roads and state highways which may be imposed upon said commission by said advisory board. The highway engineer shall be the chief executive officer of the California highway commission and shall perform such duties as may be imposed upon him by the California highway commission which are not in conflict with any duties which may be placed upon him by said advisory board.

Highway engineer.

SEC. 4. Section ten of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1907, p. 219.

Sec. 10. The California highway commission, in addition to such other duties as may be imposed upon such commission by law, shall—

Duties of highway commission.

(a) Make such investigations as will put at the service of the state the most approved methods of highway improvement;

(b) Compile statistics relative to the public highways of counties and municipalities;

(c) If deemed expedient by said commission and at the expense of the applicants, either in whole or in part, as determined by said commission, said county, road or boulevard district or division and municipal authorities, upon request of such county, road or boulevard district or division and municipal authorities, in establishing grades and road drainage systems and advise with them as to the construction, improvement and maintenance of highways and bridges.

(d) If deemed expedient by said commission and at the expense of the applicants, either in whole or in part, as determined by said commission, cause plans, specifications and estimates to be prepared for the repair and improvement of highways and bridges, and in its discretion, also act as the consulting engineer for any county, road or boulevard district or division, or municipal authorities, when requested to do so by the county, road or boulevard district or division or municipal authorities; and said commission may, in its discretion, and upon the request of the governing board of any county, permanent road division, road or boulevard district or division, accept the funds of any such political subdivision for deposit in the state treasury, said funds to be deposited in such state fund or funds as said commission may designate, and the state department of engineering shall use and expend the funds so deposited for the construction of bridges, roads or boulevards situated within such political subdivision, in accordance with the plans and specifications and other terms as are mutually agreed upon by said commission, on behalf of the

State of California, and such governing board; provided, however, that any bridge, road or boulevard constructed under the provisions of this section by and under the jurisdiction of said state department of engineering shall revert to the original jurisdiction and control immediately upon the completion thereof, unless such bridge, road or boulevard shall, in the opinion of said commission, be and constitute an integral part of the state highway system as contemplated by the state highways act and the state highways act of 1915 or as otherwise provided by law; and, further, the governing board of any county, permanent road division, or road or boulevard district or division may pay into the state treasury, as provided herein, for the purposes hereof, any funds under its jurisdiction and control subject to use for bridge, road or boulevard purposes, created by tax levy or issuance of the bonds of any such political subdivision or otherwise.

(c) Investigate and determine upon the various methods of road construction adapted to the different sections of the state, as to the best methods of construction and maintenance of highways and bridges, and make such experiments in relation thereto from time to time as said commission deems expedient.

(f) Aid at all times in promoting highway improvement throughout the state.

(g) Have the power to call upon any state, county or municipal official to furnish said commission with any information contained in his office which relates to, or is in any way necessary to, the proper performance of the work of said department of engineering, and it is hereby made the duty of such officials to furnish such information without cost.

Biennial
reports.

(h) Prepare biennial reports relating to road and highway work which shall be incorporated by the state engineer in his biennial reports which he is required by law to submit to the governor at least thirty days before each session of the legislature.

p. 221.

SEC. 5. Section thirteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Cooperative work with U. S. government.

Sec. 13. All cooperative engineering work now existing or to be engaged in by the state with the United States government shall be placed under the department of engineering. All plans, estimates and specifications shall be approved by the state engineer except that in the case of road and highway work all plans, estimates and specifications shall be approved by the California highway commission, and the advisory board shall have full power to determine the kind, quality and extent of such work under cooperation with said government before entering into agreement with said government for such work. All unexpended moneys provided for by law on the aforesaid cooperative basis shall be expressly placed under the full control of the department of engineering and the state controller shall transfer such funds to the credit of the said department. Hereafter plans, estimates and specifications for such work shall be filed in the office of said department. All moneys received by the state treasurer from the United States government under project agreements relating to federal aid road work shall be credited by the state controller to such fund or funds as the state department of engineering shall designate.

SEC. 6. Section sixteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1907,
p. 222.

Sec. 16. The state engineer shall prepare biennial reports which shall be submitted to the governor at least thirty days before each session of the legislature. Said report shall embrace the work and investigations of the department under his charge for the previous two years, together with such recommendations for changes in the laws affecting the department as he may deem advisable. It shall be the duty of the state printer to print all reports, bulletins or other matter and furnish any other necessary illustrations or diagram therefor as the department may deem necessary, all of which shall, however, be subject to the approval of the state board of examiners.

CHAPTER 538.

An act to amend section three of an act entitled "An act relating to explosives and prescribing regulations for the transportation, storage and selling of explosives, and providing penalties for the violation of this act," in effect March 21, 1911, and known as chapter two hundred thirteen, Statutes of 1911, and to repeal section eleven of said act.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of chapter two hundred thirteen, of the statutes of 1911, entitled "An act relating to explosives and prescribing regulations for the transportation, storage and selling of explosives, and providing penalties for the violation of this act," in effect March 21, 1911, is hereby amended to read:

Stats. 1911,
p. 391.

Sec. 3. Magazines in which explosives may lawfully be stored or kept shall be two classes, as follows:

Magazines.

(a) Magazines of the first class shall consist of those containing explosives exceeding one hundred pounds, and shall be constructed wholly of brick, wood covered with iron, or other fireproof material, and must be fireproof, and, except magazines where gunpowder or black blasting powder only is stored must be bullet proof, and shall have no openings except for ventilation and entrance. The doors of such magazine must be fireproof and bullet proof, and at all times kept closed and locked, except when necessarily opened for the purpose of storing or removing explosives therein or therefrom, by persons lawfully entitled to enter the same. Every such magazine shall have sufficient openings for ventilation thereof, which must be screened in such manner as to prevent the entrance of sparks or fire through the same. Upon each side of such magazine there shall at all times be kept conspicuously posted a sign, with the words, "magazine," "explosives," "dangerous," legibly printed thereon in letters not less than six inches high. No matches, fire or lighting device of any kind except electric light shall at any time be permitted in any such magazine. No package of explosives shall at any time be opened in any magazine. No blasting caps, or other detonating or fulminating caps, or detonators, or electric fuzes, shall be kept or stored in any magazine in which explosives are kept or stored, but such caps, detonators or fuzes may be kept or stored in a magazine constructed as above provided which must be located at least one hundred feet from any magazine in which explosives are kept or stored. Magazines in which explosives are kept or stored must be detached and must be located at least one hundred feet from any other structure.

Quantity depends on distance.

(b) On and after January 1, 1919, the quantity of explosives that may be lawfully had, kept or stored in any magazine shall depend upon the distance that such magazine is situated from buildings, highways, or railroads, and upon the protection afforded by natural or efficient artificial barricades to such buildings, highways or railroads. Whenever any of the quantities given in column one of the quantity and distance table hereinafter set forth is had, kept or stored in any magazine in this state, the distance that any quantity given in column one of said table may be lawfully had, kept or stored from buildings is the distance set opposite said quantity in column two of said table, and the distance that any quantity in column one of said table, may be lawfully had, kept or stored from railroads is the distance set opposite said quantity in column three of said table, and the distance that any quantity given in column one of said table may be lawfully had, kept or stored from highways is the distance set opposite said quantity in column four of said table. The quantity and distance table governing the keeping or storing of explosives is as follows:

Whenever the building, railroad or highway to be protected is effectually screened from the magazine, where explosives are had, kept or stored, either by natural features of the ground or by an efficient artificial barricade of such height that any straight line drawn from the top or any side wall of the magazine to any part of the building to be protected, will pass through such intervening natural or efficient artificial barricade, and any straight line drawn from the top of any side wall of the magazine to any point twelve feet above the center of the railroad or highway to be protected will pass through such intervening natural or efficient artificial barricade, the applicable distances given in column two, three and four of the quantity and distance table may be reduced one-half.

