§ 703.21 Responsibility for disposition. (a) The Office of the Administrator will determine when projects or parts thereof are no longer needed in the interest of the orderly demobilization of the war effort and will then terminate such projects or parts thereof and thereby: (i) Make temporary war housing available to the Federal Public Housing Authority for reuse for purposes of Title V of the Lanham Act as amended, or, if not reused, for disposition; and (ii) make permanent war housing available to FPHA for disposition.

(b) The Federal Public Housing Authority shall be responsible for the reuse or disposition of war housing projects or parts thereof upon their termination. The FPHA shall establish policies and procedures for disposition, obtain the recommendations of local governments and execute the disposition program, all in accordance with applicable laws and these §§ 703.20 to 703.31, inclusive.

§ 703.22 Consultation with local governments. (a) Formal discussions with representatives of local governments regarding disposition problems shall be initiated sufficiently in advance of the disposition of the war housing projects or parts thereof that local agencies will have adequate prior opportunity to study disposition problems, reach agreements within the community, and prepare recommendations regarding disposition programs.

(1) Where the disposition of public war housing involves problems that are acute or materially affect other housing in the community the Office of the Administrator, with the Federal Public Housing Authority, will initiate discussions with representatives designated by the elected head of the local government having jurisdiction over the area in which the housing is located.

(2) In other cases the Federal Public Housing Authority will be responsible for such discussions and will consult with representatives of local governments. In all cases the FPHA shall make available all necessary data regarding the projects available for disposition.

(3) Where more than one unit of local government is affected by the disposition, joint consultation shall be sought.

(b) The Federal Public Housing Authority shall receive the recommendations of the representatives of the local government and shall review them for legality, financial return to the government, and conformity with National Housing Agency policies regarding disposition.

§ 703.23 General policies regarding disposition. (a) The FPHA will follow, insofar as practicable, the recommendations of representatives of the local governments in the disposition of public war housing subject only to the provisions of applicable law, the policies stated in these §§ 703.20 to 703.31, inclusive, and considerations of an equitable return to the Federal Government.

(b) In the disposition of public war housing projects consideration shall be given to the improvement of the local housing supply, to minimizing adverse effects upon existing private housing and to encouraging future private construction. Recommendations and judgments of local governments on these factors will be accepted insofar as practicable, upon satisfactory showing that they have been analyzed and considered.

§ 703.24 General policies regarding permanent projects. (a) The term "permanent" includes all housing developed under the above laws, except housing determined "to be of a temporary character" pursuant to section 313 of the Lanham Act.

(b) Permanent public war housing projects, or parts thereof, shall be terminated as expeditiously as possible consistent with the housing needs still remaining for continuing war activities, in accordance with NHA General Order No. 11-19, and disposed of as expeditiously thereafter as in the public interest.

(c) In accordance with the Lanham Act, permanent war housing projects shall be sold for private residential purposes unless transferred or sold for residential use by other Federal agencies or unless transfers to local housing authorities for low-rent housing use as hereinafter provided are specifically authorized by the Congress.

(d) Where a local authority and the governing body of the community proposes that a project be utilized for public low-rent housing purposes, and the FPHA concurs, the FPHA will submit the proposal to the Administrator for his consideration and for submission to the Congress.

§ 703.25 Terms and conditions of sale of permanent projects. (a) The disposition by FPHA of terminated permanent projects or parts of projects to be used for private residential purposes shall be in accordance with the following:

(1) In all cases of sales of dwellings in such projects preference shall be given to actual occupants or prospective occupants, that is, those who are actually using or will themselves use the premises for residential purposes. Actual occupants will have preference over prospective occupants and as among prospective occupants, veterans, servicemen, or their families shall have first preference. Occupants and prospective occupants include individuals or mutual ownership corporations whose membership is comprised of occupants or prospective occupants.

(2) In case of sales to individuals, the dwelling units must be suitable for individual ownership and it should be considered feasible to dispose of substantially all of the dwellings in the project in this manner within a reasonable time. Furthermore, until January 1, 1948, or the date of termination of rent control under Federal authority (whichever is the later), no unit may be resold except at a price approved by the FPHA.

(3) No sale shall be made to a mutual ownership corporation unless there is a financially sound plan of purchase and its membership meets the requirements of the FPHA.

(4) All purchasers, their successors or assigns, shall agree that until January 1, 1948, or the date of termination of rent control under Federal authority (whichever is the later) they shall not: (i) Evict the present occupants of any unit except for causes recognized by courts of law as justifying an eviction because of breach of contract of tenancy; (ii) raise the rent of any tenant occupying the project at the time of sale above the rent in existence at the date of sale except that prior to January 1, 1948, the rent of any tenant who is paying an adjusted rent less than the scheduled rent because of distressed circumstances may be increased upward at any time in accordance with any increased ability to pay, but not to exceed the scheduled rent, and provided such increase is approved by the FPHA.

(5) All purchasers, their successors or assigns, shall agree that until January 1, 1948, first preference on resale or rental of individual units shall be given to veterans, servicemen, or their families. Such preference will not be deemed to be complied with if the unit is sold or rented within 30 days of the unit's availability to other than a veteran, serviceman, or his family, who is available and qualified.

(b) Prior to sales to occupants and prospective occupants, prices shall be publicly announced equal to their market values based on competent appraisal, in order that advantage not be taken of scarcity in the market to obtain inflated prices.

Prior to sales to other than occupants and prospective occupants, public notice shall be given and proposals solicited. Sales shall be consummated at prices conforming so far as practicable to appraised value, and the highest and best offer obtainable shall be accepted unless it shall be found in the public interest to accept a lower offer.

(c) Insofar as possible, sales for private residential purposes should be made for cash and such financing as is necessary obtained in the private financial market. Where such financing is not available, FPHA shall establish appropriate sale terms.

(d) When sold for on-site use, demountable dwelling structures shall be disposed of as permanent structures as outlined in preceding paragraphs. In the disposition of demountable dwelling structures, the community may recommend the removal of demountable family dwellings if there is no physical need for such structures in the community or if not appropriate to the site on which they are located. Community recommendations for the removal of demountable family dwellings will be given every consideration by the FPHA, consistent with broad Federal policy and the protection of the Federal interest. The FPHA will carefully examine any commitments as to removal, either formal or implied and will faithfully carry out any such obligations. Appropriate terminated demountables, suitable for off-site sale shall be sold to meet veterans' needs in the following order of preference: (i) Federal agencies, (ii) educational institutions or local public bodies, or their representatives, (iii) individual veterans, servicemen, or their families, (iv) to others who will purchase the housing in marketable quantities and remove and resell or rent the housing to veterans, servicemen, or their families subject to appropriate restrictions on resale prices and rents. When sold for off-site use, the sale shall require that purchasers, successors and assigns shall agree that until January 1, 1948, they will give first preference to veterans, servicemen, or their families among qualified tenants or purchasers, in the rental of dwellings or their sale for owner occupancy, as the case may be, and at sales prices approved by the FPHA.

(e) Any sale to a Federal agency shall be subject to the conditions described in paragraph (a) (4) and (5) of this section.

§ 703.26 General policies regarding temporary projects. (a) The term "temporary housing" includes all housing developed under the above laws and determined "to be of a temporary character" pursuant to section 313 of the Lanham Act; except terminated trailers which, when surplus to the functions and needs of NHA, shall be declared surplus and turned over to the disposal agency designated by the War Assets Administration for disposal pursuant to the Surplus Property Act of 1944.

(b) Where feasible and in accordance with the policies of the Administrator, terminated temporary housing and trailers no longer needed on the original site for demobilization purposes shall be removed to other localities to provide housing for distressed veterans and distressed families of veterans and servicemen under Title V of the Lanham Act. Such temporary housing shall be removed, upon expiration of Title V need, in accordance with section 313 of the Lanham Act.

(c) Temporary housing not utilized in connection with paragraph (b) of this section, will be removed as promptly as may be practicable and in the public interest in accordance with section 313 of the Lanham Act. Deferments in the removal of temporary housing may be authorized when the Administrator, after consultation with local communities, finds that temporary housing is still needed in the interest of the orderly demobilization of the war effort for either residential or non-residential purposes.

(d) Temporary housing may be transferred to other Federal agencies for use on or off the present site, subject to the understanding in the case of on-site use that the transferee Federal agency will carry out the provisions of the Lanham Act and NHA regulations concerning the removal of temporary housing.

(e) Where temporary housing is sold or transferred for removal to other than a Federal agency, it shall not be removed in an intact or substantially intact condition, but shall be reduced to parts not greater than flat panels, unless it is to be removed for Title V use or is to be removed for non-residential use by a public, non-profit, or charitable institution, in which case it may be removed in an intact condition.

(f) In the disposition of surplus temporary war housing, Federal agencies shall have first preference, state and local governments shall have preference over other buyers, and non-profit institutions, such as charitable organizations and schools, shall have preference over private buyers.

§ 703.27 Separate disposition of community or commercial facilities. (a) Where community, commercial or other non-dwelling facilities are to be disposed of separately from the war housing to which they are appurtenant and are not transferred to landowners in connection with the termination and settlement of Government leasehold estates, the following order of preference shall be observed: First, to Federal agencies; second, to state or local governments; third, to non-profit institutions; fourth, to veterans for owner-operated small business or commercial purposes.

§ 703.28 Land. (a) Any owned land which is no longer needed shall be declared surplus to the War Assets Administration for appropriate disposal, and any leases or temporary uses of land which are no longer needed shall be terminated.

§ 703.29 Preferential purchases. (a) The preferences provided for in these §§ 703.20 to 703.31, inclusive, for the acquisition of the war housing property may only be exercised if the party having such preferences offers to purchase for his own use the property to be disposed of at the sales price established by FPHA, unless in the case of Federal agencies transfer without reimbursement is otherwise authorized by law.

§ 703.30 Definition of veteran and serviceman. As used in these §§ 703.20 to 703.31, inclusive, a veteran means a person who has served in the military or naval forces of the United States during World War II and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable. Serviceman means any person who is serving in the military or naval forces of the United States.

§ 703.31 Revocation. NHA Regulation 60-11 is hereby revoked.

This regulation shall be effective immediately.

WILSON W. WYATT,
Administrator.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-939, as Amended May 29, 1946, Amdt. 1]

THEODORE G. MEYER

Theodore G. Meyer, 200 Quint Street, San Francisco, California, a contractor, engaged in the building of small family dwellings, was suspended by Suspension Order No. S-939, issued on May 20, 1946, and amended May 29, 1946. The respondent has appealed from the provisions of the order. The Chief Compliance Commissioner has reviewed the case, and has concluded that the amended suspension order, issued May 29, 1946, goes beyond the intent of the compliance commissioner's recommendation insofar as its effect is retrospective. It is therefore directed that the suspension order be amended by adding to paragraph (d) the following: "or to preference ratings placed or to be placed on orders for materials necessary to construct 19 houses authorized by FHA on May 10, 1946, project serial No. 66-121-09734, and 3 houses authorized by FHA on May 10, 1946, project Serial No. 66-121-09735, all located in Miraloma Park Subdivision, San Francisco, California."

In view of the foregoing it is hereby ordered, that: § 1010.939 Suspension Order No. S-939, as amended on May 29, 1946, and effective May 30, 1946, be, and hereby is, amended by the substitution of the following paragraph (d) for the present paragraph (d):

(d) The provisions of this order shall not apply to preference ratings placed or to be placed on orders for materials necessary to complete the construction of the 38 houses authorized on Form CPA-4386, project Serial No. 66-121-00098 and located in Miraloma Park Subdivision, San Francisco, California, or to preference ratings placed or to be placed on orders for materials necessary to construct 19 houses authorized by FHA on May 10, 1946, project Serial No. 66-121-09734, and 3 houses authorized by FHA on May 10, 1946, project Serial No. 66-121-09735, all located in Miraloma Park Subdivision, San Francisco, California.

Issued this 12th day of June 1946.

At any place on the body basic where there is more than 1 thickness of material, except for the belt or sash, normal facings, inside shoulder pads, hem, an attached slip under a transparent fabric, and a 2" lap on an open front top, all of which are considered part of the body basic, the extra thickness shall be deemed trimming and shall be charged against the trimming allowance.

(2) The body basic shall be limited to (See Fig. 1):

(i) The complete front and back of the waist up to the neckline, including normal fullness. In the case of a suit dress, the waist or top shall not exceed 25 inches in length for a size 16, other sizes to be graded in normal proportions;

(ii) The skirt, with the limitations of hip length, sweep, and hem, as provided in paragraph (g);

(iii) Short or full length sleeves with the limitations of length and circumference as provided in paragraph (g).

(iv) One belt or sash;

(v) Inside shoulder pads;

(vi) A 2" lap on an open front top;

(vii) Normal facings.

(viii) An attached slip under a transparent fabric.

(3) The trimming allowance shall be limited to:

(i) 700 square inches for nontransparent fabrics for all sizes if the hip measurement does not exceed the body basic hip measurement. However, if the hip measurement exceeds the allowable body basic hip measurement, and in no event may it exceed the allowable sweep, such trimming allowance shall be reduced to 525 square inches;

(ii) 1400 square inches for transparent fabrics for all sizes if the hip measurement does not exceed the body basic hip measurement. However, in the hip measurement exceeds the allowable body basic hip measurement, and in no event may it exceed the allowable sweep, such trimming allowance shall be reduced to 1050 square inches.

(g) General restrictions on the measurements of dresses and nurses' uniforms and maids' uniforms. Maximum measurements for all sizes and ranges other than those specified below shall be graded in normal trade proportions.

(1) Daytime dresses. Daytime dresses shall be of and graded from the following maximum measurements:

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING, AND LEATHER

[General Limitation Order L-85 as Amended June 14, 1946]

APPAREL FOR FEMININE WEAR

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of wool, silk, rayon, cotton, linen, and other materials for defense, for private account and for export: and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3290.1 General Limitation Order L-85—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the Civilian Production Administration.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order and its schedules:

(1) "Put into process" means the first cutting of material in the manufacture of any apparel for feminine wear.

(2) Unless otherwise specifically defined, all terms in this order and its schedules shall have their usual and customary trade meanings.

(c) General restrictions. (1) No person shall put into process or manufacture any apparel for feminine wear contrary to the restrictions in any schedule of this order.

This applies to all apparel for feminine wear made from any kind of material, including any synthetic material as well as yarn or knitted or woven fabric.

(2) No person shall sell or deliver for sale any apparel for feminine wear which he knows or has reason to believe was (i) put into process or manufactured in the United States, its territories or insular possessions contrary to the restrictions in this order or any schedule of this order, or was (ii) put into process or manufactured outside of the United States, its territories or insular possessions, and does not conform to the specifications and other restrictions in this order or any schedule of this order.

(d) General exceptions. The provisions of this order and its schedules shall not apply to:

(3) The sale of second hand apparel for feminine wear;

(4) The alteration of any apparel for feminine wear to fit a specific individual consumer;

(5) Apparel for feminine wear for persons of heights of 5' 7½" or over, of abnormal size, or with physical deformities, to the extent it is necessary to use in such apparel additional material for proportionate length, sweep or width. No manufacturer may make or deliver any garment under this provision for an individual, whether on direct order or through a retailer, unless he obtains the individual's measurements and uses them in cutting and making the garment.

(6) Bridal gowns;

INTERPRETATION 1

[Superseded by paragraph (b) (10) of L-85, as amended May 25, 1943.]

INTERPRETATION 2: Revoked Oct. 30, 1945

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES
SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 32 as Amended June 14, 1946]

INVENTORIES

(a) What this regulation does.

General Restrictions

- (b) Restriction on delivery.
- (c) Restrictions on receipts.
- (d) Restriction on ordering more than needed.
- (e) Adjusting outstanding orders when requirements change.
- (f) Restriction on processing.

Exceptions

- (g) In general.
- (h) Receipts permitted after contract cancellations or cut-backs.

Miscellaneous Provisions

- (i) Previous inventory authorizations.
- (j) Separate inventories.
- (k) Redistribution of excess inventories.
- (l) Violations.
- (m) Revisions of tables.
- (n) Appeals, letters and questions.

