LITTLE BY LITTLE.

One step and then another,
And the longest walk is ended;
One stitch and then another,
And the largest rent is mended;
One brick upon another,
And the highest wall is made,
One flake upon another,
And the deepest snow is laid.

So the little coral workers,
By their slow but constant motion,
Have built those pretty islands
In the distant dark blue ocean;
And the noblest undertakings
Man's wisdom hath conceived,
By oft repeated efforts
Have been patiently achieved.

Advice to Young Men.

A lady who signs herself "A Martyr to Late Hours," offers the following sensible suggestion to young men:

Dear gentlemen between the ages of "eighteen and forty-five," listen to a few gratuitous remarks. When you make a social call of an evening, on a young lady, go away at a reasonable hour. Say you come at eight o'clock, an hour and a half is certainly as long as the most fascinating of you in conversation can, or rather ought, to desire to use its charms. Two hours, indeed, can be very pleasantly spent, with music, chess or other games, to lead variety; but, kind sirs, by no means stay longer. Make shorter calls, and come oftener. A girl—that is a sensible, true-hearted girl—will enjoy it better, and really value your acquaintance more. Just conceive the agony of a girl who, well knowing the feeling of father and mother upon the subject, hears the clock strike ten, and yet must sit on the edge of her chair, in mortal terror lest papa should put his oft-repeated threat in execution—that of coming down and inviting the gentleman to breakfast. And we girls understand it all by experience, and know what it is to dread the prognostic of displeasure. In such cases a sigh of relief generally accompanies the closing of the door behind the gallant, and one don't get over the feeling of trouble till safe in the arms of Morpheus. Even then sometimes the dreams are troubled with some phantom of an angry father—and distressed (for all parties) mother; and all because a young man will make a longer call than he ought to. Now, young gentlemen friends, I'll tell you what we girls will do. For an hour and a half we will be most irresistibly charming and fascinating; then, beware! monosyllabic responses will be all you need expect. And if, when the limits shall have been passed, a startling query shall be heard coming down stairs: "Isn't it time to close up?" you must consider it a righteous punishment, and taking your hat, meekly depart—sadder, and it is to be hoped, a wiser man. Do not get angry; but the next time you come be careful to keep within just bounds. We want to rise early these pleasant mornings, and improve the "shining hours;" but when forced to be up at such unseasonable hours at night, exhausted nature will speak, and as a natural consequence, with the utmost speed in dressing, we can barely get down to breakfast in time to escape a reprimand from papa, who don't believe in beaux—as though he never was young—and a mild reproving glance from mamma, who understands a little better a poor daughter's feelings, but must still disapprove outwardly to keep up appearances. And now, young men, think about these things and don't—for pity's sake, don't throw down your paper with a "pahaw!" but remember the safe side of ten.

MOUNT DAVIDSON.—Mount Davidson is in such close proximity to Virginia City that the sun now hides himself behind the summit soon after three o'clock P. M. As soon as this occurs a very perceptible change is felt in the atmosphere, and even on the bright warm days we have had for the last week or two overcoats and fires are immediately in demand. In the summer time the shade of the mountain was always agreeable.—As soon as the rays of the sun were out off the pleasantest part of the day would begin, as on the sea coast where the influence of the sea breeze is felt. But now things are reversed, and what way a relief then, now makes the dark days of winter still more gloomy and disagreeable.—Virginia Union.

VOTING UNDER TRYING CIRCUMSTANCES.—A letter from a gentleman engaged in taking the vote of the Missouri soldiers at Chattanooga, on last election day, says the voting was done under the fire of the enemy's guns. As the men gathered together and deposited their ballots the rebel shells were exploding all about him.

A FINE buffalo is on exhibition at San Francisco. The animal has been raised from a small calf at Miller's ranch, San Joaquin valley, and is very tame, allowing itself to be handled by those who have it in charge.

A REBEL CORRESPONDENT'S SKETCHES OF REBEL GENERALS.

