Number On Strike Now in Shanghai Estimated at 150,000

ENTIRE CHINESE POLICE FORCE OF SHANGHAI WILL CEASE TO PROTECT LIVES

System Overthrown as Result of Strike Disputes; Posters Call on People to Assassinate All Foreigners in City Connected With Law Courts

Shanghai, June 5.—The anti-foreign campaign continued to spread with increasing rapidity to-day. The entire Chinese police force in Shanghai will be out to-morrow. One-eighth of the force has quit already. Shops in the French Concession hitherto unaffected by the disturbances which started last Saturday were closing to-day.

The strikes declared following the rioting here extended considerably overnight, and the number of those abstaining from work to-day was estimated at 150,000.

The strikers are reverting to old-time Chinese methods, threatening the lives of families of those workers remaining loyal to former employers.

The secretary of the Shanghai Municipal Council says that during a raid on the strike leaders' premises the police secured evidence that Bolshevik money and activities are behind the present disturbances.

Foreign forces patrolling Shanghai streets flanked by boarded store fronts to-day were confronted with posters reading: "Assassinate foreign police," and "Assassinate Foreigners connected with law courts."

EXTENSION EFFORTS

Among the documents seized by police in raids on the University of Shanghai was a letter from a Chinese in Berlin to a professor of the college saying: "We have been decided that students of three countries, China, Germany and Russia, will start an organization which will unite the nations of the world in the cause of the revolutionary party."

WAR MEMORIAL PROGRESSES WELL

Sidney March, Sculptor, Expected Here Shortly to Supervise Completion

Rapid progress is being made with the erection of the War Memorial on Parliament Square, the granite base being more than half completed by the contractors.

The War Memorial Committee is meeting this afternoon, at 5 o'clock, at the Chamber of Commerce, to discuss arrangements for the entertainment of Sidney March and his brother, who are expected to arrive here shortly to supervise the construction of the bronze figure.

The bronze figure is expected to arrive here on July 4 by the Canadian Pioneer, and by that time the base will be entirely finished. Erection of the bronze figure is expected to be completed within four days of delivery here.

The wonderful granite used in the construction of the base comes from the Nelson Island quarries, and was personally selected by A. J. Mortimer, the contractor, all the work on the stone being performed by Victoria artisans.

The granite pedestal will be sixteen feet in height and will be surmounted by a Canadian soldier, eight feet tall, standing on guard.

JUDGMENT IS RESERVED IN VYE APPEAL

Subsequent Statement by Complainant Subject of Motion to Re-open Case

At the close of the hearing of Rex vs. Vye before the B.C. Court of Appeal this morning judgment was reserved. A strong plea for a new trial was made by Stuart Henderson, counsel for Dr. J. P. Vye, defendant-appellant.

W. D. Carter, K.C., Deputy Attorney-General, appeared for the Crown, arguing that new evidence proposed to be raised was of a point irrelevant to the issue, and therefore not sufficient to reopen the main appeal, which had already been decided in favor of the Crown.

Mr. Justice McPhillips expressed himself strongly to the effect that a new trial should be granted. Mr. Justice Martin, while making no decision, stated that the point raised was relevant to the issue and a proper one for argument.

Chief Justice Macdonald pointed out that the question was a larger one than that of the hearing before the bar, and any action by the court in this case would affect every other action in similar circumstances. There were, he said, strict rules of evidence, and it was not for the court to sanction a departure from those rules. Judgment would be reserved.

Briefly put, Mr. Henderson argued that an affidavit by Dr. Laughlin McMillan, a Vancouver doctor, was on hand to the effect that the prosecutrix had contradicted herself at a date subsequent to the trial in some particulars as to what happened in the office of Dr. Vye.

This, countered Mr. Carter, might well be so, but as the prosecutrix had disappeared and could not be found the affidavit could not be put in hand to a cross-examination of the witness first taking place. The point raised, he said further, was not (Concluded on page 2)

GREAT STINNES INTERESTS NOW FACING CRISIS

London, June 5.—An Exchange Telegraph Agency dispatch from Amsterdam regarding a reported financial crisis through which the Stinnes organization in Germany is passing, says the Stinnes interests are not able to meet their liabilities abroad, totaling 128,000,000 marks. The difficulties have been caused, says the Exchange Telegraph Agency, by various foreign credits of the Stinnes interests being called.

Efforts to obtain new credits in the United States failed, it is stated.

BLAZE OF COLOR FOR DOMINION DAY PARADE

"Merrie England" Costumes Will be Seen in Street Parade

Villagers, Foresters, Hucksters and Kings Will Step From Pages of History

A page from Plantagenet Merrie England will be one of the features of the great Dominion Day street parade, the Crystal Garden Carnival Committee having arranged for the presence in the demonstration of the three hundred costumed participants in the Pageant "Richard Coeur de Lion," a Carnival week feature at the Arena.

Villagers, foresters, hucksters, soldiers, knights and their ladies, King Richard, Prince John and their gay courtiers, will pass in procession before the thousands of spectators of the parade, and the colorful costumes are expected to provide a wonderful support to the scores of floats in preparation.

This section of the demonstration will be of interest because of the large number of mounted characters taking part, men-at-arms and armored knights will provide a mounted escort for King Richard, Prince John and the court, and the spectators will have an opportunity to realize the skill wherewith Lieut. Carley of the Victoria Riding Academy has trained the horses he is providing for the Pageant.

Numerous processions were reported in numerous cities. New York at 3 p.m. reported 94 degrees. The previous record on June 5 was 91 in 1924.

Chicago, June 5.—At 2 p.m. today the temperature registered 95 in Chicago, one-tenth of a degree higher than the maximum of yesterday. During the morning hours it was four degrees above yesterday's registrations.

Numerous processions were reported in numerous cities. New York at 3 p.m. reported 94 degrees. The previous record on June 5 was 91 in 1924.

London, June 5.—Germany has failed in thirteen conditions to comply with the disarmament requirements of the Versailles Treaty, declares the Allied note to Germany, the text of which was given out here to-night.

In order to obtain the evacuation of the Cologne area, Germany, among other things, must suppress the present General Staff and reduce the number of German police from 180,000 to 150,000.

The strength of the German army must be reduced to 100,000 fighting men.

The military character presented to-day by the German Security Police must be entirely disappeared.

To be surrendered. The note demands alteration of certain factories in order to make impossible the manufacture of war materials. All existing munitions in excess of amounts to be stated by the Allied Control Commission must be surrendered, including spare parts for small arms. Bomb throwers, machine guns, and blank cartridges also must be surrendered.

RAILWAY COMMISSION NOW STARTING TASK OF REVISING RATES THROUGHOUT CANADA

Ottawa, June 5.—The Board of Railway Commissioners has been instructed by the Government under Order-in-Council to proceed with the revision of railway freight rates. The Order-in-Council lays down that the policy of equalization of freight rates should be recognized to the fullest possible extent.

The Railway Board is to be unfettered in its investigation except in regard to the westbound rates on grain and flour. On these the maximum established under the Crow's Nest Pass Act is not to be exceeded.

Furthermore, the Railway Board is directed in its investigation to have regard to the freest possible interchange of commodities between the various provinces, and in particular to:

1. The claim asserted on behalf of the Maritime Provinces that they are entitled to the restoration of the rate basis which they enjoyed prior to 1919.

2. The encouragement of the movement of traffic through Canadian ports.

3. The increased traffic Westward and Eastward through Pacific coast ports owing to the expansion of trade with the Orient and to the transportation of products through the Panama Canal.

Legislation is to be introduced giving any necessary authority to the Railway Commission.

B.C. INDIANS PROTEST WASHINGTON RULING BARRING THEM FROM U.S.

Vancouver, June 5.—Protest by the Allied Indian Tribes of British Columbia will be made to Ottawa, with the request that it be carried to Washington, D.C., against the ruling of United States immigration officers against Indians crossing the boundary line from Canada.

Andy Paul, secretary of the Allied Tribes, declared to-day the Indians recognized no boundary line. They had gone back and forth from time immemorial and the blood relationship between the Indians on both sides of the border rendered it imperative that they continue unrestricted to go back and forth.

The sub-executive of the Indian organization will meet in this city as soon as arrangements can be made to draw up a vigorous protest against the United States ruling, said Mr. Paul.

NEWS REACHED COAST. The barring of British Columbia Indians from the State of Washington was brought to public attention yesterday when transportation companies in Victoria and Vancouver received an intimation from United States immigration officials that Canadian Indians were to be included with the classes of races not eligible for United States citizenship, and therefore not admissible to the United States. It was said the intimation of the new order from Washington had come through to the

King Postponed Return to Madrid After Bomb Had Been Found on Railroad Track; News of Attempts Against Monarch Being Suppressed in Spanish Newspapers

Barcelona, June 5.—Existence of bomb plots to kill King Alfonso has been revealed and the sovereign's return to Madrid is being postponed.

One bomb was discovered on the tracks traversed by the royal train on the way to this city. Two other plots are reported, one to blow up the entrance to the hall where Alfonso presided at a meeting last Saturday and the other to kill him during the return journey to the capital.

The bomb found on the rails has been placed in a museum here and the king took time from his scheduled programme to view it.

