DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL.
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MADAME PARENT,
Corner of Rousseau and De Moine streets.

THIS institution occupies one of the best locations in the city with respect to health and many striking important advantages. The building is magnificent, the apartments are vast and well ventilated, and are particularly well adapted for classes.

There are four fine dormitories with dressing cabinets; also spacious galleries all through the house; a splendid corner commanding a most beautiful view of the city as far as the Lakes.

The best advantages are offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters.

Madame Parent is always present with her pupils; she teaches during the hours of class, and superintends the different divisions. There is an ample number of the best professors employed, besides ladies residing in the institution.

Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages; all accomplishments, such as Drawing, Painting, Dancing, and Embroidery, &c. The Musical Department (including vocal and instrumental) is conducted by the most competent and acknowledged talents in the city.

It would be superfluous to say anything respecting the special attention that is paid to the English, it being Madame Parent's native language. The best guarantee that she can offer to parents is the fact that French young ladies who have been educated by her speak it as fluently as their mother tongue.

For terms, apply at the institution, where prospectuses can be obtained.

YOUNG LADIES residing at a distance in the different Districts, will be conveyed gratis ☞ and from the institution.

St. Louis Institute.
313 Dauphin street, between Conti and Bienville.

MRS. DERON tenders her thanks for the liberal encouragement bestowed upon her Institute, which she has found in the most prosperous condition, and she hereby renews the assurance of her zeal and devotion to the welfare of the children. Mrs. Deron has been practically for many years in Paris, before she was entrusted with the direction of young ladies, and intends to adopt for her establishment the same liberal system which she has seen.

Mrs. DERON would add, that the best testimonials can be imparted to her pupils when recommending instruction based upon morality and religion, as a work, is somewhat limited, for the most of such there one day to go in the other direction. She hopes that for manners will be appreciated by mothers, who prefer profound principles to the polish which succeed in a public examination. The award of premiums in the shape of medals, following a severe examination, will then always be given to those but parents feeling an interest in the progress of their pupils will be a special.

Music as well as every real institution, (which will be under the latter), will be carefully and constantly attended to. Mrs. Deron has engaged in France, for her establishment, the services of an Italian lady, who is an excellent professor and lived in excited singer. The concert of the pupils will not be cannot fail to be attended or visited by Mrs. DAUGANNY, President Ball also in the city can be taught by her excellent method.

Mrs DERON having often been applied to for private classes by young ladies who could not join the regular classes, Mrs. Deron has engaged Madame Moore, Henry and Levi, in Paris, will have under her personal charge, three times a week, in the establishment. The class does not interfere with the regular.

The teachers are earnestly requested to use their utmost endeavors to impart to pupils those religious sentiments and principles, the characteristics of well-bred persons and the best guarantee for the future.

Corporal punishments are expressly prohibited in the establishment.

Reading, Penmanship, Catechism, History, Geography, English, French, Spanish, Mathematics, Commercial Studies, Music, Drawing and Needle work.

OPENING OF A STORE.

G. DUPUY, Gilder,
No. 61 Royal street, between Conti and Bienville streets,

THE new LOOKINGGLASS and GILDING STORE will be open for business on the 20th inst., under the Montgomery Buildings.

The above has been erected for the accommodation of his numerous friends and the public in general, for their very liberal patronage bestowed upon him for the last nine years, he takes this opportunity to return them his sincere thanks, and hopes by strict attention to business and moderate charges to merit a continuance of the same.

N. B. Having travelled in various parts of the country, and visited the principal manufactories, he is enabled to offer to the trade and to purchasers a stock of the latest patterns and finest workmanship, consisting of Pier and Mantle Glasses, Girandoles, Cornices, Picture Frames, Engravings, Paintings, Looking Glass Plates, &c., &c.

The same rooms also speak very highly of the surprising mechanic experiments by Mr. Dupuy, of his own invention, in the line of Looking Glasses, of the finest plate of November last, and the finest plate of May, 1856.

It is to be regretted that the above rooms are so small, but the many applications he has had, but the many applications he has had, but the many applications he has had
