THE DEEDS OF ABOLITION

The persons who are called a Vigilance Committee of the Abolitionists of Albany, have published a full report of their doings in relation to the Slave during the past year. They stated that they have aided about three hundred and fifty runaway persons since the operation of the fugitive slave law, and estimate that about one hundred and fifty were men—one hundred and fifty women and children. Most of them came from Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia, and nearly or quite a hundred from Washington and Georgetown. These fugitives have come chiefly in Canada, and the sum of five hundred dollars have been expended for their board, passage and other expenses.—Evening Post.

We have only to say of it the "Vigilance Committee" of the Abolitionists have made the power conferred on them by the Fugitive Slave Law, a dead letter in the State of New York, and of the best Slaves (negroes under the Constitution of the United States) that have ever been produced for a slave market. Every day or every week, a slave whose market can identify him on one of the runways that reveal from the South, and carry off a slave whose market can identify him on one of the runways that reveal from the South, and carry off a slave whose market can identify him on one of the runways that reveal from the South, and carry off