LEADING OPPONENT OF KING ALFONSO; V. BLASCO IBANEZ

The chief figure in the campaign to drive out King Alfonso and make Spain a republic is Vicente Blasco Ibanez, the famous novelist, Ibanez, who is living in Paris, would immediately be seized and taken before the courts if he should appear in Spain, but he has not advocated violence to remove Alfonso and Rivera, Military Dictator of Spain.

FOURTEEN ARRESTED

Perpignan, France, June 5.—Fourteen persons have been arrested in Barcelona in connection with the bomb plots against King Alfonso, according to travelers arriving over the frontier, who say news of the plots is being suppressed in the Spanish newspapers.

BOMB IN CATHEDRAL

London, June 5.—A dispatch to The London Evening News from a point on the Franco-Spanish border says it is reported a bomb was found in Barcelona Cathedral just before Alfonso attended mass there. The dispatch says four priests were arrested.

This dispatch also reported that a bomb exploded outside a Barcelona hotel the day after a ball had been given there in honor of King Alfonso.

BOAK HEARING IN "AUTUMN IS LIKELY"

Crown is Taking Appeal in Local Case to Supreme Court of Canada

Delay May Result From Lack of Notification to Dr. Boak, Says Dispatch

Special to The Times. Ottawa, June 5.—An oversight on the part of the appellants in the Boak case is likely to result in the Supreme Court of Canada standing over the hearing until the Autumn.

It appears the application for an appeal failed to state whether or not the respondent had been officially served with notification of appeal when the case was brought on here. Dr. Boak was not represented in court and now can discover no evidence that he was notified. Accordingly a letter is now in the mail to the British Columbia authorities, asking whether the proper formalities had been complied with.

If Dr. Boak was notified, a new hearing will have to be held, as the Supreme Court is to adjourn June 14 for the Summer holiday. It is not likely the matter will be cleared up in time to make a decision possible.

Following the finding of the bodies of two elderly men at the side of North Quadra Street, along which the automobile of Dr. Eric W. Boak, a well-known medical practitioner of Victoria, had passed at night, Dr. Boak was tried at a twelve-day hearing at the sitting of the Victoria Assizes last Fall, and found guilty of manslaughter of one of the men. He was sentenced to serve four years' imprisonment. Appeal was taken to the British Columbia Court of Appeal on the ground, among others, that one of the jurors who had sat at the trial was deaf and therefore unqualified to act as a juror. The Appeal Court ordered a new trial. From the decision of the Appeal Court ordering the new trial the Province appealed to the Supreme Court of Canada.

Manchester Race Won by Winalot

London, June 5 (Canadian Press Cable).—Winalot, at 6 to 1 against, won the Manchester Cup to-day, two lengths in front of Dumas, 5 to 1 against. King horses started. The Sporting Chronicle quoted the starting price of the winner at 11 to 2 against.

The Manchester Cup handicap is a sweepstake of thirty sovereigns each, with 2,000 sovereigns added, including a gold cup valued at 250 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upwards. The owner of the second horse in the race receiving 200 sovereigns and the third 100 sovereigns, out of the stakes. The cup course is a mile and a half.

ERROR SUGGESTED. The possibility that a mistake has been made by the United States immigration authorities on this coast is being considered by the Allied Tribes.

Mr. Paul stated to-day that the Federal Government was the trustee for the Indians in Canada and any exclusion ruling must be ratified by the Canadian Government before the Indians could recognize it.

It will be practically impossible to keep the Indians of this province from going to the United States," he said. "The Indians on both sides of the line have intermarried and are (Concluded on page 2)

COUNCILLOR HAYWARD WILL ACT AS REEVE

Appointed at Last Night's Meeting of the Oak Bay Council

Reeve Anscomb Leaves For East To-day; Council Reduces Horse Racing Fee

Councillor E. C. Hayward will fill the post of acting reeve of Oak Bay commencing to-day, as the result of a decision reached at the meeting of the Oak Bay Council last night. Reeve Herbert Anscomb left for the East this afternoon, on a three week's trip to Montreal, Hamilton and Toronto.

It was decided at the meeting to cut the permit fee to the British Columbia Agricultural Association for the staging of horse races at the Willows Park from $1,000 to $500. An amendment to the horse-racing by-law was made by the council. In making this reduction the council considered the fact that the length of the racing season on the Willows track had been reduced this year to one week.

In order to secure fire protection from Victoria for $8,000 this year instead of paying $10,000, the sum originally requested by the city, Oak Bay agreed to rebate to the city the taxes on the Willows grounds and charge only $500 to the B.C. Agricultural Association for their horse racing permit fee, instead of the $1,000 levied in the past.

A communication was read from the Victoria Chamber of Commerce advising the council that its members were against all advertising signs which were located in Victoria, and in their opinion these signs disfigured public property of the district and should be removed.

A report of Oak Bay finances for the first four months of 1925 was presented to the council by the municipal clerk.

Mr. Vaughan Roberts for many years Oak Bay's representative on the board of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital, was reappointed to that position.

A request from Reginald Hayward, M.P.P., for the use of the Willows grounds on August 6 for the holding of the Conservative picnic was granted by the council.

The council, as advised by Bodwell and Lawson, municipal solicitors, that in the event of buildings being constructed on lots which have been purchased by Oak Bay Lands Limited and which have not been fully paid for, the municipality should place notices advising that it will not be responsible for such works or improvements.

Tenders are now being called for the erection of two additional rooms to the present Oak Bay High School. The school board requires that the present building does not provide adequate accommodation for the ever increasing number of pupils, and has decided to construct these new classrooms.

The contract will in all probability be let at the next meeting of the Oak Bay School Board to be held on Monday evening, June 15, in the Oak Bay High School, starting at 8 o'clock. Tenders must be in the hands of H. F. Hemmitt, secretary of the board, by 5 o'clock Monday, June 15.

closely related, and in fact they belong to one tribe. They are the Abts Indians, according to the scientists. They speak the same language, the Indians of Northwest Washington and the Indians of Western British Columbia.

The Indians know every inch of the country along the border, and they are not at all friendly to their relatives and friends in Washington. They recognize no boundary line and they cross the line as they please. It would be necessary to have men all along the border to keep them from crossing.

As soon as the intimation of the United States ruling was received here, Indian Commissioner W. E. Phillips was wired to Ottawa and pointed out how serious the embargo would be for the Indians on the Coast reservation. He asked for the matter to be taken up at Ottawa, and representations made to Washington.

CERTIFICATES GIVEN
Explaining past procedure, Mr. Ditchburn said that since the United States had tightened its regulations governing admission into that country, it had been the practice to issue certificates to Indian, stating his identification by name and residence, and indicating how long he intended to stay in the United States.

As soon as the intimation of the United States ruling was received here, Indian Commissioner W. E. Phillips was wired to Ottawa and pointed out how serious the embargo would be for the Indians on the Coast reservation.

BUILDING FIGURES $2,000,000 HIGHER

Greater Construction Work in West This Year Than Last

Residential building in the Western Provinces was greater by nearly $2,000,000 in the first four months of this year over the corresponding period of last year, figures received by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce show. The increase is made up principally by large numbers of medium and low priced houses.

An increase of over $9,000,000 in the value of completed new construction in Canada was recorded during the first four months of this year, according to figures which have been compiled by MacLean Building Reports Limited. The total value of new building in the Dominion during the month of April, 1925, was $1,494,000 more than in April, 1924, or a total of $24,886,900, compared with $13,392,900 in 1924.

The past four months' total for contemplated work is $24,943,100, as against $13,189,100 for the same period in 1924. Residential building accounted for 43.5 per cent of the April total, and amounted to $10,529,000, business building 23.1 per cent, amounting to $5,761,000, and industrial building 9.9 per cent, amounting to $2,472,500, and public works and utilities 18.5 per cent, amounting to $4,383,300.

RESIDENTIAL BUILDING
The residential work, which has started, including apartments and houses, is showing up rather better than was expected. In the Maritime Provinces it is fair, but in Quebec it equals last year.

Leave was now sought, it was commented, to introduce an affidavit to the effect that the main witness for the Crown had been absent later than he said in evidence in reference to what happened in the office of the accused.

DIG MAJORITY FOR UNION OF CHURCHES

Discussion Showed Overwhelming Sentiment in Presbyterian Assembly

Deputations From Methodist, Baptist and Anglican Churches Heard

Toronto, June 5.—Presbyterian church unionists and their non-concurring colleagues clashed here this morning for the first time during the fifty-first General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. It was on the final report of the union committee and on a declaration of principles which the Assembly was asked by the committee to adopt.

Rev. Dr. G. C. Pidgeon, Moderator, who as chairman of the committee had presented the report, replied that such a table was not possible at this time because all the voting had not been done and all returns had not been made.

"At any rate," said Dr. Pidgeon, "the only continuing Presbyterian Church is the Presbyterian Church in Canada going as such into the United Church."

My addition, replied Dr. Nelson, said in evidence in reference to what happened in the office of the accused.

MAN IS HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDER
Charles Muller Shot T. L. Leeming as He Stood in New York Building

New York, June 5.—Thomas L. Leeming, vice-president of Leeming Mills Company Limited of Montreal, and a prominent society man of this city, was shot and mortally wounded in a William Street office building to-day. Charles Muller of Saratoga, N.Y., who was identified by Leeming as his assailant, was arrested after a chase of several blocks.

