APPROVAL OF BISHOP COXE.

THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN'S HYMNAL, compiled by a Presbyterian of my Diocese, is a useful and conveniently cheap and handy little formulary, and will be beneficial to Sunday Schools and families. It is hereby licensed for use in Western New York, and commended to the reverend Clergy.

A. CLEVELAND COXE,

UNSOLICITED COMMENDATIONS.

From Albany, N. Y.:—"I like it and think it will meet a felt want in many places. As I am able, I will do what I can to further its circulation."

A Rector of a Parish in Massachusetts says:—"THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN'S HYMNAL has interested me much. It is, in my opinion, a decided 'hit' in certain points—conciseness and cheapness. The selection of Hymns is among the best I have ever seen."

A Bishop of the Church writes:—"There are many candidates for favor in this connection, but I think that yours is about the best. I like it the more because it is not stuffed out with Hymns, which, as people say, ought to be sung; but is content, in a more modest size, to have those which sing themselves."

PREFACE.

In presenting this little book of instruction, of somewhat higher grade than its predecessors, it may be well to forestall attention to the fact that in dealing with important events, minor details have, as a rule, been omitted. Previous study has in all probability fully familiarized the pupil with them, and by their omission, space is gained for the deeper consideration of the event itself. Thus, in the lessons on Christmastide, less prominence is given the incidents connected with the Nativity of our Lord than the great truth of the Incarnation; so likewise as regards the Crucifixion and the great lesson of the Atonement.

It will also be noticed that the Collects of the Church form a conspicuous feature in the course of study, for the reason that the key-note of the lesson is often found beautifully reflected in these brief suggestive prayers, and attention to this fact is recommended to teachers as helpful in impressing the application of Biblical truths and precepts. The leading idea of the Collect is alone given, in order to bring out more clearly the special petition, grown formal, perhaps, through long familiarity ; but it will be well to have a Prayer-Book at hand for reference to the form in full.

In view of the truth that a general knowledge of the OLD TESTAMENT is indispensable to a beneficial study of the Gospel and the Church, it is hoped that some such course of instruction will have preceded this book. For that reason it is intended somewhat as a successor to the Practical Question Book on the Bible offered two years since, and the author can ask nothing more than that it be received with the same generous and kindly approval.

In it thou shalt do no manner of work; thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

And I pray unto God, that He will send us all things that are needful both for our souls and bodies; and that He will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins; and that it will please Him to save and defend us in all dangers both of soul and body; and that He will keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our spiritual enemy, and from everlasting death. And this I trust He will do of His mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ. And therefore I say, Amen. So be it."

What is the first lesson taught us in the Lord's Prayer?

The first lesson taught us in the Lord's Prayer is that there is one God and Father of us all (Ep. iv, 6).

What is further taught us throughout this Prayer?

It is further taught us throughout this Prayer that we are not to pray for self alone.

What do we learn through the explanation given us by the Catechism?

Through the explanation given us, we learn that the Lord's Prayer covers almost every desire of body or soul.

What is the ruling spirit of this Prayer?

The ruling spirit of this Prayer is one of child-like confidence and trust in God.

Of what are we reminded by its first petitions?

By its first petitions we are reminded of our Lord's words: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and all things shall be added unto you" (S. Matt. vi, 33).

What are we taught voluntarily to yield to God in this Prayer?

We are taught voluntarily to yield our will to God's will.

What was evidently our Lord's intention regard-this Prayer?

It was evidently our Lord's intention that this Prayer should be offered daily.

What does it provide for the body?

It provides for the body all its daily needs.

What does it provide for the soul?

It provides for the soul the blessings of pardon and peace.

What do we ask in the Collect for the Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity?

In the Collect for the Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity, we ask that God will grant unto all His faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve Him with a quiet mind.

---

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

How many Sacraments has Christ ordained in His Church?

“Two only, as generally necessary to salvation; that is to say, Baptism and the Supper of the Lord.”

What is meant by the word “generally?”

The word “generally” here means, needful for all men, in common, wherever attainable.

What do you mean by this word Sacrament?

“I mean an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us; ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.”

What is it, then, that we receive through a sacrament?

Through a Sacrament we receive some inward spiritual grace or gift.

Is this spiritual grace given by the Sacrament itself?

No; the Sacrament is only the means through which the grace is received.

Who alone can give the grace thus promised?

Our Lord, by Whom the Sacrament was ordained, can alone give the grace promised.

What then is necessary to make the Sacrament of value?

The Sacrament is of value only as we have faith in Christ, through Whose command it is received.

What other name is sometimes applied to the Sacraments?

The Sacraments are sometimes called Holy Mysteries.

Why are they thus called?

They are thus called because of the grace conveyed in a way which man can not comprehend.

How many parts are there in a Sacrament?

“Two; the outward visible sign, and the inward spiritual grace.”

What is the outward visible sign or form in Baptism?

“Water, wherein the person is baptized, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.”

What is the inward and spiritual grace?

“A death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness: For being by nature born in sin, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace.”

Are the two parts of a Sacrament separable?

Yes, if the Sacrament be received without faith, there can be nothing but the outward visible form.

Can the inward spiritual grace be received without the outward form?

Yes, the inward grace may be received through a hearty desire when the outward form is unattainable.

What do we ask in the Collect for the Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity?

In the Collect for the Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity, we ask that God's household, the Church, may be kept in continual godliness, free from all adversities, and devoutly given to all good works.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

What is required of persons to be baptized?

“Repentance, whereby they forsake sin; and faith, whereby they steadfastly believe the promises of God made to them in that Sacrament.”

