

English Lesson
XI Grades
"Cause & Effect"

By: Lia Nurmalia, S.Pd

Because the weather is hard rain, I should wear a jacket,
otherwise I catch a flu

What expression is in the sentence above ?

Definitions

Cause is the reasons for something to happen.

The characteristic:

1. The reason or motive for an action.
- 2.2. Why something happened.

Example:

It rained.

Effect as a result of an action.

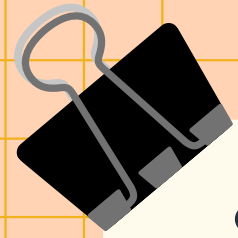

The characteristic:

1. Result or conclusion of an action.
2. What happened.

Example:

I got wet.

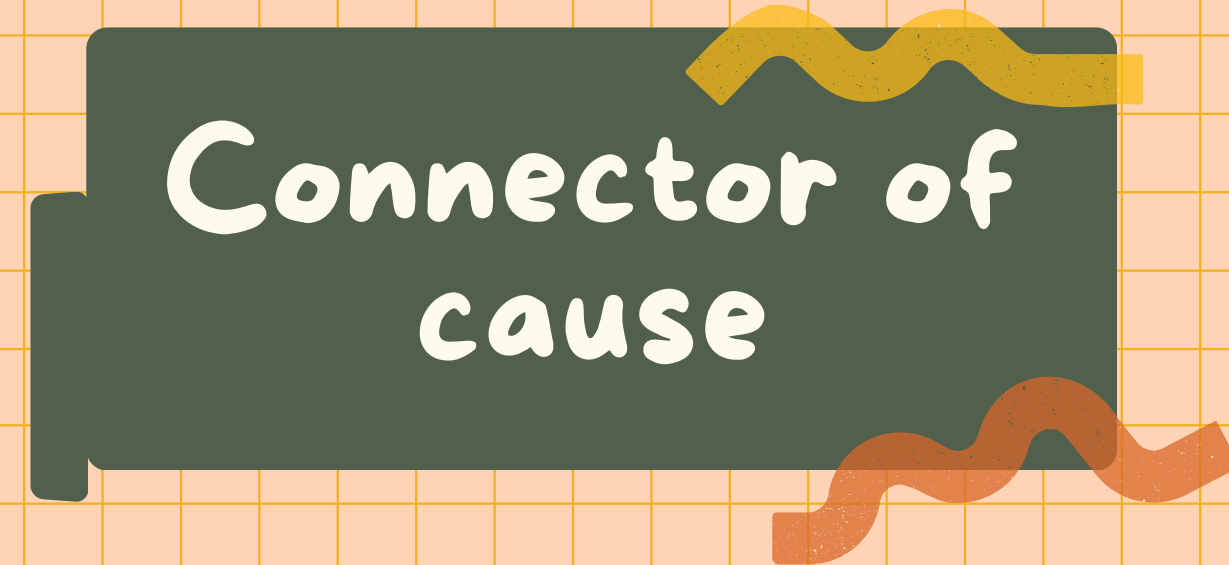

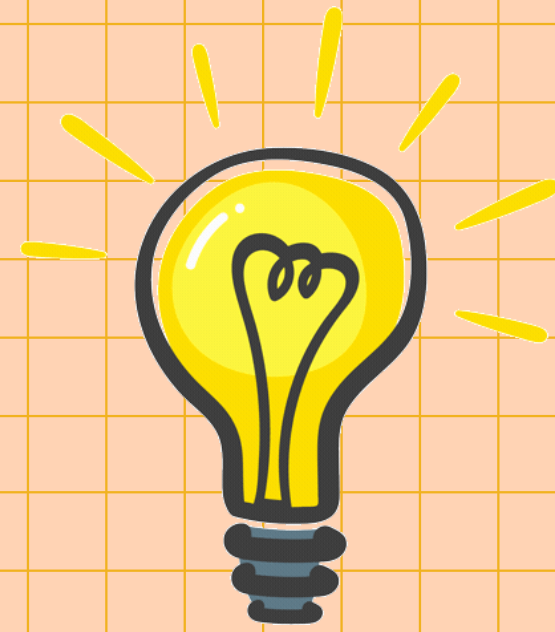

- Conjunctions: because, since and as + sentences.
- Preposition: because of, due to and owing to + noun.

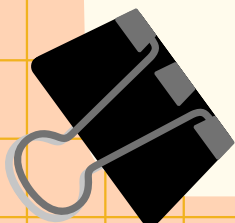

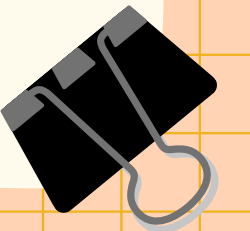

Example:

- I got fever because I got caught in the rain yesterday.
- I need to go back home's Ani because of the rain.

Pattern:

- Effect + Conjunction + Cause
- Effect + Preposition + Noun

Connector of effect

- Conjunctions: So.
- Transition: So, Therefore, As a result, Consequently, Hence.

Pattern:

- Cause, + Conjunction + Effect.
- Cause. + Transition, + Noun.

Example:

- My dad had extra work to do in the office, so he got home late.
- She never cleans her room. Therefore, her room is always dirty.

Let's check the example of conversation using the some expression of cause and effect

Conversation about Cause & Effect

Hi Andi, why you did not come to school yesterday

I got bad news, my uncel got an accident so I could not come to school yesterday because I had to accompany him at hospital

I am sorry to hear that

Put your attention on the red text!

Put your attention on the red text!

Hey, can you stop playing? Your homework is not finished!

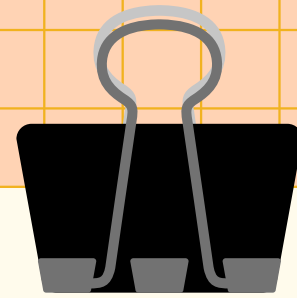

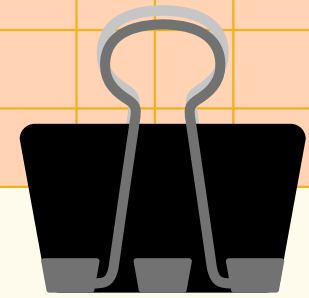

I know

Then, why do you still playing?

Because playing helps me relax and relieve stress

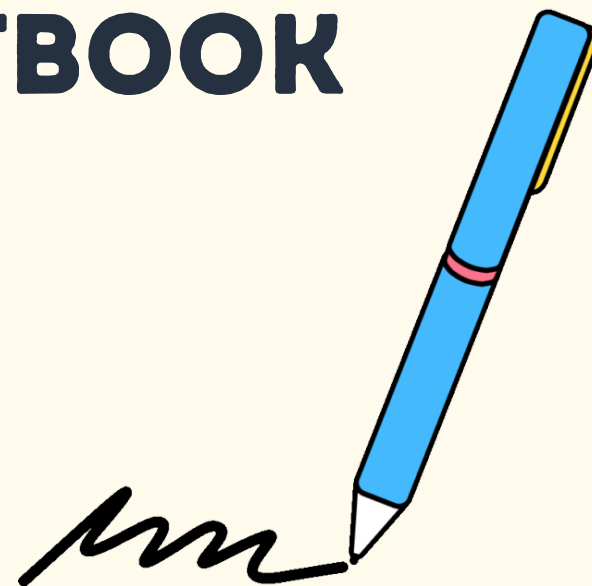

Put your attention on the red text!

Let's Practice

COMPLETE THE ASSIGNMENT ON PAGE
79 IN THE TEXTBOOK

THANK YOU!