§ 944.53 Priorities Regulation 32—(a) What this regulation does. This regulation contains the inventory rules formerly in § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation 1 and in CMP Regulation 2. Its purpose is to prevent excessive inventories by restricting ordering, deliveries, receipts and processing of materials in short supply. All kinds of materials are covered including raw or semi-fabricated materials, commodities, equipment, accessories, parts, assemblies or products of any kind, whether or not acquired with priorities assistance.

The general rule on receipts is in paragraph (c) (1), and this is controlling unless a more specific limitation or exception is indicated in Table 1 or 2 or a direction to this regulation, or unless Table 3 (formerly Order M-161) exempts the material entirely. Other exceptions to the inventory limitations are stated in paragraphs (g) and (h) and in directions to this regulation.

General Restrictions

(b) Restriction on delivery. No person may deliver any material if he knows or has reason to believe that acceptance of the delivery would be in violation of this regulation.

NOTE: For rule on making or delivering material earlier than required by customers, see Interpretation 3.

(c) Restrictions on receipts—(1) General rule. A person may not accept delivery of any material if his inventory of that material is, or will be, more than a practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet his own deliveries or to supply his services on the basis of his current or scheduled method and rate of operation.

NOTE: For rule on when material is considered to be in inventory, see Interpretation 4; for rule as to seasonal industries, see Interpretation 1.

(2) Special rules in Tables 1 and 2. If Table 1 at the end of this regulation shows a special inventory limit on a particular material or product (either specifically or by reference to another CPA order or regulation), that limitation governs and the restrictions of paragraph (c) (1) above may be disregarded unless the applicable order or regulation (or a note in Table 1) also states that a practicable minimum working inventory may not be exceeded. The same is true with respect to particular classes of persons shown on Table 2. Where a specific period of time is shown on Table 1 or 2, no person affected may accept delivery of any material specified if his inventory of it is, or will be, more than he needs during the immediate period specified on the basis of his current or scheduled method and rate of operation. Even if an order or regulation is not listed on Table 1 or 2, any specific inventory limits imposed by it must be complied with. If an order or regulation listed on Table 1 or 2 is revoked or a listing removed from the tables all provisions of this regulation, including paragraph (c) (1), are automatically applicable.

(3) Early delivery of steel, iron products, copper, and copper base alloys. Early delivery, up to 15 days before the requested delivery month, may be accepted from a producer of steel, iron products, copper or copper base alloys (in the forms listed on Table 1), but the producer may not make the early delivery if it would interfere with any rated orders. Other special rules on these materials are explained in Table 1.

(d) Restriction on ordering more than needed. (1) A person may not place any order, whether rated or unrated, for delivery of any material on earlier dates or in larger amounts than he would be permitted to receive under this regulation. Orders aggregating more than he is allowed to receive may not be placed with different suppliers even though he intends to cancel one or more of them before delivery. However, this restriction does not apply to materials listed on Table 3 of this regulation nor to purchases by ultimate consumers for personal or household use. The restriction does not forbid the placing of orders for delivery under the conditions explained in Interpretation 11 to Priorities Regulation 1, but such orders may not be scheduled for production as long as this restriction is effective.

(2) This restriction does not require immediate adjustment of orders placed before August 28, 1945. However, in view of its policy to prevent hoarding and speculative buying of materials in short supply, the CPA may direct adjustments or cancellations in individual cases where orders are in excess of reasonably anticipated needs especially where failure to do so might result in unbalanced distribution and curtail total production.

(3) If the inventory limits applying to any material are made more restrictive, whether by a change in Table 1 or otherwise, any person affected must immediately cancel, reduce or defer any order for the material to the extent that the scheduled delivery would result in an inventory greater than permitted by the new restriction and other applicable provisions of this regulation.

(e) Adjusting outstanding orders when requirements change. If because of a change in operations, slowing or stoppage of production, delayed delivery by a supplier, or any other change in requirements, a person who has ordered material for future delivery would, if he accepted delivery on the date specified, exceed the limits prescribed by this regulation, he must promptly adjust his outstanding orders, and, if necessary, postpone or cancel them. Paragraph (h) below describes what further deliveries may be accepted.

(f) Restriction on processing. No person may process, fabricate, alloy or otherwise alter the shape or form of any material if his inventory of the material in its processed, fabricated, alloyed or otherwise altered shape or form is, or will be, more than a practicable minimum working inventory. However, this does not restrict a person from altering the form of surplus materials by scrapping or reprocessing them, unless a CPA order specifically says otherwise. The CPA may issue directions to Priorities Regulation 32 or other orders that are more restrictive on processing than the general limitations of this paragraph. In such case, these more restrictive directions or orders control instead of the general restrictions of the paragraph.

Exceptions

(g) In general. This paragraph, paragraph (h) below, and certain directions to this regulation state general exceptions to the restrictions on acceptance of delivery described in paragraph (c) above, and to all other inventory restrictions on delivery and acceptance of delivery in CPA orders and regulations unless they contain specific provisions to the contrary. None of these or any other exceptions to CPA inventory restrictions on receipts permit a supplier to disregard any applicable CPA order or regulation which restricts production or delivery.

(1) Exemption of Table 3 materials. Materials listed on Table 3 at the end of this regulation may be delivered and accepted without regard to CPA inventory restrictions.

(2) Materials bought under PR-13. Priorities Regulation 13 provides a limited exemption from inventory restrictions in the case of items bought on special sales.

(3) Imported materials. A person may import any material without regard to CPA inventory restrictions, but if his inventory of it thereby becomes in excess of the amount permitted by this regulation, he may not receive further deliveries of it from domestic sources until his inventory is reduced to permitted levels. The inventory restrictions of this regulation do apply to any deliveries of the imported material he makes, and to the amount of it that any person accepting delivery from him may receive.

(4) Advance stockpiling for civilian production. A person may receive in anticipation of starting or resuming civilian production the minimum amount of material he would need during the first 30 days of such production, provided no priorities assistance is used to get the material. Records of such receipts and the basis on which they were computed must be preserved as required by § 944.15 of Priorities Regulation 1. This 30-day amount is a ceiling as far as advance stockpiling is concerned, and may not be considered as a "bonus" to be added to the amount of any material which a producer expects to have available for making his civilian product. Changes in this 30-day amount may be indicated for a particular material by a note in Table 1.

(5) Minimum sale quantities. Minimum sale quantities and production runs may be accepted to the extent permitted by Interpretation 2 to this Regulation. However, where Column 3 of Table 1 shows a specific amount of a particular material, that is considered to be the minimum sale quantity of it. Thus, if a person would be permitted under paragraph (c) to accept less than the amount shown, he may accept delivery of the full amount. In any event, after receiving a minimum sale quantity of any material, a person may not accept delivery of any additional quantities until his inventory of it is within applicable limits.

(6) Small inventory exemption for particular materials. If a note in Table 1 or 2 shows a specific amount of a particular material as a small inventory exemption a person may accept delivery of any quantities of it as long as his total inventory of it after acceptance is no more than the specified amount.

(h) Receipts permitted after adjustment of orders. Where a person has promptly adjusted his outstanding orders with his supplier as required by paragraph (e) and the supplier is not otherwise prohibited from producing or delivering any material involved, delivery of it may be made and accepted and the inventory restrictions of paragraph (c) exceeded to the following extent only:

(1) Delivery may be made and accepted if the supplier has shipped the material or loaded it for shipment before the receipt of the instruction to adjust; or

(2) Delivery may be made and accepted of any special item which the supplier actually has in stock or in production or special components or special materials which he has acquired for the purpose of filling that contract. A special item, as used above, means one that the supplier does not usually make, stock, or sell, and which cannot readily be disposed of to others; or

(3) Even if the material is not a special item, delivery may be made by and accepted from a producer if it has already been produced or is in production before receipt of the instruction to adjust, and it cannot be used to fill other orders on the producer's books. However, in the case of steel processed beyond the slab, billet or sheet bar stage before receipt of the instruction to adjust, producers are not required to examine other orders on their books. In this case, unless otherwise ordered by the CPA, deliveries may be made and accepted if the producer cannot readily dispose of the material to others without loss of production.

NOTE: For special rules on continuing receipts of special items after contract cut backs, see Direction 3 to this regulation; and as to transfers of idle materials after cancellations or cut backs, see Direction 1. For effect of reduction in consumption rate on permitted inventories, see Interpretation 5.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(i) Previous inventory authorizations. Any specific authorizations, exceptions, or grants of appeals issued under § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation 1 or CMP Regulation 2 remain in effect according to their terms unless individually modified or revoked.

(j) Separate inventories. (1) In figuring his inventory, a person must include all material in his possession and all material held for his account by another person, but not material held by him for the account of another person.

(2) In the case of a person who on August 28, 1945, has more than one operating unit and keeps separate inventory records for them, this regulation applies to each such operating unit or division independently. A person may not make any further separation or consolidation of such operating units without special written approval of the Civilian Production Administration, unless it is purely incidental to a separation or consolidation which is made primarily for other than inventory purposes.

(k) Redistribution of excess inventories. Excess inventories of materials and products, including inventories of materials which are in such form as to be unusable by the holder, are subject to redistribution to other persons by voluntary action pursuant to Priorities Regulation 13, or if necessary for national defense, through requisitioning by the Civilian Production Administration.

(l) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this regulation, or who, in connection with this regulation, willfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(m) Revisions of tables. Tables 1, 2 and 3, attached to this regulation will be revised from time to time. As materials and products become in more ample supply, it is expected that they will be listed on Table 3. In special cases, particular materials or products may also be removed from Table 3 or added to Table 1. It is, therefore, important to be familiar with the latest revision of the tables.

(n) Appeals, letters and questions. Any appeal or other question regarding any provision of this regulation should be sent by letter in duplicate to the Inventory Control Division, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: PR 32, unless Table 1 or 2 attached to this regulation indicates otherwise with respect to particular materials or classes of persons.

Issued this 14th day of June 1946.

TABLE 1—MATERIALS AND PRODUCTS SUBJECT TO SPECIFIC INVENTORY PROVISIONS

Explanation. Materials or products listed in Column 1 are subject to the specific inventory provisions shown, as explained in paragraph (c) (2) of the regulation, except to the extent that different rules may apply as to certain classes of persons under Table 2.

Column 2 shows either the CPA order or regulation which controls inventories of the material, or if no order is specified, there is shown a period of time representing the maximum inventory permitted as explained in paragraph (c) (2). An asterisk (*) indicates that the practicable minimum working inventory limit of paragraph (c) (1) also applies, that is, if it would be less than the specific limit indicated.

If Column 2 shows a specific period of time (e. g., 30 days, 60 days, etc.) for a particular material or product, this restriction applies only to "users" of that material or product, i. e., persons, including Government operated consuming establishments, who use the material or product for production, operating supplies, maintenance and repair, or for construction whether for own account or for the account of another. In addition, the restriction applies only within the 48 States and the District of Columbia. In the case of persons who are not "users", such as persons buying for resale, paragraph (c) (1) applies instead of Column 2.

A figure in Column 3 shows the minimum sale quantity, that is, the amount of the particular material which a person may receive under the conditions stated in paragraph (g) (5), even if it is more than allowed under Column 2. If no figure is shown, the rule in Interpretation 2 must be followed.

Column 4 tells the Division or Office in the Civilian Production Administration to which should be sent any appeals or questions regarding the limitations described. However, if the applicable order says appeals are to be filed somewhere else, such as the nearest CPA field office, that provision controls.

Column 5 (Remarks) gives explanations, exemptions or other special rules applicable to the particular material or limitation.

TABLE 2—CLASSES OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SPECIFIC INVENTORY PROVISIONS

Explanation. The classes of persons listed in Column 1 are subject to the specific inventory provisions shown, as explained in paragraph (c) (2) of the regulation. Column 2 shows either the CPA order or regulation which controls the inventories of the particular class of persons, or if no order is specified, there is shown a period of time representing the maximum inventory permitted as explained in paragraph (c) (2). An asterisk (*) indicates that the practicable minimum working inventory limit of paragraph (c) (1) also applies, that is, if it would be less than the specific limit indicated. Column 3 tells the Division or Office in the Civilian Production Administration to which should be sent any appeals or questions regarding the limitations described. However, if the applicable order says appeals are to be filed somewhere else, such as the nearest CPA field office, that provision controls. Column 4 (Remarks) gives explanations, exemptions or other special rules applicable to the particular class of persons or limitation. Where this column specifies certain materials, the limitation or exemption for the particular class of person applies only to the materials specified.

INVENTORIES IN SEASONAL INDUSTRIES

Paragraph (c) (1) of Priorities Regulation 32 prohibits any person from accepting a delivery which will give him "more than a practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet his own deliveries on the basis of his current or scheduled method and rate of operation". This does not prevent a person engaged in a seasonal industry who normally stocks up inventory in advance of the season from accepting delivery of his requirements of the inventory in question, provided (a) that he is not guilty of hoarding, and (b) that the deliveries accepted are no greater and no further in advance than those which he would normally accept in the ordinary course of his business to meet reasonably anticipated requirements. (Issued Aug. 28, 1945.)

INTERPRETATION 2

MINIMUM SALE QUANTITIES AND PRODUCTION RUNS

(a) Applicable provisions of the regulations. Priorities Regulation 32 forbids the making or acceptance of a delivery which will give the customer more than the "practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary" for him to make his own deliveries. A similar provision in paragraph (c) (2) of Priorities Regulation No. 3 says that a customer who is applying a rating for which no specific quantities have been authorized may use it only to get the "minimum amount needed."

(b) Factors to be considered in determining how much can be ordered and delivered. In determining a customer's minimum inventory "reasonably necessary" under Priorities Regulation 32 or his "minimum amount needed" under Priorities Regulation No. 3, it is proper in some cases to consider not only the immediate needs of the customer's plant but also whether the amount which he orders will be a minimum production run for his supplier. The customer may order and receive (and the supplier may deliver) the customer's requirements for a longer period in advance than he actually needs at the time of delivery if, but only if, it is not practicable for him to get the item from any supplier in the smaller quantities which he presently needs. The supplier may reject his customer's order if it is less than the minimum which he regularly sells or less than his minimum production run of a product which is mass produced under the conditions explained in Interpretation 3 of Priorities Regulation 1.

(c) Relief in exceptional cases. If the conditions stated in paragraph (b) above cannot be satisfied but the customer wants to order or accept delivery of more than his actual needs at the time of delivery, he should apply to the Civilian Production Administration for permission, stating the facts and why it is not practicable to satisfy the condition of paragraph (b).

(d) Special provisions for certain materials. Where a specific minimum sale quantity is shown in Column 3 of Table 1 of Priorities Regulation 32 with respect to any material or product, that quantity controls instead of the rule in this interpretation.

(e) Specific limits on ratings may not be exceeded. This interpretation does not apply to the use of a rating where a specific quantity is stated in the instrument assigning the rating. If a person is assigned a rating for a specific amount of material, he may not use it to get more. If he finds that he can only get the material in larger quantities, he should apply for a modification of the rating.

(f) No effect on contractual rights. The times and amounts in which deliveries are to be made are to be determined by agreement between the supplier and the customer. Nothing in this interpretation relieves a supplier from fulfilling a contract to make deliveries at specified times in specified amounts. For example, if a customer has agreed to buy and a supplier has agreed to furnish 100 units a month for six months, this interpretation does not obligate the buyer to accept 600 units delivered during the first month, although it permits him to do so under the conditions described in paragraph (b). (Issued Oct. 1, 1945.)

INTERPRETATION 3

MAKING OR DELIVERING MATERIAL EARLIER THAN REQUIRED BY CUSTOMERS

(a) Paragraph (b) of Priorities Regulation 32 prohibits a person from knowingly making a delivery which will give his customer more than the latter is permitted to receive under the regulation. Paragraph (f) of that regulation prohibits a person from processing or fabricating material if his inventory of the material in its processed or fabricated form will be more than a practicable minimum working inventory. These two restrictions should be borne in mind by any supplier who wants to make or deliver any material to his customer earlier or in greater quantities than required by the customer.