—We clip the following from the Union:
To-day I met, en route to Lookout Mountain Generals Longstreet, Breckinridge, Hardee, and Howell Cobb. The Virginian gives one, at first glance, the idea of a stout, honest, weather-beaten old sea captain in "regimentals;" but as you look a second time and possibly catch his eye, there is something in it, and the large, full face, the broad, thoughtful brow and fine mouth, which tells of dauntless resolution, prompt action, giant energies, self-possession, and "fires concealed." The time must have been, or physiognomy is a traitor, when Longstreet was a humorous man, fond of a joke and a party of social friends; but you can remark that the fun-loving wrinkles around his eyes are now marked with care, and that his home nature has gone into mourning for the war. I have seen him at his headquarters, on the march, and in the field; but he always wears the same cool, unruffled expression, which nothing disturbs. In battle he is watchful, wary, and energetic; never astonished at anything, and wonderfully ready with expedients to meet every crisis. In camp, alas, his head is as full of maps as a chimney corner is full of cobwebs. If he ever dies suddenly it will certainly be from a congestion of troops and topography. In conversation he is affable, pointed, and brief—says a great deal in a few words, and leaves his poor officers too often to ponder over his tersely uttered sentences, until they run half crazy between the conclusions left for them to select. Such is "Uncle Peter," the idle of his men, and the "best fighter" in the Confederacy.

Hardee is another of your plain, unassuming, domestic men, who takes things coolly until aroused, and then becomes a perfect lion. There is not a warmer or more genial nature in the army. The humblest private may approach him "without fear and trembling," and be assured of a ready ear and prompt redress for any wrong. He has a frank, open face, a fine blue eye, and is just gray-haired and bearded enough to make one voluntarily venerate his many years of usefulness and experience.

Breckinridge is a model of manly beauty, knightly bearing, and noble dignity—tall, strongly knit in bone and sinew, with a graceful carriage, an open, unreserved expression of countenance, written all over mind and courage; he reminds one, as he rides along in his Kentucky hunting suit, of some beau chevalier belonging to another era—a hero who has accidentally stepped out of one of Sir Walter Scott's poems to lend a helping hand to the young Confederacy.

As to Howell Cobb—well, the General is almost indescribable. But I venture the assertion that there is not a man in the service who combines more mind and matter in one personal corporeity than does the great Georgian. Possessing one of the first intellects in the South, as his long career in her service demonstrates, he unites with it a physique well adapted to sustain every mental and bodily test which his present position as Major General of the Georgia State troops may require. Arithmetically speaking, compared with your obedient servant, he is a "whole number" to my "vulgar fraction." One valuable peculiarity he possesses to excess, namely, strong, hard, stubborn common sense, and this, combined with a mind well stocked with "learned lore," a retentive memory and ready expression, make him at once an entertaining and instructive companion. Promptness, prudence, alertness, and fine administrative ability are his characteristics as a commander.—Cor. Atlanta Ap.

ONE of the keepers of the Cologne Zoological Gardens, fancying lately that he had obtained complete mastery over the bears, invited a number of acquaintances to see him enter the bear pit and take his breakfast along with its occupants. He began his performance by advancing towards a bear, commanding it to come and take a piece of bread which he held between his teeth. The bread happened to fall on the ground, and when the keeper attempted to prevent the bear from picking it up, the animal sprang forward, seized him by the neck, and strangled him in a moment.—Before the body could be drawn from the pit it was found necessary to fire several shots at the bear.

SUGAR AND TOBACCO.—"Are sugar and tobacco injurious to the teeth?" This question was discussed at the "Congress of German Surgeon Dentists," which met recently at Frankfort.—The Congress decided the question in the negative in both instances, when the articles are taken in a pure state, and not in immoderate quantities.

COLUMBIA COUNTY, Ohio, has a wool crop this year of 650,000 pounds, about half of which has been sold at seventy-five cents per pound.

WOMEN TURNED HIGHWAY ROBBERS

—What do you think of women turned to "the road?" In other words, what's your opinion of female Jack Sheppards—of highway-women, not men? Four women, last Saturday night, turned out on an enterprise of this kind, but the first customer they stopped and told to "stand and deliver," was a stalwart fellow, who knocked two of them prostrate in a second, when the others took to flight. The highway women, a little daunted at this rebuff, then concluded to "try it on" with one of their own sex, and encountering such a person, threw her down, took her money, and then carried off nearly all the clothes on her back, as they knew exactly how to unfasten them. As they ran off they waked up a policeman, who started in pursuit. He caught one, and through her means he soon possessed himself of her companions. They were all sent to prison. Don't this read very like a romance? Yet, here it happened, A. D. 1863, in the streets of New York. "Truth is strange—stranger than fiction," says the proverb.—N. Y. Corres.

