(4) The purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

1968 c. 73.

(5) In relation to the promotion of the Bill for this Act the requirements of section 10 (1) (xxix) of the Transport Act 1968 have been observed:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

9. Where any objection received by the Secretary of State under paragraph 6 of this Schedule relates to any powers of compulsory acquisition, the Secretary of State may require the objector to state in writing the grounds of his objection; and if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the objection relates exclusively to matters that can be dealt with in the assessment of compensation, he may disregard the objection for the purposes of paragraph 6 of this Schedule.

- (ii) that the interests of the applicant in those proceedings have been substantially prejudiced by a failure to comply with any of the relevant requirements in relation to the order or the certificate;

may quash the order, or any provision of the order, or the certificate, either generally or in so far as it affects any property of that applicant.

(9 & 10 Geo. 6).

(b) in any other case, shall have effect as if the reference in paragraph 11 above to the date on which notice of the making of the order is first published as therein mentioned were a reference to the date on which the order becomes operative under the said Act of 1945.
