Anti-Slavery Office,
New York, 8 Aug., 1862.

Dear Garrison,

I will take care to give the photographs the ^{benefit} ~~advantages~~ of your good opinion of his work, which, I have no doubt, will be exceedingly gratifying to him.

I have as yet seen no notice in any paper of your address at Williamstown, but the letter-writers have hardly had time to send their reports and get them into print. In The course of a week we shall hear from them, through the religious, if not the political papers. I am curious to see what they have to say.

I don't expect the Herald to print your address, for I am sure it contains nothing that, even by permission, can be made to feed the prejudices of its readers against you. If you had counselled young men not to enlist, or had sought in any way to raise a factious Association to the government; that paper would be eager to print your words, and make them a text for repeating its demand for the imprisonment of all the leading Abolitionists. I wish you would write to the Herald office, telling them to send your M.S. to me.

I want very much to read ~~it~~, and I am very sure that after reading, I shall be anx-ous to print it. I do not suppose that it contains any new views, but nothing from your pen, at this time, upon "Our Country's Visitation," can be unimportant or uninteresting to Abolitionists. As your ^{first} utterance before an Orthodox College, it is of great value, and I want an opportunity to print it. Please, therefore, to drop a line to the Herald office, directing the M.S. to be sent to me.

I enclose a line from the printer of the Standard, in response to your request that he would employ Mr. Mitchell.

Yours, faithfully,
Oliver Johnson