NO CHILDREN.—We talk of Adam and Eve, says an exchange, as having been before the fall in a very happy condition; but one thing they missed—they never were children! Adam never played "hokey;" he never drove a tandem of boys with a string; he never skated on a pond, or played ball, or rode down hill on a hand sled. And Eve never made a play house; she never took tea with another little girl from a tea-table set out with the tea-things; she never rolled a hoop, or jumped the roop, or pieced a baby quilt, or dressed a doll.—They never played blind man's bluff, or pussy wants a corner, or hurly-burly, or any of the games with which childhood disports itself. How blank their age must have been within! no memories of early youth came swelling up their hearts; no visions of childhood floating back from the long past; no mother's voice chanting a lullaby to the ear of infancy in the still hour of night; no father's words of kindness speaking from the church yard where he sleeps. Adam and Eve, and they alone, of all the countless millions of men and women that have ever lived had no childhood.

JEFFERSON'S DESCENDANTS.—Hon. Henry S. Randall, of Cortland Village, New York, the author of a "Life of Jefferson," writing to a friend, says:

Alas! how his descendants are divided in this war! All his grandsons are with the South. George Wythe Randolph, late Confederate Secretary of War, is one of these—misled on this question, but a noble man. So is his elder brother, Thomas J. Randolph. Dr. Ben Randolph I never met. All his grand-daughters but one (she is a resident of New York) are firmly for the Union, and so are their husbands, where they are married. Two of them have sons in our armies, who are liable any day to meet their kinsmen in battle. N. P. Triest, who married Virginia Randolph, is a devoted Union man. He has a daughter married to a Confederate. She stands up resolutely for the Union, and would if the scaffold were before her. But I forgot these details do not interest you as they do me.—Ohio State Journal.

A DROLL CASE.—The Bucyrus (Ohio) Journal gives an account of an odd case in that neighborhood. An elderly man intending to marry a second time, selected the daughter of a good-looking widow. At the same time his son fell in love with the widow. Explanations followed, and the father married the daughter, and the son the mother. The matches did not prosper—"Crabbed age and youth" could not live together. The remedy was obvious and easy, and was obtained—a brace of divorces, the courtship done over again, and a new matrimonial distribution upon a more equable principle than the old one.

At the stable of N. J. Toll, on K st., above Sixth, is a horse which formerly belonged to Gen. Beauregard, and was ridden by him on the first day of the battle of Shiloh. He was badly wounded on the neck by a shell, the mark of which can yet be plainly seen. He was presented to the General by a firm in South Carolina, and valued at $600. Although not fast, he trots his mile in three minutes and a half.

THE COMMERCE OF THE WORLD.—It is stated that the commerce of the world required 3,600,000 able-bodied men to be constantly traversing the sea. The amount of property annually moved on the water is from fifteen hundred to two thousand millions of dollars; and the amount lost by the casualties of the sea average twenty-five millions of dollars.

PAINTICE ON JIM LANE.—The editor of the Louisville Journal says, "General Jim Lane talks about his platform. Probably beneath the galleons his last platform will be erected, and he will not be liable to stick to it long."

THE FENIAN BROTHERHOOD.

—Paris correspondence dated 5th November of the London Army and Navy Gazette says:
An article in a number of the Constitutionnel of last week gave an account of the Fenian Society, taken from Col. Ferri-Pisani's letters on America. The Colonel had accompanied Prince Napoleon as aid-de-camp, and before he had reached home his first epistles to his countrymen were being published. The Constitutionnel looks on the Fenian Society as a serious menace to England, showing that 50,000 Irishmen are only waiting for an European war to break out to wrest Ireland from the British Crown. A delegate of the Society had a good deal of conversation with some of the Prince's staff, especially with an officer called Ragon. The delegate thought the name of Ragon had a Celtic smack about it, and he was right. However, Ragon was a Frenchman, and knew no more than most of his countrymen of Irish grievances. The Fenian told him that everything was ready—men, money, and arms—and when a propitious moment arrived the expedition would set sail. The Fenian, of course, wished to enlist Ragon in the great and holy cause, probably in the clothing department.

JARRING STORIES.

—The Alta has the following yarns relative to earthquakes:
We confess to our admiration for a forcible style of expression, but cannot repress our contempt for anything which partakes of the character of exaggeration. Our readers can therefore divine our feelings when we were listening to the following dialogue on the earthquake question:

BROWN. That was what I call a high old shock. Did you ever feel a heavier one?

JONES. Heavier one? Heaven help your innocence? Why, when I lived in Lima the people were so accustomed to having their houses shaken down, that they thought it was unhealthy to live in one more than three months, and if the earthquake did not finish it by that time, they made it a rule to blow it up with gunpowder and build a new one. If twenty-four hours passed without an earthquake, the only way they could quiet their nerves so as to get asleep was to go and take a knock-down shock from a galvanic battery.

