4. Packing slips prepared for items covered on allocation notices applicable to Osaka Military Arsenal should show inventory numbers and other identification of items allocated as shown on allocation notices as amended. Supplementary inventory numbers, assigned by the custodian subsequently to original inventory and evaluation on which allocation notices are based, if painted on packages or machines, should also be shown on the packing slips as an alternative means of identification. Building number and description of items should be shown in lieu of inventory numbers where the latter do not exist.

5. This is a partial list of amendments. Additional amendments will follow. Revised weight totals will be furnished with final corrections.
