

THREE BATTLES RAGE

SIX ARMIES ENGAGED—THE APPROACH OF WINTER MODIFIES WAR PLANS

VIENNA, Nov. 20 (via London), Nov. 21, 4:35 a. m.—The following official communication was made public today:

"Everywhere in Russian Poland we and our allies have been successful, but so far there is no decision in the fighting. The number of Russian prisoners is increasing.

"Before Przemyśl the enemy, while endeavoring to bring up reinforcements to the southern front of the fortress, was thrown back, suffering severely."

LONDON, Nov. 20, 9:30 p. m.—Two big battles, either or both of which may have decisive results, are being fought in Poland, and a third conflict of almost equal importance is progressing in East Prussia.

Of the three battles, that which is now at its height between the Vistula and Warta rivers and in which the Russians tonight claim partial success, is exciting the greatest interest. The Germans, it is believed, have brought up by their line of strategic railways in Posen and Silesia at least half a million men, in an effort to break the Russian line at this point. Weather conditions, the frozen ground and the situation of the battlefield favor a battle decisive to a degree not equaled on any other field in the present war.

The other battle in Poland is taking place on the Cracow-Czenstochowa front, and both the Russians and Germans claim it is proceeding satisfactorily for them. In East Prussia the Russian advance is moving slowly through the country surrounding the Mazurian lakes, which is difficult of passage. In Galicia the Russians are moving steadily westward, and at the same time are seizing the passes of the Carpathians.

There is now almost a complete absence of infantry attacks in the western arena and the artillery fighting is of much less violence. All that region about Dixmude through which the Yser canal passes is inundated, and the only serious fighting at present appears to be taking place to the south of Ypres, where cannonading of considerable intensity is in progress. Very bad weather, which necessarily hampers operations, has been experienced and snow has fallen in some places. There has been no important action in the French center, but in the Argonne region the Germans have made vigorous attacks, which the French were repulsed. On the French right wing the Germans have retaken the village of Chauvencourt, part of which they blew up a few days ago. The activity of the Germans in the vicinity of Rheims has slackened.

The advance by Austria into Serbia is creating uneasiness in Bulgaria as to the future of the Balkan states. The question as to whether Bulgaria should remain neutral or throw in her lot with the allies was discussed today in the Sobranje. Leaders of the democratic parties suggested that the allies should be consulted as to their intentions regarding the future of the Balkans.

Italy, too, has been affected by the Austrian advance, and her ambassadors at the European capitals have been called home to confer with the cabinet. Marquis Imperiali, Italian ambassador to Great Britain, will leave for Rome tomorrow.

The admiralty has taken further steps for the protection of the east coast ports by the extension of the mine field. This seems to give some support to the rumors, current for several days, that a German raid on the east coast is expected. In fact, it is generally believed here that if Germany is balked in her other designs, she will attempt to attack England, no matter how desperate such an expedition is considered.

Subscriptions to the war loan continue to come in and it was reported unofficially tonight that the applications aggregated between three and three and one-half billion dollars. The loan calls for only $1,750,000,000.

ANOTHER PARK MASS MEETING

Tuesday evening, December 1, is the date set apart for the second mass meeting for the purpose of considering purchasing a public park. The probable sites that have been mentioned are the blocks and portions of blocks as follows:

The block bounded by Third, Jackson, Broadway and Kenwood streets.

The block bounded by Fifth, Kenwood, Sixth and Louise streets.

The south half of the block bounded by Broadway, Louise and Fifth streets and Maryland avenue.

Other sites will likely be presented before the date of the next mass meeting, Dec. 1.

PROPOSED NEW ROAD

SURVEYORS AT WORK IN NORTH GLENDALE FOR A NEW BURBANK LINE

Surveyors of the Pacific Electric Railway company have been in North Glendale this week running three surveys with reference to changing the present route of the Burbank line to one more satisfactory. The surveys now being run are on Stocker, Randolph and Mountain streets and all run westerly from Brand boulevard to connect with the Burbank line. As soon as the surveys are completed there will be a meeting called of the committee to determine which of the three will be most satisfactory, and then the Pacific Electric company will run the new line on the street chosen. It is the intention of the railroad company to continue the Burbank line across to San Fernando road, thence to Broadway and then back to Brand, but this will not be done for some time.

