PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JEROME WATSON
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE AND CITY.
"THE BEE" WILL BE PRINTED
THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 30, 1886.

Words being the elements of ideas, a correct knowledge of them is essential. There are many instances where an ignorant man has been deceived and damaged, and where a student of the language has been misled by false results.

The city council has agreed to give their bill to be used for the purpose of a court martial. Although it has been used as a civil court, it has often assumed the attitude or style of a court martial or military.

Some responsible physicians have appeared to meet the board of health to form a committee of the council, and another of the Medical Society of New Orleans to obtain correct details of the disease and its prevention in the city, and to regularly publish their reports. It is not difficult to ascertain the number of deaths, and from what diseases; not would be difficult to ascertain the causes between natives and strangers.

May we respectfully request Dr. Thomas and Marfan to be the chairman of these committees to attend to this subject?

In few cities in the world are public baths more required than in New Orleans, yet in this city there are only two places for warm baths. Within many miles of the city, and their conveniences are wretched, although rated at 50 cents.

The vast number of buildings now being erected in this city speak favorably of the prospects for residents hereafter. We build not by houses only, but by whole streets.

We insert a communication from a respectable member of the democratic party, cautioning his fellow citizens throughout the city and state, not to commit themselves to any nomination that may be tentatively made for next year, in which we fully concur. It is known that the nomination has made early by the immediate social or political friends of the candidate, and that the name is rather prejudicial than beneficial; for they are regarded with a suspicious eye. It is indeed hard to say that such a nomination is not in itself a disqualification, but that the candidate is not a man of ability, and that he is not a man of ability, and that he is not a man of ability.

As to ourselves we do not presume to make any nominations; for we think that an editor who really does so, accidentally or intentionally, who gives him the right, although he may assume the privilege of ex officio to dictate or decide. On matters to be decided by the votes of the people, the opinions of an editor should invariably be in accordance with, if not subservient to, that of his subscribers, and as no more little open to objection is afforded of acquiring a knowledge of the sentiment of the people, so well as public meetings or conventions, according to the object of the meeting, and that the editor should be the exponent or journalist of the wishes and wants of his subscribers, who are de facto his constituents. He may counsel them or advise them, but he should never dictate nor ex officio to dictate.

A state convention will be held to nominate a candidate for governor on behalf of the democratic party, and such nomination shall be our guide. Till then we forbear supporting any candidate, although we have no objection to our name to specify the nominations publicly or privately made.