The shooting occurred in the crowded lobby of the building, according to the police report. Muller followed Leeming into the building and insisted upon interviewing him. The importer is said to have objected and turned to enter an elevator when three shots were fired, all taking effect in his back.

Leeming was rushed to a hospital after he had identified Muller as his slayer, but died soon after being admitted.

BRITISH MINERS HEAR ONE BIG UNION PLAN

General Secretary of Miners Before Conference

London, June 5. (Canadian Press Cable)—As the outcome of the proposal made recently by A. J. Cook, general secretary of the British Miners' Federation, for the formation of one big union, representatives of the miners, transport workers, railwaymen's and locomotive engineers met yesterday and considered the question of the formation of a great labor alliance for joint action against employers in case such should be deemed necessary. Cook's suggestions for war to the death were turned down by the miners at their recent conference at Blackpool. The labor alliance scheme is a real revival of the Triple Alliance of the miners, transport workers and railwaymen, which proved unworkable when the test came five years ago. The conference yesterday was attended by locomotive engineers and railway clerks, which organizations were not included in the original alliance. It is the common opinion that if Cook obtains from the present conference a resolution approving in general terms of the proposed joint action, this is the most he can hope for and probably all that he really expects. Many considerations give color to this view.

PRESBYTERIANS FACE NEW CONDITIONS

Changes Through Church Union Before Assembly

Toronto, June 5.—Consideration and adoption of reports dealing with various aspects of church work occupied the time of the Presbyterian General Assembly yesterday. The committee on church praise reported the sale of 42,018 copies of the Book of Praise during the year. The Board of Publications announced an increased sale for their various works and a surplus at the end of the year of $13,330.

A report from Rev. Dr. E. S. Scott, editor of "The Presbyterian Record," who is retiring from that position after thirty-four years of service, was referred to a committee for recommendation as to the continuance of the magazine, under the United Church of Canada, and as to the honorarium for Dr. Scott. An overture which was adopted by the Presbytery of Edmonton recommending the paying of stipends to ministerial salaries was referred by the assembly to a special committee for report.

OUR MUSICAL TALENT

VICTORIA'S MUSICIANS are deserving of hearty congratulations on their success in that recent festival in Vancouver.

Of especial interest is the fact that Victoria's entries at this year's festival were so numerous that a movement was immediately initiated with the object of holding this interesting event in Victoria in 1925.

NOT CONVINCED

IT WILL APPARENTLY be difficult to convince The Vancouver Daily Province that the subject of Canada's tariff is one that can be disposed of completely in the manner suggested either by Mr. Meighen or the retiring President of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

There is one force which will always operate against protection and, so far, no means has been found of neutralizing it. That is the greed of those whom the protection benefits.

GET IN THE MOOD

MORE THAN SEVEN hundred willing workers are giving their time and talents to the business of insuring complete success for the Crystal Garden Carnival.

THE ALLIED NOTE

THE ALLIED NOTE TO Germany looks about as plain as it could be. It informs the defaulting former enemy country that she has not lived up to the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles.

Cologne area is to cease playing host to Allied troops. If the recent peaceful protestations of a number of Germany's political leaders mean anything at all, it should not be difficult for the Government to order the curtailment in military equipment which the provisions of the Treaty determined.

There is no reason why the terms of this note should disturb Germany in particular or Europe as a whole. It is merely reminding the chief defaulting nation that certain conditions of the Treaty which she appended her signature have not been complied with.

OFF THE MARK

OPponents OF THE King Government's ship subsidy proposals do not believe that the high cost-of-travel on vessels belonging to members of the North Atlantic Shipping Conference has had anything to do with the slower movement of migrants from Europe to Canada.

The charge bears some examination. Not so very long ago The Colonist deprecated the idea of anything in the nature of a general movement of new people to this country. It favored what it might have called a hand-picked programme and generally supported the idea that until work was assured all comers the door should be opened very gingerly indeed.

As for the immigration question in the broad sense, The Colonist can thank Mr. Meighen and his followers, whom it supports for much of the slower movement to Canada—and much obviously to high cost of fares.

BRILLIANT American novelist, journalist and poet, died at Badenweiler, Germany, on June 3, 1925. He was denied recognition during his brief life-time, except to a limited degree in England; a greater interest is now shown in his writings and in his career.

Germany looks about as plain as it could be. It informs the defaulting former enemy country that she has not lived up to the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles. Thirteen conditions have not been complied with.

is the psychological aspect of the carnival. It is an important point and should not be overlooked.

Some optimists among the Conservatives in the House of Commons claim they have a chance of winning one seat out of the sixty-five in Quebec in the next Dominion Election.

WORDS OF WISE MEN

AT THE THEATRES

WESTERN STORY IS CROWDED WITH THRILLING ACTION

The most popular cowboy on the screen will again make his bow to the people of Victoria. Harry Carey Western star with the reputation of a hard-riding, two-gun actor of ability will be seen at the Columbia Theatre to-day in "Beyond the Border."

DORIS KENYON USES SPINNING WHEEL WITH GREAT SATISFACTION

How many girls to-day can work a spinning wheel? The primitive contrivance is no stranger to one girl of to-day—Doris Kenyon, film star. This came out when Miss Kenyon demonstrated her ability on an old spinning wheel used as a heirloom of a French villa in which are laid the early scenes of "I Want My Man," this week's First National feature at the Capitol Theatre.

ANTONIO MORENO'S AMBITION WAS TO BE A BULL FIGHTER

Had Antonio Moreno followed his boyhood ambition, he would now be the bull-fighter. That is the ambition of all boys born in Spain, just as all America's youth wants to fight Indians. His parents steered him from this dangerous vocation to the stage, however, and thus another star finally was added to the constellation of the American screen. Moreno's latest appearance is with Constance Talmadge in her new First National picture, "Learning to Love," which is now showing at the Coliseum this week.

"CHING LING FOO," MUSICAL FANTASY, DUE AT PLAYHOUSE

Elaborate preparations have been completed by the Playhouse management for the presentation, next week, of the spectacular Chinese musical fantasy, "Ching Ling Foo." Redolent of the atmosphere of the mystic Orient, beautifully set and mounted, appropriately costumed, and with the plaintive melodies of the Far East blending with the dialogue, "Ching Ling Foo" promises to be a rare musical comedy treat. Gladys Vaughan will be seen as Princess Lee Foo, Dave Dumbleton as chancellor Wo Wang, Roy Earl as the rival commander Audrey and Ellen Bennett as celestial singing girls, Gretta MacArtney as a slave girl and Frank Morton as "Smoke" dispensing the laughs. "Ching Ling Foo" will be presented in conjunction with Lloyd Hamilton in his big feature length comedy, "A Self Made Failure." For the last time to-night, the Moros company offers, "Maggie and Jiggs in London" with "The Scarlet Lily" on the screen. There will be a matinee to-day and two complete performances to-night.

A HEAVY MEAL ACUTE INDIGESTION SUDDEN DEATH!

Doctors May Say "Heart Failure," But the Most Common Cause is Stomach Acidity—Gast! Thousands of folks think they have Heart Trouble and live in constant fear of sudden death, when, as a matter of fact, it is probably caused by a Sour, Gassy, "Acid" Stomach! When the stomach is too acid and the slightest bit of food sets up a fermentation causing bloating and gas, then the stomach distends and crowds the heart and lungs, and the result is a difficult breathing, pressure, dizziness and a feeling of exhaustion and oppression follows—a highly uncomfortable and often really dangerous condition, but not Heart Trouble! So don't get excited and don't waste valuable time doctoring the wrong thing. Unless you absolutely know your heart is bad, you'll probably find the cause of all your trouble in your stomach—and here's a simple little test to help you know! From any good druggist obtain a couple ounces of pure liquidated Magnesia (either powder or tablets) and beginning with to-morrow take a teaspoonful of this powder or tablets immediately after each meal—and see what happens or rather what does not happen. This is a pleasant, inexpensive test that seldom fails to relieve or ward off most stomach distress, Gas, Sourness and Bloating—often instantly. One day's trial proves its value. Be sure and get Bismarck Magnesia, safe and inexpensive. (Adv.)

IMPRESSED WITH MUSIC STANDARDS

"Western Enthusiasm is Splendid," Declares H. Wesley Roberts

By G. J. D.
Interviewed by a staff representative of The Times, H. Wesley Roberts, the visiting examiner in music, sent by the Associated Board of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music, London, had many nice things to say of the extreme kindness of the people he has met "out West," and of the beauties of the Capital City and Vancouver Island generally. He is much impressed at the prevailing music standards and the many visits of the pianoforte, and sound musical development.

Lethbridge Men Are To Mine More Coal

Working one day a week and even less, the Galt Collieries at Lethbridge, it is expected, will operate more steadily from now on and the output naturally will be increased as the Fall and Winter advances, according to Lewis Stockert, in-charge of the mining branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway here, who has returned from Lethbridge. "This is the first domestic mine in Alberta where the men have followed the example of the miners in the steam coalfields of the Crow's Nest Pass and elsewhere in negotiating a direct agreement with their employers. The action was taken by the men themselves, who agreed to a cut of from 7 1/2 to 15 per cent. on contract rates, and the mine scale so far as day wages are concerned, which ranges from $4 to $6 a day.