STUDENTS REJOICE

News of the victory of the university bonds by a majority of over 140,000 in the recent election has aroused the enthusiasm of the college community at Berkeley to a higher pitch than any event of recent years. Only those who are in close touch with the university and its work can understand fully the possibilities of growth and service that are now to be realized, and students and faculty unite in returning thanks to the people for their overwhelming vote of confidence and generosity.

With the money from the bonds the university will become the largest and best equipped institution of its kind in America—a model for state-supported colleges throughout the country. Thousands of people who voted favorably on the bond question through no other reason than their detached friendship for the cause of learning will come to know how intimately the future progress and development of the state, affecting every section and every interest, is bound up with the success of the university.

WOODEN CARS MUST GO

Wooden railway cars have been pronounced by the interstate commerce commission at Washington, D. C., as unsafe. The construction of wooden passenger cars for the railways of the United States practically has ceased, according to the report of the committee on rails and equipment, of which C. C. McChord of the interstate commerce commission is chairman, made to the annual convention of the National Association of Railway Commissioners Friday.

The committee finds that 66 per cent of the 65,291 derailments in the ten years from 1904 to 1913, inclusive, were due to defective roadway and equipment. These derailments were the cause of 3727 deaths. Not only defects in steel, but heavy wheel loads and high speed are also blamed for some of the breaking of rails or failure of rails in other respects.

"There can be no doubt," the committee reports, "that steel cars are better and safer than those of wooden construction. A statement from the Pullman company shows that in four years, seventy-three persons were killed in wooden Pullman cars, while only six were killed in all-steel cars.

"There has been a noticeable increase from year to year in the loads to which rails and equipment have been subjected, and the increase is still going on," says the report. "In no other situation involving danger to life is material used with so slender a margin in strength, judging from the annual statistics of accidents. In comparison with other engineering uses of materials of construction knowledge of the working stresses in railway materials is in a very backward state. No other service furnishes so extended a list of annual failures which, in part, is attributed to this lack of information nor would such an exhibit of failure be tolerated in any other branch of engineering. Many of these failures are believed to be of a preventable nature and, even in the light of present knowledge, could be guarded against."

NO ROBBERIES REPORTED

Strange things do happen once in a while. One strange thing that happened was that a circus came into town and went out again without a robbery being reported to the police department. It is a matter of conjecture whether this fact should be considered as a compliment for the Barnes circus or whether it can be taken to mean that there is nothing in Glendale to be stolen. However, it remains off of the police records that any robberies occurred.

MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENT

JOHN GALT INJURED IN COLLISION WITH MILK WAGON FRIDAY NIGHT

A double accident occurred Friday night as the result of which John Galt is confined to his bed with numerous and sundry cuts and bruises, his motorcycle has been consigned to the scrap heap, and Morgan's dairy wagon is laid up for repairs. When returning from Los Angeles Friday night, Mr. Galt, with two companions, McMorris and I. Van Osdoll, met the circus wagons on their way to the S. P. at Tropic. The wagons carried no lights and a collision between one of them and "Van's" motorcycle ensued. Mr. Galt came up to the police station, reported the affair, and was returning to the scene of the accident when at Seventh and Central he encountered Morgan's milk delivery wagon, which carried no lights. He struck the side of the wagon with force enough to smash the wheels and shafts of the wagon and spill the milk and throw him to the pavement, cutting his head and hand and inflicting severe bruises. A passing auto picked up the injured man and took him to his home, 514 South Louise, where Dr. Bryant dressed his wounds and left him resting comfortably. While his injuries are not likely to prove serious, Mr. Galt will be confined to his home for some time.

