

Joseph Richetron, Esq.

Boston Feb. 19. 1852

My dear friend -

I am well acquainted with Madame Mape, in this city, who teaches French in Mr. Dorey's school, & gives private lessons, & feel a strong interest in her success.

Her husband has been teaching in your city, & is about to resign his colors, & it will give me pleasure to aid him in any way in my power. I cannot speak of Mr. Mape from personal acquaintance, but he is recommended in the highest terms, as a teacher & gentleman, by Mr. Emerson & others here, who are the best judges of his qualifications, and from their testimony in his favor & my own desire for his success, I am induced to call your attention to his plans. If you can advance his prospects in any way, there is no doubt, you will find yourself fully justified in all you may do, or do.

Mr. Weeks has the best of letters to Mr. Emerson's friends in N. Bedford. Believe me

Yours truly
R. H. Dana Jr