These closely connected with the coal mining industry of Alberta are now watching with much interest what the result of the Lethbridge men's decision will have on the domestic mines in the Drumheller valley. In connection with the new agreement at Lethbridge, but into operation this morning, it is stated that 500 men will be employed at once. Later the number will be increased to about 650 men.

DENUNCIATION OF GAMBLING VOICED

Toronto, June 5.—Strong expression of the belief that something should be done by the church to discourage gambling in Canada was voiced at the Presbyterian General Assembly yesterday afternoon. The Board of Social Services had recommended that the Federal Government be asked to consider proposed amendments to the Criminal Code which, it is said, permitted the playing of wheels of fortune and other games of chance. Rev. J. S. Henderson of Vancouver objected to the proposal as "lacking in teeth and claws." "In Canada," he said, "we are developing very rapidly a race of gamblers, whoever is responsible. It seems to be a public scandal that the religious forces have not sufficient moral courage to rise up and press the Government of Canada to do something to stem the tide of gambling which is corrupting the youth of the country."

Dr. C. W. Gordon of Winnipeg told the Assembly that a new race track was being built in Winnipeg to take "a few more millions" from the people. He moved, and the Assembly adopted the suggestion, that the resolution go back to the committee for a clause to be added expressing more adequately their condemnation of gambling. The Assembly declared itself against the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquor as a beverage, and urged as an "imperative necessity" increased instruction on the harmful effects of alcohol.

MINISTERS MAY CEASE TO WRITE FOR PRESS

London, June 5.—As a result of criticism of Lord Birkenhead, Secretary of State for India, for writing for the press while he is a Minister of the Crown, a Cabinet committee is now engaged in preparing a report as to the position of the Ministers toward members who make excursions into journalism. Lord Birkenhead's writings bring him in an annual income of £12,000.

CHANGES MADE IN LAW RULING DIVORCE

Equality Measure For Western Provinces Approved by Commons

Ottawa, June 5.—By a majority of fifty-one votes the House of Commons passed third reading of the bill sponsored by J. T. Shaw, independent, West Calgary, which would equalize with men in so far as the grounds for divorce are concerned. The vote was 112 to 61. Division because it would be called yesterday afternoon and evening marked the progress of the bill. Although the measure merely seeks to place men and women on an equality in so far as the grounds for divorce are concerned, it opened the door for a discussion of the broad question of the right of remarriage.

When the bill came up for third reading, Thomas Vien, Liberal, Lethbridge, moved an amendment denying the right of remarriage to divorced parties domiciled in Canada. A division on the amendment resulted in its defeat by 73-60, the vote cutting across party lines and dividing the members of the Government.

Mr. Vien, introducing his amendment, said it would be unpalatable to many persons in the House of Commons and in the country generally. He realized he would be called a bigot; that it would be said he was "trying to impose upon others a religious belief they did not share," but he hoped to convince the House that he was merely acting as his conscience dictated. If he had his way, he would stamp out divorce altogether.

A clause against remarriage would have the effect of greatly reducing the number of applications for divorce. It would remove the reason why most divorces were being sought. Divorce, said Mr. Vien, was "un-Christian" because it was opposed to the teachings of the New Testament. It was immoral because it was opposed to national law. John Evans, Progressive, Saskatoon, objected that the amendment was not relevant to the bill before the House, and Speaker Lemieux ruled that the amendment was in order. Mr. Vien quoted the statements of St. Paul in His Epistles to the Corinthians upon the subject of remarriage. Divorce led to legalized race suicide, he said.

LIQUOR GUARDS ALONG NIAGARA INCREASED

Buffalo, June 5.—Enlargement of the United States federal prohibition guard along the Niagara frontier recently was due to a "lenient attitude" by Canadian officials toward liquor smuggling. Collectors of Customs Allen Bradley and United States Attorney Richard S. Templeton said here to-day.

Narcotic Addicts Are Now Decreasing

Winnipeg, June 5.—There has been a distinct decrease in the number of narcotic drug addicts in Canada in the last two years, according to a paper prepared by F. W. Cowan, superintendent of the Federal Health Department, Ottawa, and read by Chief W. C. Crabb of Welland, Ont., at yesterday's session of the twenty-first annual convention of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada. The paper contradicted the commonly-held theory that use of nar-

Hamilton, Ont., June 5.—During the business session yesterday of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association convention here a resolution was adopted calling for the exercise of the greatest possible economy by government bodies and pledging the members of the organization on their part to practice economy in the conduct of their businesses.

Another resolution endorsed strongly urged the Federal and Provincial Government to conserve and develop Canadian water powers for the use of Canadians, and to agree on a national policy of prohibiting all export of electric power except what is covered by existing contracts.

MINISTERS LEAVE FOR STEWART MINES

Sutherland and Sloan to See to Needs of Expanding Mining District

Vancouver, June 5.—On his way northward with Hon. William Sloan, Provincial Minister of Mines, to investigate road requirements in the Portland Canal district, Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, sailed for Stewart last night. Asked about the proposed branch line to develop the new coalfield near Pavilion on the P.G.E., Dr. Sutherland stated the assays of the coal were steadily improving with depth, but that if a spur were built the usual procedure of having the coal company put in the grade would be followed. The P.G.E. would then lay the steel, which could easily be salvaged, if necessary, he said.

Dr. Sutherland had little to say regarding other departmental matters. He held out no hope to racing fans that the Marpole bridge would be ready for use at the start of the racing meet. The roundabout route by way of Fraser Street will have to be used at the beginning.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily Goes Fishing

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate

(By Howard R. Garis)

"What do you think we ought to have for dinner this evening, Nurse Jane?" asked Mrs. Longears of the muskrat lady housekeeper on a morning.

"Let me see," murmured Miss Fussy Wiggily, looking at the clock. "This is Friday, so I should say it would be proper to have fish."

"The very thing," cried Uncle Wiggily himself, who was sitting on the porch, twinking his pink nose and wondering what adventure he would have that day. "I'll go off in the woods and catch some fish for you. It will be a jolly time for me."

"I didn't know you were a fishing rabbit!" said Mrs. Longears, to her new husband. "But then, you see, we haven't been married very long, and I dare say there are lots of things I don't know about you."

"Yes, I suppose so!" laughed the bunny. "But ask Nurse Jane—she will tell you I always bring home fish when I go fishing."

"But can you get any fish in the woods?" his wife wanted to know.

"Through the woods flows a brook, and in the brook are fishes which I will catch with a hook!" sang Mr. Longears. "Nurse Jane will fry them in the pan, and I will eat just all I can!" he went on.

Then he jumped about, getting his fishing pole, lines and hooks from the closet, and soon he hopped off to the brook in the woods. Reaching a shady place, the bunny gentleman put a piece of sugar cookie on his hook for bait, cast it into the water and waited for a bite.

Now it happened that Jingle and Jangle, two of the little rabbit girls, were let out of the Hollow Stump School early that day.

Hopping home along the woodland path Jingle and Jangle looked through the bushes and saw Uncle Wiggily sitting on the bank of the brook, fishing.

"Oh, let's play a joke on him!" whispered Jingle.

"How?" asked Jangle.

"We'll hide behind a tree," went on Jingle, "and when he catches a fish we'll make him believe it's one and we'll say, 'Please don't catch me, Uncle Wiggily. Please put me back in the water. I don't want to be cooked in a pan!' We'll pretend the fishes are talking!"

Jangle thought that would be a good joke, so they waited, and pretty soon Uncle Wiggily felt his line jerked, the tip of his pole went down and he cried, "I've got a bite!" Up out of the water he pulled a fish.

But, just as the bunny was taking the fish off the hook, a voice said: "Oh, please don't catch me, Uncle Wiggily! Please put me back in the brook. I don't want to be fried in a pan!"

Mr. Longears was rather surprised to hear a fish say he thought talking to him. But he was very kind hearted. So he tossed the fish back into the water, saying:

"I'll try again, and land one that doesn't mind being caught." But no sooner had he pulled out the second fish than again a voice said:

"Oh, please put me back in the water, Uncle Wiggily!" Of course, it was Jingle and Jangle, hidden in the bushes, who were talking like fishes, but the bunny didn't know this.

"Ho! So you don't want to be caught, either?" laughed Mr. Longears, and back into the stream he tossed the second fish. It was the same way with all he caught. Each one seemed to be in a hurry to get back, and the bunny didn't know why.

At last it was time to go home, and Uncle Wiggily, though he had caught many fish, hadn't one to take home, and it was Friday.

"But I know what I can do!" chuckled the bunny. "I'll go to the five and ten cent store and buy a can of sardines. They're fish, even if I didn't catch them myself."

And when he gave his wife and Nurse Jane the can of sardines how the animal ladies laughed! And so did Uncle Wiggily when Jingle and Jangle told him the trick they had played. But Mr. Longears didn't care for he had been kind to the fish. And the sardines were very tasty, made up into a pie with apple sauce trimming.