NORTH GLENDALE

A few days ago there appeared on the streets of Glendale a 1915 model automobile which caused a good deal of excitement, as the owner of the beautiful car was unknown at that time, and only recently have we learned who the proud possessor was. Mr. E. H. Glidden of San Diego was discovered to be the owner, and he, with Mrs. Glidden, enjoyed a motor trip to North Glendale, spending several days at beautiful La Ramada as house guests of Mrs. Glidden's mother, Mrs. Kate England, the popular manager of that famous resort.

Mrs. Frank Jay of Los Angeles was the luncheon guest of Mrs. Claude Shuman of 1632 Dryden street Friday.

Mrs. B. J. Lyons of 1617 Ruth street, with her baby son John, spent the mid-week in Los Angeles as the house guests of her mother, Mrs. J. Mayer of Angeleno Heights.

Mrs. F. J. Wheeler of 1330 North Maryland avenue is enjoying the pleasure of entertaining as her house guest for a fortnight at least Mrs. Roy Parker of Portland, Ore.

The members of the Yosemite Card club of Los Angeles enjoyed a Spanish dinner at La Ramada on Friday. Tables were arranged on the porches for the guests and covers were laid for twelve. During the afternoon the ladies indulged in several games of progressive Five Hundred in the ramada under the beautiful pepper trees. The following members of the club having had the pleasure of the delightful afternoon were Mrs. G. E. Monk, Mrs. Arthur Halliday, Mrs. Lulu Miller, Mrs. Thomas McCaffery, Mrs. S. W. Boynton, Mrs. S. W. Chase, Miss Anne Smith, Miss Josephine Dryden, Miss W. S. Sheldon, Miss Ada Dryden, Mrs. E. W. Granis and Mrs. S. A. Pattee, all of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wasson of Marshalltown, Iowa, who are spending the winter in the Southland, were callers of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Marsh of 1645 Ruth street Friday.

Mrs. I. M. Van Strum of 1616 Ruth street returned recently from Los Angeles, where she has been the house guest of friends.

TRANSPORTATION RATE WAR

A most important rate war between steamship and railroad lines is threatened when the water carriers begin competing for the citrus fruit shipments of California. At present the steam roads are charging $1.15 per hundred pounds, and as the steamship lines will offer to carry for 75 cents per hundred, it is thought that this may mean the fixing of a rate as low as 70 cents.

The American-Hawaiian Steamship company has announced that starting January 1st six of its great steel freighters will be equipped with refrigerator plants, each capable of accommodating approximately 100 carloads of fruit. Other companies are preparing to take the same steps. As handling the citrus business of this state brings about $10,000,000 revenue annually, it is certain that the railroads will not give it up without a keen fight, and it will be a great thing for the citrus fruit growers, who will derive the benefits as a result of such a competition.

GLENDALE WINS DEBATE

BOTH GLENDALE TEAMS VICTORIOUS IN SOUTHWEST LEAGUE DEBATES

Glendale Union high school won both league debates Friday evening on the question of compulsory arbitration of labor disputes in interstate public service corporations. Glendale won the home debate against South Pasadena by a unanimous judges' decision. The visiting Glendale team at Huntington Park high school won their debate by two judges' decisions. The debaters were: At Glendale—Affirmative, Wallace Weldon and Mary Black of South Pasadena; negative, J. Purman Bennett and Gilbert A. Cowan of Glendale. At Huntington Park—Affirmative, H. Darwin Kirschmann and Samuel Durand of Glendale; negative, Miss Hubbard and Gilbert Robbins of Huntington Park.

Miss Carol Willisford, secretary of the league, presided over the local meeting. Ben Nichols of Glendale and Mr. Ritchie of South Pasadena were timekeepers. The local crowd was undoubtedly greatly lessened on account of the circus, but those present were very attentive and seemed pleased with the decision.

By the double decision in Glendale's favor, Glendale won the championship of the Huntington Beach, Huntington Park, South Pasadena and Glendale quadrangle of the Southwestern Debating League.