Why then are infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

“Because they promise them both by their sureties; which promise, when they come to age, themselves are bound to perform.”

What is it then that our sureties have promised for us in Baptism?

Our sureties have promised for us repentance whereby we forsake sin, and faith, whereby we believe the promises God has given.

When is it promised that we will take these vows upon ourselves?

It is promised that we will take these vows upon ourselves, when we are old enough more fully to understand them.

What are our sureties commanded to do, meanwhile?

Our sureties are commanded meanwhile, to see that we be taught what solemn promises have been made for us, and all that a Christian ought to know, especially the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments (Bap. service).

What are our sureties further commanded?

Our sureties are further commanded that we be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed, so soon as we are thus sufficiently instructed.

Why should little children be given as early as possible the blessings of Baptism?

Little children should be given as early as possible the blessings of Baptism, that they may be numbered with the children of God.

At what age did God command little children to be brought to Him in the old covenant?

In the old covenant, God commanded little children to be brought to Him when eight days old (Gen. xvii, 12).

What is Baptism called in the Bible?

In the Bible, Baptism is called the washing of regeneration (Titus iii, 5).

What does regeneration mean?

Regeneration means being born again, into the Kingdom of God (S. John iii, 5).

How can this great privilege alone be obtained?

This great privilege can alone be obtained through faith in the promise of God.

What do we ask in the Collect for the Twenty-third Sunday after Trinity?

In the Collect for the Twenty-third Sunday after Trinity, we ask that God Who is our only refuge and strength, will grant that those things which we ask faithfully, we may obtain effectually.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Why was the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper ordained?

“For the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of the benefits which we receive thereby.”

What is the outward part or sign of the Lord's Supper?

“Bread and wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.”

When did our Lord ordain this Sacrament?

Our Lord ordained this Sacrament just before He offered Himself a sacrifice for us (S. Luke xxii, 16).

What were His words of command?

His words were: “This do in remembrance of Me” (S. Luke xxii, 19).

How long was this remembrance of our Lord to be offered?

This remembrance of our Lord was to be offered until His coming again.

What is the great purpose of the Sacrament thus ordained?

The great purpose of the Sacrament thus ordained is to show forth our Lord's death (1 Cor. xi, 26).

What is the inward part or thing signified in this Sacrament?

“The Body and Blood of Christ, which are spiritually taken and received by the faithful in the Lord’s Supper.”

What are the benefits whereof we are partakers thereby?

“The strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are by the bread and wine.”

How can these benefits alone be received?

These benefits can alone be received by partaking of this Sacrament, with faith in the atonement which it shows forth.

What were our Lord’s words when He consecrated the Bread and Wine for this Sacrament?

When He consecrated the Bread and Wine, for this Sacrament, our Lord said: “This is my Body;” “This is my Blood” (S. Matt. xxvi, 26, 27).

What had He said earlier?

He had said earlier: “He that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in Me, and I in him” (S. John vi, 56).

What is this Sacrament therefore called?

This Sacrament is therefore called, the Communion of our Lord Jesus Christ (I. Cor. x, 16).

What did our Lord add to His words "This is my Blood?"

To the words This is my Blood our Lord added — "Which is shed for the remission of sins" (S. Matt. xxvi, 28).

Of what then may we feel assured whenever receiving this Sacrament in faith and repentance?

Whenever receiving this Sacrament in faith and repentance we are assured anew of the absolution of our sins.

What do we ask in the Collect for the Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity.

In the Collect for the Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity, we ask that God will absolve His people from their offenses, and deliver them from the power of sin.

---

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Is the Sacrament of our Lord's Supper, merely an empty form to those who receive it without faith and repentance?

No; it is far worse than an empty form, for we are told that whosoever receives this holy Sacrament unworthily is guilty of great sin (1 Cor. xi, 27, 29).

What is therefore required of those who come to the Lord's Supper?

"To examine themselves, whether they repent them truly of their former sins, steadfastly purposing to lead a new life; have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of His death; and be in charity with all men."

Where are we also earnestly exhorted to this self-examination?

We are also thus exhorted to self-examination, in the first Exhortation preceding the Communion Service in the Prayer Book.

How are we here bidden to examine ourselves?

We are here bidden to examine our lives and conversation by the rule of God's commandments (see Exhortation).

What are we bidden to do when seeing wherein we have offended?

When seeing wherein we have offended, we are bidden to confess our sins to God, with full purpose of amendment.

What are we bidden if the offense be against our neighbour?

If the offense be against our neighbour, we are bidden to seek reconciliation, and to make restitution to the uttermost of our power.

If unable to quiet our conscience by such means what are we advised to do?

If unable to quiet our conscience by such means, we are advised to go to some minister of God's Word, and of him seek comfort and guidance.

What power did our Lord confer upon His chosen ministers?

Upon His chosen ministers, our Lord conferred the power of declaring in His Name the forgiveness of sins (S. John xx, 23).

To whom did our Lord Himself extend this pardon when upon earth?

Our Lord Himself extended this pardon only to those who came to Him in sorrow and penitence.

Upon whom then can His ministers alone bestow it?

His ministers can alone bestow it on those who likewise seek it with true repentance.

What is absolutely necessary in our appropriation of any of God's spiritual gifts?

In our appropriation of any of God's spiritual gifts, a true faith in His mercy, and a thankful remembrance of the death of Christ is absolutely necessary.

What do we ask in the Collect for the Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity?

In the Collect for the Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity, we ask that God will stir up the wills of His people, that so they may bring forth plenteously the fruit of good works.