(b) For example: A supplier has accepted his customer's order of a product to be delivered at the rate of 100 a month for six months. The supplier would like to ship 200 a month for three months, or perhaps the entire 600 in the first month. Since the customer's requirements of 100 a month are presumably all he could accept within the inventory limitations of paragraph (c) of the regulation, the requirement that the supplier may not knowingly ship more than this would prevent him from delivering earlier than required by his customer, unless he received notice from his customer that the receipt of the larger amount would not cause him to have an excess inventory.

(c) Thus, before delivering a material or product substantially earlier or in greater quantities than is called for by his customer's order a supplier is requested to satisfy himself that the receipt by the customer of the changed quantities will be within the permissible inventory limitations applicable to the customer. The supplier may rely on any statement or notice to this effect from his customer, unless he knows or has reason to know that it is false.

(d) Similarly, assuming his customer would not be permitted to receive the larger quantities, the supplier should take this into account in his plans for processing the material or product so that he himself will not have an inventory greater than permitted by paragraph (f) of the regulation.

(e) This interpretation, of course, does not change the rule on delivery or acceptance of minimum sale quantities or production runs to the extent described in Interpretation 2 to this regulation, nor does it prevent earlier delivery of iron products, steel, copper and copper base alloys under the conditions described in paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation 32. Also, if any CPA order or regulation permits increased deliveries to the extent necessary to avoid shipping partly filled containers (such as paragraph (y) (4) of Order M-300), the rule in this interpretation does not prevent such deliveries. (Issued Oct. 1, 1945.)

INVENTORY MATERIAL

(a) Paragraph (c) of Priorities Regulation 32 prohibits a person from accepting delivery of material if his inventory of it is, or will be, greater than the maximum prescribed. For the purpose of this regulation, material is considered to be inventory until it is actually put into process or is actually installed or assembled. Putting into process does not include minor initial operations, such as painting, and does not include any shearing, cutting, trimming or other operation unless such initial operations are part of a continuous fabricating or assembling operation. Nor does it include operations such as inspection, testing and ageing nor segregation or earmarking for a specific job or operation.

(b) For example, if a manufacturer who uses wire or rod cuts a sufficient quantity of it to length at one time to maintain his operations for a considerable period of time, the cut pieces remain as inventory until processed into another form or until assembled or installed.

(c) If a manufacturer purchases and stores steel castings in the form purchased, the steel castings are not put into process when the castings are painted and stored. Consequently, the inventory of castings includes those painted and stored.

(d) If a manufacturer shears steel sheet and stocks in sheared form, such stock is still part of his inventory, if the material does not continue in production. (Issued Aug. 28, 1945)

INTERPRETATION 5

EFFECT OF REDUCTION IN CONSUMPTION RATE ON PERMITTED INVENTORIES

(a) Paragraph (c) of Priorities Regulation 32 prohibits the acceptance of delivery of material if a person's inventory of it is, or will be, more than the amount permitted by the regulation. If material is acquired within these restrictions, the regulation does not prohibit the mere possession of an inventory if a change in circumstances makes it greater than the amount permitted. For instance, if based upon current rate of production a manufacturer's permitted inventory of one item of steel is 100 tons and he has in inventory 60 tons, he may receive a further delivery of 40 tons. If after receiving the delivery of 40 tons his rate of consumption, because of contract cancellation or the like, is reduced drastically, the mere fact that he has an inventory of 100 tons, although his permitted inventory may be only 10 tons, is not a violation of the regulation. He may not, of course, accept any further deliveries of that item of steel until his inventory has been reduced below 10 tons (except as provided in paragraph (h) of Priorities Regulation 32 and Direction 3 to that regulation, relating to material already shipped, special items, etc.)

(b) Similarly, the regulation does not affect the liability of a customer for material in inventory when the customer cancels his contract. Such liability is controlled by the provisions of the contract between the customer and his supplier and by contract law. (Issued Aug. 28, 1945)

PART 3294—IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION

[General Preference Order M-21, Direction 9, as Amended June 14, 1946]

SPECIAL RESTRICTIONS ON PRODUCTION AND DELIVERY OF TIN MILL PRODUCTS

The following amended direction is issued pursuant to General Preference Order M-21:

(a) What this direction does. The general work stoppages at steel plants have caused a serious curtailment in supplies of tin mill products. This direction requires producers of tin mill products to give special preference to certain certified orders.

The direction also contains special restrictions on the delivery of tin mill products.

(b) Definitions. As used in this direction:

(1) "Tin mill products" means tin plate, terne plate, or tin mill black plate.

(2) "Tin plate" means hot dipped or electrolytic tin plate, including primes and seconds but not waste-waste or waste.

(3) "Terne plate" means steel sheets coated with terne metal including primes and seconds but not waste-waste or waste.

(4) "Tin mill black plate" means black plate produced on tin mill equipment in gauges No. 29 and lighter.

(5) "Can" means any unused container made in whole or in part of tin plate or terne plate, which is suitable for packing any product. The term includes any container which has a closure or fitting, made in whole or in part of tin plate or terne plate, but does not include a glass container having such a closure or fitting. The term does not include fluid milk shipping containers.

(6) "Closure" means any new sealing or covering device affixed or to be affixed to a glass container for the purpose of retaining the contents within the container. The term shall not include bulbs or droppers for medicinal bottles.

(c) Sequence in scheduling orders for tin mill products. (1) Where a producer of tin mill products is unable to schedule all orders for these products in the month for which delivery is requested, he should, in selecting the orders for these products to be placed on his production schedule, give preference to orders for tin mill products bearing either (i) a certificate in the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7 by an official duly authorized for that purpose:

I certify, subject to the penalties of Section 35A of the United States Criminal Code, that I will use these tin mill products only to make cans for products designated with the letter A in Column 2 of Schedule I to Order M-81, or to make closures for glass containers used to pack foods, for human consumption (including milk, and vegetables and fruit juices, but not alcoholic or non-alcoholic beverages), drugs, medicinals or biologicals.

or (ii) in the case of a Canadian purchaser, a certificate in substantially the following form signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7 by an official duly authorized for that purpose:

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of Section 15 of the Canadian Wartime Industries Control Regulations, to the seller, to the Canadian Priorities Officer, and to the Civilian Production Administration that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized, under applicable Canadian orders to place this delivery order, and to receive the item(s) ordered for the purpose for which ordered.

or (iii) a certificate authorized to be used under Direction 12 to M-21.

Any purchase order certified under this direction or Direction 12 to M-21 must be treated as a rated order under Priorities Regulation-I and accepted accordingly. Where a conflict exists between certifications, preference is to be given to the certification first received (irrespective of when the purchase order was placed).

(2) No producer of tin mill products is required to schedule more than 85 percent of his total anticipated monthly production of tin mill products for orders bearing either of the certifications described in paragraph (c) (1) (i) or (c) (1) (ii).

(d) Special restrictions on delivery of tin mill products. No person shall deliver any tin mill products to fill uncertified orders, if doing so would interfere with his delivery of tin mill products to fill orders which he has on hand and which bear one of the certificates described in paragraph (c) (1).

(e) [Deleted June 14, 1946.]

(f) Effect of certificates. No person giving a certificate under this direction may receive, use or dispose of the materials obtained with the certificate contrary to its terms. The standard certificate described in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used in place of any of the certificates described in this direction.

(g) Effect of other orders. This direction does not authorize the use of tin mill products contrary to the provisions of Orders M-43 or M-81, or other applicable orders and regulations of the Civilian Production Administration.

Issued this 14th day of June 1946.

PART 3290—TEXTILES, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[Limitation Order L-99, as Amended June 14, 1946]

OPERATION OF LOOMS FOR COTTON BROAD
WOVEN FABRIC PRODUCTION

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the production of cotton broad woven fabrics and materials for making cotton broad woven fabrics for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3290.46 Limitation Order L-99—(a) Operation of looms for cotton broad woven fabric production—(1) Purpose. This order controls the operation of looms for the production of cotton woven fabrics of more than 12" in width.

(2) No person shall, regardless of the presentation of rated orders, operate looms contrary to the provisions in the schedules of this order.

(3) No person shall operate looms formerly operated in the production of cotton broad woven fabrics and which were acquired by him after June 30, 1944, except as specifically authorized in writing by the Civilian Production Administration. The term "acquired" refers not only to the direct purchase of looms but also to obtaining operating control over looms by obtaining control of the corporation which owns them. Application for authorization may be made by letter to the Civilian Production Administration, Textile Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-99, stating all facts, including the type of fabric he wishes to produce, the name of the person who formerly owned or controlled the looms, and the fabric formerly produced on them.

(b) Minimum quantities to be produced. Each person in the business of producing in any calendar quarter after March 31, 1946 any broad woven cotton fabric item marked with an asterisk on Schedule A, or any item in the "May Produce Only" column of Schedule B, must produce in that quarter at least as much yardage of the items within the same group as the greater of the following:

(1) Ninety percent of the linear yardage of such items which he produced in the second quarter of 1944, increased or decreased in inverse proportion to any change in pick he has made since then, or

(2) The linear yardage which can be produced by operating each loom producing such items for at least as many hours as any other loom in his mill is operated.

(c) Exemptions—(1) Special looms. Jacquard and box looms, and looms which were Dobby head looms on March 8, 1946, are exempt from the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this order and from Schedules A and B.

(2) [Deleted June 14, 1946.]

(d) Reports and records. All persons operating looms for the production of cotton textiles of any kind shall file with the Civilian Production Administration at the times specified in the reporting forms, reports on Forms CPA-658-A, B, and C giving the information therein required. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget under the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Appeals. (1) Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Textile Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-99, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. Any person who wishes to produce Schedule B items but is not permitted to do so under the terms of Schedules A or B, need specify only the number of looms, the constructions currently produced on them, and the number of looms proposed to be transferred to each different Schedule B construction.

(2) All appeals granted under this order before March 8, 1946 have been revoked.

(3) In cases of appeal for suspension of the requirements of paragraphs (a) or (b) on the ground that compliance will result in production at a loss, an application for price relief on that ground must first be filed with the Secretary of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and a copy filed with the CPA appeal. If the CPA appeal is granted, the requirement of these paragraphs for increases above current production will be suspended until the decision by the Office of Price Administration upon the application for price relief. This paragraph does not indicate or limit the extent or kind of price relief, if any, which may be granted by the Office of Price Administration.

(f) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the Civilian Production Administration, as amended from time to time.

(g) Violations. Any person who willfully violated any provision of this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities, assistance.

(h) Communications to the Civilian Production Administration. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Civilian Production Administration, Textile Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-99.

Issued this 14th day of June 1946.

SCHEDULE B

NOTE: Group 14 changed, paragraphs (1) (ii) and (3) deleted, paragraph (2) renumbered (3), and new paragraph (2) inserted, by June 14, 1946, amendment.

(1) Looms which at any time during the period March 1, 1942 through February 28, 1946, inclusive, produced any item listed in the "Did Produce" column of Schedule B, and did not produce any item now listed in the "Did Produce" column of Schedule A on March 8, 1946 (or the last prior date when the looms were in production), are subject to the following requirement:

(1) These looms may produce only the items in the "May Produce Only" column of Schedule B opposite the applicable Group Number in the "Did Produce" column.

(2) If a loom is required as a result of any amendment to this order to shift to production of Schedule B constructions which differ from the construction last produced on the loom before the amendment, the loom need not shift until 30 days after the date of amendment if a change of pick or sley is necessary, or until 45 days after the date of amendment if a change of yarn number is necessary. In cases in which these run-out periods are insufficient, appeal may be filed under paragraph (c) (1) of the order.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATIONS OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 33 as Amended June 14, 1946]

VETERANS' EMERGENCY HOUSING PROGRAM

§ 944.54 Priorities Regulation 33—(a) What this regulation does—(1) General. This regulation provides priorities assistance to carry out the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program which calls for the construction of moderate and low-cost housing accommodations to meet the needs of returning veterans and members of the Armed Forces. It also provides for giving specific authorization under the Civilian Production Administration Veterans' Housing Program Order 1 to persons wishing to construct, repair, make additions or alterations to, improve or convert, or install fixtures or mechanical equipment in housing accommodations. This regulation explains who may apply for such an authorization and for priorities assistance (an HH rating and the right to place certified orders, generally referred to in this regulation simply as HH ratings), the circumstances under which applications will be approved, the way in which the priorities assistance given under the regulation may be used, and the conditions which will be imposed on the builder and succeeding owners in selling or renting the accommodations as long as this regulation is in force. Schedule A to this regulation lists the materials for which priorities assistance given under the regulation may be used. If a person building housing accommodations needs priorities assistance for materials not listed on Schedule A he may apply under Priorities Regulation 28 if he qualifies under its provisions. Directions to the regulation contain additional provisions about using priorities assistance given under this regulation and also contain provisions restricting distributors and producers of the materials.

(2) Housing accommodations covered by this regulation. This paragraph tells what kinds of applications involving housing accommodations are covered by this regulation and are under the jurisdiction of the National Housing Agency. All applications covered by this regulation should be on Form CPA-4386 or other applicable form and should be filed as indicated in paragraph (b) (2) of the regulation. Applications which are not covered by the regulation are under the jurisdiction of the Civilian Production Administration and should be filed as indicated in Veterans' Housing Program Order 1 (if authorization under that order is necessary) or as indicated in Priorities Regulation 28 (if priorities assistance is necessary).

(i) Applications for priorities assistance under Priorities Regulation 33 or for authorization under VHP-1 or both which involve the following kinds of work are covered by this regulation and are under the jurisdiction of the National Housing Agency.

The construction of any building primarily for occupancy by families (i. e., in which 50% or more of the floor space involved is to be used for residential purposes), except military housing. This includes subsidiary buildings on residential property where used for residential purposes, such as private garages, tool sheds, piers, greenhouses and the like. This also includes farmhouses and other farm living accommodations and bunkhouses for transitory farm labor.

The construction of apartment hotels and rooming or boarding houses (not including hotels and other rooming accommodations primarily for transients and overnight guests).

The construction of dormitories and other group housing facilities by educational institutions or public organizations to provide accommodations for veterans of World War II or members of the Armed Forces.

Additions, alterations or repairs to a building where 50% or more of the floor area involved in the proposed additions, alterations or repairs will be used for housing accommodations of the kinds described above.

(ii) All applications for priorities assistance under Priorities Regulation 28 are under the jurisdiction of the Civilian Production Administration and should be filed as indicated in that regulation. Applications for authorization under VHP-1 which involve construction, additions, alterations and repairs not covered by subdivision (i) above, or excepted from that paragraph, are not covered by Priorities Regulation 33 and are under the jurisdiction of the Civilian Production Administration. These include the following:

Military housing.

Institutional dormitories except those for veterans described above.

Summer or winter camps.

Hotels and tourist cabins designed primarily to accommodate transients and overnight guests.

Additions, alterations or repairs to a building where less than 50% of the floor area involved in the proposed additions, alterations or repairs will be used for housing accommodations of the kinds described in sub-paragraph (i) above.

If an application covered by this regulation involves construction of which more than 25% is non-residential in the case of applications for 1-family or 2-family dwellings or more than 15% in the case of other applications, a recommendation will be obtained from the Civilian Production Administration as to the essentiality of the non-residential portion of the construction.

(b) Applications. (1) Applications for authorization under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1 or for priorities assistance under this regulation or both may be made by the following:

(i) A veteran of World War II or a member of the Armed Forces who wishes to build, alter or repair a house for his own occupancy. A proposed sales price (except in cases of farmhouses) must be stated, if the application covers the construction of a house, to be applicable in case of sale of the house.