Rev. E. H. Willisford went to Pomona, where he acted as judge of the Pomona-Santa Ana debate, and Prof. Harry Howe performed the same office for the Pomona-Lincoln high debate in Los Angeles.

The judges in Glendale were Dr. Thomas F. Burt of Occidental college, Prof. Frank Older of L. A. Normal and Mrs. Mila T. Maynard of Manual Arts high.

At the meeting of the Southwestern Debating League at the Lincoln high school, Los Angeles, this morning, it was found that Pomona, Glendale and Long Beach were the only schools out of a total of thirteen in the league which received judges' decisions, both for affirmative and negative. Undoubtedly these three schools will be placed in a triangle to decide for the high place in the championship series. Mr. W. D. Root, debating coach at the G. U. H. S., and Miss Carol Willisford, secretary of the league, represented Glendale at the meeting.

TROPICO

Miss Katherine Hannawalt of Lordsburg is the week-end guest of Mrs. J. D. Silvius of West Park avenue.

Many dinner parties are being arranged for Thursday (Thanksgiving) by a number of Tropico citizens.

Mrs. James R. Maxwell has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness and is spending a few days visiting friends in Los Angeles.

FLOWER LIST ANNOUNCED

A list of flowers, vegetables and shrubs that may be planted late in November for best results has been announced by the Beautifying Los Angeles City committee of the 1915 general committee. Experts have lent their services in selecting the varieties that will thrive best in Los Angeles county.

In making suggestions for fall planting day, November 27, the following hardy annuals are included: Sweet alyssum, acrolinum, candytuft, calendula, annual chrysanthemum, callensia, clarkia, California poppy, godetia, larkspur, scarlet flax, lupines, mignonette and all varieties of wild flowers.

This is the season for sweet peas and most kinds of flowering bulbs. The hyacinth is one of the most popular and easiest to grow. Narcissus and jonquills should be planted from four to five inches deep.

Tulips should be planted in a light sandy loam soil, about five inches deep. Spanish iris takes a light soil. Other bulbs suitable for the season are anemones, lilies, German iris and early flowering gladiolas.

Young plants of stocks, pansies, snapdragons, hollyhocks, pentstemons, Shasta daisies and carnations planted now will bloom in the early summer.

The following list of vegetable seeds may be planted in the late fall and early winter:

Asparagus, beets, cabbage, cauliflower, corn salad, chicory, carrots, chives, cress or peppergrass, celery, dandelion, endive, kale, kohlrabi, leek, lettuce, mustard, onions, parsley, peas, potatoes (high or frostless locations only), radish, spinach, turnips and tomato peppers.

SHOW NO FAVORITES

A WELL CONDUCTED CONCERN WILL ACCORD EQUAL TREATMENT TO ALL

Every business concern that is established on a sound basis will treat all patrons with the same courtesy. The idea that a few people in the world get that they are being made the ones who are to get all inferior goods and bad bargains is a mistaken one.

It is true that the person who is looking for slights is sure to discover them. The writer learned this fact many years ago while a pupil in school, and it was indeed a valuable lesson to learn.

The Glendale Evening News is a fairly well organized business concern, and the business of the office is becoming more systematized every day, so it is an easy matter without great inconvenience to care for the wants of everybody who wishes to have his interests cared for through the local paper.

The Evening News knows no favorites. Everybody, churches, clubs and societies, will receive the same treatment. The Evening News is for the people of Glendale, so long as they are at all reasonable in their requests. The editor and publisher serves as moderator or judge, and it is to his interest to decide fairly in all questions of difference of opinion.

LACK OF TRANSPORTATION

The Belgians are suffering for food and fuel on account of lack of transportation facilities in their own country. The devastations of war have cut off means of carrying fuel and foodstuffs.

Notwithstanding the amount of relief work which is being done for the Belgians, conditions in the larger cities, as well as the rural districts, are becoming more serious. Jean Van Branden, a member of the Belgian national relief committee, who arrived in London on Friday, Nov. 20, from Brussels to consult the American relief commission, said that the situation in Brussels was growing more alarming constantly as refugees are pouring into that city at the rate of 25,000 a day.

