Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

I herewith communicate to you the proceedings of the Legislature of South Carolina, in relation to certain resolutions, having reference to the laws of that State in regard to the colored seamen of Massachusetts.

So extraordinary and gratuitous an assumption of power, as that of one State resorting to measures to supervise the execution and test the validity of the laws of another State, must meet the reprobation of all, not only from its being unwarrantable, but from its tendency to disturb the harmony of the Union.

In connection with this subject, I have thought it not amiss to transmit for your consideration, the letter received from a person claiming to be the agent for this State under the Act of 1842, that has become one of the individual of such letters are deemed worthy of your notice, our with any design to give any color to his mission, but that they may possibly indicate the expediency of such a law legislation, as may guard the State in future from the intrusion of any such emissary.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, 8th January, 1845.

The House met agreeably to adjournment.

On motion of Mr Stille the reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

On motion, the House adjourned to to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock.

TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT—The preparation strongly recommends itself to the favor of the public from its positive medicinal virtues, and from its great success in the cure of Bilious affections and Febrile Diseases, and much the greater portion of our country is so subject. Prescribed in such cases it has been found universally to afford relief, and has gained such reputation among medicinal men, who frequently sanction its use among their patients. In a torpid state of the Liver its use, persevered in for a few days, has been found to aid in restoring the functions of that important organ. In Gout and Rheumatism it affords great satisfaction, as having in a short period allayed all the inflammatory symptoms—it has in numerous cases succeeded in effectually curing those affected. Over the excesses in the case of Intemperance, Heartburn, Costiveness, and Headache, it has invariably proved in every instance a medicine of great utility.

Being one of the most delightful, as well as mildest purgatives, now before the public, it possesses all the medicinal virtues of the most approved Saline Aperient, with the sparkling qualities of the mineral waters, and is eminently upon the system; it restores the digestive powers when impaired, and excites a brisk by and vigorous tone to the stomach, giving to the patient renewed health and strength. Having proved its efficacy in the hands of persons going to sea, as its various being equally effectious on sea or shore or in any climate it may be used with greater safety than any known purgative.

Testimonials from gentlemen of high standing in their profession, hereto annexed, strongly guarantee its efficacy and character, and commends itself to the favorable notice of an intelligent Public.

TESTIMONIALS.

FROM THOMAS BOYD, M. D.

"It affords me pleasure to offer my testimonial in favor of Tarrant's Effervescent Aperient, and know of no remedy so pleasant and efficacious where a mild laxative is required. It must entirely supercede the use of Soluble Powders, another mild laxative. It also possesses anti-acid properties which do not belong to the Seidlitz. It is also particularly adapted to pregnant women and in sea sickness, as acute constipation is an attendant."

(Signed) J. W. SCHMIDT, Jr. M. D.

To Mr James Tarrant. No. 8 Warren street,
New York, Nov. 12, 1844.

FROM JAMES H. ROGERS, M. D.

"Having made use of Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient, I cheerfully give my testimonial in its favor. It has proved a most excellent family medicine. It is convenient and portable, and safe and efficient in its operation on the system, extremely refreshing and invigorating to the stomach, and is a delightful effervescent draught, resembling Soda Water in its taste, and imparting to the constitution all the benefits of the Seidlitz Powders. But it has none of the objections usually attending the operation of the ordinary purgatives. To persons visiting or residing in warm climates, it will unquestionably prove a medicine of great utility."

FROM EDWARD G. LUDLOW, M. D.,

Trustee of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, in the City of New York, and Censor of State Medical Society

"I can with confidence recommend Tarrant's Effervescent Aperient as a mild and agreeable laxative, and for subjects of Seidlitz Powders. In persons living in warm climates, where cooling purgatives are so frequently required, it is invaluable."

(Signed) EDWARD G. LUDLOW, M. D.
To Mr James Tarrant, No. 134 Broadway
New York, Nov. 12, 1844.

FROM GEORGE WILKES, M. D.,

Surgeon at the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary

"I have given your Effervescent Seltzer Aperient on several occasions, and am much pleased with its effects. From its mild and gentle operation it must be found invaluable to females during pregnancy, relieving the sickness and nausea attendant thereon, and may be administered with perfect safety. To subjects of warm climates or persons visiting such countries, I would freely recommend it; also as a remedy in Sea Sickness. As a family Medicine it meets my full approbation."

(Signed) GEO. WILKES, M. D.
To Mr. James Tarrant, No. 28 Light street
Oct. 9, 1844.

FROM M. PRICE MOORE, M. D.

"I have used your Effervescent Seltzer Aperient in several cases, with very happy results. As a mild Aperient it has advantages over any I have used, particularly in cases of great debility where it is important to save the strength of the patient. It can be made a pleasant drink and given in such form as to suit the subject in a case. As a family medicine, I think very highly of it, and as such can be freely used during the summer months."

(Signed) M. PRICE MOORE, M. D.
To Mr. James Tarrant, No. 60 Hudson street
New York, Nov. 18, 1844.

FROM JAMES TRUDEAU, M. D.

"I have often prescribed your Effervescent Seltzer Aperient in this city, and have always been pleased with its operation. It is, in my opinion, a pleasant, safe, and mild laxative, calculated to please the most fastidious. To persons residing in warm climates, where a congested state of the Liver is a frequent cause of disease, it is a most valuable medicine."

(Signed) JAMES TRUDEAU, M. D.
To Mr. James Tarrant, No. 308 Broadway
New York, Nov. 18, 1844.

FROM THE HON. JOHN McKEON.

Counsellor of the Supreme Court of the United States; late Member of the Legislature of New York, and Member of Congress.