CHANGES ARE URGED IN POLICE SYSTEM

Leaders Tell Chief Constables' Association Canadian Organizations Faulty

Winnipeg, June 5 (Canadian Press)—That the present policy system of Canada should be thrown into the melting pot, with the object of bringing out something better and more efficient, was the action advocated by Chief W. C. Crabb of Welland, Ontario, in leading discussion on the address given yesterday afternoon by Chief M. Burton of Regina, dealing with the organization of police forces in Canada and elsewhere at the twenty-first annual convention of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada.

In the opening address, Chief Burton explained that under the British North America Act, the provinces were responsible for the enforcement of criminal laws, but they had delegated the power of enforcement to cities and municipalities, which each worked independently, and under the present system they could not be forced to provide adequate forces. Overlapping and constant friction were the result.

"If the municipalities must enforce Provincial and Dominion laws, then the provinces and the Dominion should stand behind municipalities in the matter and should see that no police officer was sacrificed to personal interests for the honest carrying out of his duties," the Regina speaker said.

Chief Burton considered the system in force in Britain might be well copied in Canada.

A motion placing the matter before the executive for its consideration and recommendations was adopted.

TEXAS EMBARKING UPON NEW VENTURE IN STATE EDUCATION

Lubbock, Texas, June 5.—"The College-That-Is-to-Be" soon is to open its doors out here on the plains of West Texas, where the landscape is as level as a table and the vision is as far as the human eye can see.

A state institution with more than 2,000 acres and $1,000,000 to start without "a scholarship fence" but with "scholarship steps" without a Greek letter fraternity but with a burning desire to instill character and teach democracy—that is the ideal of the "College-That-Is-to-Be," which is the name given the new Texas Technological College by its first president, Dr. P. W. Horn.

FOR VAST SECTION The college is being built to meet the demands of this vast section for a public institution of general higher learning. The Legislature appropriated $1,000,000 and the citizens of Lubbock chipped in, at a low price, 2,000 acres of the plains to start it on its way. The first buildings are now about completed and the college expects to open its doors for freshmen and sophomores next September.

In a new country and with a new school, Dr. Horn has set out to build what he believes is a new kind of college. As a warning of what he expects to make it, he has issued what he calls some "Hornherseys."

NO FRATERNITIES First of all he proposed to the board of directors that Greek letter fraternities be excluded, and the board promptly adopted the proposal. There is to be no hazing of freshmen at the new school. No one is to be summarily dismissed because of poor scholarship, but the school is going to attempt to adjust itself to the needs of the student and find a place for him, Dr. Horn said.

The present system of dismissing about one-third of the freshmen and sending them home hopeless failures is "undefensible and well-nigh criminal," he declared.

"The faculty is to be composed of sunny men and womanly women, above pettiness, strife and jealousy, and with the ability to get along in the little world of the college and in the great world outside."

distinction is instilled into their minds even more strongly than into the minds of the freshmen. "Is it possible to have a college for American youths of such a nature that no clear-cut social lines will be drawn between the freshmen and the upper classes?" Many college presidents say it is not. At any rate, the College-That-Is-to-Be aspires to be a college of that par-

It believes the face of the United States is set against arbitrary class lines, and that the face of United States colleges should be set against them. "It should be the policy of a college in a democracy not to build a fence around it in order to keep out folks who want to enter, but rather to build steps up to it in order that those may enter who desire to do so and can profit by doing so."

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

The present-day tendency to equalization of the sexes had led to the feminine repugnance to the word "obey" in the marriage service. The Dean would omit the one-sided promise to obey but would insert in its place a promise of service from each of the contracting parties to a marriage.

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

On the subject of women in economic and political life, the Dean observed that women who were anxious to hold jobs side by side with men should remember that the keener the competition with the men, the fewer the jobs for men and the consequent fewer men who could afford to marry and make homes for women.

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

Condemning the tendency to "make undiscriminating denunciation of all the young people of to-day the speaker saw much to admire in the manners and methods of the youth of to-day. The secrecy and reserve of the Victorian age were more to be deplored than the frankness and openness of to-day.

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

The Dean declared that present day conditions were not the fault of the young nor were they the direct outcome of the war, though that might have accelerated the revolt against Mrs. Grundy. He appealed to the grown-ups to listen to the young people and understand them to win their confidence in the early days of their childhood and practice keeping it. This would do more to help conditions than mere lamenting.

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

The elderly people did not escape criticism from the Dean. Many of the divorcee court cases had elderly people as the principals, he remarked. "Do we older people profit by the hard experience of our ancestors? Yet we expect the young people of to-day to dot our theological 'is' and cross our theological 'ts'."

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

"Take war and its causes," continued the lecturer. "We have the experiences of past ages to show us that it is caused by suspicion and hate, yet we are facing international problems in the same old way, with blind eyes." It was the duty of the older generation to help the young people by fixing their own personal standards high and there always being a tendency since the beginning of time to think that the generation following the present one was corrupt. There had always been a tendency to be cycles of moral laxity and cycles of moral rigidity, yet the Dean could not but feel that an Empire which produced the young generation following the present one was corrupt. There had always been a tendency to be cycles of moral laxity and cycles of moral rigidity, yet the Dean could not but feel that an Empire which produced the young generation following the present one was corrupt.

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

There were often fundamental differences. Woman relies on intuition, man on reason. Even in intuition, man would sacrifice more to principle; man deals best with generalities, a woman with details.

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

The Dean prefaced his comments with a review of the Victorian and Georgian eras. The early Victorian age he described as filled with changes and possibilities, marked by the fusion of classes but with a social decadence, an age of "triumphant wealth and uncouth manners. This condition persisted for some time in spite of the pure, simple, and religious influence of the young Queen Victoria.

THE MARRIAGE "OBEY"

The dress of the period with its cumbersome, ugly crinolines was described by the Dean, his picture making laughter which evoked the comment, "Let us beware as we laugh at our grandmothers that we be not too complacent of our own Georgian ways."

Flat denial that he had received from Vancouver a copy of the confession of an eye witness of the Janet Smith murder, as reported in a Vancouver weekly newspaper this morning, was made by Attorney-General Manson to-day. Mr. Manson declared emphatically that he had heard nothing of the purported confession.

Mr. Manson's denial was followed by an official intimation that no reward would be offered by the Government for the capture of the abductors of Wong, Chinese houseboy held for the murder of Janet Smith. It was learned that the Provincial police do not feel that a reward is necessary at this stage, although Chinese friends of Wong are urging it. The present decision not to offer a reward is not due to any lack of desire on the part of the authorities to capture the bandits but to the belief of the police that such a move is not necessary and would not assist the present active pursuit of the abductors.

Stories about the Janet Smith case appearing in print in Vancouver to-day caused a sensation in the Mainland city and were quickly relayed to Victoria. It was reported that a Victoria woman, an actual eye witness of the murder, had made a full confession before a court stenographer indicating the names of the abductors involving a number of prominent people.

MINERS' GRIEVANCES ARE INVESTIGATED

Nanaimo, June 5.—At a mass meeting of employees of the Canadian Western Fuel Company, held on the waterfront here to-day, it was decided to request Deputy Minister of Labor J. D. McNiven to come to Nanaimo to investigate the miners' grievances. He is expected to arrive in time for a meeting called for 3 o'clock.

The grievance committee reported no progress had been made when it met the mine management Wednesday night. As the company stood on the proposed sixty-cent per day reduction, the meeting drafted a resolution to be presented to the mine management by a committee during the noon recess stating the men were willing to resume work on the old wage schedule if a board of inquiry was appointed to go into the whole question.

MINING SUIT PROCEEDS OVER STEWART CLAIMS

Victoria Improvement Company Claim Title to Prince John No. 5

Entering its second day of hearing, the mining suit between the Victoria Improvement Company and the Prince John Mining Company in Supreme Court this morning.

W. J. Taylor, K.C., appears for plaintiffs, who claim title and possession to the Portland Canal Mining Division mineral property known as Prince John No. 5.

"Plaintiff asks a declaration of title, an injunction to restrain defendants from interference with the property, and the appointment of a receiver."

Evidence turned this morning upon the documentary exhibits in the case, mainly addressed to the action taken by the defendant company to protect its right to the claim by recording and other processes.

The action is a test case of nineteen, all affecting claims known as the Prince John group in the Stewart district of the Portland Canal area. H. A. Maclean, K.C., appears for defendants. The hearing proceeds this afternoon.

Perilous Point On Gorge Road Being Wiped Out

Elimination of the dangerous Maple Tree Bend on the Gorge Road in Saanich is now in progress, and will be completed before the end of next week. The Gorge Road is a primary road under the Government's classification. Seventy-five per cent of the cost of the improvement is being paid by the Province, the remainder being contributed by Saanich. When the corner is completed it will be one of the safest portions of the Gorge Road, with one-way surfacing on each side of a central parking strip.

BREAKFAST SESSION START QUEEN DRIVE

Early Morning Meeting Campaign For Votes

Two Hundred Workers Under Direction of R. R. Webb

The Carnival Queen contest will next week take on a more intensive character, R. R. Webb having been appointed organizer of the big drive for votes. The list of active workers already includes more than 160 names. Two hundred workers are essential to complete the canvassing organization.