"This influx," he said, "is due to a lack of fuel as well as of food. Brussels has plenty of coal, but the interruption of transportation makes it impossible to carry coal to remote villages. Refugees are flocking to Liege and other large towns as well as to Brussels.

"The people are entirely dependent on kerosene for both heating and cooking and the supply of this fuel also is becoming scarce. The committee is receiving petitions every day for supplies of oil. We are very grateful to the American commission for the 17,000 tons of food which have been distributed in Belgium since the first of November. We have an ample number of volunteer workers to attend to the distribution of these supplies, but the lack of transportation facilities has prevented us from reaching remote villages.

"The committee is now supplying 600,000 meals daily in Brussels, some rice and a piece of bread. At first the allowance of bread was six ounces, but this has now been reduced to three ounces, because of the scarcity of flour. Even the rich now find it almost impossible to obtain bread in Brussels, and soon the whole population will form into a vast bread line.

"A small number of these meals are being paid for by persons belonging to the middle classes, who are greatly distressed at the idea of accepting charity. They are charged at the rate of one cent for a meal, which actually costs three cents. In addition to this, the commission sells bread to those who are able to pay for it, using the proceeds to purchase more wheat."

GOOD TEMPLARS MEET

The Glendale lodge I. O. G. T. No. 46 met Friday night in the Odd Fellows hall, corner Third and Isabel. There was a good attendance, considering that it was circus night.

This being the first meeting since the election and installation of officers, committees were appointed and other important business transacted. The captains had already chosen their sides for the contest, which is causing a great deal of enthusiasm among the members. Barbara Aske-land, one of the captains, had charge of Friday night's program and scored many points for her side. There were a number of visitors from Los Angeles present.

District lodge meets all day Saturday and evening. After the district degree is given in the evening, which will be completed about 8:30, the doors will be opened to the public, and all are cordially invited. There will be good speakers, and a good time is assured.

FOOTHILL CLUB

MRS. BARNES IS HOSTESS TO ORGANIZATION OF NORTH GLENDALE LADIES

Friday afternoon, November 20th, Mrs. Everette K. Barnes, assisted by Mrs. G. K. Barnes, entertained the Foothill club at the home of the former, 1303 Brand boulevard.

The house was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums in the dining-room and bachelor buttons and thistles in the living-room. The club is now sewing for the needy of Glendale and the members have been making a number of warm quilts, which will be distributed to those who need them during the Christmas holidays. The ladies were quilting on Friday afternoon, and while they worked Mrs. Charles H. Toll entertained them by reading "The Christmas Carol" in her charming manner, which delighted all her hearers. After the quilting was done, Mrs. G. K. Barnes poured coffee and a southern lunch was served.

The following special guests were present: Mrs. H. L. Smith, Mrs. A. L. Lewis, Miss Katherine Lewis, Miss Ellen Williams, all of Glendale, and Miss Wacy of Rockford, Ills. Members of the club who were present were Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. J. M. McMillan, Mrs. Julius Kranz, Mrs. R. L. Thister, Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. Wm. P. Thompson, Mrs. Andrew Roberts, Mrs. W. P. Stone, Mrs. E. B. Wiman, Mrs. N. C. Kelly, Mrs. J. E. Bassett, Mrs. Menzo Williams, Mrs. William Porter, Mrs. Alfred Priest, Mrs. L. G. Oliver, Mrs. Walter J. Elliott, Mrs. F. W. Pig, Mrs. F. J. Wheeler, Mrs. Charles Richter, Mrs. J. C. Penn, Mrs. Everette Barnes and Mrs. G. K. Barnes.

PARKERS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Parker of 311 South Louise street were host and hostess at a small but beautiful dinner party Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Will Wasson of Marshalltown, Iowa, who are spending the winter in Southern California. Many bouquets of all kinds of beautiful roses graced the rooms with their charm and fragrance and added beauty to the perfectly appointed dinner table, where covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilbur of Rancho La Solano, San Gabriel, the guests of honor and the host and hostess.