A MATRIMONIAL PUZZLE.—A California adventurer was recently lamenting to another his folly of leaving the comforts of a home, with a kind wife and two beautiful daughters. The other, after listening in silence, replied:

"My case is much worse than yours; for I have a wife and six children at home, and never saw one of them."
"How can that be?" said the first speaker. "Were you ever blind?"

"No, sir."
"Then pray what can you mean by saying that you have a wife and six children and yet have never seen one of them?"

"Why, simply that one of them was born after I left home."
The querist considered himself sold.

A MAN was tried in the San Francisco Police Court one day last week for killing a hog. He, the defendant, admitted that he stood at one end of a gun and the hog at another—that the gun went off; but the hog didn't, but instead thereof dropped dead. He contended, however, that a hog was not a domestic animal; that the law reads, "a horse, cow, or other domestic animal," but claimed that it applied to dogs, cats, and sheep, and not hogs. The Court held the same opinion, and ordered the complaint to be dismissed.

A SMART BOY.—"Fred," said a little four-year-old boy the other day, "give me a sixpense to buy a monkey!"

"We've got a monkey in the house now," replied the elder brother.
"Who is it, Fred?" asked the little fellow.

"You," was the reply.
"Then give me a sixpense to buy the monkey some oats."
His brother "shelled out."

"SAMMY, my boy, what are the breeches of trust?" said a father to his smartest son.

"What a funny question, pa!"
"Can't you answer it, Sammy?"
"Yes, pa; but I don't like to."
"What a silly boy, come out with it, my son."

"Well, pa, your Sunday trousers and breeches of trust, 'cause you got 'em on tick."

"I DON'T see," said Mrs. Partington, as she came home from school and threw her books into one chair, and his jacket, in another, and his cap on the floor, anything that he didn't get the medal; "I don't see, dear, why you didn't get the medal, for certainly a more meddlesome boy I never knew. But so matter; when the adversary comes round, again you will get it."

Eastern News.

The latest dispatches to the Union say: The weeding out of the Army of the Potomac is going on, occasioned by frauds which have lately been detected. The Chief Quartermaster and the Chief Commissary have been removed. It is rumored that Gen. Hooker has been ordered to Washington; but nothing positively known as to the intention of the Government concerning the chief direction of the army of the Potomac. Joe Johnston assumed command of the rebel army at Dalton, Ga., on Christmas day. General Butler succeeded in liberating 5,000 of the Union prisoners at Richmond. But there the rebel authorities stop. They have suddenly discovered that Butler was once "outlawed" by Jeff Davis, and are horrified at receiving a flag of truce from him. One hundred and thirty shells were thrown into Charleston on Christmas day, doing considerable damage. The army of the Potomac made a slight advance, and is now occupying Culpepper. Grierson is operating successfully against Forrest in West Tennessee and Northern Mississippi. The French are going to blockade Acapulco and San Blas, but will allow the Pacific mail steamers to coal at the former port.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A young woman named Annie Smith attempted to commit suicide by drowning, in this place, on last Saturday morning, while, it is said, laboring under a fit of mental excitement. She was seen rushing frantically from the Yolo House to the river, took off a portion of her clothing, and jumped in; but it seems that she had no sooner touched the water than a reaction took place in her feelings—with the first chill the excitement passed away—and she called loudly for help, naming the one whom she desired particularly to rescue her. A friendly hand was extended to her—whether that of the one called we did not learn—and she was saved. She started the next day for Sacramento, leaving, it is hoped, her sorrows behind.

At a regular meeting of Yolo Lodge No. 81, Free and Accepted Masons, held December 19th, the following officers were elected and appointed for the ensuing year: A. H. Willard, W. M.; C. S. White, S. W.; J. A. Hutton, J. W.; G. W. Parks, T.; D. Schindler, Sec.; Abraham Griffith, S. D.; Louis Cramer, J. D.; S. A. Howard, M.; G. E. Sill, Chas. Warmwood, Stewards; J. B. Hartsough, Chaplin; J. L. Pace Tyler.

PREACHING.—Rev. Mr. Barnes will preach in Knight's Landing to-morrow, (Sunday) at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. He will preach a funeral discourse at 11 A. M., on the death of Mr. George T. Reed, who died of consumption in this place on the night of December 28. Friends are invited to attend.

Mr. TAYLOR will give one of his "Humorous, comical, poetical, original, mirth-provoking, local-hitting," etc., entertainments this evening, in the Union Hotel Hall. Those who are fond of the ludicrous should attend; and we would recommend his entertainment as an excellent antidote for the blues or ennui.