OFFICE TRANSFERRED

The general offices of the carnival will be transferred to a ground floor location early on Monday morning, quarters on Port Street near Douglas Street having been secured. This change is being made, in great measure, to accommodate the many workers on behalf of the queen, but will be occupied until the carnival finally closes in July. The offices hitherto occupied in the Pemberton Building will be closed when the new quarters are taken over.

AN EARLY START

Breakfast at 7 o'clock on Monday morning, at the Chamber of Commerce, will initiate the big drive for votes for the queen, and will be followed by a house to house canvass of the city and nearby residential districts. Special committees are being arranged by Mr. Webb to cover every street in the city, and the districts are being balanced with a view to development of a spirit of competition between the teams.

McNIVEN WATCHES MINE DISPUTE IN ISLAND COAL CITY

In Nanaimo to Investigate Difficulties Between Miners and Owners

Ministers Scatter to All Parts of Province; Buildings Are Deserted

J. D. McNiven, Deputy Minister of Labor, has gone to Nanaimo to investigate the present dispute between Nanaimo coal miners and operators over mine wages. Mr. McNiven's purpose is to prevent the dispute reaching serious proportions and to assist, if possible, in a settlement.

The Parliament Buildings will be almost deserted by members of the Government during the next few days. Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, and Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, left for the Stewart district in the North last night to investigate the road needs of that rich mining area. They will be accompanied on their tour of the district by H. A. Kerwin, member for Atlin, who is anxious to show the Ministers the requirements of his constituency. The Ministers expect to return here about ten days. Hon. J. D. McNiven, Deputy Minister, will leave here Saturday night for his constituency of Yale to look into minor business there. Attorney-General Manson also plans to go North to Prince Rupert within the next few days. This will leave Premier Oliver and Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, to hold the fort here for a while alone.

NEW RECORD IS MADE AT MUSIC FESTIVAL

Vancouver, June 5.—For the first time in the history of the British Columbia Musical Festival, three candidates in one test reached perfection and were awarded a rating of 100 per cent this forenoon in Wesley Church here. The adjudicator, Dr. James Lyon.

The occasion was the competition for the silver medal donated by F. Jackson in ear test. Three entrants, P. H. Hughes of Victoria, Mrs. Nancy Read and E. Lupton, after listening to a short piece played by Dr. Lyon, successfully set down in every detail the musical notation of what they had heard.

The adjudicator congratulated the winners. After examining the manuscripts of the competitors, Dr. Lyon, on finding two accurate copies, immediately offered a second medal himself, a gesture which he laughingly threatened to countermand a moment afterwards on finding a third perfect transcription.

Two further medals have been therefore commissioned, and will in due course be presented to the winners.

This is the first time contestants have entered this class.

JONES AND MACFARLANE TIE AT MORNING ROUND

Scotsman Missed Three Foot Putt To Annex Title

MacFarlane Slipped on the Eighteenth Green With U.S. Open Crown in His Grasp

Spectacular Golf Being Played; Second Eighteen Holes This Afternoon

Worcester, Mass., June 5.—Willie MacFarlane went into a tie with Bobby Jones, Georgia amateur, when the Tuckahoe, N. Y., Scotsman missed a three-foot putt on the eighteenth hole of their match to decide the open golf championship of the United States here to-day.

The score for the eighteen-hole play-off was 75 apiece. They tied yesterday for national honors with 291 each at the end of seventy-two holes of medal play. Because of the tie they were forced to play eighteen holes more this afternoon.

MacFarlane and Jones started away after 11 o'clock to-day on the eighteen-hole play-off to decide the championship. Each took a four on the par four first hole.

Jones's drive was straight down the fairway. MacFarlane's was five yards longer—and also straight. On his second, Jones was on the green, fifteen feet from the pin. His putt was one foot short and he dropped the next for the par four.

MacFarlane's second, a masher shot, landed in a sand trap to the right of the green. His third brought him out of the green. He was on the green five feet from the pin. He sank the putt likewise for a par four.

TERRIFIC HEAT As the match progressed the same broiling sun that had made the weather almost unendurable for two days—again sent the mercury moving toward ninety. At 11:30 the sun at the Worcester Country Club registered 118.

Jones took a five and MacFarlane a six on the second hole. Par is five. Jones's drive was long and low. The ball was in thick fairway grass, but he took a brassie for a long shot to the rough at the right of the green. His third, a chip shot, missed by two inches and cost him his chance of a birdie, but he was down in par in the next.

MacFarlane's drive was ten yards shorter than the Southern's. A brassie stroke was trapped—twenty yards short of the green. He pitched beyond the green to the rough near a stone wall. His putt missed by two inches and cost him his chance of a birdie, but he was down in par in the next.

The Teams

Bridges, star goals of the Veterans, will be in goal for the locals. Score and eighth hole—Jones 14, MacFarlane 14.

Jones used his spoon and was on the green thirty feet from the pin. He sank the bird for a par four.

MacFarlane also used the spoon, and was beyond the cup by twenty-five feet. He took a bad break when his long putt bounced out of the cup, but sank his next putt.

On the par five fifth Jones took a five and MacFarlane a four.

Score end five holes—Jones 21, MacFarlane 20.

Jones was straight down the fairway with his drive. His iron shot was trapped to the left of the green. He got out onto the green with his niblick.

MacFarlane's drive found the rough to the right. His masher approach fell forty yards short of the pin. Another masher shot brought him fifteen feet from the pin. He sank the fifteen-foot putt.

Jones and MacFarlane took par threes on the sixth hole—Jones 24, MacFarlane 23.

Jones used his iron on the downhill drive and landed in the rough, two yards off the green. He shipped to within four feet of the pin and rolled in a putt for three.

MacFarlane's iron landed him sixty feet from the pin. The putt rolled to within a foot of the cup, and he was down with a par three on the next putt.

Jones shot a par four and MacFarlane a five on the seventh. He was out on the second stroke and landed four feet beyond the pin. His putt overran the cup by a foot, and he was down in four.

MacFarlane's drive stopped on the edge of the trap in back of the green in heavy grass. He got out with an iron and was twelve feet short of the pin. On the downhill putt he rolled a foot away from the cup.

Jones took six on the par four eighth—and MacFarlane five, making the score—Jones 38, MacFarlane 31.

Score end ten holes—Jones 42, MacFarlane 40.

Hornsby Crashing Way to New Mark in Homer Hitting

St. Louis Manager Cracks Out His Fifteenth Circuit Blow and Ties Bob Meusel.

Thirty-nine Pitchers Used in Games Yesterday and Fifteen Homers Hit

New York, June 5.—New batting laurels mark the major leagues to-day. Rogers Hornsby, Cardinal manager, is tied for the season's total home runs with Bob Meusel, of the Yankees, at fifteen.

Hitting carnivals were held on practically every big league diamond yesterday at the expense of thirty-eight pitchers, twenty-three of them in the National League. Fifteen home runs were made.

Five pitchers were used by the Browns in a fruitless effort to stave off an 11-10 defeat at Cleveland. Hendrick smashed a triple with three on the socks and two out in the ninth, giving New York a victory.

Mackmen pounded three Boston pitchers for seventeen hits in Boston to win 12-2. Harris holding the Red Sox to five scattered singles.

The Yankees' Jimmie Cropper, out again as the Senators triumphed 8-3. Joe Judge of Washington made two homers which brought his total for 1925 to seven.

Brooklyn came out on the short end of an 11-9 score at Chicago. The Sox won by 7-1.

St. Louis, June 5.—Manager Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Cardinals went into a tie with Bob Meusel of the New York Yankees for major league home run honors by hitting his fourteenth and fifteenth home run of the season, but the Cardinals lost to the Giants yesterday 11 to 9 in a free hitting game.

The teams were: C.P.R.—W. R. White, D. C. Robertson, W. Wilson, W. Wood, W. Latham, J. Belanger, C. Rose and J. Pickup.

Victoria "B"—W. Latham, D. H. Bryce, G. Blundell, G. Sherwood, W. Harbour, R. H. Braund, A. Renfrew and James Munro.

On the old Victoria green, which was in beautiful condition, the Burnsiders received a severe trimming from the Victoria "A" team, consisting of D. W. Evans, J. Paterson, H. Renwick, H. M. Wright, R. McDonald, R. Tutill, H. Y. Mills and A. B. McNeill.

The green at Duncan has been handicapped in the past by lack of water, but this season a supply is available and better results are hoped for. The members have built a club house and a banner year is expected.

Burnside Ladies' Club, at its annual meeting yesterday, reported a successful first year with a very comfortable balance in the treasury.

On Saturday next the Burnsiders will hold "open green" to visitors in celebration of the first anniversary of the opening of the green. In the evening there will be a game for ladies, also a meeting to discuss better organization.

All bowlers are pleased to see the C.P.R. affiliated with the Provincial association. This will give Victoria another wing in its effort to bring the Burnard Cup home to the Capital City next month.

The indoor baseball games scheduled for to-night will be as follows: Titicums vs. Foul Bay at Foul Bay. Onwegos vs. Priors at Central Park.

Hillcrest vs. Garrison "A" at Work Point. Garrison "B" vs. Y.M.C.A. at Central Park.

Equimatt vs. Navy at Canteen grounds.