WHITE RIBBONERS ARE BUSY

The W. C. T. U. held an interesting session Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. D. Potter, 220 Verdugo road. The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Laura McKeehan, using as a keynote Acts III.

Mrs. A. Frank had charge of the program, "Prohibition Advancement." The leader gave encouraging facts concerning the advancement of prohibition. Although prohibition was defeated in California Nov. 3, it was a victorious defeat. It was a great campaign of education. Four states were made "dry," which gives thirteen "dry" states. Seventy-five per cent of the United States is "dry" territory. Over fifty million people live where the saloon is outlawed. The army canteen has been abolished and no liquor can be sold in immigration stations nor in the capital in Washington, D. C. There is a law forbidding the sale to Indians. The District of Columbia has a new anti-liquor code. The Webb-Kenyon interstate commerce law prevents the shipment of liquor into dry territory. All liquor has been prohibited on naval vessels, in navy yards and stations. Russia and Iceland are "dry." The report shows that the progress made by this movement is marvelous.

Plans are being made for another great campaign for California "dry."

The session closed by singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds Our Hearts in Christian Love." The W. C. T. U. will meet again in two weeks and an enthusiastic meeting is expected.

TO LORD ROBERTS

The London Daily Telegraph and Leader prints verses by Rudyard Kipling commemorating Lord Roberts. Part of the poem follows:

He passed in the very battle smoke
Of the war that he had described.
Three hundred miles of cannon spoke
When the master gunner died.

He passed to the very sound of the guns.

But before his eyes grew dim
He had seen the faces of the sons
Whose sires had served with him.

Clean, simple, valiant, well beloved;
Flawless in faith and fame;
Whom neither ease nor honor moved
A hair's breadth from his aim.

THE PURSUIT

The usual large amount of campaign literature was left at the home of a certain citizen in the ninth congressional district. While Mr. Citizen, feet encased in roomy slippers and wrapped in his house robe, read evening papers from the depths of his Morris chair, seven-year-old Willie perused the campaign argument on the floor.

"Dad, who is that man?"
 Dad stirs. "That, my son, is Brother Randall, a worthy citizen. He's running for congress."

A few moments' silence. "Da-ad," this time in tone of doubt, "what's congress running away from him for?"—L. A. Herald.

At the prayer meeting on next Wednesday evening at 7:30 we will have with us Rev. J. J. Kingham, a returned missionary, who has spent the past nine years in Southern India. He has had some remarkable experiences in his work, and the fact that he is coming to us will insure a large attendance at the mid-week service.

LECTURE OF INTENSE INTEREST

Mr. E. P. Taliaferro will speak at the new Masonic temple tomorrow (Sunday) evening at 7:30. His topic is one which will attract attention, "A Rebel Angel." It arouses the question which has appealed to men from the beginning of time: Why does God permit a condition to prevail in the world which seems to be anarchy against his government if he has the power to prevent it? If any king or ruler had the power to do away with sin and suffering and did not do so, men would be inclined to think his intentions were evil, rather than good. It is said that Mr. Taliaferro calls attention to certain passages of the Scriptures which have been generally lost sight of or ignored, and that he will throw a flood of light on this vexed question.

When questioned as to his work, Mr. Taliaferro said: "I have no theories of my own to foist upon an unsuspecting public. I can give no light upon the subject other than is stated by the Bible. It is true that I by its banks. If they are located in modern buildings, well equipped to give first-class service to their depositors and well organized to insure safety, people speak of such a city as a rich and prosperous one.

The First National Bank of Glendale has had a most successful growth and offers its depositors every advantage and convenience of a metropolitan bank, but could be a still greater factor in the upbuilding of Glendale if every Glendale citizen transacted his or her banking business in Glendale, for the reason that the funds of this bank are loaned to Home People on Home Securities and are at all times engaged in the upbuilding of local interests.

