13 junio—4 E. SERREAU.

THE BAKERS of this City, being forced to adopt measures to escape the rain, which threatens them, by the power in which bread is sold, have resolved to follow a uniform way of disposing of their bread, that will insure at least the greatest part, if not the whole, of the profit, allowed them by the Ordinance of the City Council of New-Orleans, and which will enable them to purchase the best flour the market affords. They have the power to inform their friends and the public, that from Tuesday, 29th inst., they will make only one quality of bread, which they will sell at the rate of eight loaves for one dollar.