Distances reduced one-half,
when.

If at any time the distances from a magazine to a building, highway or railroad be decreased through the construction of a new building, highway or railroad or by any other means,

then the amounts of explosives which may be lawfully had, kept or stored in said magazine must be reduced to correspond with the quantity and distance table.

"Building." The term "building" when used in the foregoing table shall be held to mean and include only any building regularly occupied in whole or in part as a habitation for human beings, and any store, church, schoolhouse, railway station or other public place of assembly.

"Highway." The term "highway" when used in the foregoing table shall be held to mean public streets or public road, and shall not include roads constructed and maintained by private persons.

"Railroad." The term "railroad" when used in the foregoing table shall be held to mean and include any steam, electric or other railroad that carries passengers or articles of commerce for hire.

"Efficient artificial barricade." The term "efficient artificial barricade" when used in the foregoing shall be held to mean an artificial mound or properly revetted wall of earth of a thickness of not less than three feet. The provisions of this subsection (b) shall not apply to mining or quarrying operations. Nothing contained in this subsection (b) shall be held to prohibit the keeping or storing of explosives at any explosive manufacturing plant which was actually used in manufacturing explosives prior to the fifteenth day of April, nineteen hundred seventeen.

Second class. (c) Magazines of the second class shall consist of a stout box, and not more than one hundred pounds of explosives shall at any time be kept or stored therein, and, except when necessarily opened for use by authorized persons, shall at all times be kept securely locked. Upon each such magazine there shall at all times be kept conspicuously posted a sign with the words, "magazine," "explosives," "dangerous," legibly printed thereon.

Storage in tunnels. Nothing in this section contained shall be held to prohibit the keeping or storing of explosives in any tunnel, where no person or persons are employed; provided, always, that any tunnel so used for the storage of explosives shall have fireproof doors, which must at all times be kept closed and locked, except when necessarily opened for the purpose of storing or removing explosives therein or therefrom, by persons lawfully entitled to enter the same. The door of such tunnel magazine shall at all times have legibly printed thereon the words, "magazine," "explosives," "dangerous."

Repealed. SEC. 2. Section eleven of said act is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 539.

An act to amend section seven hundred fifteen of the Civil Code, relating to restraints upon alienation.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seven hundred fifteen of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

715. Except in the single case mentioned in section seven hundred seventy-two, the absolute power of alienation can not be suspended, by any limitation or condition whatever, for a longer period than as follows: <sup>Restraints upon alienation.</sup>

1. During the continuance of the lives of persons in being at the creation of the limitation or condition; or

2. For a period not to exceed twenty-five years from the time of the creation of the suspension.

 CHAPTER 540.

An act to amend sections one thousand five hundred nineteen and one thousand five hundred nineteen a of the Political Code, and to add five new sections thereto, to be numbered one thousand five hundred nineteen b, one thousand five hundred nineteen c, one thousand five hundred nineteen d, one thousand five hundred thirty-four and one thousand six hundred ninety-six b, relating to the powers and duties of the state board of education and of the superintendent of public instruction, and to the duties of teachers.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand five hundred nineteen of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1519. The state board of education shall have power and it shall be its duty: <sup>Powers.</sup>

First—To adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of this state for its own government, for the government of its appointees and employees, for the government of the day and evening elementary schools, the day and evening secondary schools, the technical and vocational schools of the state, for the government of the several normal schools of the state as hereinafter provided, and for the government of such other schools, excepting the University of California, as may receive in whole or in part financial support from the state. <sup>Adopt rules.</sup>

Such rules and regulations shall be published for distribution as soon as practicable after adoption.

Rules for normal schools.

At the joint meeting of this board and the representatives of the normal schools of the state provided for in section one thousand five hundred eighteen a of the Political Code, matters affecting the normal schools may be presented by members of the board, by the superintendent of public instruction and the commissioners of education, and by the representatives of the normal schools, and, after due presentation and consideration, the board may adopt rules and regulations for the government of the normal schools in the following matters:

Standardizing course of instruction.

(a) The standardizing, as far as the board shall deem it wise and necessary, of the courses of instruction offered in the several normal schools for the preparation of teachers for the public schools of the state.

Courses for special teachers.

(b) The establishing and conducting in any or all of the normal schools of the state of such courses of instruction as shall prepare for the public schools of the state special teachers in any or all of the subjects of drawing, music, physical education, and commercial, technical or industrial branches.

List of textbooks.

(c) The compiling and publishing of a list of textbooks for use by the students of the several normal schools of the state; provided, that the state series of textbooks shall be used in the grades and classes for which they are adapted, and that all other regular textbooks shall be selected by the various normal school authorities from said list.

Standards of admission.

(d) The prescribing of the standards of admission for students entering the normal schools, and the rules for transfer of pupils from one normal school to another; provided, that a student for good cause, may, upon recommendation of the president of the school from which he seeks to be transferred, enter any other normal school and without examinations be admitted to classes corresponding to those in the school which he has left.

Graduation.

(e) The determination of the time and standards for graduation from the state normal schools.

Assistant superintendents of public instruction.

Second—To appoint three assistant superintendents of public instruction, who shall not be subject to the provisions of any civil service law of the state, and who shall be known and designated as follows:

(a) One commissioner of elementary schools, who shall be experienced in teaching in and supervising elementary schools.

(b) One commissioner of secondary schools, who shall be experienced in teaching and who has been principal or supervisor of secondary schools.

(c) One commissioner of industrial and vocational education who has had experience as a supervisor of industrial or vocational education.

Subpenas for witnesses before board.

Third—To issue subpenas to compel the attendance of witnesses before the board or any member thereof, in the same manner that any court in this state may; and whenever the testimony of any witness upon any matter pending before it is material, the president must cause the attendance of the witness before such board, or a member thereof, to testify concerning such matter, and the board may make a reasonable allowance therefor, not exceeding the fees of witnesses in civil cases, which must be paid for out of the appropriation for the contingent expenses of the board, but in no instance can an allowance be made in favor of a witness who appears in behalf of a claimant.

Fourth—To adopt and use, in authentication of their acts, Seal.
an official seal.

Fifth—To have done by the state printer, or other officer Printing.
having the management of the state printing, any printing required by it; provided, that all orders for printing shall first be approved by the state board of control.

Sixth—The state board of education shall study the educa- General tional conditions and needs of the state; shall make plans for duties.
the improvement of the administration and efficiency of the public schools of the state; shall have power to conduct educational investigations and shall employ educational and business experts, within the limits of its appropriation therefor; shall annually require reports as to the activities of the superintendent of public instruction and the assistant superintendents, and such other employees as it may direct to report, for submission to the governor, and the same shall submit biennially to the governor, on or before the fifteenth day of September next preceding the regular session of the legislature, a report of its transactions for the preceding two years, together with recommendations of its needs for the coming biennium, and such recommendations as to changes in laws or new educational legislation as may seem to it to be necessary.

Seventh—To appoint an acting secretary, who shall also Acting act as executive officer of the board in the absence of the secretary.
superintendent of public instruction from his office or in case of his incapacity for duty.

SEC. 2. Section one thousand five hundred nineteen a of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1519*a*. The state board of education shall have power and it shall be its duty:

First—To prescribe by general rule the credentials upon Credentials which persons may be granted certificates to teach in the high for high schools of this state. No credentials shall be prescribed or school allowed, unless the same, in the judgment of said board, are certificates.
the equivalent of a diploma of graduation from the University of California, and are satisfactory evidence that the holder thereof has taken an amount of pedagogy equivalent to the minimum amount of pedagogy prescribed by the state board of education of this state, and include a recommendation for a high school certificate from the faculty of the institution in which the pedagogical work shall have been taken.