O. D'AVALINE, editor of the Folsom Telegraph, died on Saturday morning last of lung fever, aged 32. He has been sick and confined to his room for a month past.

DISTRICT COURT.—According to adjournment the District Court will hold its regular session at Woodland on Monday next. Hon. J. H. McKune will preside.

COUNTY COURT.—On Monday next the regular term of the County Court will be held by the Hon. I. N. Hoag, at Woodland.

At Washington, Yolo county, on Saturday, a daughter of Justice Hoagland was kicked by a horse over the eye, and severely injured.

ATLANTIC PAPERS.—We received from Stratman & Co. a full file of Atlantic papers and Harper's Magazine for December. (Rather old)

We would call attention to the advertisement, in another column, of Hostetter, Smith & Dean, San Francisco.

A SHOCK of an earthquake occurred in San Francisco at about 2 o'clock on Thursday morning.

THE negro question about riding in railroad cars in San Francisco is settled—they are to occupy a separate car.

The Race.

The long-talked-of race between the celebrated black horse, "Chocaw," and the famous black mare, "Amanda," was run on Tuesday, the 29th inst., the Bay Mare winning by five feet. The race was made to be run on the 24th, and to turn from day to day till run. On Saturday last the respective nags were taken out; after some hours expended in selecting judges, the horses were mounted for a trial at starting; after turning till sun down the race was postponed till Monday, to the disappointment of a very large crowd of attendants, who couldn't see the point—why a race should not be run as much for their satisfaction, as the pecuniary interest of the owners of the nags. On Monday the animals, after a selection of other judges, were trotted out for another trial. After several attempts at a good send off, the mare lost one of her plates, which required the balance of the evening at replacing, consequently the race was postponed till Tuesday. On that day considerable difficulty occurred in selecting judges suitable for both parties, when it was proposed and accepted to run the race with three judges—one at the start and two at the outcome. Everything being prepared to the satisfaction of the owners, and to the few number of visitors in attendance, the animals were again brought upon the track, and, after several attempts, finally got off well together. The mare passed the horse about fifty yards from the pole, and steadily but slowly gaining on him to the outcome, when the judges gave their announcement of the mare having won the race by five feet. Amid terrific yelling, parties were running to and fro for their various amounts won on the result. About five thousand dollars changed hands. Thus ended one of the fastest sprint races ever run in the State, and placing the mare at the head of the list of short horses in California.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A boy named Nicholas Smith, aged 17 years, was accidentally shot and fatally injured on Tuesday afternoon, at about two o'clock, at a lake in Yolo county, four miles from Washington. He and a boy two years younger, named Wm. McDowell, who resides at Washington, had visited the lake for the purpose of shooting ducks. While approaching the water in a crouching position, with trigger cocked, the gun of McDowell was prematurely discharged, and the contents of the barrel struck the right leg of Smith at the knee joint.—McDowell went to the nearest house, which was about two miles off, for assistance. Smith was brought home, but died from loss of blood at about 10 o'clock in the evening. The deceased was the son of Nicholas Smith, watchman on the steamer Queen City. About three years ago another son was drowned in the Sacramento.

A DISPATCH from San Francisco to the Union, dated Dec. 29, says that a party of seven men went out to the western outskirts of the city to eject a man named John McCormick from some land claimed by F. B. Austin. The party removed the fence and were erecting a shanty, when, according to their statements, McCormick threatened to shoot, and drew a pistol. Several shots were exchanged, and McCormick was shot through the head. The wound is probably fatal. Patrick Meagher, who shot McCormick, is under arrest for assault on murder. The others are charged with riot. It also says, that private intelligence contradicts the report of Heenan's defeat, and that he got the best of the fight.

A NEW ROAD.—A fine turnpike is being made from Washington west over the low land of the race course and vicinity to the elevated land some three miles distant. There it will stop for the season, but next year it will be continued across the tules to the Tule House, on the Putah Creek road. This improvement will be beneficial to the farmers of the west.

The colored people of Sacramento celebrated the first anniversary of the President's Proclamation of Amancipation yesterday. A salute was fired in the morning, and service held in the Seventh Street church. In the evening an address delivered by the Rev. M. C. Briggs.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—The body of one Thomas Hodges, a notorious horse thief, was found on Monday night, near Sutter, Amador county. No marks of violence were visible, and a Coroner's jury found that the deceased came to his death from causes unknown.

Hesperian College.