(ii) A person who wishes to build, complete or convert moderate or low-cost dwelling accommodations (either by new construction or by alterations or conversion resulting in the creation of an additional unit) to which veterans of World War II and members of the Armed Forces will be given preference in selling or renting. The maximum sales price for applications of this sort may not exceed $10,000 for a one-family dwelling or $17,000 for a two-family dwelling. The maximum shelter rent may not exceed $80 a month for each dwelling unit, except for conversion units for which rent need not be specified under paragraphs (g) (3) (i) and (g) (4) (i). Priorities assistance will not be granted except where at least 75% of the floor space in the case of 1 family or 2 family houses is devoted to residential purposes, or where at least 85% of the floor space is devoted to residential purposes, in the case of other dwellings. However, authorization under Order VHP-1 without priorities assistance may be granted in other cases.

(iii) A person who wishes priorities assistance to complete dwelling accommodations under construction on March 26, 1946 (and therefore exempt under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1), which cannot come within paragraph (b) (1) (ii) either because it will be impracticable because of commitments made or construction done to sell or rent them within the specified amounts or to give the initial preference to veterans or members of the Armed Forces called for by that paragraph. The governmental agency processing the application may waive the requirements stated in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) where appropriate in such cases. Except in unusual circumstances, applications of this sort will not be approved if the proposed sales price is over $15,000 or if the proposed shelter rent is over $120 a month.

(iv) A person who wishes to reconstruct or repair dwelling accommodations destroyed or damaged by fire, flood, tornado or other similar disaster, where the reconstruction or repair is necessary to eliminate hardship. If the proposed work involves rebuilding more than half of the building, maximum sales prices or rents must be given, and except where this would result in great hardship, these must be limited to $10,000 and $80 a month respectively.

(v) A person who wishes to make repairs or alterations to dwelling accommodations in order to maintain them in a habitable condition or to return them to a habitable condition or to provide space for additional persons. Authorizations will be given where necessary under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, but no priorities assistance will be granted except for repairs necessary to return the dwelling to a habitable condition if it has been vacant for at least six months for lack of repairs.

(vi) A person who wishes to construct, repair or alter dwelling accommodations, where the construction or repairs are necessary to increase or maintain the production of a scarce material or product. Housing accommodations requested under this paragraph will be approved only on the recommendation of the Civilian Production Administration. Sales prices or rents must be stated. The maximum sales price for applications of this sort may not exceed $10,000 for a single family or $17,000 for a two-family dwelling. The maximum shelter rent may not exceed $80 a month for the dwelling or any apartment in it.

(vii) A person who wishes to construct, repair or alter a farm dwelling where the construction, repair or alteration is necessary to increase or maintain the production of essential food products. The construction of a farm dwelling requested under this paragraph will be approved only on the recommendation of the appropriate County Agricultural Conservation Committee. No sales price or rent need be stated in an application under this paragraph, but the cost of the construction of any such dwelling shall not exceed $10,000.

(viii) An educational institution or a public organization which wishes to construct, repair or alter a dormitory or other group housing facility for veterans or members of the Armed Forces. The application will not be approved if the maximum shelter rent proposed is more than the amount charged by the builder for similar accommodations in its other facilities.

(2) Applications under this regulation should be made on Form CPA-4386. Applications covering dwelling accommodations on a farm should be filed with the appropriate County Agricultural Conservation Committee. Applications by educational institutions or public organizations should be filed with the appropriate Regional Office of the Federal Public Housing Authority. Other applications under this regulation should be filed with the appropriate State or District Office of the Federal Housing Administration. Applications should not be filed unless the construction is already under way (in the case of construction started before the issuance of Veterans' Housing Program Order 1) or unless the builder plans to start actual construction within 90 days of the approval of the CPA-4386 (the priorities assistance and authorization under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1 will expire, and rated orders already placed must be unrated unless construction has started within 90 days of the approval of the CPA-4386 or unless an extension has been obtained from the agency which approved the CPA-4386). The application should not be filed unless the builder has already obtained effective control of the land involved, and gives evidence of readiness to start within 90 days (for example, by getting necessary building permits, getting assurance of financing, making arrangements for utilities and the like). The builder must also state the proposed sales prices or rents for the accommodations, where these are required.

(c) If the application satisfies the requirements indicated in paragraph (b) and any applicable regulations of the National Housing Agency, if the proposed accommodations meet the standards as to space, accommodations and the like which are customary in the community for year-round occupancy, if the proposed sales prices or rents (where required) are reasonably related to the proposed accommodations, and if the available supply of building materials reserved for the program or for the appropriate part of the program has not been fully committed, the application may be approved. One copy of the application will be returned to the builder, bearing a project serial number. A placard or placards will also be sent to the builder, stating that the housing accommodations are being built under the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program.

(1) If the application covers the construction of accommodations to be rented or sold to veterans or members of the Armed Forces under paragraph (b) (1) (ii) or paragraph (b) (1) (viii), the placard will contain a statement to this effect and will contain spaces for the maximum sales price or rent and the project serial number. The builder must insert in the placard or placards clearly, legibly and permanently the project serial number and the appropriate rent and sales price, not in excess of those specified in the application as approved. The builder must set up a placard in front of each separate residential building on the project site in a conspicuous location within 5 days after the time construction has started (as defined in paragraph (d) (4)), and must keep the placard there until completion of the building, and, unless all the accommodations in the building have been sold or rented to veterans or members of the Armed Forces in accordance with paragraph (h), for 30 days afterwards.

(2) If the application is not based on paragraph (b) (1) (ii) or paragraph (b) (1) (viii), the placard will contain a space for the project serial number which must be inserted by the builder. This placard must be set up in front of the building in a conspicuous location within 5 days after construction has started (as defined in paragraph (d) (4)), or after receipt of the placard in case of an application under (b) (1) (iii), and must be kept there until the work is completed.

(d) Use and effect of HH ratings. (1) The HH rating assigned for a project may be used only to get materials of the kinds listed on Schedule A of this regulation which are required for the project. The rating may be applied to a purchase order only by placing on the order the following certificate (the certificates set forth in Priorities Regulations 3 and 7 may not be substituted for this certificate):

VETERANS' EMERGENCY HOUSING PROGRAM
Project Serial Number -----
Rating: HH

I certify to the Civilian Production Administration that the materials covered by this order will be used only in a housing project being built under the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program at ----- (give location of project), and that I will comply with the limitations on sales prices or rents and the preference to veterans provided in Priorities Regulation 33 and my approved application.

Builder

NOTE: If the application on Form CPA-4386 is not based on paragraph (b) (1) (ii) or paragraph (b) (1) (viii) and the placard described in paragraph (c) (2) above is sent to the applicant, he need only use the part of the certificate ending with the location of the project.

(2) The HH rating may be used to get materials by the builder, or by contractors or sub-contractors doing all or any part of the construction work for the builder. Contractors and sub-contractors using the rating must observe all provisions of this paragraph (d) applying to the use of HH ratings by builders. The builder must not use the rating or give others the right to use it before his application is approved. A contractor or sub-contractor may not use it or give others the right to use it unless he has received a statement in substantially the following form from a person who is himself authorized to use the rating (when a contractor or sub-contractor uses the HH rating under this provision, he need only use the part of the certificate in paragraph (d) (1) ending with the location of the project):

Veterans' Emergency Housing Program
Project Serial # -----
Rating HH

You are hereby authorized to use the HH rating to get materials of the kinds listed on Schedule A of Priorities Regulation 33 which are required for the project. Your use of this rating is subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation 33.

Builder

(3) The preference rating assigned may be used only to get the minimum quantities of the materials on Schedule A which are needed for the project. The builder must not specify delivery dates on purchase orders for rated materials more than 30 days before the time they are to be incorporated in the project. This provision applies to materials ordered with an HH rating, instead of the usual rule in Priorities Regulation 32. Furthermore, the builder must not place rated purchase orders for materials in which delivery is specified later than during the third full calendar month after the time when the purchase order is placed. In accordance with Priorities Regulation 1, materials obtained by using the HH rating must, if possible, be used in the construction of the project.

(4) The right to use the HH rating for a project expires 90 days after the issuance of the rating, unless the builder has begun construction on the project by physically incorporating at the site of the project materials which will be an integral part of the construction. If the builder has not begun construction within this time, he must unrate all orders for materials for the project to which he has applied the HH rating. If the application covers a number of different buildings, the right to use the rating for materials going into any individual building expires unless that particular building has been started within the 90 day period. However, before the expiration of the 90 day period, he may apply to the Federal Housing Administration for an extension of the starting date, showing why he was unable to begin construction in accordance with his original application and giving his revised starting date. Unless the request for an extension is denied, he need not unrate his orders but he must postpone the delivery dates so as to comply with paragraph (d) (2).

(5) [Deleted Apr. 12, 1946.]

(e) Construction of the project. A builder who constructs, converts, alters or repairs housing accommodations under this regulation must do the work in accordance with the description given in the application, except where he has obtained written approval for a change from the agency which approved the original application.

(f) Reports. All persons affected by this regulation shall file such reports as may be requested by the CPA, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(g) Maximum sales prices and rents—

(1) General. The restrictions on sales prices and rents contained in this paragraph (g) must be observed so long as this regulation remains in effect. They apply to dwellings of the kinds described below when built or converted under this regulation. Approval of a proposed sales price or rent should be considered merely as a limit upon the price or rent to be charged. It should not be considered as a statement that the sales price or rent represents the value of the dwelling or the apartment for other purposes. In the case of remodelling or rehabilitation, the Office of Price Administration may reduce the maximum rent specified in the application, unless prior approval of the rent has been obtained from that agency.

(2) One-family dwellings. (i) An application to build or convert a one-family dwelling (a building designed for occupancy by one family and to be occupied, rented or sold as a unit, including a detached or semi-detached house or a row house but not including an apartment house or a two family "one-over-one" house) must contain a statement of the proposed maximum sales price, whether or not the builder proposes to sell the building except under the conditions described in paragraph (b) (1) (iv), or (b) (1) (vii). If the builder proposes to rent the building the application must also contain a statement of the proposed maximum rent and maximum shelter rent.

(ii) A builder must not sell a one-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation, including the land and all improvements (including garage if provided), for more than the maximum sales price specified in the application, as approved, including within this sales price the amount of any brokerage fees or commissions paid in connection with the sale, whether paid by the builder or by the purchaser.

(iii) No other person shall sell a one-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation, including the land and all improvements, for more than the maximum sales price specified in the application as approved, plus the amount of any normal and customary brokerage fees or commissions actually paid for services which have been rendered in connection with the sale being made, whether paid by the seller or the purchaser, plus normal and customary brokerage fees actually paid for services rendered in connection with previous sales of the dwelling (after the sale by the builder) whether paid by previous sellers or purchasers.

(iv) No person shall rent a one-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation for more than the maximum specified in the application as approved. If no rent is specified in the application, the person wishing to rent the dwelling may request the Federal Housing Administration to set a rent on the basis of information given in the original application and any supplemental information filed, and no person shall rent the dwelling for more than the amount set. A rent of more than $80 a month will not be approved except as a result of an appeal showing that unusual hardship would result.

(3) Two-family dwellings. (i) An application for a two-family dwelling (a building designed for occupancy by two families which will be sold as a unit, not including semi-detached or row houses covered by paragraph (g) (2)) must contain statements of both the proposed maximum sales price for the entire dwelling and the proposed maximum rent and maximum shelter rent for each apartment in the dwelling, whether the builder proposes to sell the dwelling or rent it or the apartments in it. However, if a person wishes to convert a one-family dwelling to a two-family dwelling and he or a continuing tenant is going to occupy part of the dwelling himself, he need not specify a proposed maximum sales price for the entire dwelling nor need he specify a proposed maximum shelter rent for the part of the dwelling he or a continuing tenant is to occupy.

(ii) A builder must not sell a two-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation, including land and all improvements (including garage if provided), for more than the maximum sales price specified in the application, as approved, including within this sales price the amount of any brokerage fees or commissions paid in connection with the sale, whether paid by the builder or the purchaser.

(iii) No other person shall sell a two-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation, including the land and all improvements, for more than the maximum sales price specified in the application as approved, plus the amount of any normal and customary brokerage fees or commissions actually paid for services which have been rendered in connection with the sale being made, whether paid by the seller or the purchaser, plus brokerage fees actually paid for services rendered in connection with previous sales of the dwelling (after the sale by the builder), whether paid by previous sellers or purchasers.

(iv) No person shall rent an apartment in a two-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation for more than the maximum rent specified for the apartment in the application as approved.

(4) Multiple-family dwellings. (i) An application for a multiple-family dwelling (a building containing three or more separate living accommodations for three or more families) must contain a statement of the proposed maximum rent and the proposed maximum shelter rent for each apartment or for each group of apartments having the same maximum rents. However, if a person wishes to convert a one or two-family dwelling to a multiple-family dwelling and he or a continuing tenant is going to occupy part of the dwelling himself, he need not specify a proposed maximum shelter rent for the part of the dwelling he or a continuing tenant is to occupy.

(ii) No person shall rent an apartment in a multiple-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation for more than the maximum rent specified for the apartment in the application as approved.

(5) Dormitories and group housing facilities. (i) An application by an educational institution or public organization for a dormitory or group housing facility must contain a statement of the maximum shelter rent to be charged to each occupant.

(ii) As long as this regulation remains in effect, no person (whether the builder or any other person) shall rent accommodations in a dormitory or other group housing facility built under this regulation for more than the maximum shelter rent specified in the application as approved.

(6) Definition of maximum rent and maximum shelter rent. "Maximum rent" means the total consideration paid by the tenant for the accommodations including charges paid by the tenant for tenant services specified on the application and including charges paid by the tenant for garage as specified on the application, but excluding charges covering the actual cost on a pro rata basis for gas and electricity for the tenant's domestic purposes when the application specifies that such charges will be made. "Maximum shelter rent" means the maximum rent, less charges for tenant services and garage. The total charge for tenant services will not be approved if more than $3 per room per month. The charge for garage will not be approved if more than $10 per month and will be allowed only for multiple-family dwellings.

(7) Requests for increases in sales prices and rents by builders. A builder may apply to the Federal Housing Administration for an increase in the sales price or rent specified in the application before the house is sold (i. e. before title has passed) or initially rented. The application will not be approved unless he can show that he has incurred or will incur additional or increased costs in the construction over which he had, or has, no control, or if he can show that he will incur additional or increased costs in the operation of rented accommodations over which he has no control, and that these increased or additional costs will make it impracticable for him to sell or rent at the price or rent specified in the application. No increase in sales price or rent will be granted in excess of the increase in construction cost, or a proper proportion of it, or the increase in operating cost, as the case may be. However, no increase in sales price to an amount more than $10,000 (or $17,000 in the case of a two-family dwelling) will be granted and no increase in shelter rent to more than $80 a month will be granted except on appeal where unusual hardship would result.

(8) Requests for increases in sales prices or rents by subsequent owners. An owner of a dwelling built under this regulation, other than the builder, may apply to the Federal Housing Administration for an increase in the sales price or rent specified in the application if the subsequent owner has made improvements to the dwelling which would warrant an increase. No increase will be granted in excess of the cost of construction of the improvement, or a proper proportion of it in the case of a requested increase in rents. However, no increase in sales price to an amount more than $10,000 (or $17,000 in the case of a two-family dwelling) will be granted and no increase in shelter rent to more than $80 a month will be granted, except on appeal where unusual hardship would result. If an increase in rent is needed because of subsequent improvements, and the accommodations have previously been rented and are in a Defense Rental Area established by the Office of Price Administration, the owner should apply to the Area Rent Office of the Office of Price Administration for an increase (or in the District of Columbia to the Office of Administrator of Rent Control for the District of Columbia). If an increase is granted, one copy of the instrument granting the increase must be filed with the appropriate office of the Federal Housing Administration. Upon the filing of this copy with the Federal Housing Administration, the new rent granted becomes the maximum shelter rent under this regulation. (Note: Under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1 it may be necessary to get authorization to make these alterations.)