Special
cases.

Second—To consider the cases of individual applicants who have taught successfully for a period of not less than seventeen school months, and who are not possessed of the credentials prescribed by the board under the provisions of this section, and where the evidence submitted by the applicant does not satisfy the board it may, in its discretion, provide for his examination. The said board, in its discretion, may issue to such applicants high school credentials upon which they may be granted certificates to teach in the high schools of the state. In such special cases, the board may take cognizance of any adequate evidence of preparation which the applicants may present. The standard of qualification in such special cases shall not be lower than that represented by the other credentials named by the board under the provisions of subdivision first of this section.

Special
certificates for special subjects.

Third—To establish and prescribe by general regulations the qualifications upon which county boards of education may grant to any person a special certificate to teach any special subject or subjects in such grades as are mentioned therein; provided, that no qualification shall be prescribed for certification to teach in any grade whatever a vocational subject unless the candidate shall have had, as a minimum, three years' experience as a journeyman, or, where this terminology does not apply, its equivalent, in the vocation in which he desires certification.

Applicants
necessary
qualifications.

Fourth—To consider the cases of individual applicants who are not possessed of the qualifications prescribed in subdivision third of this section, or in the general regulations of the state board of education, and where the evidence submitted by any applicant who meets the academic requirements of the board does not satisfy the board of his knowledge of the special subject and methods of teaching the same, it may, in its discretion, provide such examination as it may deem expedient and wise. When the state board of education is satisfied that any applicant possesses qualifications equivalent to those so specified, it may issue to such applicant a state board credential upon which county boards of education may grant to him a special certificate to teach such special subject or subjects as are listed in said credential in such grades and for such length of time as therein specified.

Life
diplomas.

Fifth—To grant life diplomas for four grades, valid throughout the state, as follows:

(1) High school: Authorizing the holder to teach in any primary or grammar or high school.

(2) Elementary school: Authorizing the holder to teach in any elementary school.

(3) Kindergarten-primary: Authorizing the holder to teach in the kindergarten class of any primary school.

(4) Special: Authorizing the holder to teach in any school such special branches and in such grades as are named in such diploma.

Sixth—To issue, except as provided in sections one thousand five hundred three and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five of this code, life diplomas only to such persons as have held for one year, and still hold, a valid county, or city and county, certificate, corresponding in grade to the grade of diploma applied for, and who shall furnish satisfactory evidence of having had a successful experience in teaching of at least forty-eight months. Not less than twenty-one months of said experience shall have been in the public schools of California. Every application must be accompanied to the state board of education by a certified copy of a resolution adopted by at least a three-fourths vote of all the members composing a county, or city and county, board of education, recommending that the diploma be granted, and also by an affidavit of the applicant, specifically setting forth the places in which, and the dates between which, said applicant has taught. The application for any credentials or diploma or document mentioned in this chapter must be accompanied by a fee of two dollars, and in addition thereto each applicant permitted to take an examination shall, before he is so permitted, pay a fee of ten dollars. All of the above fees must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the contingent fund of the state board of education and applied by said board in defraying or in partially defraying the expense of investigating the qualifications of candidates, issuing credentials, documents or diplomas, and providing for the employment of professional experts to conduct examinations for special credentials and high school credentials, as specified in subdivisions second and fourth of this section.

Qualifications for life diplomas.

Fee.

Seventh—To revoke or suspend for immoral or unprofessional conduct, or for evident unfitness for teaching, life diplomas, documents issued under the provisions of sections one thousand five hundred three and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five of this code, or credentials issued in accordance with the provisions of this section; and to adopt such rules for said revocation as they may deem expedient or necessary.

Revocation of life diplomas.

Eighth—The state board of education, in order to meet emergencies, is hereby authorized to create a commission of credentials, to consist of the commissioner of elementary schools, the commissioner of secondary schools and the commissioner of industrial and vocational education. This commission, when directed by the board, shall have authority to review the cases of applicants for the special credentials and the high school credentials, specified in subdivisions second and fourth of this section, and when said commission is satisfied that any candidate fully meets the standards maintained by the state board it may issue the proper credential; provided, that said credential to be valid must be issued upon the regular form used by the state board of education and must be signed by the secretary and president of said state board.

Commission of credentials.

SEC. 3. A new section to be numbered one thousand five hundred nineteen b is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:

1519*b*. The state board of education shall have power and it shall be its duty:

Compile
textbooks.

First—To compile in whole, or in part, and to manufacture such textbooks as are now in use; to compile, or cause to be compiled, and manufacture such other additional textbooks or books, as it may deem necessary or proper for use in the elementary schools of the state, as provided by section one thousand six hundred sixty-five of the Political Code; to purchase books when necessary, or lease plates, maps, engravings or copyright matter for use in manufacturing such textbooks; contract for, or lease copyrights for use in compiling, printing or publishing such books; to provide for the payment of royalties or for the leasing of plates or making the whole or any part of a book, and to do any or all things that may be necessary for the purpose of procuring a uniform series of textbooks for use in the elementary day and evening schools of the state.

Contract for use of
plates, etc.

Second—Whenever any plates, maps, or engravings of any publisher or author are adopted for use, or whenever any books have been purchased, as hereinbefore provided, the state board of education shall enter into a contract for not less than four years nor more than eight years for the use of the same in the elementary day and evening schools of the state, and shall require a good and sufficient bond of the owner or owners of such books, plates, maps or engravings under a written guarantee that the same shall be kept revised and free from all errors and up to date as may be required by the state board of education.

Copys rights.

Third—The state board of education may secure copyrights in the name of the people of the State of California, to any book that may be compiled. Whenever any one or more of the state textbooks shall have been compiled or purchased, published and adopted, the superintendent of public instruction, on the order of the state board of education shall issue an order to all county, city, city and county school superintendents by sending notices by registered mail to said superintendents who in turn shall notify the secretaries of all boards of education in the cities and the clerk of the board of school trustees and the teacher or principal in each school district, requiring the uniform use of such book, in the grades of the elementary day and evening schools for which they have been adopted, and when such order has thus been given and published, the same shall remain in force and effect for a term of not less than four nor more than eight years; provided, that such order for the uniform use of such book, shall not take effect until the beginning of the next fiscal year; namely, the first of July next following the issue of the order, or at such time thereafter as may be fixed by the state board of education;

Uniform
use of textbooks.

When a book has been adopted, the state board of education shall enforce the uniform use of such book. in the elementary day and evening schools for which said book has been adopted.

Fourth—Any teacher, or city, county, or city and county superintendent of schools or any board of education, refusing or neglecting to use said series of state textbooks at the time required in the last preceding subdivision of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon proof thereof of such refusal or neglect, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense; provided, that nothing herein contained shall in any way restrict the additional use of such books as are now provided in section one thousand seven hundred twelve of the Political Code.

Refusal to use state textbooks.

Fifth—The superintendent of state printing shall have supervision of all of the mechanical work connected with the printing of such books as may be compiled and adopted subject to the approval of the state board of education or such representative of the state board of education as may be appointed to supervise such work. The superintendent of state printing shall print and bind such books in lots of not less than five thousand and turn them over to the state board of education at the warehouse, and receive payment therefor on the approval of the items of said cost by the state board of education or the duly authorized agent of said board, and upon the approval of the bill by the board of control. He shall furnish one copy of a cost-finding report showing items of work and the materials and the exact cost of each item for each of said lot of books, to the state board of education and one copy to the board of control. The superintendent of state printing shall on the first day of each month furnish to the state board of education a detailed statement showing the name and number of books published by him during the preceding month, and the number then in course of publication.

Duties of superintendent of state printing.