The Christmas Exhibition of this Institution, situated in Woodland, passed off on the evening of the 25th with great eclat. Owing to the size of the audience it became necessary to obtain a larger hall than the College building affords, and accordingly the Union Church was fitted up for the occasion. The stage was tastefully decorated with appropriate furniture, and the walls behind were hung with elegant pictures, among which we noticed a large photographic painting of the college building, a lithograph of the Father of His Country, and an oil painting, life size, of a man who was every inch a man, Andrew Jackson. At 7½ o'clock every seat in the large church was occupied, and many were seeking standing room. The curtain rose and the performance began at a quarter to eight. The exercises consisted of songs, recitation, dialogues, charades, original essays, and orations, interspersed at intervals with music on the melodeon and guitar by the students, and an occasional violin tune kindly furnished by Dr. Downing and Mr. Sibley, of Woodland. During the evening the College Plaindealer, the students' paper, was read by its editors, eliciting warm approbation. It is hard to discriminate and bestow preferences when all "acted well their parts." Without attempting, then, to decide who did best, we can safely say that none did badly; that the exhibition was a decided success; that the parents and friends of the students were well satisfied with their attainments; that Prof. Martin and his lady won many and deserved encomiums, and that everybody voted that the whole entertainment was a successful attempt to make "Merry Christmas" more merry, and the happy holidays more full of sinless joy.

GRAHAM CITY, OWEN'S RIVER.—Prospect of a rush to Owen's River this spring is very great, and not a few are going to that verdant land of promise.—Ranches are being located, towns laid out, mines discovered, and general and speedy preparations made for a settlement of the new El Dorado. A correspondent of the Sacramento Bee says, the climate is as mild and pleasant as in the valley of the Sacramento; soil a deep rich loam, equal to the best around the City of the Plains; water pure and good, and timber in abundance on the banks of Owen's River. About twenty miles from Bishop's Creek, the first settlement south of Aurora, distant about seventy-five miles from that place, is where Graham City is springing into life.

THE NEW YORK MAYOR.—The election of C. Godfrey Gunther as Mayor of New York last month is held there to be a kind of triumph of the better sort of voters. "The Ring"—that is, those who for years have been dividing such spoils as the Common Council and Departments could make, nominated Blunt.—Gunther was put up to break the Ring—he is an old Democratic politician, but was out of favor with both Tammany and Mozart Halls. The Journal of Commerce was the only daily paper that supported him, but in spite of that rather significant fact the people, even the friends of Blunt, profess to feel pretty well satisfied.

ROBBERY.—The store of Sneath & Boardman, in Red Bluff, was robbed on Sunday night last of a small sum of money and various articles of dry goods.—The thief secreted himself in the store, and when he was shut in he made himself a complete survey of what the store contained. Some parties are suspicioned of being implicated, but until further action is taken we refrain from saying anything more. The thief made his escape by opening the iron shutters of a window which is fastened on the inside.

THE steamer Pacific, Saturday night from Victoria, brought 213 passengers, $21,886 60 in treasure from Portland, and $160,000 from Victoria.

Another row had occurred in the Victoria Theatre, in consequence of the intrusion of colored people into the dress circle. Three negroes had commenced suit for damages against Manager Ward for refusing them admission.

HOW THEY TAKE IT IN CHARLESTON.

—A correspondent of the Augusta (Ga.) Sentinel writes from Charleston:

Yankee gunners keep up their practice at Sumter, and day and night punch and hammer away without accomplishing anything. The Confederate flag, despite their efforts, defiantly floats above the ruins. When the siege is raised, if a live Yankee is allowed to get to Sumter he'll make his fortune—picking up old brass and iron. Yesterday morning the iron-clads tried Moultrie, but soon got sick and quit. The bombardment was furious for a while, but after exhausting much ammunition and some time doing nothing, the Monitors skeddaddled. About 25 100-pound Parrott shells were flung into the city to-day. Old Gilmore scattered them promiscuously in the lower part of the city, and it really seemed, from the way in which they were pitched about that he was trying to hit somebody. The City Hall building had a hole punched in one corner and some of the marble cornice knocked away. One struck the telegraph office, and the operators cut stick. One smashed through the roof of a house in Queen street, and several falling in this neighborhood, the frightened denizens "vamosed to the tune of double-quick." Several fell in the vicinity of the banks on Broad street and East Bay, tearing up the streets, smashing window panes, and kicking up the mischief generally. One went crashing through the Mechanics and Planters' Bank; and it is evident, I think, that Gilmore was after making a deposit. Whether he will be regularly "booked," and his currency taken "at par," is more than I can say. Several counting rooms on the wharves were slightly smashed; but during the entire shelling, which lasted from about 9½ to 1 o'clock, no one was hurt.