(h) Preferences for veterans of World War II and members of the Armed Forces—(1) General. This paragraph tells how preferences will be given under this regulation to veterans of World War II and members of the Armed Forces as long as this regulation remains in effect. As used in this regulation, "veterans of World War II and members of the Armed Forces" (sometimes referred to in this regulation as "veterans" or as "veterans of World War II") include the following: (i) A person who has been on active service in the U. S. Army, Navy, Coast Guard or Marine Corps or in the U. S. Merchant Marine during World War II (i. e., on or after September 16, 1940) and who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable; (ii) a person who is serving in the U. S. Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps or in the U. S. Merchant Marine; (iii) the spouse of a member of the Armed Forces who died in service during World War II or the spouse of a deceased veteran of World War II, if the spouse is living with a child or children of the deceased; or (iv) a citizen of the United States who served in the Armed Forces of an allied nation during World War II. Although the preference for veterans and members of the Armed Forces lasts during construction and for 30 days after completion, or for 30 days at the time of a later sale or rental, the restrictions of paragraph (g) on sales prices and rents continues as long as this regulation remains in effect. The preferences for veterans and members of the Armed Forces provided by this paragraph (h) do not apply to sales in the course of judicial proceedings. Sales subsequent to such judicial sales, however, are subject to the provisions of this paragraph. The provisions of paragraph (h) do not apply to dwellings for which neither a maximum sales price nor a maximum rent is established under this regulation and do not apply to dwellings approved on applications under (b) (1) (vi) or to the initial occupancy of a dwelling or an apartment in it approved under this regulation for the occupancy of the applicant or the continued occupancy of his tenant.

(2) One-family dwellings. (1) A builder who has built or converted a one-family dwelling under this regulation must, during construction and for 30 days after completion, publicly offer it for sale or for rent at or below the maximum sales price or the maximum rent specified in the application as approved to veterans of World War II or members of the Armed Forces for their own occupancy.

(i) If a one-family dwelling built under this regulation is being offered for sale, the owner (whether the builder or any subsequent purchaser) must not sell or otherwise dispose of it to any person other than a veteran of World War II unless he has publicly offered it for sale to such veterans for at least 30 days (or during construction and for 30 days afterwards in the case of the builder) at or below the maximum sales price.

(iii) If a one-family dwelling built under this regulation is being offered for rent, the owner (whether the builder or any subsequent purchaser) must not rent it to any person other than a veteran of World War II unless he has publicly offered it for rent to such veterans for at least 30 days (or during construction and for 30 days afterwards in the case of the builder) at or below the maximum rent.

(3) Two-family dwellings. (i) A builder who has built or converted a two-family dwelling under this regulation must, during construction and for 30 days afterwards, publicly offer it for sale or the apartments in it for rent at or below the maximum sales price or the maximum rent specified in the application, as approved, to veterans of World War II and members of the Armed Forces for their own occupancy.

(ii) If a two-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation is being offered for sale, the owner, whether the builder or subsequent purchaser, must not sell or otherwise dispose of it to any other person than a veteran of World War II unless he has publicly offered it for sale to such veterans for at least 30 days (or during construction and for 30 days afterwards in the case of the builder) at or below the maximum sales price.

(iii) If an apartment in a two-family dwelling built or converted under this regulation is being offered for rent, the person offering it for rent must not rent it to any person other than a veteran of World War II unless he has publicly offered it for rent to such veterans for at least 30 days (or during construction and for 30 days afterwards in the case of the builder) at or below the maximum rent specified for the apartment in the application as approved.

(4) Multiple-family dwellings. (i) A builder who has built or converted a multiple-family dwelling under this regulation must, during construction and for 30 days after completion, publicly offer the apartments in it for rent to veterans of World War II and members of the Armed Forces for their own occupancy at or below the maximum rent given in the application as approved.

(ii) As long as this regulation remains in effect, no other person shall rent an apartment in a multiple-family dwelling built under this regulation to any person other than a veteran of World War II unless he has publicly offered the apartment for rent to such veterans for at least 30 days (or during construction and for 30 days after completion) at or below the maximum rent specified in the application.

(5) Dormitories and group housing facilities. A builder who has built or converted a dormitory or other group housing facility under this regulation must make the accommodations available exclusively for veterans of World War II and members of the Armed Forces otherwise eligible to occupy the accommodations, except that if an educational institution builds a dormitory under this program it may make available to non-veterans 40% of the accommodations in the dormitory if it makes available to veterans of World War II an equivalent number of similar or better accommodations in other dormitories at rents not larger than the rents specified in the application as approved.

(6) [Deleted Apr. 12, 1946]

(i) Notices in advertisements and deeds. (1) If the placard described in paragraph (c) (1) is sent to the applicant, as long as this regulation remains in effect a builder who has used the HH rating to get materials for a dwelling, or who could not, under Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, have built or converted the dwelling without approval under this regulation, and every other person who has acquired title to such a dwelling (whether completed or not) must include a statement in substantially the following form in any deed, conveyance or other instrument by which the dwelling is sold, transferred or mortgaged to any other person:

The building on the premises hereby conveyed was built (converted) under Priorities Regulation 33 (Builder's Serial No. —). Under that regulation a limit is placed on either the sales price or the rent for the premises or both and preferences are given to veterans of World War II or members of the Armed Forces in selling or renting. As long as that regulation remains in effect, any violation of these restrictions by the grantee or by any subsequent purchaser will subject him to the penalties provided by law. The above is inserted only to give notice of the provisions of Priorities Regulation 33 and neither the insertion of the above nor the regulation is intended to affect the validity of the interest hereby conveyed.

(2) If the placard described in paragraph (c) (1) is sent to the applicant, as long as this regulation remains in effect the builder and every subsequent owner, and their agents and brokers, must include a statement in substantially the following form in any advertisement printed or published in which accommodations built under Priorities Regulation 33 are offered for sale or for rent:

This house (apartment) is being (was) built under the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program for sale (for rent) at or below $----- (insert maximum sales price or rent). It is offered for sale (for rent) only to veterans of World War II or members of the Armed Forces during construction and until 30 days after completion (for the next 30 days in the case of sale or rent after initial occupancy).

(j) Transfer of ratings forbidden. No person to whom an HH rating has been assigned shall transfer the rating to any other person (as distinguished from applying the rating to purchase orders) and any transfer attempted is void. If for any reason a builder wishes to abandon a project and another builder wishes to continue with the project, the new builder should apply to the appropriate FHA office, attaching to his application a letter from the former builder or the representatives of the former builder joining in the request for the assignment of ratings to the new builder.

(k) Appeals. Any person affected by this regulation or a direction to it who considers that compliance with its provisions would result in an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may appeal for relief. An appeal from any provision of this regulation except paragraph (d) should be filed with the appropriate local office of the Federal Housing Administration or other agency with which applications may be filed under this regulation, and the appeal shall be forwarded to the Washington office of that agency for consideration together with any recommendations made by the local office. An appeal from paragraph (d) of this regulation or a direction to this regulation, unless the direction expressly states otherwise, should be filed by letter in duplicate addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: Direction — to PR-33.

(l) Amendments and supplemental applications. A builder may apply to the agency which approved his application for an amendment to it. If the amendment covers changes in the specifications of the proposed dwelling or dwellings or changes in the proposed sales price or rent (see paragraph (g) (6)), or a change in the construction schedule of a project involving several buildings, the request for an amendment may be made by letter in triplicate. If the request for an amendment is granted, the provisions of this regulation apply to the application as amended. If the request is for permission to use the rating for dwellings listed on the original application but not to be started within 90 days of issuance, the request should be filed on Form CPA-4387. If the request for an amendment requires additional buildings or dwelling units not included in the original application, a new application on CPA-4386 covering the new units should be filed.

(m) Communications. All communications about this regulation (except about paragraph (d), Schedule A or directions to the regulation) should be addressed to the appropriate State or District Office of the Federal Housing Administration or other appropriate agency indicated in paragraph (b) (2). Communications about paragraph (d), Schedule A or directions to the regulation should, unless specifically directed otherwise, be addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., or to the appropriate Civilian Production Administration Construction Field Office.

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this regulation or who, in connection with this regulation, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any Department or Agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining any further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14E, Amdt. 47]

APPAREL AND MATERIALS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Article IV is added to Supplementary Regulation 14E to read as follows:

ARTICLE IV—ADJUSTED MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SPECIFIED MANUFACTURED ITEMS

SEC. 4.1 Adjusted maximum prices for specified manufactured items—(a) What this section does. This section provides a method for the adjustment of manufacturers' ceiling prices for specified commodities subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation by the addition of certain labor and material costs increases to such ceiling prices.

(b) Scope of this section—(1) What commodities are covered. This section applies to a sale of a commodity only if both of the following two tests are met:

- (i) The commodity falls within a group which is listed in Appendix A; and
- (ii) The ceiling price for a sale of the commodity to a purchaser of the same class is established under § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.¹

Example 1. During March 1942, a manufacturer delivered Style 543 nurses uniforms

In general there are two cases in which two commodities will be considered the "same". (1) The usual case is where there is a physical identity of the two items (including construction of materials, finish, weight, size, color, physical outline, workmanship etc.) and anyone examining them objectively would have no doubt that they were identical. (2) Depending largely upon trade practice and consumer acceptance, two commodities which vary slightly in minute physical detail may also be "the same" under § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the GMPR if all four of the following conditions are met; (a) All basic elements of the two commodities are identical; (b) Both commodities must be made from the same constructions of materials; (c) Both commodities must be regarded as identical by the trade; (d) In actual practice, both commodities, when sold by the same seller, must have been invariably sold at the same price under the same conditions.

Sellers may apply to OPA for official interpretations in particular cases.

at $18.00 per dozen. He now produces Style 642 nurses uniforms which cannot be priced under § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the GMPR since it is not "the same" as any nurses uniforms which he delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 but can be priced under § 1499.2 (a) (2) of the GMPR since it is "similar" to his Style 543. Therefore, although he may establish a ceiling price of $18.00 per dozen for his Style 642 under the GMPR since it is "similar" to his Style 543 which he delivered in March 1942, he may not adjust his $18.00 ceiling price for Style 642 under this section since it does not meet the second test set forth above.

Example 2. During March 1942, a manufacturer delivered mechanics' aprons but neither delivered nor offered for delivery butchers' aprons. In August of 1943, he began to produce and sell butchers' aprons whose ceiling price he established under § 1499.2 (b) of the GMPR by reference to a "similar" butchers' apron delivered during March 1942 by his most closely competitive seller of the same class. He may not adjust his ceiling price for his butchers' aprons under this section since the ceiling price for his butchers' aprons are not established under § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the GMPR.

Example 3. During March 1942, a manufacturer delivered Style 765 doctors' gowns to jobbers at $17.50 per dozen. He now wishes to sell doctors' gowns identical to his Style 765 to jobbers. Under this section, he may adjust his ceiling price of $17.50 per dozen for these doctors' gowns.

(2) What sales are covered. This section covers all manufacturers' sales of the commodities described in (1) above.

A "manufacturers' sale" is any sale of a commodity by the person who fabricated or processed the commodity or for whom it was fabricated or processed by a contractor or agent from basic materials owned or otherwise furnished by the principal. Manufacturers' sales includes sales to ultimate consumers, industrial, commercial and institutional users, as well as to persons who resell.

(c) How to calculate permitted cost increases. A seller may adjust his ceiling price in accordance with the instructions in paragraph (d) below, by adding the cost increases described in this paragraph.

(1) Material cost increases. Increases in the cost of each principal material consumed in manufacturing a commodity covered by this section may be added to the ceiling price.

NOTE: The term "principal material" is given a special meaning. As used here "principal material" means all fabrics used in the commodity which are identical in construction to the fabrics used in the body of the commodity. It also includes fabrics used in the lining and pocketing. It does not include thread, buttons, fasteners, zippers, pads, shields, elastic or any separate fabrics or other materials used for trimmings or decoration or embroidery (e. g. piping, braid, bindings, epaulets, emblems, bows, etc.). A separate fabric is a fabric which is not identical in construction to the fabric used in the body of the garment.

(i) When the principal material falls within a group listed in Appendix B. In the case of any principal material which falls within a group listed in Appendix B, the seller determines the permitted cost increases for that principal material as follows:

Step 1. Find the number of yards of that principal material consumed in manufacturing the commodity (per dozen or each).

Step 2. Multiply the number of yards of that principal material as found in Step 1 by the cost increase (in dollars and cents) listed in Column 2 of Appendix B for that material. This amount is the permitted cost increase for that principal material.

(ii) When the principal material does not fall within a group listed in Appendix B. In the case of any principal material which does not fall within a group listed in Appendix B,^{2a} the seller determines the permitted cost increase for that principal material as follows:

Step 1. Find the base period average net cost per yard of that principal material as shown in all invoices from the seller's suppliers of that principal material bearing dates from January 1, 1942 to March 31, 1942.

Step 2. Find the current average net cost per yard of that principal material as shown on all invoices from the seller's suppliers of that principal material bearing dates from March 15, 1946 to June 13, 1946.

NOTE: As used here, "net cost" means the amount paid to the supplier for the material. In the event that the material is purchased in the greige, the net cost of finishing shall be included by the seller in calculating the "net cost" of material. Incoming transportation charges for shipment of the material by the supplier shall also be included in "net cost" of materials if paid by you. Average "net cost" is determined by totalling all "net costs" (as calculated above) for the particular material shown on all invoices for the specified period and dividing this total by the number of yards shown on all invoices. In finding "average net cost", any differences in width of fabric should be allowed for, so that both period average net cost and current average net cost are on an equivalent basis. In making the calculations in Step 1 and Step 2 above no material cost may be included at an amount higher than the legal ceiling price.

Step 3. Subtract the amount found in Step 1 from the amount found in Step 2.

Step 4. Calculate the amount which represents 90% of the figure found in Step 3. This amount is the permitted cost increase per yard for that principal material.

Step 5. Find the number of yards of that principal material used in manufacturing the commodity (per dozen or each).

Step 6. Multiply the number of yards found in Step 5 by the amount found in Step 4. This figure is the permitted cost increase for that principal material.

(2) Direct labor cost increases. A portion of the legal increases since January 1, 1942 in the "direct labor" cost of producing a commodity covered by this section may be added to the ceiling price. These increases must be based on "legal wage rates" as defined in paragraph (f) below. "Direct labor" includes only operations performed directly on the finished piece goods and trimmings which are necessary to make it into a finished end product covered by this section.⁴ It

^{2a} Where a material is listed in Column 1 of Appendix B and the permitted cost increase specified for that material in Column 2 of Appendix B is "none" no cost increase whatsoever is permitted to be taken for that material.

⁴ However, where the manufacturer of any commodity in which the principal material is wool or rayon is also the producer of the wool or rayon material, his "direct labor" under this paragraph may include all direct labor operations performed in producing the commodity.

This increase in "direct labor" may be found as follows:⁵

(i) Where labor is paid on a "piece-work" basis, subtract the piece rate paid by the seller (or his contractor) in January 1942 for each direct labor operation from the current legal piece rate for the same operation. 90% of the sum of the amounts so found for all operations on the commodity is the permitted increase in piece rate direct labor on the commodity.

(ii) Where labor is paid on a "time" basis (hourly, daily, weekly or monthly rate), find the length of time consumed in performance of each direct labor operation and subtract the amount paid by the seller (or his contractor) in January 1942 for such period of time from the current legal wage paid for the same period of time. 90% of the sum of the amounts found for all operations on the commodity is the permitted increase in time rate direct labor on the commodity.

(d) Adjustment of maximum prices. On and after June 13, 1946, any commodity covered by this section may be sold or delivered at the adjusted maximum price described in this paragraph. The adjusted maximum price under this paragraph for a sale to any class of purchasers is found as follows:

Step 1. Determine the maximum price of the commodity (per dozen or each) under § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the General Maximum Price Regulation for a sale to a purchaser of the same class.

Step 2. Find the amount of the permitted material cost increase for each principal material consumed in manufacturing the commodity (per dozen or each) in accordance with the instructions in (c) (1) (i) or (c) (1) (ii) above, whichever is appropriate.

Step 3. Add together the amounts found in Step 2 for all principal materials consumed in manufacturing the commodity (per dozen or each).