Sixth—On receiving a copy of the cost-finding report and estimated cost of the publishing of any book, the state board of education thereupon shall determine and fix the cost price of such books by adding to the cost of manufacture, the contract price to be paid as royalty or for the use of plates, maps, or engravings or copyrighted matter, and said price, to which has been added ten per cent of such price to cover overhead expense, shall be deemed to be the whole cost of publication of such book at Sacramento. The state board of education may provide for the sale at not less than cost price of state textbooks to private schools, individuals, or dealers under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by said board of education; provided, that such books be not sold by dealers for more than the cost price at Sacramento, plus the postage, packing and cartage on such books, which prices shall be established by said board of education.

Board of education to fix cost price of books.

The state board of education may provide for the disposition of such textbooks as are no longer in a fit condition to be used for purposes of instruction; provided, that whenever in its judgment it would be practicable to sell such old textbooks for use in the manufacture of paper pulp or similar substances, the highest price obtainable shall be secured therefor, and the money so obtained deposited in the state schoolbook fund.

SEC. 4. A new section, to be numbered one thousand five hundred nineteen is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:

1519c. The appropriation heretofore made, known as the "textbook appropriation," shall be subject to the draft of the state board of education for necessary expenses incurred by it for office supplies, the hiring of expert assistants, and for other necessary expenses; provided, that all claims shall be presented to the board of control for its approval. All moneys that have been received or may hereafter be received from the sale of said series of state textbooks to private schools or to dealers or persons or that may be appropriated by the legislature for publishing said series of state textbooks, shall be kept by the state treasurer in a fund known as the "state schoolbook fund." This fund shall be subject to the order of the state board of education for all expenses incurred by the superintendent of printing for all material, labor, and other expenses necessary for publishing state school textbooks, and for all books purchased, for the cost of shipping free textbooks, and for necessary employees in connection with such shipment as may be determined by the state board of education. All claims to be drawn, after being certified by the claimant and the items approved by the secretary of the state board of education shall be presented to the board of control for its approval, and upon the approval of said board of control, the state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant on the state treasurer, who is hereby directed to pay the same.

SEC. 5. A new section to be numbered one thousand five hundred thirty-four is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:

1534. All orders for textbooks shall be forwarded to the superintendent of public instruction on blanks furnished by him. He shall investigate such orders and make necessary changes and forward the same to the person in charge of the warehouse and shipment of books with definite orders for shipment. He shall keep an accurate account of the amount of money received from the sale of textbooks for each month and report to the controller on or before the fifth of the succeeding month, the number of books sold, or distributed, and the amount of money collected therefor, and shall pay such money into the treasury to the credit of the "school textbook fund." The amount fixed for royalty and costs of plates or copyright matter in favor of any company, or individual, shall be presented by the superintendent of public instruction to the state board of education for its approval. Said claim shall be paid quarterly, in the same manner as other claims upon the state treasury, on the approval of the board of control.

On receiving orders from the superintendent of public instruction for textbooks the person in charge of the warehouse and shipment of books shall forward by freight, express or mail, as directed by the superintendent of public instruction, to the nearest freight depot, express or post office, in the name of the clerk of the school district or the city superintendent of schools in cities, the number of books called for in said order.

SEC. 6. A new section to be numbered one thousand six hundred ninety-six b is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:

1696*b*. Upon closing a term of school, each teacher or principal shall prepare, upon requisition blanks furnished by the superintendent of public instruction, an order for the number of state textbooks estimated to be required for use in the school under his charge at the opening of the ensuing term. Such order shall be a part of the annual report required by subdivision six of section one thousand six hundred ninety-six of the Political Code. The superintendent of schools shall in no case draw a requisition for the salary of any teacher for the last month of the school term until the order required by this section has been filed and by him approved. Orders for additional books may be forwarded at any time on the approval of the county superintendent of schools.

Order for textbooks
by teacher.

In ordering free textbooks, any teacher may order one copy of any series of books for use on the teacher's desk, if not supplied with such book, which copy shall be sent by the superintendent of public instruction free of cost with other school books.

SEC. 7. A new section to be numbered one thousand five hundred nineteen d is hereby added to the Political Code to read as follows:

1519*d*. The president or principal of any state institution, in which instruction is given in the elementary branches, may order such state textbook, as may be used to advantage, for use in said institution, on blanks supplied by the superintendent of public instruction; provided, such orders shall be subject to revision by said superintendent of public instruction. Such books shall be delivered free of cost to such institution on the order of the superintendent of public instruction, in the usual method of shipment.

Order from head of state
institution.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code, to be numbered section one thousand six hundred seventy, relating to the school year, and school month, and to repeal section one thousand six hundred ninety-seven of the Political Code, relating to the school month, and section one thousand eight hundred seventy-eight of the Political Code, relating to the school year.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered one thousand six hundred seventy is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:

School year. 1670. The school year begins on the first day of July and ends on the last day of June. A school month is construed and taken to be twenty days or four weeks of five days each, including legal holidays.

Repealed. SEC. 2. Section one thousand six hundred ninety-seven and section one thousand eight hundred seventy-eight of the Political Code are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 542.

An act granting to the city of Arcata tide and submerged lands of the State of California, including the right to wharf out therefrom to the city of Arcata, and regulating the management, use and control thereof.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Titlelands
granted to Arcata.

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Arcata, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all tide and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, situate in the county of Humboldt, State of California, and described as follows, to wit:

Commencing at a point south eighty-nine and one-half degrees west five and ninety-one one-hundredths chains, and south thirty-one degrees fifty-two minutes west sixteen and twenty-seven one-hundredths chains from the center of section thirty-two, township six north, range one east of Humboldt meridian, Humboldt county, California, running thence north two hundred fifty feet to south side of dike;

thence north seventy-five degrees west one thousand seven hundred fifty feet following the south side of the dike and crossing Daniel's slough to a point on the section line between sections thirty-one and thirty-two; thence westward following the south side of the dike to a point on said dike south seventy-nine degrees west six thousand four hundred fifty feet; thence south six thousand four hundred forty feet to a point one thousand sixty feet due west of Beacon number nine; then east four thousand feet to a point seven hundred eighty feet south of "pier," as marked on United States hydrographic chart Humboldt bay survey 1911, sheet three, thence north fifty-four and one-half degrees east two thousand three hundred seventy-five feet to the end of the fourth course as recited in the description of the tidelands granted to the city of Arcata (approved June 11, 1913); thence north eighty degrees east five thousand seven hundred fifty feet to a point on the west side of the right of way of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company; thence following the west line of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company's right of way to a point in the center of Butcher's slough north twenty-seven degrees and fifty minutes west four thousand five hundred feet; thence north fifty-two and one-half degrees west six and twelve one-hundredths chains; thence north seventy-one and one-half degrees west four and five one-hundredths chains; thence north fifty-three and one-half degrees west eleven and twenty-six one-hundredths chains; thence north thirty-one and one-half degrees west two and six one-hundredths chains to the place of beginning.

Tidelands
granted to Arcata.

Said lands shall be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

That said lands shall be used by said city and its successors, solely for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purpose whatever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon, for limited periods, for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods, for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor, for a term not exceeding twenty-five years, and on such other terms and conditions as said city may determine, including a right to renew such lease or leases for a further term not exceeding twenty-five years or to terminate the same on such terms, reservations and conditions as may be stipulated in such lease or leases, and said lease or leases may be for any and all purposes which shall not interfere with navigation or commerce, with reversion to said city on the termination of such lease or leases of any and all improvements thereon, and on such other terms and conditions as the said city may determine, but for no purpose which will interfere with navigation or commerce; subject also to a reservation in all such leases or such wharfing out privileges of a street, or of such other reservation as the said city may determine for sewer outlets, and for gas and oil mains, and for hydrants, and for electric cables and wires, and for such other conduits for municipal purposes, and for such public and municipal purposes and uses as may be deemed necessary by the said city; provided, however, that each person, firm or corporation or their heirs, successors or assigns now in possession of land or lands abutting on said lands within the boundaries of the city of Arcata, shall have a right to obtain a lease for a term of twenty-five years from said city of said land and wharfing out privileges therefrom with a right of renewal for a further term of twenty-five years pursuant to the provisions of this act and on such terms and conditions as said city may determine and specify, subject to the right of said city to terminate said lease at the end of the first twenty-five years or refuse to renew the same, or to terminate the lease so renewed during the term of such renewed lease on such just and reasonable terms for compensation for improvements at the then value of said improvements as said city may determine and specify.