THE COTTON FOR ENGLAND FOR 1864.

—The Manchester Guardian, in discussing the cotton prospect for 1864, says:

First, that the production of cotton in other countries than the United States of America is steadily increasing, the imports of 1863 exceeding probably those of 1862 by 1,000,000 of bales, thus lessening exclusive dependence upon one source of supply; secondly, that the three countries which have shown the most eager desire to contribute to this result—Egypt, Turkey, and Italy—possess advantages in climate, soil, and facility of access to the English market, which enable them to compete successfully with the Southern States of America, not only in quality, but also in cost of production. The writer is confident that in a few years the coast of the Mediterranean furnish an annual supply of 2,000,000 of bales. Of India he does not take so hopeful a view.

So long as high prices prevail, she may furnish a considerable quantity of cotton; but when this stimulus is withdrawn, and the day of competition returns—as return it will—then, it is though, she will descend to her former subordinate position in the cotton markets of the world. This result, he says, will be owing to the inferiority of her staple, the imperfection of her agriculture, the ignorance of her ryots, the frauds of her middlemen, and the indifference of her rulers.

SHOOTING AFFAIR IN YOLO.—The Union says, a man named James Roster was brought to the county jail on Saturday from Yolo county, charged with making an assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do great bodily harm. Roster's head has been badly cut and bruised.—He has as yet had no examination, but will probably be taken before Justice Hoagland, of Washington, for that purpose to-day. He had been engaged in chopping wood for Charles Julian, who resides five miles south of Washington, but did not board with him. It is said that on Christmas evening Roster went to Julian's house with a double-barreled gun loaded, and Julian supposing that he had come for the purpose of getting up a fight, availed himself of his momentary absence from the room to take off the caps and wet the powder. In the course of a few minutes a fight commenced, which lasted an hour, extended over a quarter of a mile of ground, and in which several shots were fired. Julian had the advantage in the shooting line, as he had kept his own powder dry, while wetting that of his adversary. Mrs. Julian is said to have taken part in the fight in favor of the husband. The result appears to be that Roster was cut on the head with a hatchet, beaten on the head with a gun, arrested on a charge to do bodily harm, and is imprisoned to await an examination. Further particulars are expected.

At the opening of the great Lindell Hotel, in St. Louis, the following occupied a portion of the table:
One hundred dozen quails; 250 turkeys; 40 dozen poultry for salads; 120 gallons oysters; over 1,000 lbs. cake; 150 gallons of ice creams; and 1,000 lbs. Malaga and Ohio grapes. It is said to have been one of the grandest events of the day, eclipsing in splendor the great Russian ball at New York.

A BIG SHODDY BALL IN ST. LOUIS.

The St. Louis correspondent of the San Francisco Alta writes as follows: The big Lindell Hotel having been thrown open to guests about a month and a half ago, a number of citizens of St. Louis have undertaken to give a grand ball in the building on the 25th. It will certainly be a grand affair if the extravagant expenditure of money will achieve that end. Two thousand invitations have been issued. The price of tickets is ten dollars. Ninety musicians have been engaged. Three immense rooms have been set apart for the dancing. The supper will cost $10,000, and immense supplies of champagne, etc., have been ordered for the occasion. The dress makers, hair dressers, milliners, and others, have been busy preparing dresses and frippery for the ball for a month, and the jewelers have sold hundreds of diamonds for the affair. Nothing like it was ever known in St. Louis. Some of the participants are shoddy contractors, and others whose aristocracy is of a very doubtful caste. It is the small talk of the city that the richest dress at the ball will be worn by the wife of a retail liquor dealer, who will vie in gorgeousness with the wife of a livery stable proprietor. Then the wives of horse jockeys, pawnbrokers, retail clothing establishments, etc., are referred to as the intended wearers of thousand dollar dresses, while fabulous sums are named for the value of the diamonds which will flash on this remarkable occasion. Such an affair is the peculiar product of the war, and money made by men who before the war were in very ordinary circumstances. The richest part of the affair is a story that a certain prominent military official, whose rank is considerably higher than a Colonel's, is now taking dancing lessons to enable him to appear well when the ball commences.

BALLY GREEN, one of the Pioneer Stage drivers, was presented, a few days ago, at Virginia, with a splendid brass watch, manufactured by Gillig, Mott & Co., which weighs seven and a half pounds, is four and a half inches in diameter, and two inches thick, with a magnificent brass chain, four feet long, and sixty-five carats fine, together with a fob of polished split leather.

SUICIDE.