Step 4. Determine the amount (in dollars and cents) of the permitted "direct labor" cost increase (as described in paragraph (c) (2) above) of the commodity (per dozen or each).

labor operations performed in producing the commodity.

⁵ Where the manufacturer either in January 1942 or currently has paid, or is paying, different wage rates for the identical operation because the operation was, or is, performed in more than one plant or in both an inside and outside shop, he must use the following rules in computing his direct labor increase: (a) Base period rates. (1) If he had more than one inside shop in January 1942 he must use the lowest rate then paid by him. (2) If he had an inside shop and one or more outside shops in January 1942 he must use the rate paid in the inside shop. (3) If he had more than one outside shop in January 1942 and no inside shop he must use the lowest rate then paid by him. (b) Current rates. (1) If he has more than one inside shop he must use the lowest current rate now paid. (2) If he has one or more inside shops and one or more outside shops he must use the lowest current rate in his inside shops. (3) If he has more than one outside shop and no inside shop he must use the lowest current rate paid in his outside shop.

Step 5. Add the amounts found in Step 3 and Step 4 to the maximum price found in Step 1. This total is the adjusted maximum price of the commodity to that class of purchasers.

NOTE: If the seller uses Step 1 a gross maximum price (i. e. before all discounts, allowances and other price differentials to that class) the adjusted maximum price found in Step 5 is subject to the seller's customary discounts, allowances and other price differentials. If the seller uses in Step 1 a net maximum price (i. e., after all discounts offered) the adjusted maximum price found in Step 5 is a net maximum price which may be converted to reflect customary discounts.

(e) Records and reports—(1) Records. The records required by this paragraph must be maintained for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

Every person who makes a sale covered by this section must prepare and maintain the records required by the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that the adjusted maximum price established under this section shall be substituted for the original maximum price in all records of deliveries made or maximum prices established after the effective date of this order.

In addition, he must keep:

(i) In the case of all principal materials for which he calculates his permitted material cost increases under paragraph (c) (1) (ii) above, all invoices for such materials bearing dates between January 1, 1942 and March 31, 1942 and those bearing dates between March 15, 1946 and June 13, 1946.

(ii) A copy of the report required to be filed with OPA under (2) below.

(2) Reports. No person may deliver any commodity at an adjusted maximum price established under this section until he has received approval of the adjusted maximum price from the OPA, but the adjusted maximum reported to OPA by the seller shall be deemed approved on the twentieth day after he has mailed to the Apparel Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the report required by this paragraph (and all additional information which may be requested by the OPA) unless within that time, the OPA notifies the seller that his reported adjusted maximum price has been disapproved. Under this paragraph, the seller must file two copies of a report signed by an owner, officer or principal and containing the following information:

(i) Date of report.

(ii) Seller's name and business address.

(iii) A list of the commodities whose maximum prices he wishes to adjust under this section, showing each style of each commodity separately.

(iv) A description of each style listed in (iii) including style number and specifications and number of yards (per dozen or each) of each principal material consumed in manufacturing of the commodity.

(v) An identification by style or lot number or other method of each style of the commodities which the seller delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 and which is the same as a particular style listed in (iii).

(vi) The maximum price under § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the General Maximum Price Regulation to each class of purchaser to whom the seller is selling each style listed in (iii).

(vii) 90% of the amount (in dollars and cents) by which the cost of direct labor (at legal wage rates) on each style (per dozen or each) listed in (iii) has increased between January 1, 1942, and the date of this report. (If the contractor's labor is used, so specify.)

(viii) The amount of material cost increases (per dozen or each) permitted by this section for each style listed in (iii). Also specify for each principal material used in each style whether the material cost increase has been calculated under paragraph (c) (1) (i) or (c) (1) (ii).

(ix) Adjusted maximum price under this section of each style listed in (iii).

(x) A list of all legal wage increases made by the seller to his employees between January 1, 1942, and the date of the report, and, as to each such increase, the date such increase went into effect, and the authority under which it was made (e. g. Order of National or Regional War Labor Board or Wage Stabilization Board, etc.).

(3) Form of report. The report required by this section must be made in the following form:

(4) Approval or modification of reported adjusted maximum prices—(1) Approval. The adjusted maximum prices reported under this section may be expressly approved in writing by the OPA, or, if no order disapproving or modifying such adjusted prices has been issued within 20 days after the mailing of the report required by (2) above (and all additional information which may be requested by the OPA) adjusted maximum prices reported are deemed to have been approved until issuance of an order disapproving or modifying them.

(f) Definitions. Unless the context otherwise required or unless specifically provided herein, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

proved" under Executive Order 9697, issued February 14, 1946.

This amendment shall become effective June 13, 1946.

Appendix C—Mark-ups for resellers of certain commodities.

AUTHORITY: § 1305 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub Law 383, 78th Cong.; Pub. Law 108, 79th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155; E.O. 9651, 10 F.R. 13487; E.O. 9697, 11 F.R. 1691.

SECTION 1. What this revised supplementary order covers. (a) This revised supplementary order fixes ceiling prices for resales in substantially the same form of commodities (except food) sold by Government agencies, including contractors or subcontractors subject to Supplementary Order 94 or Supplementary Order 130, except where:

(1) The resale is subject to any of the price regulations listed in Appendix A;

(2) The resale is subject to any order issued under Supplementary Order 94 (see Appendix B for partial list of Supplementary Order 94 Orders);

(3) The resale is of a new commodity by a manufacturer who regularly manufactures or produces the same commodity;

(4) The resale is of commodities designated by the Government agency as "salvage" (as defined in section 13): Provided, That any "salvage" which is purchased as a completed commodity and resold in substantially the same form shall be subject to this supplementary order. The term "completed commodity", as used herein, shall not include component parts, semi-processed and semi-fabricated material;

(5) The resale is exempt or suspended from price control under any existing price regulation or supplementary order.

SEC. 2. Where this supplementary order applies. The provisions of this supplementary order shall be applicable in the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 3. How to fix maximum prices. Subject to the provisions of section 5 for cross-stream and up-stream sellers and buyers, maximum prices are determined as follows:

(a) Calculation of mark-up. (1) To fix your maximum price for any sale of a commodity governed by Maximum Price Regulation 580, Maximum Price Regulation 590, or Revised Maximum Price Regulation 330, you must first determine your category average percentage mark-up which is permitted by those regulations for the commodity you are selling.

Example. If you are a retailer and have bought some Government surplus U. S. Navy gray shirts, you would consult your base date pricing chart prepared according to the instructions in Maximum Price Regulation 580 for Category 117, Shirts. If your average percentage mark-up on cost for the category is 21%, that is the mark-up you would use for the surplus shirts.

(2) To fix your maximum price for any sale of a commodity of a class specified in Appendix C, and which commodity is not governed by any of the regulations listed in (1) above or is not listed in either Appendix A or B, you must first determine your applicable percentage mark-up from Appendix C.

(3) To fix your maximum price for any sale of any other commodity, you must first figure your percentage mark-up over net invoice cost for a comparable commodity, having the same general use, purchased by you from your normal commercial (non-government) sources of supply, which you sold to the same class of buyer during the year June 1, 1944-June 1, 1945. In figuring your percentage mark-up you must use a selling price for the comparable commodity which is no higher than your legally established maximum price. The comparable commodity must meet all of the following tests:

(i) It has been sold by you during the year June 1, 1944, to June 1, 1945, and a maximum price has been legally established;

(ii) It has been purchased by you from a regular commercial supplier and, to your knowledge, it has not been acquired directly or indirectly from the Government;

(iii) Both it and the commodity you are pricing must have the same general use and must belong to a class of commodities to which, according to your customary practice, you usually apply an approximately uniform initial percentage mark-up.

If you are selling a used commodity and did not sell a comparable used commodity in the year June 1, 1944, to June 1, 1945, you may use the mark-up on a comparable new commodity sold during such period. However, if you are selling a new commodity and did not sell a comparable new commodity in such period you may not use the mark-up on a comparable used commodity sold during such period.

Example. If the maximum price for the comparable commodity is $5.00 and the net invoice cost therefor is $4.00, you figure your percentage mark-up by dividing the margin (difference between maximum price and invoice cost) by the invoice cost as follows:

$5.00 maximum price—comparable commodity
 -4.00 invoice cost

 1.00 margin

$$1.00 \div $4.00 = 25\%$ your percentage mark-up.¹

(b) Application of percentage mark-up to invoice cost. Your next step is to figure your maximum price by multiplying the unit invoice cost of the commodity sold by the Government by the percentage mark-up over net unit invoice cost determined as specified above. Add the resulting figure to the unit invoice cost of the commodity you are pricing. Then add to this sum the incoming freight per unit.

Example

Percentage mark-up (step 1)—25%
 Unit invoice cost item being priced..... $3.50
 Mark-up (25% of $3.50)..... .87

 4.37
 Incoming freight ($4.00 for 100 units) - .04

 Your maximum price..... 4.41

If you purchased the same commodity from more than one Government or distributor source you may average the unit invoice cost by dividing the total invoice cost for the whole quantity purchased by the total quantity purchased, and you may average the unit incoming freight by dividing the total incoming freight by the total quantity purchased. However, if additional quantities of the same commodity are later purchased you must re-determine your maximum price by either of the following methods:

(1) You may fix a maximum price for each later purchase in the same manner that you originally fixed your maximum price. If you follow this method, you must keep your new stock separate from the old, where your maximum price for your new stock is different from that for the old stock. However, if both new and old stocks are sold at the same price at or below the lowest maximum price applicable to either the old or the new stock, stocks need not be kept separate.

(2) You may refigure the original maximum price by dividing the total cost of all purchases in stock by the total quantity of such purchases. You may then apply the percentage mark-up on the comparable commodity to the resulting average invoice cost for all purchases and determine your maximum price in the manner specified above.

(c) Chain stores. If the seller is a chain or has a number of selling outlets it may establish its maximum prices for each outlet separately or on the basis of central pricing, according to its lawful practice in determining maximum prices on comparable commodities.

(d) Adjustment of unit invoice cost for commodities which are broken, deteriorated, damaged, reconditioned or repaired—(1) For broken, deteriorated or damaged commodities. In fixing his maximum price under paragraph (b), the purchaser who buys directly from the Government (but not any subsequent purchaser who buys from the first purchaser) may adjust his unit invoice cost for the salable part of the quantity of the commodity purchased when part of the quantity purchased is broken, deteriorated or damaged to the extent of being unsalable, except as scrap, in the following manner:

(i) You may divide the total invoice cost (less the estimated scrap value of the portion not salable) by the quantity of commodities which you have determined as salable after inspection and segregation. The result will be your adjusted unit invoice cost. However, in the case of new commodities, the adjusted unit invoice cost must not exceed the Government ceiling price per unit; if it does, you must reduce the adjusted unit invoice cost to the Government unit ceiling price. In the case of used commodities, the adjusted unit invoice cost must not exceed one-half the Government unit ceiling price new; if it does, you must reduce the adjusted unit invoice cost to one-half the Government unit ceiling price new.²

If you make the adjustment provided in this subparagraph you must use the percentage mark-up determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, calculated on and added to your adjusted unit invoice cost as determined hereunder.

Example. You have purchased "as is" 100 used metal bomb chests for $100.00 for the lot. The Government ceiling price new as furnished by the Government agency is $4.00 each. Twenty-five chests are found to be badly rusted and dented, and salable only as scrap. To obtain your adjusted unit invoice cost you may calculate the cost of the 75 salable chests as follows:

Price paid for 100..... $100.00
 Scrap value of 25..... 2.00

 Cost of salable units..... $98.00
 Adjusted unit cost= $$98.00 \div 75 = \1.31

You may calculate your mark-up on $1.31 and add it to $1.31, just as though you had $1.31 for each chest.

NOTE: If the adjusted unit invoice cost exceeded $2 (½ Government ceiling price new), you would have had to reduce it to $2.

(2) For reconditioned, repaired or repackaged commodities. In fixing his maximum price under paragraph (b), the purchaser who buys directly from the Government (but not any subsequent purchaser who buys from the first purchaser), when he reconditions, repairs or repackages salable commodities, may adjust his unit invoice cost in the following manner:

(i) You may add to the total invoice cost (less the estimated scrap value of the portion not salable except as scrap), the actual cost incurred for labor and materials used in reconditioning, repairing or repackaging any of the commodities, or the price paid to a supplier for such services. You may then divide this total cost by the quantity of commodities which are salable other than as scrap. The result will be your adjusted unit invoice cost. However, in the case of new commodities the adjusted unit invoice cost must not exceed the Government ceiling price per unit; if it does, you must reduce the adjusted unit invoice cost to the Government unit ceiling price. In the case of used commodities, the adjusted unit invoice cost must not exceed one-half the Government unit ceiling price new; if it does, you must reduce the adjusted unit invoice cost to one-half the Government unit ceiling price new.²

If you make the adjustment provided in this subparagraph (2), you must use the percentage mark-up determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, calculated, however, on your unit invoice cost before this adjustment but added, after such calculation, to your adjusted unit invoice cost as determined hereunder.

Example. You have purchased 100 used metal bomb chests for $100. The Government ceiling price new as furnished by the Government agency is $4.00 each. Twenty-five chests are scratched and rusted, but are salable after repainting. Cost of repainting is $1.25 for paint, and $5.00 for labor. You may calculate your unit invoice cost as follows:

Price paid for 100..... $100.00
 Cost of reconditioning 25 chests:

Labor..... $5.00
 Material..... 1.25

 6.25

Adjusted total cost..... $106.25

Adjusted unit cost— $$106.25 \div 100 = \1.06

You may calculate your mark-up on $1.00 and add it to $1.06.

NOTE: If the adjusted unit invoice cost exceeded $2 (½ Government ceiling price new), you would have had to reduce it to $2.00.

(3) If you adjust your unit invoice cost under this paragraph (d), you must, at least five days before you offer the commodities for sale, file with the Surplus Goods Price Coordinator of the District or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration in the district or region in which you are located the following information:

(i) Your name, business address and type of business;

(ii) Description of the commodities purchased by you, and name of Government selling agency;

(iii) The Government ceiling price as furnished by the Government agency;

(iv) Quantity of broken, deteriorated or damaged commodities, if any, which are unsalable except as scrap;

(v) Quantity and total invoice cost of commodities purchased by you;

(vi) Estimated scrap value of portion not salable, if any;

(vii) Breakdown of labor and materials cost for reconditioning, repairing or repackaging, or price paid to a supplier for such services, including name and address of supplier;

(viii) Your adjusted unit invoice cost;

(ix) Your sales price.

(4) You may not apply the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (d) where the condition of the commodity is war-

¹You may, if you wish, figure your percentage mark-ups as "mark-ups on selling price" instead of on your net cost, but you must use the same method in figuring all percentage mark-ups and in applying all percentage mark-ups.

²This adjustment may not be made unless the Government selling agency has furnished to you the Government ceiling price.

ranted or guaranteed by the Government agency.

(e) Low price Government sales. If you pay to the Government or to your supplier for a new commodity a price less than one-half the Government ceiling price for such new commodity, you may apply the percentage mark-up obtained under paragraph (a) above to one-half of the Government's ceiling price new instead of the actual unit invoice cost or the unit appraisal item cost determined in accordance with Section 4 of this order. If you pay to the Government or to your supplier a price less than one-fourth the Government ceiling price new for a used commodity, you may apply the percentage mark-up obtained under paragraph (a) above to one-fourth of the Government ceiling price new instead of the actual unit invoice or the unit appraisal item cost determined in accordance with Section 4 of this order. You then add the dollar-and-cents mark-up so obtained to the actual unit invoice cost in order to get your maximum price.⁴ You may then add your incoming freight.

