

Duminy, Sept. 7, 1839.

My Dear Friend:

I wish to send ~~you~~ to ~~you~~ the notice of the N. R. Meeting put into the Liberator, among the notices - with the particulars of time & place - to be continued till the meeting. The same particulars of time & place should be signified in the next N. R. - if peradventure we be got out before the meeting.
Has Garrison done anything about his Annual Report? Pray see to it & put him up to it or we shall be left in the lurch.
Has he done anything about the preparation of business for the meeting? He is chairman of that committee & you are one of it.
Pray let this be attended to in time. There is but about a fortnight before the meeting.

I have rec<sup>d</sup> a letter from Gen<sup>l</sup> Smith in reply to my invitation, alleging his health & private business as insuperable obstacles to his attendance. He says "I am ashamed - I am pained - not to say alarmed that my mind should be so ~~ignorant & unacquainted~~ ignorant & unacquainted in relation to such topics." I had a very delightful visit the other day from Mr. May & Mr.

Alcott & very good talk. He told me of an interesting case of a young man in R.I. - a grandson of Gen. Greene, who was educated at West Point & held a commission in the Army a year or so ago & who was then bitterly opposed to all the fanaticisms of the day; but who has become a thorough Abolitionist & perseverant. He will probably be at our Annual Meeting. I have written to him to urge his coming. Mr. M. says that at the last meeting of his Association the subject of R.R. was the topic of discussion

& a majority accepted the doctrines.
Yesterday I spent at Hinckham & had very good N. R. talk with the Smiths & Anna Thaxter. The latter has fully rec<sup>d</sup> the faith. Miss Charlotte Bradford of Luxbury arrived while I was there, being so far on her way to the Anniversary.
I doubt not of our having a good attendance.

What a curious blunder W<sup>m</sup> Goodell made about the N. E. Convention of '37 & Loring's murder. His sectarianism seems to blunt men's intellects as well as stupefy their consciences & deaden their hearts. - Is it known what measures have been taken in Court to ensure the slaves at Hartford fair play at their trial? Are the Court Abolitionists to be defended and no pains or money should be spared - not only for the sake of the unhappy men themselves - but that the worst may be made of an opportunity which may never occur again of having the great principles of Freedom proclaimed so that the whole land will sing with them. Should not the Mass. Abolitionists bestir themselves in the matter - at least enough to learn whether the Needful has been done? Pray think it over & set the springs in motion, if you judge best. We should never forgive ourselves if through our supine and the management of their affairs fell into the hands of such lawyers as Dudson was appointed to defend them, & if they should fail in ought that could be done for them. But what you do do quickly for the Court sits in about a week & their trial will doubtless be hurried on as soon as possible. No 3

I hope you take some maternal interest in the poor little Non-Resisting a N<sup>o</sup> was due today w<sup>t</sup>. I have not rec<sup>d</sup>, so I take it for granted that it is behindhand as usual. I despair of its punctual appearance until we have a person whose business it is to see to it. Will you not get out to see me one more before I return to town? Should you see H. C. Wright remind him of his promise to visit me. He w<sup>o</sup> want some rest from his labors & do not think he can find a <sup>55</sup> ~~sump~~ place than the shall of
