JUDGE HUTTON A CANDIDATE

When Judge Hutton announced his intentions to be a candidate for reelection as Superior Judge of Los Angeles County, his numerous friends got busy, circulated petitions and had his name placed on the primary ballot. This was done because the Judge was too busy performing his judicial duties to look after the matter.

Judge Hutton is probably best known to the taxpayers of Los Angeles county by reason of the radical reforms he has inaugurated in his method of handling insanity cases. His success in this regard has been recognized by his fellow members of the Superior Court, who have assigned, permanently, to him the handling of this work, which he does in addition to presiding over Department Eleven of the Superior Court.

When Judge Hutton became presiding judge of the Superior Court in May, 1911, the unfortunate people who were charged with being mentally incompetent were being carried through the streets of Los Angeles three or four times a day, before their cases were finally passed upon by court. Those who were slightly deranged, and raving maniacs, men and women, were huddled together in a common vehicle, and brought from the county hospital to the courthouse and then back to the hospital. This was merely for the purpose of arraignment. The day of their hearing, the trip was repeated. The duties of presiding judge included the handling of these insanity cases. It took but one day for Judge Hutton to decide that a radical change was needed. He immediately announced that he would hold a session of the court at the county hospital three times a week, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. This instituted the first open Superior Court in the United States. The hospital authorities, at the suggestion of Judge Hutton, reserved the front porch of the building used for the insane patients for the use of the court. Here the cases are heard quietly, but with little formality. The physicians and members of lunacy commission have materially aided Judge Hutton in this work, before the hearings, talking to the patients, not simply confining themselves to the formal examination in the court rooms.

JUDGE McCORMICK

Judge McCormick who is a candidate to succeed himself as Judge of the Superior Court, has made an excellent record. For the past two years he has served the people on the bench and has always been kind and courteous, but fearless. His object has not been altogether to punish criminals, but he has made a close study of individual cases, especially of first offenders, with the object in view of reforming offenders wherever there was an opportunity. He is a firm believer in the probation system in most cases, but night-time burglars or armed hold-up men, he does not believe, as a general rule are objects for the law's leniency, only in extreme cases.

The probation system has been given a thorough test by Judge McCormick with the result that over 95% of those to whom he has granted probation have made good and not violated their promises. The Judge has always been ready to lend a helping hand to offenders, but at the same time he is as quick to administer severe punishment when he deems it necessary.

Since the inception of the Darrow trial, Judge McCormick has handled the entire criminal business of the county in his court, and yet, with the additional burden of an extra court, his calendar is kept clean down to the minute.

MR. JOHN M. YORK FOR SUPERIOR JUDGE

Mr. John M. York, an eminent young lawyer and son of Judge York, is candidate for Superior Judge. From his knowledge of law and experience gained by the practice of his profession in his father's office, he is well fitted for the position of Superior Judge. From our long personal acquaintance with Mr. York, we heartily recommend him to the colored voters. As judge, he will dispense equal justice. A local East Side paper has the following to say:

"John M. York takes pleasure and pride in the fact that he is a native son of California and that some 25 years ago he went to school in a little chapel on Daly street back of the 2nd Pres. Church, and his memories of East Los Angeles school days are enjoyable. Later he was a student in the Polytechnic and the University of Virginia, but he was destined for the law, and from his earliest days was fed doses of Blackstone and Kent.

He is the son of Judge Waldo M. York with whom he studied and has ever since been connected in practice with a large suite of offices in the Mason block and a leading business at the bar. He now aspires to the office of judge of the Superior Court and, if nominated and elected, he will do honor to the position and mete out prompt even-handed justice to all.

The writer has taken special pains to inquire into his qualifications. One attorney said: "Waldo York is a good lawyer, but John M. is even better than the Judge, which is going some." He is bright, genial, public spirited and progressive. We have been displeased with some of our judges.

If this young man goes on the bench he will give entire satisfaction and we may quote Shakespeare thus: "Now is the winter of our discontent;

Made glorious summer by this son of York."

COL. W. H. HOLABIRD

Col. W. H. Holabird, candidate for nomination to Congress in the 10th District on the Republican ticket, submits his attitude on the tariff question, which he regards as of paramount interest to the nation, as follows:

"The great and continued prosperity of the United States, which exceeds that of any other country in the world by far, is, in a large measure, due to our wise policy of a protective tariff.

No thinking person would argue that this tariff should not be changed with changing conditions and the attendant necessities, for, from the very nature of things, progress in our national life brings about constant changes. However, so important a factor in our national well-being should not be altered without such expert and scientific advice as a Tariff Commission could give, and I, therefore, believe in the maintenance of a Tariff Commission composed of experts in this branch of political economy.

