

Backscatter X-ray Technology

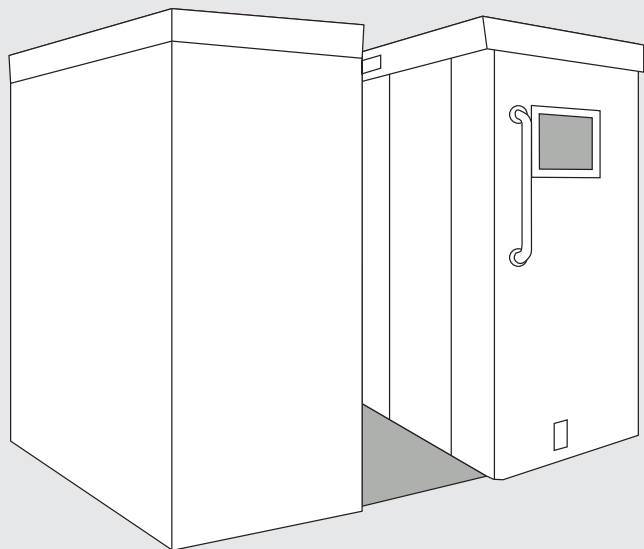

What do officers see?

Female Front and Back

Male Front and Back

Backscatter technology is optional and alternative screening is available for all passengers.

Imaging technology: enables officers to detect concealed items without physical contact.

Maximum privacy: images are viewed in a remote location and are not saved or stored.

The machine is safe with exposure to radiation levels equivalent to 2 minutes in an airplane.

Transportation
Security Administration

Your safety is our priority

www.tsa.gov