The games to-night will include the first half of the indoor games in this league. The second half of the league will commence next Friday.

Three more goals were chalked up to the Sons' credit in the final period. Taylor scoring two and Gilson the other.

Philip Segalera refereed and the teams were as follows: Sidney—Gilman, F. Hill, G. Bowcock, J. Crossley, David A. Mann, H. Nunn, Anderson, St. Louis, Ward, Al Crossley, R. Howcock, Lind and Reid.

MAKING A GREAT BID FOR U.S. OPEN GOLF TITLE

Once again Bobby Jones is knocking at the door of the American open golf championship. He won the title two years ago and last year he won the American amateur title. At the end of seventy-two holes of medal play yesterday, Bobby was tied with Willie MacFarlane, of New York. This morning they played off over eighteen holes but at the end were tied with seventy-five strokes apiece and are playing off this afternoon in an effort to settle the title. Jones, although only twenty-three years of age, is regarded as one of the greatest golfers in the world to-day.

Difficult To Pick Winner of Bout In New York To-night

General Opinion is That Gibbons and Tunney Will Battle Full Distance

Tunney Said to Have Best Chance of Winning by Knockout

New York, June 5.—Two of the leaders in the heavyweight ranks who have been tugging at the mantle of Jack Dempsey will square off to-night at the Polo Grounds in a fifteen-round bout to a decision. They are Gene Tunney, of New York, and Tom Gibbons, of St. Paul, both clever boxers with punching power sufficient to dispose of many a likely aspirant.

It will be a meeting of two veterans of the Great War, two exponents of the same fighting style and two clean-cut warriors whose records place them on a footing so even that opinion is divided as to the outcome. Two weeks from to-night a second pair of heavyweights contender will be seen by a New York audience.

MANUFACTURERS ASK FOR HIGHER TARIFF

Resolution Adopted at Dominion Association's Annual Meeting in Halifax

Other Resolutions Deal With Depreciated Currencies and Preferential Duties

Hamilton, Ont., June 5.—At an extra business session held yesterday afternoon, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, holding its annual meeting here, dealt with the three tariff resolutions submitted by the committee on nominations and resolutions.

The resolutions calling for the adjustment of the British preferential tariff so as to equalize the difference in wages and cost of production in Canada and the United Kingdom, and for enactment of regulations to safeguard Canadian factories and their employees until depreciated currencies returned to normal, were adopted without change.

Whereas a sound and stable fiscal policy is absolutely necessary for the development of Canada and the welfare of the entire population; and whereas the provision of an adequate tariff for the safeguarding of agriculture, mining, fishing, lumbering, manufacturing and all other forms of Canadian production should be the cornerstone of Canada's fiscal system; therefore be it resolved that the Canadian Manufacturers' Association record its opinion that the Canadian customs tariff should be immediately and substantially increased on finished products where necessary, and that when higher rates of duty have been put into effect, Canada should endeavor to increase the export trade by making preferential tariff arrangements with other countries, particularly countries of the British Empire.

Officers Elected
J. H. Fortier of Quebec City yesterday was elected president of the association for the ensuing year.

Thomas Roden, president of Roden Brothers, Toronto, was re-elected honorary treasurer.

E. W. Beatty spoke

E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, addressed the members at the banquet last night, which brought the convention to a close.

Speaking with the tariff question, he said: "The tariff should not be the subject of academic debate. It is a question which must be determined by its consequences on the commercial and industrial life of the whole country. A tariff necessary and not abused would be accepted by most Canadians if they found resultant prosperity to the country the inevitable consequence, and the duty, and perhaps the first duty of the Canadian manufacturers is to analyze and expose the extent of the burden created by it and the benefits secured therefrom.

FROM JUNGLE TO ZOO

Almost weekly wild animals are unloaded at New York for the various zoos in America. Here are three newcomers, fresh from their African jungle home. At the left, a laughing hyena; center, a baboon, called Backie, meaning in Arabic "friendly," who has already learned to strut his stuff; and right, Hassan, a young lion cub, just old enough to wonder what it's all about.

Turning to railway problems and economic conditions, Mr. Beatty said: "There is to my mind no question that the Canadian Pacific has been the great dynamic spirit in Canadian life for the last forty years. When leadership was demanded it preached and practiced the gospel of faith in the West, opening up new markets, advertising Canada abroad for tourists and settlers, and all in the face of constant criticism, disparagement and opposition. In the battle for success it is the spirit that counts much more than material success, and for bravery and courage and spirit, the men who founded and established the Canadian Pacific stand supreme.

FAITH IN CANADA

As an aftermath of the war we have been going through a period of commercial depression, but not more severe than the period of the nineties. Owing to the depression one hears of people losing hope and of provinces threatening to secede. I am told such opinions have been voted by business men, Canadians by birth, faith, but there is one institution in Canada which has not lost confidence, which still has faith in the future of this Dominion, and still

A Story Without Words

PREHISTORIC ART OF MEXICO LIKENED TO THAT OF EGYPT

Tepec, Nayarit, Mexico, June 5.—E. O. Matthews, a citizen of the United States, versed in Mexican archaeology, says some of his recent discoveries of prehistoric relics in Western Mexico show striking similarity to the ancient art of Egypt.

Mr. Matthews points out that while much data concerning the Toltecs and their successors, the Aztecs, has been gleaned from central and eastern Mexico, little has been learned regarding the history of those who dwell on the western shores. He is giving his attention to supplying more information of regions archaeologically uncharted, and has uncovered weapons, articles of domestic utility and adornment and grotesque images of religious nature.

A recent press dispatch from Mexico City told of a party of explorers in Vera Cruz state that found, hidden in a cave near Orizaba, a large collection of Aztec idols. These images still were being worshipped by Indians of that remote region, who continued to follow ceremonies supposed to have disappeared more than 400 years ago. It was reported that after a battle with the Indians the tourists captured many of the priceless relics. The University of Orizaba has organized an expedition to explore the locality more thoroughly.

HE KEPT FAITH
Commenting on this find of idols, Mr. Matthews declared the use of force and recalled an experience he had a few years ago. Near Tepeco he too found a cave filled with idols and other objects of great antiquity. The Indians, holding confidence in him, allowed him to select several of the art treasures on his promise that he would not reveal the hiding place. He chose three in all, and a large earthenware bath-tub. They were forwarded to the Metropolitan Museum in New York, where they are on exhibition. He kept faith with the Tepeco Indians, and they have not been molested.

Rail Earnings Still Decreasing

Montreal, June 5.—The gross earnings of the Canadian National Railways for the ten-day period ending May 31, 1925, were $5,615,197, or $311,357 under the corresponding period of 1924.

The gross earnings from January 1 to May 31, 1925, were $57,339,053, or $7,846,410 under the corresponding period last year.

CARBON MONOXIDE KILLED THOUSANDS

Tokio, June 5.—The deaths of 35,000 persons at the army clothing depot here in the earthquake and fire of 1923, were caused by poison gas, according to a report of the great seismic visitation now in the hands of the Seismic Disaster Prevention Commission.

The report is an aggregation of papers by these investigators covering 1,500 quarto pages. The commission is of the opinion that a great many of the earthquake victims, who were believed to have been burned to death, in reality were killed by carbon monoxide gas and escaped the horror of being roasted alive. The gas, it was explained, is generated at a heat of 550 degrees.

TIMES CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

All the words in this puzzle are of average size, but you'll not find them of average ease. There are a few that will make the most expert solver turn to the dictionary for help.

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

Every number in the form represents the beginning of a word, reading either horizontally or vertically. If there is a black square to the left of the number, the word is horizontal; if above it, the word is vertical. The same number may be used for both a horizontal and a vertical word. The definitions for the crossword words to fill the form are found below, with numbers corresponding to those on the form. Run through the definitions till you find one that you recognize, and put it in its proper place on the form, one letter for each white square. This will furnish several cross-clues to the words linking with it at right angles. Continue in this manner till the form is completely filled. If you have solved the puzzle correctly it should read both horizontally and vertically with words corresponding to the definitions. The correct solution of to-day's puzzle will be printed in the next issue of The Times.

"The Steadfast Heart"

By Clarence Budington Kelland

Angus fought as he had challenged, phlegmatically, determinedly, one might almost say stolidly as a man goes about the unbecoming task of shingling a roof—and he won. Young Crane, presently, the worse by bruises and an eye which would have his story to tell, was crying the tears of the defeated.

Angus stood upon Angus Burke's shoulder, and Alvin Trueman, who had emerged from the post office in time to be spectator of the complete episode, turned the boy about sharply. "That's enough," said Trueman kindly. "Now shake hands and be friends."

Angus stood without movement, uncertain, unequipped to meet this demand. Deep within him he felt dimly that it was not for him to take the initiative. Young Crane glared through his teeth, and pushed his ashamed way through the little knot of spectators who had gathered from nowhere to watch the scrimmage. Angus stood uncertain; then, when Trueman's hand dropped from his shoulder, he turned away from it all as from a bit of work completed, and started on his way to the post office. Lydia Canfield's voice stopped him, an excited, musical chirrup. "You did stand up for yourself," she said, and seemed to take a special pride in the thing as of her own doing. "If you hadn't been in, and if it wasn't for other things that, like anybody knows, make you kind of low down and beneath anybody's notice, you hadn't been in to play with why, I guess maybe I'd like you." With which pronouncement, she skipped off light-heartedly, woman-like unaware or careless of the trouble she had caused.