Upon obtaining such lease and wharfing out privileges such person, firm or corporation, their heirs or assigns, shall quit-claim to said city any right they or any of them may claim or have to the said lands hereby granted.

Right to rents.

This grant shall carry the right to such city of the rents, issues and profits in any manner hereafter arising from the lands or wharfing out privileges hereby granted.

Right of state to use wharves, etc

The State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad owned or operated by the State of California.

No discrimination
in rates.

No discrimination in rates, tolls or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or its successors in the management, conduct or operation of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in this section.

Right to fish
reserved.

There is hereby reserved in the people of the State of California the right to fish in the waters on which said lands may front with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose.

CHAPTER 543.

An act to amend section one thousand eight hundred ninety-one of the Political Code, relating to school districts situated in two or more counties.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand eight hundred ninety-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1891. When any school district is situated partly in two or more counties, all returns, reports, certificates, estimates, petitions and other papers of any kind required to be filed with or presented to the board of supervisors by any provision of this code relating to schools and school districts shall be filed with or presented to the supervisors of every county in which any portion of said district may be situated, and all action required to be taken by the board of supervisors regarding any such matters shall be taken by the concurrent action of the respective boards of supervisors of every county in which any portion of said district may be situated. The assessor of each of such counties shall annually certify to the board of supervisors of each of the counties in which any portion of such school district is situated the assessed value of all taxable property in such county situated in such school district as appears from the last assessment roll of his county, such certificate to be made in the same manner and at the same time as is required for school districts located wholly within the boundaries of one county. The board of supervisors of each county shall thereupon determine the rate of taxation necessary to be levied upon the property in said district situated in the county, such rate to be sufficient to meet the proportion of taxes necessary to be raised in the county for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of the bonds of the district and all other expenses of the district as shown by the estimate of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over such district. Such taxes shall be assessed, levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as county taxes are assessed, levied and collected, and the moneys so received shall, on demand of the board of trustees of any such school district, be deposited in the county treasury of the county whose superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over such school district, and said county treasury is hereby declared to be the legal depository of such school district. The moneys so deposited shall be placed in the school fund of such school district to be expended in the same manner as moneys of other school districts are expended.

different
counties.

CHAPTER 544.

An act to amend section one thousand seven hundred twenty-eight of the Political Code, relating to the formation of joint union high school districts.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand seven hundred twenty-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Formation of joint union high school districts.

1728. Whenever a majority of the registered electors, residing in each of two or more contiguous school districts, having in the aggregate at least one hundred pupils in average daily attendance in the elementary schools of such districts, shall unite in a petition to the superintendent of schools of the county who would have jurisdiction over the joint high school district proposed to be formed, which petition shall pray for the formation of a joint union high school district, under a name specified therein, such superintendent shall, within twenty days after receipt of such petition, verify the signatures thereto, and, if he finds it sufficient, the same proceedings shall be had on such petition as are directed in section one thousand seven hundred twenty-seven, except that the county superintendent of schools shall file his certificate of the result of the election with the county clerk of each county in which any part of the joint union high school district is situated. If it appears from such certificate that a majority of the votes cast at such election were cast in favor of the formation of such district, such joint union high school district shall be deemed to be formed from the time of the filing thereof. The county clerk shall record the certificate in full in his record of high school districts.

CHAPTER 545.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code, to be numbered section one thousand five hundred forty-three b, and to repeal section one thousand seven hundred twenty-three thereof, relating to the jurisdiction of county superintendents of schools over joint and joint union school districts.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be numbered section one thousand five hundred forty-three b and to read as follows:

Jurisdiction
of county
superintendents over joint districts.

1543*b*. Whenever any school district is situated partly within two or more counties, jurisdiction over such district is hereby conferred upon the county superintendent of schools of the county where the greater number of school children of such district reside, but jurisdiction now or hereafter exercised over any such district under any law of this state shall not be changed to the superintendent of another county by reason of this section or by reason of any change in the number of school children residing in the district unless a majority of the electors of the district vote in favor of such change at an election called for such purpose by the board of trustees of the district. When a new district is formed the board of supervisors of each county in which any part of the district is situated shall designate, in the order creating the district, the county superintendent which shall have jurisdiction thereover, and such determination shall be final until changed by vote of the electors of the district as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 2. Section one thousand seven hundred twenty-three of the Political Code is hereby repealed. Repealed.

CHAPTER 547.

An act to amend section three thousand eight hundred ninety-eight of the Political Code, relating to properties sold for delinquent taxes.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand eight hundred ninety-eight of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

3898. 1. The moneys received from such sale shall be distributed as follows: The tax collector shall deduct the penalties, costs and other amounts received as expenses of such sale in such cases as the property so sold shall have been sold for a sum not less than the amount of all taxes levied thereon and all interest, costs, penalties and expenses up to the date of such sale, but where the property so sold shall have been sold for a sum less than said amount, the tax collector shall deduct only the amounts received as expenses attending such sale, and the balance shall be distributed between the state and the county, or city and county, in the proportion that the state rate bears to the county, or city and county, rate of taxation; said tax collector shall pay all amounts into the county treasury, and the treasurer shall account to the state for its portion in the settlement required by section three thousand eight hundred sixty-five and section three thousand eight hundred sixty-six.

Distribution of moneys received from sale.

2. On receiving the amount bid, as prescribed in the preceding section, the tax collector must execute a deed to the purchaser, which deed shall be in substance and may be in form as follows:

Deed to purchaser.

“This indenture, made the ____ day of _____, 19____, between _____, tax collector of the county of _____, State of California, first party, and _____ of the county of _____, State of _____, second party, witnesseth:

Form.

That whereas the real property hereinafter described was duly sold and conveyed to the State of California for the non-payment of taxes which had been legally levied and which were a lien upon said property under and in accordance with law; and

Whereas in conformity with law the State of California, acting by and through _____, tax collector as aforesaid, did offer said property, hereinafter described, for heirs and assigns, that certain real property hereinbefore referred to, and situate in the ----- county of -----, State of California, more particularly described as follows, to wit:

* * * * *

In witness whereof, said first party has hereunto set his hand the day and year first above written.

-----, Tax collector of the county of -----,"

No charge for deed.

No other matters need be recited in the said deed than those provided for in the above form. No charge shall be made by the tax collector for the making of any such deed, and the acknowledgment of all such deeds shall be taken by the county clerk free of charge. Said deed shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts recited therein and shall operate to convey all of the interest of the state in and to said property.

Tax collector's report of sales.

3. Within ten days after each sale as provided in the preceding section the tax collector shall report to the assessor and recorder, giving the name or names of all persons to whom deeds have been issued under the provisions of this section, together with the dates of such deeds, the amount for which the property was sold, a description of the property conveyed, together with the numbers and dates of the certificates of sale and of the tax deeds by which title to such property so granted was conveyed to the state.

Recorder's notations.

4. The recorder shall note on the margin of each certificate of sale and of each tax deed involved in the sale and transfer of such property, the name of the purchaser, the date of the deed to the purchaser and the consideration named therein. The assessor shall use such report in his determination of the ownership of such property for assessment purposes.

