WHO'S HOOSIER

WHO'S HOOSIER

MAC LEAN, REV. DR. THOMAS W.— Chaplain of Wisconsin National Guard for three years and chaplain of Michigan National Guard for ten years. Found the work light and easy. Is a Knight Templar, a Shriner, an Elk, and a member of St. George's Society. Writes just as plainly when his eyes are closed as when they are open. Was born in England, but has lived in Indiana for forty years, and, therefore, deserves no blame.

MAHER, GEORGE WASHINGTON — Born Mill Creek, W. Va., December 25, 1864. Educated Indiana public schools; studied architecture, beginning 1878, under the Chicago architects, August Bauer and Henry W. Hill; completed studies in J. L. Silsbee's office; then studied in Europe. Began practice of architecture, 1888; has developed a specialty in residence and monumental work, and in shaping, architecturally, such suburbs as North Edgewater and Kenilworth, including a unique landscape effect at the entrance of the latter town.

WHO'S HOOSIER

MAHIN, JOHN — Born at Noblesville in 1833. Learned the printing business in Iowa, and until 1893 was part owner and all editor of the Muscatine Journal. Served in Iowa legislature and in general conferences of the M. E. church. Constantly yearning for Hoosierdom, he has got back as far as Evanston, Ill., and has further relieved his exile by joining this Society.

MAHIN, JOHN LEE — Born in 1869, son of John Mahin, native of Noblesville. Of a marked literary bent, manifested by always signing his name in full. Located in Chicago in 1891, organized Mahin Advertising Co. in 1896, and is its president. Author of a volume of Lectures on Advertising. Has delivered lectures on advertising at Northwestern University, Universities of Chicago, Illinois and Michigan. Experience in advertising developed his talent as a fisherman; only moose-hunting rival of Cy Warman.

MURDOCK, SAMUEL T. — Born in 1868 at Lafayette; graduated Notre Dame, 1886. Leads a quiet life, amusing himself by running gas companies, electric companies, trolley lines, banks and assisting to direct the Monon. Also has a few square miles of Hoosier corn land.

WHO'S HOOSIER

MANLEY, FRANK P.— Born in Minnesota and attended college in Indiana, and thus fostered an ambition, as he so feelingly says, to pass his days in the garden-spot of the footstool. A few years' residence in Chicago intensified this desire, and he went to Indianapolis and became vice-president of the Indianapolis Life Insurance Co. Is willing to debate affirmatively: "Resolved: That a Man Not Born in Indiana but Choosing to Live There is a Durn Sight Better Hoosier than a Man Born There and Living Somewhere Else."

McMILLAN, A. F.— Born at Mishawaka, 1854, coincidentally with his brother "Jim." At the age of 14 began railroading and has since been on the waiting list for a railway presidency. Worked through telegraph, freight, mechanical and passenger departments and is now chief clerk of the passenger traffic department, New York Central Lines; was secretary of the Chicago Railroad Association for ten years. Is a poet, but wishing to give the others a chance, has never published his gems of thought.

MERGENTHEIM, MORTON ADOLPH.— Born at Fort Wayne, July 1, 1887. A.B. University of Chicago, 1899; LL.B., Northwestern University, 1903. Professor of International Law at John

WHO'S HOOSIER

Marshall Law School in 1906; assistant City Attorney of Chicago in 1911. Married and glad of it.

MILLER, RICHARD O.—Born at Richmond. Graduated Wabash College. Began business in Cincinnati and is now manager western department Dwinell-Wright Co., importers of spices and coffee, in Chicago. Lives in Evanston.

MIX, MELVILLE W.—Born in Illinois, 1865. In 1886 joined the Dodge Manufacturing Co., at Mishawaka, and as a result the name of the town may some day be changed to Mixawaka. Was made president and general manager of the company in 1894. This company makes power transmission machinery. He is also president of the National Veneer Products Co., which makes trunks which drive baggage smashers insane. Also president of a trust and savings bank; also president of the Mishawaka Improvement Corporation and other enterprises. Has been written up by Elbert Hubbard, who says: "There is no hell hereafter for Mix. But if there chances to be I'll wager he'll build a Boiler over it, hitch up some Dodge transmission, use the generated power to run a Sight-Seeing Trolley around the edge of the Crater, and sell Tickets to New Arrivals."

WHO'S HOOSIER

MACK, WARDE L.—Born five miles from Indiana line in Michigan, 1866. Printer's devil and other literary pursuits, including express business, in early life. Lived in Hammond, then South Bend. Now general agent for N. W. Mutual Life at South Bend. Recreation: Being uncle to Virgil S. Reiter.

MURPHY, HENRY CONSTANT — Born in Illinois, 1873. Educated Notre Dame and University of Chicago. Once glee club warbler. Owns Evansville Courier and is a prominent citizen, having lifted the Courier from a cordwood and potato subscription rate to a cash basis.

MANNY, WILLIAM B.—Born at St. Joseph, Mich., while there on a visit in 1862. Lived in Michigan City the past forty years. Dealer in sand. Sells the Hoosier Slide variety, excellent for the gear box. Mason, Elk, K. P. and Ben-Hur. Amusements: Coaling boats, selling real estate and pounding sand. Related to Baptist church by marriage.

McGRAIN, PRESTON — In 1892 he turned his back upon Corydon, Harrison County, Ind., where he was born in 1874, and started for Chicago. He continues to imagine that Chicago needs him.

WHO'S HOOSIER

WHO'S HOOSIER

WYMAN, GEORGE — Born on a farm in Ohio. Went to school in Painesville, O., where he learned to clerk in a dry goods store. Journeyed from Painesville to South Bend because he could do so without changing cars, and has been doing a profitable business ever since. Likes horses, baseball and good weather.

ZEISEL, H. A. — Got his first bath at Elkhart. Also his first job, which was that of office boy at the Lake Shore telegraph office. Has steadily risen in the railway business and is now superintendent of the C. I. & S. Wonders why any one who is not a Hoosier has the nerve to become great.
