The Enemy all Afloat.

Gen. Lovell's official dispatch from the Quaran[illegible]

Headquarters, Biloxi, January 1.

Yesterday, 31 vessels were seen off Ship Island, 18 of which were steamers, with lights burning, and 13 sailing vessels, through sleep, and apparently in tow. Only 5 vessels were seen off Cat Island, on southern coast of Cat Island, and 2 off Horn Island. The vessels were all steering Southwest, through sleep, and apparently in tow. The last time we saw them was at 8 o'clock this morning.

The whole fleet was seen to-day steering south, when headed in small bunches of 5 and 6 each. Several vessels, also, passed Cat Island, on southern coast of that island,