Refund to purchaser not finally awarded property.

5. (a) Whenever in any action at law, it has been or shall be determined by a court that the sale and conveyance provided for in this and the preceding section or in section three thousand seven hundred seventy-one of this code heretofore or hereafter made are void for any reason, and that the purchaser from the state may not be finally awarded the property so purchased, no decree of the court shall be given declaring a forfeiture of the property until the former owner, or other party in interest, shall have repaid to the purchaser the full amount of taxes, penalties and costs paid out and expended by him, to be determined by the court, in pursuit of the state's title to the property so sold. The said purchaser may within one year after such decree becomes final also present a claim against the county, in the manner provided by law, for a refund of the amount paid into the

(b) Whenever it shall be determined to the satisfaction of the board of supervisors of the county in which the land is situated that any land belonging to the United States government or to this state, a municipality or other political subdivision of this state has been erroneously sold and conveyed under the provisions of this or the preceding section, or section three thousand seven hundred seventy-one of this code, and the said land should not have been so sold, the purchaser at said sale may present a claim against the county in the manner provided by law for a refund of the amount so paid into the county treasury by reason of such sale.

and parts of acts in conflict herewith," approved May 19, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Bureau of vital statistics.

State
registrar

Salary.

Deputy.

Other
assistants.

Section 1. The state board of health shall maintain a bureau of vital statistics which shall have charge of such matters and shall have such powers as may from time to time be referred and delegated to it by the state board of health. The board shall appoint a state registrar who, by virtue of his office, shall be director of the bureau of vital statistics. His salary shall be two thousand four hundred dollars per annum. The state registrar shall be a competent vital statistician. He shall have general supervision and control over the bureau of vital statistics. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall not engage in any other occupation or business. The board shall appoint also a deputy statistician, whose salary shall be one thousand six hundred dollars per annum, and two copyists, each of whom shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum. All such salaries shall be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the salaries of state officers. The state board of health may appoint and fix the compensation of such other additional professional and clerical assistants as may be necessary for the purposes of this act, but such compensation shall be paid from its fund for contingent expenses, as provided in the general appropriation act. As soon as practicable the custodian of the capitol shall provide for the bureau of vital statistics in the state capitol at Sacramento, suitable offices, which shall be properly equipped with fireproof vault and filing cases for the permanent and safe preservation of all official records made and returned under this act.

SEC. 3. Section three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Registration
districts

SEC. 3. For the purposes of this act the state shall be divided into registration districts as follows: Each city and county, city and incorporated town, shall constitute a primary registration district; and each county, exclusive of the cities and incorporated towns therein, may be subdivided by the state registrar into a sufficient number of primary rural registration districts, the boundaries of which he shall define and which he may alter, combine, or subdivide from time to time as may be necessary to promote efficient and convenient registration of all births and deaths.

SEC. 4. Section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1915,
p. 376.

Sec. 4. The clerk of each city and county, city and incorporated town, shall be the local registrar in and for such primary registration district and shall perform all such duties of local registrar as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that in cities having a frecholders' charter, the health officer may act as local registrar and perform all the duties thereof. Local registrars.

The state registrar, subject to the approval of the state board of health or its secretary, shall appoint a local registrar for each primary rural district whose term of office shall be four years, and whom the state registrar may remove forthwith for failure or neglect to perform his duty as prescribed by this act. Local registrar
for each primary rural district.

Each local registrar for a primary rural district, besides transmitting to the state registrar each original birth and death certificate registered by him and besides retaining a complete and accurate copy of each such birth and death certificate for the local record of the primary rural district as required by section nineteen of this act, shall also transmit to the recorder of the county for a special county record a complete and accurate copy of each original birth and death certificate transmitted by said local registrar to the state registrar; provided, further, that in accordance with sections three thousand seventy-six, three thousand seventy-eight, and three thousand seventy-nine of the Political Code, the county recorder shall be the sole local registrar for marriages performed anywhere in the county. Registrar for marriages.

Each local registrar shall immediately appoint a deputy in writing, whose duty it shall be to act in his stead in case of his absence or disability; and such deputy shall in writing accept such appointment, and be subject to all rules and regulations governing local registrars. Deputy.

And when it appears necessary for the convenience of the people in any registration district, the local registrar is hereby authorized, with the approval of the state registrar, to appoint one or more suitable persons to act as subregistrars, who shall be authorized to receive certificates and to issue burial or removal permits in and for such portions of the district as may be designated; and each subregistrar shall note, on each certificate, over his signature, the date of filing, and shall forthwith forward all certificates to the local registrar of the district, and in all cases before the third day of the following month; provided, that each subregistrar shall be subject to the supervision and control of the state registrar, and may be by him removed for neglect or failure to perform his duty in accordance with the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations of the state registrar, and shall be subject to the same penalties for neglect of duty as the local registrar. SEC. 5. Section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. The body of any person whose death occurs in this state, or which shall be found dead therein or which shall be brought in from outside the state, shall not be interred, deposited in a vault or tomb, cremated, disinterred or otherwise disposed of, or removed from or into any registration district, or be temporarily held pending further disposition more than seventy-two hours after death, unless a permit for burial, removal, or other disposition thereof shall have been properly issued by the local registrar of the registration district in which the death occurred or the body was found; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent an undertaker from removing a body from the registration district where the death occurred or the body was found to a contiguous registration district in the same or an adjoining county in an undertaker's conveyance for the purpose of preparing said body for burial or shipment. A removal permit must be secured within forty-eight hours and before embalming the body. No body where death occurred from any disease held by the state board of health to be infectious, contagious or communicable and dangerous to the public health shall be removed without first securing a removal permit in the manner provided in section nineteen of this act. And no such burial or removal permit shall be issued by any registrar until, wherever practicable, a complete and satisfactory certificate of death has been filed with him as hereinafter provided; provided, that when a dead body is transported from outside the state into a registration district in California for burial, the transit or removal permit, issued in accordance with the law and health regulations of the place where the death occurred, shall be accepted by the local registrar of the district into which the body has been transported for burial or other disposition, as a basis upon which he may issue a local burial permit, noting upon the face of the burial permit the fact that it was a body shipped in for interment, and giving the actual place of death; and no local registrar shall receive any fee for the issuance of burial or removal permits under this act other than the compensation provided in section twenty.

SEC. 6. Section seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Certificate
of death.

Sec. 7. The certificate of death shall contain the following items, which are hereby declared to be necessary for the legal, social, and sanitary purposes subserved by registration records:

(1) Place of death, including state, county, township, village or city. If in a city, the ward, street, and house number; if in a hospital or other institution, the name of the same to be given instead of the street and house number. If in an industrial camp, the name of the camp to be given.

(2) Full name of decedent. If an unnamed child, the surname preceded by "unnamed."

(3) Sex.

(4) Color or race—as white, black, mulatto (or other negro descent), Indian, Chinese, Japanese, or other.

Certificate
of death.

(5) Conjugal condition—as single, married, widowed or divorced.

(5a) Husband of -----

(5b) Wife of -----

(6) Date of birth, including the year, month, and day.

(7) Age, in years, months and days. If less than one day, the hours or minutes.

(8) Occupation. The occupation to be reported of any person, male or female, who had any remunerative employment with the statement of (a) trade, profession or particular kind of work; (b) general nature of industry, business or establishment in which employed (or employer).

(9) Birthplace; at least state or foreign country, if known.

(10) Name of father.

(11) Birthplace of father; at least state or foreign country, if known.

(12) Maiden name of mother.

(13) Birthplace of mother; at least state or foreign country, if known.

(14) Signature and address of informant.

(15) Official signature of registrar, with the date when certificate was filed, and registered number.

(16) Date of death, year, month, and day.