Example. If you buy a new commodity for $1.00 for which the Government ceiling price is $10.00 and your percentage mark-up according to Section 3 (a) is 25%, you may calculate your ceiling price as follows:

Mark-up on one-half Government ceiling (25% of $5.00).....	$1.25
Purchase price paid Government.....	1.00
<hr/>
Total.....	2.25
Incoming freight.....	.04
Your maximum (ceiling) price.....	$2.29

(f) Commodities same as regular stock. If the commodity which you purchased directly or indirectly from the Government is the same as a commodity, not acquired directly or indirectly from the Government, which you have currently in stock and are offering for sale, and your regular stock commodity currently available for sale has a lawfully established maximum price higher than the maximum price established under the foregoing provisions, you may sell the commodity purchased directly or indirectly from the Government at the lawfully established maximum price for the same commodity currently in stock. Similarly, if the lawfully established maximum price for the commodity you have in stock is lower than the price which would be established under the foregoing provisions, such lawfully established price must remain in effect for the commodity acquired directly or indirectly from the Government.

Sec. 4. Heterogeneous lots of commodities. If you purchase a heterogeneous lot of commodities directly or indirectly from the Government and intend to resell the lot on an individual item basis, you must place an appraisal, not to exceed your actual or estimated replacement cost, upon each item in the lot, including items whose resale is not subject to this order. Such item appraisals must bear a reasonable relationship to the relative sales values of the items. The total of the individual appraisals must not exceed your original purchase cost of the entire lot plus incoming freight. If you recondition, repair or repackage any item, the actual labor and materials cost incurred for such reconditioning, repairing or repackaging, or the price paid to a supplier for such services, may be added to the individual item appraisal. In selling individual items which are subject to this Supplementary Order from the lot, fix your maximum price in accordance with section 3 except that the unit appraisal item cost (plus the actual labor and materials cost of reconditioning, repairing or repackaging where incurred or the price paid to a supplier for such services) will be substituted for the unit invoice cost.

A record must be kept of the individual item appraisals and must be made available for inspection by any authorized agent of the Office of Price Administration.

When you resell the entire lot to one purchaser, you fix your maximum price for the entire lot by adding to the invoice cost of the lot the percentage mark-up applying to the principal class of commodities (by value) in the lot. Then add to such sum the incoming freight.

Sec. 5. Maximum prices for cross-stream and up-stream sales. For the purposes of this supplementary order, the regular sequence of distribution is assumed to consist of three successive levels. These three levels are (i) sales by the Government to wholesalers, exporters, or retailers (ii) sales by wholesalers to industrial users or retailers and (iii) sales by retailers to consumers. A sale by one wholesaler to another or to an exporter, by one exporter to another, or by one retailer to another is a cross-stream sale. A sale by a retailer to a wholesaler or any other similar sale is an up-stream sale.

For the purposes of this section 5, a person is a retailer if a major portion of his sales of comparable commodities is to ultimate consumers; a person is a wholesaler if a major portion of his sales of comparable commodities is to persons other than ultimate consumers.

Maximum prices for cross-stream or up-stream sales shall be determined as follows:

(a) If the seller has a legally established practice of selling commodities comparable to those sold by the Government, to other sellers of his class, as defined herein and has legally established maximum prices to that class of buyer (that is, if he is a wholesaler and customarily sells to other wholesalers or to exporters, etc.), he may fix his maximum price in accordance with section 3: Provided, That he files with the Surplus Goods Price Coordinator of the District or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration in whose district or region he is located, a statement in duplicate supplying the following information:

(1) His name, business address, and type of business;

(2) Each type of commodity which he normally sells to other sellers at the same level of distribution;

(3) For each type of commodity listed in (2) above, the names of at least three purchasers at the same level of distribution who normally purchased from the supplier;

(4) The precise method by which he established his maximum price for sales of the comparable commodity to the class of buyers to whom he proposes to sell. For example, if you regularly sold to this class of buyer in March 1942 and the commodity is priced under the General Maximum Price Regulation, or you have an order under the General Maximum Price Regulation, you should report this as your method.

Filing of this statement will permit cross-stream sales at maximum prices determined under section 3 or 4 of only those classes of commodities which the seller has customarily sold in such channels.

(b) If the seller cannot qualify under paragraph (a), he may fix his maximum price for cross-stream sales only by splitting his mark-up with the purchaser at the same level of distribution. He does this by determining the mark-up applicable on sales to the next succeeding level of distribution (e. g. if he is a wholesaler, the mark-up applicable to the same quantity for sales to a retailer). He may then make the cross-stream sale at any price below his maximum price for a sale to a purchaser at the next succeeding level: Provided, That he gives notice to the cross-stream buyer that the buyer's maximum price for sales to the next buyer is the original cross-stream seller's maximum price. The cross-stream buyer's maximum price shall be the maximum price of the cross-stream seller determined as specified. For example, if you are a wholesaler selling to another wholesaler and your maximum price for sales to retailers is $1.00 each, you may sell to another wholesaler at, say, 90¢ if you notify the buyer as follows: "Your maximum price for sales to retailers under section 5 (b) of Supplementary Order 122 is $1.00."

(1) If any cross-stream seller fails to furnish his buyer the notice required in (b) herein, his maximum price shall be the net invoice cost of the commodity to him plus incoming freight, regardless of the other pricing provisions of this Supplementary Order 122.

(c) Any other person who proposes to make cross-stream sales or any person who proposes to make up-stream sales who cannot qualify as a regular cross-stream or up-stream seller under paragraph (a) and who does not choose to sell under paragraph (b), must request authorization of maximum prices from the nearest District or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration for cross-stream or up-stream sales. He may make application by writing a letter to the appropriate District or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, giving his name and business address, a complete description of the commodity which he proposes to sell to cross-stream or up-stream buyers, the reasons why he believes such selling would not add unnecessarily to the level of prices and the cost of distribution, his invoice cost and the mark-up which he proposes to take on the sale, and the basis for his computation of the mark-up proposed. Any such cross-stream or up-stream sale may not be made without the approval in writing from the Office of Price Administration.

(d) Any person who has purchased commodities sold by the Government from a seller other than a Government agency and who proposes to sell these commodities to an exporter for export sale shall be considered a cross-stream or up-stream seller.

(e) If any person makes a cross-stream or up-stream sale and does not qualify under paragraph (a), nor sell under paragraph (b), nor request authorization under paragraph (c), his maximum price shall be the net invoice cost of the commodity to him plus incoming freight, regardless of the other pricing provisions of this Supplementary Order 122.

SEC. 6. New sellers and sales that cannot be priced under section 3 or 4. (a) Any seller who proposes to make sales of commodities sold by the Government which cannot be priced under section 3 or 4 must file with the Regional or District Office in the region or district in which he is located, or with the National Office of the Office of Price Administration, an application to use applicable mark-ups or pricing methods for all classes of commodities and buyers to whom he expects to sell.

The application must contain the following information:

(1) Name and address of the seller, and a description of his facilities for conducting a business;

(2) The date on which the business was or will be established;

(3) The name of the owners of the firm, and a statement of their financial interest in any other firm engaged in distribution of commodities;

(4) The classes of buyers to whom the firm proposes to sell, e. g., retailers, consumers, exporters;

(5) The classes of commodities which the firm proposes to sell, e. g., builders hardware, surplus army apparel, etc.;

(6) The reasons why the pricing provisions of section 3 or 4 cannot be used;

(7) His proposed pricing method for each class of commodities listed under (5) for sales to each class of buyer listed under (4) and his justification of the method proposed. He may propose the mark-ups used by a competitor if he gives the name of the competitor;

(8) The name and address of two competitors whom he regards as being most closely competitive.

If the applicant does not hear from the Office of Price Administration to the contrary within 15 days after filing his application, and if the application contained all the information required, he may use the pricing method proposed. OPA may at any time adjust his prices or pricing method non-retroactively.

NOTE: Any mark-up obtained under section 6 may be used together with all the privileges contained in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of section 3.

No. 117—5

SEC. 7. Application by Government agencies for special maximum resale prices or exemptions—(a) When Government agencies may apply. Any Government agency prior to a sale by it may apply to the OPA for special maximum prices applicable to the resales of specific lots of commodities sold by it and subject to this supplementary order or for exemption from price control of such resales.

(b) Special maximum prices to be applied for—(1) Used commodities. In the case of used commodities, the Government agency may apply for the establishment of a maximum price for sales at retail of the commodity in Class I and II condition. If the maximum price requested for a used commodity in Class I condition is no higher than the Government ceiling price for the commodity in new condition, and if the maximum price requested for a used commodity in Class II condition is no higher than 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of the Government ceiling price for the commodity in new condition, the requested retail ceiling prices will not be disapproved by the Office of Price Administration. Where the retail ceiling price is established hereunder, all resales except sales at retail or sales to exporters shall be exempt from price control: Provided, That every seller (except a retailer), including the Government agency, gives the buyer written notice in any convenient form of the retail ceiling price when he offers the commodity for sale, and Provided further, That the invoice of sale or equivalent document furnished to the buyer by the seller states the retail ceiling price.

(i) Class I. A commodity is in Class I condition if no part is missing which is necessary to make the commodity fully useful; the commodity is in good working condition; can be used by the consumer for the purpose intended without further repair; and the commodity is clean and its appearance is good.

(ii) Class II. A commodity is in Class II condition if it is not in Class I.

(2) New commodities. In the case of new commodities, the Government agency may apply for the establishment of maximum prices for sales of the commodity at wholesale and sales at retail or sales at any other normal level of distribution. The requested maximum prices may be expressed in terms of prices at retail with specified discounts, as mark-ups over Government selling price or in any other appropriate manner. If the maximum prices requested permit generally fair and equitable percentage margins for normal levels of distribution, and if the Government selling price to wholesalers or jobbers is no higher than the Government ceiling price, the requested maximum prices will not be disapproved by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) When a requested maximum price may be deemed approved. Any maximum price requested by a Government agency in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) herein shall be deemed approved unless OPA gives notice to the contrary within 7 days from the date the application is filed with the Office of Price Administration.

(d) Actual notice of special resale maximum prices—(1) Invoicing. Every reseller, except a retailer, shall furnish his buyer with an invoice of sale setting forth the maximum prices for sales at each level of distribution established under this section 7.

(2) Failure to furnish invoice. If any reseller who has been furnished the resale maximum prices as provided herein fails to furnish his buyer the information required by subparagraph (1) herein, his maximum price for the sale shall be the net invoice cost of the commodity to him plus incoming freight, regardless of the other pricing provisions of this supplementary order.

(e) Resale maximum prices applicable in absence of actual notice. In the absence of receipt of actual notice by resellers of prices established or exemptions granted pursuant to this section, the resellers shall compute their maximum resale prices in accordance with the provisions of section 3.

(f) Exemptions. Where the Government agency applies for an exemption from price control of resales of specific lots of commodities, the Office of Price Administration may grant the requested exemption from price control of the particular resales when, in its opinion, inflationary consequences will not result from the exemption because of market conditions, the use to which the commodity may be put, or the fact that the prices that may be charged will not tend to increase the cost of living or other prices.

(g) Applicability of special maximum resale prices and exemptions to resales of subsequent lots of the same commodities. Unless the Government agency otherwise requests, and subject to the foregoing provisions of this section respecting notice, special maximum resale prices established under this section for specific lots of commodities shall be applicable to resales of subsequent lots of the same commodities: Provided, That the Government agency's selling price of the subsequent lots is no higher than its selling price of the lot for which special maximum resale prices were originally established. Similarly, exemptions requested and granted under this section shall apply to resales of subsequent lots of the same commodities.

SEC. 8. Records, invoices, notification—Records. The records required by this section must be kept for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect. All such records must be kept at your place of business.

(a) Current records—(1) Preserving invoices. You must preserve the purchase invoices which you receive for all commodities purchased from your supplier. You must keep these invoices in alphabetical, numerical, or chronological order, or according to some other recognized filing system. Upon request of any authorized agent of the Office of Price Administration, you must permit him to examine your purchase invoices for any commodities covered by this Supplementary Order, for which such request is made.

(2) "Wholesaling" or "Retailing" invoices. Every reseller must "wholesale" or "retail" his supplier's invoice. To "wholesale" or "retail" his supplier's invoice he must write on the invoice or upon a separate sheet (which must refer to the purchase invoice) one of the following, whichever is applicable: the appropriate category under Maximum Price Regulation 580, 590, or 330, the appropriate class of commodity, under Appendix C, or the name of the comparable commodity, and the percentage mark-up which this supplementary order allows. He must also show the calculations of his maximum price for the commodity sold by the Government by applying the permissible mark-up to the unit invoice cost (adjusted as permitted) of the commodity sold by the Government. Incoming freight, if added, must be shown separately. However, if the seller prices under section 3 (f) he need only write the name of the same commodity and its maximum price upon the invoice. If his price for a commodity is established under section 7, he is not required to "wholesale" or "retail" his invoice.

(b) Base period records. You must preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all existing records relating to the commodities which you purchased from your normal commercial sources of supply and which you sold during the year June 1, 1944-June 1, 1945.

(c) Notification. Every reseller of commodities sold by the Government who sells to anyone except an ultimate consumer must furnish the buyer an invoice identifying the commodity and setting forth the words "Government Surplus priced under Supplementary Order 122."

(d) Marking and tagging. Any person who sells at retail commodities subject to this Supplementary Order 122 must mark the maximum prices or selling prices of each commodity by either of the methods described in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2), in a manner plainly visible to, and understandable by, the purchasing public.

(1) Marking. He may mark the maximum price or the selling price on the shelf, bin, rack, or other holder or container upon or in which the commodity is kept provided all the commodities kept on or in the shelf, bin, rack, holder or container have the same maximum price or selling price.

(2) Tagging. If he does not wish to mark the prices as described in (1), he must mark the maximum price or the selling price on each commodity by writing the price directly on the commodity or by attaching to the commodity a tag or ticket stating the maximum price or selling price.

(3) Ways to mark or tag maximum prices. If he wishes to mark or tag the maximum prices, he may do so in either of the following ways:

- (i) "Ceiling price $-----," or
- (ii) "Our ceiling $-----"

(4) How to mark or tag selling prices. If he does not wish to mark or tag the maximum prices, he must mark or tag the selling price as follows:

OPA Price—$-----

(5) Posting. If he wishes to mark or tag commodities with the selling price as described in (4), he must also post in a prominent and clearly visible position in his store, a sign stating the following:

The "OPA Price" marked or tagged on merchandise in this store is no higher than the OPA ceiling price of the articles.

SEC. 9. Export sales. The maximum price at which a seller may export any commodity sold by the Government shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Maximum Export Price Regulation, as revised.

SEC. 10. Prohibited acts—(1) Charging more than maximum prices. Every reseller who is subject to the provisions of this supplementary order is prohibited from selling or delivering any commodity at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by these provisions. A lower price may, of course, be charged.

(2) Buying for more than maximum price. Every person is prohibited from buying or receiving, in the course of trade or business, any commodity sold in violation of any of the provisions of this supplementary order.

SEC. 11. Licensing and enforcement—
(a) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, Licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this supplementary order. A seller's license may be suspended for violation of the license or of this supplementary order. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which this license has been suspended.

(b) Penalties. Any person who violates any provisions of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 12. Delegation to field offices. The Administrator, any Regional Administrator or any District Director authorized by the appropriate Regional Administrator may approve, modify, adjust or deny maximum prices under the provisions of Sections 5, 6, and 7.

SEC. 13. Definitions. When used herein the following terms have the following meaning:

(a) "Government ceiling price" means the ceiling price applicable to sales by a Government agency to wholesalers or jobbers as provided by any of the provisions of Supplementary Order 94 or Supplementary Order 130, and, as furnished by the Government selling agency to the purchaser.

[MPR 82, Amdt. 11]

WIRE AND CABLE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 82 is amended in the following respects:

1. Subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of Section 16 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Manufacturers' prices. Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (4), the maximum manufacturer's price for the sale of armored cable shall be determined pursuant to the pertinent portions of the schedule of prices set forth in Appendix D to this regulation, subject to the same price differentials in effect to purchasers of the same class on May 7, 1946. Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (4), the manufacturer shall apply to the prices applicable to him, as set forth in Appendix D, all discounts (including the standard 5% cash discounts), and other conditions of sale which the manufacturer had in effect on that date. If the manufacturer was not selling armored cable on that date, he must determine his maximum prices under Section 10.