Henry G. Woodhouse stood alone at the apex of Rainbow's social pyramid. Not even Jethro Canfield occu-which agitate sands far distant from the spot from which it was picked. Malcolm Crane had, for years, been local advisor to Henry G. Woodhouse in legal matters, but latterly, more through a kindly interest in the young man than from any more selfish motive, Henry G. had thrown certain small matters to the newcomer, Craig Browning—until, being pleased with the young man and his work, his patronage increased until he stood almost on an even footing with the older lawyer. It was a pebble whose wisening ripples were destined to trouble the sands of Angus Burke.

Lawyer Crane, as Rainbow called him, as it named other men accorded to their callings—such as Depot Seaman and Druggist Tombs, and the like—considered this encroachment upon his practice a sufficient ground for bitterness against Craig Browning; but as a bond of friendship grew up between the young attorney and the banker, Crane fanned his jealousy with apprehension, for he had reason to look forward to the death of Henry G. Woodhouse as a source of enrichment to himself. He was not cousin to Mrs. Henry G. Woodhouse, deceased. Was he not sole relative by blood or marriage remaining, since the not-to-be-doubted death of Kate Woodhouse?

Waiting for dead men's shoes is an occupation which pinches the soul.

In the week succeeding Angus Burke's memorable thrashing of young Crane, Browning was summoned to the bank for conference. The matter being completed and the papers signed, Henry G. leaned back in his chair and looked speculatively at the young man, mechanically rubbing the shaven avenue between his side-whiskers as he spoke.

"How is Dave Wilkins making out with that boy?" he asked.

"Angus is moving ahead—stepping up toward the mental average. When you think what he was when Dave took hold of him, his progress has been startling."

"Is he difficult to control?"

Browning's surprise at this was manifest on his face. "It's the other way around," he said. "It's pathetic—the doglike way he follows Wilkins around, and the delight he shows when Dave makes a request of him. He worships Dave."

"He has vicious outbreaks of temper," Mr. Woodhouse stated this as an accepted fact.

"Mr. Woodhouse, you have been misinformed. I don't believe the boy has a temper. Any such thing seems to have been destroyed in him. He was completely cowed, numbed when he came to us. The shock of that night—"

"Yes, yes. . . . But twice he has attacked other boys—once a whole group, and the other day he beat young Malcolm Crane unmercifully."

It was apparent to Browning who Henry G.'s informant had been. In deed, it was a matter of common knowledge that Crane had come up and down in public threatening directions against Angus, and Wilkins had been alarmed lest the man's vindictiveness should take the form of some drastic action within the scope of his authority as prosecuting attorney.

"Let me give you a version of those fights that differs from those you have heard," said Browning, and convincingly he related the story of the day Angus was beset by the crowd of boys, yelling "Murderer," and "Jailbird," and of Angus's terror which all but kept him a prisoner in the printing office save when he went on the streets accompanied. "As for this last affair—it marks the greatest step ahead that Angus has made. It marks the awakening in the boy of an understanding that he owes a duty to himself—that there is such an abstraction as self-respect. Young Crane has been, from the beginning, a leader of the young rascals who have tormented Angus. It was as if he carried some special animus. . . . Browning paused to let this sink in. He could not, or felt he could not, make a direct charge against his rival. "Always before Angus has run terrified, but this time he stood, just walked up to Crane and kept repeating as if it were a lesson, 'I've got to stand up for myself. He wasn't angry—no loss of temper—just grave—and very resolute.' It seemed a rather fine thing to me."

Rome, June 4.—A ruling king, a former empress and more than a score princess and princesses of royal and noble houses of Europe have been called as witnesses before the praetor of Viareggio in a lawsuit brought by fourteen pensioned employees of the late Duke Robert of Parma.

Now the pensioners, most of them too old to work, are appealing to the praetor to force the heirs to pay arrears.

Among the witnesses who have been called are King Boris of Bulgaria; former empress Elizabeth of Austria; the brothers of the Bulgarian

Under Judge Lampman Rose Association Will Make Notable Display

Preparations for the second annual Rose Show under the auspices of the Oak Bay Amateur Rose Growers' Association are going forward rapidly, and probably one of the best exhibitions ever staged in this city will be opened at the Crystal Gardens June 29. The Crystal Gardens will make a magnificent background for the thirty odd classes of roses to be shown, as well as being an ideal site for the welfare of the exhibits themselves.

Mrs. W. C. Nichol, wife of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, is the patroness of the association, while Lady Barnard, Mrs. R. P. Hutchart, Mrs. H. R. Beaven and Mrs. Henry Croft are vice-patronesses.

COMFORT AND HEALTH ARE SAFEGUARDED AT CRYSTAL GARDEN POOL

Swimming Basin Requires Much Service Equipment; Water Always Circulating

Important construction details of the Crystal Garden are the sanitary and heating arrangements, many unique problems being encountered. The swimming pool is 150 feet long and forty feet wide, the depth varying from three to nine feet, and will contain 232,500 gallons of salt water, pumped from the sea at Dallas Road.

SEVENTY-TWO DEGREES

After passing through two large filters with a capacity of 400 gallons per minute the water is pumped through a large steam water heater, which will raise the temperature of the water to 72 degrees, at which the pool will be kept Summer and Winter.

CIRCULATION SYSTEM

Steam is supplied from the Empress Hotel power house, delivered at 100 pounds pressure, and passes through a pressure reducing valve to the heaters, of which there are three. The large salt water heater will use 12,000 pounds of steam per hour. The private salt water baths use 5,000 pounds of steam per hour, and the fresh-water heater will use 2,500 pounds per hour.

Sanitation Scheme

Lavatory accommodation of the most modern type is provided in each of the dressing-rooms at both sides of the main entrance and off the gymnasium. Drinking fountains of the latest sanitary type are provided, two at each end of the swimming different classes, on space 6 ft. by 4 ft.

ATTEMPT TO BALANCE BUDGET OF FRANCE

Cabinet Crisis Postponed as Result of Concessions by Finance Minister

Paris, June 5.—A cabinet crisis apparently threatened to-day seemed postponed when Finance Minister Caillaux partially surrendered to the Socialists upon his financial programme. The crisis became a delicate possibility this morning when M. Caillaux stood his ground in the "Peace Conference" with a delegation of the Left Bloc, called by Premier Poincaré in the hope of harmonizing opposition to Caillaux's financial programme.

CONCESSIONS MADE

The impasse was maintained during the greater part of a three-hour session, but finally when Loucheur took the floor the Finance Minister weakened somewhat and compromised. M. Caillaux insisted that the balancing of the budget came first, while Loucheur and the Socialists maintained that financial reforms must precede a budget balance.

TO BALANCE BUDGET

Before Loucheur, after hearing the arguments of M. Loucheur, agreed to attempt to balance the budget and to rehabilitate the French finances simultaneously. This "rehabilitation," although described in general terms, was taken to mean the negotiation of various loans leading to the refunding of the internal debt and the stabilization of the franc.

FRANC IS WEAKER

London, June 5.—The French franc weakened on the foreign exchange market here this morning, and reached 100 francs 5 centimes to the pound sterling. 'Y' CAMP TO SOON START ACTIVITIES AT BEAVER LAKE

Annual Camp Will be Held From July 6 to 27; Fine Programme Arranged

Entertainment Will Consist of Swimming, Life-Saving, Track Events, Etc.

With the approach of school holidays scores of boys are planning how to spend vacation. The main thought of nearly every lad will be to get out of doors, to have a change from the usual routine of city life. Most boys look forward to camps. Everyone longs to get back to nature, to wear old clothes and ramble in the open, and later return to their routine duties with renewed vision and enthusiasm.

WELL CARED FOR

The purpose of the camp is primarily to provide a vacation for boys, free from the artificial life of the city, where parents may send their boys with the assurance that they will be well cared for. It provides the variety of experience which every normal boy enjoys, together with social contacts needed in developing a manly Christian character.

AQUATICS

Swimming, life-saving, rowing, canoeing, baseball, volleyball, quoits, track and field events, hikes, etc., are on the athletic programme, while wood craft, camp craft, first aid, etc., supply the proper mental vitamins. The social activity of the camp centres around the evening "camp fire" with its cheery sing-songs, story telling, camp prayer and staid night Bible study, devotional periods, Sunday services and "helping" addresses round out the programme and give the fourth side to boy life.

CAREFUL SUPERVISION

Beaver Lake camp has a record for careful supervision, leading and swimming activities being carried on at regular scheduled hours and under the strictest surveillance.

This man, Alden L. Putnam, inventor of the balloon tire, may be the centre of an extensive patent litigation in the next few months. He hurried to Lansing, Mich., from the west last week to assist the Motor Wheel Corp. in defence of the right to collect royalties for the invention.

Another feature in favor of the camp is the moderately placed fees, making the camp within reach of all. Already many boys have signified their intention to be there this Summer. All wishing to go should send in their applications to the camp director at the Y.M.C.A. as soon as possible to facilitate the preparations for opening.