(17) Certification as to medical attendance on decedent, fact and time of death, time last seen alive, and the cause of death, with contributory (secondary) cause of complication, if any, and duration of each, and whether attributed to dangerous or insanitary conditions of employment; signature and address of physician or official making the medical certificate.

(18) Length of residence (for inmates of hospitals and other institutions; transients or recent residents) at place of death and in California, together with the place where disease was contracted if not at the place of death, and former or usual place of residence (giving city and state of residence).

(19) Place of burial or removal; date of burial.

(20) Signature and address of undertaker or person acting as such and license number of embalmer.

The personal and statistical particulars (items one to thirteen) shall be authenticated by the signature of the informant who may be any competent person acquainted with the facts.

The statement of facts relating to the disposition of the body shall be signed by the undertaker or person acting as such.

The medical certificate shall be made and signed by the physician, if any, last in attendance on the deceased, and said physician shall within fifteen hours after the death deposit the certificate at the place of death, or deliver it to the attending undertaker at his place of business or at the office of said

SEC. 7. Section ten of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Wording of burial permit in case of burial within
state.

Sec. 10. If the interment, or other disposition of the body is to be made within the state, the wording of the burial or removal permit may be limited to a statement by the registrar, and over his signature, that a satisfactory certificate of death having been filed with him, as required by law, permission is granted to inter, remove, or dispose otherwise of the body, stating the name, age, sex, cause of death, and other necessary details upon the form prescribed by the state registrar; provided, that the transit permit prescribed by the state board of embalmers may be used in lieu of said burial or removal permit.

Stats. 1917,
p. 581.

SEC. 8. Section thirteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Certificate
of birth.

Sec. 13. Within thirty-six hours after the date of each birth, there shall be filed with the local registrar of the district in which the birth occurred a certificate of such birth, which certificate shall be upon the form adopted by the state board of health with a view to procuring a full and accurate report with respect to each item of information enumerated in section fourteen of this act.

In sparsely-settled districts or where there is no direct mail communication with the county seat a reasonable time shall be fixed by the local registrar.

In each case where a physician, or midwife, or person acting as midwife, was in attendance upon the birth, it shall be the duty of such physician to file in accordance herewith the certificate herein contemplated.

In case no physician was in attendance it shall be the duty of the midwife or person acting as midwife to file such certificate.

In every case it shall be the duty of the father or mother of the child, the householder or owner of the premises where the birth occurred or the manager or superintendent of the public or private institution where the birth occurred, each in the order named, within ten days after the date of such birth, to report to the local registrar the fact of such birth. In such case and in case the physician, midwife, or person acting as midwife, in attendance upon the birth is unable, by diligent inquiry, to obtain any item or items of information contemplated in section fourteen of this act, it shall then be the duty of the local registrar to secure from the person so reporting, or from any other person having the required knowledge, such information as will enable him to prepare the certificate of birth herein contemplated, and it shall be the duty of the person reporting the birth or who may be interrogated in relation thereto to answer correctly and to the best of his knowledge all questions put to him by the local registrar which may be calculated to elicit any information needed to make a complete record of the birth as contemplated by said section fourteen, and it shall be the duty of the informant as to any statement made in accordance herewith to verify such statement by his signature, when requested so to do by the local registrar.

Duty of father, mother, etc.

SEC. 9. Section fourteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1915, p. 582

Sec. 14. The certificate of birth shall contain the following items, which are hereby declared necessary for the legal, social, and sanitary purposes subserved by registration records:

Items in certificate of birth.

And all physicians, midwives, informants, undertakers, clergymen, or judges, and all other persons having knowledge of the facts, are hereby required to supply, upon the forms provided or upon the original certificate, such information as they may possess regarding any birth or death or marriage upon demand of the state registrar, in person, by mail, or through the local registrar; provided, that no certificate of birth or death or marriage, after its acceptance for registration by the local registrar, and no other record made in pursuance of this act, shall be altered or changed in any respect, except where supplemental information required for statistical purposes is furnished.

Records not to be changed.

(a) Whenever it may be alleged that the facts are not correctly stated in any certificate of birth, death, or marriage, already registered, the local registrar shall require an affidavit under oath to be made by the person asserting the fact, setting forth the changes necessary to make the record correct, and supported by the affidavit of one other credible person having knowledge of the facts. Having received such affidavits, the local registrar shall file them together with an amended certificate and he shall note the fact of the amendment with its date on the margin of the otherwise unaltered original certificate. He shall transmit the original certificate with the affidavits and amended certificate attached when making his regular monthly returns to the state registrar. He shall also retain copies for his files. If the correction relates to a certificate previously returned to the state registrar the local registrar shall forthwith transmit the affidavits to the state registrar. If the correction is first made in the state bureau of vital statistics the state registrar shall transmit a certified copy of the amended certificate to the local registrar.

When facts
not

If any cemetery company or association, or any church or historical society or association, or any other company, society or association, or any individual, is in possession of any record of births or deaths which may be of value in establishing the genealogy of any resident of his state, such company, society, association or individual, may file such record or a duly authenticated transcript thereof with the state registrar, and it shall be the duty of the state registrar to preserve such record or transcript and to make a record and index thereof in such form as to facilitate the finding of any information contained therein. Such record and index shall be open to inspection by the public, subject to such reasonable conditions as the state registrar may prescribe. If any person desires a transcript of any record filed in accordance herewith, the state registrar shall furnish the same upon application, together with a certificate that it is a true copy of such record, as filed in his office.

Sec. 21. The state or local registrar shall forthwith upon request supply to any applicant a certified copy of the record of any birth or death or marriage registered under provisions of this act, for the making and certification of which he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant. And any such copy of the record of a birth or death or marriage when properly certified by the state or local registrar, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated. For any search of the files and records when no certified copy is made the state registrar or local registrar shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for each hour or fractional hour of time of search, such fee to be paid by the applicant. The state registrar shall keep a true and correct account of all fees by him received under these provisions, and such money so received by the state registrar shall be deposited with the state treasurer, who shall credit the amount to the fund provided and to be used for the payment of the traveling and contingent expenses of the state board of health, and the money so collected by the local registrar shall be paid by him into the county or city treasury, as the case may be; provided, that the local registrar shall, upon request of any parent or guardian, supply, without fee, a certificate limited to a statement as to the date of birth of any child when the same shall be necessary for admission to school, or for the purpose of securing employment; and provided, further, that the United States census bureau may obtain, without expense to the state, transcripts of births and deaths without payment of the fees herein prescribed.

(b) If, upon such search it shall develop that for any cause any birth or death, or marriage, occurring in this state was not registered in conformity with the provisions of law in effect at the time when such birth or death or marriage occurred by the filing of the certificate therefor with the local registrar within a period of one year from the date of the event, any person beneficially interested in establishing of record the fact of such birth or death or marriage may petition the superior court of the county in which such birth or death or marriage is alleged to have occurred for an order judicially establishing the fact of such birth or death or marriage. Such petition shall be verified and shall contain all the data necessary to enable the court, upon hearing the same, to determine the fact of such birth or death or marriage upon the proofs adduced in behalf of the petitioner at the hearing thereof. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the local registrar of vital statistics, and also upon the district attorney of the county in which such birth or death or marriage is alleged to have occurred, and either of said officials shall have the right in his discretion to appear at such hearing and oppose the making of such order. Such hearing shall be had at such time as the court may appoint, not less than ten days subsequent to the date of filing such petition, and notice thereof must be given by publication for the same time and in the same manner required by law to be given prior to the hearing of the petition for the admission to probate of any will, or the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration thereon.

If, upon such hearing, the proofs of the allegations of the petition are established, to the satisfaction of the court, the court may make an order determining that such birth, death or marriage did in fact occur in such county and at the time shown by the proofs adduced upon such hearing. Order of court.

