

The 7 Biggest Mistakes the Wikipedia Education Program's Made — and What We've Learned From Them

LiAnna Davis
Wiki Education Foundation

Mistake #1:

Not taking student abilities into account.

Lesson #1:

Investigate student writing skill level prior to working with a new discipline.

Mistake #2:

Allowing instructors to engage only via email/
Google Docs.

Lesson #2:

Ensure each instructor
has a course page.

Lesson #2:

Ensure each instructor has a course page.

Overview (hide source | edit link)

Desouk is a member of the Organization of Islamic Capitals and Cities,^[?] because there are important Islamic shrines in the city, like The tomb of Saint "Israhim el-Desouki" (13th century) is located in the great mosque in the centre of Desouk. His descendants live in Desouk, Alexandria, Cairo, and many live in the UK and USA (link=needed)

Desouk lies on the Nile, on the eastern banks of the Rosetta branch, where there are only two bridges to enter the city.

Many important Egyptians hail from Desouk: Yousef el-Manly, Armed Zewail,^[?] Mohammed Roudy, Egypti Ashmashah, and Abdel-Salam Mohamed Nassar, a famous politician in the city.

Climate (hide source | edit link)

Köppen-Geiger climate classification system classifies its climate as hot desert (BWh), as the rest of Egypt.