2. Subparagraph (2) of section 16 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Resellers' prices. The maximum resellers' prices for armored cable shall be determined by adding to his maximum prices in effect on June 13, 1946, to which have been applied the discounts, allowances and other deductions in effect on that date to a purchaser of the same class, the corresponding and pertinent amount listed in the column entitled "Resellers to add", in the schedule set forth in Appendix D. If the reseller was not selling armored cable on that date, he must determine his maximum prices under Section 11.

3. Subparagraph (4) of section 16 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(4) The zones set forth in Appendix D are the standard geographical shipping zones uniformly recognized in the industry. Zone adjustments which increase the net delivered prices of armored cable are not permitted, except in the case of manufacturers who, on the base date (October 15, 1941) customarily sold armored cable to chain stores, wherever located, at Zone 1 prices. In that case, the maximum prices for sales by manufacturers to chain stores, wherever located, shall be the maximum prices for sales in Zone 1, provided the sales are made to those chain stores to which such sales were customarily made on the base date.

4. Appendix D is amended to read as follows:

STARK BRICK Co.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 54 Under Section 16 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 592. Stark Brick Company. Docket No. 6122-592.16-170.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and pursuant to section 16 of Maximum Price Regulation 592, It is ordered:

(a) The maximum net prices for sales by the Stark Brick Company, Canton, Ohio, of its products to its various classes of purchasers may be increased by an amount not in excess of the following:

- (1) Glazed brick and facing tile—$2.50 per thousand for standard size brick equivalent.
- (2) Unglazed building brick—$1.25 per thousand for standard size brick equivalent.
- (3) Unglazed structural clay hollow tile—$0.50 per ton.

(b) If the Stark Brick Company had an established differential in price during the month of March 1942 for non standard sizes of brick, it may convert the adjustment granted herein for standard size brick on the basis of the conversion factors or formulas in use by it during March 1942 in establishing price differentials between standard size brick and other sizes.

(c) Any person purchasing any of the products covered by this order produced by the Stark Brick Company for the purpose of resale in the same form may increase his presently established prices under the General Maximum Price Regulation by adding the dollars-and-cents increase in cost resulting from the increase permitted the manufacturer in (a) above. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, in any area where specific maximum prices are fixed by an area pricing order such specific maximum prices shall apply in that area.

(d) All requests of the application not granted herein are denied.

(e) This order may be amended or revoked by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

[Rev. SO 119, Order 252]

TROXEL MFG. CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Troxel Manufacturing Company of Elyria, Ohio, may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for the bicycle and velocipede saddles which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 16 percent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 8 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. A reseller of the bicycle and velocipede saddles covered by this order shall calculate his ceiling prices by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is one which meets all of the following tests:

(1) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(2) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(3) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practice, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(4) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3.(c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter properly established under OPA regulations.

[Rev. SO 119, Order 256]

PROGRESSIVE FURNITURE CO., INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Progressive Furniture Company, Inc., 1709 Tulip Street, Philadelphia, Pa., may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for all articles of metal household furniture which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 25.6 percent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 8 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580, and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 8 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale prices under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 8 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price", the reseller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage mark-up which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of article to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage mark-up is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustment of maximum prices not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective June 13, 1946.

Issued this 13th day of June 1946.

[MPR 116, Order 14]

CHINA AND POTTERY

GENERAL ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to § 1362.59 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 116, and section 6.4 of Second Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14, It is ordered:

SECTION 1. Purpose of this order. This order specifies a price increase factor to be used by manufacturers of articles of semi-vitreous china and pottery; and it sets forth specific pricing provisions which all sellers are to follow in calculating their maximum prices for sales of the product.

SEC. 2. Articles covered by this order. This order covers all articles of semi-vitreous china and pottery which are covered in Maximum Price Regulation No. 116, as amended.

SEC. 3. Manufacturers' maximum prices—(a) Determination of maximum prices. The maximum price for sales of any of the articles of semi-vitreous china or pottery covered by this order by a manufacturer to a purchaser for resale shall be the higher of the applicable of the following:

(1) His maximum price properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 116 (exclusive of any permitted increase or adjustment) for sales to each class of purchaser for resale increased by no more than 7 percent.

(2) His maximum price as adjusted or established by an order under Supplementary Order No. 133; Supplementary Order No. 148; or any other order.

In the case of articles customarily sold on a pound sterling basis, the price may be increased to the price on the pound sterling price scale, which price scale, to the nearest quarter of a dollar pound sterling, equals 107 percent of the pound sterling price scale established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 116.

(b) Determination of packing charges. The maximum charge for packing for sales of any of the articles of semi-vitreous china or pottery covered by this order by a manufacturer to a purchaser for resale shall be the higher of the applicable of the following:

(i) His charge for packing for sales permitted under Maximum Price Regulation No. 116 (exclusive of any permitted increase or adjustment) increased by no more than 7 percent.

(ii) His charge for packing for sales as adjusted by any order issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for sales at wholesale. (a) The maximum price for a sale by a wholesaler of any of the articles of semi-vitreous china or pottery covered by this order to a purchaser for resale shall be 98 percent of his supplier's invoice plus the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(1) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(2) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(3) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(4) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a maximum price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration. However, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for on OPA Form 620-759, with regard to how he determines his maximum resale price. These records shall be kept available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended remains in effect.

(b) If the wholesaler cannot determine his maximum price under (a) above, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his maximum price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. A maximum price established in this way will be in line with maximum prices established generally under this order.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sales at retail. (a) The maximum price for a sale by a retailer of any of the articles of semi-vitreous china or pottery covered by this order shall be 95 percent of his supplier's invoice in the case of those articles which he has purchased from a wholesaler, and 93.5 percent of his supplier's invoice in the case of those articles which he has purchased directly from the manufacturer plus the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(1) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(2) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(3) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(4) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a maximum price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended remains in effect.

(b) If a retailer cannot determine his maximum resale price under (a) above, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his maximum resale price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. A retailer's maximum price established under this section will be in line with retailers' maximum prices established generally under this order.

SEC. 6. Terms of sale. Every seller of an article covered by this order must maintain all of his terms, discounts, allowances, and other price differentials in effect during March 1942, or which have been subsequently properly established under Office of Price Administration regulations or orders.

A wholesaler or retailer who did not sell semi-vitreous china or pottery during March 1942, or whose discounts, allowances, terms and other conditions of sale have not been thereafter established under OPA regulations, shall allow the same cash discounts, delivery terms, allowances, and other price differentials which his closest competitor, who was distributing semi-vitreous china or pottery during March 1942, is required to allow in accordance with the provisions of this order.

A wholesaler or retailer who cannot ascertain the cash discounts, delivery terms, etc., which his nearest competitor is required to allow, shall apply to the nearest District Office of the Office of Price Administration for an order under this section, establishing the conditions to which his ceiling prices are subject. Such application may be by letter and shall state the type of business he is operating (wholesaler, retailer), when he started to sell semi-vitreous china or pottery, and the class of purchasers to whom he sells. An order will be issued under this section establishing the terms, allowances and other price differentials and conditions of sale in line with the conditions of sale generally fixed by this order.

If a wholesaler or retailer who did not sell semi-vitreous china or pottery during March 1942 does not allow the same discounts, delivery terms and other price differentials allowed by his nearest competitor who did sell semi-vitreous china or pottery during March 1942, or does not file an application in accordance with the provisions of this section, or if he fails to provide any of the information required by this section, the Price Administrator may, on his own motion, issue orders under this section fixing discounts, allowances and other price differentials in line with such conditions of sale fixed by this order. Conditions of sale so established will apply to all sales and deliveries made on and after June 13, 1946.

SEC. 7. Compliance with this order.—
(a) No buying or selling at over ceiling prices. Prices established by this order are ceiling prices. Prices lower than ceiling prices may be charged and collected at any time. However, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell, offer to sell, or deliver, and in the course of trade or business, no person shall purchase or accept delivery of any semi-vitreous china or pottery at a price higher than the ceiling price fixed by this order or before the manufacturer has properly determined his ceiling price under this order.

If, in violation of this provision, a sale, offer to sell, or delivery of any semi-vitreous china or pottery is made before its ceiling price has been properly established in accordance with this order, the ceiling price applicable to the sale, offer to sell, or delivery shall be the correct ceiling price for such semi-vitreous china or pottery properly determined in accordance with this order.

(b) Certain practices forbidden. It shall be a violation of this order to charge a price above the applicable ceiling price in connection with any sale, of semi-vitreous china or pottery, either alone or in conjunction with any other consideration, even though the price increase appears only indirectly.

The following is illustrative of the things a seller is not permitted to do. A seller is not permitted to require the purchaser, as a condition of the sale or transfer of semi-vitreous china or pottery to make payment over a period of time; to require him to finance the purchaser through any particular lending agency; to require him to purchase any equipment, accessories, repairs, parts or services so as to increase the total compensation above the article's ceiling price; to require him to purchase any other commodity or service; or to require him to make payment in whole or in part by exchanging, transferring, or trading in any other semi-vitreous china or pottery or other commodity. Where there is an exchange, transfer or trade-in in connection with a sale, it is a violation for the seller to give the purchaser an allowance for the commodity exchanged, transferred or traded in, which is less than its reasonable value.

SEC. 8. Credit charges on dealers sales. Charges for the extension of credit may be added to the retail ceiling prices established by this order or by any order issued under this order unless otherwise provided. No such credit charge may exceed that permitted by this section.

(a) Dealers who in March 1942 collected a separately stated additional charge for the extension of credit on sales of semi-vitreous china or pottery, may collect a charge for the extension of credit on sales under this order, not exceeding such charge in March 1942 on a similar sale on similar terms to the same class of purchaser. Dealers who did not then so state and collect an additional charge, may collect a charge for the extension of credit only on installment plan sales; and the charge shall not exceed the separately stated additional charge collected for the extension of credit on a similar sale on similar terms to the same class of purchaser in March 1942 by dealer's closest competitor who made such a separately stated charge.

An installment plan sale as used in the above paragraph means a sale where the unpaid balance is to be paid in installments over a period of either (1) six weeks or more from the date of sale in the case of weekly installments, or (2) eight weeks or more in the case of other than weekly installments.

(b) All charges for the extension of credit shall be quoted and stated separately. Any charge which is not quoted and stated separately or which otherwise does not conform to this section shall for the purpose of this order, be considered to be part of the price charged for the article sold.

(c) No dealer may require as a condition of sale that the purchaser must buy on credit.

(d) "Dealer" refers to a person making sales at retail as defined in the General Maximum Price Regulation.

SEC. 9. Notification to purchasers for resale. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale showing a price adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing that:

(a) If he is a wholesaler, he must determine his maximum resale prices for articles covered by this order under section 4 of this order.

(b) If he is a retailer, he must determine his maximum resale prices for articles covered by this order under section 5 of this order.

(1) To the highest net price which was payable on October 1, 1941 by any class of plumbing and heating wholesaler, add the applicable percentage set forth in Column I of the table below, the resulting price to constitute the highest maximum price to that class of plumbing and heating wholesaler. The maximum price to any other class of purchaser shall be determined by applying thereto the differentials in discounts, allowances and rendition of services enjoyed by such other classes of purchasers on October 1, 1941; or

FERROUS WINDOWS
ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to section 22 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 591, It is ordered: Order No. 48 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 591 is amended in the following respect:

1. A new section 2.12 is added to read as follows:

Sec. 2.12 Ferrous windows—(a) Manufacturers' increase for items having an October 1, 1941, price. On and after June 14, 1946, the maximum price for the sale by any manufacturer to any class of his purchasers of ferrous windows, or metal repair and service parts therefor, shall be determined by increasing the applicable maximum price which he had in effect to such purchaser on October 1, 1941, by 13 percent.

(b) Manufacturers' increase for items not having an October 1, 1941, price. A manufacturer may not increase his properly established maximum price for any ferrous window, or metal repair and service part therefor, for which he does not have an October 1, 1941, price without specific individual authorization from the Office of Price Administration.

A manufacturer desiring to modify his presently established maximum price for any ferrous window and metal repair and service part therefor for which he does not have an October 1, 1941, price shall file an application for such modification of his maximum price to reflect the adjusted price levels established for similar articles under (a) above, setting forth the following:

(1) Full description of the item. Cuts or detailed sketches should be supplied.

(2) Previously established maximum price for the item, and the section and regulation under which the maximum price was established.

(3) If possible, the name of competitors marketing a similar item for which such competitors had an October 1, 1941 price.

Such applications shall be filed with the Prefabrication and Building Equipment Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

(c) Optional use of this section. Since the provisions of this section are not intended to reduce properly established maximum prices, any manufacturer whose price in effect to each class of purchaser on October 1, 1941, plus the increase provided for under (a) is less than his maximum price as established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 591, may continue to use as his maximum price, the maximum price properly established under that regulation.

(d) Notification by manufacturers. Any manufacturer who applies the increase permitted under this section shall notify each purchaser, in writing, at or before the issuance of the first invoice after June 14, 1946, of the actual dollar-and-cents increase for each type of ferrous window over his maximum price to that class of purchaser in effect on June 13, 1946.

(e) Resellers' increase. The maximum price of a reseller to any class of his purchasers shall be determined by adding to the maximum price which had in effect to such class of purchaser on June 13, 1946 the percentage by which his acquisition cost has been increased by his supplier pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(f) Profit factor for use in connection with adjustments under section 1.2 (a) or (b). Any manufacturer of the types of ferrous window or repair and service parts therefor covered by this section, filing an application for adjustment in accordance with section 1.2 (a) or (b) may use in connection with such an application the industry profit factor of 2.2 percent.

(g) Definition. For the purposes of this section a ferrous metal window shall mean a frame or framework, with or without movable sash or ventilators, fabricated from hot or cold formed, or hot or cold rolled ferrous metal shapes, sections or members, together with hardware, operating devices, anchors, erection fittings, subframes, surrounds, weatherstripping, stools, casings or any other accessories required to provide a complete window unit used to fill a window opening.

This amendment shall become effective June 14, 1946.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 14th day of June 1946.

Pennsylvania Edison Company, a subsidiary of a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to section 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the general rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, regarding the proposed declaration and payment to the holders of its outstanding 123,466 shares of $5 Series Cumulative Preferred Stock and 84,029 shares of $2.80 Series Cumulative Preferred Stock of the regular quarterly dividend, for the quarter ending June 30, 1946, on such $5 and $2.80 Series Cumulative Preferred Stock, in the respective amounts of $1.25 and 70 cents per share and aggregating $213,152.80; and

The company having stated that its books show a substantial earned surplus, but that preliminary original cost statements filed with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and the Federal Power Commission indicate that the book value of the fixed capital of the company is about $13,460,000 in excess of the original cost of its plant and properties; that such excess has not been segregated between Account 100.5 (electric plant acquisition adjustments) and Account 107 (electric plant adjustments) nor have arrangements yet been made for the disposition of such excess over original cost; and the company having further stated that it is not clear at this time as to whether or not the company has an earned surplus available for dividends on its preferred stock; and

Said declaration having been filed on June 5, 1946, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed in Rule U-23, promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The declarant having requested that the Commission advance the effective date of said declaration, and the Commission observing no basis for advance findings under section 12 (c) or any other applicable section of the act or rules promulgated thereunder, and deeming it appropriate to grant the declarant's request for an acceleration:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23, and the applicable provisions of the act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the general rules and regulations, that the aforesaid declaration be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, Provided, however, That this order shall not be construed as a determination as to whether or not the company has an earned surplus available for dividends on its preferred stock, nor whether or not such dividend payments are taxable to the recipient pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, and subject to the further condition that Pennsylvania Edison Company shall accompany the dividend checks with a statement to the effect (1) that the Commission has not determined whether or not such payments constitute, in whole or in part, liquidating dividends or are made out of earned surplus available for dividends on its preferred stock, and (2) that the Commission does not purport to determine whether such dividend payments are or are not taxable to the recipient pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

By the Commission.
