(Law No. 2 Jan. 7, 1948)

Chapter I. General Provisions

Article 1. The objective of this Law is to eradicate personal the which has served influentially for the formation and maintenance of the Zaibatsu enterprises, thereby promoting a sound development of the Japanese economy on the democratic basis.

Article 2. The term "Zaibabsu" as used in this Law shall mean groups of individuals, who, while having been previously designated as the "desiganted persons," in accordance with the provisions of Article 1, para. 1 of the Holding Company Liquidation Commission Ordiancne, as of the date of enforcement of this Law, belong to the same line of family as classified by the Prime Minister according to relations between desiganted persons by blood, marriage or othersimilar relationship.

The term "Zaibatsu company" as used in this Law shall mean juridical persons or other organizations desiganted by the Prime Minister as being (a) companies whose capitalization as of September 2, 1945, exceeded ¥10,000,000 and 30% or more of whose capitalization has been controlled directly or indirectly by any one of the Zaibatsus; (b) companies with regard to whose capitalization the face value of stocks controlled directly or indirectly by any one of the Zaibatsus exceeded in total ¥10,000,000; or (c) others which have substantially contributed for the formation or maintenance of Zaibatsu enterprises or which have served as influential agencies through which the Zaibatsu exercised its economic controlling influence. (However, those companies which, although coming under (a) or (b) above, have, in fact, never been controlled by the Zaibatsu are excepted from the designation by the Prime Minister.)

Zaibatsu companies prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall be classified, according to their history, economic scale or the degree of influence exercised by the Zaibatsu to each company etc., into direct Zaibatsu affiliates, quasi-direct Zaibatsu affiliates and the Zaibatsu associate companies. The classification shall be designated by the Prime Minister.

The term "restricted companies" as used in this Law shall mean designated companies as prescribed in Article 1-2 of the Imperial Ordinance No. 657 of 1945.

The term "subsidiary companies" and "connected companies" as used in this Law shall mean the subsidiary and connected companies as prescribed in Article 1 of the Imperial Ordinance No. 567 of 1946 (The Imperial Ordinance relating to restrictions etc. on holding of securities by companies.)

The term "official" as used in this Law shall mean persons who hold position of director (TORISHIMARI YAKU), staff member with executive responsibility (GYOMU SHIKKO SHAIN), auditor (KANSAYAKU), or other persons who hold any other positions such as advisor (KOMON) or counsellor (SODAN YAKU) which, regardless of their titles, exercise authority or influence commensurate with or surpassing those of any of the positions specified above.

Article 3. The term "appointees" as used in this law shall mean officials in the Zaibatsu companies who, while their appointments as officials were subject to control of any one of the Zaibatsus, have handled the policy matters of the Zaibatsu company where they belonged representing the interest of the Zaibatsu which controls such Zaibatsu companies.

Appointees prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall be those coming under any one of the following items, However, persons decided as not being the apppointees by the Prime Minister in accordance with the provisions of this Law shall be excluded.

1. Persons who held, prior to September 2, 1945, any position of officials in any one of the Zaibatsu companies.

2. In connection with the stocks issued by the Zaibatsu companies, in case the exercise of their voting rights was entrusted in accordance with the provisions of Article 4, paragraph 4 of the Imperial Ordinance No. 567 of 1946 (including cases where the above provisions shall be applied correspondingly in accordance with Article 17 of the same Ordinance) or of Article 10, para. 3 of the Holding Company Liquidation Commission Ordinance, or in case they were transfered according to Article 10. para. 1 or 2 of the Holding Company Liquidation Commission Ordinance, persons who, while having held, between September 3, 1945 and the time that the first trusting or transfer took place, the positions of officials in the direct Zaibatsu affiliates or the positions of or positions exercising the authority or influence higher than the standing directors in the quasi-direct Zaibatsu affiliates or in the Zaibatsu associate companies.

Chapter II. Zaibatsu family members.

Article 4. Any persons who were in the same family census register with persons belonging to the Zaibatsu on the day that the latters were designated in accordance with Article 1, para. 1 of the Holding Company Liquidation Commission Ordinance (hereinafter called the Zaibatsu family members) who hold, on the day of enforcement of this Law, any position of officials in any of the Zaibatsu or restricted companies designanted as belonging to any one of the Zaibatsus by the Prime Minister, or in any of their subsidiary or connected companies which have been defined as such as of the day of the enforcement of this Law, shall retire therefrom within thirty days from the day of enforcement of this Law. In case they do not retire in spite of the above provisions, they shall forfeit their positionson the thirty-first day.