With such information before Congress, the necessary revisions and changes could be safely and expeditiously made and due regard be given to these industries which are entitled to protection; also protecting labor, which is, by far, the most important factor in this whole tariff question. We should deal equitably with the subject, as it relates to the people and industries of the whole nation.

California is enjoying very great benefits from a protective tariff on citrus fruits, olives and other products. These products cannot be grown elsewhere in the United States except in a very limited area on the Gulf of Mexico. We cannot reasonably ask the representatives in Congress, from other states, in the majority of which citrus fruits cannot be grown, to give us the benefit of a high tariff on these products, if we show a desire and willingness to remove the tariff from the products and commodities in which they are interested.

I stand firmly and steadfastly, and I sincerely believe, with a great majority of the people of this great nation, upon the proposition to better tariff conditions in this country."

JUDICIAL CANDIDATES.

We present to our readers in this edition of The Liberator a number of well known judges who are candidates for re-election. In recommending these judges to the suffrage of the colored voters, we are pleased to say that they are spoken of in the highest terms by the colored attorneys. In soliciting the support of the colored voters for these judges, the recommendation of the colored attorneys who practice before them is the best evidence we have of their judicial fairness. We, therefore, trust that they will receive the votes of every Negro voter in the County.

In this connection, it is not out of place for us to say that we have often said, that the judiciary of this County, on the whole, in matters respecting the rights of all the people, is second to none in the country.

JUDGE FREDERICK HOUSER

Among the judges who are candidates to succeed themselves, none are more worthy of the suffrage of the people than is Judge Frederick Houser. His record on the bench has been such as to make him popular with all persons having business in the court. Regardless of the result of litigation, all parties have usually felt that his decisions were just.

His decision in the damage suit brought against the Pantages Theater by Mr. Geo. O. Cochran, for discriminating against him on account of color, was the first time damages were awarded to a Negro in such a case. There have been many cases of this kind tried in some of our local courts, but they were usually side-stepped or thrown out on a technicality. But parties who deliberately violate the law with the hope of escaping punishment for their crimes through technicality, meet with little encouragement in Judge Houser's court. Every person, white or black, who believe in the enforcement of all the laws, will vote for Judge Frederick Houser.

JUDGE JAMES C. RIVES

Whenever the probate court is mentioned, the hearer, whether a member of the bar or an ordinary citizen, the name of Judge Rives instantly suggests itself. This is due to the able and satisfactory manner with which Judge Rives has handled all matters coming before that court; and when the time for election of Judges comes around, no well informed voter entertains the thought of making a change in department Two, over which Judge Rives presides. Immediately the demand for his retention becomes universal. From one of the numerous country papers every one of which is loyally supporting Judge Rives, we quote the following excerpt:

"One of the candidates for superior judge of Los Angeles county who will doubtless receive a heavy vote is Judge James C. Rives, of Department 2, who is a candidate to succeed himself. He has the strong support not only of the attorneys but of those people who have had cases in his department, which handles the probate business of the county. The importance of this office and the necessity for electing a man of experience and ability is shown by the statement that the probate department of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county handles business to the extent of $50,000,000 annually. The amount represented in cases now in process of probate will exceed $300,000,000.

Millions upon millions of dollars' worth of trust money is under the direct control of the probate judge. He has handled many of the greatest estates in the country, some of which are still passing through the court. As many special proceedings are necessary, an immense amount of work is involved, the volume of which grows larger each year. For its population, Los Angeles has the largest amount of probate business of any county in the United States.

Among the large estates handled in this court are the Baldwin, Mullen, de Geysler, Little, Jones, Hellman, Bicknell, Toberman, Van Nuys, Ballerino, Porter, McNally, Whiting, de Groot, Bergin, Bryson, Keating, Eyraud, Meier, and Gilmore. These estates will average over $1,000,000.