Such order must be made in the form and upon the blank prescribed and furnished by the state registrar and but one birth, death or marriage may be included therein. And said order shall become effective upon the filing of a certified copy thereof with the local registrar of vital statistics, and the delivery therewith for transmittal to the state registrar of a standard certificate containing such facts and signatures as are obtainable, and upon the filing of a certified copy of said order with the state registrar. An act to amend section one thousand six hundred sixty-five of the Political Code, relating to the subjects in which instruction shall be provided in the elementary schools of the state.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand six hundred sixty-five of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Branches to be taught in grades.

1665. First—Instructions must be given in the following branches in the several grades in which they may be required, viz: reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, geography, language and grammar, with special reference to composition, history of the United States with special reference to the history of the constitution of the United States and the history of the reasons for the adoption of each of its provisions, the duties of citizenship, together with instruction in local civil government; elements of physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the injurious effects of tobacco, alcohol and narcotics on the human system; morals and manners. In the first six grades of the elementary schools, at least two-thirds of the pupil's time during each week shall be devoted to study and recitation of the subjects hereinbefore enumerated, and in the seventh and eighth grades at least twelve and one-half hours of the pupil's time each week shall be devoted to the study and recitation of such subjects.

Time given.

Subjects for remaining time.

Second—From the time remaining after the study and recitations of the studies hereinbefore enumerated, at least twenty minutes of each school day must be devoted by all pupils over the age of eight years to such physical training as shall be most conducive to their proper physical development, and instruction must be given in nature study with

CHAPTER 550.

An act to provide for the adoption of textbooks for use in the public high schools of the state and for furnishing textbooks for the use of pupils of such schools.

[Approved May 18, 1917. In effect July 27, 1917.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The high school board of each and every high school district shall adopt textbooks for use in such district from a list prescribed by the state board of education. Such list shall include textbooks in such high school subjects as in the judgment of the state board of education require the use of textbooks; provided, that separate classics in English and modern languages need not be listed. The high school board of each and every high school district may purchase textbooks for the use of pupils enrolled in the high schools of such district, which textbooks shall at all times be and remain the property of such district, to be supplied to the pupils thereof for use without charge, or at an annual rental, payable in advance, which shall not exceed three dollars for all textbooks required by any pupil during any school year; provided, that after July 1, 1920, textbooks shall be so supplied to pupils of the high schools without charge. Whenever a majority of the heads of families or a majority of the electors in any high school district shall petition in writing the high school board to furnish textbooks free for the use of the pupils enrolled in such high school district, it shall thereafter be the duty of the high school board to furnish such textbooks free for the use of such pupils. The high school board may pay for textbooks furnished in accordance with the provisions of this act, out of the special fund of such high school district. All moneys collected for rental of textbooks shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of such high school district within thirty days after collection.

Textbooks
for use in high schools.

Furnished
free.

Payment.

SEC. 2. Whenever the high school board of any high school district purchases textbooks for the use of pupils residing in portions of the county not included in any high school district and attending the high school of such district, and furnishes textbooks free for the use of such pupils, the board may on or before August first of each year file with the county superintendent of schools of the county in which such pupils reside, a list of such pupils and an itemized statement of the amount expended for textbooks for their use during the preceding school year. The county superintendent of schools shall include such amount in his estimate of the county high school fund required, and the board of supervisors shall include the amount in levying the county high school fund. Before the county superintendent of schools shall apportion any of the county high school fund on average daily attendance, he shall transfer from said fund to the fund of each of the several high school districts of the county, or draw a warrant in favor of the board of trustees of such high school district, for the amount claimed by each on account of textbooks furnished free for the use of pupils residing in portions of the county not included in any high school district, and attending such high school.

Publisher's application for listing of books.

SEC. 3. All publishers desiring to offer school books for the use of pupils enrolled in the high schools of the state shall file with the state board of education at Sacramento a written application for the listing of such book or books accompanied by a fee of ten dollars for each book for which listing is applied, such sum to be deposited in the state treasury and used to defray the cost of reviewing and examining said book; also three copies of each book, together with a statement of the list price of said book as shown by the publisher's catalogue, a statement of all discounts allowed thereon when new copies of such book are purchased by or on behalf of a high school board directly from the publisher, and a statement of the lowest exchange price that will be given when old books in the same subject and of like kind and grade, but of a different series, are received in exchange; provided, that no fee shall be required to accompany the application for the listing of a book in a subject studied by less than one hundred pupils in the high schools of the state. They shall also submit a sworn statement giving the lowest net wholesale price at which such book is sold anywhere in the United States and the maximum total discount allowed thereon to any public school board anywhere in the United States. Such sworn statements shall give the lowest exchange price given anywhere in the United States where old books in the same subject and of like kind and grade, but of a different series, are received in exchange. Such sworn statement shall also include a statement that said publisher is not directly or indirectly associated or connected with any combination in restraint of trade in textbooks, and that he is not and will not become a party in any way to any understanding, agreement or combination to control prices or restrict competition in the sale of textbooks for use in the State of California.

statement.

SEC. 4. Each publisher offering one or more books for use in the high schools of the state must, after notification by the state board of education of its intention to place on the list any book or books submitted by him, and as a prerequisite for such listing, file with the state board of education a bond payable to the State of California in a sum to be determined by the state board of education, said sum for any publisher offering one or more books to be not less than one thousand dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars, the bond to be conditioned as follows: first, that the publisher will furnish said book or books offered by him and listed by the state board of education, to the high school board of any high school district in the state at the lowest net wholesale price contained in the statement filed at the time said book or books were offered, less the maximum total discount allowed thereon to any public school board according to such statement, and at the lowest exchange price given according to such statement, when old books in the same subject and of like kind and grade, but of a different series, are given in exchange, which price shall not exceed the lowest price the publisher has made for such book or books anywhere in the United States; provided, that the cost of transporting all textbooks to the high school from the publisher's office or depository in California shall be paid by the high school district, or prepaid by the publisher and then charged to the district, as the high school board may determine; second, that he will maintain said price uniformly throughout the State of California, on his book or books, listed under the provisions of this act; third, that the publisher will reduce such price automatically to purchasers within the State of California whenever reductions are made elsewhere in the United States, so that at no time shall any book so filed and listed be sold to school authorities in California at a higher net price than is received for such book elsewhere in the United States; and that upon failure or refusal of the publisher to make such reduction all contracts for such book or books shall become null and void; fourth, that all such books offered for sale, adoption, or exchange in the State of California shall be equal in quality to those filed in the office of the state board of education, as regards paper, binding, print, illustration, subject matter, and all other particulars that may affect the value of such school books; fifth, that the publisher will not in any way, directly or indirectly, become associated or connected with any combination in restraint of trade in textbooks, and that he will not enter into any understanding, agreement, or combination to control prices or restrict competition in the sale of school books for use in the State of California; sixth, that the publisher will maintain an office in California or designate an agent or arrange with a depository in California, to receive and handle orders for said book or books.

SEC. 5. Such bond shall be approved by the attorney general, and shall continue in force for a period of eight years after its filing, at or before the expiration of which period a new bond shall be given, or the right to continue selling such textbooks in the State of California shall be forfeited.

List sent to principals, county superintendents, and clerks.

SEC. 6. The state board of education shall, within six months after the approval of such bond, send a list of such books to the principal of each high school, county superintendent of schools and the clerk of each high school board, with a statement of the list price, discounts and the exchange price of each; provided, that such lists shall not be issued oftener than twice each year; provided, further, that whenever a book is dropped from the list, such action shall not affect existing contracts for such book. The state board of education shall, on or before January 1, 1918, and on or before the first day of January of each following year, publish and send to the principal of each high school, county superintendent of schools and the clerk of each high school board, a printed copy of all such lists then in force.