In the case prescribed in the preceding paragraph, those in the positions of executive staff members shall become staff members of unlimited liability without executive power.

The Zaibatsu family members shall, for ten years from the day of enforcement of this Law, be excluded from the positions of officials in companies prescribed in para. 1 above and be prohibited from conducting any activities which belong to the competence authorized only for officials in such companies.

The provisions of Article 258, paragraph 1 of the Commercial Code (including cases to which the above provisions be applicable correspondingly) shall not be applied to any cases in which the Zaibatsu family members have retired, due to their resignation or expiration of their term of office, from the positions of officials in companies prescribed in para. 1 above.

Chapter III. Appointees

Article 5. Any appointees who hold, on the day of enforcement of this Law, any position of officials in any of the Zaibatsu or restricted companies designated by the Prime Minister as belonging to the one and same Zaibatsu with whom the appointees have been connected or in any of their subsidiary or connected companies which have been defined as such as of the day of enforcement of this Law shall, in case they do not file the application prescribed in Article 6, para. 1 or Article 7. para. 1 below retire therefrom within thirty days from the day of enforcement of this Law, and in case they, while having filed such application, are notified, in accordance with the provisions of the same paragraphs, by the Prime Minister as being the appointee, retire therefrom within thirty days from the day of the notification. In case they do not retire in spite of the above provisions, they shall forfeit their positions on the thirty first day.

Any appointees shall, for ten years from the day of enforcement of this Law, be excluded from the positions of officials in companies prescribed in the preceding paragraph and be prohibited from conducting any activities which belong to competence authorized only for officials in such companies.

Provisions of paras. 2 and 4 of the preceding Article shall be applied correspondingly with the case mentioned in para. 1 above.

Article 6. Any persons prescribed in any one of item of Article 3, para. 2 above who can produce satisfactory evidence that they come under one of the following items may apply, attached with documentary evidences, to the Prime Minister for approval of their not being the appointees.

1. That the Zaibatsu company, wherein the subject person held, prior to September 2, 1945, the position of official, had not been, during the period when he served as such, subject to the control of the Zaibatsu of the one and same lineage or of any Zaibatsu company designated as belonging to such Zaibatsu.

2. That, in view of the circumstances under which the subject persons have been appointed as officials or in view of their actual activities in executing their duties and powers as officials, they would not be considered as the appointees without causing gross injustice.

The Prime Minister, upon acceptance of the above applications shall forward them to the Appointees Examination Committee and give, based upon the findings of the Committee, the decision of approval or disapproval of the application.

Any persons prescribed in para. 1 above who hold, on the day of enforcement of this Law, any position of officials in any of the Zaibatsu or restricted companies designated by the Prime Minister as belonging to one and same Zaibatsu with whom they have been connected or in any of their subsidiary or connected companies which have been defined as such as of the day of enforcement of this Law shall, in case they intend to file the application prescribed in the preceding paragraph, file such application within thirty days from the day of enforcement of this Law.

Article 7. Besides with the cases prescribed in para. 1 of the preceding Article any persons prescribed in item 1 of Article 3, para. 2 who held the positions of officials excepting those of or those exercising the authority or influence higher than the standing directors in the quasi-direct Zaibatsu affiliates or who held the positions of officials excepting those of the highest responsible officials in the Zaibatsu associate companies or any persons prescribed in item 2 of the same paragraph may, based upon the reason that they satisfy all the conditions prescribed in the following items (with regard to persons prescribed in item 2 of the same paragraph, subitem shall be excluded), apply for the approval of the Prime Minister of their not being the appointees.

a. That the subject person is not a spouse, parent, child, brother or sister including a spouse of such person, of persons belonging to the Zaibatsu or their family members.

b. That, with reference to any appointment to the position of official which the subject person occupied, there has never existed an arrangement with the Zaibatsus or the direct Zaibatsu affiliates that their previous approval should be obtained, or that should such and arrangement have never existed, the subject person, on the occasion of his appointment, did not in fact, obtain the previous approval of the Zaibatsu or the direct Zaibatsu affiliates.

c. That the subject person has, in fact, never exercised the authority or influence commensurate with or surpassing, in the case of his having been an official in the quasi-direct Zaibatsu affiliates, that of the standing director, and, in the case of his having been an official in the Zaibatsu associate companies, that of the highest responsible official.

d. That the subject person has never held concurrently the positions of officials in Zaibatsu companies exceeding three positions in one time.