PERSONALS

Mrs. W. A. Hough of Tenth and Central avenue visited her brother, Mr. W. S. Council of Los Angeles, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Craig and baby of Burbank were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hough of this city Friday evening.

Miss Doris Ingledue of 725 West Third street is entertaining her friend, Miss Inez Land, of Huntington Park, this week-end.

Mrs. Davidson, mother of Mrs. Wm. R. Hyatt of 1634 West Broadway, leaves this evening for Spokane, Wash., to be gone some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith of Orange are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Weaver of 301 South Kenwood street.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kranz and little daughter, Miss Barbara, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robertson on Monday evening.

Mrs. L. D. Rising of 710 West Seventh street leaves today for Moata, Nev., where Mr. Rising has charge of the gypsum mine. They expect to return to Glendale in the spring.

The Glendale Presbyterian football team journeyed over to Burbank this afternoon for a game with the villagers. Undoubtedly the home team will bring home the bear meat. Last Saturday this team defeated the Harvard Military Academy.

Mrs. Chas. E. Hutchinson of 200 Orange street and Mrs. Ray McKeon of West Eighth street entertained about thirty old friends in Mrs. McKeon's beautiful new home Wednesday at luncheon. It was a most enjoyable day for all. Among the Glendale guests present were Dr. Jessie Russell and Mrs. Arthur Brown.

Mrs. C. S. Steelman of 1104 West Seventh street gave a party for her sister, Mrs. L. D. Rising, on Friday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated in chrysanthemums and a course luncheon was served. The following guests were present: Mrs. Frank Price, Mrs. Everly, Mrs. Frank Morris, Mrs. E. F. Archer and the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hough of Tenth and Central will entertain at dinner tomorrow the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Will Waters and daughter Bessie and Mr. Ralph Waters of Pasadena; Mr. Charles Waters and Mr. Tom Mott of Springfield, Ills.; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Todd and little daughter Mabel of Tropic, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Craig and daughter Pauline of Burbank.

LIFE

Johnny Flannagan, one of the elevator "boys" at the Oriental hotel at Manhattan Beach, in talking recently to a group of New York newspaper men, gave them an interesting view of life in the following words: "I've been an elevator-man for forty-one years ago today. I learned a lot at it. For instance: Most great men are silent; a gentleman never hurts your feelings; you got to use people as you find them. All in all, it's been a pleasant life, though never more than fifty a month—and eleven children to bring up on it. If a man's got a clear conscience, a sound stomach and a good woman, he's all right in this world."

What a vast amount of good thought there is in these few words from an elevator "boy" for forty-one years. Never more than fifty a month was Flannagan's lot, yet with a good wife, eleven children, a sound stomach and a clear conscience, he looks upon life as a pretty pleasant thing after all. And Flannagan has doubtless done more than take care of that family of his. He has undoubtedly brought happiness into the lives of many who, materially, were perhaps better off than he, but who lacked the surrounding circumstances to obtain the same sunshiny view of life that pervaded Flannagan's career. And after all hasn't Flannagan just about sounded the keynote to the real secret of success in life? Who has brought more into the world? Who has gotten more out of it than Flannagan?—Hollywood Citizen.

REMARKABLE SURVIVAL OF MEXICAN TRADE

Not long ago, basing our comment on a report from the United States department of commerce, we took occasion to point to the extraordinary fact that while Mexico had been subject to serious internal disturbance and civil war since 1910; while many and important industries in the republic had been discontinued in consequence, and while foreign capital was largely driven from the country, yet its export and import trade continued to be maintained at a very high level. Later disturbances and upheavals—for instance, the culmination of constitutional success, the departure of Huerta, the assumption of executive power by Carranza, the threat of a new revolutionary movement by Villa—apparently have not operated seriously to interfere with the ordinary affairs of the Mexican people. Moreover, one of the greatest wars in history, a war that carries its depressing influence into the remotest corners of the earth, has not, according to a statement issued by the National Association of Manufacturers, affected the foreign trade of Mexico to anything like the degree naturally supposable.