MR. CHAS. E. PATTERSON THE MAN

The strength Mr. Chas. E. Patterson's candidacy has developed throughout the 5th Supervisorial District is such that his election is generally conceded by persons who understand the situation. Having faithfully served the people of that district as Supervisor prior to the election of Mr. Pridham, Mr. Patterson is no stranger to the taxpayers. In order to prejudice certain white people of the district against Mr. Patterson, Mr. Pridham is charged with stating that Mr. Patterson, in the event of his election, will give the colored people a square deal at the County Hospital Nurse training school. In due time Mr. Pridham will discover his error in this course. And if the belief that Mr. Patterson will give all the people of the county a square deal at the County Hospital, will defeat him, he will welcome defeat. The feeling of the working white people of the 5th Supervisorial District is strongly against Mr. Pridham. This is undoubtedly due to the same reason that will cost him the Negro vote. The officeholder who will discriminate against the Negro because he is a Negro, will discriminate against the white man because he is poor. Mr. Pridham has forfeited the Negro vote and it will be cast solidly against him. The fact is, Mr. Pridham's defeat is a foregone conclusion.

MR. McCABE GAINS GROUND

The rapid movement of the colored voters toward Mr. McCabe is indeed gratifying. This change of sentiment in favor of Mr. McCabe is due to the fact that the colored voters are beginning to realize the possibility of defeating their object by dividing their strength. Mr. McCabe, like Mr. C. J. Nellis, has done what he could to secure a square deal for all citizens, regardless of race or color. If Mr. McCabe receives the colored vote as he should, he will be nominated at the primaries and elected at the polls.

Should he, by a division of our strength, be defeated at the primaries, it would mean the election of a Lissner candidate at the polls—a calamity that would strike every business interest of the County. If the rights of all the people are to be respected without regard to race, color or condition, the Negro will have to turn out and assist the fair-minded white people in electing H. D. McCabe in the second district, C. J. Nellis in the fourth district and C. E. Patterson in the fifth district. This they will do.

THE COLORED INDEPENDENT POLITICAL LEAGUE REPUDIATED

1360 E. 33rd St, Los Angeles.
Aug. 19, 1912.

Editor The Liberator:—

Dear Sir,

I see by the Times last Saturday that my name was mentioned as one of the organizers and officers of a political club known as The Independent Political League. Permit me to say just here that I know nothing of such a club and that my name was used absolutely without my knowledge or consent. I am taking no stock whatever in politics, I am,

Yours very truly,
Jas. G. Edmonds.

Editor of The Liberator,

Dear Sir:—

Will you kindly announce the fact that the political club organized Friday night last, in my absence and without my knowledge or consent used my name as one of their executive officers. While constantly urging honest and intelligent political organization among our people, I have no sympathy, patience or respect for the Negro resident or adventurer who does politics for cash in hand. Let them work for a living the same as you and I and all other honest Negroes do. What we need and must have here in our city is a political organization of our people which will work for the general good of our race and do their work thoroughly and well without any expense to the white man whatsoever. When this is done we will not only be entitled to, but will receive the representation we deserve the same as all other Americans. Yours for honest politics and racial success,
Chas. C. Flint.

Items of local interest and correspondence from the city by the sea were crowded out this week will appear in next issue.

Mr. W. Whitley will address the Lyceum next Sunday Aug. 24th. Everybody invited.

OUR SALLY IS GONE!

Miss Sally L. Edmonds, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edmonds who died on Sunday, Aug. 11, after a long illness, was a beautiful character. On account of her sweet cheerful disposition, she was the favorite of each individual member of the family. Mentally, she was exceptionally bright, standing well in her classes at school where she was a general favorite.

She was born near Hollywood, Tunica County, Miss., Aug. 18, 1890, and died at her home in Sawtelle, Aug. 11, 1912. The funeral services which were simple and impressive, were held at the family residence and were conducted by Rev. A. H. Cheshire, assisted by Rev. E. W. Kenchen. Mr. John Hall, leader of the Hall Jubilee Singers, sang: "Death Is Only A Dream." Sally requested that Mr. Hall come and sing this song to her before her death, but unfortunately, Mr. Hall came too late so he sang it at her funeral. She was a devoted Christian and died a Christian's death. At Woodlawn Cemetery:

*"In the cold moist earth we laid her,
When the forest cast the leaf,
And wept that one so lovely
Should have a life so brief.*

*Sally thou was't mild and lovely,
Gentle as a little child,
Pleasant as the air of evening
As it floats among the trees.*

*Peaceful be thy silent slumbers,
Peaceful in the grave so low,
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our songs will know.*

*Yet again we hope to meet you
When this day of life is o'er,
And in Heaven with joy to greet you,
Where no farewell tear is shed."*

VOTERS HOLD BIG RALLY

The meeting of the voters of precincts 180 and 183 held a big mass meeting at West 35th and Denker Ave., on the 20th. It was the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of colored voters during this campaign. The Hall was packed to the doors with colored men and women voters. Mr. F. B. Alexander, who deserves much credit for getting up the meeting, presided.