The Prime Minister, upon acceptance of the above applications, shall forward them to the Appointees Examination Committee and give, based upon the findings of the Committee, the decision of the approval or disapproval of the application.

Any persons prescribed in para. 1 above, in case they intend to file both of the applications based upon the same paragraph and based upon the preceding Article, shall file those applications simultaneously.

Article 8. In case whole officials who have been authorized to represent the company have to retire in accordance with the provisions of Article 4, para. 1 or of Article 5, para. 1, the companies concerned, if it is necessary, may, based upon agreement of majority of such retiring officials, file the application with the Prime Minister requesting that one of such officials selected from among themselves be approved to retain his position temporarily for the term not exceeding six months from the day of enforcement of this Law.

Besides with the case.prescribed in para. 1 above, the companies concerned, in case they are essential to the reconstruction of the national economy, may file-applications with the Prime Minister for retaining persons in their positions of officials, whose services are indispensable for management of such companies and whose replacements are unobtainable within the limited term of period which, in no way, exceeds one year.

In the above case, if companies succeeding the companies where the persons were approved, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, to retain their positions of officials, the companies concerned, in case the successor companies are essential to the reconstruction of the national economy and in case services of such persons are indispensable for management of the successor companies and their replacements are unobtainable may file the application with the Prime Minister requesting to approve such persons to assume the positions of officials in such successor companies within the period for which they had been previously approved to retain their positions.

The appointees may file their applications with the Prime Minister for being approved to retain or to assume the position of liquidator in companies under liquidation for the term not exceeding one year whose renewal, however, may be applied in the case of necessity.

Upon acceptance of the applications prescribed in the preceding four paragraphs, the Prime Minister shall forward them to the Appointees Examination Committee and give, based upon the finding of the Committee, the decision of approval or disapproval of the applications.

In the case prescribed in para. 1 above, the official whose retention was requested may, in case approval be granted, retain his post during the approved period and may, should be disapproved, retain his position until such a disapproval be notified.

Article 9. With reference to applicaions of the provisions of Article 4 or 5, the successor companies of those prescribed in Article 4, para. 1 or Article 5, para. 1 shall be considered as those prescribed in such Article. However, the period within which officials affected have to retire shall be thirty days from the day of decision prescribed in para. 2 below or the day of notification from the Prime Minister of their being the appointees and the day on which they will forfeit their positions shall be thirty-first day from the day of the decision prescribed in the same paragraph or the day of the notification.

The "Successor companies" as used in this Law shall be those companies to be decided specifically by the Prime Minister, in accordance with the findings of the Appointees Examination Committee, as being substantially identical with companies prescribed in Article 4, para. 1 or Article 5, para. 1 based upon facts such as stock-holding percentage by such companies, succession of major part of business, assets, customers and personnel and of the business title of such companies.

Any companies which received investment from the companies prescribed in Article 4, para. 1 or Article 5, para. 1 or to which a part or the whole of business of such companies were transfered shall apply to the Prime Minister for being decided, in accordancr with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, as to their being the successor company or not, in case they do exist at present, within thirty days from the day of enforcement of this Law and, in case such investment or transfer takes place newly hereafter, within thirty days from the day that such investment or transfer takes place.

Any persons, who accepted any title such as advisor, counsellor, participator (SANYO) or others which may be taken as substantially commensurate with the status of officials, shall, so far as application of the provisions of Articles 4 and 5 are concerned, shall be regarded as having assumed the position of official.

Article 10. Regarding the designation provided for in Article 2, para. 2 or 3 any interested person who deems that the designation is based upon wrong fact may apply to the Prime Minister for the cancellation or alteration of such designation within thirty days from the day of the designation.

The Prime Minister, upon acceptance of the application prescribed in the preceding paragraph, shall forward it to the Appointees Examination Committee and give, based upon the findings of the Committee, the decision of approval or disapproval of the application.

In case the application prescribed in para. 1 above be submitted, "the day of enforcement of this law" prescribed in Article 5, para. 1 and Article 6, para. 3 shall, in connection with application of the said paragraphs, be read as "on the day of announcement of decision by the Prime Minister of the application prescribed in Article 10, para. 1."
