31 March 1948.

TO : MRS. JEANE HERINGTON,
P.O. Box 576,
REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA.

( ) I want you fully to understand how deeply grateful I am for the movement referred to in your radio of the 30th and how heartwarming to me are such expressions of confidence by the people of California. It is not a question of repudiating such support or its participants but quite the contrary of merely being unwilling for the reasons I stated in my message of the 27th to Mr. Worcester of Los Angeles to actively contest before the California primary the candidacy of Governor Warren. My fullest gratitude to you and the fine group of Americans who are associated with you and my hopes for your continued support.

MacARTHUR.

Tokyo, Japan.

March 31, 1948.

Personal and Confidential:

Dear Mr. Campbell:

I am glad to have your letters of March 20th and 22nd and to note from them the encouraging report on MacArthur sentiment in Wisconsin. The General read Mrs. Campbell's radio address and thought it was beautifully prepared. Indeed, he was very much moved by it.

The General's statement to the Congressional Committee on the China situation and his reply to Mr. McKerrow on the farm problem were sent with the utmost reluctance. With respect to his China statement, as you know, he was forced into a position by the House Committee which left little opportunity for him to gracefully decline more than the suggested personal appearance. He felt with regard to the McKerrow request that it would probably be better for him to approach it as he did than to ignore it or decline to comment. Subsequently he received a number of questions in a radiogram from the President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Milwaukee, of which I am inclosing a copy, which he decided to ignore. This message on its face appeared to be inspired by hostility, as it was obviously unfair to attempt to smoke out his answer in such a short time on such a broad field of public issues. A comprehensive reply would quite evidently have required many thousands of words and the dedication of much time, which during this period in the Japanese operation he just does not have available. He intends to pursue this policy throughout, unless he should be nominated by the Convention.

A great volume of mail has been received by the General from all sections of the United States and for the most part both letters and telegrams follow the same theme, urging the necessity in the interests of the country for him to return. Many of these he replies to and some of his replies, you will have noted, have been published by the recipients.

The General continues deeply engrossed in his responsibilities here, but I lay before him your letters and Mr. Hoyt's and any other incoming matters with which I believe he should be acquainted. By the time this reaches you the test in Wisconsin will have become history and I know that regardless of the outcome the General will feel that you all will have put on a magnificent campaign in his support.

Most cordially yours,

Incl: Cpy message from

Dear Mr. Christy:

Thank you so much for your thoughtful note enclosing the clipping containing your public reference to me. Your expression of confidence is most heartwarming and I shall value it highly.

Throughout the Pacific campaigns, wherever my command post was, I never failed to have a copy of your beautiful portrayal of Uncle Sam praying to Almighty God, with the inscription: "For His is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory, for ever and ever, Amen." It afforded me constant inspiration along the way.

Dear Fred:

Thank you for your good wishes of March 18th. I am enclosing some Japanese stamps in an envelope which bears the two special stamps issued to commemorate the new Japanese Constitution. This Constitution is very much like our own and after a few years will make Japan a land of freedom, just like America.

With all good wishes,

DOUGLAS MacARTHUR.

TO : MRS. SHEILA NICKERSON
23 QUAKER LANE
DEDHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

( ) I am deeply moved by your thoughtful invitation of March 11th to join the mothers of Bataan's honored dead at their annual convension on April 9th. Were I able to do so I should feel a sense of deepest consecration in the presence of those who had sacrificed so much and so bravely. And I should want them to know that their sons' comrades-in-arms who survived will defend well that heritage of freedom for which their sons fought and died. It is with profound regret that the existing circumstances offer no possibility of my being in the United States by the date fixed for your convention this year, but I wish you would give all mothers present my warmest greetings and deepest admiration.

Dear Mr. Mason:

I am delighted to receive your thoughtful note of March 20th with copies of your editorial in the EXAMINER. Your kindly expressions of confidence are most heartwarming, and I thank you for them.

You can be mighty proud of that son of yours. No division in the Pacific campaign distinguished itself more than his. It never failed to reach its assigned objective in battle, and since hostilities end it has been doing a no less magnificent job in moulding the peace. Please give your boy the affectionate greetings of his old comrade-in-arms,

Dear Vichules:

I am delighted to receive your letter of March 14th. It is most heartwarming to have your expressions of confidence and active support. I remember well your Class of 1924, and I am distressed to learn that you were forced out before we engaged the enemy in the last great war. Your Class made a distinguished record for itself and I am sure that in your absence it suffered a distinct loss.

With all good wishes, I am,