Mexico, it is held, needs at this time, and more than all, financial aid from the United States in the removal of its products. Industrial expansion in that country is for the present out of the question, and so also is the extension of mining and agricultural enterprises and of public works. The activities of the world for the moment are centered on the more urgent task of maintaining what is existent. What Mexico requires, therefore, is not money for permanent investment, but credit that will enable it in turn to grant advantage. In the opinion of the National Association of Manufacturers, it should not be difficult for United States business interests to provide suitable arrangements for financing Mexico's export trade. Its former channels of credit, mostly in Europe, are closed, and while keeping within safety lines, American financiers, the statement insists, must help Mexico in their reconstruction.

A general analysis of conditions in Mexico, embracing the political situation, the cost of civil war, national indebtedness and that country's resources, would seem to leave a very comfortable margin for optimistic calculation. Apparently, a few years of peace and stable government, a few years of enlightened and progressive administration, even the return of conditions as they existed in the latter years of the Diaz regime, would assure Mexico an era of extraordinary prosperity.—Christian Science Monitor.

EDITOR SET FREE

Howard E. Davis, editor of the San Bernardino Evening Index, has been released and the charge against him of shooting and killing Ben Emerson, a local sportsman, on the night of Oct. 14 dismissed.

Testimony showed that Emerson threatened Davis as a result of continued political attacks in the Evening Index, and that he attacked the editor. Davis said that he shot while Emerson was beating him and as he lay prone on the ground.

District Attorney Goodsell, in moving the dismissal of the charge against Davis at the preliminary hearing, condemned the manner in which the editor attacked Emerson through the newspaper.

"THE MARVELS OF SURGERY"

Under the above head an item is drifting through the Kansas press that reminds us. At the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., all sorts of gorgeous lies float about concerning the wonderful things the Mayos can do with the knife. One story says that Doctor Will put a sheep's stomach in Doctor Charley, who then turned around and put a calf's liver in Doctor Will. One day, deponent was sitting in the great lobby of the clinic reading and waiting, when a well-dressed, handsome woman, sitting next to us, touched our arm and asked:

"Do you know, sir, if it is true or not that the colored doorkeeper there has an elk's kidney in place of his own?"

We looked at the big, handsome colored boy in uniform and shook our head and replied:

"No, madam, I cannot say as to that. But I know this for a fact: I have a Bull Moose heart!"

She looked at our handsome chest in wonder and exclaimed:

"My! They can just do anything, can't they?"

"They sure can," we reflected.

WARNING

The state department at Washington again utters warning to American citizens against "unnecessary visits" to foreign countries involved in war. It is no exaggeration to assert that it is perilous to penetrate into the zone of war, nor is it any derogation of the friendliness of the belligerent nations toward the United States, to assert this. Truth is, the nations at war very much desire that American sightseers keep away while hostilities are proceeding, for the presence of friendly foreigners is embarrassing and imposes care upon the belligerent peoples that they do not desire to have as an incumbrance additional to the burdens incident to the prosecution of the war. It readily may be understood how the responsible authorities of the combatant countries would be on tension over the presence of Americans, constantly fearing lest something untoward accidentally, or through mistake, should befall them.

Not only is traveling in the war zone of Europe now attended with perils, but it is woefully lacking in accommodations, hence cannot be satisfactory to those who are seeking pleasure. It were wiser and better if Americans inclined toward travel were to spend the next few years seeing this country—thoroughly—its beauties, its marvels and its grandeur. This would be both pleasing and educative to them and a very acceptable substitute for travels abroad.

Running Up a Big Lumber Bill

is mighty easy if you don't watch out. You can easily buy the wrong lumber, easily buy too much of it. Give us your lumber order and we'll give you our advice. We tell just exactly the kind of lumber you require and exactly how little it will take to do the job. Can we sell you lumber on that basis?