Alfred Rasche, of San Francisco, committed suicide at Benicia on last Monday. He was 25 years of age, and enlisted in the army about three weeks since, coming to Benicia, where it was contemplated employing him in the band. On Monday his body was found in a pool of water near the arsenal, under circumstances that showed conclusively that he committed suicide. His friends say that he was always a strange boy, and had in fact been insane by turns for several years. He was subject at times to great depression of spirits, and seemed to be pursued, when thus attacked, by the idea that his mother and sisters wished to take his life by putting arsenic in the bread, and would attempt to baffle their supposed design by collecting all the bread in the house and throwing it into some rubbish hole in the yard. Once or twice he left his home and hired rooms, staying at them for a day or two only. He was a brother of Henry Rasche, at present under trial at San Francisco, upon several indictments.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE Remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties. Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System. The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wanted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged. In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances & derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the oppressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Beware of Counterfeits. Purchase only of reliable dealers, Sold everywhere. HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN, Agents, 227 Montgomery street, (Russ Block), San Francisco.

Dr. Guyott's Improved Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla

Will Cure without Fail Scrofula or King's Evil, Cancer, Tumors, Eruptions of the skin, Erysipelas, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Old Sores and Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Diseases of the Kidneys, Loss of Appetite, Diseases arising from the use of Mercury, Pain in the Side and Shoulder, General Debility, Dropsy, Jaundice, Lumbago, &c.

Dr. Guyott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla put up in the largest sized bottles, contains more of the Honduras Sarsaparilla than any other preparation extant, which is combined with the extract of Yellow Dock, the extract of Wild Cherry and the Balsam of Fir, thus making the remedy more thoroughly efficient than any other Sarsaparilla before the public. At the same time it is perfectly free from ALL mineral poisons, which can not be said of any other of the Sarsaparilla compounds. The Invalid should beware of poisons. Mercury, Iron, Quinine, Potash, Iodine, Sulphur, Arsenic, and many other mineral and metallic poisons enter into and form the active basis of most of the Sarsaparilla and panaceas of the day. Guyott's Compound Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla does not contain a particle of the substances; as any one can ascertain by applying the necessary tests.

These poisons may occasionally remove disease, but they so vitiate the blood and impregnate the whole system with their baneful effects, that the first cold or the first attack of disease, prostrates the patient's strength and subjects him or her to the most excruciating torture, and renders another cure almost impossible and hopeless. Let all poisonous Sarsaparilla preparations alone, and use Guyott's Improved Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which is thoroughly efficacious, perfectly harmless and purely vegetable. All kinds of diseases yield to its genial influence.

Caution.—Beware of counterfeits. All genuine Dr. Guyott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla has the name of JOHN D. PARK, Present Proprietor, Cincinnati, O., on the label.

Remember this fact when buying, all without the name of "JOHN D. PARK, Cincinnati, Ohio," on the label are counterfeits. Sold by all Druggists. HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN, sole Agents for Pacific Coast, San Francisco.

THE Knight's Landing News.

COMING.—An old Sacramentan, who came from New York on the last steamer, tells the Bee that on the other side there is a great desire to emigrate to California. The steamers are all crowded to their utmost capacity, and hundreds are disappointed every departure because they cannot procure tickets.

A PACK train, consisting of forty mules, belonging to George Greene, left Sacramento on the 23d ult., to be taken to Washington Territory for the purpose of packing freight to the Boise River mines.

PATENT COMBINED GANG PLOW,

SEED SOWER AND HARROW.

We have purchased the right this great labor-saving implement for the State of California, and are having a number made in the Atlantic States for this market.

With this combined Machine one man, with six horses, can do the work of three twelve inch plows, besides sowing the grain, and harrowing it in as he proceeds, thus finishing his work in the best manner possible, without being obliged to travel over the plowed ground. This Machine was very thoroughly tested by the farmers of Santa Clara county, where some eighty are now in use; also, by the Messrs. Hensel & Kethley, of this county, and Messrs. Hoppin Brothers, near Cacheville, Yolo county. It is made very substantial; is not liable to get out of order, and being on large truck wheels, the Gang Plow, Seed Sower and Harrow, runs lighter than three plows would, cutting the same amount of land.

We are desirous of having these plows generally introduced throughout the State, and are therefore prepared to offer very favorable inducements to farmers and the trade. The following are some of the names of our customers who have used them for the past two seasons:

Sacramento county—Hensel & Kethley.
Yolo county—Hoppin Brothers, L M Curtis, Caleb Davis, C Travers, A J Scroggins.
