There is no danger, therefore, to be apprehended from the rippling created by either abolition sta or colonizationizts. Under the name of freedom, of liberty, of "splendid generalities," they want money, cash, gold, aliver, books, presents, any thing they can get. If they are let alone, their "armall lights" will soon burn out for want of oil. To oppose them, to take fire, to muster our thousands, is to chact again the comedy that was enacted in New York.—"Much ado about Nothing." Persecution creates martyrs, and martyrdom embalms a cause, however preposterous or absurd. We permit Shakers, Jumpers, Infoles, and the ten thousand varieties of opinion, to eat, live, and have a being—why not the anti-shavery fools?
